THE STORYLINE

- Florida is making its first-ever Cotton Bowl appearance, and it faces Oklahoma for the second time in school history.
- The only other meeting between Florida and Oklahoma came in the 2009 BCS National Championship Game, which saw the No. 2 Gators defeat the No. 1 Sooners, 24-14, at Dolphin Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla.
- The Gators are playing in one of the New Year's Six bowl games for a third consecutive year for the second time in program history. The other occurrence was a four-year run spanning the 1993-96 seasons.
- Florida is 4-4 against AP top-10 teams under Dan Mullen. From 2010-17, Florida went 5-11 against top-10 opponents.

KYLES DRAW HEISMAN RECOGNITION FOR HISTORIC YEARS

- Kyle Trask is one of four Heisman Trophy finalists this year, joining him with Emmitt Smith (1988), Danny Wuerffel (1995, 1996), Rex Grossman (2001), and Tim Tebow (2007, 2008, 2009) as the only finalists in school history. Finalists were first named in 1982. Florida's Heisman winners are Steve Spurrier (1966), Wuerffel (1996), and Tebow (2007).
- Trask's 43 touchdown passes lead the nation by 11 and are tied for the eighth-highest total through 11 games in FBS history, but of the nine players with 43-plus touchdown passes through 11 games, the only ones to accomplish the feat with fewer than 50 attempts per game are: Trask (37.2), Hawaii's Colt Brennan in 2006 (48 TDs, 38.1 attempts per game), and Louisiana Tech's Tim Rattay in 1998 (44 TDs, 45.5 attempts per game).
- Trask leads the nation in passing yards per game (375.0), putting him on pace for the third-highest season average in SEC history behind only Kentucky's Tim Couch (388.6 in 1998) and LSU's Joe Burrow (378.1 in 2019).
- Trask also ranks fifth nationally in passer rating (186.65), but he is on pace for the third-highest single-season rating in FBS history among passers who averaged at least 30 attempts per game. As a team, Florida ranks fifth nationally with a 184.4 passer rating and is on pace to shatter the school record of 171.8 set in 1995.
- Kyle Pitts finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy voting this year, becoming the first tight end to finish in the top 10 of the voting since Notre Dame's Ken MacAfee in 1977. Pitts is one of 10 Gators to finish in the top 10 of Heisman voting.
- In his last three games (Kentucky, Tennessee, and Alabama), Pitts logged 19 receptions for 356 yards and four touchdowns. Pitts announced via Twitter he declared for the NFL Draft and won't play the bowl.
- Pitts' 12 touchdown receptions rank tied for third in the FBS, and tied for seventh on Florida's single-season record list. Pitts and Kadarius Toney (10 touchdown catches) are the fourth duo in Gators history with at least 10 apiece.
- Florida's 388.4 passing yards per game lead the FBS and put the Gators on pace for a historic passing season. The only team in UF history to throw for more than 368 yards per game was the 2001 Gators (405.2), who were also the only team in school history to lead the nation in passing offense. UF's average currently ranks fourth in SEC history.
- Florida has six games of 400-plus passing yards this year, joining them with the 2001 Gators (seven times, including bowl) as the only other team in school history with six such outings in a season.

#TRASKFORHEISMAN

- Of the 20 Heisman-winning quarterback since the start of 1992, 15 played at least 11 games against Power 5 teams, while three others faced at least 10. Trask's numbers outclass nearly every one of those Heisman winners' numbers against the first 10 or 11 Power 5 opponents they faced.

- And here's where Trask ranks among every Heisman-winning quarterback in history only counting stats accrued before the Heisman ceremony. One table is sorted by pass yards per game, another by total touchdowns.

MORE TRASK NOTABLES

- Trask threw four-plus touchdown passes each of the first six games this year, making him the first player in SEC history and fourth FBS quarterback since 1996 to throw at least four touchdown passes in six straight games (Colt Brennan, Hawaii - nine games in 2006; Graham Harrell, Texas Tech - six games in 2007; Logan Woodside, Toledo, six games in 2016).
- Trask also became the first player in SEC history and only FBS quarterback in the last 15 seasons to throw at least three touchdown passes in nine consecutive games.
- Trask has the fifth 4,000-yard passing season in SEC history and is third on the SEC single-season record list.
- Trask is the only FBS player with five 400-yard passing games this season and the only SEC player since at least 1996 with five such games in a season.
- Trask now holds four of the top 12 single-game passing performances in school history (474 [twice] vs. Georgia and LSU - 433 at Tennessee - 411th / 416 at Ole Miss - 12th).
- With 31 touchdowns in the first seven games, Trask broke the SEC record for touchdown passes in league games, eclipsing the record jointly held by Danny Wuerffel (28 in 1995) and LSU's Joe Burrow (28 in 2019).

GATORS FEATURE FBS' WIDEST PASSING DISTRIBUTION

- Florida's 45 touchdown passes lead the nation by six. This year could be the fifth time in school history the Gators led the FBS in touchdown passes (41 in 1993; 43 in 1994; 48 in 1995; 42 in 1996).
- UF's 17 touchdown catches by tight ends lead the FBS by five. BYU is the only other team with more than nine.
- Florida is the only FBS team featuring six players with at least three receiving touchdowns, as well as one of three FBS teams the last four seasons featuring three players with at least nine (2019 LSU; 2018 Hawaii).
- Florida is one of three FBS teams featuring six players with more than 20 receptions and 225 receiving yards.
- Florida and SMU are only FBS teams featuring four players with more than 20 receptions and 400 yards, and at least three receiving touchdowns this season (Jacob Copeland, Trevon Grimes, Kyle Pitts, Kadarius Toney).
- UF is one of six FBS teams featuring seven players with multiple touchdown receptions (Arkansas State, Clemson, Liberty, Louisiana Tech, Toledo). A total of 10 Gators have a touchdown reception this season.

FUN 'N' GUN? MULLEN'S OFFENSE CERTAINLY COMPARES

- Florida ranks sixth nationally and second in the SEC with 7.40 yards per play -- on pace for a school record. The only teams in UF history to average more than 7.15 yards were the 1995 Gators (7.40) and 2001 Gators (7.36).
- The Gators' 41.6 points per game this season rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Their scoring average currently ranks seventh on the program's single-season record list.
- Florida's 36.4 points per game since the start of the 2018 season rank sixth among Power Five programs and tied for 10th in the FBS. From 2015-17, Florida ranked 110th nationally and averaged just 23.1 points per game.
- UF has scored 40-plus points 13 times under Mullen, one more 40-point outing than it had in 101 games from 2010-17. UF's seven-game streak (first seven games) of 40-point outings was UF's longest since an eight-game run from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008. From Oct. 31-Nov. 14 this year, the Gators had three consecutive 40-point games against SEC opponents for the first time since a five-game run from Oct. 11-Nov. 15, 2008.
- This is the first time in school history UF scored five offensive touchdowns in eight games against SEC teams. The 1996 Gators were the only team to accomplish the feat in seven games against SEC opponents.
- While UF's 508.8 total yards per game rank 10th nationally, it only runs 68.7 plays per game, the third-fewest among the 11 FBS teams averaging 500-plus total yards per game (Buffalo - 64.5; BYU - 66; Alabama - 69.5).
- Florida eclipsed 600 total yards at Ole Miss (642 - a school record for total yards against an SEC team) and against LSU (609), marking the fifth time in school history it had multiple 600-yard games in a season. The 2020 Gators, 2001 Gators, and 1996 Gators are the only ones to post two such games against SEC teams.
- UF has six games of 500-plus total yards against SEC opponents, tying a school record set by the 1995 Gators.
- Florida has 13 games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's 36 games as head coach, one shy of its combined total from the 115 games comprising the 2009-17 seasons. UF has nine games of 500-plus total yards against SEC teams under Mullen, two more than it had from 2008-17.

PITTS MAKES HISTORY AS BILETNIKOFF, MACKEY FINALIST

- Kyle Pitts is not only a finalist for the Mackey Award (college football's top tight end), he is a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award (top FBS receiver at any position). Pitts is UF's first Mackey semifinalist since 2015 (Jake McGee), as well as its first Biletnikoff semifinalist since 2007 (Percy Harvin).
- Pitts is the first tight end in history to be a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.
- Pitts is the first tight end in school history and eighth FBS tight end in the last five years with three 100-yard receiving games in a season. Pitts' 770 receiving yards this year are tied for second in UF history for a tight end.
- Pitts is one of four FBS players with multiple three-touchdown games in 2020 (four at Ole Miss, three against Kentucky). Pitts is one of nine SEC players with two such games in a season since 2000.
- Despite missing three games, Pitts' 43 receptions this season rank fifth among all FBS tight ends, and he is the only FBS tight end with five-plus receptions in six games this season.
- Pitts had multiple receiving touchdowns against Ole Miss, South Carolina, and Kentucky, making him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (2002) with three such games in a season; he's the first since Jabar Gaffney (2001) to have multiple receiving touchdowns against three against SEC teams.
- Pitts' four touchdowns in the opener at Ole Miss and two the following week against South Carolina made him the first Gator since Taylor Jacobs (Sept. 21-28, 2002) with multiple touchdown catches in consecutive games. Toney also accomplished the feat with a pair of touchdown catches against Texas A&M and Missouri.
- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Pitts' six touchdowns in the first two games were tied for the second-most over a two-game span by ANY SEC player the last 25 seasons (Vanderbilt's Earl Bennett had seven in 2005).
- Pitts finishes his career as UF's all-time leader for receiving yards by a tight end (1,492) and ranked second in school history for career receptions by a tight end (100).
- Pitts hauled in his eighth touchdown reception of the season in the win over Georgia, meaning it took him just five games to break the single-season school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end -- which was previously set by Cornelius Ingram (seven in 2007) and Kirk Kirkpatrick (seven in 1990).
- Pitts' 5-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter at Texas A&M was the 13th of his career and broke the school record for touchdown receptions by a tight end, which was established at the end of the 2009 season.

McPHERSON NOW A THREE-TIME GROZA SEMIFINALIST

- Evan McPherson is the only FBS kicker to be a Lou Groza Award semifinalist the last three years; he joined Caleb Sturgis (2009, 2011, 2012) as the only other player in school history to be a three-time semifinalist.
- McPherson is tied with Pittsburgh's Alex Kessman and Oklahoma's Gabe Brkic for the second-most made field goals of at least 50 yards by an FBS kicker this season (four apiece). LSU's Cade York leads the nation with six.
- McPherson's career field goal percentage (86.0 percent / 49 of 57) ranks fourth among FBS kickers with 50-plus attempts since the start of 2018. It is also ranks No. 1 in SEC history among kickers with 50-plus attempts.
- McPherson ranks 16th nationally this year (78.9 percent / 15 of 19) among kickers with at least 15 attempts.

TRIPLE-THREAT TONEY BLOSSOMING AS A RECEIVER

- Kadarius Toney has been regarded as a dynamic playmaker since his career debut in 2017, but his development as a receiver this season truly makes him one of the most unique threats in college football.
- Toney is fifth in the SEC with an average of 130.8 all-purpose yards per game, and he's one of 20 FBS players (one of six from the SEC) with 12-plus total touchdowns this year (10 receiving, one rushing, one punt return).
- Toney is one of three FBS players this season with a rushing, receiving, and punt return touchdown (a 50-yarder against Kentucky). The other two are Alabama's DeVonta Smith, and Rutgers' Bo Melton.
- The punt return score also made Toney the 11th SEC player since 1996 and third Gator (Antonio Callaway, Jacquez Green) in the same span to account for passing, rushing, receiving, and punt return touchdowns in a career.
- Toney's 70 receptions this year are tied for sixth on Florida's single-season record list, and he is 16 yards away from the 12th season of 1,000-plus receiving yards in school history.
- Toney's 10 touchdown receptions are tied for fifth in the FBS, while Toney's 11 scrimmage touchdowns (rush / receiving) this year are nearly quadruple the number of career total touchdowns he entered the 2020 season with (three -- two receiving, one rushing).
- Toney and Trevon Grimes each had a touchdown catch in four straight games this year, joining them with Percy Harvin (six games from Sept. 20-Nov. 1, 2008), and Dallas Baker (five games - the final two of 2005, and first three of 2006) as the only Gators since 2002 with touchdown catches in four straight games.
- Toney finished the regular season with three consecutive 100-yard receiving games, marking the first time since Andre Caldwell (Nov. 3-17, 2007) a Gator logged three straight 100-yard outings.
- Toney is the first Gator with four 100-yard receiving games in a season since Demarcus Robinson in 2014.
- Toney logged a career-high 249 all-purpose yards (182 receiving, 56 rushing, 11 punt return) against LSU; he followed it up with 211 (153 receiving, 15 rushing, 41 kickoff return, 2 punt return) in the SEC Championship Game.
- Toney had his first career 100-yard receiving game (six catches, 107 yards, TD), and a career-high 81 return yards (74 kickoff, 7 punt) at Vanderbilt. He was the first Gator since Reidel Anthony (Sept. 28, 1996 against Kentucky) with 100-plus receiving yards and 75-plus return yards. Anthony had 126 receiving yards and 102 return yards.
- Toney eclipsed his career high for receptions the last three games (nine against LSU, eight at Tennessee / vs. Alabama); he has three other games of exactly seven receptions, along with at least five receptions in nine of UF's 11 games this year. Toney entered 2020 with one career game of five-plus catches (six vs. Idaho in 2018).
- Toney also flashed his dual-threat prowess versus Missouri, catching two touchdowns and running in another; he is one of five FBS players this year with two receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown in a game.

DEFENSE LEADS LEAGUE IN SACKS

- The Gators lead the SEC and are tied for sixth nationally with 33 sacks this season. UF also ranks second in the league with 70 tackles for loss. Florida had and a season-high six sacks against Tennessee.
- Sophomore defensive back Kaiir Elam was named a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist, giving the Gators a semifinalist for the second consecutive year (CJ Henderson last season).
- Florida has 14 takeaways this year, bringing its total since the start of 2018 up to 63 (tied for 13th in FBS).
- The Gators snagged three interceptions wins over Georgia and Kentucky. They are one of 15 FBS teams with multiple games of three interceptions this year. Last season, Florida, Florida Atlantic, Oklahoma State, San Diego State, and Tennessee were the only FBS teams with at least three interceptions in three different games.
- Florida held Alabama scoreless in the third quarter of the SEC Championship Game, which marked only the second time this season an opponent held the Crimson Tide scoreless for a whole quarter this season.
- In the second half against Kentucky, Florida yielded just 46 total yards and did not allow a third or fourth down conversion as it outscored the Wildcats 20-0.
- Although it fell into a 14-0 hole and gave up 136 yards on Georgia's first two possessions, the Gators' defense responded and allowed just 141 yards on 51 plays (2.76 yards per play) the rest of the game.
- That finish resembled its start to the Missouri game. Prior to the final two defensive drives against Missouri -- by which time UF built a 41-10 lead -- the Gators gave up just 172 total yards and did not cede a touchdown.

MONSTROUS FIRST HALF LEADS TO ROUT OF ARKANSAS

- The Gators threw seven touchdown passes for the seventh time in school history, and they tossed five in a single half (five in the first) for the eighth time in program history.
- UF posted its first 60-point game against an SEC team since a 63-5 win over Kentucky on Oct. 25, 2008.
- Florida recorded its second 50-point game against an SEC opponent this year, marking the first time since 2008 and ninth time in program history the Gators posted multiple 50-point outings against SEC teams in the same season. The Gators have three 50-point games against SEC teams under Mullen, who trails Spurrier (18) and Meyer (six) for the most in school history.
- UF's logged its fifth 50-point outing under Mullen, equaling its total of 50-point games from 2010-17.

HUGE NUMBERS FROM STATEMENT WIN OVER GEORGIA

- In its win over Georgia, the Gators amassed 571 total yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since 2001, when UF racked up 584), tallied 474 passing yards (the most allowed by a Georgia defense since Kentucky threw for 528 in 2000), and scored 44 points (the third-highest total Georgia surrendered since Kirby Smart took over in 2016) with the vast majority of that production coming after it fell behind 14-0 three minutes in.
- Following the 14-0 deficit, Florida closed the first half with 38 points and 408 total yards on 43 plays. Within that same span, the Gators held Georgia to 30 yards on 18 plays and only gave up points via a pick-six.
- Florida's 38 points set a single-half school record for points against Georgia, topping the 35 points scored in the second half of a 49-10 rout in 2008.
- UF's five offensive touchdowns -- all in the first half -- tied the highest total allowed by Georgia under Smart.
- Kyle Trask broke Kerwin Bell's school record for passing yards against Georgia (408 in 1985)... by the end of the third quarter, which he finished with 412 yards.
- UF's running backs combined for 212 receiving yards on 10 catches, led by Malik Davis' five for 100 yards.

WILD NUMBERS FROM RECORD-SETTING OPENER

- Pitts became the 16th player in SEC history to haul in four touchdown receptions in a game, and the ninth to accomplish the feat against a conference opponent; he was one shy of the SEC's single-game record of five touchdown receptions, which is shared by four players.
- Last year, the five FBS players with 150-plus receiving yards and four touchdown receptions against an FBS opponent were all receivers: Alabama's DeVonta Smith, LSU's Ja'Marr Chase and Justin Jefferson, and Hawaii's Cedric Byrd II and Jojo Ward. This year, the only FBS players with such a game are Pitts, Smith, Miami (Ohio)'s Jack Sorenson, Arkansas State's Corey Rucker, and North Texas' Jaelon Darden.
- Pitts is one of three FBS tight ends since the start of 1996 to amass 150-plus receiving yards and catch four touchdowns in a game, joining Stanford's Colby Parkinson (six receptions, 166 yards, four TDs against Oregon State in 2018) and Kentucky's James Whalen Jr. (10 receptions, 151 yards, four TDs against Georgia in 1999).
- Trask's six touchdown passes were one shy of the SEC single-game record held by seven players, including UF's Terry Dean (seven against New Mexico St. in 1994) and Doug Johnson (seven against Central Michigan in 1997).
- Trask became the 16th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes in a game. He also became the sixth Gators quarterback to throw six in a game. Aside from Florida (six), Kentucky (three), and Ole Miss (two), no other SEC program has produced multiple quarterbacks who threw for six touchdowns in a game.
- Trask became the 10th player in SEC history to throw six touchdown passes against a conference opponent; he is one of three Gators quarterbacks to accomplish the feat, joining Danny Wuerffel (six against Tennessee in 1995) and Chris Leak (six against South Carolina in 2004).
- Since the start of 2018, the only FBS quarterbacks to throw for at least 400 yards and six touchdowns without an interception against a Power Five opponent are: Trask, Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa, LSU's Joe Burrow, Oklahoma's Kyler Murray, Washington State's Gardner Minshew II, and Ole Miss' Matt Corral.
- Trask's six touchdown passes tied 2019 Heisman winner Joe Burrow's record for passing TDs in a SEC opener.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- UF has nine consecutive games of 400-plus total yards for the first time since at least 1981. This is also the first time in school history UF has at least seven straight 400-yard outings against SEC teams.
- UF has finished with fewer than 10 penalties in 31 consecutive games. Dating back to the start of 2019, UF has been charged with five or fewer penalties in 15 of their 24 games, including nine of the last 13.
  - » The Gators were consistently among the most penalized teams in the SEC during the 2010s, finishing dead last in the league in 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2016.
- In Games 4-7 this year, UF posted four consecutive games of 500-plus total yards for the first time since the first four games of 2007, but it was only the third time in school history it had a four-game streak against SEC teams. The previous four-game streaks were from Oct. 5-Nov. 2, 1996, and Oct. 14-Nov. 18, 1995.
- Florida also set a pair of school records this year with nine consecutive games of 35-plus points (which dated back to the final two games of 2019) and seven straight 35-point outings against SEC teams.
- UF has scored in 409 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS programs without a loss to a team that finished the season with a losing record. Florida's last such loss was to Mississippi State (3-9) in 2004.

- UF has beaten four SEC opponents by at least 20 points for the first time since 2008 (seven times).

Offensive Upticks Continued in Mullen's Second Act

- Florida recorded seven games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's first two seasons. In 75 games from 2012-17, UF had six 500-yard outings.
- Florida recorded 14 games of 400-plus total yards in Mullen's first 26 games as head coach. In the program's 50 games from 2014-17, UF had 400-plus yards just 14 times.
- The Gators had eight games of 400-plus total yards in 2019, their most such games in a season since 2008 -- Mullen's final year as O.C. -- when they did it 10 times.
- UF scored 40-plus points nine times in Mullen's first 26 games (three in 2019, six in 2018). In the 8 games spanning 2011-17, Florida scored 40 points on nine occasions.
- UF scored 105 offensive touchdowns in Mullen's first 26 games. In the three seasons prior to his arrival (2015-17), the Gators scored 93 offensive touchdowns in 38 games.

Mullen Revived Florida's Offense in Debut Season

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.

- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86

Passing Eff.	113.11 (113th)	145.76 (35th)	+78
Total Offense	335.9 (110th)	426.7 (42nd)	+68
3rd Down Pct.	32.5% (117th)	41.6% (48th)	+69
Rushing Offense	156.4 (75th)	213.2 (27th)	+48
Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.

- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.

- MSU broke over 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

In Perspective: Mullen Takes Mississippi State to No. 1

- Mullen led Mississippi State to a 9-0 start in 2014, allowing the Bulldogs to secure the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 for a five-week stretch from Oct. 12 through Nov. 9.
- MSU held the No. 1 ranking until after a 25-20 loss at No. 4 Alabama on Nov. 15.
- Since 2001, only 16 FBS programs -- predominantly "blueblood" schools -- have been ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25. And 11 of those 16 were ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 at least five weeks: Alabama, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, LSU, Miami, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Oregon, and Southern California.
- Since 2013, only six FBS programs have been the No. 1 team in the AP Top 25.

In Perspective: Mullen's Quarterbacks Track Record

- In 2002 at Bowling Green, Mullen helped Josh Harris account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (41) among FBS players and 3,213 total yards.
- In 2004 at Utah, Mullen helped Alex Smith account for the second-most total touchdowns (42) among FBS players, and amass 3,604 total yards.
- Smith finished fourth in the 2004 Heisman Trophy voting and was the No. 1 pick in 2005 NFL Draft.
- In 2007, Mullen helped Tim Tebow account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (55 -- an SEC record) among FBS players, and amass 4,181 total yards.
- Tebow was the first quarterback in FBS history to pass for 20+ touchdowns and rush for 20+ touchdowns in a season (2007), and his 2007 season remains the only one in history of more than 30 passing and 20 rushing touchdowns.

- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.
- In 2014, Mullen helped Dak Prescott finish tied for fifth nationally in total touchdowns (42) in 2014, in addition to totaling 4,470 yards (3,449 pass / 986 rush / 35 receiving).
- Prescott was eighth in the Heisman voting and a Maxwell Award finalist in 2014.
- Prescott's rushing production dipped in 2015, but he increased his passing production and finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing yards (3,793). He also ranked 11th nationally with 39 total touchdowns.
- In 2016, Mullen helped first-year starter Nick Fitzgerald, a redshirt sophomore, tie for 14th nationally with 37 total touchdowns. Fitzgerald also ran for 1,375 yards--ranking 3rd among FBS quarterbacks.
- In 2017, Fitzgerald accounted for 2,766 yards (1,782 passing, 984 rushing) and 29 touchdowns (15 passing, 14 rushing) despite missing nearly all of the Egg Bowl and Mississippi State's bowl game due to a gruesome ankle injury.
- Much of Florida's offensive success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks' turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title. Franks threw nine touchdowns and eight interceptions, and ranked 99th nationally with a 113.31 passer rating in 2017.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask passed for 416 yards and six touchdowns, with four of those scores going to beastly junior tight end Kyle Pitts, as the fifth-ranked Gators outgained, outscored and outlasted the host Rebels to win their 2020 season and Southeastern Conference opener Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford, Miss.

Trask, who immediately vaulted into the early Heisman Trophy conversation, was masterful in guiding an offense that cranked out 642 yards, including 196 on the ground, for the most ever amassed by a Florida team against a league opponent. Trask staked his team to a 28-14 halftime lead by hitting 18 of 25 for 241 yards and four scores, with TDs to Pitts bracketing the first and last of those touchdowns, including a 16-yarder with just five seconds to go before intermission. Two plays out the locker room, Trask dropped and bombed a 71-yard scoring strike to Pitts to give the Gators a 21-point cushion. The Rebels never got closer than 14 after that, with UF adding a trio of consecutive field goals from junior Evan McPherson, including a 55-yarder that marked the third-longest in program history.

When Trask hit Pitts for a 17-yard touchdown with 5:14 left, he joined last year's Heisman winner, LSU's Joe Burrow, as the only QBs in league history to throw six touchdowns in an SEC opener. Florida wasn't the only team on the field to put up fat offensive numbers, which is something that figures to concern UF defensive coordinator Todd Grantham. The Rebels totaled 613 yards -- the third-most ever gained against the Gators -- with quarterback Matt Corral, once a UF commitment, finishing 22-for-31 for 395 yards, three touchdowns and one interception.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators have a win in their SEC opener for the second straight season and now have now started 1-0 in league play 15 of the last 16 seasons, dating to 2005. It's always good to not have to play catch-up in the SEC East. Even better when considering the 10-game SEC schedule.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hard to believe there's a better tight end in the country than Pitts, but Trask is the guy who was throwing him the ball and, boy, was he good at it. There's a reason he was named the preseason All-SEC First Team quarterback. He finished 30 of 42 for 416 yards, with those half-dozen touchdowns, no interceptions, and a whopping QB rating of 201.8. The six TDs fell one shy of the school and SEC record of seven, with UF's jointly held by Terry Dean (1994 vs. New Mexico State) and Doug Johnson (1997 vs. Central Michigan), and the conference's shared by another six players.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Pick any number of numbers from the Florida offensive box score. We already mentioned Trask tying Burrow's SEC opener touchdown record, so how 'bout Pitts' four touchdown receptions tying the single-game school record set previously by Ike Hilliard against Tennessee in 1995 and Jack Jackson against New Mexico State in 1994.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Trask continued his torrid start to the 2020 season, as did sidekick tight end Kyle Pitts, for that matter, as the third-ranked Gators took care of business against the Southeastern Conference East Division rival Gamecocks with a win Saturday before a socially distanced crowd of 15,120 at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask completed 21 of his 29 throws for 268 yards, four touchdowns and one interception, piling on his fat numbers from a week ago when he passed for 416 yards and six TDs without a turnover in a win at Ole Miss. Pitts, the 6-foot-6, 240-pound matchup nightmare, caught four passes for 47 yards and two scores, as the featured threat in an offense that ended up with just 348 yards because of a bizarre fourth quarter dominated by the Gamecocks. South Carolina scored on the game's first possession on a 75-yard march over 12 plays. Florida countered with a 75-yard scoring march of its own, capped by a 2-yard run by junior tailback Dameon Pierce. The UF defense forced a punt on USC's second possession, and Trask again marched the Gators to the end zone, this time finding Pitts for the first of his two scores. The Gamecocks answered, but only after Trask was hit and fumbled for his first turnover of the season. South Carolina's Collin Hill hit wideout Shi Smith for a 4-yard TD to tie the game at 14-all. From there, Florida dropped 24 unanswered points -- a field goal from Evan McPherson, plus Trask touchdown tosses to Pitts (again), redshirt freshman wideout Trent Whittemore and 57-yard catch-and-run from senior wingback Kadarius Toney -- to lead 38-24 late in the third quarter. Hill, who completed 28 of 47 passes for 211 yards and two TDs, worked the Gamecocks for 10 straight points to make it 38-24 with just over 10 minutes left, and had a chance for more. South Carolina got the ball back with 8:11 to go needing a pair of touchdowns, but the Gamecocks took their sweet time in marching all the way to the UF 4 with less than a minute to play. Hill's fourth-and-goal pass attempt to cut the lead in half fell incomplete with 48 seconds left, sealing the deal for the home team.

WHAT IT MEANS: Two games, two victories, and both in league play. The Gators will be no worse than one of two unbeaten SEC East teams by day's end (Tennessee defeated Missouri early Saturday, as well), with three-time reigning division champ Georgia slated for a big game tonight at home against Auburn.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: South Carolina held the ball for 11:12 of the fourth period and ran 29 plays to Florida's 10 and outgained UF 99-9 in the period. Of those Gators plays, three of them were kneel-downs to run out the clock on the final possession of the game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Florida (2-0, 2-0) is back on the road, with the Gators heading to Texas A&M. The Aggies (1-0) began the day ranked 13th, but with a date at No. 2 Alabama, the preseason favorite to win the league. UF is 1-1 against A&M since the Aggies entered the league, with both teams winning on the road. The Gators were victorious at College Station in 2012, with a 20-17 come-from-behind win over Johnny Manziel and the Aggies in what was A&M's first-ever game as a member of the SEC.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Junior Seth Small kicked a 26-yard field goal as time expired Saturday and the 21st-ranked Aggies upset the No. 4 Gators in a game devoid of defense at Kyle Field. Senior quarterback Kellen Mond, making his 37th career start, passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns, while tailback Isaiah Spiller shredded the Gators for 174 rushing yards and two more scores. But it took the Aggies' defense to make the play that changed the course of the outcome. The score was tied at 38 when Florida quarterback Kyle Trask, already with 312 yards, four touchdowns and no interception, took over with 3:40 remaining and a chance for the game-winning drive. After hitting senior tailback Malik Davis for 23 yards to near midfield, Davis fumbled the ball away two plays later and the Aggies recovered at the UF 48. Mond needed eight plays to move his team 40 yards, hitting a big third-and-8 completion (a troubling trend on the day against the UF defense) to wideout Chase Lane for 16 yards to the UF 19. On the next play, Spiller rushed 11 yards to the 8 and, after an A&M timeout, basically gave Small an extra point to win the game. Mond finished 25 of 35 against a UF defense that yielded 543 yards and an astounding 12-for-15 conversions on third down. Trask was 23-for-32, but was denied a chance at a game-winning drive. Florida finished with 402 yards of offense, but just 90 on the ground, compared to A&M's 205. The Aggies trailed 38-31 with just over six minutes left, but got a 51-yard scoring bomb from Mond to wideout Caleb Chapman to tie the game, then the turnover that turned the game. A&M started the day 0-7 against teams ranked in the top five during Coach Jimbo Fisher's three seasons since bolting from Florida State. In those games, the Aggies had been outscored by an average of 19.1 points, including last weekend's 28-point loss at No. 2-ranked Alabama. They're now 1-7

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators will be chasing the winner of Saturday's game between Tennessee and Georgia, both of which began the day unbeaten and tied with the UF atop the SEC East. (Update: Georgia won 44-21). The defeat wasn't a death knell to their hopes of winning division (not with dates against the Volunteers and Bulldogs down the road), but in the bigger, College Football Playoff picture, a loss to a team that was steamrolled 52-24 at Alabama last week won't help the Gators pass the eye test down the line; if it comes to that. There's also the more closer-to-home issue of that defense, which will be under serious reevaluation.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Mond and Spiller accounted for 515 of their team's 543 yards. That's 94.8 percent.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Aggies averaged 7.3 yards per snap. The Gators averaged 7.2, but 18 fewer plays, and thus nearly 170 fewer yards.

UP NEXT: The Gators (2-1, 2-1) return home to facing reigning national champion LSU (1-2, 1-2), which Saturday was stunned at unranked Missouri, 45-41, in a game that was moved from Baton Rouge to Columbia due to Hurricane Delta. The Tigers are a shadow of the team they were last year with Heisman Trophy winner and No. 1 overall draft pick Joe Burrow, what with 14 players taken in the NFL draft, but still quite talented and formidable, regardless of their two losses, including those 600-plus yards passing surrendered in a season-opening home loss against Mississippi State.

GAME 4 SUMMARY

No. 10 Florida 41, Missouri 17

Oct. 31 | Ben Hill Griffin Stadium | Gainesville | Attendance: 12,049

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	Final
Missouri (2-3)	0	7	0	10	17
Florida (3-1)	6	14	14	7	41

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Florida started slow offensively, but its defense held firm until a scoring surge late in the second quarter gave the Gators a two-score lead they extended with a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter. UF carried its 34-7 lead into the fourth quarter, and never allowed Missouri to get closer than 24 points en route to its 10th consecutive home win. Until mop-up duty late in the game, the only touchdown scored against the Gators came when redshirt senior quarterback Kyle Trask was hit on a throw, which led to a wounded duck of a pass and a 59-yard interception return touchdown by Missouri's Jarvis Ware. The pick-six put Missouri up, 7-6, a little over two minutes into the second quarter, as the Gators settled for a pair of field goals (both made by redshirt junior backup kicker Chris Howard) on their first two drives, despite some explosive passing plays from Trask to junior tight end Kyle Pitts and running backs Malik Davis and Dameon Pierce. Florida's offense got on track late in the second quarter, as a 36-yard pass from Trask to redshirt sophomore wide receiver Jacob Copeland drove the Gators to Missouri's 24-yard line. Then senior all-purpose athlete Kadarius Toney delivered his latest video game-esque escape for an 18-yard touchdown run. Missouri faced a third-and-1 on the ensuing drive, and Brenton Cox Jr. recovered a fumbled exchange between Tigers quarterback Connor Bazelak and running back Tyler Badie, giving the Gators the ball at the Missouri 30-yard line with 1:15 remaining. They only needed seven seconds, as Trask found Toney for a 30-yard touchdown reception on the very next play, securing a 20-7 half-time lead. Florida faced a fourth-and-1 at Missouri's 31-yard line on its opening drive of the second half, which Trask converted himself with a 15-yard run. Toney capped the 8-play, 75-yard touchdown drive with a 16-yard touchdown run on the next play, making it 27-7. The Gators kept the ball on the ground for much of their next drive, which transfer receiver Justin Shorter capped with a 2-yard touchdown reception, the first of his collegiate career. Trask delivered his fourth touchdown pass of the night on an 18-yard connection with Trevon Grimes midway through the fourth quarter. The Texas native became the first Gators quarterback in history to throw at least four touchdown passes in four consecutive games, and brought his season total up to 18 (read on for more on how remarkable that feat is).

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida shook off the rust in its first game since a tough loss at Texas A&M on Oct. 10, and shored up some of the defensive issues it displayed through the first three outings this season. Most importantly, the Gators generated some momentum heading into next week's highly-anticipated rivalry matchup.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Florida defense. The unit entered the night ranked near the bottom of the FBS in rushing and passing defense, but until Missouri's final two drives – by which time Florida built a 41-10 lead – the Gators allowed just 172 total yards. Florida also limited Missouri to just three conversions on 15 third-down attempts (20 percent). The last time UF held its opponent to 20 percent or worse on third downs when it faced at least 15 was last year's rout of Vanderbilt, a game in which the Gators finished with the exact same 3-for-15 stat line on third down.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: 18. Trask's touchdown total through four games this season – which set an SEC record for touchdown passes in the first four games of a season. Entering Saturday's games, the FBS leader was UCF's Dillon Gabriel, who threw 19 touchdowns. In five games.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask and the eighth-ranked Gators spotted their rival a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter, but Trask and friends quickly flipped the script and bombarded the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with an offensive barrage that made a mockery of the Southeastern Conference's top-rated defense and put Florida in control in the race for the East Division title. Trask passed for a career-high 474 yards and four touchdowns, all coming in the first half, as the Florida offense flattened Georgia, which came in allowing only 300 yards per game, to the tune of 571 total yards for the Gators' first win in the series since 2016. UGA tailback Zamir White went 75 yards on the first play from scrimmage to put the Bulldogs ahead just 12 seconds into the game. After a UF three-and-out, UGA marched 61 yards in six plays with Stetson Bennett hitting Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint with a 32-yard touchdown pass to go up 14-0 barely four minutes in. From there, the rest of the half was all Gators, as UF outgained UGA 433 yards to just 44 in taking a 38-21 lead into the locker room, including a gorgeous 14-yard touchdown reception by a leaping Trevon Grimes with just 11 seconds to play in the half. Trask also had touchdown strikes of 14 yards to wideout Justin Shorter, 25 yards to tight end Kyle Pitts, who later left the game following a vicious helmet-to-helmet strike from UGA's Lewis Cine (ejected), and 25 yards to Pitts backup Kemore Gamble, but also a pick-6 that temporarily put his team down 21-14. Not for long, though. Junior running back Dameon Pierce had a 2-yard rushing TD in the first quarter and sophomore Evan McPherson kicked field goals of 50, 51 and 34 yards, the last coming with 1:19 to play. Bennett completed just five of his 16 passes for 78 yards, one touchdown and an interception and eventually was benched for redshirt freshman D'Wan Mathis, who marched the Dogs to a touchdown with a 25-yard dart to Kearis Jackson to close within 41-28 late in the third quarter. That would be it for the Dogs, though. The two UGA quarterbacks completed only 9 of 29 passes for just 112 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions. The Dogs' inability to sustain offense with either QB allowed the Gators to win despite scoring just six points after halftime.

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida has a spot in the driver's seat to the Southeastern Conference East Division title. The Gators now hold a one-game lead on the second-place Bulldogs, as well as the all-important head-to-head tiebreaker, with the rest of the other division teams at least two games back. The win was UF's first over UGA since 2016 (and first in three tries for Coach Dan Mullen), meaning the Dogs now lead the series 52-43-2.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Hmm. Guess we'll go with Trask, whose season numbers now show 125 completions in 182 attempts (that's 68.7 percent) for 1,815 yards, 22 touchdowns (with four in each of the last four games) and three interceptions. That TD total is one shy of the record-setting mark LSU's Joe Burrow established through five games a season ago. Burrow went on to win the Heisman Trophy.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: In each of the last four meetings, Florida fell behind by double digits in the opening period. In 2017, in what turned out to be Coach Jim McElwain's final game, UF trailed 21-0 in the first quarter on the way to a 42-7 loss. In 2018, it was a 10-0 deficit in 36-17 loss. In 2019, again 10-0 in a 24-17 loss. It was 14-0 this time, but the outcome was way different. Also, for the first time since 2005, the team that rushed for the most yards did not win. Georgia out-gained Florida 165-97 on the ground Saturday, starting with that 75-yard blast on the first snap, but what Trask did through the air was enough to snap the 14-game streak for the dominant running team.

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: UF quarterback Kyle Trask continued his assault on the Florida (and Southeastern Conference) record book, throwing for 356 yards and six touchdowns Saturday night — his sixth straight game with at least four TD strikes — to lead the sixth-ranked Gators past the Razorbacks at Spurrier/Florida Field. In facing grad-transfer and former teammate Feleipe Franks, the QB who beat him out twice (2018 and '19), Trask completed 23 of his 29 throws, with TD strikes of 9, 23, 21, 33, 5 and 11 yards, the combination of which gave him 28 on the season, which broke the six-game SEC mark, set by Alabama's Tua Tagovailoa in 2019. Florida scored on its first possession, with Trask hitting Trevon Grimes (6 catches, 109 yards, 2 TDs), but Franks answered almost instantly by lofting a gorgeous 47-yard strike to Mike Woods (2 catches, 129 yards, 2 TDs) on the Razorbacks' fifth snap. The Gators, though, scored touchdowns on their last four possessions of the half to open a 35-14 lead at intermission, with Trask going to the locker room with 281 yards and five TDs. Arkansas tailback Treylon Smith's 83-yard touchdown run cut the lead to 14 points lead, but the margin soon was padded (and then some) by backup quarterback Emory Jones' 1-yard run, Trask's early fourth-quarter pass to tight end Keon Zipperer (3 catches, 47 yards, 2 TDs) and a 35-yard fumble return by defensive lineman Zach Carter — all coming within six minutes — that quickly made it 56-21 with inside 13 minutes left. The Gators outgained the Hogs in total offense with 593 yards to 458. Of that Arkansas total, 212 yards came on a trio of scoring plays.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators, with a comfortable lead in the SEC East Division, inched closer to their goal of winning the East and clinching a first berth in the league championship game since 2016. With its lone loss coming on the road at No. 5 Texas A&M, Florida also remains in the mix for a potential first berth in the College Football Playoff, but that is chatter for another (and later) day.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: This space, it seems, could be reserved for Trask every week (more on him below), but we'll single out his counterpart, instead, given the juicy pregame storyline. Franks (unfortunately) was booed when he took the field for the first Arkansas drive and took out his frustration after that big early touchdown throw, pointing at the UF bench as he sprinted down the field with his teammates. Franks finished 15 of 19 for 250 yards, two touchdowns, no interceptions and was sacked three times.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Trask not only broke the SEC record for most TD passes through six games, but also became just the fourth FBS quarterback over the last 25 seasons to throw at least four in his first six games, joining Hawaii's Colt Brennan (nine straight in 2006), Texas Tech's Graham Harrell (six in '07) and Toledo's Logan Woodside (six in '16). On the home front, Trask, who had his second six-TD game of the season (matching his output from the season-opening win at Ole Miss), also joined Danny Wuerffel and Tim Tebow as the third QB in Florida history to throw for at least 25 touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Wuerffel had 35 in 1995 and 39 in '96, while Tebow had 32 in 2007 and 30 in '08. For the season, Trask has completed better than 70 percent of his attempts and thrown just three interceptions.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask threw for 383 yards and three touchdowns and the sixth-ranked Gators shook off a slow start with a run of 24 consecutive points over the two halves to claim a victory over the winless Commodores in their Southeastern Conference game Saturday at Dudley Field/Vanderbilt Stadium. Trask threw touchdown passes of 27 yards to wingback Kadarius Toney, 34 to wide receiver Trevon Grimes and 2 to tight end Kemore Gamble. The latter two scores, along with a field goal from Evan McPherson and 1-yard run by tailback Dameon Pierce, accounted for the Florida scoring run of two-dozen straight. After a Vandy TD closed the margin to 14 points late in the third quarter, UF backup quarterback Emory Jones fired a 30-yard catch-and-run TD to Gamble to take the margin back out to 21 points with less than seven minutes to go, allowing the Gators to leave Nashville with their 15th straight road win in the series. Vanderbilt scorched UF for 138 first-quarter yards and led 10-7 on a 16-yard touchdown pass from freshman Ken Seals to Chris Pierce Jr. and 25-yard Pierson Cooke field goal. That's when Florida went on its 24-point roll, starting with a tying field goal by McPherson of 33 yards. Trask and the Gators then drove to touchdowns with 49 seconds to go in the first half, when Grimes made a terrific catch between two defenders, and Pierce finished a 75-yard march to start the second half that included a fourth-and-1 gamble by UF coach Dan Mullen from his own 34-yard line. Trask's 2-yard score to Gamble pushed the Gators in front 31-10 with 2:55 to go in the third period. Vandy temporarily cut the lead back to 14, but Florida answered with a six-play, 99-yard touchdown drive to ice the game. Trask finished 26 of 35, with completions to nine different receivers and no interceptions, as UF rolled up 586 yards of total offense. With the three touchdown passes, he ran his season's total to 31 through seven games, which was one shy of Texas Tech's B.J. Symons' NCAA record of 32. Trask tied both Texas Tech's Graham Harrell (2007) and Tulsa's David Johnson (2007) for the second-most scoring throws after seven games. For Vandy, Seals completed 22 of 34 passes for 319 yards, two scores and one interception for a Vandy unit that totaled 406 yards.

WHAT IT MEANS: A fourth straight win and a step closer to clinching the program's first berth in the SEC Championship Game since 2016. The Gators maintained their one-game-plus lead over Georgia in the SEC East Division, with the "plus" being the all-important head-to-head tiebreaker edge, courtesy of UF's 44-28 defeat of the Bulldogs earlier this month. Florida can wrap up the East's title-game bid by winning two of its last three games, no matter what Georgia does.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: With superstar tight end Kyle Pitts sidelined for a second straight week since going into concussion protocol, Gamble stepped up with a trio of big plays. After snaring his second TD of the season late in the third quarter, Gamble added a 35-yard reception to get his team off their own 1-yard line, then five plays later had a 30-yard catch-and-run for a score on a pass from backup quarterback Emory Jones. Gamble had three catches for 66 yards and the two TDs.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: UF has scored at least 35 points in nine straight games, including seven consecutive SEC games. Those are both school records, which is pretty impressive given the numbers Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer put up back in the day.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask welcomed back Kyle Pitts by throwing the man-child tight end a trio of touchdown passes, but it was Kadarius Toney's 50-yard punt return just before halftime that turned momentum and awakened the sixth-ranked Gators for a run of 27 consecutive points Saturday on the way to beating the Wildcats at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, a Heisman Trophy front-runner, completed 21 of 27 attempts for 256 yards, no interceptions, and scoring tosses to Pitts of 56, 2 and 7 yards. Evan McPherson kicked a pair of field goals and the UF defense, after a shaky first half, forced three second-half turnovers and limited the Wildcats to just 46 total yards over the final two periods. The Gators, winners of five straight, actually trailed 10-7 late in the first half and had been virtually dominated as far as time of possession by a Wildcats' offense that was controlling the clock behind an effective running game that kept Trask off the field. But with just over a minute to go in the half, Kentucky was forced to punt from its end zone. Florida's return team retreated to the left side of the field, as if the ball was headed that way, with most of the the Kentucky coverage team following. The ball, though, was headed up the right side of the field, where Toney caught it basically unencumbered, then ran the play back for the TD that started the Florida scoring onslaught. Pitts, out the last two weeks after suffering a concussion and facial wound in the Nov. 7 win against Georgia, caught five passes for 99 yards. Offensively, the Gators were held to just 418 yards (more than 100 below their average), but the defense held the Wildcats, ranked last in the Southeastern Conference in total offense, to 221 yards, including just 62 through the air.

WHAT IT MEANS: Make that 33 wins in the last 34 meetings in the series, but of far greater significance was the Gators' nudging that much closer to their first SEC East Division title in four years. UF needs to win just one of its final two games to put a wrap on the title. Florida could lose both of its final two games and still get to Atlanta, if second-place Georgia, which takes on South Carolina later Saturday, loses one of its final two games, but the Gators have starry-eyed goals that go behind just a league championship and the only thing that can get them there is more victories.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Offensive players usually wind up in this space, but sophomore linebacker Mohamoud Diabate, the 6-foot-3, 221-pounder from Auburn, Ala., was spectacular in finishing the game with six tackles, including a half-sack, plus a third-quarter interception (and 14-yard return) that set up Pitts' third touchdown reception that basically put the game away.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Kentucky ran 41 plays (to Florida's 21) and possessed the ball for 23 minutes, 23 seconds (to UF's 6:37) in the first half and still trailed 14-10 at the break because of Toney's timely punt return. The numbers weren't nearly (or as as oddly) lopsided in the second half. UF ran 41 plays over 20:04 to UK's 16 and 9:56 on the way to outscoring the Cats 20-0 after the break.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask padded his Heisman Trophy resumé, passing for 433 yards and four touchdowns Saturday, but more importantly the sixth-ranked Gators clinched a spot in the Southeastern Conference Championship Game for the first time in four seasons by beating the Volunteers at Neyland Stadium. Trask, the fifth-year senior, basically put the game away by working for a pair of long touchdown drives (80 yards and 75 yards) bridging the first and second half to open a 17-point lead against an offensively challenged Tennessee team. Trask went on to complete 35 of 49 throws, with TDs of 4, 2, 17 and 12 yards to pull within one of 1996 Heisman winner Danny Wuerffel for the most touchdown passes in a single UF season (39). The Gators got an early field goal from sophomore Evan McPherson, then surrendered a 96-yard scoring drive to freshman quarterback Harrison Bailey, making his first career start, and trailed 7-3 until Trask found his rhythm. He was five of six for 64 yards, hitting senior wideout Trevon Grimes for his first of two touchdown catches, to start a run of 28 straight points that put the Gators in command. Trask found senior wingback Kadarius Toney with 33 seconds to go in the first half, then Grimes again just 1:29 into the second to open a 24-7 lead. He added a fourth TD to sophomore Jacob Copeland early in the fourth quarter to make it 31-7. UF finished with 452 yards of offense, with only 21 on the ground. UT had 334 yards for the game and eventually replaced Bailey, who went 14 of 21 for 111 yards and a score, with sophomore J.T. Shrout (12 of 21, 121 yards, 1 TD), who threw a scoring pass with 27 seconds to go. The loss was the Vols' sixth straight, with all of them by double digits.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators are headed to the conference championship game for the first time since 2016, but they don't have the 2020 SEC East Division all to themselves. Not yet, anyway. Georgia can still claim a share of the division title with a win next week and a loss by UF in its regular-season finale. That's a conversation for another time (one Florida's coaches, players and fans rather not have, of course), but in the interim all the team's goals (and dreams) appear to be alive. The Gators have won six in a row and put themselves in position for a shot at the College Football Playoff.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with Kyle again. And Kyle. That would be Trask and Kyle Pitts, the remarkable UF tight end, of course, who hooked up for seven receptions for 128 yards. On defense, junior linebacker Ventrell Miller had an excellent game, finishing with 12 tackles, including two for loss, with a sack and a pass breakup.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: No one is going to mistake this Florida team for one that is particularly good at running the ball (or likes to), but at halftime the Gators had one yard rushing against the No. 9 defense in the SEC at stopping the run. Part of that bad number was the two sacks Trask took (just the ninth and 10th of the season), but the Vols were surrendering 161.1 yards per game on the ground coming. Florida had 19 yards on 17 attempts, with Copeland gaining 17 on his only carry of the game on an end-around. The UF tailback stats looked like this: Dameon Pierce 5 carries, 5 yards; Nay'Quan Wright 4 carries, 2 yards; Malik Davis 2 carries, zero yards.

The Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Incredible efforts from redshirt senior quarterback Kyle Trask and senior Kadarius Toney were not enough on Saturday night for the Gators, who fell at Spurrier/Florida Field for the first time in their last 13 home games. After Florida's first drive of the game stalled deep in LSU (4-5) territory and ended on downs at the 1-yard line, a 24-yard scamper by redshirt junior running back Malik Davis put the Gators back inside the LSU 10-yard line. Trask lumbered into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown run and put the Gators ahead, 7-0. LSU promptly responded with an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive of its own and tied the game. The Tigers took the lead two possessions later, as Trask threw his first interception in his last 181 attempts and LSU's Eli Ricks returned it 68 yards for a touchdown and a 14-7 lead. It looked as though Florida would quickly even the score, with Trask hitting senior receiver Trevon Grimes for a 50-yard strike at the LSU 15. The ensuing play resulted in an unbelievably bizarre interception, as a wild pass from Trask along the sideline deflected off Toney's hand, an LSU defender's helmet, and into the hands of LSU's Jay Ward, who was on both knees along the sideline. Florida's defense forced a three-and-out, but the offense once again stalled in the red zone and settled for a 23-yard field goal by junior kicker Evan McPherson, making it 14-10. After forcing another three-and-out, Florida took the lead and went 66 yards – with 22 coming on a dazzling 22-yard catch and run by Toney – in less than three minutes to take a 17-14 lead on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Trask to redshirt sophomore receiver Jacob Copeland. LSU retook the lead just before halftime after a busted coverage resulted in a wide-open Kayshon Boutte and a 34-yard touchdown. As the Gators took over with 33 seconds left and tried for a late score, Trask was sacked and stripped. The turnover set up a 39-yard field goal by LSU, which put the Gators in a 24-17 hole. LSU added another field goal after taking its opening drive of the second half down to Florida's 1, only to see a holding penalty knock it off the goal line. The Gators book-ended an LSU three-and-out with a pair of touchdown drives. Trask set the first up with a 49-yard strike to Toney, then dove over the line and into the end zone for his second rushing score. The second touchdown drive saw Trask hit Copeland for 40 yards, Davis for 20, and then Toney on a screen pass from nine yards out which produced the quarterback's 40th passing touchdown of the season, breaking a 24-year-old school record. A nine-play, 84-yard touchdown drive put LSU back in front, 34-31, early in the fourth quarter, after which Florida's offense punted after three plays on consecutive possessions. As the fog thickened, Florida's offense found life and drove inside the LSU 10-yard line, but lost ground on an intentional grounding penalty. Florida settled for a game-tying field goal from McPherson. And after a key third down stop on LSU's ensuing drive, an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty gave the Tigers new life and set up Cade York's eventual game-winning field goal from 57 yards out. Taking over at his own 25-yard line with 23 seconds left, Trask connected with Grimes for 15 yards, then hit Toney for gains of 18 and nine yards to set McPherson up for a game-tying field goal attempt from 51 yards out. The kick sailed just left of the upright. Trask finished with 474 passing yards, matching his career-high total from the win over Georgia, which ranks second on the school's single-game record list. Florida finished with 609 total yards, its second-highest total of the season, but surrendered 418 yards to the Tigers.

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida was already assured itself a spot in the SEC Championship Game with its victory at Tennessee last Saturday, but the Gators' College Football Playoff hopes took a devastating blow, as a loss to an undermanned 4-5 LSU team will be impossible for the committee to overlook.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Toney blew away the career-high 108 receiving yards he had at Tennessee last week with nine catches for 182 yards (both career highs) and a touchdown. The senior also ran for 56 yards on three carries and had an 11-yard punt return to give him 249 all-purpose yards. Toney's 182 yards were five shy of the No. 10 spot on Florida's single-game record list, which is currently occupied by Wes Chandler (187 against North Carolina in 1976).

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Trask breaking Danny Wuerffel's school record for passing touchdowns in a season isn't astonishing because of the fact he actually broke the record. The way offenses are trending nationally, given how there are anywhere from 13, 14, or even 15 games in a season, and the fact postseason stats count toward records made it a matter of time before someone eclipsed Wuerffel's fabled record. Trask's breaking of the record is extraordinary because of the fact he only needed 10 games to do it. Even Wuerffel needed 12 to set the record of 39 back in 1996. There are only four quarterbacks in SEC history to throw 40 touchdown passes in a season, and all of them needed at least 13 games to reach their totals of 60 (Joe Burrow for LSU last year), 44 (Drew Lock for Missouri in 2017), 43 (Tua Tagovailoa for Alabama in 2018), and 40 (Andre Woodson for Kentucky in 2007), respectively. Even counting Wuerffel's three touchdowns from the 1997 Sugar Bowl rout of Florida State (bowl statistics were not counted in season records until 2002), Trask is still on his way to the most remarkable passing season in program history.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Tailback Najee Harris tallied 245 yards of all-purpose offense and scored five touchdowns, four in the first half, as the top-ranked Crimson Tide opened a fat lead at intermission and fended off a second-half Gators rally Saturday night to win the 2020 Southeastern Conference Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Harris rushed for 179 yards and two TDs and caught another five passes for 67 yards and three scores. Bama quarterback Mac Jones threw for a SEC title game record 418 yards and five TDs, hitting superstar wide receiver DeVonta Smith for 15 catches, 184 yards and two scores. The Brown/Harris/Smith trio keyed a Tide offensive onslaught that gashed the Gators for 605 yards. UF was led again by fifth-year senior quarterback Kyle Trask, who passed for 408 yards and three touchdowns, plus rushed for a score, but his unit (462 yards, only 54 on the ground) just could not keep pace with the Tide. Alabama took the opening kickoff and went 70 yards in seven plays and needed less than three minutes to do it. It was a harbinger of things to come. The Tide had six first-half possessions and scored touchdowns on five of them. The lone outlier? It came with the game tied at 7-all when UF defensive back Trey Dean III intercepted Jones on the Tide's second possession. At the end of a 17-yard return, Jones fumbled the ball back on a vicious blindside hit from by wideout from Bama wideout John Metchie. On the very next snap, Jones found Smith running wide open on a crossing route for a 31-yard touchdown and 14-7 lead. Harris, who opened the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run, caught TDs of 7, 23 and 17 yards from Jones, the last coming with six seconds to go before halftime, as the Tide went 78 yards in 54 seconds after the Gators seemingly grabbed some late-half momentum on a Trask TD run with 1:09 to go. The Tide led 35-17 at half-time, but Trask struck for a 50-yard touchdown pass to Trevon Grimes five plays into the third quarter and the UF defense came up with back-to-back stops -- the first on downs, the second forcing the Tide's first punt of the game with 5:22 remaining -- to further the comeback attempt. A 12-play, 80-yard drive was capped by a 3-yard scoring run by Nay'Quan Wright made it 35-31 with 18 seconds left in the third quarter. Harris, though, added his fifth touchdown on a 3-yard run, then on the ensuing series Trask was sacked by Will Anderson Jr., and fumbled the ball away. That set up a Tide field goal and 14-point lead with 9:53 remaining. The Gators, 17-point underdogs coming in, cut that margin in half when tailback Dameon Pierce scored on a 1-yard run with 6:33 left, leaving matters to the Florida defense. Alabama needed just four plays to go 66 yards, with Jones firing what seemed to be a 15-yard put-away TD to Smith with 4:59 left. Trask, though, hit tight end Kyle Pitts with a 22-yard score and added a two-point conversion run with 2:09 left to draw within six points. The Tide recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran all but the final 16 seconds off the clock. Trask finished 26-for-40 of and ran his season's touchdown-pass total to 43. Senior wingback Kadarius Toney caught eight passes for 153 yards and a score, while Pitts hauled in seven balls for 129 yards and the TD.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators were denied a ninth league title, while the Tide won their 28th. That's 15 more than the next-closest team (Georgia) in the SEC. Florida's second straight loss dropped it to 7-6 in all-time SEC title games, with a 4-6 mark against Bama, including 1-4 versus Coach Nick Saban, who will roll the Tide into the College Football Playoff next month.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Harris came into the game with 27 receptions on the season and zero touchdown catches. He grabbed three TD passes in the first half alone. With 1,263 yards rushing and 27 total touchdowns on the season, Harris certainly deserves to join his buddies, Jones and Smith, in the Heisman conversation. In fact, don't be surprised if Jones, Smith and Harris give the Tide three players among the top Heisman vote-getters. That would be a first since Ohio State did it in 1973, when Penn State's John Cappelletti won the award.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Of Alabama's 605 yards from scrimmage, Harris and Smith accounted for 420 of them. That's 69.4 percent of the offense, all of it keyed by Jones, of course.
