SATURDAY, DEC. 14 | ATLANTA, GA.

[QUOTED]

HEAD COACH BRYCE DREW

"I loved our second half. We played really well. We played tough. We played physical. We played together.

"We had two really good looks in that last minute to tie the game. We wanted to put pressure on them. If we make one of those 3s and get one stop, I think we can save for one shot at the end. Unfortunately, we had two good looks and they just didn't get down."

GRADUATE FORWARD LÖK WUR

"It just shows that even when we're not at our best, we can be in the game with anybody based on our team and personnel. We dug ourselves in a hole. It was a big emphasis at halftime to get back to ourselves and chip at the lead bit by bit.

"We felt like we should've won the game. A lot of plays didn't go our way, but we showed our fight for sure."

GEORGIA HEAD COACH MIKE WHITE

"I thought they defended at a really high level. We never got into a great offensive rhythm. It wasn't clean for us offensively, and they had a lot to do with that. Very physical game."

[QUOTED]

HEAD COACH BRYCE DREW

"Our bench was fantastic. They played with a lot of energy. They played with pace. They moved the ball. It was really fun to watch that group. In the second half, our upperclassmen picked it up and played much better. I'm really proud of Jakobe Coles. His defensive intensity was probably the best it's been all year, and obviously I loved the last play when Jason (Amador) got to get our 100th point. It was a special moment for him and our fans.

"It's been hard to find minutes for a lot of players. So it was really nice to put some of our freshmen out there on the court for longer periods of time and let them just play and get used to playing on this court and in front of our fans. It's different making shots and making decisions out here with a packed house and a louder arena than it is in practice. So the more moments they get like that, the more it can help them be ready for games in the future."

FRESHMAN GUARD STYLES PHIPPS

"When I get out there, I just do what is needed. So whether it's scoring, passing, or a lot of times now, I'm just trying to get steals and rebounds. So just help out where I can."

LAST MEETING

» Dec. 30, 2023 | GCU wins 73-70

- » GCU won its ninth consecutive game, the nation's seventh-longest active streak, by intensifying its defense for key stops during a 9-2 finish over the last three minutes.
- » "We just got tougher on the ball," Lopes head coach Bryce Drew said. "Guys played with a little more urgency on the ball – a little more active with our hands and we started to fight for some rebounds."
- » GCU survived allowing an opponent season high of 56% shooting from the field by outscoring Louisiana Tech by 15 points at the 3-point line with 55% accuracy and outshooting the Bulldogs on free throws 88% to 53%.
- » During the 9-2 close, Harrison gave the Lopes the lead for good in his 100th career game when he split his defender showing early on a screen and the help coming late.
- » "As much as it is important to win those games where you're up by 20, 15 or 10 and leading the whole game, it's just as good to be able to win games like this that are ugly. It may not go your way the whole game or for 35 minutes, but that last five (minutes), you're able to really lock in and handle your business."

» HOUSEHOLD NAME? TYON GRANT-FOSTER

GRANT-FOSTER

After undergoing the NBA Draft process in the offseason, Grant-Foster announced a return to GCU for 2024-25 and quickly became one of the most notable names in college basketball. He is collecting a long list of offseason awards and recognitions:

- » Naismith Trophy Watch List (50-man list for nation's top player)
- » ESPN's Jay Bilas: Preseason All-American second team
"Grant-Foster is a natural scorer who hung 29 points on Alabama in the NCAA tournament. Don't be surprised if he leads the nation in scoring."

» TOURNEY REGULARS

The Bryce Drew era has been marked with championship success. The Lopes' head coach has built GCU into a tournament mainstay.

The Lopes are one of 37 schools to have made at least three of the last four NCAA tournaments. More impressively, the Lopes are one of only six schools to accomplish the feat from a conference that did not earn multiple bids into the tournament.

GCU has made more NCAA tournaments in the last four seasons than two-thirds of the Power 6 basketball schools (ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC).

» STARTING SPOT IN THE AP POLL

For the first time in program history, the Lopes begin a college basketball season receiving top-25 votes. GCU was a constant in the "receiving votes" section of the poll in 2023-24, but the program's debut in a top-25 slot is still forthcoming. The Lopes logged their first two top-25 wins in program history last season, defeating No. 25 San Diego State at home and No. 15 Saint Mary's in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

To view the latest AP top-25 poll, visit Pg. 13.

His record did not hold long, as Tyon Grant-Foster poured in 684 in his first Lopes season in 2023-24.

HARRISON

On GCU's all-time single-season scoring list, Grant-Foster's season ranks third. Harrison's season is in a sixth-place tie. Chad Briscoe is the all-time record holder with 747 points scored in the 1992-93 season.

» WELCOME COACH KIMBROUGH

When Bryce Drew began a nationwide search for a new assistant coach, he did not need to go beyond the Valley or his friend circle for a perfect fit.

Jermaine Kimbrough is joining the Lopes after serving as associate head coach at Arizona State, where he assisted for three seasons. Kimbrough, a 23-year college coaching veteran, brings an ideal blend of acumen for recruiting, defense, player development and player relations with a deep Christian faith that aligns with Drew's program and GCU. Kimbrough was named one of the nation's 50 most impactful high-major assistants by Silver Waves Media last year.

KIMBROUGH

"So excited for Coach Kimbrough to be part of our staff," Drew said. "I have known him for years and have a huge amount of respect for him as a person and a coach."

"I came here to grow," Kimbrough said. "I came here to be part of a winning culture and be part of a program where everybody is connected. You can see that character, connection, culture – all the things that matter. I'm here to learn. I'm here to be a part of it. We all come to the table with gifts, but whatever role Bryce wants me to play, I'm going to serve the program."

» RECORDS ON RAY'S RADAR

In his third season with the program, Ray Harrison is climbing GCU's Division I and all-time record books in key metrics.

Entering the 2024-25 season, should Harrison hover around the 19.0 points per game mark, he would approach Josh Braun's record for the most career points scored in GCU's Division I history.

» NEXT STOP: MOUNTAIN WEST

The Lopes are honed in on ending their 12-year stay in the Western Athletic Conference on a high note and a fourth straight WAC Tournament Championship.

In the future, however, the Lopes will be playing in new digs.

On Nov. 1, 2024, GCU announced it had accepted an invitation to join the Mountain West Conference.

GCU will join the Mountain West no later than July 1, 2026, but possibly as early as the second quarter of 2025 if permitted under the conference's bylaws.

MOUNTAIN WEST MEMBERSHIP (EFFECTIVE 2026-27)

School	Nickname	Location	Joined MW
Air Force	Falcons	Air Force Academy, Colo.	1999

GCU is set to join an elite trio of non-football universities playing in FBS conferences, college athletics' upper echelon of notoriety and competitiveness. That list will include GCU, Wichita State (American Athletic Conference) and Gonzaga (Pac-12 Conference).

The Mountain West built a powerful basketball brand by becoming one of the nation's top seven men's basketball conferences each of the last three seasons, earning at least four bids to the NCAA tournament and peaking with six bids this year. After impending membership changes, the Mountain West will continue to feature three men's basketball teams that ranked in the nation's top 50 in the final NET rankings for 2023-24.

Of GCU's 21 sports, 17 will make their new home in the Mountain West. The conference does not sponsor beach volleyball, men's soccer, men's swimming and diving or men's volleyball. Those sports will continue to play as affiliates or become affiliates.

QUOTED

Brian Mueller, GCU President

"We are incredibly appreciative of the Mountain West Conference's interest in GCU and their recognition of the value we bring to its membership. Lope Nation has grown first and foremost because of the innovative strategies and creative delivery models that enable us to provide cutting-edge academic programs both on our campus and across the country. That has created a tremendous amount of momentum that benefits our athletic programs."

Gloria Nevarez, Mountain West Commissioner

"Grand Canyon is a tremendous addition to the Mountain West. We are excited to expand our footprint into the city of Phoenix and the state of Arizona. Grand Canyon has been on an upward trajectory both academically and athletically for the past decade, and its addition to the league will enhance the competition across the Mountain West as we strive to earn NCAA postseason bids and compete for national championships."

Jamie Boggs, GCU Vice President of Athletics

"GCU continues to rapidly grow as an academic institution and as an athletics program. We want to best position ourselves to be nationally competitive, and we are excited about the vision and future of the Mountain West. We are joining a conference that has enjoyed national success, has developed a rich tradition in its 26 years and has financially positioned us for competitive success in this changing collegiate landscape. We are eager to compete for championships with our future peers in the Mountain West."

» MCGLOTHAN SIGNS WITH NUGGETS

Gabe McGlothan walked out of Grand Canyon with the program in a better place than he found it, and the Lopes did the same for him as he joins the Denver Nuggets.

"It's super exciting to be in a situation like this that you dream of as a kid," said McGlothan, who started 100 games at GCU. "To look at the path that you've been going down to end up where we're at, it's a major thank you to everyone that's been involved – the coaches from Basha (High School) to Putnam Science (Academy) to West Point Prep to SEMO (Southeast Missouri) to the crazy ride that was GCU. It's cool to see that process end up right here."

McGlothan no longer needs to envision what it looks like to attain his goal of an NBA life. The former Grand Canyon star walked the NBA scene this summer, when he played for the Denver Nuggets' NBA Summer League team and participated in the Nuggets' training camp that included a two-exhibition game trip this month to Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.

McGlothan is now with the Grand Rapids Gold, the Nuggets' G League affiliate where the 25-year-old will start his pro basketball career in earnest.

"When guys leave like that and go do bigger things past college basketball, coming back to share their experiences is amazing," GCU junior center Duke Brennan said of being reunited with McGlothan in the offseason at GCU. "You learn from them. You love seeing them go up there because that's your dream too. He shared a lot of knowledge, and it was great seeing him."

McGlothan redshirted the 2019-20 season upon arrival at GCU and then was part of four seasons under head coach Bryce Drew with a cumulative 94-32 record and three NCAA tournament trips. In his final season, he averaged 12.8 points, 7.3 rebounds, 1.3 steals and 0.9 blocks with 40% 3-point shooting to help GCU to a 30-5 mark and the program's first NCAA tournament victory.

» TGF SOAKS UP EVENT FOR NCAA'S ELITE

Over the past year at Grand Canyon, Tyon Grant-Foster awoke the college basketball world and professional ranks to what he can do on the court.

That put him at a 14-player NCAA Men's Basketball Elite Student-Athlete Symposium in September for a forum designed to help the senior guard's next transition to life after GCU basketball.

GRANT-FOSTER

"I jumped at the chance for it," Grant-Foster said of the three-day event at NCAA headquarters in Indianapolis. "It's been real dedication when it comes to my work that goes into it. Not just me, but all my teammates. Without them and the year that we had, I probably wouldn't have been on that radar still, so I give thanks to them."

The NCAA leadership development and basketball enforcement staffs put together a curriculum of topics and a lineup of industry experts only available to Grant-Foster and the other 13 players.

"This atmosphere was intentionally cultivated to assist athletes who are phenomenal on the court transition in becoming knowledgeable professionals after their college basketball career ends," NCAA assistant director of leadership development Ashley Jocelyn said.

Grant-Foster was accompanied by GCU assistant director of student-athlete development Jerome Garrison for an itinerary that immediately heard from former Marquette, Indiana and Georgia head coach Tom Crean about personal and professional decision-making and NBA director of player development Erjaam Hayes on NBA and G-League insight.

The players spent Saturday doing mock interviews with a former NBA scout, getting NIL and long-term financial advice, hearing about the dangers of sports wagering from Stevin "Hedake" Smith on his high-profile downfall and getting more basketball insight from former pros Kent Bazemore and Okaro White and former New York Knicks general manager Scott Perry.

» SEASON TIX SELL OUT AGAIN

Coming off the best season in program history, Grand Canyon men's basketball season tickets sold out again as excitement ramped up for another season.

"We've been ready to get back in front of Lope Nation at Global Credit Union Arena since last season ended," said Lopes head coach Bryce Drew. "Our program is continually grateful for the support of the GCU campus and community, and we are excited to hear that season tickets are once again sold out. We're looking forward to being back with our fans in a few weeks."

The arena's 7,000-seat capacity is filled up by an excess of 3,650 season ticket holders, a Havocs student section regularly filled above 3,000 in addition to reserved blocks for GCU's spirit programs and pass lists.

Single-game tickets are available but typically are accompanied with a "standing-room only" disclaimer with the potential to be upgraded into reserved seats if season tickets are returned on a game-by-game basis. Additional single-game ticketing opportunities exist for games that GCU's students are on break.

» DREWS MEET FOR GCU, BAYLOR TEAMS

While Bryce Drew and Baylor head coach Scott Drew view the idea of a regular-season meeting as an excruciating concept to be avoided, the duo was agreeable to a charity exhibition prior to the 2024-25 season's tipoff.

With college basketball hall of fame father Homer Drew in attendance, GCU and Baylor squared off in Fort Worth on Oct. 12.

"This is an amazing game because I have a win no matter what happens, and I love seeing both sons coach," Homer said. "To see them together in the same gym and both of their teams playing is a special privilege. Thank God for the blessing that I am still here to see it."

With the help of AP Ranch founder Mike Dry wanting to honor the memory of Homer's wife and Bryce's and Scott's mother, Janet, the Lopes and Bears played a hurricane relief scrimmage in front of a select audience with the result kept a family secret.

Bryce and Scott worked the sidelines like locked-in mirror images in a regulation-length exhibition game that allowed the Lopes to test themselves against a Bears team that was ranked eighth in the AP preseason poll.

"It was great for our basketball team to play against a well-coached, quality basketball team that won 30 games last year, so we knew we'd get better from basketball," Scott said. "On a personal note to be able to have chapel with GCU beforehand, my brother-in-law, Casey, did an unbelievable job. My dad was able to be here to watch it all. Both teams got better. Nobody got hurt. It was a great day."

QUOTED

"Bryce Drew is working magic in the desert. After a 30-5 season and an upset over Saint Mary's in the NCAA tournament, the Lopes are looking to go even further. They've added JaKobe Coles (TCU), Makaih Williams (UT Arlington) and Dennis Evans (Louisville). Coles is a seasoned vet and Williams was the WAC Freshman of the Year. With this squad, the Sweet 16 is within reach."

- Dick Vitale, ESPN.com

"That combination of familiarity and experience could create a Cinderella run come March." - The Athletic

"Tyon Grant-Foster is a legitimate All-American candidate after averaging 20.1 points last season, and then going for 22 against Saint Mary's and 29 against Alabama in the NCAA tournament." - Jeff Borzello, ESPN.com

"The Lopes are on an upward trajectory and could make a return and pull off another upset. And Grant-Foster might have another (WAC POY) trophy to take home, too."

- Myron Medcalf, ESPN.com

"Bryce Drew's squad is capable of inflicting even more damage in March this time around. ... The Lopes have established one of the most ferocious home-court advantages in the sport and have asserted themselves as a premier college hoops brand out west." - Eli Boettger, Heat Check CBB

Bryce Drew is in his fifth season as Grand Canyon's men's basketball head coach in 2024-25 after being named the 14th head coach in program history prior to the 2020-21 campaign.

Drew has made the Lopes into an NCAA tournament mainstay with three trips in his first four seasons leading the program. He took things to the next level in 2023-24 by leading GCU to its first March Madness win with the 12th-seeded Lopes defeating fifth-seeded Saint Mary's.

Drew has taken all three programs he's been the head coach of to the NCAA Tournament including Valparaiso, Vanderbilt and GCU, and he got his first career tournament win while leading the Lopes.

GCU's best D-I season came on Drew's watch in 2023-24. The Lopes won their first outright WAC regular-season championship, won the WAC Tournament, won an NCAA tournament game and logged a 30-win season. The Lopes brought in DePaul transfer Tyon Grant-Foster, and he averaged a team-leading 20.1 points and was the first GCU player to win WAC Player of the Year. Drew was one of 15 late-season finalists for the Naismith Men's Coach of the Year award and was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches' District 6 Coach of the Year.

Drew wasted no time getting acclimated to GCU, leading the Lopes to their first appearance in the D-I NCAA tournament in his inaugural season. GCU won its first WAC regular-season title and its first WAC tournament title, advancing to March Madness for a date with No. 2 seeded Iowa. In a span of 12 months, Drew recruited new players (including WAC Newcomer of the Year Asbjørn Midtgaard), established a new culture and program identity and won a pair of WAC titles, all while facing various levels of practice restrictions and testing requirements due to COVID-19. GCU defeated Utah Valley to win its first regular-season title. GCU had a dominant run in the 2021 WAC tourney, defeating Seattle U and New Mexico State by a combined 52 points.

The Lopes were dancing again two years later. As the conference's No. 5 seed in the 2023 WAC Tournament, GCU made a tear through the bracket by winning four games in four days to return to March Madness. After tight wins over UT Arlington, Seattle U and Sam Houston, the Lopes defeated Southern Utah by 18 in the championship game to become the conference's lowest-seeded team to win the tournament since 2001. As a No. 14 seed, GCU was paired up against Gonzaga in Denver, falling by 12 to the Bulldogs.

Prior to GCU, Drew has had successful head coaching stops at his alma mater, Valparaiso, and at Vanderbilt, where he qualified for his third NCAA tournament visit as a head coach in 2017.

Drew averaged 25 wins per season at Valparaiso and won the Horizon League regular-season championship four times during his five-year tenure (2011-16). He led the Crusaders to their first NCAA tournament berth in nine years with 2013 and 2015 visits.

Drew moved to Vanderbilt to take on the SEC challenge in 2016 and coached his first Commodores team to five wins against top-25 teams and an NCAA Tournament berth. He came to the Phoenix area to land his first Vanderbilt recruit, Saben Lee, who starred in the 2019-20 season averaging 18.6 points.

In 2017, Drew assembled the greatest recruiting class in Vanderbilt history when he signed two five-star prospects. One of those players, Darius Garland, played only five games that season but was still drafted fifth overall by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the 2019 NBA Draft.

In 2019-20, Drew worked as an ESPN studio and game analyst, visited college and pro coaches and spent time with his family. Drew's Christian faith has been embedded in his life, as a Fellowship of Christian Athletes member, Athletes in Action player and a coach at faith-based universities.

Drew played six NBA seasons after being drafted 16th overall by the Houston Rockets in 1998, where he started 41 games in 2000-01. In 1999, the NBA awarded him with the Henry P. Iba Citizen Athlete Award for sportsmanship.

The 6-foot-3 point guard, who also played for the Chicago Bulls and New Orleans Hornets, was known for his perimeter shot (37% 3-point shooting) but he is most famous for "The Shot" he made in the 1998 NCAA tournament to lead the No. 13 seeded Valparaiso Crusaders over No. 4 seeded Ole Miss.

Drew comes from a basketball family and played for his dad Homer at Valparaiso. His brother Scott began his coaching career at Valparaiso in 2002 and has since turned the Baylor basketball program around with a 464-255 record in 22 seasons and a 2021 national championship. Drew's sister Dana was a Mid-American Conference Player of the Year at Toledo.

Drew and his wife, Tara, have one child: Bryson.

Global Credit Union Arena at Grand Canyon University is Phoenix's premier mid-sized indoor venue and serves as the primary home of Lopes men's and women's basketball and men's and women's volleyball teams as well as a wide assortment of university-sponsored and outside events.

The arena has provided the Lopes a definitive home-court advantage since opening its doors in 2011. With a seating capacity of 7,000 and a prime location on campus, the venue is regularly packed to the rafters with students and fans, providing an electric atmosphere ripe for success.

Since its opening, the GCU men's basketball team has been dominant in the arena, posting an overall record of 179-41 (.814), including seven seasons of at least 15 wins.

The men's basketball team posted its first perfect season in the arena in 2023-24, going 16-0.

Home attendance has tripled since the arrival of the arena, with a per-game average of over 7,100 fans coming through the doors in 2018-19. While crowds of over 7,000 used to represent milestones, it has become a common occurrence at Global Credit Union Arena as the Lopes rise to Division I prominence. All but two nonconference games were filled above the arena's 7,000-seat capacity in the 2018-19 season.

The facility originally broke ground in the summer of 2010 and was completed before the start of the following basketball season. It is owned and operated by the university.

The Havocs are some of the most dedicated and rowdy fans in all of collegiate sports. Often 3,000 students strong, they turn GCU athletic venues into some of the rowdiest environments in all of college sports.

Known for their constant energy, support and pride, the Havocs support and encourage GCU athletic teams, promote school spirit and build Lope pride.

Tabbed as the "Biggest Party in College Basketball," the Havocs bring the noise and excitement every game with different cheers and chants to give every team a competitive advantage when playing at home. In 2018, Global Credit Union Arena was ranked 22nd in the country for best college basketball atmospheres, and was quoted as "easily one of the rowdiest fan bases in the entire country."

The Havocs mission is to be the most spirited, energetic and disruptive student section in the country. Havocs strive to create the most unique game day experience in college basketball and a sense of camaraderie for all students.

The Havocs cheer at more than just home events, sending droves of students to rival New Mexico State and to the WAC Tournament in Las Vegas. The support has garnered national attention over the past five years including being featured on ESPN's Scott Van Pelt's SportsCenter show.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"In college basketball, in my 40-plus years, this was the toughest crowd I've ever faced. Awesome ... you've got something special here. Really special."

- Rick Pitino, Hall of Fame coach

"GCU created college basketball's rowdiest secret with stunning quickness ... home to possibly the best student section in college basketball. Duke has the Cameron Crazies. Kansas has the Phog. GCU has the Havocs."

- Andrew Joseph, USA Today

"This is not a college basketball game. It's a Miami nightclub in the desert."

- Myron Medcalf, ESPN.com

"The Havocs are the biggest party in college basketball." - SB Nation

NOTES

THIS SEASON

- » ACRISURE MVP: Coming off the bench, set new GCU point high with 14 in win over Stanford to be named game's MVP on Nov. 26.
- » EXHIBITION: Don't tell Makaih that GCU's Oct. 29 exhibition game didn't officially count. In his first game at Global Credit Union Arena, he finished second in points for GCU (17) and didn't miss a shot from the field (3 for 3 for 2s, 4 for 4 from 3).

OTHER NOTES

- » INTRA-WAC TRANSFER: Played his freshman season at UT Arlington and didn't leave the conference when he picked to transfer to GCU after entering the portal. Said it was initially difficult to conceive playing for GCU, a team that UTA played three contentious games against including the WAC Tournament championship game, but ultimately picked the Lopes: "It was a school I couldn't deny going to as far as the players, coaching staff, environment, fans, and location. It was the best fit for me."
- » TOP FROSH: Named the 2024 WAC Freshman of the Year after averaging 10.8 points per game and 12.9 in conference action.
- » COULDN'T STAY ON THE BENCH: Came off the bench in his first four collegiate games before earning a starting role for the final 30 games of UT Arlington's season.

NOTES

THIS SEASON

» ROOKIE SEASON: Was a late add to GCU's roster entering the 2024-25 campaign, officially signing in September.

OTHER NOTES

- » LEFTY LATELY: Switched from being a right-handed shooter his entire boyhood to shooting with his natural strong hand, the left, in 2022. "I wanted to shoot like my brother Cam when I was younger, so I was shooting with my wrong hand my whole life. My right-handed shot never felt natural. My left-hand shot feels natural."
- » BASKETBALL BLOODLINES: Father, mother and three older brothers all played college basketball. The family's headlining hooper is former Phoenix Sun and current Brooklyn Net Cam Johnson. Father, Gil, played at Pitt from 1988 to 1990. Mother, Amy Schuler, played at Kent State from 1983 to 1986. Oldest brother, Aaron, played at Clarion (Pa.) from 2012 to 2015. Cam played at Pitt and North Carolina and was the 11th pick in the 2019 NBA Draft. Older brother, Puff, played at North Carolina and is now playing at Penn State.
- » GCU DREAMIN': When brother, Puff, considered GCU when he was in the transfer portal in 2023, Braylon became increasingly attached to the idea of being a Lope and ascended his game to become part of the program. "GCU was the place I always wanted to go."

THIS SEASON

» ON THE MEND: Rehabbing from offseason hip surgery prior to 2024-25.

OTHER NOTES

- » IN THE BOOKS: Recorded first college point, rebound, assist, free throw and 3-pointer in 12 minutes of action in a win over Bethesda on Dec. 27, 2023.
- » CONNECTION WITH BRENNAN: Flagg was born in Tuba City, Arizona, where his father, Earl, was a high school coach before the family moved to Chandler. Brennan and Flagg formed a brother-like relationship as high school teammates and with Flagg's father training them. Both were on Arizona State roster in 2022-23 season and transferred to GCU together.
- » BLOODLINES: Flagg was born on the Navajo reservation (the largest federally recognized tribe in the United States) before the family moved to Chandler when he was 2 years old. Makes frequent visits to reservation to visit family. His tattoos are a nod to his heritage, telling TheSunDevils.com, "I wear an arm sleeve on my left arm and make a purpose to leave out the four symbols. The four symbols mean strength, courage, prosperity, and change. Those four things mean a lot to me."

NOTES

THIS SEASON

» FIRST POINTS: Scored first Division I bucket in the final moments of a Dec. 7 win over Life Pacific to loud applause from Havocs.

OTHER NOTES

- » SCHOOL CLOSURE: Lands at GCU after his college of five years, St. Katherine (NAIA school in San Marcos, Calif.), closed its doors in April. "When the school shut down, it was a traumatic ending. A lot of emotions were flying. We didn't know if we were going to graduate. We didn't know if we were going to get a diploma. I just kept my faith in God, and I always knew that there would be a home for my last year, and I'm thankful to be here at GCU as a walk-on."
- » COLORADO RIVER INDIAN TRIBE: Member of the tribe, growing up on Arizona's western border in Parker. He is Navajo/Mohave, finding commonality with new teammate Malcolm Flaggs who is also Navajo. "Coming where I came from, a small Indian reservation, to playing at Division I is monumental. It's definitely an exciting thing, and I can't be more grateful."
- » FUTURE COACH: Received his degree in kinesiology and exercise science. He wants to use his GCU year to help him pursue a career in basketball coaching, either on the bench or with off-court performance training.
