THE STORYLINE

Kicking Off The Mullen Era

- Dan Mullen returns to the Gators' sideline for the first time since 2008, when he was Florida's offensive coordinator and helped the Gators to their second BCS National Championship Game victory in three seasons.
- Florida head coaches are 19-7 in their debuts.
- Ironically, Mullen faced Charleston Southern in last year's season opener at Mississippi State. The Bulldogs won 49-0, lifting Mullen to 7-2 in season-opening games as a head coach.

Slumping Offense? Mullen's Fixed One Before

- Florida finished the 2017 season outside the top 100 in total offense, passing offense, and scoring offense.
- The Gators have not finished in the top 100 in scoring offense since 2014, have not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th after the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida appears to have the perfect man for the job of reviving its offense, though. Mississippi State ranked 42nd (420.4 yards per game) among FBS teams in total offense from 2009-17. The nine seasons before Mullen's arrival, the Bulldogs were 114th (313.3 yards).
- On a plus side, Florida's offense rushed for 200-plus yards three times last season. Mullen coached Mississippi State to 44 games of 225-plus rushing yards--and won 36 of them.

- More information and charts that bring Mullen's work at Mississippi State into perspective are on Page 9.

The (Other) Streak

- Although Florida's 27-game winning streak in season openers was snapped with its loss to No. 11 Michigan in Arlington, Texas last year, the Gators enter Saturday having won 28 consecutive HOME openers.
- Florida boasts the longest active streak in the country, ahead of Oklahoma State (22) and Wisconsin (22).
- Prior to 2017, Florida's last loss in a home or season opener came on Sept. 8, 1989, when the Gators lost to Ole Miss, 24-19.

Gators Returning Numerous Starters

- Florida returns 20 starters (10 offense, 9 defense, 1 specialist) from last year's team--which is tied for third among all FBS programs.
- Only Baylor (22) and Michigan State (22) return more, while Michigan, UAB, and Utah State bring back 20 just like the Gators.
- Florida and Michigan State are the only FBS teams in the country returning 19 position starters, as both bring back 10 on offense, nine on defense.

RETURNING DEFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- Florida's 14 interceptions last season were tied for second among SEC teams, and its 1.27 interceptions per game ranked 19th nationally. The Gators' 166 interceptions since 2008 rank fourth among FBS programs, trailing Boise State (175), Ohio State (172), and Alabama (168).
- The Gators returned three of those interceptions for touchdowns, a feat only 18 other teams (all of whom played at least 13 games to UF's 11) accomplished. Since 1999, Florida's 43 interception return touchdowns lead all FBS programs by three.
- Florida had a pair of three-interception games last season (Tennessee, at South Carolina), marking the first time the Gators accomplished that since 2014.
- The Gators (four), Alabama (five) and South Carolina (five) were the only SEC teams with more than three multi-interception games in 2017.
- Sophomore cornerback CJ Henderson had four of those interceptions, returning two for touchdowns. Henderson was one of five true freshmen in the country with four interceptions, and he was one of two true freshmen in the nation with two interception return touchdowns last year.
- Henderson's four picks were the second-highest total by a true freshman in school history, with John Clifford's seven in 1970 being the UF true freshman record.
- Sophomore cornerback Marco Wilson--brother of current Indianapolis Colts and former Gators cornerback Quincy Wilson-- led Florida with 10 pass breakups last season. Wilson's 10 PBUs were the most by a Florida true freshman since Vernon Hargreaves III's 11 in 2013.
- Junior linebacker David Reese was one of eight SEC players to log a 100-tackle season last year. Reese finished with 102 tackles, led the Gators in tackles 10 out of 11 games, and had a career-high 14 against Florida State.
- Florida finished 31st nationally in total defense last season (349.3 yards allowed per game), marking the first time since 2014 it finished outside the top 10, and outside the top 15 for the first time since 2007.
- Since 2005, only the Gators and Alabama have ended the season in the top 10 nationally in total defense more than seven times.
 - » Alabama, Florida - 10 times / LSU, Ohio State - 7 times / Virginia Tech, Wisconsin - 6 times

RETURNING OFFENSIVE HIGHLIGHTS

- Despite missing the final four games of the season due to a knee injury, sophomore running back Malik Davis posted the fourth-most net rushing yards (526) by a Florida true freshman since 1996: Earnest Graham (654 - 1999), Jeff Demps (605 - 2008), DeShawn Wynn (540 - 2003).
- Junior Lamical Perine's nine total touchdowns in 2017 were the fifth-most by a UF running back since 1996, behind Kelvin Taylor (13 - 2015), Ciatrick Fason (12 - 2004), Mike Gillislee (11 - 2012), Earnest Graham (11 - 2002).
- Even amid UF's offensive woes last season, it managed to rush for at least 165 yards in six consecutive games (Tennessee-Georgia) for the first time since 2009. UF also averaged 170.9 rushing yards over its final 10 games.
- Aiding Florida's ground game is the return of all five starters along the offensive line. The Gators are one of 18 programs returning all five starting offensive linemen for 2018. Tackles Martez Ivey (senior) and Jawaan Taylor (junior) return a combined 53 starts, and they were the only offensive linemen to start all 11 games a year ago.
- One thing the Gators did do well offensively last season was convert opportunities in the red zone. Florida went 30-for-31 (96.77%) on red zone chances last year, ranking third nationally.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- UF has scored in 372 consecutive games--which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS teams that have not lost a game to a team which finished the season with a losing record. In addition, the Gators are one of seven teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss (Alabama, Auburn, LSU, Michigan, Navy, Ohio State).

FLORIDA 49, MARSHALL 14 (Gainesville, Fla.) -- Rex Grossman opened his 3,896-yard, 34-touchdown season with 386 yards--still a UF record for a season-opening game--and three touchdowns. The Gators thumped Marshall, which was led by future NFL quarterback Byron Leftwich. Little did fans know at the time, this would be the final season opener Steve Spurrier coached for the Gators, as he took the Washington Redskins' head coaching job at the end of the season.

Gainesville, Fla. - The No. 1 Florida Gators opened the 2009 football season with a 62-3 win against the Charleston Southern Buccaneers Saturday at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. A crowd of 90,621, the second-largest crowd for a season-opener in UF history, came out to watch the Gators chalk up the first win of the season after holding CSU to just a field goal.

Senior quarterback Tim Tebow connected with three different Gators in the air, completing 10-of-15 attempts for 188 yards and one touchdown in less than a half of play. Tebow teamed up with senior wide receiver Riley Cooper for 105 yards on the night, including a 68-yard completion between the duo that led to UF's first score. Additionally, Tebow scored on a one-yard quarterback keeper to kick off the second quarter.

The Gator running back corps dominated on the ground for 369 yards, while the Gators racked up a total of 255 yards in the air.

Sophomore running back Jeff Demps scored two rushing touchdowns in the first half alone, one an eight-yarder and the other a 23-yard scamper. Demps' eight-yard run opened the scoring and was set up by Cooper's 68-yard grab.

With 4:40 left in the first quarter, redshirt sophomore running back Chris Rainey took a 76-yard rush to the house on a one play drive that only took 13 seconds, becoming only the second player in Florida history to own two touchdown runs of 75 or more yards (Neal Anderson, 80 and 76 in 1983 and 1984).

In addition to the offensive charge, Florida's strong defensive stance Saturday was highlighted by a second-quarter A.J. Toscano interception by junior safety Major Wright that halted a Charleston Southern drive. The Gators took advantage of the turnover, marching 84 yards downfield and capping the drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass from Tebow, giving UF a 35-0 advantage following the extra point.

The Buccaneers responded and put three points on the board with 5:37 in the first half when junior kicker John Paglia found the uprights for Charleston Southern after a 48 yard, seven-play drive.

Senior athlete Brandon James didn't let the CSU field goal slow down the Gators' offensive efforts after rallying for an 85-yard kick-off return for a touchdown, the first score on a kick return since former Gator Bo Carroll did so in 1999. James' became the second player in Florida history to own both punt and kick off returns for scores.

After entering the locker room ahead 42-3 at the half, a multitude of Gators saw action in the second half as Brantley took over at quarterback, eventually stretching the final score to 62-3.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

ARLINGTON, Texas -- The lead up to Saturday's much-anticipated opener between Florida and Michigan in the AdvoCare Classic lasted for more than three years, ever since the schools agreed to the deal in December 2013.

Unfortunately for the Gators, the hype was more successful than their performance in a 33-17 loss to the Wolverines in front of an announced crowd of 75,802 at AT&T Stadium. The Gators failed to score an offensive touchdown as they lost to the Wolverines for the second time in 20 months.

Check out more in our first Quick Slant of the season:

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators lost their season opener for the first time since 1989 to Ole Miss. Their streak of 27 consecutive wins to open the season was the longest active streak in the country prior to Saturday's loss. Ohio State now owns the nation's longest streak of season-opening wins with 18 in a row.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Feleipe Franks became the first redshirt freshman to start at quarterback for the Gators in 29 years. Franks completed the first pass of his career to Josh Hammond for 34 yards on UF's opening drive. However, Franks got no help from the running game and was replaced by Malik Zaire late in the third quarter. Franks finished 5 of 9 for 75 yards and was sacked once.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators were unable to sustain drives and that allowed the Wolverines' defense to get off the field quick and their offense get to work. Despite benching starting quarterback Wilton Speight for a stretch after a pair of interceptions, he returned to help Michigan rack up 433 yards of offense. Florida finished with only 192. In a pair of losses to Michigan in a span of 15 games, the Wolverines have accumulated 935 yards of offense.

SUBPLOT: The Gators staged a three-man quarterback battle during preseason camp that resulted in head coach Jim McElwain naming Franks the starter three days before the game. Zaire played Saturday as well, going 9 of 17 for 106 yards and five sacks. Meanwhile, Luke Del Rio, who started six games a year ago, did not play. McElwain declined to say if the competition is once again open entering the second game, so stay tuned. Franks was replaced Saturday primarily to give a different look for Michigan's defense, not because of his performance.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- On a warm and muggy afternoon at The Swamp, the Gators and Tennessee staggered through the humidity much of their Southeastern Conference opener on Saturday.

And then the fourth quarter happened. The teams combined for five touchdowns and a field goal in the final 15 minutes after only three field goals (two for UF, one for UT) over the first 45 minutes

The only one that mattered in the end was the last score -- a 63-yard Hail Mary from Feleipe Franks to Tyrie Cleveland on the game's final play.

Gators win! Gators win!

"That was a lot of fun," Florida head coach Jim McElwain said. "Our guys figured out a way to win."

Here is more in our Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators needed something good to happen Saturday and they got it, not only avoiding their first 0-2 start in 46 years, but with one 70-yards-in-the-air throw by Franks, a dose of hope for the future. Florida was a frustrated team after losing to Michigan in the season opener and then having to wait two weeks to play again due to Hurricane Irma. The wait proved worth it as they dogpiled in the end zone and the crowd in the Swamp roared.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Making his first career start at home, Franks finished 18 of 28 for 212 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Franks took a while to get comfortable, but he made some good throws in key moments, none more than the Hail Mary pass that hit Cleveland in stride about three yards into the end zone.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators won their 28th consecutive home opener and first over an SEC opponent since defeating Kentucky in 1992. Another one: The winning-touchdown pass to Cleveland went for 63 yards, exactly the same as Will Grier's touchdown pass to Antonio Callaway two years ago to knock off the Vols in the final moments.

SUBPLOT: The Gators had gone eight consecutive quarters without an offensive touchdown, a streak that appeared to end when freshman running back Malik Davis rolled 74 yards for a score early in the fourth quarter. However, officials reviewed the play and ruled Davis was stripped from behind at the 2-yard line and fumbled the ball out of the back of the end zone. Instead, they had to wait until later in the quarter when Franks connected with Brandon Powell for his first career touchdown throw to put UF ahead 20-10.

If the phrase, "Florida steals a win from Tennessee in the fourth quarter with a deep ball" feels like it has a familiar ring to it, that's because it does. Like 2016, the Gators broke their rival's heart, this time via Feleipe Franks' Hail Mary to Tyrie Cleveland as time expired.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- The streak is over. Wait, the streak lives!

It was that kind of night at Kroger Field on Saturday as the Gators won 28-27, the final play a 57-yard missed field goal by Wildcats kicker Austin MacGinnis as time expired.

The No. 20-ranked Gators appeared in serious trouble when they fell behind 27-14 early in the final quarter. Instead, they responded to knock off the Wildcats and deflate a sold-out crowd at Kroger Field ready to celebrate an upset.

Here is more in our Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida improves to 2-1, 2-0 in conference play. Oh, I know what you're waiting on. Yes, the Gators somehow found a way to defeat the Wildcats for the 31st consecutive year, the longest active streak in college football against an opponent in an uninterrupted series, and fourth-longest all-time. Florida tied the game on Luke Del Rio's 6-yard scoring pass to Freddie Swain with 43 seconds left and Eddy Pineiro's PAT provided the go-ahead point.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Freshman running back Malik Davis burst onto the scene in last week's win over Tennessee when he broke free for what appeared a 74-yard touchdown run. However, a Tennessee defender knocked the ball out of Davis' hands at the 2-yard line and the ball rolled out of the end zone. Davis came back Saturday and finished strong, carrying 21 times for a team-high 93 yards to help turn the momentum in Florida's favor in the fourth quarter. A freshman from Tampa, Davis proved he can run outside or pick up tough yards inside if needed.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators passed for 209 yards but no player had more than 85. Starter Feleipe Franks threw for 85, Luke Del Rio for 74, and freshman Kadarius Toney threw a 50-yard completion to Tyrie Cleveland on a reverse in the fourth quarter.

SUBPLOT: Redshirt freshman Franks had a performance reminiscent of his outing against Michigan when he didn't make a glaring mistake, but the offense just wasn't effective. This time the Gators turned to Del Rio, who completed 9 of 14 passes for 74 yards. Now the obvious question: Who will start next week against Vanderbilt?

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The No. 21-ranked Gators did not need any late-game heroics on Saturday afternoon against Vanderbilt.

Florida (3-1, 3-0) dominated the second half on the way to a 38-24 victory over the Commodores (3-2, 0-2). The game was tied 17-17 at halftime but the Gators ground up Vanderbilt's defense after the break on the way to their third consecutive win to start conference play. Florida out-gained Vanderbilt 467-310 and controlled possession for 12 minutes more (36 minutes to 24).

Sophomore running back Lamical Perine rushed for three touchdowns and freshman Malik Davis added two more rushing scores as the Gators overcame the loss of quarterback Luke Del Rio, who suffered a shoulder/collar bone injury in the second quarter and was replaced by Feleipe Franks. Del Rio made his first start of the season and led the Gators on a pair of scoring drives in the first half.

Franks led two scoring drives after halftime as he moved back into the lineup after Del Rio replaced him in last week's win at Kentucky.

Gators head coach Jim McElwain announced that Del Rio will miss the rest of the season and is scheduled to undergo surgery Monday on a broken left collarbone.

WHAT IT MEANS: Del Rio knew he was hurt as soon as he dropped to the ground on a hit from Vanderbilt defensive lineman Dare Odeyingbo. Making his first start since last season's loss at Arkansas, Del Rio was 7 of 11 for 64 yards prior to his departure. It's a tough break for Del Rio, who has offseason surgery to repair his left and right shoulders and provided a boost to the offense in his brief time on the field.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Vanderbilt running back Ralph Webb needed only 82 yards to move up to 15th on the SEC's career-rushing list. You had to like Webb's chances considering in three career games against the Gators, Webb had rushed for 311 yards on 62 carries. The Gators stuffed the Gainesville native on Saturday, limiting Webb to 29 yards on 11 carries. The Gators out-rushed Vanderbilt 218 yards to 46.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators scored early to take a 7-0 lead on Perine's 1-yard run midway in the first quarter. Normally, an early score is not that big a deal. However, this time it marked the Gators' 365th consecutive game without being shut out, which ties Michigan's all-time mark set from 1984-2014. Florida has not been blanked since a 16-0 home loss to Auburn on Oct. 29, 1988.

SUBPLOT: Franks is back at quarterback after his benching last week at Kentucky. He looked better than he did in any of his previous three starts. Franks finished 10 of 14 for 185 yards and his 49-yard pass to Tyrie Cleveland late in the first half set up kicker Eddy Pineiro's 21-yard field goal to tie the game 17-all on the final play of the first half. Cleveland had to leave the game in the second half with a foot injury.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The Gators celebrated wildly on LSU's field a year ago.

This time it was LSU doing the dancing after its 17-16 win over the No. 21-ranked Gators.

"They came in, got after us on the line of scrimmage," Florida head coach Jim McElwain said. "The difference in the game was third downs. There's no denying that at all."

Florida struggled to convert third downs on offense (2 of 9) and had trouble stopping LSU on third down (6 of 14), especially in the first half as the Tigers outgained the Gators 204-135 prior to halftime.

A week after a season-high 467 yards against Vanderbilt, the Gators managed only 302 yards on Saturday.

"That's life in the SEC. Guys are hurting in that locker room and they should hurt," McElwain said. "We need to come back and have a good week. The disappointing thing is obviously not holding serve at home."

For an instant recap/analysis of today's game, here is The Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators lose their first SEC game of the season and drop back to the pack after winning their first three league games. For LSU, it was sweet revenge for what happened last season in Baton Rouge. Florida's offense remains a work in progress and it showed again on Saturday as the Gators managed only 135 yards in the first half and 302 overall. Quarterback Feleipe Franks took limited shots downfield and finished 10 of 16 for only 108 yards.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Despite trailing by just one in the fourth quarter, the Gators had three drives in the fourth quarter with an opportunity to take the lead. The Gators ran 13 plays but gained just 37 yards. "We've got to finish at the end," quarterback Feleipe Franks said. "That's what it comes down to. That's on me."

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Gators kicker Eddy Pineiro had attempted 46 extra points in his two seasons and made 46. He hooked his PAT after Perine's 1-yard run with 1:45 left in the third quarter. The miss proved to be crucial.

SUBPLOT: LSU showed up ready to play from the start, taking control of the line of scrimmage in the first half. Florida rallied in the second half, but in the end, the Gators had to watch the Tigers celebrate and run around Florida Field much like they did a year ago in Baton Rouge after defeating LSU to clinch a second consecutive SEC East title.

GAME 6 SUMMARY

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	Final

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The Florida defense kept the Gators in the game. Their quarterback, though he didn't throw for many yards, gave them the lead with a play that with a different final outcome could have been as memorable as the one he made against Tennessee a month ago.

In the end, though, Texas A&M made the plays and made the kicks, banging three field goals in the final quarter to defeat the Gators 19-17 in the first Southeastern Conference night game at the "Swamp" in two years.

Daniel LaCamera's third field goal, a 32-yarder with 58 seconds to play, proved the difference and handed the Gators a second straight defeat.

UF had one last possession and chance to win the game, but redshirt freshman quarterback Feleipe Franks, whose 79-yard run late in the third quarter that set up the go-head score had the joint buzzing, was intercepted on first down by middle linebacker Tyrel Dodson.

WHAT IT MEANS: Last week, Florida lost to an SEC opponent at home for the first time in Coach Jim McElwain's three seasons. Now they've lost two in a row with an open date to process it all. Going to be a loud next couple weeks.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Florida's defense made A&M and the nation's No. 23 offense -- which came in averaging nearly 425 yards a game -- really work for what it got, holding the Aggies to just 80 first-half yards and keeping them out off the end zone in the fourth quarter. In the middle of that effort was junior defensive lineman Taven Bryan, who was sensational. One one third-quarter series, A&M quarterback Kellen Mond took off for a 45-yard run, but the play was called back for holding because an Aggies lineman was whipped by Bryan up front. On the next play, Bryan bull-rushed his way into the backfield and forced Mond to run. He gained one yard. On the next play, Bryan destroyed his blocker and sacked Mond for a 10-yard loss. Bryan finished with seven tackles, including two for loss, and 1 1/2 sacks.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The UF Communications Department's "Stats Pass" account includes a super-detailed data base, but it only goes back to 1996. So, at worst, Franks' 79-yard run was the longest by a Florida quarterback in 22 years, but since we can all be pretty confident that no Steve Spurrier quarterback ever had a run of 79 yards, let's assume that statistic, when it's finally researched, will go back into the 1980s. Maybe even the '70s. Heck, let's not rule out the '60s. It was, for sure, the longest run by any UF player since Trey Burton went for 80 at Tennessee in 2012. Before the game was over, in fact, a communication dispatch went out to the media that Franks' run was "believed to be" the longest TD run by a quarterback in program history. That's 112 seasons of Florida football. We'll wait for a final word next week.

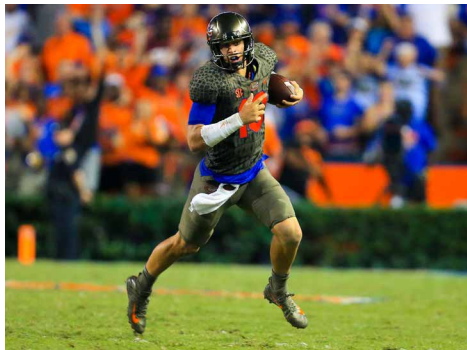

SUBPLOT: The "alligator-armor" alternate uniforms were unveiled via social media Monday to mixed reviews. Whether you liked them or not in action will be of personal preference -- and the haters certainly made their thoughts known via Twitter during the game -- but the players overwhelmingly approved of them because, well, players like different. No denying, these were different. Me? Wasn't a fan at first, but they grew on me. A touch of florescent orange might have been cool, but what do I know?

Feleipe Franks broke off a 79-yard run, the longest by a UF quarterback since at least 1996. The Gators also donned special "alligator armor" alternate uniforms in commemoration of the 25th year of their home stadium's nickname: The Swamp.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The orange and blue half of the stadium sat half-empty by the fourth quarter, and those who remained had little to cheer about.

No. 3-ranked Georgia (8-0, 5-0) took care of the Gators (3-4, 3-3) in decisive fashion on Saturday at sold-out EverBank Field. The Bulldogs scored three touchdowns on their first eight offensive plays en route to their largest win in the series since a 44-0 blanking of the Gators in 1982.

Florida avoided its first shutout loss since 1988 when running back Mark Thompson scored on a 1-yard run with less than four minutes left in the game.

Here is our Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida's quest for a third consecutive SEC East title is officially over and this appears a team lost in the woods for now. The Gators have dropped three consecutive games and fell behind by 21 points early in the first quarter as the Bulldogs snapped a three-game losing streak in the rivalry.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Florida head coach Jim McElwain faced intense media scrutiny in the days leading up to Saturday's game for his death-threat comments on Monday. He remained in the headlines leading up to Saturday's game as the Gators dropped under .500 (3-4) and 16-12 over the last 28 games.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Bulldogs senior running back Sony Michel had touchdown runs of 74 and 45 yards to average 22.8 yards per carry (6 rushes, 137 yards). Overall, Georgia averaged 8.3 yards per rush to shred Florida's defense (35 carries, 292 yards).

SUBPLOT: The Gators had to muster some sort of passing attack to upset the Bulldogs. It didn't happen. The Gators passed for only 66 yards as starter Feleipe Franks finished 7 of 19 for 30 yards and reserve Malik Zaire managed 36 yards with the game out of reach in the fourth quarter. Florida has 309 yards passing over the last three games.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Florida arrived here in search of a new beginning after an 0-3 October and the departure of ex-head coach Jim McElwain.

Instead, November started the way October ended for the Gators: with a lopsided loss.

Missouri (4-5, 1-4) ran out to an early lead and never looked back on the way to a 45-16 victory at Memorial Stadium. The Gators (3-5, 3-4) dropped their fourth consecutive Southeastern Conference game as the Tigers rolled to 455 total yards.

Here is more in The Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: The season has spiraled out of control and looks more and more like 2013 when injuries decimated the program and the Gators dropped their final seven regular-season games to finish with a losing record for the first time in 34 years. The Gators lost starting left guard Brett Heggie to a left knee injury in the first half Saturday, the latest blow to a team that can't afford any more punches to the gut. Florida has lost four consecutive games and is in danger of missing out on a bowl game for the second time in five seasons.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Graduate transfer quarterback Malik Zaire made his first start for the Gators. Zaire made some plays, missed some plays, but it was Missouri's offense and Florida's lack of defense that was the story of this game. Zaire finished 13 of 19 for 158 yards, no touchdowns and one interception. Zaire's best throw of the game was a 43-yard touchdown pass to Tyrie Cleveland that was negated due to a holding penalty on Martez Ivey.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators have been outscored 87-23 the past two weeks, losing 42-7 to Georgia and 45-16 to Missouri. According to ESPN Stats & Info, the back-to-back losses mark the first time since the 1917 season the Gators have allowed 42 or more points in consecutive games. (Three straight from Nov. 3-29, 1917).

SUBPLOT: Midseason coaching changes are always difficult, but some teams respond positively and play with a renewed sense of purpose. That was not the case Saturday for the Gators in their first game under interim head coach Randy Shannon. The Gators fell behind 14-0 early and never threatened Missouri's lead, mustering only three field goals from Eddy Pineiro until Lamical Perine caught a 16-yard touchdown from Feleipe Franks with 5 minutes, 34 seconds left in the game.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- The Gators lost again on Saturday. Searching for a silver lining? This time they made it more interesting than the past two.

Florida (3-6, 3-5) took over in a one-possession game with 3:19 left and picked up a first down, but a Feleipe Franks pass was tipped at the line of scrimmage and intercepted to end any hopes of a comeback against the Gamecocks (7-3, 5-3).

In back-to-back losses to Georgia and Missouri, the Gators were outscored 87-23 and put up little fight after falling behind early in both games.

"Guys went there and fought today. We did a lot of great things," interim head coach Randy Shannon said. "We did a lot of things we need to keep improving on. Had a chance at the end of the game. We worked on it, in a two-minute situation and have a chance to go up and score points and go for two at the end of the game and just couldn't get it done."

For more on Saturday's game, we offer The Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators lost their fifth consecutive game to ensure the program's second losing regular-season in the past five seasons. Florida has only two regular-season games remaining, and coupled with the cancellation of the Northern Colorado game, has only one shot at finishing .500 -- winning its final two games and getting a bowl bid at 5-6 and then winning a bowl game. Yes, unlikely I know. Simply stating the facts.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Making his second start, quarterback Malik Zaire suffered a knee injury in the second quarter. Zaire tried to return two plays later, but crumpled to the ground untouched. He did not return but did remain on the sideline as redshirt freshman Feleipe Franks finished the game. The severity of Zaire's injury remains uncertain. Zaire finished 7 of 14 for 49 yards prior to exiting the game. Meanwhile, Franks finished 10 of 25 for 174 yards and an interception.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators had 70 players on their travel squad at South Carolina, which is the maximum allowed by the SEC. Of those 70 players, only 58 are on scholarship, highlighting the team's injury woes of late. Zaire, starting center T.J. McCoy and defensive lineman Elijah Conliffe left Saturday's game due to injury.

SUBPLOT: In a season that has gone off the cliff, the Gators responded to sophomore linebacker David Reese's challenge to play more unified and with purpose. Reese did not like the way the Gators played in a 45-16 loss at Missouri last week and questioned the team's commitment. Florida fell behind 14-0 but never went in the tank and had the ball with three minutes left in a one-possession game until Franks' pass was tipped at the line of scrimmage and intercepted by Jamyest Williams to seal the win for South Carolina.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The Gators rediscovered what a win feels like on Saturday.

Mired in a five-game losing streak and playing at home for the first time in more than a month, Florida (4-6) scored early and often on the way to a 36-7 win over UAB (7-4) at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

Eddy Pineiro kicked five field goals, quarterback Feleipe Franks passed for a pair of touchdowns and Florida's defense came away with four turnovers in a dominant victory over the Blazers.

The victory was Florida's first since defeating Vanderbilt at home in late September and after the final play, those remaining in the stands cheered at the end of a long month for Gators fans.

For more on Saturday's game, we offer The Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: More than anything else for the Gators, a sense of relief or satisfaction or whatever you want to call it. They had not won a game since Sept. 30 and had lost two in a row at The Swamp, back-to-back losses to LSU and Texas A&M in October that kicked off their five-game skid. They needed a win and got an easy one against the Blazers, who came in as the trendy pick to knock off the Gators and extend their misery. Instead, Florida jumped to an early lead and when Franks hit C'yontai Lewis for an 11-yard scoring pass in the second quarter to put UF ahead 16-0, the Gators had their biggest lead of the season.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Florida kicker Eddy Pineiro, a fan favorite, has had a rather quiet season. Well, at least until Saturday. Pineiro kicked field goals of 39, 26, 50, 50 and 42 yards to help the Gators breeze past UAB. Pineiro became the first kicker in UF history to kick two field goals of 50 or more yards in the same game. He did not have an attempt this season from 50 yards or beyond prior to Saturday.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: UAB freshman running back Spencer Brown entered the game with three consecutive 100-yard performances and 1,177 yards on the season, second in the country among freshmen. A week after South Carolina shredded UF's defense for 220 yards rushing, the Gators clamped down and limited Brown to just 17 yards on eight carries.

SUBPLOT: The last time the Gators played at home, a 19-17 loss to Texas A&M, Jim McElwain was the head coach and they had visions of a possible third consecutive SEC East title. Much has changed. They took the field Saturday with Randy Shannon in charge and ensured of their second losing season in the last five years. Florida's dominant win delivered Shannon his first win in three games as the team's interim head coach and gave fans something to smile about for a change as they filed out of The Swamp.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- In a rarity in this heated rivalry, Florida and Florida State each took the field Saturday with losing records. And both teams left the field with losing records.

However, in the 60 minutes of football in between, the Seminoles looked closer to a winning program than the Gators. FSU won 38-22 before an announced crowd of 89,066 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in the 62nd all-time meeting between the schools.

FSU (5-6) won for the fourth consecutive time at 'The Swamp' to keep its bowl hopes alive. Meanwhile, the Gators (4-7) are ready to put 2017 in the rearview mirror.

For more on Saturday's game, we offer The Quick Slant:

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators suffer their fifth consecutive loss to Florida State, which had never happened until the clock struck zero Saturday. Since the schools started playing each other annually in 1958, FSU had never won more than four in a row against the Gators, accomplishing the feat from 1977-80 and 1987-90. Florida's last win in the series came in 2012 at Doak Campbell Stadium.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Twenty Gators were honored on Senior Day, hoping to finish their careers with a victory over the Seminoles. Instead, they finish 0-4 as FSU defeated the Gators for the seventh time in eight seasons since Jimbo Fisher took over FSU in 2010. Fisher improved to 14-2 overall against the Gators and Miami, FSU's two biggest in-state rivals.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Seminoles scored 28 of their 38 points off four UF turnovers, all committed by quarterback Feleipe Franks. The Seminoles returned Franks' fumble in the first quarter for a score and later returned an interception for a score and converted two more interceptions into touchdowns. Franks had a tough day, completing 18 of 39 passes for 184 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions. He was sacked five times and lost the aforementioned fumble.

SUBPLOT: The Gators suffer only their second losing season since 1980, finishing 4-7. Florida lost six of its final seven games after a 3-1 start. Both of those losing seasons have come in the past five years. The Gators finished 4-8 in 2013.
