SPRING MEDIA GUIDE

THE TRADITION OF UNBRIBBLED EXCELLENCE DEMONSTRATED BY THESE INDIVIDUALS AND MANY OTHERS SPANS MORE THAN A FULL CENTURY. THERE IS NO TRADITION WORTHY OF ENVY, NO INSTITUTION WORTHY OF SUCH LOYALTY AS THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. WE CALL BEHIND THE MEN WHO NOW WEAR THE RED AND BLACK WITH TWO WORDS, TWO SIMPLE WORDS THAT EXPRESS THE SENTIMENTS OF THE ENTIRE UNIVERSITY: GO DUKES!

The logo is a shield-shaped emblem. At the top, the words "Capital One" are written in a white, italicized sans-serif font. Below this, the words "ORANGE BOWL" are written in a large, bold, white, all-caps sans-serif font. The bottom half of the shield features a stylized white graphic of an orange bowl with a leafy stem. The entire logo is set against a dark background with a red and white speckled pattern.

QUARTERBACKS

Senior Carson Beck returns to lead Georgia after posting a 13-1 record in his first year as the Bulldogs' starting quarterback in 2023. He was a Manning Award finalist after finishing 5-1 versus top-20 opponents with a 73.9 completion percentage (125-of-169) for 1,693 yards, 13 touchdowns and only two interceptions in those contests. Gunner Stockton returns for his third season at Georgia after playing in four games last season and completing 63 percent of his passes for 148 yards and two scores. Early enrollee Ryan Puglisi arrived in January and will have the spring to fight for playing time as well after shredding defenses for more than 3,500 yards and 30 touchdowns during his last two seasons at Avon Old Farms HS (Conn.)

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulldogs' top two leading rushers from last year's SEC Eastern Division champion squad are preparing for the NFL Draft. With those departures, three returning running backs will all have their opportunity for carries in Roderick Robinson II (24 carries, 196 yards, two touchdowns), Andrew Paul (29-129-1) and Branson Robinson, who tore his ACL during the 2023 preseason. In 2022, Branson Robinson carried the ball 68 times for 330 yards and three scores in his true freshman season. Georgia will get an additional boost in the backfield with the addition of Florida transfer Trevor Etienne. The Jennings, Louisiana, native rushed 249 times for 1,472 yards and 14 touchdowns in his two seasons with the Gators while also catching 30 passes for 238 yards and one touchdown and returning 28 kicks for 671 yards. Also, early enrollee Chauncey Bowens (Port St. Lucie, Fla.) brings his more than 3,000 yards rushing and 33 scores from his prep career to Athens.

TIGHT ENDS

The Bulldogs have only had a trio of three-time All-Americans in school history and one of those, two-time Mackey Award winner Brock Bowers, completed his UGA career in 2023 after three record-breaking years. Oscar Delp, who caught 24 balls for 284 yards and three scores in 2023, begins his third year in Todd Hartley's tight ends room alongside sophomore Lawson Luckie, who played in half of Georgia's 14 games last season while dealing with an ankle injury. While both true freshmen Jaden Reddell and Colton Heinrich got a jumpstart on the offense with their early enrollee arrival, Ben Yurosek will join the program in the summer after four years at Stanford. Yurosek's top season with the Cardinal was as a sophomore as he hauled in 43 catches for 658 yards and three touchdowns.

Wide receiver Dillon Bell established himself as one of Georgia's top offensive threats, showing his versatility by running, catching, and passing for a touchdown.

Quarterback Carson Beck racked up 3,941 yards and Second Team All-SEC honors in his first season as Georgia's starter.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Similar to the running back position, opportunities abound for the Bulldog receivers in 2024. Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and Ladd McConkey have joined Bowers as they transition into their chance at the NFL, and three other receivers in Georgia's top six will be in focus. Dominic Lovett, the Missouri transfer who had 54 catches for 613 yards and four touchdowns in his first season with UGA last year, joins fellow transfer Rara Thomas (Mississippi State) and the versatile Dillon Bell in the corps this spring. Thomas registered nearly 400 yards receiving in 2023 while Bell went 29-355-2 in receiving, posted 25-164-2 in rushing and threw for a touchdown. Deep threat Arian Smith, who averaged more than 19 yards a catch, is also returning and will complement other returners Anthony Evans III and Tyler Williams. Transfers London Humphreys (Vanderbilt), Michael Jackson III (USC) and Colbie Young (Miami) have arrived in Athens and are expected to make an immediate impact. In addition, freshmen Nitro Tuggle (Goshen, Ind.) and Sacovie White (Cartersville, Ga.) started classes in January and will have time to make their impression on the Bulldog coaches before the fall.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

The 2023 unit was named a Joe Moore Award finalist for the third consecutive year after the Bulldogs averaged 40.1 points per game and 496 total yards per contest. Four of the five starters from last year's squad - Earnest Greene III, Dylan Fairchild, Tate Ratledge and Xavier Truss - return for the 2024 season. One spot that will need to be filled is for All-American center Sedrick Van Pran, who started 44 consecutive games during a stretch that saw the Bulldogs post a 42-2 record since 2021. Jared Wilson will be vying for the spot in the middle of the line along with Drew Bobo. Three linemen redshirted last season in Jamal Meriweather, Bo Hughley and Kelton Smith and that group will aim to earn playing time this spring. Georgia welcomed a massive group of lineman as early enrollees and this group will compete with regular 2023 contributors Micah Morris and Monroe Freeling, among others, for a spot in the rotation.

Defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse sealed Georgia's victory over Missouri with his first career interception.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Georgia has dedicated roster spots and concentrated on building its offensive and defensive lines into the backbone of some of the school's most successful seasons in history. This year is no different. Nazir Stackhouse, who has started 29 straight games, and Mykel Williams are two key components up front. Stackhouse finished last season with 24 stops and three tackles for loss, including a pair of sacks, and collected a pivotal interception to help the Bulldogs clinch the Missouri game. Williams was among the team leaders with 6.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks to go with a forced fumble and a recovered fumble as he was one of the team's premier disrupters in 2023. Another veteran, Warren Brinson, is expected to team with Christen Miller, Jamaal Jarrett and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins to keep Georgia's tradition of having a steady line of fresh bodies ready in the fall. In addition, South Carolina transfer Xzavier McLeod and early enrollees Joseph Jonah-Ajonye (Shenandoah, Texas), Nnamdi Ogboko (Durham, N.C.) and Jordan Thomas (Hackensack, N.J.) will add immediate depth to the unit.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Chaz Chambliss started all 14 games for a Bulldog defense that kept opponents to just 15 points a game while holding them to a 25 percent mark converting third downs. One of Georgia's most versatile players on defense is third-year linebacker Jalon Walker. Walker had a team-leading five sacks in his 20 tackles last year and forced a fumble last season playing both on the inside and outside. A talented group of rising sophomores has shown glimpses of what Georgia's next group at the position will look like with Sam M'Pemba, Gabe Harris, Jr. and Damon Wilson, Jr. Harris, Jr. led the group with three tackles for loss in 2023. Quintavius Johnson (Atlanta, Ga.) arrived in Athens in January and will be battling for playing time.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs received terrific news for their defense when Smael Mondon, Jr., who has 24 starts over the last two years, committed to return for next season. Despite battling injuries during his third season, Mondon is the top returning tackler (second overall in 2023) with 68 stops, including five tackles for loss and three sacks. The freshman duo of CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson shined last season and are predicted to be two of Georgia's leaders on defense this season. Allen played in all 14 contests, starting the last five, and finished with 41 stops while the speedy Wilson had 15 stops and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after overcoming an early injury. Troy Bowles and Terrell

Foster continued to become more seasoned for the Bulldogs as well at the position. Three early enrollees, Chris Cole (Salem, Va.), Kris Jones (Stafford, Va.) and Justin Williams (Conroe, Texas), are expected to add depth for the Bulldogs.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Georgia has become a pipeline for the NFL with its standout members of the secondary. This year's NFL Draft is expected to be no different as Kamari Lassiter, Javon Bullard and Tykee Smith work out for league scouts. The Bulldogs' current crop at the position is just as impressive with All-American Malaki Starks headlining the group. Starks has started the last 28 games during Georgia's historic three-year stretch and concluded 2023 with 52 tackles and three interceptions. Daylen Everette joined Starks as a 14-game starter last season and had 29 tackles, including three tackles for loss, and one pick as a sophomore. Georgia also retained a mixture of seasoned talent and rising standouts in Joanel Agüero, Julian Humphrey, Dan Jackson, JaCorey Thomas, Chris Peal, Kyron Jones, Justyn Rhett, Daniel Harris and David Daniel-Sisavanh in the backfield along with walk-on Patrick Taylor, who has impressed coaches during his time at UGA. One of the nation's top signing classes also included a talented corps in KJ Bolden (Buford, Ga.), Ondre Evans (Franklin, Tenn.), Demello Jones (Swainsboro, Ga.), Alabama transfer Jake Pope (Buford, Ga.) and Ellis Robinson IV (New Haven, Conn.) in its early enrollee class.

SPECIALISTS

The Bulldogs, like most programs, count on their punters to flip the field for the defense and on their kickers to bolster the offense with field goals when the unit comes up short of a touchdown. Georgia has reliable answers at both positions. Third-year Australian punter Brett Thorson averaged 43 yards on his 32 punts last year, helping to force 21 fair catches and ripping six that traveled 50 or more yards. Lou Groza Award semifinalist Peyton Woodring returns for his second season as the Bulldogs kicker. Woodring scored a team-high 134 points, going 21-for-25 on field goals and 71-for-71 on PATs. He ranked sixth nationally in scoring and third among kickers, and his 134 points ranks third best in school history for a kicker (most for a Bulldog freshman kicker). Georgia is aiming to replace snapper William Mote who started 54 consecutive games since the 2020 season. Jonathan Washburn and Will Snellings are currently the top two candidates to replace Mote. Anthony Evans III returns after bringing back four punts for 55 yards (13.6 avg.) and Dillon Bell is the top returner in the kickoff returns department with six for 160 (26.7 avg.). As usual, Kirby Smart will aim to discover a new batch of talent on special teams as the preseason camp unfolds.

Safety Malaki Starks became a Consensus All-American with 52 tackles and three interceptions on the season.

Challenging Slate Awaits Bulldogs

Georgia will open its 2024 season against Clemson in the Aflac Kickoff Game in Mercedes-Benz Stadium. This will mark the Bulldogs' fourth appearance in the Kickoff Game after third-ranked Georgia dismantled 11th-ranked Oregon, 49-3, in 2022 in its latest appearance. Following the Bulldogs' home opener versus Tennessee Tech, Georgia opens Southeastern Conference play at Kentucky before having its first of two off weeks on Sept. 21. On Sept. 28, the Bulldogs return to action and face Alabama in Tuscaloosa for the first time since 2020. The Bulldogs play host to another pair of SEC foes in Auburn and Mississippi State before making their first trip to Austin in nearly 70 years to play Texas. The Longhorns will join Oklahoma as the SEC's newest members this fall. With the addition of the new schools, the SEC will play without divisions for the first time since the 1991 season.

Georgia will have its second bye of the season (Oct. 26) before it faces Florida in Jacksonville. The Bulldogs last faced Ole Miss in Oxford during Kirby Smart's first season in 2016 and return to Mississippi on Nov. 9. Georgia concludes its campaign with a trio of games in Sanford Stadium, including a Nov. 16 showdown with Tennessee and the annual rivalry game against Georgia Tech.

2024 BULLDOG SPRING STORYLINES

Experienced Signal Caller Returns

Senior Carson Beck returns to lead Georgia after posting a 13-1 record in his first year as the Bulldogs' starting QB in 2023. He was a Manning Award finalist after finishing 5-1 versus top-20 opponents with a 73.9 Completion Percentage (125-169) for 1,693 yards, 13 touchdowns and only two interceptions in those contests.

Beck's return is bolstered by the fact that four of five starters on the line return in LT Earnest Greene III, LG Dylan Fairchild, RG Tate Ratledge and RT Xavier Truss. Joe Moore Award finalists the last three years, the unit enabled Georgia to score 40.1 points per game while setting a school record with 7.26 Yards Per Play.

Kendall Milton and Daijun Edwards accounted for more than 1,700 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns out of the backfield last year, and both departed for the NFL. Candidates to replace that duo will be Roderick Robinson II, Andrew Paul and Branson Robinson, who was sidelined in 2023 while recovering from an ACL tear, among others. A new face in the crowd, Florida transfer Trevor Etienne, will also be vying for a spot in the rotation after rushing for 249 times for 1,472 yards and 14 touchdowns in his two seasons with the Gators while also catching 30 passes for 238 yards and one touchdown and returning 28 kicks for 671 yards.

Bulldogs Target Replacements for Talented Receiving Trio

Georgia captured the 2021 and 2022 national championships and went 13-1 last season thanks in large part to three pivotal pass catchers. Two-time Mackey Award winner Brock Bowers, All-SEC receiver Ladd McConkey and Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, who finished with more than 1,000 yards receiving in his career, have all departed and are training for the NFL.

While that trio made up three of the top four receiving leaders from 2023, the Bulldogs still welcome back a dangerous corps at receiver. Dominic Lovett had 54 catches for 613 yards and four touchdowns in his first year at Georgia while the versatile Dillon Bell hauled in 29 catches for 355 yards and two scores, ran 25 times for 157 yards and two touchdowns and even passed for a touchdown. In addition, London Humphreys (Vanderbilt), Michael Jackson III (USC) and Colbie Young (Miami) transferred to UGA in January and are expected to contribute.

New Faces on Coaching Staff

The Bulldogs have a host of new coaches on staff following Georgia's third straight season with at least 13 wins. James Coley (wide receivers), who returns for his second stint during the Kirby Smart era, Josh Crawford (run game coordinator/running backs), Travaris Robinson (co-defensive coordinator, safeties) and Donte Williams (defensive backs) are fresh additions while Kirk Benedict has been promoted from special teams quality control to special teams coordinator. In addition, Will Muschamp has transitioned into an off-field analyst for the Bulldogs.

Special Specialists

Georgia welcomes back a two-year starter in P Brett Thorson and sophomore PK Peyton Woodring after both shined in 2023. Thorson had a 43.8 average on 32 punts in 2023 including 21 that resulted in fair catches. Thanks in part to Thorson's punts and to the entire punt coverage team, Georgia was the only team in the FBS that did not allow a punt return in 2023. Woodring was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist after scoring a team-high 134 points, going 21-for-25 on field goals and 71-for-71 on PATs in his first year last season. He ranked sixth nationally in Scoring and third among kickers and his 134 points ranks third best in school history for a kicker and most for a Bulldog freshman kicker.

Defense Aims to Remain Elite

Seven of 11 starters from Georgia's defense that helped blitz No. 5 Florida State, 63-3, return in 2024, including second-leading tackler Smael Mondon, Jr. who had 68 stops. The Bulldogs will need to replace three starters from the secondary as Javon Bullard, Kamari Lassiter and Tykee Smith are preparing for the NFL Draft. Still anchoring the defensive backfield are All-American safety Malaki Starks and Daylen Everette, who each started all 14 games last year. Linemen Zion Logue and Tramel Walthour are also preparing for the League, so Mykel Williams, Nazir Stackhouse and Warren Brinson will be leaned on to lead. With Mondon, Jr., CJ Allen and Chaz Chambliss back, the Bulldogs have the most familiar faces returning in the middle.

Back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, 2022), a 2017 CFP title game appearance, seven New Year's Six bowl games, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017 and 2022, six SEC Eastern Division titles, a 94-16 record, and six bowl victories are more than respectable rewards over an eight-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Georgia player Kirby Smart to head the program in December of 2015.

His impact, along with a stellar coaching staff, players, and a passionate fan base has put Georgia on the national stage eight years running. The 'Dogs boast a 46-2 record in the last 48 games and their 27 consecutive bowl game is best in the nation. Georgia's 2023 senior class set a school mark for career victories as they finished with a 50-4 mark.

2023 - The Bulldogs completed an undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 13-1 overall record after defeating FSU, 63-3, in the 2023 Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranked first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (289.07 ypg) and Passing Defense (175.43 ypg), and fifth nationally in Scoring Defense (15.64 ppg). The Bulldog offense ranked first in the SEC in Total Offensive Plays (958), second in the SEC and fifth nationally in both Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.14), and second in the SEC in Passing Offense (305.29 ypg).

2022 - Georgia captured its second SEC championship of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Peach Bowl CFP semifinal.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Sugar Bowl game.

2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the Liberty Bowl.

 Three-year letterman in football, basketball and baseball. First-team Class AAAA All-State as a senior. Sixteen career interceptions. Coached in football by his father, Sonny Smart.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of ten head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years at the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Gregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

The Smart Family

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart was a first-team All-SEC choice as a senior in 1998, when he led the league with five interceptions. Smart had six interceptions in his junior season of 1997.

With his 2021 national championship, Smart became the fifth SEC coach to win a title at his alma mater, joining Phillip Fulmer, Steve Spurrier, Bear Bryant, and Shug Jordan.

Mike Bobo

John & Alice Sands Offensive Coordinator -- Quarterbacks

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program for 14 seasons, Mike Bobo was named a Quality Control analyst with the Bulldog offense on Jan. 28, 2022. He was promoted to Offensive Coordinator in February, 2023.

His 2023 offense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 12-1 overall record heading into the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Georgia offense ranks 2nd in the SEC and top 10 nationally in Total Offense (482.9 ypg), Passing Offense (305.6 ypg), and Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg), helping him earn a second Broyles Award finalist accolade (2012).

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as OC and QBs coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State. At CSU, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program. Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year. During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the seventh-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, a Bulldog offensive lineman; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), red zone defense (2nd, 0.676), and total defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith), and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Malaki Starks).

In 2021, Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Wins and Games Played, as well as defensive marks for Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TDs. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TDs all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL draft including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

Schumann came to UGA after eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011) and then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014). In February 2014, he was named Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel serving in those positions until December 2015.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December 2011, and a masters in sports management from UA in December 2013. He and his wife Lauren have a son, Bryson Eric Schumann, born in September 2019, and a daughter, Whitley Maryann Schumann, born in May 2021.

Travaris Robinson

Co-Defensive Coordinator — Safeties

Travaris Robinson joined head coach Kirby Smart's coaching staff in January 2024 to be the Bulldogs' Co-Defensive Coordinator and guide the safeties.

Robinson had spent the two seasons (2022-23) before coaching cornerbacks at Alabama. Thanks in part to his leadership, the Tide posted a 23-4 record over that period, including wins in the 2023 SEC Championship Game and 2022 Sugar Bowl.

Robinson guided 2023 Freshman All-American and Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Caleb Downs as he led the Tide with 107 tackles, had two interceptions, forced a fumble and a recovered a fumble in his first season. In addition to having cornerback Brian Branch taken in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft, Robinson helped Alabama rank in the top 12 nationally in both Scoring Defense (18.2 points/game) and in Total Defense (318.2 yards/game) in 2022.

Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Robinson, known as "T-Rob," is a native of Miami who boasts 17 years of college coaching experience, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at South Carolina from 2016-19.

Robinson spent the 2021 season coaching defensive backs at Miami and was retained on the Hurricanes staff by new head coach Mario Cristobal before coming to Tuscaloosa.

In his final season at South Carolina in 2020, Robinson mentored defensive lineman Kingsley Enagbare, a first team All-SEC selection, and defensive back Jaycee Horn, a second-team All-SEC pick. In 2019, the South Carolina defense — led by first team All-American defensive tackle Javon Kinlaw — held its opponents to 20 points or less in five games. In 2017, South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of their 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average. South Carolina also tied for 10th in the nation in turnovers forced with 27 during the 2016 campaign, including 15 interceptions.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs before arriving in Columbia, S.C. as defensive coordinator — first at Florida (2011-14), then at Auburn (2015). The former Auburn Tiger standout began his coaching career at his alma mater, first as a staff assistant in 2006 while finishing up

Glenn Schumann

Fain & Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator — Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was named Co-Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers coach at Georgia in February 2019 after three seasons in charge of the Bulldogs' inside linebackers. He was promoted to Defensive Coordinator during his second year calling the plays for the Georgia defense.

Georgia has continued to set the standard in college football for defense. Schumann has played a central role in keeping the level of performance high. The Bulldogs have led the nation in Scoring Defense and ranked among the national leaders in Total Defense throughout the 2022 campaign.

He took over the play calling duties for the defense that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Peach Bowl, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing defense (1st, 77.1), scoring his undergraduate degree, then as a GA in 2007. Robinson spent one season each as a defensive backs coach at Western Kentucky (2008), Southern Miss (2009) and Texas Tech (2010) before joining the Florida staff.

In his first season at Florida in 2011, Robinson guided a UF secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense (166.8), while the Gator defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5). In 2012, Robinson led a secondary that was one of the best, ranking No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense (95.55), giving up just seven touchdown passes. Florida was seventh nationally with 20 interceptions and safety Matt Elam earned first team All-America honors.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, he helped Texas Tech to an 8-5 record and a TicketCity Bowl victory over Northwestern. In his one season with the Red Raiders, Robinson had two defensive backs earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention recognition and a third that was named a freshman All-America honorable mention.

As a player at Auburn, Robinson was a first team All-SEC selection by the Associated Press in 2002 after recording 92 total tackles with four interceptions. He finished his collegiate career with 166 tackles and five interceptions. Before embarking on his coaching career, Robinson played two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Robinson was born in Miami and attended Coral Park High where he was a four-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Auburn in 2007. Robinson and his wife, Mandisa, have two sons, Tyson Jerod and Travis Jerod, and a daughter, Jordyn.

Todd Hartley

Assistant Head Coach — Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who has also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends including 2022 and 2023 Mackey Award winner and three-time first team

All-American Brock Bowers. The NFL has also benefited from Hartley's players who have now been drafted in four straight years: Charlie Woerner in 2020, Tré McKitty in 2021, John FitzPatrick in 2022 and Darnell Washington in 2023.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, he spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

Josh Crawford

Run Game Coordinator — Running Backs

Georgia football hired Josh Crawford as run game coordinator/running backs coach in February 2024.

Crawford, who earned his master's degree from Georgia in 2012, was most recently Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach for the 2023 season.

Crawford's single season with the Yellow Jackets produced a Freshman All-American in Eric Singleton Jr. as he hauled in 48 catches for 714 yards and six touchdowns. Georgia Tech had 14 different players catch balls, including Malik Rutherford who finished with 46 catches and more than 500 yards receiving. Crawford made an immediate impact in recruiting as well as he signed Singleton Jr. and another talented group in the 2024 class.

With a decade as one of the state of Georgia's most successful and respected high school coaches, Crawford entered into collegiate coaching in 2021 at Western Kentucky and helped guide one of college football's most prolific offenses for two seasons. He served as WKU's outside receivers coach in 2021 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2022. In his two seasons at WKU, Crawford's wideouts combined for 10,339 receiving yards and 94 touchdowns.

Prior to making the jump to the college ranks, Crawford established himself as one of the nation's top offensive coaches in the high school ranks, coaching at five of Georgia's most storied and successful programs — Colquitt County H.S., Valdosta H.S., Lee County H.S., Jefferson County H.S. and Greater Atlanta Christian (2010-12 — running backs/tight ends).

During his 11 seasons in the high school ranks, Crawford helped lead three teams to Georgia 6A state championships and one national title. He coached six all-state receivers, four of which went on to play at the Power Five level.

Crawford played collegiately at Morehouse College in Atlanta, where he was a running back from 2004-06. He earned a bachelor's degree from Morehouse in 2007 and master's degrees from both Georgia and Valdosta State (2020).

He and his wife, Jessica, have two daughters — Ava Louise and Asha.

James Coley

Assistant Coach — Wide Receivers

Georgia football added James Coley as wide receivers coach in February 2024.

Prior to accepting a similar position with South Carolina in January 2024, Coley was hired in 2020 as the Texas A&M tight ends coach. He was named the Aggies' co-offensive coordinator in 2022 and also worked with receivers while in College Station.

Regarded as one of the elite recruiters in college football, Coley has spent the past 16 years as an assistant coach at a Division I Power-Five school. Most recently, he logged four seasons on Jimbo Fisher's Texas A&M staff. In 2020, Coley helped the Aggies post a 9-1 record, including an 8-1 regular season mark against an all-SEC slate. A&M concluded the season with a win over North Carolina in the program's first New Year's Six Bowl game.

Coley spent four years in Athens previous to his stint in College Station, helping the Bulldogs to three SEC Championship appearances and a spot in the College Football Playoff. He was part of a 2017 staff that led Georgia to a record-tying 13 victories, including its first SEC Championship since 2005. That season the Bulldogs also made their first appearance in the CFP, as well as first appearance and victory over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal and first appearance in the CFP Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and ninth nationally in rushing offense (258.4 yards/game), third in the SEC in scoring (35.4 points/game) and fifth in total offense (435.3 ypg).

COACHING STAFF

The Bulldogs followed up in 2018 with another SEC Eastern Division Championship, 11-win season and appearance in the Sugar Bowl. Georgia finished first in the SEC in total rushing offense, rushing offense per game and second in the SEC in total offense, touchdowns scored and scoring offense. In 2019 the Bulldogs reached the SEC Championship for the third consecutive season before capturing the Sugar Bowl title over No. 7 Baylor.

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago). In 2018, Coley coached sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm who posted the second-best completion percentage in school history at 67.3, which was 12th nationally, and second-best passing efficiency for a QB at 171.21, which ranked fifth nationally.

Before his time in Athens, Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami (Fla.) from 2013-15. While at Miami, the Hurricane offense led the nation in "explosive plays" all three years and they produced two 1,000-yard rushers in Duke Johnson (1,652 yards in 2014) and Joe Yearly (1,002 in 2015). Coley coached quarterback Brad Kaaya who earned Freshman All-America honors and broke the single season record for passing yards and touchdowns at Miami (3,198 yards, 26 TDs) in 2014. Wide receiver Allen Hurns broke the single season receiving record with 1,162 yards in 2013.

Coley worked as the offensive coordinator/tight ends coach (2010-12) and tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator (2008-09) at his alma mater, Florida State. At FSU, Coley mentored three first round draft picks in quarterbacks Christian Ponder, EJ Manuel and Jameis Winston. The Seminole offenses were high-powered, averaging 31.4 points per game in 2010, 30.6 in 2011, and 39.3 in 2012.

In 2014, his Miami offense averaged 430.3 yards per game and seven of Coley's offensive players earned All-ACC honors with running back Johnson and Shane McDermott receiving first team recognition. In addition, tight end Clive Walford earned AP All-America honors.

A native of Miami, he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion LSU where he served as a graduate assistant coach while earning his master's degree in 2004.

Coley and his wife, Kenia, have two children, Madison and Brady.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach — Defensive Line

Tray Scott just completed his seventh season on the Georgia staff as defensive line coach. He was named UGA assistant coach on February 10, 2017, after serving two years in a similar position at North Carolina. Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January 2017, before accepting the Georgia job.

During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have won two CFP National Championships, six SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22-'23), and earned seven consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

In 2021 alone, Georgia defensive linemen reaped a bounty of honors. Jordan Davis won the Outland Trophy and Bednarik Award, as well as first-team All-America honors. Devonte Wyatt earned second-team All-America honors, and both Wyatt and sophomore Jalen Carter were named second-team All-SEC.

In April of 2022, Scott's group made history when three of his charges -- Travon Walker, Davis and Wyatt -- were all taken in the first round of the NFL Draft. Walker was the first overall selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012) and assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008 and his Master's degree from there in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has two sons, Julian and Torian.

Stacy Searels

Assistant Coach — Offensive Line

Stacy Searels returned to Georgia as offensive line coach in February 2022 after serving in a similar position at North Carolina for three seasons.

A 31-year veteran of coaching collegiately, Searels has produced a long list of NFL offensive linemen including 16 draft picks.

Before moving to UNC, Searels coached three seasons at Miami and two at Virginia Tech. Prior to his time in Blacksburg, he had his first stint of coaching with Mack Brown at Texas. Searels joined the Longhorns after coaching the offensive line at Georgia for four seasons (2007-10). He added the duties of Run Game Coordinator in 2009. During his time in Athens, Searels coached a number of all-star offensive linemen, including All-America selections Clint Boling and Ben Jones and All-SEC tackles Fernando Velasco and Cordy Glenn.

Searels came to Georgia after serving four years coaching the offensive line at LSU from 2003-06. During that time, the Tigers went 44-8 and won SEC and national titles in 2003. He joined the staff at LSU after a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Cincinnati. Prior to joining Cincinnati, Searels served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State from 1994-2000, helping the I-AA Mountaineers to five playoff appearances and a pair of SoCon titles.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at Auburn, Searels earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1987. He blocked for Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson in 1985 and All-American Brent Fullwood in 1986.

A native of Trion, Ga., Searels graduated from Auburn with a degree in marketing and transportation in 1990. He added a master's degree in higher education administration from Auburn in 1995. Searels is married to the former Patricia Hale, and they have two daughters, Taylor and Savannah.

Chidera Uzo-Diribe

Assistant Coach — Outside Linebackers

Chidera Uzo-Diribe was named Outside Linebackers Coach on Feb. 6, 2022, after serving briefly as defensive line coach at TCU.

Uzo-Diribe, a native of Corona, Calif., came to Athens after serving as defensive line coach with SMU in 2021. He followed head coach Sonny Dykes to TCU after the 2021 season before accepting the position at UGA.

SMU was 8-4 in 2021 and defensive lineman Elijah Chatman earned All-American Conference second-team honors. Uzo-Diribe also coached defensive lineman DeVere Levelston who led the conference in sacks.

Uzo-Diribe had previously worked two seasons at Kansas (2019 and 2020) where he served as outside linebackers coach. While with the Jayhawks he coached Kyron Johnson who earned All-Big 12 honors. Prior to working with the Jayhawks, Uzo-Diribe spent three seasons (2016-18) as a graduate assistant with the defensive line and outside linebackers at Colorado. He coached outside linebacker Jimmie Gilbert who earned AP All-America third-team honors.

In the summer of 2018, he participated in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship Program with the San Francisco 49ers, a program created to offer minority coaches more opportunities to learn, coupled with great exposure to job opportunities. He was also named to 247Sports' recent 30-Under-30 list of rising stars in college coaching.

Uzo-Diribe was a four-year letterman at Colorado and finished his career tied for sixth in sacks, tied for 17th in TFLs and second in forced fumbles. In 2013, he ranked second nationally in forced fumbles with five, and was on the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end of the year, while also opening the season on the Bednarik Award Watch List. Uzo-Diribe went on to sign as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

Uzo-Diribe was married to his wife, the former Hana Asmamaw, in May 2021, and the couple welcomed twins, Amara and Amani, in December 2022.

Donte Williams

Assistant Coach — Defensive Backs

Donte Williams, a veteran of 15 years of coaching defensive backs at multiple power conference schools, was named the defensive backs coach at UGA in December of 2023.

Williams previously served in the same role at Southern California, where he served on the Trojans' staff from 2020-2023. He was hired onto the staff as the defensive passing game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, serving in those roles in 2020. He was promoted to assistant coach in 2021 and also held those same duties. Following the head coaching change in 2021, Williams served as the interim head coach for the remainder of the 2021 season. He continued to serve on new head coach Lincoln Riley's staff in 2022 and '23 as defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator.

During the 2022 season, Williams helped lead the program's defense to a top-five national ranking in interceptions per game. He helped develop Mekhi Blackmon, an All-Pac-12 First Team member in 2022, during which he recorded 66 total tackles, two of which were for a loss of seven yards, 12 pass breakups, three interceptions a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. Blackmon was selected in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Southern California won 11 games in '22 and earned a berth in the Cotton Bowl. In 2023, the Trojans advanced to the Holiday Bowl against Louisville.

Before he arrived at USC, Williams spent the 2018 and '19 seasons at Oregon as the Ducks' cornerbacks coach. The Ducks finished 2018 ranked 11th in the nation in interceptions with 17 and 2019 with the second-most of any program in the country with 20. Oregon went to bowl games in those seasons, winning the Redbox Bowl over Michigan State in 2018 and won the Rose Bowl in 2019 against No. 5 Wisconsin. Williams helped recruit Oregon's class of 2020, which ranked seventh in the nation and top in the Pac-12.

Williams was hired to coach the cornerbacks for Arizona in 2016. He then coached cornerbacks, nickelbacks and dimebacks at Nebraska in 2017, also assisting with the program's pass-defense coordination.

Williams was hired by San Jose State in 2013 as the program's cornerbacks coach and then was promoted to serve as both the defensive backs coach and the recruiting coordinator for the program, a position which he held for the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

Williams was hired by current Texas coach Steve Sarkisian to join the staff at Washington as a graduate assistant for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. His responsibilities included assisting with overseeing the cornerbacks and linebackers for the Huskies, who spent time ranked during both seasons and made the Alamo Bowl in 2011 and the Las Vegas Bowl in 2012.

He earned his first spot on staff with an FBS program at Nevada in 2010 as a defensive quality control coach for the Wolfpack. The team went on to make the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco, where it beat Boston College, 20-13.

Williams began the first three years of his coaching career at a trio of small colleges as the cornerbacks coach at each stop. He was on staff for three different California schools for the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons - at Los Angeles Harbor Community College, El Camino Junior College and Mount San Antonio Junior College, respectively.

Alongside his first stints in coaching, Williams also played two seasons in the Arena Football League 2 - for the Rio Grand Valley Dorados in 2007 and then the Arkansas Twisters in 2008.

Williams played high school football for Culver City High in California and eventually began his collegiate playing career as a defensive back at Pasadena City College in California for the 2002 season. He then played at Syracuse in 2003 before ending his collegiate career at Idaho State in 2004 and 2005, receiving a Bachelor's Degree in Communications in the spring of 2006. Williams received All-Big Sky First Team recognitions and was selected as a team captain during both seasons playing for the Bengals.

Williams is married to his wife Jayna and the couple have a son named King.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2016, after serving three years in the same position at Marshall University.

He has been part of a coaching and support staff that led the Bulldogs to the 2022 and 2023 College Football Playoff National Championships. During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have also won six SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22-'23), and earned seven consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January 2013, working with both football and track and field teams. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at Central Florida.

In May 2012, Sinclair was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference.

Sinclair served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. From 1999-2001, he worked as a strength coach in the Wake Forest athletic department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have a son, Creed, and a daughter, Asher.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 1 Georgia 48, UT Martin 7

Sept. 2, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Two-time defending national champion Georgia opened its 2023 season by rolling past UT Martin, 48-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network+ streaming audience.

Georgia finished with 559 yards of offense while the defense repeatedly stuffed UT Martin, holding it to 260 total yards. Making his first start, quarterback Carson Beck completed 21 of 31 passes for 294 yards and threw a 54-yard touchdown. He also ran for a four-yard TD late in the second quarter. Beck’s top target was tight end Brock Bowers, who finished with five catches for 77 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

The Bulldogs’ first points came on Bowers’ run, a jet sweep to the right side. Kicker Peyton Woodring made his Bulldog debut on the point-after attempt, putting Georgia up 7-0 with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Georgia’s next points didn’t come until the 4:29 mark of the second quarter when Beck ran the ball in from the 4. Later in the quarter, Woodring connected on a 23-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Beck threw a short pass to redshirt sophomore receiver Mekhi Mews who turned it into a 54-yard touchdown and a 24-0 lead with 8:29 left in the quarter.

Georgia’s next touchdown was set up by a 47-yard completion to redshirt freshman wideout C.J. Smith up the left side and a 25-yarder to Mews. Freshman running back Roderick Robinson finished the drive with a two-yard touchdown for a 31-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third.

Backup quarterback Brock Vandagriff provided some fourth-quarter fireworks when he connected with junior wideout Rara Thomas for a 56-yard gain. On the next play, Vandagriff found tight end Oscar Delp for a 21-yard touchdown that made it 38-0 with 11:36 remaining.

After Woodring made it 41-7 Bulldogs with a 33-yard field goal with 2:09 to play, Georgia’s final points came from the defense when freshman STAR Byron Jones intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown with 1:59 remaining.

The win was the Bulldogs’ 18th in a row overall, 19th in a row on Dooley Field, and Georgia tied the school record for regular-season wins in a row with its 28th, matching the great run of the 1981-83 teams.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

“You talk about decision-making, (quarterback Carson Beck) did exactly what he did all camp. He didn’t put us in bad situations, he made good decisions, he didn’t throw it to the other team, he didn’t fumble it. He did some really good things. We have to execute better around him and we have to have some guys make some plays and make some guys miss. That’s what we missed early, but when we got on rhythm and starting doing our offense, we did some pretty good things.”

Mekhi Mews had a game-high 125 all-purpose yards against UT Martin, including 54 on a TD reception in the third quarter.

Worth Noting...

- Brock Bowers (TE), Sedrick Van Pran (C), Javon Bullard (S) and Jamon Dumas-Johnson (ILB) served as the captains.
- There were three first-time starters on defense: junior Chaz Chambliss (OLB), redshirt sophomore Xavian Sorey (ILB) and sophomore Daylen Everette (CB). There were five first-time starters on offense: junior Carson Beck (QB), sophomore Oscar Delp (TE), redshirt freshman Earnest Greene III (LT), redshirt sophomore Mekhi Mews (WR) and junior Arian Smith (WR). Also, true freshman Peyton Woodring (PK) made his debut.
- Senior Xavier Truss wore No. 77 (Devin Willock’s number) in the UT Martin game in honor of his late teammate. A different Bulldog offensive lineman will wear No. 77 each game this season.
- Georgia has now won 10 straight season openers, including all eight under Kirby Smart. Georgia began the season at home for the first time since 2018 versus Austin Peay. Since then, the Bulldogs kicked off the season with at Vanderbilt, at Arkansas, versus No. 3 Clemson in Charlotte and against No. 11 Oregon in Atlanta.
- The UT Martin game was the official debut of UGA XI or “Boom,” who was introduced at the 2023 G-Day game.
- Freshman Kyrion Jones registered a pick-six covering 26 yards, the 28th score on either defense or special teams in the Kirby Smart era. It was the first Bulldog pick-six since Kelee Ringo’s 79-yarder to help clinch the CFP national championship against top-ranked Alabama on Jan. 10, 2022.

No. 1 Georgia 45, Ball State 3

Sept. 9, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Six different players scored touchdowns, the defense intercepted three passes and Mekhi Mews returned a punt 69 yards for a score in top-ranked Georgia's 45-3 win over Ball State, in front of a Sanford Stadium sell-out crowd of 92,746 and a SEC Network television audience.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Bulldogs put 31 on the scoreboard in the second to blow open the game. On the third play of the second period, Mews caught a low, line-drive punt, scooted to his right and went untouched on a 69-yard return for a touchdown.

Georgia's defense made the next big play in the game when safety Malaki Starks intercepted a deep ball up the left side. The Bulldog offense took full advantage of the turnover, scoring on a 7-yard pass from Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint on third-and-goal.

Less than a minute later, linebacker Chaz Chambliss snagged a deflected pass and pulled in his first career interception. Two plays later, wideout Dillon Bell, lined up in the backfield, took a handoff, cut to the outside and sprinted into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

After the defense got another quick stop, the offense worked its way down the field before eventually settling for a 35-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 24-0 with 1:49 on the clock.

Just eight seconds later, STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass broken up by Daylen Everette. The Bulldogs turned the takeaway into another touchdown when running back Kendall Milton went over the top from the 1, pushing Georgia ahead 31-0 with 37 seconds left until halftime.

The Bulldogs' fifth touchdown of the day was a 27-yard strike into the back right corner of the end zone from Beck to running back Cash Jones.

Georgia's defense got a stop on fourth-and-1 inside UGA territory late in the third quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, running back Roderick Robinson went right for 14 yards. That was followed by a 41-yard completion from Beck to tight end Oscar Delp. On first down on the 12, Robinson scooted in for an easy score with 46 seconds left in the third.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You're always looking for something, Defense turns to offense. It's like basketball, when you play good defense, you get transition offense. When you play good defense and special teams, you can transition that to offense. We started getting momentum there as the defense got stops and then eventually we got them into a long-yardage situation and we were able to return the punt (for a touchdown). That gave the crowd some juice and our players some juice."

Tykee Smith collected Georgia's third interception late in the first half, leading to the Bulldogs' fourth TD of the second quarter.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 1 Georgia 24, South Carolina 14

Sept. 16, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – The top-ranked Georgia football team had to work for its first SEC win of the season, rallying from 14-3 down at halftime to defeat South Carolina, 24-14, in front of a Sanford Stadium capacity crowd of 92,746 and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs scored three rushing touchdowns in the second half, and its defense ramped up its pressure on Gamecocks quarterback Spencer Rattler to shift the momentum of the game. Georgia came up with two interceptions in the fourth quarter to help seal the program's 20th win in a row.

Quarterback Carson Beck was 13 of 18 for 98 yards in the first half, and finished the game 27 of 35 for 269 yards. The Bulldogs out-gained the Gamecocks 458-309, including a 189-53 advantage on the ground. Running back Daijun Edwards, in his first action of the season due to injury, led the way with 118 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

The Bulldogs trailed for the first time this season after Rattler threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Antwane Wells for a 7-0 lead with 9:56 left in the first quarter. Georgia was able to cut into the lead on its first drive, which ended with a 31-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:02 remaining in the period.

South Carolina seized the momentum right before the half with an 80-yard touchdown drive capped by a two-yard Dakereon Joyner run with 1:00 on the clock.

Georgia received the kickoff to start the second half and went right to work offensively. Powered by a 36-yard completion from Beck to wideout Rara Thomas and a 15-yard run from Kendall Milton, and then capped by a seven-yard touchdown run by Edwards, Georgia cut the South Carolina lead to 14-10 with 12:20 remaining in the third. The offense kept rolling on its second possession of the quarter, marching 49 yards for a 17-14 lead on wideout Dillon Bell's three-yard touchdown run.

Running back Cash Jones closed out Georgia's next drive with a 13-yard run up the right side for the score, giving the Bulldogs a 24-14 lead with 9:10 remaining. Safeties Dan Jackson and Tykee Smith intercepted Rattler passes in the final five minutes to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The message at halftime was: win one moment at a time, win one moment at a time. If you can win one moment at a time, we can get ourselves back in this thing. ... I told them at halftime, 'Look guys, it's going to happen very simply: one moment at a time.' And they believed it. They kept saying 'one moment, one moment, one moment.' We gained so much momentum in the second half thanks to our fans and thanks to our players making some plays."

Running back Daijun Edwards ran for 118 yards and a touchdown in his first game of the season.

- USC tallied 180 yards on 26 plays in the first half for a 14-3 advantage, but then the Bulldogs blanked the Gamecocks the rest of the way. USC finished with 309 yards on 58 plays. Coming in to today, Georgia had allowed just 10 points on the year.
- With today's 24-14 win, top-ranked Georgia has extended its school record for consecutive victories now to 20. The streak began during the 2021 season (Dec. 31) when the Bulldogs beat #2 Michigan 34-11 in a CFP semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl.
- The top-ranked Bulldogs trailed at the half (14-3) for the first time this season and first time since last year's CFP semifinal Peach Bowl in Atlanta against Ohio State 28-24. Georgia rallied for a 42-41 win against the Buckeyes. The last time Georgia failed to score a TD in the first half was last year's Missouri road game when it fell behind 16-6 and eventually rallied for a 26-22 win. The last time Georgia score only three points in the first half was at the 2019 SEC Championship game when it trailed LSU 17-3 and lost 37-10. Today, Georgia came back to win 24-14.
- Senior Tramel Walthour (DL) along with juniors Carson Beck (QB), Kamari Lasister (DB) and Sedrick Van Pran (C) served as the game captains. Georgia won the toss and elected to defer the football until the 2nd half. There were two first-time starters in junior David Daniel-Sisavanh (S) and senior Daijun Edwards (TB). Edwards had appeared in 39 games coming in today and this was his first action of the season. Junior center Sedrick Van Pran made his team-leading 33rd career start.

No. 1 Georgia 49, UAB 21

Sept. 23, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Quarterback Carson Beck and tight end Brock Bowers combined for a big night at Sanford Stadium, connecting nine times for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the top-ranked Georgia Bulldogs' 49-21 win over UAB, in front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 and an ESPN2 national television audience.

After Georgia took a 28-14 lead into halftime, the Bulldogs (4-0) dominated the third quarter, stretching their lead to 42-14. Beck was done for the night by the end of the third, finishing 22 of 32 for a career-high 337 yards and three touchdowns.

Offensively, Georgia outgained the Blazers 581-336, getting 393 yards through the air and 188 on the ground. Defensively, Georgia held UAB (1-3) to 4.4 yards per play. Eleven different Bulldogs had at least three tackles.

After being held without a touchdown in the first quarter of their previous two games, the Bulldogs went 75 yards for a TD on their opening drive. The first play of the game was a 33-yard completion from Beck to wideout Dominic Lovett, and the drive ended on a screen pass to Arian Smith, who ran for a 12-yard score and a 7-0 lead.

The Blazers forced a turnover late in the first quarter and tied the game in the second on a 16-yard touchdown pass. Georgia responded quickly with a touchdown drive to regain the momentum. On first down from the 4, running back Daijun Edwards carried the ball in for a 14-7 lead with 10:00 on the clock.

Bowers made it 21-7 late in the second quarter with a 41-yard touchdown catch. On UAB's next play, Georgia STAR Tykee Smith picked off a pass at the Blazer 25. It was Smith's third interception in as many games. Four plays later, Edwards ran the ball in from the 3 for his second TD of the game, putting Georgia ahead 28-7 with 1:26 remaining in the half.

The Blazers moved the ball down to the Bulldog 2-yard line in the final seconds of the half, cutting the Georgia lead to 28-14 with a two-yard touchdown.

Georgia scored twice in the third quarter, first on a 1-yard Beck run and later on a 10-yard touchdown catch from Bowers, pushing the lead to 42-14. It was Bowers' fifth career game with at least 100 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

With 9:05 left in the game, running back Sevaughn Clark ran the ball in from the 7 for his first career touchdown, making it a 49-14 game. Zeno ran the ball in from the 3 with 6:08 remaining, cutting the Bulldog led to 49-21.

"It's an honor (to win for the 85th time in 100 games as head coach). It takes a great organization, and we have one. We have an incredible academic setup. We have a wonderful university that people want to attend. We have great leadership in our president and athletic director. It's easy to be successful when you have the setup that we have."

Tight end Brock Bowers had nine catches for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the win over UAB.

- The win extended the Bulldogs' school-record winning streak to 21 games, moved their regular-season win streak to 31 games, and it was Georgia's 22nd straight win on Dooley Field. The program record for most consecutive home wins is 24, set from 1980-83.
- Tight end Brock Bowers led the receivers with nine catches for 121 yards and two touchdowns. He eclipsed the 2,000-yard mark in career receiving yards during the game, and had 100-plus yards and two touchdowns receiving for the fifth time in his career. With 2,079 career receiving yards, Bowers ranks ninth all-time at Georgia. His 22 career receiving touchdowns rank third.
- Defensively, 11 Bulldogs finished with at least three tackles. Defensive backs Xavian Sorey and Dan Jackson led the way with six each. STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass for the third game in a row, giving him seven in his career.
- There were two first-time starters in redshirt sophomore left guard Dylan Fairchild and senior defensive lineman Warren Brinson. Junior center Sedrick Van Pran made his team-leading 34th career start while junior WR Dominic Lovett made his first start at Georgia and his 13th overall.
- The Georgia captains were running back Daijun Edwards, Bowers, outside linebacker Chaz Chambliss and safety Malaki Starks. UAB won the toss and elected to defer the football until the 2nd half.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 1 Georgia 27, Auburn 20

Sept. 30, 2023 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first road contest of the season, the top-ranked Georgia football team came from behind to defeat Auburn, 27-20, Saturday afternoon before 88,043 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Quarterback Carson Beck finished 23-for-33 for 313 yards and one touchdown. Tight end Brock Bowers led all receivers with eight catches for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for the game-winning score, while running back Daijun Edwards rushed 19 times for a team-high 76 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. tied his career high with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

The Tigers struck first with a 27-yard field goal that was set up by quarterback Payton Thorne's 61-yard run to the Georgia 30. Auburn then converted a Beck interception into points, taking a 10-0 lead on Jarquez Hunter's 5-yard touchdown run.

Georgia answered back on the ensuing drive, capping an 11-play drive with a 2-yard Edwards run for a touchdown. On their next drive, the Bulldogs drove into red zone before kicker Peyton Woodring connected from 37 yards out to tie the game at 10 with 5:57 to go before halftime.

Auburn produced its second turnover of the game seconds into the third quarter, forcing a fumble by tight end Oscar Delp. The Tigers started at the UGA 32-yard line and scored soon after on a 9-yard run by backup QB Robby Ashford, putting Auburn up 17-10.

Later in the third, after a 71-yard Auburn punt was downed at the 2, the Bulldogs marched 98 yards for a touchdown. Edwards ran for 16 yards to give Georgia some breathing room, and then scored on a 13-yard run to make it 17-17 with 1:03 left in the quarter.

After completions of 37 and 28 yards to Bowers moved the ball into Auburn territory, Woodring gave Georgia its first lead, 20-17, on a 38-yard field goal with 10:57 left in the game. Auburn later drew even on a 42-yard kick by Alex McPherson with 6:21 remaining.

Georgia took the lead for good, 27-20, when Beck hit Bowers for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 left in the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"They are resilient as hell and competed. The leadership of this team has shown twice. You don't know how many times you are going to be able to do that when you turn the ball over and give people extra possessions. You just can't do that. Good football teams don't do that, and good football teams don't let people run the ball on them for 200 yards. That is one of the things we knew they would do well. I thought they really ran the ball well, and they used the quarterback and rushed the ball on us. We can't do that. We have to run the ball better, too. But, proud of the way the guys fought."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught eight passes for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

- For the second time this season, the Bulldogs put together a 98-yard touchdown drive. The first came against UT Martin in the season opener. Against Auburn, Georgia trailed 17-10 in the third quarter when it began the 10-play march toward the end zone. Running back Daijun Edwards scored on a 13-yard run to tie the game.
- Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. led the Bulldog defense with 11 tackles, including two for loss, and safety Javon Bullard added a career-high 10 stops, including nine solo. Five Bulldogs had at least five tackles, including safety Malaki Starks, who also sealed the win with a late interception, his second of the season.
- With the win, the Bulldogs extended their winning streak to 22 games, dating back to a win over Michigan in a College Football Playoff semifinal at the Capital One Orange Bowl on Dec. 31, 2021. The victory was also Georgia's 32nd straight regular-season win. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 21st SEC regular-season win in a row, a streak that began with a 31-24 win over Mississippi State on Nov. 21, 2020.
- Georgia's captains were senior receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, junior center Sedrick Van Pran, junior linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson and junior cornerback Kamari Lassiter. The Bulldogs won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.
- With the win, Georgia now holds a 64-56-8 edge in the series with Auburn, including winning the past seven meetings. It's the longest streak of success since the record nine-game streak from 1923-31.

No. 1 Georgia 51, No. 20 Kentucky 13 Oct. 7, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carson Beck threw for a career-high 389 yards and four touchdowns, the Georgia defense shut down what had been a prolific rushing attack, and the top-ranked Bulldogs won a battle of unbeaten, 51-13, against No. 20 Kentucky on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

With the victory, Georgia (6-0, 3-0 SEC) extended its overall winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the team's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1) came in fresh off a 33-14 rout of Florida last week in which the Wildcats ran for 329 yards. But the Bulldogs held the Wildcats to 55 yards on the ground and 183 yards of total offense.

Georgia's offense, meanwhile, scored on every possession in the first half, including three straight touchdowns to start the game. The Bulldogs finished with 608 yards for the game, with Beck completing 28 of 35 passes.

Tight end Brock Bowers had seven receptions for 132 yards — his third straight 100-yard game — and a touchdown. Running back Daijun Edwards was productive as a runner and receiver, combining for 105 yards.

On Georgia's first drive, Beck completed all four of his passes, starting with a 7-yard screen to Edwards on first down and ending with a 40-yard completion to wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint to make it 7-0 with 11:26 to play in the quarter.

After the defense forced the first of eight Kentucky punts, Beck kept hitting his receivers, including a 25-yarder to Bowers. Later, Beck hit Rara Thomas in the front left corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:25 remaining in the first.

After another Georgia stop, the Bulldogs got the ball at their 5. A 12-play, 95-yard drive followed, ending with a short touchdown pass to tight end Oscar Delp to make it 21-0. Kentucky scored on its next drive, but Georgia didn't let the Wildcats make it a game. A 36-yard Peyton Woodring field goal made it 24-7 Bulldogs, and soon after, Kendall Milton's 5-yard touchdown run made it 31-7 with 61 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky tried to get aggressive in the final minute, but it backfired. Georgia's defense forced a quick punt and Woodring drilled a 42-yard field goal as the half expired, sending UGA to the locker room up 34-7.

In the second half, Georgia got a 32-yard field goal from Woodring, a 21-yard touchdown catch from Bowers and a 7-yard touchdown catch from Andrew Paul.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was an electric crowd and it energized our players. Our players started fast, finally, and that was great to get a start-fast game. We challenged them all week to have a connected physicality. We really wanted to be connected because we felt like we could be more physical if we were together. We talked all week about mass and acceleration equal force. We wanted to have a lot of mass and a lot of acceleration."

Wide receiver Rara Thomas had five catches for 63 yards, including this 15-yarder for a touchdown.

- Georgia extended its school-record winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the program's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field. The school record for home wins in a row is 24, set during the 1980-83 seasons.
- Quarterback Carson Beck set career highs with 389 passing yards and four touchdowns. Beck is the first Georgia QB since Aaron Murray in 2013 to have three straight 300-yard passing games. He threw for 338 against UAB and 313 at Auburn. Beck started fast, completing his first 13 passes for 158 yards and two touchdowns.
- Tight end Brock Bowers finished with seven catches for 132 yards, including a 49-yard reception and a 21-yarder for a touchdown. Bowers, a junior, now has 2,369 career receiving yards, which ranks sixth in school history. His 24 receiving touchdowns rank second. This was his 10th career 100-yard game and third in a row.
- Georgia's captains for the Kentucky game were quarterback Carson Beck, wide receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. and defensive end Mykel Williams. Kentucky won the coin toss and deferred to the second half, so Georgia received the opening kick and drove for the first of four first-half touchdowns.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 1 Georgia 37, Vanderbilt 20

Oct. 14, 2023 • FirstBank Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The top-ranked Georgia football team got three field goals from kicker Peyton Woodring and ran for 281 yards in the Bulldogs' 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 28,500 at FirstBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Carson Beck completed 29 of 39 passes for 261 yards and a touchdown, while Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 146 yards and helped seal the win with a 1-yard score with 3:13 left in the game.

Vanderbilt struck first, scoring on a 49-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Seals to wideout London Humphreys with 12:07 left in the first.

Georgia escaped trouble on its next drive when center Sedrick Van Pran picked up a botched handoff on third-and-1 and ran for 6 yards and a first down. Beck later scored on a 1-yard plunge to make it 7-7.

Georgia's defense forced a Vandy punt on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldog offense went 77 yards for a touchdown and the lead. Beck connected with wideout Ladd McConkey on completions of 31 and 13 yards to move the ball into Vandy territory, and Milton later finished off the drive with a 3-yard run to make it 14-7.

The Bulldogs added to their lead late in the second quarter with Woodring's 31-yard field, making it 17-7 with 3:49 left in the half. Woodring later added a career-long 44-yarder and a 30-yarder.

In the final minute of the first half, after a Tykee Smith interception, Georgia went after more points. Two long completions moved the ball to the 5 with 19 seconds left. Two plays later, Beck and Dominic Lovett connected on a 4-yard touchdown, pushing the Bulldog lead to 24-7.

Vandy cut the Bulldog lead to 27-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter, scoring on a 3-yard pass from Seals to receiver Richie Hoskins. Woodring's 30-yarder made it 30-14 with 9:05 left in the game.

The Commodores' CJ Taylor intercepted Beck with 6:17 to go in the game and returned the ball to the Bulldog 1. On the next play, Sedrick Alexander scored to cut Georgia's lead to 30-20.

Edwards ran the ball all five plays, including a 62-yarder down to the 6-yard line, on Georgia's final scoring drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Once again, we come to Nashville and it feels like a home game. We had a lot of UGA red in the stands. When we came out for warmups, it was not as crowded, and then when we came out for the main part of the game, there was a sea of red there as we came across the field — and a lot of red on their side — so I was really appreciative of our fans making it like a home game. And I'm really proud of our players being really resilient and fighting through some turnovers, some adversity, some sloppy play, some injuries. But at the end of the day, they responded and they got up to play on the road in the SEC, so I'm proud of them for that."

Linebacker Smael Mondon brings down Vandy quarterback Ken Seals during the Bulldogs' 37-20 win. Mondon led UGA with six stops.

- Georgia extended its school-record winning streak to 24 games, which is the fourth-longest streak in SEC history. The Bulldogs also tied a program record with their 23rd straight SEC regular-season win. Georgia also won 23 SEC games in a row from 1980-83. The Bulldogs also extended their school-record run of regular-season wins to 34.
- Senior running back Daijun Edwards rushed for a career-high 146 yards on 20 carries, including a career-long 62-yard gain in the 4th quarter, when he carried the ball on every play of a five-play touchdown drive to put the game away.. Edwards had the most rushing yards by a Bulldog since D'Andre Swift went for 179 against Kentucky in 2019. As a team, Georgia rushed for a season-high 281 yards and averaged 7.2 yards per carry.
- The Bulldogs dominated time of possession (37:19-22:41), first downs (25-9), total yardage (542-219) and total plays (78-44). Vandy's 44 plays were the fewest by an opponent during the Kirby Smart era.
- The opening-drive touchdown by the Commodores marked the first points Vandy had scored against Georgia since 2019, when the Bulldogs won 30-6. The teams didn't play in 2020 due to the pandemic, and Georgia won the 2021 and '22 games by a combined score of 117-0.
- The captains against Vanderbilt were running back Kendall Milton, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, defensive lineman Zion Logue and safety Malaki Starks. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 1 Georgia 43, Florida 20

Oct. 28, 2023 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — No. 1-ranked Georgia scored 36 unanswered points during one stretch and rolled to a 43-20 win over Florida on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 76,251 at EverBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Georgia extended its school-record win streak to 25 games and set a new record with its 24th straight SEC regular-season victory. The Bulldog offense piled up 486 yards, the defense posted a season-high five sacks and eight tackles for loss, and Georgia also scored on a safety after a blocked punt by Joenel Aguero.

Florida got the ball first and took a 7-0 lead on a 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Graham Mertz to Eugene Wilson III. Georgia answered with a 22-yard Peyton Woodring field goal.

Georgia's defense held the Gators without points on eight straight drives after allowing the opening score. Defensive back Javon Bullard led the way with seven tackles, while linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. had five stops, including two tackles for loss with a sack.

Georgia forced the Gators to punt on their next possession, with linebacker Jalon Walker sacking and stripping Mertz for a loss of 13 yards on third down. On the Bulldogs' next drive, Carson Beck hit Ladd McConkey for a 41-yard touchdown, putting Georgia ahead 10-7 with 1:23 remaining in the first.

The Bulldogs started their next drive at the Florida 31 after Mondon stopped Trevor Etienne for a loss on a fourth-and-1 direct snap. Edwards later scored on a 20-yard run, giving Georgia a 17-7 lead.

Georgia's defense set the offense up in Florida territory minutes later. After Jamon Dumas-Johnson sacked Mertz for a 9-yard loss on first down, Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins sacked and stripped Mertz on second down, and Marvin Jones Jr. recovered at the 11. Edwards later scored from the 2 to make it 24-7.

The Bulldogs' next points came on special teams, when Joenel Aguero blocked Jeremy Crawshaw's punt for a safety, pushing the lead to 26-7 with 9:26 left in the half.

A 32-yard Woodring field goal made it 29-7 with 7:05 remaining in the third quarter. And with 18 seconds left in the third, Beck hit Dillon Bell in the left corner of the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown and a 36-7 lead.

Florida made it 36-13 with a 5-yard touchdown pass with 12:29 remaining. The Bulldogs answered right back on a 1-yard Kendall Milton run that made it 43-13 with 5:57 to go. The Gators added a final touchdown on a 1-yard Mertz run with 1:20 remaining.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I think this team's improving and getting better. We're still not where we need to be. I was certainly proud of the competitors that went out and fought today for our university, and continue to do that. I was proud of our fans; they supported us even though we didn't start the way we wanted to. But we responded and played well. We were able to control the line of scrimmage, which ultimately is the difference in this conference. If you can win the line of scrimmage, you've got a chance."

Ladd McConkey led Georgia's receivers with six receptions for 135 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown.

Worth Noting...

- With the win, Georgia extended its school-record win streak to 25 games, which ranks as the fourth longest in SEC history. In addition, the Bulldogs set a school record with their 24th straight SEC regular-season victory, which is tied for second longest in conference history. The win was also Georgia's 35th straight in the regular season.
- The win was Georgia's sixth over Florida in their last seven meetings. The Bulldogs have defeated the Gators three straight times by at least 20 points for the first time. Kirby Smart is now 6-2 against Florida.
- Ladd McConkey finished with six receptions for 135 yards and a touchdown. It was his second career 100-yard game, and his six catches and 135 yards were both career highs. Dominic Lovett's 55-yard reception was the longest of his career, and it was the longest completion of Carson Beck's career.
- The defense had a season-high five sacks, all in the first half, and a season-high eight tackles for loss. Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. had five tackles, including two for loss. Joenel Aguero blocked a punt in the second quarter that resulted in a safety. It was the sixth safety of the Smart era and the 30th score by either the defense or special teams.
- The captains against Florida were receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, center, Se-drick Van Pran, safety Javon Bullard and linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson. Georgia won the toss and elected to defer.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 2 Georgia 30, No. 12 Missouri 21
Nov. 4, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia got a fourth-quarter interception from a 320-pound senior defensive lineman and a career-long 48-yard field goal by a freshman to help the Bulldogs pull out 30-21 win in front of 92,746 spectators at Sanford Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs, ranked No. 1 in the polls all season but No. 2 in the first College Football Playoff rankings, had to battle against the Tigers, ranked No. 12, to stay undefeated. It was a 27-21 game when Nazir Stackhouse got the pivotal interception with 7:46 left. A few minutes later, Peyton Woodring made it 30-21 with the 48-yarder with 3:57 remaining.

The Bulldogs got the ball first and took a 3-0 lead on Woodring's 33-yard field goal. Missouri drove for a touchdown on its first drive, taking a 7-3 lead with 5:45 left in the quarter on Brady Cook's 39-yard TD pass to Luther Burden.

After a very quick opening quarter, Georgia started the second with a first down at the Mizzou 8-yard line after a 12-yard run by Daijun Edwards and a 13-yarder by Kendall Milton. On third-and-goal from the 6, Carson Beck fired a quick screen left to Dominic Lovett who scampered into the end zone for a 10-7 UGA lead.

Missouri tied the game with 4:14 remaining in the half on Harrison Mevis' 38-yard field goal, and it was 10-10 at the half. Mizzou got the ball to start the third and drove down to the Bulldog 15. Georgia was able to get a couple of stops — including a third-down sack by Tykee Smith — and hold the Tigers to a 42-yard field goal, putting Missouri ahead 13-10.

Georgia responded on its next drive, regaining the lead, 17-13, when Milton ran around the right side for a 15-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop, Georgia drove for a touchdown to push its lead to 24-13 with 38 seconds left in the third. Beck found Oscar Delp in the middle of the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown and an 11-point lead.

Missouri scored a touchdown on a 12-yard Cody Schrader run to the left side, and then converted a 2-point attempt to make it 24-21 with 12:50 remaining in the game. Georgia went up 27-21 with a Woodring 30-yard field goal with 8:59 to go.

Missouri was moving the ball on its next drive when Stackhouse stepped in front of a Cook pass for an interception. It was the first turnover of the game, and it came at a pivotal moment, with 7:46 remaining. It was also the first interception of Stackhouse's entire football career.

Georgia pushed its lead to 30-21 on Woodring's 48-yard field goal, making it a two-score game with 3:57 left on the clock. Bullard's interception ended Missouri's final drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"(The Tigers) have a really good defense. They have big defensive guys up front. They played really hard and physical. They do a great job with their defensive packages. I thought they controlled our run game more than anybody has in the last couple of weeks and that frustrated us. Luckily, we have a good enough passing arsenal where we can throw it around some."

Defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse's fourth-quarter interception helped seal the 30-21 win for the Bulldogs.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia added to its school-record winning streak, which now sits at 26 games. The streak is now tied for the third longest in SEC history. The win was also the Bulldogs' 24th straight on Dooley Field, and the program's 25th consecutive SEC regular-season win. Georgia has also won 36 consecutive regular-season games, a streak that goes back to the 2020 season.
- Kicker Peyton Woodring connected on field goals from 30, 33 and a career-long 48 yards. The freshman has made 13 consecutive field goals over Georgia's past five games and is 17-for-20 in his first season.
- Linebackers Smael Mondon Jr. and Jamon Dumas-Johnson and defensive back Tykee Smith had seven tackles each to lead the defense, which held Missouri to 5 of 13 on third down. Both Georgia interceptions came in the fourth quarter: defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse snared his first career INT midway through the quarter, and safely Javon Bullard's interception ended the Tigers' final drive of the game. The Bulldogs now have 11 interceptions this season.
- Georgia's captains were quarterback Carson Beck, wide receiver Ladd McConkey, Mondon and Stackhouse. Missouri won the toss and elected to defer to the second half.
- With the victory, Georgia improved to 82-18-2 all-time on Homecoming, including 3-0 against Missouri.

No. 2 Georgia 52, No. 9 Ole Miss 17

Nov. 11, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The Georgia football team wrapped up its home schedule in emphatic fashion in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

The No. 2 Bulldogs piled up more than 600 yards of offense in a dominating 52-17 win over No. 9 Ole Miss in a matchup of top-10 teams. It was the Bulldogs' 27th consecutive victory and their 25th win in a row on Dooley Field.

Georgia quarterback Carson Beck threw for 306 yards and two touchdowns, while Kendall Milton ran for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns on just nine carries. The Bulldog offense didn't face a third down until late in the second quarter, rushed for 311 yards, and out-gained Ole Miss 610-352.

Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on the opening drive when Quinshon Judkins ran the ball in from the Georgia 15-yard line. The Bulldogs answered quickly, going 75 yards in six plays and tying the game on Daijun Edwards' 1-yard run with 7:28 left in the first quarter.

Georgia's defense forced a turnover on downs on Ole Miss' next drive, stopping the Rebels on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 40. On first down of the Bulldogs' drive, Edwards gained nine yards. On the next play, he broke free for 22 yards, to the Ole Miss 29. On the next play, Beck hit wideout Ladd McConkey for a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead with 3:09 left in the quarter.

Early in the second, Ole Miss capped a 75-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run by Judkins, tying the game at 14. Georgia, again, answered quickly, capping its 75-yard drive with a one-yard Edwards run that put the Bulldogs up 21-14 with 9:58 to play in the half. The drive was highlighted by a seven-yard reception by tight end Brock Bowers, his first catch after missing the previous two games with an ankle injury, and a 41-yard reception by McConkey down to the 2.

Georgia's defense forced an Ole Miss three-and-out, getting a 10-yard sack and stuffing two runs for no gain, and the offense took over at its 38 after a Rebel punt. On first down, Beck found Bowers for a 19-yard gain. Later, Beck connected with Edwards for 14, and Kendall Milton capped the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run, pushing the lead to 28-14 with 2:27 to play in the half.

Georgia took a 35-14 lead with 9:15 left in the third on a 33-yard touchdown run by Milton. Kicker Peyton Woodring added to the Bulldog lead with 3:50 to go in the third, booting a 27-yard field goal to make it 38-14. Less than a minute into the fourth quarter, Beck found Bowers for an eight-yard touchdown and a 45-14 lead. Running back Andrew Paul scored a four-yard touchdown with 4:12 remaining to give the Bulldogs a 52-17 lead.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We have good players on offense and good coaches. That combination is hard. We have pass protectors and run blockers, and the backs I thought ran really hard tonight. Carson (Beck) put us in the right place. Number 19 (Bowers) and No. 84 (McConkey) are really tough to deal with. Dom (Lovett) and Rara (Thomas) did some good things. It's a cumulative effect. I'd hate to be on that defensive side trying to stop those guys."

Running back Kendall Milton rushed for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns against the Rebels.

- The Bulldogs extended their school-record winning streak to 27 games, won their 25th straight game on Dooley Field, won their 26th straight regular-season SEC game, and stretched their regular-season game win streak to 37 games.
- The offense produced a season-high 611 yards, on just 61 plays. It's the most total offense in a game since Georgia gained 615 yards against Missouri in 2020.
- In his first career start, linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with nine tackles, including his first career sack. Safety Javon Bullard had five tackles and an interception.
- Former coach Mark Richt was recognized between the first and second quarter for his 2023 induction into the College Football Hall of Fame. In 15 seasons at Georgia (2001-15), Richt amassed a record of 145-51, with seven Top-10 finishes and two SEC titles (2002 and '05).
- Before the game, Georgia recognized 30 seniors that were, or could be, playing their final game on Dooley Field. The 2023 senior class has a record of 47-3, including the 27 consecutive wins and back-to-back national championships, and went 22-0 at home.
- The captains were quarterback Carson Beck, receiver Ladd McConkey, linebacker Smael Mondon and defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse. Ole Miss won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 1 Georgia 38, No. 18 Tennessee 10

Nov. 18, 2023 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Carson Beck threw three touchdown passes, wide receiver Dillon Bell caught one and threw one, and the No. 1-ranked Georgia football team rolled to a 38-10 win over No. 18 Tennessee on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Georgia was behind 7-0 in the blink of an eye after the Volunteers scored on the first play from scrimmage. But the Bulldogs answered with 24 straight points to take control of the game. Georgia outgained the Vols 472-277, with Beck completing 24 of 30 passes for 298 yards. Defensive back Tykee Smith led a strong defensive effort with 10 tackles.

The Bulldog passing attack was effective throughout, with Bell, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers combining for 19 receptions. Rosemy-Jacksaint had career-highs with seven catches and two touchdowns; Bell tied a career-high with five receptions, for a career-best 90 yards and a score; and Bowers caught seven passes for 60 yards and a touchdown.

Tennessee jumped out to a 7-0 lead with a 75-yard touchdown run by Jaylen Wright on the first play of the game. The Bulldogs responded with an 11-play drive that ended in a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 7-3 with 10:01 to play in the first quarter.

After a quick defensive stop, Georgia took the lead, 10-7, on the ensuing drive when Beck pitched right to Bell, who lined up in the backfield, and Bell threw an 18-yard pass to Rosemy-Jacksaint all alone in the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 17-7 with 8:04 left in the half on Beck's nine-yard touchdown pass to Bell on the right side. The drive began with a 17-yard completion to Bell on the left side. A 21-yard Bowers reception later moved the ball down to the Tennessee 11.

Late in the half, Beck found Bowers on a the right side for a 3-yard touchdown and a 24-7 lead with 1:31 left in the half. Tennessee drew a little closer on the final play of the half with Charles Campbell's 37-yard field goal as time expired, cutting the Bulldog lead to 24-10 at the break.

On its second drive of the third quarter, Georgia found the end zone for the fourth time in the game. On the first play, wideout Arian Smith took an end-around run 33 yards to the Tennessee 37. Later, Beck hit a crossing Bell for a 24-yard gain to the 10. And two plays after that, Beck connected with Rosemy-Jacksaint for an eight-yard touchdown and a 31-10 lead with 9:24 left in the third.

A 15-yard Kendall Milton touchdown run with 1:03 left in the third pushed the Bulldog lead to 38-10. Milton had 66 yards on 14 carries, and Georgia finished with 156 yards on the ground.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I really believe our culture is our difference. Everybody will say it's players. I just don't think that it's just players. We have good players, really good players, but I think there's a lot to our culture that kids buy into, and they stay levelheaded. They're not talking about the (win) streak. They're not worried about the streak. Like I said, it's going to end and we're going to start a new one. For right now, they just keep getting better."

Dillon Bell not only tied a career-high with five receptions for a career-best 90 yards and a touchdown, he also threw a TD pass.

Worth Noting

- With the win, Georgia completes a third straight undefeated run through SEC play. It's the first time that's happened in the league since the Bulldogs did it from 1980-82. The win also extended Georgia's school-record win streak to 28 games, tying it for the longest in SEC history.
- Despite once again giving up a touchdown on the opponent's opening drive, Georgia's defense had a stellar game. Aside from the 75-yard rushing touchdown it allowed on the Vols' first play, Georgia held Tennessee to just a field goal and 202 yards of offense the rest of the way. Tykee Smith led the defense with 10 tackles and the Bulldogs had seven players with at least three stops each.
- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had the best game of his Georgia career in the win over Tennessee. He tied a career high with five catches, he had a career-best 90 receiving yards and a touchdown, and he threw an 18-yard touchdown pass on a trick play. It was Georgia's first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback since RB Kenny McIntosh threw one in 2021.
- Quarterback Carson Beck is on pace to smash the school record for completion percentage in a season. Stetson Bennett set the mark last season when he completed 68.3% of his passes. Through 11 games, Beck, at 255 of 350, is connecting on 72.9% of his throws.
- The captains against Tennessee were wide receiver Ladd McConkey, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, defensive lineman Zion Logue and linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. The Bulldogs won the coin toss and elected to defer to the second half.

No. 1 Georgia 31, Georgia Tech 23

Nov. 25, 2023 • Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The top-ranked Georgia football team rushed for 262 yards on its way to a 31-23 win over the Yellow Jackets in front of a crowd of 51,447 and an ABC national television audience. It was Georgia's 12th straight win on their in-state rival's home field.

With the win, the Bulldogs' 29th in a row, Georgia now has the longest winning streak in SEC history. The win was also the 49th by the 2023 senior class, tying the program record set by the 2022 seniors.

Saturday's win didn't come easily, especially with the offense playing without weapons Brock Bowers, Ladd McConkey and Rara Thomas due to injuries. The trio have a combined 100 receptions this season.

Running back Kendall Milton rushed for a career-high 156 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries. Quarterback Carson Beck finished 13 of 20 for 175 yards and a touchdown, completing five passes to Dominic Lovett for 68 yards and a touchdown, while Dillon Bell caught three passes for 37 and also had a 29-yard rush.

The Yellow Jackets struck first, forcing a Bulldog fumble on Georgia's first offensive play, and then later taking a 7-0 lead on a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Haynes King.

Georgia drew even when Beck hit a wide open Lovett on the left side for a 29-yard touchdown, tying the game at 7-7 with 7:23 left in the opening quarter. Tech regained the lead, 10-7, with a Aidan Birr 25-yard field goal with 35 seconds left in the opening quarter.

Georgia took its first lead with 12:40 to go in the first half on a seven-play drive that covered 75 yards. Milton ran the ball in from the 3 for a 14-10 lead.

Tech answered with a 12-play drive that ended with a 45-yard Birr field goal, cutting the Bulldog lead to 14-13 with 6:06 left in the first half. Georgia followed that with an 11-play touchdown drive that ended with a three-yard Daijun Edwards touchdown run and a 21-13 lead with 1:14 to play in the half. Edwards not only scored the touchdown, he kept the drive going with a 12-yard run on third-and-9 at the Tech 35.

Kicker Peyton Woodring booted a 39-yard field goal with 5:15 to play in the third quarter to make it 24-13 Bulldogs. Nearly five minutes later, after Tech came up empty on a fourth-and-7 pass from the Georgia 45, Milton ran the ball in for a four-yard touchdown and a 31-13 lead with 31 seconds remaining in the third.

Tech drove down to the Georgia 13 on the ensuing possession, but then the Bulldog defense got tough. On third-and-7 at the 10, linebacker Marvin Jones Jr. sacked King for a loss of 13, forcing Tech to settle for a 40-yard field goal that cut Georgia's lead to 31-16 with 12:13 remaining.

Tech cut the Georgia lead to 31-23 with 3:46 to play on a five-yard King run, but the Bulldogs were able to run out the clock on the ensuing drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Once again, our kids show up, very resilient, tough — I mean this game is not measured by stats and rushing yards and first downs. It's measured by heart. You got to have a whole lot of heart to go out there and fight and play like our guys have done week after week."

Dillon Bell had three catches for 37 yards and a 29-yard run in the Bulldogs' 31-23 win over Georgia Tech.

- Georgia stands alone in SEC history with 29 consecutive wins, breaking a tie with a pair of Alabama squads that had 28-game win streaks. The Bulldogs also finished their third consecutive undefeated regular season. The win was also the 49th by the 2023 senior class, tying the program record set by the 2022 seniors. The Bulldogs also extended their school record for consecutive regular season wins to 39 which leads all of FBS. This streak began during the 2020 season with a 31-24 win over Miss. State. on Nov. 21.
- The Bulldogs have won six in a row over Georgia Tech, and 12 straight at Bobby Dodd Stadium. With the latest victory over Tech, Georgia now holds a 71-39-5 edge in the series history including 6-1 in the Kirby Smart era.
- Linebackers Smael Mondon Jr. and CJ Allen had eight tackles each to lead the defense. The Bulldogs had six players with at least six tackles.
- Freshman kicker Peyton Woodring made a 39-yarder FG and was 4-for-4 on PATs for seven points. His 39-yarder made it 24-13 with 5:15 left in the 3rd quarter. For the season, he is 20-for-23 on field-goal attempts and has 119 points, which ranks eight in school history.
- A quartet of seniors — Daijun Edwards (RB), Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint (WR), Nazir Stackhouse (DL) and Tramel Walthour (DL) — served as the game captains. Tech won the toss and elected to receive. Junior center Sedrick Van Pran made his team-leading 42nd career start.

2023 GAME SUMMARIES

No. 8 Alabama 27, No. 1 Georgia 24

Dec. 2, 2023 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — A week after setting the record for the longest winning streak in conference history with its 29th straight victory, the top-ranked Georgia football team's incredible run of success came to an end in the SEC Championship Game.

Facing No. 8 Alabama for the conference title and a probable spot in the College Football Playoff, the Bulldogs came up short, 27-24, in front of 78,320 inside Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

It was Georgia's first loss since falling to the Crimson Tide in the 2021 SEC Championship Game. In between those defeats, the Bulldogs won an SEC-record 29 games in a row, two CFP national championships, and an SEC title last year. Georgia has won 45 of its last 47 games.

On Georgia's first offensive play, quarterback Carson Beck hit tight end Brock Bowers for 23 yards. On the next, Beck connected with Dominic Lovett for 18. Later, Beck found Ladd McConkey for a 15-yard gain, and two plays later, Kendall Milton ran the ball in from the 17 for a 7-0 Georgia lead. Beck finished 21 of 29 for 243 yards.

Alabama got on the scoreboard with 3:43 to play in the first with kicker Will Reichard's 43-yard field goal. The Tide took a 10-7 lead with 12:04 remaining in the half on a 28-yard touchdown pass from Jalen Milroe to Jamarion Miller. With 48 seconds left in the half, Alabama went up 17-7 on Milroe's 15-yard touchdown pass to Jermaine Burton.

In the third quarter, Georgia quickly got into the red zone with a 51-yard completion to wideout Arian Smith, to the Bama 19. The Bulldogs eventually got a 34-yard field goal from Peyton Woodring, cutting the Tide's lead to 17-10 with 8:51 left in the quarter.

A fumbled handoff deep in UGA territory later gave the Tide the ball at the 11-yard line. The Bulldog defense held Bama to a 28-yard field goal, and a 20-10 lead, with 48 seconds left in the third quarter.

In the fourth, the Bulldogs forced an Alabama punt, and Anthony Evans III covered 28 yards on the return, down to the Tide 35. Later, Beck hit McConkey for a 15-yard gain to the 1, and Beck ran the ball in on the next play, cutting the Tide lead to 20-17 with 10:16 remaining in the game.

Alabama marched 75 yards in nine plays and scored on Roydell Williams' one-yard run, pushing the Tide's lead to 27-17 with 5:47 to play.

Georgia drove quickly the other way, and had a second-and-goal at the 1 with less than four minutes remaining. It soon after faced a fourth down at the 1 with 2:54 to play. After a timeout, Georgia gave the ball to Milton, who ran it in for the touchdown. Woodring's extra point made it 27-24 with 2:52 to go. It was Milton's 11th touchdown run in the past eight games.

Alabama was able to run out the clock on the ensuing drive, ending the Bulldogs' comeback bid and their win streak.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"This team is really special in terms of how they play and how they compete. They've been through a lot with the guys in and out of the roster (due to injury), which has been tough on these guys. I'm proud of them and congratulate Alabama on a great game."

Running back Kendall Milton ran the ball in for two touchdowns against Alabama, giving him 11 in his past eight games.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia's last loss before Saturday came almost two years ago to the day, on Dec. 4, 2021, when it fell 41-24 to Alabama. What followed was 29 straight wins, two national championships and the 2022 SEC title. The Bulldogs have won 45 of their last 47 games, with both losses coming to the Tide in the SEC Championship Game.
- Linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. and safety Malaki Starks had eight tackles each to led the defense, which held Alabama to 306 yards of offense. Eight Bulldogs had at least three tackles. Georgia finished with four sacks — two by linebacker Jalon Walker — and eight tackles for loss.
- Senior running back Kendall Milton was Georgia's leading rusher with 42 yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries. He had a 17-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 lead, and later scored from the 1 to make it 27-24. In his past eight games, Milton has 11 rushing touchdowns.
- Junior tight end Brock Bowers had five catches for 53 yards after missing last week's game at Georgia Tech and three of the past five games with an ankle injury. He moved up to third all-time in school history with 175 receptions and is fifth in receiving yards with 2,538.
- Georgia's captains for the SEC Championship game were center Sedrick Van Pran, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and defensive backs Kamari Lassiter and Javon Bullard. The Bulldogs won the toss and deferred to the second half. Van Pran made his team-high 43rd start, including in his third SECCG, while linebacker Marvin Jones Jr. made his first career start.

No. 6 Georgia 63, No. 5 Florida State 3

Dec. 30, 2023 • Hard Rock Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — In front of 63,324 spectators at Hard Rock Stadium and an ESPN national television audience, the No. 6-ranked Georgia Bulldogs scored touchdowns on nine consecutive drives at one point en route to a 63-3 win over No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. It was the biggest blowout in bowl game history.

Playing in its 27th consecutive bowl game, the longest streak in the nation, Georgia led 7-0 after the first quarter. In the second, the Bulldogs turned the game into a rout, outscoring FSU 35-3. With the victory, the 2023 senior class improved to 50-4, the most wins by a class in school history.

Georgia amassed 383 yards of offense in the first half, including 180 rushing yards, and averaged 11.3 yards per play. The 42-3 lead was the largest halftime advantage in Orange Bowl history. For the game, the Bulldogs rushed for 372 yards on 47 carries, and out-gained the Seminoles 673-209.

The Bulldogs took a 7-0 lead on running back Kendall Milton's 15-yard touchdown run. Later, on the final play of the first quarter, Milton ran 43 yards down to the FSU 5. He had 86 yards on six carries in the first period, and on the first play of the second, he scored on a 5-yard run to put the Bulldogs ahead 14-0.

FSU answered with a couple of long completions to get down to the Bulldog 3-yard line. The Georgia defense then held, and FSU cut the lead to 14-3 with a 22-yard field goal by Ryan Fitzgerald with 12:34 left in the half.

Georgia needed just four plays to get back into the end zone on the ensuing drive. Daijun Edwards scored on a 15-yard touchdown run to make it 21-3 with 10:38 to go. The Bulldogs scored again 20 seconds later.

On the ensuing kickoff, Chaz Chambliss forced a fumble and Cole Speer dove on the loose ball at the FSU 27. On the next play, Ladd McConkey ran for a 27-yard touchdown. Georgia's next TD came on a 12-yard pass from Carson Beck to Arian Smith, making it 35.

The Seminoles' next drive ended when linebacker Mykel Williams strip-sacked quarterback Brock Glenn, picked up the fumble and returned it 10 yards to the Bulldog 49. Two plays later, Beck connected with Dillon Bell for a 35-yard gain. Soon after, Beck hit Dominic Lovett for a two-yard touchdown and a 42-3 lead with 26 seconds left in the half.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Milton had 104 yards and two touchdowns on just nine carries in the first half, while Beck was 13 of 18 for 203 yards and two touchdowns. Neither player played in the second half.

In the third, Edwards scored on a two-yard touchdown run, pushing the lead to 49-3. Later, Gunner Stockton hit tight end Lawson Luckie for a four-yard touchdown, pushing lead to 56-3. Anthony Evans III caught a four-yard Stockton TD pass to make it 63-3. On Georgia's final drive, Jackson Muschamp, a junior backup quarterback and the son of co-defensive coordinator (and former Bulldog defensive back) Will Muschamp, entered the game. He ran for 14 yards on his first play.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The game mattered because we're playing a game. As long as winning matters, we're going to compete like hell at Georgia. It doesn't matter who it is."

Senior Kendall Milton ran for 104 yards and two touchdowns, all in the first half, to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors.

- The 2023 senior class set a school mark for career victories as they finished with a 50-4 mark, including two national championships. During their career, the seniors beat three teams they faced in bowl games/CFP that were undefeated (2020 Peach-Cincinnati, 2021 CFP Semifinal/Orange-Michigan, 2023 Orange-FSU).
- UGA's 60-point win is the largest ever in a bowl game by any team. The old mark of 58 was set last year in Georgia's 65-7 win over TCU for the national title.
- The Bulldogs in the Kirby Smart era are now 94-16 overall, including 46-2 in their last 48 games. The Bulldogs are now 9-2 in bowl games/CFP appearances under Smart, including winning the last seven contests.
- Georgia finished with a season-high and Bulldog bowl record 673 yards of total offense (4th most in school history) on 76 plays. After turning it over on downs on its first possession, Georgia scored TDs on its next nine possessions before having to punt in the 4th quarter.
- Sophomore safety Malaki Starks picked off his third pass of the season late in the first half. Later in the game, sophomore cornerback Daylen Everett grabbed his first career interception.
- The captains for the Orange Bowl were center Sedrick Van Pran, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, safety Javon Bullard and cornerback Kamari Lassiter. UGA won the toss and deferred to the second half.
