GAME OVERVIEW

Geneva suffered its first PAC loss of the season on Saturday night at home against Grove City, while Thiel enters Saturday's game off its bye last week. Despite the loss to Grove City, Geneva continues to find success through the air. Junior quarterback Caleb Romano is sixth in NCAA Division III averaging 338 yards passing per game. Thiel is still trying to find success this season after a tough start to the year. The Tomcats scored just eight total points in their first three games before scoring 14 points in their last game against Waynesburg. Thiel has also given up 43 points per game. A Geneva victory would equal its best start in conference play since joining the PAC in 2011. Geneva has won the last nine matchups in this series.

GENEVA GAME NOTES

-- Geneva suffered its first PAC loss of the season on Saturday against Grove City. The game was a defensive struggle most of the game, but the Wolverines put the game away with a couple second half scores. The Golden Tornado offense moved the ball well, particularly through the air, but multiple drives stalled in Grove City territory. In total, Geneva had seven drives into Wolverine territory but managed just three points on those drives due to a combination of interceptions, a missed field goal, turnover on downs, and a couple sacks that forced punts.

-- Junior quarterback Caleb Romano passed for 335 yards and a touchdown in the Grove City game. He's now averaging 338.2 yards per game passing, which is sixth in all of NCAA Division III. He's also thrown for 16 passing touchdowns, which is tied for fourth in all of NCAA Division III. Geneva's aerial success this season is a remarkable change from the run heavy offense the Golden Tornadoes utilized over the past eight seasons in the triple option attack.

-- Geneva has four primary receivers this year, and three of those receivers have at least 22 catches, at least 360 yards and at least three touchdown passes. Senior Keaton Baker leads the team with 587 yards receiving on 29 catches, as well as a team-high seven touchdowns. His 587 receiving yards are fourth in Division III, and his seven receiving touchdowns are tied for fourth in Division III. Senior Seth Tyson leads the team with 36 catches.

-- The Geneva defense posted a number of individual career highs in tackles against Grove City, as the Wolverines used a steady diet of inside runs to keep the ball moving. Senior linebacker Reed Gordon totaled 18 tackles, senior linebacker Nicholas Ciriello and sophomore defensive back Noah Hutcherson posted 16 stops apiece, and junior defensive end Coltin Hill finished with 10 tackles. Ciriello leads the team with 58 tackles this year, second in the PAC, while Gordon has 52 stops, third in the PAC. Ciriello is second in the PAC with 7.0 TFLs.

-- After allowing just three sacks over the prior three games, the Geneva offensive line had its hands full on Saturday with Grove City All-American linebacker Ben Bladel. The Wolverines finished with six sacks, four coming from Bladel, earning the linebacker PAC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

THIEL GAME NOTES

-- This has been a challenging start to the season for Thiel. The Tomcats were coming off an encouraging 3-7 season in 2024, including two wins in their last three games. In fact, Thiel won a combined six games over the 2023 through 2024 seasons, which was four more than the previous five seasons combined. That success hasn't translated over to the 2025 season yet, though.

-- Thiel's offense has had some struggles scoring points. The Tomcats suffered back-to-back shutouts against Adrian Allegheny before scoring two touchdowns in 45-14 loss to Waynesburg two Saturdays ago during Thiel's Homecoming. The Tomcats had their bye week last Saturday.

-- Senior running back Deon Logan was Thiel's top returning offensive player, and he's been solid again this year with 53 carries for 220 yards (4.2 ypc) to go with all three of Thiel's touchdowns this year. His 85-yard touchdown run against Waynesburg was the longest touchdown run in program history.

-- The Tomcats are still looking to find success in the passing game. Thiel has used three different quarterbacks at various times. Freshman Na'Jier Howard has seen most of the work, but he did not play in Thiel's last game. Junior Joseph Fell got the start against Waynesburg. In total, the Tomcats have passed for just 306 yards over their four games, and Thiel has yet to secure a passing touchdown, while throwing ten interceptions.

-- Junior defensive back Devin Long leads the Tomcats with 35 tackles. Sophomore Chris Bloomfield has a team-best 4.0 TFLs.

-- The Tomcats will be honoring their 2005 football team that went a perfect 10-0 in the regular season, including three overtime wins. That team defeated Johns Hopkins in the opening round of the Division III playoffs before falling to Bridgewater.

LAST MEETING

Geneva hosted Thiel last year in Geneva's home opener. Thiel opened the scoring with a long touchdown pass in the first quarter, but those proved to be the only points the Tomcats. Geneva scored two touchdowns in the second quarter on a touchdown pass from Caleb Romano to Seth Tyson and on a touchdown run from David Reid. The second half was a defensive struggle, and fittingly the Golden Tornadoes sealed the win in the fourth quarter with a defensive touchdown when Ariel Pierre picked off a pass with eight minutes remaining and raced 46 yards up the sideline for a score. Thiel gained most of its yardage through the air, while Geneva countered with 241 yards rushing behind a career high 106 yards rushing from Landon Smith. The win was Geneva's ninth straight win in the series.
