"Better Never Rests"

Kirby Smart is in his eighth year directing the Bulldogs who are 88-15 in this span including back-to-back national championships in 2021 and 2022. This offseason, Georgia took a deep dive on the New Zealand All Blacks, the world's most successful rugby team, or quite frankly, any sports team in history.

Most Consecutive Weeks At No. 1

Georgia has established an SEC record for Most Consecutive Weeks at No. 1 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. The Bulldogs rank third all-time at 19 weeks, and this is the longest streak in the College Football Playoff era.

Bulldogs, Gators Return To Jacksonville For Another Clash

Georgia has matched up with Florida 101 times since 1904 and the Bulldogs hold a 55-44-2 edge. The teams have met in Jacksonville annually since 1933 except for the 1994 and 1995 seasons during the renovation of the stadium now known as EverBank Stadium. The Bulldogs are 48-41-1 in Jacksonville. The annual Georgia-Florida matchup is under contract through the 2025 season to be played in Jacksonville. The Bulldogs under head coach Kirby Smart are 5-2 against UF. Georgia is the visiting team this year.

This will mark the third consecutive year that a No. 1 ranked Georgia squad will face an unranked Florida team. Other than the shortened 2020 season, the Bulldogs have had an off week prior to their SEC Eastern Division matchup with the Gators every year since 2013. Georgia is 10-6 all-time against Florida following a bye week while the Gators, who also were off last weekend, have a record of 18-11 against the Bulldogs after a week off. For more on the Georgia-Florida rivalry, see pg. 4.

2022 Flashback: Bulldogs Cruise To 42-20 Victory

In last year's triumph over the Gators, the Bulldogs tallied 555 yards of total offense, the most-ever against Florida in the history of the series. Georgia posted a 28-3 halftime advantage on its way to another victory. Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 106 yards and 2 TDs while the tight ends were the top targets for Stetson Bennett. Brock Bowers (5 for career-high 154 yards, 1 TD) had the most-ever receiving yards by a Bulldog against UF. Florida was limited to 100 yards rushing on 34 attempts (2.9 yards/carry) after entering leading the FBS at 6.4 yards/carry. Georgia collected three sacks on the Gators who came in having allowed an SEC-low five overall, which ranked fifth in FBS. Chris Smith, Chaz Chambliss and Mykel Williams registered sacks. Like the 2022 matchup, SEC Nation will be here again in 2023.

Getting Off The Field

One of the keys to Georgia's success is its third down defense. The Bulldogs lead the country with opponents converting just 23.6 percent of the time. In the past three SEC games, Georgia opponents are a combined 6-for-32 on third downs (19 percent). The Bulldogs are second nationally in converting third downs (57.1 percent).

About Florida

Florida (5-2, 3-1 SEC) is coming off a 41-39 road win over South Carolina, which featured a 10-point fourth quarter comeback. QB Graham Mertz, who ranks third nationally with a 76.2 completion percentage, threw for a career-high 423 yards and three touchdowns in the win. The Gators are averaging 29.1 points/game and are giving up 20.0 points/game. They are -2 in turnover margin.

Bulldogs Again Among The Leaders In Scoring Defense

Since the arrival of Kirby Smart in 2016, the Bulldogs have featured talented defenses and twice led the nation in Scoring Defense. This season, Georgia is ranked seventh nationally allowing 14.0 points/game. The Bulldogs return 12 players who have starting experience from a group that ranked fifth nationally in 2022 allowing opponents only 14.3 points per contest.

We've Gone Streaking

➤ Georgia is on a school record 24-game winning streak that began with a 34-11 win over Michigan in the 2021 CFP semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl.

➤ Georgia has won 23 regular season SEC games in a row dating to a 31-24 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 21, 2020. This matches the school record for consecutive SEC wins, which was also done during a stretch from 1980 to 1983.

➤ The Bulldogs are 36-1 in their last 37 games including back-to-back national championships.

 - * He ranks second in Bulldog history in Touchdown Catches (24), fifth in Receiving Yards (2,391) and sixth in Receptions (160).
 - * The Napa, Ca., native posted a third straight 100-yard game (a combined 24 rec., 410 yds., 4 TDs) with a seven catch, 132-yard performance against #20 Kentucky that included a touchdown. He was the first Bulldog to have three 100-yard receiving performances in a row since Terrence Edwards in 2002.

Offensive Line Answers The Challenge

- Georgia's offensive line has been named to the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll for the seventh consecutive season. The unit enjoyed another productive night in the win over No. 20 Kentucky. The Bulldogs racked up a season-high 608 yards of total offense, including 173 yards on the ground against the Wildcats. Georgia followed that up at Vanderbilt to post a season-high 291 yards rushing on 39 carries (7.5 avg.).
- The Bulldogs had 189 rushing yards in the 24-14 win against South Carolina. Against USC, junior starting RT Amarius Mims went down with an ankle injury, and the unit was already without junior utility lineman Austin Blaske. Senior Xavier Truss moved from LG to RT and redshirt sophomore Dylan Fairchild came in at LG. Fairchild has started the last four games at that spot. RSo. Micah Morris has also seen time at LG. True freshman Monroe Freeling filled in for Truss the majority of the Vanderbilt game at RT after Truss went down with an ankle injury.
- * Junior C Sedrick Van Pran has a team-best 37 consecutive starts. He was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week versus South Carolina. Redshirt sophomore RG Tate Ratledge, who like Truss started 15 contests in 2022, and redshirt freshman LT Earnest Greene make up Georgia's other OL starters.
 - * The team tragically lost OL Devin Willock (Wil-LOCK) in a car accident this past January. Willock played in all 15 games last year with two starts. To honor him, a different OL will wear Willock's #77 jersey each game this year.

Daijun Finds Daylight & The End Zone

- Senior Daijun Edwards is coming off a career performance in the road win at Vanderbilt as he carried the ball 20 times for 146 yards (7.3 avg.) and one score. His day featured a career-long 62-yard scamper in the fourth quarter that led to Georgia's final touchdown. He accounted for all 75 yards rushing on the five-play TD drive against the Commodores.
- * Edwards made his first career start in the win over South Carolina after appearing in 39 games.
 - * In the win over No. 20 Kentucky, he showed his pass catching ability with a career-high six receptions for 51 yards.
 - * The veterans in the backfield are Edwards and senior Kendall Milton. Both

- missed time during preseason camp due to injuries. Freshman Roderick Robinson played in the first two games and then was injured in the contest versus South Carolina. He has 89 yards and two touchdowns in 2023 and tracked to return this month.
- * Sophomore Branson Robinson is out due to a season-ending knee injury that occurred in late August.

For Whom The Bell Totes

- With all the injuries at running back, sophomore WR Dillon Bell has seen action in the backfield (21 carries, 111 yards, 2 TDs).
- * Against Ball State, he finished with three carries for 28 yards, and on his second career carry, he scored on a 21-yard scamper.

Options Abound At Wideout

- Georgia features an array of experienced pass catchers and 19 different Bulldogs have a reception this year. Junior Ladd McConkey did not play in the first four games because of a back injury. He made his season debut at Auburn and since then has nine catches for 107 yards.
- * McConkey earned a spot on the 2023 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team for his dedication to the community and is a Campbell Trophy semifinalist.
 - * Transfer Dominic Lovett (Missouri) ranks second on the team with 31 catches for 282 yards and one touchdown. He had 82 for 1,019 yards and three TDs in two years at UM.
 - * Senior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint is third on the team with 18 catches for 333 yards and two touchdowns. Against No. 20 Kentucky, he had a career-high 99 yards on four catches, including a 40-yard score to open the game.
 - * Junior transfer (Mississippi State) Rara Thomas collected his first TD at Georgia (13th of his career) during a five catch, 63-yard performance versus No. 20 Kentucky. His acrobatic score was a 15 yarder in the corner of the end zone.

Getting Defensive

- Georgia has had 34 players drafted over the past three seasons including 19 on defense and eight of those defenders have gone in the first round. Georgia continues to reload and develop elite talent.
- * The defense allowed its first points in the third quarter in week five at Auburn. UGA has outscored opponents 76-13 in the third quarter and 144-46 in the second half.
 - * Junior Jamon Dumas-Johnson, a 2022 Butkus Award finalist, directs the linebackers. He made four tackles, including 1.5 sacks, in the win over No. 20 Kentucky. Junior ILB Smael Mondon was the team leader with 76 stops last year. Mondon leads the team again with 32 stops this year and was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week after his 11-tackle performance at Auburn.
 - * Senior Star Tykee Smith is second on the team with 27 tackles, 4.0 TFL, a sack and a team-high four interceptions. Smith is tied for third nationally with four picks. He also had four picks with West Virginia before transferring.
 - * Sophomore safety Malaki Starks ranks third on the team with 25 tackles and has two interceptions, the last one coming at Auburn to clinch the victory.
 - * Sophomore DL Mykel Williams, who led the squad with 4.5 sacks in 2022, picked up his first sack in 2023 in the season opener. He is part of an experienced front that features seniors Zion Logue, Warren Brinson, Tramel Walthour and Nazir Stackhouse. The Bulldogs have a young duo gaining experience up front in Christen Miller and Jordan Hall.
 - * Junior DB/safety Javon Bullard left the Ball State game in the first quarter with an ankle injury and missed two games. He returned at Auburn and had a career-high 10 tackles.
 - * The Bulldogs are even in Turnover Margin, including nine interceptions. Last year, the Bulldogs had 12 picks in 15 games. The Bulldogs had a three INT game against Ball State this year. Freshman DB Kyron Jones also took a tipped ball back for an INT score in the 2023 season opener.

Did You Know? Georgia has yet to recover an opponent's fumble this season. Opponents have fumbled three times and the Bulldogs have only forced one of them.

Starting Role BECKons

Junior Carson Beck, a 6-4, 220-pound native of Jacksonville, Fla., is in his first year as the starting quarterback with a 7-0 record.

* Beck is on a record pace for Completion Percentage at 73.61, which is ranked sixth nationally. The school record was set last year by Stetson Bennett at 68.28. The SEC record for a season is 77.4 by Alabama's Mac Jones in 2020.

* Became the first Bulldog QB since 2013 (Aaron Murray) to have three straight games of at least 300 yards passing after he went 28-for-35 for 389 yards for four touchdowns (all career highs) in the win over No. 20 Kentucky. He completed his first 13 passes (158 yards, 2 TDs), which ranks third in school history. Beck was named the SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week, one of the Manning Award Stars of the Week and to the Davey O'Brien Award's Great 8 list thanks to his showing.

* During Georgia's last three possessions against Auburn, Beck was 12-for-15 for 201 yards and one TD. He directed three scoring drives that covered 98, 71 and 75 yards during his first SEC road contest that resulted in a 27-20 win over the Tigers.

* Beck was named to the Davey O'Brien Award's Great 8 list following his career-high 338 passing yards (22-of-32) and three touchdowns against UAB.

* Led Bulldogs to a 24-14 win over USC in the 2023 SEC opener after trailing 14-3 at halftime; posted a then career-high 27-for-35 for 269 yards.

* In his first career start, went 21-for-31 for 294 yards a touchdown in three quarters while guiding the Bulldogs to a 48-7 season-opening win over UT Martin.

Along with Beck, Georgia's quarterbacks include 6-3, 210-pound redshirt sophomore Brock Vandagriff of Bogart, Ga., and 6-1, 215-pound redshirt freshman Gunner Stockton of Tiger, Ga. Vandagriff has appeared in nine games in his career, including going 5-for-7 versus the Wildcats for 46 yards and touchdown.

A Look At The Specialists

Australian punter Brett Thorson, who earned All-SEC Freshman honors in 2022, has a 43.8 average on 17 punts this year, including 11 that resulted in fair catches. Thorson was named to the Ray Guy Award's Ray's 8 following his performance versus UT Martin. Georgia did not punt at Vanderbilt for the first time since the 2022 Kent State game.

Did You Know? Georgia is the only team in the FBS that has not allowed a punt return this season. The Bulldogs are tied for fifth nationally in Punt Return Yards at 0.0 (four schools that have allowed negative punt return yards).

* Freshman Peyton Woodring has attempted all field goals and PATs this season. Woodring has a team-high 71 points going 12-for-15 on field goals and 35-for-35 on PATs. Woodring has earned SEC Freshman of the Week following the Bulldogs' last three games (@AU, #20 UK, @VU). He had a season high 15 points in the win over No. 20 Kentucky, including a then career-long 42 yarder, and was named one of the Lou Groza Award's Stars of the Week.

* Woodring connected on both of his two field goals, including a 38 yarder, and three PATs in the win at Auburn.

* Woodring tallied three field goals, including a career-long 44 yarder, and was 4-for-4 on PATs during a windy victory at Vanderbilt.

* Woodring became the first true freshman Bulldog PK to start a season opener since Marshall Morgan in 2012.

Did You Know? Woodring's 12 points was the most by a Georgia true freshman kicker in a season opener since Kevin Butler set a school-record with 14 points in a 44-0 rout of Tennessee in Athens to open the 1981 season.

* Senior William Mote handles the snapping duties on special teams.

* Entering 2023, junior Jared Zirkel was 1-for-1 in career field goals (21-yarder at USC last year) and had nine career kickoffs. This year, Zirkel has handled all 45 kickoffs with 29 touchbacks and two going out of bounds.

Block That Kick

Currently, there are three Bulldogs who have blocked a kick/punt in their Georgia career. In 2022, DL Nazir Stackhouse blocked a field goal that was returned 96 yards for a touchdown by teammate Chris Smith in the opening quarter of the SEC Championship Game versus No. 14 LSU. In addition, OLB Jalon Walker blocked a punt that resulted in a safety versus Kent State. S Dan Jackson blocked a punt against No. 8 Arkansas in 2021.

Polling Place

At 7-0, the Bulldogs are in the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press Top 25. In fact, the Bulldogs have the longest active run of top-10 rankings now with 42.

* Georgia was the No. 1 ranked team in the 2023 AP preseason Top 25. The Bulldogs became the first team besides Alabama or Clemson to be preseason ranked No. 1 since Ohio State in 2015. The only other time the Bulldogs have been preseason ranked No. 1 in the AP poll came in 2008.

* The Bulldogs' 19-week streak of No. 1 ranked appearances is third best all-time in NCAA history.

* Georgia started the 2021 season ranked No. 5 and went on to win its first national title since 1980. The Bulldogs followed up with a perfect season in 2022 after starting in the No. 3 spot in the preseason poll.

* Since the AP preseason poll started in 1950, there have been 11 teams that started No. 1 that also finished No. 1. However, only two of those have occurred since 2000: Southern California (2004) and Alabama (2017). And in case you haven't heard, no team has won three straight national titles during the AP poll era (dating to 1936). Minnesota's 1934 and 1935 squads went 8-0 and were named the best team in the nation by eight different organizations. Then, the 1936 club went 7-1 and was crowned the first official AP champion plus seven other organizations declared them national champions too.

* Overall, Georgia has been ranked in the AP top 25 for 107 consecutive weeks and that ranks third among active streaks.

* UGA remains No. 1 in the US LBM Coaches Poll and also the FWAA Super 16 Poll where it began 2023.

Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame Makes Additions

* Former Georgia All-SEC wideout Terrence Edwards and former head coach Mark Richt (also Class of 2023 College Football Hall of Fame) will be inducted into the Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2023.

* The induction ceremony and luncheon will be held on Friday, Oct. 27, inside the East Club at EverBank Stadium as part of the Georgia-Florida Weekend. Florida's Joe Haden (CB) and Earnest Graham (RB) will also be inducted at the 27th annual Luncheon.

* Edwards led the Bulldogs in receiving for four consecutive seasons and still ranks as the Georgia record holder in career receptions (204), single season receiving yards (1,004 in 2002), career receiving yards (3,093) and career touchdown catches (30). Edwards played in the NFL and CFL, and in 2017, he was inducted into the Winnipeg Football Club Hall of Fame. Terrence's older brother, Robert, a DB/WR for the Bulldogs from 1993-97, was inducted in 2001.

* Richt led Georgia from 2001-15, posting a record of 145-51 (.738) and twice was named SEC Coach of the Year (2002, '05). The Bulldogs claimed a pair of SEC titles, made five appearances in the SEC Championship Game and went 10-5 in bowl games. Richt's impact extends beyond the field as a motivational speaker, philanthropist, and author.

Academic & Community Service Highlights In The Smart Era

* The University of Georgia checked in at No. 16 in U.S. News & World Report's 2023 ranking of the best public universities in the nation, marking the seventh consecutive year that UGA has placed in the top 20. Georgia is one of only two SEC institutions to rank among the top 20.

* In 2022, two-time All-America tight end Brock Bowers was named an Academic All-American.

* Overall, Georgia has had 199 players make the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the Kirby Smart era including a high of 35 on the 2021 national championship team.

* Under Smart, 13 Bulldogs have been named National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Society Members. The society is comprised of football players from all divisions who maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better throughout their career, were starters or significant contributors and have completed their final year of playing eligibility. The most recent members are Ladd McConkey, Jack Podlesny and Payne Walker in 2023.

* In the area community service, junior WR Ladd McConkey recently became the 23rd Bulldog since 1992 to earn a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team, which honors 22 men annually. Since 2016, the Bulldogs have had seven, including Kearis Jackson in 2022, and Georgia's 23 recipients tops any other school in the nation.

* Former Bulldog defensive lineman Travon Walker, who was the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2022 (Jacksonville) recently donated $44,000 to the UGA Athletic Association with the money earmarked for athletic training. It was a part of a series of donations made by his foundation.

* Former All-American and NFL linebacker Jarvis Jones, who currently serves as UGA football's Player Connection Coordinator, is one of three former Bulldog greats selected to the 2023 Athletic Association's Circle of Honor Class. It is the highest honor a Bulldog can receive.

* NFL veteran offensive lineman Fernando Velasco (UGA 2003-07), who served as an Assistant Director of Player Development for UGA from 2017-19, was named to UGA's 40 Under 40 Class of 2023. Currently, he is Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Falcons.

* In September of 2020, it was announced that Kirby and Mary Beth Smart contributed $1 million to the University of Georgia to go towards the Athletic Association's new social justice program, scholarships for senior athletes whose seasons were affected by the pandemic and the expansion of the football program.

We're No. 1 When We're Not No. 3

Georgia began the 2023 campaign where it ended the past two seasons -- ranked No. 1. The Bulldogs have been ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll since Oct. 9, 2022.

However in the first CFP rankings last year (Nov. 1), Georgia came in at No. 3 when it played host to CFP No. 1 Tennessee. The Bulldogs beat the Vols 27-13 and moved to the top spot in the CFP rankings the rest of the season.

During the 2021 campaign, the Bulldogs were No. 1 in the first five CFP rankings before finishing at No. 3 in the final following the SEC Championship Game. The Bulldogs would go on to beat No. 2 Michigan and No. 1 Alabama for its first CFP title.

The only other time Georgia began a season ranked No. 1 was in 2008. The Bulldogs finished 10-3 that year and ranked No. 13 in the AP and No. 10 by the coaches.

Mascot: Uga XI, a.k.a "Boom"

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month-old puppy "Boom" assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot during the annual "G Day" spring game last April. During a pre-game ceremony, UGA President Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the collaring of Boom. Then, Boom made a successful debut in the 2023 opener. Boom is 7-0 after the Bulldogs picked up a 37-20 road win at Vanderbilt on Oct. 14.

Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956 courtesy of the Seiler family of Savannah, Ga. Uga X, a.k.a. "Que" served from 2015-22 and posted a record of 91-18, retiring as the winningest mascot in program history.

The patriarch of the Seiler family, Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler, passed away at his home in Savannah at the age of 90 on Aug. 28. The Bulldogs honored Seiler with a moment of silence and a tribute video before the season opener against UT Martin.

No. 1 Georgia 48, UT Martin 7

Sept. 2, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Two-time defending national champion Georgia opened its 2023 season by rolling past UT Martin, 48-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC+ television audience.

Georgia finished with 559 yards of offense while the defense repeatedly stuffed Martin, holding it to 260 total yards. Making his first start, quarterback Carson Beck completed 21 of 31 passes for 294 yards and threw a 54-yard touchdown. He also ran for a four-yard TD late in the second quarter. Beck's top target was tight end Brock Bowers, who finished with five catches for 77 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

The Bulldogs' first points came on Bowers' run, a jet sweep to the right side. Kicker Peyton Woodring made his Bulldog debut on the point-after attempt, putting Georgia up 7-0 with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Georgia's next points didn't come until the 4:29 mark of the second quarter when Beck ran the ball in from the 4. Later in the quarter, Woodring connected on a 23-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Beck threw a short pass to redshirt sophomore receiver Mekhi Mews who turned it into a 54-yard touchdown and a 24-0 lead with 8:29 left in the quarter.

Georgia's next touchdown was set up by a 47-yard completion to redshirt freshman wideout C.J. Smith up the left side and a 25-yarder to Mews. Freshman running back Roderick Robinson finished the drive with a two-yard touchdown for a 31-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third.

Backup quarterback Brock Vandagriff provided some fourth-quarter fireworks when he connected with junior wideout Rara Thomas for a 56-yard gain. On the next play, Vandagriff found tight end Oscar Delp for a 21-yard touchdown that made it 38-0 with 11:36 remaining.

After Woodring made it 41-7 Bulldogs with a 33-yard field goal with 2:09 to play, Georgia's final points came from the defense when freshman STAR Byron Jones intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown with 1:59 remaining.

The win was the Bulldogs' 18th in a row overall, 19th in a row on Dooley Field, and Georgia tied the school record for regular-season wins in a row with its 28th, matching the great run of the 1981-83 teams.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You talk about decision-making, (quarterback Carson Beck) did exactly what he did all camp. He didn't put us in bad situations, he made good decisions, he didn't throw it to the other team, he didn't fumble it. He did some really good things. We have to execute better around him and we have to have some guys make some plays and make some guys miss. That's what we missed early, but when we got on rhythm and starting doing our offense, we did some pretty good things."

Mekhi Mews had a game-high 125 all-purpose yards against UT Martin, including 54 on a TD reception in the third quarter.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Ball State 3

Sept. 9, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Six different players scored touchdowns, the defense intercepted three passes and Mekhi Mews returned a punt 69 yards for a score in top-ranked Georgia's 45-3 win over Ball State, in front of a Sanford Stadium sell-out crowd of 92,746 and a SEC Network television audience.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Bulldogs put 31 on the scoreboard in the second to blow open the game. On the third play of the second period, Mews caught a low, line-drive punt, scooted to his right and went untouched on a 69-yard return for a touchdown.

Georgia's defense made the next big play in the game when safety Malaki Starks intercepted a deep ball up the left side. The Bulldog offense took full advantage of the turnover, scoring on a 7-yard pass from Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint on third-and-goal.

Less than a minute later, linebacker Chaz Chambliss snagged a deflected pass and pulled in his first career interception. Two plays later, wideout Dillon Bell, lined up in the backfield, took a handoff, cut to the outside and sprinted into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

After the defense got another quick stop, the offense worked its way down the field before eventually settling for a 35-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 24-0 with 1:49 on the clock.

Just eight seconds later, STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass broken up by Daylen Everette. The Bulldogs turned the takeaway into another touchdown when running back Kendall Milton went over the top from the 1, pushing Georgia ahead 31-0 with 37 seconds left until halftime.

The Bulldogs' fifth touchdown of the day was a 27-yard strike into the back right corner of the end zone from Beck to running back Cash Jones.

Georgia's defense got a stop on fourth-and-1 inside UGA territory late in the third quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, running back Roderick Robinson went right for 14 yards. That was followed by a 41-yard completion from Beck to tight end Oscar Delp. On first down on the 12, Robinson scooted in for an easy score with 46 seconds left in the third.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You're always looking for something, Defense turns to offense. It's like basketball, when you play good defense, you get transition offense. When you play good defense and special teams, you can transition that to offense. We started getting momentum there as the defense got stops and then eventually we got them into a long-yardage situation and we were able to return the punt (for a touchdown). That gave the crowd some juice and our players some juice."

Tykee Smith collected Georgia's third interception late in the first half, leading to the Bulldogs' fourth TD of the second quarter.

Sept. 16, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – The top-ranked Georgia football team had to work for its first SEC win of the season, rallying from 14-3 down at halftime to defeat South Carolina, 24-14, in front of a Sanford Stadium capacity crowd of 92,746 and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs scored three rushing touchdowns in the second half, and its defense ramped up its pressure on Gamecocks quarterback Spencer Rattler to shift the momentum of the game. Georgia came up with two interceptions in the fourth quarter to help seal the program's 20th win in a row.

Quarterback Carson Beck was 13 of 18 for 98 yards in the first half, and finished the game 27 of 35 for 269 yards. The Bulldogs out-gained the Gamecocks 458-309, including a 189-53 advantage on the ground. Running back Daijun Edwards, in his first action of the season due to injury, led the way with 118 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

The Bulldogs trailed for the first time this season after Rattler threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Antwane Wells for a 7-0 lead with 9:56 left in the first quarter. Georgia was able to cut into the lead on its first drive, which ended with a 31-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:02 remaining in the period.

South Carolina seized the momentum right before the half with an 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a two-yard Dakereon Joyner run with 1:00 on the clock.

Georgia received the kickoff to start the second half and went right to work offensively. Powered by a 36-yard completion from Beck to wideout Rara Thomas and a 15-yard run from Kendall Milton, and then capped by a seven-yard touchdown run by Edwards, Georgia cut the South Carolina lead to 14-10 with 12:20 remaining in the third. The offense kept rolling on its second possession of the quarter, marching 49 yards for a 17-14 lead on wideout Dillon Bell's three-yard touchdown run.

Running back Cash Jones closed out Georgia's next drive with a 13-yard run up the right side for the score, giving the Bulldogs a 24-14 lead with 9:10 remaining. Safeties Dan Jackson and Tykee Smith intercepted Rattler passes in the final five minutes to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The message at halftime was: win one moment at a time, win one moment at a time. If you can win one moment at a time, we can get ourselves back in this thing. ... I told them at halftime, 'Look guys, it's going to happen very simply: one moment at a time.' And they believed it. They kept saying 'one moment, one moment, one moment.' We gained so much momentum in the second half thanks to our fans and thanks to our players making some plays."

Running back Daijun Edwards ran for 118 yards and a touchdown in his first game of the season.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It's an honor (to win for the 85th time in 100 games as head coach). It takes a great organization, and we have one. We have an incredible academic setup. We have a wonderful university that people want to attend. We have great leadership in our president and athletic director. It's easy to be successful when you have the setup that we have."

Tight end Brock Bowers had nine catches for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the win over UAB.

No. 1 GEORGIA 27, AUBURN 20

Sept. 30, 2023 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first road contest of the season, the top-ranked Georgia football team came from behind to defeat Auburn, 27-20, Saturday afternoon before 88,043 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Quarterback Carson Beck finished 23-for-33 for 313 yards and one touchdown. Tight end Brock Bowers led all receivers with eight catches for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for the game-winning score, while running back Daijun Edwards rushed 19 times for a team-high 76 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. tied his career high with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

The Tigers struck first with a 27-yard field goal that was set up by quarterback Payton Thorne's 61-yard run to the Georgia 30. Auburn then converted a Beck interception into points, taking a 10-0 lead on Jarquez Hunter's 5-yard touchdown run.

Georgia answered back on the ensuing drive, capping an 11-play drive with a 2-yard Edwards run for a touchdown. On their next drive, the Bulldogs drove into red zone before kicker Peyton Woodring connected from 37 yards out to tie the game at 10 with 5:57 to go before halftime.

Auburn produced its second turnover of the game seconds into the third quarter, forcing a by tight end Oscar Delp. The Tigers started at the UGA 32-yard line and scored soon after on a 9-yard run by backup QB Robby Ashford, putting Auburn up 17-10.

Later in the third, after a 71-yard Auburn punt was downed at the 2, the Bulldogs marched 98 yards for a touchdown. Edwards ran for 16 yards to give Georgia some breathing room, and then scored on a 13-yard run to make it 17-17 with 1:03 left in the quarter.

After completions of 37 and 28 yards to Bowers moved the ball into Auburn territory, Woodring gave Georgia its first lead, 20-17, on a 38-yard field goal with 10:57 left in the game. Auburn later drew even on a 42-yard kick by Alex McPherson with 6:21 remaining.

Georgia took the lead for good, 27-20, when Beck hit Bowers for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 left in the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"They are resilient as hell and competed. The leadership of this team has shown twice. You don't know how many times you are going to be able to do that when you turn the ball over and give people extra possessions. You just can't do that. Good football teams don't do that, and good football teams don't let people run the ball on them for 200 yards. That is one of the things we knew they would do well. I thought they really ran the ball well, and they used the quarterback and rushed the ball on us. We can't do that. We have to run the ball better, too. But, proud of the way the guys fought."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught eight passes for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

No. 1 GEORGIA 51, No. 20 KENTUCKY 13

Oct. 7, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carson Beck threw for a career-high 389 yards and four touchdowns, the Georgia defense shut down what had been a prolific rushing attack, and the top-ranked Bulldogs won a battle of unbeaten, 51-13, against No. 20 Kentucky on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN.

With the victory, Georgia (6-0, 3-0 SEC) extended its overall winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the team's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1) came in fresh off a 33-14 rout of Florida last week in which the Wildcats ran for 329 yards. But the Bulldogs held the Wildcats to 55 yards on the ground and 183 yards of total offense.

Georgia's offense, meanwhile, scored on every possession in the first half, including three straight touchdowns to start the game. The Bulldogs finished with 608 yards for the game, with Beck completing 28 of 35 passes.

Tight end Brock Bowers had seven receptions for 132 yards — his third straight 100-yard game — and a touchdown. Running back Daijun Edwards was productive as a runner and receiver, combining for 105 yards.

On Georgia's first drive, Beck completed all four of his passes, starting with a 7-yard screen to Edwards on first down and ending with a 40-yard completion to wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint to make it 7-0 with 11:26 to play in the quarter.

After the defense forced the first of eight Kentucky punts, Beck kept hitting his receivers, including a 25-yarder to Bowers. Later, Beck hit Rara Thomas in the front left corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:25 remaining in the first.

After another Georgia stop, the Bulldogs got the ball at their 5. A 12-play, 95-yard drive followed, ending with a short touchdown pass to tight end Oscar Delp to make it 21-0. Kentucky scored on its next drive, but Georgia didn't let the Wildcats make it a game. A 36-yard Peyton Woodring field goal made it 24-7 Bulldogs, and soon after, Kendall Milton's 5-yard touchdown run made it 31-7 with 61 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky tried to get aggressive in the final minute, but it backfired. Georgia's defense forced a quick punt and Woodring drilled a 42-yard field goal as the half expired, sending UGA to the locker room up 34-7.

In the second half, Georgia got a 32-yard field goal from Woodring, a 21-yard touchdown catch from Bowers and a 7-yard touchdown catch from Andrew Paul.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was an electric crowd and it energized our players. Our players started fast, finally, and that was great to get a start-fast game. We challenged them all week to have a connected physicality. We really wanted to be connected because we felt like we could be more physical if we were together. We talked all week about mass and acceleration equal force. We wanted to have a lot of mass and a lot of acceleration."

Wide receiver Rara Thomas had five catches for 63 yards, including this 15-yarder for a touchdown.

No. 1 GEORGIA 37, VANDERBILT 20

Oct. 14, 2023 • FirstBank Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The top-ranked Georgia football team got three field goals from kicker Peyton Woodring and ran for 281 yards in the Bulldogs' 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 28,500 at FirstBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Carson Beck completed 29 of 39 passes for 261 yards and a touchdown, while Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 146 yards and helped seal the win with a 1-yard score with 3:13 left in the game.

Vanderbilt struck first, scoring on a 49-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Seals to wideout London Humphreys with 12:07 left in the first.

Georgia escaped trouble on its next drive when center Sedrick Van Pran picked up a botched handoff on third-and-1 and ran for 6 yards and a first down. Beck later scored on a 1-yard plunge to make it 7-7.

Georgia's defense forced a Vandy punt on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldog offense went 77 yards for a touchdown and the lead. Beck connected with wideout Ladd McConkey on completions of 31 and 13 yards to move the ball into Vandy territory, and Milton later finished off the drive with a 3-yard run to make it 14-7.

The Bulldogs added to their lead late in the second quarter with Woodring's 31-yard field, making it 17-7 with 3:49 left in the half. Woodring later added a career-long 44-yarder and a 30-yarder.

In the final minute of the first half, after a Tykee Smith interception, Georgia went after more points. Two long completions moved the ball to the 5 with 19 seconds left. Two plays later, Beck and Dominic Lovett connected on a 4-yard touchdown, pushing the Bulldog lead to 24-7.

Vandy cut the Bulldog lead to 27-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter, scoring on a 3-yard pass from Seals to receiver Richie Hoskins. Woodring's 30-yarder made it 30-14 with 9:05 left in the game.

The Commodores' CJ Taylor intercepted Beck with 6:17 to go in the game and returned the ball to the Bulldog 1. On the next play, Sedrick Alexander scored to cut Georgia's lead to 30-20.

Edwards ran the ball all five plays, including a 62-yarder down to the 6-yard line, on Georgia's final scoring drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Once again, we come to Nashville and it feels like a home game. We had a lot of UGA red in the stands. When we came out for warmups, it was not as crowded, and then when we came out for the main part of the game, there was a sea of red there as we came across the field — and a lot of red on their side — so I was really appreciative of our fans making it like a home game. And I'm really proud of our players being really resilient and fighting through some turnovers, some adversity, some sloppy play, some injuries. But at the end of the day, they responded and they got up to play on the road in the SEC, so I'm proud of them for that."

Linebacker Smael Mondon brings down Vandy quarterback Ken Seals during the Bulldogs' 37-20 win. Mondon led UGA with 6 stops.
