Caryl Smith Gilbert, who led the University of Southern California women to the 2018 and 2021 NCAA outdoor team championships and was the National Women's Coach of the Year both of those seasons, was named Georgia's Director of Track and Field on June 13, 2021. Smith Gilbert became the first female head coach of a men's sports program in the history of Georgia Athletics.

Year two in 2023 directing UGA's teams reaped noticeable dividends as Smith Gilbert was named the men and women's U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) South Region Coach of the Year indoors and collected four top-10 national team finishes, including a runner-up showing for the Bulldog men at the 2023 NCAA Indoor Championships.

The Georgia men had their top finish in history at the 2023 NCAA Indoor Championships, earning second-place honors with a program record 40 points. The finish was highlighted by school records in both the 200-meter dash (Matthew Boling, 20.12, No. 5 all-time collegiate performer) and 400m (Elija Godwin, 44.75, No. 5 all-time collegiate performer) for NCAA titles as well as a collegiate record score of 6,639 points from the 2023 USTFCCCA Indoor National Field Athlete of the Year, Kyle Garland, in the heptathlon. Garland's score was only six points from the world record.

Boling joined Christopher Morales Williams, Caleb Cavanaugh and Will Sumner in the 4x400m relay at Nationals to score eight more points with a second-place finish. With Godwin running in place of Sumner, the Bulldogs ran a season-best relay of 3:02.90 at the Tiger Paw Invitational for the second-fastest finish in school history and fourth best in the nation in 2023. Also, Boling, Cavanaugh, Sumner and Godwin combined for runner-up honors in the relay at the SEC Championships.

The women finished fifth at the 2023 indoor Nationals after tallying 31 points. Individual performances from true freshmen Kaila Jackson and Autumn Wilson shined during the Lady Bulldogs' trip to Albuquerque. Jackson, who was the SEC Freshman Runner of the Year indoors and outdoors, clocked a World Junior (under-20) and school record 7.07 to become the No. 4 all-time collegiate performer in the prelims before taking second in the 60m final with a 7.08. In addition, Jackson was eighth in the 200m final.

Wilson shot to No. 7 on the all-time collegiate performer's list with a school record 22.42 in the 200m prelims and earned a bronze in the final (22.45). She complemented Jackson's finish in the 60m by taking fourth in the final with a personal record 7.12.

Other notable 2023 First Team All-America performances on the track came from Sumner, a true freshman who battled for a seventh-place finish in the 800m indoors. Sumner registered a 1:48.28 to win his first SEC title at the conference meet weeks earlier and set a school record with a 1:47.28 at the Music City Challenge.

Sumner was later voted the SEC Freshman Runner of the Year before also garnering the honor outdoors while Godwin was named the league's Co-Runner of the Year honors. In addition, Boling collected his record-tying third SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year award.

Sumner was not the only Bulldog who shined at the 2023 SEC Indoor Championships. Jackson earned second and fourth-place finishes in the 60m and 200m, respectively, while Wilson went fourth-fifth in the same short sprints. On the men's side, Godwin captured the 400m title with a matching 44.75 (meet record) from Nationals and Boling was second in the 200m. In addition, Keshawn Black competed at his first league meet and finished seventh with a 6.73.

A number of Georgia sprinters and hurdlers made significant improvements as well during the regular season, including Bella Witt clocking an 8.20 in the 60m hurdles, Kenondra Davis managing a 23.12 in the 200m, Aaliyah Butler registering a 52.92 in the 400m and Butler teaming with Dominique Mustin, Haley Tate and Zoe Pollock, who were all first-year Bulldogs, to record the school's second-fastest 4x400m relay time in school history (3:33.28).

For the year, Georgia collected three national titles and two conference crowns to go with six school records (men's 200m, men's 400m, men's 800m, decathlon, women's 60m, women's 200m) and 36 improvements to the school's all-time top-10 lists.

Outdoors, Smith Gilbert's squads were equally impressive. The Bulldog men posted a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Championships with 28 points, marking their sixth consecutive top-10 finish at the meet. Sumner highlighted Nationals after clocking the fifth-best time in collegiate history (1:44.26) to collect Georgia's first NCAA 800m title. The USTFCCA Outdoor South Region Men's Track Athlete of the Year shaved more than two seconds off of his prep personal record in the 800m during his first season under Smith Gilbert and distance assistant Patrick Henner.

Sumner was one of nine Bulldog men who qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. He ran a leg on the seventh place 4x400m relay team (3:03.22) at Nationals along with Morales Williams, Boling and Cavanaugh. Individually, Cavanaugh advanced to his first NCAA final in the 400m hurdles and scored thanks to a 49.20 for sixth place. This performance came after Cavanaugh dropped his career best to 49.04 in the hurdles at SECs. The Bulldogs' final points at the meet came from graduate transfer Marc Minichello, who finished fourth in the javelin.

The Lady Bulldogs also managed to take 10th at the NCAA Championships with the contributions from 12 team members, including a half dozen sprinters who Smith Gilbert directly coaches. Kaila Jackson sped to a wind-aided 10.96 for fourth in the 100m final and also ran a leg on the scoring 4x100m relay, a quartet that included Aaliyah Butler, Brandee Presley and Autumn Wilson. The Lady Bulldogs ran a school record 42.87 to take sixth place. Also on the track, Dominique Mustin bettered her No. 2 spot in the school record books to 56.68 during the 400m hurdle semifinal.

In the jumps, Elena Kulichenko reached the six-foot mark for the sixth time of the season to take third (1.87m/6-1.50) in the high jump while Titiana March, who advanced to a jaw-dropping 10 straight NCAA Championships over her five-year career, concluded her run as a Lady Bulldog with a season-best mark of 13.67m/44-10.25 for fifth in the triple jump.

Garland gave the Bulldogs' their third

USTFCCA South Region Men's Field Athlete of the Year honor after securing an SEC decathlon title and a silver medal in the combined events at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. He scored the No. 3 all-time collegiate decathlon tally (8,630, NCAAs) and the No. 4 tally (8,589, SECs) and posted collegiate all-time dec bests in both the 110m hurdles (13.54) and the shot put (16.77m/55-0.25) during his final outdoor campaign.

Georgia's successful 2023 outdoor postseason run began with the SEC Championships, including Boling collecting his record-breaking fourth SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honor. The Bulldog sprinters, hurdlers and relays combined to score 68 points in the country's toughest conference. While Sumner's league crown in the 800m highlighted the weekend in Baton Rouge, Godwin managed a runner-up finish in the 400m and Jackson, who also won a bronze in the 200m, was second in her first outdoor final with a legal personal record of 11.04.

Smith Gilbert helped her team continue their onslaught of the school's all-time top-10 lists, including school records in the women's 4x100m and 4x400m relays, the men's 4x400m relay and the men's 800m. There were a total of 44 revisions to the Bulldog record books, including 29 in the sprints, hurdles and relays. Two of those improvements came from a pair of freshmen in the 100m (Jackson's 11.04, Wilson's 11.17) and another in the 400m (Butler's 51.32) as the trio passed one of the sport's all-time greats in Gwen Torrence in the events (11.20, 51.60).

In her first season with the Bulldogs, Smith Gilbert guided the men to an eighth-place finish at the 2022 NCAA Indoor Championships. She led Boling to UGA's first SEC 60m title as well as the Bulldogs' first conference crown in the 4x400m relay. Highlighted by school records in the men's 4x400m relay, distance medley relay, long jump, mile and women's shot put, Smith Gilbert's squads registered 30 improvements to the school's all-time top-10 lists.

Outdoors, Georgia had seven First Team All-Americans while collecting four SEC crowns, seven school records and 26 improvements to the UGA record books in 2022. Smith Gilbert directed the men to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships during a campaign that was driven by her sprints corps. Following the collegiate season, Smith Gilbert continued to work with Godwin as he registered gold and bronze medals in the men's 4x400m relay and the mixed 4x400m relay, respectively, at the World Athletics Championships in Eugene, Ore.

Smith Gilbert extended her work with the Bulldogs' talented duo of Boling and Godwin as the pair hit a level of success new to the Georgia program. Boling established school records in the 100m (9.98, No. 5 nationally) and 200m (19.92, No. 3 nationally), collected SEC titles in both the 60m and outdoor 200m and finished as a national scorer in the 60m and 100m as well as becoming a top eight finisher in the 200m indoors and outdoors nationally. Smith Gilbert's leadership of Godwin was just as apparent as he posted his best finish at the SEC Championships of runner-up before earning a bronze medal nationally in the 400m with a then school record 44.50. Boling and Godwin were also two legs on the indoor 4x400m relay team that captured the 2022 SEC title for the first time in school history.

Godwin continued his success in the collegiate postseason as he re-set his own school record in the 400m with a 44.34 for fourth at the USATF Championships. Godwin's splits on his opening legs of the mixed relay and men's relay at Worlds were an impressive 44.89, 44.71, 44.46 and 44.28.

In addition, Smith Gilbert trained Cavanaugh in his third year to become an NCAA semifinalist after clocking the school's fourth best 400m hurdle time in history (49.59) and taking fourth at SECs. Cavanaugh's training partner, freshman Bryce McCray, also scored at the conference meet with the sixth-best time in UGA history (50.21). Working with short sprinter Delano Dunkley, Smith Gilbert helped him drop his 100m to 10.22 (No. 9 on UGA's all-time top-10 list) and 60m to 6.65 (No. 4).

On the women's side, first-year sprinter Kenondra Davis finished with the fourth-best indoor 200m time in school history (23.33) and the eighth-best outdoor finish (23.23) in 2022. Meanwhile, fellow freshman Eddiyah Frye qualified for the World Under-20 Championships thanks to her runner-up finish in the 100m hurdles at the USATF Championships with a time of 13.26, which stands eighth in the school record books. Indoors, Frye sped to an 8.23 in the 60m hurdles to move to No. 5 on UGA's all-time top-10 list under Smith Gilbert's direction.

The 2021 USC women's squad gave Smith Gilbert her second national title in the last three NCAA Outdoor Championships, while the Trojan men finished in the top-five at the 2021 outdoor Nationals for the fourth time in the last seven championships under her guidance.

Smith Gilbert spent eight seasons (2014-21) as the Director of Track and Field at USC, building the program into a national powerhouse. She guided the women's team to a 2018 NCAA Outdoor National Championship, earning the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Women's (USTFCCA) National Coach of the Year honor and being named the USATF Nike Coach of the Year. That same season, the Trojans' men's squad finished second at the NCAA Indoor Championships. In 2021, Smith Gilbert again garnered National Coach of the Year honors after her women's team earned a spot at the top of the podium and her men's team was fifth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

The Trojan track and field teams combined to finish in the top-10 an impressive 16 times in Smith Gilbert's eight seasons at the helm. She mentored over 200 first-team All-Americans, while her teams set close to 130 school top-10 marks and 50 program records. Her athletes also won over 20 individual NCAA event titles.

Smith Gilbert garnered the USTFCCA West Region Coach of the Year award on six occasions and is a five-time South Region Coach of the Year, two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year and six-time Conference USA Coach of the Year. In 2015, she became the first woman to earn the Pac-12 Men's Coach of the Year honor.

USC's 2018 NCAA outdoor championships was just the second women's title in program history. The women claimed the crown with a come-from-behind victory over Georgia in the 4x400m relay, the meet's final event. That national championship was the culmination of another successful season under Smith Gilbert's guidance. The women's team also won the Pac-12 title, while the men's squad finished third.

She led the USC men's program to top-five national finishes in the outdoor championships in 2014, 2015, 2018 and 2021 while the women finished in the top-five of the outdoor event in 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2021.

Prior to her time with the Trojans, Smith Gilbert was a six-time Conference USA Coach of the Year at the University of Central Florida. She guided the Knights' women's team to a program-best fifth-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

The Knights won six C-USA track and field indoor and outdoor crowns, while her athletes earned All-America status more than 100 times and set over 100 school records.

Smith Gilbert spent five seasons (2003-07) as an assistant coach at Tennessee, where she was responsible for coaching sprints, hurdles and jumps. Her Lady Vol athletes won three NCAA titles and seven Southeastern Conference crowns. In 2005, Tennessee won its first NCAA indoor championship as her athletes combined for 24 All-America honors.

Smith Gilbert was an assistant coach at Alabama for three years (2000-02) and an assistant at Penn State from 1998-99.

Prior to her career in the collegiate ranks, the Denver, Colo. native was the head coach at her prep alma mater, George Washington High, from 1994-97. In addition to her experience at the high school and collegiate levels, Smith Gilbert was an assistant with Team USA and was invited to coach the 2005 Pan Am Junior Championships. She was also selected to serve as an assistant coach for the 2007 World Championships in Osaka, Japan.

Smith Gilbert is a 1991 graduate of UCLA, where she was a three-time All-American and Pac-10 champion in the 100m, 4x100m relay and the 4x400m relay. She holds a bachelor's degree in Film and Television Production from UCLA and earned Master's degrees in Sport Management and Sport Psychology from the University of Tennessee.

Smith Gilbert is married to former University of Alabama standout and NFL linebacker Greg Gilbert. They have three sons: Alex, Spencer and Osiris.

2003 National Assistant Coach of the Year

2007 USTFCCCA East Region Women's Throws Coach of the Year

2009 USTFCCCA East Region Men's Throws Coach of the Year

With the arrival of his 28th year in red and black and in his 40th year overall coaching, Don Babbitt has transformed the Georgia throws program into arguably the most continually talented group in the country. And along a total of 30 NCAA champions and 149 All-Americans, the dean of SEC throws coaches is perhaps the most accomplished throwing coach in the world. Babbitt was promoted to Associate Head Coach in June 2015 and since his promotion, the Bulldogs have finished in the top six nationally 17 times, including two national team titles and a trio of runner-up finishes.

Most recently, Babbitt continued the development of his throwers by having two SEC scorers and making a pair of improvements to Georgia's all-time top-10 lists during the 2023 indoor campaign. Ana da Silva posted a season-best shot put toss of 17.25 meters/56 feet, 7 ¼ inches to take fourth while fellow Brazilian Alencar Pereira managed a sixth-place showing in the weight throw. Pereira rocketed to fourth in the Bulldog record books in the weight at the Dr. MLK Jr. Invite with a toss of 21.89m/71-10. In the women's weight, Elsie Igberaese improved to No. 7 on the school's all-time top-10 list after reaching 19.57m/64-2.50 at the Tiger Paw Invite.

Babbitt's throwers earned four All-America certificates in 2022, broke two school record and captured the women's SEC outdoor shot put title. Competing for the first time in the red and black, da Silva worked up to a school record of 17.52 meters/57 feet, 5 ¾ inches, which ranked ninth nationally, for bronze honors at the SEC Championships. The Brazil native answered that performance with a First Team All-America showing at Nationals after finishing seventh. Outdoors, da Silva launched the longest toss of her career for a school record (18.46/60-6.75) on her sixth and final toss to secure the Lady Bulldogs their first SEC shot put title since 2000. She went on to win the Brazilian National Championships and competed at the 2022 World Championships. Da Silva was one of a number of competitors who experienced success under Babbitt's tutelage in 2022. Pereira earned SEC runner-up honors in the hammer throw after building to a PR of 70.74/232-1 during the regular season finale and qualified for Nationals for the second year in a row. Pereira's year began with establishing a fresh career best in the weight throw (21.30/69-10.75) indoors. Another second-place finish at SEC came from Ahmed Magour in the javelin after the Qatar native acquired the fifth-longest throw in Bulldog history (74.40/244-1). He returned to score at his first NCAA Championships. In addition, Gavin Beverage eclipsed 61 feet outdoors in the shot put to earn a spot on the school's all-time list and qualify for the NCAA Prelims. Igberaese, Mia Anderson and Julia Harisay also all tallied a combo of personal bests in the weight throw, shot put, hammer, discus and javelin.

In 2021, Babbitt wrapped up the collegiate development of javelin standout Marie-Therese Obst as she won seven meets in her final campaign, including capturing the 2021 SEC and NCAA titles. Obst topped out at a school record 61.37 meters (201 feet, 4 inches) in her final home meet at the Spec Towns Invitational and ended as the NCAA's No. 4 all-time collegiate performer.

Babbitt concluded coaching one of the Bulldogs' all-time greats, Denzel Comenentia, in 2019. Comenentia finished his UGA career as a 13-time First Team All-American, eight-time SEC individual champion, two-time NCAA individual champion and the Amsterdam native accomplished a feat in 2019 that had never been conquered in history. Comenentia balanced a trio of events at the NCAA Championships and scored in all three, including a runner-up finish in the shot put (20.77m, 68-1.75) and fifth-place showings in both the discus (a personal record of 59.97m, 196-9) and the hammer throw (72.93m, 293-3). Following Babbitt's leadership, Comenentia was named the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) Co-South Region Men's Field Athlete of the Year outdoors for the second straight year. He also captured the SEC Commissioner's Trophy for the second year in a row as the league's high scorer at the conference meet thanks to his third shot put title in a row and second-place finishes in both the discus and hammer. His personal bests from his final outdoor campaign featured a hammer mark of 76.80m (252-0, No. 10 all-time collegiate performer, longest NCAA mark in 2019, Dutch national record), a shot put effort of 20.78m (68-2.25, No. 5 on 2019 NCAA list) and a personal-best discus mark that finished No. 2 on Georgia's all-time list.

Comenentia earned another USTFCCCA honor at the conclusion of the indoor season as he was third in both the weight throw (23.32m, 76-6.25) and the shot (20.58m, 67-6.25) at the NCAA meet and won his second SEC indoor shot crown. Babbitt tuned his All-American up to muscle a school record in the shot (20.72m, 67-11.75), which ended up being the country's third-longest toss of the year, and the NCAA's third-longest weight throw of 2019 with a mark of 23.52m (77-2).

On the women's side, Obst launched the then fifth-longest javelin effort in UGA history during the 2019 campaign, was third at SECs and qualified for another NCAA Prelims. In addition, Hayden Merrick worked her way up to No. 4 on Georgia's all-time list in the discus to finish one spot from qualifying for Nationals with a toss of 52.34m (171-9).

In 2018, Babbitt directed Comenentia to two NCAA crowns, four First Team All-America honors and a trio of SEC individual championships. Most importantly, Comenentia was the key component to bringing the Bulldogs' first NCAA team crown back to Athens outdoors. Sweeping the hammer throw and shot put at the SEC Outdoor Championships for the second straight year (while also placing in the discus to win the Commissioner's Trophy as the meet's high scorer), Comenentia collected the hammer and shot put NCAA titles together for only the third time in meet history to lead the Bulldog men to their national championships. Babbitt first coached the Amsterdam native to reach a school record distance of 20.44m (67-0.75) in the indoor shot put and 23.71m (77-9.50) in the weight throw, which is a mark that sits only behind one of Babbitt's former throwers, NCAA champion and Olympian Andras Haklits (79.30m, 80-2). Outdoors, Comenentia improved to second on Georgia's all-time list in the shot (20.88m, 68-6), hammer (a Dutch national record of 76.41m, 250-8) and discus (58.81m, 192-11). The effort in the hammer put Comenentia as the No. 10 all-time collegiate performer and gave the Bulldogs two on the all-time list as Haklits remains No. 2.

Under Babbitt's guidance since 1996, Georgia's throwers have reached a high level of success. The Bulldog throwers have captured 15 NCAA titles, earned 110 All-American certificates and won 63 SEC titles since Babbitt arrived in Athens.

Thanks to the performances listed above and others, Babbitt has garnered the following honors while coaching at Georgia:

- 2003 USTFCCCA National Assistant Coach of the Year
- 2007 USTFCCCA East Region Women's Throws Coach of the Year
- 2009 USTFCCCA East Region Men's Throws Coach of the Year

Babbitt came to Athens from California State University in Los Angeles where he was an assistant from 1988-96. He built the Cal State-Los Angeles throwing program into the strongest at the NCAA Division II level, producing 46 NCAA qualifiers, 39 All-Americans and 15 NCAA Champions.

Babbitt's success at the international level is also highlighted below:

- 58 athletes who have competed at the Olympic Games/World Championships

- His throwers have captured 24 medals in international competition
- His throwers have won 20 titles at the USA Championships

Eight NCAA titles, 59 All-American honors and 29 SEC crowns during the last 16 seasons further solidified Babbitt's hold as one of the world's premier throws coaches. The trend became even more evident as the native of Santa Monica, Calif., led freshman Freya Jones to the 2013 NCAA javelin title and four other throwers to All-America honors that year. In 2014, his throwers swept the SEC hammer throw titles (first time the Bulldogs have won both since 2001; UGA accomplished the feat again in 2017) and added six more All-America certificates, including three top-six national finishes in the men's hammer, men's shot put and women's javelin. Alex Poursanidis won his second consecutive SEC hammer championship in 2015 and Ashinia Miler topped a 20-year-old school record in the indoor shot put (20.31m, 66-7.75) as Babbitt's corps picked up another pair of First Team All-America honors at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. When 2016 had come and gone, Babbitt had directed then freshman Comenentia to First Team All-America honors in the indoor shot put and Ashinia Miller to a sweep of the SEC shot put titles.

Babbitt's throwers have seen success throughout the 2000s. Nikola Lomnicka registered four All-America certificates over her years at UGA (2010-12) to go along with the 2010 national title in the hammer throw, marking Georgia's third championship in the event during a five-year span (2006-10). In 2009, Chris Hill won his second consecutive NCAA title in the javelin throw and capped his NCAA career with a USATF National Championship as well with a throw of 83.87m (275-2). This mark established a new NCAA American collegiate record.

Other notable Bulldog performers under Babbitt's tutelage include now former collegiate record holder Jenny Dahlgren (hammer throw), 2003 NCAA champion Lucais MacKay (hammer) and the three-time national champion Haklits (two hammer, one weight). In 2007, Dahlgren finished her Bulldog career with three NCAA titles, eight All-American certificates and four SEC titles while the Argentinian shattered school, SEC, collegiate, NCAA Championship and South American records in the hammer throw (72.94m, 239-3) under Babbitt's guidance. Two years before Dahlgren's finale, Babbitt led his throwers to eight top-20 finishes during the 2005 NCAA Championships, highlighted by Trevor Snyder's second-place finish in the javelin and Dahlgren's pair of top-five finishes in the NCAA Championships.

In 2003, Babbitt guided MacKay to All-America honors in the weight, hammer and discus as MacKay became a six-time All-America thrower while at UGA. Babbitt also coached MacKay to an NCAA title in the hammer throw and led Panagiotis Mavraganis to All-America honors in the weight throw as well as SEC titles in the weight and hammer throws in 2003.

In addition, Babbitt has had a long-term coaching relationship with Haklits, the four-time Croatian Olympian and hammer record holder. Haklits finished eighth in the 2008 Beijing Olympics and seventh in the hammer at the 2009 World Championships in Berlin, Germany.

Babbitt has also guided a number of the world's top performers at the professional level. These include 2004 Olympic champion and 2005 World Outdoor shot put champion Adam Nelson and 2006 World Indoor and 2007 World Outdoor shot put champion and 2012 Olympic bronze medalist Reese Hoffa. Hoffa developed into the world's most consistent thrower over a 15-year period and will go down, along with Nelson, as one of the all-time greats in the sport. Babbitt is has also served as the personal coach of eight-time U.S. Champion and current American record holder Breaux Greer (javelin), as well as Canadian record holder JasonTunks (discus) and three-time Canadian Olympian and former Canadian record holder Brad Snyder (shot put).

Babbitt received his bachelor's degree in Biology from UCLA in 1989 and his Master's degree in Exercise Science from Cal State-Los Angeles in 1994. He is currently completing a PhD in Kinesiology (Sport Pedagogy) at the University of Georgia.

An avid writer and clinician, Babbitt has written over 83 articles and three book chapters for publications on six continents and in six different languages. He has also conducted clinics and seminars on six different continents, including 18 different states in the US. Babbitt has served the Throws Editor for the World Athletics Coaches Education Program and a World Athletics Level V Lecturer for the World Athletics Throws Academy Courses since 2009. In addition, Babbitt produced and taught the throws curriculum for the new USATFCCCA Coaching Academy which was established in 2011 and has contributed to the development of the UK Athletics Coaching Education Curriculum for the heavy throws (shot, discus, hammer) and ALTIS' Coaching Education Program.

Babbitt is also an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and designed strength and conditioning programs for Cal State-Los Angeles' basketball, soccer and track and field teams. He served as assistant manager and throws coach for the U.S. men's track and field team at the 1997 World University Games in Italy. He has also been a national team coach for Canada, Croatia, Taiwan, Netherlands and Argentina in various major international championships.

Ryan Baily was added as an assistant coach in December 2023.

Baily coaches multi-event athletes, pole vaulters and jumpers at Georgia after serving in the same role at Colorado State. The Scottsbluff, Neb., left a strong impact at CSU, helping coach multiple Rams to a combined 19 school records, 23 Mountain West individual titles, eight All-America honors and two Honorable Mention All-America honors.

Baily replaced James Thomas, who recently took the head coaching position at Oklahoma.

During the 2022-2023 season, Baily guided a sweep of the indoor multis at the Mountain West Championships as Lexie Keller won the pentathlon with a score of 4,306 and Drew Thompson won the heptathlon with 5,281 points. Keller went on to earn her third All-American honor in the pentathlon at the 2023 NCAA Indoor Championships. Thompson won the outdoor decathlon championship as well, scoring a lifetime best of 7,338.

Baily also guided Sharde Johnson to a first-place finish in the high jump (1.73 meters/5 feet, 8 inches) at the Mountain West Outdoor Championships. Keller concluded her season at the USA National Championships in Eugene, Ore., where she finished in 10th place and earned an invitation to compete for Team USA in the Thorpe Cup.

In 2021-22, Baily helped coach a number of athletes to both school records and championships. Eldridge Harris broke the school record for outdoor pole vault (5.19m/17-0.25) to win the Mountain West Championship and Celyn Stermer broke the school record for indoor pole vault (4.12m/13-6.25). Allam Bushara broke the school record for indoor triple jump (16.07m/52-8.75) en route to an Indoor Mountain West Championship in the event.

Baily also coached Keller to a third-place finish in the heptathlon at the Indoor NCAA Championships and sixth in the Outdoor NCAA Championships. Keller also won the heptathlon while setting a new meet record at the Mountain West Championship meet (5,834) and set new school records as she recorded the second-best heptathlon and pentathlon in conference history.

The 2018-19 campaign brought a flurry of accolades. Hunter Powell won indoor heptathlon and outdoor decathlon in the Mountain West Conference, totaling five in six seasons. Powell also qualified for the NCAA Championships in the decathlon. MaryBeth Sant broke school records in both the 60-meter dash (7.18) and 100m (11.41), while finishing fifth in the 60m at the Milrose Games among professional athletes. She also led off CSU's first-ever 4x100m All-American Relay. Nick Kravec capped his career off with a runner-up to Powell at the MWC Championships. The Rams' decathlon squad finished the year as the top-ranked decathlon team in the NCAA.

Among the highlights for Baily's athletes in 2017-18 was the performance of high jumper Autumn Gardner, who cleared 1.84m/6-0.5 to break CSU's previous program record at the NoCo Challenge. That performance ranked Gardner sixth in Mountain West history in the event and distinguished her as one of five high jumpers in the conference to leap higher than six feet that decade. In addition, Gardner finished as the NCAA's No. 8-ranked performer in the event in 2018.

Under Baily's guidance, the Rams experienced one of the most successful stretches in the combined events in program history. During the 2016-17 indoor season, Hunter Price shattered the Mountain West and CSU records in the heptathlon, scoring 5,906 at the CSM Alumni Classic & Multis. Price broke his own records again at the NCAA Indoor Championships, piling up 5,996 points to place fourth and earn First-Team All-America status. No other heptathlete in MW history has finished as high as Price at the NCAA Indoor Championships.

The 2016-17 season continued with more success from Baily's combined events athletes, as Josh Cogdill earned Second-Team All-America honors and Price earned Honorable Mention honors at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Cogdill placed 16th at the national meet, marking the highest finish for a CSU decathlete since 1982 (John Harrell - 10th). During the outdoor season, Price broke the CSU record and set the No. 2 all-time mark in conference history with a score of 7,801 in the elite invitational section of the Mt. SAC/California Invitational Combined Events.

Among Baily's top multi-event athletes at CSU was Jessica Green, who placed 22nd in the heptathlon (5,032 points) at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. With her performance, Green became the first CSU athlete to earn any level of All-America honors in the women's heptathlon since 2008. Baily also coached an All-American in his first season at CSU, guiding Justin Green to Second Team honors (11th place - 5,348 points) in 2015.

Prior to his time at Colorado State, Baily was the head track & field and cross country coach at Chadron State. In his five years at Chadron State, Baily's men's team placed as high as ninth nationally in indoor track & field and 16th nationally in outdoor track & field. Baily's Chadron State teams broke 18 men's and 22 women's school records and featured 22 All-Americans and a Division II national champion. His teams were also honored for their work in the classroom, as his men's team earned the USTFCCCA's Scholar Team of the Year award in 2011.

Baily has been recognized for his teams' accomplishments several times and was a seven-time Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. Baily earned honors as recently as in 2013 (men's outdoor), also earning that honor twice in 2011 (women's indoor, women's outdoor) as well as in 2010 (men's indoor).

While the head coach at Western State (2005-09), Baily earned that same honor in 2008 (men's indoor) and twice in 2007 (women's outdoor, men's outdoor). Additionally, Baily was named the USTFCCCA North Central Regional Coach of the Year in 2008. Among the top performances by his Western State squads was its showing at the 2007 RMAC Outdoor Championships, where each of his women's and men's teams placed second.

A native of Scottsbluff, Neb., Baily was a conference champion in the decathlon at Chadron State. He was named the Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year while attaining his bachelor's degree in education (2003) and added a master's degree in education in 2005 from the University of the Cumberland. In addition, Baily holds a USA Track & Field Level I certification.

Baily is married to his wife, Janel, and the couple has two children: Jayden and Trenton.

KARIM ABDEL WAHAB
ASSISTANT COACH
(SPRINTS, HURDLES)

EDUCATION

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2004-06, VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT (SPRINTS, HURDLES), COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES
- 2006-10, ASSISTANT COACH (SPRINTS, HURDLES), NORTHERN COLORADO
- 2010-18, ASSISTANT COACH (SPRINTS, HURDLES), COLORADO STATE
- 2018-23, ASSISTANT COACH (SPRINTS, HURDLES), SOUTH CAROLINA
- 2023-PRESENT, ASSISTANT COACH (SPRINTS, HURDLES), GEORGIA

Karim Abdel Wahab was added as an assistant coach in July 2023 and helps guide the sprinters and hurdlers.

Abdel Wahab, who is a native of Egypt, joins Georgia's staff after serving in a similar role for the University South Carolina team over the last five years. The veteran sprints and hurdles coach was instrumental for the Gamecocks, helping the women experience some of the finest seasons in well over a decade.

During the 2023 indoor season, the South Carolina women's 4x400-meter relay finished second at the SEC Indoor Championships and then seventh at the NCAA Championships. Outdoors, Abdel Wahab coached true freshman Sylvia Chelangat to a new 800m school record (2:02.58) at the UFTom Jones Memorial, marking an eight second improvement from Chelangat's previous personal best. This was her first year specializing in the 800m. Later during the outdoor season, Chelangat finished as the runner-up at the SEC Championships.

In 2022, Abdel Wahab coached 13 All-Americans and witnessed a handful of scorers at both the SEC Championships and NCAA Championships. Among those All-Americans were Stephanie Davis, Makenzie Dunmore and Destinee Rocker. Rocker broke the school record in the 60m hurdles (8.07) and registered the third best 100m hurdle time of (12.95). Rocker also finished eighth at the NCAA Outdoor Championship to earn All-American status, while Davis earned hers as part of the 4x400m relay team – the same team that claimed the title at the Penn Relays. In fact, that same relay team of Davis, Dunmore, Angel Frank and Jahnile Registre broke the 4x400m relay school record at the SEC Outdoor Championships with a time of 3:25.45.

The 2022 season also yielded student-athletes like freshmen Jayla Jamison who became the USATF Jr. Nationals champion in the 200m and earned silver in the 200m at World Jr. Championships for Team USA with a time of 22.77. Jamison was the first leg on the 4x100m relays at Worlds, setting a new American record, helping her team earn a silver medal and only finishing behind the relay team from Jamaica.

Abdel Wahab continues to work with Olympians and athletes from the World Championships, including the likes of Gamecock Alum Wadeline Jonathas. Jonathas, who continued to train in Columbia under Abdel Wahab's tutelage, competed in the 400m for Team USA in the Tokyo Olympics. He has also coached Aliyah Abrams to the Tokyo Games for her home country of Guyana. Both Jonathas and Abrams made it to the semifinals of the 400m at the Olympics. Jonathas was also a member of the women's 4x400m relay team that advanced in the first round of competition, later earning gold medal for her efforts.

In addition, Abrams competed in the 2022 World Indoor Championships where she finished fifth and broke the South American and Guyana record.

Prior to the shutdown because of COVID-19, Abdel Wahab continued to coach Jonathas and Abrams throughout their run to the 2019 IAAF World Championships in Doha, Qatar. Abrams captured the Guyana national title in the 400m while Jonathas qualified for Team USA with her finish at USA Nationals. Jonathas eventually reached the IAAF World Championship final in the 400m and posted a new collegiate record (49.60) to finish fourth in the world.

In 2019 and his first year as a Gamecock, Abdel Wahab's student-athletes achieved numerous milestones, including the women's 4x400m relay team winning the NCAA Indoor Championship. Abrams was a silver medalist in the 400m at the NCAA Indoor Championship that same season.

Moving over to the outdoor season, Abdel Wahab coached Jonathas to win the NCAA Championship in the women's 400m, while her teammate Abrams placed fifth overall in the 400m. That year, South Carolina was the only school in the nation that sent two women to the NCAA finals in the 400m and both achieved personal bests in the finals. The 4x400m relay took third at the same championship.

Abdel Wahab came to Columbia after eight seasons in charge of the sprinters and hurdlers at Colorado State University. His student-athletes combined for 13 new school records, including three Mountain West Conference records.

During his eight seasons in Fort Collins, Abdel Wahab led his student-athletes to six All-America honors and one honorable mention All-America honor. From 2012-14, Abdel Wahab coached Trevor Brown to five All-America finishes, including laurels in the 110m and 400m hurdles outdoors and the 60m hurdles indoors. Brown left CSU as the Mountain West's record-holder in the 60mH (7.73) and 110mH (13.55).

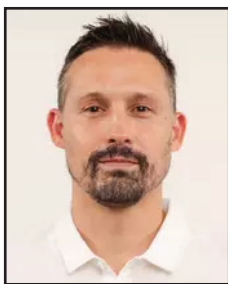

On the women's side, Abdel Wahab molded Lorenda Holston into an All-American in the 60m and 100m hurdles in 2017. Holston set the Mountain West's all-time record in the 60mH (8.06). Before joining the staff at Colorado State, Abdel Wahab spent four seasons at the University of Northern Colorado. He coached UNC's first-ever NCAA West Preliminary Round qualifiers in the men's 100m and 200m, helped four Bears set new school records and led multiple Big Sky Conference champions. He also spent two seasons at Colorado School of Mines.

Outside of the collegiate level, Abdel Wahab served as the personal coach for Fort Collins native and 2012 Olympic long jump bronze medalist Janay DeLoach. Under Abdel Wahab's tutelage, DeLoach finished third in the long jump at the 2016 U.S. Olympic Trials, earning a spot at the 2016 Rio Olympics. DeLoach was also a fourth-place finisher in the long jump at the 2016 World Indoor Championships and won the 2016 60m hurdles at the MILROSE Games (7.85m) under Abdel Wahab's leadership.

Prior to his time out west, Abdel Wahab served as a team coach for the Egyptian National Team at the 2010 African Championships, the 2011 World Outdoor Championships, the 2012 World Indoor Championships and the 2012 and 2016 Olympic Games. Among those to train under Abdel Wahab are Amr Seoud who broke the 100m (10.13) and 200m (20.36) national records, and Anas Beshr who set a national record in the 400m (45.40) to qualify for the Rio Olympics.

Recognized as one of the top sprints and hurdles coaches in the world, Abdel Wahab has published several articles discussing the mechanics and methodologies of each discipline. He has taught extensively on the subject throughout the United States and Canada.

Abdel Wahab graduated in 2002 from Helwan University in Cairo with a degree in Physical education, exercise science and track and field coaching. He is a USATF Level I Coach and is recognized as an ISSA Fitness Trainer and ISSA Fitness Therapist.

- 2016-23, DIRECTOR OF TRACK & FIELD/CROSS COUNTRY, MIAMI (OH)
- 2023-PRESENT, CROSS COUNTRY COACH/ASSISTANT COACH (DISTANCE), GEORGIA

Tom Chorny was hired as Georgia's cross country coach and assistant distance coach in July 2023.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Chorny had served as the Director of Track & Field and Cross Country at Miami University (Ohio) since 2015. A three-time All-American for Indiana who graduated in 1999, Chorny was a volunteer assistant for the Hoosiers from 2007-13. His first job with Miami was as an assistant in 2013.

Chorny was the 2022 (men's cross country), 2021 (men's outdoor track) and 2018 (men's cross country) Mid-American Conference (MAC) Coach of the Year after guiding the RedHawks to 17 All-America honors in 10 different events. His distance corps set 27 school records at Miami in 23 different events.

Under Chorny's leadership, Miami earned the 2018 Mid-American Conference championship in men's cross country for the first time since 1998, going on to claim the crown again in 2022. The RedHawks also captured the 2021 men's outdoor track and field MAC championship, a trophy they had not won since 1993.

Miami student-athletes on Chorny's teams succeeded not only in competition, but also in the classroom. The RedHawks program was consistently recognized by the USTFCCCA as All-Academic, including the 2022 men and women's cross country teams and the 2023 men and women's track and field teams.

The 2022-23 season saw Miami sweep the individual titles at the MAC Cross Country Championships for the first time ever, as Obsaa Feda won the men's race and Carmen Riano came in first in the women's race. Both runners went on to earn USTFCCCA All-Region honors, with Riano advancing to the national meet for the first time. The RedHawk men earned the MAC team championship, while the Miami women placed fourth at the MAC meet. Chorny's runners produced a total of three First-Team All-MAC selections, three Second-Team picks and a MAC Freshman of the Year winner (Patrick Wills) to go along with eight Academic All-MAC honorees. For his efforts, Chorny was named MAC Men's Cross Country Coach of the Year.

In the indoor season, Miami's women posted their first top-five finish as a team since 2012, with Riano winning the 3000-meter race en route to picking up First-Team All-MAC recognition. The RedHawks also collected a pair of Second-Team All-MAC awards and 15 Academic All-MAC selections.

For the 2023 outdoor campaign, four RedHawks qualified for NCAA East Prelims, with three going on to become All-Americans (Ava Nuttall, second team in 10K; Carmen Riano and Charlie Harders, honorable mention in steeplechase). Ryan Smith was named MAC Men's Most Outstanding Field Performer after scoring 24 points across four events, including the discus title. Miami women also finished first in the steeplechase (Riano), 5K (Riano) and 10K (Nuttall) at the MAC meet, with the women's team coming in third place and the men in fourth (including Harders' steeplechase win for a third straight spring). Ten RedHawks were named All-MAC (four on the First Team), 10 received Academic All-District honors and 19 qualified for the Academic All-MAC squad.

In 2021-22, the RedHawk women finished second and the RedHawk men came in third at the MAC cross country meet. Three Miami runners placed in the top 10 at the women's meet: Carmen Riano (third place), Ava Nuttall (eighth), and Katie Vitou (ninth). On the men's side, Anthony Camerieri came in sixth. All four student-athletes received All-MAC honors, to go along with 13 Miami runners being named Academic All-MAC.

During the women's indoor track season, Lotti Roemer won the mile to highlight Miami's performance at the MAC championships, while the team finished seventh in the league. The outdoor season saw Charlie Harders and Carmen Riano sweep the steeplechase races at the MAC meet, with Riano also finishing atop the podium in the women's 5000m and Finley Mclear winning the men's 800m. The RedHawks finished fourth as a team in the men's meet and fifth in the women's competition. Seven Miami student-athletes competed in the NCAA East prelims, highlighted by Riano, who advanced to the national meet and finished as an All-American in the steeplechase (14th place). Thirty-seven different RedHawks on the track and field team were recognized as Academic All-MAC between the indoor and outdoor seasons.

The 2020-21 academic year was highlighted by the RedHawk men finishing second in the MAC cross country meet and first in the conference's outdoor track championships. Miami had four All-MAC performers in cross country, a MAC individual champion in the women's indoor pentathlon (Sarah Bruns), and a myriad of MAC outdoor champions. Olivia Bechtel won the 200m and 400m at the MAC meet that spring, Charlie Harders won the steeplechase, Sean Torpy won the 1500m, Finley Mclear won the 800m, and Miami's 4x400m relay team also took first place. Chorny was named MAC Men's Coach of the Year after the RedHawk men brought home the team title. Miami also fared exceedingly well on the national stage, with Finley Mclear taking second in the indoor 800m and 4th in the outdoor 800m. The RedHawks' DMR team (Sean Torpy, Luke Finnegan, Andrew Schroff, Chris Torpy) picked up All-American honors as well, claiming eighth at the NCAA indoor championships. In addition, Sean Torpy became Miami's first Academic All-American since 2008.

Before 2019-20 competition was cut short by the pandemic, Miami seized top-three finishes in the MAC men's and women's cross country meets for the third year in a row. The RedHawk men were runners-up, while the women came in third place. David Coffey (first team), Ryan Sharkey (second team), and Emma Bryant (second team) were named All-MAC that fall. Miami finished seventh in the MAC indoor championships, the program's best mark since 2013. Olivia Bechtel led the way with a first-place finish in the 400m.

2018-19 brought Miami its first MAC men's cross country team title in 20 years. Chorny was named Coach of the Year, with five RedHawk men earning All-MAC honors. On the women's side, Alesha Vovk was a first-team All-MAC pick as the RedHawks came in third at the MAC cross country meet. The Miami women finished 10th in the MAC in the indoor championships, but came in sixth at the outdoor meet, with the Miami men taking third. Danielle Collier (javelin), Olivia Bechtel (400m), and the women's 4x400m relay each took first at the outdoor meet, while the Torpy brothers led the way for the men. Sean Torpy won the 800m, 1500m and 5000m races, with Chris Torpy taking first in the steeplechase. Sean Torpy was named MAC Men's Most Valuable Performer, and Bechtel was recognized on the women's side for Most Outstanding Performance. Both Torpy brothers went on to become NCAA All-Americans that spring: Sean was 17th in the nation in the 800m, and Chris was 14th in the 1500m. Danielle Collier took 10th place at the national meet in the javelin, also becoming an All-American.

In 2017-18, Chorny's second year at the helm, the women's cross country team improved to third place in the MAC after finishing seventh the previous season. Two RedHawk women and four men were recognized as All-MAC that fall. During the spring, Miami took first place in two men's (800m, 1500m) and two women's (10,000m, 4x400m relay) track events. Maria Scavuzzo was credited with the Most Outstanding Performance (women's) at the meet. Chris Torpy also took 23rd place in the 1,500m at the national championships, becoming an All-American for the first time.

Chorny took over in 2016-17 and helped the RedHawks to a second consecutive runner-up finish at the men's cross country championships. Matt Bromley, David Coffey, and Andrew Dusing won All-MAC honors for the Miami men, with Maria Scavuzzo joining them on the women's side. Scavuzzo went on to represent the Red and White at the NCAA championships that fall. In track, four RedHawks became NCAA All-Americans: Dusing (6th place, outdoor, 1500m), Amelia Strickler (10th, indoor, shot put), Danielle Collier (22nd, outdoor, javelin) and Martha Szekely (17th, outdoor, hammer). The RedHawks finished fifth as a team at the men's and women's MAC outdoor championships, with Stephen Biebelhausen (1,500m), Collier (javelin), Szekely (hammer), and Alexis Jimson-Miller (100mH) winning individual titles.

Chorny helped the Hoosiers in a volunteer coaching capacity from 2007-13 before becoming an assistant at Miami. He helped mold three Big Ten champions, 23 NCAA Regional qualifiers and 11 All-Americans in the steeplechase during his coaching stint in Bloomington while also managing the Indiana Running Company.

A standout distance runner, Chorny enjoyed a competitive career filled with accolades at all levels of the sport. He was a four-time Michigan High School Athletic Association state champion and a 1994 Footlocker National Finalist at Fruitport High School. Collegiately, Chorny was a three-time All-American and continued his career professionally after graduation.

In the pro ranks, Chorny won the steeplechase at USA Track and Field Championships in 2001, earning a spot on Team USA at the World Championships and Goodwill Games that year. He achieved a world ranking as high as No. 35 in the steeplechase in 2002 and remained in the top 40 to 2004. He was also a member of the Nike Farm Team and Oregon Track Club from 2004-06.

Chorny earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology from Indiana in 1999.

The Bulldog program added Gabriella Gaudreault as an assistant coach for distance and the Director of External Operations in July 2023.

Gaudreault came to Athens after spending the 2022-23 school year working as a volunteer distance coach at Vanderbilt University. She helped guide Niki Narayani (10,000 meters) and Caroline Eck (5000m) to the NCAA East Prelims while assisting Narayani to scoring spots in both the 3000m (9:25) and 5000m (16:17) at the 2023 Southeastern Conference Indoor Track & Field Championships. During the fall season, Narayani earned All-Region honors with a 23rd-place finish at the NCAA South Regional Cross Country Championships.

In January of 2020, Gaudreault was hired as an assistant coach at Towson University for women's cross country and track & field and worked with the program for two and a half years. She served as the interim head coach for the Tigers during a six-month stretch before her departure to Vanderbilt.

In addition to NCAA East Prelim qualifiers in both the women's pole vault and javelin, Towson was third at the Eastern College Athletic Conference Championship under Gaudreault's direction. This performance was highlighted by having the Most Outstanding Performer of the Meet (Crystal Johnson) and conference champions in the women's 100m, pole vault and javelin. Gaudreault also assisted Cristal Cuervo compete on the international stage, representing Panama at the 2022 Bolivarian Games, as Cuervo finished fifth in both the 200m (23.95) and 400m (55.57).

Gaudreault led the team to finish third at the Colonial Athletic Association Outdoor Track & Field Championships, where Hayley Horvath garnered CAA Co-Field Athlete of the Year honors. Horvath (pole vault), Johnson (100m, 200m), Fatimah Owens (discus) and Georgia Coleman (hammer) all captured conference titles while Johnson (200m - 23.75) and Thorpe (javelin - 49.77 meters/163 feet, 3 inches) established fresh school records.

Indoors, Gaudreault helped her squad take fourth at the ECAC Championships with Johnson winning the 60m title, and grabbing a runner-up finish in the 200m in 24.12, which set a new school record. Additionally, Ainsley Jacobs scored in the 5000m with a time of 16:57 to put her at #2 all time in TU history. Earlier in the season, Jacobs set the school record in the 3000m with a time of 9:43.71. Jacobs also garnered All-CAA honors in cross country after taking 11th at the Championships.

During the 2020-21 outdoor season, the Tigers earned a runner-up finish at the CAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships, thanks in part to Gaudreault's contributions. Paige Keefer put points on the board for the Tigers in the 800m. During the 2020 indoor season, TU won the ECAC Indoor Track & Field Championships, where Gaudreault guided McKenzie Delahanty as she qualified to compete in the 5000m (17:24).

Gaudreault made a pair of stops at Campbell University (2018-19 school year) and the University of Louisiana Monroe (Aug 2019 - Dec 2019) to begin her coaching career.

At ULM, Gaudreault was the assistant coach for distance and cross country. In addition, Gaudreault designed all strength training for the distance squad, handled recruiting and oversaw nutrition and wellness for the track and field program.

Before ULM, Gaudreault was an assistant coach for cross country and track and field at Campbell University. During the cross campaign, Gaudreault helped develop Amon Keboi and Lawrence Kipkoech to All-American honors at the 2018 NCAA Cross Country Championships. Kemboi went on to finish 6th in the 5000m (13:47), and garner 2nd team All-American honors in the 3000m at the 2019 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships. Kipkoech went on to qualify for the 10,000m at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

At the conference level, the Campbell men won the 2018 Big South Cross Country Championships for the fourth year in a row, and finished second at both the Indoor and Outdoor Championships. The Campbell women represented the Fighting Camels well and placed second at the Cross Country Championships.

Individually, Gaudreault helped lead Roshae Jackson to the 2019 Big South indoor 800m title and to runner-up honors in the mile. Jackson was also second in the outdoor 800m at the conference meet and was third in the 1500m. Earning a spot on the Big South 2010-19 All-Decade Distance Team, Jackson finished No. 3 on the league's all-time performance list.

Prior to Campbell, Gaudreault was the graduate assistant coach for Clemson University Cross Country & Track and Field from 2016 to 2018, assisting with the men's and women's middle distance and distance runners. She also served as an intern strength and conditioning coach with the Olympic Sports department and worked primarily with cross country and track & field.

Gaudreault's extensive background in strength and conditioning led her to her role as the women's volleyball strength and conditioning coach at American International College in 2014-15. Prior to AIC, she had served several strength and conditioning internships at the collegiate and private sector levels.

A native of Leominster, Mass., Gaudreault was a two-time NCAA Division III All-American in the 800m for Springfield College (MA). She was a three-year competitor for the Pride's cross country team as well.

Gaudreault received her bachelor's degree in Applied Exercise Science in 2014. She also studied Strength and Conditioning at Springfield, and Food Nutrition and Culinary Science at Clemson for graduate school.

Gaudreault holds certifications through the NSCA as a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) - Track and Field Technical Certification. A native speaker of Spanish, she is also trained in Precision Nutrition, PN Level 1 Sport and Exercise Nutrition.

DEANNA HILL
ASSISTANT COACH
(SPRINTS, HURDLES)

Deanna Hill was hired as an assistant coach for Georgia's sprinters and hurdlers in July 2021, soon after her former head coach at Southern California, Caryl Smith Gilbert, accepted the Director of Track & Field position with the Bulldogs.

Following a successful first year in Athens, Hill went back to work for Smith Gilbert in 2023. The Bulldog men had their top finish in history at the NCAA Indoor Championships, earning runner-up honors with a program record 40 points. The finish was highlighted by a school record in the 200-meter dash (Matthew Boling, 20.12, No. 5 all-time collegiate performer) for an NCAA title.

Boling joined Christopher Morales Williams, Caleb Cavanaugh and Will Sumner in the 4x400m relay at Nationals to score eight more points with a second-place finish. With Godwin running in place of Sumner, the Bulldogs ran a season-best relay of 3:02.90 at the Tiger Paw Invitational for the second-fastest finish in school history and fourth best in the nation in 2023. Also, Boling, Cavanaugh, Sumner and Godwin combined for runner-up honors at the SEC Championships.

The women finished fifth at the 2023 Nationals after tallying 31 points under the help from Hill. Individual performances from true freshmen Kaila Jackson and Autumn Wilson shined during the Lady Bulldogs' trip to Albuquerque. Jackson, who was the SEC Freshman Runner of the Year, clocked a World Junior (under-20) and school record 7.07 to become the No. 4 all-time collegiate performer in the prelims before taking second in the 60m final with a 7.08. In addition, Jackson was eighth in the 200m final.

Wilson shot to No. 7 on the all-time collegiate performer's list with a school record 22.42 in the 200m prelims and earned a bronze in the final (22.45). She complemented Jackson's finish in the 60m by taking fourth in the final with a personal record 7.12.

At the 2023 SEC Indoor Championships, Jackson earned second and fourth-place finishes in the 60m and 200m, respectively, while Wilson went fourth-fifth in the same short sprints. On the men's side, Hill coached trackside as Boling took second in the 200m. In addition, Keshawn Black competed at his first league meet and finished seventh in the 60m with a 6.73.

A number of Georgia sprinters and hurdlers made significant improvements under Hill and the rest of the coaching staff as well during the regular season, including Bella Witt clocking an 8.20 in the 60m hurdles, Kenondra Davis managing a 23.12 in the 200m and Aaliyah Butler teaming with Dominique Mustin, Haley Tate and Zoe Pollock, who were all first-year Bulldogs, to record the school's second-fastest 4x400m relay time in school history (3:33.28).

For the year, Georgia collected three national titles and two conference crowns to go with five school records (men's 200m, men's 400m, men's 800m, women's 60m, women's 200m) on the track and 21 improvements to the school's all-time top-10 lists in the sprints and mid-distance.

Outdoors, the contributions from the individuals who Hill worked with were equally impressive. Will Sumner ran a leg on the seventh place 4x400m relay team (3:03.22) at Nationals along with Morales Williams, Boling and Cavanaugh.

The Lady Bulldogs also managed to take 10th at the NCAA Championships with the contributions from 12 team members, including a half dozen sprinters who Hill helps instruct. Kaila Jackson sped to a wind-aided 10.96 for fourth in the 100m final and also ran a leg on the scoring 4x100m relay, a quartet that included Aaliyah Butler, Brandee Presley and Autumn Wilson. The Lady Bulldogs ran a school record 42.87 to take sixth place.

Georgia's successful 2023 outdoor postseason run began with the SEC Championships. The Bulldog sprinters, hurdlers and relays combined to score 68 points in the country's toughest conference. Jackson, who also won a bronze in the 200m, was second in her first outdoor final with a legal personal record of 11.04 in the 100m.

Thanks in part to Hill's training, the Bulldogs continue their onslaught of the school's all-time top-10 lists, including school records in the women's 4x100m and 4x400m relays, the men's 4x400m relay and the men's 800m. There were a total of 44 revisions to the Bulldog record books, including 29 in the sprints, hurdles and relays. Two of those improvements came from a pair of freshmen in the 100m (Jackson's 11.04, Wilson's 11.17) and another in the 400m (Butler's 51.32) as the trio passed one of the sport's all-time greats in Gwen Torrence in the events (11.20, 51.60).

During her first season representing Georgia in 2022, Hill helped guide the Bulldog short and long sprinters as well as UGA's hurdlers to six First Team All-America certificates, five school records, two SEC individual crowns and an NCAA individual title to go along with a gold and a bronze medal at the World Athletics Championships.

Hill began work with the Bulldogs' talented duo of Boling and Godwin as the pair hit yet another level of success. Boling established school records in the 100-meter dash (9.98, No. 5 nationally) and 200m (19.92, No. 3 nationally), collected SEC titles in both the 60m and outdoor 200m and finished as a national scorer in the 60m and 100m as well as a top eight finisher in the 200m indoors and outdoors. Hill's assistance with Godwin was just as apparent as he posted his best finish at the SEC Championships of runner-up before earning a bronze medal in the 400m with a then school record 44.50.

Godwin continued his success in the collegiate postseason as he re-set his own school record in the 400m with a 44.34 for fourth at the USATF Championships. He was selected to run on both the men's Team USA 4x400m and mixed 4x400m relays at the World Athletics Championships where he collected a gold and a bronze medal, respectively. Godwin's splits on his opening legs were 44.89, 44.71, 44.46 and 44.28.

In addition, Hill helped Cavanaugh become an NCAA semifinalist after clocking the school's fourth best 400m hurdle time in history (49.59) and taking fourth at SECs. Cavanaugh's training partner, freshman Bryce McCray, also scored at the conference meet with the sixth-best time in UGA history (50.21). Working with short sprinter Delano Dunkley, Hill helped him drop his 100m to 10.22 (No. 9 on UGA's all-time top-10 list) and 60m to 6.65 (No. 4).

First-year sprinter Kenondra Davis also finished with the fourth-best indoor 200m time in school history (23.33) and the eighth-best outdoor finish (23.23). Also on the women's side, fellow freshman Eddiyah Frye qualified for the World Under-20 Championships thanks to her runner-up finish in the 100m hurdles at the USATF Championships with a time of 13.26, which stands eighth in the school record books. Indoors, Frye sped to an 8.23 in the 60m hurdles to move to No. 5 on UGA's all-time top-10 list.

Hill, a native of Orlando, Fla., was a 17-time First-Team All-American for USC and won the 2018 NCAA outdoor team title with Smith Gilbert as head coach. In fact, Hill was on the Trojans' 4x400-meter relay team that clinched her team's one-point victory over the Lady Bulldogs during USC's run to the 2018 national championship. A captain for the Trojans, Hill was awarded the Most Valuable Female Athlete for her team three consecutive years. Her relay squad earned an honorary ESPY award for the "2018 Best Comeback."

Hill returned to her hometown after graduating from USC and took over as the head varsity boys and girls coach at Lake Highland Preparatory School to start the 2019 season. While guiding Lake Highland, her school won its first boys' district championship in 21 years and its first regional championship in school history.

Darryl Shaw was added to the Bulldog staff as an assistant coach and Director of Creative Operations & Recruiting in July 2023.

A native of Fayetteville, N.C., Shaw arrived in Athens after spending a year and half as the Assistant Director of Graphic Design at Duke. He designed graphics for print and social media for all 27 of Duke’s varsity sports. Shaw was the lead on the artistic front on the campaign for head basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski’s final game at Duke, including billboards and on court branding. Shaw worked closely and traveled with the Blue Devil track and field and cross country seasons throughout the year.

Shaw was a graduate transfer at Southern California where he earned All-PAC 12 Honors in the triple jump and graduated with a Master’s degree in Digital Social Media.

Between undergraduate and graduate school, Shaw interned at Turner Sports (TNT) where he sat in on shows such as the NBA on TNT and Inside the NBA and helped produced content for NBA.com and WNBA.com.

Shaw was a triple jumper and a captain at UNC-Chapel Hill from 2015-2019. He earned First-Team All-ACC Honors in the triple jump along with multiple Second Team All-ACC Honors and was a member of the UNC Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). Shaw is in the top six in UNC history in both the indoor and outdoor triple jump. He graduated with a Bachelor’s degree in Media & Journalism and a second degree in Communications.

Bailey Lear was named an assistant coach for sprints and hurdles by Georgia Director of Track and Field Caryl Smith Gilbert in October 2023. She also serves as the program’s operations coordinator.

Lear arrived in Athens following an All-American track career the University of Southern California, where she competed as a sprinter from 2019-2023. She spent her first three seasons under the guidance of Smith Gilbert, USC’s Director of Track and Field from 2014-2021, and helped the Trojans bring home a national title during the 2021 outdoor season. Lear also helped guide Southern California to Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2021.

During her time as a Trojan, Lear set the program’s freshman indoor record in the 400-meter dash while posting the No. 4 in school history in the indoor 400m. She also clocked the No. 6 time in school history in the outdoor 400m and ran the leadoff leg on USC’s 4x400m relay which had the second, ninth, and 10th-fastest outdoor times in program history. Lear was a two-time All-American in 2019, running on the 4x400m relay teams that placed sixth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and eighth at the NCAA Outdoor Championship meet.

A native of New Orleans, La., Lear graduated from Southern California with a bachelor’s degree in Communication in 2021. She was the founding member of the university’s United Black Student-Athletes Association and served as the group’s Co-Communication Chair. Lear also earned two master’s degrees at USC, completing programs in Entrepreneurship & Innovation in 2022 and in Digital Media Management in 2023.

FORREST 'SPEC' TOWNS

Forrest "Spec" Towns is the greatest track and field legend in UGA history, winning SEC, NCAA and Olympic titles, setting a world record and coaching the Georgia track and field squad for over 30 years.

Born in Fitzgerald, Ga., on Feb. 6, 1914, Forrest "Spec" Towns became, over the next several decades, the greatest track and field legend in the history of the University of Georgia and the state.

Towns and his family moved to Augusta in 1923, where he attended Richmond Academy and played only one sport — football. But Towns earned a track and field scholarship as a high jumper after a neighbor saw him win a backyard high jumping contest. He entered Georgia in September of 1933 and within three years was the Olympic 120-yard hurdles champion and held both Olympic and world records in the event.

In 1934, Towns won the Southeastern AAU 120-yard hurdles in 15.1 seconds. The following year he won the SEC, NCAA and National AAU titles. In Berlin, Towns won the gold medal in the 120-yard hurdles with a record time of 14.1 seconds. Two weeks later in Oslo, he set a world record of 13.7 seconds (record stood for 14 years).

During his prime from 1935-37, Towns won more than 60 races in a row in one of the most difficult athletic events. He also held the world record in the indoor 60-yard hurdles (7.3). Towns was named to the All-America Outdoor Track and Field Team in 1936 and 1937 and the All-America Indoor Track and Field Team in 1938. He led Georgia to the 1937 SEC team championship (the only one in the men's program history) by earning individual high point honors with 16.5.

Towns became head track and field coach at UGA in 1938 and served in that capacity until his retirement in 1975. That span excludes a four-year stint in the U.S. Army, where he served his country in Africa and Europe. While he was coach, his pupils won 21 individual SEC outdoor titles and five individual SEC indoor titles. Towns also held other positions at UGA. He served as an assistant football coach under Wally Butts from 1946-

50 and was an assistant professor from 1950-75.

Towns was inducted into the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1967 and was elected to the United States Track and Field Hall of Fame in 1975. The University's track and field facility was named for Towns in a dedication ceremony at the 1990 SEC Outdoor Championships. A granite monument proclaiming Forrest Towns Track stands at the southeast entrance to the facility.

On April 9, 1991, Georgia lost this great track

Towns, who is the sixth person from the left standing, and his 1936 teammates pose for their photo in front of Sanford Stadium during its early stages. The team accounted for six individual SEC titles and later collected the 1937 SEC team title.

& field ambassador when Towns passed away at age 77.

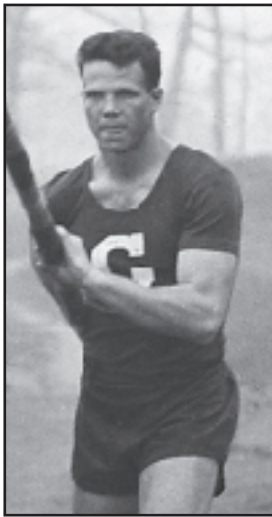

On Oct. 3, 1997, Towns was inducted into the University of Georgia Athletic Association Circle of Honor, the highest tribute that can be bestowed upon former Bulldog athletes or coaches. Towns will be forever remembered as a key figure in Georgia's rich athletic history.

GEORGIA TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY

THE BEGINNING

Track and field is one of the oldest sports at the University of Georgia, first competing intercollegiately in 1897, five years after the inaugural football unit began play and just one year after the first baseball team took to the diamond.

Interest in track and field at UGA began in the late 1800s with the annual intramural field days. At the request of Nash Broyles and Thomas Reed, the Athletic Association set up the first track and field contest in school history on May 28, 1887.

Billy David won UGA's first-ever SEC title in 1933 in the high jump.

A subsequent field day was added a day later. Many of the events of that weekend would be foreign to a meet held today as wrestling matches, the baseball throw, tugs of war and the greased pig chase provided the entertainment in the 19th century.

After 10 years of field days, the University participated in its first intercollegiate track contest at the 1897 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association meet in Nashville, Tenn., where Georgia accumulated 13 points to secure a fourth-place finish out of 14 teams.

The school's first dual meet came a year later against Georgia Tech with UGA taking a 75-30 victory.

Regarded as track and field pioneers in the state of Georgia, The Atlanta Constitution noted in a May 26, 1894 article that "the University was much further along with their track program than any other state school."

COACHES

In June 2021 following the NCAA Outdoor Championships, Caryl Smith Gilbert was named the 15th head coach of the Bulldog program. She also became the first female Georgia coach to lead a men's team in school history. A two-time National Coach of the Year while earning a pair of NCAA team titles at USC prior to her arrival in Athens, Smith

Gilbert has already guided Georgia to six top-10 national team finishes, including a runner-up spot for the Bulldog men at the 2023 NCAA Indoor Championships. Kyle Garland's collegiate record in the heptathlon in 2023 topped a number of accolades in her first two years in Athens.

Petros Kyprianou became the 14th head coach of the Bulldog program in July 2015. His teams finished with the 2018 NCAA indoor women's championship and the 2018 NCAA outdoor men's championship to complement 16 top-10 national team finishes, including 13 top-five finishes. A UGA assistant from 2008-14 after arriving from Boise State, Kyprianou was named the team's associate head coach in 2014 before his promotion to head coach. During a stretch from 2014-21, his crew was on a torrid pace, accumulating 34 NCAA titles, 69 SEC championships and *170 First Team All-American certificates (*counting the 16 honors earned during the pandemic shortened 2020 indoor season).

Former head coach Wayne Norton directed Georgia's storied track program until 2015 after taking over for coach John Mitchell after the 1999 season. Norton, who finished with a pair of SEC women's team titles on his resume, guided his squads to 29 top-20 national finishes and led the Bulldogs to scores of SEC and NCAA individual crowns. He previously served nine years as an assistant in charge of jumps at Georgia.

Mitchell, an esteemed member of the track and field fraternity, built his reputation at the University of Alabama, where he won three SEC Coach of The Year awards. Mitchell led the Georgia men's team to five top-10 finishes in the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

Mitchell also helped elevate the UGA women's team to a new level of excellence by guiding them to third at the 1995 NCAA outdoor meet, second at the 1996 indoor event and fourth in the 1999 NCAA Outdoor Championships. The women earned their first SEC team title outdoors in 1995, and Mitchell was named the SEC's indoor and outdoor Coach Of The Year.

The first Georgia coach was John Mahan, a native of New York, who coached during the 1897 and 1898 seasons and ended his brief career with a perfect 1-0 dual-meet record. Following Mahan were Billy Reynolds, a Princeton graduate who also coached baseball, C.O. Heidler, an assistant basketball coach, and W.A. Cunningham, one of Georgia's football coaches.

With interest in track and field waning, the sport was revived by Herman J. Stegeman, a star at the University of Chicago who developed track and field into a popular sport at Georgia. Stegeman led UGA for 17 years and built one of the strongest teams in the South during his tenure. Along with assistant Weems Baskin, Stegeman guided Georgia to the 1937 SEC title, still the only men's SEC team title in the program's history. The star of the 1937 team was a youngster named Forrest Towns, whom everyone simply called "Spec". Towns captured his second NCAA title in the high hurdles that year.

Baskin coached one more season after Stegeman ascended to the Athletic Director's position, then turned the reigns over to another future Hall of Famer, Towns, who would enjoy the longest tenure of any coach at UGA. He coached for 34 seasons before retiring in the fall of 1975.

Taking over for Towns was his long-time assistant and fellow Georgia track and field great Lewis Gainey. Gainey directed the Bulldogs during one of their most successful periods in the late 1970s and early 1980s.

All-Americans such as Mel Lattany, Stanley Blalock, Dothel Edwards, Lester Benjamin and Herschel Walker were just a few of Gainey's prized pupils.

Gainey was assisted by Georgia's first three women's coaches, Bill Katz, Steve Sitler and Mike Sheeley, before taking over the female squad in 1988. The "Bulldog Babes", as they were known at first, immediately began producing All-Americans like Veronica Walker, Kathy Rankins, Linda Detlefsen and Gwen Torrence.

Debbie Ferguson and Mel Lattany were two of the most prolific sprinters in Georgia track and field history.

FACILITIES

Five different facilities have housed Georgia's track and field teams. Herty Field, named for Dr. Charles Herty, was the first and was also shared by the football and baseball. With the construction of Sanford Field and a track around it, the team was able to relocate for another 17 years.

A new field with the same name was later constructed just 200 yards from the original Sanford Field. The second incarnation was used until World War II when the U.S. Navy came to Athens. The Navy completed a new track, described as a "million-dollar facility", and gave it to UGA.

In 1965, the track and field team found a permanent home on the southwestern corner of the athletic complex. The facility was renamed for Forrest "Spec" Towns in a dedication ceremony held during the 1990 SEC Outdoor Championships in Athens. Towns passed away a year later, but a granite marker honoring him stands at the southeast entrance to the facility he helped make possible.

SEC COMMISSIONER'S TROPHY

The SEC Commissioner's Trophy is given annually to the male and female athletes who tally the most points at the SEC meets.

Denzel Comenentia won the last two trophies for UGA at the 2018-19 SEC Outdoor Championships. In 2019, he won his third straight league shot put crown and was second in both the hammer throw and discus to score 26 points.

Before Comenentia, the Bulldogs most recent honorees were Patricia Sylvester and Ian Burrell. Sylvester won both the triple jump and the long jump and was the runner-up in the high jump at the 2006 SEC Outdoor Championships to rack up 28 points as her team captured the championship. She returned to score a whopping 26 points at the 2007 SEC indoor meet and was given the honor again. Burrell, standing at 5-foot-5, captured both the 3000- and 5000-meter titles on the men's side at the 2007 SEC Outdoor Championships to pile up 20 points.

Since 1933, Georgia has had 21 high-point performers, including Graham Batchelor in 1933 and '34, Towns in 1937, Vassa Cate in 1939, and Lewis Gainey, who tied for the outdoors honors in 1965. Mel Lattany, however, had the most points ever by a Bulldog with 108.5 in four years, including 22.5 in 1981 when he won both the indoor and outdoor awards. Lester Benjamin took the long and triple jump titles at the 1984 outdoor meet to win the trophy with 27.5 points.

One of the Commissioner's Trophies captured by the Lady Bulldogs was in 1999 as Debbie Ferguson won the award and a total of nine have been claimed by the Georgia women. Ferguson scored 23.5 points at the outdoor championships to lead the Georgia women to a fourth place finish. Icolyn Kelly won it twice in 1995 thanks to her diverse talents. Kelly had 23 points in the indoor championships, but her 32.5 points outdoors led Georgia to its first ever women's team crown. Kelly's score of 32.5 points would have beaten five of the 11 teams competing. Kelly won the triple jump, took second in the long jump, fourth in the high jump, fourth in the javelin throw and fourth in the seven-event heptathlon. Kelly's marks in the SEC meet were all season bests. Hyleas Fountain also earned double honors in 2004. Her 44 points at the SEC Indoor meet was a conference all-time points record. She also racked up 34.50 points at the outdoor meet to take home the trophy.

Denzel Comenentia not only won back-to-back Commissioner's Trophies, but his heroics also enabled to the Bulldogs to clinch their first NCAA team title at the 2018 outdoor Nationals.

GEORGIA TRACK & FIELD TIMELINE

1887 - The UGA Athletic Assoc. sets up the first track contest in school history with a field day on May 28.

1897 - UGA participates in first intercollegiate contest at the SIAA meet in Nashville, Tenn.

1898 - Georgia completes its first undefeated season, beating Georgia Tech and winning the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association meet over Vanderbilt and Tech.

1904 - Georgia wins the first state meet, topping Emory and Georgia Tech.

1907 - The scheduled battle of the two Southern track powers, Georgia and Vanderbilt, is canceled because a bridge at the foot of Lookout Mountain in Chattanooga is accidentally dynamited, delaying train passage; the meet is never rescheduled.

1913 - Captain Dave Paddock convinces referees at a meet to not announce the height of the high jump bar because he believes freshman Pope Hill will place if he does not know the exact height of the bar; Paddock is right; Hill, a superstitious star, soars above the bar and scores Georgia's only point of the meet.

1933 - Bill David (high jump) and Graham Batchelor (broad jump, javelin) capture Georgia's first SEC titles.

1936 - Forrest "Spec" Towns wins the Gold Medal in the 120-yd. hurdles at the Berlin Olympics.

1937 - Behind the hurdling of Towns, who never ran track until he arrived at UGA, Georgia wins its only men's SEC title.

1949 - A 9-year drought without an SEC champion is broken by J.B. Farr in the high jump.

1960 - Mark Carr outleaps the competition in the broad jump to win the Bulldogs' first SEC indoor title.

1976 - James Barrineau wins the first of two SEC outdoor high jump honors and then places 11th at the Montreal Olympics.

1981 - Mel Lattany wins both the indoor and outdoor SEC Commissioner's trophies and ends his career with an astonishing 108.5 points in conference competition.

1982 - Kathy Rankins earns the first All-America honor (indoor long jump) for the women.

1983 - The Bulldogs receive their first women's individual SEC title, thanks to heptathlete Debbie DaCosta.

1984 - Lester Benjamin, Stanley Blalock, Neal Jessie and Sam Palmer win the 400-meter relay at the NCAA Outdoor Championships; it is Georgia's first men's title since Spec Towns; Linda Detlefsen captures Georgia's first women's individual NCAA championship in the indoor 1,500-meter run.

1986-87 - Gwen Torrence sprints to an unprecedented four NCAA championships: the indoor 55-meter dash (twice) and outdoor 100-meter and 200-meter dashes.

1989 - Kim Engel hurls the javelin a school-record 196-8 to win the NCAA outdoor title.

1992-94 - Brent Noon wins three straight NCAA titles in the outdoor shot put.

1995 - Hrvoje Verzi earns the NCAA indoor triple jump crown with a leap of 54-5.5; Georgia's women, led by All-Americans Gudrun Arnardottir, Debbie Ferguson, Icolyn Kelly, Reeta Laaksonen and Monika Ronnholm, win their first SEC title during the outdoor season and then record a school-best third-place showing at the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

1996 - Debbie Ferguson wins the 200-meter dash at the NCAA Indoor Championships in leading the Bulldogs to second place overall, the top finish in school history.

1997 - Erin Jones earns All-America honors outdoors in the 5000-meter run as Georgia celebrates its track centennial.

1999 - Ferguson captures NCAA indoor title in 60-meter dash for her fourth career national title at Georgia; Vigdis Gudjonsdottir wins NCAA title in the javelin; women's team finishes fourth in NCAA Outdoor Championships led by Ferguson's 21 points to register second-best NCAA Outdoor finish in school history.

2001 - Andras Haklits wins NCAA titles in the weight throw indoors and hammer throw outdoors; Thorey Elisdottir wins the NCAA indoor pole vault with the best mark-ever in the event in collegiate women's history (14-9.50); Georgia athletes garner eight additional All-America honors.

2002 - Andras Haklits wins his fourth NCAA title, winning the hammer throw for the second straight year; UGA earns a total of nine All-America certificates on the year; legendary Lady Bulldog Gwen Torrence elected to National Track and Field Hall of Fame.

2003 - Georgia earns 14 All-America honors, including Lucias MacKay's NCAA title in the hammer throw and Hyleas Fountain's NCAA title in the heptathlon.

2004 - Georgia's 13 All-America awards include Hyleas Fountain's three national titles, as well as the American collegiate record in pentathlon for Fountain; freshman sensation thrower Jenny Dahlgren is a double All-American honoree.

2006 - The Lady Bulldogs swept both the SEC indoor (first in school history) and outdoor titles; Patricia Sylvester earns the SEC outdoor Commissioner's Trophy.

2007 - Edging teammate Lavern Spencer, who finished second, Sylvester won the NCAA indoor high jump title and Dahlgren won her second straight NCAA outdoor title in the hammer throw.

2008 - Chris Hill captured Georgia's first NCAA men's javelin title on the same track that he shattered the school record in the event earlier in the season at the Drake Relays.

2009 - Freshman Torrin Lawrence opens his career by breaking the school record in the indoor 200 before recording UGA's first SEC indoor title in the event as well as an All-America certificate; Chris Hill claims his second straight NCAA javelin title for the men.

2010 - Lawrence's 45.03 and 45.10 400 times indoors makes him one of the world's top performances of all-time; Nikola Lomnicka debuts for UGA and wins the NCAA hammer title.

2012 - The UGA men score the most points in history (85.5) at the SEC Indoor Championships; the teams combined for the best total (217) ever at the SEC outdoor meet.

2013 - For the first time since 2007, Georgia had a pair of NCAA champions in a single year as freshmen Shaunae Miller (indoor 400m) and Freya Jones (javelin) won.

2014 - UGA combined for three top-10 team NCAA finishes with five individual national champions; the Bulldogs lost former NCAA sprint champion and record holder Torrin Lawrence in a tragic car accident.

2015 - Kendell Williams topped her NCAA record in the pent (4,678) as UGA matched its 3rd and 5th-pl. finishes from '14; Maicel Uibo won his second NCAA decathlon title and third consecutive SEC title.

2016 - Lady Dogs scored a team record 45 pts. to take 3rd at NCAA Indoors, match UGA best with 3rd-pl finish at NCAA Outdoors; women's team tied UGA record with five NCAA individual titles.

2017 - Four top-six national team finishes highlighted year as women were runner-ups indoors and outdoors; Devon and Kendell Williams completed the "sibling sweep" by winning NCAA multi titles

2018 - The Lady Bulldogs captured their first NCAA team title indoors after scoring a school record 61 points to top the nearest foe by 12 points; the Georgia men answered with their first outdoor national team championship by topping the Gators by 10 points with a program record 52 points.

2019 - The Georgia men highlighted the year with a fourth-place finish at NCAA outdoors thanks in part to Johannes Erm's national title in the decathlon with the 10th-best score in NCAA history (8,352).

2020 - The indoor season was stalled before the NCAA Championships and the outdoor season was canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

2021 - Georgia combined for four top-five team finishes at the NCAA Championships and four national individual titles, including a heptathlon-decathlon sweep by Karel Tilga.

2022 - Caryl Smith Gilbert's first year was highlighted by a pair of top-10 finishes for the men at the NCAA Indoor & Outdoor Championships and a collegiate record in the decathlon by Kyle Garland.

2023: The Bulldogs combined for four top-10 national team finishes, including a runner-up placing by the men at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Garland's collegiate heptathlon record (6,639 pts.), which was only six points shy of the world record, helped deliver Georgia with a program record 40 points at the meet.

Track and field has produced some of the most memorable moments in Olympic history. The state of Georgia witnessed many such moments when the 1996 Centennial Olympics were held in Atlanta and surrounding cities, including Athens.

Bulldog track and field was again well represented at the 2021 Games, with a program-record 15 team members or alumni (seven men, eight women) participating in the Olympics.

The Bulldogs captured four medals in the COVID-delayed 2021 Tokyo Olympics, bringing UGA's total to 17. Shaunae Miller-Uibo (Bahamas) won her second straight gold medal in the 400m, and Lynna Irby and Elija Godwin took home bronze in the mixed 4x400m relay for Team USA. Irby also captured gold as part of the women's 4x400m relay team.

Shaunae Miller-Uibo helped shoot Georgia's all-time medal total to 17, defending her Olympic gold in the 400-meter dash. The former Bulldog and 2016 Rio Olympics gold medalist etched her name into the record books in Tokyo by becoming the second woman to win two Olympic gold medals in the 400-meter dash.

Miller finished within 0.11 of the Olympic record, running a blistering 48.36 to set a Bahamian national record. Already with an edge coming out of the second turn, she took off in the final 100m to claim victory by nearly a second. Miller's time ranks sixth on the world's all-time list.

While at UGA in 2013, Miller clocked what keeps her the No. 18 all-time indoor 400m performer (50.88) in collegiate track and field to capture the NCAA indoor title in the event. She went on to set Georgia's then-outdoor record in the 400m (50.77) and earned an NCAA runner-up finish for another All-America honor.

1896: First modern international Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

1900: Alvin Kraenzlein wins an unprecedented four events at the Games.

1936: Forrest "Spec" Towns, a SEC and NCAA champion at UGA, hurdles to a gold medal.

1936: Jesse Owens overcomes discrimination, wins spot on U.S. Team & four gold medals.

1952: An unprecedented "triple" as Czech Emil Zatopek wins 5,000, 10,000 and marathon in a week.

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics & UGA President

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks – 2023 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year finalist – has led the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

Georgia finished seventh in the 2023 LEARN FIELD Directors' Cup, the Association's best mark since 2005 and tying for the fourth-highest ranking in program history. Seventeen of the Bulldogs' athletic programs finished with a top-20 ranking, while nine ended the year in the top 10.

The Bulldogs became the first program to earn back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships, while three of Georgia's athletic teams won SEC titles and five athletes won NCAA individual crowns during the 2022-23 athletics season.

Among notable achievements, the women's soccer and volleyball programs made history as both teams earned bids to their respective NCAA tournaments in the same year for the first time ever. Georgia's track and field programs finished with four top-10 rankings in the indoor and outdoor championships, both men's and women's tennis captured SEC championships, softball finished with a second-place mark in the conference and both golf programs swept team and individual titles at their respective NCAA regionals.

The Bulldogs also posted a record-breaking academic year, setting a new school-high mark with a 3.19 cumulative GPA in 2022-23, breaking the fall GPA record before earning the second-highest spring GPA in school history.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last two years with $86.4 million raised in 2022 and $97.7 million in 2023.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

Brooks' tenure has also included impactful and significant coaching hires, with a pair of national champions in track and field's Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer's Keidane McAlpine. In 2021, he hired Tony Baldwin to take over the softball program, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld were named head women's and men's swimming and diving coaches. He also hired two prominent coaches to lead the Georgia Basketball programs in Mike White and Katie Abrahamson-Henderson. Following the 2022-23 baseball season, Brooks brought on renowned pitching coach Wes Johnson to lead Georgia Baseball.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of ULM from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of ULM beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at LSU University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and has been ranked first or second in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, with a record 43,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2027.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

He is Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.
