Charles Byron (Charley) Pell was named Head Football Coach at the University of Florida on December 4, 1978, bringing with him a reputation as a coach who turns ailing collegiate programs around quickly.

His last two teams at Florida have gone to bowls, sure indication that Pell's reputation is well-deserved.

The 1981 team, one of the Nation's youngest with only two seniors among the top 22 starters, finished 7-4, losing on a last-second field goal in two games. Three of the four losses came by a combined margin of eight points.

In 1980 Pell led the Gators to an 8-4 record, winning the Tangerine Bowl and being named SEC Coach of the Year by both AP and UPI, the third time in four years of Division I coaching that he was so honored.

The 41-year-old native of Albertville, Alabama, was Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year in both 1977 and 1978 while coaching Clemson to 8-2-1 and 10-1 records. Both Tiger teams went to the Gator Bowl and his 1978 edition won the ACC.

Pell is a hard-working competitor whose only speed is full-speed. He went to the University of Alabama as a 180-pound halfback who had played only one season of high school football. He wound up starting for three years at offensive and defensive tackle (1960-62) and was a member of the Tide's 1961 National Championship team. He also played in the Orange, Sugar and Bluebonnet Bowls.

He served as a Graduate Assistant at Alabama in 1964, was Defensive Line Coach at Kentucky (1965-68), Head Coach at Jacksonville State (1969-73), Assistant Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator at Virginia Tech (1974-75), a position he also held at Clemson in 1976.

Pell holds a BS Degree from Alabama (1964). He married the former Ward Noel of Lexington, Kentucky on February 1, 1969, and they have a son, Carrick, who was born March 1, 1970.

Pell was born February 27, 1941 in Albertville, Alabama.

Florida Field Expands to 72,000 Houses New Athletic Training Complex

Completion of the new south stands for the 1982 football season at Florida raises the seating capacity of Florida Field to 72,000.

The 18,000 new seats, concourses encircling the entire stadium, new restroom and concessions stands are part of a master plan to develop athletic facilities at Florida which are second to none.

With the support of a major gift of $1.1 million from citrus magnate Ben Hill Griffin one of the finest athletic training complex facilities in athletics will be housed under the south stands.

This complex includes new dressing rooms, a modern, enlarged training room with a rehabilitation area for athletes, a new equipment room, meeting rooms, a multi-purpose reception room and a new football weight room.

The original stadium consisted of the lower half of the current stadium which was constructed in 1930 and dedicated at the Alabama game that season. In 1950 the west side addition was completed and in 1967 the east side addition was completed along with Yon Hall dormitory and dining hall.

DR. ROBERT Q. MARSTON
President

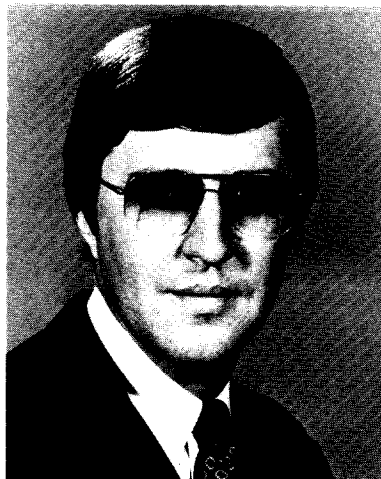

Dr. Robert Quarles Marston, the seventh president of the University of Florida, has spent his professional life in medicine and education. He was Associate Director of the National Institutes of Health and Director of the Division of Regional Medical Programs, 1966-68; Director of the National Institutes of Health, 1968-73; Dean of the College of Medicine of the University of Mississippi, 1961-65; Vice Chancellor of the University of Mississippi, 1965-66; and a member of the faculty of the Medical College of Virginia, 1954-57 and 1955-61, and the University of Minnesota, 1958-59.

Dr. Marston was educated in the Virginia Military Institute (B.S.-1943), Medical College of Virginia (M.D.-1947) and is a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University (B.Sc.-1949). He also received training at Johns Hopkins, Vanderbilt and the National Institute of Health. He came to the University of Florida August 1, 1974, from positions as scholar-in-residence at the University of Virginia and as a distinguished fellow at the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences.

In addition to being a Rhodes Scholar, Dr. Marston has been honored as a Markle scholar; a member of the Society of Scholars, Johns Hopkins University; and a fellow (honorary) of Lincoln College, Oxford. His honorary Doctor of Science degrees include one from the College of William and Mary in the area of his birth. A member of several professional societies, he is a distinguished service member of the Association of American Medical Colleges, an honorary member of the National Medical Association and the American Hospital Association, and a member of the Association of American Physicians and the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences.

Dr. Marston served as a First Lieutenant in the United States Army. He was born in Toano, Virginia in 1923 and he and his wife, Ann, have three children, Ann, Rob, and Wes.

BILL CARR
Director of Athletics

William Curtis (Bill) Carr, III assumed the duties of Director of Athletics at Florida on March 15, 1979 and quickly initiated an operational plan designed to improve the Gator athletic program in every area.

His program is on schedule in all areas and well ahead in many. Florida can point with pride to vastly improved athletic facilities, increased funding of athletics from private sources, coaching changes resulting in positive growth, an organized Gator Club support group to promote academics and athletic interests, and, in general, an uplifting of the entire process by which the program is operated.

Carr, the driving force behind all of these developments, will see his latest project become reality this season with the completion of the new south stands at Florida Field.

He worked his way up through the athletic program as an assistant football coach, 1970-73; academic advisor, 1972-74; assistant athletic director, 1976-79, working primarily with spring sports budgeting, scheduling, facility maintenance and athletic eligibility.

He was a first-team All-America center in 1966 and started 32 consecutive games from 1964-66, including the 1965 Sugar Bowl and 1966 Orange Bowl games.

Carr was born in Gainesville on November 29, 1945. He attended elementary school in Vero Beach, high school in Pensacola and graduated from the University of Florida in 1967 with a BA in Spanish. He earned an MA in Education Administration at Florida in 1971 following service in Korea with the U.S. Army.

Carr, an elder in the Community Evangelical Church, is married to the former Jan Jackson and they have three children, Jason (11), Scott (9) and Julie (6).

Gator Outlook

Coach Charley Pell's Analysis Of Spring Practice And The 1982 Outlook For The Florida Gators

Schedule and General Review

"We'll be a good team in 1982. How good depends on how far we come and if we can manage to peak in September. How we manage September is important with three of the nation's Top Ten-type teams on the schedule in Miami, Southern California and Mississippi State. The schedule demands that we peak early.

"That September schedule is like playing with dynamite. It's very dangerous. We've got to focus on the challenge we're faced with. If we understand that challenge, the rest will take care of itself.

"It's obvious to me: Being good isn't enough. That's been proven time and again at Florida. It takes more than being good. Florida has been good several times over the years, but it's never won the championship.

"If everyone understands that, the other things will take care of themselves. But if we spend too much time wondering how good we are, we'll be singing the same old song of three generations of Gators.

"We're not ready to jump up and down for joy in every area but this was the best spring football practice we've had of the four here at Florida. We wanted to develop mental toughness, improve the running game, find positions where our young players could best help this football team and have solid competition in every area. I was satisfied with what we accomplished in these areas."

Defensive Front

"The thing that has to happen, and we can't do anything about it 'til the 1982 season, is the aging of our defensive line. Roy Harris is the only one of the front three on course going into fall practice. Our other tackle, John Whittaker, is behind because of a hamstring pull he had this spring. Tim Newton and Ricky Williams, our sophomore nose guards, are going to be good, but they're not good now and the same goes for Alton Jones at tackle. We lost an All-America tackle in David Galloway and a three-year starter at nose guard in Robin Fisher. It's a fact of life: Our three down people are not as good as last year's three today. They are not ready to play in the SEC at this point."

Running Game

"We got better and more consistent at the line of scrimmage under the direction of our new offensive line coach Phil Maggio. Nowhere on the squad is the high level of competition more evident than it is here. Sophomore Lorenzo Hampton had an impressive spring showing at tailback and Derald Williams showed us he can play in the league at fullback. James Jones was outstanding, as he always is, giving us as fine a play at fullback as there is in our conference."

Mental Toughness

"That was the key part of the spring. Over and over, we put the ball on the 30-yard line and worked the offense going in, worked the defense on keeping them out. That's where the game is. That's where it's won or lost on Saturday. The long scrimmages (several over four hours in duration) caused some fatigue, but fatigue lets the real man show. The results satisfied us."

Quarterbacks

"We have the quality of athlete and experience and some depth at this position. This could be one of the strongest positions on our football team. Wayne Peace is already third in Florida history in total offense and passing and he has only played a little over one and one-half seasons. He is a poised, solid player. Bob Hewko has shown what he can accomplish when healthy and we have every confidence in the world in his ability to find the open receiver and get him the football, and to run the team. Roger Sibbald had an outstanding spring and is capable of stepping in and certainly will compete for playing time. We are pleased with this position. Dale Dorminey is another prospect here who has shown some very good things at times."

Wide Receivers

"Tyrone Young had a good spring, his blocking was much improved. Spencer Jackson has proved he can play and win in the conference and he is a steady performer. Dwayne Dixon is close, he makes the tough catch. Bee Lang, Gary Rolle and Howard Akers are in the fight for playing time. Although we were disappointed in our passing game last spring it was probably due to so much practice field emphasis on the running attack. We are very confident this will be a strong area for us in 1982."

Competition

"Easily the best since we've been at Florida. For example, there are positions where two players are dead-even after spring practice . . . Chris Faulkner and Mike Mularkey at tight end, Tim Newton and Ricky Williams at nose guard, Spencer Jackson and Dwayne Dixon at wide receiver. There are other positions where competition is very close, like defensive tackle with John Whittaker and Roy Harris challenged by Alton Jones, offense line with Ryan Fraser, Jon Moyle, Russell Gallon, Dan Plonk, Phil Bromley and Lomas Brown all very much in the fight for a first team job." (NOTE: First unit offensive line at conclusion of spring drills included tackles Dan Fike and Gary Ellis, guards John Hunt and Buddy Schultheis and center Doug Smith.)

Kicking Game

"We've still got a way to go here. Roger Sibbald, from what we saw in the spring, is the punter but he's the only punter we saw who appeared even close to being able to perform in our league. We have not decided on a placekicker and go into fall practice with that decision to make."

Gator Outlook

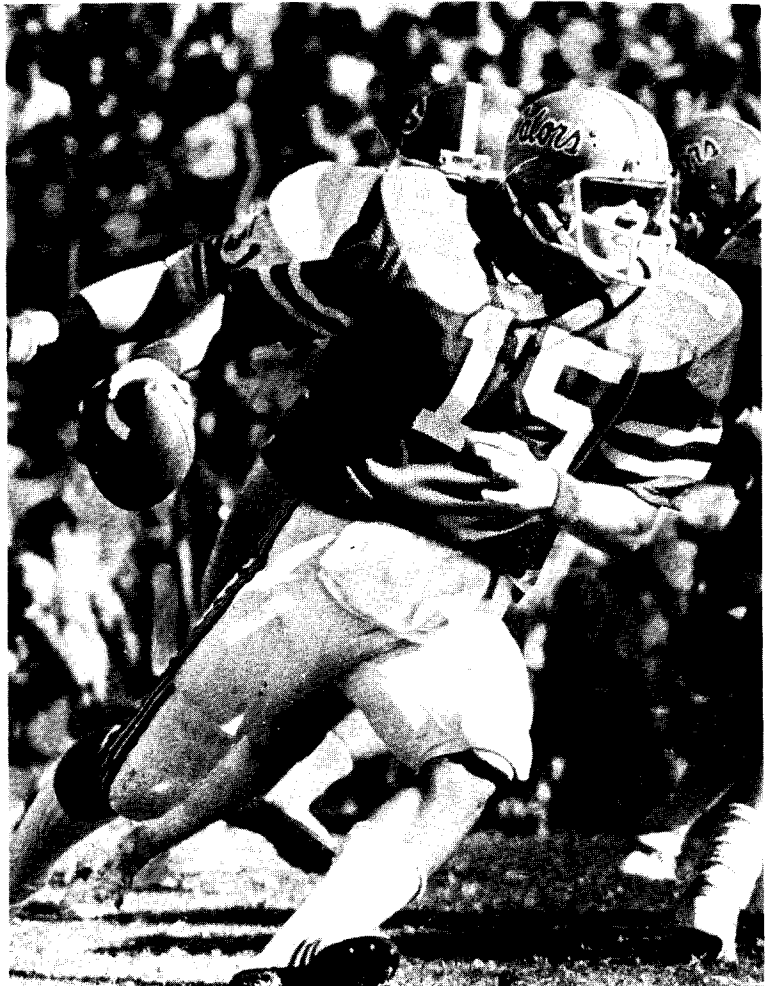

All-SEC linebacker Wilber Marshall (88) keys the league-leading Gator defense. Marshall was named the conference's top linebacker in the 1982 pre-season poll.

Quarterback Wayne Peace (15) has only played in 19 varsity games but already ranks third in Gator history in passing and total offense.

All-SEC fullback James Jones (30) is a 235-pound bruiser named the conference's top blocking back.

"Iron Mike" Mularkey came to Florida as a 200-pound quarterback, has grown to a tough, durable 248-pound tight end who caught two TD passes against FSU in 1981.

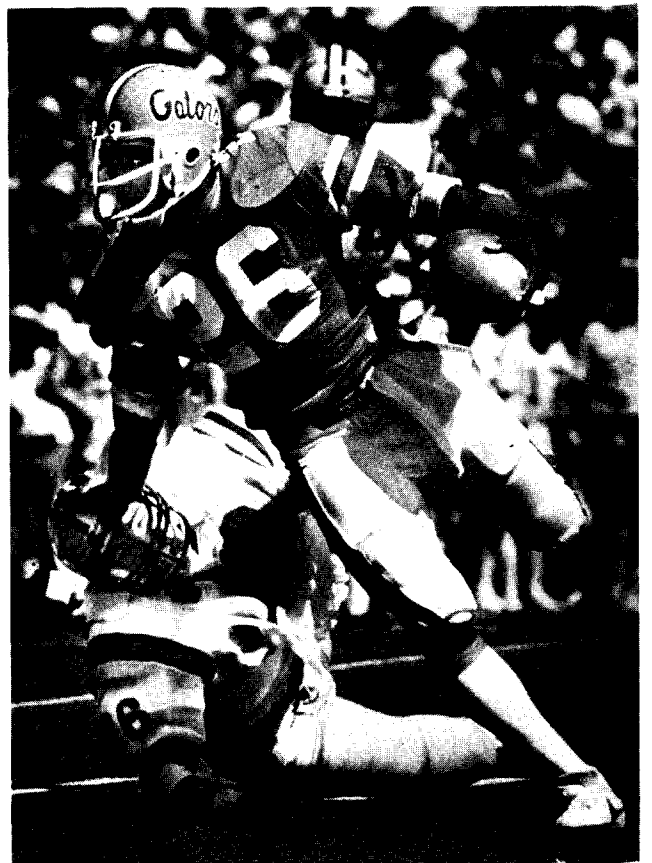

Senior cornerback Ivory Curry (26) returns for his third season as a starter, will also handle kick returns as he has done the past two years.

Linebackers

"Wilber Marshall is a big-play man, a certain all-star candidate at outside linebacker. We think Fernando Jackson, who plays bigger than he is, might be the best small linebacker around. Tom Wiegmann is a steady senior who makes very few errors. We lack depth and experience at linebackers and this is a concern. Fred McCallister can help us in the middle and Val Brown and Lawrence Patrick are veterans outside, but we need newcomers to come along quickly both inside and outside at linebacker. Somebody has got to step forward if we are to be solid in these areas."

Secondary

"Rehabilitation of injured players will play a major role here. We had Vito McKeever and Victor Bradley both out of spring practice after knee surgery. Kyle Knight missed the spring after an auto accident. Ivory Curry had emergency stomach surgery in June. How much these players can bounce will have a big influence on how good we can be back there. Tom Lilly is one of the finest safetymen anywhere in college football and Sonny Gilliam had an excellent spring at strong safety. Bruce Vaughan is a heady senior with a knack for getting around the football. Ricky Easmon had his moments in the spring, as did Scott Marshall and Randy Clark. Linzey Smith was out much of the spring but had a few solid days. We will just have to wait and see how the pieces fit together this fall."

Fergie Ferguson Award

BRIAN CLARK
1981 WINNER

The Forrest K. (Fergie) Ferguson Award is given in memory of one of the all-time great athletes at Florida. It goes annually to the senior football player voted as the most valuable by his fellow lettermen.

Ferguson enrolled at Florida in 1938, after having been an outstanding football end, track, basketball and baseball player at Stuart High School. He became a starting end for the Gators as a sophomore, and wrote several pass receiving records into the books, all of which remained standing until the pro-style passing era of the 1960s.

He was also a collegiate track and boxing champion, and his javelin throw of 203-6½ won the National AAU title in 1942.

Fergie entered the Army in 1942 as a second lieutenant, and was severely wounded in the Normandy landing in 1944. He so distinguished himself that he was awarded the nation's highest medal for gallantry in action. He died of those war wounds 10 years later.

Alligator Nickname Dates Back To 1907

Reprinted from Florida Times-Union, August 2, 1948

"A Jacksonville lawyer 'christened' the University of Florida's football team 41 years ago when he gave a pennant-designing firm in Charlottesville, Va., the suggestion of 'The Alligators.'

"Austin Miller, who has practiced law here since shortly after his graduation from the University of Virginia in 1910, yesterday recalled the circumstances surrounding the choice of a name for Florida University's athletic teams. It happened in the fall of 1907, a year after the University of Gainesville had fielded its first team.

"Miller, a native of Gainesville, was enrolled in the University of Virginia at the time and was visited by his father, Phillip Miller, a Gainesville merchant. The elder Miller, who died nine years ago, then owned and operated a combination drug store and stationery store in Gainesville, a popular rendezvous for university students.

"While in Charlottesville the father decided to order some pennants and banners for the University of Florida from the Michie Company, which was engaged in the manufacture of such items. The Millers went to the firm, where they were shown samples of pennants which featured the Yale bulldog, the Princeton tiger and other school emblems. When the manager asked for Florida's emblem, the Millers realized, the new school had none.

"Austin Miller said the name 'Alligators' occurred to him as a suitable emblem, both because the Michie manager said no other school had adopted it and because the alligator was native to this state. 'I had no idea it would stick, or even be popular with the student body,' Miller said. 'We wanted to get the Michie firm started on the pennants as quickly as possible, though, so they would be available in time for the opening of the 1908 school term.

"The Michie manager complicated the 'christening' when he told young Miller he'd never seen an alligator and didn't believe he could design one. The law student volunteered to find a suitable picture of a 'gator. After much search, he said, he located a picture of one in the library of the University of Virginia.

"The first appearance of the alligator emblem, Miller recalled, was in his father's Gainesville store in 1908. The Michie firm had supplied 'Miller's' with the blue banners measuring six by three feet, showing a large orange alligator, and also with several different types of smaller banners and pennants. Some of them showed the alligator lying down, some rampant, while others included only the alligator's head."

Miami 21

Florida 20

MIAMI, FLA., Sept. 5, Orange Bowl Stadium — Florida dominated the first half, jumping out to a 14-3 margin behind the passing of quarterback Wayne Peace and a key interception by defensive tackle David Galloway.

The Gators scored on a seven-yard run by fullback James Jones on the first play after Galloway's interception. Peace followed with a 37-yard TD pass to split receiver Spencer Jackson.

Florida led, 20-11, in the fourth quarter when Miami came back on a 55-yard scoring pass from Mark Richt to Rocky Belk and a game-winning 55-yard field goal by Dan Miller with 40 seconds remaining, the ball bouncing off the left upright for the winning points.

Furman 7

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Sept. 12, Florida Field — The Gators wore down a scrappy Furman team by combining a stout defensive effort with timely running by tailback Johnell Brown and the passing of quarterbacks Wayne Peace and Bob Hewko.

Fullback James Jones missed the contest with a sprained ankle and defensive tackle David Galloway played only three downs due to the same injury.

Defensive back Bruce Vaughan broke the game open in the second quarter with a 33-yard interception returned for a touchdown. The second half was all Florida with reserves playing most of the final quarter.

Georgia Tech 6

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Sept. 19, Florida Field — Georgia Tech, which had upset Alabama the previous week, ran into a buzzsaw in the balanced Florida team effort which resulted in an easy 27-6 win.

Bob Hewko highlighted the offensive effort with a pair of TD passes and another scoring run. Wide receiver Tyrone Young was on both ends of the scoring passes. James Jones ran for 92 yards in 20 carries while playing little more than half of the game.

The defense limited Tech's offense to 180 yards and the Jackets got only 35 yards on the ground in 33 rushing attempts.

Mississippi State 28

Florida 7

JACKSON, MISS., Sept. 26, Jackson Memorial Stadium — Mississippi State broke open an old-fashioned defensive slugfest with a pair of touchdowns on the kicking game to win a convincing 28-7 SEC game on ABC-TV regional action.

Florida offensive miscues both handicapped the yard and point possibility for the Gators and set the Bulldogs up on two short scoring marches in the first half.

The game cracked wide open in the third quarter when the Bulldogs' Glenn Young returned a punt 49 yards for a touchdown, and early in the final period State scored on a blocked punt.

LSU 10

BATON ROUGE, LA., Oct. 3, Tiger Stadium — Florida bounced back in front of a hostile Tiger Stadium crowd as the defense turned the ball over constantly to give the Gator offense field position.

Florida scored on three Brian Clark field goals and a pair of TD runs by James Jones, who rushed for 67 yards for the evening.

LSU kept the pressure on the Gators, coming from a 17-0 count to 17-10 in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Wilber Marshall picked off a pass, however, to seal the win for Florida.

Maryland 10

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Oct. 10, Florida Field — In an unusual game the Gators appeared to be dominating from start to finish and yet trailed at halftime, 7-6, and had to hold off a Maryland rally to win, 15-10.

Statistically, the game was one-sided. Florida had 385 yards of offense to Maryland's 179. The Terps had difficulty making a first down in the final three quarters.

However, it took a safety and a nine-yard pass from fullback James Jones to quarterback Wayne Peace to put Florida out front, 15-7, in the third quarter. Maryland kicked a field goal late in the game for the final score.

Florida 49

Ole Miss 3

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Oct. 17, Florida Field — Florida turned in its finest performance of the season on Homecoming Day to rout the Rebels, 49-3, in a game which wasn't as close as the score indicated.

Fullback James Jones scored three touchdowns and quarterback Wayne Peace was 13-23 for 127 yards passing in three quarters of play. Florida ran up nearly 400 yards of offense.

Meanwhile, the rugged Florida defense limited Ole Miss to 108 yards of total offense, turned the ball over twice to set up scores and scored once on a 30-yard interception return by Sonny Gilliam.

Auburn 14

Florida 12

AUBURN, ALA., Oct. 31, Jordan-Hare Stadium — Florida was upset by the improving Tigers as Brian Clark's last-second 40-yard field goal attempt was ruled inches wide. Clark had kicked four to give the Gators all 12 of their points.

The Tigers marched to a pair of first half touchdowns and held on for the victory after being shut down by the Gator defense after intermission. Florida's offense, however, couldn't get much done with the rough Auburn defense.

James Jones was the top Gator on offense with 22 carries for 80 yards and 2x2 pass attempts for 20 yards.

Florida 21

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Nov. 7, Gator Bowl Stadium — In a brilliant football game on ABC-TV national coverage the Bulldogs came through in the clutch with a 95-yard TD drive late in the fourth quarter, powered by Herschel Walker, who was the difference in the game.

The win negated a great effort by Florida quarterback Wayne Peace, who was 21x37 passing for 272 yards and two touchdowns. Fullback James Jones ran for the other score.

Florida 33

Kentucky 12

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Nov. 14, Florida Field — The Gators bounced back from the consecutive tough losses to Auburn and Georgia, taking charge of the Kentucky game quickly and jumping to a 28-0 half-time lead.

James Jones scored the first two Florida touchdowns on short runs, but injured his foot and left the game in the second quarter. His replacement, Lorenzo Hampton, finished with 42 yards rushing to lead Florida in this department.

Florida played reserves most of the second half.

FSU 3

GAINESVILLE, FLA., Nov. 28, Florida Field — Quarterback Wayne Peace turned in the finest game of his collegiate career and the Florida defense dominated FSU's offense for a convincing 35-3 Gator victory.

Peace picked the Seminoles apart, throwing for 275 yards and four touchdowns as he completed 20x30 passes with no interceptions. With James Jones still nursing an injured foot, tailback Steve Miller took up the rushing slack with 82 yards on 12 carries.

FSU completed only six passes for 59 yards and the Gators picked off three aerials. The win wound up the home schedule with a 6-0 mark for Florida.

Gator Boosters

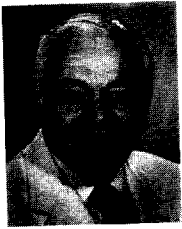

Gator Boosters, Inc. was formed in 1951 as a non-profit scholarship booster organization designed to support the athletic program at the University of Florida.

In 1981-82 Gator Boosters and its scholarship fund set records both in number of members and gifts and contributions, the combination of scholarship funds and major gifts resulting in over $3-million. Heading the list of major contributions was a $1.1 million gift from Ben Hill Griffin of Frostproof for the athletic training complex in the south end zone.

Gator Boosters exists for the purpose of elevating the quality of Florida athletics through charitable contributions, and although associated with athletics the primary function of the organization is educational scholarship funding.

The Gator Booster staff includes Executive Secretary Gene Ellenson, Field Secretary Phil Pharr, Director of Development for Athletics Tom Scott and secretaries Judy Kensler and Gwen Dulaney.

GENE ELLENSON
Executive Secretary

Ellenson was appointed Executive Secretary of Gator Boosters, Inc. in January of 1974 following 13 years as an assistant football coach and athletic department administrator at Florida. He is a 1943 journalism graduate of the University of Georgia and a three-year starting tackle for the Bulldogs who played in the 1942 Orange Bowl and 1943 Rose Bowl.

TOM SCOTT
Director of Athletic Development

Tom Scott joined the staff in 1981 with primary responsibilities of working in conjunction with the UF Foundation office to encourage major gifts and contributions for the athletic program. He is a graduate of Davidson in 1966 and holds a master's degree from South Carolina, 1970.

PHIL PHARR
Field Secretary

Pharr joined the Gator Booster staff as Field Secretary in June of 1981. He is a 1981 journalism graduate of the University of Florida and a three-year football letterman with the Gators. He was born Dec. 12, 1957 and attended Ocala Forest High School, playing center on a state championship football team.

Gator Radio Network

David Steele

Gator Radio Team

Otis Boggs, who retired after the 1981 season after 42 years as the Gator play-by-play announcer, will continue on the radio team in 1982 on the post-game show.

Color commentary on this year's broadcast will again be handled by Fred Abbott. Bob Leach directs the on-air activity and teams with Norm Carlson to host the post-game show.

David Steele, a native of Jacksonville who went on to become North Carolina Sportscaster of the Year, was chosen from a field of over 300 applicants as Network Coordinator for the University of Florida athletics.

As such, Steele will handle play-by-play for Gator football on a 65-station network and basketball and emcee the television play-back shows in both sports.

Steele, 29, was sports director in the nation's 34th market at WLOS-TV in Asheville, N.C. from 1977-80. He was selected by Gator Athletic Director Bill Carr from a list of applicants which included an NFL play-by-play announcer, four from the NBA, two announcers from the largest sports entertainment cable system in the nation and several who did college regional play-by-play accounts for ABC-TV.

"David has demonstrated excellence in broadcasting in radio, television and play-by-play in both football and basketball," said Carr. "We are tremendously impressed with his personal and professional qualities and background and knowledge of the Southeastern Conference."

Steele was born in Jacksonville in 1953 and lived in Knoxville, Tenn. for 10 years. He attended Carson-Newman College on a baseball scholarship and graduated from the University of Georgia in 1975. He was sports director at WJHG-TV in Panama City from 1975-77.

"This is one of the finest play-by-play opportunities in the nation," said Steele. "The position is unique in college athletics but Florida has a model program in this area, one which many schools will copy. I'm excited about the challenge."

Steele has done the football and basketball radio network play-by-play for Western Carolina University the past two seasons, does Southern Conference television play-by-play, covered the 1980 Winter Olympics and the NASCAR circuit.

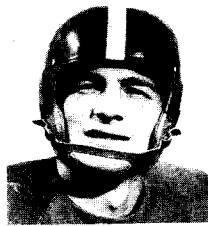

He and his wife, Sally, have two children, David (3) and Kate (6 months).

Parents' Award

Tom Wiegmann

Perhaps the most significant honor which can be earned by a Gator player is the "Parents' Award" which is given each year at the Orange-Blue spring game.

"This is a tremendously important award, in my opinion, because it is not based solely on athletic ability, but on the total person," says Florida Head Coach Charley Pell.

Nominations come by ballot from within the football squad and finalists are reviewed by the entire coaching staff, trainers and athletic academic advisors. Nominees are judged on spring semester accomplishments in academics, dorm life, off campus, weight room, winter program and spring practice.

This is called the "Parents' Award" because teammates and staff members are asked to recognize in others the values individual athletes have learned at home and will some day teach their own children.

Bowl History

Florida's first bowl trip came after the 1952 season as the Gators headed to the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville to face Tulsa on January 1, 1953.

Powered by the running of Rick Casares and J. (Papa) Hall the Gators edged the Golden Hurricanes, 14-13, as Tulsa senior Tom Minor missed the first PAT attempt of his career. Gator All-America tackle Charlie LaPradd was the game's defensive hero.

Quarterback Jimmy Dunn and All-SEC end Dave Hudson led Florida back to the Gator Bowl in 1959, where they lost to Mississippi, 7-3. Ray Graves' first Florida team returned to the Jacksonville classic after the 1960 season and knocked off Baylor, 13-12, behind the running of Don Goodman and quarterback Larry Libertore.

One of the biggest upsets in Gator Bowl history took place in 1963 when heavily-favored Penn State was soundly beaten by the Gators, 17-7, led by quarterback Tom Shannon and a stout defense.

In 1965 Florida fell behind Missouri, 20-0, in the Sugar Bowl and rallied for 18 points in the final quarter behind quarterback Steve Spurrier. Each Gator touchdown was followed by a two-point conversion attempt and all of them failed.

Spurrier became the first player from the losing team to be named the game's most outstanding player in the history of the Sugar Bowl. He broke six bowl records in the contest.

The Gators got back on the winning track the following year in the Orange Bowl, beating Georgia Tech, 27-12, behind Heisman Trophy winner Spurrier. It was Bobby Dodd's final game as Tech's head coach and Florida made it an unhappy night for him. Larry Smith set a bowl record by running 94 yards for a touchdown for the Gators, almost losing his pants on the way.

In Ray Graves' final game as Florida's coach he watched his young team beat SEC champion Tennessee, 14-13, in the 1969 Gator Bowl. Florida's defense was superb with a blocked punt by Steve Tannen resulting in one TD and an interception setting up the other.

In 1973 the Tangerine Bowl was played in Gainesville due to construction at the Orlando stadium site. It was 27 degrees when the game started and Miami of Ohio loved every minute of it en route to a 16-7 upset. Florida nearly pulled a major upset next season, leading Nebraska 10-0 and scoring an apparent TD on a 26-yard run by Tony Green, only to have it ruled out-of-bounds. The Huskers came back in the Sugar Bowl to win, 13-10. Florida's stars were All-America linebackers Ralph Ortega and Glenn Cameron, defensive end Preston Kendrick, the game's most outstanding defensive player, and running back Green.

The Gators returned to the Gator Bowl in 1975 and were soundly beaten in the rain by Maryland, 13-0. In 1975 powerful Texas A&M routed Florida, 37-14, in the Sun Bowl.

Charley Pell's first bowl team at Florida came in 1980 and the Gators played outstanding football in the Tangerine Bowl to whip Maryland, 35-20, behind All-America wide receiver Cris Collinsworth, the game's most valuable player. All-America David Galloway was the most outstanding defensive player of the contest.

In the cold of Atlanta, Ga. in the 1981 Peach Bowl the favored Gators were stunned by West Virginia's underrated Mounties, 26-6, and Coach Pell opened 1982 spring practice by burning the films of that game.
