OPENING TIP

» Georgia plays a ranked opponent for the fourth-straight game when it travels to Gainesville to take on No. 20 Florida. This marks the first time in school history the Lady Bulldogs have opened SEC play with fourstraight ranked opponents.

» The Lady Bulldogs rank third in the SEC (13th nationally) in scoring defense, holding opponents to 52.4 ppg. Georgia also ranks third in field-goal percentage defense (33.3 percent) and has held 15 of 16 opponents to 40 percent or below shooting.

» Georgia is one of the most unselfish teams in the nation, averaging 17.5 assists and just 13.3 turnovers per game -- a ratio that ranks first in the SEC and ninth in NCAA women's basketball. Senior point guard Marjorie Butler leads the league in assist-to-turnover ratio with 71 assists and 22 turnovers this season.

» UGA finished non-conference action with a 12-1 record, which tied for the third-best start by an SEC head coach in his or her first season at a program. Pokey Chatman (13-0, LSU in 2004-05) and Tom Collen (13-0, Arkansas in 2007-08) are the only two to have better starts through their first 13 games.

» Senior guard Shacobia Barbee leads the Lady Bulldogs in scoring in conference play, averaging a double-double with 11.7 points and 11.7 rebounds per game. Barbee ranks in the top-5 in the SEC in rebounds (3rd with 9.3 per game), steals (4th with 2.5 per game) and assists (5th with 4.8 per game).

Collowing a thorough search of the women's basketball community, Greg McGarity, the UGA J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics, and Dr. Carla Williams, UGA's Deputy Director of Athletics, realized that the best choice to become the Georgia Lady Bulldogs' next head coach was approximately 300 yards from their offices.

On Sunday, April 12, Joni Taylor, a member of the Georgia Basketball Staff for the past four seasons, including the last three as associate head coach, was appointed just the second full-time head coach in the program's illustrious history.

"After a national search, it became evident that Joni was the perfect person to lead our program," McGarity said. "Joni brings the intangibles that parallel success -- character, experience and a tireless energy to lead our program. We are confident she will do a tremendous job leading Georgia Basketball into the future."

"I am extremely honored to be the next coach at Georgia," Taylor said. "I want to thank President Morehead, Greg and Carla for trusting me with the program. I have been fortunate to have learned under a great coaching tree and have great mentors along the way. I want to thank Coach Landers for all that he has done for me since I have been under his tutelage. The trust and responsibility he gave me definitely prepared me for the next step in my career but more importantly his friendship means the world to me."

Taylor sports 13 seasons of coaching experience at the Division I level, the last seven within the Southeastern Conference. The Meridian, Miss., native joined the Georgia staff in 2011 and spent one season as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach. Prior to arriving in Athens, Crenshaw coached at LSU from 2010-11, at Alabama from 2008-10, at Louisiana Tech from 2005-08 and at Troy from 2002-05.

During each of those coaching stops, Taylor has displayed the ability to both sign premier prospects and then help those recruits develop into highly successful players.

In the Lady Bulldogs' four signing classes since Taylor's arrival, Georgia's 16 scholarship newcomers arrived on campus with a combined 18 high school state titles. That group also featured seven standouts ranked among the nation's top 100 prospects and included a quartet of state Player of the Year honorees.

Taylor helped Alabama and LSU land top-5 individual prospects in the classes of 2010 and 2011, respectively, and also spearheaded the Crimson Tide's recruiting class for 2010 that ranked among the nation's top 10. She helped Louisiana Tech ink the 2006 Miss Basketball for both Alabama and Mississippi and Troy sign two future Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year honorees.

Taylor succeeds Andy Landers, the only previous full-time women's basketball coach in the program's history. Landers announced his retirement on Monday, March 16 after 36 seasons. Landers compiled a 862-299 record at Georgia, making him one of only seven college basketball coaches -- women's or men's -- to record 850 wins at a single NCAA Division I school. The other coaches on that list are Pat Summitt (Tennessee), Jim Boeheim (Syracuse), Mike Krzyzewski (Duke), Geno Auriemma (Connecticut), Dean Smith (North Carolina) and Adolph Rupp (Kentucky). Landers compiled a career record of 944-320 in 40 seasons as a collegiate head coach, including an 82-21 record in four years at Roane State College from 1975-79.

"Georgia Basketball is in great hands," Landers said. "Coach Crenshaw (now Taylor) is a person who has deep-rooted values and morals, which are two of the cornerstones of Georgia Basketball's success. Her appreciation for the total development of young women is second to none and her past experiences have prepared her for the challenges ahead. I am confident she will do extremely well. Joni has an excellent basketball IQ, is a tremendous recruiter and is a terrific people person, but above all else, she is someone who young people will aspire to play for and enjoy that same experience."

Taylor herself was a highly sought after basketball prospect. She was the 1997 Gatorade Player of the Year for Mississippi after leading Meridian High to a 67-7 record during her junior and senior seasons. She also won three state titles in track and field and was selected as the school's Homecoming Queen.

At Alabama, Taylor was a significant contributor to four teams that reached post-season play — the 1998 and 1999 NCAA Tournaments and the 2000 and 2001 WNITs. She was a two-year starter and scored 716 points, grabbed 555 rebounds and blocked 103 shots, which is No. 4 among the Tide's career leaders.

Taylor also was a standout off the basketball court. She was recognized as one of the most influential African Americans on the Alabama campus in 2001, was named to the SEC's Community Service team for women's basketball in 1999, 2000 and 2001 and was awarded a post-graduate scholarship from the SEC for her community service record. She received her bachelor's degree in Education from Alabama in 2002.

Taylor married Darius Taylor, a former assistant coach for the South Carolina women's basketball team, on Aug. 1, 2015.

GEORGIA NOTEBOOK

56-Straight Is Nation's Best

» The Lady Bulldogs' 56-game home non-conference win streak ranks as the top mark in NCAA DI women's basketball. Georgia's last loss at home vs. a non-conference team came in 2008 -- a 56-44 loss to Xavier on Dec. 30, 2008. Georgia has gone eight-straight seasons with an undefeated home non-conference record.

Lady Dogs Sharing The Ball

» Lady Bulldog senior guard Shacobia Barbee is the current active career steals leader (6th nationally) in the Southeastern Conference with 251 through three and a half seasons, including 40 so far during the 2015-16 campaign — a total that is fourth in the SEC. She is averaging 2.5 steals per game (No. 4 in SEC) and has recorded two or more steals in 15 of 16 games this season.

The Marietta, Ga., native currently leads the Lady Bulldogs in blocked shots with 14 and is averaging 6.3 points per game to go along with 5.1 boards per contest.

Dogs Getting Defensive

» Georgia's strong start to the season is largely due to the team's strong defensive play. The Lady Bulldogs rank near the top of the SEC in scoring defense, field-goal percentage defense and 3-point field goal percentage defense. No. 16 Texas A&M became the first team to shoot 40 percent or better against the Lady Bulldogs this season as Georgia has held 15 of 16 opponents below the 40-percent mark.

The 10 assists by Barbee represented a career high and also marked the first time since 2010 a Lady Bulldog had 10 or more helpers in a single game.

Seasoned Seniors Ready To Lead

» Looking to lead Georgia this season will be a strong group of seniors, which has a combined 13 seasons of experience on the Lady Bulldogs' roster. UGA returns four of five starters off of last season's team -- all four entering their senior seasons on the Georgia campus. Tiaria Griffin, Merritt Hempe, Shacobia Barbee and Marjorie Butler have combined for 223 starts and have played in over 350 contests during their careers at Georgia entering this season. Joining the four starters is senior Terryuana Godwin, who is entering just her second season on the Lady Bulldogs' roster.

Lady Bulldogs Faced Strong Non-Conference Slate

» The Lady Bulldogs faced five 20-win teams and seven schools that advanced to postseason play last season during the 2015-16 non-conference schedule.

» Georgia played five teams that competed in the postseason a year ago – Stetson (23 wins, NIT) on Nov. 15, Georgia Tech (19 wins, NIT) on Nov. 22, Mercer (20 wins, WBI) on Dec. 2, Seton Hall (28 wins, NCAA) on Dec. 6 and Furman (19 wins, WBI) on Dec. 8.

In 36 years, he led the Lady Bulldogs to 31 NCAA Tournaments, 20 Sweet 16s, 11 Elite Eights and five Final Fours. Under Landers' direction, Georgia averaged just over 24 wins per season and recorded 20 or more wins in 32 seasons.

Barbee Back From Injury

» The injury-plagued 2014-15 edition of Georgia women's basketball featured a costly injury to preseason All-SEC second-team selection Shacobia Barbee on Jan. 25 against Tennessee. Barbee underwent surgery on her fractured right distal fibula on Jan. 28 and missed the rest of the 2014-15 season.

Barbee is back in 2015 and looks to lead the Lady Bulldogs. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native has a stellar resume that features a second-team All-SEC selection and SEC All-Defensive Team selection during her sophomore season in 2013-14. Barbee became the first player in program history to lead the Lady Bulldogs in average points (12.2 ppg), rebounds (7.9 rpg), assists (3.6 apg) and steals (2.6 spg). GEORGIA NOTEBOOK

Three New Faces On UGA's Roster

» Georgia welcomes three newcomers to this season's roster -- guard Shanea Armbrister, forward Caliya Robinson and guard Amber Skidgel. Below are brief bios on each of the newcomers:

Caliya Robinson

A native of Marietta, Ga., Robinson was ranked as a top-50 prospect by Fullcourt.com (No. 19), ESPN Hoopgurlz (No. 33) and Prospect Nation (No. 44). She was also named first-team All-State by the Georgia Sports Writers Association and second-team All-State by the Atlanta Journal Constitution at the conclusion of her junior year. Known as a fierce rebounder and shot-blocker, Robinson averaged 11.2 rebounds and 6.6 blocks per contest to go along with 13.0 ppg during her senior season.

Amber Skidgel

Skidgel was named honorable mention All-State for Class 6A by the Georgia Sports Writers Association last season. She played at Hebron Christian her first two years of high school. There, Skidgel scored 932 points in and was named second-team All-State for Class A as a sophomore in 2013 after averaging 21.7 points and 5.8 rebounds per game. Skidgel, a native of Bethlehem, Ga., averaged 12.2 points and 3.8 rebounds per game last season while helping Archer to a 29-4 record and a runner-up showing in the Georgia 6A State Tournament. She connected on 74 3-pointers while shooting 43.0 percent from behind the arc.

Shanea Armbrister

A 6-2 guard-forward, she was named third-team All-America by the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) after averaging 18.9 points, 8.4 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game for Darton's Lady Cavaliers in 2013-14. Nationally, she ranked No. 23 in scoring average and No. 9 in free throw percentage (84.4). Armbrister scored in double figures in 29 of 32 games, with 17 20-point games, 10 double-doubles and a triple-double of 21 points, 12 rebounds and 13 assists against Central Georgia Tech. She poured in a season-high 31 points against Southern Crescent Tech and collected a season-best 14 rebounds versus Georgia Perimeter.

All In The Family For Engram

» Georgia sophomore forward Mackenzie Engram returns after a solid freshman season, placing on the SEC All-Freshman team a year ago. Engram finished fourth on the team in both scoring and rebounding, averaging 7.7 ppg to go along with 4.5 boards per contest last season. Engram played in all 31 games for the Lady Bulldogs, earning seven starts during her rookie campaign. It's also interesting to note that Engram is the sister of Ole Miss All-SEC tight end Evan Engram, who is in his junior season for the Rebels.

UGA A Top Women's Hoops Program

» The Lady Bulldogs have boasted one of the top women's basketball programs in the nation over the last three decades. During head coach Andy Landers' 36-year tenure, Georgia ranked No. 2 nationally in both NCAA Tournament appearances (31) and weeks ranked by the Associated Press (522). Georgia is also one of three DI basketball programs to post a winning record every season since women's athletics became under the auspices of the NCAA with the 1981-82 season.

Lady Bulldogs End 2014-15 Regular Season With Win At Florida

GAINESVILLE, Fla. --- Tiaria Griffin scored a game-high 17 points to lead the Georgia Lady Bulldogs to a 52-45 win over Florida on Sunday, snapping an eight-game losing streak in the process.

Marjorie Butler added 11 points and Krista Donald grabbed 11 rebounds for Georgia in the regular-season finale. Cassie Peoples' 13 points paced the Gators.

In a contest eerily similar to a loss to the Gators two and a half weeks ago in Athens, Georgia led at the half and built a double-digit advantage in the second stanza before Florida surged ahead in the closing minutes. This time, the Lady Bulldogs responded with an 8-0 run to regain control.

The Lady Bulldogs enjoyed their largest lead of the day at 37-25 with 14:41 remaining. Florida methodically chipped away and then used a 9-0 covering just 92 seconds to grab a 43-41 lead, their first since 9-8.

Mackenzie Engram and Griffin nailed consecutive 3-pointers to put Georgia back on top, and Donald followed a Butler miss with the shot clock running down to put the Lady Bulldogs up 49-43 with 2:54 left.

Florida pulled within 49-45, but Butler canned both ends of a one-and-one with 17 seconds left and another free throw with seven ticks on the clock to secure the victory.

Taylor's Staff Takes Shape

» Head coach Joni Taylor added two new faces to her coaching staff this season. Karen Lange, who has more than two decades of playing and coaching experience was named the associate head coach, while WNBA veteran and former Rutgers star Chelsea Newton was brought on as an assistant coach. Meanwhile, Robert Mosley, who has spent the past five seasons on Andy Landers' staff will stay on as an assistant coach on Taylor's staff. Rounding out new additions to this year's staff is Jon Bollier, who returns to Georgia after spending the last two seasons as an assistant coach at Belmont. Bollier, who was on Landers' staff. .from 2010-13, serves as UGA's Director of Player Personnel.

Talented Duo Signs With Georgia

» Head coach Joni Taylor announced in November the first two signees of her head coaching career. Taylor and the Lady Bulldogs signed two talented players during the early signing period -- post player Kortney Eisenman and forward Stephanie Paul. Both are entering their senior seasons of high school and will join the Lady Bulldogs as collegiate freshmen at the beginning of the 2016-17 campaign. Below are brief bios on each player:

Stephanie Paul

Paul is the No. 32-ranked prospect in the country according to Prospects Nation and the No. 20 forward prospect overall according to ESPN.com's Hoopgurlz.

"Stephanie is athletic and gamey," Joni Taylor said. "She is a versatile player who can play a number of positions for us. She can score faced -up, off the bounce, and with her back to the basket. Stephanie is a high energy player that runs the floor well and is an aggressive rebounder. I am looking forward to watching her stretch herself. She has the ability to be an overall really good player for us and in this league."

In addition to her Player of the Year honor this past season, Paul was also named to the Class 3A All-State team by the Florida Association of Basketball Coaches as she tallied her 1,000th career point. She led the Seahawks to a 22-4 overall record and their third-straight appearance in the Florida Class 3A regional final. She averaged a double-double for the year, scoring 17.2 points per game to go with 11.2 rebounds per contest. In all, Paul tallied an impressive 15 doubledoubles during her junior campaign.

Kortney Eisenman

A native of Columbus, Ohio, the 6-foot-3 Eisenman is entering her senior season at Upper Arlington High School.

"I am extremely excited for Kortney to become a Lady Bulldog," Joni Taylor said. "Kortney will give us size and strength at the forward position. She has a high basketball IQ, is a great passer and can step off the block and score as well. There are a lot of things I could say about Kortney and her basketball abilities, but what has impressed me the most is her work ethic and desire to do whatever it takes to be the best she can be."

Eisenman has a long list of accolades which includes an Ohio Division I Associated Press Central All-District Second Team selection this past season after averaging 11.1 points per game to go along with 8.2 rebounds and 3.5 blocks per contest. Her 59.8 percent shooting percentage was the second-highest single season average in school history.

Scouting Florida

» No. 20 Florida enters Thursday's game with a 14-2 overall record and have reached the AP top-25 for the first time since the 2008-09 season. The Gators swept SEC Player of the Week honors this past week with Carlie Needles winnning Player of the Week and Eleanna Christinaki earning Freshman of the Week honors. Florida is coming off an 85-65 win against Ole Miss and defeated No. 12 Tennessee, 74-66, last week in Knoxville.

A Changing Identity -- Lady Bulldogs Go Up-Tempo

» Part of Georgia's success this season depends on the team's ability to embrace its new identity under its new head coach. According to Taylor, the Lady Bulldogs will carry on Landers' hard-work mentality, but look for UGA to step up the tempo a little in the new system, especially with the new four-quarter format and the new timeout rules (each team now has just four timeouts instead of five) in women's college basketball.

"It's going to be more up-tempo," said Taylor. "Where things are going to be the same is that we are going to play extremely hard. We are going to be a really good defensive team. The identity of putting a top-notch brand on the floor and a product that our fans want to come and support, that will remain the same."

Making A Difference In The Community

» Giving back to the community has always been a pivotal part of being a Georgia Lady Bulldog. Players and staff members routinely participate in off-campus events ranging from serving at elementary schools to the team's annual Bike Build, which raises funds to purchase bicycles and safety helmets for worthy children. The Lady Bulldogs then assemble those bikes before they are distributed. Close to 300 bikes have been built and given away over the past eight years.

This season, the Georgia Lady Bulldogs have adopted the fifth-grade class at Stroud Elementary in Athens. Players and staff members will visit their fifth-grade class throughout the year. In fact, the Lady Bulldogs greeted Stroud Elementary students this past August and hand delivered backpacks during the school's Meet Your Teacher night.
