THE STORYLINE

- UF's 212 points are its highest total in any five-game stretch against SEC teams since 2008, when it totaled 241 in its last four league games and an SEC Championship Game victory over Alabama. The Gators' 212 points are also their highest total through their first six games of a season since 2007, when they scored 214.
- The Gators are coming off their 10th game of 500-plus total yards under Dan Mullen, six of which have come against SEC teams. In the 101 games spanning the 2010-17 seasons, UF had nine 500-yard outings, with five against SEC foes.
- Florida is an AP top-10 team for the 15th consecutive poll, which breaks a tie for the sixth-longest streak in school history, and extends its longest streak since a run of 31 consecutive top-10 appearances from Oct. 12, 2008-Sept. 26, 2010.
- UF is coming off its fourth win over an AP top-10 team under Mullen. UF went 5-11 against top-10 teams from 2010-17.

GATORS' FIRST-HALF EXPLOSION DELIVERS STATEMENT WIN

- Florida amassed 571 total yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since 2001, when UF racked up 584), tallied 474 passing yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since Kentucky threw for 528 in 2000), and scored 44 points (the third-highest total Georgia surrendered since Kirby Smart took over in 2016) with the vast majority of that production coming after it fell into a 14-0 hole a little over three minutes into last Saturday's game.
- Following the 14-0 deficit, Florida closed the first half with 38 points and 408 total yards on 43 plays. Within that same span, the Gators held Georgia to 30 yards on 18 plays and only gave up points via a pick-six.
- Florida's 38 points set a single-half school record for points against Georgia, topping the 35 points scored in the second half of the Gators' 49-10 rout of the Bulldogs in 2008.
- The Gators' five offensive touchdowns -- all in the first half -- tied the highest total allowed by Georgia under Smart.
- Kyle Trask broke Kerwin Bell's school record for passing yards against Georgia (408 in 1985)... by the end of the third quarter, which he finished with 412 yards.
- Trask's 474 passing yards were the second-highest total in school history, only behind Tim Tebow's 482-yard outing in the 2010 Sugar Bowl. Florida's 474 passing yards marked the seventh-highest single-game total in school history.
- By the end of the first half, Trask already logged his fifth consecutive game with at least four passing touchdowns, a feat no quarterback in SEC history has ever accomplished. The only FBS quarterbacks since the start of 2005 with such streaks are Trask, Hawaii's Colt Brennan (nine games in 2006), Texas Tech's Graham Harrell (six games in 2007), Toledo's Logan Woodside (six games in 2016), and California's Davis Webb (five games in 2016).
- UF running backs combined for 212 receiving yards on 10 receptions, led by Malik Davis' five catches for 100 yards -- the sixth 100-yard receiving game by a back in UF history, and first since Chris Rainey's 104 versus Tennessee in 2001.

FUN 'N' GUN? MULLEN'S OFFENSE CERTAINLY COMPARES

- Florida ranks sixth nationally and second in the SEC with 7.42 yards per play. UF's 6.5 yards per play last year ranked 16th nationally, far and away its best average since 2009 (7.0 yards per play).
- The Gators' 42.2 points per game this season rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC.
- Florida's 35.5 points per game since the start of the 2018 season rank seventh among Power Five programs and 13th in the FBS. From 2015-17, Florida ranked 110th nationally and averaged just 23.1 points per game.
- The Gators are coming off consecutive 40-point games against SEC opponents for the first time since 2008, when they reached 40 points in five straight games against SEC foes from Oct. 11-Nov. 15. Florida has scored 40-plus points 11 times under Mullen, just one fewer 40-point outing than it had in 101 games from 2010-17.
- Florida has scored five offensive touchdowns in five consecutive games for the first time since 2008, when it compiled an eight-game streak from Oct. 4-Nov. 29. That season was also the last time UF had five games of five-plus offensive touchdowns against SEC teams.
- While the Gators' 495.4 total yards per game rank 17th nationally, they are only running 66.8 plays per game. Among the 29 FBS teams averaging at least 450 total yards per game this season, only Florida, Western Michigan (58), UCLA (65), Oregon (66), and Virginia Tech (66) are running fewer than 69 plays per game.
- The Gators have three games of 500-plus total yards against SEC opponents this year, marking the first time since 2007 had three such games against SEC teams in a season. UF also has consecutive games of 500-plus total yards against SEC teams for the first time since 2007 (Sept. 15 against Tennessee, Sept. 22 at Ole Miss).
- Redshirt senior Kyle Trask is tied for the national lead with 22 passing touchdowns, and he is the only FBS quarterback to throw four touchdown passes in five different games this season.
- Junior tight end Kyle Pitts and senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney have combined for 14 touchdown receptions this year -- one more than the total amassed by Florida's two 2019 leaders in receiving touchdowns. Pitts' eight touchdown receptions are tied for third among all FBS players, and Toney's six are tied for 10th.
- Pitts' eight touchdown receptions are the most by any Gators pass catcher in a season since Riley Cooper finished the 2009 season with nine.
- Florida, BYU, Memphis, and Ole Miss are the only FBS teams featuring two players with at least six receiving touchdowns. BYU has played eight games, while Memphis and Ole Miss have played six.
- Four Gators have multiple receiving touchdowns this season. Last year, seven Gators finished with two or more, marking the first time since 2007 that many Gators caught at least two touchdowns in a season.

TRASK'S HOT START COMPARED TO HEISMAN WINNERS

- Trask planted himself firmly in the Heisman Trophy conversation with his eye-popping statistics through the first five games of 2020. If that statement seems like hyperbole, here is a look at the top yardage and touchdown numbers by Heisman-winning quarterbacks in their first five games of the season since 1990. The first table is sorted by yards, the second by total touchdowns.

TRASK RESEMBLING VINTAGE GATORS QBs

- Kyle Trask continues to be the best Gators quarterback, statistically, since Tim Tebow, but his numbers also resemble 2001 Heisman runner-up Rex Grossman and other Gators from Steve Spurrier's "Fun 'n' Gun" era.
- With four-plus passing touchdowns in all five games this year, Trask joined Danny Wuerffel as the only other Gators quarterback in history to throw four touchdowns in five games within a season. Wuerffel did it twice -- 1995 (with four against SEC teams and a fifth against Florida State) and 1996 (five against SEC teams).
- Trask's six career games of four-plus passing touchdowns rank fourth in school history, trailing Wuerffel (12), Doug Johnson (eight), and Grossman (seven). All six of Trask's performances have come against SEC teams, which is tied with Grossman for the second-highest total in school history, only trailing Wuerffel's 11.
- Trask's pair of 400-yard passing games this year join him with Wuerffel (four) and Grossman (two) as the only Gators in history with multiple 400-yard outings in a career. It also ties Wuerffel's and Grossman's school record for 400-yard passing games in a season (two in 1996 for Wuerffel, two in 2001 for Grossman).
- Trask's four games of 300-plus yards passing this year join him with Grossman as the only other quarterback in school history to post four 300-yard outings against SEC teams in a season. Grossman did it in all eight of UF's games against league opponents in 2001.
- Trask's four 300-yard passing games each of the last two years make him the fourth quarterback in Gators history with multiple seasons of four 300-yard passing games, joining Grossman (2001, 2002), Wuerffel (1995, 1996), and Matthews (1990, 1991, 1992).
  - » From 2010-18, Gators quarterbacks combined for three 300-yard passing games.
- Trask has thrown for 300-plus yards each of the last three games, making him the fourth passer in Gators history with three consecutive 300-yard outings against SEC opponents.
  - » Others: Grossman (10 - all eight SEC games in 2001, first two of 2002), Johnson (last two of 1998, plus 1999 SEC opener), and Matthews (last two of 1991, plus season opener in 1992)
- With four 300-yard passing games this season, Trask has eight career 300-yard outings, which ranks fourth in school history behind Grossman (17), Shane Matthews (15), and Wuerffel (14).
- Six of Trask's eight career 300-yard outings are against SEC opponents, which is tied with Johnson for fourth in school history. Only Grossman (12), Wuerffel (10), and Matthews (nine) recorded more.
- Trask also has four 300-yard outings against ranked opponents in his career. The only Gators in history with 300-plus yards against at least four top-25 teams are Trask, Matthews (five), Grossman (nine) and Wuerffel (nine).
- Trask has an active streak of 13 games with 200-plus yards passing, tying Grossman for the second-longest streak in school history. The school record of 17 is held by Matthews.
- Trask's 48 career touchdowns passes rank ninth in UF history, six shy of John Reaves (54 from 1969-71) at No. 8.

GATORS' AERIAL APPROACH HAS OFFENSE HUMMING

- Despite losing 173 career starts from last year's offensive personnel, mostly from its veteran receiving corps and dual-threat running back Lamical Perine, Florida's passing offense is still humming along.
- Florida ranks fifth nationally in passing yards per game (369.0) and tied for fourth in passing touchdowns (22), putting it on pace for one of the best passing seasons in school history.
- UF finished 2019 ranked 16th nationally in passing offense (300.8 yards per game), which was the first time in nearly two decades it threw the ball that consistently. UF's highest national finish in passing offense since the start of 2010 was 79th (in 2016), and it finished outside the top 100 in four of the nine seasons from 2010-18.
- Florida has logged 300-plus passing yards 13 times under Mullen (and eight times in its last nine games). In the 142 games spanning the 2007-17 seasons, UF threw for 300 yards 14 times.
- Florida ranks sixth nationally with a 186.80 passer rating this season, and Kyle Trask is eighth individually (189.04). The Gators' 158.5 passer rating since the start of 2018 ranks sixth among all FBS teams.
- This year, Florida, Arkansas, Georgia, and Texas A&M are the only SEC teams featuring seven different players with a receiving touchdown. Last year, 10 Gators had one, and 11 Gators had one in 2018 -- making it the first time since 2000 and 2001 that 10-plus Gators had a receiving touchdown in consecutive seasons.
- Florida is one of four SEC teams (Alabama, Ole Miss, Texas A&M) featuring three players with 10-plus catches, 150-plus receiving yards, and three receiving touchdowns this season -- numbers which Pitts, Toney, and Trevon Grimes have for the Gators.

PITTS SETS A NEW STANDARD FOR TIGHT ENDS

- “He’s that matchup problem. You get backers matched up on him, and that’s a problem in the pass game. You put DBs on him in the run game, and he’s a physical blocker at the point of attack. That’s what you want at the tight end position.” --Dan Mullen on Pitts following UF’s season-opening win at Ole Miss
- Kyle Pitts hauled in his eighth touchdown reception of the season in the win over Georgia, meaning it took him just five games to break the single-season school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end -- which was previously set by Cornelius Ingram (seven in 2007) and Kirk Kirkpatrick (seven in 1990).
- Additionally, Pitts’ eight receiving touchdowns this year are one shy of the FBS receiving touchdown leaders among tight ends last season -- SMU’s Kylan Granson and Louisiana-Monroe’s Josh Pederson had nine in 13 and 12 games, respectively.
- Pitts’ 5-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter at Texas A&M was the 13th of his career and broke the school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, which was established at the end of the 2009 season.
- Pitts’ four touchdowns in the opener and two the following week made him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (Sept. 21-28, 2002) with multiple touchdown receptions in consecutive games. Kadarius Toney also accomplished the feat with a pair of touchdown receptions against both Texas A&M and Missouri.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Pitts’ six touchdowns in the first two games were tied for the second-most over a two-game span by ANY SEC player the last 25 seasons (Vanderbilt’s Earl Bennett had seven in 2005).
- With his 170-yard outing against Ole Miss, and his 108-yard outing at LSU last season, Pitts is one of four Gators tight ends in history (Kirk Kirkpatrick, Ben Troupe, and a third) with two career 100-yard receiving games.
- Pitts is one of five FBS tight ends with five-plus receptions in three games this season; he had eight in the opener at Ole Miss, five at Texas A&M, and five against Missouri.
- Pitts is one of seven FBS tight ends with multiple games of at least 80 receiving yards this season. Pitts had 81 against Missouri, and 170 in the season opener at Ole Miss.
- Pitts’ 24 receptions this season are tied for seventh among all FBS tight ends; he is the only player inside the top 10 with fewer than six games played this season.
- Pitts’ 81 career receptions put him within one catch of Kirkpatrick (82 from 1987-90) for the second-most career receptions by a tight end in school history.
- Last year, Pitts -- who had 54 receptions for 649 yards and five touchdowns -- became one of nine FBS tight ends since the start of 2015 with over 50 catches, 625-plus yards, and five touchdowns in a season. That group includes Oklahoma’s Mark Andrews (2017) and Ole Miss’ Evan Engram (2016), both of whom are starring for NFL teams.

TONY’S DEVELOPMENT AS A RECEIVER ON DISPLAY

- Kadarius Toney has been regarded as a dynamic playmaker since his career debut in 2017, but his development as a receiver this season truly makes him one of the most unique threats in college football.
- Toney ranks 11th in the SEC with an average of 104 all-purpose yards per game, and he is one of eight SEC players with a combined seven rushing and receiving touchdowns this season (six receiving, one rushing).
- Toney flashed his dual-threat prowess against Missouri, catching two touchdown passes and running in another; he is still the only FBS player with two receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a game this season.
- In the season opener at Ole Miss, Toney’s dual-threat production amounted to five receptions for 59 yards and a touchdown, along with two carries for 55 yards.
- Against Georgia, Toney tied his career high with seven receptions, giving him a fourth game of five-plus receptions this year; he entered the season with one career game of five-plus receptions (six against Idaho on Nov. 17, 2018).
- Toney had a breakout game as a receiver at Texas A&M, setting career highs for receptions (seven), receiving yards (92), and touchdown receptions (two). Two of those career highs Toney surpassed were numbers he posted the previous week against South Carolina (86 receiving yards and six receptions).
- Toney’s seven scrimmage touchdowns this year are more than double the number of career total touchdowns he entered the 2020 season with (three -- two receiving, one rushing).
- In just five games this year, Toney has the highest season totals for receptions (29) and receiving yards (339) of his career. His previous season highs (25 receptions and 260 yards) came in 2018, when he played 12 games.

DEFENSE TAKES STEPS FORWARD LAST TWO WEEKS

- Florida got off to a rough start defensively, but it has played well for extended stretches in the last two games.
- Although it fell into a 14-0 hole and gave up 136 yards on Georgia's first two possessions, the Gators' defense responded and allowed just 141 yards on 51 plays (2.76 yards per play).
- That finish resembled its start to the Missouri game. Prior to the final two defensive drives against Missouri -- by which time UF built a 41-10 lead -- the Gators gave up just 172 total yards and did not cede a touchdown to the Tigers' offense.
- Also against Missouri, Florida also had its best performance when facing at least 15 third down attempts (3-15 / 20 percent) since last year's rout of Vanderbilt, when it held the Commodores to three of 15 on third down.
- Last week, Florida allowed Georgia to convert just two of its 13 third downs (15.4 percent).
- The Gators snared three interceptions in the win over Georgia, setting a season high for takeaways.
- Florida, Florida Atlantic, Oklahoma State, San Diego State, and Tennessee were the only FBS teams with at least three interceptions in three different games (UF had three against Kentucky, Tennessee, and Auburn) last season.
- UF has eight takeaways this season, bringing its total since the start of 2018 up to 57 -- which is tied for 11th among FBS teams.
- The Gators are third in the SEC in tackles for loss per game this season (6.4).
- Last season, UF finished seventh nationally in scoring defense (15.5 points), posted three shutouts for the first time since 1988, and was one of two FBS teams (Oregon being the other) to hold five opponents without an offensive touchdown. The 23 offensive touchdowns allowed by the Gators last season were tied for the fourth-lowest total nationally, and the fewest they surrendered since 2012.
- Key losses from the 2019 defense were: Jonathan Greenard (led the SEC in sacks and tackles for loss; third-round NFL Draft pick), CJ Henderson (FWAA All-America Second Team; No. 9 overall pick in NFL Draft), and Jabari Zuniga (3.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss in just six games last year; third-round NFL Draft pick).

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- Florida has been a top-10 team in each of the last 15 Associated Press Top 25 Poll releases, which is the sixth-longest streak in school history, and its longest streak since its run of 31 consecutive top-10 appearances from Oct. 12, 2008 - Sept. 26, 2010. The Gators are seven releases shy of the program's fifth-longest streak.
- Florida has scored 35-plus points in seven consecutive games, its longest streak since an eight-game run from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008. The Gators have also scored 35-plus points in five consecutive games against SEC opponents for the first time since a six-game streak within the aforementioned 2008 run.
- Florida has finished with fewer than 10 penalties in 25 consecutive games. Dating back to the start of last season, the Gators have been charged with five or fewer penalties in 12 of their 18 games, including six of the last seven games.
  - » The Gators were consistently among the most penalized teams in the SEC during the 2010s, finishing dead last in the league in 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2016.
- UF has scored in 403 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS programs without a loss to a team that finished the season with a losing record. UF is one of four teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss (Alabama, LSU, Michigan).

WILD NUMBERS FROM RECORD-SETTING OPENER

- Florida set a school record for total yards against an SEC opponent in its season-opening win at Ole Miss, as it amassed 642 yards (446 passing, 196 rushing) -- which also the 11th-highest total in any game in UF history.
- The Gators' previous record for total yards against an SEC opponent was 640 yards against Mississippi State back on Sept. 29, 2001, the final season of Gators legend Steve Spurrier's head coaching tenure.
- Florida's 446 passing yards were 10 shy of the 10th-highest total in school history, but it was just the second time since the start of the 2002 season the Gators eclipsed 435 passing yards (they threw for 482 in the 2010 Sugar Bowl, all of which came from Tim Tebow in what was the final game of his collegiate career).
- The Gators scored 50-plus points against an SEC opponent for the 26th time in school history, and for the second time under head coach Dan Mullen. The list of UF coaches with 50-point games against SEC teams is a short one: Spurrier (18), Urban Meyer (six), Mullen (two).

- Pitts' four touchdown receptions tied the single-game school record, previously set by receivers Ike Hilliard (Sept. 16, 1995 against Tennessee) and Jack Jackson (Sept. 3, 1994 against New Mexico State).
- Pitts became the 16th player in SEC history to haul in four touchdown receptions in a game, and the ninth to accomplish the feat against a conference opponent; he was one shy of the SEC's single-game record of five touchdown receptions, which is shared by four players.
- Pitts tied the SEC's single-game record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, equaling Kentucky's Al Bruno (1950 against North Dakota), Georgia Tech's Buck Martin (1951 against Auburn), Vanderbilt's Allama Matthews (1982 against Virginia Tech), and Kentucky's James Whalen (1999 against Georgia).
- Last year, the five FBS players with 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions against an FBS opponent were all receivers: Alabama's DeVonta Smith, LSU's Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson, and Hawaii's Cedric Byrd II and Jojo Ward. Smith is the only other FBS player with such a game this year.
- Pitts is one of three FBS tight ends since the start of the 1996 season to amass 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions in a game, joining Stanford's Colby Parkinson (six receptions, 166 yards, four touchdowns against Oregon State in 2018) and Kentucky's James Whalen Jr. (10 receptions, 151 yards, four touchdowns against Georgia in 1999).
- Pitts' 170 receiving yards broke the single-game school record for receiving yards by a tight end, which was previously set Oct. 20, 1990 by Kirk Kirkpatrick (122 yards against Akron).
- Trask's six touchdown passes were one shy of the SEC single-game record held by seven players, including UF's Terry Dean (seven against New Mexico St. in 1994) and Doug Johnson (seven against Central Michigan in 1997).
- Trask became the 16th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes in a game. He also became the sixth Gators quarterback to throw six in a game. Aside from Florida (six) and Kentucky (three), no other SEC program has produced multiple quarterbacks who threw for six touchdowns in a game.
- Trask became the 10th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes against a conference opponent; he is one of three Gators quarterbacks to accomplish the feat, joining Danny Wuerffel (six against Tennessee in 1995) and Chris Leak (six against South Carolina in 2004).
- Trask's 416 passing yards were the ninth-highest total in school history, and the fifth-highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent. They marked the highest total by a Gators quarterback against an SEC opponent since Rex Grossman threw for 464 yards at LSU back on Oct. 6, 2001.
- Since the start of 2018, the only FBS quarterbacks to throw for at least 400 yards and six touchdowns without an interception against a Power Five opponent are: Trask, Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa, LSU's Joe Burrow, Oklahoma's Kyler Murray, Washington State's Gardner Minshew II, and Ole Miss' Matt Corral.
- Trask's six touchdown passes tied 2019 Heisman winner Joe Burrow's record for passing TDs in a SEC opener.

Offensive Upticks Continued in Mullen's Second Act

- Florida recorded seven games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's first two seasons. In 75 games from 2012-17, UF had six 500-yard outings.
- Florida recorded 14 games of 400-plus total yards in Mullen's first 26 games as head coach. In the program's 50 games from 2014-17, UF had 400-plus yards just 14 times.
- The Gators had eight games of 400-plus total yards in 2019, their most such games in a season since 2008 -- Mullen's final year as O.C. -- when they did it 10 times.
- UF scored 40-plus points nine times in Mullen's first 26 games (three in 2019, six in 2018). In the 86 games spanning 2011-17, Florida scored 40 points on nine occasions.
- Florida also produced six games of 35-plus points in consecutive seasons (six in 2019, eight in 2018) for the first time since 2007-09.
- Florida scored 105 offensive touchdowns in Mullen's first 26 games. In the three seasons prior to his arrival (2015-17), the Gators scored 93 offensive touchdowns in 38 games.

Mullen Revived Florida's Offense in Debut Season

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

| Category        | 2017           | 2018          | Diff. |
|-----------------|----------------|---------------|-------|
| TD-INT Ratio    | 1.00 (t-111th) | 4.67 (t-9th)  | +102  |
| Scoring Offense | 22.1 (t-108th) | 35.0 (22nd)   | +86   |
| Scrimmage TDs   | 25 (t-120th)   | 51 (t-35th)   | +85   |
| Passing Eff.    | 113.11 (113th) | 145.76 (35th) | +78   |
| Total Offense   | 335.9 (110th)  | 426.7 (42nd)  | +68   |
| 3rd Down Pct.   | 32.5% (117th)  | 41.6% (48th)  | +69   |
| Rushing Offense | 156.4 (75th)   | 213.2 (27th)  | +48   |
| Sacks Allowed   | 3.36 (124th)   | 1.39 (t-21st) | +103  |

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.

- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.

- Mullen made Mississippi State one of 11 FBS programs to produce six different 1,000-yard rushers from 2009-17. The others were: Auburn (9), Nevada (7), Alabama (6), Army (6), Baylor (6), Boise State (6), Georgia Tech (6), Navy (6), Ohio State (6), and Wisconsin (6).

DAN MULLEN - FLORIDA HEAD COACH

- Mississippi State produced 26 NFL Draft picks in Mullen's tenure, including a pair of first-rounders. From 1996 through 2008, MSU had 27 NFL Draft picks.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- MSU broke over 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

In Perspective: Mullen Takes Mississippi State to No. 1

- Mullen led Mississippi State to a 9-0 start in 2014, allowing the Bulldogs to secure the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 for a five-week stretch from Oct. 12 through Nov. 9.
- MSU held the No. 1 ranking until after a 25-20 loss at No. 4 Alabama on Nov. 15.
- Since 2001, only 16 FBS programs -- predominantly "blueblood" schools -- have been ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25. And 11 of those 16 were ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 at least five weeks: Alabama, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, LSU, Miami, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Oregon, and Southern California.
- Since 2013, only six FBS programs have been the No. 1 team in the AP Top 25.

| Program           | Weeks at No. 1 |

| Alabama           | 66             |
| Clemson           | 23             |

In Perspective: Mullen as Florida's O.C.

- During Mullen's four seasons as the Gators offensive coordinator (2005-08), UF ranked 3rd in passer rating (155.9), 8th in scoring offense (36.3), 15th in total offense (418.9), 21st in rushing offense (185.6), 39th in passing offense (233.2).
- Coordinated an offense that ranked 4th nationally in points per game (43.6--also fourth in school history) and 15th in yards per game (445.1), eventually helping the Gators win the 2009 BCS National Championship Game.
- Coordinated a Gators offense that scored 41 points to rout Ohio State--which had the nation's top scoring defense--in the 2007 BCS National Champ. Game.
- Coordinated the 2007 offense to 457.2 total yards per game -- 8th in UF history.
- Helped Chad Jackson garner Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after he set UF's single-season record with 88 receptions in 2005. Jackson led the SEC and ranked 6th nationally in receptions.
- Also in 2005, center Mike Degory was named a Rimington Trophy finalist.

In Perspective: Mullen's Quarterbacks Track Record

- In 2002 at Bowling Green, Mullen helped Josh Harris account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (41) among FBS players and 3,213 total yards.
- In 2004 at Utah, Mullen helped Alex Smith account for the second-most total touchdowns (42) among FBS players, and amass 3,604 total yards.
- Smith finished fourth in the 2004 Heisman Trophy voting and was the No. 1 pick in 2005 NFL Draft.
- In 2007, Mullen helped Tim Tebow account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (55 -- an SEC record) among FBS players, and amass 4,181 total yards.
- Tebow was the first quarterback in FBS history to pass for 20+ touchdowns and rush for 20+ touchdowns in a season (2007), and his 2007 season remains the only one in history of more than 30 passing and 20 rushing touchdowns.

- Tebow won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 (first-ever underclassman winner).
- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.
- In 2014, Mullen helped Dak Prescott finish tied for fifth nationally in total touchdowns (42) in 2014, in addition to totaling 4,470 yards (3,449 pass / 986 rush / 35 receiving).
- Prescott was eighth in the Heisman voting and a Maxwell Award finalist in 2014.
- Prescott's rushing production dipped in 2015, but he increased his passing production and finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing yards (3,793). He also ranked 11th nationally with 39 total touchdowns.
- In 2016, Mullen helped first-year starter Nick Fitzgerald, a redshirt sophomore, tie for 14th nationally with 37 total touchdowns. Fitzgerald also ran for 1,375 yards--ranking 3rd among FBS quarterbacks.
- In 2017, Fitzgerald accounted for 2,766 yards (1,782 passing, 984 rushing) and 29 touchdowns (15 passing, 14 rushing) despite missing nearly all of the Egg Bowl and Mississippi State's bowl game due to a gruesome ankle injury.
- Much of Florida's offensive success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks' turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title. Franks threw nine touchdowns and eight interceptions, and ranked 99th nationally with a 113.31 passer rating in 2017.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask passed for 416 yards and six touchdowns, with four of those scores going to beastly junior tight end Kyle Pitts, as the fifth-ranked Gators outgained, outscored and outlasted the host Rebels to win their 2020 season and Southeastern Conference opener Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford, Miss.

Trask, who immediately vaulted into the early Heisman Trophy conversation, was masterful in guiding an offense that cranked out 642 yards, including 196 on the ground, for the most ever amassed by a Florida team against a league opponent. Trask staked his team to a 28-14 halftime lead by hitting 18 of 25 for 241 yards and four scores, with TDs to Pitts bracketing the first and last of those touchdowns, including a 16-yarder with just five seconds to go before intermission. Two plays out the locker room, Trask dropped and bombed a 71-yard scoring strike to Pitts to give the Gators a 21-point cushion. The Rebels never got closer than 14 after that, with UF adding a trio of consecutive field goals from junior Evan McPherson, including a 55-yarder that marked the third-longest in program history.

When Trask hit Pitts for a 17-yard touchdown with 5:14 left, he joined last year's Heisman winner, LSU's Joe Burrow, as the only QBs in league history to throw six touchdowns in an SEC opener. Florida wasn't the only team on the field to put up fat offensive numbers, which is something that figures to concern UF defensive coordinator Todd Grantham. The Rebels totaled 613 yards -- the third-most ever gained against the Gators -- with quarterback Matt Corral, once a UF commitment, finishing 22-for-31 for 395 yards, three touchdowns and one interception.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators have a win in their SEC opener for the second straight season and now have now started 1-0 in league play 15 of the last 16 seasons, dating to 2005. It's always good to not have to play catch-up in the SEC East. Even better when considering the 10-game SEC schedule.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hard to believe there's a better tight end in the country than Pitts, but Trask is the guy who was throwing him the ball and, boy, was he good at it. There's a reason he was named the preseason All-SEC First Team quarterback. He finished 30 of 42 for 416 yards, with those half-dozen touchdowns, no interceptions, and a whopping QB rating of 201.8. The six TDs fell one shy of the school and SEC record of seven, with UF's jointly held by Terry Dean (1994 vs. New Mexico State) and Doug Johnson (1997 vs. Central Michigan), and the conference's shared by another six players.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Pick any number of numbers from the Florida offensive box score. We already mentioned Trask tying Burrow's SEC opener touchdown record, so how 'bout Pitts' four touchdown receptions tying the single-game school record set previously by Ike Hilliard against Tennessee in 1995 and Jack Jackson against New Mexico State in 1994.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Trask continued his torrid start to the 2020 season, as did sidekick tight end Kyle Pitts, for that matter, as the third-ranked Gators took care of business against the Southeastern Conference East Division rival Gamecocks with a win Saturday before a socially distanced crowd of 15,120 at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask completed 21 of his 29 throws for 268 yards, four touchdowns and one interception, piling on his fat numbers from a week ago when he passed for 416 yards and six TDs without a turnover in a win at Ole Miss. Pitts, the 6-foot-6, 240-pound matchup nightmare, caught four passes for 47 yards and two scores, as the featured threat in an offense that ended up with just 348 yards because of a bizarre fourth quarter dominated by the Gamecocks. South Carolina scored on the game's first possession on a 75-yard march over 12 plays. Florida countered with a 75-yard scoring march of its own, capped by a 2-yard run by junior tailback Dameon Pierce. The UF defense forced a punt on USC's second possession, and Trask again marched the Gators to the end zone, this time finding Pitts for the first of his two scores. The Gamecocks answered, but only after Trask was hit and fumbled for his first turnover of the season. South Carolina's Collin Hill hit wideout Shi Smith for a 4-yard TD to tie the game at 14-all. From there, Florida dropped 24 unanswered points -- a field goal from Evan McPherson, plus Trask touchdown tosses to Pitts (again), redshirt freshman wideout Trent Whittemore and 57-yard catch-and-run from senior wingback Kadarius Toney -- to lead 38-24 late in the third quarter. Hill, who completed 28 of 47 passes for 211 yards and two TDs, worked the Gamecocks for 10 straight points to make it 38-24 with just over 10 minutes left, and had a chance for more. South Carolina got the ball back with 8:11 to go needing a pair of touchdowns, but the Gamecocks took their sweet time in marching all the way to the UF 4 with less than a minute to play. Hill's fourth-and-goal pass attempt to cut the lead in half fell incomplete with 48 seconds left, sealing the deal for the home team.

WHAT IT MEANS: Two games, two victories, and both in league play. The Gators will be no worse than one of two unbeaten SEC East teams by day's end (Tennessee defeated Missouri early Saturday, as well), with three-time reigning division champ Georgia slated for a big game tonight at home against Auburn.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: South Carolina held the ball for 11:12 of the fourth period and ran 29 plays to Florida's 10 and outgained UF 99-9 in the period. Of those Gators plays, three of them were kneel-downs to run out the clock on the final possession of the game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Florida (2-0, 2-0) is back on the road, with the Gators heading to Texas A&M. The Aggies (1-0) began the day ranked 13th, but with a date at No. 2 Alabama, the preseason favorite to win the league. UF is 1-1 against A&M since the Aggies entered the league, with both teams winning on the road. The Gators were victorious at College Station in 2012, with a 20-17 come-from-behind win over Johnny Manziel and the Aggies in what was A&M's first-ever game as a member of the SEC.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior Seth Small kicked a 26-yard field goal as time expired Saturday and the 21st-ranked Aggies upset the No. 4 Gators in a game devoid of defense at Kyle Field. Senior quarterback Kellen Mond, making his 37th career start, passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns, while tailback Isaiah Spiller shredded the Gators for 174 rushing yards and two more scores. But it took the Aggies' defense to make the play that changed the course of the outcome. The score was tied at 38 when Florida quarterback Kyle Trask, already with 312 yards, four touchdowns and no interception, took over with 3:40 remaining and a chance for the game-winning drive. After hitting senior tailback Malik Davis for 23 yards to near midfield, Davis fumbled the ball away two plays later and the Aggies recovered at the UF 48. Mond needed eight plays to move his team 40 yards, hitting a big third-and-8 completion (a troubling trend on the day against the UF defense) to wideout Chase Lane for 16 yards to the UF 19. On the next play, Spiller rushed 11 yards to the 8 and, after an A&M timeout, basically gave Small an extra point to win the game. Mond finished 25 of 35 against a UF defense that yielded 543 yards and an astounding 12-for-15 conversions on third down. Trask was 23-for-32, but was denied a chance at a game-winning drive. Florida finished with 402 yards of offense, but just 90 on the ground, compared to A&M's 205. The Aggies trailed 38-31 with just over six minutes left, but got a 51-yard scoring bomb from Mond to wideout Caleb Chapman to tie the game, then the turnover that turned the game. A&M started the day 0-7 against teams ranked in the top five during Coach Jimbo Fisher's three seasons since bolting from Florida State. In those games, the Aggies had been outscored by an average of 19.1 points, including last weekend's 28-point loss at No. 2-ranked Alabama. They're now 1-7.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators will be chasing the winner of Saturday's game between Tennessee and Georgia, both of which began the day unbeaten and tied with the UF atop the SEC East. (Update: Georgia won 44-21). The defeat wasn't a death knell to their hopes of winning division (not with dates against the Volunteers and Bulldogs down the road), but in the bigger, College Football Playoff picture, a loss to a team that was steamrolled 52-24 at Alabama last week won't help the Gators pass the eye test down the line; if it comes to that. There's also the more closer-to-home issue of that defense, which will be under serious reevaluation.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Mond and Spiller accounted for 515 of their team's 543 yards. That's 94.8 percent.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Aggies averaged 7.3 yards per snap. The Gators averaged 7.2, but 18 fewer plays, and thus nearly 170 fewer yards.

UP NEXT: The Gators (2-1, 2-1) return home to facing reigning national champion LSU (1-2, 1-2), which Saturday was stunned at unranked Missouri, 45-41, in a game that was moved from Baton Rouge to Columbia due to Hurricane Delta. The Tigers are a shadow of the team they were last year with Heisman Trophy winner and No. 1 overall draft pick Joe Burrow, what with 14 players taken in the NFL draft, but still quite talented and formidable, regardless of their two losses, including those 600-plus yards passing surrendered in a season-opening home loss against Mississippi State.

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Florida started slow offensively, but its defense held firm until a scoring surge late in the second quarter gave the Gators a two-score lead they extended with a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter. UF carried its 34-7 lead into the fourth quarter, and never allowed Missouri to get closer than 24 points en route to its 10th consecutive home win. Until mop-up duty late in the game, the only touchdown scored against the Gators came when redshirt senior quarterback Kyle Trask was hit on a throw, which led to a wounded duck of a pass and a 59-yard interception return touchdown by Missouri's Jarvis Ware. The pick-six put Missouri up, 7-6, a little over two minutes into the second quarter, as the Gators settled for a pair of field goals (both made by redshirt junior backup kicker Chris Howard) on their first two drives, despite some explosive passing plays from Trask to junior tight end Kyle Pitts and running backs Malik Davis and Dameon Pierce. Florida's offense got on track late in the second quarter, as a 36-yard pass from Trask to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Jacob Copeland drove the Gators to Missouri's 24-yard line. Then senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney delivered his latest video game-esque escape for an 18-yard touchdown run. Missouri faced a third-and-1 on the ensuing drive, and Brenton Cox Jr. recovered a fumbled exchange between Tigers quarterback Connor Bazelak and running back Tyler Badie, giving the Gators the ball at the Missouri 30-yard line with 1:15 remaining. They only needed seven seconds, as Trask found Toney for a 30-yard touchdown reception on the very next play, securing a 20-7 half-time lead. Florida faced a fourth-and-1 at Missouri's 31-yard line on its opening drive of the second half, which Trask converted himself with a 15-yard run. Toney capped the 8-play, 75-yard touchdown drive with a 16-yard touchdown run on the next play, making it 27-7. The Gators kept the ball on the ground for much of their next drive, which transfer receiver Justin Shorter capped with a 2-yard touchdown reception, the first of his collegiate career. Trask delivered his fourth touchdown pass of the night on an 18-yard connection with Trevon Grimes midway through the fourth quarter. The Texas native became the first Gators quarterback in history to throw at least four touchdown passes in four consecutive games, and brought his season total up to 18 (read on for more on how remarkable that feat is).

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida shook off the rust in its first game since a tough loss at Texas A&M on Oct. 10, and shored up some of the defensive issues it displayed through the first three outings this season. Most importantly, the Gators generated some momentum heading into next week's highly-anticipated rivalry matchup.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Florida defense. The unit entered the night ranked near the bottom of the FBS in rushing and passing defense, but until Missouri's final two drives – by which time Florida built a 41-10 lead – the Gators allowed just 172 total yards. Florida also limited Missouri to just three conversions on 15 third-down attempts (20 percent). The last time UF held its opponent to 20 percent or worse on third downs when it faced at least 15 was last year's rout of Vanderbilt, a game in which the Gators finished with the exact same 3-for-15 stat line on third down.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: 18. Trask's touchdown total through four games this season – which set an SEC record for touchdown passes in the first four games of a season. Entering Saturday's games, the FBS leader was UCF's Dillon Gabriel, who threw 19 touchdowns. In five games.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask and the eighth-ranked Gators spotted their rival a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter, but Trask and friends quickly flipped the script and bombarded the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with an offensive barrage that made a mockery of the Southeastern Conference's top-rated defense and put Florida in control in the race for the East Division title. Trask passed for a career-high 474 yards and four touchdowns, all coming in the first half, as the Florida offense flattened Georgia, which came in allowing only 300 yards per game, to the tune of 571 total yards for the Gators' first win in the series since 2016. UGA tailback Zamir White went 75 yards on the first play from scrimmage to put the Bulldogs ahead just 12 seconds into the game. After a UF three-and-out, UGA marched 61 yards in six plays with Stetson Bennett hitting Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint with a 32-yard touchdown pass to go up 14-0 barely four minutes in. From there, the rest of the half was all Gators, as UF outgained UGA 433 yards to just 44 in taking a 38-21 lead into the locker room, including a gorgeous 14-yard touchdown reception by a leaping Trevon Grimes with just 11 seconds to play in the half. Trask also had touchdown strikes of 14 yards to wideout Justin Shorter, 25 yards to tight end Kyle Pitts, who later left the game following a vicious helmet-to-helmet strike from UGA's Lewis Cine (ejected), and 25 yards to Pitts backup Kemore Gamble, but also a pick-6 that temporarily put his team down 21-14. Not for long, though. Junior running back Dameon Pierce had a 2-yard rushing TD in the first quarter and sophomore Evan McPherson kicked field goals of 50, 51 and 34 yards, the last coming with 1:19 to play. Bennett completed just five of his 16 passes for 78 yards, one touchdown and an interception and eventually was benched for redshirt freshman D'Wan Mathis, who marched the Dogs to a touchdown with a 25-yard dart to Kearis Jackson to close within 41-28 late in the third quarter. That would be it for the Dogs, though. The two UGA quarterbacks completed only 9 of 29 passes for just 112 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions. The Dogs' inability to sustain offense with either QB allowed the Gators to win despite scoring just six points after halftime.

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida has a spot in the driver's seat to the Southeastern Conference East Division title. The Gators now hold a one-game lead on the second-place Bulldogs, as well as the all-important head-to-head tiebreaker, with the rest of the other division teams at least two games back. The win was UF's first over UGA since 2016 (and first in three tries for Coach Dan Mullen), meaning the Dogs now lead the series 52-43-2.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hmmm. Guess we'll go with Trask, whose season numbers now show 125 completions in 182 attempts (that's 68.7 percent) for 1,815 yards, 22 touchdowns (with four in each of the last four games) and three interceptions. That TD total is one shy of the record-setting mark LSU's Joe Burrow established through five games a season ago. Burrow went on to win the Heisman Trophy.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: In each of the last four meetings, Florida fell behind by double digits in the opening period. In 2017, in what turned out to be Coach Jim McElwain's final game, UF trailed 21-0 in the first quarter on the way to a 42-7 loss. In 2018, it was a 10-0 deficit in 36-17 loss. In 2019, again 10-0 in a 24-17 loss. It was 14-0 this time, but the outcome was way different. Also, for the first time since 2005, the team that rushed for the most yards did not win. Georgia out-gained Florida 165-97 on the ground Saturday, starting with that 75-yard blast on the first snap, but what Trask did through the air was enough to snap the 14-game streak for the dominant running team.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."
