MEDIA INFORMATION

GEORGIA BASEBALL ON THE INTERNET/RADIO/TV

Fans wishing to follow all the action of the 2026 University of Georgia baseball season can tune in to various multi-media options.

The Georgia Bulldog Sports Network will broadcast every game. The veteran Bulldog broadcast team of Jeff Dantzler and David Johnston return for their 27th season on the network with all games produced through JMI/ Learfield in Winston Salem, N.C. Locally, all games can be heard on WRFC 960 AM with a number of statewide affiliates carrying a full or partial season schedule.

The Georgia Bulldogs App will provide free full gameday coverage including an audio stream and live stats as well as feature rosters, statistics and the 2026 schedule. The Georgia Bulldogs app is free and available to download for both IOS and Android users.

All home games will have a video stream via the SECN+ and ESPN+ platforms. Matt Stewart and Jason Jacobs return again this season to call the action for games not televised on linear TV. The SECN+ platform is available to all subscribers of the SEC Network through your cable, satellite or stream provider. ESPN+ is available as a stand-alone stream service.

Georgia Looks To Return To CWS

Tre Phelps headlines the 2026 offense that led the nation in home runs in 2025.

After two consecutive seasons of earning a national seed and playing host to an NCAA Regional, the Bulldogs have reloaded the roster again in year three of the Wes Johnson era. In 2024, the Bulldogs enjoyed their finest season since 2008, and in 2025, the Bulldogs followed that up with another 43-17 mark and postseason baseball becoming a regular occurrence at Foley Field. This season, the preseason prognosticators see the Bulldogs taking another step forward and getting back to Omaha for the CWS.

The impact of Johnson and his coaching staff showed at the plate and on the mound.

School Record*

The NCAA Transfer Portal allows teams to overhaul rosters annually, and Georgia has proven it knows how to bring in the right blend of newcomers to form a talented team. The 2026 additions from the portal, high school and junior college ranks were rated among the best in the country by leading baseball publications. The 2025 MLB draft claimed every Bulldog pitcher who started a game last year except Zach Brown, and he made just one start out of his 10 appearances. On Feb. 13, the college baseball season begins, and the results will speak for themselves.

After plenty of spirited competition in the fall that continued in the weeks leading up to Opening Day, the lineup will feature some constants plus more battles on tap in the early part of the campaign. Johnson's lineup and pitching plans will vary based on specific matchups.

"We like to have lineup flexibility as you've seen during our first two seasons," said Ike Cousins head coach Wes Johnson. "You can pencil in Kolby Branch at shortstop and Tre Phelps at third base and we'll fill out the lineup from there. Defensively, this team has a chance to be elite. On the mound, we're excited about how our rotation and bullpen have taken shape heading into this year."

Wes JOHNSON

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach
3rd Season at UGA
(Arkansas Monticello '94)

#49

In his two seasons directing the University of Georgia baseball program, Wes Johnson has led the Bulldogs to 86 wins and a pair of NCAA Tournaments as a national top eight seed. On May 21, 2025, it was announced UGA and Johnson had agreed to a contract extension through 2031.

Johnson, a renowned pitching coach, was named the Ike Cousins head baseball coach at the University of Georgia on June 5, 2023. At the press conference announcing his hire, UGA's J. Reid Parker Director of Athletic Josh Brooks noted Johnson had a proven track record of developing student-athletes and that his teams at every level had achieved impressive results. Brooks added he was confident Johnson would make Georgia Baseball one of the premier programs in the country.

Johnson made an immediate impact. In his first year, he directed the Bulldogs to their most successful season since reaching the College World Series Finals in 2008. The 2024 Bulldogs earned a No. 7 National Seed for the NCAA Tournament, captured the NCAA Athens Regional, hosted an NCAA Super Regional and came within one game of reaching the College World Series (CWS).

Georgia posted a 43-17 record (17-13 SEC) as Johnson established school records for most overall wins and most SEC wins by a first-year baseball coach, and Georgia finished with a top 10 national ranking for the first time in a full season since 2008. He became the first Georgia baseball coach to host and win an NCAA Regional in his first season along with serving as a Super Regional host. In a preseason poll, SEC coaches projected Georgia would finish sixth in the Eastern Division and instead the Bulldogs placed third and had the fifth best mark in the 14-team league.

In 2024, Georgia featured one of the nation's elite players in All-America Charlie Condon, a first round selection of the Colorado Rockies and the third overall pick in the MLB Draft, the highest in school history. He earned the Dick Howser Trophy, which is widely considered the Heisman Trophy of college baseball, and USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award as the nation's top amateur player. Condon received a then record $9.25 million signing bonus. Also at the end of the season, sophomore Kolten Smith and freshman Tre Phelps received invitations to the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team Training Camp. Corey Collins joined Condon as an All-American and became the first SEC player to lead the NCAA in on base percentage, posting a .574 mark.

In 2025, Georgia raced out to another impressive start that featured a 17-game winning streak and a program-best 28-2 mark through 30 games. The Bulldogs were a consensus top 10 ranked team, including reaching as high as No. 1 during the season. They captured seven SEC series in going 18-12 in league play and entered the NCAA Tournament with the nation's No. 2 RPI and the No. 7 overall national seed. The Bulldogs played host to their second straight NCAA Regional and concluded the season with a 43-17 mark. The Bulldogs blasted an NCAA-best 144 home runs and finished second nationally in On Base Percentage at .411. A total of 10 Bulldogs were selected in the 2025 MLB Draft.

For the second consecutive season, the Bulldog pitching staff established a school record for strikeouts and lowered the team ERA. Also, the Bulldogs set a school record with a .983 fielding percentage. Robbie Burnett and Ryland Zaborowski were named semifinalists for the Dick Howser Trophy plus Burnett was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Trophy. Four Bulldogs earned All-SEC honors in first team third baseman Slate Alford and second team pitcher Brian Curley plus Burnett (outfield) and Zaborowski (utility). For the second year in a row, Georgia produced the SEC batting champion as Zaborowski hit .370 after Condon led the SEC and NCAA in 2024 with a .443 clip. Five Bulldogs made the CSC Academic All-District team including Burnett who became the first Bulldog to be named a first team Academic All-American.

A native of Sherwood, Ark., Johnson became the first pitching coach in Major League Baseball (MLB) history to make the move directly from the college ranks to the big leagues when he was hired by the Minnesota Twins in November of 2018. He served as a collegiate pitching coach since 2008 with stints in the Southeastern Conference at Mississippi State and Arkansas before joining the Twins. Minnesota was the leading the American League Central Division in June of 2022 when he opted to return to the college game at LSU.

Johnson remained with the Tigers until their 2023 season was complete, culminating in the program's seventh national title. They were the No. 5 NCAA Tournament National Seed and advanced to the CWS in Omaha, Neb. The Tigers made their first CWS appearance since 2017 and won their first national title since 2009. LSU finished with a 54-17 record. LSU had a school record 13 players (eight pitchers) selected in the MLB Draft including the first (Paul Skenes, RHP) and second overall (Dylan Crews, OF) picks.

The Twins won their division in Johnson's first two years directing the pitching staff, and in 2020, the club ranked fourth in the Majors in ERA, WHIP and ninth in strikeouts per nine innings. Ace right-hander Kenta Maeda posted a 2.70 Earned Run Average (ERA) and a 6-1 mark to earn a runner-up finish for the American League Cy Young Award.

During his time as a college coach, 38 of Johnson's pitchers have been drafted by MLB teams, and he has been at the forefront of utilizing Trackman technology. The 2023 LSU ace Paul Skenes (13-2, 1.69 ERA, SEC record 209 Ks in 122.2 IP), who was named the National Pitcher of the Year by multiple outlets, was the number one overall draft pick in 2023, signing with the Pittsburgh Pirates for a record $9.2 million bonus. As pitching coach at Arkansas, Johnson helped the 2018 Razorbacks reach the College World Series Finals as they finished 48-21. The top pitcher on that 2018 staff was Blaine Knight who went 14-0 with a 2.80 ERA and was a third-round pick of the Baltimore Orioles.

In his one season at Mississippi State, Johnson was instrumental in a dramatic turnaround by the Bulldogs going from worst to first. After winning only eight SEC games the previous year and having the highest ERA in the league, the 2016 club claimed the SEC regular-season title and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional. MSU won 44 games, its most since 1997. He produced six pitchers that were selected in the MLB Draft including Golden Spikes Award semifinalist Dakota Hudson who went 34th overall to the St. Louis Cardinals.

In four seasons at Dallas Baptist University (DBU), Johnson helped the Patriots to three NCAA Regional appearances, had 14 pitchers drafted and his pitching staffs set single season records for almost every major statistical category including ERA, strikeouts and saves. In 2015, DBU had five pitchers chosen in the first 12 rounds. Prior to Johnson's arrival (1967-2011), DBU had only six pitchers drafted in the first 10 rounds. The 2015 Patriots won a school-record 46 games, hosted their first NCAA Regional and earned the program's highest final ranking.

During his three seasons in the Southland Conference at the University of Central Arkansas (UCA), Johnson's pitching staffs set Division I school records in ERA, WHIP, strikeouts, opponent batting average and fewest walks. In 2009 while on staff at Southern Arkansas, the Muleriders went 52-11 and were ranked No.1 in the Division II poll for 12 weeks. One of his star pitchers was Hayden Simpson who became the first-round pick of the Chicago Cubs in the 2010 MLB Draft.

Before going to UCA, Johnson spent four seasons as the head coach of Abundant Life High School in his hometown of Sherwood. He guided the Owls to a 102-25 record including one state title and two state championship game appearances.

Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Arkansas Monticello in 1994. He completed a master's degree in kinesiology in 2017. Johnson and his wife Angie, have three children: Ryan, Anna and Ava.

COACHING STAFF

Will COGGIN

Asst. Head Coach/Hitting
3rd Season at UGA
(Miss. State '10)

#53

Will Coggan has directed the Georgia offense for Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson the past two seasons, and the results have produced two NCAA Tournament teams that were national top eight seeds, two SEC batting champions and led the country in combined home runs in that span.

According to D1Baseball.com, he is among the top 25 assistant coaches most ready to be a head coach. The Bulldogs have featured one of the nation's elite offenses among Power 4 conferences. Georgia has ranked first in seven categories overall and in SEC games only. These categories include OPS (On-Base Percentage plus Slugging Percentage), ISO (Isolated Power), OBP (On-Base Percentage), HR% (Home Run Percentage), Runs Per Game, wOBA (Weighted On-Base Average) and xWOBBA (Expected Weighted On-Base Average).

Georgia's record-setting offense under Coggan in 2024 helped the team post a 43-17 mark, and it was one win away from the College World Series. Georgia garnered a top 10 final team ranking for the first time since 2008. The offense was headlined by a pair of All-Americans in Charlie Condon and Corey Collins. Condon, who was the No. 3 overall pick in the 2024 MLB Draft (Colorado Rockies), swept every major award, earning the Dick Howser Trophy, the Golden Spikes Award, the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award plus was named National Player of the Year by multiple outlets. He became just the third player in NCAA history to lead the nation in batting average (.443) and home runs (37--a BBCOR-era record) in the same season. Collins, a sixth round pick of the New York Mets in 2024, became the first SEC player to lead the country in on base percentage at .574.

The 2024 Bulldogs finished second nationally with a school record 151 home runs including 12 grand slams and led the SEC in on base percentage (.433), hit by pitches (128), strikeout-to-walk ratio (1.24) and was second in batting average (.303) and slugging percentage (.589).

During the 2025 season, the Bulldogs led the nation in home runs as they tallied 144 in 60 games, trailing only the 2024 club that hit a school record 151. Georgia's 475 RBI ranked third in school history. In 2025, Georgia raced out to another impressive start that featured a 17-game winning streak and eventually finished 43-17. The Bulldogs were a consensus top 10 ranked team, including reaching as high as No. 1 during the season, and played host to an NCAA Regional for the second year in a row. Also, the Bulldogs established a school record for fielding percentage at .983.

Robbie Burnett and Ryland Zaborowski were named semifinalists for the Dick Howser Trophy plus Burnett was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Trophy. Third baseman Slate Alford earned first team All-SEC honors while Burnett (outfield) and Zaborowski (utility) made the second team. Zaborowski became the sixth Georgia player in school history to lead the league in batting (.370) and the second in as many years, joining Condon who lead the SEC and NCAA with a .443 clip in 2024. Also, Zaborowski led the SEC in slugging percentage (.788) and on base percentage (.500) in 2025.

Coggan, a former player and coach in the Southeastern Conference, came to the Bulldogs after spending four years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky under Nick Mingione. In 2023, Coggan helped the Wildcats advance to an NCAA Super Regional for only the second time in school history, and UK reached the 40-win mark for just the seventh time in program history. In SEC action, the Wildcats led the conference in batting average, doubles, triples, stolen bases and fielding percentage and finished second in on base percentage, hit by pitches and turning double plays. The Wildcats led the nation with a school record .984 fielding percentage.

Coggan, a former Mississippi State infielder and assistant coach, has proven adept in recruiting and as a hitting guru who has helped developed 19 players who have reached the Major Leagues. Additionally, he's been to the College World Series as a player, won multiple conference championships with St. Johns River State College and an SEC title while at his alma mater.

Coggan served as the hitting coach for the 2016 MSU club that won the SEC championship, was a national seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw 11 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including seven members making it to the Major Leagues. It was his second stint in Starkville, having played for the Bulldogs from 2007-08 and served on former UK and Mississippi State coach John Cohen's staff from 2009-12. He spent three seasons at St. Johns River State College in Palatka, Fla., before returning to State before the 2016 season.

In 2016, the Bulldogs improved their team batting average 42 points (.271 to .313), on-base percentage jumped from .372 to .407 and slugging percentage increased by 91 points. The club hit 30 more home runs, 60 more extra-base hits and scored 90 more runs on the way to 20 more wins.

Perhaps most impressive was Coggan's work with then-freshman outfielder Jake Mangum, who captured the batting title and became the first Mississippi State player to win SEC Freshman of the Year and first freshman to win the C Spire Ferriss Trophy, which is awarded to the best college baseball player in Mississippi. Mangum would go on to become the SEC's all-time hits leader and helped the program to back-to-back trips to the College World Series in 2018 and 2019.

He also played an important role in the development of 2017 SEC Player of the Year and First-Team All-American Brent Rooker, who won the SEC's Triple Crown for batting average, home runs and RBI on his way to being named the Roy F. Kramer SEC Male Athlete of the Year. Rooker made his debut with Minnesota in 2020 and has been named a two-time All-Star during his career with Oakland.

Following the 2016 campaign, Coggan, a native of Booneville, Miss., was promoted to the recruiting coordinator role when Mingione accepted the Kentucky head coaching job. MSU went to two Super Regionals and won the SEC regular season title and the SEC Tournament title (in different seasons).

In between his two stints at Mississippi State, Coggan helped St. Johns River State College post 122 victories in three seasons, including a 57-14 mark in the Mid-Florida Conference. The 122 wins from 2013-15 were the most by a Florida junior college and the program spent time in the top five nationally in 2014 before being ranked No. 1 for much of the 2015 campaign. The Vikings won a school-record 47 games in 2015, won three straight league titles for the first time since 1966-68 and won their first Florida State Tournament game in 38 years.

While at SJRSC, Coggan's calling card was player development, where 25 players went on to sign with Division I-A programs and 45 with four-year schools. Current big-leaguer Nate Lowe (Texas Rangers) earned NJCAA First-Team All-American honors in 2015 after hitting .372 with 59 runs, 53 RBI and 17 home runs in 56 games before signing with Mississippi State. Lowe went on to win the MLB Silver Slugger award for the Texas Rangers in 2023. The 2015 SJR team also featured 2023 Gold Glove winning centerfielder Myles Straw of the Cleveland Guardians.

Coggan was a middle infielder on Mississippi State's 2007 and 2008 teams after two seasons at Northeast Mississippi Community College. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2010 from Mississippi State before adding a master's degree in sports administration in 2012. He is engaged to Reba Parker, who is the Director of Football Compliance for the UGA Athletic Association.

Nick AMMIRATI

Asst. Coach/Hitting
2nd Season at UGA
(Miss. St. '13)

#71

Nick Ammirati enters his second season as a member of Wes Johnson's coaching staff at the University of Georgia.

Ammirati (am-uh-RAH-tee), also known as "Ammo," directs the Bulldog offense, works with the outfielders, and helps coordinate transfer portal recruiting.

During the 2025 regular season, Georgia led the nation in home runs as they eventually tallied 144 in 60 games which ranked second in school history. Georgia's 475 RBI ranked third in school history. In 2025, Georgia raced out to another impressive start that featured a 17-game winning streak and ultimately finished 43-17. The Bulldogs were a consensus top 10 ranked team, including reaching as high as No. 1 during the season, and played host to an NCAA Regional for the second straight year. Also, the Bulldogs established a school record for fielding percentage at .983.

Prior to Georgia, Ammirati served as the hitting, infield, and catching coach on Nick Mingione's staff at Kentucky for three years. In those three years, Ammirati was instrumental in helping Kentucky reach new heights: including winning a regular season SEC Championship, hosting two regionals, two super regionals, and was highlighted by earning the program's first ever trip to the College World Series in 2024. Prior to Ammirati's arrival in Lexington in 2022, Kentucky had been playing college baseball since 1896 and had only been to seven regionals and one super regional. Ammirati also brought in three top 10 transfer portal classes in his three years in Lexington.

Prior to heading to Kentucky, Ammirati helped guide Southern Miss to an NCAA Tournament appearance as an assistant coach in 2021 when the Golden Eagles posted a 40-21 mark and reached the Oxford (Miss.) Regional final. USM ranked 17th in home runs, 23rd in doubles and 31st in slugging percentage. Ammirati also helped outfielder Reed Trimble become the 65th overall pick in the 2021 MLB Draft, as well earning Perfect Game/Rawlings All-America third-team honors as the all-conference and freshman All-America honoree ranked first nationally in runs batted in and was 24th nationally in home runs.

Before going to USM, Ammirati spent four seasons at Hinds Community College (HCC) as an assistant coach, serving as the program's recruiting coordinator and the school's sports information director. In his first three years at Hinds, he was the pitching and catching coach, leading the Eagles to back-to-back regional appearances, including a regional championship and an NJCAA Division II World Series appearance in 2017. The 2017 season saw Hinds' pitching staff rank sixth nationally with a 3.43 Earned Run Average (ERA), which also ranked as the lowest team ERA in program history. The 2018 and 2019 staffs also ranked high, finishing seventh and 20th in the nation, respectively.

In 2020 at HCC, he took over coaching third base and ran the offense while working primarily with catchers and infielders. The Eagles posted a team batting average of .340 and a .553 slugging percentage. Both marks ranked in the top 10 nationally. More than any other Junior College in the country, a total of 61 players that Ammirati recruited and developed during his four-year tenure at HCC continued their careers at the next level, including 44 NCAA Division I signees – seven of which signed with SEC schools. Additionally, five went on to get selected in the MLB Draft.

Ammirati came to HCC after two years at Northwestern State where he worked with current Louisiana Tech head coach Lane Burroughs. In his two seasons as assistant coach and camp coordinator in Natchitoches, La., NSU claimed a pair of 30-win seasons and had six players taken in the MLB Draft, including three who have since gone on to make their MLB Debuts including 2024 MLB All Star David Fry, Nick Heath, and Adam Oller.

Prior to embarking on his coaching career, Ammirati was a standout switch-hitting catcher. His baseball career began at Seton Hall Prep in West Orange, New Jersey, where he was a high school state and national champion as the team's starting catcher. The 2007 Seton Hall Prep team went 33-1 due in part to Ammirati and battery mate Rick Porcello, who pitched for the Boston Red Sox and was the 2016 American League Cy Young Award winner.

After getting drafted out of high school in the 46th round by the Miami Marlins in 2009, Ammirati opted for college and enrolled at Seton Hall University. As a freshman in 2010, he played 22 games with 18 starts before transferring at the end of the season to Panola College in Texas. After a successful one-year stint in Panola, Ammirati transferred to Mississippi State where he played two seasons.

During his two-year career at MSU, Ammirati won the SEC tournament, hosted and won the Starkville Regional (2013), Charlottesville Super Regional (2013) and most notably was the starting catcher for the 2013 CWS runner-up squad, Ammirati was the battery mate for 12 pitchers that reached the majors.

Ammirati's track record is notable both as a player in high school, college, and the professional ranks as well as a coach at the NCAA and NJCAA level. Ammirati is one of the few coaches to reach the NCAA College World Series as both a player (2013) and as a coach (2024).

Ammirati earned his bachelor's degree in public relations from Mississippi State in 2013 where he was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll honoree. He received his master's in health and human performance from Northwestern State in 2016. He is married to the former Caroline Pound. They have one son, Banks.

7th Season at UGA
(Alabama '10)

#41

Atlanta native Brock Bennett enters his seventh season on the Georgia staff including his second as an assistant coach under Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson. Since the summer of 2024, he has served as the Recruiting Coordinator too.

During the 2025 regular season, the Bulldogs led the nation in home runs as they tallied 144 in 60 games, trailing only the 2024 club that hit a school record 151. Georgia's 475 RBI ranked third in school history. In 2025, Georgia raced out to another impressive start that featured a 17-game winning streak and eventually finished 43-17. The Bulldogs were a consensus top 10 ranked team, including reaching as high as No. 1 during the season, and played host to an NCAA Regional for the second year in a row. Also, the Bulldogs established a school record for fielding percentage at .983.

Robbie Burnett and Ryland Zaborowski were named semifinalists for the Dick Howser Trophy plus Burnett was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Trophy. Third baseman Slate Alford earned first team All-SEC honors while Burnett (outfield) and Zaborowski (utility) made the second team.

Bennett assisted with Georgia's record-setting offense in 2024 as the Bulldogs finished with a 43-17 mark and one win away from the College World Series. Georgia posted a top 10 final team ranking for the first time since 2008. The offense was headlined by a pair of All-Americans in Charlie Condon and Corey Collins. Condon swept every major award, earning the Dick Howser Trophy, the Golden Spikes Award, the Bobby Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award plus was named National Player of the Year by multiple outlets. Collins became the first SEC player to lead the country in on base percentage at .574.

The 2024 Bulldogs finished second nationally with a school record 151 home runs including 12 grand slams and led the SEC in on base percentage (.433), hit by pitches (128), strikeout-to-walk ratio (1.24) and was second in the league batting average (.303) and slugging percentage (.589).

From 2019-2023, Bennett was a volunteer assistant with the Bulldogs under Scott Stricklin. During this time, he worked with the catchers, infielders and served as the first base coach. Also, he was in charge of on-campus recruiting and assisted in the coordination of camps.

The 2023 Bulldogs posted a 29-27 mark. The team overcame a 1-9 SEC start to go 10-10 over its final 20 league games to qualify for the SEC Tournament. The team set a school record with a .981 fielding percentage. The Bulldogs tallied 101 home runs, the third most in school history. Georgia's lineup featured All-America first baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon who was voted the National Freshman Hitter of the Year by the NCBWA as well as Collegiate Baseball. Also, he was named the SEC Freshman of the Year by league coaches.

The 2022 squad advanced to the NCAA Chapel Hill (N.C.) Regional and posted a 36-23 overall record including a 15-15 mark in the SEC, which was good for second place in the Eastern Division. The Bulldogs were a fixture in the top 25 team rankings during the regular season. Bennett's work with the defense helped the squad post a .978 fielding percentage which was the third best in school history while the team batted .284 which was the highest since 2010.

reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. Still, Georgia went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs earned a No. 8 seed for the SEC Tournament and went 1-2 with a win over LSU to end the season at 31-25.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. Along with working at Georgia, his experience includes stops at Georgia State, Alabama and Georgia Perimeter College (GPC) following his playing career with the Crimson Tide.

Bennett began his coaching career by spending three years as an assistant at GPC under Brett Campbell and Jeremy Brotherton while helping the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there. Then, he was named the volunteer coach at Georgia State (GSU) on Greg Frady's staff. He helped develop catcher Nick Gatewood, who went on to become an 11th-round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Bennett had an opportunity to coach at his alma mater when he joined Brad Bohannon's staff in 2017-18. He comes to Georgia after spending the 2019 season as an assistant coach at GSU. Bennett directed the Panther offense and worked with the infielders.

A graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian, Bennett was a catcher/infielder at Alabama (2007-11), where he posted a .314 career batting average while starting more than 100 games, including 97 starts behind the plate. He saw action at third base and second base too while setting a single season (21) and career mark for sacrifice bunts (28). As a senior, he batted .338 with 22 RBI and 39 runs scored plus a team-high .992 fielding percentage. During his career, the Crimson Tide advanced to four straight NCAA Regionals including a Super Regional in 2010. He made the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Tournament team, was named National Player of the Week by College Baseball 360 and garnered a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List.

He earned a degree in business management from Alabama. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 33rd round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Draft. Bennett is married to the former Ashley Skorcz. They have two children, Chandler (7) and Chase (3).

Zach ADAMS

Associate Athletic Trainer
6th Season at UGA
(Alabama '09)

Zach Adams begins his sixth season as an associate athletic trainer with the UGA baseball program. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. Adams came to Georgia after spending eight years at the College of Charleston, where he oversaw the sports medicine coverage for the baseball team. Prior to working with the Cougars, Adams worked at the University of North Georgia in Dahlonega, Ga., overseeing the medical care for their baseball team for two seasons.

A native of Cullman, Ala., Adams has been a certified athletic trainer since 2009. He graduated with a M.S. in Sport Management from Florida State University in 2011 and a B.S. in Athletic Training from the University of Alabama in 2009. Adams is married to the former Jensine Jernigan of Powder Springs Ga. Zach and Jensine have two children, Kennedy (6) and Emerson Kate (3) and are expecting a third child in February of 2026.

Duncan LUTZ

Director, Sports Performance
2nd Season at UGA
(Ga. State '23)

Duncan Lutz enters his second year with the baseball program and his first as the associate director of sports performance.

Lutz, a native of Homerville, Ga., has been involved in Division I baseball for the past seven years. A five-year letterman as a pitcher at Georgia State, the 6-5, 230-pound right-hander received a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2023 with a 4.0 Grade Point Average (GPA). He posted nine straight semesters on the President's List (4.0 GPA) and was named the Outstanding Exercise Science Student of the Year at GSU. He earned a Master of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Georgia in 2025.

The 25-year-old Lutz is responsible for overseeing the training program of the baseball team with an emphasis on strength, power, speed, and long-term health. He utilizes biomechanics, and athlete data systems for individualized programming.

Since 2024, he has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) and trained in CPR and AED skills along with Newforce Technologies and Vald Performance systems. Last year, he served as a graduate assistant with the Bulldog baseball program in sports performance. In 2025, he was a member of Georgia baseball's sports performance staff as the Bulldogs finished 43-17. They were a consensus top 10 team and reached as high as No. 1 during the season. Georgia played host to an NCAA Regional as a national top eight seed for the second consecutive year.

Drew FINLEY

Director of Player Development,
Video & Scouting
1st Season at UGA
(LSU '23)

Drew Finley begins his first season as the Director of Player Development, Video and Scouting for the University of Georgia baseball program.

Following a six-year professional baseball career, Finley earned an undergraduate degree in sports management while working with the LSU baseball program from 2021-2024. The 29-year-old Finley comes to Georgia after spending the 2025 season as the pitching coach for Nicholls State.

Finley was a student assistant on LSU's 2023 national championship team including working with then pitching coach Wes Johnson and a host of professional prospects including the number one overall draft pick that year in Paul Skenes, another first rounder in Ty Floyd and second round pick Grant Taylor. During the 2024 season, he served as the director of pitching development for LSU when eight Tiger pitchers were drafted including Luke Holman, Gage Jump and Thatcher Hurd as they went in the first three rounds. Along with Johnson, he worked with pitching coaches Jason Kelly and Nate Yeskie during his time at LSU.

Finley, a native of San Diego, Calif., was a third-round pick of the New York Yankees in the 2015 First-Year Player Draft out of Rancho Bernardo High School. In his second season and debut with the Staten Island Yankees, Finley tossed a no-hitter, which was just the second in franchise history. In November 2018, he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers for outfielder Tim Locastro. He retired from playing professional baseball in 2021.

His prep highlights include setting a California D1 state single-game record with 20 strikeouts, pitched the winning game at the Perfect Game All-American Classic, and was ranked as the 24th, 57th, and 61st best prospect in the 2015 MLB Draft by Keith Law, MLB.com, and Baseball America, respectively.

Finley's life has always centered around baseball. The son of Los Angeles Dodgers Vice President of Amateur and International Scouting, David Finley, Drew grew up attending games of all levels across the nation, had a front row seat at spring training camps, and was given the opportunity to learn from players, coaches and team personnel.

Sam NAEHER

Director of Baseball Operations
1st Season at UGA
(Georgia '25)

Sam Naeher joined the University of Georgia baseball staff as the director of baseball operations in September of 2025.

Naeher, a 2025 UGA graduate in sport management and marketing, served as a student manager for the baseball program during the 2023 and 2024 seasons. Prior to that, he worked with Olympic Sports Nutrition for the UGAAA from 2022-23.

He will organize team travel, handle all equipment, as well as assist all members of the coaching staff in their day-to-day tasks. Additionally, he will direct camps, assist with on campus recruiting, special events and oversee the student managers and interns with the program.

Before returning to Georgia, he spent 13 months with the Athens Church College Ministries Leadership Development Program. He helped plan and facilitate large events for Athens Church like "College Nights."

Naeher, a native of Watkinsville, Ga., is a 2021 graduate of Prince Avenue Christian School where he played baseball and football. He attended Georgia College and State University before transferring to UGA in 2022. Naeher grew up in a large family with seven siblings. He is engaged to Emma Grace Halleck.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation's top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018. Tucker Bradley in 2020 was the last Bulldog to excel as an outfielder and relief pitcher.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lillquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals. Lillquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Nine former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including the 2024 winner in third baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon who swept every national award with one of the greatest seasons in college baseball history. Condon received the award before game one of the 2024 College World Series Finals in Omaha, Neb.

As the winner, Condon is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His name is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, Condon becomes the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

Condon is one of six Bulldog first round picks that have been up for the award, joining Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (2008), Joshua Fields (2008), Cris Carpenter (1987) and Derek Lillquist (1987). Second round pick Rich Poythress (2009) was a nominee as well. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and pitcher Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semifinalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. When Carpenter and Lillquist were tabbed as nominees for the 1987 award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated too.

THE DICK HOWSER TROPHY

In 2024, All-America third baseman/outfielder Charlie Condon became Georgia's first recipient of the Dick Howser Trophy presented by the The Game Headwear and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA). Since 1987, the Howser Trophy goes to the nation's top Division I baseball player. In June, Condon received it live on the MLB Network from Charles Schwab Stadium, site of the annual College World Series (CWS). Condon, along with his parents and Georgia's Ike Cousins head baseball coach Wes Johnson, were invited to the CWS for the presentation prior to game one.

Condon became the 37th recipient of the trophy. He became just the third player in Division I history to lead the country in both batting average and home runs in the same season. He led the NCAA in four statistical categories: Batting (.443) Home Runs (a BBCOR-era record 37), Home Runs Per Game (.62) and Slugging Percentage (1.009). Also, he posted a national-best OPS of 1.565.

The Howser Trophy is given in the memory of the former Florida State All-America shortstop and major league player and manager who died of brain cancer in 1987. The trophy is regarded as baseball's most prestigious award and the equivalent of the Heisman Trophy. The criteria includes performance on the field, leadership, moral character and courage - all qualities that were exemplified by Dick Howser's life. The annual winner has his name inscribed on the permanent trophy, which is a bronze bust of Howser. Both the recipient and his school receive a special trophy to keep. Condon became the highest drafted Bulldog in school history, going third overall to the Colorado Rockies in 2024.

THE BOBBY BRAGAN COLLEGIATE SLUGGER AWARD

In 2017, the Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Award was established to honor a Texas Division I player based on performance at the plate, academics and personal integrity. It was part of the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation that began as a scholarship program in 1991 that has provided college scholarships to children in the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex area. In 2021, it became a national award and was open to all 300 Division I baseball programs. Charlie Condon was a finalist in 2023 and won the award in 2024.

OTHER NATIONAL PLAYER AWARDS

In 1985, Ron Wenrich was tabbed the National Freshman of the Year by Baseball America.

In 1987, Derek Lillquist was named Baseball America's National Pitcher of the Year.

In 2023, Charlie Condon was a consensus Freshman of the Year. Condon was honored by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, D1Baseball and the NCBWA.

In 2024, consensus All-America Charlie Condon was named Player of the Year by Baseball America, D1Baseball and Perfect Game.

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010. Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018.

He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances.

Schunk made his major league debut in 2024 with the Rockies.

THE STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association of America (NCBWA) since 2005, this award goes to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division 1. In 2008, Georgia All-America closer Joshua Fields posted 18 saves to claim the award as he helped guide the Bulldogs the finals of the College World Series.

A first round draft pick of Seattle, Fields made his MLB debut in 2013 and spent six years in the Majors. He was a part of two World Series teams with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

FEED THE TREES

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold

Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year and then signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2020.

GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valuable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals.

He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less than a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings. A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.

Frank Foley:
Bulldog letterman
and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The $45 million renovation of Foley Field that was completed prior to the 2025 season continued to elevate both the player and fan experience at UGA's baseball facility. Improvements were made along the left field line and included a new pitching lab and hitting tunnels, coaches' office and other amenities. For the fans, there are multiple new premium spaces as well as enhanced fan experiences throughout the venue. For 2024, the Bulldogs welcomed a new locker room and team meeting room plus new stadium LED lights.

The history of Foley Field includes a 2015 project, and the large-scale measures of that revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dugouts, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

*Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date. After World War II, Georgia played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today. When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished field was dedicated. Upgrades have continued including $12 million in 2015 and a $45 million project completed for 2025.

Bulldogs Host Regional, Finish 43-17 Again

◆ In year two of the Wes Johnson era, the Bulldogs made their second straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament as a national seed and regional host. Incidentally, the Bulldogs finished the season with a 43-17 mark like in 2024. Johnson's two-year coaching record of 86-34 is the best start by a Georgia baseball coach. Here are a few highlights from 2025:

- ◆ Led the Nation in Home Runs with 144 in 60 games (2nd most in program history to 151 in 2024)
- ◆ Led the SEC in Home Runs and Slugging Percentage (.564) and finished second in On Base Percentage (.411) and Hit By Pitch (125)
- ◆ Set School Record for Fielding Percentage (.983)
- ◆ Set School Record for Strikeouts by Pitchers (636)
- ◆ 10 Players Drafted (second most in school history) and Signed plus three signed as Free Agents plus one signed to play in the Frontier League
- ◆ SEC Batting/SLG% & OB% Champion: Ryland Zaborowski (.370/.768/500); Zaborowski is the sixth Bulldog in school history to lead the SEC in batting and second straight year a Georgia player has done it (2024: Charlie Condon, .433)
- ◆ SEC Pitching Leader in Lowest Opponent Batting Average: Brian Curley (.179)
- ◆ Set School Record For Most Putouts In A Season By A Catcher: 490 by Henry Hunter

National Recognition In 2025

◆ Senior OF/INF Robbie Burnett and DH/INF Ryland Zaborowski made various All-America teams. Both made the First Team NCBWA squad while Zaborowski also was named to the First Team by Perfect Game and the ABCA. Both were semifinalists for the Dick Howser Trophy while Burnett was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award.

◆ Five Bulldogs made the College Sports Communicators Academic All-District team in Kolby Branch, Robbie Burnett, Zach Harris, DJ Radtke and Brian Zeldin. The team is for starters/key reserves who excel on the field with at least a 3.50 GPA.

Burnett earned First Team Academic All-America honors after a nationwide ballot. He became the first Bulldog baseball player in school history to be named a first team All-American on the field and in the classroom.

30 Bulldogs Earn SEC Academic Honors

◆ A total of 12 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Spring Honor Roll while 18 more made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll. The veteran Bulldogs on it were: Kolby Branch, Paul Farley, Zach Harris, Henry Hunter, Wyatt Land, Kolten Smith, LeightonFinley, Charlie Goldstein, Matthew Hoskins, Tyler McLoughlin, DJ Radtke and Brian Zeldin.

All-SEC Bulldogs

◆ Senior 3B Slate Alford (.331 Avg., 19 HR, 63 RBI) earned first team honors while OF Robbie Burnett, (.307 Avg., 20 HR, 66 RBI, 17 SB), DH Ryland Zaborowski (.370 Avg., 17 HR, 61 RBI) and RHP Brian Curley (4-4, 3.55 ERA, 2 SV) made the second team. There were no Bulldogs named to the Freshman All-SEC or SEC All-Defensive Team. During the month of March, Burnett and Zaborowski earned SEC Player of the Week honors.

Bulldog Team Award Recipients

◆ The UGA Outstanding Senior Baseball Award and the UGA Scholar-Athlete Award for baseball went to All-America/Academic All-America Robbie Burnett (.307 BA, 20 HR, 66 RBI, 3.66 GPA). He became just the second Bulldog baseball player to be named a First Team Academic All-America and eighth overall to make either the first, second or third team. Emerson Hancock (2020) was the other First Team Academic All-American.

◆ The Gordon Beckham MVP Award went to senior Slate Alford (.331 BA, 19 HR, 63 RBI) as he started all 60 games including 57 at third base and three at second base. He led the team in runs, hits, doubles, triples and was second in home runs, RBI

◆ The Bert Kizer Award for the top first-year player on and off the field went to junior RHP Brian Curley (4-4, 3.55 ERA, 2 SV, 17 App., 10 starts)

◆ The Jim Umbricht Award for the most competitive Bulldog went to graduate Ryland Zaborowski (SEC-best .370 BA, .780 SLG% plus 17 HR, 61 RBI).

Georgia In The MLB Draft

◆ The 2025 Major League Baseball Draft was 20 rounds, and the Bulldogs had 10 selections (second most in school history) plus four more players signed free agent deals (three with MLB clubs and one in the Frontier League).

Junior RHP J.T. Quinn was the first to be selected going 69th overall as a 2nd round compensation pick to the Baltimore Orioles. RHP Brian Curley (Arizona) went in the 3rd round followed by RHP Leighton Finley (Boston, 6th round), 3B Slate Alford (9th Round, Los Angeles Angels), RHP Tyler McLoughlin (10th Round, N.Y. Mets), LHP Alton Davis II (11th round, Los Angeles Angels), RHP Zach Harris (11th Round, Colorado), RHP Kolten Smith (12th Round, Minnesota), RHP Matthew Hoskins (12th Round, Kansas City) and RHP Davis Chastain (14th Round, Los Angeles Dodgers).

The Bulldog trio to sign free agent deals were OF Robbie Burnett (N.Y. Yankees), RHP Eric Hammond (Minnesota) and INF Ryland Zaborowski (Los Angeles Angels). Also, C Henry Hunter signed with the Florence Y'alls, an independent team in the Frontier League and then later in the summer with the Cincinnati Reds.

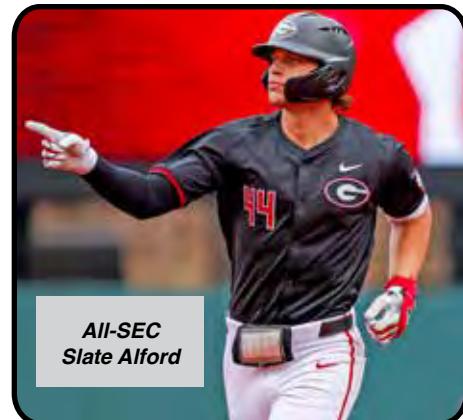

The Bulldogs extended their string to 53 straight seasons with at least one player signing a contract as all 13

All-American

*In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the inception of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

SEC BASEBALL LEGENDS PROGRAM

Former Georgia All-America shortstop Reggie Andrews was honored at the 2012 Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament in Hoover, Ala., as part of the inaugural group of SEC Baseball Legends. Four legends from four schools are recognized each year, and the 2012 class featured players from the University of Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas and Florida. Georgia RHP Cris Carpenter was part of the 2016 class of Legends. There was no 2020 SEC Tournament or 2020 Legends class due to COVID-19. In 2023, Georgia's LHP/DH Derek Lillquist was part of the latest Legends class.

*ACADEMIC ALL-SEC (*From 1971-83)

The Academic All-SEC team was developed to recognize the outstanding athletes who are also outstanding students. To be eligible, a student-athlete must: 1) have a 3.0 grade point average for either the past year or for their career; 2) be a sophomore or higher in academic classification; and 3) have 24 semester hours countable toward a degree. There were 19 Bulldogs honored 24 times during this period.

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL SINCE 1984

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 175 Bulldogs have been honored 316 times.

Note: When the draft began in 1965, there were three phases. The winter session was phased out in 1986 and the secondary in 1987; SP=Secondary Phase; FA=Free Agent; *Davis left UGA after one season and played at Manatee JC in 1981; DNS=did not sign and returned to UGA.

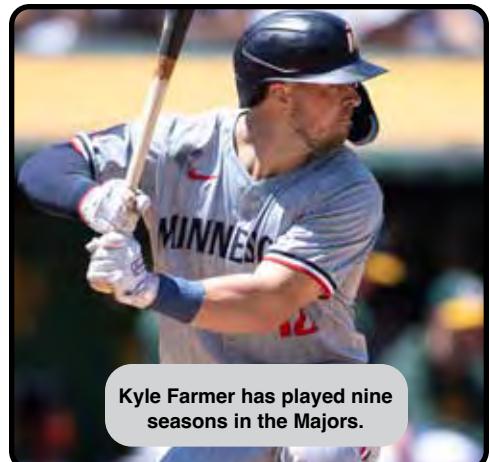

Forty-five former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2025. Cole Wilcox (Tampa Bay) and Dylan Ross (N.Y. Mets) earned September promotions with Wilcox making his debut.

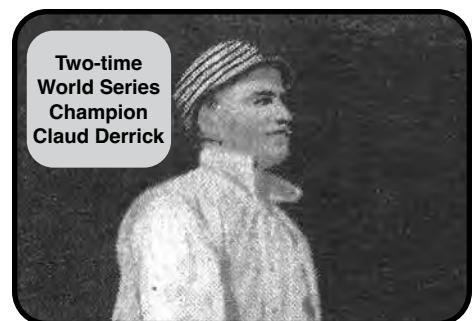

Also, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. Wood spent 12 seasons in the Majors (2013-24).

Kyle Farmer has played nine seasons in the Majors.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team and made his debut in game two, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line out off Minnesota's Jerry Koosman. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

USA BASEBALL

USA Baseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936: Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987: Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)

(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989: Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)

(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994: Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)

(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)
Opening Night Starter, beat Nicaragua 7-4 in Millington, Tenn.
Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002: Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)

(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

2012: Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)

(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)
Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

2015: Robert Tyler, RHP (Cordele, Ga.)

(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)
Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019: Cole Wilcox, RHP

(Chickamauga, Ga.)
(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)

Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba...Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.

2024: Alton Davis II, LHP (Hueytown, Ala., 1-0, 0.00 ERA, 2 app., 2.2 IP, 3K), LHP, Tre Phelps, INF/OF (Atlanta, Ga., 4 starts, .385, one triple, one home run, 4 RBI), Kolten Smith, RHP (Ocala, Fla., 0-0, 10.80 ERA, 2 app., 1.2 IP, 1K)

In 2024, USA Baseball fielded a pair of collegiate national squads with one playing the International Friendship Series (IFS) and another the Summer League Tour (SLT).

Davis and Smith played in the IFS while Phelps competed on the SLT. Davis was part of a combined no-hitter in a 9-0 win over Chinese Taipei. He pitched the final two innings with three strikeouts. It was the first no-hitter by the Collegiate National Team since 2015 against Cuba. Phelps led the SLT with a .385 batting average. He had a three-run triple to pace the SLT squad to a 7-6 win over the Appy League West Select team.

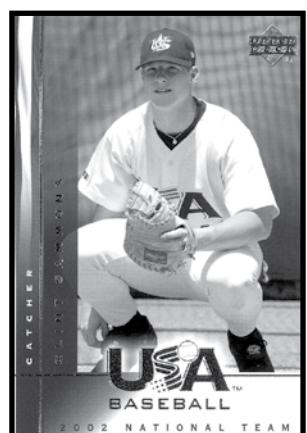

2023: Charlie Condon, 1B/OF (Marietta, Ga.)
(10 games, 10 starts, .256-3-11, .538 SLG% and a 1.000 FLDG.%)

Started all 10 games and helped team go 7-3 including a five-game sweep in the 20th USA vs. Chinese Taipei International Friendship Series. In December of 2023, USA Baseball announced its annual organizational award winners. Condon's walk-off single for the CNT on July 4th against Chinese Taipei garnered him the International Performance of the Year Award.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.

Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

USA National Fall/Summer Team Trials

COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TEAMS

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.

Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national title in 1990. After his Georgia career, Webber served as a pitching coach in several organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego, Houston and Atlanta. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018. Webber passed away in 2022.

1990 College World Series All-Tournament Team

Pitchers (2): Dave Fleming and Mike Rebhan, Georgia;

Catcher: Michael Daniel, Okla. State; First Base: Doug Radziewicz, Georgia; Second Base: Troy Paulsen, Stanford; Shortstop: Brad Beanblossom, Okla. State; Third Base: Bobby Carlsen, Okla. State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU; +1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

35th Year Anniversary Of The 1990 National Champions

A total of more than 20 members of the 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2025 to highlight Lettermen's Day and be honored on the 35th year of being the first SEC team to win a baseball national title. Mrs. Pam Webber and daughter Ashley attended for the late head coach Steve Webber. Brian Jester (right) and J.P. Stewart received Lettermen's Club Awards too.

 11 Feb. 21, 2018 @ Kennesaw State (6th inn.); Final 14-4

The last time Georgia allowed 11 runs in an inning came in the 2024 Athens Super Regional against No. 10 N.C. State. The Wolfpack's outburst came in the 2nd inning of an 18-1 win.

Did You Know? NCAA Record-Tying 8th Inning Outburst

After an 0-5 start to league play in 2023, Georgia secured its first SEC win at Auburn thanks to a record 16-run outburst in the eighth inning. The Bulldogs would post a 24-7 victory in eight innings due to the 10-run mercy rule. In the NCAA record book, the only other team to score 16 runs in an 8th inning was Southern Illinois in 1988 versus Murray State and Saint Mary's (Minn.). The NCAA mark for runs in an inning is 21 by three teams, most recently by Valparaiso in the fifth inning versus Chicago State on April 2, 2010.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplary achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

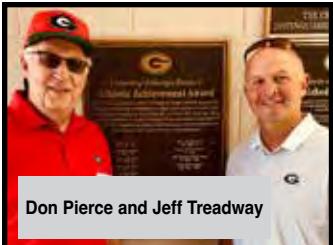

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRICH AWARD

The Jim Umbright Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta. Jim Umbright was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing shortstop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

MORTON HODGSON: One of the Best Ever

Morton Hodgson (1906-09) not only was a starter for four years in baseball, he lettered in football, basketball and track. He was Georgia's first four-letter athlete. A hometown hero, he hit .333 on the 1908 championship squad that was considered one of the greatest teams ever fielded by the University. The pitching staff was so strong it shutout 12 opponents, six in succession. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-Southern team.

His sons were stellar athletes for the Bulldogs and two of his grandsons lettered in football under Coach Vince Dooley. He is the only Georgia player to have a son and two grandsons letter in football at Georgia.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

Chris Singleton Returns To UGA In 2022

Chris Singleton, who lost his mother in the 2015 mass shooting at a church in Charleston, S.C., returned to UGA and visited with the Bulldogs in 2022. It was a part of his "Love is Stronger than Hate" lecture. He has become an inspirational speaker, sharing his message with collegiate and professional teams. An outfielder for Charleston Southern in college, he faced the Bulldogs at Foley Field in 2016. Singleton later played professionally in the Chicago Cubs organization.

CHANCE VEAZEY AND JOHNATHAN TAYLOR

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating "A Legacy of Strength."

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled "A Legacy of Strength."

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you're seeing possible.

COACHING HISTORY & HONORS

BULLDOG LORE

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native lowlander and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni. Webber passed away in 2022.
