THE FIRST PITCH

- This weekend will mark Florida's 16th NCAA Super Regional appearance. They're seeking the pro-program's 13th berth to the Women's College World Series. It would also be Florida's third appearance in the last four seasons
- For the first time in program history, six different Gators have hit double-digit home runs in the same season: Taylor Shumaker (21), Mia Williams (19), Jocelyn Erickson (15), Reagan Walsh (13), Kenleigh Cahalan (10) and Ava Brown (10)
- If Mia Williams hits one more home run this season, her & Taylor Shumaker will be just the second pair of Gators to each hit 20 home runs in the same season. Brittany Schutte (22) and Megan Bush (21) did it in 2011
- With 21 home runs, Shumaker is a home run shy of tying the Florida single-season record held by Brittany Schutte (22) in 2011. With 83 RBI, she is also just three RBI shy of tying the Florida single-season RBI record which is held by Jocelyn Erickson (86), who set it in 2024
- For the first time in program history, UF won all three games of a regional in run-rule fashion
- 17 of the 30 runs (57%) scored by Florida in the Gainesville Regional came with two outs
- This is the third time that Florida-Georgia will face each other in an NCAA Super Regional. The two also faced each other in 2021 & 2016 in Gainesville
- On Tuesday, Kendra Falby was named the Softball America Defender of the Year and First Team

- All-American. Shumaker was named the Softball America Freshman of the Year, Second Team All-American & All-Freshman
- Senior Korbe Otis and Georgia junior Sarah Gordon were teammates at Louisville during the 2023 season. Both were All-ACC First Team selections that season
- Sophomore Ava Brown has hit a team-high six home runs in the last 10 games. She had two in Florida's sweep of the Gainesville Regional. She's also picked up three saves in the circle in that same 10-game frame
- Taylor Shumaker was named a Top-3 finalist for the NFCA Freshman of the Year on Thursday

HEAD COACH - TIM WALTON

2024 NFCA Hall of Fame inductee Tim Walton enters his 20th year at the helm of the Florida Gators softball program. Going into the 2025 season, Walton has tallied a 980-238 (.805) record in 19 seasons as Florida's head coach and 1,103-302 (.785) in 22 seasons overall.

In 2024, Florida returned to the Women's College World Series for the 12th time and earned its sixth SEC Tournament championship, rolling up 54 wins.

The Gators earned extensive recognition within the Southeastern Conference as Jocelyn Erickson earned SEC Player of the Year honors and Keagan Rothrock added SEC Freshman of the Year accolades. Five Gators earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2024, including Erickson, Kendra Falby, Korbe Otis, Skylar Wallace and Reagan Walsh, while Rothrock added second-team recognition. Erickson and Falby also earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors.

Prior to the start of the 2024 campaign, Walton was announced as a member of the 2024 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame Class.

Walton reached a historic milestone during the Gators 2022 campaign as he became the second fastest head coach to reach 1,000 career NCAA Division I softball victories with 2-1 (9 inning) win at LSU on May 1. In addition, Walton led the Gators to its 11th overall Women's College World Series appearance after the Orange & Blue defeated No. 3-seed Virginia Tech in Blacksburg during the NCAA Super Regional round. In 2021, Walton led the program to a Southeastern Conference leading ninth regular season championship.

During the 2019 season, the Gators became back-to-back SEC Tournament Champions for the second time in program history and Walton navigated the program through a shortened 2020 campaign due to COVID-19 with a 23-4, 3-0 SEC record and a No. 7 national ranking.

With an incredible record of 926-223 (.806) at Florida, the five-time SEC Coach of the Year has led the Orange and Blue to 364 school records and numerous other SEC records, and his squads have earned various firsts for the Gator softball program. By the end of the 2008 season, the Gators had set the NCAA single-season record for wins (70) and the SEC single-season record (27). In 2018, the program set the NCAA record for walks (360) in a season and most recently set the UF program record for stolen bases (132).

In 2018, Florida became only the second SEC program to win four straight SEC Regular Season Championships and now holds a league leading nine titles, eight of which have come under Walton's guidance. In 2017, Walton and his staff earned their fifth NFCA Southeast Coaching Staff of the Year award and the team finished the season leading the nation in ERA (0.81) and fielding percentage (.985) for the second consecutive season.

With back-to-back national titles in 2014 and 2015, Walton's Gators are one of only four teams to have achieved the feat in consecutive seasons.

The five-time SEC Coach of the Year recipient, has led his squads to 18 NCAA Regional appearances, 15 Super Regionals, 12 Women's College World Series berths, eight SEC Regular Season Championships and six SEC Tournament Championships. From 2006 to 2018, the Orange & Blue appeared in a nation's best five WCWS championship series appearances. That success led to a 2015 NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year award and five NFCA Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year selections.

Under Walton's tutelage, Gator softball student-athletes have earned 52 NFCA All-American honors, 79 All-SEC honors, two USA Softball Player of the Year recipients, three Honda Award winners, 13 SEC Player & Pitcher of the Year honorees, two NFCA Players of the Year and one NFCA Freshman of the Year.

The Gators have not only excelled on the field but in the classroom as well under Walton. Since 2006, Florida student-athletes have achieved 23 College Sports Communicators (CoSIDA) Academic All-American honors, 191 appearances on the SEC Academic Honor Roll and 79 SEC Academic Honor Roll First-Year recipients.

Prior to arriving at Florida, he took Wichita State to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 where his team finished with a school single-season record 46 wins (46-18). After three seasons with the Shockers he amassed a record of 123-64.

Walton has been a part of national championship teams as a baseball player, an assistant softball coach and a head softball coach. Before heading to take his first head coaching position at Wichita State, Walton served as an assistant softball coach for the University of Oklahoma, as the hitting coach and outfielders' coach. In his four seasons at OU, the Sooners won three Big 12 titles and made three consecutive WCWS appearances, including winning the 2000 NCAA title.

Walton Inducted Into NFCA Hall of Fame

Head coach Tim Walton added another accolade to his extensive resume on Dec. 6 as he was inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches' Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in Dallas, Texas.

He joined former Texas head coach Connie Clark and Augustana University head coach Gretta Melsted to make up the 2024 NFCA Hall of Fame class.

Walton, who is in his 20th season at the helm of the Gators and season 23rd as a head coach, has established Florida as one of the preeminent softball programs in the country as one of the most accomplished coaches in the history of the sport.

Entering the 2025 season, Walton holds a 980-238 (.805) record in 19 seasons in Gainesville. In 22 seasons as a head coach, Walton holds a career record of 1,103-302, which is good for a .785 winning percentage, which ranks third among active NCAA head coaches with a minimum of 10 years of experience as head coach.

His wins have also translated into numerous championships, leading the Gators to back-to-back NCAA National Championships in 2014 and 2015, eight Southeastern Conference Regular Season Championships, six SEC Tournament titles, 12 trips to the Women's College World Series and five WCWS Championship series appearances.

Walton's athletes have earned 53 NFCA All-America honors and 79 All-SEC nods.

He's also coached three Collegiate Women Sports Award winners, two USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year recipients, two NFCA Division I Player of the Year winners, one NFCA Freshman of the Year recipient and 13 SEC Player & Pitcher of the Year honorees.

In addition to their athletic success, Walton's athletes have been leaders in the classroom. 13 student-athletes under Walton's leadership were named College Sports Communicators Academic All-America 23 times and 90 players secured a spot 191 times on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Five Gators Earn Preseason All-SEC Team Recognition

The Florida softball team matched a conference-high five All-Southeastern Conference preseason selections, the SEC announced on Jan. 6.

Keagan Rothrock, Korbe Otis, Kendra Falby, Reagan Walsh and Jocelyn Erickson each earned All-SEC Preseason Team recognition by a vote of the conference's head coaches.

Erickson, Falby, Otis and Walsh were All-SEC First Team selections in 2024, while Rothrock was named to the All-SEC Second Team.

Erickson is the reigning SEC Player of the Year and Rothrock is the reigning SEC Freshman of the Year.

As a team, Florida was selected to finish second in the league and received six first-place votes. The 2024 SEC Tournament Champions, the Gators are coming off a 54-win 2024 season that included the program's 12th trip to the Women's College World Series.

Florida finished second in the SEC last season with a 17-7 record in conference play, winning seven of eight conference series.

The No. 3/2 Gators open the 2025 season at home on Feb. 6 vs. North Florida, before traveling to Tampa for the USF-Rawlings Invitational from Feb. 7-9.

Five Gators Named To 2025 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Watch List

Jocelyn Erickson, Kendra Falby, Korbe Otis, Keagan Rothrock and Reagan Walsh were named to the 2025 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 53 Watch List, USA Softball announced on Jan. 22

Florida's five selections is tied with Oklahoma for the most athletes recognized of the 26 universities represented on the list.

Erickson was a top-26 finalist for the award last season, while Otis was a top-10 selection.

The prestigious award "aims to recognize exceptional athletic achievement among female collegiate softball players across Division I schools nationwide."

Lauren Haegar (2015) and Kelly Barnhill (2017) are the two Gators in program history to win the award. Florida's two honorees lead the Southeastern Conference among original membership.

Four Gators Selected In AUSL Inaugural Draft

Four former Florida softball players, Skylar Wallace, Amanda Lorenz, Kelsey Stewart Hunter and Aleshia Ocasio, were selected in the inaugural Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) Draft on Jan. 30.

The AUSL is a professional softball league that launched in 2025. It features four teams - the Bandits, Blaze, Talons and Volts - that will play a 24-game season (48 total games) in a traditional format this spring.

Ocasio (Pick 5) was the first Gator off the board by the Blaze, Wallace (Pick 11) was selected by the Bandits and both Amanda Lorenz (Pick 7) and Stewart-Hunter (Pick 36) were drafted by the Volts.

HEADLINES

Shumaker Named Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week

Florida softball freshman Taylor Shumaker was named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week, the organization announced on Feb. 11.

She is just the second freshman in program history to earn the recognition and first since Kirsti Merritt in 2013.

The last Gator to win was Skylar Wallace in 2023.

Shumaker, who was named the Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Week on Monday, was also recognized as D1 Softball's National Player of the Week and a 'Star of the Week' by Softball America.

The Fullerton, Calif., native opened her college career with a hot bat at the plate.

She hit five home runs in six games, tied for the most in the NCAA, hitting .500 (9-for-18) with a team-high 11 RBI, 11 runs, four walks and three stolen bases.

The outfielder slugged two home runs against both USF and RV/No. 22 Michigan and tied a school single-game record with four runs plated against the Wolverines.

She was the first Florida freshman to hit two home runs in a regular-season game against a ranked opponent since Megan Bush at No. 17 Georgia on April 12, 2008.

Shumaker is the sixth player in program history to be named the NFCA Player of the Week. It's the ninth time overall that a Gator has been selected.

Cahalan Named Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week

Junior Kenleigh Cahalan was named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week, the organization announced on Feb. 25.

The Gator third baseman helped lead Florida to a 5-0 week at the Sun Devil Classic in Arizona, slugging three home runs, including her first career grand slam, with a team-best 13 RBI.

The Trussville, Ala., native hit .500 (7-for-14) on the weekend, with five of those hits going for extra bases.

She matched her career-best of four RBI at Grand Canyon on Feb. 22, before setting a new career-best of six RBI vs. Iowa State on Feb. 23.

Cahalan hit a home run in each of the Gators' last three games out west, including a two-run home run vs. New Mexico State, a grand slam at GCU and a solo shot against Iowa State.

She finished the five-game week with seven runs, two doubles and a sacrifice fly.

Cahalan is the second Florida player to earn NFCA Player of the Week honors this season as freshman Taylor Shumaker was selected on Feb. 11.

It's just the second time in program history that Florida has earned two NFCA Player of the Week honors in the same season.

Kelly Barnhill and Kendyl Lindaman were each selected in 2019.

Walton Wins 1000th At Florida; No. 3 Gators Down Samford

Head coach Tim Walton clinched his 1000th win as Florida's head coach on Feb. 28 in the Gators' 9-1 six-inning victory over Samford.

No. 3 Florida (20-1) earned its 13th run-rule of the season over the Bulldogs (10-6), with five different Gators recording multi-hit performances.

Walton is in his 20th season as the head coach and holds a record of 1000-239 (.807) in Gainesville. Overall, Walton holds a career record of 1,123-303 (.788) in 23 seasons as a head coach.

Walton currently ranks eighth of all active Division I coaches in career wins.

Walsh Named Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week

Senior Reagan Walsh has been named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week, the organization announced on March 6.

The Gator first baseman, who was named SEC Co-Player of the Week on Monday, blasting four home runs with 11 RBI in a 5-0 week for No. 3 Florida.

Walsh hit .688 (11-for-16), with seven of her hits going for extra bases.

She slugged 1.625 on the week, hitting a pair of home runs vs. Western Michigan, which included her second grand slam of the season and fifth in her career.

Walsh recorded five multi-hit performances, hitting home runs in back-to-back-to-back games against the Broncos, Troy and Florida A&M, and tallying a pair of doubles vs. Samford on Feb. 28.

It's the first time in program history that Florida players have earned NFCA Player of the Week honors three times in one season and the first time in back-to-back weeks.

Both Taylor Shumaker (Feb. 11) and Kenleigh Cahalan (Feb. 25) have been named the NFCA Player of the Week this season.

Shumaker Earns SEC Co-Freshman of the Week Honors

Florida freshman outfielder Taylor Shumaker has been named the Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Week, the league announced on March 11.

Shumaker led the No. 3 Gators (26-2) to a 3-1 record on the week, including an SEC series victory on the road at No. 5/4 Texas A&M.

She batted a team-best .538 (7-for-13) with eight RBI, two home runs, two doubles, three walks and four runs.

In Florida's 11-0 victory at Houston on March 5, Shumaker went 3-for-4 at the plate with six RBI, the first Gator freshman to have six RBI in a game since Reagan Walsh in 2022.

Shumaker averaged .444 at the plate against the Aggies in her first SEC series, including a home run in the series opener on March 7.

She currently leads the nation in RBI (46), runs (42) and total bases (88) and is tied for first in home runs (13).

This is Shumaker's second SEC Freshman of the Week honor and Florida's third weekly conference honor of the season.

Mia Williams Named SEC Co-Player of the Week

Sophomore second baseman Mia Williams was named SEC Co-Player of the Week, the league announced on April 15.

Williams' second career SEC Weekly honor is shared with Mississippi State's Ella Wesolowski.

Helping lead the Gators to a series win at No. 19 Ole Miss and a midweek victory at Stetson, Williams slugged a team-best 1.286 on the week and 1.455 against the Rebels.

In the series opener in Oxford on April 11, she tallied her first career multi-home run performance with a pair of solo shots.

Williams went 3-for-4 at the plate, matching her career-best of three hits, and recorded her second three-hit game of the season and career.

She slugged her third home run of the weekend in the series finale on April 13, a three-run home run, her team-best 16th long ball of the season.

Williams batted .545 (6-for-11) against Ole Miss with five RBI, a walk and a hit by pitch.

This is the Windermere, Fla., native's first SEC Player of the Week honor.

Shumaker Earns Third SEC Freshman of the Week Honor

For the third time this season, Florida freshman outfielder Taylor Shumaker has been named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week, the league office announced on April 22.

Shumaker led the No. 8/6 Gators (39-10, 11-7 SEC) to a series victory over No. 17/22 Alabama over the weekend, Florida's fourth conference victory of the season.

She batted .500 in the series (6-for-12) with a team-best 7 RBI and two home runs.

In the Gators' 12-4 victory over the Crimson Tide on April 18, Shumaker recorded her fourth career multi-home run game, first in SEC play, including the game-ending three-run home run in the bottom of the fifth.

She matched her career-best of six RBI in the win, with all three of her hits going for extra bases, including two home runs and a double.

The Fullerton, Calif., native, slugged a team-best 1.167 on the weekend, scoring both game-winning runs.

She currently leads the SEC in RBI (68) and doubles (16) and ranks third in home runs (16) and fourth in hits (60).

Shumaker currently holds the Florida freshman record for RBI and doubles.

This is Florida's fifth weekly conference honor of the season.

Shumaker Earns Fourth SEC Freshman of the Week Honor

For the fourth time this season, Taylor Shumaker has been named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week, the conference office announced on May 5.

It's the first time in program history that a single Gator has been named SEC Freshman of the Week four times in a season.

Shumaker helped lead Florida to a series victory over No. 1 Oklahoma over the weekend, the program's first-ever series victory over the top team in the nation.

The freshman batted .556 (5-for-9) with four RBI, a home run, a double, three walks, three runs and had a .692 on-base percentage, tied for a team-best.

In game two of the series on May 2, she hit her first career grand slam, her 17th home run of the season.

After setting new freshman RBI and doubles program records earlier in the season, Shumaker is now tied for most runs scored by a freshman.

She finished the regular season with 75 RBI, the third-most in the nation and most of any Power 4 freshman.

Erickson Named To SEC Softball Community Service Team

Jocelyn Erickson of the Florida softball team was named to the Southeastern Conference Community Service Team, the league office announced on May 6

Each of the SEC's 15 softball programs nominates a student-athlete who gives back to her community through exemplary service efforts on the team.

The SEC sponsors Community Service Teams for all 22 league sponsored sports.

Erickson has volunteered with multiple civic, community and faith-based service organizations to help with children and youths in the local Gainesville community.

She visited pediatric cancer patients at UF Health Shands Hospital and helped with a canned food drive for Thanksgiving and then delivered it to the Bread of the Mighty Food Bank with her teammates.

Erickson has worked with Abiding Savior Lutheran Church on their pumpkin patch setup as well with Williams Elementary School in conjunction with the Gators Tracks Present Delivery.

She prepped meals at St. Francis House and participated in the Climb for Cancer in the fall.

The junior catcher is active in religious community service, serving as a committee chairman for the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints.

Erickson was also a Big Monday attendee for Athletes in Action, an organization that "helps athletes find a relationship with God, join a community of believers, and use their platform for good."

This is her first appearance on the SEC Softball Community Service Team.

Lauren Haeger Selected to 2025 UF Athletic Hall of Fame Class

Lauren Haeger, two-time NCAA Champion and one of the the most dominant two-way players in program history, was selected as a 2025 UF Athletic Hall of Fame inductee on May 7.

Haeger joins six others who will become Gator Greats at the Hall of Fame Banquet, set for Friday, October 17, 2025, prior to the Mississippi State home football game.

Florida athletes become eligible for the Hall of Fame 10 years after completing their Gator career, making Haeger a first-ballot inductee.

She is the eighth softball player to be named a Gator Great, joining Chelsey Sakizzie, Jenny Gladding, Stacey Nelson, Michelle Moultrie, Kelsey Bruder, Francesca Enea and Hannah Rogers.

Lauren Haeger was one of the most dominant Gators in the circle and at the plate in Florida program history.

As a senior, she became just the third in NCAA history to claim each of softball's highest honors in a single season - Honda Award, USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year and Women's College World Series Most Outstanding Player. After leading Florida to its second consecutive NCAA team title as a senior in 2015, Haeger claimed the Southeastern Conference Female Athlete of Year award.

Haeger joined Babe Ruth as the only players in Division I softball, baseball or Major League Baseball history to reach the 70-70 plateau (career victories and career home runs). The 2015 SEC Pitcher of the Year led the Gators that season with 19 home runs and 71 RBI.

A first-team All-American in 2015 and 2013, Haeger still is the Gators career home run (71) and RBI (260) leader.

Haeger closed her four seasons in the circle ranking in the top 10 in win percentage, win, ERA, innings pitched, shutouts and appearances.

Haeger also ended among UF's top 10 in career slugging percentage, hits, total bases and walks.

Otis Named 2025 SEC Softball Scholar Athlete

Senior Korbe Otis was named the 2025 SEC Softball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the league office announced on May 7 prior to Florida's first game at the SEC Tournament.

She is the first Florida softball player to earn the prestigious academic honor since it was established in 2004 and first Gator in any sport to earn it this season.

Otis, a senior from Littleton, Colo., recently graduated cum laude with an undergraduate degree in biology, finishing her undergraduate degree with a 4.0 grade point average.

She has plans to attend medical school to become a surgeon specializing in cardiothoracic or orthopedic surgery who works with athletes.

On May 3, she was the No. 6 draft pick in the 2025 Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) draft.

HEADLINES

Otis finished the regular season batting .325 with seven doubles, five home runs and 40 RBI and drew 44 walks, sixth-most in the SEC.

Last season, Otis earned a spot on the 2024 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-America First Team, the 2024 All-SEC First Team and the 2024 College Sports Communicators (CSC) Academic All-America First Team.

Shumaker Named NFCA National Freshman of the Year Top-10 Finalist

The NFCA named Taylor Shumaker as one of its top 10 finalists for the 2025 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Division I National Freshman of the Year on May 8.

Shumaker is the second straight Gator and fourth Florida player of all-time to earn top-10 status.

The four-time Southeastern Conference player of the Week has racked up 76 RBI in her first season, third most of any player in the NCAA and most of any Power 4 freshman.

Shumaker is batting .380 with 70 hits, a team-best 17 doubles, 18 home runs, 30 walks and 18 stolen bases.

The Fullerton, Calif., native is slugging a team-high .777 with 51% (36-of-70) of her hits going for extra bases.

Shumaker has already set new Florida freshman records in RBI, doubles and runs scored and is just one shy of matching the program's rookie home run record.

On May 22, the list will be trimmed to three with the winner revealed on May 27, prior to the start of the 2025 NCAA Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

The top 10 list, along with the top three and winner, are voted on by the NFCA Division I All-America Committee.

To be eligible, student-athletes must be nominated by their member head coach and in their first year of NCAA Division I collegiate competition as a true freshman or redshirt freshman.

Gator Great Amanda Lorenz was named the NFCA Division I National Freshman of the Year in 2016.

Four Gators Claim Five All-Southeastern Conference Softball Awards

The Southeastern Conference announced on May 9 that Kendra Falby, Reagan Walsh and Taylor Shumaker have been named First Team All-SEC and Mia Williams has been named to the All-SEC Second Team, as voted on by the league's coaches.

Falby also picked up an All-Defensive Team selection for the second year in a row.

The All-SEC Teams consist of 21 student-athletes on the First Team, 22 student-athletes on the Second Team and a 10-member All-Defensive Team. No ties were broken.

Walsh and Falby are now both three-time All-SEC selections, each earning First Team honors in 2024 and Second Team honors in 2023.

Williams is a first-time selection.

Softball Selected as National No. 3 Seed in 2025 NCAA Tournament

The Florida Gators softball team will host an NCAA Regional for the 19th time at Katie Seashole Pressly Stadium.

The team found out their placement as the national No. 3 seed during the selection show on ESPN2 on May 12.

Joining Florida in the Gainesville Regional will be Florida Atlantic (44-10), Mercer (38-24) and Georgia Tech (27-21).

The Gators have hosted a regional in 18 of 19 NCAA appearances under head coach Tim Walton, who is in his 20th season as Florida's head coach.

The double-elimination regional starts Friday, May 16 through Sunday, May 18.

Florida's first game of the regional is set for Friday at 4:30 p.m. vs. Mercer on ESPN+

As the No. 3-seed in this year's tournament, should the Gators win the Gainesville Regional, Florida would then face the winner out of the Durham Region hosted by No. 14-seed Duke.

Gators Road to Oklahoma City

- The Gators hold a 55-21 (.724) record overall at the NCAA Regionals
- Under Walton, the Gators hold a 50-9 (.850) record overall in NCAA Regionals
- This is the 19th season that the Gators have hosted an NCAA Regional and 18th time under Walton
- Florida has earned a Top 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the 15th time in program history. It's also the first time that U
- UF has been selected as the No. 3 national seed
- This is the Gators' highest seed since they were the No. 2 seed in 2018

Seven Gators Named To NFCA All-Gulf Region Teams

Seven players on the Florida softball team were named to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Gulf Region teams, the organization announced on May 15.

The Gators have three players represented on the NFCA All-Gulf First Team, one player named to the NFCA All-Gulf Region Second Team and a trio of players on the NFCA All-Gulf Region Third Team.

Overall, the seven selections are tied for the most all-region selections in program history along with the 2024, 2017 & 2016 squads.

Mia Williams (second base), Kendra Falby (outfield) and Taylor Shumaker (outfield) were first team selections, Reagan Walsh (first base) was a second team selection and Jocelyn Erickson (catcher), Korbe Otis (outfield) and Ava Brown (utility/pitcher) were each third team selections.

Falby has been an all-region selection in each of her four seasons, while Otis is now a three-time all-region honoree.

Walsh, Erickson and Brown are earning all-region recognition for the second year in a row.

It's the first career NFCA All-Region honors for Shumaker and Williams.

Shumaker Named Top-3 Finalist For NFCA National Freshman of the Year

Taylor Shumaker was named as one of the three finalists for the 2025 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Division I Freshman of the Year award, the Association announced on May 22.

Shumaker is the second straight Gator - Keagan Rothrock in 2024 - and the fourth overall (Kelly Barnhill & Amanda Lorenz in 2016) to reach the top three for the prestigious award.

A first-team NFCA All-Region and All-SEC selection, Shumaker is tied for second in the NCAA with 83 RBI, three shy of matching the Florida single-season record (86).

She has slugged a team-best 21 home runs, which ranks 13th in NCAA and is tied for second-most of any freshman in the country.

She's just one home run shy of matching the Florida single-season record (22).

The Fullerton, Calif., native, is batting .387 with 70 runs, 17 doubles, a triple, 35 walks and 18 stolen bases in 19 attempts.

HEADLINES

Shumaker has already recorded more home runs, RBI, doubles and runs than any other freshman in program history.

She is also the only Gator to ever win Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week honors four times.

In her postseason debut, she batted .571 with three home runs, seven RBI, six runs scored over Florida's three-game sweep of the NCAA Gainesville Regional.

Oregon's Rylee McCoy and Alabama's Audrey Vandagriff are the two other finalists.

The winner, which is voted on by the Association's Division I All-America Committee, will be announced on Tuesday, May 27, prior to the start of the 2025 NCAA Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

Gator Great Amanda Lorenz won the award in 2016.
