GEORGE MASON

The Patriots finished the 2025 season with an overall record of 36-19, including a mark of 20-10 in Atlantic 10 Conference play. The Patriots went 20-5 at home, 14-13 on the road and 2-1 in games played at a neutral site.

The Patriots' 20 wins in A-10 play are the most for the program since joining the league in 2014 and the most in conference play since 2004 (20-4 record in the CAA).

The 20 wins at Spuhler Field were the most for George Mason since the 2009 season, when the Patriots went 28-6 at home.

George Mason has 16 returners and added 21 newcomers on the roster under Shawn Camp, who is in his third year as the head coach of the Patriots.

The Patriots added 21 new players, with 13 freshman, one junior and four graduate students who are entered their first year at George Mason.

Mason has made eight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2023 (1985, 1988, 1992, 1993, 2004, 2009, 2014, 2023). In 2014, the Patriots won the Atlantic 10 title in their first year in the conference and advanced to the Houston Regional in the NCAA Tournament. In 2023, George Mason won the conference tournament and advanced to the Winston-Salem Regional. The Patriots advanced to the NCAA Winston-Salem Regional Final, the first time in program history that Mason reached a regional final. The Patriots defeated Northeastern and Maryland to win two games in a regional for the first time in school history.

Last season, the Patriots stole 109 bases (109-147), the second straight year that they have eclipsed the century mark. In 2023, the Patriots finished the season third in Division I in stolen bases (164 in 63 games), setting a new program record.

The George Mason baseball team played a 55-game slate that included 30 contests against Atlantic 10 Conference rivals, 25 games at Spuhler Field, 12 games against six opposing teams that earned a NCAA Regional appearance and two games against opponents that advanced to the College World Series last season.

NEW ADDITIONS THIS SEASON

The Patriots added 21 new players, with 13 freshman, one junior and four graduate students entering their first year at George Mason.

New pitchers joining the Patriots are graduate students Ryan Ament (LHP), Daniel Elliott (RHP), Loudon Hilliard (RHP), Sam Lavin (RHP), Gardner Meeks (RHP) and Connor O'Hara (RHP), junior Brandon Cassedy (RHP) and freshmen Michael Bilo (RHP), Jake Drumm (RHP) and Michael Madigan (LHP).

New position players include two graduate students, catcher Nick Barenz and infielder Jonny Wall. Juniors include infielder Owen Clyne, outfielders Lucas Alberti, Drew Canody and Laken Tignor, and catcher Garrett Pancione.

Freshmen position players embarking on their rookie year are infielders Ty Tomlinson and Jake Stanley, outfielder Tripp Capers and catcher Andrew Raymond.

FAMILIAR FACES

Pitcher Britt Yount is the lone senior on the club. The junior class includes pitchers Owen Stewart (RHP), Connor Knox (RHP) and Logan Rumberg (RHP), infielder Evan Blanchard and outfielder James Quinn-Irons.

Sophomores returning for their second year with the Green and Gold are pitchers Ty Uchman (LHP), Brandt Ertel (RHP), Ryan Edmonds (RHP), Dylan McCarthy (RHP), Cole Egan (LHP) and Shaun Okeeffe (RHP) along with outfielder Jake Kozlowski.

A-10 BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

In the 2023 A-10 Baseball Championship, the Patriots (35-24, 13-10 A10) went 5-1, including three elimination game victories to claim the title for the second time in program history.

The #6 Patriots defeated #3 Dayton, 5-4, in 11 innings in day one (May 23) and downed #2 Davidson, 15-11, on day two (May 25). After an off-day, Mason fell to #4 Saint Louis, 6-5 (May 26) and came back to beat #3 Dayton in an elimination game, 3-2 to advance to the Championship Final.

On Saturday, May 27, the Patriots beat #4 Saint Louis, 4-1 and 6-2, to win claim the tournament title at The Diamond in Richmond, Va.

George Mason has completed in the Atlantic 10 Championship four times in the last eight seasons and five times in program history. The Patriots won the A-10 title in their inaugural season in the conference in 2014.

RUNNING WILD

The Patriots have 149 stolen bases this season (149-187). Sophomore utility player Owen Hull has set the program record for stolen bases in a season with 38 (39-44).

The Patriots finished the 2023 season third in Division I in stolen bases (164 in 63 games), setting a new program record, eclipsing the school record that held for 21 years. The previous mark of 118 stolen bases was set during the 2002 season. Nationally, infielder/outfielder South Trimble finished tied for 27th in the nation in stolen bases and outfielder Derek Wood tied for 31st during the 2023 campaign.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

The Patriots made their eighth NCAA Tournament appearance (1985, 1988, 1992, 1993, 2004, 2009, 2014, 2023). Mason has played in the South Regional (1985), East Regional (1988, 1992), West Regional (1993), Charlottesville Regional (2004), Greenville Regional (2009), Houston Regional (2014) and Winston-Salem Regional (2023).

Mason defeated Northeastern and Maryland in the 2023 NCAA Winston-Salem Regional, winning two games in a regional for the first time in program history.

NCAA RECORD 23-RUN INNING

The Patriots broke the NCAA Division I record for runs in an inning, scoring 23 times in the bottom of the second in a 26-6 win over Holy Cross in seven innings on Tuesday afternoon at Spuhler Field.

The previous Division I record for most runs in an inning had stood for nearly 42 years. The record of 21 runs in an inning was set by the University of Pennsylvania in 1983 and again by Wichita State in 1984.

In the inning, 19 consecutive batters reached base. The Patriots had 11 hits (six singles and five doubles), eight walks and five hit batters against five Crusaders pitchers.

In the record-breaking inning, freshman catcher Andrew Raymond doubled, walked, drove in three runs and scored three runs. Junior shortstop Owen Clyne doubled, walked, drove in a run and scored twice. Graduate student first baseman Jonny Wall singled, walked twice, drove in a run and scored three runs. Junior third baseman Evan Blanchard had two hits with a double and single, was hit by a pitch, drove in a run and scored three runs. Junior right fielder Drew Canody singled, walked, was hit by a pitch, drove in two runs and scored two runs. Freshman left fielder Lucas Alberti doubled, walked twice, drove in three runs and scored three runs. Sophomore designated hitter Owen Hull had two hits with a double and single, walked, drove in four runs and scored twice. Junior center fielder James Quinn-Irons had two singles, was hit by a pitch, drove in three runs and scored two runs. Sophomore second baseman Jake Butler, who started and ended the inning, was hit by a pitch twice and scored two runs.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

George Mason finished with a mark of 20-5 at Spuhler Field this season, the most home wins for the program since joining the Atlantic 10 and the most wins at "The Hap" since the club went 28-6 at home during the 2009 season as a member of the CAA. The Patriots won seven games on its season-high, eight game homestand Feb. 21 through March 4. The Patriots won two-of-three against Saint Peter's, taking the opener, 17-2 (7) and the finale, 14-4 (7). George Mason then defeated William & Mary, 12-1 (7), swept three-games from Monmouth by final scores of 9-3, 12-11 and 16-2 and downed Holy Cross, 26-6 (7).

The Patriots had three-game home sweeps this season against Monmouth (Feb. 28-March 2) by final scores of 9-3, 12-11 and 16-2, Saint Louis (April 4-5) by final scores of 7-5, 7-2 and 8-6 (10) and Saint Joseph's (May 2-4) by final scores of 6-2, 4-3 and 9-1.

George Mason didn't lose consecutive games at home until the final two games of the regular season to Fordham by final scores of 13-3 and 5-2.

WINNING STREAKS

George Mason has had four winning streaks this season of at least five games. The Patriots won nine straight games Feb. 23 through March 9 and outscored opponents by a combined 122-38. It's the longest winning streak for the Patriots since a 10-game streak March 6-18, 2009.

The Patriots have won five in a row four times this season (March 15-22, April 4-12 and May 2-9).

A-10 WEEKLY HONORS

FEB. 24 -- Junior outfielder James Quinn-Irons was named Atlantic 10 Player of the Week and freshman catcher Andrew Raymond was selected Rookie of the Week for the week ending Feb. 23.

Quinn-Irons, from Reston, Va., hit .667 (12-for-18) with two home runs, four doubles, 11 RBI and 10 runs scored over four starts in center field last week. He posted a slash line of .667 / .684 / 1.222 and notched at least one extra-base hit in three of the four games.

In the Patriots' midweek game against Georgetown on Tuesday, Feb. 18, Quinn-Irons was 5-for-6 with a pair of doubles, five RBI and four runs scored. In the series finale against Saint Peter's on Sunday, Feb. 23, he went 3-for-5 with a pair of two-run home runs.

FEB. 24 -- George Mason freshman catcher Andrew Raymond, from Middletown, Md., batted .500 with three doubles, two home runs, eight RBI and four runs scored in four games with three starts behind the plate. He recorded a slash line of .500 / .571 / 1.250.

Raymond hit his first two NCAA home runs and went 3-for-4 with four RBI and three runs scored in his home debut on Friday, Feb. 21 against Saint Peter's. He homered in consecutive plate appearances in the third and fifth inning. Raymond had at least one extra-base hit in all three games of the series against Saint Peter's.

MARCH 10 -- Junior center fielder James Quinn-Irons earned the honor for the second time this season for the week March 3-9. The Reston, Va. native went 11-for-16 at the plate over four games to help the Patriots extend their winning streak to nine games.

In George Mason's NCAA record-setting game against Holy Cross, Quinn-Irons was 3-for-4 with a double, four RBI and two runs scored. The Patriots set the NCAA Division I record for most runs in an inning with 23 in the bottom of the second against Holy Cross.

Quinn-Irons had three multi-hit games with his sixth home run of the season, six RBI and seven runs scored in three weekend games at the DMV Classic held at Capital One Park in Tysons, Va.

Quinn-Irons finished the week with 10 RBI, one double, one triple, a home run, nine runs scored and three walks.

MARCH 17 -- George Mason graduate student starting pitcher Connor O'Hara was named Atlantic 10 Pitcher of the Week, the league announced on Monday.

O'Hara, from Davie, Fla., tossed a complete-game five hitter, all singles, in the Patriots 8-0 win over Dayton in the first game of a doubleheader on Saturday, March 15 at Spuhler Field. It was his second complete game of the season. O'Hara struck out six and walked just one and faced only 33 batters in the outing. He didn't allow more than one baserunner in the first seven innings, and only allowed three runners to second base in the game.

APRIL 28 -- George Mason junior center fielder Jame Quinn-Irons was named the A-10 Player of the Week for the third time this season for the week of April 21 to 27. The Reston, Va., native led the Patriots to a decisive 2-1 series win over Rhode Island to claim the top spot in the A-10 standings for the weekend, going 5-for-10 with six RBI, five runs scored, one home run, three stolen bases and one triple. His highligh performance over the weekend was a 1.000 batting performance in Friday's walk-off win.

Quinn-Irons' bat came alive in the team's 16-3 win over Mount St. Mary's last Tuesday, going 4-fo-5 with two home runs, five RBI, three runs scored and three stolen bases.

The junior outfielder plated at least two RBI in all four games in that week; he led the Patriot squad in slugging (1.333), runs scored (8), triples (1), home runs (3), RBI (11) and stolen bases (6).

MAY 5 -- George Mason junior pitcher Brandon Cassedy was named the A-10 Pitcher of the Week for the week of April 29 to May 4. It was the starting pitcher's first weekly conference award of the season. Cassedy pitched six scoreless innings and won his sixth game of the season in his Sunday start to complete the weekend series sweep against Saint Joseph's. The Manassas, Va., native held the Hawks to a .158 opposing batting average, struck out five batters and only allowed three hits.

He won his fourth win in six starts, with the other two being no-decisions.

MAY 12 -- George Mason freshman outfielder Lucas Alberti went 9-for-18 with his first career grand slam, 10 RBI, four runs scored, three walks and three stolen bases. He had four multi-hit games and drove in at least one run in every game. Alberti went 3-for-5 with a grand slam and six RBI in the series opener at Davidson in a 15-7 win and was 2-for-4 with three stolen bases in the middle game of the series. He extended his hitting streak to 12 games and hit .500 over four games during the week.

George Mason junior starter Brandon Cassedy scattered five hits over 7.1 shutout innings to improve to 7-1 on the season in the Patriots 6-2 win over Davidson on Sunday. He struck out a season-high nine batters and walked just one. Cassedy retired 12 of the first 13 batters he faced in the game and allowed just one runner into scoring position in the outing.

NCAA LEADERS

Among NCAA leaders (as of May 19), the Patriots are fourth in the nation in sacrifice bunts (60), fifth in batting average (.328), seventh in on-base percentage (.434), eighth in hits (611) and 12th in runs scored (479).

Junior center fielder James Quinn-Irons is third in the nation in RBI (78), seventh in hits (89), 13th in total bases (157), 14th in batting average (.410) and doubles (22), 16th in on-base percentage (.515), 26th in runs scored (67) and 41st in slugging percentage (.724).

Sophomore utility player Owen Hull is seventh in the country in runs scored (75), ninth in stolen bases (39), 29th in hits (81) and 45th in batting average (.382).

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

Junior center fielder James Quinn-Irons has been named one of the 25 semifinalists for the 47th Golden Spikes Award, USA Baseball announced Sunday afternoon.

Quinn-Irons is the first Golden Spikes Award semifinalist in George Mason baseball program history. The award is given annually to the best amateur baseball player in the nation.

With this nomination, Quinn-Irons becomes only the third Atlantic 10 player to be named a semifinalist. The previous two were pitchers Matt Mikulski of Fordham in 2021 and Adam Mills of Charlotte in 2007.

Twenty-three different schools are represented in this year's semifinalist group. Georgia Tech and Florida State are the only schools that have two semifinalists.

"With another terrific amateur baseball season nearing the finish line, we are thrilled to honor the twenty-five best players in the country as Golden Spikes Award semifinalists," said USA Baseball CEO/Executive Director Paul Seiler. "These athletes have put together tremendous seasons and are extremely deserving of this honor. We are excited to watch the remainder of season and to name the forty-seventh winner of the Golden Spikes Award next month."

Quinn-Irons started all 55 games in George Mason's regular season and had a batting average of .410 (89-for-217). He led the team in hits (89), doubles, (22), home runs (14) and RBI (78), is second in runs scored (67) and stolen bases (28-34) and third in walks (35).

In his junior season campaign, the Reston, Va., native had 27 multi-hit games, 24 multi-RBI games and two multi-home run games.

He was a three-time Atlantic 10 Player of the Week, the most of any player in the league. In overall stats, he led the conference in OPS (1.239), doubles (22) and total bases (157). He was second in batting average (.410), hits, (89), RBI (78) and on-base percentage (.515) and was fourth in slugging percentage (.724).

Among NCAA leaders (as of May 19), Quinn-Irons is third in the nation in RBI (78), seventh in hits (89) 13th in total bases (157), 14th in batting average (.410) and doubles (22), 16th in on-base percentage (.515), 26th in runs scored (67) and 41st in slugging percentage (.724).

Shawn Camp enters his sixth season overall and third as head coach of George Mason baseball for the 2025 season.

In 2024, the Patriots finished the season with a 21-32 overall record, including a mark of 7-17 in Atlantic 10 play. George Mason went 17-10 at home, 3-17 on the road and 1-5 in games played at a neutral site.

In 2023, Camp guided the Patriots to a 36-27 overall record, including a mark of 13-10 against Atlantic 10 opponents in his first season as the skipper of the Patriots. Mason went 15-11 at home, 14-11 on the road and 7-5 in games played at a neutral site.

The sixth-seeded Patriots went 5-1 at the 2023 Atlantic 10 Baseball Championships held at The Diamond in Richmond, Va., including three elimination game victories to claim the league title for the second time in program history. Mason last won the A-10 title in its inaugural season in the conference in 2014. Camp led Mason to its eighth NCAA Tournament appearance and first since 2014. The Patriots defeated Northeastern and Maryland in the Winston-Salem NCAA Regional and advanced to the Regional Final for the first time in program history. Mason won two games in one NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

The Patriots defeated the Huskies, 11-3, and downed the Terrapins, 11-10. The 11 runs against Maryland were the most that the Patriots have scored in a NCAA Tournament game in program history, eclipsing the previous high in the 1992 East Regional in a 10-2 win over Rider in Gainesville, Fla.

Starting pitcher Chad Gartland, reliever Owen Stewart, catcher Connor Dykstra and outfielder Alex Knapp were selected to the Winston-Salem Regional All-Tournament Team. Gartland was named Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Year and selected to the A-10 All-Championship Team.

Mason recorded 36 wins on the season, the most for the program since 2009. The Patriots also set a new program single-season records for stolen bases (164) and strikeouts (516). Starting pitcher Ben Shields finished the season tied for 31st in the nation in strikeouts (107). Among NCAA stolen base leaders, infielder/outfielder South Trimble tied for 27th (30) and outfielder Derek Wood tied for 31st (29). The Mason pitching staff finished first in the Atlantic 10 Conference in ERA (5.02) and saves (15) while posting the lowest opponent batting average (.258) in school history. The Patriots pitching staff also set single-season program records for strikeouts (516) and strikeouts per nine innings (8.36). The team dropped the overall ERA from 6.44 in 2022 to 5.02 in 2023.

The Patriots won 13 of their final 19 games of the regular season in 2023, with six of the victories by one run. Including the NCAA Tournament, Mason won 20 of its last 26 games of the season.

Camp joined the Patriots as assistant/pitching coach for the 2020 and 2021 seasons, and was elevated to associate head coach for the 2022 season.

The Patriots finished the 2022 campaign with a 23-33 overall record and a 13-11 record in Atlantic 10 play. Mason qualified for the A-10 Baseball Championship and went on to defeat Rhode Island, 7-3, in the opening round.

Under Camp's direction, senior pitcher Jared Lyons became the 47th player in program history selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, when he was selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 14th round of the 2022 MLB Draft.

The baseball team produced off the field as well, earning a 3.08 GPA for the 2021-22 academic year. Ten players made the Dean's List and 19 student-athletes earned the A-10 Commissioner's Award in Spring 2022.

The Patriots finished the 2021 season with a 14-29 overall record. Junior pitcher Jared Lyons was named Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team starting pitcher, A-10 All-Academic Team and Virginia Sports Information Directors (VaSID) All-State Second Team starting pitcher. Lyons became the first Mason baseball player to earn A-10 First Team and All-Academic honors in the same season since the Patriots joined the league in 2014. He finished the season 6-2 with a 3.73 ERA and among A-10 leaders during the 2021 season, ranked second in lowest opponent batting average (.192), tied for third in wins (6), fourth in both innings pitched (72.1) and strikeouts (76), and eighth in ERA (3.73).

The Patriots 2020 season was canceled after 15 games due to the Covid-19 virus.

Camp, a Fairfax native, was a catcher in high school at James W. Robinson and converted to a pitcher while at Mason. He played for the Patriots from 1995 through 1997.

Camp was selected in the 16th round of the 1997 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres and played professionally from 1997-2014 for nine different organizations.

In his 11 seasons in the majors, Camp appeared in 541 major league games for the Kansas City Royals, Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Toronto Blue Jays, Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies. He finished his MLB career with a 29-33 record, 12 saves and compiled 405 career strikeouts.

During the 2012 season, Camp led the MLB with a career-high 80 appearances for the Cubs.

"Coach Brown was a huge influence on my career as a young athlete and taught me from an early age the importance of hard work and dedication to the game of baseball," Camp said. "I was truly blessed to play 18 years of professional baseball and spend 11 seasons in the Major Leagues. With my experience in the game and to be able to teach collegiate players the lessons I learned is something I am looking forward to."

Camp ranks among the top-15 in Mason program history in numerous categories. He holds Mason all-time record for strikeouts per nine innings (9.21), is tied for sixth in lowest opponent batting average (.258) and is tied for eighth in saves (7). Camp also ranks ninth in Mason program history in both winning percentage (.636) and complete games (7), 11th in strikeouts (175), 14th in wins (15) and 15th in appearances (53).

Camp went 6-2 for the Patriots during the 1996 season and holds Mason's single-season record for winning percentage (.750) and is fourth on the all-time list in strikeouts per nine innings (10.6). His 78 strikeouts during the 1997 season are tied for the seventh-most in a single season in program history.

The Shawn Camp Baseball Academy has developed numerous players that have gone on to play collegiately and professionally, including Jake Agnos and Nick Wells.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tyler Nelin enters his second year as assistant coach for the 2025 season.

Nelin is responsible for instructing the hitters, coaching the catchers and other defensive positions.

Nelin spent the last year and a half as an assistant coach at Lehigh University. As the hitting coach of the Mountain Hawks in 2023, Lehigh broke a school record for home runs (54) in a season and had the highest team batting average in program history (.298).

The Mountain Hawks finished the season with 504 hits, averaging 10 hits per game and scored 336 runs, averaging over six runs per game. Nelin guided three All-Patriot League selections, Casey Rother (First Team) and Dom Patrizi and Joe Gorla (Second Team).

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Nelin spent three years as a volunteer assistant (2018-21) and one year as a graduate assistant at George Mason (2022) while earning his Master's Degree in Sports Management.

Nelin was a member of the of the George Mason baseball program as a player from 2015-2018 and helped the club reach the Atlantic 10 Conference Championship Game his senior year.

In 200 games with 198 starts for the Patriots over his four-year career (2015-18) as a catcher/outfielder, Nelin finished with 211 hits, 19 home runs and 104 RBI. He recorded the 200th hit of his career against Towson on May 2, 2018 at Scherholz Park in Towson, Md.

The Virginia Beach, Va. native was selected Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team in 2017 and 2018.

Nelin ranks in the top-20 in program history in six categories. He is tied for second in hit by pitch (48), tied for fourth in fielding percentage (.989), ninth in starts (198), tied for 11th in games played (200), 12th in at-bats (732), 13th in plate appearances (854) and ranks 18th in hits (211).

Among program leaders, Nelin also finished his Mason career 16th in most putouts (683), 21st in doubles (40) and total bases (310), tied for 26th in home runs (19), 26th in walks (74), tied for 31st in runs scored (111) and 36th in RBI (104).

Selected to the Atlantic 10 All-Conference Second Team for the second straight year after the 2018 season, Nelin started 44 games and finished with a career-best .313 average while ranking third on the team in hits (52) and was fourth in doubles (10) his senior year.

In 2017, Nelin led the Patriots with a career-high 59 games played with 58 starts and finished the season with a .296 average, 10 home runs and 40 RBI. He posted career-highs with 64 hits, 10 home runs and 40 RBI. He led the team in hits (64), home runs (10), doubles (15), slugging percentage (.514) and total bases (111). Nelin's 15 doubles ranked second in the Atlantic 10 and he was also second in the conference in hit by pitch (15).

In 2016, Nelin played in 53 of 54 games with 53 starts and finished the season with a .254 batting average, four home runs and 20 RBI. He ranked second on the team in extra-base hits (12), walks (23) total hits (47) and total bases (67). In 2015, Nelin made 43 starts as a freshman and finished with a .291 batting average with five home runs and 27 RBI.

Tommy Winterstein enters his first year as pitching coach for the Patriots for the 2025 season.

Winterstein joins the Patriots after spending the 2024 season on the staff at the University of Dayton. Last season, he helped lead the Flyers to their most wins in a season since 2009. Dayton ranked fourth in the Atlantic 10 Conference in strikeouts and fifth in ERA.

Under the guidance of Winterstein, pitcher Nick Wissman became the first Flyer in program history to earn Atlantic 10 Pitcher of the Year honors. Wissman was also selected A-10 First Team Relief Pitcher and to the conference All-Academic Team and became Dayton's first two-time All-American pitcher. He finished the season 11-1, one victory off the all-time Flyers record for wins in a season, notched seven saves, posted a 2.93 ERA and struck out 64 batters in his 25 appearances. A total of six Flyers were recognized on All-Conference and All-Academic Teams last season.

Prior to his stint with the Flyers, Winterstein spent two seasons (2021-23) as the pitching coach at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla. As one of the top prep schools in the country, Winterstein worked as the post-graduate level pitching coordinator. The team won 33 games in 2022 and held a .692 winning percentage in 2023. In his tenure, numerous players went on to pitch at the Division I level and seven were selected in the MLB Draft. Winterstein also worked with current minor league and major league pitchers during the off season and leading up to spring training.

Winterstein was the pitching coach for two seasons at the University of Toledo (2020-21) where his pitching staff set the single-season record for strikeouts (403) in 2021 while also tripling its conference wins to leap from last place to 4th place in the MAC standings. He also mentored the 2021 MAC Player of the Year, a pitcher/first baseman drafted by the Detroit Tigers in the fifth round. While with the Rockets, Winterstein developed five pitchers who went on to play professionally, including seventh round and 17th round draft picks in the MLB Draft.

Winterstein also spent three seasons at Western Kentucky (2017-19) as the program's volunteer assistant coach and camp director, where he helped lead the Hilltoppers to their first ever Conference USA Tournament appearance in 2019. In addition to his pitching duties, he assisted with catchers and outfielders. The Hilltoppers boasted an All-American outfielder and Conference USA's first triple crown winner, who was selected by the New York Yankees in the third round of the 2019 MLB Draft. Winterstein helped develop a Johnny Bench Award Finalist in each of his three years, served as the assistant to the strength and conditioning coach and led all workouts while the team was on the road. During his time at Western Kentucky, he coached three pitchers who went on to play professionally, including a 10th round draft pick of the Los Angeles Angels in the 2018 MLB Draft. As camp director, Winterstein set new attendance records in each year he was there.

Winterstein graduated from Charleston Southern University where he began his coaching career as a student assistant as well as the Director of Player Development for the 2016 season upon graduation. While with the Buccaneers, he helped produce a 17th round selection by the Chicago Cubs in the 2017 MLB Draft.

As a former two-way division one baseball player, Tommy Winterstein joins the Patriot's baseball program with 12 years of college baseball experience.

Evan "Rusty" Duhon enters his second year as assistant coach for the 2025 season.

Before joining the Patriots, Duhon spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Queens University of Charlotte, N.C. During his time at Queens, Duhon worked with the hitters, infielders, outfielders and base running and was heavily involved in all aspects of recruiting.

While at Queens, Duhon helped the team transition from NCAA Division II to Division I for the 2023 season. The Royals won 17 games in their inaugural season in Division I.

In his second year at Queens in 2022, the Royals broke the school record for wins and made the conference tournament for the first time in program history.

Prior to Queens, Duhon spent five years on staff at the University of Virginia, serving as a student manager. He was heavily involved in the video program, which included creating scouting reports, analyzing opponent film and running video programs such as Trackman, Rapsodo, Synergy and SportsCode.

Duhon earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Classics in 2019 before completing his Masters of Education in Intercollegiate Athletic Administration in 2020.

Duhon is a New Orleans, La. native.
