Kubura, who led Florida State in kills (345) and kills/set (3.05), was joined among the offensive leaders by Horton, who capped off her season with 319 kills (2.82 kills/set). They are the third set of teammates under head coach Chris Poole, to tally 300 kills in the course of the season, joining Jekaterina Stepanova/Visnja Djurdjevic (2011) and Nicole Walch/Elise Walch (2013).

The duo combined for 664 (44.9%) of the team's 1,478 kills as they helped Florida State finish with at least a .250 combined hitting percentage for the sixth consecutive season (.253—2016).

AMONG ACC'S BEST HITTING PERCENTAGE UNITS: Florida State enters the NCAA Tournament with the third-best hitting percentage in the Atlantic Coast Conference and 40th-best hitting percent in the nation after posting at least a .225 hitting percentage in 21 of 29 matches this season.

The Seminoles, who twice enjoyed a .400 hitting percentage, recorded a season-high .457 attack percentage in a three-set win over league rival Miami in the league opener on Sept. 23.

Florida State was represented by two individuals, Mara Green and Milica Kubura, among the top 10 hitting percentage leaders in the ACC.

Green, with 222 kills in 431 total attempts, led all ACC hitters with a .374 attack percentage as she ranks 28th among the nation's best hitters entering the tournament. She closed out the regular season by eclipsing a .300 attack percentage on 20 occasions, including a season-best .857 attack percentage in a three-set win over Little Rock.

The fifth-year senior solidified her status as the best individual hitter in the league after posting a .722 attack percentage (14k-1e-18ta) in a four-set win over Clemson (Nov. 23) in the final week of the regular season.

Kubura capped off the regular season eighth among ACC players in hitting percentage after converting 345 kills in 758 total attacks, committing 94 errors for a .331 hitting percentage. The Belgrade, Serbia, native has posted at least a .300 hitting percentage in 18 matches this season.

Like Green, Kubura put together her most efficient match of the season, and her career, against Clemson. The hard-hitting junior, who drove home 18 kills on 24 swings, finished with a .750 attack percentage. Kubura and Green set Florida State program history as they became the first Seminole tandem in the rally scoring era to post at least a .700 hitting percentage against a league opponent in the same match.

OWNING THE BACK ROW: Florida State libero Cecilie Woie has left her mark on the program's rally scoring records this season. Woie, who enters the weekend leading the team with 446 digs, has recorded the 10th most single-season digs in the rally scoring era. Woie surpassed Zrinka Tomic's 2006 mark (424 digs) in the final week of the regular season when she combined for 43 against Clemson (Nov. 23) and Georgia Tech (Nov. 25).

Woie topped the 400-dig mark in a single season for the first time in her career due in large part to seven 20-dig performances over the course of the season. The Alsvag, Norway, native established her match-high in digs (29) after a pair of key performances on the road at both Notre Dame (Oct. 30) and Duke (Nov. 18)—both resulting in Seminole victories.

Woie's seven 20-dig outings are the most in a single-season in the rally scoring since Summer Weissing closed out the 2004 campaign with six. Woie now stands one away from tying Weissing and Katie Mosher for the sixth-most 20-dig outings (eight) in the rally scoring era.

The Alsavg, Norway, native teamed with Katie Horton to form one of the best back row tandems in Florida State history. The duo of Woie and Horton, who has notched 364 digs in 2016, became the fifth in the rally scoring era to record at least 350 digs in a season.

CHRIS POOLE • HEAD COACH • NINTH SEASON

Entering his ninth year at Florida State, head coach Chris Poole has established the Seminoles as fixture in the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Top 25 and among the elite programs in the nation as he has rejuvenated a program that has become a national contender year in and year out.

When Poole inherited the Florida State volleyball program in the summer of 2008, he took over a team that had failed to reach the 20-win plateau in five-straight seasons and hadn't been to the NCAA Tournament since 2002. It was a program looking for answers; a program looking to get back to the winning ways it had grown accustomed to in the 1980s and early '90s.

However, since the beginning of the 2009 season, when Poole began overseeing the scheduling process, the Seminoles have gone head-to-head with 35 non-conference opponents that were ranked in the top 25 of the AVCA polls. By facing those upper echelon programs, Poole has established Florida State's schedule as one of the most difficult in the nation for the last seven years. According to richkern.com the Seminoles strength of schedule has ranked seventh, eighth and fourth in succession in each of the last three seasons.

By the close of the 2015 season Poole further cemented his name among the best coaches in the sport as he led the Seminoles to at least 25 wins for the fifth consecutive campaign. Along with surpassing 200 wins in his Florida State career Poole climbed to seventh among active coaches in NCAA history with 761 career wins.

The 2015 season, which culminated in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at in-state rival Florida, was highlighted by the five-member senior class which included Caroline Dadowski, Laura Dadowski, Karlie Hauer, Mercedes Vaughn and Nicole Walch. Under the direction of Poole, that quintuplet capped off one of the best four-year runs in program history, brandishing a 109-23 overall record, including a 54-2 mark in Tully Gymnasium, and along the way finished 68-10 in ACC action.

Poole's continued development of Nicole Walch witnessed the Stuart, Fla., native become the first player in the rally scoring era to crack the program's top 10 list in kills (1,466) after driving home a team-high 459 kills. By leading the team in eight major categories, Walch was a unanimous selection for All-ACC First Team and was named Senior CLASS Top 10 Finalist, AVCA All-East Region Team and AVCA Honorable Mention All-American.

Poole's program also drew individual honors for Sarah Burrington (AVCA Honorable Mention All-American, AVCA All-East Region Team, All-ACC First Team); Brianne Burkert (All-ACC Freshman Team); Katie Horton (All-ACC Second Team); Milica Kubura (AVCA Honorable Mention All-East Region Team, All-ACC Second Team, CoSIDA Academic All-District IV Team) and Hailey Luke (CoSIDA Academic All-District IV Team).
