THE STORYLINE

- Florida ranks eighth nationally and second in the SEC with 7.41 yards per play -- which is on pace for the school record of 7.40 set by the 1995 Gators. Last year, UF's 6.5 yards per play ranked 16th nationally, far and away its best average since 2009 (7.0 yards per play).
- Florida has beaten four SEC opponents by at least 20 points for the first time since 2008 (seven times).
- The Gators' 347 points mark their fifth-highest total through the first eight games of any season in school history, only trailing the 2001 Gators (359), 1995 Gators (364), 1994 Gators (394), and 1996 Gators (413).
- Florida's school-record streak of nine consecutive games of 35-plus points was snapped last week, as was its school-record streak of seven straight 35-point outings against SEC teams.
- With a win last week, Dan Mullen passed Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer for the best 34-game start by a head coach in UF history. Mullen is now 28-6, while Spurrier and Meyer were 27-7. Meyer won his 35th, while Spurrier lost his 35th.

KYLE (TRASK) TO KYLE (PITTS) CONNECTION RE-ENGAGED

- Junior tight end Kyle Pitts returned from a two-game hiatus with five receptions for 99 yards and three touchdowns, making him one of three FBS players with multiple three-touchdown games this year (Jaelaon Darden, North Texas; Romeo Doubs, Nevada). Pitts is the eighth SEC player to accomplish the feat since the start of 2000.
- Pitts' 11 touchdown receptions rank fourth among FBS players, and the other six players with 10 or more have all played at least seven games compared to Pitts' six.
- Pitts' 11 touchdown catches are the most by a Gator in a season since Jabar Gaffney finished 2001 with 13.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Kyle Trask is one of four FBS quarterbacks in the last 15 seasons with three-plus touchdown passes in eight consecutive games. The others are Trevor Lawrence (2019), Tyler Murray (2018), and Drew Lock (2017). Trask is also the first player in school history to accomplish the feat.
- Trask's 34 touchdown passes not only lead the nation by four, they are tied with Houston's David Klingler (1990) and San Diego State's Dennis Shaw (1969) for the third-highest total through eight games in FBS history. Only Houston's Andre Ware (36 in 1989) and Texas Tech's B.J. Symons (36 in 2003) threw for more in his team's first eight games.
 - » The two other FBS quarterbacks with over 24 touchdown passes have played nine games apiece.
- Trask is in the mix for the FBS record for touchdown passes through nine games. The top five consists of: Houston's Andre Ware (40 in 1989), Hawaii's Colt Brennan (39 in 2006), Texas Tech's B.J. Symons (37 in 2003), San Diego State's Dennis Shaw (37 in 1969), and Houston's David Klingler (36 in 1990).
- Trask ranks second nationally in passing yards per game (351.3) and fifth in passer rating (196.79).

HOW TRASK STACKS UP WITH PAST HEISMAN WINNERS

- Trask planted himself firmly in the Heisman Trophy conversation with his eye-popping statistics through eight games. The 19 Heisman-winning quarterbacks since the start of 1993 have all come from Power 5 Conferences, and Trask's numbers stack up well among the conference seasons posted by those winners.

FUN 'N' GUN? MULLEN'S OFFENSE CERTAINLY COMPARES

- The Gators' 43.4 points per game this season rank 10th nationally and second in the SEC. Their scoring average is currently tied for fifth on the program's single-season record list.
- Florida's 36.3 points per game since the start of the 2018 season rank seventh among Power Five programs and 13th in the FBS. From 2015-17, Florida ranked 110th nationally and averaged just 23.1 points per game.
- UF has scored 40-plus points 12 times under Mullen, equaling its number of 40-point outings it had in 101 games from 2010-17. From Oct. 31-Nov. 14 this year, the Gators had three consecutive 40-point games against SEC opponents for the first time since a five-game run from Oct. 11-Nov. 15, 2008.
- Florida's 36 touchdown passes lead the nation by three, and the only other teams with more than 25 touchdown passes this season have all played at least nine games compared to Florida's eight. UF has more than 35 passing touchdowns for the first time since 2001 and for the sixth time in school history.
- This is the first time since 1996 UF has scored five offensive touchdowns in seven games against SEC teams. Its seven-game streak (first seven games) was UF's longest since an eight-game run from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008.
- While the Gators' 509.3 total yards per game rank 12th nationally, they are only running 68.8 plays per game. Among the dozen FBS teams averaging at least 500 total yards per game this season, only Florida, Buffalo (64.0), Alabama (67.3), and BYU (68.1) are averaging fewer than 70 plays per game.
- The Gators have five games of 500-plus total yards against SEC opponents this year, marking the first time since 2001 (also five times) they had five such games against SEC teams in a season.
- UF posted four consecutive games of 500-plus total yards for the first time since the first four games of 2007, but it was only the third time in school history it had a four-game streak against SEC teams. The previous four-game streaks were from Oct. 5-Nov. 2, 1996, and Oct. 14-Nov. 18, 1995.
- Two weeks ago at Vanderbilt, Florida logged 500 total yards against an SEC team for the eighth time under Mullen, one more than the program's total number of 500-yard outings against SEC teams from 2008-17.

TRASK ON PACE TO SHATTER SEC, GATORS RECORDS

- Trask's 34 passing touchdowns are tied with Rex Grossman for third on the program's single-season record list. The top two seasons both belong to Danny Wuerffel, who had 35 in 1995 and 39 in 1996.
- With 31 touchdowns in the first seven games, Trask broke the SEC record for touchdown passes in league games, eclipsing the record jointly held by Danny Wuerffel (28 in 1995) and LSU's Joe Burrow (28 in 2019).
- With six-touchdown outings against at Ole Miss and against Arkansas, Trask became the seventh quarterback in SEC history with multiple six-touchdown passing performances in a career. The only Gators with two such games are Danny Wuerffel (two) and Terry Dean (two).
- With four-plus passing touchdowns in six games this year, Trask is the first player in Gators history to throw four touchdown passes six times in a season. Danny Wuerffel (1995, 1996) was the only one to do it five times.
- Trask is the only FBS quarterback to throw four touchdown passes in six different games this season (all in first six games of season); he was the first player in SEC history and fourth FBS quarterback since 1996 to throw at least four touchdown passes in six consecutive games (Colt Brennan, Hawaii - nine games in 2006; Graham Harrell, Texas Tech - six games in 2007; Logan Woodside, Toledo, six games in 2016).
- Trask's seven career games of four-plus passing touchdowns are tied with Grossman for third in school history, trailing Wuerffel (12) and Doug Johnson (eight). All seven of Trask's performances have come against SEC teams, the second-highest total in school history only behind Wuerffel's 11.
- Trask's pair of 400-yard passing games this year join him with Wuerffel (four) and Grossman (two) as the only Gators in history with multiple 400-yard outings in a career. It also ties Wuerffel's and Grossman's school record for 400-yard passing games in a season (two in 1996 for Wuerffel, two in 2001 for Grossman).
- Trask's six games of 300-plus yards passing this year join him with Grossman as the only other quarterback in school history to post four 300-yard outings against SEC teams in a season. Grossman did it in all eight of UF's games against league opponents in 2001.
- From an overall perspective, Trask's six games of 300-plus passing yards this season mark the third time in school history a quarterback logged six such outings. Grossman has the other two (10 in 2001 / six in 2002).
- Trask's six (2020) and four (2019) games of 300 passing yards each of the last two years make him the fourth quarterback in Gators history with multiple seasons of four 300-yard passing games, joining Grossman (2001, 2002), Wuerffel (1995, 1996), and Shane Matthews (1990, 1991, 1992).
 - » From 2010-18, Gators quarterbacks combined for three 300-yard passing games.
- Trask's 10 career 300-yard outings are fourth in UF history behind Grossman (17), Matthews (15), Wuerffel (14). Eight of them have come against SEC teams, which also ranks fourth in school history behind Grossman (12), Wuerffel (10), and Matthews (nine).
- Trask also has four 300-yard outings against ranked opponents in his career. The only Gators in history with 300-plus yards against at least four top-25 teams are Trask, Matthews (five), Grossman (nine) and Wuerffel (nine).
- Trask's streak of five straight 300-yard passing games from Oct. 10-Nov. 21 was the second-longest run in school history, behind Grossman's record of nine from the 2001 season.
- Trask's 60 career touchdown passes rank seventh in UF history, and he's one of three Gators (Tebow, Wuerffel) with two seasons of 25-plus passing touchdowns in a career.

GATORS FEATURE FBS' WIDEST PASSING DISTRIBUTION

- Florida ranks fifth nationally with a 193.53 passer rating this year, which is on pace to shatter the school record of 171.8 set in 1995. The Gators' 162.9 passer rating since the start of 2018 ranks fifth among all FBS teams.
- Florida's 369.6 passing yards per game rank second nationally, putting it on pace for a historic passing season. The only team in UF history to throw for more than 368 yards per game was the 2001 Gators (405.2).
- Florida has three games of 400-plus passing yards this season, marking the first time since 2001 and sixth time in program history it has three such outings in a season. Previous occurrences were: 2001 (seven times), 1998 (five), 1995 (four), and 1994 and 1993 (three apiece).
- The Gators are the only FBS team featuring three players with at least six touchdown receptions (Kyle Pitts - 11; Kadarius Toney - 7; Trevon Grimes - 6). They are the first Gators trio with six-plus touchdown receptions since 2001 (Reche Caldwell, Jabar Gaffney, Taylor Jacobs).
- Grimes and Toney each had a touchdown catch in four straight games this year, joining them with Percy Harvin (six games from Sept. 20-Nov. 1, 2008), and Dallas Baker (five games - the final two of 2005, and first three of 2006) as the only Gators since 2002 with touchdown catches in four straight games.
- UF is one of three FBS teams featuring five players with at least three touchdown receptions this season (UCF, Liberty), and 10 different Gators have a touchdown catch this year.
- Six Gators have multiple receiving touchdowns this season. Last year, seven Gators finished with two or more, marking the first time since 2007 that many Gators caught at least two touchdowns in a season.
- UF's 16 touchdown catches by tight ends lead the FBS by six. BYU is the only other team with more than eight.

PITTS SETTING PACE FOR FBS TIGHT ENDS

- “He’s that matchup problem. You get backers matched up on him, and that’s a problem in the pass game. You put DBs on him in the run game, and he’s a physical blocker at the point of attack. That’s what you want at the tight end position.” --Dan Mullen on Pitts following UF’s season-opening win at Ole Miss
- Kyle Pitts and senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney have combined for 18 touchdown receptions this year. The last time two Gators combined for 18-plus receiving touchdowns was 2001, when Jabar Gaffney led the team with 13 and Reche Caldwell had 10.
- Pitts had multiple receiving touchdowns against Ole Miss, South Carolina, and Kentucky, making him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (2002) with three such games in a season; he’s the first since Jabar Gaffney (2001) to have multiple receiving touchdowns against three against SEC teams.
- Pitts’ four touchdowns in the opener at Ole Miss and two the following week against South Carolina made him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (Sept. 21-28, 2002) with multiple touchdown catches in consecutive games. Toney also accomplished the feat with a pair of touchdown catches against Texas A&M and Missouri.
- Pitts hauled in his eighth touchdown reception of the season in the win over Georgia, meaning it took him just five games to break the single-season school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end -- which was previously set by Cornelius Ingram (seven in 2007) and Kirk Kirkpatrick (seven in 1990).
- Pitts’ 5-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter at Texas A&M was the 13th of his career and broke the school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, which was established at the end of the 2009 season.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Pitts’ six touchdowns in the first two games were tied for the second-most over a two-game span by ANY SEC player the last 25 seasons (Vanderbilt’s Earl Bennett had seven in 2005).
- With his 170-yard outing against Ole Miss, and his 108-yard outing at LSU last season, Pitts is one of four Gators tight ends in history (Kirk Kirkpatrick, Ben Troupe, and a third) with two career 100-yard receiving games.
- Pitts is one of four FBS tight ends with three games of at least 80 receiving yards this season. In addition to the aforementioned Ole Miss outing, he had 81 against Missouri and 99 against Kentucky.
- Even after missing two games, Pitts’ 29 receptions this season rank 11th among all FBS tight ends.
- Pitts is one of four FBS tight ends with five-plus receptions in four games this season; he had eight in the opener at Ole Miss, five at Texas A&M, five against Missouri, and five against Kentucky.
- Pitts’ 86 career receptions are the second-most career receptions by a tight end in school history, trailing the school record of 111 set by a tight end from 2007-09.

TRIPLE-THREAT TONEY BLOSSOMING AS A RECEIVER

- Kadarius Toney has been regarded as a dynamic playmaker since his career debut in 2017, but his development as a receiver this season truly makes him one of the most unique threats in college football.
- Toney ranks ninth in the SEC with an average of 108.0 all-purpose yards per game, and he is one of eight SEC players with nine total touchdowns this season (seven receiving, one rushing, one punt return).
- With his 50-yard punt return touchdown against Kentucky, Toney became the only FBS player this season with a rushing, receiving, and punt return touchdown.
- Toney’s seven touchdown receptions are tied for 16th in the FBS, and his eight scrimmage touchdowns (rush / receiving) this year are more than double the number of career total touchdowns he entered the 2020 season with (three -- two receiving, one rushing).
- Toney has posted a career-high seven receptions three times this season, and he has six games of five-plus receptions. Toney entered the year with one career game of five-plus catches (six versus Idaho - Nov. 17, 2018).
- In just eight games this year, Toney has the highest season totals for receptions (45) and receiving yards (541) of his career. His previous season highs (25 receptions and 260 yards) came in 2018, when he played 12 games.
- Toney had his first career 100-yard receiving game (six catches, 107 yards, TD), and a career-high 81 return yards (74 kickoff, 7 punt) at Vanderbilt. He was the first Gator since Reidel Anthony (Sept. 28, 1996 against Kentucky) with 100-plus receiving yards and 75-plus return yards. Anthony had 126 receiving yards and 102 return yards.
- Toney also flashed his dual-threat prowess versus Missouri, catching two touchdowns and running in another; he is one of four FBS players this year with two receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a game
- At Texas A&M, Toney set career highs for receptions (seven), receiving yards (92), and touchdown catches (two). Two of those career highs Toney surpassed were numbers he posted the previous week against South Carolina (86 receiving yards and six receptions).
- In the season opener at Ole Miss, Toney’s triple-threat production amounted to five receptions for 59 yards and a touchdown, along with two carries for 55 yards, and two kickoff returns for 40 yards.

DEFENSE TAKING STEPS FORWARD

- Florida got off to a rough start defensively, but it has played well for extended stretches since Halloween.
- The Gators rank second in the SEC with 2.88 sacks per game and 6.50 tackles for loss per game.
- Florida has 13 takeaways this season, bringing its total since the start of 2018 up to 62 -- which is tied for ninth among FBS teams.
- In the second half against Kentucky, Florida yielded just 46 total yards and did not allow a third or fourth down conversion as it outscored the Wildcats 20-0.
- Although it fell into a 14-0 hole and gave up 136 yards on Georgia's first two possessions, the Gators' defense responded and allowed just 141 yards on 51 plays (2.76 yards per play) the rest of the game.
- That finish resembled its start to the Missouri game. Prior to the final two defensive drives against Missouri -- by which time UF built a 41-10 lead -- the Gators gave up just 172 total yards and did not cede a touchdown to the Tigers' offense.
- Also against Missouri, Florida also had its best performance when facing at least 15 third down attempts (3-15 / 20 percent) since last year's rout of Vanderbilt, when it held the Commodores to three of 15 on third down.
- Four of Florida's last five opponents have converted three or fewer third downs.
- The Gators snared three interceptions wins over Georgia and Kentucky. They are one of nine FBS teams with multiple games of three interceptions this year. Last season, Florida, Florida Atlantic, Oklahoma State, San Diego State, and Tennessee were the only FBS teams with at least three interceptions in three different games.
- UF finished the 2019 season ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (15.5 points), posted three shutouts for the first time since 1988, and was one of two FBS teams (Oregon being the other) to hold five opponents without an offensive touchdown. The 23 offensive touchdowns allowed by the Gators last season were tied for the fourth-lowest total nationally, and the fewest they surrendered since 2012.

HUGE NUMBERS FROM STATEMENT WIN OVER GEORGIA

- UF notched its fourth win over an AP top-10 team under Mullen. From 2010-17, it was 5-11 against top-10 teams.
- In its win over Georgia, the Gators amassed 571 total yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since 2001, when UF racked up 584), tallied 474 passing yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since Kentucky threw for 528 in 2000), and scored 44 points (the third-highest total Georgia surrendered since Kirby Smart took over in 2016) with the vast majority of that production coming after it fell behind 14-0 three minutes in.
- Following the 14-0 deficit, Florida closed the first half with 38 points and 408 total yards on 43 plays. Within that same span, the Gators held Georgia to 30 yards on 18 plays and only gave up points via a pick-six.
- Florida's 38 points set a single-half school record for points against Georgia, topping the 35 points scored in the second half of the Gators' 49-10 rout of the Bulldogs in 2008.
- UF's five offensive touchdowns -- all in the first half -- tied the highest total allowed by Georgia under Smart.
- Kyle Trask broke Kerwin Bell's school record for passing yards against Georgia (408 in 1985)... by the end of the third quarter, which he finished with 412 yards.
- Trask's 474 passing yards were the second-highest total in school history, behind Tim Tebow's 482-yard outing in the 2010 Sugar Bowl. UF's 474 passing yards were the seventh-highest single-game total in school history.
- UF's backs combined for 212 receiving yards on 10 catches, led by Malik Davis' five for 100 yards -- the sixth 100-yard receiving game by a back in UF history, and first since Chris Rainey's 104 versus Tennessee in 2001.

MONSTROUS FIRST HALF LEADS TO ROUT OF ARKANSAS

- The Gators threw seven touchdown passes for the seventh time in school history, and they tossed five in a single half (five in the first) for the eighth time in program history.
- UF posted its first 60-point game against an SEC team since a 63-5 win over Kentucky on Oct. 25, 2008.
- Florida recorded its second 50-point game against an SEC opponent this year, marking the first time since 2008 and ninth time in program history the Gators posted multiple 50-point outings against SEC teams in the same season. The Gators have three 50-point games against SEC teams under Mullen, who trails Spurrier (18) and Meyer (six) for the most in school history.
- The rout of Arkansas was UF's fifth 50-point outing under Mullen, equalling the program's total of 50-point games from 2010-17.
- With his 31-yard pass to Keon Zipperer in the first quarter, Trask became the 10th player in Gators history to eclipse 5,000 career passing yards.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- Florida has been a top-10 team in each of the last 18 Associated Press Top 25 Poll releases, which is the sixth-longest streak in school history, and its longest streak since a run of 31 consecutive top-10 appearances from Oct. 12, 2008 - Sept. 26, 2010. The Gators are four releases shy of the program's fifth-longest streak.
- UF has six consecutive games of 400-plus total yards against SEC teams for the first time since a six-game stretch which started Oct. 27, 2001 against Georgia and ended after 418 yards at Tennessee on Sept. 21, 2002.
- UF has six straight games of 300-plus passing yards for the first time since a 14-game run which began with the 2001 Sugar Bowl, spanned all of 2001, and ended the week after the 2002 season-opening rout of UAB.
- Kyle Trask has thrown for 200-plus yards each of the last 16 games, extending the second-longest streak of 200-yard passing games in school history. The school record of 17 is held by Shane Matthews.
- The Gators have won 12 consecutive home games, marking their longest streak since a 13-game run which spanned the final four home games of 2008, all six home games in 2009, and the first three games of 2010.
- UF has finished with fewer than 10 penalties in 28 consecutive games. Dating back to the start of 2019, UF has been charged with five or fewer penalties in 14 of their 21 games, including eight of the last 10.
 - » The Gators were consistently among the most penalized teams in the SEC during the 2010s, finishing dead last in the league in 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2016.
- UF has scored in 406 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS programs without a loss to a team that finished the season with a losing record. UF and Alabama are also the only two teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss.

WILD NUMBERS FROM RECORD-SETTING OPENER

- Pitts' four touchdown receptions tied the single-game school record, previously set by receivers Ike Hilliard (Sept. 16, 1995 against Tennessee) and Jack Jackson (Sept. 3, 1994 against New Mexico State).
- Pitts became the 16th player in SEC history to haul in four touchdown receptions in a game, and the ninth to accomplish the feat against a conference opponent; he was one shy of the SEC's single-game record of five touchdown receptions, which is shared by four players.
- Pitts tied the SEC's single-game record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, equaling Kentucky's Al Bruno (1950 against North Dakota), Georgia Tech's Buck Martin (1951 against Auburn), Vanderbilt's Allama Matthews (1982 against Virginia Tech), and Kentucky's James Whalen (1999 against Georgia).
- Last year, the five FBS players with 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions against an FBS opponent were all receivers: Alabama's DeVonta Smith, LSU's Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson, and Hawaii's Cedric Byrd II and Jojo Ward. Smith and Miami (Ohio)'s Jack Sorenson are the only other FBS players with such a game this year.
- Pitts is one of three FBS tight ends since the start of 1996 to amass 150-plus receiving yards and catch four touchdowns in a game, joining Stanford's Colby Parkinson (six receptions, 166 yards, four TDs against Oregon State in 2018) and Kentucky's James Whalen Jr. (10 receptions, 151 yards, four TDs against Georgia in 1999).
- Pitts' 170 receiving yards broke the single-game school record for receiving yards by a tight end, which was previously set Oct. 20, 1990 by Kirk Kirkpatrick (122 yards against Akron).
- Trask's six touchdown passes were one shy of the SEC single-game record held by seven players, including UF's Terry Dean (seven against New Mexico St. in 1994) and Doug Johnson (seven against Central Michigan in 1997).
- Trask became the 16th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes in a game. He also became the sixth Gators quarterback to throw six in a game. Aside from Florida (six) and Kentucky (three), no other SEC program has produced multiple quarterbacks who threw for six touchdowns in a game.
- Trask became the 10th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes against a conference opponent; he is one of three Gators quarterbacks to accomplish the feat, joining Danny Wuerffel (six against Tennessee in 1995) and Chris Leak (six against South Carolina in 2004).
- Trask's 416 passing yards were the ninth-highest total in school history, and the fifth-highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent. They marked the highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent since Rex Grossman threw for 464 yards at LSU back on Oct. 6, 2001.
- Since the start of 2018, the only FBS quarterbacks to throw for at least 400 yards and six touchdowns without an interception against a Power Five opponent are: Trask, Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa, LSU's Joe Burrow, Oklahoma's Kyler Murray, Washington State's Gardner Minshew II, and Ole Miss' Matt Corral.
- Trask's six touchdown passes tied 2019 Heisman winner Joe Burrow's record for passing TDs in a SEC opener.

FLORIDA vs. TENNESSEE SERIES HISTORY

A Rivalry Born in the 1990s

- The Gators and Vols met as ranked teams 18 consecutive times from 1990-2007.
- Of the 16 meetings from 1990-2005, both Florida and Tennessee were top-10 teams in 11 matchups, with the Gators winning eight of those 11 games.
- On a conference level, from 1989-2000, Florida and Tennessee combined to win 10 SEC titles in that 12-year stretch.
- Once Florida-Tennessee became an annual series in 1990, the game's winner captured eight of 11 SEC titles through the 2000 season.
- The only exceptions were 1992 (UF lost to Tennessee, but won the SEC East Division), 1997 (UT lost at UF, but won SEC East and SEC Championship Game), and 1999 (UF beat UT, but lost SEC Championship Game).
- Since the creation of divisions and the SEC Championship game in 1992, the winner of the Florida-Tennessee game has gone on to win the SEC East 13 of a possible 27 times. The two have combined for 17 SEC East titles as well, with Florida owning 12.

Florida's Decade of Superiority

- The Gators' 11-game winning streak from 2005-15 is the longest by either team in the Florida-Tennessee series history.
- Florida won seven of those games by double-figures.
- The Gators' average margin of victory during the streak was 13 points.

Notable Games

- Oct. 13, 1990 - The first top-10 meeting in the series was a homecoming of sorts for first-year head coach Steve Spurrier, who was a star quarterback at Science Hill High School in Johnson City, Tennessee. The Vols spoiled his return home with a 45-3 rout.
- Sept. 16, 1995 - Sports Illustrated's Tim Layden spent the week leading up to the game following Peyton Manning for a cover story. He went to his classes, his apartment, his film sessions, even the locker room before the game. Layden's piece on Manning was set to be Sports Illustrated's cover story the following week.

All was well early, as Tennessee led 30-14 toward the tail end of the second quarter. Then Danny Wuerffel and the Gators rattled off 48 consecutive points to win a 62-37 rout.

Wuerffel threw for six touchdowns (four in the second half) and ran in another in the fourth quarter. Manning finished with 326 yards and two touchdowns.

"I felt like we could score every time we got it," said Spurrier, "and we came awfully close."

"Notable Games" continues on Page 11.

FLORIDA vs. TENNESSEE SERIES HISTORY

Notable Games

- Sept. 21, 1996 - In the first-ever matchup featuring top-five Florida and Tennessee teams, the No. 2-ranked Vols welcomed the No. 4-ranked Gators to Knoxville. Wuerffel threw four touchdowns in the first 18 minutes and 57 seconds. Just 57 seconds after the fourth, Anthone Lott returned a fumble 27 yards and made it 35-0.

Manning eventually threw for 492 yards and four touchdowns--along with four interceptions--as Tennessee mounted a comeback that came up short, with the Gators prevailing 35-29.

Florida jumped to No. 1 and earned the centerfold treatment from Sports Illustrated (pictured on Page 6) the following week.

- Sept. 20, 1997 - At an offseason speaking event, Spurrier joked, "You can't spell citrus without UT," followed by, "I know why Peyton came back for his senior year. He wanted to be a three-time star of the Citrus Bowl."

Wuerffel was gone. Manning was leading the Heisman discussion. Sports Illustrated centered around Manning, asking on their cover (picture on right), "Gator Bait Again?" It all seemed as though Manning would finally exorcise his Gators demons.

But Manning wound up as Gator Bait. Again.

Third-ranked Florida raced to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, as Doug Johnson threw a touchdown and Tony George returned an interception (one of Manning's two on the day) 89 yards for the Gators' second score.

After a Manning touchdown pass, Florida scored 19 of the game's next 26 points to seal a 33-20 victory over No. 4-ranked Tennessee.

"I'm sure Coach Spurrier will go make a few more jokes," Manning said afterwards.

- Sept. 18, 1999 - The third top-five matchup in four meetings saw No. 2-ranked Tennessee come to Gainesville to face the No. 4-ranked Gators.

The game was far from pretty for Florida's offense, but Alex Brown dominated on defense, sacking Tee Martin five times, hauling in an interception, breaking up two passes, and forcing a fumble. Brown and the Gators held Tennessee to 287 total yards and a paltry 95 rushing yards.

The offense did just enough, with Doug Johnson tossing a pair of touchdowns and Jeff Chandler nailing three field goals to give Florida a 23-7 lead in the third quarter. Again, a late Tennessee surge was not enough, as Florida held on to win, 23-21.

- Sept. 16, 2000 - Florida trailed, 23-20, with 2:14 left to play. Jesse Palmer led the Gators to UT's three-yard line and, with 20 seconds to go, hit Jabar Gaffney in the end zone for a touchdown. Gaffney had the ball batted away almost instantly, but officials determined he possessed it long enough for the game-winning score. The 27-23 victory is now referred to as, "The Catch?"

- Dec. 1, 2001 - The fourth top-five matchup in a span of six meetings, No. 2 Florida and No. 5 Tennessee met in a rescheduled game with an SEC Championship Game berth at stake.

Florida was a 17.5-point favorite, and the 2001 Gators are still regarded as one of the best teams in UF history, beating four teams that finished in the AP Top 15 by 24-plus points, including a 44-15 win at No. 7 LSU.

This thrilling clash came down to a two-point conversion, as Rex Grossman, who threw for 362 yards and two touchdowns, led the Gators into the end zone to make it 34-32 with 1:10 remaining. Grossman's pass was wide of Gaffney on the two-point try that could have tied the game.

- Sept. 16, 2006 - Seventh-ranked Florida's defense picked off Erik Ainge twice and held No. 13-ranked Tennessee to negative 11 rushing yards, while senior Chris Leak tossed all three Gators touchdowns, including the game-winner with 6:30 left in the 21-20 victory.

- Sept. 15, 2007 - Fifth-ranked Florida notched its largest win of the series, thumping No. 22-ranked Tennessee, 59-20. Tim Tebow accounted for four touchdowns (two passing, two rushing), and Percy Harvin racked up 195 all-purpose yards and a touchdown. Florida finished with 554 total yards.

- Sept. 26, 2015 - The final win of Florida's 11-game winning streak saw it erase a 27-14 four-quarter deficit with touchdown passes to Brandon Powell and Antonio Callaway, the latter coming with 1:26 remaining to secure a 28-27 win.

This cover is either celebrated or infamous, depending on whether it's viewed by the Florida or Tennessee faithful.

Yes, he was. Again.

Florida and Tennessee met in the 1969 Gator Bowl, which saw the Gators secure just their second win through the series' 13th game.

Offensive Upticks Continued in Mullen's Second Act

- Florida recorded seven games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's first two seasons. In 75 games from 2012-17, UF had six 500-yard outings.
- Florida recorded 14 games of 400-plus total yards in Mullen's first 26 games as head coach. In the program's 50 games from 2014-17, UF had 400-plus yards just 14 times.
- The Gators had eight games of 400-plus total yards in 2019, their most such games in a season since 2008 -- Mullen's final year as O.C. -- when they did it 10 times.
- UF scored 40-plus points nine times in Mullen's first 26 games (three in 2019, six in 2018). In the 86 games spanning 2011-17, Florida scored 40 points on nine occasions.
- Florida also produced six games of 35-plus points in consecutive seasons (six in 2019, eight in 2018) for the first time since 2007-09.
- Florida scored 105 offensive touchdowns in Mullen's first 26 games. In the three seasons prior to his arrival (2015-17), the Gators scored 93 offensive touchdowns in 38 games.

Mullen Revived Florida's Offense in Debut Season

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86
Scrimmage TDs	25 (t-120th)	51 (t-35th)	+85
Passing Eff.	113.11 (113th)	145.76 (35th)	+78
Total Offense	335.9 (110th)	426.7 (42nd)	+68
3rd Down Pct.	32.5% (117th)	41.6% (48th)	+69
Rushing Offense	156.4 (75th)	213.2 (27th)	+48
Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.

- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.

- Mullen made Mississippi State one of 11 FBS programs to produce six different 1,000-yard rushers from 2009-17. The others were: Auburn (9), Nevada (7), Alabama (6), Army (6), Baylor (6), Boise State (6), Georgia Tech (6), Navy (6), Ohio State (6), and Wisconsin (6).

DAN MULLEN - FLORIDA HEAD COACH

- Mississippi State produced 26 NFL Draft picks in Mullen's tenure, including a pair of first-rounders. From 1996 through 2008, MSU had 27 NFL Draft picks.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- MSU broke over 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

In Perspective: Mullen Takes Mississippi State to No. 1

- Mullen led Mississippi State to a 9-0 start in 2014, allowing the Bulldogs to secure the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 for a five-week stretch from Oct. 12 through Nov. 9.
- MSU held the No. 1 ranking until after a 25-20 loss at No. 4 Alabama on Nov. 15.
- Since 2001, only 16 FBS programs -- predominantly "blueblood" schools -- have been ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25. And 11 of those 16 were ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 at least five weeks: Alabama, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, LSU, Miami, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Oregon, and Southern California.
- Since 2013, only six FBS programs have been the No. 1 team in the AP Top 25.

In Perspective: Mullen as Florida's O.C.

- During Mullen's four seasons as the Gators offensive coordinator (2005-08), UF ranked 3rd in passer rating (155.9), 8th in scoring offense (36.3), 15th in total offense (418.9), 21st in rushing offense (185.6), 39th in passing offense (233.2).
- Coordinated an offense that ranked 4th nationally in points per game (43.6--also fourth in school history) and 15th in yards per game (445.1), eventually helping the Gators win the 2009 BCS National Championship Game.
- Coordinated a Gators offense that scored 41 points to rout Ohio State--which had the nation's top scoring defense--in the 2007 BCS National Champ. Game.
- Coordinated the 2007 offense to 457.2 total yards per game -- 8th in UF history.
- Helped Chad Jackson garner Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after he set UF's single-season record with 88 receptions in 2005. Jackson led the SEC and ranked 6th nationally in receptions.
- Also in 2005, center Mike Degory was named a Rimington Trophy finalist.

In Perspective: Mullen's Quarterbacks Track Record

- In 2002 at Bowling Green, Mullen helped Josh Harris account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (41) among FBS players and 3,213 total yards.
- In 2004 at Utah, Mullen helped Alex Smith account for the second-most total touchdowns (42) among FBS players, and amass 3,604 total yards.
- Smith finished fourth in the 2004 Heisman Trophy voting and was the No. 1 pick in 2005 NFL Draft.
- In 2007, Mullen helped Tim Tebow account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (55 -- an SEC record) among FBS players, and amass 4,181 total yards.
- Tebow was the first quarterback in FBS history to pass for 20+ touchdowns and rush for 20+ touchdowns in a season (2007), and his 2007 season remains the only one in history of more than 30 passing and 20 rushing touchdowns.

- Tebow won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 (first-ever underclassman winner).
- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.
- In 2014, Mullen helped Dak Prescott finish tied for fifth nationally in total touchdowns (42) in 2014, in addition to totaling 4,470 yards (3,449 pass / 986 rush / 35 receiving).
- Prescott was eighth in the Heisman voting and a Maxwell Award finalist in 2014.
- Prescott's rushing production dipped in 2015, but he increased his passing production and finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing yards (3,793). He also ranked 11th nationally with 39 total touchdowns.
- In 2016, Mullen helped first-year starter Nick Fitzgerald, a redshirt sophomore, tie for 14th nationally with 37 total touchdowns. Fitzgerald also ran for 1,375 yards--ranking 3rd among FBS quarterbacks.
- In 2017, Fitzgerald accounted for 2,766 yards (1,782 passing, 984 rushing) and 29 touchdowns (15 passing, 14 rushing) despite missing nearly all of the Egg Bowl and Mississippi State's bowl game due to a gruesome ankle injury.
- Much of Florida's offensive success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks' turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title. Franks threw nine touchdowns and eight interceptions, and ranked 99th nationally with a 113.31 passer rating in 2017.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask passed for 416 yards and six touchdowns, with four of those scores going to beastly junior tight end Kyle Pitts, as the fifth-ranked Gators outgained, outscored and outlasted the host Rebels to win their 2020 season and Southeastern Conference opener Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford, Miss.

Trask, who immediately vaulted into the early Heisman Trophy conversation, was masterful in guiding an offense that cranked out 642 yards, including 196 on the ground, for the most ever amassed by a Florida team against a league opponent. Trask staked his team to a 28-14 halftime lead by hitting 18 of 25 for 241 yards and four scores, with TDs to Pitts bracketing the first and last of those touchdowns, including a 16-yarder with just five seconds to go before intermission. Two plays out the locker room, Trask dropped and bombed a 71-yard scoring strike to Pitts to give the Gators a 21-point cushion. The Rebels never got closer than 14 after that, with UF adding a trio of consecutive field goals from junior Evan McPherson, including a 55-yarder that marked the third-longest in program history.

When Trask hit Pitts for a 17-yard touchdown with 5:14 left, he joined last year's Heisman winner, LSU's Joe Burrow, as the only QBs in league history to throw six touchdowns in an SEC opener. Florida wasn't the only team on the field to put up fat offensive numbers, which is something that figures to concern UF defensive coordinator Todd Grantham. The Rebels totaled 613 yards -- the third-most ever gained against the Gators -- with quarterback Matt Corral, once a UF commitment, finishing 22-for-31 for 395 yards, three touchdowns and one interception.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators have a win in their SEC opener for the second straight season and now have now started 1-0 in league play 15 of the last 16 seasons, dating to 2005. It's always good to not have to play catch-up in the SEC East. Even better when considering the 10-game SEC schedule.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hard to believe there's a better tight end in the country than Pitts, but Trask is the guy who was throwing him the ball and, boy, was he good at it. There's a reason he was named the preseason All-SEC First Team quarterback. He finished 30 of 42 for 416 yards, with those half-dozen touchdowns, no interceptions, and a whopping QB rating of 201.8. The six TDs fell one shy of the school and SEC record of seven, with UF's jointly held by Terry Dean (1994 vs. New Mexico State) and Doug Johnson (1997 vs. Central Michigan), and the conference's shared by another six players.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Pick any number of numbers from the Florida offensive box score. We already mentioned Trask tying Burrow's SEC opener touchdown record, so how 'bout Pitts' four touchdown receptions tying the single-game school record set previously by Ike Hilliard against Tennessee in 1995 and Jack Jackson against New Mexico State in 1994.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Trask continued his torrid start to the 2020 season, as did sidekick tight end Kyle Pitts, for that matter, as the third-ranked Gators took care of business against the Southeastern Conference East Division rival Gamecocks with a win Saturday before a socially distanced crowd of 15,120 at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask completed 21 of his 29 throws for 268 yards, four touchdowns and one interception, piling on his fat numbers from a week ago when he passed for 416 yards and six TDs without a turnover in a win at Ole Miss. Pitts, the 6-foot-6, 240-pound matchup nightmare, caught four passes for 47 yards and two scores, as the featured threat in an offense that ended up with just 348 yards because of a bizarre fourth quarter dominated by the Gamecocks. South Carolina scored on the game's first possession on a 75-yard march over 12 plays. Florida countered with a 75-yard scoring march of its own, capped by a 2-yard run by junior tailback Dameon Pierce. The UF defense forced a punt on USC's second possession, and Trask again marched the Gators to the end zone, this time finding Pitts for the first of his two scores. The Gamecocks answered, but only after Trask was hit and fumbled for his first turnover of the season. South Carolina's Collin Hill hit wideout Shi Smith for a 4-yard TD to tie the game at 14-all. From there, Florida dropped 24 unanswered points -- a field goal from Evan McPherson, plus Trask touchdown tosses to Pitts (again), redshirt freshman wideout Trent Whittemore and 57-yard catch-and-run from senior wingback Kadarius Toney -- to lead 38-24 late in the third quarter. Hill, who completed 28 of 47 passes for 211 yards and two TDs, worked the Gamecocks for 10 straight points to make it 38-24 with just over 10 minutes left, and had a chance for more. South Carolina got the ball back with 8:11 to go needing a pair of touchdowns, but the Gamecocks took their sweet time in marching all the way to the UF 4 with less than a minute to play. Hill's fourth-and-goal pass attempt to cut the lead in half fell incomplete with 48 seconds left, sealing the deal for the home team.

WHAT IT MEANS: Two games, two victories, and both in league play. The Gators will be no worse than one of two unbeaten SEC East teams by day's end (Tennessee defeated Missouri early Saturday, as well), with three-time reigning division champ Georgia slated for a big game tonight at home against Auburn.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: South Carolina held the ball for 11:12 of the fourth period and ran 29 plays to Florida's 10 and outgained UF 99-9 in the period. Of those Gators plays, three of them were kneel-downs to run out the clock on the final possession of the game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Florida (2-0, 2-0) is back on the road, with the Gators heading to Texas A&M. The Aggies (1-0) began the day ranked 13th, but with a date at No. 2 Alabama, the preseason favorite to win the league. UF is 1-1 against A&M since the Aggies entered the league, with both teams winning on the road. The Gators were victorious at College Station in 2012, with a 20-17 come-from-behind win over Johnny Manziel and the Aggies in what was A&M's first-ever game as a member of the SEC.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior Seth Small kicked a 26-yard field goal as time expired Saturday and the 21st-ranked Aggies upset the No. 4 Gators in a game devoid of defense at Kyle Field. Senior quarterback Kellen Mond, making his 37th career start, passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns, while tailback Isaiah Spiller shredded the Gators for 174 rushing yards and two more scores. But it took the Aggies' defense to make the play that changed the course of the outcome. The score was tied at 38 when Florida quarterback Kyle Trask, already with 312 yards, four touchdowns and no interception, took over with 3:40 remaining and a chance for the game-winning drive. After hitting senior tailback Malik Davis for 23 yards to near midfield, Davis fumbled the ball away two plays later and the Aggies recovered at the UF 48. Mond needed eight plays to move his team 40 yards, hitting a big third-and-8 completion (a troubling trend on the day against the UF defense) to wideout Chase Lane for 16 yards to the UF 19. On the next play, Spiller rushed 11 yards to the 8 and, after an A&M timeout, basically gave Small an extra point to win the game. Mond finished 25 of 35 against a UF defense that yielded 543 yards and an astounding 12-for-15 conversions on third down. Trask was 23-for-32, but was denied a chance at a game-winning drive. Florida finished with 402 yards of offense, but just 90 on the ground, compared to A&M's 205. The Aggies trailed 38-31 with just over six minutes left, but got a 51-yard scoring bomb from Mond to wideout Caleb Chapman to tie the game, then the turnover that turned the game. A&M started the day 0-7 against teams ranked in the top five during Coach Jimbo Fisher's three seasons since bolting from Florida State. In those games, the Aggies had been outscored by an average of 19.1 points, including last weekend's 28-point loss at No. 2-ranked Alabama. They're now 1-7

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators will be chasing the winner of Saturday's game between Tennessee and Georgia, both of which began the day unbeaten and tied with the UF atop the SEC East. (Update: Georgia won 44-21). The defeat wasn't a death knell to their hopes of winning division (not with dates against the Volunteers and Bulldogs down the road), but in the bigger, College Football Playoff picture, a loss to a team that was steamrolled 52-24 at Alabama last week won't help the Gators pass the eye test down the line; if it comes to that. There's also the more closer-to-home issue of that defense, which will be under serious reevaluation.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Mond and Spiller accounted for 515 of their team's 543 yards. That's 94.8 percent.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Aggies averaged 7.3 yards per snap. The Gators averaged 7.2, but 18 fewer plays, and thus nearly 170 fewer yards.

UP NEXT: The Gators (2-1, 2-1) return home to facing reigning national champion LSU (1-2, 1-2), which Saturday was stunned at unranked Missouri, 45-41, in a game that was moved from Baton Rouge to Columbia due to Hurricane Delta. The Tigers are a shadow of the team they were last year with Heisman Trophy winner and No. 1 overall draft pick Joe Burrow, what with 14 players taken in the NFL draft, but still quite talented and formidable, regardless of their two losses, including those 600-plus yards passing surrendered in a season-opening home loss against Mississippi State.

GAME 4 SUMMARY

No. 10 Florida 41, Missouri 17

Oct. 31 | Ben Hill Griffin Stadium | Gainesville | Attendance: 12,049

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Florida started slow offensively, but its defense held firm until a scoring surge late in the second quarter gave the Gators a two-score lead they extended with a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter. UF carried its 34-7 lead into the fourth quarter, and never allowed Missouri to get closer than 24 points en route to its 10th consecutive home win. Until mop-up duty late in the game, the only touchdown scored against the Gators came when redshirt senior quarterback Kyle Trask was hit on a throw, which led to a wounded duck of a pass and a 59-yard interception return touchdown by Missouri's Jarvis Ware. The pick-six put Missouri up, 7-6, a little over two minutes into the second quarter, as the Gators settled for a pair of field goals (both made by redshirt junior backup kicker Chris Howard) on their first two drives, despite some explosive passing plays from Trask to junior tight end Kyle Pitts and running backs Malik Davis and Dameon Pierce. Florida's offense got on track late in the second quarter, as a 36-yard pass from Trask to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Jacob Copeland drove the Gators to Missouri's 24-yard line. Then senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney delivered his latest video game-esque escape for an 18-yard touchdown run. Missouri faced a third-and-1 on the ensuing drive, and Brenton Cox Jr. recovered a fumbled exchange between Tigers quarterback Connor Bazelak and running back Tyler Badie, giving the Gators the ball at the Missouri 30-yard line with 1:15 remaining. They only needed seven seconds, as Trask found Toney for a 30-yard touchdown reception on the very next play, securing a 20-7 half-time lead. Florida faced a fourth-and-1 at Missouri's 31-yard line on its opening drive of the second half, which Trask converted himself with a 15-yard run. Toney capped the 8-play, 75-yard touchdown drive with a 16-yard touchdown run on the next play, making it 27-7. The Gators kept the ball on the ground for much of their next drive, which transfer receiver Justin Shorter capped with a 2-yard touchdown reception, the first of his collegiate career. Trask delivered his fourth touchdown pass of the night on an 18-yard connection with Trevon Grimes midway through the fourth quarter. The Texas native became the first Gators quarterback in history to throw at least four touchdown passes in four consecutive games, and brought his season total up to 18 (read on for more on how remarkable that feat is).

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida shook off the rust in its first game since a tough loss at Texas A&M on Oct. 10, and shored up some of the defensive issues it displayed through the first three outings this season. Most importantly, the Gators generated some momentum heading into next week's highly-anticipated rivalry matchup.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Florida defense. The unit entered the night ranked near the bottom of the FBS in rushing and passing defense, but until Missouri's final two drives – by which time Florida built a 41-10 lead – the Gators allowed just 172 total yards. Florida also limited Missouri to just three conversions on 15 third-down attempts (20 percent). The last time UF held its opponent to 20 percent or worse on third downs when it faced at least 15 was last year's rout of Vanderbilt, a game in which the Gators finished with the exact same 3-for-15 stat line on third down.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: 18. Trask's touchdown total through four games this season – which set an SEC record for touchdown passes in the first four games of a season. Entering Saturday's games, the FBS leader was UCF's Dillon Gabriel, who threw 19 touchdowns. In five games.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask and the eighth-ranked Gators spotted their rival a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter, but Trask and friends quickly flipped the script and bombarded the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with an offensive barrage that made a mockery of the Southeastern Conference's top-rated defense and put Florida in control in the race for the East Division title. Trask passed for a career-high 474 yards and four touchdowns, all coming in the first half, as the Florida offense flattened Georgia, which came in allowing only 300 yards per game, to the tune of 571 total yards for the Gators' first win in the series since 2016. UGA tailback Zamir White went 75 yards on the first play from scrimmage to put the Bulldogs ahead just 12 seconds into the game. After a UF three-and-out, UGA marched 61 yards in six plays with Stetson Bennett hitting Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint with a 32-yard touchdown pass to go up 14-0 barely four minutes in. From there, the rest of the half was all Gators, as UF outgained UGA 433 yards to just 44 in taking a 38-21 lead into the locker room, including a gorgeous 14-yard touchdown reception by a leaping Trevon Grimes with just 11 seconds to play in the half. Trask also had touchdown strikes of 14 yards to wideout Justin Shorter, 25 yards to tight end Kyle Pitts, who later left the game following a vicious helmet-to-helmet strike from UGA's Lewis Cine (ejected), and 25 yards to Pitts backup Kemore Gamble, but also a pick-6 that temporarily put his team down 21-14. Not for long, though. Junior running back Dameon Pierce had a 2-yard rushing TD in the first quarter and sophomore Evan McPherson kicked field goals of 50, 51 and 34 yards, the last coming with 1:19 to play. Bennett completed just five of his 16 passes for 78 yards, one touchdown and an interception and eventually was benched for redshirt freshman D'Wan Mathis, who marched the Dogs to a touchdown with a 25-yard dart to Kearis Jackson to close within 41-28 late in the third quarter. That would be it for the Dogs, though. The two UGA quarterbacks completed only 9 of 29 passes for just 112 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions. The Dogs' inability to sustain offense with either QB allowed the Gators to win despite scoring just six points after halftime.

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida has a spot in the driver's seat to the Southeastern Conference East Division title. The Gators now hold a one-game lead on the second-place Bulldogs, as well as the all-important head-to-head tiebreaker, with the rest of the other division teams at least two games back. The win was UF's first over UGA since 2016 (and first in three tries for Coach Dan Mullen), meaning the Dogs now lead the series 52-43-2.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hmm. Guess we'll go with Trask, whose season numbers now show 125 completions in 182 attempts (that's 68.7 percent) for 1,815 yards, 22 touchdowns (with four in each of the last four games) and three interceptions. That TD total is one shy of the record-setting mark LSU's Joe Burrow established through five games a season ago. Burrow went on to win the Heisman Trophy.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: In each of the last four meetings, Florida fell behind by double digits in the opening period. In 2017, in what turned out to be Coach Jim McElwain's final game, UF trailed 21-0 in the first quarter on the way to a 42-7 loss. In 2018, it was a 10-0 deficit in 36-17 loss. In 2019, again 10-0 in a 24-17 loss. It was 14-0 this time, but the outcome was way different. Also, for the first time since 2005, the team that rushed for the most yards did not win. Georgia out-gained Florida 165-97 on the ground Saturday, starting with that 75-yard blast on the first snap, but what Trask did through the air was enough to snap the 14-game streak for the dominant running team.

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: UF quarterback Kyle Trask continued his assault on the Florida (and Southeastern Conference) record book, throwing for 356 yards and six touchdowns Saturday night — his sixth straight game with at least four TD strikes — to lead the sixth-ranked Gators past the Razorbacks at Spurrier/Florida Field. In facing grad-transfer and former teammate Feleipe Franks, the QB who beat him out twice (2018 and '19), Trask completed 23 of his 29 throws, with TD strikes of 9, 23, 21, 33, 5 and 11 yards, the combination of which gave him 28 on the season, which broke the six-game SEC mark, set by Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa in 2019. Florida scored on its first possession, with Trask hitting Trevon Grimes (6 catches, 109 yards, 2 TDs), but Franks answered almost instantly by lofting a gorgeous 47-yard strike to Mike Woods (2 catches, 129 yards, 2 TDs) on the Razorbacks' fifth snap. The Gators, though, scored touchdowns on their last four possessions of the half to open a 35-14 lead at intermission, with Trask going to the locker room with 281 yards and five TDs. Arkansas tailback Treylon Smith's 83-yard touchdown run cut the lead to 14 points lead, but the margin soon was padded (and then some) by backup quarterback Emory Jones' 1-yard run, Trask's early fourth-quarter pass to tight end Keon Zipperer (3 catches, 47 yards, 2 TDs) and a 35-yard fumble return by defensive lineman Zach Carter — all coming within six minutes — that quickly made it 56-21 with inside 13 minutes left. The Gators outgained the Hogs in total offense with 593 yards to 458. Of that Arkansas total, 212 yards came on a trio of scoring plays.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators, with a comfortable lead in the SEC East Division, inched closer to their goal of winning the East and clinching a first berth in the league championship game since 2016. With its lone loss coming on the road at No. 5 Texas A&M, Florida also remains in the mix for a potential first berth in the College Football Playoff, but that is chatter for another (and later) day.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: This space, it seems, could be reserved for Trask every week (more on him below), but we'll single out his counterpart, instead, given the juicy pregame storyline. Franks (unfortunately) was booed when he took the field for the first Arkansas drive and took out his frustration after that big early touchdown throw, pointing at the UF bench as he sprinted down the field with his teammates. Franks finished 15 of 19 for 250 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and was sacked three times.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Trask not only broke the SEC record for most TD passes through six games, but also became just the fourth FBS quarterback over the last 25 seasons to throw at least four in his first six games, joining Hawaii's Colt Brennan (nine straight in 2006), Texas Tech's Graham Harrell (six in '07) and Toledo's Logan Woodside (six in '16). On the home front, Trask, who had his second six-TD game of the season (matching his output from the season-opening win at Ole Miss), also joined Danny Wuerffel and Tim Tebow as the third QB in Florida history to throw for at least 25 touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Wuerffel had 35 in 1995 and 39 in '96, while Tebow had 32 in 2007 and 30 in '08. For the season, Trask has completed better than 70 percent of his attempts and thrown just three interceptions.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask threw for 383 yards and three touchdowns and the sixth-ranked Gators shook off a slow start with a run of 24 consecutive points over the two halves to claim a victory over the winless Commodores in their Southeastern Conference game Saturday at Dudley Field/Vanderbilt Stadium. Trask threw touchdown passes of 27 yards to wingback Kadarius Toney, 34 to wide receiver Trevon Grimes and 2 to tight end Kemore Gamble. The latter two scores, along with a field goal from Evan McPherson and 1-yard run by tailback Dameon Pierce, accounted for the Florida scoring run of two-dozen straight. After a Vandy TD closed the margin to 14 points late in the third quarter, UF backup quarterback Emory Jones fired a 30-yard catch-and-run TD to Gamble to take the margin back out to 21 points with less than seven minutes to go, allowing the Gators to leave Nashville with their 15th straight road win in the series. Vanderbilt scorched UF for 138 first-quarter yards and led 10-7 on a 16-yard touchdown pass from freshman Ken Seals to Chris Pierce Jr. and 25-yard Pierson Cooke field goal. That's when Florida went on its 24-point roll, starting with a tying field goal by McPherson of 33 yards. Trask and the Gators then drove to touchdowns with 49 seconds to go in the first half, when Grimes made a terrific catch between two defenders, and Pierce finished a 75-yard march to start the second half that included a fourth-and-1 gamble by UF coach Dan Mullen from his own 34-yard line. Trask's 2-yard score to Gamble pushed the Gators in front 31-10 with 2:55 to go in the third period. Vandy temporarily cut the lead back to 14, but Florida answered with a six-play, 99-yard touchdown drive to ice the game. Trask finished 26 of 35, with completions to nine different receivers and no interceptions, as UF rolled up 586 yards of total offense. With the three touchdown passes, he ran his season's total to 31 through seven games, which was one shy of Texas Tech's B.J. Symons' NCAA record of 32. Trask tied both Texas Tech's Graham Harrell (2007) and Tulsa's David Johnson (2007) for the second-most scoring throws after seven games. For Vandy, Seals completed 22 of 34 passes for 319 yards, two scores and one interception for a Vandy unit that totaled 406 yards.

WHAT IT MEANS: A fourth straight win and a step closer to clinching the program's first berth in the SEC Championship Game since 2016. The Gators maintained their one-game-plus lead over Georgia in the SEC East Division, with the "plus" being the all-important head-to-head tiebreaker edge, courtesy of UF's 44-28 defeat of the Bulldogs earlier this month. Florida can wrap up the East's title-game bid by winning two of its last three games, no matter what Georgia does.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: With superstar tight end Kyle Pitts sidelined for a second straight week since going into concussion protocol, Gamble stepped up with a trio of big plays. After snaring his second TD of the season late in the third quarter, Gamble added a 35-yard reception to get his team off their own 1-yard line, then five plays later had a 30-yard catch-and-run for a score on a pass from backup quarterback Emory Jones. Gamble had three catches for 66 yards and the two TDs.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: UF has scored at least 35 points in nine straight games, including seven consecutive SEC games. Those are both school records, which is pretty impressive given the numbers Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer put up back in the day.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask welcomed back Kyle Pitts by throwing the man-child tight end a trio of touchdown passes, but it was Kadarius Toney's 50-yard punt return just before halftime that turned momentum and awakened the sixth-ranked Gators for a run of 27 consecutive points Saturday on the way to beating the Wildcats at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, a Heisman Trophy front-runner, completed 21 of 27 attempts for 256 yards, no interceptions, and scoring tosses to Pitts of 56, 2 and 7 yards. Evan McPherson kicked a pair of field goals and the UF defense, after a shaky first half, forced three second-half turnovers and limited the Wildcats to just 46 total yards over the final two periods. The Gators, winners of five straight, actually trailed 10-7 late in the first half and had been virtually dominated as far as time of possession by a Wildcats' offense that was controlling the clock behind an effective running game that kept Trask off the field. But with just over a minute to go in the half, Kentucky was forced to punt from its end zone. Florida's return team retreated to the left side of the field, as if the ball was headed that way, with most of the the Kentucky coverage team following. The ball, though, was headed up the right side of the field, where Toney caught it basically unencumbered, then ran the play back for the TD that started the Florida scoring onslaught. Pitts, out the last two weeks after suffering a concussion and facial wound in the Nov. 7 win against Georgia, caught five passes for 99 yards. Offensively, the Gators were held to just 418 yards (more than 100 below their average), but the defense held the Wildcats, ranked last in the Southeastern Conference in total offense, to 221 yards, including just 62 through the air.

WHAT IT MEANS: Make that 33 wins in the last 34 meetings in the series, but of far greater significance was the Gators' nudging that much closer to their first SEC East Division title in four years. UF needs to win just one of its final two games to put a wrap on the title. Florida could lose both of its final two games and still get to Atlanta, if second-place Georgia, which takes on South Carolina later Saturday, loses one of its final two games, but the Gators have starry-eyed goals that go behind just a league championship and the only thing that can get them there is more victories.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Offensive players usually wind up in this space, but sophomore linebacker Mohamoud Diabate, the 6-foot-3, 221-pounder from Auburn, Ala., was spectacular in finishing the game with six tackles, including a half-sack, plus a third-quarter interception (and 14-yard return) that set up Pitts' third touchdown reception that basically put the game away.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Kentucky ran 41 plays (to Florida's 21) and possessed the ball for 23 minutes, 23 seconds (to UF's 6:37) in the first half and still trailed 14-10 at the break because of Toney's timely punt return. The numbers weren't nearly (or as as oddly) lopsided in the second half. UF ran 41 plays over 20:04 to UK's 16 and 9:56 on the way to outscoring the Cats 20-0 after the break.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."
