STORY LINES

NOTING WEEK 6

- University of Missouri football will travel for its first Southeastern Conference road game at Florida on Saturday, Oct. 8.
- Saturday's game marks the 12th meeting between the Tigers and the Gators. Mizzou leads the series, 6-5, winning the 2021 contest in OT. The Tigers last won in Gainesville in 2018 (MU, 38-17).

LAST TIME OUT: MIZZOU

- Mizzou had the college football world and the top-ranked and defending national champion Georgia Bulldogs on upset alert for much of the game Saturday, but Georgia wriggled off the hook in the second half and prevailed for a 26-22 victory.
- The Tigers started fast and held a 16-6 halftime lead, but the 'Dawgs regained their footing and scored on their first four possessions of the second half. Mizzou's defense held Georgia out of the end zone until 9:39 left in the game, when Kendall Milton plunged in from the one-yard line to draw Georgia to within 22-19.
- Missouri's defense set the early tone, limiting Georgia to just nine plays in the first quarter, and forcing two first-half fumbles. It was the first time Georgia had failed to score on its first possession this season.
- The Tigers jumped out to a 13-0 lead with Harrison Mevis kicking 41- and 49-yard field goals wrapped around an 81-yard touchdown drive on which Cook hit a wide-open Tyler Stephens with a 10-yard TD pass.
- Georgia got on the board with a 40-yard field goal from Jack Podlesny with 6:36 remaining before halftime, but when Missouri got the ball back, Cody Schrader broke free up the middle and sprinted 63 yards down the field before Georgia's Malaki Starks got him to the ground inside the one-yard line.
- Mizzou held a 194-182 advantage at the half in total offensive yardage, and the Tiger defenders had harassed Georgia QB Stetson Bennett into 10-of-24 passing. Mevis kicked field goals of 52 and 56 yards in the second half, and Podlesny added another of 29 yards.
- Missouri defenders had nine tackles for loss, two sacks, seven quarterback hurries, six passes broken up and one forced fumble. Jaylon Carlies was the top tackler with 13 (11 solo) and Joseph Charleston had 10.

LAST TIME OUT: FLORIDA

- Anthony Richardson threw a 75-yard touchdown pass on Florida's first offensive play. In the second quarter, the Gators' quarterback slow-jogged off the field after appearing to suffer some kind of lower-body injury. Six plays later, though, Richardson was back in the game and moving his team into the end zone, part of a run of a half-hundred-plus consecutive points and easy win over Eastern Washington for the home team.
- Richardson completed 8-of-10 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. His one rushing attempt went for 45 yards. The sophomore from Gainesville was sidelined for five plays in the second quarter, giving way to backup Jalen Kitna, who went 8 of 12 for 152 yards and a 62-yard score to true freshman Caleb Douglas in the third quarter. Together, they helped the Gators score 52 unanswered points and churn out 666 yards, equaling the seventh-most in program history, while winning a 15th consecutive regular-season game out of Southeastern Conference play, a streak that dates to the 2018 season opener.
- Justin Shorter was on the receiving end of the first UF scoring play. The Gators scored on a couple short runs by tailbacks Montrell Johnson Jr. and Nay'Quan Wright, while wideout Ricky Pearsall had a 76-yard touchdown run on an end-around play. Wideout Xzavier Henderson caught a 21-yard TD pass from Richardson that had the Gators coasting 35-3 at halftime. The score was 52-3, with Florida having banked the bulk of those 666 yards (392 passing, 274 rushing), with 17 different skill-position players touching the football along the way.
- EWU took the opening kickoff and went 49 yards in 13 plays, converting a pair of third downs, before settling for a 44-yard field goal from Seth Harrison to take a 3-0 lead almost seven minutes in. Eleven seconds later, the Eagles trailed. For good, as it turned out.

 • Against ACU, he nailed a 52 yarder in the fourth quarter vs. ACU, the seventh 50-yard field goal of his career. He surpassed Tom Whelihan (1984-87) for sole possession of the top spot on Mizzou's all-time career 50-yard field goals list. Mevis has made 50 field goals in his career, good for fifth all-time.

 • He totals 460 receiving yards, 92.0 receiving yards per game and 27 total receptions - all SEC-leading marks.
 • At Auburn, Dominic Lovett racked up 102 receiving yards on the Auburn defense. He is the first Mizzou player to have consecutive 100-yard receiving performances since Emanuel Hall in the first two games of 2018.
 • Against Abilene Christian, Lovett hauled in his first career receiving touchdown on a 79-yard dot from Brady Cook, MU's longest play from scrimmage since Drew Lock connected with Johnathon Johnson for an 85-yard score in the 2018 Liberty Bowl against Oklahoma State.
 • Lovett finished his career day with seven receptions for 132 yards. He tacked on his second touchdown of the day on a 13-yard score in the waning moments of the third quarter.

STORY LINES
FIRST-DOWN BANISTER

- Sixth-year receiver Barrett Banister has played in 49 career games and has hauled in 27+ receptions in three-straight seasons. He's made catches in eight-straight games, dating back to Florida in 2021, and three in four of five games played this season.
- Banister's three receptions in Game 1 made him the third Tiger in history with a reception in five seasons, joining Lamont Downer (1974-78) and George Shorthose (1980-84).
- Against Abilene Christian, Banister had four catches for 44 yards, surpassing 100 career receptions. He's the 25th Tiger to hit the milestone. He totals 106 catches and 939 yards.
- A Spring 2021 cum laude graduate, Banister is a 2022 AFCA Good Works Team nominee and was a 2021 Burlsworth Trophy nominee. He is Mizzou's nominee for the NFF Campbell Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the AFCA Good Works Team. He is a four-time member of the SEC Honor Roll and was a 2021 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection.

CODY'S AT HOME

- Cody Schrader is living the Tiger tale. A transfer from Division II Truman State and native of St. Louis, he joined the Missouri program in January, 2022.
- He's scored rushing touchdowns in three of Mizzou's five games this season, totaling 46 carries for 271 yards.
- Schrader earned his first DI start on Sept. 1, making the most of his opportunity with a five-yard touchdown to open up the second quarter.
- In 2021, Schrader lead all of Division II with 2,074 rushing yards on 300 carries and 24 touchdowns. He played in 29 career games.

TO THE HOUSE

- Luther Burden III took a 78-yard punt return to the house following Abilene Christian's first drive of the game. This is the first time Mizzou's initial score was a punt return since the 1939 contest against Oklahoma.
- Burden becomes the seventh Tiger in program history to record a rushing, receiving, and punt-return score in the same season, last accomplished by Marcus Murphy in 2014.
- Burden's return was the first for the Tigers since Richaud Floyd took a 71-yard punt return for six against SEMO in 2019, and the longest since Floyd took an 85-yard punt return to the house against Idaho in 2017.
- Burden racked up 111 yards off of punt returns on Saturday, making him the seventh player in program history with at least 110 punt return yards in a game, and the first since Richaud Floyd in 2017 against Idaho (118).

THE ROCK

- Nine Tigers recorded carries against the Bulldogs, marking the first time they accomplished the feat since a win over Iowa State on October 15, 2011.
- Of the nine, five rushed in for scores (Nathaniel Peat, Cody Schrader, Brady Cook, Luther Burden III, BJ Harris). Peat led the squad in total yards with 72 as Schrader was the leader in carries with 17. Peat, Schrader and Cook all totaled 60+ yards on the ground.
- Peat and Schrader had their first touchdowns as Tigers while Burden III and Harris each had their first collegiate scores.
- MU racked up its most total rushing yards in a game (323) since a victory over Tennessee on November 11, 2017 (433 yards).

LBIII DEBUT

- The first true freshman starter on offense in the season opener since Evan Boehm (2012), wide receiver Luther Burden III earned his first collegiate score on a five-yard reception after making a pair of LA Tech defenders miss and splitting another pair.
- He punched in a second score early in the third quarter, this time a one-yard rush off a direct snap.
- He's one of just five Tigers all-time to score twice in their collegiate debut (Jeremy Maclin, 2007; Devin West, 1995; Tracey Mack, 1980; Johnny Roland, 1962).
- On the ground, he had three carries for 26 yards and a score with a long of 17. He hauled in three receptions for 17 yards – including 21 yards after catch – with one touchdown and a long 16.

TAKE YOUR PICK

- The Tiger defense snagged three picks in the first half vs. Louisiana Tech, the first time this feat has been accomplished since the 1982 season opener against Colorado State. The most recent game with three total picks for the Tigers is West Virginia in 2019.
- Junior defensive back Jaylon Carlies snagged his fifth career interception on the opening drive of the game.
- In his debut game in Columbia, Joseph Charleston - a transfer from Clemson - returned a 29-yard interception to the house, the first pick of his career. He's one of five SEC defenders to return an interception for a score in the first five weeks of play.

COOK GETS THE CALL

- On August 9, head coach Eliah Drinkwitz named Brady Cook the starting quarterback for the Tigers' season opener.
- The St. Louis native threw 89 pass attempts before throwing his first career interception, ranking third in Mizzou history, and only six behind Brad Smith (95).
- He earned his first career start in the 2021 Armed Forces Bowl vs. Army West Point, completing 27-of-34 passes for 238 yards and a score. He also rushed for a career-high 53 yards and a touchdown against the Black Knights.
- Also in 2021, he was a perfect 5-of-5 for 29 yards with one passing touchdown against Southeast Missouri State. Cook finished the season 47-of-59 for 350 yards and two scores while rushing for 92 yards and a score.

STORY LINES

- As a true freshman in 2020, he played in three games, completing 6-of-7 passes for 72 yards. His first career touchdown came on a 25-yard pass in Mizzou's 41-0 win over Vanderbilt in 2020.

JOURNEYMAN JACK

- Graduate quarterback Jack Abraham is one of only 23 players in the nation entering into at least their seventh year of college football, one of 14 in the Power Five, and one of two in the SEC.
- Abraham spent the 2021-22 season at Mississippi State, was injured prior to 2021 and earned a medical redshirt. He was at Southern Miss for the 2018, 2019 and 2020 season and played in 27 games. He played the 2017 season at NW Mississippi C.C., throwing for 2,949 yards and 23 touchdowns in 11 games. ELIAH DRINKWITZ

A winner at every stage of his career, Eliah Drinkwitz – considered one of college football's top offensive minds – was introduced as the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach in December 2019. The 2022 campaign will mark his third at the helm of the program and his fourth season as a head coach.

Drinkwitz – 11-12 at MU (third season) and 23-13 overall as a head coach (fourth season) – advanced to bowl games in his first two seasons with the Tigers, joining former head coach Warren Powers (1978, 1979) as the only two MU head coaches to achieve the feat. Additionally, only Powers won more games in his first two seasons at MU (1978-79, 15-9) than Drinkwitz.

Mizzou's 2021 Armed Forces Bowl vs. Army West Point averaged 2.57 million viewers — up 14% from the 2020 edition of the game (Mississippi State-Tulsa: 2.25M), up 48% from Tulane-Southern Miss in 2019 (1.74M) - and was the most-watched edition of the game since 2018 (Army-Houston: 2.58M). In comparison, the National Basketball Association's Warriors-Knicks game where Steph Curry broke the 3-point record (Dec. 14, 2021) totaled 2.35 million viewers.

The 2021 season saw Tyler Badie set a new school record for single-season rushing yards (1,604). His 14 touchdowns in 12 games are good for ninth on Mizzou's single season and top-10 list. He was a CoSIDA Academic All-American, the Southeastern Conference Football Scholar Athlete of the Year (Mizzou's first-ever), first-team All-SEC and was named to multiple All-America teams.

Under Drinkwitz's leadership, Mizzou produced its highest-ranked recruiting classes ever: 2021 No. 20, 2022 No. 19 (per Rivals), including the No. 1 wide receiver in the 2022 class. He joined Warren Powers as the only head coaches in Mizzou history to earn a bowl bid in their first season patrolling the sidelines in Columbia. Drinkwitz joins Frank Broyles, Dan Devine and Powers as the only first-year Mizzou head coaches to reach five victories in year one of their Tiger tenures.

Picked to finish sixth in the SEC East Division by many preseason pundits and projected to win only two or three games at most against the All-SEC schedule, the Tigers split their 10-game league slate at 5-5 to finish third in the SEC East, with four of the losses coming at the hands of teams that were ranked at kickoff and three that finished at No. 1 (Alabama), No. 7 (Florida) and No. 8 (Georgia) in the final College Football Playoff ranking, while a fourth loss came in week two at then-No. 21 Tennessee. Mizzou's five SEC wins are the second-most ever behind its 7-1 mark that it posted en route to winning back-to-back SEC East crowns in 2013 and 2014.

Despite playing with less than 60 scholarship players for more than half of their games in 2020 and having just three games played on their original dates, the Tigers overcame an 0-2 start to win five of their final eight games down the stretch, a run that included:

- A goal-line stand in the closing minute to hold off defending National Champion LSU, 45-41.
 - Snapping Kentucky's five-game series win streak with a 20-10 victory that wasn't nearly as close as the final score indicated.
 - Mizzou's first win in Columbia East since 2014, a 17-10 decision at South Carolina and a thrilling come-from-behind 50-48 walk-off victory over Arkansas,
- its fifth-straight in the series.
- An appearance at No. 25 in the College Football Playoff rankings Dec. 7, only the third season the program has appeared in the CFP's seven-year run.

Of the SEC's four new head coaches to begin work in the nation's toughest conference in 2020, Drinkwitz's 5-5 regular-season record was the league's best, ahead of Ole Miss' Lane Kiffin (4-5), Mississippi State's Mike Leach (3-7) and Arkansas' Sam Pittman (3-7). The combined record of his teams from 2010-21 is 109-46 overall (.703), including a 65-32 conference mark (.670).

Drinkwitz took over the Tiger program following an impressive 2019 season at Appalachian State that saw the 20th-ranked Mountaineers win the Sun Belt Conference title en route to a 12-1 record. The Mountaineers set a Sun Belt record with their 12 wins, and also set the mark for the best regular season in conference history (11-1). They claimed the Sun Belt Championship with a 45-38 win against Louisiana.

Also in 2019, App State became the first-ever Sun Belt program to earn a top-20 ranking in the Associated Press poll, while also becoming the first team in league history to receive an in-season ranking in the College Football Playoff poll. Drinkwitz's team also made history with a pair of Power 5 road wins (at bowl-eligible North Carolina, and later at South Carolina) – making it the first-ever Sun Belt team to register two Power 5 wins in a season. In all, the Mountaineers claimed an FBS-best six road wins en route to becoming the first-ever 12-win team among North Carolina's FBS members.

For his efforts, Drinkwitz was named a finalist for the 2019 Eddie Robinson Award, a prestigious award which goes annually to the nation's top coach. He was also named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the North State Journal. App State junior running back Darrynton Evans was named the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year, after rushing for 1,323 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Prior to App State, Drinkwitz spent three years as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for record-setting NC State teams (2016-18). Following a 7-6 season in 2016, the Wolfpack put together consecutive nine-win seasons (2017-18) for the first time since 1991-92. With an average of 35.6 points per game under his direction in 2018, NC State had a 1,000-yard rusher for the third-straight year, two 1,000-yard receivers and a quarterback with nearly 4,000 passing yards. The Wolfpack made a steady rise from 63rd nationally in total offense in his first season in 2016 to 25th in 2017 and 16th in 2018. He was a Broyles Award nominee as one of the nation's top assistant coaches in his final year with the Wolfpack.

He excelled in two seasons at Boise State, coaching the tight ends in 2014 and serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015. The Broncos won the Mountain West title in 2014 and finished 12-2 and ranked 16th nationally. In 2015, Drinkwitz was promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and he helped the Bronco offense rank in the top 15 nationally in points (39.1) and yards (501.3) per game.

Before Boise, Drinkwitz was a key figure in back-to-back Sun Belt Championships in 2012-13 as running backs coach and co-offensive coordinator at Arkansas State. He got his first taste at the FBS level in the Southeastern Conference, as he served as a quality control assistant at Auburn for the 2010-11 seasons. The Tigers won the SEC in 2010, and went on to the BCS Championship that season with a perfect 14-0 record.

In his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator and/or head coach, Drinkwitz has produced six 1,000-yard rushers, four 3,000-yard passers and four 1,000-yard receivers. Three of those years (2015, 2017, 2018) his offenses produced at least one in each category.
