RING TENNIS COMPLEX

The Gator men's tennis program has always been the benefactor of one of the nation's top tennis facilities. In 1999, though, thanks to the additional generous contributions of Dr. Alfred A. Ring, the entire facility underwent a complete facelift that has turned it into one that is unlike any other in the country. Ring has made substantial contributions over the last several years to bring the complex to its current elite status, funding several major projects.

Linder Stadium at Ring Tennis Complex was completed in 1999 following a $1.7 million renovation project. The focal point of the project was a new building adjacent to the courts that serves as home to the men's and women's teams.

The main building of the complex encompasses 5,620 square feet and includes coaches' offices for the men's and women's teams, as well as a training room and locker rooms for both players and coaches. There is also a conference room, as well as a reception area and a 3,000 square-foot courtyard. The complex has a locker room for opposing teams, bringing the total building area to 7,163 square feet. The complex features a 1,000-seat grandstand overlooking six main lighted courts, in addition to a second row of nine courts. The second row combines six outdoor courts and the three covered courts in the Ring Pavilion, giving Florida a total of 15 regulation courts. The courts, which were re-surfaced in the summer of 2006, are made of a hard court surface similar to the type of court found at the US Open.

The grandstand is highlighted by a two level, 12-seat press box and features six brand new electronic scoreboards over each of the six courts, and a large consolidated scoreboard, all of which were added in January 2017. Concessions and restrooms are conveniently located beneath the grandstand. Palm trees and a lush green landscape that surround the attractive complex easily makes it one of the most inviting tennis environments for both the spectator and the competitor.

Even prior to the latest renovation, the complex has received national attention for its splendor. The NCAA selected the University of Florida as the host for the 1989, 1990, 1993, 1999 and 2003 NCAA women's championships. Florida also played host to the NCAA Region III Qualifying Tournament in both 1995 and 1997, as well as men's and women's regionals every year since 1999. The courts have also seen some of the state's premier prep talent as the University of Florida and Gainesville have frequently served as hosts for the Florida State High School Championships. Competition continues at the complex through the summer months with sessions of the Gator Tennis Camp, which attract some of the top young talent in the region to Gainesville.

PERRY INDOOR TENNIS FACILITY

In December 2012, the lavish $1.5 million addition to the Alfred A. Ring Tennis Complex was finished and the University of Florida became one of just two universities in the state with indoor tennis capability. Thanks to the generous contributions of Nancy Perry, The Charles R. and Nancy V. Perry Indoor Tennis Facility is a 22,800-square foot area that is ventilated and features three courts (with regulation space around them), state-of-the-art surfacing and lighting, plus a small area for fans to watch matches.

The Perry Facility replaced the covered pavilion that was built nearly 25 years ago.

University of Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley announced Bryan Shelton as the men's tennis head coach on June 8, 2012. Shelton came to Gainesville after 13 seasons as the head coach of the Georgia Tech women's program, where he led the Yellow Jackets to a national title in 2007, and a successful professional playing career that included reaching No. 55 in the ATP singles rankings and No. 52 in the ATP doubles rankings.

Shelton led the Gators to a historic year in the 2020-21 season, coaching the team to an impressive 26-2 overall record. For the first time in program history, the Gators men's tennis team claimed the NCAA National Championship after defeating No. 2-seeded Baylor in the finals, 4-1. Not only did the team win the national championship, but Sam Riffice was the first Gator to win the NCAA Singles Title since 1999 following the Gators' historic tournament run. In addition to winning the national championship, Shelton's squad also won the SEC regular season title after the team remained an undefeated 12-0 in conference play, earning him SEC Coach of the Year honors. Shelton coached two ITA All-Americans in captains, Riffice and Duarte Vale, and five All-SEC selections. Shelton snagged ITA National Coach of the Year honors, his second since earning the award back in 2007 with the Georgia Tech women's team. He was also named the ITA Southeast Regional Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons. Shelton became the first head coach in DI college tennis history to win a women's national title (2007 at Georgia Tech) and a men's national championship. He is the 24th coach across all NCAA sports to lead two different programs to a national team title. Of those 24, Shelton is the fifth to coach a national championship team in a men's AND women's sport.

In 2020, despite the abrupt end due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Gators opened the spring as the nation's No. 1 squad for the first time under Shelton's presence. Hanging within the ITA National Top 10 throughout the entirety of the season, Florida was on pace for another successful season in tallying 11 nonconference wins prior to SEC conference play, including finishing 2-1 at ITA National Team Indoors for the first time since 2010. The Gators then opened SEC play strong, corralling three consecutive 7-0 sweeps, prior to a loss at Texas A&M and the consequent cancellation of the remainder of season at the hands of COVID-19. UF finished the season 15-3 and 3-1 in SEC competition, as the Gators finished ranked No. 9 in the ITA National Team rankings. The Gators received five ITA All-American honors among three players, leading the nation for most All-American awards received. Additionally, Sam Riffice was named the ITA Southeast Region and National Player to Watch.

In 2018-2019, Shelton's squad looked even younger than the year before. With only three upperclassmen on the team, he relied on his freshman and sophomores to build the bulk of the lineup and this young team did not disappoint. They finished 25-4, which is tied for the most wins in program history since 2000. They also recorded 20 wins over top-50 opponents. In his seventh season, the Gators finally won the coveted SEC Regular Season title as they were perfect in the conference and won the first outright and undefeated conference title for Florida since 2003 and first overall since 2005. They finished tied for third in the SEC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the first time under Coach Shelton and just the third time in program history.

For the first time since 2007, Florida also earned two ITA All-American singles honors as freshman Sam Riffice and sophomore Oliver Crawford became the 29th and 30th players to earn the distinction.

He was named the 2019 SEC and ITA Southeast Region Coach of the Year and coached the program to a record of eight SEC post-season honors as Riffice earned SEC Freshman of the Year, Second-Team All-SEC and SEC All-Freshman honors. Crawford picked up his second consecutive First-Team All-SEC accolade, while Andy Andrade and Johannes Ingildsen were placed on Second-Team All-SEC and Lukas Greif was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Crawford and Riffice also picked up ITA post-season honors from both the southeast region and nationally.

In Shelton's sixth year at Florida he put one of his youngest rosters on the court. He featured three freshman, a sophomore, a junior and a senior on most nights. Although the team lacked experience they didn't lack talent. The group battled to finish 19-10 and 9-3 in the SEC. They finished third in the conference in both the regular season and tournament and advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the second time under coach Shelton and just the fifth time in program history. Shelton's group also earned the most ITA All-American honors with four as Alfredo Perez picked up singles and doubles honors while Johannes Ingildsen, McClain Kessler and Duarte Vale each earned All-America honors in doubles.

During the 2017-18 season he coached Oliver Crawford to First Team All-SEC honors, SEC All-Freshman team honors and to the SEC Freshman of the Year award. Crawford was also named the ITA Rookie of the Year in the Southeast Region. Also earning SEC honors under Shelton was Alfredo Perez who earned first team honors and Johannes Ingildsen who earned second team honors.

Coach Shelton had to deal with some tough circumstances in his first year at the helm. After several departures from the 2012 squad left the team with just seven available scholarship players for the spring, Shelton led the team to a 15-11 overall record, No. 16 national ranking and the third seed in the Southeastern Conference Tournament. Florida also earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament and hosted an NCAA Regional for the sixth-straight year. UF faced 13 teams ranked in the top 25 and had six wins against teams ranked in the top 20.

Shelton turned the team around in his second season at UF, leading Florida to the NCAA Round of 16. The No. 14 Gators challenged the No. 3 Ohio State Buckeyes, but eventually fell to OSU, 4-3, concluding a 17-10 season.

Before entering the collegiate coaching ranks, Shelton spent one season as a national coach with the United States Tennis Association. While coaching with the USTA, he worked with top juniors such as Andy Roddick, Mardy Fish, Robby Ginepri, Bobby Reynolds, Ashley Harkelroad, Tanner Cochran, Jamea Jackson and Carlie Gullickson.

Shelton spent nine seasons as a player on the ATP Tour, winning two singles titles and a pair of doubles titles, before retiring following the 1997 U.S. Open. In his professional career, Shelton was a seven-time U.S. Open participant, six-time Wimbledon participant, six-time Australian Open participant and a four-time French Open participant. He reached the finals of the 1993 French Open in mixed doubles with partner Lori McNeil and was a semifinalist with McNeil in mixed doubles at Wimbledon in 1993. Shelton also reached the Round of 16 in singles at Wimbledon in 1994.

Assistant Coach (2015-16)
University of Florida
Assistant Coach (2016-Present)

Florida men's tennis head coach Bryan Shelton announced the hiring of Tanner Stump as assistant coach on June 16, 2016. Stump came to UF following two seasons as assistant coach at Mississippi State, his alma mater, where he was named the 2016 ITA Southern Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

In Stump's five seasons at Florida, he has helped guide the Gators to a 104-29 overall record, one NCAA title, one NCAA singles title (Sam Riffice-2021), two SEC titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances, gradually improving their run each season (Sweet 16 in 2017, Elite 8 in 2018, Final 4 in 2019 and national champions in 2021). After the team's historic run in the NCAA tournament, Stump was named ITA Assistant Coach of the Year. The teams have also compiled a 45-7 record in the SEC, including a perfect 12-0 in 2019 & 2021 and the first SEC Championship for Florida since 2005 in 2019. He has coached six players to a total of 17 All-American honors in five years and has also helped produce top recruiting classes during his stint at Florida.

He has also coached Florida athletes to two consecutive SEC Freshman of the Year honors (Oliver Crawford and Sam Riffice) and 13 All-SEC accolades over the years.

"I'm really excited to welcome Tanner Stump to our coaching staff," Shelton said. "Tanner will provide our program with his expertise in player development and recruiting. Tanner will be instrumental in continuing to build on the culture we have established here, and he will provide a great example for our guys to follow. Tanner is one of the most well-respected coaches in our industry and we are fortunate that he and his wife Chelsea have decided to join our family here at UF."

The Bradenton, Fla., native brings five years of coaching experience to the Florida staff, including three NCAA Tournament appearances. His teams have gone a combined 92-42 (.687) over his coaching career.

"I am very excited and blessed to become a part of the University of Florida athletics program," Stump said. "The overall brand of the university speaks for itself, and I am grateful to have the opportunity to be a part of it. To have the chance to also work with Bryan and build on the foundation that he and Mark [Merklein] have created over the last few years is immensely exciting, and I can't wait to get things started. I look forward to the challenge of helping continue to lead a perennial top-10 program to great success."

Stump helped the Bulldogs to a 38-17 record during his two seasons as an assistant coach, with both seasons culminating in NCAA Tournament appearances. He helped MSU to a Round of 16 finish in the 2016 NAAs and a second-round appearance in 2015. He coached seven All-SEC players in his two seasons on staff.

Scott Perelman joined the Florida men's tennis staff in August of 2012 as the Volunteer Assistant Coach. Perelman spent three seasons in the same role at the University of North Carolina from 2010-12 before joining the Gators.

Perelman joined the Gator staff with over 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, in addition to serving as the personal coach for ATP professional Chris Woodruff from 1993-99.

In 2021, Perelman assisted a program which won its first national championship in school history with a 4-1 win over Baylor at the USTA National Campus in Orlando. In addition to the NCAA title, the 2021 squad won the SEC title and junior Sam Riffice was crowned as the NCAA Singles Champion. For the second time in three years, Florida went undefeated in SEC play and undefeated at home overall.

During the 2013 season at Florida, the Gators finished with a 15-11 overall record, No. 16 national ranking and the third seed in the Southeastern Conference Tournament. Florida also earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament and hosted an NCAA Regional for the sixth-straight year. UF faced 13 teams ranked in the top 25 and had six wins against teams ranked in the top 20. In 2014, Perelman helped lead the Gators to a 17-10 season, including a trip to the NCAA Round of 16.

In Perelman's first season as an assistant at UNC in 2010-11, the Tar Heels posted an 18-7 record with a 7-3 mark in ACC regular season play. The following season, Carolina played one of the top schedules in the country and posted a 16-8 record and a second-place finish in the ACC at 9-2. Last season, the Tar Heels finished 15-8 and finished second in the ACC at 9-2 for the second year in a row.

In each of Perelman's three years at North Carolina, the team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, including a Round of 16 appearance in 2012.

After lettering in tennis for four years as an undergraduate at Ball State University from 1973-77, Perelman began his coaching career with assistant coaching and administrative coaching positions at various colleges and tennis clubs.

In 1982, Perelman became the men's and women's head tennis coach at the University of Kansas in what was then the Big Eight conference. Perelman led the Jayhawk women to a 19-6 record and a second place finish in the Big Eight in the 1986 season.

Perelman became Director of Tennis at Kansas in 1988, while continuing to coach the Kansas men's tennis team through 1992. In his decade at the helm, the men's tennis team won the Big Eight title twice -- in 1987 and 1988. Over his last three years, Perelman went 49-27 and finished second in the Big Eight in each year. Overall, Perelman held an 86-52 mark as women's coach and a 135-99 record as the men's coach in Lawrence.

Throughout his time at Kansas, Perelman was in charge of Scott Perelman's Jayhawk Tennis College, which grew from 18 campers in 1983 to over 400 in 1992, the final year of the camp.

In 1992, Perelman left Lawrence for Knoxville, Tenn., where he took the post of associate head men's tennis coach at the University of Tennessee. During the 1992-93 season, the Volunteers reached the finals of the Intercollegiate Tennis Coaches National Indoor Championships. Standout singles performer Chris Woodruff won the 1993 NCAA Individual Singles Championship, the only University of Tennessee player to ever accomplish the feat.

When Woodruff turned professional the next year, Perelman agreed to become his coach. Under Perelman's tutelage, Woodruff won the 1997 Canadian Open and reached ATP rankings of No. 29 in singles and No. 60 in doubles. Woodruff and Perelman remained a coaching/player tandem until 1999.

After a short assistant coaching period at the University of Toledo, Perelman became the director of tennis at Sylvania Country Club in Sylvania, Ohio in 2002.

Perelman and his wife, Cindy, have one son, Sam.
