THE STORYLINE

- Florida can beat in-state rival Florida State in consecutive seasons for the first time since ripping off a six-game winning streak against the Seminoles from 2004-09. It can also finish with wins over Miami and Florida State for the first time since 2008, when it beat Miami, 26-3, in Gainesville, and topped Florida State, 45-15, in Tallahassee.
- A win Saturday would give Florida a second straight 10-win season for the first time since posting 13 wins in both 2008 -- Dan Mullen's final year as offensive coordinator -- and 2009.
- A win would also make Mullen the first head coach in Gators history to win 10 games in each of his first two seasons.
- UF can finish undefeated at home for the 14th time since 1990 and the third time since 2010 (7-0 in 2012; 5-0 in 2016).
- Florida was ranked No. 10 in the initial College Football Playoff Rankings, but it has been No. 11 the last three weeks. Last year, UF debuted at No. 11 and finished the regular season at No. 10, earning a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl berth.
- UF is still in a hunt for a second consecutive "New Year's Six" bowl berth. The Gators can make consecutive marquee bowl appearances for the first time since 2008 (BCS National Championship Game) and 2009 (Sugar Bowl). Before last season's Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl berth, UF made just one marquee bowl game from 2010-17 (2013 Sugar Bowl).
- The Gators have been a top-10 team in 13 of the last 15 Associated Press Top 25 Polls (though their nine-poll streak -- their longest stretch since a run of 12 consecutive top-10 rankings from Week 5 of 2012 (Sept. 30) through the 2013 preseason rankings -- ended Nov. 10). From 2013-17, UF was in the top 10 just five times.
- Florida has a chance to finish in the top 10 of the final Associated Press Top 25 Poll in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2008 (No. 1) and 2009 (No. 3). UF ended last season ranked No. 7 in the final AP Top 25 Poll.

IN PERSPECTIVE: FLORIDA'S 180 IN OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

- UF ranks 19th nationally in passing offense (292.3 yards per game), which is the first time in at least a decade it has thrown the ball that consistently. UF's highest national finish in passing offense since the start of 2010 is 79th (in 2016), and it finished outside the top 100 in four of the nine seasons from 2010-18. UF finished 41st nationally in 2009.
- Florida ranked 83rd in passing offense in 2018, and it is one of five teams in the last three years (Troy, 2018-19, No. 81 --> No. 12; Alabama, 2017-18, No. 91 --> No. 6; Old Dominion, 2017-18, No. 112 --> No. 15); UCF, 2016-17, No. 89 --> No. 10) to go from being outside the top 70 nationally in passing offense one season, then be top 20 nationally the next.
- UF finished last season ranked 27th nationally in rushing offense (213.2 yards per game).
- Florida is one of seven teams to be a top 30 rushing team in 2018 and a top 30 passing team in 2019 -- though UF, Memphis (No. 57), FAU (No. 64), and Wake Forest (No. 65) were the only four outside the top 40 in passing last year.

TRASK RESEMBLING GATORS QUARTERBACKS OF OLD

- Since taking over Florida's offense at the start of the fourth quarter at Kentucky, redshirt junior Kyle Trask is 179 of 269 (66.5%) for 2,253 yards and 20 touchdowns (plus three rushing touchdowns).
- Trask has thrown for 21 touchdowns this year, making him one of 33 FBS quarterbacks with at least 20 -- but his 274 attempts are the sixth-fewest in that group (Others under 275 attempts: Layne Hatcher, Arkansas State [21 TDs, 221 attempts]; Tanner Morgan, Minnesota [26 TDs, 252 att.]; Justin Fields, Ohio State [33 TDs, 252 att.]; Tua Tagovailoa, Alabama [33 TDs, 252 att.]; Jalen Hurts, Oklahoma [30 TDs, 269 att.]).
- Trask has thrown for 300-plus yards twice this year, amassing a career-high 363 yards against Vanderbilt, and 310 yards at then-No. 5 LSU.
 - » Trask's 363 yards were the highest total by a Gator since Tim Tebow's 482 against No. 4 Cincinnati in the 2010 Sugar Bowl, and it was the highest total against an SEC team since Rex Grossman's 375 against Kentucky back on Sept. 28, 2002.
- Trask joined Tim Tebow (three in 2007) and Chris Leak (two in 2005; four in 2004) as the only Gators since the start of 2003 to post multiple 300-yard passing games in the same season. Trask is also the first Gator since Leak (three in 2004) to have two 300-yard outings against SEC opponents in the same season.
- Since the start of the 2000 season, the only Gators to throw for 300-plus yards against a top-25 team are Trask (at No. 5 LSU), Tebow (2010 Sugar Bowl), and Rex Grossman (nine times from 2001-02).
 - » Since the start of 2010, all other Gators have combined for three 300-yard passing games.
- Trask threw three touchdowns at No. 5 LSU and followed it up with a career-high four touchdowns at South Carolina. He is the first Gator since Tim Tebow (2008 - at Vanderbilt and Florida State) to throw at least three touchdowns in consecutive road games.
- Trask also became the first Gator since Rex Grossman (Nov. 3-10, 2001) to throw for three-plus touchdowns in consecutive outings against SEC teams.
- Trask's three touchdown passes at No. 5 LSU made him the first Gator since Tebow to throw at least three touchdowns on the road against an AP top-10 team (Tebow threw four Oct. 20, 2007 at No. 8 Kentucky).
- Trask's 310 yards were the second-highest total by a Gator in a road game since the start of the 2005 season, and only the fourth 300-yard passing game on the road or at a neutral site within that same span.
 - » Tim Tebow - 482 yards vs. No. 4 Cincinnati - 2010 Sugar Bowl (Jan. 1, 2010); Chris Leak - 319 yards at Kentucky (Sept. 24, 2005); Tim Tebow - 304 yards at South Carolina (Nov. 10, 2007)

GATORS MAXIMIZING DEPTH IN RECEIVING CORPS

- Florida, Eastern Michigan, Indiana, Texas Tech, USC, and Washington State are the only FBS teams featuring at least four pass catchers with 425-plus yards, 30-plus receptions, and at least three touchdowns.
- Seven Gators have multiple touchdown receptions this season, marking the first time since 2007 that many Gators had at least two touchdown receptions in a season. Ten Gators have at least one touchdown catch.
- UF has eight different players with 150-plus receiving yards in a season for the first time since 1992.
- The Gators are one of nine FBS teams with at least eight scrimmage plays of 60-plus yards, and their veteran receiving corps is responsible for six of those eight plays.
- Josh Hammond has two -- 76-yard touchdown run at Kentucky; 65-yard reception to set up the winning touchdown versus Miami. Hammond is one of eight FBS players with a 65-yard run and reception this year.
- Freddie Swain had a 64-yard touchdown reception en route to 146 yards on six catches against Auburn -- UF's highest single-game total since Demarcus Robinson's 216 yards on 15 catches versus Kentucky (Sept. 13, 2014).
- UF also has seven 90-yard receiving games from five different Gators -- their most 90-yard outings in a season since 2007, when five Gators reached that total 11 times. It is the first time since 2017 (Tyrie Cleveland -- 93 against Tennessee, 110 against Kentucky) a Gator had two such outings in a season.
 - » Trevon Grimes - 95 vs. Vanderbilt (Nov. 9)
 - » Hammond - 93 [career high] vs. Miami (Aug. 24)
 - » Van Jefferson - 94 vs. UT-Martin (Sept. 7); 93 at Kentucky (Sept. 14)
 - » Kyle Pitts - 108 [career high] at No. 5 LSU (Oct. 12)
 - » Swain - 146 vs. No. 7 Auburn (Oct. 5); 91 vs. Georgia (Nov. 2)

PITTS AMONG THE TOP TIGHT ENDS IN ALL OF FBS

- Kyle Pitts is one of six FBS tight ends with five games of 60-plus receiving yards; he is one of three Gators tight ends since 1996 with five such games in a career (most is 8; Jordan Reed - 5).
- Pitts is one of only four FBS tight ends with at least 45 catches, 500 yards and 5 touchdowns this season.
- On the season, Pitts has 46 receptions, 566 receiving yards (both the most by a UF tight end since 2009 -- 68 receptions for 850 yards in 2012), and 5 touchdowns (the most by a UF tight end in a season since 2009); he entered 2019 with three catches for 73 yards and a touchdown in his career.
- Pitts is one of 16 FBS tight ends to post a 100-yard game this season, and he became just the fourth Gators tight end since 1996 with a 100-yard game (the previous three combined for five 100-yard outings).

GATORS PASSING WITH CONSISTENCY

- Florida's 3,215 passing yards are its highest total through 11 games since 2001, when it threw for 4,457 in the first 11 games. This year is also the first time since 2007 UF (2,910 yards) has over 2,500 yards through 11 games.
- The Gators have six 300-yard passing games in a season for the first time since 2002 (also six times). Five have come against SEC opponents, marking the first time since 2001 (eight times) UF accomplished that.
- UF has seven games of 300-plus passing yards -- with five against SEC teams -- in Mullen's 24 games as head coach. In 101 games spanning the 2010-17 seasons, UF totaled six 300-yard outings (two against SEC teams).
- UF has 13 games of 250-plus yards passing in 24 games under Mullen. It had 10 such games in the 38 games spanning the 2015-17 seasons, and nine such games in the 63 games spanning the 2010-14 seasons.
- Since the start of the 1997 season, only these Gators (10 games), the 2001 Gators (all 12 games), the 2000 Gators (10), and the 1998 Gators (10) threw for 250-plus yards at least 10 times within a season.
- In Baton Rouge last month, Florida threw four touchdown passes in a road game for the first time since Oct. 20, 2007, when it threw four at No. 8 Kentucky.
- Florida had 250-plus passing yards in its first seven games this year, marking its longest streak of 250-yard outings since a 14-game stretch spanning the final game of 2000, all 12 games of 2001, and the 2002 opener.
- UF threw for 300-plus yards in three straight games (312 vs. UT-Martin; 300 at Kentucky; 313 vs. Tennessee) for the first time since its final two games of 2002 and its 2003 opener. The last time Florida had a three-game streak within the same season was 2001, when it had 300-plus yards in all 12 games.

SPECIAL TEAMS MAKING SPECIAL IMPACT

- Sophomore Evan McPherson, one of the 20 Lou Groza Award semifinalists last year, has made 12 of his 14 field goals this year (85.7 percent). Last year, McPherson ranked 6th nationally at 89.5 percent (17 of 19).
- Since the start of last season, McPherson ranks fifth nationally in field goal percentage (29 of 33 / 87.9 percent) among FBS kickers with at least 30 attempts.
- Senior Tommy Townsend -- a Ray Guy Award semifinalist for a second straight year -- has downed 20 of his 38 punts (52.6 percent) inside the 20-yard line this year; he downed 17 of 39 (43.6 percent) inside the 20 last year.
- Senior Van Jefferson is one of Florida's "gunners" on its punt team. In the Miami game, he downed a punt at Miami's 5-yard line and recovered a muffed punt that set up a go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter.
- Senior receivers Tyrie Cleveland, Josh Hammond, and Freddie Swain also start on special teams.
- "It's something we stress so much within our team. Special teams is something we take a lot of pride in, we practice an awful lot." --Dan Mullen after UF's win over Miami.
- Special teams coordinator Greg Knox has made an immediate impact with the Gators. Knox's Mississippi State teams blocked 15 kicks or punts from 2014-17, which tied for the SEC lead and ranked 3rd nationally.
- Since the start of 2014 (including UF's five in 2018-19) here's where Knox's groups rank among all FBS teams:

FBS Rank	Team	Blocks
1.	Temple	26
2.	Hawaii	22
t-3.	Oklahoma State	21
	Texas A&M	21
t-5.	Greg Knox Teams / Northern Illinois / Tulsa	20

GATORS' PRESSURE CREATING CHAOS

- Pressuring opponents into mistakes has been the calling card of Florida's 2019 defense, and that statement is backed up by the Gators' 22 takeaways, which rank tied for 9th nationally. And their 48 takeaways since the start of last year are tied for 4th among all FBS teams.
- The Gators have forced four turnovers in three games this year (Kentucky, Tennessee, Auburn). The last time they forced four-plus turnovers in at least three games within a season was 2014 (four games).
- Florida is tied for 2nd in the FBS with 15 interceptions, but the Gators, Florida Atlantic, Oklahoma State, and Tennessee are the only FBS teams with at least three interceptions in three games this year (three apiece against Kentucky, Tennessee, and Auburn).
- UF is one of four FBS teams featuring three players (Shawn Davis, Donovan Stiner, Marco Wilson) with at least three interceptions this year -- the other three teams are Alabama, San Jose State, and Virginia Tech.
- Donovan Stiner leads UF with four interceptions -- which is tied for the SEC lead; he entered this season with two picks in 24 career games.
- UF's 38 sacks (one more than its 2018 season total -- and its highest total since tallying 41 in 2015) are tied for 5th in the FBS, while its 85 tackles for loss (one shy of last year's 13-game total) rank tied for 12th nationally.
- Jonathan Greenard is Florida's top disrupter in its front seven, as he is tied for 2nd the SEC with 12 tackles for loss and is tied for 6th in the SEC in sacks (6.0) despite missing time with an ankle injury.
- Greenard's five tackles for loss (including two sacks) were UF's highest single-game total since Alex Brown had five TFLs (all sacks) against Tennessee on Sept. 18, 1999.
- Florida is the only SEC team featuring five players with at least 3.0 sacks, and another six Gators have 2.0 sacks this year -- Jonathan Greenard - 6.0; Zachary Carter, Mohamoud Diabate - 3.5; Jeremiah Moon, Jabari Zuniga - 3.0; Khris Bogle, Trey Dean III, James Houston IV, Ventrell Miller, David Reese II, Adam Shuler - 2.0.

GOOD SITUATIONAL DEFENSE KEEPING SCORES LOW

- The Gators are outscoring opponents 116-29 in the fourth quarter this year, and they are outscoring teams 220-69 in the second half (compared to their 136-87 edge in the first half).
- A point of emphasis on defense from both Coach Mullen and defensive coordinator Todd Grantham has been red zone defense. UF is tied for 2nd in the FBS in that regard (64.3 percent / 18 scores in 28 trips).
- UF is also 2nd in the FBS in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (35.7 percent / 10 TDs in 28 trips).
- This has translated to Florida ranking 7th nationally in scoring defense (14.2 points), and UF has three shutouts in the same season for the first time since 1988 (Montana State, Indiana State, Mississippi State).

GATORS BREAKING OFF MONSTROUS RUNNING PLAYS

- Florida has already set a single-season school record with three rushing plays of 75-plus yards this season. Previously, the 1982 Gators and 2008 Gators held the record with two such plays within a season.
- Lamical Perine sealed Florida's win over No. 7 Auburn with an 88-yard touchdown run -- which is the fifth-longest run in school history, the longest by a Gator since Emmitt Smith's 96-yard touchdown run against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 1988, and the 10th-longest rushing play by an FBS player this season.
- The others were by Josh Hammond (76-yarder at Kentucky) and Dameon Pierce (75-yarder at South Carolina).
- The Gators are one of eight FBS teams with three rushing plays of 70-plus yards.

GATORS HOLDING THEIR OWN AGAINST TOP-10 TEAMS

- Florida is 4-3 against ranked opponents under Dan Mullen, which includes a 3-3 record against Associated Press top-10 teams -- since the start of last season, only UF, Alabama, and Ohio State (three apiece), and LSU (eight) have at least three wins over teams in the top 10 of the AP Poll at the time of kickoff.
- Since the start of 2014, Mullen is 7-8 against top-10 teams, but four of those losses were to Alabama. Moreover, Mullen's team was the underdog in 14 of those 15 games, with the exception being the 2014 Orange Bowl.
- Last year, UF beat three ranked opponents (as well as multiple top-10 opponents) for the first time since 2012.
- Since the start of the 2002 season, Florida is 15-8 in games when both it and its opponent are top-10 teams, and it is 5-4 since the start of the 2012 season. Prior to 2002, the Gators were 16-16-1 in top-10 matchups.

2018 OFFENSIVE UPTICKS CONTINUING IN 2019

- Florida has 96 offensive touchdowns in 24 games under Mullen. In the 38 games composing the three seasons prior to Mullen's arrival (2015-17), Florida scored 93 offensive touchdowns.
- The Gators have 400-plus yards of total offense in 10 of their last 15 games, and 12 times in Mullen's 23-game tenure as head coach. In 50 games from 2014-17, Florida had 14 games of 400-plus total yards.
- UF has six games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's two seasons, matching their combined total from the 75 games spanning the 2012 through 2017 seasons.
- Last year, the Gators posted their most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six) and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when they did it five, six, and 10 times, respectively.
- One of Mullen's points of emphasis has been rotation at various positions throughout the game--especially at running back--with the result being a fresher team in the fourth quarter. Florida averaged 6.23 yards per carry (884 yards on 141 carries) in fourth quarter last year, which ranked 8th in the FBS and led the SEC.
- This season, Florida's style of play has changed but it remains strong in the fourth quarter, as it ranks 19th nationally and leads the SEC in fourth-quarter passing yards (778).
- Florida's tempo increased in Mullen's offense last season as well, as it had 32 touchdown drives under three minutes last season, its highest total since posting 40 in 2009. This year, UF has 26 such touchdown drives. UF combined for 27 sub-three-minute touchdown drives in 2016 and 2017, and just 22 in 2015.
- UF also surpassed its combined totals from 2016 and 2017 totals for touchdowns of 30-plus yards last year.

FLORIDA-FLORIDA STATE RIVALRY HISTORY

Notable Games

- Oct. 7, 1972 - Unranked Florida routed No. 13 Florida State, in Tallahassee, forcing (and recovering) six fumbles and totaling 307 yards of offense in a 42-13 win. The six fumble recoveries helped the Gators hold off Florida State's 341-yard passing performance.

- Nov. 26, 1994 - Fourth-ranked Florida led No. 7 Florida State, 31-3 entering the fourth quarter. The Seminoles rattled off an 84-yard touchdown drive in four-plus minutes, a 60-yard touchdown drive in 33 seconds, a 73-yard touchdown drive in two-plus minutes, and a 60-yard touchdown drive in two-plus minutes to tie the game with one minute and 45 seconds left in regulation. Florida State had a chance to go for the win, but settled for the 31-31 tie.

"It was probably the worst loss in my four years of college football," UF punter Shayne Edge recounted to ESPN's Jared Shanker in 2014. "Everyone knows that's a Florida State win."

"They were all bragging about the tie," Steve Spurrier said of the game, now known as the "Choke at Doak". "I said, 'Hell, it's the same for you as it is for us.'"

- Nov. 30, 1996 - No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Florida State.

The Gators fell behind 17-0 in the opening quarter but responded with a pair of touchdown passes from Danny Wuerffel to make it a three-point game. A touchdown run by Pooh Bear Williams midway through the fourth quarter proved to be the edge the Seminoles needed to halt the comeback, and seemingly spoil Florida's national title aspirations.

Fortunately for the Gators, the Pac-10 Conference champion--No. 2 Arizona State--went to the Rose Bowl, and their win over Alabama in the SEC Championship game, paired with Michigan's upset of Ohio State and Texas' stunning upset of Nebraska in the Big 12 Championship Game.

All hope was not yet lost.

- Jan. 2, 1997 - Following a pair of upsets at the end of the season, Florida entered the 1997 Sugar Bowl ranked No. 3. After Ohio State upset No. 2 Arizona State in the Rose Bowl the day prior, the Gators' rematch with No. 1 Florida State became the defacto national championship game.

Florida led 24-17 at halftime, and after a Florida State field goal the Gators rattled off 28 unanswered points to win their first-ever national title.

Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel threw for 306 yards and totaled four touchdowns, while Terry Jackson ran for 118 yards and two scores.

"Maybe there was a divine guidance," Steve Spurrier said after the win.

- Nov. 22, 1997 - It is often called the greatest game ever played in The Swamp, as No. 10 Florida topped No. 2 Florida State, 32-29 in a thriller.

Adding to the intensity: Florida State players danced on the "F" at midfield prior to the game.

After five lead changes, Florida trailed 29-25 but had the ball and two-plus minutes to work with. Doug Johnson hit Jacquez Green for a 63-yard gain, and Fred Taylor broke off a 16-yard run to set up a one-yard touchdown run for the game-winning score.

"The atmosphere was absolutely unreal," UF linebacker Dwayne Thomas recounted to The Gainesville Sun in 2007. "It's the loudest I've ever heard The Swamp, that's for sure."

- Nov. 20, 2004 - Florida State renamed its playing field in honor of Bobby Bowden, but to Gators fans, it unofficially became Ron Zook Field.

Although Zook would be at Illinois two weeks later, he got a triumphant sendoff and one last Gatorade bath as Gators head coach following a 20-13 win over No. 10 Florida State in Tallahassee.

- Nov. 29, 2008 - One of the most lasting images of this rivalry came from UF's 45-15 rout of Florida State in Tallahassee, as Tim Tebow's white uniform was covered in garnet paint after fighting his way into the end zone for a touchdown on a rain-soaked day. Tebow never lost to FSU.

Ethan Hughes' Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: The Gators used explosive plays on offense, crucial Florida State penalties and a mostly lockdown defensive performance to defeat the Seminoles 41-14 on Saturday at Doak Campbell Stadium. Lamical Perine (13 rushes, 129 yards) broke off a career-long 74-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, Feleipe Franks threw a trio of second-half touchdown passes to Trevon Grimes. Josh Hammond and Van Jefferson.

Defensive end Jachai Polite and the rest of the Gators' pass rush combined for five sacks and harassed Florida State quarterback Deondre Francois into a lost fumble and two interceptions. Florida State committed 10 penalties for 60 yards, including eight for 50 yards in the first half. Florida had four red-zone drives in the opening half but managed only six points. In the second half, they executed and blew the game open.

WHAT IT MEANS: The win snapped Florida's school-record five-game losing streak in the series and ended FSU's nation-best 36-year bowl streak. The Gators are now all but a lock to receive a bid to play in a New Year's Six bowl game. Perhaps most importantly, Florida fans have bragging rights for the next year, and the victory can only help coach Dan Mullen on the recruiting trail.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Polite showed why he is a projected first-round NFL Draft pick against the Seminoles struggling offensive line. He recorded 2.5 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss and simply couldn't be blocked by FSU. His strip sack in the third quarter was recovered by Cece Jefferson. Franks threw a 22-yard score to Grimes on the next play, and Florida State never came close the rest of the way.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: 536. The Gators' oft-criticized offense amassed more than 500 yards of total offense for the third consecutive week. The first two, however, came against South Carolina and Idaho, whose defenses have struggled all year. This one came against their in-state rivals and marked the first time the Gators have gone for 500 yards or more in three consecutive games since 2008, Mullen's final season as offensive coordinator.

Mullen Revives Florida's Offense in 2018 Debut

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86
Scrimmage TDs	25 (t-120th)	51 (t-35th)	+85
Passing Eff.	113.11 (113th)	145.76 (35th)	+78
Total Offense	335.9 (110th)	426.7 (42nd)	+68
3rd Down Pct.	32.5% (117th)	41.6% (48th)	+69
Rushing Offense	156.4 (75th)	213.2 (27th)	+48
Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.
- Much of the success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title.
- The Gators had 11 different pass catchers with a touchdown reception for the first time since 2009. In 2017, UF totaled 10 receiving touchdowns.
- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.
- Became the first head coach in Gators history to win seven-plus games in a debut season after inheriting a sub-.500 team.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- Mississippi State broke more than 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

- Tebow won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 (first-ever underclassman winner).

- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fourth-year junior quarterback Feleipe Franks ran three yards for the go-ahead touchdown with just over eight minutes left and a Florida defense that sacked Miami redshirt freshman Jarren Williams 10 times withstood a flurry of penalties on the Hurricanes' final two drives and held on for a big (albeit ugly, at times) season-opening victory before a sold-out house at Camping World Stadium in Orlando. The game, serving as the ceremonial kickoff to college football's 150th season, was a rare matchup between two cross-state rivals and featured five lead changes, including two in the fourth quarter, but also five turnovers and 23 combined penalties for 218 yards. Miami tailback DeeJay Dallas, from the wildcat spot, dashed 50 yards for a touchdown to give Miami a 20-17 lead 45 seconds into the final period. Two UF drives later, Franks dropped and heaved a 65-yard completion to senior wideout Josh Hammond, with Franks scoring on a QB keeper three plays later at the 8:18 mark. After that, both teams made enough mistakes for two games, as Miami had no answer for Florida's defensive pressure and Florida's secondary was unable to cleanly cover Miami's receivers downfield. After a huge UF stop with 4:30 to play, Franks was intercepted on first down and gave the Hurricanes the ball at the Florida 36. From there, the Gators had to escape two defensive pass interference penalties -- one of them on fourth-and-34. The game ended with Miami at the Florida 26, facing fourth-and-12, but with a chance to chuck the ball into the end zone for the win. Instead, UF defensive end Jeremiah Moon was fast off the edge and forced Williams into a no-chance throw into the dirt to end the game and give the Gators just their second victory over the Hurricanes in the last 33 years. Franks finished 17 of 27 for 254 yards and two touchdowns, including a 66-yard screen pass to Kadarius Toney in the first quarter, plus two interceptions, both in the final period. Williams, making his first career start, hit 19 of 29 attempts for 214 yards and a score, while Dallas had 12 carries for 95 yards.

WHAT IT MEANS: A lot. Florida began the day having lost seven of eight to Miami, dating to the 1986 season, the year before the Gators begged out of an annual rivalry that dated to 1938. The run of frustration included an ugly 2013 defeat that marked the last time the two programs played. With the victory, UF now trails the series, 27-29. More importantly, of course, was getting the 2019 season off to a victorious start, even though things did get a little dicey at the end. Better than the alternative. Ask the Canes.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with Franks ... for the good and bad. His big-arm throw to Hammond helped turn the game, but his interception after that huge defensive stop gave the Hurricanes a chance. Remember, things weren't always smooth sailing with him last season either, but alongside Coach Dan Mullen the two worked together and figured some stuff out.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those 10 sacks by the Gators were the most by a Florida defense since at least 1996 (the only stats available via our data base), topping the previous best when Jevon Kearse and the Gators beheaded Auburn's Dameyune Craig nine times in a 24-10 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Feleipe Franks completed his first 15 passes on the way to throwing for 270 yards and two touchdowns without a turnover Saturday night, and the Gators did what the 11th-ranked team in the country is supposed to do an FCS opponent from the Ohio Valley Conference in their 2019 home opener at Spurrier/Florida Field. The UF offense started slowly, managing just a 3-0 lead through the first 22 minutes before Franks, the fourth-year junior, fired scoring strikes of 69 yards to Van Jefferson and 35 to Tyrie Cleveland to open a 17-0 lead in the second quarter. The Gators added third-quarter rushing TDs from tailbacks Malik Davis and Lamical Perine, then stretched the lead in the fourth quarter when both UF backup quarterbacks, Kyle Trask and Emory Jones, accounted for a TD (Trask passing, Jones rushing). Franks, who had three turnovers in UF's season-opening win two weeks ago against Miami, played just three quarters and finished his night 25 of 27 (that's 92.6 percent). UF tallied 543 yards of total offense (312 passing, 231 rushing), while the defense limited the Skyhawks to 194 yards and posted the program's first shutout since a 32-0 defeat of North Texas three games into the 2016 season. The win, however, looked to have come with a price (read on).

WHAT IT MEANS: Not much, other than the fact UF was bigger, faster and more physical than UTM, which everybody knew well before the kickoff. The game allowed the Gators to build some confidence, pile up some statistics and celebrate some big offensive plays the likes of which were much harder to come by two weeks earlier against a stout Hurricanes defense in Orlando.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with wingback Kadarius Toney and cornerback CJ Henderson -- unfortunately -- as both players left the game with injuries and did not return. Toney was hit hard on a running play in the first quarter and went to the sideline in obvious pain with what appeared to be an arm or shoulder injury. Trainers tended to Toney in the sideline tent before taking him to the locker room. In the second quarter, Henderson got tangled up covering a deep pass down the middle of the field. Henderson, after remaining on the field a bit, was helped off by two trainers and taken to the locker room. No in-game injury updates were provided by UF.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those first 15 completions by Franks were the second-most to start a game by a Florida quarterback in program history. Worth noting: The incompletion on his 16th attempt came on a "Hail Mary" at the end of the half. The record for most completions to start a game remained at 17, set by Chris Leak in a 32-14 season-opening defeat of Wyoming on Sept. 3, 2005, a game that marked the debut of Coach Urban Meyer.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Backup quarterback Kyle Trask, summoned to duty for injured starter Feleipe Franks, led two fourth-quarter touchdown drives and capped the second with a 4-yard run and go-ahead score with 4:11 remaining as the ninth-ranked Gators overcame a double-digit deficit and escaped with a stirring comeback win in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams at sold-out Kroger Field. The outcome could easily have gone the other way, as the Wildcats, after Trask's go-ahead score, marched 58 yards in nine plays, but Chance Moore was wide right on a 34-yard field goal attempt with 54 seconds to play. UK tried to get the ball back by calling a couple timeouts, but wide receiver Josh Hammond's electrifying 76-yard touchdown run iced it and gave the Gators their 32nd over the Wildcats in the last 33 meetings. There was no in-game update on Franks, who was trying to run for a first down on fourth-and-1 when he was hit hard and his torso awkwardly bent backward, with his legs appearing to be planted in the pile. The entire UF sideline emptied onto the field when Franks, who hit 12 of 17 throws for 174 yards, one touchdown and an interception in his 18th consecutive start, was carted away. Kentucky led 21-10 at the time. Enter Trask, who hit his first four passes on his way to going 9-for-13 for 126 yards and stealing the spotlight from UK first-time starter Sawyer Smith, who hit 23 of 34 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and another rushing. Smith, though, turned the ball over four times, including a pair of second-half interceptions by junior safety Shawn Davis that led to 10 points. The second of those Davis picks came with Kentucky leading 21-16 and 6:05 to play in the game. Florida needed just four plays to go 66 yards, but 30 of those came on Kentucky penalties, with Trask finishing things off with the go-ahead scramble up the middle.

WHAT IT MEANS: A road win to open the SEC slate, which is always big. Remember, the Gators started 0-1 in the league last season, courtesy of that home loss to the Cats that snapped the historic 31-game winning streak. As for the injury to Franks, the team's personality obviously will undergo a significant change. Read on.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: No one outside of the Florida football walls (maybe even Coach Dan Mullen's office) knew for certain if the Florida backup quarterback was Trask or redshirt freshman Emory Jones. Now, not only do we know a little more, but we're going to find out a lot more about Trask, the person/player, in the coming days/weeks. Now that there's high-leverage tape for opposing defensive coaches to break down, the 6-foot-5, 239-pound fourth-year junior from Texas no longer will have the element of surprise working in his favor, as he surely must have against the Kentucky defense.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators had 216 yards of offense through three quarters, but cranked out 222 in the fourth quarter alone, including TD drives of 66 and 80 yards with Trask in control.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: In the first start of his career, quarterback Kyle Trask threw for 293 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while the UF defense held the Volunteers to just 239 yards of offense and forced four turnovers in a relatively easy Southeastern Conference win Saturday at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, elevated to starter after the season-ending injury to Feleipe Franks last week at Kentucky, was far from perfect, as the fourth-year junior from Texas had a trio of turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble), but made enough good plays and had enough help from his defense to have little trouble against the struggling Volunteers. The Gators opened a 17-0 lead at intermission, courtesy of a 19-yard touchdown pass from Trask to tight end Kyle Pitts on the game's first possession, a 22-yard Evan McPherson field goal, and 1-yard run from tailback Lamical Perine on the final play of the half. On the latter, the Gators faced a fourth-and-goal at the 1 and UF coach Dan Mullen ran the clock down to :02 before calling a timeout. Mullen bypassed the easy three points and sent his offense back on the field for a do-or-die snap, with Perine driving into the end zone on the final play of the half. Tennessee opened the second half by marching to a 40-yard Brent Cimaglia field goal, but Trask canceled that score out and then some with a 75-yard drive capped by a beauty of a 29-yard touchdown pass to wideout Freddie Swain that made the score 24-3. Sophomore tailback Dameon Pierce added a 10-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and McPherson kicked his second field goal, a 37-yarder, with just over four minutes left to wrap the scoring. Trask completed 20 of 28 passes (71.4 percent) and his 293 yards eclipsed the best single-game output ever tallied by Franks (284 last season at Vanderbilt). The Gators finished with 441 yards of total offense and went 5-for-5 on red-zone scoring opportunities.

WHAT IT MEANS: Not only did the Gators remain unbeaten, but make that two SEC wins in two games. While Tennessee is in the midst of a nightmare season, the Vols still have SEC-caliber players capable of coming in and making things interesting, if the Gators didn't take them seriously and spun their wheels at home. Didn't happen. As for Trask, a couple poor third-quarter throws into double-coverage will get the attention of Mullen and QBs coach Brian Johnson, but he also made some really nice passes, demonstrated an element of poise in the pocket and showed plenty for his team (and fans) to be encouraged about.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The obvious choice would be Trask, but on a day when the Gators' defense limited the Vols to those measly 239 yards and three points a shout-out to that side of the ball, and especially linebacker Jonathan Greenard, seems warranted. The graduate-transfer from Louisville was an absolute beast all afternoon, finishing the game with four tackles, two of them for loss, a sack, three passes defensed (one that led to a tipped interception) and a forced fumble. What a game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: That's 14 wins in the last 15 meetings between these two for the Gators, including eight straight at home (dating to the 2005 season). It really is incredible to think how this once-fierce rivalry -- one of the biggest games in the country every year -- has deteriorated into such a one-sided affair. The 31-point margin of victory was UF's largest in the series since winning 59-20 at home in 2007.

GAME 5 SUMMARY

No. 9 Florida 38, Towson 0

Sept. 28 | Ben Hill Griffin Stadium | Gainesville | Attendance: 79,126

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	Final

Florida (5-0, 2-0 SEC)	7	10	14	7	38

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask completed his first 15 passes, threw for two touchdowns and rushed for a score, backup tailback Dameon Pierce had a 37-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, and the UF defense registered its second shutout of the season Saturday in blanking overmatched Towson at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, the fourth-year junior making his second start, finished 18 of 20 for 188 yards with scoring strikes of 5 and 7 yards, both to sophomore tight end Kyle Pitts, and sandwiched a 1-yard touchdown run on a QB sneak in between. In the fourth quarter, Trask gave way to redshirt freshman backup Emory Jones, who keyed a 69-yard touchdown drive with a 29-yard run and finished it with a 2-yard scoring pass to reserve true freshman tight end Keon Zipperer. The Florida defense surrendered some big plays to Tigers quarterback Tom Flacco, younger brother of Denver Broncos quarterback and Super Bowl champ Joe Flacco, but ultimately kept Towson off the scoreboard, thanks to three forced turnovers and a couple missed field goals. UF finished with 422 yards of total offense, while holding Towson to 248.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators are 5-0 for the first time since 2015, and for only the second time in the last 10 seasons. Expect Coach Dan Mullen to go with the ol' Urban Meyer adage next week: "The best thing about being 5-0 is you have a chance to go 6-0." This one also put a wrap on UF's non-conference schedule until the Gators face rival Florida State in the regular-season finale Nov. 30.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: While senior tailback Lamical Perine searches for his first breakout game of the season, Pierce, the sophomore from Bainbridge, Ga., brought the Gators some much-needed productivity to the struggling Florida running game, including runs of 31 yards in the second quarter and that 37-yard score in the third. Those runs marked the third- and second-longest, respectfully, for the Gators this season. Pierce's performance helped UF finish with 160 rushing yards for the game, which was the second-most of the season. The Gators began the day ranked 12th in the Southeastern Conference in rushing and exited still averaging just 141.4 per game (with two of those games against FCS opponents).

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Saturday's hot start, combined with three completions on his final three throws in last week's defeat of Tennessee, gave Trask 18 straight completions over the two games. That broke the previous UF record of 17 straight, set by Chris Leak in the 2005 season opener against Wyoming. Trask, whose first missed attempt came at the 9:25 mark of the third period, equaled the 15 straight completions to start a game that his predecessor, Feleipe Franks, hit to open UF's Sept. 7 defeat of Tennessee Martin. The 15 was the second-most in school history, behind the 17 in a row from Leak 14 years ago.

WHAT HAPPENED: Senior tailback Lamical Perine broke off an 88-yard touchdown run with just over nine minutes to play Saturday that ignited a seismic celebration at sold-out Spurrier/Florida Field and helped the No. 10 Gators finish off the seventh-ranked Tigers amid the hysteria of 90,000-plus who witnessed a Southeastern Conference victory with national implications. Fourth-year Florida junior quarterback Kyle Trask passed for a couple first-half touchdowns, but also was responsible for three of UF's four turnovers, the collection of which allowed Auburn to stick around. The Florida defense, however, was not so accommodating in holding the Tigers and their lethal rushing attack to just 269 yards of total offense. The Gators harassed quarterback Bo Nix most of the day, especially in the second half when the true freshman fell victim to the infamous noise inside a packed "Swamp." Trailing just 17-13, Nix was intercepted in the end zone by safety Donovan Stiner on a third-and-7 from the UF 10 late in the third quarter. With inside 10 minutes to go in the game, and the score the same, Nix faced a third-and-8 from the UF 36. Under pressure, Nix tried to escape the Florida pass rush by running backward, only to fall down for a 22-yard loss. Auburn punted the next play, pinning Florida at its 12. The next snap was Perine's 88-yarder and delirium for the home team. Trask, who left the game in the second quarter with a knee injury but returned two series later, finished 19 of 31 for 234 yards with TD passes of 64 yards to Freddie Swain on the second play of the game and 13 to Josh Hammond in second quarter, leading the offense to 398 total yards. Perine carried 14 times for 130 yards, while Swain caught six passes for a career-high 146 yards. Nix's day looked like this: 11 of 27, 145 yards, one TD, three interceptions. Auburn's lone touchdown actually came after UF coach Dan Mullen gambled with a fake punt in his own territory that did not work. Other than that, the Tigers managed very little offensive success on the road.

WHAT IT MEANS: UF is unbeaten six games into a season for the first time since 2015 and now with a five-star victory on the résumé should start being mentioned in the national-championship conversation; certainly at least for another week as things are about to get even tougher (read on). The Gators took full advantage of the best "Swamp" atmosphere in years, but now have to take their level of play to another level (and far more mistake-free one), given what awaits them away from Gainesville in the coming weeks. In the interim, though, enjoy a magnificent win that marked just the second defeat of Auburn in the last six meetings, dating to the 2001 season.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Before taking the handoff and going the distance, Perine had just 33 yards on eight carries for the game. For the season, he had averaged just 3.6 yards per carry to that point. He upped that number at a very opportune time. The run was the longest by a Gator since Emmitt Smith, who was in the house Saturday, went 96 yards against Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 1988. UF, which came into the game 11th in the SEC in rushing, actually outgained Auburn for yards on the ground 132-124.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Auburn came into the game with a rushing attack ranked third in the SEC and 14th nationally at 251.2 yards per game. The Tigers managed just 109 yards on 33 attempts, allowing the Florida defense to put Nix in difficult down-and-distance situations, send pressure his way and make him deal with the crowd noise.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Joe Burrow passed for 293 yards and three touchdowns and tailback Clyde Edwards-Helaire rushed for 134 yards and a pair of scores on a Saturday night when the Gators' defense proved no match for the Southeastern Conference's runaway best offense in a shootout loss in front of 102,000-plus screaming fans at Tiger Stadium. Burrow completed 21 of 24 attempts for 293 yards and scoring passes of 9 and 54 yards to Ja'Marr Chase and 7 yards to Justin Jefferson and wasn't sacked. Edwards-Helaire had a 39-yard touchdown run in the first half and the game-tying 5-yard scoring run in the third period after UF had taken its first lead, at 28-21, on a 2-yard scoring toss from Kyle Trask to Van Jefferson to start the third period. The Gators were stymied the rest of the game, with LSU scoring the final 21 points of the game, including a 33-yard go-ahead touchdown run by Ty Davis-Price with 3:15 left in the third quarter. UF trailed by just seven points midway through the fourth quarter when Trask was picked off in the end zone by LSU defensive back Derek Stingley Jr. with 7:26 to play. Four plays later, Burrow hit a wide-open Chase, who torched cornerback CJ Henderson, up the right sidelines for the 14-point cushion with 5:43 left in the game. Florida came into the game ranked first in total defense, allowing just 276.3 yards per game, and scoring defense, surrendering just 9.5 points per game. The Tigers made jambalaya out of those numbers, shredding the Gators for 511 yards, including 218 on the ground, and the most points posted against UF since Alabama did a 54-16 number on Florida in the 2016 SEC Championship Game. At one point the Tigers, who did not turn the ball over, scored touchdowns on four straight possessions and wasted very little time in doing so (read on). Trask hit 23 of his 39 passes for 310 yards, three touchdowns and the one big interception, as Florida totaled 457 yards of offense, 28 first downs and converted nine of 17 third-down chances, yet were completely outplayed by the opposing offense.

WHAT IT MEANS: With South Carolina's huge road upset of Georgia earlier in the day, the Gators missed an opportunity to assume the driver's seat in the SEC East Division standings. A case can be made that the Bulldogs' loss, coming against a division foe, was worse, but the stakes in a couple weeks in Jacksonville will be high, regardless. For what it's worth, the Gators went into one of the nation's most hostile venues and played toe-to-toe with a top-five team for the better part of the game. They are not out of the SEC race or the chase for a College Football Playoff berth, but the task got a little tougher.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Burrow was a legitimate Heisman Trophy candidate before the game, but now he'll be mentioned alongside Alabama quarter Tua Tagovailoa, Oklahoma quarterback Jalen Hurts, Ohio State quarterback Justin Fields and Wisconsin running back Jonathan Taylor. Maybe even as the favorite. Burrow's season numbers now show 148 completions in 186 attempts -- that's 79.5 percent -- to go with 25 touchdowns and just three interceptions, as the pilot of a team smack in the middle of the national-championship conversation

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Tigers and that offense began the night with 26 touchdown drives of three minutes or less in their five games. Of their six TD drives against the Gators, five were less than three minutes. They looked like this: two plays, 66 yards, :32; five plays, 82 yards, 2:09; four plays, 75 yards, 1:29; eight plays, 75 yards, 3:42; four plays, 52 yards, 1:41; four plays, 80 yards, 1:43. So make that 31 drives of three minutes or less through six games. That's remarkably efficient (and explosive). LSU only had four third-down plays the whole game and were out-possessed for the game 38:19 to 21:41.

WHAT HAPPENED: Three of Kyle Trask's four touchdown passes came in the fourth quarter, as the Gators erased a three-point deficit on the road and in the rain Saturday and ran away from the Gamecocks late for a big Southeastern Conference East Division win in Columbia, S.C. The Gators trailed 20-17 after Parker White's 31-yard field goal with 3:13 remaining in the third period. From there, Trask threw touchdown passes of 25 yards to wide receiver Freddie Swain (after a huge fourth-down conversion along the way), five yards to tight end Kyle Pitts after the UF defense forced a fumble, and then five yards to wideout Trevon Grimes, the latter with 4:02 remaining to cap 21 unanswered points and put the Gators in command. South Carolina managed a Ryan Hilinski-to-OrTre Smith scoring pass of four yards with 1:53 to go, but Grimes covered up the ensuing onsidles kick attempt and UF finished things off. Trask got off to a slow start, but finished his day 21 of 33 for 200 yards, the four TDs (including a 37-yarder to redshirt freshman Jacob Copeland in the first half) and one interception. Sophomore tailback Dameon Pierce had a 75-yard touchdown run on the first snap after South Carolina took a 17-10 lead on a 20-yard scoring run by Tavien Feaster early in the third quarter, a play that kept things settled on the UF sidelines. Florida finished with 354 total yards, while South Carolina tallied 387, including 217 on the ground. Hilinski, a week after being knocked from his team's mega-road upset of Georgia with a knee injury, completed 17 of 35 for 170 yards and one touchdown, while Feaster had a monster afternoon of 25 carries for 175 yards and one TD.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators' fourth win in five SEC games was significant because it was a East Division win, and it kept UF alone in second place in the league standings, behind 22nd-ranked Missouri, which took a 2-0 league record into its afternoon game at Vanderbilt. It was also a road win, which are never easy in this league. Give the Gators credit for staying the course amid difficult circumstances (venue and weather) and ultimately making the plays to win for the 11th time in their previous 12 games.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Pierce did not play last week at LSU because of a concussion suffered the week before in the win over Auburn. The timing of his 75-yard touchdown run was perfect because it wiped out whatever momentum the Gamecocks had seized after intercepting Trask and scoring a go-ahead TD to start the second half, plus put the home crowd back in their seats. Pierce finished with seven carries for 87 yards and helped the Gators' very average running game total 157 yards on a very damp day. His big run, though seemed to loosen the South Carolina defense up and helped Florida play offense with more balance.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Last year, the Gamecocks led the Gators 31-17 to start the fourth quarter in Gainesville. Florida won 35-31. This year, the Gators trailed 20-17 to start the final period and won 38-27. So make that Dan Mullen 35, Will Muschamp 7 in fourth quarters of their meetings the last two seasons. That's also six wins under Mullen when the Gators have entered the fourth quarter trailing.

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior quarterback Jake Fromm passed for 279 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while his UGA defensive colleagues smothered UF's offense and allowed the eighth-ranked Bulldogs to take control of the Southeastern Conference East Division with a statement-making rivalry win Saturday at TIAA Bank Field in Jacksonville. Fromm fired touchdowns of three yards to Dominick Blaylock and 52 yards to Lawrence Cager, the latter coming with 10 minutes remaining and, coupled with a two-point conversion, put the No. 6 Gators, who never led, in a 14-point hole that proved too much to overcome. Georgia came into the game ranked first in the SEC in both total defense and scoring defense, and the Bulldogs played as such. They limited UF to a season-low 278 yards, the second-lowest output of Coach Dan Mullen's two seasons (a mere three yards better than last year's UGA loss). Fromm, meanwhile, riddled the Gators by completing 20 of 30 passes, but it was UGA's proficiency on third down that absolutely killed UF. The Bulldogs converted 12 of 18 third-down plays and in doing so out-possessed the Gators by more than 12 1/2 minutes. Florida quarterback Kyle Trask was better in the second half, finishing 21 of 33 for 257 yards and a couple touchdowns, but took a horrific 19-yard sack on a crucial second-half possession after the Gators, down 16-3, had moved into Bulldogs' territory. But it wasn't like Trask had a running game to complement the UF passing game. Florida rushed the ball 19 times for a measly 21 yards (1.1 per carry), compared to Georgia's 119 on 37 carries, and after falling behind, 10-0, had to play uphill all game.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Bulldogs, by virtue of the head-to-head tiebreaker win, now have the inside track to the SEC East Division title and accompanying berth in the conference championship game. Finishing the job, though, won't be an automatic. Georgia still has to beat Missouri on the road (Nov. 9), Auburn on the road (Nov. 16) and Texas A&M at home (Nov. 23). If the Bulldogs, two-time reigning division champs, lose any two of those games, and the Gators beat Vanderbilt at home (Nov. 9) and win at Missouri (Nov. 16), Florida would steal the East title. Should UGA close things out, UF is still very much in line for a New Year's Six bowl. That's a decent consolation prize, as the Gators found out last year, but obviously not what they were gunning for. Also, make it three straight losses to Georgia, which now leads the all-time series 52-43-2.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: In Georgia's 36-17 win last season, Fromm hit 17 of his 24 throws for three touchdowns and did so without a turnover. After Saturday's on-point performance, Fromm's combined numbers against the Gators the last two seasons show a completion rate of 68 percent, 519 yards, five touchdowns and no interceptions.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Rushing for just 21 yards certainly jumps out of the box score, but when an offense is allowed to convert 12 of its 18 third-down plays (that's nearly 67 percent), it's demoralizing for a defense and, obviously, reduces the opportunities for the offense even to take the field.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fourth-year junior quarterback Kyle Trask passed for a career-high 363 yards to go with three touchdowns and shared top billing with a UF defense that held the overmatched Commodores to just 128 total yards in Saturday's blowout/shutout Southeastern Conference victory at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, in helping guide UF to 560 yards of offense, fired scoring strikes of 1 yard to tailback Lamical Perine, 66 to wide receiver Trevon Grimes, and 15 to tight end Kyle Pitts, eventually giving way to backup QB Emory Jones, who rushed for a trio of touchdowns after halftime. Freshman outside linebacker Mohamoud Diabate had three sacks, one of which produced a fumble (one of three UF forced turnovers) that graduate-transfer linebacker Jonathan Greenard returned 80 yards for a touchdown in the third period. UF squandered several first half scoring opportunities, thanks to a pair of turnovers, a missed field goal and failed fourth-down conversion, and led just 14-0 at the break. Such was not the case in the second half, as the Gators scored four touchdowns in the third quarter alone. Trask's passing yardage total was the most by a UF quarterback since Tim Tebow bombed Cincinnati for 482 in the New Year's Day 2010 Sugar Bowl and the outcome marked the first scoreboard blanking of a league opponent since defeating Kentucky, 38-0, on Sept. 22, 2012.

WHAT IT MEANS: That's 28 wins in the last 29 meetings against Vandy, dating to the 1989 season (with the lone blemish coming in 2013). The Gators were fat 27-point favorites over the Commodores, a team that came in ranked last or next-to-last in the SEC total offense and scoring offense, plus total defense and scoring defense. UF did what it was supposed to do in this game, especially at home, which means there's still a ton of good things to play for this season.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Diabate, a true freshman from Auburn, Ala., was given an opportunity due to the regular season-ending foot injury to Jeremiah Moon suffered last week in the loss against Georgia. Boy, did he capitalize on it. The 6-foot-2, 213-pounder came into the game with 11 tackles, just two unassisted, with one stop for loss in his nine games. Diabate finished with four tackles, three of them sacks.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The plus-432 yards of total offense (including a 277-18 edge at halftime) jumped out of the box score, but the outcome also marked the worst shutout and largest margin of defeat against a SEC foe since the Gators beat Kentucky, 65-0, on Sept. 28, 1996, on the way to winning the program's first national championship.

Scott Carter's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: The 11th-ranked Gators took their time to warm up the scoreboard Saturday -- much like the weather here at Memorial Stadium in Columbia, Mo. -- but once they did, they took control in the third quarter with a pair of touchdown throws by quarterback Kyle Trask. The first came with Florida nursing a 6-3 lead when Trask dropped back and threw deep to receiver Josh Hammond, who swirled around to catch a 34-yard touchdown pass with Tigers safety Joshua Bledsoe in coverage. Two UF possessions later, Trask drove the Gators 75 yards on eight plays for a 20-6 lead, connecting with Lamical Perine for a 15-yard touchdown pass. Perine made the catch in the back corner of the end zone, getting a foot down before falling out of bounds. Officials reviewed the play to ensure Perine got a foot in-bounds and had possession before ruling it a touchdown, Perine's fourth scoring reception of the season. The Gators led 6-3 at halftime in a battle of field goals, with sophomore Evan McPherson good from 47 and 39 yards for UF, and Missouri's Tucker McCann connecting on a 37-yarder in the second quarter to make it a 3-3 game. The teams combined for 10 punts in the first half. Florida outscored Missouri 17-3 in the second half to hand the Tigers (5-5, 2-4 in SEC) their first home loss of the season.

WHAT IT MEANS: A nine-win regular season for the second year in a row under head coach Dan Mullen. The Gators (9-2, 6-2) closed the Southeastern Conference portion of their schedule with their first win over the Tigers since 2016. With six SEC wins, that is a one-game improvement over Mullen's first season in 2018 when the Gators went 5-3, losing to Kentucky, Georgia and Missouri. This season, the Gators' only conference losses came to No. 1-ranked LSU and No. 4 Georgia. Florida's only hope of getting to Atlanta for the SEC Championship game is to have Georgia lose today at Auburn and then next week at home to Texas A&M. Regardless, you can expect them to watch the Georgia-Auburn game closely on the flight home this evening.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Trask threw for 282 yards and a pair of scores, threatening to become the first UF quarterback since Tim Tebow during his Heisman Trophy-winning season of 2007 to have three 300-yard passing games in a season. Meanwhile, reigning SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week Jonathan Greenard posted another award-worthy performance, registering two sacks and five tackles for loss.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Tigers entered Saturday's game with a seven-game winning streak at home, including 5-0 this season. In those five wins, Missouri averaged 40.4 points and 461.8 yards. They finished with six points and just 256 yards on Saturday.
