Another Top 10 Matchup

For the third year in a row, the Georgia-Florida game will be a top-10 matchup. Last season, the No. 8 Bulldogs edged the No. 6 Gators 24-17. In 2018, No. 7 Georgia topped the No. 9 Gators 36-17. Before 2018, the last time the teams met when both were ranked came in 2012, and the No. 12 Bulldogs upset No. 3 Florida 17-9. Georgia is 4-3 all-time in the Florida series when both teams are ranked in the top 10. In the Kirby Smart era, Georgia is 9-5 versus top-10 teams.

Pivotal SEC Eastern Division Contest

Georgia and Florida meet with huge implications in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division race. Georgia is 4-1 in the SEC while Florida stands 3-1 in the league. In the all-time series with Florida, Georgia holds a 53-43-2 advantage including 46-40-1 in Jacksonville. The annual rivalry will stay in Jacksonville until at least 2023. Florida has the series 52-43-2 in favor of Georgia because it does not count the Dogs 52-0 victory in 1904 that was played in Macon.

The Bulldogs are riding a three-game winning streak in the series after Florida captured three straight victories from 2014-16. Georgia will be looking for its longest winning streak in the series since 1983. The Bulldogs won six in a row from 1978-83. Since then, Georgia has had three stretches where the team has won three in a row. Bulldog coach Kirby Smart is 3-1 against Florida. This will be the ninth time Georgia squares off with Florida on Nov. 7 and the Bulldogs are 6-2 in the series on this date.

Rushing Leader Gets The Win Again In 2019

For the 14th straight year in the series, the team with the most rushing yards got the victory as Georgia outgained UF 119 to 21 in the 2019 contest. Bulldog junior D'Andre Swift carried the ball 25 times for 86 yards to lead the attack.

2019 Flashback: No. 8 Georgia beats No. 6 Florida 24-17

The Bulldogs won the latest Top 10 battle in Jacksonville to take control of the Southeastern Conference's Eastern Division. Once again, it was a stout Georgia defense that helped pave the way, limiting the Gators to just 278 yards of total offense. Florida mustered just 21 rushing yards on 19 carries. Georgia led 13-3 at the half, and Florida closed the gap to 16-10 in the fourth quarter. However, the Bulldogs responded with a seven-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. After six straight runs, Jake Fromm connected with Lawrence Cager for a 52-yard touchdown. The duo completed a two-point conversion for a 14-point edge with 10:01 left in the contest. The Gators made it a seven-point game with a 17-play TD drive led by Kyle Trask with 3:11 left. Georgia was able to register a first down and run out the clock. Fromm (20-for-30, 279 yards, 2 TDs) finished 10-for-13 on third downs, converting eight times including a 3rd-and-7 with 2:35 that iced the game, finding Eli Wolf for 22 yards. Georgia rushed for 119 yards including a team-high 86 yards on 25 carries by D'Andre Swift. Trask was 21-for-33 for 257 yards and 2 TDs.

On The Road Again

Starting with its victory at Kentucky last weekend, Georgia has begun the second half of the season away from the friendly confines of Sanford Stadium. Georgia will start November against Florida in Jacksonville Saturday and then takes on the Tigers in Columbia, Mo., on Nov. 14. Following a home game versus Mississippi State on Nov. 21, Georgia travels to Columbia, S.C., to face South Carolina on Nov. 28 before playing host to Vanderbilt on Dec. 5 in the regular season finale.

The Gators are coming off a 41-17 win against Missouri over the weekend. This was Florida's first game since losing at Texas A&M 41-38 on Oct. 10 due to COVID postponements.

Did You Know?

In the 98-game series with Florida, 57 different quarterbacks have started for Georgia. The best record went to Johnny Rauch, who went 4-0 from 1945-48. Most recently, Jake Fromm went 3-0 from 2017-19.

Head Football Coach

When Georgia looked for a head coach after the 2015 season, the arrows pointed to Kirby Smart, longtime Alabama defensive coordinator and former UGA player and assistant. The 2017 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year has not disappointed.

In his first year leading the Dogs in 2016, Georgia extended its school record to 20 consecutive bowl appearances and had wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC.

In 2017, Smart directed UGA to a 13-2 record, an SEC title, a win at The Rose Bowl Game during the CFP semifinal and a spot in the National Championship. He was named the

The 2018 and 2019 seasons saw the Bulldogs advance to the SEC Championship Game, secure an invite to the Sugar Bowl and combine for a 23-5 record. Most recently, Georgia completed a 12-2 campaign with a 26-14 victory over #7 Baylor in New Orleans.

He has also made an immediate impact in recruiting, posting the nation's top-ranked class in 2018, the second-ranked class in 2019 and the third-ranked class in 2017.

In addition to coaching, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families. In September of 2020, Smart and his wife Mary Beth pledged $1 million to support social justice and student-athletes impacted by COVID-19.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015. He juggled two jobs for a month until January 11, 2016, when the Tide won its fourth national championship in a seven-year span.

Quick Facts

*Advanced to 2017-19 SECCGs, making Georgia the first from the East to win at least three straight since 1996.

*Went 6-0 in the division in 2017-18 for the first time since the SEC split into divisions in 1992. Has gone 17-1 in the SEC East during the last three years.

*2017 Georgia Munger National Coach of the Year finalist, leading UGA to a 13-2 record, a Rose Bowl Game victory and an appearance the CFP National Championship Game.

*The Bulldogs' No. 2 AP ranking in 2017 was the team's top AP ranking since week three of the 2008 season when Georgia was No. 2.

*Seven fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over #8 AU ('16), #22 UNC in Atlanta ('16), @ #24 Notre Dame ('17), vs. #2 Oklahoma in 2018 Rose Bowl Game.

*Led UGA to its first win over a ranked team in a season opener away from Sanford Stadium in school history.

Bennett Directing The Offense

* Junior QB Stetson Bennett has helped Georgia to a 4-1 start, including a 2-1 mark versus Top-15 teams as a starter.

* Georgia led #2 Alabama 24-20 at the half as Bennett was 12-for-25 for 117 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. However, the Crimson Tide rallied for 21 unanswered points in the second half for the win as Bennett finished 18-for-40 for 269 yards, two scores and three interceptions.

* Most recently, Georgia posted a 14-3 road win at Kentucky. The Bulldogs had 346 yards on 57 plays, which included 43 rushes.

* Against #14 Tennessee, Bennett directed the Bulldogs to 431 total yards on 77 plays. He finished 16-for-27 for 238 yards and three touchdowns and was the Manning Award Quarterback of the Week. Bennett passed for two scores and ran for the other. He has been most accurate on third downs this season at 72 percent (26-for-38 for 322 yards, four touchdowns and two interceptions).

* In his first career start at Georgia, Bennett helped lead the Bulldogs to a 27-6 win over #7 Auburn in Athens. In the first half on third down, Bennett was 5-for-7 for 81 yards and a touchdown. The score was a 21-yard strike to sophomore George Pickens when it was 3rd-and-9. The play gave the Bulldogs a 17-0 lead.

* Bennett came in to help spark the Bulldogs to a 37-10 road win over Arkansas in the opener after redshirt freshman D'Wan Mathis got the start. In addition to his passing performance, Bennett also ran for a two-point conversion.

* Bennett played in five games for the Bulldogs last year. He was on the scout team for 2017 Bulldog squad that advanced to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game and went 13-2. Bennett spent 2018 at Jones College in Mississippi. He led the Bobcats to a 10-2 season, going 144-for-258 for 1,820 yards with 16 touchdowns and 14 interceptions. Bennett added 69 carries for 148 yards and four scores.

* Mathis made his Bulldog starting debut in the opener against Arkansas. He finished 8-for-17 for 55 yards and an interception. He enrolled early in January 2019 and competed during spring practice. Mathis was then forced to redshirt the 2019 season after undergoing surgery to remove a brain cyst. The native of Belleville, Mich., got his share of snaps this preseason after gaining his medical clearance during the spring of 2020.

* Georgia also has redshirt sophomore transfer JT Daniels and early enrollee Carson Beck competing for playing time.

A Look At The Line Features

* Redshirt sophomore Owen Condon (RT) got his first start at Arkansas while redshirt freshman Warren McClendon (RT) has gotten the nod the last four games. McClendon has made three tackles this season following Bulldog turnovers.

* Cleveland was named the SEC OL of the Week for the second time in his career following the win over #7 Auburn.

* Georgia's most effective games running the ball have come against #7 Auburn and at Kentucky. Georgia churned out 202 yards on 45 attempts (4.5 avg.) against the Tigers. The Bulldogs went for 215 on 43 tries (5.0 avg.) against the Wildcats.

* Against #2 Alabama, Georgia had 145 rushing yards on 30 carries (4.8 avg.), including a 10-yard touchdown by Zamir White.

* Through five games, the Dogs have allowed just seven sacks, which ranks third in the SEC.

Bulldogs Utilize Running Game Versus UK

* Georgia had 215 rushing yards on 43 attempts (5.0 avg.) and scored both touchdowns on the ground during the win at Kentucky. Redshirt sophomore Zamir White headlines the running game with a team-high 90 carries for 402 yards and six touchdowns. Versus the Wildcats, he had a career-high 26 carries for 136 yards and a score, which was his first 100-yard game.

* White is a key member of the special teams unit, including collecting his first career blocked punt. This led to a touchdown, which gave the Bulldogs a 20-10 edge at Arkansas. White became the first Bulldog running back since 2005 to block a punt (Tyson Browning vs. Vanderbilt).

* Junior James Cook (23 att., 122 yds.) is also a target out of the backfield with 10 catches for 173 yards and a touchdown. He had an 82-yard scoring catch at #2 Alabama and finished with 102 receiving yards. His score is the longest TD reception by a Bulldog since 2013.

* Georgia also has sophomore Kenny McIntosh (19-92) and true freshman Kendall Milton (29-165) as reliable options in the backfield.

Variety Of Targets Emerge

* Redshirt sophomore Kearis Jackson (24 rec., 348 yds., 1 TD) has emerged as a favorite target for Bennett. After posting career highs in catches and yards against Arkansas, he set new career highs in the win over #7 Auburn. Jackson collected nine catches for 147 yards. Against #14 Tennessee, he had a team-high four receptions for 91 yards, including his first career score that covered 21 yards.

* Sophomore George Pickens ranks second on the squad with 13 catches for 140 yards and two touchdowns. He missed the Kentucky game while recovering from an injury.

* True freshman Jermaine Burton (9-122-1) was a popular target for Stetson Bennett against #2 Alabama for four catches for 58 yards and his first career touchdown. His scoring reception was a 5-yard grab on 3rd-and-goal to give Georgia a 24-17 edge in the second quarter.

* Georgia utilizes the tight ends as well with redshirt sophomore TE John FitzPatrick, graduate transfer Tre' McKitty (FSU) and freshman Darnell Washington combining for 10 catches for 162 yards and one score. McKitty made his Bulldog debut against the Vols after missing the first two games with an injury. Washington had a career-long 33-yard catch in the win at Kentucky.

Veteran Defense Leading The Way

* The Bulldogs have one of the nation's top defenses again in 2020. Georgia leads the SEC and ranks 12th nationally allowing just 16.2 points/game. In the Bulldogs' four wins this year, they have allowed just a total of 40 points. Against the nation's top-scoring offense in #2 Alabama, the Crimson Tide posted a 41-24 win in Tuscaloosa. #8 Florida is second in the SEC and 10th nationally in Scoring Offense at 42.0 points/game.

* Georgia tops the SEC and ranks fifth nationally in Rushing Defense (80.0 ypg). The Bulldogs have allowed a pair of 100-yd. rushes this year (UA's Najee Harris, 152; UK's Chris Rodriguez, 108). The aforementioned pair gained a combined 260 while the rest of the Dogs' opponents have gained 140 yards combined.

* Georgia held Arkansas to 77 yards rushing on 28 attempts while Auburn had just 39 yards on 22 tries. Thanks in part to five sacks, #14 Tennessee finished with minus-1 rushing yards on 27 attempts. The defense has allowed only one rushing TD in 2020.

* The Bulldog secondary supports the running attack and has been stingy in man coverage during the team's 4-1 start. Senior S Richard LeCounte has three picks this year and eight in his career. He is currently tied for first nationally. Against the Wildcats, he had a career-high 14 stops and a forced fumble. LeCounte was involved in a motor vehicle accident on Saturday night following the win over Kentucky. LeCounte has started 23 straight games to lead the defense.

* Junior Eric Stokes also posted his first career INT against the ARK and took it back 30 yards for a score. This marked the second touchdown of his career after he blocked a punt versus Missouri and scored in 2018. Versus the Vols this season, Stokes had his second career pick.

* Junior Tyson Campbell and sophomores Lewis Cine and Tyrique Stevenson round out the starters in the secondary. Cine had four stops at UK, but was forced to leave the game with an injury. Christopher Smith has backed up the safeties this season.

Linebackers Wreaking Havoc

* Georgia is deep at LB with Monty Rice leading the way. He ranks second with 27 stops this year. Rice was named the Bednarik Award Player of the Week following his performance in the win over #14 Tennessee. He had strip-sack, recovered the fumble and ran it in 20 yards for his first career touchdown against the Vols.

* Redshirt sophomore Azeez Ojulari has a team-high 7.5 TFLs, including a team-high 4.5 sacks, and ranks among the national leaders with three forced fumbles so far this season.

* Against the Vols, he earned SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. Ojulari registered five tackles, including two sacks for a loss of 20 yards, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

* Sophomore Nakobe Dean leads the team with 34 tackles following a huge performance in the win at Kentucky. He posted a career-high 14 tackles.

* Sophomore Nolan Smith, junior Quay Walker, senior Jermaine Johnson and sophomore and 2019 Freshman All-SEC selection Travon Walker have given this position additional depth in 2020. Johnson started 2020 with a strong performance, collecting six tackles and 1.5 sacks at Arkansas. Against #2 Alabama, Walker posted a career-high seven tackles. He had his first career start at Kentucky and had five stops.

Two On Me, Someone's Free

* Georgia's defense up front starts with preseason All-SEC selection Jordan Davis and a trio of seniors in Devonte Wyatt, Malik Herring and Julian Rochester. Rochester had five tackles against #2 Alabama in his first start since 2018 while Herring had four stops, including a sack. Wyatt exploded for a career-high seven stops in the win at Kentucky.

* Against the Wildcats, Davis and Rochester missed a majority of the contest with injuries. Freshmen Nazir Stackhouse and Warren Brinson saw extended action.

* Davis (6-6, 320), along with freshman Jalen Carter (6-3, 305), are part of a "jumbo" package that includes freshman TE Darnell Washington (6-7, 260) or TE Tre' McKitty (6-5, 245) on offense.

* Carter lined up in the backfield versus #14 Tennessee and caught a 1-yard touchdown reception from QB Stetson Bennett.

From Rod To Pod

* Redshirt sophomore Jack Podlesny is 8-for-10 on field goals and 16-for-16 on PATs this year. He made his debut in the 2020 season opener. Podlesny made a pair of 38-yard field goals, went 3-for-3 on PATs and five of his six kickoffs resulted in touchbacks in the win over Arkansas.

* In the victory over #14 Tennessee, Podlesny had a solid game going 3-for-3 on field goals, including a career-long 51 yarder that gave the Bulldogs the lead for good at 23-21 in the third quarter.

* At #2 Alabama, Podlesny hit his second FG from 50 or more yards and added three PATs.

* Georgia extended the NCAA record this season for consecutive PATs made. The streak stands at 308 dating back to 2014. The streak involves six kickers (Marshall Morgan, Patrick Beless, William Ham, David Marvin, Rodrigo Blankenship and Podlesny).

* For the first time since 2015, Georgia needed to replace its placekicker as the All-American/2019 Lou Groza Award winner Blankenship graduated. He now serves as the Indianapolis Colts PK.

* Georgia's snappers this year include redshirt sophomore Payne Walker and redshirt freshman William Mote. Walker, who was one of the snappers last year as well, snaps on field goals and PATs while Mote handles the snaps for punts.

One Of The Country's Top Punting Units

* Junior punter Jake Camarda's 50.4 average leads the country and the Bulldogs 47.9 average in Net Punting is second nationally. He has only had to punt 17 times and placed 12 inside the 20 and has had nine that have traveled 50+. Opponents have only had one punt return for two yards this season.

* Camarda was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time in his career after the ARK game. He has been on the "Ray's 4" list as one of the week's top punters nationally twice.

* Camarda looked to be in midseason form in the opener by averaging 50.7 yards on seven punts.

* Against #7 Auburn, Camarda only punted twice in the first half and averaged 51.5 yards. During the win over #14 Tennessee, he also only had a pair of punts for an average of 56.5, including a 64 yarder.

* Now in his third season, Camarda is averaging 45.8 yards/punt, which is on pace for a school record. Drew Butler, the 2009 Ray Guy Award winner, owns the Bulldog record with a 45.4.

Back Deep For The Dogs

* In the KOR game, sophomore Kenny McIntosh has six returns for 218 yards (36.3 average; team is third nationally at 33.2). He missed the last game after getting injured against #2 Alabama. His longest of the year is a 48 yarder at Arkansas.

* With WR/PR Dominick Blaylock out for the year with a knee injury, Georgia has turned to redshirt sophomore Kearis Jackson.

Georgia In The AP Top 25

* The Bulldogs have maintained their spot in the AP Top 25 now for 58 consecutive weeks, which ranks fourth nationally, dating back to the start of the 2017 season. Georgia ranks in the top three for active streaks in the top five and top 10.

Smart Family Commits $1 Million To UGA

Head football coach Kirby Smart and his wife, Mary Beth, will donate $1 million to their alma mater to support the UGA Athletic Association's new social justice program, create scholarships for senior student-athletes whose final seasons were impacted by COVID-19, and contribute to the expansion of the UGA football program.

"Mary Beth and I are where we are because of the University of Georgia, so we feel a duty to give back to the university that opened so many doors for us, brought us together and brought us home," said Smart. "The current moment presents unique challenges for all of us, whether that's dealing with the ramifications of this pandemic or acknowledging and addressing racial inequality. We hope this gift can fuel positive change in both areas."

The Smarts joined Detroit Lions quarterback and former UGA standout Matthew Stafford and his wife, Kelly, to endow UGA Athletics' new social justice program. The goal of the program is to continue developing an environment to effect meaningful change in the areas of diversity, inclusion, equity and social justice for all, including student-athletes, coaches and staff.

Many student-athletes saw their seasons canceled or postponed this year as part of public health precautions to protect against COVID-19. As a result, the NCAA granted an extra year of eligibility and lifted team financial aid limits so that senior student-athletes could return and complete their final seasons of eligibility at UGA. But with a pandemic-related financial shortfall impacting the Athletic Association's budgets, UGA Athletics faced a challenge: finding new funding avenues to support returning student-athletes.

This is where the Smarts stepped in, dedicating a portion of their gift to defraying the costs associated with returning seniors whose spring and fall activities were impacted by COVID-19.

The final portion of the Smarts' gift will support the Butts-Mehre Expansion Project, which will expand and renovate all aspects of football operations at UGA. The project will, among other improvements, expand the weight room and add a locker room, meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a sports medicine facility to Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

'Dawgs For Pups' Begins To Help Area Students

The Georgia football team kicked off its initiative called "Dawgs For Pups" in early September by pledging to raise money for WiFi hotspots for Clarke County students.

After the idea arose from a team meeting, the Bulldogs are participating in a number of "Dawgs For Pups" activities in the Athens area and beyond to help students and others affected by the recent COVID-19 pandemic. The first activity has been to supply families who have kindergarten to eighth grade students with WiFi hotspots. This access to an internet connection will help students stay connected with their virtual classroom.

The Bulldogs and donors gave $100,000 to the project.

"Helping out the youth in this area is so important because they are our future," said senior defensive back Eric Stokes. "I have a platform (at the University of Georgia) and I am trying to use that platform and make it as big as it can go."

The donations will help support the more than 1,000 families in Clarke County who do not have the Internet access needed for online learning. For only $20, donors can sponsor a family's unlimited high-speed data plan for a month. For $60, donors can sponsor a family's WiFi for the fall semester. All donations received will be solely for the purpose of hotspots for CCSD. The link to donate to "Bridging The Digital Divide" is here:

Successful Food2Kids Snack Drive

The Bulldogs' second project of the "Dawgs For Pups" initiative was called the Food2Kids Snack Drive.

The Food2Kids Snack Drive came at a pivotal time for the area community. The temporary COVID-19 unemployment benefits have ended and many parents are unable to go to work with their children receiving a virtual education and not attending school.

The Food Bank of Northeast Georgia has reported an 80 percent increase in demand over its 2019 numbers and with September being Hunger Action Month, food bank representatives are stressing that the need for any help in this arena remains high.

The Bulldog football team, as well as other UGA teams, and donors gave nearly 27,000 pounds of food to the Food Bank.

Healthy and transportable snacks were the ones targeted for the Food2Kids Snack Drive. Granola bars, snack-size trail mix, nuts and pretzel bags, 100 percent fruit treat snacks and other various snacks that are not easily crushed under the weight of canned goods were requested for the drive.

"I've been giving back to my community as far as I can remember," said sophomore linebacker Nakobe Dean. "Doing projects like this makes me feel like I am kind of continuing that tradition that we did with my mom growing up. It's important to help the youth at all times, not just right now in times of despair but all the time since they are the future of our country."

The Food Bank of Northeast Georgia still accepts donations for this program. The food bank's hours for drop-off are 8 a.m. – 3 p.m. on Monday through Friday.

Third 'Dawgs For Pups' Initiative Arrives

The Georgia football team has officially started its third project of the "Dawgs For Pups" initiative in the form of a coat drive for area children.

The latest initiative is a coat drive for children in the Athens-Clarke County area. With winter approaching and colder temperatures coming, the Bulldog football team and the rest of the UGA Athletic Association will be working with the local Boys & Girls Club to generate donations of new or gently used coats for children in kindergarten through eighth grade. Donations for the coat drive can be dropped on the main floor (third floor) of the UGA's Butts-Mehre Building (1 Selig Circle, Athens, GA 30602) between 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The Bulldogs will be offering 2020 football schedule posters signed by head coach Kirby Smart to anyone who donates a new or gently used coat.

"It's going to start getting pretty cold out there and a lot of kids don't have the gear they need to stay warm," said Bulldog receivers coach Cortez Hankton. "We want to be sure we provide them with coats and support. We want to be sure our Dawgs take care of the 'Pups' in our community and that we give what we can."

Bulldog Graduates

* Georgia has a pair of player on this year's roster who have already earned their undergraduate degrees. The graduates include: DB Prather Hudson (Georgia - Finance) and TE Tre' McKitty (FSU - Criminology).

All of the SEC players who have achieved an undergraduate degree are sporting the SEC Graduate patch on their uniforms.

Seven Bulldogs Chosen In 2020 NFL Draft

* The seven Georgia players in 2020 matched the total from 2019 and equaled the second-best total in school history.

* OT Andrew Thomas (1st Rd.-No. 4, Giants), RB D'Andre Swift (2nd Rd.-No. 35, Detroit), OT Isaiah Wilson (1st Rd.-No. 29, Tennessee), OG Solomon Kindley (4th Rd.-No. 111, Miami), QB Jake Fromm (5th Rd.-No. 167, Buffalo), TE Charlie Woerner (6th Rd.-No. 190, San Francisco) and ILBTae Crowder (7th Rd.-No. 255, N.Y. Giants) were all picked by NFL teams.

* Selected as the draft's final pick, Crowder became Georgia's second "Mr. Irrelevant" after Bulldog Donald Chumley was taken with the last pick in the 1985 draft. Crowder is on the Giants active roster. Also, eight Bulldogs signed as free agents.

* Georgia has 50 players on NFL rosters, including 10 that were part of the Bulldogs' offense last year.

New Faces On Coaching Staff

* Georgia has three new on the field coaches this year. The first hire was Associate Head Coach/Offensive Line Coach Matt Luke, who joined the Bulldogs after serving as the Ole Miss head coach for three seasons. Luke began in December and was part of the coaching staff during Georgia's victory over #7 Baylor in the Sugar Bowl.

* Offensive Coordinator Todd Monken was the next addition to Smart's staff in January. Monken arrived in Athens after spending a year as the Cleveland Browns' offensive coordinator (OC). He also was the OC for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for three years prior to his stop in Cleveland and had three years as the Southern Mississippi head coach earlier in his career.

* Then in February, Special Teams Coordinator Scott Cochran joined the Bulldog coaching staff. Cochran, who worked with Smart nine seasons at Alabama, had served as the head strength and conditioning coach for the Tide since 2007.

Dogs Have 10 On Preseason All-SEC Team

* Georgia ranked second in the league with 10 representatives on the Preseason Coaches All-SEC Team. First Team Defense selections junior DL Jordan Davis and senior S Richard LeCounte highlighted the group of Bulldogs.

No. 4 Georgia 37, Arkansas 10

Sept. 26, 2020 • Razorback Stadium • Fayetteville, Ark.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - The fourth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs opened the 2020 season with a 37-10 victory over the Arkansas Razorbacks Saturday afternoon before 16,500 spectators at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium and an SEC Network audience.

On its second drive, Arkansas struck first with a 49-yard touchdown pass from Feleipe Franks to Treyton Burks. Georgia's offense labored in the early going, but the Bulldogs' defense picked up from where it left off last season as Richard LeCounte picked off Franks and returned it 38 yards.

Early in the second quarter, the defense once again showed its might as Mark Webb snuffed out an Arkansas double-reverse and forced the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Kenny McIntosh's 48-yard kickoff return set up the Bulldogs in Razorback territory, but a mishandled snap necessitated another punt. Stetson Bennett relieved starter D'Wan Mathis on the following possession, and later in the quarter, the Bulldogs embarked on their most successful drive of the half as they swiftly moved down the field, resulting in Jack Podlesny's 38-yard field goal at the end of the half.

On the opening drive of the second half, the offensive malaise appeared to carry over as junior tailback James Cook fumbled a third-down completion at the Arkansas 42-yard line, leading to a 25-yard field goal by A.J. Reed, but that would prove to be the final Arkansas score of the contest.

McIntosh again set up Georgia in excellent field position with a 43-yard return, leading to Bennett finding George Pickens for a 19-yard catch-and-run touchdown, giving Georgia its first lead. The special teams success continued on the following drive as White blocked Arkansas' punt, leading to a 7-yard touchdown toss from Bennett to John FitzPatrick.

Two plays later, Eric Stokes notched his second career touchdown with a 30-yard pick six off Franks. The secondary continued its phenomenal performance as LeCounte made a leaping interception of Treyton Burks' trick play pass at the Georgia 19-yard line. Zamir White closed the Bulldogs' fourth-consecutive scoring drive with a 6-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter, with Podlesny later adding on a 38-yard field goal.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We've got a long way to go to get where we need to go. But I want to be positive about the second half and what the guys were able to do. We gave them a little energy, a little juice. I thought we were very stagnant with undisciplined penalties and every time we had something going we'd shoot ourselves in the foot. It was either 15 yard penalty, 10 yard penalty or a turnover. You can't win football games doing those things. I am proud of the way they were resilient in the second half. Special teams played really well. I give a lot of credit to Arkansas' defense, they gave us a lot of problems but we've got to improve and get better."

Entering in the second quarter, Stetson Bennett energized the Georgia offense with 211 yards passing and two touchdowns.

Worth Noting...

- Junior Eric Stokes had a 30-yard interception return for a touchdown to make it 27-10. It was the first by a Bulldog since current staffer Juwan Taylor had a 1-yard INT return for a score in 2018 at South Carolina. It was the first career INT for Stokes. Senior Richard LeCounte had a pair of interceptions to give him eight for his career. LeCounte collected a pair of picks in the 2020 Sugar Bowl win over Baylor.

- Georgia seniors Richard LeCounte, Malik Herring and junior Jamaree Salyer served as captains. LeCounte walked out for the coin toss as teams are limited to one captain for the toss this season as part of COVID-19 rule change to limit the amount of personnel.

- Georgia wore red pants and white jerseys as part of the 40th anniversary of the 1980 national champions. This was their uniform combination in the season opening road win over Tennessee.

- Four Bulldogs on offense in D'Wan Mathis (QB), Owen Condon (RT), Darnell Washington (TE) and Jermaine Burton (WR) along with Nakobe Dean (LB) on defense and Jack Podlesny (KO/PK) and William Mote (SN) on special teams made their first career starts. Washington and Burton are true freshmen. The longest active starting streak on offense belongs to center Trey Hill now with 19 while Richard LeCounte leads the defense at 19 straight. September 26 marked the latest start date for the Bulldogs since the 1946 national champions opened up with a 35-12 win over Clemson in Athens on Sept. 27.

No. 4 Georgia 27, No. 7 Auburn 6

ATHENS, Ga. - The fourth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs defeated the seventh-ranked Auburn Tigers, 27-6, under the lights of Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium Saturday night in front of 20,524 spectators and an ESPN primetime audience.

Following a three-and-out by each team, the Bulldogs strung together a 10-play, 43-yard drive punctuated by a 5-yard rushing touchdown from Zamir White, his second of the young season, with 9:31 left in the opening quarter. A 21-yard field goal attempt by redshirt-sophomore Jack Podlesny was good to extend the Bulldogs' lead to 10-0 later in the period.

Stetson Bennett, making his first career start, connected with sophomore George Pickens on a 21-yard touchdown with 11:08 to play in the second quarter, widening the lead to 17-0. On the ensuing drive, a 49-yard completion from Bennett to Jackson put the Bulldogs on the Auburn 12-yard line. Following a 7-yard McIntosh rush and a pair of 2-yard gains by White to the 1-yard line, White punched it in for his second score of the game.

The Georgia defense was able to stop Auburn on the Bulldogs' 3-yard line, forcing the Tigers to attempt a 20-yard field goal. The kick was good, and Auburn picked up its first score of the contest, 24-3, with that margin holding at halftime.

Starting on its own 18-yard line to begin the second half, Auburn marched downfield but was stopped at the Georgia 28-yard line. A 45-yard field goal attempt was good by Anders Carlson to narrow the Bulldogs' lead to 24-6. Georgia responded with a 10-play, 67-yard drive ending with a 25-yard field goal by Podlesny.

The third quarter ended when senior cornerback Mark Webb intercepted Bo Nix to give Georgia the ball heading into the fourth quarter. The interception ended Nix's streak of 251 pass attempts without an interception, which was the second-longest active streak in the country. Neither team scored in the final quarter as the 27-6 advantage for Georgia would hold en route to Georgia's home-opening win over the Tigers.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I thought we showed improvement. We left a lot of plays out there. I thought we played really hard defensively but sloppy on thirddown. I thought offensively, when we play clean, meaning we don't have a busted assignment, a penalty, or somebody doesn't know what they're doing, we do well; but we can go backwards as quickly as we can forwards offensively, and we probably left more out there... I was really proud of Stetson [Bennett] and the way he handled things, very composed. He probably had some balls he wishes he could have back, but he'll only get better from here, and he gives us some continuity and we'll continue to develop the other guys as well."

Kearis Jackson bolstered the Georgia passing attack with a career-high nine catches for 147 yards receiving.

Worth Noting...

- The 27-6 result marked the fifth time in the last six meetings in the Kirby Smart era that Auburn was held to 14 points or less. It was Auburn's lowest point tally since Georgia blanked the Tigers 38-0 in 2012 in Auburn and its lowest in Athens since 1967 when Georgia won 17-0. Georgia is now 9-4 against top 10 teams in the Smart era.

- Redshirt-sophomore Kearis Jackson (9-for-147 yards) established career-highs in catches and yards, including a career-long 49-yarder in the first half. It was the best night for a Bulldog receiver since George Pickens earned MVP honors for his 2020 Sugar Bowl performance in the win over Baylor with 12 receptions for 175 yards and 1 TD.

- With the win, Georgia leads the Deep South's Oldest Rivalry 61-56-8. It is the second most played active series in the NCAA FBS. Georgia now has won nine of the past 11 meetings, including four straight dating back to the 2017 SEC Championship Game. ESPN College GameDay was in town for the sixth time in school history and Georgia has won the game now on its last two visits, the previous one over No. 7 Notre Dame last year.

- The game crowd was a sellout but was limited to just 20,524 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This is Georgia's smallest crowd since Sept. 28, 1963 when the Bulldogs beat Vanderbilt 20-0 in a driving rain before an estimated crowd of 17,000.

ATHENS, Ga. - The third-ranked Georgia Bulldogs defeated the 14th-ranked Tennessee Volunteers 44-21 Saturday afternoon at Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium in front of a crowd of 20,524 and a nationally-televised audience on CBS.

On Georgia's second offensive play of the game, the snap went over the head of Stetson Bennett, rolled to the endzone, and was recovered by Tennessee's Kivon Bennett for a Volunteer touchdown. After forcing a three-and-out on Tennessee's first offensive drive, Bennett went to Kenny McIntosh for a 29-yard catch-and-run to the 1-yard line. Zamir White then punched it in for Georgia to tie the game at 7. A 95-yard drive later culminated in Bennett's first rushing touchdown of the season after he dove and caught a piece of the pylon.

Tennessee took just one play to knot the game as Jarrett Guarantano found Josh Palmer for a 36-yard touchdown pass. After Jack Podlesny nailed a 37-yard field goal, the Volunteers responded once more with a 27-yard Palmer touchdown catch. With an ensuing goal line stand, Tennessee entered the half with a 21-17 lead.

In the second half, Azeez Ojulari sacked Guarantano and forced a fumble recovery at the 15-yard line, leading to another Georgia field goal from 34 yards. Eric Stokes' second interception of the season came on Tennessee's next drive, giving the Bulldogs possession on the Volunteer 36-yard line. Georgia could not convert a first down as Podlesny stepped in for a 51-yard field goal attempt. The redshirt-sophomore split the uprights for a new career-long and put the Bulldogs back in the lead with 10:11 to play in the third, 23-21.

An eight-play, 62-yard scoring drive resulted in Kearis Jackson's first career receiving touchdown, a 21-yard pass from Bennett, widening Georgia's lead to 30-21 near the end of the third quarter. A 1-yard touchdown pass from Bennett to freshman defensive lineman Jalen Carter lengthened the Bulldog lead to 37-21 with about 10 and a half minutes to play. The lead was bolstered on a Monty Rice scoop-and-score on Tennessee's very next drive. Rice sacked Guarantano, forcing Tennessee's third fumble of the game before picking up the ball and returning it 20 yards for the touchdown to create the final score of 44-21.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I certainly didn't expect it to go that way. We didn't start the way we needed to. We've got to show a lot of improvement in a lot of areas and just disappointed in our start to the game. Anytime you spot somebody seven [points], that's not good. We gave up some explosive plays on defense. But the positives were we didn't blink, we've got a very emotional team and I thought in the locker room, there were a lot of emotions shown. Tennessee's got a good football team; I've got a lot of respect for Jeremy [Pruitt] and his staff, how hard his kids play, how physical they play. They play a really good brand of football, as we do too."

Monty Rice led the Bulldogs in tackles for the second-straight game, picking up his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia got 13 points on three turnovers while UT got seven points off two fumbles, including one recovered in the end zone by Kivon Bennett after a high snap resulted in a team rush for minus 30 yards. It gave UT a 7-0 lead with 14:17 left. It was the first fumble recovery for a TD against Georgia since 2018 (Josh Jacobs, Alabama). UT came in as one of five teams in the FBS (and the only SEC team) not to have a turnover this year. Georgia's Monty Rice had a 17-yard fumble return for a scoop and score to make it 44-21 advantage with 9:56 left.

- With the 44-21 victory, Georgia now leads the all-time series 25-23-2 as it dates back to 1899. Georgia has won four straight in the series. The Bulldogs are now 7-1 against ranked teams at home in the Kirby Smart era and 17-9 overall. This game was the first top 15 showdown with UT since 2006.

- Graduate transfer TE Tré McKitty made his first career start as a Bulldog as Georgia opened up with a two tight end set. It was his Bulldog debut as he missed the first two games this year due to a knee injury. He had made 19 starts at Florida State. On defense, sophomore SLB Nolan Smith made his first career start. The longest active starting streak on offense belongs to center Trey Hill now with 21 while Richard LeCounte leads the defense with 21 straight.

Oct. 17, 2020 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The third-ranked Georgia Bulldogs suffered their first loss of the 2020 season to the second-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide, 41-24, in front of 19,424 spectators at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a CBS primetime national audience.

Both teams' defenses asserted themselves early with Stetson Bennett and Mac Jones each throwing interceptions on their opening drives. Alabama capitalized on its pick as Jones found John Metchie III for a 40-yard touchdown early in the first quarter. Georgia responded with a 10-yard touchdown run from Zamir White, following a 25-yard run by Kendall Milton. On the first play of the second quarter, Bennett connected with James Cook on an 82-yard touchdown catch, giving Georgia a 14-7 lead.

Following field goals from each team, Alabama tied the game with a 17-yard touchdown to DeVonta Smith with three minutes left in the half. On the ensuing drive, Bennett led the Bulldogs down the field on a 12-play, 66-yard drive, culminating with a 5-yard touchdown to Jermaine Burton. Despite only 23 seconds remaining before halftime, the Crimson Tide picked up points on a career-long 50-yard field goal by Will Reichard.

The third quarter was marked by stout defense from both teams, but the impasse eventually broke when Jones unloaded a 90-yard touchdown pass to Jaylen Waddle, putting Alabama ahead for the rest of the contest. Looking to respond, Bennett's pass was tipped into the air and intercepted by Malachi Moore at the Alabama 25-yard line. The Crimson Tide moved to seal the game, leading to Najee Harris' 2-yard touchdown run with 51 seconds remaining in the third.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Bennett was intercepted for a third time near midfield, followed by Alabama running a five-minute drive that ended with a Reichard field goal. Trailing by 17, the Bulldogs made one last attempt to score, reaching the red zone via a pair of long completions to Kearis Jackson and Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint. However, the drive would come up empty as Jack Podlesny missed from 35 yards out, allowing Alabama to run out the clock.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Give Alabama a lot of credit. They have great skill players, and I thought we contained them early. The second half we couldn't do it. Give their coaches credit. They outcoached us. Frustrated we couldn't get anything going in the second half. We played a really great football team, and we had some costly turnovers. Give them credit, and we have to go back to the drawing board. We still control our own destiny... They made a couple big throws. They beat us on some bubble plays and a double move with Waddle. They made a lot of big plays on 50/50 balls. Smith and Waddle had some big catches."

James Cook posted a career-high four catches for 101 yards, including an 82-yard touchdown reception. The scoring play was the longest for Georgia since the 2013 season.

Worth Noting...

- Bennett connected on an 82-yard TD to James Cook, career-highs for both, and it marked the longest TD pass by the Bulldogs since a school record 98-yarder in 2013 from Aaron Murray to Reggie Davis versus North Texas.
- Redshirt sophomore PK Jack Podlesny hit a 50-yard field goal for a 17-10 lead with 5:42 left in the first half, missed a 35-yarder in the 4th quarter, and he was 3-for-3 on PATs. Georgia now has made an NCAA record 306 consecutive PATs with the streak including six kickers dating back to 2014. Auburn did hold the mark of 304 that ended last year.
- Senior DT Julian Rochester made his 20th career start but his first since 2018. The longest active starting streak on offense belongs to center Trey Hillnow with 22 while Richard LeCounte leads the defense with 22 straight.
- With the 41-27 victory, No. 2 Alabama now leads the all-time series 41-25-4 including an 8-2 edge in Tuscaloosa. The game marked No. 3 Georgia's third straight game facing a top 15 foe after posting wins over No. 7 Auburn and No. 14 Tennessee. Overall, Georgia is 9-5 in Top-10 showdowns in the Smart era.

No. 5 Georgia 14, Kentucky 3

Oct. 31, 2020 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. - Despite only producing two scoring drives, the fifth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs rode their outstanding defense to a 14-3 victory over the Kentucky Wildcats in front of 12,000 spectators at Kroger Field and an SEC Network television audience.

After forcing a Kentucky punt on its first possession, Georgia quickly established itself on the ground, rushing on every play on the way to a 2-yard touchdown run from Stetson Bennett. Following a pair of punts from each team, Kentucky embarked on a marathon drive of its own that drained much of the second quarter clock. The Wildcats grabbed their lone points of the game with a 34-yard field goal from Matt Ruffolo, finishing off the 19-play, 77-yard sequence that lasted over 10 minutes.

The Georgia offense finally returned to the field in impressive fashion as Bennett found James Cook for a 46-yard completion that was then bolstered by consecutive strong rushes from Zamir White, moving the ball to the Kentucky 10-yard line. However, the drive was cut short as Bennett's pass was tipped for an interception by Kentucky's Phil Hoskins. While the Wildcats were unable to convert on the turnover, the Bulldogs also came up empty as Jack Podlesny's 53-yard field goal attempt was blocked at the end of the half.

On the opening possession of the second half, Georgia came out firing as Bennett connected with Darnell Washington on a 33-yard reception into Kentucky territory. Facing 4th-and-1 at the Wildcats' 22-yard line, White broke through the line for a season-long 22-yard touchdown run, concluding a 7-play, 75-yard scoring drive. Kentucky crossed into Georgia territory on the ensuing drive, but Monty Rice forced a Joey Gatewood fumble that was recovered by Richard LeCounte at the 36-yard line. The Bulldogs reached midfield on the following drive, but the momentum was cut once again as Bennett was intercepted by Kelvin Joseph on a deep throw to the Kentucky 18.

In the fourth quarter, the Wildcats looked to cut the deficit with another long march into Bulldog territory, but an incompleteness on 4th-and-6 gave the ball back to Georgia and ended any chance of a comeback win.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We came in with the mind set that we wanted to score every single possession we got the ball and do it by any means necessary. Whether that was run the ball, throw the ball, you take what they give you. And that's what we were doing...We executed well at times. We ran the ball against a really good, physical Kentucky defense. I was pleased with that. It's hard to make yourself throw when you're running successfully...(Kentucky) did a great job of shortening the game. They know that they were probably over-matched, and they shrunk the game. They ran the quarterback and they didn't take many chances, but they stayed on schedule."

Richard LeCounte tallied a career-high 13 tackles, along with three pass breakups and a fumble recovery.
