COACHES

JON SUMRALL

HEAD COACH

First Season

@CoachJonSumrall

Jon Sumrall was named the 31st head football coach in program history, Athletic Director Scott Stricklin announced Nov. 30, 2025.

Sumrall, who brings extensive coaching and playing experience in the Southeastern Conference, joins the Gators after engineering rapid turnarounds at two different programs and guiding his teams to championship game appearances in every season he has served as a head coach. Sumrall is known for his energy, leadership, program-building skills and consistent results.

"Jon Sumrall is a proven winner and an exceptional leader who has built successful programs at every stop," Stricklin said. "He brings tremendous energy, strong recruiting relationships across our footprint, and a philosophy rooted in toughness, discipline and player development. Jon will cultivate a daily culture of competitiveness, accountability and winning that drives success on the field and throughout our program. He fully understands the expectations at the University of Florida, and we're excited to welcome him and his family to Gator Nation.

"Not many coaches win big at two different non-Power programs, and even fewer do it as quickly as Jon has," Stricklin said. "He joins rare company—coaches like Urban Meyer, Brian Kelly and Willie Fritz—who've delivered immediate success at multiple stops. Jon's track record of rapid turnarounds speaks directly to his leadership and the culture he establishes."

Despite only returning four starters this season, Sumrall guided No. 17 Tulane to a spot in the College Football Playoff at No. 6 Ole Miss after winning the American Conference Championship 34-21 over No. 24 North Texas.

The Green Wave currently own a record of 11-2 (7-1) and a clinched spot in the conference championship in back-to-back seasons. Sumrall has now made four conference championship game appearances in his first-four years as a head coach, becoming the only coach in FBS history to do so at two different schools.

Tulane placed a league-leading 13 on the 2025 American All-Conference Teams led by Special Teams Player of the Year, kicker Patrick Durkin, who was the first in program history to earn the honor.

Sumrall, 43, has developed a reputation as one of college football's top young coaches during his tenures at Troy and Tulane and currently owns the fifth-highest winning percentage among active FBS coaches (43–12, .782), trailing only Ryan Day, Dan Lanning, Kirby Smart and Curt Cignetti.

He is also widely regarded as a strong recruiter with deep ties throughout the Southeast, including Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Tennessee. Sumrall has earned consistent praise for his talent identification, player development and ability to connect with student-athletes and their families.

"The University of Florida is one of the premier programs in college football, and it's an incredible honor to serve as the head football coach," Sumrall said. "I believe in building a team rooted in toughness, accountability and a relentless competitive spirit. Florida has everything necessary to compete at the highest level—the resources, the support, the tradition and the passion of Gator Nation. My family and I are excited to get to work.

"One of my first priorities will be to assemble an incredible staff, including an offensive coordinator who understands that, at Florida, having an explosive offense isn't optional – it's mandatory!"

In his first season as Tulane's head coach, Sumrall guided the Green Wave to their third straight American Athletic Conference Championship Game and a bowl appearance versus Florida. His team finished first or second in the conference in 10 statistical categories, including leading the league in thirddown conversions (52.5%), defensive touchdowns (6), completion percentage (65.6%), scoring offense (37.2) and pass-efficiency defense (111.65). Tulane led the nation in defensive touchdowns and produced a league-high 18 all-conference selections.

As the head coach at Troy in 2022 and 2023, Sumrall engineered one of the nation's most impressive program turnarounds—leading the Trojans to back-to-back Sun Belt championships, consecutive 12-win seasons and multiple national rankings. He was named conference Coach of the Year and twice was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year award.

Troy's 23 victories across the 2022–23 seasons were tied for the third most nationally, trailing only Georgia, Michigan and Washington. Troy and Michigan were the only two programs to win conference titles in both seasons.

Sumrall was a three-year letterwinner at middle linebacker at Kentucky from 2002–04. He led the Wildcats with 72 tackles his redshirt-junior year. A standout off the field as well, he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and selected to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character. After earning his finance degree in 2005, he served as a graduate assistant at Kentucky during the 2005 and 2006 seasons under Rich Brooks.

He spent five seasons at the University of San Diego beginning in 2007, including two years as defensive coordinator, before returning to Tulane for a three-year stint as defensive coordinator. Sumrall served as assistant head coach at Troy from 2015–17, then spent four seasons in the SEC—at Ole Miss in 2018 and at Kentucky from 2019–20 and again as co-defensive coordinator in 2023—before becoming Troy's head coach.

A two-time all-Alabama selection and four-year letterwinner at Grissom High School, Sumrall was inducted into the Huntsville-Madison County Hall of Fame in 2023. He is married to the former Ginny Nixon, also of Huntsville, and they have four children: Sam, Sadie, Stella and Selah.

Sumrall's approach aligns with Florida's emphasis on excellence—athletically, academically and personally. He is known for building strong relationships with student-athletes, fostering team-first cultures and assembling high-performance staffs aligned with his vision.

"Jon leads with integrity, communicates with clarity and holds himself and his teams to the highest standards," Stricklin said. "He is the right leader to lead Florida Football towards the elite success all Gators desire."

BUSTER FAULKNER
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

First Season

@Buster_Faulkner

Buster Faulkner enters his first season as offensive coordinator for Florida in 2026.

Instrumental in a trio of national titles runs at Georgia (2021, 2022) and Valdosta State (2007), Faulkner comes to the Gators after serving as the offensive coordinator at Georgia Tech the past three seasons (2023-25). He comes equipped with 14 years of experience as an offensive coordinator alone, also coaching the tight ends at Georgia Tech after three seasons at Georgia as an offensive quality control coach (2020-22). Faulkner was also named the 2025 FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

"Buster is one of the most innovative offensive coaches in football and I couldn't be happier for him to join our staff," Sumrall said at the time of his hiring. "Throughout his impressive career, not only has Buster led some of the highest-scoring offenses in the country, but he's also shown the ability to design and implement his offenses to the strengths of his players. There is not a doubt in my mind that Buster will have our offense lighting up the scoreboard."

In addition to his national championship success, Faulkner boasts six collegiate conference titles and four division crowns, while claiming a high school state championship as both a coach and a player.

"I'm extremely excited to get to work under Jon Sumrall," Faulkner said. "He's a proven winner and that's what excites me the most about this opportunity. Florida is a place where we can compete for national championships and I can't wait to meet the players and get this thing rolling!"

Collectively across his three seasons at Georgia Tech, Faulkner's offense ranks first in the ACC in rushing (197.8), second in total offense (437.7), third in passing efficiency (144.1) and fifth in scoring offense (31.0). The Yellow Jackets have surrendered the fewest sacks in the conference in all three years of his tenure, allowing 34 total in that span – three fewer than any other ACC team and good for third in the entire FBS. Georgia Tech also ranks 14th and 18th nationally in rushing offense and total offense since 2023, respectively.

The elite output from Faulkner's Yellow Jacket offense has come with tremendous consistency. Faulkner has directed a Georgia Tech offense ranked in the top half of the ACC in rushing, total offense, scoring and passing efficiency in each of his three campaigns. As a result, Georgia Tech improved from a 5-7 record the year prior to Faulkner's arrival to achieve consecutive, seven-win seasons from 2023-24 upon his arrival, culminating with a 9-3 campaign and t-second-place finish in the ACC in 2025.

Faulkner produced five or more All-ACC honorees on the offensive side of the ball in every season with the Jackets for a grand total of 17 selections, featuring 2025 first team quarterback Haynes King. Under Faulkner's guidance, King led the ACC while ranking third nationally in total offense (329.0 YPG) and was named ACC Quarterback of the Week five times in 11 games this season. King holds status as the only power-conference player in the nation this season, and just the fifth since 1956, to average at least 240 passing yards and 80 rushing yards per game.

In 2024, guard Keylan Rutledge became Georgia Tech's first non-specialist to earn first-team All-America honors in 10 years. That same year, King turned in another ultra-impressive season as the orchestrator of Faulkner's attack, becoming the first FBS quarterback in the last 70 years with 2,000 passing yards, 10 touchdown passes, a 70% completion percentage and two or fewer interceptions in a season. That came on the heels of a 2023 campaign in which running back Jamal Haynes became Tech's first 1,000-yard rusher in six years, while King was one of two Power Five players with at least 2,800 passing yards, 700 rushing yards, 25 touchdown passes and 10 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to Georgia Tech, Faulkner won two national titles in three seasons as an offensive quality control assistant for quarterbacks at Georgia (2020-22). While in Athens, Faulkner played a significant role in constructing and fielding one of the college football's top offenses. In his three seasons, UGA quarterbacks combined to rank third in the SEC in both passing efficiency (158.6) and passing yards per game (283.1), with the former sitting eighth in the FBS, and fourth in the conference in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.97). On top of that, Georgia gave up the fewest number of sacks (45) in the SEC for the 11th-best mark in the country.

In 2022, the Bulldogs finished among the top five nationally in scoring (41.3 ppg) and total offense (501.1 YPG). Georgia quarterback Stetson Bennett IV finished fourth in voting for the 2022 Heisman Trophy in Faulkner's final year on the UGA staff.

Prior to his three-year stint at Georgia, he spent the previous 10 seasons as offensive coordinator at Southern Miss (2019), Arkansas State (2016-18), Middle Tennessee (2011-15) and Murray State (2010). His 14 seasons as a coordinator also includes a season as OC at Valdosta State in 2008. Faulkner coached quarterbacks at Central Arkansas in 2009 and at Valdosta State in 2007, and was a graduate assistant at Georgia in 2006. Along the way, Faulkner mentored eventual NFL Draft Picks at Southern Miss, Middle Tennessee and Murray State.

As a native of Atlanta, Faulkner was a 2005 graduate of Valdosta State where he starred under center from 2001-03. Passing for 7,100 yards and 64 touchdowns to power the Blazers to a 47-6 combined record, Faulkner collected first team all-conference and honorable mention All-America honors in 2002 prior to transferring to Texas A&M-Commerce for his senior season. He set 10 school records in his lone year at Commerce, throwing for 2,861 yards and 16 scores.

Faulkner was a three-year starter at quarterback at Parkview High School in Lilburn, Ga. and led the Panthers to the 1997 Georgia 4A state championship – the first state title in school history. In 2024, he and his son, Harrison, became the first father-son duo to both win Georgia high school state championships as starting quarterbacks when Harrison led North Oconee to the 4A state title. Faulkner and his wife, Tia, also have two daughters, Hadley and Haisley.

BRAD WHITE
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

First Season

@CoachWhiteFB

Brad White enters his first season as defensive coordinator for Florida in 2026.

White spent the previous eight seasons on staff at Kentucky, highlighted by his last seven as defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach. During his time in Lexington, the Wildcats made six bowl appearances while ranking among the top-20 FBS teams in both scoring defense (22.1) and total defense (344.1) under his tutelage from 2018-2025. Across seven NFL Drafts while at Kentucky (2019-24), White developed 14 NFL Draft picks and six selections in the top-two rounds on the defensive side of the ball.

"Brad is one of the best defensive minds in football and I'm thrilled he will be joining us in Gainesville," head football coach Jon Sumrall said at the time of his hiring. "Brad has led one of the best defenses in the SEC the last seven years and has extensive experience in the NFL as well. His defenses possess the exact characteristics we are going to have here at Florida and I can't think of a better leader for that unit."

Over the course of White's Wildcats tenure, Kentucky evolved into one of the top defenses in the entire SEC. Led by White, Kentucky strung together seven-consecutive, top-45 FBS defenses from 2018-24, featuring four top-25 defenses in 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022. In 2024, the Wildcats finished sixth in the FBS in red zone defense (70.8%) and 21st in passing defense (183.7). That was followed by a pair of 2025 NFL Draft picks in April, headlined by first-rounder Maxwell Hairston, who became the highest-drafted defensive back in program history.

"Extremely thankful to Coach Sumrall for this exciting opportunity" White said. "I'm ready to hit the ground running on helping construct a defense that will make Gator Nation proud. Coach has already stated the vision - be the most feared defense in college football. Now comes the hard work necessary to make that vision a reality. And while scheme has its importance, the most critical focus we'll have as a defensive staff will be to develop the highly-talented playmakers we recruit and demand that they play with a pace and violence second to none."

Kentucky posted one of its top rush defense seasons ever in 2023, holding opponents to 113.1 rush yards per game to rank second in the SEC and 17th in the FBS. That same year, White's defense ranked fifth in the SEC and 19th nationally in sacks (35) while sitting fourth and 28th tackles for loss (85), respectively. The Wildcats also produced the third-most takeaways in the conference (18).

That elite showing came on the heels of a truly historic 2022 defensive performance in which the Wildcats finished seventh in the FBS in passing defense (170.8), 11th in total defense (311.4) and 13th in scoring defense (19.2). Each of those statistics ranked among the top three in the SEC.

In 2021, White's UK defense was third nationally in fourth-down defense (27.8%), 20th in run defense (121.5) and 26th in both scoring defense (21.7) and total defense (340.1). The year prior in 2020, UK ranked inside the top six of the SEC in nearly every defensive category featuring a league-best pass defense (224.6) and number of takeaways (22).

The 2019 campaign saw White take the reins as defensive coordinator and for the first time since 1979, Kentucky did not allow more than 30 points in a single regular-season game. The Wildcats ranked 13th nationally in scoring defense and 21st in total defense.

Capped off by a 10-3 record and Citrus Bowl victory in his first year on staff in 2018, White used his NFL experience to guide senior linebacker Josh Allen to one of the greatest individual seasons in team history. Racking up 88 tackles, 21.5 tackles for loss and 17 sacks, Allen was named National Defensive Player of the Year, a Unanimous First Team All-American and SEC Defensive Player of the Year on top of sweeping every major, national defensive award: Bronko Nagurski Award, Chuck Bednarik Award, Ronnie Lott IMPACT Trophy and Jack Lambert Award. As a result, Allen was the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Prior to Kentucky, White coached with the Indianapolis Colts for six seasons (2012-17) as the outside linebackers coach (2015-17), assistant linebackers coach (2014) and defensive quality control coach (2012-13). While on staff, White and the Colts made three-straight playoff appearances (2012-14) and claimed back-to-back AFC South Titles in 2013 and 2014.

As a native of Portsmouth, R.I., White graduated from Wake Forest in 2004 where he was a three-year starter at linebacker. Across 35 career games, he totaled 227 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks and eight passes defended. White was a three-time Academic All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and was named to the 2004 CoSIDA Academic All-District III team.

White and his wife, Kate, have four children, Julia, Lincoln, Hudson and Lydia.

GERALD CHATMAN

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE LINE

Third Season

@CoachGChatman

Gerald Chatman enters his third season with the Gators in 2026 and his first as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line. Chatman served as the team's defensive line coach from 2024-25.

In 2025, Chatman guided Florida's defensive line into one of the team's best units, despite the loss of standout Caleb Banks to injury for most of the season. Seven players in the unit recorded at least on tackle for loss on the year.

In 2024, Chatman helped guide Florida to a late-season charge, winning the last four games of the season to finish with an 8-5 record overall, with victories over No. 21 LSU, No. 9 Ole Miss, Florida State and Tulane in the 16th Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl. The Gators were one of just six unranked teams in the nation to post multiple top-25 wins on the year.

As a unit, the Florida defense finished the season ranked ninth in the nation in red zone defense (.725), 11th in sacks per game (3.0), 11th in fumbles recovered (11) and 13th in turnovers gained (25). The Gators finished the year with at least one takeaway in 10-straight games and 12 times in 13 games.

The Gator defense improved in nearly every statistical category from 2023 to 2024, including sacks (+17), tackles for loss (+28), forced fumbles (+11), pass breakups (+12), interceptions (+11) and turnovers gained (+18).

Individually along the interior defensive line, Caleb Banks and Cam Jackson were a formidable duo for opponents all season long. Banks finished with 21 tackles, seven tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks, one pass breakup, six quarterback hurries, one fumble recovery and two forced fumbles. Jackson tallied 37 tackles, four tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry.

He joined the Gators after serving as Tulane's defensive line coach during the 2023 season. The Green Wave defense ranked eighth in the county in rush defense (93.5 yards per game), fourth in turnovers gained (25), T-22nd in sacks (34), T-25th in tackles for loss (82.0).

Tulane's defensive line group totaled 52.5 tackles for loss, 27 sacks, 15 quarterback hurries, five forced fumbles and four pass breakups in 2023 prior to Chatman's departure. Chatman guided Patrick Jenkins, who was named the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Defensive Lineman and Interior Defensive Lineman of the Year. Jenkins and fellow defensive lineman Darius Hodges were both named to the ACC First Team.

Before his return to Tulane, Chatman spent the spring portion as LSU's interim defensive line coach in 2023 before being hired by the Green Wave in May. He served in the same capacity (defensive line coach) at Colorado this season prior and was elevated to defensive coordinator midway through the fall.

Chatman made his way back to the Southeastern Conference (SEC) in 2021 as a defensive line analyst at LSU. He worked with NFL Draft picks Neil Farrell (4th round) and Andre Anthony (7th round).

He spent the 2019 and 2020 seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals as a defensive assistant, where he worked primarily with the team's defensive ends and outside linebackers. He helped the defensive line improve significantly in quarterback sacks and rushing yards allowed in those two seasons that set up Cincinnati's run to the Super Bowl. While with the Bengals, he coached former Gator Carlos Dunlap among a talented group that included Mike Daniels, Geno Atkins, Sam Hubbard, Josh Tupou and Carl Lawson.

Chatman also gained experience in the National Football League (NFL) as a defensive line coaching intern through the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program, which takes place during summer camps. In 2015, he worked with the Green Bay Packers, assisting with the defensive line and linebacker units and was a participant in the NFL-NCAA Coaches Academy. The following year he spent a portion of the preseason with the Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos and then in 2018 with the Bengals at OTA's and camp.

Before his time with the Bengals, Chatman spent two seasons (2017-18) at Tennessee State, as the defensive ends and linebackers' coach. In his second season, he added special team's coordinator duties. That year, he coached three special teams players to All-Ohio Valley Conference honors, including Chris Rowland, the OVC special teams' player of the year (he averaged 13.0 yards per punt return). Additionally, he mentored kicker Antonio Zita to Phil Steele Freshman All-American honors. Chatman also guided defensive end Mekhi Brown to second-team All-OVC honors, after posting 6.5 tackles for losses and four sacks.

In his first season at Tennessee State, he helped guide the Tigers' defense to average yields of just 19.6 points and 278.5 yards per game, ranking seventh in total defense in the FCS.

Prior to TSU he worked at Elon University, where he was the defensive line coach for the 2016 campaign.

In 2015, Chatman made his first stop in the SEC. He was a graduate assistant at Texas A&M where he worked directly with legendary SEC defensive line coach Terry Price, who he credits as someone who made a big impact on his career.

During his time with the Aggies, Chatman worked directly with defensive end Myles Garrett, the No. 1 overall NFL draft pick in 2017 and an All-SEC and All-America selection.

Chatman spent the 2014 campaign as the defensive line coach and assistant recruiting coordinator at Butler University. The defensive line played a key role in the Bulldogs leading the Pioneer Football League in rushing defense and being second in sacks.

A native of Milwaukee, Wis., Chatman graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in Educational Leadership and Human Service. He earned four letters playing both defensive end and tackle for the Titans from 2006-10. He also holds a master of arts degree in adult and community education from Ball State University.

Chatman and his wife, Lauren, have four children; Kinley, Amelia, Maya and Tyson.

CHRIS COLLINS

SAFETIES

First Season at Florida

@CoachC_Collins

Chris Collins enters his first season as the team's safeties coach.

He was a vital role in the developing a Kentucky secondary that has had three-straight NFL draftees, including 2025 first round selection Maxwell Hairston, who was the highest-drafted defensive back in program history.

Collins has spent five seasons (2021-25) at Kentucky in the role of co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, under recently hired Gators' defensive coordinator Brad White. In 2025 and for the fourth straight season – 2024 (10), 2023 (11) and 2022 (10) – the Kentucky defense had double-digit interceptions with 12, which ranked third in the SEC while Ty Bryant tied for the conference-high (4) and ranked 24th nationally. In two of the last three seasons, a Kentucky defensive back has led the conference in interceptions (Maxwell Hairston – 5, 2023). Bryant was also UK's lone All-SEC selection this season.

"Coach Collins brings great experience to our defensive staff, as well as an extensive history working alongside Coach Brad White," Sumrall said. "Coach Collins will be a great asset for our program with his proven ability to develop and maximize the talent of his players."

Known for building a strong secondary, Collins produced three-straight NFL draftees from the secondary, which has only happened twice in program history (1995-97) at Kentucky. In the 2024 NFL Draft, Andru Phillips was taken in the third round by the New York Giants as the year prior, Carrington Valentine declared early and was selected in the seventh round by the Green Bay Packers after he placed him top-10 in passes defended (11) in the SEC. Keidron Smith, a transfer from Ole Miss, earned Second Team All-SEC honors in his lone season at UK in 2022 and signed by the Miami Dolphins as an undrafted free agent in 2023 and currently plays for the Denver Broncos.

"I'm blessed and thankful to be a part of the great staff that Coach Sumrall has assembled here at Florida," Collins said.

Collins helped lead a Wildcats defense that finished top-45 FBS defenses from 2021-24, featuring four top-25 defenses in 2021 and 2022. In 2024, the Wildcats finished sixth in the FBS in red zone defense (70.8%) and 21st in passing defense (183.7). Collins' second season (2022) produce a truly historic defensive performance in which the Wildcats finished seventh in the FBS in passing defense (170.8), 11th in total defense (311.4) and 13th in scoring defense (19.2). Each of those statistics ranked among the top three in the SEC.

He arrived to Lexington after four seasons (2017-20) as the safeties coach at Georgia State, helping the Panthers reach a bowl game three times and winning two of them, including the program's first-ever bowl victory in 2017 against Western Kentucky in the AutoNation Cure Bowl.

Despite the challenges of navigating a season during COVID-19, the Panthers finished with a 6-4 overall record that included a 39-21 win over Western Kentucky in the 2020 LendingTree Bowl. Collins mentored redshirt freshman safety Antavious Lane, who tied the school record for interceptions (4) in a season in just eight games played. Lane went on to earn second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors and was a member of the Associated Press All-Bowl team after totaling five tackles and an interception, the first pick thrown by WKU QB Tyrell Pigrome all season after 278 attempts. He also helped the GSU defense allow just 284 total yards in the game.

Addition to coaching safeties, Collins added the responsibility of recruiting coordinator in 2019, helping GSU sign a 2020 recruiting class that had the highest average player ranking in program history, according to 247Sports. In Collins' first year at GSU in 2017, he helped coach a defensive unit that set the school's season record for fewest points allowed per game (24.75), while tutoring All-Sun Belt Conference safety Bryan Williams, who tied the school record for interceptions in a season with four.

Prior to Georgia State, he coached linebackers at his alma mater, Western Carolina, in 2016. He was an integral part in helping Tyson Dickson earn second-team All-Southern Conference honors by the league's head coaches with 86 tackles.

Collins spent the 2015 season as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Appalachian State, helping the Mountaineers to an 11-2 record and a victory over Ohio in the Raycom Media Camellia Bowl. He worked closely with all-conference linebacker Devan Stringer.

From 2013-14, he served as the secondary coach and special teams coordinator at Catawba College while also serving as the academic coordinator. At Catawba, Collins coached All-America defensive back L.J. McCray, who went on to play three seasons in the NFL after signing as a free agent, as well as two all-conference selections in defensive back Mark McDaniel and punter Caleb Berry.

Collins was a four-year letter winner and two-year captain as a safety and outside linebacker at Western Carolina from 2006-09. He recorded 303 tackles during his collegiate career, including 109 as a senior in 2009, when he earned second-team All-Southern Conference recognition. He finished his career with 19 tackles for loss (including 12.5 as a senior), nine forced fumbles (including a SoCon-best six as a junior) and five pass breakups.

A three-time member of the SoCon's academic honor roll, Collins graduated from Western Carolina in 2010 with a degree in construction management and a minor in business administration.

Following the conclusion of his playing career, he spent three seasons on WCU's coaching staff, first as a student assistant in 2010 and as a defensive assistant in 2011-12, working primarily with the Catamounts' linebackers and defensive backs. In 2010, he helped tutor freshman defensive back Randy Pressely, who was named to the SoCon Coaches' All-Freshman Team.

JOE CRADDOCK
QUARTERBACKS

First Season

@CoachCraddock

Joe Craddock enters his first season as the team's quarterbacks coach.

Arriving with nine years of experience as an FBS offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, Craddock most recently held those same two positions at Tulane (2024-25) and Troy (2022-23). The 14-year collegiate coaching veteran coached the tight ends for two years at UAB (2020-21) after two prior stints as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Arkansas (2018-19) and SMU (2015-17).

"Coach Craddock brings a great depth of knowledge and experience to our staff here at Florida," Sumrall said. "Coach Craddock will be hands-on with our quarterbacks and will be an asset for Coach Faulkner on the offensive staff. He has proven to be a great developer of talent and has a track record of proven results throughout his career."

Dating back to his first role at Clemson, Craddock has developed 22 NFL Draft picks including five first-round selections, headlined by star wide receivers Treylon Burks (2022), Mike Williams (2017), Sammy Watkins (2014) and DeAndre Hopkins (2013), in addition to three-time Pro Bowl quarterback Deshaun Watson (2017).

"I'm very excited and thankful to be joining Coach Sumrall's staff," Craddock said. "Florida has always attracted elite quarterback prospects that I look forward to working with and developing. I can't wait to work with Coach Faulkner and the offensive staff to help bring back championships to Gainesville!"

Having served as Sumrall's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in all four years of his head coaching career (2022-25), Craddock's positional units have showcased an incredible consistency of high-level performance:

Across the last two seasons at Tulane, Craddock constructed a balanced offensive attack trademarked by efficiency and protecting the quarterback. Under Craddock's watch from 2024-25, the Green Wave surrendered a total of 28 sacks to rank ninth in the FBS and third in the American Athletic Conference. That allowed Craddock's quarterbacks to thrive in that span, as Tulane ranked 10th nationally in yards per completion (13.49) and 20th in passing efficiency (148.2) – both good for third in the AAC.

Thanks in part to Craddock's play calling, the Green Wave offense averaged 32.2 points per game (30th in FBS, sixth in American) over 27 contests while ranking in the top half of the AAC in total offense (407.7). Tulane's 869 points scored and 109 touchdowns from 2024-25 both ranked fourth in the conference while slotting in at 20th and 21st in the FBS, respectively.

As a result, Tulane experienced unprecedented success as a team from 2024-25 as evidenced by a 20-7 combined record, back-to-back trips to the AAC Championship game, a 2025 AAC title and berth in the 2025 College Football Playoff.

Under his guidance, quarterbacks at Tulane flourished. In 2025, quarterback Jake Retzlaff set the school record for single-season rushing touchdowns with 16. Quarterback Darian Mensah, in his first year as a starting collegiate quarterback, became just the 10th QB in school history to throw for 20 more more touchdowns in a season (22).

Having followed Sumrall to Tulane, Craddock worked as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Troy from 2022-23. Losing just four games in two seasons, Craddock's offensive contributions helped the Trojans go 23-4 while claiming back-to-back Sun Belt Conference titles and the 2022 Cure Bowl.

In 2023, Craddock coached five Troy offensive players to All-Sun Belt honors including Offensive Player of the Year Kimani Vidal, who became the Trojans' first AP All-American since 2000 before being selected in the 2024 NFL Draft.

From 2020-21, Craddock oversaw the tight ends room at UAB. His first campaign saw the Blazers capture the Conference USA Championship, with Craddock's tight ends accounting for five of the Blazers' 14 receiving touchdowns on 29 receptions for 343 yards.

Craddock's stretch at UAB was preceded by two seasons at Arkansas as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2018-19), during which he held status as the youngest offensive coordinator in the SEC.

In advance of moving to the SEC, Craddock joined SMU in 2015, making him the youngest offensive coordinator in the country at the time (29). The 2017 season was particularly noteworthy, as SMU ranked eighth in the FBS in scoring offense (40.2), 13th in total offense (493.8) and 16th in passing yards (308.0). SMU was also one of just two FBS teams to featured a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and multiple 1,000-yard receivers. For his efforts, Craddock was named a nominee for the 2017 Broyles Award.

Before his time in Dallas, Craddock coached at Clemson for three seasons as an offensive graduate assistant (2013-14) and a player development coach (2012). While at Clemson, Craddock played a vital role in the development of Watson, who was a two-time Heisman Trophy finalist. In all, Craddock tutored 12 future NFL Draft picks while at Clemson.

Graduating from Middle Tennessee, Craddock starred at quarterback for the Blue Raiders from 2004-08.

Upon earning a degree in liberal arts, he spent two years playing professionally in the Italian Football League from 2009-10. While playing for the Parma Panthers, Craddock guided his team to the Superbowl Italiano, defeating the Catania Elephants, 56-26, in the championship game.

As a native of Chelsea, Ala., Craddock and his wife, Abby, have one daughter, Charlie, and one son, Cain.

GREG GASPARATO

LINEBACKERS

First Season

@CoachGasparato

Greg Gasparato enters his first season as the team's linebackers coach.

He comes to Gainesville after serving the past two seasons as defensive coordinator/safeties coach at Tulane.

The Green Wave earned a berth to the College Football Playoff in 2025 after capturing the American Athletic Conference (AAC) title. From 2023-25, Gasparato's teams at Tulane and Troy made three-consecutive conference championship games, winning one AAC and one Sun Belt crown.

"Being able to bring Coach Gasparato to Florida from Tulane is a huge win for our staff," Sumrall said. "He has had many years of experience, not only being a position coach, but also as a defensive coordinator. His ability to get the most out of our linebacker group will be critical for the success of our defense."

Serving as defensive coordinator/safeties coach in 2024-25, his defenses finished second in the American in yards allowed per game (348.9), opponent passer rating (126.9), yards per completion (10.93) and TD-to-INT ratio (1.21). The Green Wave's 69 sacks in that span rank first in the American and tied for 15th nationally.

"I would like to thank Coach Sumrall for the opportunity to join the Florida football family," Gasparato said. "Having the chance to work with young men at this tremendous institution is a dream come true. My family and I are excited to make Gainesville our home and we look forward to restoring the championship standard that Gator Nation deserves."

In 2024, Tulane's defense notched the No. 4 pass rush grade (90.5) per PFF and finished tied for the best defensive grade in the American (86.2).

He began his coaching career at Richland Northeast High School in Columbia, S.C., in 2010, coached defensive backs at Juniata (Pa.) College in 2011 and coached outside linebackers at Brevard College in 2012. He became a graduate assistant at Appalachian State during the same year Satterfield debuted as the Mountaineers' head coach.

Gasparato assisted with App State's linebackers in his previous stop with the Mountaineers while pursuing a master's degree in educational media. As a player, he was a member of the Wofford's Southern Conference championship team in 2007.

Gasparato and his wife, Bria, have two sons, Dominick and Christian, and one daughter Mila.

BAM HARDMON

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

First Season

@CoachBamHardmon

Former Gator Bam Hardmon enters his first season as the team's outside linebackers coach. Hardmon was a team captain and Second-Team All-SEC performer in 2002 for the Gators and was a three-time Academic All-SEC honoree.

Hardmon returns to Gainesville after spending the last two seasons as the run game coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Tulane from 2024-25. Prior to Tulane, Hardmon worked nine years at Troy, where he was a 2018 Broyles Award nominee and a 2020 finalist for Football Scoop's Linebackers Coach of the Year.

"Bringing Coach Hardmon back to Florida was a no-brainer," Sumrall said. "Not only is he a former Gator standout, but he's a great coach and better person. He has proven throughout his career that he can coach, develop and produce results. I can't think of a better person to oversee our outside linebackers."

The Green Wave earned a berth to the College Football Playoff in 2025 after capturing the American Athletic Conference (AAC) title. From 2022-25, Hardmon's teams at Tulane and Troy made four-consecutive conference championship games, winning one AAC and two Sun Belt crowns.

"I couldn't be more excited about being back with Gator Nation where I first started as a player," Hardmon said. "Gainesville is a special place for me and my family. Coach Sumrall gave me a great opporutnity to join the staff and I can't wait to hear The Swamp on game day."

In 2024-25, Tulane finished second in the American in yards allowed per game (348.9), opponent passer rating (126.9), yards per completion (10.93) and TD-to-INT ratio (1.21). The Green Wave's 69 sacks in that span rank first in the American and tied for 15th nationally.

In 2024, Tulane's defense notched the No. 4 pass rush grade (90.5) per PFF and finished tied for the best defensive grade in the American (86.2).

In 2023, the program set the school and the Sun Belt single-season record with 47 sacks, and the Trojans ranked in the top 15 nationally in sacks (3rd), scoring defense (10th), rushing defense (12th) and total defense (14th). The program had a streak of 10 consecutive victories including a 48-23 win over Appalachian State in the 2023 Sun Belt Championship Game.

Troy held eight of its 14 opponents to fewer than 300 yards of total offense on the season. Solomon ranked third in the country and led the Sun Belt with a Troy single-season record 16 sacks. He was drafted in the fifth round by the Buffalo Bills during 2024 NFL Draft.

Also in 2023, Troy allowed just 106.6 yards per game on the ground, the fewest by a Trojan squad since 2004 and the sixth lowest in program history, while Troy's 308.1 yards per game allowed per game was its fewest since 2002 and the sixth-fewest in Sun Belt history.

In 2022, Troy held all 14 of its opponents to under their season average in scoring, including three of the top 25 scoring teams in the country – UTSA, Western Kentucky and App State. Additionally, Troy ranked eighth nationally in turnovers gained, 14th in sacks, eighth in scoring defense, 19th in total defense and 24th in rushing defense.

The Trojans posted a 12-2 record, won the Sun Belt Conference championship, ended the season on an 11-game winning streak – second only to National Champion Georgia – won the only bowl matchup pitting two conference champions by defeating UTSA in the Cure Bowl.

In 2021, Javon Solomon earned Pro Football Network All-America honors and All-Sun Belt First Team distinction..

In 2020, Troy posted one of the best defensive turnarounds in the country. The Trojans improved 63 spots nationally in scoring defense from 2019 to 2020 and 38 spots in total defense.

In 2018, the Trojans ranked third nationally in turnovers gained, 10th in sacks and 16th in tackles for loss. Since the start of the 2016 season, Troy ranks 13 nationally forcing a sack, tackle for loss or turnover on 12.8 percent of its opponent snaps.

In 2017, Troy finished fourth nationally with a school record 112 tackles for loss (third with 8.62 per game), while also finishing seventh with 3.23 sacks per game. Reese would go on to earn First Team All-Sun Belt honors.

Dillard was named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2016, becoming Troy's first player to win the award since DeMarcus Ware in 2004. Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory in the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt Conference history and the best win-improvement in the country.

In his first season, Hardmon helped transform the Troy defense into one of the top units in the Sun Belt Conference and the country. The Trojans finished the 2015 season with the second-best turnaround nationally in opponent 3rd-down percentage, the fourth-best turnaround in yards per play allowed, the fifth-best improvement in tackles for loss per game and 16th-best improvement in total defense.

Hardmon joined the Troy staff after two seasons as the defensive line coach at Idaho.

The native of Jacksonville, Fla., was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker at Florida and was the team's captain in 2002 as a senior. During that season, Hardmon was named second team All-SEC.

Hardmon not only excelled on the field but also off it as well. He was a three-time Academic All-SEC honoree and won the Betty Capaldi GPA Award. He ranked second in the SEC and fourth in the nation in tackles and also won Florida's coveted Ferguson Leadership award in 2002.

Hardmon spent the 2003-06 seasons on three NFL rosters: the Miami Dolphins (2003), the Seattle Seahawks (2004) and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005). He also played three seasons in NFL Europe, winning a World Bowl title in 2007 with Hamburg.

He spent three seasons (2009-11) as a graduate assistant at Illinois. In 2011, Hardmon helped tutor a defensive line that broke the school record with 41 sacks and ranked fourth nationally in tackles for loss and sixth nationally in sacks.

Hardmon helped guide a budding star in 2010 in defensive tackle Corey Liuget, who was a first-round pick of the San Diego Chargers in the 2011 NFL Draft. Liuget and Akeem Spence combined for 108 tackles, the most by a pair of Illini defensive tackles since 1993, and Phil Steele and Rivals.com named Spence a Freshman All-American.

Prior to his stint at Idaho, Hardmon served as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Charleston Southern.

Hardmon graduated from the University of Florida in 2003 with a degree in sociology and earned his master's degree in organizational leadership from the University of Illinois in 2011.

Hardmon and his wife, Danerica, have two children, Bryson and Brynlee.

BRANDON HARRIS

CORNERBACKS

First Season

@HarrisNOFLYZONE

Brandon Harris enters his first season as the team's as cornerbacks coach.

Spending the 2025 campaign as defensive backs coach at UCF, Harris previously served as co-defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach at FAU from 2023-24. He worked solely as FAU cornerbacks coach in 2022 after holding the same position at FIU in 2021. Harris launched his coaching career at FIU in a separate stint in 2019 as a graduate assistant before heading to Florida State as a defensive analyst for the 2020 season.

Lauded as a rising star in the field, Harris was named to the 2026 AFCA 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute class at the conclusion of the 2025 regular season.

"Coach Harris is one of the best up-and-coming coaches in the country and we are thrilled to be able to get him on staff," Sumrall said. "Coach Harris has a tremendous amount of in-state ties and has a proven track record, not only with performance on the field, but developing his players into NFL draft picks."

During Harris' lone year at UCF, the Knights ranked top-25 nationally and third in the Big 12 Conference in passing defense (185.1) and yards per completion (10.48). The team's 185.1 passing yards allowed per game represented the third-lowest clip since the Black & Gold became an FBS program in 1996 and the lowest overall since the 2001 season.

Harris' unit also surrendered the fourth-fewest passing touchdowns in the league (13) while sitting fourth in total defense (335.8) and fifth in yards per attempt (6.63). Defensive backs Phillip Dunnam and Demari Henderson finished third and fourth on the team in tackles while Dunnam's three interceptions were tied for the 11th in the Big 12.

"I'm very excited for the opportunity to be a Florida Gator," Harris said. "This is a special place and I can't wait to get to work with Coach Sumrall and this amazing staff."

Before joining the Knights, Harris was the cornerbacks coach at FAU from 2022-24. He was elevated to co-defensive coordinator/cornerbacks coach in advance of the 2023 campaign before being promoted to interim defensive coordinator in November 2024. While with the Owls, Harris developed five all-conference selections in the secondary highlighted by two honorees apiece in 2022 and 2023. Most notably, the 2024 season saw Harris guide true freshman safety CJ Heard to Third Team All-ACC honors thanks to a team-high 82 tackles (53 solo), two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Across Harris' three seasons in Boca Raton, the Owls combined for 33 interceptions for an average of 11 per season – the fourth-highest total in the AAC over that span. In 2024 alone, FAU racked up 11 interceptions and two defensive touchdowns while recording at least one turnover in eight of 12 games.

Also in 2024, the Owls finished the season among the nation's top-40 teams in red zone defense (79.55%). Harris' FAU defense held seven teams to 25 points or fewer during the season, including AAC Champion Army, which went undefeated in conference action with an 8-0 record.

The 2023 campaign saw junior defensive lineman Evan Anderson and graduate safety Jarron Morris collect All-ACC accolades. Morris led the team in tackles for a loss (7.5), pass breakups (six), interceptions (three) and forced fumbles (forced). His standout performance powered FAU to finish third nationally in fewest penalties (41) while tallying a pair of defensive touchdowns – one being a Morris pick-six.

In his first season with the Owls in 2022, Harris worked tirelessly to establish an aggressive and overwhelming brand of defense. That effort did not take long to come to fruition in year one, as UCF intercepted 12 passes – tied for 12th in the FBS. Harris also tutored defensive backs Teja Young and Armani Adams to Honorable Mention All-Conference USA selections.

Prior to his time in Boca Raton, Harris was the cornerbacks coach at FIU in 2021 and a defensive analyst at Florida State in 2020. In those two seasons, Harris mentored seven future NFL Draft picks including a pair of future second-round selections in defensive backs Asante Samuel Jr. (2021) and Renardo Green (2024). Although only at FIU for one year, he helped seventh-rounder Stantley Thomas-Oliver become the 10th NFL Draft pick in program history, as well as the third Panthers defensive back to be chosen – the first in eight years.

Starring at Miami as a player from 2008-10, Harris was a Phil Steele Second Team All-American and First Team All-ACC selection in 2009, as well as Jim Thorpe Award Semifinalist in 2009 and 2010. During his 2009 standout season, he was tied for second nationally with 15 pass breakups and third in passes defended (17) while ranking third on the Hurricanes with 52 tackles.

Following a standout college career, Harris was selected in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans and went on to play four seasons at the sport's highest level. From 2011-14, he played in 42 games, totaling 48 tackles (38 solo) and 10 pass breakups. After moving on from American Football in 2016, he signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League and won the 2017 Grey Cup.

Hailing from Miami, Fla., Harris' family trade is coaching football. His father, Tim Harris Sr., is a high school coaching legend at Booker T. Washington Senior High School, where Brandon competed as a player. His older brother, Tim Harris Jr., currently holds the position of pass game coordinator/wide receivers coach at Florida State.

Harris is the proud father to three children: Brandon Jr., Bash and Brylee. He and his wife, Bria, were married in July 2021.

EVAN McKISSACK

TIGHT ENDS

First Season

@EvanMcKissack

Evan McKissack enters his first season as the program's tight ends coach.

McKissack arrives to Gainesville after the last two seasons (2024-25) as Tulane's Co-Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach. The 2025 Green Wave offensive line finished the regular season ranked sixth in sacks allowed (10) and seventh in tackles-for-loss (48) allowed. They were one of three teams (Cincinnati and Navy) to finish in the top-7 in both categories. A season ago, the group placed eighth in tackles-for-loss (53) allowed and 24th in sacks (18) allowed.

"I'm thrilled that Coach McKissack will be joining our staff here in Gainesville," Sumrall said. "Coach McKissack is an innovative football mind and has experience coaching not only tight ends, but also offensive line, running backs and special teams among others. He will be invaluable on this staff with his knowledge and ability to get the most out of his players."

An American First Team selection this season, McKissack has developed guard Shadre Hurst to rank sixth in pass block (89.6), and seventh in both run block (81.8) and overall grade (81.0) per Pro Football Focus. He has not allowed a sack in 435 pass blocking attempts.

The Green Wave earned a berth to the College Football Playoff in 2025 after capturing the American Athletic Conference (AAC) title. From 2022-25, McKissack's teams at Tulane and Troy made four-consecutive conference championship games, winning one AAC and two Sun Belt crowns.

"Extremely thankful to Coach Sumrall for this opportunity," McKissack said. "He's a great leader of men and a winner. I'm looking forward to getting this season rolling! Our tight ends unit will be a position that plays with an edge, displayed through traits of physicality, toughness, technique, discipline, detailed execution and competitive playmakers. This is Florida - making Atlanta a place Gator Nation can expect to be at every December and playing for national championships is the expectation!"

In his first season at Tulane, the offense led the league in third-down conversions (52.5%), completion percentage (65.6%) and scoring offense (37.2). Nationally, the Green Wave placed fourth in third-down percentage, seventh in yards per completion (14.16), eighth in passing efficiency (157.36), 16th in scoring offense and 25th in rushing offense (195.6).

Prior to his stint at Tulane, McKissack was the Tights Ends Coach and Director of Offensive Recruiting at his alma mater, Troy, from 2022-23. He was part of the staff that had 23 victories across the two seasons, which were tied for the third most nationally, trailing only Georgia, Michigan and Washington. Troy and Michigan were the only two programs to win conference titles in both seasons.

McKissack's first season at Troy produced program best for the tight end unit in their Sun Belt history, setting bests in receptions, receiving yards and tied for touchdown receptions. That same season, the Trojans finished the season ranked in the AP (19) and Coaches Poll (20) for the first time in program history along with a program first appearance in the College Football Playoff (24).

He arrived back at his alma mater after spending two seasons (2020-21) at Murray State as their Tight Ends and Running Backs Coach. Under his guidance, Damonta Witherspoon earned back-to-back All-America and All-Ohio Valley Conference honors. He rushed for 912 yards with eight touchdowns as a redshirt freshman in 2021 after leading the Racers with 501 yards and five touchdowns in the shortened 2020 season; he was also named to the 2020 OVC All-Newcomer Team.

In his first season (2020) at Murray State, McKissack helped the Racers improved from 4-8 the previous year to 5-2 with a victory over No. 16 Southeast Missouri State. The Racers posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2011. The Racers led the OVC and ranked 25th nationally in scoring offense during his first season and had a top-25 rushing attack in 2021.

McKissack started his collegiate coach career as a graduate assistant at Kentucky (2017-19), where he worked primarily with John Schlarman, who was his offensive line coach while a player at Troy. McKissack helped coach five different offensive linemen that were tacked in the NFL Draft – George Asafo-Adjei, Luke Fortner, Darian Kinnard, Logan Stenberg and Landon Young.

The Wildcats played in a bowl game in each of McKissack's three seasons on staff, including a Citrus Bowl victory over Penn State and No. 14 final College Football Playoff ranking in 2018. Kentucky's offensive line finished as a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top offensive line.

After graduating from Troy, McKissack began his coaching career at Enterprise (Ala.) High School as the defensive line coach before moving to Colquitt County (Ga.) High School where he was the linebackers coach in 2015 and special teams coordinator in 2016. He helped Colquitt win the 6A State Championship and High School Football America National Championship in 2015.

His senior year at Troy, McKissack graded out as the highest-rated offensive linemen for Troy and was charged with just 0.2 sacks allowed on the season. In addition, he recorded 27.5 knockdown blocks and graded out at over 90 percent in five games and held his own against ACC runner-up Duke where he graded out at 93 percent.

A former walk-on, McKissack went from playing in just two games on special teams in his career to the Trojans' starting center and an All-Sun Belt selection despite checking in at just 5-foot-10 and 256 pounds as a senior.

McKissack graduated magna cum laude from Troy with a degree in math education in 2014 and earned his master's degree in sport leadership from Kentucky in 2019.

He and his wife, Erica, have a daughter, Arya, and a son, Riley.

TRENT McKNIGHT

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR / INSIDE WIDE RECEIVERS

First Season

@CoachTMcKnight

Trent McKnight enters his first season as the program's passing game coordinator/inside wide receivers coach.

McKnight comes to Florida fresh off a two-year stint as Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach.

"Coach McKnight fits the bill on what we need on our offensive staff," Sumrall said. "He has a ton of experience and is widely respected in college football for the job he does with his players. His relationship with Coach Faulkner will also benefit not only the staff, but our players."

In 2025, McKnight helped Georgia Tech to one of its best seasons this century, finishing 9-3 and ranked top-25 in the College Football Playoff Poll for the second time in program history. The Yellow Jackets' Week 9 AP Poll Ranking (No. 7) marked their highest ranking since 2009.

Two Georgia Tech receivers – Jordan Allen (80.2) and Malik Rutherford (78.2) – finished top-10 in the ACC in PFF receiving grade for 2025. Tech's leading receiver, Eric Rivers, holds the ACC active consecutive-games with a reception streak at 33-straight contests. Rivers recorded a team-high 42 receptions and 556 yards.

A true freshman, Allen tabbed the fourth most single-game receiving yards by an ACC rookie in 2025, with 110 yards against Boston College. He also had the longest reception of any ACC true freshman, with a 78-yard snag against Gardner-Webb.

"My family and I are extremely grateful to Coach Sumrall for the opportunity to join his staff at the University of Florida," McKnight said. "I have a ton of respect for him as a leader and watching how his teams compete and play the game the right way. I am excited about the opportunity to work with some of the best coaches and players in the country at a place where we can compete for a national championship!"

In McKnight's first season at Georgia Tech in 2024, two Yellow Jackets — Malik Rutherford and Eric Singleton, Jr. — earned all-ACC recognition. The duo combined for 118 receptions, 1,456 receiving yards and six touchdowns, and also added 218 rushing yards. Rutherford's team-leading 62 receptions in 2024 ranked sixth in single-season school history and were the most by a Yellow Jacket since Pro and College Football Hall of Famer Calvin Johnson had 76 catches in 2006.

In all, Tech wideouts combined for 177 receptions, 2,218 receiving yards and 11 touchdowns across the 2024 campaign.

McKnight came to Georgia Tech by way of nearby Georgia State, where he spent two seasons as offensive coordinator (2022-23) following five as the Panthers' wide receivers coach (2017-21). In his time at GSU, he coached nine wideouts who earned all-Sun Belt Conference honors and three of the top-5 pass-catchers in program history, including Penny Hart, a five-year National Football League veteran, and Jamari Thrash, who was selected in the fifth round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In his first year as offensive coordinator, the Panthers boasted a prolific ground attack, ranking No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference and No. 14 in the FBS in rushing. Georgia State was one of just 18 schools in the nation to average at least 200 yards of both rushing and passing.

Following a brief stint as Georgia Military College's receivers coach, McKnight returned to Samford. Over his five seasons as an assistant coach for the Bulldogs, McKnight held several positions, most notably passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach in 2014 and tight ends coach from 2012-13 and 2015-16. In 2013, he helped the Bulldogs win a Southern Conference championship and earn an NCAA FCS playoff berth.

He served as run game coordinator and tight ends coach for the 2015 season, when the Bulldogs ranked No. 7 in the nation in total offense (479.7 ypg) and No. 3 in passing offense while leading the SoCon in scoring with 34.6 points per game.

McKnight coached four All-SoCon players during his tenure at Samford. A three-time, first-team All-SoCon wideout, Karel Hamilton finished an illustrious Bulldog career with 3,803 receiving yards and 31 touchdowns on 279 receptions. The Standout wide receiver earned first-team All-America honors in 2016 while leading the nation with 10.1 receptions per game.

McKnight served as a recruiting intern on Nick Saban's inaugural Alabama Crimson Tide staff for two months in December of 2007 through January of 2008.

Prior to his coaching career, McKnight played two seasons (2006-07) at safety for Samford, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration and management in 2010.

McKnight and his wife, Ashley, have three sons: Beau, Brooks and Baker.

PHIL TRAUTWEIN

OFFENSIVE LINE

First Season

@CoachTrautFB

Former Gator Phil Trautwein enters his first season as the team's offensive line coach. He was a two-time national champion, All-SEC selection and team captain for UF during his collegiate playing career.

Trautwein joins the Gators after serving as the offensive line coach at Penn State for the last six seasons. Over that time, the Nittany Lions are tied for second nationally with seven offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft. In his career, Trautwein has seen 12 players get selected in the NFL Draft, including four first round picks. Additionally, over the last seven seasons at Penn State and Boston College, he has mentored 35 all-conference offensive linemen.

"Coach Trautwein is as good of an offensive line coach as there is in the country," Sumrall said. "Add the fact that he's a two-time national champion, All-SEC honoree and team captain here at Florida, having him join our staff was a no-brainer. Coach Trautwein is an elite teacher of the game and produces NFL draft picks, All-Americans and all-conference performers at an extremely high rate."

Prior to his coaching career, Trautwein was a four-year letterman for the Gators from 2004-08. He played an integral part in the program winning both the BCS National Championships and SEC titles in 2006 and 2008. Trautwein was a two-time All-SEC selection and two-time team captain as a left tackle at Florida, earning first-team honors in 2008 and second-team accolades in 2006.

"I couldn't be happier to be back home at the University of Florida," Trautwein said. "I'm grateful to Coach Sumrall and Coach Faulkner for the opportunity to win championships at the best university in the country. Let's get to work! Go Gators!"

During his tenure at Penn State, the team reached the postseason four times, including a run to the College Football Playoff semifinals in 2024.

Trautwein helped guide Olaivavega Ioane to First-Team All-America (CBS Sports), as well as First-Team All-Big Ten (Media) honors in 2025. Ioane anchored an offensive line for the Nittany Lions that saw running back Kaytron Allen rank sixth in the country in rushing yards (1,303), seventh rushing yards per game (108.6) and rushing touchdowns (15) and 19th in yards per carry (6.2).

The line also helped Allen (15) and Nicholas Singleton (13) to be the only FBS running back duo with 13+ rushing touchdowns and the first Big Ten teammates with 13+ rushing touchdowns in a season since Ohio State in 2012.

Along with Ioane, Nick Dawkins (Media), Nolan Rucci (Coaches) and Drew Shelton (Coaches & Media) earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.

In 2024, Penn State produced four All-Big Ten offensive linemen, highlighted by second-team selection Olaivavega Ioane. The offense finished first in the Big Ten in rushing (202.3 yards per game; 17th nationally) and second in fewest tackles for loss allowed (3.8; ninth nationally). The offensive line helped pave the way for Kaytron Allen (1,108 yards) and Nicholas Singleton (1,099 yards) to become the first Nittany Lion duo to each rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Left tackle Olumuyiwa Fashanu was the 2023 Big Ten Rimington-Pace Offensive Lineman of the Year and a William V. Campbell Trophy finalist. He also earned consensus All-American honors, becoming Penn State's first offensive lineman to earn that distinction since Jeff Hartings in 1995. Additionally, six Nittany Lion offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition in 2023, led by Fashanu (first team) and center Hunter Nourzad (second team). Fashanu (11th overall), Caedan Wallace (third round), and Nourzad (fifth round) were selected in the 2024 NFL Draft, marking the first time since 1996 that Penn State had three offensive linemen drafted and the first time since 1993 that three were taken in the first five rounds.

Fashanu, who entered 2022 with just one career start, earned second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and five Penn State linemen garnered All-Big Ten recognition, led by Fashanu (second team) and Juice Scruggs (third team).

During Trautwein's second season in 2021, three more Nittany Lions earned All-Big Ten honors, led by Rasheed Walker (third team). Two linemen coached by Trautwein were selected in the 2022 NFL Draft – Zion Johnson from Boston College, taken in the first round by the Los Angeles Chargers, and Walker, picked in the seventh round by the Green Bay Packers.

In Trautwein's first season at Penn State in 2020, the Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten in total offense (430.3 yards per game) and four offensive linemen earned All-Big Ten honors, including Will Fries (second team), Mike Miranda (second team), Michal Menet (third team), and Walker (third team). Fries (Indianapolis Colts) and Menet (Arizona Cardinals) were drafted in back-to-back picks in the seventh round of the 2021 NFL Draft.

Before arriving at Penn State, Trautwein served as Boston College's offensive line coach for two seasons from 2018-19, helping the Eagles reach a pair of bowl games.

In 2019, he guided all five starting offensive linemen—John Phillips (first team), Johnson (second team), Ben Petrula (second team), Alex Lindstrom (third team), and freshman All-American Tyler Vrabel (honorable mention)—to All-ACC honors. The Eagles allowed just 11 sacks, the third-fewest in the FBS, and 57 tackles for loss (13th nationally).

In his first season coaching BC's offensive line, Trautwein mentored Chris Lindstrom to All-America and first-team All-ACC honors. Lindstrom went on to become the 14th overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft as the first guard selected. Trautwein also coached Aaron Monteiro, John Baker, and Ben Petrula to All-ACC recognition.

Trautwein's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Boston College (2013–15), followed by a stint at Davidson (2016–17).

Trautwein graduated from Florida with a bachelor's degree in Family, Youth and Community Sciences in 2007 and a master's degree in educational leadership in 2008. He also earned a master's degree in administrative studies in 2014.

RUSTY WHITT
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE

First Season
@rustywhitt

Rusty Whitt enters his first season as the program's director of football performance. Whitt brings not only an impressive strength and conditioning coaching background of 30 years to the Gators, but also a distinguished military career.

Whitt comes to Gainesville from Tulane, where he served as the director of strength and conditioning for two seasons. During his tenure, the Green Wave won the 2025 American Athletic Conference Championship game, earning a spot in the College Football Playoff. In his two seasons at Tulane, the team posted a record of 20-7 and played in two AAC title games.

"There's no better person to lead our strength and conditioning program than Coach Whitt," Sumrall said. "His experience in coaching, as well as his decorated history in our military has proven results for the teams he's worked for in the past. His approach will reinforce the core values of our program. I can't wait to see what he will be able to do with our athletes here at Florida."

Prior to Tulane, Whitt was the head strength & conditioning coach at Troy from 2020-23. In 2022 and 2023, the Trojans won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference championships, posting a combined record of 23-5. In 2022, the Trojans finished the season ranked in a major poll for the first time in program history, checking in at No. 19 in the AP Top 25 and No. 20 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll. Additionally, Troy's appearance in the Coaches Poll and College Football Playoff Poll after its Sun Belt Championship Game victory were also firsts for the program.

"Being named the Director of Football Performance for the Florida Gators football team is both thrilling and humbling, and an immense honor," Whitt said. "I understand the extremely intense environment we are stepping in to. Gator Nation expects and demands excellence. I will bring a world-class performance staff that will embrace the pressure at Florida and we will soon get to work on developing and sustaining SEC Championship-level athletes. Go Gators!"

Whitt spent the 2019 season as the assistant football strength and conditioning coach at Army following three seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Texas Tech football program from 2016-18.

At Tech, Whitt oversaw a staff of three full-time assistants as well as a graduate assistant. Whitt's staff also worked closely with the Texas Tech athletic training and nutrition programs.

In addition to his expertise in the weight room, Whitt comes to Troy following a decorated career as a Special Forces Sergeant in the United States Army. He served as a Senior Special Forces Communication Sergeant in the 10th Special Forces Group and was a member of the U.S. Army from August 2003 to January 2009 where he was deployed to Iraq as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) V and VI.

Whitt developed and initiated a comprehensive pre-deployment conditioning program for his Special Forces Team prior to and during OIF V and VI. He received a combat infantry badge, two Iraqi campaign medals and an Army commendation medal with valor.

Prior to his arrival at Texa-s Tech, Whitt spent six seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana. The Ragin' Cajuns won the 2013 Sun Belt Conference title and four-straight New Orleans Bowls during his tenure.

Whitt was hired at Louisiana following a yearlong stint as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Rice where he designed and implemented year-round strength, speed, mobility, cardiovascular conditioning and injury rehabilitation programs for football, baseball and swimming, as well as track and field.

Prior to joining the US Army, Whitt was the head strength and conditioning coach at Sam Houston State where he served as an instructor in the kinesiology department and assisted in the design of a new weight facility. He started his tenure at Sam Houston State in December 1998.

From 1997-98, Whitt was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at William & Mary. Whitt began his strength and conditioning career with graduate assistantships at Midwestern State and Texas. He also performed an internship in the strength and conditioning department at the U.S. Olympic Training Center.

Whitt earned his bachelor's degree in police science and administration from Abilene Christian in 1994 and his master's degree in kinesiology from Texas in 1997. He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter in football at Abilene Christian and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

DAVE CALDWELL

GENERAL MANAGER

First Season

@GM_DaveCaldwell

Dave Caldwell was named General Manager of the Florida Gators Football Program on Dec. 1, 2025.

In his role, Caldwell will oversee roster and contract management, recruiting, the personnel department, football operations and the Gatorade program. He will work closely with Head Coach Jon Sumrall to support the program's, recruiting, roster retention efforts, and long-term strategic planning.

Caldwell, a seasoned NFL executive, brings more than two decades of high-level professional football experience to Gainesville. He served as General Manager of the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2013–2020 and most recently worked in player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, contributing to two Super Bowl appearances and a victory in 2024 vs. the Kansas City Chiefs.

Prior to joining the Eagles, he was a consultant for the Baltimore Ravens in 2021.

Throughout his time in Jacksonville, Caldwell selected more players in the NFL Draft that earned Pro Bowl honors than any other general manager in franchise history. He also built a roster that finished 10-6, won the AFC South title, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game in 2017.

Prior to the Jaguars, Caldwell was a part of teams that made the playoffs in 13 of his first 17 NFL seasons – Atlanta Falcons (2008-12), Indianapolis Colts (1998-2007) and Carolina Panthers (1996-97).

"David Caldwell is one of the most respected personnel evaluators and team-builders in football," Athletics Director Scott Stricklin said. "His experience as an NFL general manager, his understanding of roster construction, management and retention. His ability to manage complex football operations make him an invaluable addition to our program. As the college landscape continues to evolve, David's leadership and expertise will help ensure Florida Football is aligned, agile, and positioned for sustained success."

In Caldwell's five years with the Falcons, Atlanta appeared in four postseasons and was the only NFC team to record five straight winning campaigns. During the 2012 season, Caldwell served as the director of player personnel and oversaw college and pro scouting under Falcons general manager Thomas Dimitroff. He spent his first four years as the Falcons' director of college scouting (2008-11), managing the club's college area and regional scouts.

Caldwell spent 10 years as an area scout with the Colts working under general manager Bill Polian. He also helped build the roster that claimed Super Bowl XLI in 2007. Caldwell was the Western regional scout for his final two seasons after scouting the Midwest and West Coast areas during his first eight years in Indianapolis.

Caldwell said he is excited to join the Gators at a pivotal moment for the program.

"It is an honor to join the University of Florida and support Coach Sumrall in building a championship-caliber program," Caldwell said. "Florida has every resource necessary to compete at the highest level, and I look forward to contributing my experience to help strengthen our processes, enhance our player development model, and support the vision Scott and Jon have for Gator Football. My family and I are thrilled to be part of Gator Nation."

In 1996, Caldwell entered the NFL as a scouting assistant with the Panthers, where he spent two seasons. He was the liaison between the college scouting director and multiple area scouts while also focusing on draft preparations for the team.

Caldwell graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance/business administration from John Carroll University, where he was a two-year letter inner at outside linebacker (1992-96). A native of Buffalo, NY, he and his wife, Joelle, have one son, David Michael II.

HISTORY

1997 SUGAR BOWL

#3 FLORIDA 52, #1 FLORIDA STATE 20

January 2, 1997 // Attendance: 78,344 (Sugar Bowl record)
Louisiana Superdome // New Orleans, La.

The third-ranked Gators captured their first national championship as they stripped top-ranked Florida State's hopes for a perfect season with a 52-20 victory in the 1997 Nokia Sugar Bowl. With Ohio State's 20-17 win over undefeated and second-ranked Arizona State the day before in the Rose Bowl, Florida was voted national champions in both major polls for the first time in school history. FSU opened with a 33-yard pass from quarterback Thad Busby to Andre Cooper, but the Gators defense snuffed out the Seminoles on 4th-and-1 from the UF 23-yard line. Senior quarterback Danny Wuerffel took over, marching Florida down the field with five passes for 73 yards, capped by a 9-yard touchdown pass junior wide receiver Ike Hilliard. Bart Edmiston added a 32-yard field goal and the Gators led 10-3 after the first quarter. Florida, which worked out of the shotgun for much of the game, drove 73 yards in 26 seconds as junior tailback Fred Taylor punched it in from two yards out to put UF ahead 17-3, marking the first time FSU trailed by more that 7 points the entire season. The Seminoles closed to 17-10 only to watch the Gators' shotgun offense respond with a four-play, 65-yard drive and another Hilliard touchdown. Florida State responded with a quick drive of its own, cutting the UF lead to 24-17 on a 12-yard run by Warrick Dunn with under a minute left in the half. Scott Bentley trimmed UF's lead to 24-20 on a 45-yard field goal less than five minutes into the second half, but the Seminoles would not score again. Florida sealed the victory by scoring the final 28 points of the game, a run that began with Hilliard's third touchdown reception of the game -- an 8-yarder from Wuerffel. Wuerffel then scrambled 16 yards for a score to put UF up 38-20 with 13 seconds left in the third quarter, and Terry Jackson added two fourth quarter touchdowns, including a 42-yarder, for the final margin. The Gators defense was strong from start to finish, stopping the Seminoles on downs at the UF 23 on the game's opening possession and holding FSU to just 42 net rushing yards -- just two shy of the UF bowl record set against Baylor in the 1960 Gator Bowl. The Seminoles were successful on only five of 18 third down conversions, with two Gators interceptions. UF's special teams also played well, with sophomore punter Robby Stevenson pinning the Seminoles inside the five-yard line on two different occasions while averaging 48.1 yards per punt. The 38-point margin of victory was the largest against a No.1-ranked team in bowl history and marked Florida's first-ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team.

2007 BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP
#2 FLORIDA 41, #1 OHIO STATE 14

January 8, 2007 // Attendance: 74,628
University of Phoenix Stadium // Glendale, Ariz.

Senior quarterback Chris Leak threw for a touchdown and senior running back DeShawn Wynn ran for another score to lead the second-ranked Gators to a 41-14 victory over Ohio State in the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game, earning the program's second national championship. With the win, Florida became the first school in NCAA Division I history to capture national titles in football and men's basketball during the same calendar year, having earned its first title on the hardwood by defeating UCLA in April. Ohio State struck first when Ted Ginn Jr., returned the game's opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown. The Gators tied the game, 7-7, when Leak connected with senior wide receiver Dallas Baker for a 14-yard score just 4:13 later. Leak completed 5-of-5 passes for 35 yards on the drive, which was set up by a 33-yard kick return by freshman running back Brandon James and a subsequent 15-yard facemask penalty against the Buckeyes. The Gators took a lead they would not relinquish at the 5:51 mark of the first quarter, when freshman wide receiver Percy Harvin took an option pitch from Leak and ran four yards for his third touchdown of the season. Senior kicker Chris Hetland converted the point-after attempt to give UF a 14-7 advantage. After senior cornerback Reggie Lewis intercepted Ohio State quarterback Troy Smith with 2:49 left to play in the opening quarter, Wynn plowed into the endzone from two yards out to cap a 10-play, 71-yard drive that gave Florida a 21-7 lead. The score was Wynn's sixth of the season and the 25th of his UF career, moving him into a tie with Buford Long for sixth on the all-time school list. An 18-yard touchdown run by Antonio Pittman cut the Gators' lead to 21-14 with just over 13 minutes left to play in the first half, but Hetland connected on a 43-yard field goal – his longest of the season – to push Florida's advantage to 24-14 with six minutes remaining in the half. Hetland added a 40-yard field goal to increase the Gators' lead to 27-14. On the first play of Ohio State's ensuing possession, junior defensive end Jarvis Moss sacked Smith, forcing a fumble that sophomore defensive end Derrick Harvey picked up and returned to the Buckeyes' five-yard line. On 3rd-and-Goal from the OSU one-yard line, freshman quarterback Tim Tebow hit junior wide receiver Andre Caldwell for a scoring strike that gave the Gators a 34-14 halftime lead. After a scoreless third quarter, Tebow put the Gators ahead, 41-14, with a one-yard plunge at the 10:30 mark of the final period. It marked Tebow's eighth rushing touchdown of the season, which tied Jimmy Fisher's single-season school record for rushing touchdown runs by a quarterback, set in 1979. That touchdown was the final score of the night, propelling the Gators to the 41-14 win. UF's victory over the Buckeyes improved its all-time record in BCS bowl games to 3-1, and stood as its first win over a top-ranked team since defeating Florida State in Gainesville on Nov. 22, 1997. Florida head coach Urban Meyer became the seventh coach in NCAA history to guide a team to a national championship in his first or second year at a school.

2009 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP
#2 FLORIDA 24, #1 OKLAHOMA 14
January 8, 2009 // Attendance: 78,468
Dolphin Stadium // Miami, Fla.

Winning their second national championship in three years - and third overall - the No. 2 Gators defeated the No. 1 Oklahoma Sooners, 24-14, in the FedEx BCS National Championship at Dolphin Stadium. Florida completed its national championship run with a 13-1 record on the season, tying a school record for wins (13). Gators senior wide receiver Louis Murphy, junior wide receiver/running back Percy Harvin and redshirt junior wide receiver David Nelson were touchdown targets of junior quarterback Tim Tebow, who threw for 231 yards (18-of-30) and racked up 109 yards on the ground in the win over Oklahoma. Senior kicker Jonathan Phillips tacked on three more points, connecting on a fourth quarter field goal to help lead the Gators over the Sooners. After recording the first scoreless first quarter since the 1999 BCS National Championship (Florida State vs. Tennessee) and holding Oklahoma to their first scoreless first quarter all season, the Gators found the end zone first on a 20-yard pass from Tebow to Murphy, marking Murphy's 27th-straight game with a catch. Tebow's connection with Murphy marked the first time the Sooners allowed their opponent to score first all season, while Phillips' extra point put the Gators ahead 7-0. It didn't take long for the Sooners to answer, as just two and a half minutes later quarterback Sam Bradford hit tight end Jermaine Gresham on a six-yard touchdown pass. OU drove 65 yards for the score and tied the game, 7-7. Following a Tebow interception, sophomore Torrey Davis led the Gators defense to a key 4th-and-Goal stop at UF's one-yard line that prevented the Sooners from jumping ahead. Harvin capitalized on the momentum with a 46-yard run that moved the Gators to midfield. Although UF punted on the possession, its defense held on the Sooners' ensuing drive -- which ended when junior defensive back Major Wright picked off Bradford at UF's three-yard line. Wright's pick was UF's 25th of the season, a single-season school record for team interceptions, and it took both teams into halftime tied, 7-7. After the two teams swapped possessions to open the second half, the Gators put together a 75-yard scoring drive, capped by a two-yard scoring run from Harvin with 5:22 to go in the third quarter. Tebow rushed for 49 yards on the drive, and Phillips found the uprights to put Florida ahead 14-7. On Oklahoma's next drive, sophomore defensive end Carlos Dunlap got his hands on an Oklahoma punt to record Florida's ninth blocked kick of the season, tying a school record (1995). Following a Gators punt, the Sooners closed the gap when Bradford connected with Gresham for his second touchdown of the night, an 11-yard pass and catch to cap a 77-yard drive and tie the game, 14-14. After a 27-yard Phillips field goal put Florida ahead 17-14, sophomore safety Ahmad Black kept the momentum in favor of the Gators, intercepting Bradford's deep ball and ending an Oklahoma drive which reached midfield. The Gators followed Black's pick with an 11-play, 76-yard drive, which saw Tebow connect with David Nelson for a four-yard touchdown, a 10-point lead, and the game's final points.

1993 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
#9 FLORIDA 28, #17 ALABAMA 13

December 4, 1993 // Attendance: 76,345
Legion Field // Birmingham, Ala.

Using a solid defense, Florida defeated Alabama 28-13 to capture its second official SEC title. Alabama scored on the first possession of the game, using a Tarrant Lynch one-yard touchdown run and a Michael Proctor PAT to go up 7-0 just 4:47 into the contest. However, the Crimson Tide did not score another touchdown as the UF defense limited Alabama's offense to just two field goals the rest of the way. Terry Dean's pass to Harrison Houston and the ensuing PAT from Judd Davis knotted the game at 7-7. Alabama hit a 45-yard field goal with 12:02 remaining in the first half and the Crimson Tide led 10-7. With 1:10 left in the half, Dean lunged into the end zone from two yards out to put the Gators up 14-10, a lead they would not relinquish. Alabama closed the UF lead to one with a field goal late in the third quarter, making the score 14-13. On their next possession, Gators punter Shayne Edge, facing fourth-and-eight from his own 37, faked the boot and rambled 20 yards to the Alabama 43-yard line. On the next play, Dean hit Jack Jackson for a 43-yard touchdown pass. Errict Rhett's three-yard run with 11:59 remaining capped the scoring and gave UF the 1993 SEC Championship with a 28-13 victory.

1994 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
#6 FLORIDA 24, #3 ALABAMA 23

December 3, 1994 // Attendance: 74,751
Georgia Dome // Atlanta, Ga.

Florida captured a second consecutive SEC championship with a heart-pounding victory over No. 3 Alabama. Florida clung to a 17-16 lead in the fourth quarter, when Gators quarterback Danny Wuerffel's pass was picked off by Alabama linebacker Dwayne Rudd, who returned it 23 yards for a touchdown a 23-17 lead for the Crimson Tide with 8:56 to play. The Gators responded with one of the most memorable drives in school history. On the second play of the drive, Wuerffel came off the field with a fake limp in a pre-planned signal for strong-armed back-up quarterback Eric Kresser. With Alabama thinking run with Kresser in the game, the backup took his first snap and lofted a 25-yard pass down the left sideline to Ike Hilliard. Later in the drive, head coach Steve Spurrier called for a double-pass, as Wuerffel lateraled it to Doering, who then delivered a pass to Aubrey Hill for a 20-yard gain to the Alabama two-yard line. Wuerffel then found Doering in the back of the end zone for the winning touchdown with 5:29 to play. On the ensuing Alabama possession, UF's Fred Weary tipped a pass and Eddie Lake came down with the interception to seal the victory with less than a minute to play.

1995 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
#2 FLORIDA 34, #24 ARKANSAS 3

December 2, 1995 // Attendance: 71,325
Georgia Dome // Atlanta, Ga.

Florida assured itself of a trip to the Fiesta Bowl to play for its first national championship with a 34-3 victory over Arkansas. The Razorbacks drove inside the Florida 20-yard line on their opening possession but the Gators defense allowed the Razorbacks to come away with just a 36-yard field goal. Florida's offense answered immediately, driving 80 yards in seven plays, culminating with a 22-yard scoring toss from Danny Wuerffel to Chris Doering. UF struck again following a Teako Brown interception, this time on a one-yard keeper from Wuerffel. The Gators added a 31-yard field goal to take a 17-3 lead into the locker room. With just under five minutes left in the third quarter, UF's Ben Hanks recovered a fumble by Razorbacks quarterback Barry Lunney on a thwarted option play and raced 95 yards untouched to give the Gators an insurmountable lead. Arkansas was held to just 299 yards in total offense, and only 142 yards and nine first downs in the second half. Danny Wuerffel continued his rewriting of the record books, as he set SEC and UF records for career touchdown passes with his 75th -- a 29-yard pass to Ike Hilliard midway through the third quarter. Hilliard and Doering both eclipse dthe 1,000-yard receiving mark, becoming the first UF tandem to accomplish that feat.

1996 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
#4 FLORIDA 45, #11 ALABAMA 30

December 7, 1996 // Attendance: 74,132
Georgia Dome // Atlanta, Ga.

A week after having their national championship hopes seemingly vanish, Florida defeated Alabama, 45-30, to regain the national spotlight. Danny Wuerffel completed 20-of-35 passes for 401 yards and six touchdowns against the nation's No.1-rated pass defense. After the Gators fell behind seven-plus minutes into the game, Florida ran off 24 straight points to build a 17-point cushion near the end of the half. A Michael Vaughn touchdown pass from Fred Kitchens with 29 seconds left in the half, coupled with a five-yard run by Dennis Riddle brought Alabama back within three points (24-21). The two teams scored three touchdowns in the next two-plus minutes, with UF stealing momentum and taking a 38-28 lead on an 85-yard pass from Wuerffel to Jacquez Green. Reidel Anthony added his third score of the day on a 21-yard pass from Wuerffel, which gave Florida an insurmountable 17-point lead.

December 2, 2000 // Attendance: 73,427
Georgia Dome // Atlanta, Ga.

Florida took advantage of three Auburn turnovers and jumped out to a 21-0 second quarter lead en route to a 28-6 victory over the Tigers. On Auburn's first play from scrimmage, Florida's Mike Nattiel recovered a Tigers fumble following a 10-yard pass play. Five plays later, Florida quarterback Rex Grossman found Reche Caldwell in the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown pass and 7-0 lead. Two series later, Florida's Lito Sheppard prevented an Auburn score as he intercepted a Ben Leard pass at Florida's seven-yard line. The interception set up Caldwell's second touchdown reception of the game as he caught a Grossman pass, beat a defender and ran 66 yards for a 14-0 Gators lead. In the second quarter, Nattiel ended another Auburn scoring threat as he recovered his second fumble of the game at UF's 3 yard line. The turnover set up an eight play, 97-yard scoring drive which ended in Florida's third score - a 27 yard pass from Grossman to Gaffney. In all, Auburn turned the ball over four times (two interceptions, two fumbles) and had to settle for six points on two Damon Duval field goals.

2008 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

#2 FLORIDA 31, #1 ALABAMA 20

December 6, 2008 // Attendance: 75,892
Georgia Dome // Atlanta, Ga.

Florida defeated Alabama, 31-20, to win the eighth SEC title in school history. Florida scored 31 points on an Alabama defense that allowed just 11.5 points per game. The Florida offense drove down the field on its first drive and junior quarterback Tim Tebow connected with junior wideout Carl Moore for a 3-yard score. Alabama responded in just two plays, a 64-yard catch by Julio Jones followed by an 18-yard touchdown run from Glen Coffee, tying the game, 7-7. Florida's defense forced Alabama to settle for a 30-yard field goal on its next possession, though it gave the Crimson Tide a 10-7 advantage with 3:28 left in the first. It marked the first time the Gators trailed in a game since a loss to Ole Miss back on Sept. 27. Following an Alabama fake field goal that was broken up by sophomore defensive tackle Terron Sanders, junior receiver Riley Cooper had a 51-yard catch which put UF in scoring position. Senior kicker Jonathan Phillips connected on a 19-yard field goal to even the score, 10-10. Tebow found junior wide receiver David Nelson in the end zone for a five-yard touchdown and a 17-10 lead heading into the locker room at halftime. Alabama opened the second half with a 15-play, 91-yard, scoring drive that ate 6:53 off the clock. Mark Ingram punched it in from two yards out to tie the game, and Alabama took a 20-17 lead following a field goal at the end of the third quarter. The Gators answered on the following drive, as freshman running back Jeff Demps rushed for a one-yard score, giving UF a 24-21 lead. Following an Alabama punt, UF drove 65 yards to increase their lead to 31-20 on a five-yard reception by Cooper. An interception by sophomore cornerback Joe Haden with 1:39 remaining sealed the win.

NATIONAL HONORS

Gary Rolle is one of six Gator players honored with the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award.

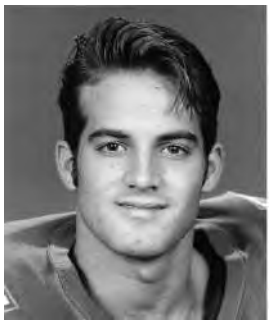

Danny Wuerffel was chosen as the 1995 and 1996 Verizon Academic All-American of the Year, as well as the recipient of the Draddy Trophy as the nation's premier scholar-athlete.

Brad Culpepper was the recipient of the Draddy Scholarship Trophy in 1991, presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete.

Bill Kynes was a recipient of a 1977 Rhodes Scholarship. DB Michael Gilmore was a national finalist for that award in 1993.

Michael Gilmore was one of the nation's most honored scholar-athletes during 1993-94. He was a first-team Verizon Academic All-America honoree both of those years, as well as a first-team Hitachi/CFA Scholar-Athlete Team recipient. In 1994, he received the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award and the NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship Award.

Florida is the only school in the nation to claim three recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy, which honors the nation's premier scholar-athlete.

Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper won the award in 1991, quarterback Danny Wuerffel garnered the honor in 1996 and quarterback Tim Tebow earned the recognition in 2009.

FERGIE FERGUSON AWARD

The Forrest K. (Fergie) Ferguson Award is given in memory of one of the all-time great athletes at Florida. It goes annually to the senior football player who displays outstanding leadership, character and courage.

Ferguson started at end for the Gators from 1939-41 and wrote pass receiving records which would stand until the pro-style passing era of the 1960s. He was an All-American in 1941. He was also a collegiate state boxing champion and in 1942 won the national AAU javelin championship.

Fergie entered the Army in 1942 as a second lieutenant and was severely wounded in the Normandy Invasion in 1944. He won the Distinguished Service Cross for his heroism under fire. He died of his war wounds 10 years later.

JAMES W. KYNES AWARD

Presented annually to the player who best exemplified the mental and physical toughness and "iron-man" determination Kynes exhibited as a Gator player and in his lifetime. Up until the 2011 season, it was presented to the offensive lineman who best exemplified those traits. Close friends Tom MacDonald and George Levy originated the Kynes Award in 1986. The first recipient was offensive tackle David Williams.

Kynes, Florida's first All-SEC offensive lineman and captain of the 1949 team, was the last Gator football player to play every minute in a game, something he accomplished several times during his career, including in his final game against Alabama. He went on to become the youngest Attorney General in the state of Florida's history at age 37 and was a business and civic leader in Tampa until his death of cancer at age 60 on Oct. 13, 1988.

RAY GRAVES AWARD

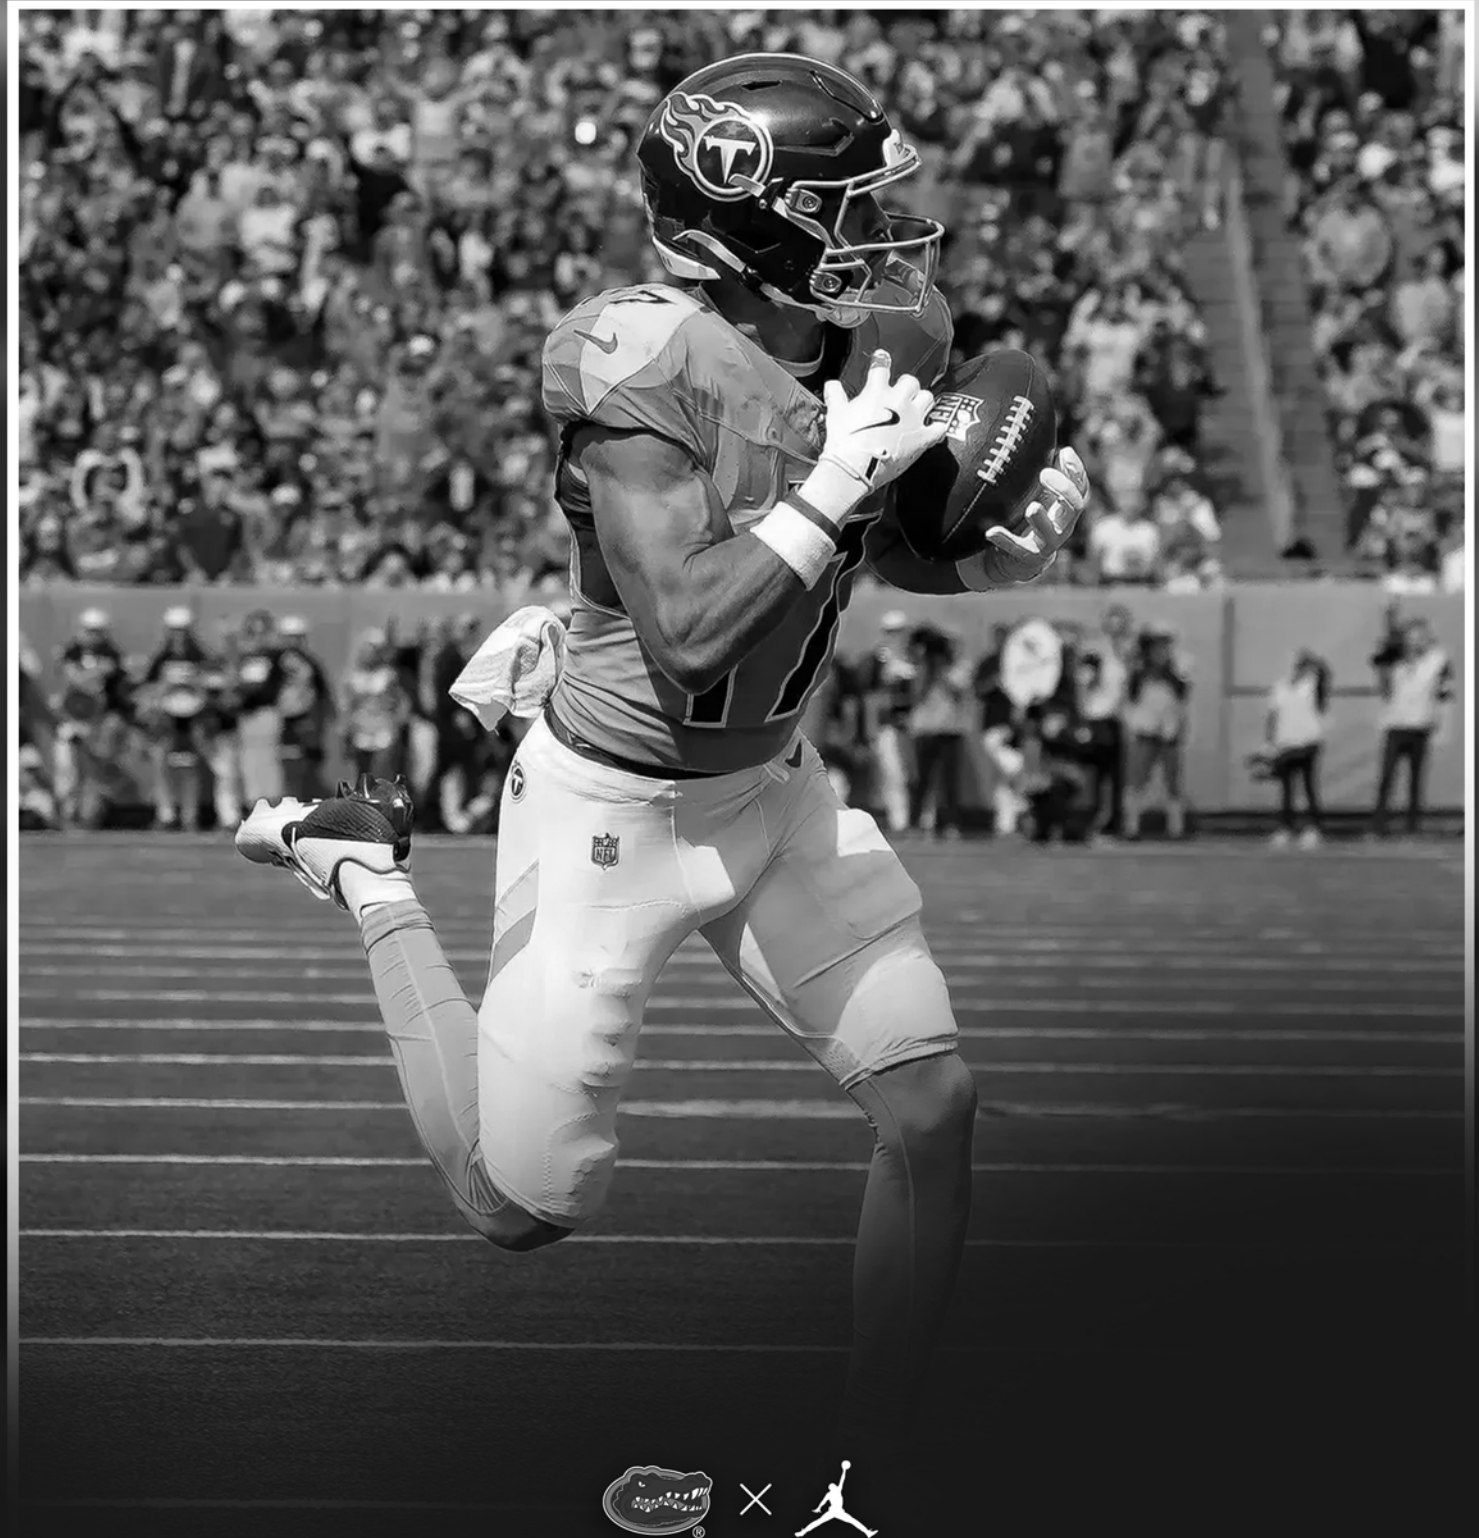

Presented annually to the team's Most Valuable Player as selected by the team. Head Coach Steve Spurrier initiated the award in 1990 in tribute to Graves, who was head coach from 1960-69.

Graves compiled a 70-31-4 record at the Gator helm, then the record for most wins (70) in school history for a head coach. He led Florida to winning records in nine of his 10 seasons at the helm, including nine or more wins three times. Graves' teams also appeared in five bowl games, posting a 4-1 record. He coached Florida's first Heisman Trophy winner in Spurrier, who captured college football's most prestigious honor in 1966.

HISTORY OF STEVE SPURRIER-FLORIDA FIELD

1906-10 When the Gator football program started in 1906 under Head Coach James Forsythe, prior to the existence of The Swamp, Florida played home football games in downtown Gainesville at the "Ballpark," which was located south of Market St. (now SW 5th Ave.) and bordered to the east by Garden St. (SW 1st St.), to the west by Arredonda St. (SW 3rd St.) and to the south by Depot Ave. The Gators compiled an 14-0-1 record from 1906-10.

1911-29 From 1911-29, Florida football was in an area situated just north of the current Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. This area was known as the University Park and the University Athletic Field until the fall of 1915 when it was renamed Fleming Field. The Gators went 48-6-1 on this site.

April 16, 1930 Construction begins on original Florida Field.

October 27, 1930 Construction completed on original Florida Field (capacity 21,769). The original stadium consisted of the lower half of the current stadium.

November 8, 1930 Dedication of Florida Field as sellout crowd of 21,769 watches Florida vs Alabama. The legendary Red Barber, a UF student, called the play-by-play.

October 13, 1934 Florida Field dedicated to memory of servicemen who died in World War I.

September 24, 1938 The first night game is played at Florida Field vs Stetson.

December 16, 1949 Plans drawn to add 11,200 seats to west stands. Expansion completed for 1950 season, bringing total capacity, including temporary bleachers, to 40,116.

December, 1965 Construction started on the 10,000-seat addition on the east side, bringing permanent seating to 56,164. Also, temporary bleachers were moved into the south end zone for total capacity of 62,800 during 1966 season.

April, 1971 Artificial surface installed.

August, 1982 Completion of south end zone, bringing capacity to 72,000. Athletic training center, skybox tower and modern press box also involved in this project.

September 9, 1989 Football stadium named Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field during dedication ceremonies. The stadium is named in honor of Ben Hill Griffin Jr., a life-long Gator supporter and fan who had been extremely benevolent and generous to several sectors at UF.

June 30, 1990 Natural grass replaced the artificial turf at Florida Field.

September, 1991 Construction completed on new north end zone. Capacity stood at 83,000, making Florida Field one of the eight largest on-campus collegiate football stadiums in the nation and the largest stadium in the state of Florida. The north end zone addition cost $17 million, but involved no state funding.

November 30, 1991 Ben Hill Griffin Stadium became the site of the largest football crowd (collegiate or professional) in state of Florida history (85,461 vs Florida St.). During the 1991 and 1992 seasons, the stadium was the site of the 12 largest crowds in state history.

October 12, 1991 The official dedication of the new north end zone was held as Florida played Tennessee. Red Barber, who called the original dedication game in 1930, was UF's special guest of honor.

End of 1991 Season Head Coach Steve Spurrier tagged Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field "The Swamp." Spurrier says, "The Swamp is where Gators live. We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Prior to 1998 Season Florida completed a $5 million renovation of the Ben Hill Griffin Training Complex in the south end zone, making the facility one of the nation's elite.

Prior to 2003 Season Construction was completed on a two-year, $50 million stadium expansion/renovation that included the addition of 2,900 luxury club seats, expanded press level, renovated and enlarged Bull Gator Deck, enlarged President's Suite and 34 additional suites funded by private support from Gator Boosters and fans.

Prior to 2004 Season A high-resolution video board highlighted the brand new Daktronics scoreboard in the north end of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. In addition, a state-of-the-art sound system was installed throughout the stadium. The project cost was $2 million.

February, 2007 Construction to the southwest area of the stadium began, including renovation to the football offices, weight room, training room and team areas.

August, 2008 The $28 million in construction and renovation to the James W. "Bill" Heavener Football Complex was completed, including an expansion of the strength and conditioning room, a new Gator Room, renovation to the football offices and a trophy complex with a tribute to Gator greats.

August, 2009 Prior to the 2009 season, construction was completed on a $5.6 million project installing Daktronics HD-16 high resolution screens to replace the old north and south end zone scoreboards.

April, 2011 Statues of Florida's three Hesiman winners -- Steve Spurrier, Danny Wuerffel and Tim Tebow -- were unveiled on the west side of the stadium at halftime of the spring game.

Prior to 2012 Season Renovations to the West Concourse resulted in enhanced restroom facilities, better overall lighting, improved crowd circulation and wider concessions with more points of sale, including new food items not previously offered in the stadium.

June 9, 2016 The University of Florida's Board of Trustees voted to add Spurrier's name to Florida Field, where he starred as a player in the 1960s and returned in 1990 to begin a 12-year run as head coach and take the program to startling success. Steve Spurrier-Florida Field at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium was unveiled on Sept. 3, 2016 prior to UF's 2016 season opener against UMass.

September 3, 2016 A "Chair of Honor" was installed in the concourse near Gate 16 in Ben Hill Griffin Stadium to honor POW and MIA soldiers. Dedicated in their memory, the chair is marked by a plaque with the following inscription: This chair remains unoccupied to symbolize that those still listed as Prisoner of War or Missing in Action will always have a seat awaiting them at Steve Spurrier-Florida Field when they return home. As part of of the dedication, the family of Cmrd. Randolph Wright Ford was recognized. Ford, who lived in Gainesville and attended UF in 1954-55, was commissioned as a Naval officer, earned his Wings of Gold and was attached to Attack Squadron 86 on aircraft carrier USS America during the Vietnam War.

September 16, 2017 Prior to the 2017 season, the UAA collaborated with Daktronics to install 15mm HD LED ribbon boards above the North and South Endzones. Fans can see game clock information, down and distance, statistics, scores from other games, etc. In addition, the wing walls inside the stadium were updated to display UF's many conference and national championships.
Southeast Corner: National Champions and Years ; Northwest Corner: SEC Champions and Years
Northeast Corner: "This is… Gator Country" ; Southwest Corner: "This is… The Swamp"
Each wing wall will be highlighted with back-lit lettering

Also, nursing mothers now have an exclusive space inside Ben Hill Griffin Stadium to tend to their children in privacy. The Nursing Suite is located behind between Gates 15 and 16, and is a female-only space for nursing mothers or women bottle-feeding children. Men, affiliated with a nursing woman, or need to bottle-feed a child, are permitted in the lobby of the suite.

September 7, 2019 From the beginning with of the 2019 season, fans saw a dramatic upgrade in their ability to share all of their gameday experiences socially in real time, and stay connected through all of their wireless devices, as the University Athletic Association installed equipment for high-density Wi-Fi inside Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. The $6.3 million project, which came to fruition in partnership with Extreme Networks and Verizon Business Markets, began in July 2018 with conduit, wiring and under seat enclosures that house more than 1,100 wireless access points throughout the seating bowl.

September 6, 2023 Prior to the start of the 2023 home football season, the University Athletic Association announced the implementation of an additional, convenient way for fans to enjoy Saturdays in the Swamp. The Grab "N" Go Gators is a 4,000-square-foot concession store which allows fans to seamlessly purchase concessions without missing out on the game. The project, in partnership with the UAA's concessionaire Sodexo Live, features a variety of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, limited hot food and assorted candies and snacks nestled inside the Gate 18 entrance to Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. The store is equipped with roll up doors for easy access as well as 12 points of sale and the latest payment technology.

SCOTT STRICKLIN // DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Hired on Nov. 1, 2016, Florida Athletic Director Scott Stricklin has continued the University Athletic Association's championship culture.

A dozen national championships (Women's Tennis, 2017; Men's Outdoor Track & Field 2017, 2022, 2023, 2024; Baseball 2017; Men's Basketball 2023-24; Men's Golf 2024; Men's Indoor Track & Field 2018, 2019; Men's Tennis 2021 and Women's Indoor & Outdoor Track & Field 2022) and 46 conference titles have already been added to the mantle during his tenure.

The Gators won its 29th overall and SEC All-Sports Trophy in 2025-26, fueled by a conference-leading four championships, highlighted women's track and field program's first SEC triple crown since 1996-97 with conference titles in cross country, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. The conference success continued Florida's league leading streak of 48 consecutive seasons of an SEC title.

Florida Athletic teams posted 65 top-five national finishes, including a school-record 12 in 2017-18 under Stricklin while also finishing in the top-7 each year in the Learfield IMG College Director Cup. UF holds a streak of top-10 national all-sports finishes for 42 consecutive years, remaining the only program in the country to achieve that distinction.

The Florida men captured the Capital One Cup in 2022-23 on the strength of two national titles (outdoor track and golf) and a runner up finish by the baseball team. Overall the athletic program had 11 teams in the top 10 nationally in 2023-24, including nine in the top three. The Cup is the third for the men (2010-11 and 2011-12), while the women's claimed the cup in 2013-14. Florida's three titles for the men is tied for the top total in the nation in the history of the award. In 2023-24, Florida women were No. 3 and men were No. T9 in Capital One Cup standings.

Academically, Stricklin has emphasized student-athlete achievement alongside competitive success. Off the field, 1,566 student athletes have graduated since the fall of 2016. Among those graduates were 580 student athletes who won a national or conference championship during their time at Florida and 986 were recognized with Academic All-SEC Honors.

The Graduation Success Rates released in November of 2025 showed that 93 percent of UF student-athletes completed their degree, which is above NCAA Division I's overall 90 percent. The GSR of 12 Gator teams are above or equal the national average for their sport – men's & women's basketball, football, men's & women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's swimming & diving, men's tennis, women's track & field/cross country and volleyball. Eight UF teams posted a perfect 100 GSR. Gator teams in this report with a 100 GSR are men's & women's basketball, men's & women's golf, gymnastics, softball, men's tennis and volleyball.

Earlier this fall, UF ranked No. 7 in the U.S. News & World Report's listing of the top national public universities. It was the eighth consecutive year UF ranked among the nation's top 10. The combined grade point average for all Gator student-athletes for the 2024-25 academic year was an all-time high 3.405 and 93 student-athletes earned bachelor or master degrees in the last academic year.

Continuing to focus on the UAA's mission of providing a Championship Experience with Integrity, Stricklin and the staff manages a $230 million operating budget for 2024-25, delivering resources for Gator student-athletes and fans to pursue that championship experience.

Extreme Networks, Inc., a leader in cloud-driven networking, announced the deployment of the first Wi-Fi 7 network in a collegiate stadium at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. The University Athletic Association (UAA) has received the green light to advance planning and development for the transformational renovation of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. The renovation is targeted for completion ahead of the 2030 football season and carries a projected investment of approximately $1.45 billion. Florida Athletics has selected Legends Global to serve as Owner's Representative, helping guide strategic planning and project execution throughout the process. Manhattan Construction Group and Hunt Construction Group will partner as the construction management team leading the renovation effort. The full project is expected to go before the University of Florida Board of Trustees in in the fall for final approval.

On the heels of the $100-million Phase 1 of the Facilities Master Plan that was unveiled prior to his hire, Stricklin and the staff continue to implement the UAA's Master Facility Plan, which recently completed phases 2 and 3.

Phase 2 began with a $15 million renovation of Katie Seashole Pressly softball stadium. The project began in the summer of 2018 and was completed just prior to the start of the 2019 season. Renovations included a 360-degree open concourse, shade structures for fans and an elevated press box. There are modern student-athlete and staff amenities, such as locker room and sports medicine facilities, and enhanced experiences for fans.

The new Florida Ballpark opened its doors for the 2021 season. A $65 million project, the ballpark includes a 360-degree open concourse with all permanent seats featuring chairbacks. A variety of seating options are also available – premium seating, grass berms, and other non-traditional seating choices to provide expanded fan capacity. Enhanced concession space and food options and high-definition video and sound revamped the fan experience in cheering Florida baseball.

Construction for the projected $85 million 130,000-square foot football training center began in summer of 2020, with a completion in the summer of 2022. The facility serves as the new day-to-day home for Florida football student-athletes and staff. Florida's meeting rooms, locker room, strength and conditioning area, training room and coaches' offices will all be adjacent to the practice field, creating maximum efficiency within the program. The front lower quadrant of the building is for all student-athletes featuring a dining hall and lounge, along with outdoor activities and amenities.

Both track and field and tennis programs benefitted from $2.5 million infrastructure investments in the summer of 2018 in the form of resurfacing of the Percy Beard Track and the Ring Tennis Complex. The tennis facility also a $650,000 upgrade with chairback seating and shade structure that was completed in February of 2022. In addition, UF's game-day football locker room received a $1.5 million upgrade in the summer of 2019 and Steve Spurrier-Florida field underwent its first complete re-sod since 2012 this summer as well. The soccer team facility and lacrosse facility also underwent a $7.4 million upgrade that include new office, locker room, meeting and athletic training areas for the soccer team adjacent to their practice facility. Meanwhile the lacrosse improvement included an additional 2,000 square feet of space. The swimming and diving facility received a $1.9 million upgrade that includes approximately 3,200 square feet of renovation of existing space, including the men's and women's locker areas, support spaces and coach's locker rooms.

Percy Beard Track received a $4.1 million renovation project. The scope of the project includes a timing/officials building on the south end of the stands adjacent to the finish line and a permanent shade structure over the starting block. Additionally, public areas such as the restrooms and concessions will undergo renovations, along with waterproofing of the grandstand structure.

UF has received gift commitments of more than $165.25 million towards the Master Facility Plan.

In an effort to delivering a championship experience for the Gator Nation, Stricklin and the UAA staff continues to pursue initiatives to enhance the fan experience and engage with them socially and personally.

Florida installed a $6 million WIFI system in Ben Hill Griffin Stadium that became fully operational during the 2025 football season. Additionally, a Gators app designed to further connect fans in the stadium on game day also debuted in 2019. In 2018, an enhanced experience on the North Lawn, dubbed Gator Walk Village, and Gators Food Patio on the west outer concourse also made its debut during the football season.

Stricklin served as the Chair of SEC's Working Group on Fan Experience from 2013-16.

Before the reduced crowds of the 2020-21 season, Gator athletic teams regularly drew more than a million fans during the course of a season. Gymnastics raised its average attendance record for the fifth time in the last six full capacity seasons, single-season or game attendance records, while five Gator teams ranked in the top 12 nationally in total or attendance average in 2021-22.

Stricklin makes numerous public appearances, connecting with Gator fans personally and was very active on social media with a Twitter following of 79,000-plus.

He served on the College Football Playoff selection committee from 2018-20, where he represented the Southeastern Conference. He also and served as a member of the SEC's Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct (2015-17) and the Division I Football Competition Committee (2017-19).

Stricklin is also currently a member of the US Olympic Committee (USOC) Collegiate Athletic Council, to which he was appointed in 2017.

He came to Florida with 29-plus years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, including six as athletic director at his alma mater, Mississippi State University.

Stricklin succeeded Jeremy Foley, who served as Florida's athletic director for 25 years. Stricklin is the Gators' 14th athletic director in school history.

The Jackson, Miss., native, who has spent 24-plus years in the Southeastern Conference, spearheaded over $140 million in facility improvements while leading MSU, as well as significant increases in booster club membership and donations and the highest-ever Learfield Director's Cup finish in school history. MSU's student-athletes also excelled academically under Stricklin's leadership, posting a combined 3.0 GPA in 2014-15, marking the highest in MSU's history.

Stricklin has earned praise for his performance, earning the 2015-16 Athletic Director of the Year Award from the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA), which highlights the efforts of athletic directors at all levels.

Stricklin's career path traveled through five other Division I institutions, including three other SEC schools, before UF.

Even prior to his graduation from MSU in 1992, Stricklin served as the media relations contact for the Bulldogs' baseball team. After staying on at his alma mater for a year in a full-time capacity following graduation, Stricklin moved on to Auburn University, where he was named associate media relations director, a position he held from 1993-98.

He then moved on to Tulane to become an assistant athletic director and the primary media contact for the Green Wave's football team before a four-year stint at Baylor from 1999-2003 as the Assistant AD for Communications and Marketing.

Stricklin then returned to the SEC, working at Associate AD for Media Relations at Kentucky from 2003-08, overseeing day-to-day publicity of Wildcat basketball. He returned to MSU in 2008 as Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's apparel agreement, facility planning and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

After two years in that position, he was named the Bulldogs' AD following Greg Byrne's departure to the University of Arizona.

Stricklin, 53, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. She was a three-time All-Lone Star Conference team member, both for athletics and academics, when she played tennis at Abilene Christian. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

UF became the first program in collegiate history to own both the men's basketball and football national titles in the same calendar year, after capturing crowns in 2006. The men's basketball team then became the first repeat champions in their sport in 15 years after cutting the nets down again in 2007. When Florida won the 2017 NCAA baseball title, it became the sixth Division I program to win a national title in baseball, men's basketball and football. UF is also the only program to capture three titles in both football and men's basketball.

UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Strategic Purpose

Provide a championship experience with integrity on and off the field for student-athletes and the Gator Nation.

Vision Statement

Be the model collegiate athletics program, combining excellence and integrity in academics, athletics, and fan engagement to elevate the UF brand.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

GOODWILL GATORS

Mission Statement

The mission of the University Athletic Association's Goodwill Gators Community Outreach Program is to foster citizenship between administration, coaches, student-athletes and the greater Gainesville community. Through volunteerism, Goodwill Gators:

- strengthens our commitment to greater Gainesville and the surrounding communities.
- encourages citizenship, civic virtues and how one should behave as part of a community.
- enhances the personal development of student-athletes.

HISTORY

With the accolades and benefits received by student-athletes come responsibilities. Student-athletes have a responsibility to serve the community that supports them as they grow physically, mentally and emotionally. The Goodwill Gators program understands and meets the need to be involved within the community by participating in weekly and annual service projects.

The Goodwill Gators program provides all Gator student-athletes with quality volunteer opportunities that allow them to give back to the community. In turn, the community may utilize the Goodwill Gator student-athletes as positive role models, eager volunteers and motivational speakers. Each week student-athletes visit UF Health Pediatric Hospital and three elementary schools in addition to volunteering at special events.

The Goodwill Gators program has been recognized nationally by the National Consortium of Academics and Sports for its outreach and service commitment to the community. Student-athletes have demonstrated a high commitment to the Goodwill Gators program making consistent appearances with several organizations through the Hawkins Center for Academic and Personal Excellence.

PRESIDENTIAL SERVICE WINNER

Former Gator Mike McNeely was recognized as a Presidential Service Award Winner for completing over 100 hours of community service in a calendar year. The Presidential Service Award is given by the University of Florida Center for Leadership and Service to students in recognition of their outstanding contribution to the community.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Gators Lunch Buddies

Once a week student-athletes join kids of various grade levels for lunch. The student-athletes utilize the time to mentor the kids and encourage academic excellence, as well as help to build social skills. Over 55 student-athlete volunteers from all 19 sports participate every year.

Gators Literacy

Designed to promote reading and literacy in schools in Alachua County. Once a week, student-athletes help Kindergarteners with reading comprehension by reading various books with them. The kindergartners are able to add the books to their home library to continue honing their skills.

Goodwill Gators Community Programs

On Wednesday throughout the year, UF student-athletes from all teams visit pediatric patients at the UFHealth. Student-athletes bring posters and spend time with patients as they await treatment.

Gators Tracks

Gator Tracks remains as one of the University Athletic Association's biggest events as it provides shoes for students in nine schools in Alachua County on free or reduced lunch. Each day for two weeks, Gator Student-Athletes deliver shoes and socks to the 450 students of seven Elementary Schools in Alachua County. Every student is paired with a Gator student-athlete to help with the sizing and fit of the socks and shoes. Since the creation of Gator Tracks over 10,000 pairs of shoes have been delivered.

Climb for Cancer

For the 14th year UF student-athletes volunteered their bye weekend at the Climb for Cancer sports camp. Student-athletes joined the camp participants in enjoying basketball, soccer, football, volleyball and dance drills. Climb for Cancer is a non-profit organization that sponsors children whom have fought or are fighting cancer and gives them the opportunity to participate in a sports clinic. Participants and their families were able to meet student-athletes and use the University Athletic Association's facilities through the partnership formed with the Hawkins Center for Academic and Personal Excellence and UAA Departments.

NCAA RULES EDUCATION PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

You are a "prospective student-athlete" when you start ninth-grade classes. Before the ninth grade, you become a prospective student-athlete if a college gives you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

You become a "recruited prospective student-athlete" at a particular college if any coach or representative of the college's athletics interest (booster or representative) approaches you (or any member of your family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college. Activities by coaches or boosters that cause you to become a recruited prospective student-athlete are:

- providing you with an official visit;
- visiting you or any other member of your family anywhere other than the college campus;
- signing a National Letter of Intent or a University of Florida written offer of athletically related financial aid.

ACADEMICS AND AMATEURISM

It is extremely important for you to give maximum academic effort as you conclude your high school attendance while maintaining your amateur status before entering college. To practice or play during your freshman year, you must meet the provisions of NCAA Bylaw 14.3, which include: (a) graduating from high school, (b) achieving a minimum cumulative grade point average in 16 core courses. You must also meet the provisions of Bylaw 12.1.2, which include verification that you have retained your amateur status prior to entering college. The NCAA Eligibility Center must certify the initial-eligibility and amateur status of all incoming freshman student-athletes. Therefore, you must register with the Eligibility Center as soon as possible. For online web access contact: www.eligibilitycenter.org.

INDUCEMENTS

All institutional staff members and boosters are prohibited from offering or providing any financial aid or other benefits to you or your relatives or friends other than those expressly permitted by NCAA regulations. Specifically prohibited inducements include:

- providing cash or loans in any amount, or
- signing or co-signing for a loan
- providing gifts of any kind, including clothing or equipment
- providing special discounts for goods or services
- providing free or reduced housing/rent

WALK-ONS

For years, the University of Florida football program has encouraged and fostered a walk-on program that gives many young men each year the opportunity to live their dream of playing major college football. Many former walk-ons have eventually earned scholarships, earned starting positions, gained All-SEC and All-America honors and even eventually played professional football. Their eventual success has become a cherished part of the Gator football tradition and heritage.

- Fourteen former Gator walk-ons have gone on to play professional football: LS James Smith, DB Hagood Clarke, DB Allen Trammell, DB Bruce Vaughan, LB James Harrell, WR Lee McGriff, PK John James, PK David Posey, QB Kerwin Bell, DB Louis Oliver, WR Chris Doering, TE Tremayne Allen, PK Jeff Chandler and FB Billy Latsko. Former walk-on Louis Oliver was selected in the first round of the 1989 NFL Draft by Miami. He also earned first-team All-America honors in 1987 and 1988 and was one of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Defensive Back of the Year Award in 1988.
- Former walk-on John James went on to earn All-Pro honors as a punter in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons.
- Former walk-on Kerwin Bell earned SEC Player of the Year honors in 1984 and completed his career in 1987 as the greatest statistical passer in SEC history. Bell became a prominent Heisman Trophy candidate in 1987.
- When Bobby Raymond completed his career in 1984, the former walk-on's name appeared in the NCAA place-kicking records in five separate categories.
- Former walk-on wide receiver Gary Rolle was named Academic All-America and winner of the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award in 1984.
- Twenty-six members of the 1991 Southeastern Conference championship team, the first official SEC title in school history, were walk-ons.
- Over 150 Gator walk-ons have earned Academic All-SEC honors.
- Former walk-on Judd Davis was named the 1993 Lou Groza National Place-Kicker of the Year. He was also named a first-team All-American that season and completed his UF career in 1994 with 225 points, then the top total in school history.
- Former walk-on Chris Doering completed his Gator career in 1995 with 31 career touchdown catches, the top total in SEC and UF history. Doering was named second-team All-America, as well as first-team All-SEC, in 1995 after grabbing 17 touchdown receptions, the best seasonal mark in SEC and UF history.
- Jeff Chandler joined the Gator program as a walk-on in 1998 and by the time he departed after the 2001 season, he had become UF's all-time leading scorer (368 points) and field-goal maker (67). He was a two-time semifinalist for the Groza Award, a two-time first-team All-SEC choice and a second-team All-American in 2001.
- The 1985 Gator team that finished 9-1-1 and fifth in the final national rankings had 18 prominent players that originally joined the program as walk-ons.
- Seven former Gator walk-ons – WR Lee McGriff, WR Chris Doering, DE Preston Kendrick, PK David Posey, QB Kerwin Bell, DB Louis Oliver and PK Jeff Chandler – have gone on to earn first-team All-SEC honors.
- The 2006 BCS National Championship squad featured 36 walk-ons, including five student-athletes that earned scholarships.
- LB Cristian Garcia was one of three recipients for the Inaugural "It's On Us" Courage Award in October 2016. It's On Us is an initiative to put a stop to sexual assaults on college campuses introduced by President Barack Obama in September 2014. Garcia made national headlines in July 2016 for his role in stopping a sexual assault behind 101 Cantina, a popular nightspot across University Avenue from campus where Garcia worked as a security guard during that summer.
