GENEVA GAME NOTES

-- Sophomore quarterback Brutus Ogilvie had his best day as a Golden Tornado on Saturday. He rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown and threw for 149 yards and a touchdown, both career highs. He was named both the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) and the Presidents’ Athletic Conference (PAC) Offensive Player of the Week for his performance.

-- Junior wide receiver Hilton McClain Jr. also had the best day of his career against Allegheny. McClain, one of the fastest players in the conference, got behind the Allegheny defense twice and hauled in 38-yard and 71-yard touchdown passes on his way to 149 yards and 2 TDs. McClain is also dangerous in the return game. He leads NCAA Division III with 516 kickoff return yards, and he is 11th in NCAA Division III with 827 all-purpose yards.

-- Junior punter Eduardo Santiago also had a strong day for Geneva, earning PAC Special Teams Player of the Week after he booted a career-best 56-yard punt while having three punts downed at the 1-yard line.

-- Junior Damian Lomeli picked off his fourth pass of the season at Allegheny, which leads the PAC. It was a key turnover, coming midway through the fourth quarter in the Geneva endzone as Allegheny was close to cutting the Geneva lead down to one score.

-- Geneva’s offense is now averaging 239.2 yards rushing, second in the PAC by six yards to Grove City. That total is 15th in NCAA Division III.

-- Senior linebacker Nicolas Ottaviani leads Geneva with 41 tackles, tied for third in the PAC. Sophomore linebacker Gabe Trexler returned against Allegheny after missing the prior two games with an injury, and he led the team with a career-high 13 tackles.

-- Freshman running back Logan Kent had a career-high 100 yards rushing, along with a TD, against Allegheny. He is now averaging 7.4 yards per carry on 31 carries this season.

SAINT VINCENT GAME NOTES

-- Senior Brady Walker is now a three-year starter for the Bearcats, having been named an Honorable Mention All-PAC selection the past two seasons. He now holds the career completion record at Saint Vincent, breaking Head Coach Aaron Smetanka’s record. He had a season-best 268 yards against Case Western Reserve last week.

-- Sophomore running back D.J. Gray Jr. has handled almost all the load out of the backfield for the Bearcats this season. Gray, who wasn’t on the roster last year, has carried the ball 76 times for 350 yards (4.6 ypc) and three touchdowns. No one else on the roster has more than 17 carries. In fact, the Bearcats are last in the PAC in rushing per game, averaging just 67.0 yards per game. Saint Vincent has run the ball just 121 times this season, 20 less rushes than the next nearest PAC school. Geneva, by comparison, has rushed 285 times.

-- Saint Vincent’s most dangerous weapon offensively is junior Molayo Irefin. Irefin has 30 catches, more than double anyone else on the team, to go with 289 yards receiving and two touchdowns. Last season he was a Second Team All-PAC selection as he set the Bearcat single season receiving record with 919 yards. He led the PAC with 1,503 all-purpose yards, as he is also a threat in the return game. Irefin returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown in the season-opener against Stevenson.

-- Saint Vincent is averaging 262.0 yards of offense per game and 18.8 points per game, both totals ninth in the PAC.

-- Defensively, Saint Vincent is tied with Geneva in giving up 36.0 points per game, ninth in the PAC.

-- The Bearcats opened the season with three home games and finish the season with two home games. In between Saint Vincent plays one home game in five, and this game is the one home game in that middle stretch.
