THE STORYLINE

- Florida is 4-1 against ranked opponents under Dan Mullen, including a 3-1 record against top-10 teams (and 1-1 against top-5 teams). Since the start of last season, only Florida, LSU (five), Alabama and Ohio State (three apiece) have at least three wins over teams in the top 10 of the Associated Press Poll at the time of kickoff.
- Since the start of the 2014 season, Mullen is 7-6 against top-10 opponents, but four of those losses came against Alabama. In 2014, Mullen's Mississippi State team defeated three top-10 opponents in three consecutive games (Sept. 20 - at No. 8 LSU, 34-29; Sept. 27 - Bye; Oct. 4 - No. 6 Texas A&M, 48-31; Oct. 11 - No. 2 Auburn, 38-23).
- Last season, UF beat three ranked opponents (as well as multiple top-10 opponents) for the first time since 2012.
- Prior to beating No. 5 LSU last season, Florida had lost nine of its last 11 games against top-five teams, a stretch that dated back to the start of the 2010 season. Six of the nine losses were by 21-plus points.
- Since the start of the 2002 season, Florida is 15-6 in games when both it and its opponent are top-10 teams, and it is 5-2 since the start of the 2012 season. Prior to 2002, the Gators were 16-16-1 in top-10 matchups.
- This will be the 25th time in program history the Gators faced top-10 opponents in consecutive games, with the most recent occurrence coming in 2011. The only two times UF won both games were in 2006 and 2008, when it won the SEC Championship Game and followed it up with a victory in the BCS National Championship Game both seasons.
- Last year, Florida beat ranked teams in consecutive games (No. 23 Mississippi State, No. 5 LSU) for the first time since 2008, when it won at No. 23 Florida State (Nov. 29), then beat No. 1 Alabama for the SEC title (Dec. 6) and No. 2 Oklahoma to win the BCS National Championship (Jan. 8, 2009).
- Florida can beat two straight top-10 opponents for the first time since 2012 (No. 4 LSU - Oct. 4; No. 9 South Carolina - Oct. 20; No. 10 Florida State - Nov. 24).
- UF's 10-game winning streak is its longest since winning 22 in a row in 2008 (last 10 games) and 2009 (first 12). It is also tied with Appalachian State for the third-longest active FBS streak, behind Clemson (19) and Ohio State (12).
- This is the seventh 10-game winning streak in school history. The other streaks are: 12 games (1995); 11 (last 7 of 2006, first 4 of 2007); 11 (last 3 of 1927, first 8 of 1928); 10 (1996); 10 (last 9 of 1984, first game of 1985).
- The Gators are off to their first 6-0 start since 2015, and they're seeking a second straight 10-win season for the first time since posting 13 wins in both 2008 -- Mullen's final year as offensive coordinator -- and 2009.
- UF is making its 42nd appearance on College GameDay (which includes the 2008 Orange & Blue Game), and it is 26-14 in the 40 previous games the show traveled to. Saturday will be Florida's third GameDay appearance this season.

GATORS' PRESSURE CREATING FBS-LEADING CHAOS

- Pressuring opponents into mistakes has been the calling card of Florida's 2019 defense, and that statement is backed up by the Gators' nation-leading 17 takeaways (two more than any other FBS team).
- Since the start of last season, Florida's 43 takeaways are tied with Syracuse for the most in the FBS.
- Florida has 15 takeaways in its last four games alone -- which is equal to the season total of the team ranked No. 2 nationally in takeaways this year (San Jose State).
- The Gators have forced four turnovers in three of its last four games (Kentucky, Tennessee, Auburn). The last time they forced four-plus turnovers in at least three games within a season was 2014 (four games).
- Florida's 12 interceptions lead all FBS teams, and its 11 from the last four games alone is equal to the season total of the team ranked No. 2 nationally in interceptions this year (San Jose State). UF and San Jose State are the only FBS teams with double-digit interceptions.
- Florida is the only FBS team with at least three interceptions in three games this year (three apiece against Kentucky, Tennessee, and Auburn). And San Jose State and Washington are the only FBS teams with three-plus interceptions in multiple games this year.
- Florida is the only FBS team featuring four players (Shawn Davis, Kaiir Elam, Donovan Stiner, Marco Wilson) with multiple interceptions this year -- and only Missouri, Nebraska, and San Jose State have three players with multiple interceptions.
- Shawn Davis leads the Gators with three interceptions -- and he is one of 23 FBS players with that many this year. Davis entered this season with zero interceptions in 18 career games played.
- Kaiir Elam has two interceptions and is one of six FBS true freshmen with multiple interceptions this year.
- Florida's 26 sacks are tied for third in the FBS, and its 50 tackles for loss are tied for fourth nationally. UF needed 11 games to eclipse 25 sacks last year, and it took seven games to eclipse 50 TFLs last year.
- Jonathan Greenard is Florida's top disrupter in its front seven, as he ranks second in the SEC in tackles for loss (6.5) and sacks (4.0). Greenard's 4.0 sacks are tied for 30th nationally.
- Florida is the only SEC team with more than five players with at least 2.0 sacks, a number seven Gators have reached -- Greenard - 4.0; Jabari Zuniga - 3.0; Khris Bogle, Zachary Carter, Trey Dean III, James Houston IV, Ventrell Miller, Jeremiah Moon - 2.0.
- Florida's 10 sacks in its Week 0 win over Miami set a school record and were the highest total by an SEC team since Nov. 28, 2008, when Ole Miss had 10 against Mississippi State.
- SMU (vs. South Florida) and Penn State (vs. Purdue) are the only other FBS teams with more than 10 sacks in a game this season. Last year, Army (10 against Houston - Dec. 22) was the only FBS team with 10 in a game. From 2015-17, an FBS team had 10-plus sacks in a game just seven times.
- In 19 games under defensive coordinator Todd Grantham, Florida has five-plus sacks in seven of them, as well as eight-plus tackles for loss in 10 of them.

GOOD SITUATIONAL DEFENSE KEEPING SCORES LOW

- A point of emphasis on defense from both Coach Mullen and Coach Grantham has been red zone defense. UF leads the FBS in that regard (35.7 percent / 5 scores in 14 trips).
- The Gators also rank second nationally in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (21.4 percent / 3 touchdowns in 14 trips). Only Oregon has a better percentage (20.0 / 2 touchdowns in 10 trips).
- This has translated to Florida ranking fifth nationally in scoring defense (9.5 points), and UF has multiple shutouts in the same season for the first time since 2012, when they shut out Kentucky and Jackson State.
- Florida's defense has been most impressive in the second halves of games this season, as the Gators are outscoring their opponents 112-17 in the second half this season. The only second-half points Florida has allowed in its last three games was Tennessee's 40-yard field goal in the third quarter.
- The Gators are also outscoring opponents 64-7 in the fourth quarter this year -- with the only points coming from Miami's DeeJay Dallas, who had a 50-yard touchdown run UF's season-opening win in Orlando.
- Over the last 13 quarters of football (starting with the fourth quarter of the Kentucky game, through Saturday's win over Auburn), Florida has outscored its opponents 115-16.

GATORS PASSING WITH CONSISTENCY

- The Gators have 250-plus passing yards in all six of their games this year, marking the first time since a six-game stretch the spanned the final two games of 2003 and first four games of 2004 they have thrown for that many yards in six consecutive games.
- UF has nine games of 250-plus yards passing in 19 games under Mullen. It had 10 such games in the 38 games from 2015-17, and nine such games in the 63 games from 2010-14.
- Since the start of the 2005 season, only the 2007 Gators -- a team which Mullen was the O.C. for -- threw for 250-plus yards at least six times within a season (they did it eight times that year).
- UF threw for 300-plus yards in three straight games (312 vs. UT-Martin; 300 at Kentucky; 313 vs. Tennessee), marking the first time it has done that since the final two games of 2002 and its 2003 opener.
- The last time Florida had three consecutive games of 300-plus yards passing during the same season was back in 2001, when it eclipsed that mark in all 12 games.
- Florida has three 300-yard passing games in a season for the first time since 2009 (three games), and the only other seasons since 2003 it posted at least three 300-yard games were 2004 (four) and 2007 (three).
- In Mullen's 19 games as head coach, the Gators already have four games of 300-plus yards passing -- with two coming against SEC teams. In UF's 101 games from 2010-17, it totaled six 300-yard outings, with only two coming against SEC foes.
- Redshirt junior Kyle Trask took over Florida's offense at the start of the fourth quarter against Kentucky, leading a comeback victory after Feleipe Franks left the game with an injury.
- Since then, Trask is 66 of 92 (71.7 percent) for 841 yards and six touchdowns (plus two rushing touchdowns).
- For the season, Trask ranks ninth nationally in completion percentage (70 of 97 / 72.2 percent) and 18th in passing efficiency (168.15).
- Trask finished the Kentucky game 9 of 13 for 126 yards and led the Gators to 222 yards of total offense and 19 points in the fourth quarter.
- In his first collegiate start against Tennessee (and his first start since his freshman year at Manvel [Texas] High School), Trask went 20 of 28 (71.4 percent) for a career-high 293 yards and two touchdowns. Trask's 293 yards were the highest single-game total since Austin Appleby's 296 at Tennessee in 2016.

VETERAN RECEIVERS GENERATING EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

- Florida, Arizona and Washington State are the only FBS teams featuring at least six pass catchers with five-plus receptions and 150-plus yards this season.
- Florida is one of five FBS teams with four passing plays of 60-plus yards this season.
- The Gators are also one of five FBS teams with at least six plays of 60-plus yards, and their veteran receiving corps is responsible for five of those six plays.
- Josh Hammond has two -- 76-yard touchdown run at Kentucky; 65-yard reception to set up the winning touchdown versus Miami. Hammond is one of five FBS players with a 65-yard run and reception this year.
- Freddie Swain hauled in a 64-yard touchdown reception en route to 146 receiving yards on six receptions against No. 7 Auburn. Swain's 146 yards marked the highest single-game total by a Gator since Demarcus Robinson had 216 yards on 15 receptions against Kentucky on Sept. 13, 2014.
- Van Jefferson has a pair of 90-yard receiving games this year (94 against UT-Martin; 93 at Kentucky), making him the first Gator with two such outings in a season and consecutively since fellow senior Tyrie Cleveland did it against Tennessee (93) and Kentucky (110) in September 2017.
- Hammond also had a 90-yard outing this year, as he totaled a career-high 93 yards against Miami.
- The four 90-yard receiving games by three different Gators are the program's most such outings in a season since 2016, when it also had pass catchers reach that total in a game four times.
- Nine different Gators have a touchdown reception this season -- which is tied for the second-highest total among all FBS teams. Last season, 11 different Gators caught a touchdown -- which was the first time since 2009 that many UF pass catchers had a touchdown.

PITTS AMONG THE TOP TIGHT ENDS IN ALL OF FBS

- Sophomore tight end Kyle Pitts has also emerged as a receiving threat, setting his career high for receptions each of the last four games, culminating in a career-high 65 yards on eight catches against No. 7 Auburn.
- Pitts ranks second among FBS tight ends in receptions (25) and 11th in receiving yards (254).
- Pitts is also one of four FBS tight ends with at least 20 receptions, 250 receiving yards and three touchdowns.
- Pitts has 20 receptions for 218 yards and three touchdowns the last four games; he entered 2019 with three catches for 73 yards and a touchdown in his career.

PERINE'S HISTORIC GAME-SEALING TOUCHDOWN

- Lamical Perine sealed Florida's win over No. 7 Auburn with an 88-yard touchdown run -- which is the fifth-longest run in school history, and the longest since Emmitt Smith's 96-yard touchdown run against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 1988
- Perine's run is the fifth-longest running play by any FBS player this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS MAKING SPECIAL IMPACT

- Sophomore Evan McPherson, one of the 20 Lou Groza Award semifinalists last year, has made seven of his eight field goals this season. McPherson ranked 6th nationally last year with an 89.5 percentage (17 of 19).
- Since the start of last season, McPherson ranks third nationally in field goal percentage (24 of 27 / 88.9 percent) among FBS kickers with at least 25 field goal attempts.
- Senior Tommy Townsend has downed nine of his 14 punts inside the 20-yard line this year. Townsend downed 17 of 39 punts inside the 20 last year.
- Senior Van Jefferson is one of Florida's "gunners" on its punt team. In the Miami game, he downed a punt at Miami's 5-yard line and recovered a muffed punt that set up a go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter.
- Senior receivers Tyrie Cleveland, Josh Hammond, and Freddie Swain also start on special teams.
- "It's something we stress so much within our team. You're looking at a senior starting wide receiver that's covering a punt, making plays. That really shows a lot about the team. Special teams is something we take a lot of pride in, we practice an awful lot." --Dan Mullen after UF's win over Miami.
- Special teams coordinator Greg Knox has made an immediate impact with the Gators. Knox's Mississippi State teams blocked 15 kicks or punts from 2014-17, which tied for the SEC lead and ranked 3rd nationally.
- Since the start of 2014 (including UF's five in 2018-19) here's where Knox's groups rank among all FBS teams:

FBS Rank	Team	Blocks
1.	Temple	25
2.	Hawaii	22
3.	Oklahoma State	21
4.	Greg Knox Teams	20
t-5.	Ga. Southern / N. Illinois / Texas A&M / Toledo / Tulsa	19

Gators' 2018 Turnaround Notables

- Florida rose 86 spots in the FBS rankings for scoring offense from 2017 to 2018, the second-largest jump of any team. UF was tied for 108th (22.1 points) in 2017, but finished 22nd (35.0) last year.
- The Gators finished No. 6 in the Coaches Poll and No. 7 in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll. It was Florida's highest finish in either major poll since ending the 2009 season ranked No. 3 in both.
- Florida had not finished in the top 10 of either poll since 2012 (No. 9 AP / No. 10 Coaches).
- Dan Mullen was the ninth first-year FBS head coach since '08 with a top-10 finish in the AP Poll.
- Mullen became the third head coach in history to win 10 games in a debut season with a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior. The others were Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013).

Numbers from a Strong 2018 Finish

- Florida won each of its last three games in 2018 by 26-plus points. The last time it won three consecutive games by at least 25 points was an eight-game stretch from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008.
- UF also scored 40-plus points in each of those final three games, marking the first time it scored 40-plus points in three consecutive games since a 7-game stretch from Oct. 11-Nov. 29, 2008.
- UF had 400-plus total yards in its last four games, its first such streak time since Nov. 8-29, 2008.

2018 OFFENSIVE UPTICKS CONTINUING IN 2019

- Florida has 500-plus yards of total offense in four of its last 10 games. In 19 games under Mullen, UF has five games of 500-plus total yards. UF had three games of 500-plus yards from 2015-17, and five from 2011-14.
- The Gators have 400-plus yards of total offense in eight of their last 10 games, and 10 times in Mullen's 19-game tenure as head coach. In 38 games from 2015-17, Florida had nine games of 400-plus total yards.
- Last year, the Gators posted their most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six) and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when they did it five, six, and 10 times, respectively.
- Florida has thrown for 250-plus yards in nine of Mullen's 19 games, including all five games this year. UF totaled 10 such outings in the 38 games spanning the 2015-17 seasons -- five of which came in 2015.
- UF has scored 24-plus points in 10 straight games for the first time since a 24-game stretch which began with a 28-24 loss to LSU on Oct. 6, 2007, and ended in a 23-13 win over Tennessee on Sept. 19, 2009.
- One of Mullen's points of emphasis has been rotation at various positions throughout the game--especially at running back--with the result being a fresher team in the fourth quarter. Florida averaged 6.23 yards per carry (884 yards on 141 carries) in fourth quarter last year, which ranked 8th in the FBS and led the SEC.
- This season, Florida is averaging 6.96 yards per carry (397 yards on 57 carries) in the fourth quarter, which ranks fifth nationally and second in the SEC.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- UF has scored in 391 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS teams that have not lost to a team which finished the season with a losing record. UF is one of four teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss (Alabama, LSU, Michigan).

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior tailback Lamical Perine rushed for 85 yards and two scores, including the go-ahead touchdown with just under nine minutes to play, and sophomore safety Brad Stewart returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown with 1:45 to play, as the Gators played off the return of their home-field "Swamp" magic with a huge, Dan Mullen-era-making defeat of fifth-ranked LSU before the wildest Spurrier/Florida Field home crowd in years.

The UF defense was spectacular, forcing three turnovers and sacking Tigers quarterback Joe Burrow five times. LSU took a 7-0 lead on the first possession of the game, but UF rallied to surge in front 14-10 at the break on a 1-yard scoring run by Perine a 3-yard TD pass from Feleipe Franks to tight end Moral Stephens late in the period. The Tigers scored 10 unanswered points, the last six coming on a four-play, 80-yard drive when tailback Nick Brossette carried three times for 79 yards and finished the march with a 1-yard run to push LSU in front 19-14 with just over 11 minutes to go, as the attempt at a two-point conversion failed.

The Gators, though, took the next possession, went 75 yards in nine plays -- with another jazzy trick play (read on) -- as Perine scored on a two-yard run with 8:48 left to push UF in front 20-19, followed by another failed two-point try. The Tigers had three more possessions. The first ended in a punt, the second in Stewart's pick-six, and the third in safety Donovan Stiner's interception on fourth-and-10 from the LSU 41 with 21 seconds to go.

WHAT IT MEANS: UF's fourth straight win was the program's biggest since going to LSU two years ago and staging a goal-line stand for the ages to clinch the SEC East Division title. With five victories, the Gators already have eclipsed the four they tallied all last season. Simply put, this is a different team under Mullen and now the fan base has been revitalized, evidenced by the old-look scene at the "Swamp."

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Take a bow, Lucas Krull. The 6-foot-6, 255-pound tight end transferred to Florida over the summer from a Kansas junior college, where he was a pitcher. Well, he pitched it Saturday, all right, and came up with a huge play when the Gators needed one.

Down 19-14, UF drove to the LSU 17 for a first down. Krull came in motion, right to left, and took a handoff from Franks. Krull took a couple steps, wheeled back and pitched a left-handed pass to Franks in the right flat for a 15-yard completion to the LSU 2. Perine scored on the next play to give the Gators a 20-19 lead. Make that two straight weeks that Mullen went razzle-dazzle at pivotal, lead- and game-changing moments.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Florida defense had 11 tackles for loss, led by 3.5 by junior linebacker Vosean Joseph, who had a pair of sacks and 14 total tackles. The LSU defense had two tackles for loss. Meanwhile, the Gators' three takeaways (compared to one giveaway) took them to plus-11 on the season, and also limited the Tigers to just 4-for-17 on third down.

CROSSING PATHS

- Dan Mullen faced LSU head coach Ed Orgeron twice as a head coach at Mississippi State, and once while he was offensive coordinator for the Gators.
- Mullen and Orgeron met for the first time in 2007, while Mullen was the Gators offensive coordinator and Orgeron was head coach at Ole Miss. UF's offense rushed for 246 yards and amassed 261 through the air for 507 total yards, earning a 30-24 victory in Oxford.
- Orgeron was the defensive line coach when Mullen's Mississippi State team fell to LSU, 23-20, in 2016. The following year, though, with Orgeron as LSU's head coach, Mullen led Mississippi State to its largest margin of victory in the history of the series -- a 37-7 victory in Starkville.
- John Hevesy and Orgeron worked together at Syracuse in 1997. Hevesy was a graduate assistant and Orgeron served as the defensive line coach.
- Billy Gonzales served as LSU's passing coordinator and receivers coach from 2010-2011, working alongside current LSU offensive coordinator Steve Ensminger.
- Greg Knox and Ensminger worked together at Auburn from 2003-2008, with Knox as the wide receivers coach and Ensminger as the quarterbacks and tight ends coach.
- Chester Kimbrough and Brad Stewart Jr. are both from New Orleans and are the Gators' only Louisiana natives. Two Tigers are Floridians.

Mullen Revives Florida's Offense in 2018 Debut

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86
Scrimmage TDs	25 (t-120th)	51 (t-35th)	+85
Passing Eff.	113.11 (113th)	145.76 (35th)	+78
Total Offense	335.9 (110th)	426.7 (42nd)	+68
3rd Down Pct.	32.5% (117th)	41.6% (48th)	+69
Rushing Offense	156.4 (75th)	213.2 (27th)	+48
Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.
- Much of the success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title.
- The Gators had 11 different pass catchers with a touchdown reception for the first time since 2009. In 2017, UF totaled 10 receiving touchdowns.
- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.
- Became the first head coach in Gators history to win seven-plus games in a debut season after inheriting a sub-.500 team.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- Mississippi State broke more than 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fourth-year junior quarterback Feleipe Franks ran three yards for the go-ahead touchdown with just over eight minutes left and a Florida defense that sacked Miami redshirt freshman Jarren Williams 10 times withstood a flurry of penalties on the Hurricanes' final two drives and held on for a big (albeit ugly, at times) season-opening victory before a sold-out house at Camping World Stadium in Orlando. The game, serving as the ceremonial kickoff to college football's 150th season, was a rare matchup between two cross-state rivals and featured five lead changes, including two in the fourth quarter, but also five turnovers and 23 combined penalties for 218 yards. Miami tailback DeeJay Dallas, from the wildcat spot, dashed 50 yards for a touchdown to give Miami a 20-17 lead 45 seconds into the final period. Two UF drives later, Franks dropped and heaved a 65-yard completion to senior wideout Josh Hammond, with Franks scoring on a QB keeper three plays later at the 8:18 mark. After that, both teams made enough mistakes for two games, as Miami had no answer for Florida's defensive pressure and Florida's secondary was unable to cleanly cover Miami's receivers downfield. After a huge UF stop with 4:30 to play, Franks was intercepted on first down and gave the Hurricanes the ball at the Florida 36. From there, the Gators had to escape two defensive pass interference penalties -- one of them on fourth-and-34. The game ended with Miami at the Florida 26, facing fourth-and-12, but with a chance to chuck the ball into the end zone for the win. Instead, UF defensive end Jeremiah Moon was fast off the edge and forced Williams into a no-chance throw into the dirt to end the game and give the Gators just their second victory over the Hurricanes in the last 33 years. Franks finished 17 of 27 for 254 yards and two touchdowns, including a 66-yard screen pass to Kadarius Toney in the first quarter, plus two interceptions, both in the final period. Williams, making his first career start, hit 19 of 29 attempts for 214 yards and a score, while Dallas had 12 carries for 95 yards.

WHAT IT MEANS: A lot. Florida began the day having lost seven of eight to Miami, dating to the 1986 season, the year before the Gators begged out of an annual rivalry that dated to 1938. The run of frustration included an ugly 2013 defeat that marked the last time the two programs played. With the victory, UF now trails the series, 27-29. More importantly, of course, was getting the 2019 season off to a victorious start, even though things did get a little dicey at the end. Better than the alternative. Ask the Canes.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with Franks ... for the good and bad. His big-arm throw to Hammond helped turn the game, but his interception after that huge defensive stop gave the Hurricanes a chance. Remember, things weren't always smooth sailing with him last season either, but alongside Coach Dan Mullen the two worked together and figured some stuff out.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those 10 sacks by the Gators were the most by a Florida defense since at least 1996 (the only stats available via our data base), topping the previous best when Jevon Kearse and the Gators beheaded Auburn's Dameyune Craig nine times in a 24-10 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Feleipe Franks completed his first 15 passes on the way to throwing for 270 yards and two touchdowns without a turnover Saturday night, and the Gators did what the 11th-ranked team in the country is supposed to do an FCS opponent from the Ohio Valley Conference in their 2019 home opener at Spurrier/Florida Field. The UF offense started slowly, managing just a 3-0 lead through the first 22 minutes before Franks, the fourth-year junior, fired scoring strikes of 69 yards to Van Jefferson and 35 to Tyrie Cleveland to open a 17-0 lead in the second quarter. The Gators added third-quarter rushing TDs from tailbacks Malik Davis and Lamical Perine, then stretched the lead in the fourth quarter when both UF backup quarterbacks, Kyle Trask and Emory Jones, accounted for a TD (Trask passing, Jones rushing). Franks, who had three turnovers in UF's season-opening win two weeks ago against Miami, played just three quarters and finished his night 25 of 27 (that's 92.6 percent). UF tallied 543 yards of total offense (312 passing, 231 rushing), while the defense limited the Skyhawks to 194 yards and posted the program's first shutout since a 32-0 defeat of North Texas three games into the 2016 season. The win, however, looked to have come with a price (read on).

WHAT IT MEANS: Not much, other than the fact UF was bigger, faster and more physical than UTM, which everybody knew well before the kickoff. The game allowed the Gators to build some confidence, pile up some statistics and celebrate some big offensive plays the likes of which were much harder to come by two weeks earlier against a stout Hurricanes defense in Orlando.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with wingback Kadarius Toney and cornerback CJ Henderson -- unfortunately -- as both players left the game with injuries and did not return. Toney was hit hard on a running play in the first quarter and went to the sideline in obvious pain with what appeared to be an arm or shoulder injury. Trainers tended to Toney in the sideline tent before taking him to the locker room. In the second quarter, Henderson got tangled up covering a deep pass down the middle of the field. Henderson, after remaining on the field a bit, was helped off by two trainers and taken to the locker room. No in-game injury updates were provided by UF.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those first 15 completions by Franks were the second-most to start a game by a Florida quarterback in program history. Worth noting: The incompletion on his 16th attempt came on a "Hail Mary" at the end of the half. The record for most completions to start a game remained at 17, set by Chris Leak in a 32-14 season-opening defeat of Wyoming on Sept. 3, 2005, a game that marked the debut of Coach Urban Meyer.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Backup quarterback Kyle Trask, summoned to duty for injured starter Feleipe Franks, led two fourth-quarter touchdown drives and capped the second with a 4-yard run and go-ahead score with 4:11 remaining as the ninth-ranked Gators overcame a double-digit deficit and escaped with a stirring comeback win in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams at sold-out Kroger Field. The outcome could easily have gone the other way, as the Wildcats, after Trask's go-ahead score, marched 58 yards in nine plays, but Chance Moore was wide right on a 34-yard field goal attempt with 54 seconds to play. UK tried to get the ball back by calling a couple timeouts, but wide receiver Josh Hammond's electrifying 76-yard touchdown run iced it and gave the Gators their 32nd over the Wildcats in the last 33 meetings. There was no in-game update on Franks, who was trying to run for a first down on fourth-and-1 when he was hit hard and his torso awkwardly bent backward, with his legs appearing to be planted in the pile. The entire UF sideline emptied onto the field when Franks, who hit 12 of 17 throws for 174 yards, one touchdown and an interception in his 18th consecutive start, was carted away. Kentucky led 21-10 at the time. Enter Trask, who hit his first four passes on his way to going 9-for-13 for 126 yards and stealing the spotlight from UK first-time starter Sawyer Smith, who hit 23 of 34 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and another rushing. Smith, though, turned the ball over four times, including a pair of second-half interceptions by junior safety Shawn Davis that led to 10 points. The second of those Davis picks came with Kentucky leading 21-16 and 6:05 to play in the game. Florida needed just four plays to go 66 yards, but 30 of those came on Kentucky penalties, with Trask finishing things off with the go-ahead scramble up the middle.

WHAT IT MEANS: A road win to open the SEC slate, which is always big. Remember, the Gators started 0-1 in the league last season, courtesy of that home loss to the Cats that snapped the historic 31-game winning streak. As for the injury to Franks, the team's personality obviously will undergo a significant change. Read on.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: No one outside of the Florida football walls (maybe even Coach Dan Mullen's office) knew for certain if the Florida backup quarterback was Trask or redshirt freshman Emory Jones. Now, not only do we know a little more, but we're going to find out a lot more about Trask, the person/player, in the coming days/weeks. Now that there's high-leverage tape for opposing defensive coaches to break down, the 6-foot-5, 239-pound fourth-year junior from Texas no longer will have the element of surprise working in his favor, as he surely must have against the Kentucky defense.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators had 216 yards of offense through three quarters, but cranked out 222 in the fourth quarter alone, including TD drives of 66 and 80 yards with Trask in control.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: In the first start of his career, quarterback Kyle Trask threw for 293 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while the UF defense held the Volunteers to just 239 yards of offense and forced four turnovers in a relatively easy Southeastern Conference win Saturday at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, elevated to starter after the season-ending injury to Feleipe Franks last week at Kentucky, was far from perfect, as the fourth-year junior from Texas had a trio of turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble), but made enough good plays and had enough help from his defense to have little trouble against the struggling Volunteers. The Gators opened a 17-0 lead at intermission, courtesy of a 19-yard touchdown pass from Trask to tight end Kyle Pitts on the game's first possession, a 22-yard Evan McPherson field goal, and 1-yard run from tailback Lamical Perine on the final play of the half. On the latter, the Gators faced a fourth-and-goal at the 1 and UF coach Dan Mullen ran the clock down to :02 before calling a timeout. Mullen bypassed the easy three points and sent his offense back on the field for a do-or-die snap, with Perine driving into the end zone on the final play of the half. Tennessee opened the second half by marching to a 40-yard Brent Cimaglia field goal, but Trask canceled that score out and then some with a 75-yard drive capped by a beauty of a 29-yard touchdown pass to wideout Freddie Swain that made the score 24-3. Sophomore tailback Dameon Pierce added a 10-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and McPherson kicked his second field goal, a 37-yarder, with just over four minutes left to wrap the scoring. Trask completed 20 of 28 passes (71.4 percent) and his 293 yards eclipsed the best single-game output ever tallied by Franks (284 last season at Vanderbilt). The Gators finished with 441 yards of total offense and went 5-for-5 on red-zone scoring opportunities.

WHAT IT MEANS: Not only did the Gators remain unbeaten, but make that two SEC wins in two games. While Tennessee is in the midst of a nightmare season, the Vols still have SEC-caliber players capable of coming in and making things interesting, if the Gators didn't take them seriously and spun their wheels at home. Didn't happen. As for Trask, a couple poor third-quarter throws into double-coverage will get the attention of Mullen and QBs coach Brian Johnson, but he also made some really nice passes, demonstrated an element of poise in the pocket and showed plenty for his team (and fans) to be encouraged about.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The obvious choice would be Trask, but on a day when the Gators' defense limited the Vols to those measly 239 yards and three points a shout-out to that side of the ball, and especially linebacker Jonathan Greenard, seems warranted. The graduate-transfer from Louisville was an absolute beast all afternoon, finishing the game with four tackles, two of them for loss, a sack, three passes defensed (one that led to a tipped interception) and a forced fumble. What a game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: That's 14 wins in the last 15 meetings between these two for the Gators, including eight straight at home (dating to the 2005 season). It really is incredible to think how this once-fierce rivalry -- one of the biggest games in the country every year -- has deteriorated into such a one-sided affair. The 31-point margin of victory was UF's largest in the series since winning 59-20 at home in 2007.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask completed his first 15 passes, threw for two touchdowns and rushed for a score, backup tailback Dameon Pierce had a 37-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, and the UF defense registered its second shutout of the season Saturday in blanking overmatched Towson at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, the fourth-year junior making his second start, finished 18 of 20 for 188 yards with scoring strikes of 5 and 7 yards, both to sophomore tight end Kyle Pitts, and sandwiched a 1-yard touchdown run on a QB sneak in between. In the fourth quarter, Trask gave way to redshirt freshman backup Emory Jones, who keyed a 69-yard touchdown drive with a 29-yard run and finished it with a 2-yard scoring pass to reserve true freshman tight end Keon Zipperer. The Florida defense surrendered some big plays to Tigers quarterback Tom Flacco, younger brother of Denver Broncos quarterback and Super Bowl champ Joe Flacco, but ultimately kept Towson off the scoreboard, thanks to three forced turnovers and a couple missed field goals. UF finished with 422 yards of total offense, while holding Towson to 248.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators are 5-0 for the first time since 2015, and for only the second time in the last 10 seasons. Expect Coach Dan Mullen to go with the ol' Urban Meyer adage next week: "The best thing about being 5-0 is you have a chance to go 6-0." This one also put a wrap on UF's non-conference schedule until the Gators face rival Florida State in the regular-season finale Nov. 30.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: While senior tailback Lamical Perine searches for his first breakout game of the season, Pierce, the sophomore from Bainbridge, Ga., brought the Gators some much-needed productivity to the struggling Florida running game, including runs of 31 yards in the second quarter and that 37-yard score in the third. Those runs marked the third- and second-longest, respectfully, for the Gators this season. Pierce's performance helped UF finish with 160 rushing yards for the game, which was the second-most of the season. The Gators began the day ranked 12th in the Southeastern Conference in rushing and exited still averaging just 141.4 per game (with two of those games against FCS opponents).

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Saturday's hot start, combined with three completions on his final three throws in last week's defeat of Tennessee, gave Trask 18 straight completions over the two games. That broke the previous UF record of 17 straight, set by Chris Leak in the 2005 season opener against Wyoming. Trask, whose first missed attempt came at the 9:25 mark of the third period, equaled the 15 straight completions to start a game that his predecessor, Feleipe Franks, hit to open UF's Sept. 7 defeat of Tennessee Martin. The 15 was the second-most in school history, behind the 17 in a row from Leak 14 years ago.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Senior tailback Lamical Perine broke off an 88-yard touchdown run with just over nine minutes to play Saturday that ignited a seismic celebration at sold-out Spurrier/Florida Field and helped the No. 10 Gators finish off the seventh-ranked Tigers amid the hysteria of 90,000-plus who witnessed a Southeastern Conference victory with national implications. Fourth-year Florida junior quarterback Kyle Trask passed for a couple first-half touchdowns, but also was responsible for three of UF's four turnovers, the collection of which allowed Auburn to stick around. The Florida defense, however, was not so accommodating in holding the Tigers and their lethal rushing attack to just 269 yards of total offense. The Gators harassed quarterback Bo Nix most of the day, especially in the second half when the true freshman fell victim to the infamous noise inside a packed "Swamp." Trailing just 17-13, Nix was intercepted in the end zone by safety Donovan Stiner on a third-and-7 from the UF 10 late in the third quarter. With inside 10 minutes to go in the game, and the score the same, Nix faced a third-and-8 from the UF 36. Under pressure, Nix tried to escape the Florida pass rush by running backward, only to fall down for a 22-yard loss. Auburn punted the next play, pinning Florida at its 12. The next snap was Perine's 88-yarder and delirium for the home team. Trask, who left the game in the second quarter with a knee injury but returned two series later, finished 19 of 31 for 234 yards with TD passes of 64 yards to Freddie Swain on the second play of the game and 13 to Josh Hammond in second quarter, leading the offense to 398 total yards. Perine carried 14 times for 130 yards, while Swain caught six passes for a career-high 146 yards. Nix's day looked like this: 11 of 27, 145 yards, one TD, three interceptions. Auburn's lone touchdown actually came after UF coach Dan Mullen gambled with a fake punt in his own territory that did not work. Other than that, the Tigers managed very little offensive success on the road.

WHAT IT MEANS: UF is unbeaten six games into a season for the first time since 2015 and now with a five-star victory on the résumé should start being mentioned in the national-championship conversation; certainly at least for another week as things are about to get even tougher (read on). The Gators took full advantage of the best "Swamp" atmosphere in years, but now have to take their level of play to another level (and far more mistake-free one), given what awaits them away from Gainesville in the coming weeks. In the interim, though, enjoy a magnificent win that marked just the second defeat of Auburn in the last six meetings, dating to the 2001 season.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Before taking the handoff and going the distance, Perine had just 33 yards on eight carries for the game. For the season, he had averaged just 3.6 yards per carry to that point. He upped that number at a very opportune time. The run was the longest by a Gator since Emmitt Smith, who was in the house Saturday, went 96 yards against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 1988. UF, which came into the game 11th in the SEC in rushing, actually outgained Auburn for yards on the ground 132-124.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Auburn came into the game with a rushing attack ranked third in the SEC and 14th nationally at 251.2 yards per game. The Tigers managed just 109 yards on 33 attempts, allowing the Florida defense to put Nix in difficult down-and-distance situations, send pressure his way and make him deal with the crowd noise.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."
