NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS OVERVIEW

Three different events comprise the NCAA Championships: team, singles and doubles draws.

The top 64 teams in the nation, as determined by the NCAA Selection Committee, begin competition at 16 regional sites on May 9, 2014. The 16 winners of each regional will travel to Waco, Texas, for the remainder of the tournament to compete for the NCAA title.

The singles field features the top 64 players, while the doubles draw contains the top 32 tandems, also determined and seeded by the NCAA Selection Committee.

NCAA FORMAT CHANGE BEGAN IN 2006

The 2015 NCAA Championships will continue to be held as a combined men's and women's event. The 2006 season marked the first time the men's and women's events were played simultaneously at the same location. The entire men's and women's team Championships beginning with the round of 16, as well as the 64-player singles and 32-team doubles draws for men and women are held at one venue.

Sites that have been determined for the NCAA Men's & Women's Tennis Championships:

2015: Hurd Tennis Center * Waco, Texas * Host: Baylor University
 May 14-25, 2014
 Team: May 14-19, 2014
 Individual (Singles/Doubles): May 20-25, 2014

2016: Tulsa, Ok. * Host: Tulsa University
 2017: Athens, Ga. * Host: University of Georgia
 2018: Winston-Salem, N.C. * Host: Wake Forest University

Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA)

As the governing body of collegiate tennis the ITA promotes both the athletic and academic achievements of the collegiate tennis community. The ITA, which was founded in 1956 and is based in Skillman, N.J., administers numerous regional and national championships, the ITA Collegiate Summer Circuit presented by the USTA, and the Campbell/ITA College Tennis Rankings for men's and women's tennis at the NCAA Divisions I, II and III, NAIA and Junior College levels. The ITA also has a comprehensive awards program for players and coaches to honor excellence in academics, leadership and sportsmanship.

FOLLOWING COLLEGE TENNIS

THE FALL SEASON – FOCUS ON INDIVIDUAL TOURNAMENTS

The first half of the college tennis season begins in mid-September and continues through early November. Individual events and tournaments are scheduled during this time frame, as student-athletes represent their university in selected singles and doubles contests.

Two of the three Grand Slam events also take place in the fall: the Riviera/ITA All-American (Pacific Palisades, Calif.) held in September and the ITA National Indoor Championships held Nov. 6-9, 2014, at the USTA-Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, N.Y. (hosted by Columbia University).

THE SPRING SEASON – FOCUS ON TEAM/DUAL MATCH EVENTS

While a handful of individual tournaments are still contested, the focus of the second half of the college tennis season, which begins in January, turns to dual match play.

A dual match is an event between two schools that features three doubles matches and six singles matches. The coaches from each school submits a lineup with its top players squaring off against each other at the No. 1 position, its next best player at the No. 2 position and so on through the No. 6 position. The same method applies for doubles.

Each school earns one team point by winning at least two of the three doubles matches and earns an additional point for every victory in singles. The winning school of the dual match captures the best of SEVEN team points. A final score might read: UF def. UX 4-3.

To make dual matches more “fan friendly,” doubles matches are scored as a pro set. The winner of a pro set is the first pair to claim eight games, while leading by two games. A tiebreaker is implemented if the games are even at 8-all. The only time the pro set scoring is not utilized is during the three doubles Grand Slam events.

Singles matches always implement the traditional scoring method, with the winner claiming two of three sets for a victory. In a dual match, if the team victor already has been determined and an agreement was established between the both coaches, a singles match entering a third set might use a ‘super-tie-breaker’ in place of a third set to establish the individual winner. The two acceptable methods of displaying that result: 1-6, 6-2, (10-8), or 1-6, 6-2, 1-0 (10-8).

USTA/ITA NATIONAL TEAM INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The seventh annual ITA Men’s and Women’s Kick-Off Weekend will take place in late-January 2015 at select campus host sites. This year’s Kick-Off Weekend Draft took place in June 2014, when teams selected which route they would take to get to the 2015 ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

The ITA Kick-Off Weekend features 15 women’s host sites with four teams at each site vying to advance to the Team Indoor Championships. The 15 women’s teams to win both of their matches will be invited to play in the ITA National Team Indoor Championships held Feb. 6-9, 2015, at a site to be determined.

The No. 1 team at each site will face the No. 4 team. The No. 2 team will face the No. 3 team. Two matches are guaranteed - the winners/losers will play the following day.

COLLEGIATE GRAND SLAM EVENTS

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera/ITA All-American; ITA National Indoor Championships; and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001 there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

In Division I, the ITA National Rankings are determined by a computerized system, using the ITA’s average points-per-match formula. They are released 17 times during the season (pre-season, fall, and 14 times on a weekly basis in the spring and year-end). The first team ranking is revealed on January 1, 2015. The Division I top 75 teams, top 100 singles players and top 50 doubles teams receive an ITA ranking. The ITA Rankings are also used in selection of all ITA Grand Slam Championships as well as the USTA/ITA National Team Indoor Championships.

Division I Regional rankings are released twice a year (end of fall and year-end). The top 15 teams, top 30 singles players and top 15 doubles teams are ranked for men and women in each of the eight ITA regions. In August of 2009, the ITA realigned each region and made assignments for 12 new Regions. Florida is in the Southeast Region.

ITA Dual Match Format
Mandated Experimental Format for January – February, 2014
Division I Women’s Tennis
(effective January 1, 2014)

The following is the revised mandated experimental “ITA dual match format” for ALL NCAA women’s Division I non—conference tennis matches that are played from January-February, 2014 through the 2014 ITA Women’s Team Indoor Championships (Monday, February 10th). This experimental format must be used in dual match competition during this time period, unless both coaches agree otherwise:

- The dual meet will consist of three doubles matches played first (worth a total of one point), followed by six singles matches, each individual match worth one point. Four points are required to win the team match.
- The three doubles matches will each consist of one set, with regular scoring and a tie-breaker at 6-all. Once a team has won two doubles matches, the remaining doubles match shall not be completed. (NB. this “clinch” policy is the current rule in the ITA Women’s Kick-off Weekend, ITA Women’s National Indoor Team Championships and the NCAA Women’s Team Championships).
- Six singles matches will follow the doubles. Each singles match is two out of three sets, with each set using regular scoring, and a match tie-breaker in lieu of the third set.
- All singles matches will be played to completion unless both coaches agree to do otherwise. (NB. the “clinch” policy is the current rule in the ITA Women’s Kick-off Weekend, the ITA Women’s National Indoor Team Championships and the NCAA Women’s Team Championships. Therefore once four points have been reached, the remaining singles matches will not be completed in these events).
- There will be no warm-up against opponents before the first point is played in doubles and singles: players will be expected to warm-up with their own team prior to the scheduled match time. A written pre-match protocol will be made available in early January.

2010 & 2012 ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
2004, 2006, 2010 & 2013 SEC Coach of the Year

There hasn't been much the Florida women's tennis team hasn't accomplished. But Roland Thornqvist, who in 2014-15 enters his 14th year as head coach of the Gators, continues to find a way to raise the standard of success in Gainesville.

Thornqvist owns a remarkable 400-90 head coaching record in 18 years, including a 325-40 mark at Florida. His 300th victory with the Gators came on May 12, 2013, with the 4-0 decision against Georgia Tech in the second round of the 2013 NCAA Championships. Thornqvist's 350th all-time win, as well as the 275th of his Gator tenure was the 4-3 thriller in the 2012 NCAA Semifinals against Duke en route to the winning his third national championship. Career win number 400, his 325th with UF, was special for Thornqvist and the Gators as they took down top-seeded, No. 1-ranked and host Georgia, 4-1, earning a spot in the 2014 NCAA Semifinals.

Individually, Thornqvist has been honored as the ITA National Coach of the Year (2011), the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year (2010 & 2012) and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year (2004, 2006, 2010 & 2013).

The team and individual accomplishments under Thornqvist's guidance continue to grow with every season.

In 13 years with Thornqvist on the sidelines, some of Florida's more significant highlights include three NCAA Team Championships (2003, 2011 & 2012), as well as nine SEC regular-season titles (2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012 & 2013) and nine SEC Tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012 & 2013).

He has guided Florida to 10 NCAA 'final four' appearances, with three culminating in titles and two as national runner-up (2002 & 2010).

In the classroom, nine of his Gator squads have earned ITA All-Academic Team honors by compiling a minimum cumulative team grade point average of 3.20 (on a 4.00 scale).

The 2013-14 team reached the NCAA Semifinals for the second consecutive year, ending the season ranked No. 5 in the final national poll, marking the program's fifth consecutive year with a top-5 ranking, as well as the 28th time in program history since the rankings began in 1980. The Gators fell to eventual NCAA Champion UCLA, 4-0. UF concluded the season 23-6. They tied for second in the Southeastern Conference regular season standings, and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the SEC Tournament.

The 2012-13 Gators finished the season ranked No. 2 in the final national poll after compiling a 26-3 overall record and advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, bowing out to eventual champion Stanford, 4-3. The Gators won a share of the the Southeastern Conference regular season title and captured the SEC Tournament championship during the year.

Sofie Oyen and Lauren Embree both sat atop the ITA National Singles Rankings during the 2012-13, becoming the 10th and 11th Gators since the 1998 season to earn the No. 1 singles ranking. Oyen and Embree are the sixth and seventh different players, respectively, under Thornqvist to earn the nation's top ranking.

Embree also became the first player in SEC history to be voted the league's Player of the Year three times, doing so in 2010, 2012 and 2013. The talented Gator also became the 20th different Gator to capture a collegiate Grand Slam title when she won the 2012 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship.

Allie Will, who earned the No. 1 overall seed in the 2012 NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships reached the semi-finals of the singles event, captured the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship during the fall in addition to a runner-up finish with then-sophomore Sofie Oyen in the doubles draw of the national tournament. Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 roster, reached the finals of the 2011 USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while junior Lauren Embree and Mather won the consolation draw of the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Doubles Championships.

The 2011-12 Gators capped their 27-1 record winning the 2012 NCAA Championship, earning the program's sixth national championship and the first time the team has won back-to-back titles - only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to do so. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event for the second consecutive year after winning the Southeastern Tournament for the third straight season and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

The 2011-12 team was able to produce the program's 22nd undefeated home record (12-0) and extend its overall home winning streak to 107 - the longest run by an NCAA Division I women's team in any sport.

The 2010-11 season culminated with the program's fifth NCAA championship, as the squad defeated top-seeded Stanford, 4-3, after sophomore Lauren Embree provided the remarkable 5-7, 6-3, 7-6 (6) clinching singles win, rallying from down 4-0 in the third set. Embree's heroics were made possible after freshmen Olivia Janowicz and Alexandra Cercone won their respective singles matches in three sets and the Gators captured the doubles point to being the match.

Thornqvist was recognized by his peers, who voted him the 2011 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Coach of the Year, the first such honor in his career.

Florida ended the 2010-11 season with a 31-1 record, marking the program's seventh 30-win campaign, and on a 21-match winning streak - a run tied for the 10th longest in school history.

Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team NCAA event after winning the SEC Tournament and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

Fairly typical accomplishments for one of the nation's best programs, however, Thornqvist's bunch did this without a senior on its roster. Joanna Mather was the only healthy junior in a lineup that also included three sophomores and three freshmen.

The 2011 squad also kept its focus in the classroom, where eight of the nine roster members were named to either the SEC Academic Honor Roll or the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll. As a team, the Gators combined for a 3.43 GPA - good for recognition to the 2011 ITA Team Academic All American honor.

The young Gators carried the program's tradition of success throughout the season, advancing to the final of the ITA National Team Indoor Championships. Sophomore Allie Will, who went on to be named the 2011 SEC Player of the Year, paired with freshman Sofie Oyen and won the USTA-ITA National Indoor Doubles Championship, as they became the third different Gator tandem to win the USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships doubles title, joining the teams of Nicole Arendt and Jillian Alexander, which won the 1991 crown, and Dawn Butth and Stephanie

Nickitas, which captured the 1996 championship.

Oyen and Will were the 18th and 19th different Gators to win an individual Grand Slam title, as they produced the 24th championship trophy in the illustrious history of the Florida program.

Thornqvist welcomed the No. 1-ranked recruiting class to the court for the 2009-10 season, which proved to be another exciting one in Gainesville.

Then-rookies Lauren Embree and Allie Will controlled the top two positions in the singles and doubles dual match lineup and helped Florida compile a 29-3 overall record, including a perfect 11-0 mark in Southeastern Conference action, as the Gators won the regular season and tournament titles.

UF marched into the 2010 NCAA Championships final match, where Marrit Boonstra, one of two seniors on the team, dropped a heartbreaking three-setter – 7-5 in the third – of the clinching match that Stanford took to win the title, 4-3.

Under Thornqvist's guidance Embree became the first freshman every voted the SEC Player of the Year, as Embree also garnered ITA National Rookie Player of the Year honors. Will earned recognition as the SEC Freshman of the Year, while Thornqvist was honored by his peers for the third time as the league's Coach of the Year.

For guiding such a young team that featured six underclassmen to the enormous success it did in 2009-10, Thornqvist earned the ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year accolade.

There was not another team in the country during the 2008-09 season that played with more heart and got more passion and grit out of its team than the University of Florida. Simply knowing the details of what the Gators endured throughout the course of the grueling year would make it easy to use those things as an excuse and state that every program has a down year once in a while. The 2008-09 Gators refused to let adversity stand in their way, as they played with as much heart and Gator pride as any team that has ever suited up. In spite of everything, Florida still marched into the NCAA Championship round of 16, where it dropped a brilliant fight to the event's No. 2 seed.

The 2007-08 Florida women's tennis team survived early-season setbacks and mounted a valiant charge toward collecting championships, coming away with the program's 23rd Southeastern Conference regular-season title in the 29-year history of the event, while marching into the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 19th time in the last 22 years, bowing out to eventual champion UCLA, 4-2, as the Gators were the only team to win a point against the Bruins during their six-match run. Injuries dwindled the Gators' senior trio to a just two, with only Whitney Benik earning a spot in the dual match lineup by season's end, as Florida compiled a 24-3 overall record, including an 11-0 mark in conference action to produce the 17th undefeated league ledger in school history.

The 2006-07 team faced some difficult personal, off-the-court adversity from a number of its players. Several Gators became unable to compete during a large portion of the dual match season, which significantly altered the singles' and doubles' lineups. While Thornqvist was able to patch together six semi-healthy players for singles, the doubles' pairings were blown apart. In spite of it all, the team still won a share of the SEC Regular Season and Eastern Division titles, with the only loss a 4-3 decision on the road at Georgia. The 2006-07 Gators, which featured three freshmen, three juniors and one senior, earned the No. 1 national ranking on March 6, 2007, eventually receiving the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships and the right to host a First & Second Round Regional. Florida marched into the quarterfinals, eventually falling to national runner-up UCLA in a thrilling 4-3 decision.

Prior to the 2005-06 season, Florida had won 14 of the previous 18 SEC Tournament championships, including each of the last four. Amazingly, not once during any of those title runs did the Gators sweep every opponent en route to the crown - until the 2005-06 season, when Florida did just that, winning its fifth straight conference postseason title. Florida battled through the SEC regular season and emerged with a perfect 11-0 record and the overall league champion, as Thornqvist was recognized as the SEC Coach of the Year. The 2005-06 Gators marched into the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, where their season ended to eventual champion Stanford. Florida capped its season with a 25-2 record and ranked No. 2 in the final national poll. The Gators received the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championships, earning the right to host the first and second rounds. The team's 4-0 victory on May 19, 2006 against Baylor in the NCAA quarterfinals was his 200th career win, also his 125th with the Gators.

His fourth year as head coach at Florida might have been one of the best coaching seasons Thornqvist produced as a collegiate head coach. The 2004-05 season wasn't the typical Florida tennis campaign, but somehow the Gators found their way back into a familiar position of advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships for the 17th time in the last 19 years, completing the season with a 22-3 record.

Sure, Florida also captured its fourth consecutive and 14th overall SEC title. The team finished tied for second in the SEC regular season standings, as the squad has finished either first or runner-up for the 26th straight time — every year in league history.

However, even before those events took place, the 2004-05 Gators were faced with significant setbacks. The team lost three starters from the previous season, including senior-to-be Alexis Gordon, who left the team for personal reasons one year removed after earning the No. 1 singles ranking in the country. Gordon's departure meant junior Jennifer Magley and UF's lone senior Zerene Reyes were forced higher in the lineup than expected. Combine that with three freshmen - the most on a Gator roster since the 1996-97 season - and Thornqvist with Associate Head Coach Dave Balogh had their work cut out for themselves.

Thornqvist completed his third year at UF guiding the 2004 Gators to a 23-1 overall record and a No. 3 final national ranking. Additionally, UF was named to the ITA All-Academic Team by posting higher than a 3.2 team grade point average during the year.

Despite annoying injuries throughout the season, the 2004 Gators successfully defended their SEC regular season and tournament titles. The squad extended its overall winning streak to 40 consecutive dual matches – the third-longest streak in program history. Thornqvist's accomplishments were recognized by his colleagues, who named him the SEC Coach of the Year. UF was listed at No. 1 in two rankings periods during the 2004 season and received the top seed in the NCAA Championships.

HEAD COACH ROLAND THORNQVIST

The 2003 season was a magical one for the Florida women's tennis program and for Thornqvist. The Gators captured their fourth overall NCAA championship with a thrilling 4-3 upset over top-seeded and two-time defending champion Stanford. In the process, Thornqvist became just the seventh different coach ever to win an NCAA women's tennis title. At age 33 (born March 3, 1970), he also became the second youngest ever to hoist the trophy. USC's Dave Borelli was the youngest, winning the title in 1983 when he was 32 (born Feb. 4, 1951).

While the national championship certainly was the highlight of the season, that was not the only accomplishment. Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

On June 22, 2001, the University of Florida Athletic Association and Athletics Director Jeremy Foley introduced Thornqvist as its new women's tennis coach. He took over the program from Andy Brandi, who resigned on May 29, 2001 after 17 successful seasons with the Florida program.

The Gators have not missed a beat under Thornqvist's direction.

During the 2002 season, his first with the Gators, Florida compiled a remarkable 24-2 overall record and finished with a No. 2 national ITA ranking. UF won the SEC Tournament title after entering the event as the No. 2 seed. The Gators were the No. 1 ranked team when the March 26, 2002 Omni Hotels Collegiate rankings were released, marking the first time Florida had been at the top spot since May 11, 1999, when the Gators were ranked No. 1 the entire season but lost to Stanford in the NCAA final to end the year ranked second. The Gators remained at the top spot for the next period before dropping one position after losing to Georgia on April 7. UF was awarded the No. 1 seed in the 64-team NCAA Tournament, and reached the NCAA Final before losing to host Stanford in the championship bout.

Individually in 2002, senior Jessica Lehnhoff flourished despite the coaching change. She received the No. 1 singles ranking in the April 17, April 24 and May 1st listings, becoming the first Gator to earn the nation's top ranking since Jill Craybas ended the 1996 season at the No. 1 spot. Lehnhoff became the first player in UF history to reach the semifinals of the NCAA Singles and NCAA Doubles Championships in the same year; reaching the final match of the singles tournament.

Florida accomplished all of this and more despite having just six players on its entire 2002 roster. When Thornqvist accepted the head coaching position at Florida on June 22, 2001, he inherited a Gator squad that had just four players. So his first task with assistant coach Balogh was to recruit two more athletes just to comprise a six-player roster. Thornqvist and Balogh were at the 'right place at the right time' when Alexis Gordon was searching for a school to attend and would be able to join the team during the Fall of 2001. Then Zerene Reyes, a native of Mexico City, Mexico, joined the squad in January – finally completing the six-player roster!

Thornqvist joined the Florida program with a five-year record of 75-50 after coaching at the University of North Carolina for the past three seasons (42-30) and at Kansas from 1997-98 (33-20). Each team advanced to the NCAA Championships under Thornqvist, with the 1998 Kansas team advancing to the Round of 16. In his premiere season at UNC in 1999, he led the Tar Heels to the NCAA Second Round in their first-ever NCAA appearance.

"Ever since I started playing tennis, Florida tennis has been THE program. To have the opportunity to lead the Florida women's team is just really a dream come true. Andy Brandi built a program that is respected and envied across the nation. I am honored to be following in his footsteps," Thornqvist said. "One thing that really attracted me was Jeremy Foley. I liked the way he operates and he is straight forward, very goal-oriented and driven and that is exactly how I see myself."

Thornqvist returned to his alma mater in June of 1998 to take a North Carolina team that posted a 1998 record of 5-17 to a record of 16-9 and its first-ever NCAA berth in 1999. The Tar Heels also recorded their first NCAA Tournament victory in 1999, taking a 5-4 win over Washington in the opening round. His Tar Heel teams also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 and 2001, reaching the second round again in 2001. The UNC team finished the 2001 season ranked No. 17 in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) poll - the highest final position in the history of the Tar Heel program.

In his first head coaching assignment at Kansas, Thornqvist led the Jayhawks to a second-place finish in the 1997 Big 12 Conference standings and a No. 1 regional ranking. The 1998 Jayhawk squad compiled a 18-6 record, won the NCAA Central Regional Championship at Brigham Young University and advanced to the NCAA round of 16 before losing to Georgia.

Prior to his tenure at KU, Thornqvist spent 1994-96 as the assistant men's tennis coach at UNC. Thornqvist also played professional tennis for one year after completing his collegiate eligibility, attaining a world ranking of No. 290 in singles.

Thornqvist established himself as one of the top players in the history of the Atlantic Coast Conference during his collegiate career. He was a three-time first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, the 1993 ACC Player of the Year, a 1992 and 1993 first-team All-American and a 1992 and 1993 NCAA Tournament quarterfinalist in singles. In 1992, he led the Tar Heels to the ACC Championship and to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels also made the NCAA Tournament during his senior season, advancing to the round of 16. Thornqvist won the 1993 Rolex National Indoor Singles Championship as a senior. In both 1992 and 1993, he won the ITA's Rafael Osuna National Sportsmanship Award. He is the only college player in history to win that award twice. Thornqvist was the No. 4-ranked collegiate singles player in the country his senior year.

A native of Stockholm, Sweden, Thornqvist received his bachelor's degree in economics from UNC in 1996. He played for the Tar Heels from 1990-93, transferring from Elon College, where he played one year and won the NAIA singles and doubles championships as a freshman in 1990. He also led Elon to the NAIA team championship that year.

Thornqvist is married to Nan Thornqvist and they are the parents of Maclaine, who was born in November 1999, and Whitney, who was born in January 2001.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DAVE BALOGH (BAY-log)

2015-16 is his 16th year as a coach at UF

2002 & 2010 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year 2002, 2006, 2010 & 2012 ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year

Dave Balogh (pronounced BAY-log), who in 2014-15 enters his 15th year on the Gator sidelines, is one of the most highly respected coaches on the collegiate circuit.

For his efforts and contributions toward the University of Florida women's tennis program, UF athletics director Jeremy Foley promoted Balogh to the position of Associate Head Coach in September 2003. He had worked with the Gators as an assistant coach for three years prior to this elevation.

Balogh has been recognized as the Intercollegiate National Assistant Coach of the Year twice (2002 & 2010) and the ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year four times (2002, 2006, 2010 & 2012).

"Dave is really an extension of me. He has the same philosophy in how to coach the team, how to recruit and how to create the atmosphere we want to have in our clubhouse," UF head coach Roland Thornqvist said. "Working with Dave makes everything fun because he's always positive and is a great guy. He has a tremendous knowledge of the game. The University of Florida and I are very fortunate to have him on our team. Dave is invaluable to me and this program."

During his 14-year tenure coaching at his alma mater, Balogh has helped Florida to a number of team and individual accomplishments. Working the last 13 of those years with Thornqvist, some of the more significant highlights include three NCAA Team Championships (2003, 2011 & 2012), as well as 10 Southeastern Conference regular-season titles (2001, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012 & 2013) and nine SEC Tournament crowns (2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012 & 2013).

The 2013-14 team reached the NCAA Semifinals for the second consecutive year, ending the season ranked No. 5 in the final national poll, marking the program's fifth consecutive year with a top-5 ranking, as well as the 28th time in program history since the rankings began in 1980. The Gators fell to eventual NCAA Champion UCLA, 4-0. UF concluded the season 23-6. They tied for second in the Southeastern Conference regular season standings, and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the SEC Tournament.

The 2012-13 Gators finished the season ranked No. 2 in the final national poll after compiling a 26-3 overall record and advancing to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, bowing out to eventual champion Stanford, 4-3. The Gators won a share of the the Southeastern Conference regular season title and captured the SEC Tournament championship during the year.

Sofie Oyen and Lauren Embree both sat atop the ITA National Singles Rankings during the 2012-13, becoming the 10th and 11th Gators since the 1998 season to earn the No. 1 singles ranking. Oyen and Embree are the sixth and seventh different players, respectively, under Thornqvist to earn the nation's top ranking.

Embree also became the first player in SEC history to be voted the league's Player of the Year three times, doing so in 2010, 2012 and 2013. The talented Gator also became the 20th different Gator to capture a collegiate Grand Slam title when she won the 2012 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship.

The 2011-12 Gators capped their 27-1 record winning the 2012 NCAA Championship, earning the program's sixth national championship and the first time the team has won back-to-back titles - only the second team in NCAA Women's Tennis history to do so. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event for the second consecutive year after winning the SEC Tournament for the third straight season and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

The 2011-12 team was able to produce the program's 22nd undefeated home record (12-0) and extend its overall home winning streak to 107 - the longest run by an NCAA Division I women's team in any sport.

Allie Will, who earned the No. 1 overall seed in the 2012 NCAA Singles & Doubles Championships reached the semifinals of the singles event, captured the

PLAYING CAREER:

Balogh, who is a life-long native of Gainesville, played tennis for former men's coach Ian Duvenhage from 1993 to 1996, when the team ranked among the top 15 nationally all four years. The Gators captured the 1994 SEC championship during Balogh's tenure on the team.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH DAVE BALOGH

2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Singles Championship during the fall in addition to a runner-up finish with then-sophomore Sofie Oyen in the doubles draw of the national tournament. Joanna Mather, the lone senior on the 2011-12 roster, reached the finals of the 2011 USTA-ITA National Indoor Championships, while junior Lauren Embree and Mather won the consolation draw of the 2011 Riviera/ITA All-American Doubles Championships.

The 2010-11 season culminated with the program's fifth NCAA championship, as the squad defeated top-seeded Stanford, 4-3, as sophomore Lauren Embree provided the remarkable 5-7, 6-3, 7-6 (6) clinching singles win, rallying from down 4-0 in the third set. Embree's heroics were made possible after freshmen Olivia Janowicz and Alex Cercone won their respective singles matches in three sets and the Gators captured the doubles point to being the match.

Florida ended the 2010-11 season with a 31-1 record, marking the program's seventh 30-win campaign, and on a 21-match winning streak - a run tied for the 10th longest in school history. Florida earned the No. 2 overall seed in the 64-team event after winning the SEC Tournament and netting an 11-0 record en route to claiming the league's regular-season crown.

Fairly typical accomplishments for one of the nation's best programs, however, the 2010-11 bunch did this without a senior on its roster. Joanna Mather was the only healthy junior in a lineup that also included three sophomores and three freshmen.

Balogh and Thornqvist welcomed the No. 1-ranked recruiting class to the court for the 2009-10 season, which proved to be another exciting one in Gainesville.

Then-rookies Lauren Embree and Allie Will controlled the top two positions in the singles and doubles dual match lineup and helped Florida compile a 29-3 overall record, including a perfect 11-0 mark in Southeastern Conference action, as the Gators won the regular season and tournament titles.

UF marched into the 2010 NCAA Championships final match, where Marrit Boonstra, one of two seniors on the team, dropped a heartbreaking three-setter - 7-5 in the third - of the clinching match that Stanford took to win the title, 4-3.

Under Balogh's and Thornqvist's guidance Embree became the first freshman every voted the SEC Player of the Year, as Embree also garnered the ITA National Rookie Player of the Year honors. Will earned recognition as the SEC Freshman of the Year, while Balogh was honored by his peers for the third time as the ITA's Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

For guiding such a young team that featured six underclassmen to the enormous success it did in 2009-10, Balogh earned the ITA National Coach of the Year accolade - the second time in his career he was honored as such.

Balogh, who oversees the doubles teams, coached the Gators to a combined 65-8 dual match doubles record, as Florida won the doubles point 26 of 27 times during the 2007-08 season, en route to helping the team post a perfect 11-0 record in Southeastern Conference dual matches and a 24-3 overall mark.

The 2006-07 Gators were faced with some difficult personal, off-the-court adversity from a number of players. Several players became unable to compete during a large portion of the dual match season, which significantly altered the singles' and doubles' lineups. While Thornqvist and Balogh were able to patch together six semi-healthy players for singles, the doubles' pairings were blown apart. Balogh did an amazing job during a very trying stretch of finding the right chemistry to re-build the doubles lineups. One of those newly-formed teams - freshman Csilla Borsanyi and junior Diana Srebrovic - immediately went on a six-match win streak that included moving up to the No. 1 position and defeating four top-18-ranked opponents with the highest-ranked win coming against Kentucky's 11th-ranked Kim Coventry and Joelle Schwenk, 8-3, that clinched the doubles point and sparked a 4-3 dual match victory. Two days prior to win over the Wildcat pair was an 8-1 victory over Vanderbilt's 18th-ranked Amanda Taylor and Amanda Fish, helping UF earn the 4-3 team triumph and defeat the Commodores in Nashville for the first time since April 1, 2000. Those were just two of the matches the Gators won 4-3 during the season thanks in part to the team being able to win the doubles point.

In 2005-06, Balogh was recognized as the ITA South Region Assistant Coach of the Year, marking his second such honor at UF.

During his tenure at UF, Balogh has helped the Gators capture the 2003 NCAA championship, five Southeastern Conference regular-season titles and five SEC Tournament crowns, while compiling a 173-16 dual match record.

At the end of the 2001-02 season, the rest of the country acknowledged what the Gators already knew, as Balogh was recognized by his peers as the 2002 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year, becoming the first Gator coach to receive such an honor.

A four-year letterwinner of the University of Florida men's tennis program, Balogh joined the Gator women's tennis team as an assistant coach on July 1, 2000 under former head coach Andy Brandi.

Balogh, who is a life-long native of Gainesville, played tennis for former men's coach Ian Duvenhage from 1993 to 1996, when the team ranked among the top 15 nationally all four years. The Gators captured the 1994 SEC championship during Balogh's tenure on the team.

Balogh was an assistant coach with the Florida State University women's tennis team for the dual match portion of the 2000 season. Prior to his four-month stint in Tallahassee, Balogh was an assistant at Vanderbilt, where the Commodores ended the 1999 season ranked 13th in the country.

From 1996 to 1998, he was the assistant head professional at DB Racquet Club in Gainesville, where he coached former Gator great Mark Merklein and worked with UF standout Jill Craybas. Balogh received an offer to work with tennis-great Jana Novotna, but was unable due to an elbow injury.

Balogh earned a bachelor's of science degree in recreation in 1996. As a student-athlete, Balogh received the 1996 Presidential Recognition Award in honor of his outstanding achievement and contributions to the University of Florida by then-President John Lombardi. That same year, he also received the Office of Student Life Achievement Award, given for his outstanding achievement in academics, athletics and community service.

Each August, Balogh organizes the Merrill Lynch Tennis Pro-Am held in Gainesville. The event benefits Big Brothers/Big Sisters and draws former Gator stars from various sports back to the Gainesville courts to participate.

Balogh has two sons, Cade and Colby.

University Athletic Association's Mission Statement

The University Athletic Association, Inc. exists to advance the University of Florida's teaching, research and service missions. Through the education and the promotion of the health and welfare of students, the University Athletic Association seeks to link experiences of all backgrounds, races, origins, genders, and cultures to prepare generations of students and staff, including women and minorities, to be productive members of society. The character of the athletics programs at the University Athletic Association reflects the character of the University of Florida as a major, public, comprehensive institution of higher learning.

The University Athletic Association is dedicated to the intellectual, physical and personal development of student-athletes, as well as staff, including women and minorities. Demonstrating leadership in all decisions affecting college athletics, the University Athletic Association will act in an ethical and honest manner, will promote an environment fostering the professional and personal achievement of coaches, administrators and staff, will attain excellence in athletic performance, sportsmanship, financial strength, and superior fan satisfaction. This vision in athletics is at the core of our responsibility to the University, to our students, and to the public at large.

2014-15 SEASON REVIEW

ANOTHER TOP-10 FINISH

• The 2014-15 squad ended the year once again with a top-10 ranking in the final poll. This was the sixth consecutive year with a top-10 final ranking, as well as the 33rd time in program history since the rankings began in 1980.

HOME SWEET HOME

- Florida boasts a remarkable 481-25 all-time home record.
- The Gators sport a 13-0 home record in 2015 entering the NCAA Championship.
- UF has produced 25 undefeated home seasons in program history.

CONFERENCE COMPETITION AT THE RING

• UF sports an impressive 199-1 all-time home record versus SEC opponents. Their only conference loss at home was to the Georgia Bulldogs.

147 AND COUNTING

- With a win last weekend in the Second Round, UF extended its overall program-record home winning streak to 147 matches, which includes 24 wins in postseason play (SEC and NCAA Tournament).
- The streak is the longest active home winning streak of any NCAA DI team.
- The Gators set a new standard with their 6-1 victory over Mississippi State on March 29, 2009, passing the previous record of 60.

• The last time the Gators fell at home was on May 15, 2004, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

146 AND COUNTING

- Florida has won 146 consecutive regular-season home matches - not including SEC Tournament or NCAA Championship events. The current streak is the longest of its kind in program history, passing the 71 in a row compiled from 1994-2001.
- The Gators' last regular-season setback at Linder Stadium was on April 7, 2002, when Georgia defeated Florida, 4-3.

SEC CHAMPIONS!

- With wins over Georgia and Tennessee in their final home weekend of the regular season, the Gators clinched their 28th SEC Championship title out of a possible 35. It was the 10th won under head coach Roland Thornqvist in his 14th season Florida vs. SEC Teams
- Florida is a remarkable 440-32 all-time against SEC teams (all meetings, 13-3 in 2015,) including a 372-20 record in regular-season matches (12-1 in 2015).

FLORIDA AT THE SEC TOURNAMENT

- The Gators were crowned the 2015 Regular-Season SEC Champions, the 28th title out of a possible 35; 10th under head coach Roland Thornqvist in his 14 seasons.
- UF entered the tournament as the No. 1 seed and earned a two round bye.
- The Gators took down No. 9 Ole Miss, 4-0, but fell to eventual champions, Vanderbilt, 4-2.
- The Gators are 70-9 all-time in SEC Tournament matches with six of those losses coming against Georgia and the others against Ole Miss, Texas A&M and now Vanderbilt.

FRESHMAN PHENOM

• Brooke Austin made SEC history as the first women's tennis player to be named both SEC Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year in the same season. She's just the second Gator freshman to be named Player of the Year and the second rookie to earn the title in league history. The first-year from Indianapolis, Ind., leads Florida with 18 dual singles wins and 15 dual doubles wins with partner Kourtney Keegan.

SECOND-YEAR SUCCESS

• Entering the Georgia match, sophomore Kourtney Keegan was riding a 10-match winning streak in singles, the longest active streak by a Gator this season, but had the streak snapped by Georgia's Kennedy Shaffer.

BIG STAGE BRI

• Junior Brianna Morgan has clinched a team-leading nine matches for the Gators, including UF's NCAA First Round win against Bethune-Cookman. She is currently riding a team-leading seven-match singles winning streak and has won all three of her singles matches in NCAA action this season. Hometown Hero

• Freshman Peggy Porter clinched a major 4-3 victory over Texas A&M on the road in her home state of Texas. Porter has posted a singles point in six of her last seven outings.

NATIONAL INDOORS RECAP

• Florida reached the semifinal round of the ITA National Team Indoor Championship following wins over No. 13 Clemson (4-3) and No. 10 Virginia (4-1). The Gators fell to the eventual champion No. 3 UNC Tar Heels, 4-0, in the semis.

PICK SIX

• Six different players on the Florida roster picked up a singles point in a Gator uniform on her 20th birthday (Jan. 25) as part of the 4-0 victory over #68 Maryland. Coincidentally, Liang hails from Potomac, Md.

A SPECIAL WIN

• Spencer Liang, a transfer from Harvard, picked up her first singles win in a Gator uniform on her 20th birthday (Jan. 25) as part of the 4-0 victory over #68 Maryland. Coincidentally, Liang hails from Potomac, Md.

FRESHMAN FIRSTS

• Three freshmen competed in their first collegiate dual match in the season-opener vs. Elon: Brooke Austin, Josie Kuhlman and Peggy Porter. All three picked up their first doubles wins, while Austin and Porter tallied their first singles wins as well.

43RD SEASON

- The 2014-15 season was the 43rd year UF has sponsored a varsity women's tennis team.
- The Gators finished the year with an overall record of 975-142 (.872).

OPENING DAY SUCCESS

• The Gators defeated Elon, 4-0, in their first match of the season on Jan. 24, 2015 to open the ITA Kick-Off Weekend in Gainesville. Florida improved to 40-3 all-time in season-opening dual matches. UF has won 31 consecutive season-openers, with the last loss being a 7-2 setback at Miami on Feb. 1, 1985.

QUICK 2014 FALL RECAP

- Freshman Brooke Austin highlighted the early campaign by reaching the semifinals of two national events and compiled a 13-2 record.
- Fellow rookies Josie Kuhlman and Peggy Porter impressed in their first collegiate fall season, going 18-4 and 10-4 in singles, respectively, and 11-4 as a doubles tandem.

RIVIERA/ITA ALL-AMERICAN RECAP & HIGHLIGHTS

• Brooke Austin played her way through three

A great crowd cheered the Gators to a 4-2 victory against Stanford on Feb. 24, 2013, in the USTA's first-ever College Match-Day event.

qualifying matches to reach the main draw, where she advanced to the semifinals and earned an automatic bid to the National Indoor Intercollegiate Championship

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE: THE NATION'S TOP TENNIS CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference men's and women's tennis programs continue to be among the nation's leaders on the collegiate hardcourt.

Nine of the 12 schools earned a berth into the 2015 NCAA Championships, with three advancing to the finals site and at least the round of 16. Vanderbilt and Georgia were the SEC institutions to reach the semifinals.

All nine of the SEC's national women's team titles have come in the last 23 years, with Florida's six (1992, 1996, 1998, 2003, 2011 and 2012, Georgia's two (1994 and 2000) and Vanderbilt's one (2015).

SEC Women's Tennis By the Numbers....

- 9 NCAA team championships (1992, '94, '96, '98, 2000, '03, '11, '12, '15)
- 10 NCAA runner-up teams (1987, '88, '89, '95, '97, '99, 2001, '02, '10, '13)
- 20 straight years with a team in national semifinals (1987-2006)
- 7 NCAA singles titles (1984, '88, '92, '93, '94, '96, 2010)
- 6 NCAA doubles titles (1989, '91, '96, '97, 2001, 2015)
- 139 singles ITA All-Americans since 1990
- 164 doubles ITA All-Americans since 1990

The 1996 Gator squad was one of the most dominating teams in SEC and collegiate history, running through the league dual match season with a combined 76-1 singles record and a 26-1 doubles mark that included regular season and tournament action. UF also swept all nine SEC First Team honors. Not only did the 1996 team win the SEC regular-season and tournament titles, the Gators swept the NCAA team, singles and doubles championships, as well.

The 1984 team began a streak of winning five consecutive SEC championships.

The 2013 sweep of the SEC regular-season and tournament titles was the 16th time Florida has won both championships in the same season.

SEC AWARDS HISTORY

Prior to 1990, there was no distinction between singles and doubles All-SEC honors and only in 1987 and 1993 have the league coaches selected a first- and second-team All-SEC team. In 1994, the format for the award was changed again with the top player(s) at each position (based on record) earning All-SEC honors with the coaches also selecting an at-large squad. In 1995, the second team consisted of all doubles honorees (By position and at-large). The awards changed again in 2005, when the First Team selections were voted on by the league's coaches and the Second Team honorees were determined by the best record at each position. In 2006, the same selection format used in 2005 was followed, but there was no differentiation between singles and doubles awards. (u) indicates unanimous selection by the coaches.

THE HISTORY OF GATOR WOMEN'S TENNIS

1971-72

- The inaugural women's tennis program is comprised of an intercollegiate team and a competitive club squad. Players who did not make the first 10 positions were members of the club. Linda Hall Thornton was the team's first coach.

1972-73

- The inaugural varsity women's tennis team posts a 9-0 victory over Trenton State on Jan. 5, 1973 in its season opener to begin a winning tradition.
- Sue Whiddon, who had served as Flagler College's Athletics Director, coaches the team to a 5-3 record. Whiddon serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1973-74

- The team makes its first appearance in national competition, finishing 14th at the AIAW Championships.
- The Gainesville Sun nicknames UF's women's teams "Lady Gators."

1974-75

- Judy Acker becomes the first Florida player to win the state singles title.
- The Lady Gators end the season finishing seventh in the nation.
- Sue Whiddon opts to leave the coaching ranks to pursue her doctoral studies at Florida Atlantic University. She currently serves as a graduate coordinator and teacher in the department of Exercise and Sport Sciences at UF.

1975-76

- B.E. Palmer is selected to coach the team.
- Five of the nine players receive athletic scholarships for the first time ever.
- The Lady Gators finish the season in 12th place.
- Judy Acker is named to the first-ever women's All-American Tennis Team.

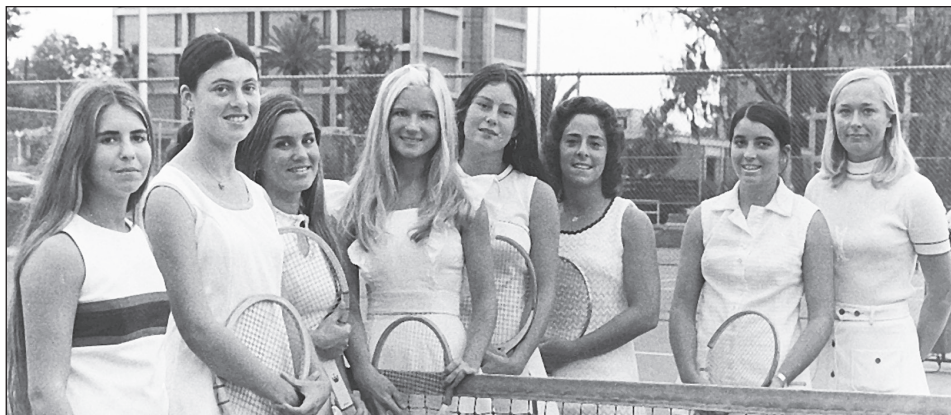

1976-77

- Former player Debbie Dunkin becomes the program's first assistant coach.
- Sherry Acker joins her sister Judy on the tennis team, and team-up to finish an impressive third place at the AIAW National Doubles Championships.

Debbie Dunkin (left) and UF's first All-American Judy Acker pose with the championship trophy for their 1976 state doubles title.

- The Lady Gators defeat powerful Rollins College 6-3 for the first time in school history.
- UF ends the year in fifth place, its highest AIAW national finish.

The 1971-72 Lady Gator tennis team

1977-78

- The Lady Gators claim a share of the FAIAW state title for the first time ever when they tie with Rollins.
- UF advances to the regional championships played in Oxford, Miss., and defeats Rollins in a playoff for the Region III tennis crown.
- UF finishes the year in fourth place, which is one spot above its national ranking the previous season.
- The Lady Gators are honored at their season-ending banquet for maintaining a 3.8 team grade point average.

1978-79

- Liz Broughton, who played at Rollins, becomes UF's third coach.
- The Lady Gators end the season with a sixth-place national finish.
- Junior Joyce Portman leads the team in overall singles victories with a 29-7 record.

1979-80

- The Lady Gators capture the inaugural SEC Championship.
- UF wins the FAIAW State championship.
- The Lady Gators win the AIAW Region Championships and advance to the National AIAW Tournament.
- LSU hosts the first Division I Championships under AIAW's new division structure which includes 24 teams, 64 singles and 32 doubles players. The Lady Gators end the season as national runners-up, their highest finish ever.
- Joyce Portman ends her senior year with a career dual match record of 51-10, the most wins in program history.

1980-81

- The Lady Gators win their second straight SEC Championship
- UF finishes in fourth place at the AIAW National Tournament.
- Coach Liz Broughton resigns her position at the end of the season to work on her doctorate.

1981-82

- Former Gator tennis player Steve Beeland is named the team's fourth head coach.
- Cissie Donigan returns as the only Lady Gator to achieve All-State, All Region and AIAW All-America honors.
- The Gators claim their third SEC title, defeating surprise finalist Ole Miss in the finals.
- The team finishes 10th at the inaugural NCAA Tennis Championship for women, losing 5-4 to South Carolina in Salt Lake City, Utah.

1982-83

- The Lady Gators lose four starters from last year, and have their top two spots filled by freshman Kathy Holton and transfer Julie Quamme.
- The team loses to Georgia 5-4 and settles for second place at the SEC Championships.
- UF falls to UCLA 7-2 in the first round of the NCAA Championships.

DOROTHY ANDERSON SCHOLARSHIP

Neal Anderson, a former Gator running back and eight-year NFL veteran with the Chicago Bears who retired prior to the 1994 season, fully endowed a women's tennis scholarship at the University of Florida in October of 1991. The scholarship is named in memory of Anderson's mother, Dorothy, who passed away in 1987 after a long bout with Hodgkin's Disease. Anderson is the first professional athlete to fully endow a scholarship using a cash gift at Florida.

"The scholarship is named in memory of my mother," said Anderson, who was an NFL first-round pick in 1986 by the Chicago Bears. "She would be extremely proud to know about the scholarship and the opportunities it will give someone. My mother loved sports but she made it very clear from day one that school came first. She made sure that I never misunderstood my responsibility to receive a good education while in school."

"I think women's athletics is a great part of the University of Florida. I wanted to contribute to women's tennis for a combination of reasons but mostly because its an area that is still growing. It is a successful program and they need support. Football has always been — at all schools — a program that is taken care of first. I wanted to help out where it is most needed."

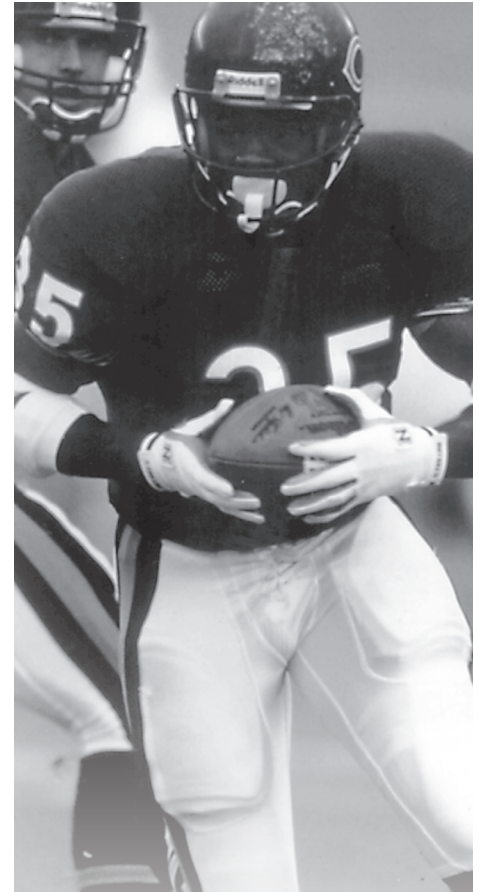

Anderson became involved with the tennis program while serving on the Lady Gator Boosters Association Committee. He attended four NCAA women's championships, which his alma mater played host to in 1989, 1990, 1999 and 2003.

Olivia Janowicz is the 2013-14 recipient of the Dorothy Anderson Scholarship.

During a visit to the Varsity Courts, Neal Anderson took time out for a photograph of the first-ever recipients of the Dorothy Anderson Memorial Scholarship. (Left to Right): Former Coach Andy Brandi, Andrea Farley, Sue Rappenecker, Neal Anderson and Lisa Raymond.

Two-time Pro Bowl running back and first-round draft choice Neal Anderson is not only an avid tennis fan, but a gracious supporter of Gator Tennis. In 1990, the University of Florida graduate and SEC Academic Honor Roll selection fully endowed a scholarship in memory of his mother, Dorothy.

The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) sanctions the three legs of the collegiate singles and doubles Grand Slam events as well as the ITA National Team Indoor Championships and the NCAA Team Championships. The tournament legs in order contested: Riviera All-American; ITA/USTA National Indoor (formerly sponsored by ROLEX); and NCAA Championships. From 1986-2001, there were four national events, but the ITA National Clay Court Championships is no longer played.

2003 NCAA Team Championships

May 9-18 • Gainesville, Florida

First Round	d. Florida Atlantic 4-0
Second Round	d. Tulane 4-1
Round of 16	d. Arizona State 4-0
Quarterfinals	d. Vanderbilt 4-0
Semifinals	d. Duke 4-1
Final	d. Stanford 4-3

May 18, 2003 * Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex Gainesville, Fla.

Every national championship is special, but the fourth one claimed by the University of Florida women's tennis team perhaps might be the one that Gator tennis fans cherish the most.

When junior Julie Rotondi raised her arms in the air for the final time and sprinted toward her exuberant teammates, it marked the first time in the illustrious 31-year history of the program that Gators had won the NCAA title on their home court.

Florida played host to the NCAA Championships for the fifth time in the 22-year history of the event and the 2003 squad was the third to reach the title match played in Gainesville. Each of the three times UF has advanced the final on their home court, Gators fans have responded. The 2003 championship match was no exception, as a spirited sellout crowd of 1,132 packed Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex, giving the Gators a definite home court advantage and celebrated the national championship with the team.

The 2003 event was the 10th NCAA Championship ever hosted by UF and the women's tennis team became the second to win the title in front of their loyal Gator fans. The 1982 women's swimming & diving team was the only other Gator team to win the national championship in Gainesville.

UF's lone senior, Julia Scaringe, celebrated her 22nd birthday in style: playing her final collegiate team match on her home court and helping the Gators win the NCAA title.

Florida ended the year on a 20-match home winning streak, sporting an 18-0 record during the 2003 campaign.

While winning the NCAA title with a 4-3 upset of top-ranked and two-time defending champion Stanford clearly was the highlight of the 2003 season, it certainly wasn't the only accomplishment of the Gators.

Florida captured the 2003 SEC regular season title before winning the 2003 SEC Tournament crown. The Gators returned to the National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 1999 and reached the final before losing a 4-3 battle to Duke. Florida received a program-record-tying eight individual bids into the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships, including a program-high three doubles teams.

Semifinals	d. Georgia 5-1
Final	d. Duke 5-1

1998 Women's Tennis NCAA Champions
May 24, 1998 * Notre Dame, Ind.

Senior Dawn Buth and freshman Stephanie Hazlett rallied to win singles matches within moments of each other and capped Florida's 5-1 victory over Duke, which gave the Gators (27-0) their third NCAA Championship.

Florida also had undefeated teams when it won the 1992 and 1996 titles.

"This is overwhelming. That match was so closely contested. It went back and fourth, back and fourth. Dawn and Stephanie seemed to be in control of their matches and then the next it looked like they lost total momentum," UF coach Andy Brandi said. "Emotionally, this was one of the most grueling matches that I've been a part of in 14 years of coaching college tennis. It was amazing to see the fight and see them gut it out. There were brave when they needed to be brave. There were tough when it got to the tough times. I feel like all of this is a dream and it really hasn't sunk in."

Buth, who with fellow senior Bonnie Bleecker, guided UF to a 116-4 dual match record during their four-year careers, took a 4-1 lead in the third set against Vanessa Webb at the no. 1 position. Webb fought back and was serving for the match ahead 5-4. But Buth swept the next three games, twice on Webb's serve, and rallied for a 1-6, 6-3, 7-5 victory that gave UF a 4-1 lead.

"I couldn't have asked for a better way to end my career," Buth said. "I'm really proud of this team."

Stephanie Nickitas defeated Megan Miller 6-3, 6-2 at the no. 3 position to give Florida a 1-0 lead. Freshmen M.C. White and Whitney Laiho also won singles matches to set the stage for Buth's and Hazlett's heroics.

1996 Women's Tennis NCAA Champions

May 21, 1996 * Tallahassee, Fla.

Senior Lori Ann Freedman blasted a backhand winner down the line and gave the Gator women's tennis team its second NCAA Championship title, with a 5-2 victory over No. 2 Stanford.

Freedman paired with fellow senior Jill Craybas at the No. 3 doubles position and downed 60th-ranked Emily Burt and Beth Berris, 6-2, 7-6 (5), in the clinching match.

Six days following the team title, Craybas won the NCAA Singles title and the pair of Dawn Buth and Stephanie Nickitas won the NCAA Doubles crown, as Florida became only the second team in history to sweep the three NCAA titles (team, singles & doubles) and seal its place as one of the most dominating teams in collegiate history.

Head Coach Andy Brandi was recognized as the Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year and the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, as she collected his 300th career win while guiding the Gators to a perfect 31-0 record.

Gator freshman Stephanie Nickitas, the lone rookie on the team, put Florida on the board early with a decisive 6-1, 6-1 victory over Amy Chiminello at the no. 6 singles position. Chiminello has lost only twice this season and both setbacks have been to Nickitas.

The team lead was short-lived, as Stanford charged back behind Julie Scott's 6-3, 6-2 victory over Bonnie Bleecker at the No. 5 slot. Craybas answered with a 6-3, 6-4 win over Ania Bleszynski at the No. 1 position. Moments later, Divya Merchant dropped a tough 7-6 (2), 6-3 decision at No. 3 to Sandra De Silva as the team score was knotted at 2-all. That's when the drama began, as No. 2 and No. 4 singles entered the third and decisive set.

Senior Lisa Pugliese dropped the first set at no. 4 to Kim Shasby after leading 5-3. However the veteran regained her composure and produced a 5-7, 6-1, 6-1 victory that lifted UF to a 3-2 lead in the team score.

Sophomore Dawn Buth, dubbed by some as the "Michael Chang" of women's college tennis, entered her 18th three-set match of the year after winning the first set but dropped the second to Katie Schlukebir. Buth slugged it out with Schlukebir and emerged with the 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 win - her 14th in three-set matches - and provided Florida a 4-2 advantage entering doubles play.

1992 NCAA Champions

In a season of fulfilled Florida dominance, the Gators found their third trip to the NCAA Finals would be a charm by defeating No. 3 Texas, 5-3. Sophomore Kristin Osmond depicted the team's aggressive character, saving two match points before pulling out a three-hour win at No. 5 singles.

Osmond then teamed with Erika Kuttler to win at No. 3 doubles and clinch the Gator's first NCAA Team Championship.

Florida completed the perfect season: 30-0 undefeated record, NCAA Champions, National Women's Indoor Team Championship, Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championship. In addition, the Gators won each of the eight singles tournament in which they competed, including three collegiate grand slam titles by freshman Lisa Raymond.

Raymond became the first player in NCAA history, either male or female, to win three collegiate grand slam titles by claiming the NCAA Championship, National Clay Court and ROLEX National Indoor crowns. Raymond upset Georgia's top-seeded Shannan McCarthy in 63 minutes, 6-3, 6-3 for the NCAA crown. Raymond was unanimously chose the National Rookie of the Year and Tennis Magazine's Collegiate Player of the Year.

ACTIVE STREAKS (THRU 2014 SEASON)

- Florida has won 146 HOME consecutive regular-season (not including SEC Tournament or NCAA Championship) matches.

The Gators last regular-season setback at Linder Stadium was on April 7, 2002, when Georgia defeated Florida, 4-3.

The current streak is the longest of its kind in program history, passing the 71 in a row compiled from 1994-2001. The record-tying victory was a thrilling 4-3 upset win over then-No. 2 Georgia on March 13, while the record-breaker was a 5-2 upset against then-No. 15 Tennessee on March 15.

- Florida sports an overall program-record HOME 148-match win streak, including 23 wins in postseason play (SEC and NCAA Tournament). The Gators set a new standard with their 6-1 victory over Mississippi State on March 29, 2009. The previous record was the 60-match home winning streak that stretched from the 1993-94 season until May 23, 1999, when Stanford halted the run in the final of the NCAA Championship.

The last time the Gators fell at home came on May 15, 2004, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Miami (Fla.), 4-3.

INCREDIBLE GATOR STREAKS

- On March 5, 2000, fifth-ranked Wake Forest upset Florida 5-4 in Winston-Salem, N.C., snapping the Gators' regular-season dual match winning streak at 114 consecutive victories.
- Stanford ended Florida's program-record overall dual match winning streak at 62 matches, claiming a 5-1 decision on May 18, 1997 in the final of the NCAA Championship held in Palo Alto, Calif.
- March 28, 2001 was a bitter cold and windy evening at the Ring Tennis Complex, where No. 5 Florida lost 4-1 to No. 2 Duke, a defeat that snapped the Gators' 64-match regular-season home winning streak.
- Florida boasted a remarkable 108-0 all-time home record against SEC opponents until April 7, 2002, when No. 2 Georgia handed the Gators a 4-3 setback.
- The Gators had won 69 consecutive dual matches against SEC opponents until No. 8 Ole Miss upset Florida with a 5-4 decision on April 25, 1999 in the final of the SEC Tournament. The loss also snapped an overall win streak of 53 straight dual match victories.
- Lisa Raymond ended her collegiate career on a 44-match singles win streak, capturing a pair of NCAA titles.
- The Gator doubles team of Whitney Laiho and Jessica Lehnhoff won a program-record 29 consecutive doubles matches during the 2000-01 season.

ALFRED A. RING TENNIS COMPLEX

The entrance to the Ring Tennis Complex, which includes the Scott Linder Stadium

The Gator women's tennis program has always been the benefactor of one of the nation's top tennis facilities. Thanks to multiple generous contributions of the late Dr. Alfred A. Ring, the entire facility has undergone several upgrades to make it one of the best in the country.

The Alfred Ring Tennis Complex was completed during in January of 1999, following a $1.7 million renovation project. The focal point is a building adjacent to the courts that serves as home to the men's and women's teams.

In December 2012, the lavish $1.5 million addition to the Ring Tennis Complex was finished and the University of Florida became one of just two universities in the state with indoor tennis capability.

Thanks to the generous contributions of Nancy Perry, The Charles R. and Nancy V. Perry Indoor Tennis Facility is a 22,800-square foot area that is ventilated and features three courts (with regulation space around them), state-of-the-art surfacing and lighting, plus a small area for fans to watch matches.

The Perry facility replaces the covered pavilion that was built nearly 20 years ago.

Enhancements were made throughout the Ring Tennis Complex during the summer of 2011, recognizing each of the Gator men's and women's championships teams, as well as its NCAA Singles and Doubles Champions underneath the Scott Linder Stadium.

The main building of the complex encompasses 5,620 square feet and includes coaches' offices for the men's and women's teams, as well as a training room and locker rooms for both players and coaches. There is also a conference room, a reception area and a 3,000 square-foot courtyard. The complex has a locker room for opposing teams, bringing the total building areas to 7,163 square feet.

The complex also features Scott Linder Stadium, a 1,000-seat grandstand overlooking six main lighted courts, in addition to a second row of six courts. The courts, which are resurfaced every two years – most recently in the summer of 2012, are made of a hard court surface similar to the type of court found at the U.S. Open.

The grandstand is highlighted by a two-level, 15-seat press box and features six electronic scoreboards over each of the six courts, providing point-by-point updates on all six grandstand courts. Concessions and restrooms are conveniently located beneath the grandstand.

The attractive complex is surrounded by palm trees and a lush green landscape that easily makes it one of the most inviting tennis environments for both the spectator and the competitor. Even prior to the 1999 renovation, the Alfred A. Ring Complex received national attention for its splendor.

The NCAA selected the University of Florida as the host for the 1989, 1990, 1993, 1999 and 2003 NCAA Division I Women's Championships. The facility has played host to the NCAA Women's First & Second Round sub-regional each year since 1999, when the tournament field was expanded to 64 teams.

“We’ll be able to hit balls come rain or shine, which can only add to our development as a program and the development of our players,” UF women’s tennis head coach Roland Thornqvist said.

The Perry facility replaces the covered pavilion that was built nearly 20 years ago.

As tradition, coach Roland Thornqvist signs one of the facility’s beams during the ‘topping off’ ceremony.

The first time the facility was put to match use was on Feb. 24, 2013, when the Gators hosted Stanford and rain forced the final three singles matches indoors. Florida defeated the Cardinal, 4-2.
