- In 2020, UF beat four SEC opponents by at least 20 points for the first time since 2008 (seven times).

Offensive Upticks Continued in Mullen's Second Act

- Florida recorded seven games of 500-plus total yards in Mullen's first two seasons. In 75 games from 2012-17, UF had six 500-yard outings.
- Florida recorded 14 games of 400-plus total yards in Mullen's first 26 games as head coach. In the program's 50 games from 2014-17, UF had 400-plus yards just 14 times.
- The Gators had eight games of 400-plus total yards in 2019, their most such games in a season since 2008 -- Mullen's final year as O.C. -- when they did it 10 times.

- UF scored 105 offensive touchdowns in Mullen's first 26 games. In the three seasons prior to his arrival (2015-17), the Gators scored 93 offensive touchdowns in 38 games.

Mullen Revived Florida's Offense in Debut Season

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86

Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

 Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.

- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inherting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine sesaons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.

DAN MULLEN - FLORIDA HEAD COACH

- Mississippi State produced 26 NFL Draft picks in Mullen's tenure, including a pair of first-rounders. From 1996 through 2008, MSU had 27 NFL Draft picks.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- MSU broke over 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

In Perspective: Mullen Takes Mississippi State to No. 1

- Mullen led Mississippi State to a 9-0 start in 2014, allowing the Bulldogs to secure the No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25 for a five-week stretch from Oct. 12 through Nov. 9.
- MSU held the No. 1 ranking until after a 25-20 loss at No. 4 Alabama on Nov. 15.
- Since 2001, only 16 FBS programs -- predominantly "blueblood" schools -- have been ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25. And 11 of those 16 were ranked No. 1 in the AP Top 25 at least five weeks: Alabama, Clemson, Florida, Florida State, LSU, Miami, Mississippi State, Oklahoma, Ohio State, Oregon, and Southern California.
- Since 2013, only six FBS programs have been the No. 1 team in the AP Top 25.

Program	Weeks at No. 1
Alabama	73

Florida State	12

LSU	8
Mississippi State	5

In Perspective: Mullen as Florida's O.C.

- During Mullen's four seasons as the Gators offensive coordinator (2005-08), UF ranked 3rd in passer rating (155.9), 8th in scoring offense (36.3), 15th in total offense (418.9), 21st in rushing offense (185.6), 39th in passing offense (233.2).
- Coordinated an offense that ranked 4th nationally in points per game (43.6-also fourth in school history) and 15th in yards per game (445.1), eventually helping the Gators win the 2009 BCS National Championship Game.
- Coordinated a Gators offense that scored 41 points to rout Ohio State--which had the nation's top scoring defense--in the 2007 BCS National Champ. Game.
- Coordinated the 2007 offense to 457.2 total yards per game -- 8th in UF history.
- Helped Chad Jackson garner Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after he set UF's single-season record with 88 receptions in 2005. Jackson led the SEC and ranked 6th nationally in receptions.
- Also in 2005, center Mike Degory was named a Rimington Trophy finalist.

In Perspective: Mullen's Quarterbacks Track Record

- In 2002 at Bowling Green, Mullen helped Josh Harris account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (41) among FBS players and 3,213 total yards.
- In 2004 at Utah, Mullen helped Alex Smith account for the second-most total touchdowns (42) among FBS players, and amass 3,604 total yards.
- Smith finished fourth in the 2004 Heisman Trophy voting and was the No. 1 pick in 2005 NFL Draft.
- In 2007, Mullen helped Tim Tebow account for the 2nd-most total touchdowns (55 -- an SEC record) among FBS players, and amass 4,181 total yards.
- Tebow was the first quarterback in FBS history to pass for 20+ touchdowns and rush for 20+ touchdowns in a season (2007), and his 2007 season remains the - only one in history of more than 30 passing and 20 rushing touchdowns.

- Tebow won the Heisman Trophy in 2007 (first-ever underclassman winner).
- Tebow's numbers dipped slightly in 2008, but he still ranked 7th nationally in total touchdowns (42) and accounted for 3,419 total yards.
- In 2014, Mullen helped Dak Prescott finish tied for fifth nationally in total touchdowns (42) in 2014, in addition to totaling 4,470 yards (3,449 pass / 986 rush / 35 receiving).
- Prescott was eighth in the Heisman voting and a Maxwell Award finalist in 2014.
- Prescott's rushing production dipped in 2015, but he increased his passing production and finished the season ranked 15th nationally in passing yards (3,793).
   He also ranked 11th nationally with 39 total touchdowns.
- In 2016, Mullen helped first-year starter Nick Fitzgerald, a redshirt sophomore, tie for 14th nationally with 37 total touchdowns. Fitzgerald also ran for 1,375 yards--ranking 3rd among FBS quarterbacks.
- In 2017, Fitzgerald accounted for 2,766 yards (1,782 passing, 984 rushing) and 29 touchdowns (15 passing, 14 rushing) despite missing nearly all of the Egg Bowl and Mississippi State's bowl game due to a gruesome ankle injury.
- Much of Florida's offensive success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks' turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title. Franks threw nine touchdowns and eight interceptions, and ranked 99th nationally with a 113.31 passer rating in 2017.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: The first packed house at Spurrier/Florida Field in more than 21 months probably left the fans wanting more from the home team's new-look offense, but they settled for a 35-14 victory over Florida Atlantic and a long-awaited night of college-football atmosphere with a crowd of 86,840 celebrating the return of the "Swamp." Quarterback Emory Jones, in his first career start (and tasked with replacing 2020 Heisman Trophy finalist Kyle Trask), accounted for 187 yards of offense and passed for a touchdown. Senior tailback Malik Davis rushed for 102 yards and a score, while classmate Dameon Pierce ran for a couple TDs, as the 13thranked Gators took care of the Owls on a pretty September football night. Jones, the fourth-year junior from LaGrange, Ga., completed 17 of 27 passes for 113 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions (one coming in the end zone), while rushing 10 times for 74 yards. Redshirt freshman backup Anthony Richardson figures to be a topic of conversation this week, after relieving Jones and leading the Gators on two fourth-quarter touchdown drives, the second coming on his electrifying 73-yard run. Richardson, who ducked in for two series in the first half, completed all three of his seven passes for 40 yards and rushed seven times for 160 yards (all but 28 in the second half). He looked really good, but this was Jones' game all the way, though, and he'll come away from it knowing he and the Florida passing game have a lot of work to do after leading the nation in throwing the ball last season at 378.6 yards per game. Defensively, Florida gave up 351 yards and 23 first downs, but forced a pair of turnovers on the way to flirting with the unit's first shutout since 2019 -- and a year after finishing 89th nationally and allowing 30.8 points per game. UF scored on its first possession, with Jones leading an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with Pierce scoring on a 2-yard run. A 9-yard Jones-to-Rick Wells scoring toss gave the Gators a two-touchdown cushion in the first period. Pierce added a 3-yard score in the fourth period and Davis dove over for a 1-yard TD midway through the fourth quarter. The Owls staved off a shutout with an eight-play, 67-yard drive ended with a 2-yard scoring run by Johnny Ford. Florida Atlantic quarterback N'Kosi Perry completed 19 of his 33 passes for 261 yards, with his lone TD passing coming with 1:37 left in the game.

WHAT IT MEANS: Florida had a school-record string of 27 consecutive season-opening victories snapped in 2017 when the Gators fell to Michigan 33-17 in Arlington, Texas. They've now won four straight openers, all under Coach Dan Mullen, with the victory over the Owls the first season-opening home win since 2018. UF kicked off the last two seasons away from home, beating Miami 24-20 at Orlando in 2019 and Ole Miss on the road in 2020. The Gators have won 32 straight home openers, dating to 1990.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The easy and obvious pick would be Jones vs. Richardson, but Davis had a nice game running the football. Good for him. Davis took a lot of heat (too much, actually) last year for his late fumble at Texas A&M, so to start his fifth-year senior season and answer the call (with runs of 31, 17 and 21 yards in the first half). Davis, with the second 100-yard game of his career, became the first UF back to hit triple-digit rushing in a season opener since Matt Jones had 114 in 2014. On defense, linebacker Jeremiah Moon became the first player in school history to play in six different seasons (2017-22). Moon, who has struggled to stay healthy over his career, was a pass-rushing presence in finishing with six tackles (five in the first half) and a QB hurry.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The communications staff will be sifting through the records this week to find the last time a Florida offense had nearly three time as many rushing yards (400) as passing yards (153) in a game.

UP NEXT: The Gators (1-0) will play a rare nonconference road game (against an opponent other than Florida State) when they travel to Tampa to face South Florida (0-1) at Raymond James Stadium. The Bulls, out of the American Athletic Conference, opened the 2021 season Thursday by getting drilled 45-0 at North Carolina State. The game will mark UF's first regular-season game in Tampa since beating Mississippi State 21 there on Sept. 30, 1989, although the Gators have played in Tampa five times since in the Outback Bowl.

WHAT HAPPENED: Dueling quarterbacks Emory Jones and Anthony Richardson accounted for 500 yards and five touchdowns Saturday, as the 13th-ranked Gators used a first-half QB stampede to overwhelm the host Bulls Saturday at Raymond James Stadium. Jones, the fourth-year junior and starter through two games, completed 14 of 22 passes for 156 yards and one touchdown, but also had a pair of second-half interceptions and failed to score after a first-and-goal from the USF 7 early in the fourth quarter. Richardson, the fab redshirt freshman, had the better allaround afternoon, adding another 152 yards and two scores through the air (on just three attempts, all completions), including bombs of 75 and 41 in the first half to help the Gators cruise to a 35-3 lead at intermission, thanks to TDs on five consecutive possessions, and a total-yards advantage of 373-128 through the two periods. The only UF scoring drive of the second half was an 80-yard touchdown run by ... wait for it ... Richardson, who a week ago had a 73-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Florida Atlantic. When the final gun sounded, UF had out-gained USF 666 yards to 283 in what was the Gators' first in-state road game against an opponent other than Florida State or Miami since coming here to play the University of Tampa in 1945. Jones had a 35-yard TD throw to sophomore Xzavier Henderson as well as 11 rushes for 82 yards, including a 33-yard run on an option keeper in the first half. Unfortunately, he also threw those two third-quarter picks that set up the Bulls for 10 points in the period. Richardson fired a 75-yard touchdown to Jacob Copeland on his first snap of the game and later in the second quarter faked a run and dropped to hoist a 41-yard touchdown to Copeland, who caught just one pass for 15 yards last week. He found Copeland again for a 36-yard completion to the USF 7 early in the fourth period, but by-rule had to leave the game after the play because his helmet came off. With Jones back in, the Gators failed to score on the drive. The next Florida score came on Richardson's 80-yard keeper with 10:29 to go in the game. He with four carries for 115 yards and a score before leaving the game after his TD run with what appeared to be a hamstring strain or cramp. Defensively, the Gators gave up some plays here and there, but it was a better showing than a week ago (when FAU tallied 386 yards and a couple TDs). For what it's worth, South Florida outscored Florida 17-7 after intermission.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators have won their first two games for the third straight season, including one on the road, but now turn their focus to college football's ultimate litmus test next week. Florida Atlantic or USF aren't walking through that door, people. Read on (as if you need to).

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: You just know that every Gator fan leaving RJS was weighing in on the Jones vs. Richardson debate. The statistics and big plays speak for themselves, but it only matters what Coach Dan Mullen has to say.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Two weeks into the 2021 campaign, Florida is averaging 359.0 rushing yards per game. We'll see where that number stands after next week. Jammed in those numbers, Richardson has rushed 11 times for 275 yards, which converts to an average of 25.0 per carry.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: The Gators spotted the top-ranked Crimson Tide three first-quarter touchdowns and an early 18-point lead, then ran out of time during a furious comeback against the reigning national champions Saturday before nearly 91,000 at Spurrier-Florida Field. Bama sophomore quarterback Bryce Young passed for 233 yards and three touchdowns, while tailback Brian Robinson Jr. had a touchdown catch and run, the latter coming late in the third period and proving to be the difference on the scoreboard. For UF, the game fell to fourth-year junior quarterback Emory Jones and only Jones, as fab freshman backup Anthony Richardson, the Southeastern Conference's rushing leader coming in, was ruled out before the game due to a hamstring he pulled on his 80-yard touchdown run in last week's win at South Florida. Jones had an early interception to set up a Bama touchdown, but was up to the task on his way to completing 17 of 27 attempts for 181 yards, plus another 80 rushing yards and a score and leading three consecutive second-half touchdown drives. Young, in his first collegiate start in a true road environment, was unfazed by the deafening din of the "Swamp" and completed 22 of 35 passes, with all three of his TD throws coming in the first quarter on the way to a 21-3 lead. Young had TD tosses of 7, 26 and 7 yards, while UF managed just a 25-yard field goal on its first three series. A 26-yard touchdown run by UF tailback Malik Davis put the Gators in the end zone for the first time, although Chris Howard's point-after attempt was missed, leaving the score 21-9. It would matter. That's where it stood going into the third quarter when the two teams swapped scoring drives, with the Gators tallying a pair of touchdowns, the first on a 3-yard run by Dameon Pierce and the second on a 5-yarder from Jones that that capping a monumental 99-yard drive after a botched kickoff return. In between, Alabama had a 75-yard drive that ended with fourth-down run of three yards by Robinson. The Tide led 28-23 heading into fourth quarter, and upped the lead to eight points with a Will Reichard field goal of 24 yards after the UF defense bowed up on the goal line, keeping the margin at a one-possession game. Jones answer magnificently, moving his team 75 yards in 11 plays in 3:11, hitting a pair of third-down conversion passes, before Pierce sped off the left side for a 17yard touchdown that made the score 31-29 with 3:10 remaining. UF, smarting from the failed PAT in the second quarter, had to go for two and Davis was stuffed. Bama got one first down before punting the ball away with 10 seconds left. Not enough time (and too far to go) for the Gators.

WHAT IT MEANS: With the loss the Gators already are down a game in the SEC East Division standings, but history has taught Florida fans that defeats against West Division opponents definitely can be overcome. UF's job now is to stay in the picture, take care of business, and be in the hunt for the East when the annual Georgia game

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Fans would say Richardson, who didn't even play, but what about that Florida ground game? UF, remember, came into the game leading the nation in rushing yards per game at 381.5, and outgained Alabama 258-91. Of the Gators' 439 yards of total offense (more than a hundred over the Tide's 324), 73.8 percent came on the ground. For Florida, especially when Richardson returns, that's likely the way the offense will go.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Florida went 59-for-59 on extra points last season, mostly courtesy of Evan McPherson, now with the Cincinnati Bengals. Howard made all seven of his attempts in 2020 and was 9-for-9 in '21.

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Emory Jones passed for 209 yards and a pair of touchdowns and also rushed for a career-high 144 yards, as the 11th-ranked Gators shook off a shaky first half and put away the visiting Volunteers in the second half for a 38-14 Southeastern Conference East Division win Saturday night at Spurrier/ Florida Field. With backup sophomore quarterback and team rushing leader Anthony Richardson again held out of the game to further heal his hamstring injury, Jones completed 21 of his 27 throws with touchdown passes of four yards to Malik Davis on the game's opening drive and nine to Rick Wells late in the third quarter to open up a 17-point lead. On the way, Jones become the first Florida quarterback to throw for 200 yards and rush for 100 in a game since Tim Tebow did it against Florida International in 2009. UF racked up 505 yards of offense, including 283 on the ground, and converted nine of 14 third-down opportunities to beat its SEC East rival for the 16th time in 17 meetings. Tennessee totaled 423 yards, with 221 passing and two touchdowns from senior Hendon Hooker. The Volunteers twice fell behind in the first half, but both times got even or better, tying the game at 7-all on a 47-yard screen pass from Hooker to Tiyon Evans and then on a 75-yard touchdown bomb to JaVonta Payton that gave the visitors a 14-10 lead. UF went back up on the next possession behind Nay'Quan Wright's 23-yard scoring run for a 17-14 lead and had a chance for more late in the half, but wideout Jacob Copeland fumbled at the UT 15 after making a first-down catch. The Gators, though, took the second half kickoff and scored in five plays, with Trent Whittemore catching a lateral and pitching a 13-yard touchdown off the double pass to tight end Kemore Gamble to go up 24-14. After the UF defense turned a promising UT drive away on downs, Jones accounted for all but 16 yards on an eight-play, 70-yard drive that ended with him rolling right and finding Wells for the three-score cushion, at 31-14, with 2:04 to go in the third period. Davis's 9-yard run with 1:39 remaining capped the scoring and gave the home team 28 unanswered points. Tennessee came into the game leading the SEC in run defense (fifth nationally), having allowed just 158 yards (just 52.7 per game) through its first three games. The Vols also were averaging 42.7 points per game.

WHAT IT MEANS: Despite the loss to Alabama last week, all the Gators' preseason goals are still out there, as long as they take care of business in the SEC East. Beating the Vols (and further extending their mastery of UT in the series) was the first step. The next one comes next weekend (read on).

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Jones had the best game of his career in last week's 31-29 loss to No. 1-ranked Alabama. He was better this outing. Anytime you're doing things only Tebow did, well, you're doing something right.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: That's four straight games the Gators have surpassed 200 yards rushing. The last time UF did that was the final four games of the 2018 season against South Carolina (367), Idaho (201), at Florida State (282) and versus Michigan (257) in the Peach Bowl. The last time UF opened a season with at least 200 yards on the ground in the first four games was in 2009, Tebow's final season: Charleston Southern (369), Troy (291), Tennessee (208) and at Kentucky (362). UF's fewest rushing yards this season were the 246 they put up last week against Bama, which also the most surrendered by the Crimson Tide in seven years.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: UK linebacker Trevin Wallace returned a blocked field goal 76 yards for the go-ahead score in the third quarter, tailback Chris Rodriguez Jr. had a 9-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run, and the Wildcats, backed by a wild and crazy Kroger Field crowd, upset the 10th-ranked Gators 20-13 Saturday night. Kentucky beat Florida for just the second time in 34 years (and for the first time in Lexington since 1986) despite just 211 yards of total offense. That's because the Gators aided the home team's cause with 15 penalties and a fourth-quarter interception by Emory Jones that led to the Rodriguez touchdown. Even so, UF had a chance to tie the game and force overtime after driving to the UK 5 with a first down inside a minute remaining. But a 4-yard loss on a pass play was followed by a false-start penalty, turning first-and-goal at the 5 into second-and-goal at the 14 with 31 seconds left. On fourth-and-goal from the 8, Jones' pass into the end zone fell incomplete and moments later the field was a sea of Big Blue as police let the fans empty onto the field to celebrate. Jones finished 23 of 31 for 203 yards, one touchdown and the one interception. Offensively, the Gators finished with 382 yards of total offense, including a season-low 171 on the ground. Even the return of backup quarterback Anthony Richardson couldn't help the UF cause. Richardson completed his only pass attempt for eight yards and rushed five times for 25. UK guarterback Will Levis completed just six of 15 passes for 74 yards a touchdown, while Rodriguez, the SEC's rushing leader coming in, carried 19 times for 99 yards and the put-away score. Florida led 10-7 midway into the third quarter and had a great chance to add to the lead after an interception by Tre'Vez Johnson set the Gators up with a first down at the UK 31. The drive, however, went nowhere and Jace Christmann's 48-yard field goal was blocked by defensive lineman Josh Paschal and taken the distance by Wallace to flip the scoreboard in Kentucky's favor at 13-10 (the point-after was blocked). On the Gators' ensuing possession, Jones tried to force a pass to tight end Kemore Gamble, who was double covered. The ball was intercepted by linebacker J.J. Weaver, who returned the play 20 yards to the UF 29. Four plays later, Rodriguez broke free and untouched off the right side for a 9-yard touchdown run and 10-point UK lead with 11:32 to play. A 33-yard field goal by Christmann made it a one-possession game with 6:23 left and set up the frantic final seconds.

WHAT IT MEANS: With the loss, UF tumbled to fifth place in the SEC East Division standings, two games behind No. 2 Georgia, which looked positively dominant in shutting out No. 8 Arkansas 37-0 at home earlier in the day, and two behind Kentucky, which will enter the Associated Press Top 25 next week. In losing to the Wildcats for the second time in four seasons (and just the second time since 1987), the Gators will be down a head-to-head tiebreaker against UK, for whatever that's worth.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Wildcats. They're 5-0 and tied with Georgia for first place in the SEC East. A really, really big night in the Bluegrass State. That's a rarity during football season

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Fifteen Florida penalties for 115 yards, including eight false-start calls. Way too many miscues in a close road game when field position was paramount. Kentucky was flagged four times for 30 yards. UF's penalty yardage equaled more than half of the actual yardage gained by UK's offense. The 13 points equaled the fewest scored by the Gators in Coach Dan Mullen's four seasons.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Emory Jones threw a career-high four touchdown passes, tailback Dameon Pierce found the end zone three times, and the 20thranked Gators made homecoming bait out of the Commodores in Saturday's game at Spurrier/Florida Field. Jones, the fourth-year junior, completed 14 of 22 passes for 273 yards, including touchdown tosses of five and nine yards in the first, then 61 and 25 to start the second half and kick in the blowout. Pierce, the senior, had a pair of 1-yard scoring runs, but in between was on the receiving end of that 61-yard bomb from Jones. The Gators, looking to bounce back from last week's crushing defeat at Kentucky, scored on the first two drives of the game, but had their momentum stalled for a spell when backup quarterback Anthony Richardson had a turnover and a threeand-out on his scheduled possessions. UF got back on the board with just under four minutes to go in the first half, with Jones rolling left and finding Trent Whittemore for a score and 21-0 lead. The Gators needed barely six minutes of the second half to double that margin on three quick-strike TD drives. A tipped-ball interception by Jones midway through the third guarter set up Vandy at the UF 30 and looked to doom the Gators' quest for a shutout, but Vandy kicker Joseph Bulovas, who missed two field goals in the first half, was wide left for a third time and UF finished the goose egg, the program's first since beating Vanderbilt 56-0 in 2019. Florida finished with 479 yards of total offense, including 181 rushing (the second week in a row with less than 200). Vanderbilt managed just 287 yards, with minus-11 rushing yards in the second half. The Commodores came in ready to throw the football, with quarterback Ken Seals attempting 43 passes before giving way to his backup. Seals completed 22 for 192 yards and two interceptions.

WHAT IT MEANS: Make that eight straight wins over the Commodores, as well as 30 of the last 31 in the series, dating to 1989. The victory kept the Gators in their middling spot in the SEC East Division standings, where they've not only lost control of their destiny but must rely on not one but two teams (Georgia and Kentucky) to collapse.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Clearly, UF coach Dan Mullen wanted Jones to get in a rhythm and stay in it, opting to keep his starter in the game (as opposed to letting Richardson finish up) after going up 42-0. Jones had a career-best afternoon. As for Richardson, he got the last two offensive series, behind the backup offensive line, and finished 4 of 6 passing for 25 yards, plus five rushing attempts for 11 yards. Free safety Rashad Torrence II had a game- and career-high 15 tackles, including 1.5 for loss. He was all over edges, finishing Vandy plays. And let's give a shoutout to Pierce, who came into this season with 12 career touchdowns and now has eight in 2021.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Vanderbilt ran 80 plays for the game, compared to Florida's 62. At halftime, that discrepancy was 49-31, and the Commodores had just 15 fewer yards of total offense (215 to 200) than the Gators. Go figure.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Tailback Tyrion Davis-Price rushed 36 times for 287 yards, setting a single-game record by both a LSU runner and UF opponent, as the unranked Tigers spoiled a stirring comeback fueled by Florida backup quarterback Anthony Richardson with a 49-42 upset in a Saturday shootout at Tiger Stadium. Davis-Price did the dirty work for the Tigers on a 10-play, 68-yard drive that ended with Max Johnson throwing a 1-yard touchdown pass to Jaray Jenkins with 3:30 remaining to give LSU, a 10-point underdog, its seven-point lead. Richardson, who replaced UF starter Emory Jones and led four second-half touchdown drives (either throwing or rushing for all of them), managed one first down, but then tried to force a deep ball to wideout Rick Wells up the left sideline. Linebacker David Clark was running stride for stride with Wells and easily intercepted the pass with 1:59 remaining. The Tigers (i.e. Davis-Price) ran out the clock from there. Richardson finished 10 of 19 passing for 167 yards, three touchdowns and two interception, compared to Jones' afternoon of going 12-for-19 for 161 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Johnson passed for 133 yards and three scores for LSU, but spent most of the day handing off to Davis-Price, who scored touchdowns of 18, 25 and 40 yards, repeatedly gashing the Gators between the tackles. When he was done, Davis-Price had broken the LSU single-game mark of 285 yards set by Derrius Guice in 2016, as well as the 238 yards against the Gators by Herschel Walker in 1980. The Gators trailed 28-13 early in the third quarter after Dwight McGlothern returned a Jones interception 37 yards for a touchdown on just the third play of the period. In came Richardson, who in two first-half possessions, produced just one first down and threw a pick. This time was different. Richardson led his offense to third-quarter touchdown drives of 75, 75 and 65 yards, with his 11-yard strike to tailback Dameon Pierce tying the score at 35 with 2:48 to go in the quarter. LSU went back ahead on Davis-Price's 25-yard touchdown run two plays into the final period. Richardson was shaken after being sacked and had to leave the game for a few plays, but returned to convert a fourth-and-4 completion, then on third-and-10 from the LSU 33 fired a frozen rope touchdown to Jacob Copeland in the back-right corner of the end zone to tie the game with 9:14 left. Johnson, Davis-Price and the LSU offense took it home from there. The Gators finished with 488 yards of total offenses and did not commit a penalty the entire game, but killed themselves with the four interceptions. The Tigers, who came in ranked 81st in the nation (11th in the Southeastern Conference) and 62nd in scoring, had 454 yards of offense and zero turnovers. There's the game, right there.

WHAT IT MEANS: Make that three straight losses to the Tigers. And speaking of three losses, it's the most for the Gators through seven games since the 2017 season, which was the last of the less-than-three-season Jim McElwain era. That '17 team, like this one, started 3-1, but was 3-4 through seven games.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Take a wild guess.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: And this one truly is staggering. LSU came into the game with a rushing attack that ranked next-to-last in the league and 127th nationally (out of 130 teams) at just 83.3 yards per game. They worked the Gators for 341 yards. Just as wild? Davis-Price came into the game 67 carries for 288 yards and two touchdowns on the season.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: The top-ranked Bulldogs turned three Anthony Richardson turnovers late in the second quarter into three quick-strike touchdowns to open a fat first-half lead that eventually became a 34-7 blowout of the Gators in their rivalry renewal Saturday at TIAA Bank Field in Jacksonville. Richardson looked very much like a redshirt freshman making his first collegiate start against the nation's No. 1-rated defense. He fumbled and threw a pair of interceptions over the final 2:22 of the first half, with the second pick returned by linebacker Nakobe Dean for a 50-yard touchdown with only seven seconds to go in the first half to put the Bulldogs up 24-0. UGA quarterback Stetson Bennett completed 10 of 19 passes for 161 yards, one score and a couple interceptions. The Bulldogs only had 354 yards of total offense (UF had 355), but didn't need anymore because the flurry of turnovers each set up the offense in prime field position. Richardson finished 12 of 20 for 82 yards and the two picks before giving way to Emory Jones, who started the season's first seven games. Jones went 10-for-14 for 112 yards and a two-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to avert the shutout. The Bulldogs got a 21-yard field goal from Jack Podlesny with just under nine minutes to go in the first half to open the scoring, then opened their arms and accepted the run of Florida miscues. The first came when Richardson, fighting for extra yards on a QB keeper, was stripped of the ball by defensive end Nolan Smith at the Florida 11. Tailback James Cook scored on an 11-yard run with 2:16 to go on the next snap. Back came the Gators, with Richardson throwing a tipped-ball interception on first down. Back back came the Bulldogs, with Bennett throwing a 36vard touchdowns strike to Kearis Jackson on first down. UF's next series ended with Dean's pick-6 that basically ended the game, as UF was not going to come from that far down against that UGA defense.

WHAT IT MEANS: The fourth loss loss to Georgia in the last five meetings doubled as another loss to a No. 1-ranked team, the second for the Gators this season, coupling with the Alabama loss on Sept. 18. Florida is now 3-13 all-time against teams ranked atop the Associated Press poll. UF is two games under .500 in SEC play for the first time since 2017, although it took two coaches (Jim McElwain, then interim Randy Shannon) and the final game of the conference season, a 28-20 loss at South Carolina, to get there that season.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The Florida quarterbacks, of course. And now the kickers, too. Who will get the nod next game?

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators came in ranked 113th in the nation in turnover margin at minus-7. They exited at minus-7, but those three more giveaways became 21 instant points for Georgia. Florida has now turned it over 16 times this season, leading to nine opponent touchdowns and 66 points. Where would they be if those numbers were halved? Even quartered?

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: A former FCS quarterback making his first career start and an offense that had been struggling all season came together Saturday night at the Gators' expense, with the Gamecocks jumping to a 20-point halftime lead and finishing off a 40-17 victory at Williams-Brice Stadium. Jason Brown, a graduate-transfer from St. Francis (Pa.) elevated from third-string due to QB injuries, threw for 175 yards and two scores, Parker White kicked four field goals and the South Carolina defense returned an Emory Jones fumble 19 yards for a touchdown, as USC, which had won just one of its previous 11 games against Southeastern Conference opponents, handed Florida a third straight loss. The Gamecocks, an 18-point underdog with an offense ranked 115th in the country, scored on all five of its offensive possessions in the first half and did not punt until the 12:25 mark of the third quarter. USC went on to roll up 459 yards of total offense, compared to just 340 for the Gators, and did not turn the ball over. The tailback tandem of Zaquandre Wright (128) and Kevin Harris (111) accounted for 239 of South Carolina's season-best 284 rushing yards, as the Gamecocks averaged 6.8 per carry. Jones, back in the starting role after redshirt freshman Anthony Richardson suffered a concussion in the loss to top-ranked Georgia last week, finished 17 of 30 for 258 yards and a couple scores, but the turnover bug that had torpedoed the Gators all season (and wrecked Richardson's starting debut a week ago) reared itself with the killer scoop-fumble by defensive lineman Jabari Ellis with just 46 seconds to go before intermission. Jones also had a second-half interception. Before that, Brown threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Josh Vann, wildcat QB Juju McDowell had short rushing TD and White nailed field goals of 35, 39 and 35 all before the break to turn a game tied at 10-all into a Gamecocks lead of 30-10 at intermission en route to 30 unanswered points for the home team. White added a field goal and Brown a TD pass in the third quarter, stretching the lead to 40-10. Jones threw a 9-yard TD pass to Rick Wells early in the fourth quarter to cap the scoring

WHAT IT MEANS: A third straight defeat matches the longest under Coach Dan Mullen, whose team dropped the final three of the 2020 season, and marks the first time the program has lost three consecutive SEC road games since the 2017 season under Jim McElwain and interim Randy Shannon. UF dropped to fifth place in the SEC East Division, with fourth the best the team can finish this season. The 23-point margin of defeat was the largest in any of the the Gators' 10 losses (of their 42 meetings) against the Gamecocks. USC's 40 points were the most ever scored in the series that dates to 1911.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: It'll be up to Mullen to keep this team together after what only a month ago would have seemed an unfathomable turn of events.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gamecocks came into the game averaging just 117.2 yards on the ground. That ranked 12th in the SEC and and 106th in the country. They had 147 yards rushing at halftime. South Carolina also came in giving up 168.9 yards rushing per game, which ranked ranked 11th in the league and 87th nationally. UF, which began the day as the sixth-best rushing attempt in the country at 242.6 yards per game, went to the break with 18 rushing yards on 10 attempts, with 14 of them coming on one play. With a 20-point deficit, the running game basically was out the window. Florida finished with 82 yards on 23 carries.

STEVE SPURRIER - FLORIDA

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live." Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tenative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."

- Since 1990, Florida has outscored opponents 7,509 to 3,131 in 199 games inside The Swamp, putting the average outcome at 37.7 to 15.7 (22.0 points).
- The Gators had two significant win streaks in The Swamp in the 1990s: a 23game run from 1990-93, and a school-record 30-game streak from 1994-99.
- In 198 home games from 1990 through today, the Gators have...

Scored 50+ points.....51 times Scored 40+ points.....85 times Scored 30+ points......134 times Shut Out Opponents......17 times Allowed 3 points or less......32 times Allowed 14 points or less......109 times

- Florida's school-record crowd of 90,916 on Nov. 28, 2015 marked the largest crowd ever to watch a football game in the state of Florida. The state has hosted 16 Super Bowls, four BCS National Championship Games and the 2017 and 2021 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.
- The largest crowd for a home opener was 90,707 (Sept. 3, 2005 Wyoming). The 2009 opener (90,621) remains the second-largest.
