SETTING THE SCENE: THE BIRTHPLACE OF HOMECOMING

The 25th-ranked Mizzou football team (3-1, 0-1 SEC) is set to welcome No. 8 Florida to COMO - the birthplace of homecoming - for the 115th annual homecoming game on Saturday, October 3 (2:30 p.m. CT / ABC). The Tigers suffered their first defeat of the season in Starkville last time out to then 24th-ranked Mississippi State, 31-24, in a back-and-forth contest.

THE COACHES

Already No. 4 on Mizzou's all-time wins list, Eli Drinkwitz is in his seventh season as Mizzou's head coach and enters Saturday with a 49-30 mark (61-31 overall). The Alma, Arkansas, native has led the Tigers to bowl eligibility in each of his first six seasons in Columbia, making him the only MU head coach in program history to achieve that feat. Prior to taking the Mizzou job, Drinkwitz was 12-1 in his lone season as head coach at Appalachian State (2019). Drinkwitz boasts the best home winning percentage (min. four seasons) in program history at .795 and is 35-9 on Faurot Field during his tenure. Since the start of 2023, Drinkwitz and the Tigers have gone 32-11 (.744) - tied for 12th-best nationally over that stretch.

Florida head coach Jon Sumrall is in his first season with the Gators, leading UF to a 4-0 start and a No. 8 national ranking. Sumrall arrived in Gainesville following two seasons at Tulane, where he guided the Green Wave to consecutive American Athletic Conference Championship Game appearances, the 2025 AAC title and a berth in the College Football Playoff. Prior to Tulane, Sumrall posted a 23-4 record in two seasons at Troy, winning back-to-back Sun Belt championships. He owns a 47-12 career record as a head coach, with additional coaching stops at Kentucky, Ole Miss, Troy, Tulane, San Diego and Tulane.

DAEDEN HOPKINS NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE LINEMAN OF THE WEEK

Mizzou sophomore EDGE rusher Daeden Hopkins was named Southeastern Conference Defensive Lineman of the Week on Monday. Hopkins, a sophomore from Hermann, Missouri, lived in the backfield versus the No. 24 Bulldogs, racking up 3.5 sacks - a total that ranks second all-time for a single game in Mizzou history. He grew his season sack total to 6.0 to rank third nationally and second in the SEC. Hopkins leads the nation among FBS defenders with at least 100 pass-rush snaps with a PFF pass-rushing grade of 90.8, a 24.5 percent pass-rush win rate and a 19.6 percent pressure rate. It marks the second SEC weekly honor of the season for Hopkins after previously being named co-SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week on Sept. 14.

FIRST AND TEN: STORYLINES

- Saturday's game versus Florida marks yet another sellout for the Tigers, extending MU's program-record sellout streak to 23 games.
- The Tigers are 32-11 since the start of 2023 (.744) - tied for 12th-best nationally over that stretch by winning percentage.
- Mizzou has won 13 consecutive home night games, dating back to a 45-14 victory over New Mexico State on Nov. 19, 2022. The Tigers' last home loss under the lights came against No. 1 Georgia, a 26-22 setback on Oct. 1, 2022.
- Mizzou checks in at No. 25 in the latest editions of the AP and Coaches polls (Sept. 27). The Tigers entered the season ranked 25th in each of the major polls to mark the second time in the past three seasons appearing in both preseason top 25 polls.
- WR Cayden Lee owns Mizzou's top PFF offensive grade at 87.8, while his 88.5 receiving grade ranks sixth among FBS wide receivers with at least 25 targets and leads the SEC.
- Lee and fellow WR Donovan Dlugbode have a combined 725 yards - good for No. 5 nationally as a duo. The tandem also leads the country in combined receiving touchdowns (9) among duos.

HEAD COACH
ELI DRINKWITZ

SEVENTH YEAR • ARKANSAS TECH '04

Eli Drinkwitz was named the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach on December 10, 2019. In his seventh season at the helm, he has compiled a 49–30 (.620) record, earned 2023 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Coach of the Year honors and established himself as one of the most successful starts to a head coaching tenure in program history.

With more than 20 years of coaching experience, Drinkwitz has coached in 13 bowl games, including the 2011 BCS National Championship Game, and has guided 61 student-athletes to all-conference honors. Across his career as a head coach and coordinator, he has helped develop nine All-Americans, 33 NFL Draft selections, eight 1,000-yard rushers, five 3,000-yard passers and five 1,000-yard receivers. During four seasons (2015, 2017, 2018 and 2023), his offenses produced a player in all three categories. Of those 33 NFL Draft picks, 10 of them have been selected in the top-three rounds, including a trio of first rounders (Garrett Bradbury; NC State - 2019, Darius Robinson; Mizzou - 2024, Armand Membou; Mizzou - 2025).

The 2023 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award finalist, Drinkwitz has guided the Tigers to bowl berths in each of his first six seasons in Columbia, becoming the only Coach in school history to accomplish that feat.

Under his leadership, the Tigers have finished ranked in the national top 25 in two of the last three seasons and compiled a 29–10 overall record during that span, including 15–9 in SEC play. Drinkwitz led Mizzou to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in 2023 (11–2) and 2024 (10–3), marking just the third time in program history and making him one of only two Mizzou head coaches with multiple 10-win seasons. The Tigers also earned postseason bowl victories in consecutive seasons for just the fourth time in school history, highlighted by wins over Ohio State in the 2023 Cotton Bowl and Iowa in the 2024 Music City Bowl.

Player development has been a hallmark of Drinkwitz's tenure. He has mentored 22 players to 24 all-conference honors at Mizzou, including 13 first team All-SEC selections, and coached 23 Tigers who were drafted into the NFL. Recent drafts included first-round selections Darius Robinson (2024) and Armand Membou (2025), along with second-round picks Nick Bolton (2021), standout wide receiver Luther Burden III (2025) and a pair of second-round picks from Mizzou's stout 2025 defense in Zion Young (2026) and Josiah Trotter (2026).

The 2025 Mizzou squad featured one of the best defenses in the nation and a potent rushing attack on offense led by transfer running back Ahmad Hardy. Mizzou's defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (277.3 YPG), 11th in pass yards allowed (173.5 YPG), 13th in rush defense (103.8 YPG) and 17th in scoring defense (18.9 PPG). Hardy, ran wild for the Tigers, earning consensus first team All-America honors, SEC Newcomer of the Year, unanimous first team All-SEC and finished second nationally – first among Power 4 rushers – in rushing yards with 1,649. He also became the third running back of the Drinkwitz's era to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, which is given to the nation's best running back.

The 2024 Tigers put together a 10-3 season that saw MU finish the season at No. 22 in the Associated Press poll. The double-digit wins campaign was the second straight for the program. Mizzou went 5-3 in SEC games (11-5 in SEC games over the last two seasons). The Tigers defeated Iowa 27-24 to win the Music City Bowl to cap the season.

Mizzou's track record of player development success was on full display at the 2025 NFL Draft, with three Tigers selected. Armand Membou became MU's latest first-round selection, going No. 7 overall to the New York Jets, Membou was the 22nd Mizzou player to be drafted in the first round. Luther Burden III heard his name called the next night, going in the second round (39th overall) to the Chicago Bears. Marcus Bryant was taken in the seventh round by the New England Patriots.

The 2023 Tigers put together an 11-2 season that saw MU move into the Top 10 of all three national polls. The double-digit wins campaign was the first since 2014. Mizzou went 6-2 in SEC games, won both the Mayor's Cup over South Carolina and Battle Line Rivalry over Arkansas and qualified for its first New Year's Six bowl and defeated Ohio State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

The 2022 season showcased a much-improved defense, ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference and 34th nationally by allowing just 340.8 yards per game, 93.8 less than in 2021. Freshman phenom Luther Burden III took no time making his mark at the college level. The St. Louis native became the first true freshman since 2008 to record two receiving touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, and a punt-return touchdown in the same season. Burden III's eight scores from scrimmage were second amongst SEC true freshmen (Ole Miss' Quinshon Judkins) and led true freshmen receivers nationally.

The 2021 season saw Tyler Badie set the school's single-season record for rushing yards (1,604). His 14 touchdowns in 12 games are ninth on Mizzou's single-season and top-10 list. He was a CoSIDA Academic All-American, the SEC Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year (Mizzou's first-ever), first-team All-SEC and was named to multiple All-America teams.

In 2020, the Tigers overcame an 0-2 start to win five of their last eight games despite playing with less than 60 scholarship players for over half of those contests. Finished the year with a 5-5 record against a SEC-only schedule. The Tigers' five SEC wins were their second-most ever behind a pair of 7-1 marks during back-to-back SEC East crowns in 2013 and 2014.

He arrived in Columbia after leading Appalachian State to a 12-1 record and a No. 20 ranking in the final AP poll and a Sun Belt Conference Championship.

Drinkwitz graduated magna cum laude and was the student body president at Arkansas Tech (bachelor's, education) before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown of Alma, Ark., in 2005. He and his wife, Lindsey (Sivils), have four daughters: Addison, Emerson, Ella and Parker Lynn.
