Game 14: LSU 68, Florida 65

January 2, 2015 * Gainesville, Fla. * O'Connell Center

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Florida scored the first 14 points of the game and looked nearly flawless during the opening minutes of Friday evening's Southeastern Conference opener against LSU in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. The Lady Tigers, however, patiently roared and emerged with a 68-65 decision despite the 17-point effort from Gator redshirt senior Kayla Lewis, who was joined in double-figures by sophomore Ronni Williams (14 points) and redshirt junior Carlie Needles (10 points).

Florida seemingly set the tone for the game the minute they stepped foot on the court, opening the contest with a 14-0 run. The Gators converted seven early Tiger turnovers into 11 of those points and capped the run with an old fashioned three-point play from Cassie Peoples followed by a Brooke Copeland trey. LSU managed to put up its first points of the game at the 14:47 mark in the first half.

The Tigers came roaring back in the latter half of the first frame, however, earning their first advantage of the game at the 1:48 mark off a DaShawn Harden layup to finish off an 18-2 scoring streak. A pair of Lewis free throws pulled the Gators ahead, 30-28, with just 35 seconds remaining, but LSU's Raigyne Moncrief responded with a last second layup as the two teams entered the locker room tied at 30.

The second half was a back-and-forth battle, featuring seven lead changes. The Tigers seized control once Harden hit a corner three at the 8:41 mark, putting the visitors ahead, 53-48. LSU jumped out to its largest lead of the game, 59-52, following an Annie Pedersen jumper with 4:33 remaining in the game.

The Gators were able to pull within one when Peoples grabbed an offensive rebound and kicked it out to Needles who nailed her second three-pointer of the game with 29 seconds left, making it a 64-63 game in favor of the Tigers.

Harden put the Tigers back up by three, 66-63, after two made free throws at the 27-second mark, but two January Miller free throws with 16 seconds remaining reduced the LSU lead to one once again.

With time winding down, Florida was forced to foul and sent Harden to the line where she went two-for-two with 14 seconds on the clock when she capped her game-high 23-point performance and sealed the win. The Gators were unable to score on their final possession, giving LSU the final victory.

Key Moment:

LSU's DaShawn Harden nailed two free throws to give LSU a 66-63 lead with 14 seconds remaining. The free throws came after a Carlie Needles 3-pointer that brought Florida within one.

Numbers of Note:

- The Gators opened the game forcing seven turnovers and built a 14-0 lead through the first six minutes of play.
- UF led by as many as 15 points with 12:17 remaining in the first half.
- Florida forced 24 LSU turnovers, resulting in 16 points
- UF scored 36 points compared to LSU's 24
- There were nine lead changes and three tied scores.

Quotes from the Court - UF Head Coach Amanda Butler:

'I really admired LSU's toughness tonight and the way they kept their composure with how we started the game. I think that shows great leadership and they certainly had that tonight. We're obviously disappointed with the opportunities that we had, and then having the critical breakdowns that we did. Defensively, we just didn't defend the three point line very well against someone (DaShawn Harden) who is a great shooter. We're on this SEC ride now, and we've got real quick turnarounds and we've got figure out what we did wrong and correct it to get ready for the next one. We can't hang our head, pour or cry, because we know the next team is going to present the same amount if not more challenges.'

- Tie for the third-best 18-game start in program history, trailing only the 16-2 record of the 2008-09 and the 2000-01 clubs.
- Be UF's first win playing as a ranked team since March 22, 2009, when the then-No. 22 Gators defeated Temple, 70-57, in the first round of the 2009 NCAA Tournament held in Storrs, Conn.

- The individual honor is the first for Needles.
- This was the second time this year Christinaki has been recognized as the league's rookie of the week.

What a Difference a Year Makes!

- It took the Gators 16 games this season to record their 14th victory this season and surpass last year's entire 13-win total.
- UF's win at Ole Miss on January 10 was the team's 14th victory of the year.

What a Run!

- After a season-opening loss at Temple, Florida won its next 12 games, a run that tied for the second-longest in program history.
- The streak began with an 82-72 win against No. 6/7 Florida State on November 16 and ended with a 76-70 loss to No. 8

Freshman guard Eleanna Christinaki was the only other Gator to reach double figures, as she posted a stat line of 11 points, five rebounds and two assists.
- How It Happened
- After the Gators raced out to an early lead, Georgia took over and held a nine-point edge (19-10) by the end of the first quarter. A 7-0 run by UF—which featured a layup from Williams, a three from Christinaki and a layup by Simone Westbrook—cut the deficit to two, but the Bulldogs eventually took a 33-22 lead into the halftime locker room.

- Although UF trailed by as many as 21 points late in the third quarter, it staged a furious rally to get back into the game.
- Florida pulled within five points inside the final 30 seconds of play before the Bulldogs trumped its comeback efforts, as Georgia converted 11-of-14 free throws in the final minute.

Gator Watch

- Ronni Williams, a preseason Second Team All-SEC performer, is UF's leading rebounder (7.6 pg) and is No. 2 for scoring at 10.5 ppg.
- In SEC games, Williams is averaging a double-double: 10.0 points and 10.8 rebounds per game - tied for the second-most in league games!
- She has recorded six double-doubles this season (11 in career), including three straight during early November
- She became the first Gator to record three consecutive double-doubles since Jennifer George posted four in a row from Dec. 4-20, 2012.

- The other run came during her sophomore year (2013-14) against Troy (11 pts), Saint Francis (12) and Tennessee State (10 pts).

- Prior to the January 3 game against Mississippi State, Carlie Needles had started 25 consecutive games, as well as in 47 straight games she had played.
- She did not start vs. Mississippi State due to a back injury in the prior game, but played a team-high 28 minutes and responded with season and team-high 17 points.

Quick Study

- During the days leading up to UF's SEC opener against Mississippi State, sophomore Haley Lorenzen sat down with assistant coach Shimmy Gray-Miller (who oversees the post players development with assistant coach Murriel Page).
- The two watched game clips following the morning shoot around, with Gray-Miller's complete emphasis on offensive rebounding.
- Lorenzen took the extra study session to heart.
- The result was a career-high-tying seven offensive rebounds against the taller, No. 8-ranked Bulldogs.

STOP! THIEF! Wait - no, don't stop!

- Junior newcomer Simone Westbrook is a huge reason why the Gators lead the SEC in steals (all games & SEC games) this season.
- The crafty guard leads the team in thefts and ranks No. 3 in the league (all games) for steals!
- Westbrook has had at least one steal in every game except one (vs. Arkansas State).
- She's had a career-high six steals in four games this year.

And then there were 2

- Sophomore Haley Lorenzen and senior January Miller are the only two Gators who have scored in every games this season.
- Miller almost left the list twice: first when she was scoreless at Ole Miss (Jan. 10) until making two free throws with 2:13 remaining in the game ... and again against Georgia by making one of two free throws with 3:10 left in the third.
- Junior Ronni Williams has scored in every game she has played, but missed the December 20 contest against Saint Francis because she was resting after having her wisdom teeth extracted.

20-20 Vision

- Last year not one Gator scored 20 points in a single game (yes, that is correct).
- Through the first 11 games this season, FIVE different Gators scored at least 20 points:
- Ronni Williams (21 vs. Florida State), Eleanna Christinaki (21 at Wisconsin), Haley Lorenzen (20 vs. Ball State), Cassie Peoples (20 at Wisconsin) and Tyshara Fleming (20 vs. Saint Francis).

Game 1: Temple 97, Florida 91 November 13, 2015 * Liacouras Center * Philadelphia, Pa.

Senior Cassie Peoples scored 18 points, junior newcomer Simone Westbrook added 14 and Florida nearly erased a 20-point deficit but its comeback fell short in a 97-91 season-opening setback against Temple at the Liacouras Center Friday evening.

There were 56 free throw attempts and 49 personal fouls called during the game and it was the Owls who took advantage of some of the new rules implemented in women's basketball this season.

The hosts converted 28-of-35 from the line compared to the 12-of-21 effort by the Gators, who shot 52.2 percent (35-67) from the floor during the game.

Free throw differential aside, Florida rallied from down 84-64 with 7:21 remaining in the game and got as close as three points, 92-89, with 24 seconds remaining.

The Gators seemed to have a real chance at the comeback after Westbrook dropped in a floater that had UF within six points, 86-80, with 3:31 on the clock.

The Owls worked the shot clock and Feyonda Fitzgerald, who finished with a game-high 32 points, scored underneath before collecting a steal and Tanaya Atkinson, who added 20 points, converted the fastbreak layup and pushed Temple's lead back to 10 points, 90-80, with 2:48 to go. Peoples missed underneath for the Gators and Fitzgerald corralled the rebound.

Junior newcomer Tyshara Fleming then stole the ball, as the Temple bench was assessed a technical foul. Peoples made both free throws and the Gators had the ball with 2:26 remaining and down eight, but turned the ball over.

Neither team could connect offensively for the next minute until Fleming knocked down a free throw with 1:35 on the clock. TU followed with a pair from the line before Fleming scored under the basket. Westbrook stole the ball and found Fleming, who had the Gators within five, 92-87, with 61 seconds remaining.

Temple again worked the shot clock and after a miss with 29 seconds, Westbrook added a layup and the Gators were with three with 24 seconds left.

The Owls converted 5-of-6 free throws in the final 24 seconds to seal the decision.

Six different Gators scored during the furious span, with three newcomers leading the way. Redshirt-freshman Isis Young's first collegiate points came from beyond the arc and ignited a 25-8 spurt that began as a 16-2 march. Westbrook scored six points during the entire rally. Fleming came off the bench for an impressive game that resulted in eight points – five during the rally, five blocked shots, six rebounds, two steals and two assists in 18 minutes.

Westbrook led the run with six points, while Peoples added five, Brooke Copeland contributed a three-pointer and Ronni Williams converted one free throw.

Good Start by Florida, Better Finish by Temple

Florida led 22-19 after the first quarter and used an 8-2 run to start the second, as the Gators assumed a 30-21 lead with 8:27 remaining in the opening half. Carla Batchelor nailed back-to-back three-pointers and Haley Lorenzen put back a tough inside bucket during the spree.

Temple slowly chipped away at its deficit and with the Gators holding a 38-32 advantage ripped off 16 straight points and ended the half on an 18-2 march to take a 50-40 halftime lead.

Junior Ronni Williams posted her second consecutive double-double to lead Florida past Kennesaw State, 84-57, in a non-conference victory Saturday evening.

The Gators (2-1) used their size and quickness to create easy baskets inside, both on the drive and in the post, helping them outscore the Owls (1-3) by 44 points (60-16) in the paint. Florida also converted its season-high 24 offensive rebounds into 19 second-chance points.

Williams posted a game-high 14 points—which came on a steady 7-of-14 shooting—and snared 10 rebounds to collect her seventh career double-double.

Three other Gators joined her in double figures. That trio was led by sophomore forward Haley Lorenzen, who scored 12 points and made five of her 10 field goal attempts. Redshirt senior guard Cassie Peoples and junior center Tyshara Fleming finished with 11 points apiece for the Gators. In addition to her career-best scoring night, Fleming pulled down eight rebounds.

How It Happened

After falling behind by four points in the opening three minutes, the Gators rattled off a 12-2 run, with six of those points coming from sophomore guard Dyandria Anderson, to take an 18-12 lead at the 3:17 mark of the opening frame.

Hitting 10 of their first 17 shots from the field helped the Gators keep pace with the Owls' solid offensive output in the opening quarter and start of the second.

The Owls hung around for the majority of the second quarter, keeping the deficit to single digits until the closing four minutes of the second quarter, when the Gators hit their stride and closed the half by making five of their final six attempts. That sharp shooting allowed Florida to take a 48-34 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Following a brief run by Kennesaw State, aided by an uncharacteristic UF scoring drought in the first four minutes of the third quarter, the Gators pulled away for good, never letting the lead shrink to less than 13 points after the midway point of the third.

From there, Florida would lead by as many as 27 points on three different occasions before the final buzzer sounded.

News and Numbers of Note

- Florida posted its largest margin of victory (27 points) since beating Southern, 78-49, on Dec. 21, 2014.
- UF reached its highest point total (84) in a home game since last season's 92-64 win over Charleston Southern on Nov. 25, 2014.
- Twelve different Gators scored a point in tonight's win.
- Florida racked up season highs in total rebounds (51), offensive rebounds (24), steals (15) and forced turnovers (25).
- Ronni Williams recorded consecutive double-doubles for the first time in her career
- At the 8:55 mark of the third quarter, Williams converted a layup to score her 600th career point
- In just 12 minutes of action, Tyshara Fleming posted a career-high 11 points, topping her previous high of eight points (Nov. 13, at Temple).
- Haley Lorenzen scored in double figures for the eighth time in her career, with her last double-digit effort coming at Texas A&M on Feb. 22, 2015. All but two of her 12 points came in the first half.

Game 4: Florida 99, Savannah State 34 November 24, 2015 * O'Connell Center * Gainesville, Fla.

Behind an outstanding defensive effort and yet another barrage of points in the paint, Florida notched its third consecutive victory, routing Savannah State, 99-34.

The Gators held the Lady Tigers to just 28.6-percent shooting and forced a season-best 39 turnovers, 22 of which were the result of steals. Florida converted those miscues and takeaways into 49 points, tallying 24 on fast breaks. Mostly the result of layups off of turnovers and fantastic interior passing, UF outscored SSU 58-22 in the paint.

Junior Ronni Williams and junior January Miller scored a game-high 16 points apiece for UF, which posted the largest margin of victory in the Amanda Butler era that began with the 2007-08 season and was just four shy of tying the all-time program record. Williams also recorded a season-high three blocks and snared 10 rebounds for her third consecutive double-double.

Game 5: Florida 85, Ball State 79 November 27, 2015 * Coors Events Center * Boulder, Colo.

A number of significant individual performances and clutch free throw shooting propelled the Gators to a thrilling 85-79 victory against Ball State in the first game of the 29th Omni Hotels Classic played at the Coors Events Center on Friday evening.

Florida trailed by as many as seven points, 77-70, with 3:22 remaining before ending the game on a 15-2 run to win its fourth consecutive game and earn a spot in Saturday's championship against host Colorado.

Sophomore Haley Lorenzen scored a game and career-high 20 points, hitting 9-of-12 from the field that included several outside jumpers.

Junior Simone Westbrook sparked the Gators off the bench with a career-high 17 points, as she converted 3-of-3 from beyond the arc, as well as all four free throw attempts. During the final 3:22 of the game, Westbrook scored seven points, including consecutive scores that featured a three-pointer and a scoop layin after Carlie Needles stole an inbounds pass and dished to Westbrook who had the Gators with two points, 77-75.

Needles, a redshirt senior from Highlands Ranch, Colo., approximately 46 miles from Boulder, scored all of her 13 points during the first half en route to a season-high scoring output. She also finished with a game-high four steals and a pair of assists.

Junior Ronni Williams finished with 12 points for her fourth double-figure scoring game of the season and 36th of her career.

Sophomore Dyandria Anderson had a stellar all-around game and flirted with a triple-double, recording nine points, 10 assists and eight rebounds, all of which were career-highs. It was the first time a Gator has dished double-figure assists since Brandi McCain handed out 11 against Kent State on Dec. 29, 2001.

Anderson also was clutch from the free throw line down the stretch for the Gators, who converted a season-best 23-of-26. Anderson hit all four of her attempts from the line in the final eight seconds to seal the victory.

How it Happened

The game was tight throughout and featured 10 lead changes and eight tied scores. The first half deadlocked at 45. Florida began the second half on a 9-2 spurt and took its largest lead of the game, 52-45, with 6:51 remaining in the third quarter.

Ball State charged back and tied the score on two different occasions in the third quarter, the second time as late as 25 seconds remaining. Westbrook, however, nailed a three-pointer with seven ticks left and the Gators carried a three-point lead into the final frame.

The Cardinals charged out to start the fourth quarter. After Lorenzen knocked down a 12 footer, BSU went on a 13-3 run over the next 5:23 and took a 77-79 lead with 3:22 remaining.

Lorenzen again hit a tough jumper with 3:01 remaining to stop the BSU spree and spark a 9-0 Gator run.

Anderson came up with a defensive board and found then found Westbrook on the other end where she nailed a three-pointer and had the Gators within two, 77-75, with 2:36 on the clock.

Anderson again limited BSU to one shot as she corralled her sixth defensive board. She also provided the assist to Lorenzen, who was the recipient of Anderson's great inside pass.

BSU's scoring drought continued, as Nathalie Fontaine, the Mid-American preseason conference player of the year who finished with a team-high 16 points, missed inside, but got the rebound and the Cardinals called a timeout. Lorenzen stole the inbounds pass and Westbrook was fouled with 28 seconds remaining. She knocked down both tries and Florida took an 81-77 lead.

Renee Bennett cut UF's lead to two with a layup and BSU quickly fouled Anderson, who sank both free throws with eight seconds left that gave UF an 83-79 advantage. The Cardinals again missed and had to foul Anderson, who had come up with the rebound. Anderson made both from the line to close the game's scoring.

Game 7: Florida 72, South Alabama 60 December 1, 2015 * Mitchell Center * Mobile, Ala.

Carlie Needles scored a game-high 15 points, sophomore Dyandria Anderson notched her first double-double of her career and the Gators overcame a sluggish start to win earn a 72-60 victory against South Alabama at the Mitchell Center Tuesday evening.

Tonight's win, which was Florida's sixth straight, represented the 199th career victory for UF Head Coach Amanda Butler, who is in her 11th year overall on the sideline

Florida trailed the entire first half and was within one points six times in the first half but couldn't manage to take the lead, as South Alabama took a 34-33 halftime lead.

Ronni Williams, who finished the game with 14 points and 12 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season and ninth of her career, scored the first four points of the third quarter and gave the Gators their first lead of the game and they never trailed again, as Anderson tacked on two more points as part of that initial run of the frame.

The teams traded scores for the majority of the third quarter and South Alabama was within two points on three occasions, the latest with 34 seconds left.

That's when Simone Westbrook converted a slashing layup ignited a 21-9 run that gave the Gators a 70-54 lead with 2:35 remaining the fourth quarter and Florida won its third consecutive road game in a five-day span that covered two different states.

Second Quarter Momentum

Florida picked up the pace in the second quarter, thanks to nine points from Needles, as the Gators hit 7-of-16 shots during the frame and held a 13-6 rebounding edge

Viktorija Dimaite hit an inside jumper in the paint with three seconds remaining in the half to end the scoring.

The Gators struggled in the first quarter, when they shot just 21.7 percent (5-23) from the floor and trailed 20-12 to the Jaguars, who hit 50 percent of their shot attempts.

Double-Doubling Their Pleasure

- Dyandria Anderson recorded the first double-double of her career, finishing the night with 13 points and 10 rebounds
- Ronni Williams finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the year and ninth in her career
- Last time two Gators had a double-double in one game was on Feb. 21, 2013 against Vanderbilt – Jennifer George (13 points, 11 rebounds) and Sydney Moss (15 points, 10 rebounds)

Quotes from the Court – UF Head Coach Amanda Butler

"I think the road caught up with us a little bit. There's been a lot of talk about how many games we've played close together and on the road. We learned a great lesson about mental readiness. I think physically we were ready but we didn't come out of the gates like we needed to, but we did win. To shoot as poorly as we did from everywhere and still outbounced them – 23 offensive rebounds – that's definitely a positive. To outbounce them in the fashion that we did, honestly, we the story of the game for us."

Numbers of Note

- Florida won the rebounding battle, 57-35, including 23 offensive boards.
- UF shot 30.8 percent in the first half, 45.7 percent in the second and 37.8 percent overall

Game 9: Florida 91, Wisconsin 75

December 10, 2015 * Kohl Center * Madison, Wisconsin

Florida's guards combined for 75 points and guided the Gators to a 91-75 road win against Wisconsin at the Kohl Center Thursday evening.

The victory didn't come easily, however. Wisconsin jumped out to a quick nine-point lead and held a one-point halftime advantage.

The Gators used a 28-9 run from the end of the first half into the third quarter – a span of 6:06 – that flipped a five-point deficit into a 14-point advantage, 67-53.

UW battled back with an 8-3 run and got within four points, 77-72, with 5:48 remaining in the game.

Simone Westbrook, who finished with a career-best 18 points to accompany six steals, five rebounds and four assists, halted the run with a bucket and Ronni Williams, who totaled four points with four rebounds before fouling out, hit a tough jumper inside and Florida was back up eight with just under five minutes to play.

Freshman Eleanna Christinaki scored a game and career-best 21 points, as she hit 7-of-9 from the field, including her only three-point attempt, and 6-of-8 free throws.

Cassie Peoples hit a season-best 20 points on 7-of-13 shots, including all five free throw tries.

Senior January Miller added 10 points that included the 800th of her career.

How It Happened

Florida scored the final four points of the first half to cut its deficit to one, 44-43, and carried that momentum into the second half where the Gators scored the first eight points and took a 51-44 lead.

After a three-pointer from Cayla McMorris, Florida continued its march when Peoples converted a three-point-play that started a 14-6 spurt and the Gators extended their lead to 67-53 with 4:19 left in the third quarter.

Florida carried a 70-62 lead into the fourth quarter, where Wisconsin staged a comeback early, getting within five points before Florida stepped up at the free throw line where the Gators scored their final eight points of the game.

Overall, UF hit a steady 21-of-27 from the line.

Numbers of Note:

- Florida took its first lead of the game on January Miller's three-pointer at the 8:40 mark of the third quarter (47-44)
- The Gators trailed at halftime (44-43) for the fourth time this season.
- It marks the fifth time in program history the Blue and Orange have competed in Wisconsin.
- Tonight's win was Florida's first-ever over the University of Wisconsin.
- Thursday night's contest extended the Gators' winning streak to eight games -- the first eight-game stretch since the 2013-14 squad won nine straight.
- Tonight's win marks the fourth triumph for UF outside of Gainesville and the third true "road" win on the season.
- Florida's guards combined for 75 of UF's 91 points.
- Wisconsin shot 54.8 percent (17-31) in the first half, the best in a half by a Gator opponent this season
- UW's 44 first-half points were the second-most by a UF opponent this year (Temple had 50)

Game 10: Florida 79, Robert Morris 52

December 13, 2015 * Stephen C. O'Connell Center * Gainesville, Fla.

Florida won its ninth consecutive game on Sunday and the result was never in doubt. The Gators led from start to finish, stifling Robert Morris with their high-pressure defense in a wire-to-wire 79-52 victory at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

For the fifth time this season, Florida forced its opponent to commit at least 24 turnovers. The defense also flustered Robert Morris' shooters, as UF held the Colonials to 17-of-47 shooting (36.2 percent), marking the fifth time this year its opponent shot below 37 percent.

Three Gators—Dyandria Anderson, Eleanna Christinaki, Haley Lorenzen—scored at least 12 points.

Christinaki led the trio with a team-high 13 points, her third consecutive 13-plus-point outing. Lorenzen snared a team-best eight rebounds, while Anderson dished out a game-high five assists.

How It Happened

Florida's defense was the prevailing theme of the day, and it created the team's lead through the first quarter.

The Gators forced six turnovers in the final four-plus minutes of the opening frame, building a five-point edge (14-9) by the end of the quarter. Although Robert Morris turned in an efficient second quarter, the Gators made seven of their nine attempts, including a perfect 3-of-3 shooting mark from distance. Consecutive threes by Carlie Needles and Cassie Peoples in the final minute of the stanza stretched the UF lead to 11 points (36-25) as the intermission.

A pair of triples by Dyandria Anderson provided the Gators with all the momentum they needed to close out the victory.

The first came at the 8:20 mark of the third quarter, which gave Florida a 15-point advantage (40-25). Anderson's next trifecta forced Robert Morris to burn a timeout in an unsuccessful attempt to halt a 9-0 spurt that became a quarter-ending 17-5 run.

The Gators would lead by as many as 31 points before the final buzzer sounded.

News and Numbers of Note

- The nine consecutive victories is tied for the fourth longest in program history.
- This is UF's first nine-game win streak since the 2013-14 club (Nov. 30-Jan. 9) posted a 15-game run for the program's longest winning streak
- The Gators have won nine of their first 10 games for the only the eighth time in program history and the first time since starting the 2008-09 campaign with a 15-1 record
- Florida has scored at least 70 points in all 10 of its games this season—it had eight such outings in the entire 2014-15 campaign
- Florida forced Robert Morris to commit a season-high 24 turnovers
- The Gators collected 15 offensive rebounds for the eighth time this season
- Florida converted 19 free throws, marking the fifth time in the last seven games it sank 19-plus freebies

Game 11: Florida 122, Saint Francis 65 (GATOR HOLIDAY CLASSIC)

December 20, 2015 * Stephen C. O'Connell Center * Gainesville, Fla.

Points came early and often for the University of Florida women's basketball team on Sunday (Dec. 20) afternoon, when a pair of significant 20-year-old school records fell in a 122-65 victory over Saint Francis in the first round of the Gator Holiday Classic.

The Gators scored 30 of the game's first 32 points, eventually going on to score 70 points in the first half and shattering the previous UF record for points in a half. The 70 points were also the most by a team in any half of a game in the history of the O'Connell Center, topping the previous record of 65 points set by the Gators against Lynn University back on Feb. 16, 1995.

Florida's 122 total points broke the previous school record of 112 points, which it set against Lynn and at Florida Atlantic back on Jan. 11, 1995.

Five Gators logged double-digit scoring efforts. That group was highlighted by junior center Tyshara Fleming, who scored 20 points, her highest total in a UF uniform. Sophomore forward Haley Lorenzen posted 16 points for her fifth double-digit scoring game of the year, and it also marked the first time this year she's reached double figures in consecutive games.

Cassie Peoples dropped 12 points on 5-of-10 shooting to score in double digits for the sixth time this season, a figure that leads the team.

How It Happened

Florida scored the game's first 15 points and knocked down nine of its first 12 baskets to race out to a 21-2 lead before the halfway point of the first quarter.

The defense was stellar as well. Through the first 8:26 of the opening frame, Saint Francis missed all 14 of its field goal attempts and were forced into 10 turnovers before making its first basket.

Later in the half, following a steal and 3-point play by junior guard Simone Westbrook, senior guard Carla Batchelor finished a layup to make it 66-26, breaking the O'Connell Center record for points in a half.

At the 2:41 mark of the fourth quarter, sophomore guard Brooke Copeland sank a pair of free throws to score the 112th and 113th points of the game to break the school's single-game scoring record.

News and Numbers of Note

- In NCAA Division I records published prior to the start of the 2015-16 season, Florida's 70 first-half points tied the 16th-highest total against a Division I opponent in NCAA history
- UF reached the 100-point mark for the 22nd time in program history, and for the first time since it scored 105 points in a rout of Saint Francis on Dec. 17, 2013
- Florida forced a season-high 40 turnovers, marking its highest total since forcing 43 against Saint Francis back on Dec. 17, 2013
- The Gators also set a season high with 25 assists, their largest output in that category since dishing out 29 helpers against Saint Francis on Dec. 17, 2013
- Three of the five Gators who scored in double figures had at least 10 points at the half—Haley Lorenzen (10 points), Carla Batchelor (10 points), Tyshara Fleming (11 points)

Game 13: Florida 93, UCF 79

December 30, 2015 * Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena * Jacksonville, Fla.

Freshman Eleanna Christinaki just missed a triple-double and the Florida outscored UCF 34-17 in the third quarter en route to a 93-79 victory in the Southeastern Conference-American Athletic Conference Challenge held at Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena Wednesday evening.

In the Gator's non-conference finale, January Miller scored 15 points and led a very balanced offensive attack for UF, as five players scored in double-figures, with Christinaki adding 14 points, a career-best 10 rebounds and a career-high nine assists. Ronni Williams and Haley Lorenzen recorded 13 points each, while Cassie Peoples ignited a cold-shooting Gator team early in the second quarter and she finished with 11 points for Florida which won its 12th consecutive game.

Florida hit just 30 percent of its shots in the first half, but converted 53.7 percent in the deciding second. The Gators also sank 9-of-21 from the three-point arc, with Christinaki (1), Carlie Needles (2), Miller (3) and Peoples (3) each hitting from deep.

In the other game of Wednesday's SEC-AAC Challenge, No. 8 Mississippi State defeated No. 20 South Florida, 68-58.

How It Happened

UCF built a 22-15 lead over the first 10:42 of the game, but it was all Gators the rest of the way.

After calling a timeout just 42 seconds into the second period, Florida ripped off a 17-4 run that flipped a seven-point deficit into a 32-26 lead.

Zykira Lewis, who finished with a game-high 28 points, hit consecutive three-pointers and tied the game at 32 for UCF, before Cassie Peoples responded with a trey for the Gators and Ronni Williams ended the half with one free throw and Florida carried a 36-32 lead into the locker room.

UF managed to sink just 30 percent of their shots during the opening 20 minutes, while the Knights started off blazing and cooled off to a 39.5 percent mark by the end of the half.

The Gators scored the first five points of the second half and after another three-pointer by the Knights never looked back.

Florida outscored UCF 34-17 in the third frame that was highlighted by a 14-0 run with scores from six different players as the Gators extended their lead to 62-41 with 2:43 left in the third period.

During the commanding third quarter, eight Gators scored, paced by seven points inside from Haley Lorenzen.

UCF rallied in the fourth quarter and outscored UF, 30-23, but the Gators held on and earned their 12th straight victory after a season-opening loss. The streak is tied for the second-longest in program history.

Tonight's Gator Win:

- Is UF's 12th consecutive victory.
- Improved UF's season-opening record to 12-1 which is the sixth time in program history the Gators have won 12 of their first 13 and the first time since 2008-09 squad ripped off a 15-1 record to start the season before incurring its second loss of the year.
- Tied for the second-longest winning streak in program history.
- Capped UF's record in the month of December with a perfect 7-0 record.
- Marked the fifth time in program history the Gators ripped through the final month of the calendar unscathed.

Game 15: Florida 74, #12/11 Tennessee 66

January 7, 2016 * Thompson-Boling Arena * Knoxville, Tennessee

With their frontcourt saddled with foul trouble and their head coach not with the team, the Gators staged what could be considered an improbable, 74-66, victory against No. 12/11 Tennessee at Thompson-Boling Arena Thursday evening.

With assistant coach Shimmy Gray-Miller stepping in on the sideline for head coach Amanda Butler, who was not with the team because of a family emergency, the Gators showed the grit and toughness of their absent leader by defeating the Lady Vols for just the fourth time in the 52-game series history and for just the second time in Knoxville.

Individual Stat Line of the Game:

- Freshman Eleanna Christinaki: game-high 18 points, game-high 8 assists, 2 turnovers and 6 rebounds

How it Happened – A Quarterly Update:

Fourth Quarter:

- Ronni Williams, Eleanna Christinaki and Carlie Needles (3) hit field goals during a 7-0 run over a 49-second span and the Gators turned a one-point deficit, 58-57, into a 64-58 lead with seven minutes remaining.
- The teams traded baskets and with the Gators holding a four-point lead, Carlie Needles drilled her fifth three-pointer of the game that gave UF a 69-62 lead with 3:16 to go.
- UF had a defensive stop, but turned the ball over on its ensuing possession.
- UT's DeShields canned a long jumper with 2:15 on the clock and Needles went down with a cramp on the play and went to the bench with the Gators holding a 69-64 lead.
- Williams came back with a bucket inside for a seven-point UF advantage with 1:50 on the clock and the teams continued to trade scores the rest of the way.
- Stat of the Quarter: Florida outscored Tennessee, 21-13, in the final frame, when the Gators shot 69.2 percent (9-13) from the floor and UT managed just 28.6 percent (6-21)

Third Quarter:

- Gators used a 7-0 run over a 50-second span late in the period and took a 50-49 lead with 1:39 remaining; Needles and Brooke Copeland hit three-pointers, while Christinaki converted one free throw
- An 8-0 run cut UF's deficit to one, 40-39, with 5:54 left in quarter; also within one at 5:16, 42-41, after a tough offensive rebound putback by January Miller.
- leading scorer and rebounder Williams picked up her fourth foul at the 9:14 mark
- second-leading scorer and rebound Haley Lorenzen picked up her fourth foul at 3:38
- Third-leading rebounder Tyshara Fleming picked up her fourth foul at the 3:00 mark of the period; fouled out with 30.1 seconds left.
- Florida has outscored its opponent in the third quarter 14 times in 15 games this year
- Stat of the Quarter: Florida outscored Tennessee, 24-18 and tied the game at 53 entering the fourth quarter.

Second Quarter:

- Florida won a low-scoring second quarter, 13-10.
- Gators opened the quarter on a 8-0 run and got within one, 25-24. Scoring during that run was by Miller, Needles (3), Christinaki and Lorenzen (1).
- Carla Batchelor's offensive rebound putback tied the game at 29 with 5:17 remaining in the quarter.
- The Gators committed six turnovers that resulted in two UT points, an improvement from the opening frame.
- Stat of the Quarter: Tennessee shot a mere 11.8 percent from the floor in the second quarter, while UF outrebounded the taller Lady Vols, 15-14.

First Quarter:

- The Gators turned to their defense and Christinaki, who scored seven more points and got UF within six with 11 seconds remaining. UT, however, got the last shot and nailed a three for a 25-16 lead at the end of the period.
- Stat of the Quarter: UT converted nine Gator turnovers into 11 points

Game 17: Georgia 71, #20/21 Florida 61

January 14, 2016 * Stephen C. O'Connell Center * Gainesville, Fla.

The No. 20/21-ranked Gators fought for all 40 minutes, but cold shooting was too much for them to overcome in a 71-61 loss to Georgia at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center on Thursday night.

The Gators shot just 34 percent (23 of 68) from the field and only made 10 of their 22 attempts at the free throw line in the loss.

Redshirt senior guard Cassie Peoples scored a team-high 15 points, while junior forward Ronni Williams finished with a solid all-around game, logging 12 points and team highs in rebounds (nine) and assists (four). Freshman guard Eleanna Christinaki was the only other Gator to reach double figures, as she posted a stat line of 11 points, five rebounds and two assists.

How It Happened

After the Gators raced out to an early lead, Georgia took over and held a nine-point edge (19-10) by the end of the first quarter. A 7-0 run by UF—which featured a layup from Williams, a three from Christinaki and a layup by Simone Westbrook—cut the deficit to two, but the Bulldogs eventually took a 33-22 lead into the halftime locker room.

Although UF trailed by as many as 21 points late in the third quarter, it staged a furious rally to get back into the game.

Down 46-25 with 3:28 left in the third quarter, Peoples and Haley Lorenzen scored 13 of Florida's next 14 points to make it an 11-point game with 8:55 remaining in regulation. A corner three from Peoples brought the crowd to its feet at the 6:08 mark, as her triple chopped the deficit to single digits for the first time since the 1:05 mark of the second quarter.

Florida pulled within five points inside the final 30 seconds of play before the Bulldogs trumped its comeback efforts, as Georgia converted 11-of-14 free throws in the final minute.
