THE STORYLINE

- UF's 168 points are its highest total in any four-game stretch against SEC teams since 2008, when it totaled 178 in wins over Georgia (49-10), Vanderbilt (42-14), South Carolina (56-6), and Alabama in the SEC Championship Game (31-20).
- The Gators are coming off their ninth game of 500-plus total yards under Dan Mullen, five of which have come against SEC teams. In the 101 games spanning the 2010-17 seasons, UF had nine 500-yard outings, with five against SEC foes.
- Florida is an AP top-10 team for the 14th consecutive poll, which ties the sixth-longest streak in school history, and its longest streak since its run of 31 consecutive top-10 appearances from Oct. 12, 2008 - Sept. 26, 2010.
- In addition to consecutive top-10 finishes in the AP Poll for the first time since 2008 and 2009, the Gators are coming off consecutive seasons with at least 10 wins for the first time since 2008 and 2009 (both 13-win campaigns).

FUN 'N' GUN? MULLEN'S OFFENSE IS FUN FOR EVERYONE

- Florida ranks fifth nationally and second in the SEC with 7.50 yards per play through its first four games. UF's 6.5 yards per play last year ranked 16th nationally, far and away its best average since 2009 (7.0 yards per play).
- The Gators' 42.0 points per game this season rank 10th nationally and second in the SEC.
- Florida's 35 points per game since the start of the 2018 season rank seventh among Power Five programs and 15th in the FBS. From 2015-17, Florida ranked 110th nationally and averaged just 23.1 points per game.
- While the Gators' 476.5 total yards per game rank 15th nationally, they are running far and away the fewest plays per game (63.5) of any of the teams ranked in the top 20. In fact, of the 55 FBS teams averaging at least 400 total yards per game this year, only Florida, Boise State (58), and Maryland (57.5) are running less than 65 plays per game.
- In addition to ranking tied for fourth nationally with 18 touchdown passes, Kyle Trask is one of two FBS players (UCF's Dillon Gabriel being the other) with at least four touchdown passes in four games this year. Gabriel and UCF have played six games, compared to the four games played by Trask and Florida.
- Trask is the only player in school history to throw four-plus touchdown passes in four consecutive games.
- Junior tight end Kyle Pitts and senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney have combined for 13 touchdown receptions this year -- equal to the total accumulated by Florida's two leaders in receiving touchdowns last season (Freddie Swain had a team-high seven, while Van Jefferson was second with six).
- Florida and Ole Miss are the only FBS teams featuring two players with at least six receiving touchdowns. Pitts is tied for fifth nationally with seven, and Toney is tied for eighth nationally with six.
- Pitts and Toney are the only FBS players with six-plus touchdown receptions in less than five games played this year.

FLORIDA-GEORGIA RIVALRY HISTORY

Notable Games

- Nov. 9, 1940 - Florida won 18-13, though many Florida fans arrived late due to road closures. The Gators held Georgia to 19 rushing yards and forced six turnovers. The Gainesville Daily Sun (now just The Gainesville Sun) dubbed it "the most exciting game ever seen in the series."
- Nov. 7, 1970 - The Gators trailed 17-10 in the fourth quarter, and with the Bulldogs headed in for another touchdown, Jack Youngblood stripped Georgia's Ricky Lake at the goal line and recovered the fumble. Quarterback John Reaves followed the takeaway with a pair of touchdown passes to Carlos Alvarez in the final five minutes, leading the Gators to a 24-17 victory.
"I just snatched it away," Youngblood said after the game, noting he didn't know who he stripped.
"Heck, they do it all the time in the pros."
- Nov. 8, 1980 - Run, Lindsay, Run.
Lindsay Scott's 93-yard catch and run for a touchdown--on third-and-11, with roughly a minute left in regulation to boot--saved Georgia's unbeaten and national championship season.
The touchdown gave the Bulldogs a 26-21 win.
Oh, and future Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker rushed for 238 yards as a freshman.
- Nov. 10, 1984 - The No. 10 Gators shut out No. 8 Georgia, and then-freshman walk-on quarterback Kerwin Bell capped the 27-0 win with a 96-yard touchdown pass to Ricky Nattiel. Florida fans tore down the goal posts after the game.

- Oct. 30, 1993 - Freshman cornerback Anthone Lott signaled for timeout just as Georgia attempted to snap the ball--and the play continued, with Eric Zeier throwing what was believed to be the game-tying touchdown pass. However, Florida was granted the timeout.
Zeier and the Bulldogs had two more shots into the end zone, but connected on neither, and Florida held on for a 33-26 win.
- Oct. 28, 1995 - Steve Spurrier was told no one had ever scored 50 points in Georgia's Sanford Stadium. Danny Wuerffel threw five touchdown passes, and backup quarterback Eric Kresser continued to throw late in the game, even with UF well ahead.
"We wanted to try and make it a memorable game for the Gators, and it was," Spurrier said.
In the two years the rivals played a home-and-home due to stadium renovations, Florida outscored Georgia 104-31.
- Nov. 2, 2002 - Georgia entered 8-0 and ranked fourth, while the Gators were 5-3 and unranked. Guss Scott had a pick-six, and Rex Grossman threw a touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter to give the Gators a 20-13 upset.
- Nov. 1, 2008 - In its 42-30 win the year before, the entire Georgia ran onto the field and celebrated its first touchdown of the game.
The fifth-ranked Gators responded in 2008 by calling two timeouts in the final minute of a 49-10 rout of the eighth-ranked Bulldogs.
"Rules say you get three timeouts a half, and they only used two," UGA head coach Mark Richt said.

Rivalry History

- Georgia's records count a 1904 meeting as the first-ever game in the series, but the UAA does not include it do to the fact the university formally became what is known today as the University of Florida in 1905, and it officially established its football team in 1906.
- Jacksonville officially became the home of the Florida-Georgia game in 1933.
- Why Jacksonville? "They moved that game to Jacksonville in 1933 because fans of both schools could easily get there by train, and it turned out right," Florida historian Norm Carlson said. "The stadium was sold out the first year and from there on, it was held in Jacksonville."
- The only two instances since 1933 the game was played outside Jacksonville was 1994 and 1995, as the schools completed a home-and-home while Jacksonville Municipal Stadium was being built to accomodate the Jacksonville Jaguars.
- March 16, 2016 - an agreement was reached to keep the Florida-Georgia game in Jacksonville through 2021.
- The Florida-Georgia game has its own Hall of Fame, created in 1995 with four inductees from each team. Florida's were Kerwin Bell, Ray Graves, Shane Matthews, and Steve Spurrier.

TRASK RESEMBLING VINTAGE GATORS QBs

- Kyle Trask continues to be the best Gators quarterback, statistically, since Tim Tebow, but his numbers also resemble 2001 Heisman runner-up Rex Grossman and other Gators from Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n' Gun" era.
- Since the start of the 1997 season, Trask is one of three Gators with four touchdown passes in five games against SEC teams, putting him alongside Grossman (six times) and Doug Johnson (five). Trask threw four at South Carolina last year, six at Ole Miss in the 2020 opener, and four each of the last three games.
- Trask's 345-yard outing against Missouri was his seventh career game of 300-plus passing yards, moving him past John Reaves (1969-71) and into a tie with Chris Leak (2003-06) and Doug Johnson (1996-99) for the fourth-most 300-yard games in UF history.
- Five of Trask's six 300-yard outings are against SEC opponents, which ranks fifth in school history, behind Grossman (12), Danny Wuerffel (10), Shane Matthews (nine), and Johnson (six).
- Trask's three games of 300-plus yards passing this season tie him with Leak (2004) and Grossman (2002) for the most 300-yard passing outings against SEC opponents in a single season since the start of 2002. Grossman was the last Gator with more than three 300-yard games against SEC teams in a season, as he eclipsed that mark in all eight league games in 2001.
- A 312-yard outing at then-No. 21 Texas A&M earlier this year was the third time Trask threw for 300-plus yards against a ranked opponent. Since the start of 2000, the only Gators with 300-plus yards against a top-25 team are Trask (at No. 5 LSU last season; 2019 Orange Bowl; at No.21 Texas A&M), Tebow (2010 Sugar Bowl), and Grossman (nine times from 2001-02).
- Trask also has an active streak of 12 games with 200-plus yards passing, putting him one game shy of the second-longest streak in school history, established by Grossman across the 2000, 2001, and 2002 seasons.
- Last year, Trask joined Leak (four in 2004) as the only other Gator since the start of 2003 to post four 300-yard passing games in the same season. Trask was also the first Gator since Leak (three in 2004) to have two 300-yard outings against SEC opponents in the same season.
 - » From 2010-18, Gators quarterbacks combined for three 300-yard passing games.
- Trask's fourth and final touchdown pass of the afternoon at Texas A&M was the 40th of his career, moving him past Terry Dean (1991-94) for the ninth-highest total in school history. He is 10 touchdown passes away from Reaves, who holds the No. 8 spot on the program's all-time top 10 with 54 touchdown passes.

TRASK'S HOT START COMPARED TO HEISMAN WINNERS

- Trask planted himself firmly in the Heisman Trophy conversation with his eye-popping statistics through the first four games of 2020 -- including his SEC-record 18 touchdown passes. If that statement seems hyperbolic, here is a look at the top yardage and touchdown numbers by Heisman-winning quarterbacks in their first four games of a season since 1990. The first table is sorted by yards, the second by total touchdowns.

PITTS SETTING A NEW STANDARD FOR TIGHT ENDS

- “He’s that matchup problem. You get backers matched up on him, and that’s a problem in the pass game. You put DBs on him in the run game, and he’s a physical blocker at the point of attack. That’s what you want at the tight end position.” --Dan Mullen on Pitts following UF’s season-opening win at Ole Miss
- Kyle Pitts hauled in his seventh touchdown reception of the season in the first quarter at Texas A&M, meaning it took him just nine quarters of football to tie the single-season school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end -- which he jointly holds with Cornelius Ingram (2007) and Kirk Kirkpatrick (1990).
- Additionally, Pitts’ seven touchdown receptions are already equal to the total posted by Florida’s 2019 leader for receiving touchdowns (Freddie Swain). Pitts is tied with Swain and Demarcus Robinson (2014) for the most touchdown receptions by a Gator in a season since Riley Cooper had nine in 2009.
- Pitts’ 5-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter at Texas A&M was the 13th of his career, breaking the school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, which was established at the end of the 2009 season.
- Pitts’ four touchdowns in the opener and two the following week made him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (Sept. 21-28, 2002) with multiple touchdown receptions in consecutive games. Kadarius Toney also accomplished the feat with a pair of touchdown receptions each of the last two games.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Pitts’ six touchdowns in the first two games were tied for the second-most over a two-game span by ANY SEC player the last 25 seasons (Vanderbilt’s Earl Bennett had seven in 2005).
- With his 170-yard outing against Ole Miss, and his 108-yard outing at LSU last season, Pitts is one of four Gators tight ends in history (Kirk Kirkpatrick, Ben Troupe, and a third) with two career 100-yard receiving games.
- Pitts is one of five FBS tight ends with multiple games of at least 80 receiving yards this season. Pitts had 81 last week against Missouri, and 170 in the season opener at Ole Miss.
- Pitts is also one of five FBS tight ends with five-plus receptions in three games this season; he had eight in the opener at Ole Miss, five at Texas A&M, and five last week against Missouri.
- Pitts’ 22 receptions this season are tied for eighth among all FBS tight ends, but he is only three catches; he is the only player in the list with fewer than five games played this season.
- Pitts’ 79 career receptions put him within three receptions of Kirkpatrick (82 from 1987-90) for the second-most career receptions by a tight end in school history.
- Last year, Pitts -- who had 54 receptions for 649 yards and five touchdowns -- became one of nine FBS tight ends since the start of 2015 with over 50 catches, 625-plus yards, and five touchdowns in a season. That group includes Oklahoma’s Mark Andrews (2017) and Ole Miss’ Evan Ingram (2016), both of whom are starring for NFL teams.

TONEY’S DEVELOPMENT AS A RECEIVER ON DISPLAY

- Kadarius Toney has been regarded as a dynamic playmaker since his career debut in 2017, but his development as a receiver this season truly makes him one of the most unique threats in college football.
- Toney ranks eighth in the SEC with an average of 120 all-purpose yards per game, and he is one of six SEC players with a combined seven rushing and receiving touchdowns this season (six receiving, one rushing).
- Toney flashed his dual-threat prowess last week against Missouri, catching two touchdown passes and running in another; he’s the only FBS player with two receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a game this season.
- At Ole Miss, Toney’s dual-threat production amounted to five receptions for 59 yards and a touchdown, along with two carries for 55 yards.
- Toney had a breakout game as a receiver at Texas A&M, setting career highs for receptions (seven), receiving yards (92), and touchdown receptions (two). Two of those career highs Toney surpassed were numbers he posted the previous week against South Carolina (86 receiving yards and six receptions).
- Toney’s seven scrimmage touchdowns this year are more than double the number of career total touchdowns he entered the 2020 season with (three -- two receiving, one rushing).
- In just four games this year, Toney already has the highest receiving yardage season total of his four-year career (297 yards). His previous season high was 260 receiving yards across 25 catches in 12 games back in 2018.
- Toney had five-plus receptions in each of Florida’s first three games; he entered the season with one career game of five-plus receptions (six against Idaho on Nov. 17, 2018).
- Toney’s 22 receptions are just three behind the highest season total of his career (25 across 12 games in 2018).

WILD NUMBERS FROM RECORD-SETTING OPENER

- Florida set a school record for total yards against an SEC opponent in its season-opening win at Ole Miss, as it amassed 642 yards (446 passing, 196 rushing) -- which also the 11th-highest total in any game in UF history.
- The Gators' previous record for total yards against an SEC opponent was 640 yards against Mississippi State back on Sept. 29, 2001, the final season of Gators legend Steve Spurrier's head coaching tenure.
- Florida's 446 passing yards were 10 shy of the 10th-highest total in school history, but it was just the second time since the start of the 2002 season the Gators eclipsed 435 passing yards (they threw for 482 in the 2010 Sugar Bowl, all of which came from Tim Tebow in what was the final game of his collegiate career).
- The Gators scored 50-plus points against an SEC opponent for the 26th time in school history, and for the second time under head coach Dan Mullen. The list of UF coaches with 50-point games against SEC teams is a short one: Spurrier (18), Urban Meyer (six), Mullen (two).

- Pitts' four touchdown receptions tied the single-game school record, previously set by receivers Ike Hilliard (Sept. 16, 1995 against Tennessee) and Jack Jackson (Sept. 3, 1994 against New Mexico State).
- Pitts became the 16th player in SEC history to haul in four touchdown receptions in a game, and the ninth to accomplish the feat against a conference opponent; he was one shy of the SEC's single-game record of five touchdown receptions, which is shared by four players.
- Pitts tied the SEC's single-game record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, equaling Kentucky's Al Bruno (1950 against North Dakota), Georgia Tech's Buck Martin (1951 against Auburn), Vanderbilt's Allama Matthews (1982 against Virginia Tech), and Kentucky's James Whalen (1999 against Georgia).
- Last year, the five FBS players with 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions against an FBS opponent were all receivers: Alabama's DeVonta Smith, LSU's Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson, and Hawaii's Cedric Byrd II and Jojo Ward. Smith is the only other FBS player with such a game this year.
- Pitts is one of three FBS tight ends since the start of the 1996 season to amass 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions in a game, joining Stanford's Colby Parkinson (six receptions, 166 yards, four touchdowns against Oregon State in 2018) and Kentucky's James Whalen Jr. (10 receptions, 151 yards, four touchdowns against Georgia in 1999).
- Pitts' 170 receiving yards broke the single-game school record for receiving yards by a tight end, which was previously set Oct. 20, 1990 by Kirk Kirkpatrick (122 yards against Akron).
- Trask's six touchdown passes were one shy of the SEC single-game record held by seven players, including UF's Terry Dean (seven against New Mexico St. in 1994) and Doug Johnson (seven against Central Michigan in 1997).
- Trask became the 16th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes in a game. He also became the sixth Gators quarterback to throw six in a game. Aside from Florida (six) and Kentucky (three), no other SEC program has produced multiple quarterbacks who threw for six touchdowns in a game.
- Trask became the 10th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes against a conference opponent; he is one of three Gators quarterbacks to accomplish the feat, joining Danny Wuerffel (six against Tennessee in 1995) and Chris Leak (six against South Carolina in 2004).
- Trask's 416 passing yards were the ninth-highest total in school history, and the fifth-highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent. They marked the highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent since Rex Grossman threw for 464 yards at LSU back on Oct. 6, 2001.
- Since the start of 2018, the only FBS quarterbacks to throw for at least 400 yards and six touchdowns without an interception against a Power Five opponent are: Trask, Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa, LSU's Joe Burrow, Oklahoma's Kyler Murray, Washington State's Gardner Minshew II, and Ole Miss' Matt Corral.
- Trask's six touchdown passes tied 2019 Heisman winner Joe Burrow's record for passing TDs in a SEC opener.

- In 2019, UF logged the ninth season in school history of 300-plus passing yards per game (2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1995, 1994, 1993, 1991 -- counts bowl results).
- Last year, Florida finished 90 yards shy of the eighth 4,000-yard passing season in school history (2001, 2000, 1998, 1996, 1995, 1994, 1993 -- counts bowl results).

GATORS' AERIAL APPROACH HAS OFFENSE HUMMING

- Despite losing 173 career starts from last year's offensive personnel, mostly from its veteran receiving corps and dual-threat running back Lamical Perine, Florida's passing offense is still humming along with a number of players racking up impressive numbers.
- Florida ranks seventh nationally in passing yards per game (342.8) and passing touchdowns (18), putting it on pace for one of the best passing seasons in school history.
- UF finished 2019 ranked 16th nationally in passing offense (300.8 yards per game), which was the first time in nearly two decades it threw the ball that consistently. UF's highest national finish in passing offense since the start of 2010 was 79th (in 2016), and it finished outside the top 100 in four of the nine seasons from 2010-18.
- Florida's 345 passing yards against Missouri was its 12th 300-yard passing outing under Mullen (and seventh in its last eight games). In the 129 games spanning the 2008-17 seasons, UF threw for 300 yards 11 times.
- Florida ranks seventh nationally with a 186.31 passer rating this season, and Kyle Trask is sixth individually (189.24). The Gators' 157.2 passer rating since the start of 2018 ranks seventh among all FBS teams.
- This year, Florida, Arkansas, Georgia, and Mississippi State are the only SEC teams featuring six different players with a receiving touchdown. Last year, 10 Gators had one, and 11 Gators had one in 2018 -- making it the first time since 2000 and 2001 that 10-plus Gators had a receivint touchdown in consecutive seasons.
- Three Gators have multiple receving touchdowns this season. Last year, seven Gators finished with two or more, marking the first time since 2007 that many Gators caught at least two touchdowns in a season.
- Florida is one of five SEC teams (Alabama, Auburn, Ole Miss, Texas A&M) featuring three players with 10-plus receptions, 150-plus receiving yards, and multiple receiving touchdowns this season -- numbers which Pitts, Toney, and Trevon Grimes have for the Gators.
- Last year, Florida was the only FBS team featuring eight pass catchers with 20-plus receptions, 250-plus yards, and a touchdown. Moreover, UF and Washington State were the only two FBS teams with six pass catchers with 25-plus receptions, 325-plus yards, and a touchdown.
- Also last year, four Gators -- Van Jefferson, Perine, Kyle Pitts, Freddie Swain -- had at least five receiving touchdowns for the first time since 2008 (Percy Harvin and Louis Murphy led the foursome with seven apiece).

DEFENSE TAKES STEPS FORWARD AGAINST MIZZOU

- Prior to the final two defensive drives in the Missouri game -- by which time UF built a 41-10 lead -- the Gators gave up just 172 total yards, and did not cede a touchdown to the Tigers' offense.
- Florida also had its best performance when facing at least 15 third down attempts (3-15 / 20 percent) against Missouri since last year's rout of Vanderbilt, when it held the Commodores to three of 15 on third down.
- UF has five takeaways this season, bringing its total since the start of 2018 up to 54 -- which is tied for 17th among FBS teams.
- The Gators are tied with LSU for the SEC lead in tackles for loss per game this season (7.0)
- Last season, UF finished seventh nationally in scoring defense (15.5 points), posted three shutouts for the first time since 1988, and was one of two FBS teams (Oregon being the other) to hold five opponents without an offensive touchdown. The 23 offensive touchdowns allowed by the Gators last season were tied for the fourth-lowest total nationally, and the fewest they surrendered since 2012.
- Key losses from the 2019 defense were: Jonathan Greenard (led the SEC in sacks and tackles for loss; third-round NFL Draft pick), CJ Henderson (FWAA All-America Second Team; No. 9 overall pick in NFL Draft), and Jabari Zuniga (3.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss in just six games last year; third-round NFL Draft pick).

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- Florida has scored 35-plus points in six consecutive games, its longest streak since an eight-game streak from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008. The Gators have also scored 35-plus points in four consecutive games against SEC opponents for the first time since a six-game streak within the aforementioned 2008 run.
- Florida has finished with fewer than 10 penalties in 24 consecutive games. The Gators were consistently among the most penalized teams in the SEC from 2009-18, finishing dead last in 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2016.
- UF has scored in 402 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS teams that have not lost to a team which finished the season with a losing record. UF is one of four teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss (Alabama, LSU, Michigan).

CROSSING PATHS

- Dan Mullen and Georgia head coach Kirby Smart met as coordinators in the 2008 SEC Championship Game. Mullen coordinated Florida's offense to 358 total yards and a turnover-free 31-20 victory over the Alabama defense Smart coordinated.
- Mullen and Smart also faced off annually in the SEC West from 2009-15, as Mississippi State faced Alabama every year. During that span, Mullen's Bulldogs were one of four programs (Auburn, LSU, Texas A&M) to post over 345 total yards multiple times against Smart's Alabama defenses.
- The two faced off as head coaches in 2017. No. 11 Georgia beat No. 17 Mississippi State, 31-3, in Athens.
- Mullen faced Georgia associate head coach and offensive line coach Matt Luke in his final season at Mississippi State. Luke was in his first season as the head coach at Ole Miss. In their only meeting, Luke came out victorious, posting a 38-21 win in Starkville.
- Florida defensive coordinator Todd Grantham coached at Georgia from 2010-13, as well as linebackers coach Christian Robinson (2013-14), who played linebacker for UGA from 2009-12.
- Georgia defensive backs coach Charlton Warren was the cornerbacks coach at Florida in 2018.
- Jeremiah Moon ('15) and Georgia receiver George Pickens ('18) both played at Hoover (Ala.) High School.
- Andrew Chatfield Jr. ('17), James Houston IV ('16), Tedarrell Slaton ('16), Marco Wilson ('16), and Georgia defensive back Tyson Campbell ('17) all attended American Heritage. They all played on the same team in 2015.
- Trevon Grimes ('17), Kyle Engel ('19), Lamar Goods ('20), and Derek Wingo ('20) all attended St. Thomas Aquinas, the same as Georgia's Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint ('19). Many of these athletes were members of the 2015 and 2016 state titles captured by St. Thomas Aquinas.
- Florida has nine student-athletes who are from the state of Georgia, while the Georgia roster features 14 Florida natives.

Offensive Upticks Continued in Mullen's Second Act

- Florida recorded seven games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's first two seasons. In 75 games from 2012-17, UF had six 500-yard outings.
- Florida recorded 14 games of 400-plus total yards in Mullen's first 26 games as head coach. In the program's 50 games from 2014-17, UF had 400-plus yards just 14 times.
- The Gators had eight games of 400-plus total yards in 2019, their most such games in a season since 2008 -- Mullen's final year as O.C. -- when they did it 10 times.
- UF scored 40-plus points nine times in Mullen's first 26 games (three in 2019, six in 2018). In the 86 games spanning 2011-17, Florida scored 40 points on nine occasions.
- Florida also produced six games of 35-plus points in consecutive seasons (six in 2019, eight in 2018) for the first time since 2007-09.
- Florida scored 105 offensive touchdowns in Mullen's first 26 games. In the three seasons prior to his arrival (2015-17), the Gators scored 93 offensive touchdowns in 38 games.

Mullen Revived Florida's Offense in Debut Season

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

| Category | 2017 | 2018 | Diff. |
|-----------------|----------------|---------------|-------|
| TD-INT Ratio | 1.00 (t-111th) | 4.67 (t-9th) | +102 |
| Scoring Offense | 22.1 (t-108th) | 35.0 (22nd) | +86 |
| Scrimmage TDs | 25 (t-120th) | 51 (t-35th) | +85 |
| Passing Eff. | 113.11 (113th) | 145.76 (35th) | +78 |
| Total Offense | 335.9 (110th) | 426.7 (42nd) | +68 |
| 3rd Down Pct. | 32.5% (117th) | 41.6% (48th) | +69 |
| Rushing Offense | 156.4 (75th) | 213.2 (27th) | +48 |
| Sacks Allowed | 3.36 (124th) | 1.39 (t-21st) | +103 |

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.

- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.

- Mullen made Mississippi State one of 11 FBS programs to produce six different 1,000-yard rushers from 2009-17. The others were: Auburn (9), Nevada (7), Alabama (6), Army (6), Baylor (6), Boise State (6), Georgia Tech (6), Navy (6), Ohio State (6), and Wisconsin (6).

DAN MULLEN - FLORIDA HEAD COACH

- Mississippi State produced 26 NFL Draft picks in Mullen's tenure, including a pair of first-rounders. From 1996 through 2008, MSU had 27 NFL Draft picks.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- MSU broke over 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

In Perspective: Mullen Takes Mississippi State to No. 1

- Mullen led Mississippi State to a 9-0 start in 2014, allowing the Bulldogs to secure the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 for a five-week stretch from Oct. 12 through Nov. 9.
- MSU held the No. 1 ranking until after a 25-20 loss at No. 4 Alabama on Nov. 15.
- Since 2001, only 16 FBS programs -- predominantly "blueblood" schools -- have been ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25. And 11 of those 16 were ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 at least five weeks: Alabama, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, LSU, Miami, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Oregon, and Southern California.
- Since 2013, only six FBS programs have been the No. 1 team in the AP Top 25.

| Program | Weeks at No. 1 |
|-------------------|----------------|
| Alabama | 65 |
| Clemson | 23 |
| Florida State | 12 |
| Ohio State | 11 |
| LSU | 8 |
| Mississippi State | 5 |

In Perspective: Mullen as Florida's O.C.

- During Mullen's four seasons as the Gators offensive coordinator (2005-08), UF ranked 3rd in passer rating (155.9), 8th in scoring offense (36.3), 15th in total offense (418.9), 21st in rushing offense (185.6), 39th in passing offense (233.2).
- Coordinated an offense that ranked 4th nationally in points per game (43.6--also fourth in school history) and 15th in yards per game (445.1), eventually helping the Gators win the 2009 BCS National Championship Game.
- Coordinated a Gators offense that scored 41 points to rout Ohio State--which had the nation's top scoring defense--in the 2007 BCS National Champ. Game.
- Coordinated the 2007 offense to 457.2 total yards per game -- 8th in UF history.
- Helped Chad Jackson garner Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after he set UF's single-season record with 88 receptions in 2005. Jackson led the SEC and ranked 6th nationally in receptions.
- Also in 2005, center Mike Degory was named a Rimington Trophy finalist.

In Perspective: Mullen's Quarterbacks Track Record

- In 2002 at Bowling Green, Mullen helped Josh Harris account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (41) among FBS players and 3,213 total yards.
- In 2004 at Utah, Mullen helped Alex Smith account for the second-most total touchdowns (42) among FBS players, and amass 3,604 total yards.
- Smith finished fourth in the 2004 Heisman Trophy voting and was the No. 1 pick in 2005 NFL Draft.
- In 2007, Mullen helped Tim Tebow account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (55 -- an SEC record) among FBS players, and amass 4,181 total yards.
- Tebow was the first quarterback in FBS history to pass for 20+ touchdowns and rush for 20+ touchdowns in a season (2007), and his 2007 season remains the only one in history of more than 30 passing and 20 rushing touchdowns.

- Tebow won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 (first-ever underclassman winner).
- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.
- In 2014, Mullen helped Dak Prescott finish tied for fifth nationally in total touchdowns (42) in 2014, in addition to totaling 4,470 yards (3,449 pass / 986 rush / 35 receiving).
- Prescott was eighth in the Heisman voting and a Maxwell Award finalist in 2014.
- Prescott's rushing production dipped in 2015, but he increased his passing production and finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing yards (3,793). He also ranked 11th nationally with 39 total touchdowns.
- In 2016, Mullen helped first-year starter Nick Fitzgerald, a redshirt sophomore, tie for 14th nationally with 37 total touchdowns. Fitzgerald also ran for 1,375 yards--ranking 3rd among FBS quarterbacks.
- In 2017, Fitzgerald accounted for 2,766 yards (1,782 passing, 984 rushing) and 29 touchdowns (15 passing, 14 rushing) despite missing nearly all of the Egg Bowl and Mississippi State's bowl game due to a gruesome ankle injury.
- Much of Florida's offensive success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks' turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title. Franks threw nine touchdowns and eight interceptions, and ranked 99th nationally with a 113.31 passer rating in 2017.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask passed for 416 yards and six touchdowns, with four of those scores going to beastly junior tight end Kyle Pitts, as the fifth-ranked Gators outgained, outscored and outlasted the host Rebels to win their 2020 season and Southeastern Conference opener Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford, Miss.

Trask, who immediately vaulted into the early Heisman Trophy conversation, was masterful in guiding an offense that cranked out 642 yards, including 196 on the ground, for the most ever amassed by a Florida team against a league opponent. Trask staked his team to a 28-14 halftime lead by hitting 18 of 25 for 241 yards and four scores, with TDs to Pitts bracketing the first and last of those touchdowns, including a 16-yarder with just five seconds to go before intermission. Two plays out the locker room, Trask dropped and bombed a 71-yard scoring strike to Pitts to give the Gators a 21-point cushion. The Rebels never got closer than 14 after that, with UF adding a trio of consecutive field goals from junior Evan McPherson, including a 55-yarder that marked the third-longest in program history.

When Trask hit Pitts for a 17-yard touchdown with 5:14 left, he joined last year's Heisman winner, LSU's Joe Burrow, as the only QBs in league history to throw six touchdowns in an SEC opener. Florida wasn't the only team on the field to put up fat offensive numbers, which is something that figures to concern UF defensive coordinator Todd Grantham. The Rebels totaled 613 yards -- the third-most ever gained against the Gators -- with quarterback Matt Corral, once a UF commitment, finishing 22-for-31 for 395 yards, three touchdowns and one interception.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators have a win in their SEC opener for the second straight season and now have now started 1-0 in league play 15 of the last 16 seasons, dating to 2005. It's always good to not have to play catch-up in the SEC East. Even better when considering the 10-game SEC schedule.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hard to believe there's a better tight end in the country than Pitts, but Trask is the guy who was throwing him the ball and, boy, was he good at it. There's a reason he was named the preseason All-SEC First Team quarterback. He finished 30 of 42 for 416 yards, with those half-dozen touchdowns, no interceptions, and a whopping QB rating of 201.8. The six TDs fell one shy of the school and SEC record of seven, with UF's jointly held by Terry Dean (1994 vs. New Mexico State) and Doug Johnson (1997 vs. Central Michigan), and the conference's shared by another six players.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Pick any number of numbers from the Florida offensive box score. We already mentioned Trask tying Burrow's SEC opener touchdown record, so how 'bout Pitts' four touchdown receptions tying the single-game school record set previously by Ike Hilliard against Tennessee in 1995 and Jack Jackson against New Mexico State in 1994.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Trask continued his torrid start to the 2020 season, as did sidekick tight end Kyle Pitts, for that matter, as the third-ranked Gators took care of business against the Southeastern Conference East Division rival Gamecocks with a win Saturday before a socially distanced crowd of 15,120 at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask completed 21 of his 29 throws for 268 yards, four touchdowns and one interception, piling on his fat numbers from a week ago when he passed for 416 yards and six TDs without a turnover in a win at Ole Miss. Pitts, the 6-foot-6, 240-pound matchup nightmare, caught four passes for 47 yards and two scores, as the featured threat in an offense that ended up with just 348 yards because of a bizarre fourth quarter dominated by the Gamecocks. South Carolina scored on the game's first possession on a 75-yard march over 12 plays. Florida countered with a 75-yard scoring march of its own, capped by a 2-yard run by junior tailback Dameon Pierce. The UF defense forced a punt on USC's second possession, and Trask again marched the Gators to the end zone, this time finding Pitts for the first of his two scores. The Gamecocks answered, but only after Trask was hit and fumbled for his first turnover of the season. South Carolina's Collin Hill hit wideout Shi Smith for a 4-yard TD to tie the game at 14-all. From there, Florida dropped 24 unanswered points -- a field goal from Evan McPherson, plus Trask touchdown tosses to Pitts (again), redshirt freshman wideout Trent Whittemore and 57-yard catch-and-run from senior wingback Kadarius Toney -- to lead 38-24 late in the third quarter. Hill, who completed 28 of 47 passes for 211 yards and two TDs, worked the Gamecocks for 10 straight points to make it 38-24 with just over 10 minutes left, and had a chance for more. South Carolina got the ball back with 8:11 to go needing a pair of touchdowns, but the Gamecocks took their sweet time in marching all the way to the UF 4 with less than a minute to play. Hill's fourth-and-goal pass attempt to cut the lead in half fell incomplete with 48 seconds left, sealing the deal for the home team.

WHAT IT MEANS: Two games, two victories, and both in league play. The Gators will be no worse than one of two unbeaten SEC East teams by day's end (Tennessee defeated Missouri early Saturday, as well), with three-time reigning division champ Georgia slated for a big game tonight at home against Auburn.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: South Carolina held the ball for 11:12 of the fourth period and ran 29 plays to Florida's 10 and outgained UF 99-9 in the period. Of those Gators plays, three of them were kneel-downs to run out the clock on the final possession of the game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Florida (2-0, 2-0) is back on the road, with the Gators heading to Texas A&M. The Aggies (1-0) began the day ranked 13th, but with a date at No. 2 Alabama, the preseason favorite to win the league. UF is 1-1 against A&M since the Aggies entered the league, with both teams winning on the road. The Gators were victorious at College Station in 2012, with a 20-17 come-from-behind win over Johnny Manziel and the Aggies in what was A&M's first-ever game as a member of the SEC.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior Seth Small kicked a 26-yard field goal as time expired Saturday and the 21st-ranked Aggies upset the No. 4 Gators in a game devoid of defense at Kyle Field. Senior quarterback Kellen Mond, making his 37th career start, passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns, while tailback Isaiah Spiller shredded the Gators for 174 rushing yards and two more scores. But it took the Aggies' defense to make the play that changed the course of the outcome. The score was tied at 38 when Florida quarterback Kyle Trask, already with 312 yards, four touchdowns and no interception, took over with 3:40 remaining and a chance for the game-winning drive. After hitting senior tailback Malik Davis for 23 yards to near midfield, Davis fumbled the ball away two plays later and the Aggies recovered at the UF 48. Mond needed eight plays to move his team 40 yards, hitting a big third-and-8 completion (a troubling trend on the day against the UF defense) to wideout Chase Lane for 16 yards to the UF 19. On the next play, Spiller rushed 11 yards to the 8 and, after an A&M timeout, basically gave Small an extra point to win the game. Mond finished 25 of 35 against a UF defense that yielded 543 yards and an astounding 12-for-15 conversions on third down. Trask was 23-for-32, but was denied a chance at a game-winning drive. Florida finished with 402 yards of offense, but just 90 on the ground, compared to A&M's 205. The Aggies trailed 38-31 with just over six minutes left, but got a 51-yard scoring bomb from Mond to wideout Caleb Chapman to tie the game, then the turnover that turned the game. A&M started the day 0-7 against teams ranked in the top five during Coach Jimbo Fisher's three seasons since bolting from Florida State. In those games, the Aggies had been outscored by an average of 19.1 points, including last weekend's 28-point loss at No. 2-ranked Alabama. They're now 1-7

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators will be chasing the winner of Saturday's game between Tennessee and Georgia, both of which began the day unbeaten and tied with the UF atop the SEC East. (Update: Georgia won 44-21). The defeat wasn't a death knell to their hopes of winning division (not with dates against the Volunteers and Bulldogs down the road), but in the bigger, College Football Playoff picture, a loss to a team that was steamrolled 52-24 at Alabama last week won't help the Gators pass the eye test down the line; if it comes to that. There's also the more closer-to-home issue of that defense, which will be under serious reevaluation.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Mond and Spiller accounted for 515 of their team's 543 yards. That's 94.8 percent.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Aggies averaged 7.3 yards per snap. The Gators averaged 7.2, but 18 fewer plays, and thus nearly 170 fewer yards.

UP NEXT: The Gators (2-1, 2-1) return home to facing reigning national champion LSU (1-2, 1-2), which Saturday was stunned at unranked Missouri, 45-41, in a game that was moved from Baton Rouge to Columbia due to Hurricane Delta. The Tigers are a shadow of the team they were last year with Heisman Trophy winner and No. 1 overall draft pick Joe Burrow, what with 14 players taken in the NFL draft, but still quite talented and formidable, regardless of their two losses, including those 600-plus yards passing surrendered in a season-opening home loss against Mississippi State.

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Florida started slow offensively, but its defense held firm until a scoring surge late in the second quarter gave the Gators a two-score lead they extended with a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter. UF carried its 34-7 lead into the fourth quarter, and never allowed Missouri to get closer than 24 points en route to its 10th consecutive home win. Until mop-up duty late in the game, the only touchdown scored against the Gators came when redshirt senior quarterback Kyle Trask was hit on a throw, which led to a wounded duck of a pass and a 59-yard interception return touchdown by Missouri's Jarvis Ware. The pick-six put Missouri up, 7-6, a little over two minutes into the second quarter, as the Gators settled for a pair of field goals (both made by redshirt junior backup kicker Chris Howard) on their first two drives, despite some explosive passing plays from Trask to junior tight end Kyle Pitts and running backs Malik Davis and Dameon Pierce. Florida's offense got on track late in the second quarter, as a 36-yard pass from Trask to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Jacob Copeland drove the Gators to Missouri's 24-yard line. Then senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney delivered his latest video game-esque escape for an 18-yard touchdown run. Missouri faced a third-and-1 on the ensuing drive, and Brenton Cox Jr. recovered a fumbled exchange between Tigers quarterback Connor Bazelak and running back Tyler Badie, giving the Gators the ball at the Missouri 30-yard line with 1:15 remaining. They only needed seven seconds, as Trask found Toney for a 30-yard touchdown reception on the very next play, securing a 20-7 half-time lead. Florida faced a fourth-and-1 at Missouri's 31-yard line on its opening drive of the second half, which Trask converted himself with a 15-yard run. Toney capped the 8-play, 75-yard touchdown drive with a 16-yard touchdown run on the next play, making it 27-7. The Gators kept the ball on the ground for much of their next drive, which transfer receiver Justin Shorter capped with a 2-yard touchdown reception, the first of his collegiate career. Trask delivered his fourth touchdown pass of the night on an 18-yard connection with Trevon Grimes midway through the fourth quarter. The Texas native became the first Gators quarterback in history to throw at least four touchdown passes in four consecutive games, and brought his season total up to 18 (read on for more on how remarkable that feat is).

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida shook off the rust in its first game since a tough loss at Texas A&M on Oct. 10, and shored up some of the defensive issues it displayed through the first three outings this season. Most importantly, the Gators generated some momentum heading into next week's highly-anticipated rivalry matchup.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Florida defense. The unit entered the night ranked near the bottom of the FBS in rushing and passing defense, but until Missouri's final two drives – by which time Florida built a 41-10 lead – the Gators allowed just 172 total yards. Florida also limited Missouri to just three conversions on 15 third-down attempts (20 percent). The last time UF held its opponent to 20 percent or worse on third downs when it faced at least 15 was last year's rout of Vanderbilt, a game in which the Gators finished with the exact same 3-for-15 stat line on third down.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: 18. Trask's touchdown total through four games this season – which set an SEC record for touchdown passes in the first four games of a season. Entering Saturday's games, the FBS leader was UCF's Dillon Gabriel, who threw 19 touchdowns. In five games.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."
