HC Jon Sumrall is the only coach in FBS history to make four conference title games at two schools (Troy & Tulane) in his first four years as a head coach, and the first to WIN a conference title at multiple schools in his first four seasons, combining for three. Sumrall has the seventh-highest win percentage (.762, 48-15) among current FBS head coaches in at least their fifth season and boasts the seventh-most wins (48) since 2022.

The two prior meetings between Florida and Oklahoma have been top-10 matchups in the 2008 National Championship (Jan. 1, 2009) and 2020 Cotton Bowl (Dec. 30, 2020), and both games were decided by 10-plus points. No. 1 Florida defeated No. 2 Oklahoma, 24-14, to win its third National Title in 2008 behind 480 total yards (249 rushing, 231 passing). The Gators totaled 521 yards (250 rushing, 271 passing) vs. the Sooners in 2020. Week 10 marks Oklahoma's first game in The Swamp. The last five teams to play in The Swamp for the first time since 2022 have lost by a combined margin of 230-34 for an average UF margin of victory of 39.2 points.

THE STORYLINE

★ HC Jon Sumrall has scored at least 13 more points (285) than every first-year UF head coach since Charles Bachman in 1929 (324), leading the Gators to multiple regular-season, top-10 wins for the first time since 2012 (2-1 vs. top 10).

★ Sumrall has guided Florida to its first appearance in the CFP rankings since the final CFP rankings of 2020 (No. 7).

★ Sumrall has led all three schools he has served as head coach into the CFP rankings in his first season: Troy, Tulane and Florida. Troy was ranked once in 2022 while Tulane was ranked three times in 2024 and four times in 2025.

★ Florida's eight opponents so far this season have a combined 44-21 record (.677), which leads all AP Top 25 teams.

- Florida and Oklahoma are facing off for the third time in their first meeting as SEC opponents, and the first time playing on either school's campus. Both of the previous two meetings were top-10 matchups.
- The two prior meetings came in Miami at the 2008 National Championship and in Arlington at the 2020 Cotton Bowl.

★ Week 10 is Oklahoma's first-ever game in The Swamp. Florida has won 48-straight games against teams playing in The Swamp for the first time (most recent: Campbell, 2026), last falling to Memphis State on Oct. 8, 1988.

- In three games vs. top-10 teams this season, Florida has outscored opponents, 87-79.
- Florida has scored at least 44 points in four games while scoring 50-plus points three times, surpassing the team's total of 50-point efforts across 50 games played in four seasons from 2022-25 (two). Florida totaled five 44-point games and nine 40-point games in that span.

★ Florida surpassed its point total from all of last season (259) in just the seventh game, and now has scored 285 points and 36 touchdowns – seven more than last season (29).

- Leading the SEC in rushing TDs (13, 4th in FBS), total TDs (13, 7th in FBS), scoring (9.8, 10th in FBS) and points scored (78, 11th in FBS), RB Jadan Baugh has rushed for 801 yards on 152 carries (5.3 YPC, 100.1 YPG) with nine catches for 59 yards.

★ Baugh owns more rushing touchdowns through eight games than two of the last three Heisman Trophy-winning running backs (Mark Ingram, Reggie Bush) while having one fewer score than Derrick Henry (14). Baugh is on pace for 21 rushing touchdowns in a 13-game season, which would fall just shy of Tim Tebow's 2007 school record (23).

★ Having trailed 17-3 in the second quarter at Texas, Florida and QB Tramell Jones Jr. – making his first-career start – came roaring back for the program's largest comeback victory against a ranked SEC opponent in a true road game.

★ Florida delivered its first ranked win in a true road game since Sept. 29, 2018 at No. 23 Mississippi State, and highest-ranked win in a true road game since defeating No. 4 LSU, 13-3, on Oct. 10, 2009.

- Florida ranks second in the FBS in punt return average (22.4), sixth in completion percentage (70.7), 14th in tackles for loss per game (7.1), 15th in sacks per game (2.88), 19th in net punting (42.46) and time of possession (32:30), 20th in fumble recoveries (6), and 23rd in redzone offense (91.4) and scoring offense (35.6).
- Per Pro Football Focus, Florida grades as the No. 26 overall team in the FBS (90.9), grading 10th in rushing (88.9), 23rd in run defense (90.9) and 25th in tackling (79.6).
- The Gators are 11-3 in their last 14 games in The Swamp dating back to 2024, outscoring opponents by 218 points in that span (486-268) for an average of 15.6 PPG. Florida is 4-11 away from home in that stretch.
- Florida's all-time, NCAA-record scoring streak currently sits at 481-consecutive games dating back to 1988.

COACH SUMRALL INTERVIEWS

Please coordinate all requests for telephone and personal interviews with Head Coach Jon Sumrall through Scott Burns in the Communications Office. Coach Sumrall is available Monday (weekly press conference) and select Wednesdays as part of the SEC Teleconference (9/2, 9/23, 10/7, 10/28, 11/18). For Week 10, Sumrall's weekly press conference will take place on Monday, Nov. 2. For access to the SEC Teleconference, please contact the SEC Office at (205)-458-3010 for phone number and passcode. Coach Sumrall also hosts the Gator Talk show on select Monday nights from 7-8 p.m. ET.

STUDENT-ATHLETE / ASSISTANT COACH INTERVIEWS

Please coordinate all student-athlete interviews through Matthew Hutchison in the Communications Office. Select student-athletes will be available on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings during game week. All student-athlete interviews will conclude by Wednesday during game weeks.

Telephone interviews should be booked at least one day in advance and are typically limited to the times reserved for general interview sessions. The Communications Office will not give out phone numbers for any student-athletes, and student-athletes may not be contacted directly by phone, text, e-mail, or social media. Members of the media are not permitted in team areas. Team locker room, training room and strength complex are considered private areas. These areas, as well as student-athletes' housing (campus and off-campus) are off limits to media representatives.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Florida's weekly press conference will be each Monday during the season. Coach Sumrall is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. with select student-athletes to speak on Tuesday and Wednesday. Video of the press conference will be posted on FloridaGators.com, and it will avaliable to download via XOS. See above for an adjusted media schedule for Week 10.

2026 FLORIDA GATORS FB MEDIA PORTAL

★ HC Jon Sumrall cruised Steve Spurrier's mark of 272 points scored (1990) through his first eight games as UF coach (285), ranking second through eight games behind only Charles Bachman's 324 points in 1929.

★ The last first-year coaches to have Florida ranked higher than Sumrall has this season (No. 8) were Urban Meyer (2005: No. 5) and Steve Spurrier (1990: No. 6). Both coaches won nine games in their first seasons.

• Florida ranks 33rd in the FBS and seventh in the SEC in points per play (.456). Florida averaged .290 in 2025.

★ Florida has tallied eight touchdown drives of three plays or less and 50 points off turnovers.

★ In Week 9, Florida out-passed the Bulldogs (198-101) and logged more yards per completion (9.0-7.8) while tying UGA with seven explosives, as Florida allowed its fewest pass yards to an SEC team since 2023 at Kentucky.

• In Week 7 at No. 7 Texas, UF posted its largest comeback vs. an SEC team in a true road game since Oct. 13, 2018 at Vanderbilt, which was also UF's last SEC comeback of 14-plus points in the 2Q or later. It was Florida's largest comeback vs. an SEC foe since Nov. 7, 2020 vs. UGA (14) and largest overall since Nov. 13, 2021 vs. Samford (14).

• Week 7 produced Florida's first top-10 win in a true road game since Nov. 24, 2012 at No. 10 Florida State (W, 37-26) and first ranked win away from home since Nov. 7, 2020 vs. No. 5 Georgia (W, 44-28 in Jacksonville).

• Florida posted its highest-ranked win in a true road game while being unranked since 2003 at No. 6 LSU (W, 19-7). The Gators last defeated a top-10 team on the road while unranked in 2004 at No. 10 FSU (W, 20-13).

• In Week 4 vs. No. 4 Ole Miss, UF posted its highest-ranked win in 11 years – since 2015 vs. No. 3 Ole Miss.

• Florida's 52 points in Week 4 tied for UF's most vs. a top-five team since beating FSU in the 1996 National Title.

★ The Gators scored their most points ever against Ole Miss (52), eclipsing 50 points scored in SEC play for the first time since Nov. 14, 2020 vs. Arkansas (63). The Gators' 302 rushing yards marked their most since Sept. 9, 2023 vs. McNeese (327) and most vs. an SEC team since Nov. 11, 2022 vs. South Carolina (374).

- THE BAUGHLIN' BELLCOW -

• As a leading favorite to win the Doak Walker Award and Florida's first returning 1,000-yard rusher since 1992, junior All-SEC RB Jadan Baugh is having one of the best seasons of any running back in college football.

★ Baugh leads the SEC (FBS rank) with a 90.3 PFF grade for HandsFumble (3rd), 13 rushing touchdowns (4th), 45 missed tackles forced (5th), 13 total touchdowns (7th), 9.8 points per game (10th), 78 points scored (11th) and a 44.2% breakaway percentage (12th). Baugh is the SEC leader in every aforementioned category.

★ Per PFF, Baugh grades third in the SEC in PFF run blocking grade (68.1, 9th in FBS), rushing first downs among running backs (40, 11th in FBS), rushing grade (85.2, 13th in FBS) and offensive grade (83.4, 13th in FBS).

★ Baugh is one of four FBS players (only in SEC) with at least 13 rushing touchdowns and averaging 5.2-plus yards per carry, and one of three FBS running backs (only in SEC) with 13 rushing touchdowns and 850 scrimmage yards.

★ Baugh is the one of three FBS running backs to rush for multiple TDs in four games this season (Nate Sheppard, Scottre Humphrey) and one of seven FBS players to do so. The other four are quarterbacks.

★ Baugh has recorded 562-consecutive touches and 501-straight rushes without a fumble entering Week 10.

• In a 13-game season, Baugh is on pace for 1,302 rushing yards and 21 rushing touchdowns, which would fall just shy of Tim Tebow's 2007 single-season school rushing TD record (23). Baugh's 1,302 yards would rank fourth in program history for a single season behind Emmitt Smith's 1989 program record (1,599), Smith's 1987 campaign (1,341) and Jimmy DuBose's 1975 season (1,307).

★ Baugh's 517 rush yards after contact this season rank fourth in the SEC and 14th in the FBS.

★ Baugh is the fastest Gator ever to 10 rushing touchdowns in a season (3.5 games), topping Tim Tebow's record of seven games in 2007 (en route to a program-record 23 rushing scores).

• Baugh ranks seventh in program history with 28 career rushing TDs and seventh in rushing yards (2,644).

• Baugh is one of three Gators all-time to post five-straight, 100-yard rushing games alongside Fred Taylor and Emmitt Smith. His streak came to an end in Week 5 at Missouri.

★ Baugh and Leonard Fournette are the only SEC running backs in the past 20 years to rush for 100-plus yards and multiple touchdowns in five-consecutive games.

• In the last nine games, Baugh has combined for 1,067 rush yards (118.6 YPG) and 15 rushing TDs: Georgia (38), Texas (91), South Carolina (59), Missouri (13) Ole Miss (142), Auburn (162), Campbell (136), FAU (160) and FSU (266).

★ Baugh reps 1,711 yards after contact in his career, equating to 64.7% of his career rushing yards (2,644).

• Carrying 29 times for 142 rushing yards and three touchdowns in the Week 4 win over No. 4 Ole Miss, Baugh rushed for over 135 yards and multiple touchdowns for the fifth-straight game dating back to 2025.

• In Week 3, Baugh became the first Gator to rush for over 100 yards at Auburn since Bo Carroll (104) in 1999.

★ In the first three games, Baugh delivered two separate 150-yard, three-touchdown games, a feat that has now been accomplished five times by a Gator since 1996. Baugh has accounted for two of the five this season alone. QB Jeff Driskel was the last to accomplish the feat prior, doing so vs. Vanderbilt in 2012.

• Baugh's 75-yard TD run in Week 2 was the longest of his career and the longest TD run by a Gator since 2022.

• Becoming UF's 10th 1,000-yard rusher in 2025 (12th 1,000-yard season) and first since 2015, Baugh carried 220 times for 1,170 yards (seventh all-time), eight touchdowns and 5.3 YPC while pacing all SEC running backs with 33 catches and 210 receiving yards. Needing the seventh-fewest attempts (198) of any Gator to eclipse 1,000 rush yards, Baugh's 1,170 rush yards were the most since Ciatrick Fashon's 1,267 yards in 2004.

- THE PHILOSOPHER AND MR. JONES -

- Entering the season, Florida's five-man QB room had the fifth-fewest, combined collegiate starts at any level (two) and sixth-fewest games played (16) among P4 teams. Florida was tied for the third-fewest career QB starts (two) in the SEC alongside Tennessee, sitting ahead of only Alabama (0) and Vanderbilt (0).
- After seeing QB Aaron Philo lead Florida to a 4-2 start including wins at Auburn (44-39) and vs. No. 4 Ole Miss (52-28), QB Tramell Jones started for an injured Philo in Week 7 and led UF to an upset win at No. 7 Texas.
- Philo then started in Week 9, going 5-of-7 with two interceptions before Jones Jr. took over in the second quarter, finishing 17-of-24 (70.8%) for a career-high 172 yards, one interception and his first-career rushing TD.

★ In Week 9 at No. 7 Texas, Jones Jr. became the fourth FBS quarterback in the last 15 seasons to win his first-career start while throwing for multiple touchdowns and zero interceptions against an AP Top 10 opponent.

★ In his first start since the second game of his senior high school season on Aug. 30, 2024, Jones Jr. set career highs in completions (22), attempts (35) and pass yards (155) while throwing two touchdown passes.

★ Jones Jr. completed seven-consecutive passes and strung together a stretch of 15-of-17 passing (2Q-3Q).

- Philo has thrown a touchdown and completed over 60% of his passes in six of seven games played this season (failed to do so in Week 9) while accounting for multiple TDs in four games.
- Philo has completed 70.5% of his passes (110-of-156) and has a career-high three rushing touchdowns.

★ Philo ranks second in the SEC and ninth in the FBS in completion % (70.5) while sitting fourth in the SEC and 22nd in the FBS in yards per attempt (8.76). Philo's 156.7 rating ranks fifth in the SEC and 29th in the FBS.

- Philo's 80.9% adjusted completion percentage ranks third in the SEC and seventh in the FBS (per PFF).

★ Per PFF, Philo has the fourth-best adjusted completion percentage among FBS quarterbacks (61.5%) on deep passes with one turnover-worthy play on attempts 20-plus air yards (14-for-26, 459 yards, 3 TDs).

- ALWAYS UP FRONT ABOUT IT -

- Highlighted by the departures of two-time All-American C Jake Slaughter and OT Austin Barber via the NFL Draft, Florida has successfully replaced three of five starters on the offensive line.
- Entering the 2026 season, 11 Gators owned a combined 180 career games played and 69 starts, including 58 combined career starts and 119 games played among projected starters.
- In all eight games, Florida's starting O-line has consisted of LT Bryce Lovett, LG Knijeah Harris, C Harrison Moore, RG TJ Shanahan Jr. and RT Emeka Ugorj.
- Florida's only returning starters on the offensive line this season were senior Harris (12) and senior RT Caden Jones (10), who combined for 22 starts during the 2025 campaign.
- Harris' run of 33-consecutive starts in Orange & Blue is the longest-active streak on the roster.

★ Harris (505) and Shanahan Jr. (496) have played a combined 1,001 snaps this season without allowing a sack.

★ The Gators have surrendered just 13 sacks, 14 QB hurries and 48 tackles for loss through eight games.

★ Florida ranks fourth in the SEC and 48th in the FBS with 1.63 sacks allowed per game.

- Florida ranks 44th in the FBS in run blocking (68.2), sitting fifth in the SEC.
- The Gators have fallen to 84th in the FBS in pass blocking (64.1) through Week 9 despite being among the top-20 FBS teams through Week 4 of the season.
- The O-line's performance has paved the way for the Gators to rush for 200 yards in five of the last nine contests while eclipsing 100 yards rushing in 12 of 14 games dating back to last season.
- Florida's highest-graded linemen in pass blocking are Shanahan Jr. (81.7), LT TJ Dice Jr. (73.6), RG Roderick Kearney (72.8), Moore (72.3) and Harris (70.1) and while Dice Jr. (75.8), Moore (71.1) and Kearney (69.8) lead in run blocking.
- Moore has played the most snaps (547) on the offensive line and has allowed five QB hurries and one sack.

- TIGHT ENDS WORKING THE CUT -

- Although the Florida tight end room was underrated entering the season, Florida HC Jon Sumrall said "That group has grown as much from February to right now as any position group I've ever been affiliated with..."
- TE Lacota Dippre has started seven games while TE Amir Jackson made his first-four career starts in Weeks 1, 2, 3 and 6. However, TE Luke Harpring paces UF tight ends with 14 receptions and 165 receiving yards.
- Dippre caught his first-two touchdowns as a Gator in Week 7 at No. 7 Texas and now has five in his career.
- A. Jackson caught his first TD of the season in Week 4 and has seven catches for 133 yards through Week 9.
- A. Jackson grades sixth in the SEC and 26th in the FBS in run blocking (70.1) among tight ends (min. 78 snaps).
- TE Micah Jones is the only other Gator tight end with a touchdown, catching the first of his career in Week 1.

- DYNAMIC RECEIVERS LED BY VBIII & DALLAS -

- UF's receiving unit ranks No. 9 nationally and No. 3 in the SEC behind Texas and Tennessee (Phil Steele).
- Florida returns its leading receiver in WR Vernell Brown III in addition to RB Jadan Baugh, WR TJ Abrams, WR Dallas Wilson and TE Amir Jackson. The first-four players all caught 10 or more passes last year.
- A strong transfer class fortified the unit highlighted by impact pass catchers in WR Eric Singleton Jr. (Auburn), WR Bailey Stockton (Georgia Tech) and WR Micah Mays Jr.

Florida Offense - With Vernell Brown III vs. Without Vernell Brown III

	PPG	YPG	Rush YPG	Rush YPC	Pass YPG	YPP	Punt Ret. Avg.	First Downs
With VBIII	53.5	532.8	260.0	5.9	272.8	7.6	27.0	105
Without VBIII	17.8	317.8	92.0	2.7	225.8	4.6	11.7	75

★ Florida is one of five SEC teams (LSU, Missouri, Oklahoma, Auburn) and one of 25 FBS teams with two players both with at least 30 catches, 350 receiving yards and two receiving touchdowns: Stockton (35-365-2) and Wilson (31-417-3).

★ Three Florida receivers have delivered a 100-yard game this season: Brown III in Week 1 (6-117-1), Wilson in Week 2 (5-104-1) and Stockton in Week 6 (8-127-1). UF had two 100-yard receiving games all of last season.

★ Entering Week 10, Florida has the sixth-best PFF receiving grade (74.9) in the SEC, ranking 40th in the FBS highlighted by Brown III, who ranks second in the SEC and seventh in the FBS in receiving grade (88.4).

- Stockton paced UF in catches (eight) and receiving yards (76) in Week 9 despite being limited in practice.
- Stockton recorded his first-career 100-yard game in Week 6, setting career highs with eight catches and 127 yards on top of one touchdown. He led UF in receiving yards while tying for the team high in receptions.
- Stockton leads Florida in catches (35) and is second in yards (365) on top of a career-high two TDs.
- Wilson leads Florida in receiving yards (417) and receiving touchdowns (three), sitting second in catches (31).
- Wilson has led Florida in both receptions and receiving yards in two games (Weeks 2 and 5). In Week 2, he posted the second 100-yard game of his career and his only of the season (5-104-1).
- Singleton Jr. led UF with a season-high seven catches in Week 7 and now has 13 catches for 101 yards.
- After missing four games, Brown III sits third on the team in receiving yards (271) and receptions (17), having caught touchdowns in Weeks 1 and 2 after being held without a touchdown last season. He paced Florida in receptions and receiving yards in two of his four games this season.
- Brown has four total TDs (two receiving, two punt returns) in four games, and is one of five FBS players with two punt return TDs in 2026 (one of two in SEC). His two punt return TDs came on consecutive punts in Week 2.
- In Week 1, Brown III set a career high with a team-best 117 receiving yards while catching his first-career touchdown (11th-career game) en route to the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.

★ In 214 career snaps played by both Brown III and Wilson from 2025-26, Florida has averaged 7.8 yards per play for a total of 1,659 yards, 76 first downs and 13 touchdowns.

★ Stockton and Philo connected for their first touchdown in Week 1 since playing together at Prince Avenue Christian School in 2022, marking their 40th-career TD connection together (39 in high school). They surpassed 3,000 career air yards together in Week 5 and connected for a 41st TD in Week 6.

- TRUE FRESHMAN RECEIVERS FOR THE AGES -

- WR Vernell Brown III finished last season leading UF in receptions (40) and receiving yards (512), becoming the first UF true freshman in program history to lead the Gators in both categories.
- Among FBS true freshmen, Brown III ranked fourth in receptions (40), fourth in receiving yards per game (51.2), fifth in receiving yards (512) and 11th in yards per catch (12.8).
- Brown III was one of two FBS true freshmen with 40+ catches, 12.0+ YPC and 50.0+ YPG (Andrew Marsh, Mich.).
- Brown III finished top-32 among SEC players in receiving YPG (23rd), catches (24th) and receiving yards (31st).

★ In Week 7 at Texas A&M, Brown III and WR Dallas Wilson became the first two true freshman wide receivers to start in the same game in program history.

★ Despite missing the final four games to injury, D. Wilson tied for the team lead with three receiving TDs in just four games. That made Florida the only FBS team to be led by true freshmen in catches, yards and TDs.

- D. Wilson is the only UF true freshman receiver in team history to catch three touchdowns in his first two games, and the first Florida receiver (any year) to do so in his first two games since Carlos Alvarez in 1969.
- Brown III became the third true freshman wide receiver to start on opening day for the Gators in Week 1 of the season, joining Antonio Callaway (2015) and Percy Harvin (2006).

- THE GRAHAM LEGACY -

- Gator legacy (son of Earnest Graham) player LB Myles Graham became the leader of the UF defense after a strong 2025 sophomore season.
★ Playing a team-high 431 snaps this season, Graham has only missed three tackles. He did not miss a tackle for four-straight games before his first of the season in Week 3 at Auburn. Graham's two missed tackles vs. Georgia marked the first time since 2025 vs. Ole Miss and only the fourth time in his career he has missed multiple.
★ He entered Week 9 graded the top tackler in the FBS per PFF, and is currently the top SEC linebacker in tackling grade (88.7) and No. 4 overall in the conference at any position.
★ Across the last three games, Graham has 22 tackles, 3.0 sacks, 3.0 tackles-for-loss, two QB hurries, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, nine stops and two missed tackles. His strip-sack in the fourth quarter of QB Arch Manning (1:58) led to a Florida fumble recovery, clinching UF's second top-10 win of the season.
★ Graham had eight tackles (six stops), a career-high two sacks and tied his career-best with two QB hurries in Week 6 vs. South Carolina. He has led Florida in tackles in four games this season, starting the season with a career-high 10 (four solo) in Week 1 and now ranks 16th in the SEC in total tackles (55).
- In SEC play across his career, he has 109 tackles, 8.5 TFLs, 5.0 sacks, 46 stops, four pass breakups, five QB hurries, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble.
- Graham started all 12 games in 2025 and led the Gators with a career-high 76 tackles, tackles-for-loss (7.0), stops (36) and QB hurries (seven) while ranking second in pass breakups (four) and fifth in sacks (2.0).
- Graham became the first UF linebacker to pace the team in tackles since 2021 (Mohamoud Diabate).
- Graham finished the regular season 10th in the SEC in tackles - the highest by a UF linebacker since 2020.
- He was one of four players in the SEC to post 75-plus tackles and 7.0-plus TFL in the regular season.
- Graham's four pass breakups were tied for the second most among FBS linebackers while his 36 stops were the fifth-most during the 2025 regular season.

- LINEBACKER LOWDOWN -

★ LB Myles Graham and LB Jaden Robinson rank No. 1 and No. 4 in tackling grade among SEC linebackers, having only missed four total tackles in 661 combined snaps. Robinson's lone miss came in the season opener vs. FAU. LB Ty Jackson sits No. 5 among conference linebackers in tackling grade.
- Owning 33 games played (nine starts), LB Aaron Chiles made the start in the season opener and had three tackles, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry. Against No. 4 Ole Miss, Chiles forced a fumble on the Rebels' opening drive, stopping their fourth-and-one attempt.
- Chiles surpassed 100-career tackles with a team-leading, nine-tackle performance to tie his career high on top of one TFL vs. South Carolina in Week 6.
- Robinson has posted 50-plus tackles in back-to-back seasons on top of 7.5 TFL and 5.5 sacks (2024-25).
- Wielding 44 games and 17 starts, Robinson made two solo tackles, one solo sack (-6 yards) and one QB hurry at Auburn. His other solo tackle held the Tigers to a one-yard rush.
- Behind the veteran trio is the future of the linebacker room in pair of sophomores: LB Ty Jackson and LB Myles Johnson. The two were both consensus four-star recruits with Jackson at No. 1 and Johnson the No. 11-ranked inside linebacker by ESPN. They were special team starters last year as true freshmen.
★ At No. 7 Texas (14 snaps), Jackson had a solo strip-sack (-6 yards) and TFL to force a turnover on downs on the same drive. The stop led to Florida's touchdown drive at the end of the first half, cutting the UT lead to 17-10.
★ Jackson earned his first career start next week vs. Georgia and had career-high seven tackles, not missing one and graded as UF's second best defender and tackler in the game.
- In Week 1, Johnson had 1.0 tackle-for-loss (-4 yards) and one fumble recovery, both career firsts.

- INTO THE WOODS -

- Last season, true freshman JACK Jayden Woods finished with the No. 1 freshman EDGE grade in the SEC en route to earning SEC All-Freshman Coaches' and PFF All-Freshman Team honors.
★ After only having 0.5 sacks in the first two weeks, Woods had a career performance at Auburn with a team-high six tackles (five solo), 3.5 tackles-for-loss, 2.5 sacks, four stops and one QB hurry.
★ He posted another huge game with 2.0 tackles-for-loss, one sack and one forced fumble against No. 4 Ole Miss. Woods has now sacked (forced fumble) and intercepted QB Trinidad Chambliss in his career.
★ In six SEC games, Woods has 7.5 TFL, 4.0 sacks, one forced fumble, three QB hurries and 10 stops.
★ In SEC play, he is tied for third in tackles-for-loss (7.5) and fourth in sacks (4.0) and this season.
★ Across his last eight SEC games, Woods has 26 tackles, 9.0 TFL, 5.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, one INT and 16 stops.
- Woods has already set new season highs in TFL (8.0) and sacks (4.5).
- After playing all 12 games with three starts and tying for a team-high 3.5 sacks as a true freshman, Woods has posted 24 tackles (14 solo), 7.0 TFLs and 4.5 sacks in six games this season.
- He was the first Gator true freshman since Johnnie Church in 1992 to lead or co-lead the team in sacks (2025).
- He was the first UF true freshman with an interception and fumble recovery in the same season since 2011.

- A QUICK REPORT OF GATORS D -

★ Florida has forced 10 fumbles (two on goal-line stands), which is tied for third in the FBS and leads the SEC.

★ After only four combined sacks in the first two games vs. Campbell and FAU, the Gators delivered a seven-sack performance at Auburn - the sixth-most by any FBS team this season and third-most in a P4 vs. P4 game.

★ Florida's defense ranks 15th in tackles-for-loss (57) and tied for 17th in sacks (23) in the FBS.

★ The Gators are three sacks and three tackles-for-loss away from tying their season totals last season.

★ In conference play this season, UF leads the SEC in tackles-for-loss (43) and sits fourth in sacks (19). Only the Gators, LSU and Tennessee have had two five-plus-sack games in conference play this season.

★ Florida has allowed one TD on an opponent's opening drive (Texas). The other seven first drives featured three takeaways (2 INTs and fourth-down stop), two field goals, one missed FG and one punt (three-and-out).

★ To start the second half, UF held Georgia to back-to-back three-and-outs (total of -6 yards) and then forced a fumble to setup a touchdown drive.

★ The Gators forced UGA to a season low in passing yards (101) and touchdowns passes (0), marking UGA's lowest passing total in SEC play since 2021 and the first time without a TD pass in an SEC game since 2025 vs. Auburn.

★ After Texas scored on their first two possessions (TD, FG), UF held the Longhorns to six-straight scoreless drives in their next eight possessions and only 163 yards of offense. This marked an improvement from 9.0 yards allowed per play in the first 15 snaps to 4.6 per play over the final 43 plays.

- The final eight drives featured a trio of three-and-outs, a pair of fourth-down-stops and one fumble.
- Texas only gained two first downs in the second half, compared to 11 in the first two quarters.

★ UF held the Texas WR duo of Cam Coleman and Ryan Wingo to a combined season-low of 67 receiving yards.

- The Gators defense intercepted and forced a fumble (recovered by UF) against Ole Miss QB Trinidad Chambliss in Week 4, becoming just the second school (Louisville) to force two turnovers in a game against him.
- Florida's first quarter of SEC play in Week 3 featured the UF defense holding Auburn to -3 yards of total offense (0 passing and -3 rushing) and zero first downs while limiting QB Byrum Brown to 0-of-4 with one interception, which came on the Tigers' opening drive and second pass attempt of the game.
- All of Auburn's first quarter possessions were three-and-outs, with their final drive going for three-straight negative plays, including back-to-back sacks. On those three plays, Florida forced -14 yards of offense.

- DEFENSIVE LINE DIGEST -

- Entering the 2026 season, Florida's defensive line unit ranked No. 30 in the FBS (Phil Steele).
- Florida returned each of its top three in sacks from last season in JACK Jayden Woods, DL Kamran James and DL Brendan Bett, in addition to five of its top six players in tackles for loss.
- Bett had a career-high 1.5 tackles-for-loss at Texas, highlighted by a fourth-quarter TFL (-3) of QB Arch Manning on fourth-and-two to force a turnover on downs, setting up a Gator touchdown drive.
- Fifth-year senior transfer DL Emmanuel Oyebadejo has been heavily involved in the unit as his UF debut in Week 1 featured a pair of tackles and quarterback hurries along with one pass breakup.

★ As a game-time decision at Auburn, Oyebadejo's first-ever SEC game featured three tackles (two solo), a career-high 2.5 sacks, one pass breakup and one QB hurry. His play sequence featured: sack (-6), sack (-7) on third down, pass breakup, QB hurry and sack (-4) on fourth down.

★ In seven games, Oyebadejo has 5.5 tackles-for-loss, 4.5 sacks, five QB hurries, three PBUs and forced fumble.

- At Jax State in 2025, Oyebadejo started all 14 games and led the team with 3.5 sacks on top of 6.5 TFL and 41 tackles.
- Now back healthy, five-star junior LB LJ McCray looks to return to form after playing all 13 games as a true freshman in 2024. He appeared in just one game (vs. USF) during the 2025 campaign.

★ He set career-highs in tackles (four), tackles-for-loss (2.5) and sacks (1.5) at Texas. McCray had one TFL (-2) and one sack (-7) on back-to-back plays.

- McCray returned to the field after one-full year (364 days) and had two tackles with one pass breakup at the UF four-yard line to prevent an FAU touchdown pass in Week 1.

★ The group of Bett, McCray, Oyebadejo and Woods have combined for 22.5 tackles-for-loss and 12 sacks with 12 quarterback hurries.

- Rounding out Florida's unit are several returners in fifth-year senior JACK Kofi Asare (12), fifth-year senior DL Jamari Lyons (12), sophomore DL Jeremiah McCloud (11) and sophomore DL Joseph Mbatchou (9). All four players played at least nine games in 2025 while Asare and Lyons saw action in all 12 contests.

★ McCloud leads the defense in QB hurries (six) and is tied for the top spot in pass breakups (three) as his trio of PBUs are the most among SEC interior defensive linemen and tied for fifth in the FBS.

- McCloud had a career-high eight tackles in the season opener vs. FAU to go with two quarterback hurries and one pass breakup, the latter forcing a turnover on downs on fourth-and-two.
- Florida also brought in senior transfer DL DK Kalu (Baylor), who played 11 games (seven starts) from 2024-25. Kalu played eight games (six starts) last season, totaling 10 tackles and 0.5 TFL.

- A THORN IN THE SIDE -

- Florida's second-highest graded defender and tackler (56) from last season was rising senior S Bryce Thornton.
- Thornton started the 2026 season with pass breakups in back-to-back games and across his last 11 appearances, he has six games with at least one PBU. In Week 3, he co-led the defense in tackles with six.
- He started 11 games and led the Gators in pass breakups (seven) and fumble recoveries (two) in 2025.
- Last season, Thornton recovered two fumbles (returning one for a TD) in Week 1 vs. LIU to become the first Gator with two in a game since Gervon Dexter Sr. vs. FAU in the 2021 season opener.
- In 40 career games and 29 starts (most on defense) at safety from 2023-26, Thornton has racked up 157 tackles (87 solo), 8.0 TFL, 1.5 sacks, 17 pass breakups, four INTs, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

- SAFETIES FIRST -

- S Bryce Thornton headlines a UF secondary unit that ranked No. 37 in the FBS entering the year (Phil Steele).
- In seven of eight games this season, Thornton has started alongside senior transfer S DJ Coleman (six starts), who played 35 games with 12 starts at safety at Baylor from 2023-25.

★ Coleman earned Florida's first takeaway of the season with an interception on the season's opening drive and sealed the upset of No. 4 Ole Miss with a fourth quarter pick. He has forced three takeaways this season.

★ Ranking second on defense with 425 total snaps, Coleman has only allowed seven catches on 15 targets for the lowest reception percentage in the UF secondary.

- Against Georgia, Coleman led Florida with a career-high eight tackles (six solo) and forced his first fumble of the season (second of career), leading to UF's lone takeaway.
- Last season at Baylor, Coleman started 11 games and had 46 tackles (30 solo), 6.5 TFLs, four pass breakups, two interceptions and one forced fumble.
- Sophomore S Lagonza Hayward has been key in the secondary after playing 11 games as a true freshman.
- In Week 5, Hayward made his first-career start at STAR (Nickel) and tied his career high with six tackles.
- Hayward's Week 2 outing featured four tackles (three solo), 2.0 TFLs and two pass breakups.
- In 20 career games, Hayward has 6.5 TFLs, one sack, three PBUs, two QB hurries and 12 stops.
- Across 128 defensive snaps in 2025, Hayward logged 12 tackles (seven solo), 3.5 TFLs, 1.0 sack and two QB hurries.

- CORNERBACK CORNER -

- Florida returned 2025 starters CB Dijon Johnson and CB Cormani McClain for their senior seasons to pair with sophomores CB Ben Hanks III (six starts) and CB J'Vari Flowers are also key in the cornerback rotation.

★ After allowing 10 catches (151 yards and two TDs) in the prior three games entering the Texas matchup, McClain only allowed two catches for 17 yards with a long of 14-yards.

★ On his snap guarding Ryan Wingo, he did not allow a catch and vs. Cam Coleman, he allowed one catch for only three yards, helping hold the Texas WR duo to a season-low 67 receiving yards.

★ Hanks III and McClain played all 51 snaps at Texas and allowed three catches for 26 yards (two yards after the catch). The two also were the only corners to play vs. Georgia, helping hold them to a season-low 101 passing yards and zero TD passes.

- At Texas, McClain tied his career-high in tackles (six) and had 1.0 tackle-for-loss (-3) on a third-and-one rushing attempt.
- McClain nabbed his third-career interception and first of the season on Auburn's opening drive (second pass attempt), marking UF's second INT on an opponent's first drive this season.
- Hanks III is one of two underclassmen (Woods) to start on defense in all eight games this season.
- In just 11 career games (nine starts), Hanks III has 30 tackles (23 solo), five PBUs, one INT and 1.5 TFL.
- Hanks III played in three games in 2025 with his lone start in the season finale victory over FSU, posting two tackles, two pass breakups and his first-career interception - which he returned for 48 yards.
- Despite not being a full-time defensive player until the second half of the 2025 season, Flowers compiled 17 tackles, four pass breakups and 0.5 TFL while playing in all 12 games and making two starts as a true freshman.
- In the season finale vs. FSU, Hanks III and Flowers represented UF's first pair of true freshmen to start at cornerback in the same game since 2017 vs. FSU (Marco Wilson and CJ Henderson). They played all 66 snaps.
- In Week 1, Johnson intercepted FAU's Veltkamp in the second quarter for his second-career pick and UF's second of the game, giving UF multiple INTs for the first time since Oct. 4, 2025 vs. Texas (two), and for the first time in a season opener since Sept. 4, 2021 vs. FAU (two).
- Johnson had the best coverage grade of the UF secondary and did not allow a catch in two targets vs. Auburn.
- With 35 career games and eight starts to his credit, Johnson has totaled 47 tackles (29 solo), 2.0 TFLs, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and one fumble recovery.

★ In Week 2, Flowers was named to the PFF National Team of the Week, recording a career-high three pass breakups on four targets while surrendering negative net passing yards. His three PBUs lead the Gators.

★ In Week 2, Flowers graded as the No. 6 cornerback in coverage in the FBS and ranked No. 1 in the SEC (85.1).

- SPECIAL TEAMS MAKEOVER -

★ Florida replaced all three of its first-string specialists via the transfer portal this offseason after seeing P Tommy Doman, K Trey Smack and LS Rocco Underwood depart, all earning starting roles in the NFL as Florida has seven 'starting' specialists in the league, the most of any school in the NCAA.

- The Gators owned the SEC's longest field goal (Smack -56 yards) and punt (Doman - 71 yards) during the 2025 regular season, marking the only FBS team to lead both categories inside their conference.
- The Gators welcomed junior K Patrick Durkin (Tulane), senior P Alec Clark (Tulane) and fifth-year senior LS Carter Milliron (Louisiana) as transfers to fill their primary specialist roles in 2026.
- Making his UF debut in Week 1, Durkin's first field goal attempt resulted in a career long of 53 yards.

★ In his career, Durkin is 38-of-44 on field goal attempts (86.4%) and 92-of-93 on extra-points attempts (98.9%). He is 13-of-16 from 40-plus yards, 7-for-8 from 40-49 yards and 5-of-7 from 50-plus yards in his career.

- As Tulane's primary kicker in 2025, Durkin made 25-of-28 field goals (89.3%) highlighted by a pair of 52-yarders.
- Durkin kicked off 80 times for 5,110 yards (63.9 avg) and 69 touchbacks while going 41-of-42 on extra points.
- Durkin went 4-of-6 from 50-plus yards in 2025, tying for third in the FBS in 50-plus-yard attempts made.
- Meanwhile, Clark spent each of the last two full seasons as the primary punter at Tulane (2025) and Marshall (2024), combining to play all 27 of his team's games from 2024-25. He also spent 2023 at Marshall.

★ Clark averaged 50-plus in back-to-back games with a mark of 51.3 vs. Georgia as three-of-four punts went inside the 20-yard line, a long of 64-yards and forced a muff return.

★ At Texas, Clark averaged 51.8 yards per punt across six attempts with a career-long, 75-yarder for the fifth longest in the FBS and longest in the SEC this season. His 75-yarder is tied for the fourth-longest in school history, joining Chas Henry (2010) and Eric Wilbur (2003).

- Clark punted twice vs. No. 4 Ole Miss (56.5 average) highlighted by a 70-yarder (tied career long) falling to the Rebels' two-yard line. He tied his career-high in punt attempts (eight) at Missouri, averaging 45.4 yards with three of 50-plus and two inside the Tigers' 20-yard line.

★ Week 1, Clark's UF debut was only as the holder as he did not punt, marking the first time Florida did not punt in a game since Oct. 2, 2022 vs. Eastern Washington. In Week 2, Clark made his debut punting two times (52.0 average) with a long of 55 yards and one inside the opposing 20-yard line.

- He also attempted a fake punt but was stopped short vs. Campbell. It was UF's first fake punt since 2021 vs. Vanderbilt by Jeremy Crawshaw (starting punter for Denver Broncos).
- From 2022-24 at Louisiana, Milliron played long snapper in all 40 of the Cajuns' games. He then played the first four games of the 2025 campaign before redshirting, giving him 45 career games played at the position.
- K Liam Padron (Texas A&M), P Miller Fealy (Southwestern Oklahoma) and LS Hunter Solwold (Washington) were also added via the portal to add depth alongside returners K Brandon Rabasco, P Nicholas Inglis and freshman LS Lincoln Anderson, who will handle snaps on field goals and extra points.

- RETURN GAME STRONG -

★ The Gators lead the SEC in single-game punt return yards (173) by WR Vernell Brown III and single-game kickoff return yards (128) by RB London Montgomery, who leads the SEC in kickoff return average (23.7, 151th in FBS).

★ Florida is one of three schools in the FBS to lead their conference in single-game punt and kickoff return yards.

★ Brown III etched his name in the history books with 64-yard and 70-yard punt return TDs on consecutive punts in the second quarter vs. Campbell, joining WR Jacquez Green (Sept. 28, 1996 vs. Kentucky, third quarter, 66 and 79 yards) as the lone players in UF history to return back-to-back punts for touchdowns. They are the only two UF players with two punt return TDs in the same game. Brown III also tied the program record for punt return TDs in a season (two). The most in a Gators career is four by Brandon James.

- Brown III's first return TD of 64 yards marked Florida's first punt return TD since Kadarius Toney's 50-yard TD return vs. Kentucky on Nov. 28, 2020 (68 games), marking a span of 277 punts between the two scores.
- He is one punt return TD away from setting the single season program record for punt return TDs and two punt return TDs away from tying the career program record set by Jacquez Green and Brandon James.
- Brown III broke Brandon James' program record of 155 punt return yards in a game, set in 2007 vs. Western Carolina, with 173 punt return yards vs. Campbell.
- The 173 return yards were the most by a player across all three divisions of college football this season.

★ Since 1996, Brown III is one of nine players to have 173-plus punt return yards and two punt return TDs in a single game. The last was Phillip Brooks (Oct. 24, 2020) of Kansas State. He is also one of three SEC players to accomplish the feat, joining Marcus Murphy (Missouri, 2012) and Joe Adam (Arkansas, 2011).

- Brown III was one of two true freshmen and one of 18 FBS players with five 20-yard punt returns last season, ★ Montgomery's 300 total kickoff returns yards this season make him one of 12 Gators to reach 300+ in a single season since 1996. The last Gator to reach the mark was Trevor Etienne (431) in 2022 and Malik Davis (319) in 2021.

★ He owns the top two spots among SEC returners in kickoff yards in a single game: 128 vs. Ole Miss & 105 at Texas.

- Montgomery logged a career-long kick return of 74 yards in the third quarter vs. No. 4 Ole Miss, one kick after posting a 41-yard return. He finished with three returns for 128 yards (43.0 avg). The 74-yard return is the second longest in the SEC and longest by a Gator since Solomon Patton (100 yards) at Missouri in 2013.

Jon Sumrall was named the 31st head football coach in program history, Athletic Director Scott Stricklin announced Nov. 30, 2025.

Sumrall, who brings extensive coaching and playing experience in the Southeastern Conference, joins the Gators after engineering rapid turnarounds at two different programs and guiding his teams to championship game appearances in every season he has served as a head coach. Sumrall is known for his energy, leadership, program-building skills and consistent results.

"Jon Sumrall is a proven winner and an exceptional leader who has built successful programs at every stop," Stricklin said. "He brings tremendous energy, strong recruiting relationships across our footprint, and a philosophy rooted in toughness, discipline and player development. Jon will cultivate a daily culture of competitiveness, accountability and winning that drives success on the field and throughout our program. He fully understands the expectations at the University of Florida, and we're excited to welcome him and his family to Gator Nation.

"Not many coaches win big at two different non-Power programs, and even fewer do it as quickly as Jon has," Stricklin said. "He joins rare company—coaches like Urban Meyer, Brian Kelly and Willie Fritz—who've delivered immediate success at multiple stops. Jon's track record of rapid turnarounds speaks directly to his leadership and the culture he establishes."

Despite only returning four starters this season, Sumrall guided No. 17 Tulane to a spot in the College Football Playoff at No. 6 Ole Miss after winning the American Conference Championship 34-21 over No. 24 North Texas.

The Green Wave currently own a record of 11-2 (7-1) and a clinched spot in the conference championship in back-to-back seasons. Sumrall has now made four conference championship game appearances in his first-four years as a head coach, becoming the only coach in FBS history to do so at two different schools.

Tulane placed a league-leading 13 on the 2025 American All-Conference Teams led by Special Teams Player of the Year, kicker Patrick Durkin, who was the first in program history to earn the honor.

Sumrall, 43, has developed a reputation as one of college football's top young coaches during his tenures at Troy and Tulane and currently owns the fifth-highest winning percentage among active FBS coaches (43–12, .782), trailing only Ryan Day, Dan Lanning, Kirby Smart and Curt Cignetti.

He is also widely regarded as a strong recruiter with deep ties throughout the Southeast, including Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Tennessee. Sumrall has earned consistent praise for his talent identification, player development and ability to connect with student-athletes and their families.

"The University of Florida is one of the premier programs in college football, and it's an incredible honor to serve as the head football coach," Sumrall said. "I believe in building a team rooted in toughness, accountability and a relentless competitive spirit. Florida has everything necessary to compete at the highest level—the resources, the support, the tradition and the passion of Gator Nation. My family and I are excited to get to work.

"One of my first priorities will be to assemble an incredible staff, including an offensive coordinator who understands that, at Florida, having an explosive offense isn't optional – it's mandatory!"

In his first season as Tulane's head coach, Sumrall guided the Green Wave to their third straight American Athletic Conference Championship Game and a bowl appearance versus Florida. His team finished first or second in the conference in 10 statistical categories, including leading the league in third-down conversions (52.5%), defensive touchdowns (6), completion percentage (65.6%), scoring offense (37.2) and pass-efficiency defense (111.65). Tulane led the nation in defensive touchdowns and produced a league-high 18 all-conference selections.

JON SUMRALL COACHING HISTORY

Year	Team, Position (Record as HC)
2026-Pres.	Head Coach, Florida (0-0)
2024-25	Head Coach, Tulane (20-8)
2022-23	Head Coach, Troy (23-4)
2021	Defensive Coordinator, Kentucky
2019-20	Inside Linebackers, Kentucky
2018	Linebackers, Ole Miss
2015-17	Assistant Head Coach / LB / Special Teams, Troy
2012-14	Defensive Coordinator, Tulane
2010-11	Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Coordinator, San Diego
2007-09	Defensive Line, San Diego
2005-06	Graduate Assistant, Kentucky

As the head coach at Troy in 2022 and 2023, Sumrall engineered one of the nation's most impressive program turnarounds—leading the Trojans to back-to-back Sun Belt championships, consecutive 12-win seasons and multiple national rankings. He was named conference Coach of the Year and twice was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year award.

Troy's 23 victories across the 2022–23 seasons were tied for the third most nationally, trailing only Georgia, Michigan and Washington. Troy and Michigan were the only two programs to win conference titles in both seasons.
Sumrall was a three-year letterwinner at middle linebacker at Kentucky from 2002–04. He led the Wildcats with 72 tackles his redshirt-junior year. A standout off the field as well, he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and selected to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character. After earning his finance degree in 2005, he served as a graduate assistant at Kentucky during the 2005 and 2006 seasons under Rich Brooks.

He spent five seasons at the University of San Diego beginning in 2007, including two years as defensive coordinator, before returning to Tulane for a three-year stint as defensive coordinator. Sumrall served as assistant head coach at Troy from 2015–17, then spent four seasons in the SEC—at Ole Miss in 2018 and at Kentucky from 2019–20 and again as co-defensive coordinator in 2023—before becoming Troy's head coach.

A two-time all-Alabama selection and four-year letterwinner at Grissom High School, Sumrall was inducted into the Huntsville-Madison County Hall of Fame in 2023. He is married to the former Ginny Nixon, also of Huntsville, and they have four children: Sam, Sadie, Stella and Selah.

Sumrall's approach aligns with Florida's emphasis on excellence—athletically, academically and personally. He is known for building strong relationships with student-athletes, fostering team-first cultures and assembling high-performance staffs aligned with his vision.

SUMRALL SUPERLATIVES

- Jon Sumrall has made four conference championship game appearances in each of his first four years as a head coach. He is the only coach in FBS history to do so at two different schools.
- Sumrall is also the first coach in FBS history to win a conference championship at multiple schools in his first four seasons as a head coach, winning three total titles in that span.
- Sumrall is the third coach in FBS history to reach a conference title game in each of his first four seasons.
- Sumrall (.762, 48-15) holds the seventh-highest win percentage among current FBS head coaches in at least their fifth season behind Ryan Day (.863, 88-14), Kirby Smart (.849, 124-22), Dan Lanning (.828, 53-11), Curt Cignetti (.807, 155-37), Marcus Freeman (.790, 50-13) and Kalen DeBoer (.768, 63-19).
- Sumrall has compiled the seventh-most wins (48) among FBS head coaches since 2022 behind only Smart (58), Cignetti (55), Day (54), Lanning (53), DeBoer (51) and Freeman (50).
- Sumrall is one of three active SEC head coaches to have played in the SEC (Kirby Smart, Clark Lea). Sumrall and Smart are the only active SEC coaches to assume their positions with prior playing and coaching experience in the SEC.
- Sumrall's 19 road victories are tied for the most in the FBS since 2022 with Ryan Day, sitting just ahead of Dan Lanning (18).
- Sumrall is 16-3 in road conference tilts with 16 wins since 2022, which is tied for second in the FBS since 2022 alongside Lanning (16-3) and behind Day (17-3).
- Sumrall has a career record of 31-7 in October, November and December for an .816 win percentage.
- Winning at least nine games in every season as a head coach, Sumrall is currently averaging 10.75 wins per season – and counting.
- Sumrall's teams have ranked inside the top-30 in the FBS in yards per completion in every season of his tenure: 23rd (2025), seventh (2024), 28th (2023) and 18th (2022).
- Sumrall's defenses racked up 97 takeaways in his four seasons from 2022-25, which was more than any FBS team since 2022.
- Across his four seasons as a head coach from 2022-25, the 159 total sacks by Sumrall's teams rank second compared to all FBS programs in that span, trailing only Penn State (163).
- Sumrall's teams have finished inside the top-30 in the FBS in takeaways every season: 2025 (25, ninth), 2024 (22, 27th), 2023 (23, 20th) and 2022 (27, eighth).
- Never finishing outside the top-35 in the FBS, Sumrall's squads have posted a plus-25 turnover margin in his four seasons: 2025 (+8), 2024 (+7), 2023 (+5), 2022 (+5).
- Sumrall's starting quarterbacks have finished with a passer rating above 138.0 in every season of his tenure: 2025 (139.0), 2024 (166.67), 2023 (146.90) and 2022 (138.78).
- In four seasons from 2022-25, Sumrall's starting quarterbacks have a 78-to-31 TD-to-INT ratio.
- Three of Sumrall's four seasons have seen a running back eclipse 1,100 rushing yards while wideouts have combined for five 700-yard seasons highlighted by a 1,000-plus-yard campaign by Mario Williams in 2024.

Buster Faulkner enters his first season as offensive coordinator for Florida in 2026.

BUSTER FAULKNER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

First Season

@Buster_Faulkner

2025 FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year
14 Years of Experience as Offensive Coordinator
6x Conference Champion
3x National Champion (2022, 2021, 2007)

Instrumental in a trio of national titles runs at Georgia (2021, 2022) and Valdosta State (2007), Faulkner comes to the Gators after serving as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech the past three seasons (2023-25). He comes equipped with 14 years of experience as an offensive coordinator alone, also coaching the tight ends at Georgia Tech after three seasons at Georgia as an offensive quality control coach (2020-22). Faulkner was also named the 2025 FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

In addition to his national championship success, Faulkner boasts six collegiate conference titles and four division crowns, while claiming a high school state championship as both a coach and a player.

Collectively across his three seasons at Georgia Tech, Faulkner's offense ranks first in the ACC in rushing (197.8), second in total offense (437.7), third in passing efficiency (144.1) and fifth in scoring offense (31.0). The Yellow Jackets have surrendered the fewest sacks in the conference in all three years of his tenure, allowing 34 total in that span – three fewer than any other ACC team and good for third in the entire FBS. Georgia Tech also ranks 14th and 18th nationally in rushing offense and total offense since 2023, respectively.

The elite output from Faulkner's Yellow Jacket offense has come with tremendous consistency. Faulkner has directed a Georgia Tech offense ranked in the top half of the ACC in rushing, total offense, scoring and passing efficiency in each of his three campaigns. As a result, Georgia Tech improved from a 5-7 record the year prior to Faulkner's arrival to achieve consecutive, seven-win seasons from 2023-24 upon his arrival, culminating with a 9-3 campaign and t-second-place finish in the ACC in 2025.

Faulkner produced five or more All-ACC honorees on the offensive side of the ball in every season with the Jackets for a grand total of 17 selections, featuring 2025 first team quarterback Haynes King. Under Faulkner's guidance, King led the ACC while ranking third nationally in total offense (329.0 YPG) and was named ACC Quarterback of the Week five times in 11 games this season. King holds status as the only power-conference player in the nation this season, and just the fifth since 1956, to average at least 240 passing yards and 80 rushing yards per game.

In 2024, guard Keylan Rutledge became Georgia Tech's first non-specialist to earn first-team All-America honors in 10 years. That same year, King turned in another ultra-impressive season as the orchestrator of Faulkner's attack, becoming the first FBS quarterback in the last 70 years with 2,000 passing yards, 10 touchdown passes, a 70% completion percentage and two or fewer interceptions in a season. That came on the heels of a 2023 campaign in which running back Jamal Haynes became Tech's first 1,000-yard rusher in six years, while King was one of two Power Five players with at least 2,800 passing yards, 700 rushing yards, 25 touchdown passes and 10 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to Georgia Tech, Faulkner won two national titles in three seasons as an offensive quality control assistant for quarterbacks at Georgia (2020-22). While in Athens, Faulkner played a significant role in constructing and fielding one of the college football's top offenses. In his three seasons, UGA quarterbacks combined to rank third in the SEC in both passing efficiency (158.6) and passing yards per game (283.1), with the former sitting eighth in the FBS, and fourth in the conference in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.97). On top of that, Georgia gave up the fewest number of sacks (45) in the SEC for the 11th-best mark in the country.

In 2022, the Bulldogs finished among the top five nationally in scoring (41.3 ppg) and total offense (501.1 YPG). Georgia quarterback Stetson Bennett IV finished fourth in voting for the 2022 Heisman Trophy in Faulkner's final year on staff.

Prior to his three-year stint at Georgia, he spent 10 seasons as offensive coordinator at Southern Miss (2019), Arkansas State (2016-18), Middle Tennessee (2011-15) and Murray State (2010). His 14 seasons as a coordinator also includes a season as OC at Valdosta State in 2008. Faulkner coached quarterbacks at Central Arkansas in 2009 and at Valdosta State in 2007, and was a graduate assistant at Georgia in 2006. Along the way, Faulkner mentored eventual NFL Draft Picks at Southern Miss, Middle Tennessee and Murray State.

As a native of Atlanta, Faulkner was a 2005 graduate of Valdosta State where he starred under center from 2001-03. Passing for 7,100 yards and 64 touchdowns to power the Blazers to a 47-6 combined record, Faulkner collected first team all-conference and honorable mention All-America honors in 2002 prior to transferring to Texas A&M-Commerce for his senior season. He set 10 school records in his lone year at Commerce, throwing for 2,861 yards and 16 scores.

Faulkner was a three-year starter at quarterback at Parkview High School in Lilburn, Ga. and led the Panthers to the 1997 Georgia 4A state championship – the first state title in school history. In 2024, he and his son, Harrison, became the first father-son duo to both win Georgia high school state championships as starting quarterbacks when Harrison led North Oconee to the 4A state title. Faulkner and his wife, Tia, also have two daughters, Hadley and Haisley.

14 NFL Draft Picks in 7 NFL Drafts at Kentucky (2019-25)
7 Consecutive Top-45 FBS Defenses FBS (2018-24)
4 Top-25 FBS Defenses (2018, 2019, 2021, 2022)
3 First Round NFL Draft Picks Since 2019 (2019, 2021, 2025)

White spent the previous eight seasons on staff at Kentucky, highlighted by his last seven as defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach. During his time in Lexington, the Wildcats made six bowl appearances while ranking among the top-20 FBS teams in both scoring defense (22.1) and total defense (344.1) under his tutelage from 2018-2025. Across seven NFL Drafts while at Kentucky (2019-24), White developed 14 NFL Draft picks and six selections in the top-two rounds on the defensive side of the ball.

Over the course of White's Wildcats tenure, Kentucky evolved into one of the top defenses in the entire SEC. Led by White, Kentucky strung together seven-consecutive, top-45 FBS defenses from 2018-24, featuring four top-25 defenses in 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022. In 2024, the Wildcats finished sixth in the FBS in red zone defense (70.8%) and 21st in passing defense (183.7). That was followed by a pair of 2025 NFL Draft picks in April, headlined by first-rounder Maxwell Hairston, who became the highest-drafted defensive back in program history.

Kentucky posted one of its top rush defense seasons ever in 2023, holding opponents to 113.1 rush yards per game to rank second in the SEC and 17th in the FBS. That same year, White's defense ranked fifth in the SEC and 19th nationally in sacks (35) while sitting fourth and 28th tackles for loss (85), respectively. The Wildcats also produced the third-most takeaways in the conference (18).

That elite showing came on the heels of a truly historic 2022 defensive performance in which the Wildcats finished seventh in the FBS in passing defense (170.8), 11th in total defense (311.4) and 13th in scoring defense (19.2). Each of those statistics ranked among the top three in the SEC.

In 2021, White's UK defense was third nationally in fourth-down defense (27.8%), 20th in run defense (121.5) and 26th in both scoring defense (21.7) and total defense (340.1). The year prior in 2020, UK ranked inside the top six of the SEC in nearly every defensive category featuring a league-best pass defense (224.6) and number of takeaways (22).

The 2019 campaign saw White take the reins as defensive coordinator and for the first time since 1979, Kentucky did not allow more than 30 points in a single regular-season game. The Wildcats ranked 13th nationally in scoring defense and 21st in total defense.

Capped off by a 10-3 record and Citrus Bowl victory in his first year on staff in 2018, White used his NFL experience to guide senior linebacker Josh Allen to one of the greatest individual seasons in team history. Racking up 88 tackles, 21.5 tackles for loss and 17 sacks, Allen was named National Defensive Player of the Year, a Unanimous First Team All-American and SEC Defensive Player of the Year on top of sweeping every major, national defensive award: Bronko Nagurski Award, Chuck Bednarik Award, Ronnie Lott IMPACT Trophy and Jack Lambert Award. As a result, Allen was the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Prior to Kentucky, White coached with the Indianapolis Colts for six seasons (2012-17) as the outside linebackers coach (2015-17), assistant linebackers coach (2014) and defensive quality control coach (2012-13). While on staff, White and the Colts made three-straight playoff appearances (2012-14) and claimed back-to-back AFC South Titles in 2013 and 2014.

As a native of Portsmouth, R.I., White graduated from Wake Forest in 2004 where he was a three-year starter at linebacker. Across 35 career games, he totaled 227 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks and eight passes defended. White was a three-time Academic All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and was named to the 2004 CoSIDA Academic All-District III team.

What is Scorigami?

Scorigami is the art of building final scores that have never happened before in Gators Football history. The concept was first thought up by Jon Bois, who wanted to know the number of unique scores throughout the history of the NFL. This chart was inspired by UCF.

How do I read this Chart?

The winning team's score is along the top (horizontal axis), and the losing team's score is along the right (vertical axis). Scores marked in green have happened, scores in white have not yet happened and scores in blue are impossible. The bottom half is all blue because the losing team can not score more points than the winning team.

- ON THIS DATE IN FLORIDA FOOTBALL HISTORY: NOVEMBER 7 -

- The Florida Gators are 10-7 all-time across 17 games played on November 7.
- November 7, 1908: Florida defeated Stetson in Gainesville 6-5. In 1908, the scoring values were different from what they are today. Touchdowns were valued at five points rather than six points. In the matchup, Florida scored their touchdown in the second half with halfback Charlie Bartleson. Stetson scored a touchdown, but failed to convert the extra point.
- November 7, 1914: Florida defeated Wofford 66-0 in Gainesville. The Gators scored ten touchdowns and converted six of their ten extra point attempts. Florida's quarterback Rammy Ramsdell had two rushing touchdowns in the game. The first being a 50-yard rush and the second being an 80-yard rush.
- November 7, 1925: Florida visited Clemson at Riggs Field, beating the Tigers 42-0. Riggs Field was the original football field for Clemson until Memorial Stadium was built in 1942. Six touchdowns, three successful extra-point kicks and a field goal accounted for the Gator's success. "Horse" Bishop intercepted the football twice, with both interceptions becoming 30-yard touchdown dashes.
- November 7, 1953: Florida defeated Georgia 21-7. Quarterback Doug Dickey was the starter for this matchup. Dickey had lost the starting position a month prior to sophomore Harry Speers, this would be Dickey's first game back as a starter. The Gator's first touchdown came when Dickey threw a 22-yard pass to Jack O'Brien for the score, which completed the 94-yard touchdown drive. Florida scored its second touchdown in the third quarter. The drive began with a turnover that positioned Florida on Georgia's 8-yard line. Three plays later, Florida's Tom Brodsky bulled over from the one. The third and final scoring drive occurred after a 55-yard march to the goal line that was completed when Dickey rushed one yard into the endzone.
- November 7, 1964: Georgia upset Florida 14-7 in the Gator Bowl. The Bulldogs were able to comeback after a 7-0 deficit going into the second half. Florida's only scoring drive occurred in the second quarter. An 83-yard drive was sealed when halfback Larry Dupree rushed seven yards into the endzone.

WR Demarcus Robinson set career highs with nine catches and 106 receiving yards in Florida's 2015 win over Vanderbilt.

- November 7, 1970: Florida defeated Georgia 24-17. Quarterback John Reaves hit All-American receiver Carlos Alvarez with two long scoring tosses late in the fourth period yesterday as underdog Florida stormed from behind to upset Georgia. Before their fourth-quarter comeback, Florida scored a field goal in the second and a touchdown in the third quarter with a Mike Rich seven-yard dash.
- November 7, 1992: Florida won against Southern Miss 24-20. The Golden Eagles held the Gators to a tight game. Florida running back Errict Rhett ran for 119 yards and two touchdowns. After trailing 20-17, Florida got the 24-20 lead with 9:40 left when Rhett scored on a 77-yard drive. Southern Miss had a chance to take the game, driving up to the Florida 17-yard line with just over 2 minutes remaining. On fourth-and-14, Florida linebacker Ben Hanks blocked a pass attempt from USM quarterback Tommy Waters to end the game. After the game, Florida coach Steve Spurrier claimed: "Southern Miss outplayed us...I'm not very happy."
- November 7, 1998: Florida beat Vanderbilt in Nashville 45-13. Florida opened the game with a dominant 21-3 lead in the first quarter, including a 52-yard touchdown pass from Florida quarterback Doug Johnson to Alex Willis on the first drive, a blocked punt touchdown one minute later by Mike Peterson, and a 59-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to wide receiver Nafis Karim. A strong Gator offense ended the game with 571 total yards and 6 touchdowns. Doug Johnson ended the game with career-high 460 yards and 4 touchdowns. Across the first three quarters, the Gators scored 42 points and held the Commodores to only 6.
- November 7, 2009: Florida defeats Vanderbilt 27-3. Urban Meyer's strong offense and dominant defense played well across all quarters, scoring 3, 10, 7, and, 7 in each, respectively. Florida quarterback Tim Tebow ended the game with 208 total yards, one passing touchdown, and one rushing touchdown. Tight end Aaron Hernandez led the game in receiving yards with 120.
- November 7, 2015: Florida won against Vanderbilt 9-7. This was the Gator's homecoming matchup. Their win clinched them the SEC East title, sending the Gators to the SEC Championship later that season. Kelvin Taylor scored a touchdown with a 3-yard run in the first quarter. This would be the only touchdown Florida would score in the game. The second scoring drive would come in the late fourth quarter, with a 43-yard field goal by Austin Hardin. Florida receiver Demarcus Robinson had a season reception and receiving yard record in this matchup, with 9 receptions and 106 receiving yards.
- November 7, 2020: This top ten matchup saw No. 7 Florida defeat No. 9 Georgia 44-28. The Gator's scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, the first being a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Kyle Trask to receiver Justin Shorter. The second touchdown of the quarter came with a two-yard rush from running back Dameon Pierce. Kyle Trask would go on to throw three more touchdown passes in the second quarter. Kyle Trask finished with 474 passing yards, the second-highest total in school history and just eight yards shy of Tim Tebow's single-game school record of 482 set in the 2010 Sugar Bowl.

What Happened

Quarterback Aaron Philo passed for 275 yards and three touchdowns, while junior tailback Jadan Baugh rushed for 160 yards and three scores, as the Florida Gators broke the seal on the Jon Sumrall era with a 66-21 defeat of Florida Atlantic in the season opener Saturday night before a sold-out house at Spurrier/Florida Field.

Sumrall, the 31st head coach in the program's 120-year history and the eighth this century, watched his Gators offense crank out 624 total yards (343 passing, 281 rushing) and his defense force a pair of turnovers and three times turn the Owls away on fourth down. It was far from perfect, though, with FAU finishing at 396 yards of offense and 25 first downs, but the performance and energy at the "Swamp" felt a lot different than the malaise of the previous four seasons under Sumrall predecessor Billy Napier.

Philo, the transfer who followed offensive coordinator Buster Faulkner from Georgia Tech, completed 16 of 21 passes, with touchdown tosses of 49 yards to Vernell Brown III, 12 yards to fellow Tech transfer Bailey Stockton and 10 yards to reserve tailback Duke Clark before giving way to backup Tramell Jones Jr. late in the third quarter with the Gators up 52-21. Baugh, whose 1,170 yards in 2025 marked the seventh-highest single-season total in UF history, got his '26 campaign off to a fantastic start in carrying just 14 times, but amassing the second-highest total of his career. Baugh scored on runs of 12, 7 and 6 yards, while also breaking off a 61-yard dash to set up his final TD.

FAU quarterback Caden Veltkamp completed 34 of 52 passes for 276 yards and accounted for a TD each running and throwing. He also was picked off twice.

Brown, the junior and third-generation Gator, caught six passes for 117 yards and scored the first touchdown of his career — and his team's first of the season — on a dazzling 49-yard catch-and-run on UF's first possession. Three Florida possessions in, the Gators led 17-0 before the Owls got on the board with an Ethan Ervin 1-yard run that capped a 75-yard march that featured five first downs, including a pair of fourth-down conversions.

Philo's 3-yard scoring run pushed the UF lead to 24-7, but was canceled out by another long drive (78 yards) with his counterpart, Veltkamp, running in from seven yards out on third-and-goal to make it 24-14.

Baugh then finished three consecutive UF drives with touchdowns bridging the two halves, as the Gators surged to a 52-14 advantage. After Veltkamp's second throwing TD made it 52-21 with 4:21 to go in the third quarter, Philo finished a 79-yard drive by scrambling to hit Clark in the end zone on the quarterback's final play of the night. UF had seven touchdown drives of at least 75 yards.

Jones played two series, hit four of five throws and tossed a 6-yard touchdown pass to tight end Micah Jones with 25 seconds to go to give the Gators their highest-scoring game since beating Samford 70-52 in 2021 near the end of Dan Mullen's tenure.

What it Means

An encouraging, feel-good start (before an appreciative, success-starved crowd of 90,275) to the Sumrall era.

In the Spotlight

Take your pick. Any of the stat-busters on offense would qualify, but give the nod to Sumrall, who has pushed all the right buttons since coming from Tulane, which he led to both an American Conference championship and berth in the College Football Playoff last season. Before that, he won two Sun Belt Conference championships in two seasons at Troy. He knows how to do this.

Staggering Statistic

The Gators scored touchdowns on their first two drives of a game for the first time since 2023 when they did it in a 49-7 defeat in the second game. It was a good sign. UF's 66 points marked the most scored by the Gators in a season opener since beating New Mexico State 70-21 to start the 1994 season under Coach Steve Spurrier.

Up Next

Florida (1-0) is back at home for another "buy" game when the Gators face FCS-classified Campbell (1-0) next Saturday night at the Swamp. The Camels opened their season in Week 0 with a 49-37 defeat of East Tennessee State. They were scheduled to play No. 24 Western Carolina on Saturday on their home campus in Buies Creek, North Carolina, but the game was postponed due to weather and rescheduled for Sunday at 11 a.m. Campbell began playing football in 2008 and is a member of the Big South Conference.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

What Happened
On a steamy, sweaty, soupy night in the "Swamp," Campbell was the soup du jour.

Florida wide receiver Vernell Brown III feasted the most.

Brown, the sophomore, scored three first-half touchdowns, the first two on consecutive punt returns that blew the game open and rocketed the Gators to a 52-3 defeat of the FCS-classified Fighting Camels before the 20th-consecutive sellout Saturday at Spurrier/Florida Field.

The third-generation Gator scored on returns of 64 and 70 yards, then added a 14-yard scoring reception from third-year quarterback Aaron Philo, who had a decent day, as well, in completing 16 of his 21 attempts for 242 yards, accounted for three scores (two passing, one rushing) without a turnover before his night ended late in the third quarter. Junior tailback Jadan Baugh rushed for 136 yards and two touchdowns, including a 75-yarder late in the third period when the game was well in hand. UF finished with 514 yards of total offense, while limiting the Camels to 210 yards, with 63 of them coming on their first drive.

Campbell took the opening kickoff and hit a couple big pass plays to reach the UF 7, but had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by Alex Crabb. As far as points, that would be it for the visitors, with the home team scoring the first five times it possessed the ball, plus twice more on Brown's returns, in rolling to a 45-3 halftime lead.

The Gators went ahead for good on Philo's 3-yard QB keeper just shy of six minutes into the game. Florida's second possession ended with a 28-yard Patrick Durkin field goal with just over a minute to go in the opening period to make it 10-3.

Campbell's next drive ended with a Brandon Bowman punt on the sixth play and first of the second quarter. Brown fielded the kick at his 36, broke a couple tackles, raced into the open field and high-fived teammate Bailey Stockton at the 5-yard line before hitting the end zone with the program's first punt return for a touchdown in six years.

Three minutes later, Bowman was back again after a three-and-out possession. Brown fielded this one at his own 30 and again did his thing, this time for 70 yards, becoming the first Gator to return two punts for touchdowns in the same game in 30 years. The lead was 24-3.

While the Camels were gaining just 27 yards on five second-quarter possessions, the Gators finished the period with touchdown marches of 36, 85 and 44 yards. Philo finished the first with a 40-yard scoring strike to Dallas Wilson, the second with a two-handed shovel pass to a motioning Brown, who went 14 yards for the score, and with Baugh scoring on a 2-yard touchdown run with 20 seconds to go before intermission.

The second half was sloppy on both sides, but Baugh gave the home fans something to cheer about with his 75-yard burst that gave him a third consecutive game of at least 100 yards rushing, a first by a UF back in 11 years.

What it Means
The Gators beat another overmatched opponent and, frankly, did not look as clean and on-point as during their 66-21 bludgeoning of Florida Atlantic in the season opener a week earlier, what with two turnovers and eight penalties. Coach Jon Sumrall found plenty to pick at from the season opener. After watching the Gators score just seven points and gain 188 yards on six possessions after halftime, he'll have more to complain over, as the season is about to get real. Read on.

In the Spotlight
Brown's 173 return yards on four punts set a program record and threatened the single-game performance in SEC history held by Texas A&M's Dustin Harris, who totaled 246 against South Carolina State in 2012. Brown also finished with 43 yards on three receptions, giving him 214 combined yards. Remember, Brown went his entire freshman season with scoring a touchdown. He has four TD through two games in 2026, including two receiving. Baugh, meanwhile, became the seventh UF back to put together three straight 100-yard games and the first since Kelvin Taylor did it in 2015.

Staggering Statistic
The last Gator to return a punt for a touchdown was Kadarius Toney, who took one back 50 yards against Kentucky on Nov. 28, 2020, a run of 68 games. When Brown took the his second Campbell punt back he became the first UF player since Jacquez Green to take back a pair. Green, who also did his on consecutive punts and also against Kentucky, going 66 and 79 in a 65-0 win on Sept. 28, 1996 in what became Florida's first national-championship season.

Up Next
Florida (2-0, 0-0), unbeaten through two games for the first time since 2021, enters league play with a road date at Auburn (1-0, 0-0), marking the Gators' first trip to the Plain since 2011. The Tigers, under new coach Alex Golesh, opened the season with a 17-16 last-second defeat of Baylor at Atlanta, courtesy of a goal-line stop on a two-point conversion. They were 32-point favorites going into Saturday night's home game against Southern Mississippi.

What Happened

The Gators made their first visit to Jordan-Hare Stadium in 15 years on Saturday night. They won't be welcomed back anytime soon if Auburn fans have a say.

Florida won its first Southeastern Conference game with Jon Sumrall as head coach, taking control in the second half on the way to a 44-39 victory.

"I knew we were going to run the ball on them; I knew we were going to throw the ball on them," Sumrall said. "They're good up there, but I felt like we were better. I felt like the matchup leaned our way."

The Gators proved Sumrall correct time after time in the SEC opener for both teams.

Florida broke open a 20-17 halftime lead with the help of two long touchdown runs from tailback Jadan Baugh and a 20-yard scoring strike from quarterback Aaron Philo to Dallas Wilson. Baugh scored on a 33-yard run less than two minutes after halftime to put Florida up 27-17.

On Florida's next drive, Philo found Wilson in the back of the end zone for a score, and after Auburn quarterback Byrum Brown threw a 10-yard touchdown to DeShawn Spencer, Baugh answered with a 53-yard run on fourth-and-1 that sent many of the Tigers fans at sold-out Jordan-Hare heading for the exits.

Baugh rushed for 162 yards and three touchdowns, Philo threw for 204 yards and a score, and the Gators rolled up 495 yards on offense to improve to 3-0 under Sumrall.

Baugh carried the bulk of the load, but sophomore Duke Clark had a moment, too. Clark scored on a 20-yard touchdown run in the first half that gave the Gators a 14-3 lead.

Florida chewed up Auburn's defense on the ground and through the air. Gators offensive coordinator Buster Faulkner added some wrinkles, too.

On third-and-8 from UF's 39 in the second quarter, Philo threw a pass behind the line of scrimmage to Kahleil Jackson in front of the Auburn sideline, and Jackson lofted a deep pass downfield that tight end Amir Jackson made a diving catch for a 48-yard gain and first down at Auburn's 13. Three plays later, Patrick Durkin's first field goal extended Florida's lead to 17-10.

Auburn fired back on a 4-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Keshaun Singleton, whose 48-yard catch earlier in the drive moved the Tigers deep into Florida territory. But after Auburn pulled even 17-all, the Gators scored 24 of the next 31 points to seize control.

The Gators opened the scoring in the first quarter on Baugh's 2-yard run. Florida gained possession when Cormani McClain picked off Brown on Auburn's third play of the game. Three plays later, Baugh danced into the corner of the end zone.

The performance wasn't perfect. The Gators committed 16 penalties for 138 yards. But SEC wins on the road -- Florida's first at Auburn since 1999 -- help a team move on rather quickly from what might have gone wrong.

"No bad wins," Sumrall said. "We still have a lot to improve upon. That's not our best football. We're going to get there."

What it Means

The Gators punched Auburn early and late to come away with their first win away from The Swamp since the 2024 Gasparilla Bowl against Sumrall's Tulane team. More than snapping the six-game losing streak away from home, Florida provided Sumrall with a signature win in the SEC opener against an Auburn program that nearly hired him before the Gators did.
In the Spotlight
Baugh carried 26 times for 162 yards for his fourth consecutive 100-yard game dating to last season. Through three games, Baugh has rushed for 458 yards and eight touchdowns, matching his rushing scores from a season ago.

Staggering Statistic

The Gators marched down the field on six consecutive scoring drives of at least 65 yards. They scored four touchdowns and kicked two field goals on drives covering 75, 67, 65, 75, 69 and 75 yards from late in the first quarter to the end of the third quarter.

Up Next

The Gators are back home in The Swamp for their SEC home opener against Ole Miss. The Rebels beat LSU, 32-24, on Saturday night to spoil Lane Kiffin's much-ballyhooed return to Oxford.

What Happened

Tailbacks Jadan Baugh and Duke Clark mauled the Ole Miss defense on the ground, each rumbling to 100-yard rushing games to lead 21st-ranked and unbeaten Florida to a statement-making 52-28 defeat of fourth-ranked Ole Miss before a fever-pitched sellout crowd Saturday at Spurrier/Florida Field.

Baugh, the 6-foot-1, 225-pound junior, carried 29 times for 142 yards and scored three touchdowns, while the 6-2, 208-pound sophomore Clark rushed 12 times for 126 yards and a score. By day's end, the Gators had rumbled for 302 yards on the ground and posted 498 yards of total offense in defeating the highest-ranked opponent since manhandling No. 3 Ole Miss 38-10 in the "Swamp" in 2015.

UF third-year sophomore quarterback Aaron Philo completed 16 of 23 throws for 142 yards, one touchdown and rushed for another score, emerging victorious against Rebels counterpart and Heisman Trophy candidate Trinidad Chambliss. Mississippi's magician, just a week removed from a magnificent performance in his team's emotional home win over former Coach Lane Kiffin and LSU, connected on 25 of 34 throws for 298 yards and two scores, while also rushing seven times for 44 yards and a pair of TDs.

On this day, one of the most electric for the Florida program in more than a decade, Chambliss needed a lot more.

The Florida offense built an early 14-point lead and scored touchdowns on its first five possessions of the second half on the way to hitting the 50-point milestone against a league opponent for the first time since 2020. Ole Miss managed to crank out 426 yards of total offense, but the UF defense made Chambliss mostly work for his real estate and forced him into a pair of second-half turnovers, including a huge momentum-shifting sack/fumble by sophomore edge rusher Jayden Woods that his offensive mates took advantage of, allowing the Gators to put some distance on the scoreboard.

The only downer of the day was the loss of wide receiver Vernell Brown III to a first-half knee injury that held him out for the balance. Brown's teammates picked him up.

The Gators built a 17-6 halftime advantage, but the margin should have been more. They turned the ball over on downs deep in Rebels' territory, had a 67-yard catch-and-run touchdown by Brown called back and Philo overthrew a wide-open Brown on a bomb in the second quarter. The missed opportunities did not come back to bite them.

After driving 65 yards in eight plays on the game's opening series, with Baugh crashing across with a 4-yard score, the UF defense stuffed Mississippi tailback JT Lindsey on a fourth-and-1 gamble from the Rebels' 35, setting the Florida offense up for another score. The UF drive, though, was three consecutive incompletions, leaving matters to kicker Patrick Durkin, who put the Gators ahead 10-0 with a 39-yard field goal.

Ole Miss got on the board five minutes into the second half, thanks in great part to the Gators. Just after the long Brown TD was nullified, a fair catch interference penalty started the Rebels' first possession of the second period at the UF 48. On first down, a Makhi Frazier run of 16 yards was topped with a 15-yard face mask penalty. The Florida defense, though, managed to limit the damage, with Lucas Carneiro booting a 36-yard field goal to make the score 10-3.

UF answered with an impressive 15-play, 87-yard drive, converting a trio of third downs along the way and getting a break deep into the march. On third-and-8 at the Ole Miss 25, Philo tried to hit Bailey Stockton on a slant, but Stockton was rocked on a hit by safety Joenell Aguero. The ball popped high in the air and was caught by UF's TJ Abrams at the 15. That was enough for a first down, with Aguero also being flagged for targeting to move the ball to the Mississippi 5. Baugh finished things two snaps later from two yards out, giving Florida a 17-3 lead.

Carneiro's 46-yard field goal made it 17-6 at the break.

The Rebels got the second-half kickoff and Chambliss went to work. He needed just five plays to go 80 yards, thanks to a 49-yard bomb to Horatio Fields, with Chambliss finishing with an 8-yard scoring run that had the "Swamp" a tad unsettled.

Not for long.

UF's London Montgomery, on kick-return duty for the injured Brown, put the Gators in business with a 41-yard runback. After two 7-yard runs by Baugh, Clark broke off a 45-yard touchdown run to make it 24-14.

Chambliss went back to work. He moved the Rebels 74 yards in 14 plays, along the way converting three third downs and one on fourth. He scored on a 10-yard run to make it 24-21.

Again, not for long. And, again, it was Montgomery setting up his teammates. He took the ensuing kickoff 74 yards to the Missisippi 26, with Philo scoring on a 1-yard keeper just two plays later for a 31-21 lead.

Then came the defensive play the Gators sorely needed. On third-and-5, Woods beat his man off the left side, sacked Chambliss for the first time and forced a fumble that was recovered by Myles Graham at the UF 43. The Florida offense needed seven plays to take advantage. Wideout Dallas Wilson scored on a 6-yards for a 38-21 lead with 13:38 to go.

Chambliss wasn't going anywhere, however. He hit passes of 21, 9 and 32 yards to reach the UF 2, where he threw a touchdown to Deuce Alexander to close the margin back to 10 at 38-28.

Back came that Florida running game. After a defensive pass interference penalty, Clark busted a 44-yard run to the Ole Miss 5, where Philo hit Amir Jackson for a touchdown and 45-28 lead with 9:19 remaining. The Gators added another eight-play, 63-yard drive later in the quarter that Baugh finished with a 2-yard run.

What it Means

UF has won its first two games in SEC play for the first time since 2019. Bigger than that, the Gators most certainly have entered the national conversation by beating up on their second consecutive league opponent. The fourth win (in as many games) this season matches the victory total from all of 2025.

In the Spotlight

Baugh became just the third player in program history (joining Emmitt Smith and Fred Taylor) to rush for at least 100 yards in five consecutive games, his streak bridging two seasons and dating to last November's 266-yard performance against Florida State. In those five games, he's averaged 173.2 yards and totaled 13 touchdowns. With Clark joining in the 100-yard fun Saturday, the two became the first UF duo to rush for at least 100 yards in a game since Montrell Johnson Jr. (161 yards) and Trevor Etienne (100) did it against South Carolina in 2022.

Staggering Statistic

The Gators came into the game averaging 54.0 points and 544.3 yards per game, with two of those outings against outmanned Florida Atlantic and FCS-classified Campbell. In two SEC games, the Gators are at 48.0 points and 466.5 yards, including 272.5 on the ground.

Up Next

Florida (4-0, 2-0) is back on the SEC road with a date at No. 19 Missouri (3-0, 0-0). The Tigers opened their conference slate Saturday night at 24th-ranked Mississippi State. The series between UF and Mizzou stands at 6-6 since the Tigers joined the SEC in 2012, including a 2-4 record at Columbia. Ole Miss (3-1, 1-1) is at Vanderbilt.

What Happened

What was it that Jon Sumrall said earlier in the week? Something about having to humble yourself or else someone will do it for you?

Evidence the 25th-ranked Missouri Tigers and their venerable homefield advantage against the Florida Gators.

Mizzou quarterback Austin Simmons passed for 340 yards and a pair of scores in leading his team to five unanswered touchdowns, while the Tigers' defense flattened the Florida offense -- and completly stonewalled star tailback Jadan Baugh -- in handing the eighth-ranked Gators an excruciatingly humbling 45-17 Southeastern Conference defeat Saturday before a sellout crowd at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium.

Simmons, the Ole Miss transfer, shredded the UF secondary, which lost safety Bryce Thornton to an injury during pregame warmups, by completing 23 of 30 passes, with touchdowns of 47 and 31 yards, while running back Jamal Roberts carried 24 times for 211 yards and three touchdowns. Roberts' bellcow counterpart, Baugh, who started the day on everybody's early Heisman Trophy lists, was held to a mind-numbing 13 yards on 12 attempts. Baugh came into the game as the nation's No. 2 rusher with 600 yards and 11 touchdowns.

His numbers tracked with the rest of his team's.

Florida came in ranked No. 2 in the nation in scoring at 53.5 points and fifth in total offense at 532.8 yards, but not only was outscored by Missouri but pummeled in the total offfense category 561 yards to 325. UF quarterback Aaron Philo completed 21 of 34 passes for 197 yards and score, but was under siege all afternoon and was sacked three times.

The score actually was tied at 10 in the second quarter when the black and gold avalanche commenced.

The win marked the Tigers' first over a team ranked in the Associated Press Top 10 since they defeated No. 7 Georgia 41-26 on October. 12, 2013. Missouri had lost nine straight games against ranked opponents and were 7-19 coming in against ranked foes under Coach Eli Drinkwitz.

Meanwhile, the Gators lost for the fourth time in the last five trips to the place they call "CoMo" and fell to 2-5 all time.

It was apparent this game was going to be different (as in tougher) for Florida's rush-oriented offense when Missouri stuffed the Gators with five tackles-for-loss on the opening drive. Even so, UF got points on the board with a 20-yard field by Patrick Durkin, with Missouri canceling out that score with a 12-play, 62-yard march of its own that Blake Craig finished with a 32-yard field goal.

The Tigers went ahead 10-3 on their first possession of the second quarter with Simmons hitting wideout Donovan Olugbode (6 catches, 94 yards, 1 TD) for a 47-yard strike not quite five minutes into the period. That lead could have grown when Sumrall's gamble on a fourth-and-1 from his own 34 was stymied when Philo got stuffed for no gain. The Tigers, though, missed a 50-yard field goal to keep the scoreboard at 10-3.

After three straight drives of a combined 10 plays and 29 yards, Philo and Florida got into a rhythm with a 68-yard march that ended with a 12-yard touchdown to Dallas Wilson (4 catches, 68 yards, 1 TD) that tied the game 10. The Mizzou answer, through, was quick. Simmons completed passes of 10 and 29 yards to move into UF territory, then dropped a 31-yard scoring strike to Caleb Goodie Sr., who ran right past cornerback Jabari Flowers for an easy score and the fourth pass completion of at least 20 yards in the first half against the UF defense. It was 17-10.

Florida's final possession of the half ended with a three-and-out, with Simmons taking advantage with three straight completions that set up Craig for a 50-yard field goal as time expired to send the Tigers into the locker room with 20-10 lead, all the momentum and the ball to start the second half.

Their first possession after intermission was more of the same.

Mizzou needed less than three minutes to roll 75 yards in six plays. A 36-yard Simmons-to-Goodie strike on third-and-7 moved the ball to the UF 19. Two plays later, Roberts crashed into the end zone from five yards and the Tigers were dominating at 27-10.

Missouri added a 52-yard field goal at the 4:30 mark of the period to go up 30-10. Florida had to get something, anything, on its next drive to stop the bleeding, but a sack put the Gators behind the down and distance, forcing a punt. On the Tigers' second play of the next possession, Roberts was stacked up for a loss on the right side of the line, but spun out of it and took off on an improbable 77-yard run to the UF 2. Roberts finished the drive with a touchdown, the Tigers added a 2-point conversion and the game was over-and-a-half at 38-10.

Mizzou's first three-and-out possession of the game came with just under nine minutes remaining and leading of 45-10. Gators backup quarterback Trammell Jones Jr. threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to TJ Abrams with 47 seconds remaining to account for the final score.
UF defensive end Emmanual Oyebadejo (99) with one of the few times Mizzou QB Austin Simmons felt pressure Saturday.
UF defensive end Emmanual Oyebadejo (99) with one of the few times Mizzou QB Austin Simmons felt pressure Saturday.

What it Means

A reality check for the Gators, who still have plenty to play for and will have a slew of chances to show what a dose of humility will do for them with some brutal SEC challenges still on the horizon. This where Sumrall will learn about the character of his first UF team.

In the Spotlight

Simmons and Roberts were phenomenal in combining for -- get this -- 551 yards of total offense to become only the third duo over the last 20 years with a 300-yard passer and 200-yard rusher against a top-10 team.

Staggering Statistic

The UF running game averaged 260.0 yards through the first four games (11th in the nation), including 5.9 per carry. The Gators rushed 25 times for 42 yards. That's 1.7 per. Baugh, who was at 7.2 a carry coming in, had a 12-yard run on the first snap of the game, but gained one yard on his final 11 carries to finish at 1.1 per. Apparently, not enough was made of Missouri's run defense, which started the day at 31st nationally and was allowing only 2.8 yards per carry. The Tigers actually improved on that mark against the second-best ground game in the country.

Up Next

Florida (4-1, 2-1) is back at "The Swamp" next weekend to face South Carolina (2-3, 0-3) for homecoming. The Gators have defeated the Gamecocks four straight times in Gainesville and five of the previous six overall. USC lost to Kentucky 35-34 in overtime at home Saturday. Missouri will be home next week against Texas A&M.

What Happened

South Carolina quarterback LaNorris Sellers passed for 279 yards and accounted for five touchowns, four through the air, while the Florida offense was stymied for the second week in a row, this time in a 38-19 homecoming loss Saturday to the Gamecocks before a disappointed sellout crowd at Spurrier/Florida Field.

Sellers, the 6-foot-3, 238-pound senior, completed 23 of 35 pass attempts, fired scores of 15, 12, 26 and 21 yards, and also ran for a touchdown, as the Gamecocks churned out 393 yards of total offense without a turnover. His UF counterpart, third-year sophomore Aaron Philo, hit 21 of 28 throws for 227 yards and a score, but turned the ball over twice (an interception and fumble) and was sacked three times before being replaced by Trammel Jones Jr. late in the final quarter

On offense, the Gators managed 387 yards, most between the 20s, only 120 on the ground, and turned it over three times. Tailback Jadan Baugh, like his team, had a second consecutive long afternoon, carrying 15 times for only 59 yards and a score. The offense was without star playmaking wideout Vernell Brown III (knee) for the second straight week and also lost backup tailback Duke Clark to an ankle injury in the first half.

The loss, which included a 45-minute lightning delay that came at halftime, was Florida's first against South Carolina since 2021 and its second-most lopsided in the series' 45-game history that dates to 1911. The Gamecocks came in with losses in each of their first three Southeastern Conference games. UF, ranked 16th, was a double-digit favorite to win the game.

The Gators struck first when, on the third play of their second offensive series, Philo rolled to the right and hit Bailey Stockton (8 catches, 127 yards, 1 TD) up the sideline, with Stockton winning a foot race to the end zone for a 59-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead. The Gamecocks canceled it out with a 10-play, 65-yard march capped when Sellers fired a perfect pass in the back left corner of the end zone that 6-5, 239-pound wideout Nyck Harbor leaped to haul in against excellent coverage by safety Bryce Thornton to tie the game with 12 seconds to go in the first period.

The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter. A promising UF drive had the Gators with a first down at the USC 9, but they settled for Patrick Durkin's 21-yard field goal. Gamecocks kicker Malik Orsan proceeded to match it with a 37-yarder and 10-10 tie with 4:09 to go in the half.

With a chance to chew up some clock, score late and get the second-half kickoff, instead Philo was picked off by cornerback Vicari Swain, who returned the play 21 yards to the Florida 26. The Gamecocks capitalized with Sellers firing a bullet 12-yard score to Mazio Bennett Jr. to go ahead 17-10 with 1:42 to go in the period.

Though with plenty of time to salvage a score, the Gators let the clock bleed down before calling their first timeout with 22 seconds to go. UF managed to gain 43 yards over its next four plays to put Durkin in position for a 43-yard field-goal try on the final snap of the half. He missed.

The Gators drove 45 yards to open the third period, with Durkin making good on a 48-yarder to cut the lead to 17-13. Sellers, though, had a response, starting with a 35-yard completion to Harbor on third-and-14 that was immediately followed by a 26-yard scoring dart to Donovan Murph and 24-13 lead.

Two possessions later, the Gamecocks led 30-13 when Sellers finished a 10-play, 59-yard drive with a quarterback sneak to push his team to a commanding lead.

Sellers threw his fourth TD of the game on a blown-coverage in the fourth quarter when Lex Cyrus went completely uncovered 20 yards into the UF secondary and was alone in the end zone for the score. Baugh got his 12th touchdown of the season with 1:01 remaining on a 1-yard run out of the Wildcat formation.

What it Means

After dashing to national darling status (and into The Associated Press Top 10) with four consecutive wins to start the season, the Gators have suffered a pair of lopsided defeats in succession (by an average margin of 23.5 points, can't run the ball or stop anybody on defense, and now face the most daunting run of their schedule (read on).

In the Spotlight

Sellers, riding an eight-game SEC losing streak, looked like a Heisman Trophy candidate against the Florida defense. In his three previoius SEC games (losses to Mississippi State, at Alabama, and home against Kentucky in overtime) he combined to complete 59.4% of his passes for five touchdowns, three interceptions and a QB rating of 124.3. Against Florida, he looked totally comfortable and in command on his way to hitting 66% of this attempts for a QBR of 170.4 and a plus-4 touchdown-to-turnover ratio through the air.

Staggering Statistic

Seven days earlier, the Gators woke up in Columbia, Missouri, ranked No. 2 in the nation in both scoring (53.5 points) and total offense (532.5 yards per game), and boasted the No. 5 rushing attack in the country (260.0 ypg). The last two games, UF has averaged 18.0 points and 356 total yards, including just 81.0 on the ground.

Up Next

Florida (4-2, 2-2) enters one of the most brutal two-game stretches in all of college football this season, starting with next Saturday's road date at No. 1 Texas (4-0, 1-0), which takes on rival Oklahoma in the annual Red River Rivalry later Saturday. Come what may in Austin, the Gators will have a Week 8 bye before its annual showdown against currently No. 2 and unbeaten Georgia on Oct. 31 in a game that will be played in Atlanta due to renovations of the stadium in Jacksonville. South Carolina (3-3, 1-3) is off next week and will be home to currently 15th-ranked Tennessee on Oct. 24

What Happened

Second-year freshman quarterback Tramell Jones Jr. teamed with the Florida defense to fashion one of the program's most improbable upset victories in years Saturday, as the Gators rallied from two touchdowns down to shock seventh-ranked Texas 27-24 before a dumbfounded, sold-out crowd of more than 100,000 at DKR-Memorial Stadium.

Jones, making his first career start for injured Aaron Philo, completed 22 of 35 passes with a pair of touchdowns, both to tight end Lacota Dippre, and did not turn the ball over, as the offense totaled 313 yards, 21 first downs and dominated time of possession. Jones led the offense to 24 unanswered points after falling behind 17-3 in one of the most hallowed venues in the country.

The bigger story, however, just might have been the UF defense, which coming in was ranked at the bottom of the Southeastern Conference (allowing 393 yards per game) and 131st in the nation (out of 138) in defending the pass (268.7 ypg). The unit resembled nothing close to those numbers.

The Gators overwhelmed Texas quarterback Arch Manning and his offense, limiting the Longhorns to just 272 total yards (only 172 through the air), 13 first downs, just two of 10 third-down conversion and sacked Manning five times, the last one resulting in a game-icing fumble. UF, meanwhile held the ball for a 38 minutes, 11 seconds (for a whopping plus-16 differential) and went 8-for-11 on third down in the second half.

The performance – and outcome – was quite the role-reversal from the Florida that showed up the previous two weeks in blowout losses at Missouri and at home against South Carolina for homecoming. And it came on the road against a Texas team that talked all week about its refocus and determination after a gut-punch, walk-off loss while ranked No. 1 against hated Oklahoma in their Red River Rivalry showdown.

UF tailback Jadan Baugh rushed 25 times for 91 yards, including the game's final score, a 13-yard run that put the Gators ahead by 10 with just over six minutes remaining. UT got a quick-streak touchdown to draw within three points, then got the ball back with 2:32 remaining with a chance to win or tie the game.

On the second snap, junior linebacker Myles Graham's sack/fumble was recovered by blitzing defensive back Kanye Clark with 1:58 remaining.

After Texas called a pair of timeouts, Jones made two defenders miss on a zone-read keeper to left and dashed for a 9-yard gain on third-and-7 with 1:44 to go, as UT was forced to use its final timeout, thus putting the game away.

Texas won the toss and, going against convention, opted to receive the opening kickoff. The Longhorns converted one third down, got a defensive pass interference penalty against cornerback Cormani McClain, then tailback Raleek Brown broke off the right side for a 32-yard touchdown and 7-0 lead less than four minutes in. UT, after a quick UF possession, made it 10-0 with a 38-yard field goal by Pat Spetic at the 6:42 mark.

A decent kickoff return, two first downs, plus a 15-yard penalty against the Longhorns, led to Patrick Durkin's 45-yard field that – despite being badly outplayed and outgained in the first period – made it a 10-3 game early in the second. After the Florida defense got its first three-and-out to force a punt, Jones returned the favor, missing on a pair of throws to open receivers, with Alec Clark coming on to punt the ball back to the Longhorns. UT's Ryan Niblett, a 2025 first-team All American kick-returner, fielded the punt, made a gunner miss, then crossed the field left to right, on his way to a 64-yard return to put his team ahead 17-3 at the 11:27 mark of the second.

Just when it looked like things were getting out of hand, both teams made plays to make it interesting.

Texas appeared to dodge a couple bullets (fumble by Manning recovered by UT, followed by a dropped interception by UF safety Bryce Thornton) when the Longhorns gambled on a fourth-and-1 at midfield. Florida linebacker Ty Jackson blew through the line and blew up tailback Hollywood Smothers for a yard loss, giving the Gators the ball with two-plus minutes to go before half.

Then it was UF's turn to gamble. The Gators went for it on fourth-and-12 at the Texas 36, with Jones throwing a perfect sideline pass that tightly covered Dallas Wilson toe-tapped for a 17-yard gain with 51 seconds on the clock. Three plays later, Jones play-faked to his right, then reversed to his left and lobbed a 7-yard score to Dippre with 18 seconds, capping a huge nine-play, 49-yard drive with 18 seconds to play that closed UT's margin to 17-10, with the Gators getting the second half kickoff.

And capitalizing on the opportunity.

Jones led a master-class drive of 15 plays, covering 69 yards and chewing up more than eight minutes of the clock. Along the way, he converted five third downs, the last ending with a 14-yard strike to an uncovered Dippre in the end zone to tie the game at 17-all.

The next three UT drives totaled 11 plays, 28 yards, two punts and a stop on downs. The Gators' offense took the cue from their defense, getting a 28-yard go-ahead field goal from Durkin and – after stopping Manning for a 3-yard loss on fourth-and-2 at UT 48 – a mini-march that ended with Baugh bouncing an inside run to the outside and scoring from 11 yards for a two-possession lead, 27-17, and just 6:22 remaining.

Manning, facing on a fourth-and-6 and under pressure, escaped the UF rush and fired downfield to a wide-open wideout Emmett Mosley V, who beat Clark for a 62 catch-and-run to the Florida 9. Two plays later, Manning found Cam Coleman for a touchdown to make it 27-24 with 4:21 left and Memorial Stadium suddenly awakened. Temporarily.

UF's ensuing possession was a three-and-out that lost four yards. Ryan Niblett's 17-yard punt return set up UT at its 46 with 2:32 left. On second-and-8, the Florida pass rush crashed, with linebacker Graham smothering Manning and forcing a fumble that Clark fell on with 1:58 to go,setting up the offense for its run-out-the-clock final possession.

What it Means

The Gators entered the game with just 11 victories in their last 40 away from home, so this one – against a top-10 opponent, no less – was monumental relative to confidence for a team with a season teetering on the brink. Coach Jon Sumrall, in his first year, is now 2-0 with his new team against Associated Press Top 10 opponents, and owns the program's first victory over a top-10 team on the road since the Gators beat No. 10 Florida State 37-26 on Nov. 24, 2012 at Tallahassee. That was five coaches ago. Texas was Florida's highest-ranked road victim since the No. 1 Gators beat fourth-ranked LSU 13-3 on Oct. 10, 2009 at Baton Rouge.

In the Spotlight

Take a bow, Mr. Jones, who under seemingly impossible circumstances easily outperformed Manning. Jones became the first Florida quarterback in 29 years to beat a top-10 team on the road in his first career start. The last to do so was Jesse Palmer, who was in the broadcast booth calling the game for ABC. Palmer started what turned to be a 24-10 victory at No. 6 Auburn on Oct. 18, 1997. He did not, however, finish the game. He was replaced that day by walk-on Noah Brindise, who helped key the victory.

Staggering Statistic

The first quarter (and a bulk of the first half) was a disaster for the Gators, who went 0-for-8 on third down through the first two periods, only to covert on all but three in 11 second-half attempts. Absolutely lights-out, with a quarterback who had never dealt with such pressure.

Up Next

Florida (5-2, 3-2) has its first open date of the season, then returns to action Oct. 31 for its annual rivalry date against Georgia (6-1, 4-1), who entered the week as the No. 1 team in the country. With EverBank Stadium undergoing renovations, the game will be played at Mercedez Benz Stadium in Atlanta. The Bulldogs, who have won five straight in the series, were upset at home by Auburn on Saturday night, making this one look a little more interesting now. Texas (4-2, 1-2), in a free-fall from No. 1, is home against Ole Miss.

What Happened

The Gators won the coin toss in their annual Southeastern Conference showdown against Georgia. Some on the Florida side of Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Saturday will consider that the highlight.

Otherwise, it was all Bulldogs in the storied rivalry's first contest in Georgia's capital city.

Third-ranked Georgia (7-1, 5-1) took advantage of a string of Florida miscues in the first half to win, 27-8, extending its winning streak over the No. 17-ranked Gators (5-3, 3-3) to six, the Bulldogs' longest run of success in the series since a six-game streak from 1978-83. Florida last beat the Bulldogs in 2020. Georgia coach Kirby Smart improved to 9-2 against the Gators and beat first-year UF coach Jon Sumrall in their first matchup.

The teams combined for less than 600 yards of total offense, as Florida limited the Bulldogs to 318 total yards and 15 points below their season scoring average. But the Gators mustered only 252 total yards and committed four turnovers.

"Where we are as a program, every part of our team has to get better," Sumrall said. "I'm not letting us off the hook for everything we do right now; we're trying to build a sustainable program for a long time, and every little thing we do matters. So, to me, there was a lot of growth on defense; it still wasn't good enough.

"Where they have been recently, we want to go."

The first sign of trouble happened on Florida's opening drive, with the game still scoreless after Georgia kicker Peyton Woodring missed a 43-yard field goal on Georgia's first possession. Facing third-and-6 at UF's 42, starting quarterback Aaron Philo was pressured from behind and stumbled as he tried to escape the pocket.

Instead of eating turf, Philo attempted to toss the ball out of bounds underhand, and the wayward pass was intercepted by Ellis Robinson IV. The Bulldogs took over at Florida's 41. However, Georgia's offense failed to take advantage, and on fourth-and-10, a delay-of-game penalty moved the Bulldogs back to the 46. More warning signs for the Gators came when Jaden Edgecombe, a senior walk-on receiver who had played only one game in his career, was called for roughing the kicker on Drew Miller's punt.

First down, Bulldogs.

Five plays later, running back Nate Frazier bulldozed into the end zone from the 1-yard line and the Bulldogs led, 7-0. Another Philo interception in the second quarter — this one a catchable pass that deflected off receiver Eric Singleton Jr.'s hands and picked off by Demello Jones — led to a Woodring 28-yard field goal and a 10-0 Bulldogs lead with 8:55 left before halftime.

Tramell Jones Jr. replaced Philo to perhaps spark the offense and get the Gators on the scoreboard before halftime. It didn't happen. Following a Gators punt on Jones' first series, Bo Walker capped a 10-play, 81-yard drive for the Bulldogs with a 1-yard touchdown run, putting the Bulldogs up 17-0.

The first half couldn't end soon enough for the Gators. But before it did, disaster struck on second-and-5 from Georgia's 37. Jones, 3-for-3 for 37 yards on the drive to move the Gators into Georgia territory, was sacked as he cocked his arm back to throw. The play was ruled a fumble, and Georgia's Chris Cole scooped up the loose ball and raced 66 yards for the score with 29 seconds left before the half.

"I think they're a really good football team and I have a lot of respect for them," Sumrall said. "They didn't need our help tonight, but we gave it to them, too."

Game over. Georgia's streak lives for another year.

"Nine-and-three is the only thing we should be thinking about, that's for sure," receiver Bailey Stockton said. "We just have to get back to the drawing board, honestly. We have to get better."

What it Means

The Gators will drop out of any conversation of making the College Football Playoff. Florida had an opportunity to stamp its place in the playoff picture with an upset of the third-ranked Bulldogs — it would have been the Gators' third win over a top-10-ranked team this season — but handing the Bulldogs 17 points off turnovers before halftime derailed another upset bid.
In the Spotlight

Philo missed the Texas win with a shoulder injury after starting the first six games of the Sumrall era. Jones made his first start and led the Gators to a win over the No. 7 Longhorns, throwing for 155 yards and two scores. With Philo ready to return and Jones reportedly aching — both players were listed as questionable on the availability report — Philo got the call Saturday. Jones won the statistical battle and scored Florida's only touchdown, leaving Sumrall and offensive coordinator Buster Faulkner plenty to sort out at practice next week.

Philo finished 5 of 7 for 24 yards and two interceptions; Jones completed 17 of 24 for 172 yards and one interception. He got the Gators on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter with a 2-yard run.

"I don't know if I'm ready to make a decision on anything today," Sumrall said after the game. "Whoever we're going to start is going to get more reps with the ones. We're going to evaluate that the next couple of days. I don't know that I saw either one of them play well enough for me to go, 'that's our starter forever moving forward.' I saw both of them do enough good things that I want to keep both of them alive and give them opportunities to grow."

Staggering Statistic

The Bulldogs outrushed the Gators 217 yards to 48. Gators junior Jadan Baugh, an Atlanta native playing in his homecoming game, managed only 38 yards on 17 carries. Florida averaged only 1.7 yards per carry.

Up Next

The Gators (5-3, 3-3) return home to face Oklahoma. The Sooners have never played at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, and the only two meetings between the schools came in the postseason (2008 National Championship Game, 2020 Cotton Bowl). Oklahoma faced South Carolina on Saturday.

WEEK 10: HONORARY MR. TWO BITS

THE LEGEND OF MR. TWO BITS

It all started in 1949 at Florida Field, when George Edmondson looked at the crowd around him as the Gators were playing The Citadel. Fans were booing the team and George would not stand for it. He jumped up and got the fans cheering, and so began the legend of Mr. Two Bits.

For 60 years, Gators fans from all across the world became eternally grateful for the man who started every Gators home football game with the phrase "Two-Bits, Four-Bits, Six-Bits, a Dollar. All for the Gators, Stand Up and holler!" George Edmondson led the cheer in his trademark yellow shirt with an orange and blue tie from 1949 until retiring from the role at the end of the 2008 season. Coincidentally, Florida's home finale that season came against The Citadel, providing a unique symmetry to Edmondson's decades of leading Florida fans in the Mr. Two Bits cheer.

Upon his retirement, Florida mascots Albert and Alberta continued the pregame Two Bits tradition until 2013 when UF began inviting celebrities to perform the role. Errict Rhett was the first honorary Mr. Two Bits, and multiple Gator Greats have gone on to fill that role since.

THIS WEEK'S HONORARY MR. TWO BITS IS...

...former Gators star DT Jarvis Moss. As a 2006 National Champion, First Team All-American and 2007 First Round NFL Draft pick, Moss donned the Orange & Blue from 2003-2006. In his final season at UF in 2006, Moss started all 13 games while racking up 56 tackles and 11.0 tackles for loss. Playing in his final game in The Swamp vs. South Carolina on Nov. 11, Moss blocked two field-goal kicks including a 48-yard, potential game winner with eight seconds remaining to clinch Florida's spot in the 2006 SEC Championship game. Florida's Chris Harry details his selection as Week 10's honorary Mr. Two Bits below.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – At first, Jarvis Moss could not recall the last time he was at Spurrier/Florida Field. Until, that is, he realized that last time actually doubled as his final home date as a Florida Gator. With that clarity, Moss had no trouble recalling every single, thunderous, glorious second of that last game.

More specifically, of the last play. Anyone else out there in Gator Nation remember?

Moss, the former standout UF defensive tackle, will be back at "The Swamp" for the first time in nearly 20 years Saturday when the Gators (5-3, 3-3) face Oklahoma (4-4, 2-3) in a night that will double as Urban Meyer's induction into the program's hallowed Ring of Honor. Moss will be there not only to celebrate his former coach, but to take a turn as honorary "Mr. Two Bits."

The selection of Moss is fitting, given his hand – literally – in putting Meyer alongside Steve Spurrier, Jack Youngblood, Wilber Marshall, Emmitt Smith, Danny Wuerffel and Tim Tebow in the prestigious ring.

"I'm so proud to be a part of that history," said Moss, a 2006 first-team All American and NFL first-round draft pick.

Moss was asked to relive the moment, a.k.a., "The Cock Block." Not only was he delighted to oblige, his recall of Spurrier's first homecoming game as South Carolina's coach was crystal clear.

The date was Nov. 11, 2006. The sixth-ranked Gators needed a win over the unranked Gamecocks to clinch a spot in the Southeastern Conference Championship Game and keep their slim national-title hopes alive. Florida, thanks to a Tebow touchdown run and Chris Hetland point-after with three minutes remaining, led 17-16 with eight seconds to go. South Carolina, though, had driven into UF territory and placekicker Ryan Succop came on the field to try a walk-off 48-yard field goal for the win.

"I played every snap that game. I didn't come out for one play. As a competitor, I remember playing every play as hard as I could. Athletes take plays off sometimes, that's part of the game, but I emptied the gas tank that day. We had already blocked two kicks and I had blocked an extra point in the fourth quarter. Usually extra points are plays guys take off, but I got in the crease, got my right hand up and got the ball. I remember looking at the scoreboard and thinking, 'We're going to win because of that one point.' "

With Succop and the Gamecocks lined up, UF called a timeout to ice the kicker, with the defensive unit, in this case the field-goal block team, summoned to the sideline.

"Coach Meyer, Charlie Strong and Greg Mattison were there. I was bent over, trying to get my wind, hands on my knees. Coach Strong comes over to me and yells for Derrick Harvey to get in there for me. They wanted to take me out. There was no way. 'I'm not coming out of this game!' I looked at Urban, he looked back at me sent me back out there. He knew I had to be in the game. The plan was for Steve Harrison and Ray McDonald to bump their lineman, get some push and I would be the jumper. You know how a basketball player takes one step and dunks the ball? That's what I was going to do."

And he did it to perfection.

"It was like everything was in slow motion. I saw everything. The snap, his foot, the kick -- and the ball hitting my hand. As soon as my feet touched the ground, I was pointing to the crowd. It was the first game my family had ever been to there. It was incredible."

What ensued, some say, was the loudest moment ever in "The Swamp," with the reverberations representing the landscape of college football changing in an instant.

UF went to the SEC Championship and defeated Arkansas, while UCLA was upset No. 2 USC, with the Gators vaulting to No. 2 and securing a berth in the Fiesta Bowl national-championship game against No. 1 Ohio State.

Florida, of course, dominated the Buckeyes (and Heisman Trophy winner Troy Smith) 41-14 five weeks later, limiting them to a measly 82 yards of total offense. Moss was in the middle of it all. Two years later, with Moss in the middle of a five-year NFL career that took him to Denver and Oakland, the Gators won their second national crown under Meyer.

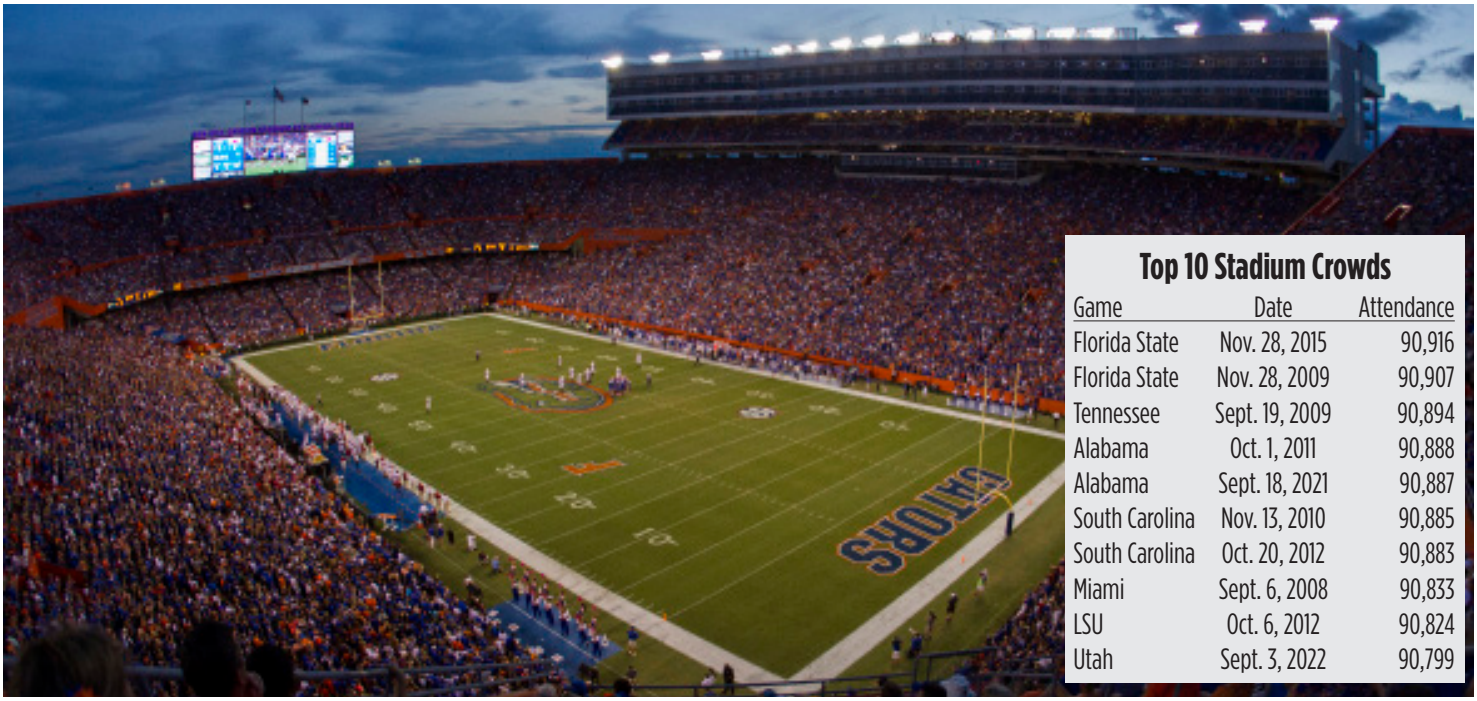

The past two decades, Moss has spent most of his time in Colorado and dedicated himself to helping raise his son, Noah, a decorated football player in his own right. Noah Moss is a freshman tailback at North Carolina State who rushed for a state-record 2,112 yards and 37 touchdowns as a senior at Fairhope (Ala.) St. Michael Catholic.

"I've loved playing the role of a dad," he said.

Hopefully, he'll love being reunited with his former coach and teammates, as well as the vibe that has invigorated Florida football to the tune of 22 consecutive sellouts.

"Urban? Oh man," Moss said. "A winner. A champion. A great coach and culture-shifter. He was what we needed at that time to become better players and better student-athletes. What a run we had."

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."
