QUARTERBACKS

Redshirt senior Gunner Stockton returns behind center for his second full season as the Bulldogs' starter. Last year, the Manning Award and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist earned All-SEC honors while directing Georgia to its second straight SEC Championship and its second College Football Playoff quarterfinal in a row. Stockton approached 3,000 yards passing in 2025 while connecting for 24 touchdown passes with only five picks. The Tiger, Ga., native was also a threat on the ground after scampering for 462 yards and a team-leading 10 touchdowns. Redshirt sophomore Ryan Puglisi took snaps in seven games last year and will also be available at quarterback along with redshirt freshmen Ryan Montgomery and Hezekiah Millender. In addition to redshirt freshman Jake Bobo, who is the son of offensive coordinator Mike Bobo and transferred from Samford, freshman Bryson Beaver is another fresh signal caller in the mix. Redshirt sophomore walk-on Colter Ginn is also back for his third season to provide additional depth.

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulldogs boast their top four rushers back from 2025, including QB Gunner Stockton. A Coaches All-SEC Third Team selection, junior Nate Frazier is back in the fold after nearing the 1,000-yard mark with 947 yards rushing and six scores last season. In addition, redshirt sophomore Chauncey Bowens also took more than 100 carries a year ago and finished with 526 yards and a half dozen touchdowns to earn Freshman All-SEC honors. The speedy Dwight Phillips, Jr. and powerful Bo Walker will be back for their third and second seasons, respectively, along with senior transfer Dante Dowdell. Dowdell will be suiting up for his fourth team in four years after registering 560 yards on the ground and three scorers with Kentucky in 2025. Another new face will be freshman Jae Lamar who brings a successful high school career at Colquitt County with him to Athens.

TIGHT ENDS

Georgia football has many time-honored traditions, and one of the newest appears to be tight ends coach Todd Hartley signing the top class at his position year in and year out. With NFL standouts Brock Bowers and Darnell Washington representing as couple of the past UGA tight end standouts, Hartley now has another room of talented targets and blockers. Senior Lawson Luckie is the top returner with 15 catches for 158 yards and four touchdowns, including three against No. 5 Ole Miss. A pair of second-year tight ends, sophomore Elyiss Williams and redshirt freshman Ethan Barbour, both had a number of snaps to complement Luckie and Oscar Delp, who is preparing for the NFL Draft. Williams

Running back Nate Frazier rushed for 947 yards and six touchdowns in 2025.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton earned All-SEC honors as he led Georgia to a second-consecutive SEC championship and College Football Playoff quarterfinal.

played in seven games and finished with more than 100 yards receiving and a score while Barbour sustained a leg injury in game two and sat out the next 11 games before starting against the Rebels in the CFP Quarterfinal. Expectations are also high for redshirt sophomore Jaden Reddell who was a steady performer in all 14 games last year. And as Hartley does, the Bulldogs signed three of the nation's top 15 players at the position for 2026. Kaiden Prothro, Lincoln Keyes and Brayden Fogle give the Bulldogs an arsenal for the coming contests.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Opposite from the running backs, Georgia will be developing fresh targets on the outside after its top five pass catchers from last year are preparing for the NFL. Senior London Humphreys had 18 catches for 276 yards and three touchdowns a year ago, highlighted by his game-tying catch at No. 15 Tennessee that set up the Bulldogs ninth straight victory over the Vols. The Bulldogs have added junior transfer Isiah Canion in the offseason after he hauled in 33 catches for 480 yards and four scores for Georgia Tech last year. Another pair of third-year receivers who have been in the system is Sacovie White-Helton and Jeremy Bell along with a talented corps of second-year pass catchers in Talyn Taylor, Thomas Blackshear, CJ Wiley, Tyler J. Williams and Landon Roldan. Georgia provided depth at receiver by welcoming in freshmen Craig Dandrige, Jr., Dallas Dickerson and Ryan Mosley.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Bulldog offensive line will be led by Phil Rauscher this season after Stacy Searles moved into an analyst role. The left side of last year's offensive line has left to pursue their NFL dreams. However, the Georgia front has an array of proven players still in uniform for the coming campaign. At center, redshirt senior Drew Bobo will return after starting 11 games last year. Following a leg injury, redshirt sophomore Malachi Toliver filled in and will also return in 2026. Dontrell Glover assumed the starting spot at right guard three games in and never relinquished the spot, earning Freshman All-America accolades. After four different tackles lined up on the right to start the first five games, the Bulldogs settled in on redshirt senior Earnest Greene III. Greene is expected to be available at left tackle as well with the departure of Monroe Freeling for the NFL. Another 2025 true freshman, Juan Gaston, had a total of four starts at two different spots and offers a unique blend of size (6-7, 360) and agility on the line. Junior Jah Jackson, redshirt sophomores

Safety KJ Bolden earned All-America honors with 78 tackles and two interceptions.

Michael Uini and Daniel Calhoun heard their names called either on offense or on special teams and are back for another run. Newcomers for the unit include freshmen Ekene Ogboko (younger brother to DL Nnamdi Ogboko), Zach Lewis, Tyreek Jemison, Graham Houston and Zykie Helton, along with transfer TyQuez Richardson (Alabama A&M).

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Redshirt juniors Jordan Hall, Xzavier McLeod, Josh Horton and sophomore Elijah Griffin will be asked to lead this group as the Bulldog defense aims at becoming more disruptive. Griffin was a bright spot for UGA's front in 2025 after earning Freshman All-America honors thanks to 22 stops, including 2.5 tackles for loss, and one forced fumble. Freshman newcomers include Carter Luckie (younger brother of TE Lawson Luckie), Valdin Sone, PJ Dean, AJ Lonon and Preston Carey. Also, redshirt sophomores Nnamdi Ogboko, Joseph Jonah-Ajonye and Justin Greene and sophomore JJ Hanne earned valuable snaps last season and are set to return this fall.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Senior Gabe Harris, Jr. was lost to injury prior to Georgia's CFP matchup but in the first 13 games he piled up 26 stops and 6.5 tackles for loss. Harris is back this year alongside junior Quintavius Johnson, who finished with 35 stops-6 tackles for loss-2 sacks in 2025, and incoming transfer Amaris Williams from Auburn. Williams finished with 14 tackles and two sacks for the Tigers last season. While the unit is hopeful that sophomore Darren Ikinnagbon and redshirt freshmen Chase Linton and Isaiah Gibson can make similar jumps to Harris and Johnson last year, Georgia also ushers in North Oconee HS standout Khamari Brooks at the position.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

In 2025, CJ Allen and senior Raylen Wilson formed a dynamic duo who combined for 162 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss and six sacks in the middle. With Allen now preparing for his next destination in the NFL, Wilson returns as the leader to a unit that has no shortage of talent. Juniors Chris Cole and Justin Williams are a versatile pair of friends who will be expected to slow offenses across the field, along with fifth-year senior Terrell Foster. Sophomore Zayden Walker began to make a name for himself as a third down pass rusher last season and will be called upon for an expanded role in the coming year. In addition to the development of redshirt freshman AJ Kruah, a trio of freshmen – Elijah Littlejohn, Nick Abrams II and Terrence Penick – will have a chance to earn a spot on the bus through both their play on defense and special teams as the season approaches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Second Team All-American safety KJ Bolden leads a defensive backfield into the coming season without one of their top playmakers from last season in NFL-bound Daylen Everette at DB. Bolden was the team's second-leading tackler last year with 78 stops and added a pair of picks. Redshirt sophomore Ellis Robinson IV returns with Bolden after tying for the SEC lead with four interceptions and was named the FWAA National Defensive Freshman of the Year last year. In addition, redshirt sophomore Demello Jones enters his third year with a chance to line up opposite Robinson. The Bulldogs also brought in fifth-year senior transfer Gentry Williams (Oklahoma) and redshirt sophomore Braylon Conley (USC) to provide DB depth with redshirt freshman Jontae Gilbert and signees Jordan Smith and Caden Harris. At safety, redshirt senior Zion Branch returns for his second year at UGA alongside newcomers senior Khalil Barnes (Clemson) and junior Ja'Marley Riddle (East Carolina). Sophomore Rasean Dinkins filled in at the Star position as the season wore on last year and will again be expected to see the field in 2026. Redshirt junior Kyron Jones was a Bulldog starter last season until an injury sidelined him and he will return alongside other 2025 teammates in redshirt freshman Todd Robinson, Jaylan Morgan and Daniel Okonkwo. The defensive coaching staff also went on the recruiting trail and added freshmen Zech Fort, Tyriq Greene and Blake Stewart.

SPECIALISTS

Special Teams Coordinator Kirk Benedict had the rare honor of coaching the Ray Guy Award winner (Brett Thorson, nation's top punter) and the Patrick Mannelly Award winner (Beau Gardner, nation's top snapper) last season. This season, Benedict welcomes back a three-time Lou Groza Award semifinalist, senior PK Peyton Woodring, as he works to establish the replacements for Thorson and Gardner. Redshirt sophomore Drew Miller had six punts in his only contest in 2025 as Thorson returned from an ACL injury and finished with a 48.0 average. Redshirt senior Henry Bates and redshirt junior Carter Horton are expected to back Miller up. At PK, redshirt freshman Connor Ferguson trained alongside Woodring last year and is joined by freshman Harran Zureikat this fall. Zureikat hails from Pittsburgh after earning the No. 2 national ranking for this year's kickers.

Placekicker Peyton Woodring has been named a Lou Groza Award semifinalist in each of his three seasons.

A Look at the 2026 Schedule

*The SEC goes to a nine-game league slate in 2026, and the two-time defending SEC champions open league play at Arkansas on Sept. 19 following a pair of non-conference home games with Tennessee State and Western Kentucky.
*Georgia's SEC home opener will be Sept. 26 with the first-ever visit by Oklahoma. The rest of the home schedule features Vanderbilt, Auburn, Missouri and the annual non-conference tilt with Tech to end the regular season.
*Georgia's SEC road trips will be to Alabama, Ole Miss and South Carolina while the Florida game will be held in Atlanta on Oct. 31 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. This marks the first time since 1995 that the Bulldogs and Gators square off somewhere other than Jacksonville, Fla. Everbank Stadium is being renovated for the next two seasons. The 2027 Georgia-Florida game will be in Tampa, Fla.
*Georgia is 40-3 in its last 43 SEC regular season games with two losses to UA and one to Ole Miss.

Dominating Dawgs

*Georgia has a current winning streak over every SEC team except Ole Miss that equals 77 games. The streaks range from one game up to 16 straight.
*Georgia's 2026 Senior Class owns a record of 36-6 with back-to-back SEC titles. The 2025 Senior Class went 51-6 with a national title (2022) and three SEC crowns in their career. They were the third straight class to register 50 wins, joining the 2023 group (50-4) and the record-setting 2024 class (53-5).

2026 BULLDOG SPRING STORYLINES

In 2026, the Bulldogs once again will be among the nation's top teams with designs on advancing to the College Football Playoff and challenging for another title. Georgia will feature six returning starters on offense including All-SEC quarterback Gunner Stockton and All-SEC tailbacks Nate Frazier and Chauncey Bowens. Eight starters return on defense including All-Americans KJ Bolden and Ellis Robinson IV and veteran starters in seniors Raylen Wilson, Jordan Hall and Gabe Harris Jr., plus junior Quintavius Johnson. Also, the special teams unit is headlined by senior All-SEC placekicker Peyton Woodring. In 2025, the Bulldogs were one of the youngest teams in the country with 54 percent of the roster consisting of players in their first or second season in Athens. The Bulldogs brought in only eight scholarship transfers, the fewest in the SEC.

Going For Three In A Row

*The Bulldogs won their 16th SEC title after a 28-7 rout of No. 9 Alabama in the SEC Championship Game. This marked the first time Georgia won two straight titles since it claimed three in a row from 1980-82.
*Georgia enters its 11th season under Kirby Smart, who has a record of 117-21 with two national titles and four SEC crowns in that span.
*Georgia's scoring defense in 2025 ranked 10th nationally at 17.6 ppg while the scoring offense averaged 32.1 points per game, good for 28th nationally. In Rushing Defense, the Bulldogs were fourth nationally at 81.5 yards per game.
*The Bulldogs have a new offensive line coach in Phil Rauscher who spent the 2025 season assisting Stacy Searels who had been the OL coach since 2002. Rauscher has 16 years of experience in college and the NFL. Searels remains on staff as an analyst. Due to injuries, Georgia started six different offensive line units in the first six games of 2025 and eight total. The unit returns several key starters including senior right tackle Earnest Greene III, centers Drew Bobo and Malachi Toliver, guard Dontrell Glover and guard/tackle Juan Gaston Jr. Additionally, Georgia has added a new OLB coach in Larry Knight.
*Six of Georgia's top seven pass catchers from 2025 have moved on to the NFL or graduation, and the Bulldogs will look to identify the next group of targets. The top returnees are senior wideout London Humphreys and senior tight end Lawson Luckie.
*Keep an eye on the competition in the secondary to fill senior Daylen Everette's spot as he started a team-best 41 games the past three seasons before departing for the NFL.
*Georgia owns the nation's longest active bowl streak at 29 seasons but has dropped its last two CFP quarterfinal matchups at the Sugar Bowl. Prior to these losses to Notre Dame and Ole Miss, Georgia had won seven straight CFP/bowl games. Overall, the Bulldogs have made 64 appearances in a bowl/CFP game with a 38-23-3 mark. The appearances and wins rank second in FBS.

"Hard To Kill" In 2025

*In 2025, Georgia went 7-1 in the SEC gauntlet, trailing early and/or late in seven of those contests. The Bulldogs rallied to beat No. 15 Tennessee and Auburn on the road for their ninth straight victory in those series. They outlasted No. 5 Ole Miss 43-35 in Athens and never had to punt. Georgia won its fifth straight over Florida in Jacksonville. Georgia erased an early 7-0 deficit at MSU with 38 unanswered points and eventually recorded a 41-21 decision for the program's 900th all-time win. Georgia used a 21-point fourth quarter to defeat No. 10 Texas 35-10 to close out the SEC regular season.
*Georgia blanked then No. 17 UA and AU in the second half while Kentucky's lone second half score came on a 23-yard drive with 1:51 left in the contest and the Bulldogs up 35-7. Trailing 35-26, Georgia outscored No. 5 OM 17-0 in the 4th quarter in that win. Against UF, Georgia fell behind 20-17 early in the 4th quarter, took the lead for good with 4:36 left and posted a pair of 4th-Down stops including one in the Red Zone as UF came in 22-for-23 there.
*The only league contest in the regular season where Georgia led wire-to-wire was a 35-14 home win over UK while the only comeback that fell short came to then No. 17 UA 24-21 in Athens.
*The Bulldogs dominated No. 9 UA in the SEC Championship Game becoming the first team to shutout their opponent for the first three quarters of the title game and eventually won 28-7. UA was held to its second lowest rushing total in school history, finishing with minus three yards.

Simply The Best (Since 2021)

*Georgia owns the best record in the FBS since 2021 at 65-7. This run includes back-to-back CFP national titles (2021-22) and three SEC titles (2022, 2024-25). The next best is Ohio State at 59-10.
*Georgia and Ohio State are the only FBS schools to win 11+ games every season since 2021.

Kirby Smart has set the standard for sustained success as his record features the most wins in NCAA FBS history in the modern era for a coach in his first 10 seasons. Now entering his 11th season, Smart's record of 117-21 gives the Bulldogs an .848 winning percentage since 2016. Georgia's highlights include back-to-back College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championships (2021, 2022), a 2017 CFP title game appearance and Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017, 2022, 2024 and 2025. The 2025-26 Sugar Bowl CFP quarterfinal marked his ninth straight New Year's Six bowl game.

Over the last five years, Georgia has been the most dominant program, leading the FBS with a 65-7 record including two national titles and three SEC crowns. Overall, the Bulldogs lead the nation with 29 consecutive bowl game appearances. Smart has had nearly as many first round NFL draft picks (20) as losses in his tenure. Seventy-six Bulldogs have been drafted since 2016. The 2026 NFL Draft in April will see that Bulldog tally increase. Also, Georgia extended its national-leading streak of having at least one former player in the Super Bowl for the 25th consecutive year.

Georgia has enjoyed five straight seasons with at least 11 wins for the first time in school history. In the Smart era, the Bulldogs are 56-5 at home including 9-0 against top 10 opponents on Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium. They set a school record with a 33-game home winning streak from 2019-2025 and beat 10 ranked teams during that stretch.

In 2024, Smart became the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 career wins in FBS history, needing just 117 games to do it. The milestone win, a 30-15 victory, came over No. 1 Texas in Austin. Two months later in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta, Georgia beat then No. 2 Texas again.

Smart returned to his alma mater in December of 2015, and in his second year, he had the Bulldogs playing for the national championship for the first time in three decades. The Bulldogs would end a 41-year championship drought in 2021. A year later, the Bulldogs would become the first and only team in the CFP era to repeat as national champions, going a perfect 15-0.

2025 – Georgia captured the program's 16th SEC title and fourth in Smart's tenure by dominating No. 9 Alabama 28-7. Georgia (2021-25) and Florida (1992-96) are the only teams to make a record five consecutive SEC Championship Games. The Bulldogs won at least 12 games for the sixth time under Smart, and he led Georgia to its fifth CFP appearance since 2017 and earned another first round bye as SEC Champions.

2024 – Georgia claimed the program's 15th SEC title and third during Smart's tenure by outlasting No. 2 Texas 22-19 in overtime. This marked the Bulldogs' second victory of the season over the Longhorns after taking down No. 1 UT in Austin 30-15 during the regular season. Registering his seventh season with at least 11 wins, Smart guided Georgia to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017 and earned a first round bye thanks to the Bulldogs' conference crown.

2023 - The Bulldogs completed an undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 13-1 overall record after defeating FSU, 63-3, in the 2023 Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranked first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (289.07 ypg) and Passing Defense (175.43 ypg), and fifth nationally in Scoring Defense (15.64 ppg). The Bulldog offense ranked first in the SEC in Total Offensive Plays (958), second in the SEC and fifth nationally in both Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.14), and second in the SEC in Passing Offense (305.29 ypg).

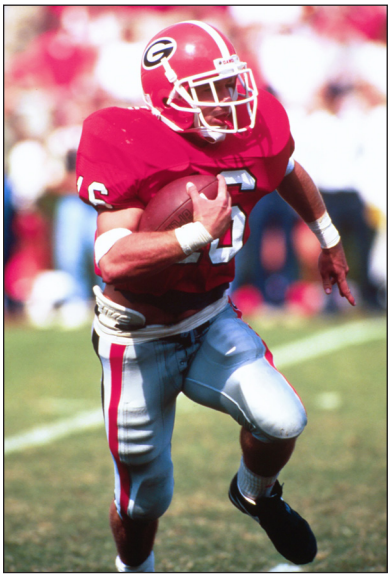

2022 - Georgia captured its second SEC championship of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Peach Bowl CFP semifinal.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Sugar Bowl game.

2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season

A first-team All-SEC safety as a senior in 1998, Smart finished his playing career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA history.

record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the Liberty Bowl.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of 15 head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years at the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

The Smart Family

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.

Kirk Benedict

Special Teams Coordinator

Kirk Benedict was named the Bulldogs' Special Teams Coordinator in February 2024 after serving two years as the team's Special Teams Analyst.

Benedict's special teams unit shined as brightly as ever in his fourth year at Georgia en route to the team's second straight Southeastern Conference title and second consecutive trip to the College Football Playoff. Punter Brett Thorson collected the Bulldogs' second Ray Guy Award, snapper Beau Gardner clinched the first Patrick Mannelly Award in school history and kicker Peyton Woodring was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award for the third time in his career. Thorson also earned Walter Camp and USA Today All-America First Team honors after averaging 45.5 yards on 2,094 punts, including forcing 25 fair catches and sending 15 balls that traveled 50 or more yards. Georgia finished fourth nationally in Net Punting (43.5) and gave up the country's fifth fewest punt return yards (18).

Gardner snapped on 72 of 73 Woodring's field goal attempts or PATs and all of Thorson's 52 punts and was named an AFCA First Team All-American. Woodring finished the year 17 for 19 on field goals and drilled three that traveled 50 or more yards. The All-SEC Second Team selection stands fifth on UGA's all-time list for PATs made (173) and seventh for points scored kicking (350).

Benedict's unit excelled throughout the Bulldogs' run to their 2024 SEC championship and their fourth appearance in the CFP since 2017. Thorson was named a Ray Guy Award finalist and USA Today Second Team All-American after averaging 47.6 yards (No. 4 nationally, No. 2 in UGA history) and forcing 14 fair catches. Georgia finished the year with a 43.5 Net Punting average (No. 5 nationally), giving up only 4.1 ypg. The Bulldogs' kicking game was just as impressive as Woodring drilled 91 percent of his field goals (No. 12 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC) after connecting on 21 of 23 tries, including a career-long 55 yarder in the win over No. 14 Clemson, to be named a Lou Groza semifinalist yet again.

Adding to the strength of Benedict's group was the fact that Georgia was the only team to have a 2024 semifinalist for the Ray Guy (Thorson), Lou Groza (Woodring) and Patrick Mannelly (Gardner) awards.

Benedict helped guide Woodring to his first Lou Groza Award semifinalist honor in 2023 as the true freshman connected on 21 of 25 field goals, including four of five from 40-49 yards, and all 71 PATs to set the Bulldog freshman record for most points kicking. His 134 points ranks third on Georgia's all-time PK scoring list for a season and he ranked sixth nationally in scoring at 9.6 ppg (top freshman, No. 3 PK overall). Thorson ended the Bulldogs' 13-1 season with a 43.8 average thanks to a performance that included 21 fair catches forced.

The Bulldogs punt return defense was also the only unit in the country to allow zero punt returns during 2023. Benedict is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-21.

In 2022, PK Jack Podlesny set the UGA record for most points scores in a season with 151 (26 FGs, 73 PATs). He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-SEC by the AP and the SEC Coaches. Podlesny also set the record for most PATs in a CFP Championship Game with eight. Thorson also earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

Benedict joined Duke's coaching staff in June 2014 and worked with the Blue Devils until he arrived in Athens. He served as the Special Teams Coordinator and the Recruiting Coordinator while aiding the defensive staff.

Before his time as Special Teams Coordinator and Recruiting Coordinator at Duke, Benedict spent three seasons (2018-20) as an assistant coach mentoring the special teams unit and assisting on defense. In 2016 and 2017, he served as a graduate assistant coach while working primarily with the offense and the entire special teams operation. Prior to that, he served as an operations assistant working with the special teams units during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

A native of Fairfax, Va., Benedict was a two-time All-Pioneer Football League fullback at Davidson College before graduating with a degree in political science in 2010. He was tabbed the program's offensive MVP as a senior in 2009.

Following his graduation from Davidson, Benedict was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Army and graduated from the Army Reconnaissance Course in 2011. He was stationed in Germany from 2011-14, serving as a Reconnaissance Platoon Leader and Troop Executive Officer in the 2nd Cavalry Regiment. Benedict also served two deployments to Afghanistan (2011, 2013-14) before exiting the army at the rank of captain.

Benedict is married to the former Molly Battle and they have two daughters, Nora and Gwen, and a son, Kirk Jr.

Mike Bobo

John & Alice Sands Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program from 2001-14, Mike Bobo began his second stint as UGA's Offensive Coordinator in February 2023 after serving a season in a Quality Control position for the Bulldogs' offense. The Thomasville, Ga., native is now a three-time Broyles Award finalist (2012, 2023, 2025).

Bobo's offense went to work in 2025 with a new starting quarterback, only one lineman who had more than five starts the season before and without three of the team's top four targets from 2024. His unit answered by averaging more than 32 points a game, toppling five top 20 teams, winning its second straight Southeastern Conference title and advancing to its second consecutive College Football Playoff. Georgia finished in the top 10 nationally in both Total First Downs (339, second in the SEC and fifth nationally) and Completion Percentage (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

In 2024, Bobo crew helped Georgia capture its second SEC championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his offense's 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

His 2023 offense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title and 13-1 overall record highlighted by a 63-3 win over No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The Georgia offense ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally in Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.1 ppg) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in Passing Offense (305.3 ypg), helping him earn a second Broyles Award finalist accolade.

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as OC and QBs coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State. At CSU, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6 percent), First Downs (375), and Fourth Down Conversion Percentage (86.7 percent). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games, including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State.

At Colorado State, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat. Bobo also joined Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers.

Overall, Bobo's teams left their marks on the offensive record book at CSU, as his squads own three of the top six marks for total offense in a season as well as the school record for most yards per game in a season (492.5, 2017). His Rams also posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program.

Bobo's initial 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. Bobo had previously worked on the football staff in an administrative role in 1998, then as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Bobo coached the Bulldog quarterbacks through the 2006 season. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. He held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times. In fact, four of the top five seasons for average yards per game in history for the Bulldogs came under Bobo, including the school record mark of 484.15 in 2012.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, NFL All Pro and Pro Bowler Matthew Stafford and David Greene, along with All-Pro wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the ninth-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, who is a Bulldog center; another son Jake, who joined Georgia's team in 2026 and who is a triplet with sisters Olivia and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

James Coley

Assistant Coach
Wide Receivers

James Coley was hired as the Georgia wide receiver's coach in February 2024. This marks Coley's second stint with the Bulldogs after serving on Kirby Smart's staff in a variety of roles on offense over Smart's first four years (2016-19).

Missing three out of the top four receivers from the previous season, Coley guided his 2025 receiving corps to 16 touchdowns and more than 2,100 yards as part of a passing offense that averaged 220 yards per contest. Led by Zachariah Branch, the Bulldog receivers helped first-year starter Gunner Stockton and the offense put up 32 points a game en route to UGA's second consecutive Southeastern Conference title and second straight trip to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals. Stockton finished with the second best Completion Percentage in school history at 69.7, which ranked ninth nationally in 2025.

Branch was one of the newcomers who made an immediate impact for Georgia's offense. The Coaches Second Team All-SEC selection topped a 32-year-old school record with 81 catches in a single season (former record of 76 was held by Brice Hunter from 1993) that went for 811 yards and six touchdowns. Branch's 5.79 receptions per game led the SEC and ranked 16th nationally. In addition, another pair of receivers in London Humphreys and Noah Thomas combined for 34 receptions as each averaged more than 15 yards per catch and finished with a combined seven touchdowns and more than 500 receiving yards.

Regarded as one of the elite recruiters in college football, Coley utilized a returning trio of receiving targets in 2024 to help Georgia capture its second SEC championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the league) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his receiving corps helping the team average 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

Dominic Lovett ranked in the SEC's top 10 in 2024 with a team-leading 59 catches in 14 games (4.2 pg) in his final season. Lovett's 59 receptions tied for third for the Bulldogs all-time in a single season and tied for the lead for a senior receiver in UGA history (Terrence Edwards, 2002). Arian Smith's 17.0 yards per catch was also a top 10 statistic in the league after the senior finished with a team best 817 yards. Smith's 17.0 ypc was the best for a Georgia receiver since its national championship season in 2021.

Coley helped guide Texas A&M's offense from 2020 through the 2023 season. He served as the Aggies' tight ends coach in 2020-21 before taking on the role as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach during the 2022-23 seasons.

Coley's final season in College Station in 2023 saw Texas A&M scoring 33.3 ppg as Ainias Smith led the receiving attack with 53 catches for 795 yards. Smith finished as the only 2,000-yard receiver in SEC history to also rack up at least 250 rushing, punt return and kickoff return yards.

In 2022, Coley helped the receiver group compile 220 receptions for 2,633 yards and 18 touchdowns despite losing Smith four games into the season because of a season-ending injury. Coley also helped develop Freshman All-American receiver Evan Stewart. Stewart led the squad with 53 receptions and 649 yards to go along with two touchdown catches.

Coley and the Texas A&M offense highlighted their 2021 season by knocking off No. 1 Alabama in College Station 41-38, thanks in part to Coley's receiving corps. Smith hauled in a pair of crucial touchdowns, including a game-tying 25 yarder late in the fourth quarter.

During the 2020, Coley helped the Aggies post an impressive 9-1 record, including an 8-1 regular season mark against an all-SEC slate. A&M concluded the season with a lopsided victory over nationally ranked North Carolina in the program's first New Year's Six bowl game.

Coley started on UGA's coaching staff when Smart took over as head coach in 2016, spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons as receivers coach. He was named co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia in 2018 and spent the next two seasons in that role.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the CFP, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal and first appearance in the CFP National Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and ninth nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), third in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), fifth in Total Offense (435.3 ypg) and fourth nationally in Red Zone Offense (96 percent).

The Bulldogs followed up in 2018 with another SEC Eastern Division championship, 11-win season, and appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Georgia offense finished first in the SEC in total Rushing Offense, Rushing Offense Per Game and second in the SEC in Total Offense, Touchdowns Scored and Scoring Offense.

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago). In 2018, he coached sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm who posted the second-best Completion Percentage in school history at 67.3, which was 12th nationally, and second-best Passing Efficiency for a QB at 171.21, which was fifth nationally.

Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he held positions as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach (2010-12) and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator (2008-09) at Florida State.

At FSU, Coley coached three first round draft picks in quarterbacks Christian Ponder, EJ Manuel and Jameis Winston. The Seminole offenses under Coley were high powered averaging 31.4 points per game in 2010, 30.6 in 2011 and 39.3 in 2012.

While at Miami, the Hurricane offense led the nation in "explosive plays" all three years and they produced two 1,000-yard rushers in Duke Johnson (1,652 yards in 2014) and Joe Yearly (1,002 in 2015). Coley coached 2014 freshman quarterback Brad Kaaya who earned Freshman All-America honors and broke the single season record for passing yards and TDs at Miami (3,198 yards, 26 TDs). Wide receiver Allen Hurns, who spent eight years in the NFL, broke the single season receiving record with 1,162 yards in 2013.

In 2014, his Miami offense averaged 430.3 yards per game and seven of Coley's offensive players earned All-ACC honors with Johnson and Shane McDermott receiving first team recognition. In addition, tight end Clive Walford earned AP All-America honors.

A native of Miami, Fla., he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion Louisiana State University where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Coley earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in 1997 and his master's degree from LSU in 2004. He and his wife Kenia have two children – Madison and Brady.

Josh Crawford

Run Game Coordinator
Running Backs

Georgia football hired Josh Crawford as run game coordinator/running backs coach in February 2024.

In his second season with Georgia, Crawford guided Nate Frazier to the best season for a Bulldog running back since 2019 and helped the unit finish third in the Southeastern Conference with 2,550 yards on the ground. Frazier went for 947 (5.5 per carry) and scored six touchdowns to complement fellow second year back Chauncey Bowens, who had 526 yards (5.1 pc) and six scores. Both Fraizer and Bowens earned All-SEC honors for their performances.

Crawford also played a pivotal role in providing Georgia a versatile threat with Cash Jones after the senior had 20 catches for 195 yards and a touchdown. The Bulldogs handed off a league leading 580 times in 2025 as the offense managed 32 points a game en route to a 12-2 record, their second consecutive SEC title and their second trip in a row to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals.

Crawford's stable in the backfield during his first year with the Bulldogs included a 1-2 combo in first-year transfer Trevor Etienne and Frazier in 2024. Etienne earned All-SEC Third Team honors with more than 600 yards on the ground and a team-high nine touchdowns in only 10 games. Frazier, a Freshman All-SEC selection, went for a team-high 671 yards and eight scores. His contingent also combined for nearly 80 catches, 645 yards and four touchdowns through the air.

Crawford, who earned his master's degree from Georgia in 2012, was Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach for the 2023 season. Crawford's single season with the Yellow Jackets produced a Freshman All-American in Eric Singleton Jr. as he hauled in 48 catches for 714 yards and six touchdowns. Georgia Tech had 14 different players catch balls, including Malik Rutherford who finished with 46 catches and more than 500 yards receiving.

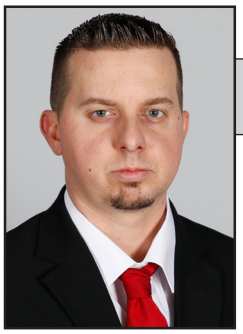

With a decade as one of the state of Georgia's most successful and respected high school coaches, Crawford entered into collegiate coaching in 2021 at Western Kentucky and helped guide one of college football's most prolific offenses for two seasons. He served as WKU's outside receivers coach in 2021 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2022. In his two seasons at WKU, Crawford's wideouts combined for 10,339 receiving yards and 94 touchdowns.

Prior to making the jump to the college ranks, Crawford established himself as one of the nation's top offensive coaches in the high school ranks, coaching at four of Georgia's most storied and successful programs – Colquitt County H.S., Valdosta H.S., Lee County H.S. and Greater Atlanta Christian (2010-12 – running backs/tight ends) as well as Jefferson County H.S. in Monticello, Fla.

During his 11 seasons in the high school ranks, Crawford helped lead three teams to Georgia 6A state championships and one national title. He coached six all-state receivers, four of which went on to play at he Power Five level.

Crawford played collegiately at Morehouse College in Atlanta, where he was a running back from 2004-06. He earned a bachelor's degree from Morehouse in 2007, a master's degree from both Georgia and an education specialist degree in coaching pedagogy from Valdosta State (2020).

He and his wife, Jessica, have two daughters – Ava Louise and Asha.

Todd Hartley

Assistant Head Coach
Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who had also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program in the past, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019, and added the Assistant Head Coach responsibilities in 2023.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends. Brock Bowers headlines the list as the first back-to-back Mackey Award winner (2022-23) in history and just the third three-time First Team All-American in Georgia football history. The All-Pro tight end recently completed his second season with the Las Vegas Raiders and finished as a finalist for the 2024 League's Offensive Rookie of the Year after setting NFL records for most receptions in a season by a rookie (112) and most receiving yards in a season by a rookie tight end (1,194).

The NFL has benefited from Hartley's players who were drafted in six straight years (2019-24): Isaac Nauta (7th Rd., 224th pick) in 2019, Charlie Woerner (6th Rd., 190th pick) in 2020, Tré McKitty (3rd Rd., 97th pick) in 2021, John FitzPatrick (6th Rd., 213th pick) in 2022, Darnell Washington (3rd Rd., 93rd pick) in 2023 and Bowers (1st Rd., 13th pick) in 2024. In addition, Ben Yurosek was signed as a free agent in 2025 and played in 12 games for the Minnesota Vikings, starting one of those contests.

Hartley has been part of the most productive stretches in the Bulldogs' history. Georgia has compiled a 65-7 record over the last five seasons, including back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, 2022), seven consecutive New Year's Six bowl games, which featured four CFP appearances, and the 2022, 2024 and 2025 SEC Championships since Hartley's return to the program.

During the 12-2 2025 season, Hartley's tight ends were pivotal to help Georgia win its second consecutive SEC title, advance to another CPF quarterfinal and top five top 25 teams, including three in the top 10. Led by Oscar Delp and Lawson Luckie, his tight ends combined for 545 and six touchdowns for an offense that put up 32 points per game and gave Gunner Stockton time to post the second best Completion Percentage in school history (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

Hartley guided a mixture of experienced veterans and promising newcomers at his position to more than 60 catches for nearly 800 yards and seven touchdowns in 2024. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 yards per game, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his tight ends' contributions, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

In 2023, Bowers led the Bulldogs in receiving for the third straight year as the offense finished ranked fifth nationally in both Scoring Offense (40.1 ppg) and Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and led the country in 3rd Down Conversions (55.2 percent) in 2023. Georgia went 13-1 following its 63-3 rout of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl, marking the program's third straight year with at last 13 victories.

Hartley was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over No. 3 TCU in the title game following a 42-41 win over No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP Semifinal. The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6 percent), First Downs (375) and Fourth Down Percentage (86.7 percent).

Thanks in part to Hartley and his unit, the Bulldogs captured their first national championship since 1980 with a 14-1 campaign in 2021, highlighted with a 33-18 win over No. 1 Alabama in the CFP National Championship. That season, Georgia ranked 10th nationally in Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg) as Bowers topped his teammates with 56 catches for 882 yards (15.8 avg.) and 13 touchdowns in his true freshman season.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, he spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs as a student, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport, La.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

Larry Knight

Assistant Coach
Outside Linebackers

Larry Knight was hired as Georgia's Outside Linebackers Coach in February 2026.

An Augusta, Ga., native, Knight joins the Bulldogs following a brief stint in a similar position for the West Virginia Mountaineers.

Knight came to West Virginia after serving as the defensive ends coach and run game coordinator at Arkansas State for the 2025 season. He helped lead the Red Wolves to seven wins, including a second-place finish in the Sun Belt Conference Western Division.

The Red Wolves registered 39 sacks for the year, tying for No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference in total sacks and tying for No. 6 nationally for average sacks per game (3.00). That season, ASU had a season-best nine sacks against Troy, tying for the best single-game mark in the nation.

Arkansas State boasted having three of the top seven sack leaders in the conference and all four starting defensive linemen earned a spot on one of the Sun Belt Conference All-League teams. The Red Wolves finished No. 4 in the league in tackles for loss and No. 30 nationally and were No. 4 in the league in scoring defense, bettering their mark from the previous year by eight spots.

Knight worked as the defensive line Bill Walsh Minority Internship during the 2025 spring with the Green Bay Packers after spending the 2023 and 2024 seasons as the defensive line coach at Temple.

His coaching career also included stints at Georgia Tech as the defensive line and defensive recruiting coordinator (2019-22), Temple (2017-19) as the outside linebackers coach and defensive recruiting coordinator (2018-19) and the defensive line quality control and assistant director of player personnel for the defense (2017) and outside linebackers coach at Georgia State (2015-16).

While at Georgia Tech, Knight helped the Yellow Jackets sign the second highest recruiting class in program's history, ranking top 25 (2020) and secure the highest rated defensive line recruiting class (2021). He also helped coach and develop several All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees, a Bronko Nagurski winner and three NFL Draft selections.

He also spent time as a defensive line intern with the Atlanta Falcons (2015), a defensive graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Tennessee (2013-15) and a defensive line graduate assistant at Cincinnati (2011-12).

Knight earned his bachelor's degree in entrepreneurship and marketing from Central Michigan in 2010. He was a four-year letterwinner, a Mid-American Conference all-league performer at defensive end in 2009 and helped lead the Chippewas to three conference titles.

Knight is married to Marquita Knight and his parents, Larry Knight Sr. and Delores Knight, still reside in Augusta.

Phil Rauscher

Assistant Coach
Offensive Line

Phil Rauscher was promoted to Offensive Line Coach for the Bulldogs in January 2026 after serving the 2025 season as an offensive assistant with the line.

Rauscher helped guide an offense in 2025 that featured a new starting quarterback, only one lineman who had more than five starts the season before and without three of the team's top four receiving targets from 2024. Georgia's offense answered by averaging more than 32 points a game while toppling five top 20 teams. The Bulldogs won their second straight Southeastern Conference title and advanced to their second consecutive College Football Playoff quarterfinal. Georgia finished in the top 10 nationally in both Total First Downs (339, second in the SEC and fifth nationally) and Completion Percentage (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

Prior to his time in Athens, Rauscher spent the 2023-25 seasons as the Jacksonville Jaguars offensive line coach and run game coordinator. He worked in a variety of roles and mostly with the offensive line for the Denver Broncos (2015-17), Washington Redskins (2018-19) and Minnesota Vikings (2020-22) during a number of NFL seasons before his time in Jacksonville. During his tenure with the Vikings, Minnesota allowed the fifth-fewest sacks (30) in 2021 and RB Dalvin Cook went for 1,159 yards en route to Pro Bowl honors.

The Carlsbad, Calif., native also worked on the collegiate staffs for California Lutheran University (2014), Hawaii (2012-13), Utah (2011), Dixie State (2010) and his alma mater UCLA (2008-09) during his coaching career.

Travaris Robinson

Co-Defensive Coordinator
Safeties

Travaris Robinson joined head coach Kirby Smart's coaching staff in January 2024 to be the Bulldogs' Co-Defensive Coordinator and guide the safeties.

Robinson helped the 2025 Georgia team to a 12-2 record, its second consecutive Southeastern Conference crown and its second straight trip to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals. Bolstered by the play of his safeties, the Bulldogs ranked fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17. 7 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg). Georgia kept No. 10 Texas and No. 9 Alabama to a combined 17 points over a four-game stretch late in the season.

Under Robinson's tutelage, KJ Bolden was the team's second-leading tackler in 2025 with 76 stops and two interceptions to earn All-American and All-SEC second team honors. The 2025 NFL Draft saw a pair of his 2024 safeties selected as First Team All-American Malaki Starks was picked at 27th overall in the first round by the Baltimore Ravens and All-SEC selection Dan Jackson was taken in the seventh round by the Detroit Lions.

Robinson teamed with Bulldog Defensive Coordinator Glenn Schumann to maintain the standard set by Georgia's recent defenses during his first season in 2024. In his UGA debut, the defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points. During one of Georgia's next challenges, Robinson helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record-breaking crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. The defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Starks was a Thorpe Award finalist as a junior and earned First Team All-America honors for the second season in a row under Robinson's tutelage in 2024 while Bolden was a Freshman All-American and a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Award. In addition, Robinson helped guide Jackson to All-SEC Third Team honors thanks in part to his 64 tackles (third on the team) and two interceptions.

Robinson had spent the two seasons (2022-23) before arriving in Athens coaching CBs at Alabama. Thanks in part to his leadership, the Tide posted a 23-4 record over that period, including wins in the 2023 SEC Championship Game and 2022 Sugar Bowl.

Robinson guided 2023 Freshman All-American and Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Caleb Downs as he led the Tide with 107 tackles, had two interceptions, forced a fumble and a recovered a fumble in his first season. In addition to having cornerback Brian Branch taken in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft, Robinson helped Alabama rank in the top 12 nationally in both Scoring Defense (18.2 ppg) and in Total Defense (318.2 ypg) in 2022.

Regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, Robinson, known as "T-Rob," is a native of Miami, Fla., who boasts 17 years of college coaching experience, including five seasons as the defensive coordinator at South Carolina from 2016-19 working under former Gamecock head coach and former Bulldog defensive coordinator/analyst Will Muschamp.

Robinson spent the 2021 season coaching defensive backs at Miami and was retained on the UM staff by new head coach Mario Cristobal before coming to Tuscaloosa.

In his final season at South Carolina in 2020, Robinson mentored defensive lineman Kingsley Enagbare, a First Team All-SEC selection, and defensive back Jaycee Horn, a Second Team All-SEC pick. In 2019, the South Carolina defense – led by first team All-American defensive tackle Javon Kinlaw – held its opponents to 20 points or less in five games. Sophomore cornerback Israel Mukuamu earned Second Team All-SEC honors, while Jammie Robinson and Zacch Pickens earned SEC All-Freshman accolades for the Gamecocks in 2019.

In 2017, South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of their 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average. South Carolina also tied for 10th in the nation in turnovers forced with 27 during the 2016 campaign, including 15 interceptions.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs before arriving in Columbia, S.C., as defensive coordinator – first at Florida (2011-14), then at Auburn (2015). The former Auburn Tiger standout began his coaching career at his alma mater, first as a staff assistant in 2006 while finishing up his degree, then as a GA in 2007. Robinson spent one season each as a defensive backs coach at Western Kentucky (2008), Southern Miss (2009) and Texas Tech (2010) before joining the Florida staff.

In his first season at Florida in 2011, Robinson guided a UF secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense (166.8), while the Gator defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5). In 2012, Robinson led a secondary that was one of the best, ranking No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense (95.55), giving up just seven touchdown passes. Florida was seventh nationally with 20 interceptions and safety Matt Elam earned first team All-America honors.

Robinson's secondary in 2013 was seventh nationally in passing defense and eighth in passing efficiency defense, while the Canes were eighth in total defense. Under Robinson, Vernon Hargreaves III was named the National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by College Football News.

In 2014 at Florida, Robinson again tutored Hargreaves III, who was a First Team All-SEC pick and First Team All-America. Jalen Tabor received Freshman All-America and Freshman All-SEC honors. The Gators defense finished the 2014 regular season ranked ninth nationally in total defense, 14th in pass efficiency defense and 23rd in passing defense.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, he helped Texas Tech to an 8-5 record and a TicketCity Bowl victory over Northwestern. In his one season with the Red Raiders, Robinson had two defensive backs earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention recognition and a third that was named a Freshman All-America honorable mention.

As a player at Auburn, Robinson was a First Team All-SEC selection by the AP in 2002 after recording 92 total tackles with four interceptions. He finished his collegiate career with 166 tackles and five picks. Before embarking on his coaching career, Robinson played two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Robinson was born in Miami and attended Coral Park High where he was a four-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Auburn in 2007. Robinson and his wife, Mandisa, have two sons, Tyson Jerod and Travis Jerod, and a daughter, Jordyn.

Glenn Schumann

Fain & Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator / Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was promoted to Defensive Coordinator (Inside Linebackers) prior to the 2022 season and has been in charge of the Georgia defense since that move. He was named Co-Defensive Coordinator (Inside Linebackers) in February 2019 after three seasons in charge of the team's inside linebackers.

Georgia has continued to set the standard in college football for defense. Schumann has played a central role in keeping the level of performance high. His unit played a pivotal part in the 2025 Bulldogs finishing 12-2, winning their second consecutive Southeastern Conference title and punching their ticket to a fourth College Football Playoff in the last five years. The Georgia defense ranked fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg) while allowing only 10 points to No. 10 Texas and seven points to No. 9 Alabama in the SECCG.

Individually, Schumann's linebacker unit also represented with its top two tacklers. Junior ILB CJ Allen earned consensus All-America honors and was named a finalist for both the Butkus Award and the Lott IMPACT Trophy. In addition, sophomore S KJ Bolden collected Second Team All-America honors a year after being named a Freshman All-America. Schumann also continued to train UGA's next round of leaders on that side of the ball with Ellis Robinson IV and Elijah Griffin each earning Freshman All-America accolades and Robinson collecting FWAA Freshman Defensive Player of the Year honors.

During the 2024 season, his defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points in the opener and helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. Schumann's group flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points. In the five games versus teams who would eventually make the 2024 CFP field, the Bulldog defense held them to 15.4 ppg and 278.6 ypg - and all but one of those contests was played away from Georgia's Sanford Stadium.

Schumann had his third Butkus Award winner since 2017 when hybrid LB Jalon Walker garnered the honor in 2024. Walker and S Malaki Starks earned First Team All-America honors while DL Mykel Williams, Walker and Starks were also All-SEC Second Team selections. In addition, Bolden was a Freshman All-American and a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award, ILB Chris Cole was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team and Starks was a Thorpe Award finalist.

During the 2025 NFL Draft, Schumann had another seven Bulldog defensive products get selected, including first rounders in Williams, Walker and Starks.

In 2023, Georgia's defensive unit led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally in Scoring Defense (15.6 ppg), was atop the conference ranks in Total Defense (289.1 ypg, 9th nationally) and topped the country in 3rd Down Conversion Defense (25.7 percent) during the Bulldogs' run to their third straight 13-win season.

Starks earned his initial First Team All-America honor for the unit while Williams, DL Nazir Stackhouse, ILB Smael Mondon, DB Tykee Smith and DB Kamari Lassiter were all Second Team All-SEC selections in 2023. Starks was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and Bronko Nagurski Trophy in his second season.

Schumann took over the play calling duties for the defense that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a CFP Semifinal win over Ohio State in the Peach Bowl 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in Rushing Defense (1st, 77.1 ypg), Scoring Defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), Red Zone Defense (2nd, 67.6 percent) and Total Defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). In addition, the Bulldogs proved most stingy on third downs, allowing conversions only 26.6 percent of the time (2nd nationally).

The 'Dogs defense also boasted two first team All-Americans in DL Jalen Carter and DB Chris Smith, Butkus finalist (Jamon Dumas-Johnson), Lombardi finalist (Carter), Nagurski finalist (Smith) and Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award finalist (Starks).

Schumann was part of a 2021 staff that led the Bulldogs to the CFP National Championship with 33-18 win over Alabama in the title game. Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Wins and Games Played, as well as defensive marks for Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TDs. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TDs all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL draft including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

During Schumann's tenure in Athens, in addition to the 2021 season, Georgia won 11 or more games in three straight seasons for the first time in program history (2017-19). The Bulldogs have also won six SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, 2021-23), earned eight consecutive New Year's Six Bowl berths, won the 2021 and 2022 CFP crowns and played for the 2018 CFP title.

Schumann's other star pupils at Georgia have included a pair of Butkus Award winners -- Roquan Smith in 2017 and Nakobe Dean in 2021 -- and two other finalists: Monty Rice in 2020 and Jamon Dumas-Johnson in 2022. Smith (2018), Dean, Quay Walker and Channing Tindall (2022), along with Monty Rice (2021) and Tae Crowder (2020), were all taken in the NFL Draft. Smith was the eighth overall draft pick in 2018 while Walker was the 22nd overall selection in the 2022 draft.

Schumann came to UGA after eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011) and then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014). In February, 2014, he was named Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel serving in those positions until December, 2015.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December, 2011, and a masters in sports management from UA in December, 2013. He and his wife Lauren have two sons, Bryson, born in September 2019, and Warner, born in October 2024, and a daughter, Whitley, born in May 2021.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach Defensive Line

Tray Scott was named UGA defensive line coach on February 10, 2017, after serving two years in a similar position at the North Carolina. Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January 2017, before accepting the Georgia job prior to that season.

Since arriving in Athens, Scott has had eight defensive linemen drafted, including five in the opening round. In fact, Scott had a record-breaking three First Round selections (Travon Walker, Jordan Davis, Devonte Wyatt) in 2022, including the No. 1 overall pick in Walker to the Jacksonville Jaguars, and bolstered his overall number with a trio taken in the 2025 NFL Draft (Mykel Williams, Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins, Warren Brinson).

Also during his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have won the 2021 and 2022 College Football Playoff National Championships, won 12 or more games six times (2017, '19, '21, '22, '23, '25), won four Southeastern Conference titles (2017, '22, '24, '25) and earned nine consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

Scott directed a defensive front that helped Georgia go 12-2 in 2025, win its second consecutive SEC crown and advance to the CFP quarterfinal round for the second straight year. His unit's worth was highlighted by the Bulldogs ranking fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg).

Junior Gabe Harris led Scott's front with 26 stops, including a team-high 6.5 tackles for loss, while redshirt junior Christen Miller, freshman Elijah Griffin and redshirt sophomore Xzavier McLeod combined for another 62 tackles and 6.5 TFLs. Junior ILB CJ Allen benefitted from the effort up front as he earned consensus All-America honors and was a finalist for both the Butkus and Lott IMPACT honors. The unit's highlight came when the Tide was held to minus three yards rushing during the Bulldogs' 28-7 thrashing at the SECCG.

The 2024 Broyles Award nominee guided his unit to another batch of success in his eighth season with the Bulldogs. The defense began the year holding No. 14 Clemson to just three points and helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. Georgia's defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Scott coached Williams to be a 2024 Lombardi Award semifinalist and an All-SEC Second Team selection as Georgia had a variety of honors arise in the levels behind the defensive line.

Scott helped the Bulldogs go 13-1 in 2023, finishing the campaign with a 63-3 dismantling of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The defense kept opponents to just 15.6 ppg, which ranked fifth nationally, and led the country in 3rd Down Conversion Defense (25.7 percent). Scott's top three in the final statistics – Nazir Stackhouse, Brinson, Williams – totaled 62 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks.

Williams and Stackhouse were Second Team All-SEC selections when the 2023 campaign concluded.

He was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in Rushing Defense (1st, 77.1 ypg), Scoring Defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), Red Zone Defense (2nd, 0.676) and Total Defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted First Team All-Americans DL Jalen Carter, who was also a Lombardi finalist.

Scott was part of a 2021 staff that led the Bulldogs to the CFP National Championship with 33-18 win over Alabama in the title game. Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TDs. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TDs all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL Draft, including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

In 2021 alone, Georgia defensive linemen reaped a bounty of honors. Jordan Davis won the Outland Trophy and Bednarik Award, as well as First Team All-America honors. Devonte Wyatt earned Second Team All-America honors, and both Wyatt and Carter were named Second Team All-SEC.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012) and assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010- 11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008 and his master's degree from there in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has two sons, Julian and Torian.

Andrew Thacker

Assistant Coach
Nickels & Stars

Andrew Thacker was elevated to a defensive assistant coach for Georgia football before the 2025 season, guiding the nickels and stars. He was hired prior to the 2024 season as a quality control for the Bulldog defense working with both the linebacker and defensive back positions.

Georgia completed 2025 with a 12-2 record, its second straight Southeastern Conference championship and a second trip to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals in as many years during his first season working with the nickels and stars. The backend of the Bulldog defense played a pivotal role in Georgia earning a No. 4 national nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), No. 10 in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and No. 14 in Total Defense (298 ypg).

Accolades were spread out across the roster for the Bulldog defense at the end of the year. ILB CJ Allen was a consensus All-American and finalist for the Butkus Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy while DL Elijah Griffin earned Freshman All-America honors and redshirt freshman DB Ellis Robinson IV garnered FWAA Freshman Defensive Player of the Year honors. In addition, S KJ Bolden was a Second Team All-American and DB Daylen Everette was included on the All-Southeastern Conference squad.

Thacker's first season in 2024 with the Georgia defense saw the unit keep No. 14 Clemson to just three points in the season opener and hold top-ranked Texas to just two third quarter touchdowns six games later. The Bulldogs' 30-15 victory in Austin came after the Longhorns arrived for the contest averaging 43.2 ppg.

Individually, the Bulldogs had hybrid LB Jalon Walker garner the Butkus Award while Walker and S Malaki Starks earned First Team All-America honors. In addition, Bolden was a Freshman All-American and a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award, ILB Chris Cole was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team and Starks was a Jim Thorpe Award finalist.

Thacker came to Georgia after spending five seasons at Georgia Tech. He served as the squad's defensive coordinator from 2019-22. Thacker's defenses produced 12 All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections, including five in 2022.

Additionally, five of Thacker's former players went on to sign NFL contracts. DB Tariq Carpenter became the first defensive player drafted out of Tech in six years when the Green Bay Packers selected him in the 2022 NFL Draft. Then in 2023, Yellow Jacket defensive end Keion White went 46th overall in the second round to the New England Patriots.

As a unit, Thacker's Tech defenses ranked among the nation's top 25 defensively in multiple categories, including in 2022 when Tech was ranked in the top 15 in Turnovers Gained and top 10 in Fumbles Recovered and Blocked Kicks. The Yellow Jackets boasted top 25 rankings in Defensive Touchdowns in two seasons during 2020-22. The Yellow Jackets also ranked among the top 25 nationally in Total Takeaways in 2020.

A native of Cartersville, Ga., Thacker came to The Flats after two seasons on the staff at Temple. After originally joining Temple's staff as linebackers coach in 2017, Thacker was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2018 . With Thacker as coordinator, Temple's defense scored eight defensive touchdowns (No. 1 nationally), forced 31 turnovers (No. 3 nationally), recovered 13 turnovers (No. 3 nationally) and intercepted 18 passes (No. 4 nationally) in 2018.

Thacker helped produce one of the AAC's highest-ranked defenses during his one season as the defensive coordinator at Temple. In addition to ranking among the nation's top three teams in defensive touchdowns, turnovers, fumble recoveries and interceptions, the Owls were among the AAC's top three teams in Total Defense (second), Passing Defense (second), Third Down Conversion Percentage Defense (second) and Scoring Defense (third). As linebackers coach in 2017, he helped TU rank among the top teams nationally in both Sacks (11th) and Tackles for Loss (11th).

Prior to his two seasons at Temple, Thacker spent the 2016 season as linebackers coach at Kennesaw State, where he helped KSU lead the Big South in Scoring Defense and Rushing Defense and rank second in Total Defense.

His career includes stints as a full-time assistant at UCF (2015 – safeties) and Southern Miss (2013 – safeties). He has also served as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons (2014), a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State (2010-12 – linebackers) and a graduate assistant at UCF (2008-09 – linebackers).

Thacker was a four-year starter at safety at Furman (2004-07), where he was named the 2004 Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. He graduated from Furman in 2007 with bachelor's degrees in political science and Spanish. He and his wife, Liza, have a daughter, Brooks, and two sons, Bear and Jackson.

Donte Williams

Associate Head Coach
Defensive Backs

Donte Williams, a veteran of coaching defensive backs at multiple power conference schools, was named the defensive backs coach at UGA in December of 2023.

Williams has worked with Bulldog Defensive Coordinator Glenn Schumann to maintain the standard set by Georgia's recent defenses. Williams' second season with the Bulldogs saw the squad go 12-2, win its second consecutive Southeastern Conference title and advance to its second College Football Playoff quarterfinal in a row. Highlighted by holding No. 10 Texas and No. 9 Alabama to a combined 17 points for a pair of late season top 10 victories, Georgia's defense ranked fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg).

Williams' unit included redshirt freshman Ellis Robinson IV, who tied for the SEC lead with four interceptions, and junior Daylen Everette, who was an All-SEC selection after totaling 50 stops to go with a pick in the SEC Championship Game and a fumble recovery. Robinson was also named the FWAA National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year following the 2025 season.

In his first game with UGA in 2024, the defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points. During one of Georgia's next challenges, Williams' unit helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record-breaking crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. The defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Under Williams' tutelage, Everette started all 14 games and had a team-high three interceptions to go along with 58 tackles, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Everette was the MVP of the SEC Championship Game after his two picks helped the Bulldogs down Texas for the second time on the year.

Williams previously served in the same role at Southern California, where he worked on the Trojans' staff from 2020-2023. He was originally hired onto the staff as the defensive passing game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, serving in those roles in 2020.

Williams was promoted to assistant head coach in 2021 and also held those same previous duties. Following the head coaching change in 2021, Williams served as the interim head coach for the remainder of the 2021 season. He continued to serve on new head coach Lincoln Riley's staff in 2022 and '23 as defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator. Williams was named the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year as he stocked the Trojans' roster.

During the 2022 season, Williams helped lead the program's defense to a top five national ranking in interceptions per game. He developed both Calen Bullock and Mekhi Blackmon to standout campaigns as each was taken in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft. Bullock garnered First Team All-America honors after finishing with 48 tackles and a team-leading five interceptions before getting picked by the Houston Texans.

Blackmon, an All Pac-12 First Team member, recorded 66 total tackles, two of which were for a loss, 12 pass breakups, three interceptions, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. Blackmon was selected by the Minnesota Vikings. Southern California won 11 games in '22 and earned a berth in the Cotton Bowl. In 2023, the Trojans advanced to the Holiday Bowl against Louisville.

Before he arrived at USC, Williams spent the 2018 and '19 seasons at Oregon as the Ducks' cornerbacks coach. The Ducks finished 2018 ranked 11th in the nation in interceptions with 17 and 2019 with the second-most of any program in the country with 20. Oregon went to bowl games in those seasons, winning the Redbox Bowl over Michigan State in 2018 and the Rose Bowl in 2019 against No. 5 Wisconsin. Williams played a pivotal role in recruiting Oregon's class of 2020, which ranked seventh in the nation and top in the Pac-12.

Williams was hired to coach the cornerbacks for Arizona in 2016. He then coached cornerbacks, nickelbacks and dimebacks at Nebraska in 2017, also assisting with the program's pass-defense coordination.

Williams was hired by San Jose State in 2013 as the program's cornerbacks coach and then was promoted to serve as both the defensive backs coach and the recruiting coordinator for the program, a position he held for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. During the 2014 campaign, the Spartans only allowed 117.8 passing yards per game and gave up just six passing touchdowns on the season, both of which ranked top in the nation.

The following year in 2015, SJSU continued its dominance in passing defense thanks to Williams, holding offenses to an average of 157.8 pyg, the second lowest in the nation. The Spartans would finish the year winning the Cure Bowl, beating Georgia State 27-16. During his tenure, Williams was named a Top 10 National Recruiter by Sports Illustrated in 2015 and as the top recruiter in the Mountain West by 247Sports in 2014.

Williams was hired by current Texas coach Steve Sarkisian to join the staff at Washington as a graduate assistant for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. His responsibilities included assisting with overseeing the cornerbacks and linebackers for the Huskies. Washington spent time ranked during both seasons and made the Alamo Bowl in 2011 and the Las Vegas Bowl in 2012.

He earned his first spot on staff with an FBS program at Nevada in 2010 as a defensive quality control coach for the Wolfpack. The team went on to make the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco where it beat Boston College, 20-13.

Williams began the first three years of his coaching career at a trio of small colleges as the cornerbacks coach at each stop. He was on staff for three different California schools for the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons - at Los Angeles Harbor Community College, El Camino Junior College and Mount San Antonio Junior College, respectively.

Alongside his first stints in coaching, Williams also played two seasons in the Arena Football League 2 - for the Rio Grand Valley Dorados in 2007 and then the Arkansas Twisters in 2008.

Williams played high school football for Culver City High in California and eventually began his collegiate playing career as a defensive back at Pasadena City College in California for the 2002 season. He then played at Syracuse in 2003 before ending his collegiate career at Idaho State in 2004 and 2005, receiving a bachelor's degree in Communications in the spring of 2006. Williams received All-Big Sky First Team recognitions and was selected as a team captain during both seasons playing for the Bengals.

Williams is married to his wife Jayna and the two have two sons named King and Saint.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2016, after serving three years in the same position at Marshall University.

He has been part of an integral part of the coaching and support staff that led the Bulldogs to the College Football Playoff National Championship back-to-back during the 2021-22 seasons. During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have also won four Southeastern Conference titles (2017, '22, '24, '25), played in four other SEC Championship Games and earned nine consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game.

Under Sinclair and his staff's training, Georgia has stressed the importance of the Bulldogs finishing a game as strong as they start a contest. The Bulldogs have posted six seasons with at least 12 wins since Sinclair's arrival, including the record-breaking 15-0 campaign to win their second straight national championship. In 2024, Georgia outscored its opponents by 66 points in the final period and held those opponents to the lowest cumulative quarter total (60) for the year. The Bulldogs outscored their opposition 206-119 in the combined third and fourth periods in 2025.

Seventy-six Bulldogs have been selected in the NFL Draft since 2017, including Travon Walker going as the first pick in the 2022 draft and 19 other first round selections. In addition, Sinclair has helped develop winners of the 2017 (Roquan Smith), 2021 (Nakobe Dean) and 2024 (Jalon Walker) Butkus Award, 2021 Chuck Bednarik Award (Jordan Davis), 2022-23 John Mackey Award (Brock Bowers), 2019 Lou Groza Award (Rodrigo Blankenship), 2021 Outland Trophy (Davis), 2018 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award (Deandre Baker), 2025 Ray Guy Award (Brett Thorson), 2026 Patrick Mannelly Award (Beau Gardner) and 2022 Manning Award (Stetson Bennett).

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January 2013, working with both football and track and field teams. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at UCF, where he worked with the football, baseball and track & field programs.

In May 2012, Sinclair was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC) at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference. The title of master strength and conditioning coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise as well as longevity in the field. He is also CPR/AED certified.

Sinclair served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. From 1999-2001, he worked as a strength coach in the Wake Forest athletic department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have a son, Creed, who has started his professional life in Auburn, Ala., and a daughter, Asher, who attends Samford University.

Josh Brooks

J. Reid Parker
Director of Athletics

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying a school record for the most titles in a single athletics season. The Bulldogs also earned the highest cumulative GPA in program history with a 3.26 during the 2024-25 academic campaign, setting a new school record once again.

Those accomplishments highlight the University's position as an academic and athletic powerhouse and underscore the achievements of the Athletic Association during Brooks' five-year tenure as athletic director.

Under his leadership, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 12 SEC crowns and 33 individual national titles across 21 sports. This fall, Georgia football earned a victory in the SEC championship game in its unprecedented fifth-straight appearance. The Bulldogs have won the title in three of the last five seasons and in back-to-back years for the first time since 1980.

Additional highlights include football national championships in 2021 and 2022, six conference championships, a national indoor crown and a NCAA title for women's tennis. Soccer has made a program-record four-straight NCAA tournament appearances and women's track won the program's first-ever outdoor title with a successful run in 2025. Equestrian also earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

Georgia's No. 7 ranking in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup was the program's highest mark in 18 years, as Brooks become a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor.

For all his success, Brooks has also become a leading voice in college athletics. He serves on the SEC Executive Committee, is vice chair of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and is chair of the NCAA Football Practice and Playing Seasons Committee.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award and was the Roy F. Kramer SEC Female Athlete of the Year.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue is nearing completion.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

Jere W. Morehead

President
University of Georgia

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University established a School of Medicine and completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising $1.45 billion. It also created an Innovation District, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to enhance the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia.

During President Morehead's tenure, UGA has increased its research and development expenditures by over 75%. The University of Georgia ranks No. 1 among U.S. universities for the number of products brought to market based on its research, according to the annual survey by AUTM. UGA has ranked either first or second in this measure for nine consecutive years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. A UGA education is in greater demand than ever, with over 43,000 students enrolled in fall 2024 and nearly 48,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2029.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including "The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business," and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a trustee for the Committee on Economic Development and a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

President Morehead is the Immediate Past Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

No. 5 Georgia 45, Marshall 7

Aug. 30, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team opened its season Saturday afternoon with a 45-7 win over Marshall at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 32 games. The sellout crowd of 93.033, along with a national television audience on ESPN, saw quarterback Gunner Stockton run for a pair of touchdowns and throw for two more, while the Bulldog defense held the Thundering Herd to just seven first downs.

Georgia outgained Marshall 488-207, with the Bulldogs rushing for 239 and throwing for 249; five different Bulldogs scored touchdowns. Defensively, Georgia held the Herd to just 72 yards of offense through the first three quarters. Linebacker Raylen Wilson paced the defense with seven stops, including two for loss.

Marshall got the ball to start the game and immediately ran into a stout Georgia defense. The Herd lost a yard over three plays and quickly punted. The Bulldog offense then went 70 yards in eight plays, taking a 7-0 lead on Dwight Phillips, Jr.'s 17-yard touchdown run. Stockton found wideout Zachariah Branch for a 25-yard gain on third-and-3 earlier in the drive, and then Stockton ran for 14 yards on fourth-and-2 at the Herd 31. Phillips scored on the next play.

Just like the opening drive, the Bulldogs ran the ball in for their second score. This time, it was Stockton with an effective fake handoff to Chauncey Bowens that gave the quarterback space to run the ball in from the 13 on fourth-and-1, making it 14-0. Stockton and Branch also connected for a big gain on third down on this drive, a 23-yarder on third-and-5.

With 10:15 left in the first half, Georgia got its first big special teams play of the season, a blocked punt by KJ Bolden deep in Marshall territory. A couple of plays later, Stockton ran the ball in for an 11-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead with 9:07 on the clock.

Bulldog kicker Peyton Woodring connected on a 43-yard field goal attempt with 24 seconds remaining in the half, giving Georgia a 24-0 lead.

Georgia's offense got the ball to begin the third quarter and showed some explosiveness with a 47-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Branch, who took the screen pass to the left and covered all 47 yards after the catch. Stockton's third career touchdown pass made it 31-0 with 13:13 left in the quarter.

A Stockton pass to wideout London Humphreys in the back of the end zone on fourth down at the Marshall 2 made it 38-0 with 3:51 to play in the third quarter. Ryan Puglisi led the Bulldogs to another touchdown, finding tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. Marshall got on the scoreboard with 10:27 to go, with Joshon Barbie scoring on a 1-yard run.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I am happy for these kids. They work year-round. You only get so many games. I was really pleased with our guys coming out with a great attitude, great opening drive, converted some fourth downs. Really big drive to start the second half to kind of put it out of reach. I am proud of the way our team competed."

Elyiss Williams scored his first career touchdown against Marshall.

Worth Noting…

- Georgia is now 102-27-3 in season-openers all-time, including 10-0 under head coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs' 32-game home win streak is both a school record and the longest active streak in the FBS. The NCAA record is 58, set by Miami from 1985-94.
- Backup QB Ryan Puglisi found tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. It was the first career touchdown pass for Puglisi, and the first career catch (and score) for Williams.
- Saturday's win was a little different from the only other meeting between the Bulldogs and Thundering Herd. When Marshall visited Georgia in 2004, the Bulldogs got behind 3-0 before winning 13-3.
- The Branch brothers, Zachariah and Zion, made strong debuts for the Bulldogs after transferring from USC. Zachariah led the wideouts with three catches for 98 yards and a 47-yard touchdown, while Zion, a reserve safety, tied for the team lead with seven tackles.
- Safety KJ Bolden's biggest play was on special teams, when he blocked a punt that was recovered by linebacker Terrell Foster at the Marshall 20-yard line.
- The captains for the Marshall game were offensive linemen Earnest Greene, III and Drew Bobo, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. The Thundering Herd won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

No. 4 Georgia 28, Austin Peay 6

Sept. 6, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — After a weather delay of more than two hours, the fourth-ranked Georgia football team knocked off Austin Peay, 28-6, at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 33 games in front of a sellout crowd of 93.033 and a national television audience on ESPN+.

Running backs Chauncey Bowens and Nate Frazier rushed for a pair of touchdowns each to help lift Georgia over the Governors, an FCS program. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 26 of 34 passing for 227 yards, and Georgia's rushing trio of Frazier, Bowens and Dwight Phillips, Jr., combined for 180 yards on 32 carries.

The Bulldogs were denied by Austin Peay at the 1-yard line on five straight plays to end the first half, keeping the score 14-3. Late in the third quarter and early in the fourth, Georgia's defense denied the Governors on a long series of plays inside the 10, keeping the Bulldog lead at 21-6. Georgia then tied a school record with a 99-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a win-sealing Frazier 1-yard rush.

The kickoff was moved up an hour to 2:30 p.m. because of thunderstorms that were expected to pass through Athens later in the afternoon. Those storms arrived in the region as the first half was ending. Per SEC rules, play was halted for 30 minutes whenever there was a lightning strike within eight miles of the stadium — and the clock reset after each subsequent strike.

Georgia committed its first turnover of the season on its opening drive, a Frazier fumble near midfield that Peay cornerback Ellis Ellis, Jr., recovered. The Bulldog defense quickly forced a punt, so no harm was done, and the Georgia offense got right back to work on its second drive. Bowens put UGA ahead 7-0 with two-yard rush with 5:55 left in the first quarter.

On the ensuing Peay drive, Georgia linebacker Chris Cole got the sophomore's first career sack, for a loss of eight yards. Later, after Peay was forced to punt, Frazier ran the ball in from the 2 for his first touchdown of the season and a 14-0 lead.

The Governors connected on a 44-yard field goal by Carson Smith to cut the lead to 14-3 with 9:08 remaining. After the two-hour delay during halftime, Georgia immediately got a defensive stop, and then the offense drove 60 yards for a touchdown. Bowens' 14-yard rush made it 21-3 lead with 10:54 left in the third.

Georgia's next possession ended with a fumble by wideout London Humphreys, and the Govs turned that into a 43-yard field goal, making it 21-6 with 5:51 to go in the third. After the Bulldogs' big defensive stop inside the 10 late in the third and early in the fourth, Georgia went 99 yards to put the game away on Frazier's score. Linebackers CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson led the defense with seven tackles each.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I really thought we came out of the delay with some juice. It was cool out, the music was good, the fans were excited, players were excited, it wasn't near as hot. We came out and got a three-and-out, came down to score, and seized the momentum, so I was really proud of our guys for that."

Chauncey Bowens scored twice to pace the Bulldogs versus Austin Peay.

- It was a career day for sophomore running back Chauncey Bowens, who scored the first two touchdowns of his career and ran for a career-high 56 yards on 11 carries. He ran the ball five times on Georgia's 10-play drive that put UGA up 7-0, scoring from the 2-yard line.
- Senior wide receiver Colbie Young was QB Gunner Stockton's top target, catching seven passes for 76 yards. Junior London Humphreys was second with three catches for 29. Stockton completed his first 10 passes in the game, finishing 26 of 34 for 227 yards.
- A marathon touchdown drive of 99 yards, the seventh time a Georgia team has done that, ended with a 1-yard Nate Frazier rush and a 28-6 lead with 5:39 remaining. The 17-play drive lasted 8:43, the second-longest touchdown drive in program history.
- Offensive linemen Jahzare Jackson and Michael Uini made their first career starts, while cornerback Daylen Everette returned to the starting lineup after missing the opener with an injury.
- Punter Brett Thorson, a 2024 All-American, made his 2025 debut against the Governors. After suffering a major knee injury in last season's SEC Championship Game, Thorson missed the College Football Playoffs and was held out of the opener against Marshall. In his first outing, Thorson punted four times, for a 43.8-yard average, and had one downed at the 4-yard line.
- The captains for the Austin Peay game were quarterback Gunner Stockton, wideout Colbie Young, linebacker Raylen Wilson and safety KJ Bolden. Georgia won the toss and elected to receive, something the Bulldogs hadn't done after winning the toss since 2023.

No. 6 Georgia 44, No. 15 Tennessee 41 (OT)

Sept. 13, 2025 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — At the end of a back-and-forth game Saturday afternoon at Neyland Stadium, Georgia running back Josh McCray scored on a 1-yard run in overtime to lift No. 6 Georgia to a 44-41 win over No. 15 Tennessee in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915, along with a national television audience on ABC.

The SEC opener for both teams featured nearly 1,000 yards of offense, with Georgia gaining 502 and Tennessee 496. Quarterback Gunner Stockton finished 23 of 31 passing for 304 yards and two touchdowns, and the Georgia rushing attack piled up 198 yards on the ground. Defensively, linebacker CJ Allen had a team-high 11 tackles, and defensive backs Joenel Aguero and KJ Bolden each had interceptions.

Tennessee quarterback Joey Aguilar capped the Vols' opening drive with a 4-yard touchdown run. The Bulldogs answered with their own impressive drive, beginning with a 45-yard completion from Stockton to Colbie Young. Stockton later hit Zachariah Branch for 10 yards, and capped the drive with a 6-yard touchdown run.

The Vols' next drive ended after two plays, on a 72-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Chris Brazzell II. Tennessee later took a 21-7 lead on Aguilar's 14-yard touchdown pass to Brazzell with 3:37 left in the first.

Georgia responded with a nine-play, 72-yard drive that included a Stockton pass to Branch for a first down on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 48. Later, Stockton threw a screen pass to Branch that the wideout turned into a 36-yard touchdown, cutting the UT lead to 21-14. Late in the first half, the Bulldogs drove down to the Tennessee 2-yard line before having to settle for a Peyton Woodring 20-yard field goal.

Georgia opened the second half with a 14-play drive to take a 24-21 lead, scoring on a 1-yard McCray touchdown. Late in the third, Georgia's defense produced another interception, this time by Bolden. Woodring's 48-yard field goal made it 27-21 Bulldogs.

The Vols answered with a 56-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Brazzell, putting Tennessee back in front. Woodring's 24-yard field goal gave Georgia the lead, 30-28, with 12:20 remaining in the game.

Tennessee regained lead on a 32-yard pass from Aguilar to Braylon Staley with 11:01 to play. The Volunteers then stripped Stockton, recovering the ball at the Georgia 34. Tennessee turned the turnover into 3 points on Gilbert's 48-yard field goal, pushing its lead to 38-30.

Georgia tied the game with 2:32 to go when, facing fourth-and-6, Stockton hit Humphreys for a 28-yard touchdown. On the 2-point conversion attempt, Stockton found Branch on the left side, making it 38-38. Tennessee had time to drive down to the Georgia 25 and set Gilbert up for the game-winning score, but he missed from 43 yards out.

Tennessee got the ball first in OT and was held to a 42-yard Gilbert field goal. Nate Frazier ran left for 21 yards down to the 4 on the Bulldogs' first play of overtime, and McCray score the game-winner.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was a great college football game. I'm really proud of our guys; we talked about coming in here to conquer this place, which is not easy to do, and when you do something like that, you have to make your own way."

Nate Frazier had a 21-yard run on Georgia's first play of overtime.

No. 17 Alabama 24, No. 5 Georgia 21

Sept. 27, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — In front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 Saturday night at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC, No. 17 Alabama handed fifth-ranked Georgia its first home loss since 2019, 24-21, snapping the longest win streak in the FBS at 33 games.

Alabama stopped the Bulldogs on fourth down at the Crimson Tide 8 with 13:20 remaining in the game to preserve the three-point lead. Georgia got 227 yards on the ground, including the first career 100-yard game from Chauncey Bowens, who ran for 119, and quarterback Gunner Stockton was 13 of 20 passing for 130 yards and a touchdown.

A year ago, Alabama snapped Georgia's record 28-game SEC regular-season game win streak with a victory in Tuscaloosa. On Saturday, the Bulldogs had few answers for Alabama's offense early in the game, and then couldn't quite make enough plays to tie or take the lead after cutting the Tide lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third quarter.

Georgia's last home loss came on Oct. 12, 2019, a 20-17 double-overtime defeat against South Carolina. This time around, the Bulldogs never led. Alabama out-gained the Bulldogs 397-357, though Georgia averaged 6.7 yards per play to 5.2 for Bama.

The Tide took a 7-0 lead by capping a 14-play drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Ty Simpson to wide receiver Germie Bernard. Alabama later went up 14-0 on a 6-yard Simpson pass to Isaiah Horton.

Georgia's offense needed to make something happen, and it did. Stockton hit wide receiver Colbie Young wide open on the right side for a 38-yard touchdown, cutting the lead to 14-7 with 12:48 to go in the half.

After recovering a fumble at the Georgia 11, Alabama pushed its lead to 17-7 with a 24-yard field goal with 8:30 on the clock. Georgia answered with a touchdown drive that ended with a 2-yard Bowens run to the left side, cutting Alabama's lead to 17-14 with 2:08 remaining in the half. Earlier in the 11-play drive, Bowens broke free for a career-long 43-yard rush to the 10.

Simpson ran the ball in from the 2 for a 24-14 Tide lead with 34 seconds left in the half. At the break, Alabama had a 262-196 lead in total offense and an 18:35-11:25 lead in time of possession.

The Tide got the ball to start the second half and came away empty on the drive after Conor Talty missed a 43-yard field-goal attempt. Georgia took over at its 26-yard line and got a 43-yard reverse run from wideout Dillon Bell to get down to the Tide 25. The Bulldogs later scored on Josh McCray's 1-yard rush, cutting the lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third.

Early in the fourth quarter, on fourth-and-1 at the Tide 8, Cash Jones was stopped for a loss of 3. Georgia's offense later got the ball back, but it wasn't able to get into field-goal range. Alabama the ball back at its 12 with 3:19 remaining and was able to run out the clock and hand the Bulldogs a rare home loss.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The environment was incredible. It was probably the best environment I've ever been a part of here. The crowd did their part, that's for sure. The crowd was incredible and created a home field advantage that should have been enough for us to win, but we didn't play real well and they did."

Chauncey Bowens rushed for a career-high 119 yards.

- Georgia's ground game paced the offense with 227 yards on 33 carries, and Chauncey Bowens had the best game of his career. The sophomore finished with 12 carries for 119 yards and a 2-yard touchdown, including a career-long 43-yard rush, and caught a career-high four passes for 22 yards.
- Alabama was able to control the ball and the clock, running 77 plays to Georgia's 53 and ending with a 35:36-24:24 advantage in time of possession. The Crimson Tide held the ball for 12:28 of the opening quarter.
- The Bulldogs trailed 24-14 at the half and shut the Crimson Tide out over the final two quarters. Junior inebacker CJ Allen led the defense with eight tackles and redshirt sophomore safety Kyron Jones had seven. Six Bulldogs had at least five tackles, including linebacker Chris Cole, who had Georgia's only sack.
- Georgia saw its 33-game home winning streak come to an end. During the streak, the Bulldogs posted 10 wins over ranked teams. Georgia is now 52-5 at home in the Kirby Smart era, including 49-2 since 2019.
- The captains for the game were offensive lineman Micah Morris, wide receiver Zachariah Branch, defensive lineman Jordan Hall and defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. Alabama won the toss and elected to defer to the second half.

No. 12 Georgia 35, Kentucky 14

Oct. 4, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton rushed for a pair of touchdowns and threw for one more in the No. 12-ranked Bulldogs' 35-14 win over Kentucky on Saturday afternoon. It was a dominating performance in front of a Homecoming crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC.

Stockton and wide receiver Dillon Bell each had a pair of rushing touchdowns, and the Bulldog offense piled up 425 yards of offense. Stockton, who sat out the fourth quarter, finished 15 of 23 passing for 196 yards and ran for 48 yards on six attempts.

The Bulldogs converted nine of their first 10 third-down attempts and finished with a 33:38-26:22 advantage in time of possession. The defense held the Wildcats to 270 yards — about a quarter of them coming after Georgia went up 35-7 and started sitting its starters — and forced two turnovers. Linebacker CJ Allen had six tackles, including a sack and two for loss; he also forced and recovered a fumble in the third quarter

After getting behind early in its previous two games, the Bulldogs got the ball to start the game against Kentucky and Stockton put the Bulldogs ahead with a 7-yard scramble and score.

Georgia began its next drive at its 4-yard line. A Stockton pass to London Humphreys for 18 yards moved the ball to the 22, and that was later followed by a 11-yard pass play to Nate Frazier. A 19-yard Stockton run on third-and-2 moved the ball to the Kentucky 29, and on the next play, the quarterback hit Humphreys for 17 yards plus a penalty on Kentucky. Two plays later, Stockton ran the ball in untouched for a 14-0 lead.

The Wildcats went 75 yards in four plays and scored on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Cutter Boley to tight end Josh Kattus to cut the Georgia lead to 14-7. Kentucky got the ball back soon after on an interception, but the Georgia defense forced a three-and-out to avoid any damage.

Georgia's next drive ended with a 60-yard Brett Thorson punt that Humpreys downed at the Kentucky 1-yard line. The Bulldog defense then forced their third three-and-out of the half. Bell then wrapped up the ensuing drive with a 3-yard score. His rush was Georgia's 23rd of the half, for 134 yards and three scores.

Allen forced and recovered a fumble on Kentucky's drive to open the second half, giving the Bulldog offense the ball at the Wildcat 38. Two plays later, Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for 36 yards down to the 5. On third down from the 3, Bell again ran the ball in untouched, pushing Georgia's lead to 28-7 with 10:54 left in the third.

The Bulldogs added to their lead later in the third with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to running back Cash Jones, making it 35-7 with 4:23 to play in the quarter.

Kentucky added a late touchdown on a 5-yard pass from Boley to Kendrick Law, cutting the lead to 35-14.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It feels great. It's hard to win in the SEC, and you don't realize that until you're in it. It's hard to go on the road and win, and our guys came out with good juice today. I think we scored the first two or three drives — rhat was big, setting the tone; getting off the field some on defense was huge. I think that's a big success and a big step in the right direction for us."

Dillon Bell scored on both of his rushing attempts against Kentucky.

- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had two carries for 6 yards, which doesn't sound like much. But both of his rushing attempts went for 3-yard touchdowns. Bell was also Georgia's leading receiver with four catches for 68 yards, highlighted by a one-handed grab with a defender all over him along the left sideline.
- Linebacker CJ Allen has made a ton of big plays in his three seasons with the Bulldogs, but Saturday's forced fumble and subsequent recovery were career firsts. The play was also the Georgia defense's first takeaway via fumble of the season. Allen and Justin Williams led the defense with six stops each; Allen also had a pair of tackles for loss, including a sack.
- Georgia's first two drives took the long route to the end zone. The first was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with Gunner Stockton's 7-yard run into the end zone. The second covered 96 yards in 13 plays and also ended with a Stockton rush, this time from the 6-yard line. The Bulldogs got the job done on third down throughout the game, finishing 8 of 12.
- With the win, the Bulldogs improved to 57-6 since 2021, the best record in the FBS. Georgia is now 53-5 at Sanford Stadium under coach Kirby Smart. This was the program's ninth straight win on Homecoming.
- The captains for the game were cornerback Daylen Everette, linebacker Quintavious Johnson, tight end Lawson Luckie and left tackle Monroe Freeling. Kentucky won the toss and elected to defer to the second half, so the Bulldogs received the opening kickoff.

No. 10 Georgia 20, Auburn 10

Oct. 11, 2025 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. — It wasn't easy — it seldom is against Auburn — but the No. 10-ranked Georgia football team scratched and clawed its way back from a 10-0 deficit to knock off the Tigers, 20-10, Saturday night at Jordan-Hare Stadium, in front of a sellout crowd of 88.043 and a national television audience on ABC.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's 10-yard run for a touchdown with 1:53 to play sealed the Bulldogs' ninth straight win over the Tigers in the 130th edition of the Deep South's oldest rivalry. Georgia's win streak ties the longest ever in the series, set by the Bulldogs from 1923-31.

Stockton completed 24 of 37 passes for 217 yards and also led Georgia in rushing with nine carries for 26 yards. Zachariah Branch finished with nine receptions for 57 yards.

Auburn had a 237-78 advantage in total offense and a 21:48-8:12 advantage in time of possession at the half, and by the end, Georgia finished with 296 yards to Auburn's 277, and a 30:19-29:41 advantage possession. Georgia's defense held Auburn to 40 second-half yards; linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 10 tackles, including two for loss and an 8-yard sack.

Auburn drove 75 yards in 14 plays to start the game, taking a 7-0 lead on quarterback Jackson Arnold's 2-yard run. Early in the second quarter, Georgia was able to hold Auburn to a 25-yard Alex McPherson field goal, pushing the Tiger lead to 10-0.

With less than two minutes to play in the half, Arnold dove over the pile from the 1 for the potential touchdown. But Georgia linebacker Raylen Wilson punched the ball out and safety Kyron Jones recovered the fumble at the 2, earning the Bulldogs a huge stop with 1:32 left in the half.

Georgia got a lot of help from three Auburn penalties on the ensuing 12-play drive, including two 15-yarders. Peyton Woodring got the Bulldogs on the scoreboard with a 29-yard field goal, cutting the Tiger lead to 10-3.

Georgia's offense began its second drive of the third quarter with a 21-yard Stockton completion to wideout Colbie Young. Later, Stockton hit receiver Noah Thomas down the middle for 30 yards to the 2. On the next play, running back Chauncey Bowens ran the ball in for Georgia's first touchdown, tying the game 10-10 with 7:23 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs took a 13-10 lead on Woodring's 53-yard field goal with 1:22 left in the quarter. In the fourth, after a third straight Auburn three-and-out, Georgia got the ball back at its 22. On third-and-8 from the 24, Stockton hit wideout London Humphreys for 17 yards to the 41. Completions of 9 and 10 yards to Branch moved the ball into Auburn territory, and on fourth-and-3 at the 40, Stockton found Humphreys again, this time for 8 yards.

Later in the drive, Georgia converted a third-and-1 at the 23 when Stockton found Frazier for a 6-yard completion to the 17. Three plays later, Stockton ran it in from the 10 to make it 20-10 with 1:53 to play.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was a tale of two halves. Our kids never quit. I'm proud of our kids. I'm as proud of this team as probably any team ever for the performance. We did not come out and start fast, play well. They outplayed us. They played with momentum, tempo, run game, stopped us running the ball in the first half. Frustrating, but the kids never quit."

Linebacker CJ Allen led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles.

Worth Noting…

- This was the 130th meeting between Georgia and Auburn, a series that began back in 1892 with a 10-0 Auburn win in Atlanta; the first 10 times the teams met, they played in Atlanta. The first game played in Athens was in 1912, a 12-6 Bulldog win. Auburn didn't host Georgia until 1960, when the Tigers eked out a 9-6 win.
- Linebacker CJ Allen had team-highs in solo stops (6) and total tackles (10), with two tackles for loss including an 8-yard sack. Linebacker Raylen Wilson had six tackles and forced the game-changing fumble at the goal line at the end of the first half.
- In the first quarter, Auburn out-gained Georgia 141-14. In the second, Auburn had a 96-64 yardage advantage. Over the final two quarters, Georgia out-gained the Tigers 218-40. Auburn went 0-for-6 on third down in the second half after converting 8 of 11 in the first two quarters.
- On Georgia's final scoring drive, which last 16 plays, covered 78 yards and tied a school record by lasting 8:45, quarterback Gunner Stockton completed 7 of 8 passes for 63 yards before running the ball in for a 10-yard touchdown.
- Georgia's defense shut the Tigers out in the second half, limiting the Tigers to 40 yards on 23 plays and just three first downs.
- Six Bulldogs had at least two receptions, led by Zachariah Branch's nine for 57 yards, with 51 of those yards coming after the catch.
- The captains for the Bulldogs were center Drew Bobo, wide receiver Colbie Young, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 9 Georgia 43, No. 5 Ole Miss 35

Oct. 18, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — In an offense-heavy matchup of top-10 teams Saturday afternoon in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium, and a national television audience on ABC, it was No. 9 Georgia's defense that came through in the fourth quarter against No. 5 Ole Miss. The Rebels scored touchdowns on their first five possessions in the game, but the Bulldogs shut them down in the fourth quarter and pulled out a 43-35 win.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the game, and third to tight end Lawson Luckie, a 7-yarder with 7:29 remaining, gave Georgia the lead for good. It came after the Bulldog defense got its first stop of the game, a three-and-out it had to have. Georgia later added a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:06 to play, and then stopped the Rebels for the third straight drive to seal the win.

Stockton finished 26 of 31 passing for 289 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, while the Bulldogs also rushed for 221 yards on 49 attempts. Georgia outgained the Rebels 510-351 and had a 15-minute advantage in time of possession: 37:39-22:21.

A 51-yard Woodring field goal gave Georgia a 3-0 lead, but it didn't last long. Ole Miss answered with a 7-yard Trinidad Chambliss run for a touchdown. Georgia followed that with its own scoring drive. After making a great catch for 13 yards on a ball thrown behind him earlier in the drive, Luckie caught an 11-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter, putting the Bulldogs back in front.

The Rebels regained the lead, 14-10, on Kewan Lacy's 1-yard touchdown run. The back-and-forth continued on the next drive, with Stockton running the ball in from the 22, his longest rush of the season, for a 17-14 lead with 7:13 on the clock.

Ole Miss regained the lead, 21-17, on Lacy's 1-yard rush for a touchdown. On the final play of the half, Woodring made a 35-yard field goal to cut the Rebel lead to 21-20.

The Rebels only needed two plays to find the end zone on the first possession of the second half, with Chambliss connecting with De'Zhaun Stribling for a 75-yard score to push the Rebels' lead to 28-21.

Georgia once again responded with its own scoring drive, this one ending with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Luckie. The Bulldogs' 2-point conversion attempt failed, allowing the Rebels to hold onto the lead, 28-26, with 10:02 remaining in the third. Ole Miss extended its lead soon after, going up 35-26 on Chambliss' 2-yard touchdown run.

Georgia's offense continued its very productive day, marching 75 yards in 12 plays and scoring on Stockton's 3-yard touchdown pass to Frazier on the left side. That cut the Rebel lead to 35-33 with 12:56 to go.

The Georgia defense got a three-and-out on Ole Miss' next drive, forcing the game's first punt. The Bulldogs made the most of the stop, taking a 40-35 lead with 7:29 remaining on Stockton's third pass to Luckie, this one covering 7 yards. The defense got two more stops to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I credit this win to culture. I say it all the time: a culture win is as good as any win in your program. The culture of this team and the toughness and the physicality, it took over the game."

Lawson Luckie caught three touchdown passes against Ole Miss.

Worth Noting…

- With the win, Georgia improved to 8-0 in home games against top-10 teams under coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs are 54-5 overall at Sanford Stadium under Smart.
- The Rebels scored four rushing touchdowns against a Georgia defense that had allowed just four all season before Saturday. But the Bulldogs shut Ole Miss down in the fourth quarter, holding it to 13 yards and one first down over three drives in the final period.
- Georgia's rushing attack piled up 221 yards on 49 attempts, with three Bulldogs —running backs Nate Frazier and Chauncey Bowens and quarterback Gunner Stockton — combining for 192 yards on 37 rushes. Stockton, who threw four touchdown passes, also ran for a 22-yard TD.
- Nine Bulldogs had at least three tackles in the game, led by linebacker CJ Allen's 10 and defensive back Joenel Aguero's six.
- The captains for the game were linebacker Quintavious Johnson, cornerback Daylen Everette, tight end Oscar Delp and wide receiver London Humphreys. The Rebels won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 5 Georgia 24, Florida 20

Nov. 1, 2025 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team got a 36-yard touchdown run from Chauncey Bowens with 4:36 to play in the game to rally past Florida, 24-20, Saturday at EverBank Stadium. The sellout crowd of 76,770, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw the Bulldogs overcome a second-half deficit and survive for the fourth time in SEC play this season.

Georgia trailed 20-17 midway through the final period when its defense got a big stop on fourth-and-1 at the UGA 18-yard line, and the offense responded by driving for the go-ahead score. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 20-for-29 passing for 223 yards and two touchdowns, and wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a big day with 10 catches for 112 yards. Linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 13 tackles.

Georgia got the ball to start the game and moved the 75 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. A 12-yard pass from Stockton to wide receiver Dillon Bell on third-and-7 at the UGA 28-yard line kept the drive going, and the two connected again later to end the drive. On second-and-7 at the Florida 8, Stockton hit Bell in the end zone on a quick slant to put the Bulldogs in front early.

Florida tied the game with 6:32 left in the first quarter on a one-play drive, completing a 40-yard touchdown pass from DJ Lagway to Eugene Wilson III. The Gators got the ball back soon after, when a Stockton pass was intercepted by defensive back Devin Moore, giving Florida the ball at the Georgia 38. The Gators took a 10-7 lead on Trey Smack's 22-yard field goal with 3:02 to go in the quarter. The Bulldogs tied the game 10-10 with 12 seconds remaining in the first half on Peyton Woodring's 39-yard field goal.

After Georgia's defense forced a three-and-out to open the second half, the Bulldog offense went 74 yards in five plays and took a 17-10 lead on Stockton's 22-yard touchdown pass to Noah Thomas. Earlier in the drive, on third-and-5 at the UGA 31, Stockton hit Branch down the middle for a 42-yard gain.

The Gators tied the game on the ensuing drive, scoring on a 2-yard Jadan Baugh run with 3:37 to play in the third quarter. Florida took a 20-17 lead with 14:52 left in the game on a 54-yard Smack field goal.

Midway through the fourth, Florida had the ball at the Georgia 18 and went for it on fourth-and-1. The Bulldogs' Raylen Wilson and Elijah Griffin stopped the run short of the first down, and the offense took the field down three with 7:54 remaining.

Georgia made the most of the stop, regaining the lead, 24-20, on Bowens' touchdown run up the middle. Stockton and Branch connected for completions of 18 and 13 yards on the drive. The Bulldog defense stopped the Gators again on fourth down on the next drive, with defensive back Ellis Robinson IV breaking up a pass on fourth-and-4 at the Florida 31 with 3:13 to play. Georgia was then able to run out the clock and secure the win.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Our kids were very resilient. Another night in the SEC. I don't know what else is going on around the country, but when you play in this league, every game comes down to the last few possessions. I thought we managed that well. Played the game, obviously in the fourth, had fourth downs where we were able to get a stop. That made the difference in the game."

Chauncey Bowens ran for a 36-yard TD to put Georgia ahead late.

- Against Georgia, Florida was facing its fifth top-10 opponent, and fourth in the top five, through eight games. Things won't get any easier for the Gators, who still have three games against teams in the top 15. Georgia, meanwhile, has played three games against ranked teams, and still has No. 20 Texas at Sanford Stadium on Nov. 15 and No. 8 Georgia Tech at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Nov. 28, among its final four regular-season games.
- Wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a career-high 10 catches for 112 yards. It was the USC transfer's first 100-yard game with the Bulldogs and the second of his college career. His brother Zion, a safety, had six tackles.
- Linebacker CJ Allen paced the defense with a career-high 13 tackles, and linebacker Raylen Wilson had eight, including the key fourth-and-1 stop on the UGA 18 (along with defensive lineman Elijah Griffin) in the fourth quarter. Twelve Bulldogs had at least two tackles.
- The quintet of Monroe Freeling, Micah Morris, Drew Bobo, Dontrell Glover and Earnest Greene III started on the offensive line for the third time this season. Due to injuries, Georgia has had to use six different starting fives on the line this season.
- The captains for the game were quarterback Gunner Stockton, wide receiver Dillon Bell, linebacker Raylen Wilson and defensive lineman Jordan Hall. Florida won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 5 Georgia 41, Mississippi State 21

Nov. 8, 2025 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team used a dominant second quarter to pull ahead of Mississippi State and then rolled to a 41-21 win Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 53,017 at Davis Wade Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN. Quarterback Gunner Stockton and running back Nate Frazier led an explosive day for the offense, which produced a season-high 567 yards.

Down 7-3 after the opening quarter, Georgia scored 21 straight points in the second to take control and earn its sixth straight win over MSU. It was the 900th win in program history.

Stockton was 18 of 29 passing for 264 yards and the three touchdowns; Frazier needed just 12 carries to reach 181 yards, highlighted by a 59-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and a 33-yarder in the fourth. The Bulldogs as a team piled up 303 yards on the ground.

Safety KJ Bolden led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles, defensive back Joenel Aguero added seven, and linebackers Raylen Wilson and CJ Allen had six each; Wilson also had 1.5 sacks.

State got the ball first and took a 7-0 lead on quarterback Kamario Taylor's 4-yard touchdown run. Georgia got on the scoreboard on the ensuing drive with Peyton Woodring's 49-yard field goal; Stockton and wideout London Humphreys connected on a 36-yard pass to set up the field goal.

Georgia drove all the way down to the State 2-yard line on its next possession, but came up empty after Dillon Bell was stripped and MSU recovered. Georgia got the ball back a few plays later when linebacker Quintavius Johnson knocked the ball out of quarterback Blake Shapen's hands and Bolden recovered the fumble at the State 27. Running back Chauncey Bowens scored on a 4-yard rush to put Georgia ahead 10-7 with 14:04 left in the half.

The Bulldogs went up 17-7 when Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for an 8-yard touchdown with 5:09 on the clock. Earlier in the drive, Delp hauled in a 29-yard pass to the State 40. Georgia got a defensive stop on fourth-and-5 at the UGA 23 to get the ball back with 2:25 left in the half. The Bulldogs took a 24-7 lead with 11 seconds left on Stockton's screen pass to the left that Zachariah Branch ran in for a 19-yard touchdown.

Georgia got the ball to start the second half and quickly added to its lead. On second-and-7 at the UGA 41, Frazier got free on the right side and outran everyone for a career-long 59-yard touchdown, making it 31-7. The long run put Frazier over 100 yards in a game for the first time this season and the second time in the sophomore's career.

On UGA's next drive, Stockton found Noah Thomas near the 50 and the receiver did the rest, scoring a 64-yard touchdown to push the Bulldog lead to 38-7 with 9:58 to play in the third. Georgia's final points came on a 46-yard Woodring field goal early in the fourth quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We had good leadership this week. Our players believe in the way we practice, and that conditioning level was huge today. It was hot. It was way hotter than we expected. ... I thought we were well conditioned. And we ran the ball and we stopped the run, so that was two big things. I'm proud of our guys."

Nate Frazier ran for a career-high 181 yards against MSU.

Worth Noting…

- The victory was the 900th all-time for Georgia, which is one of nine FBS programs to ever reach the milestone. The Bulldogs' all-time record is 900-433-54.
- Sophomore running back Nate Frazier ran the ball 12 times for a career-high 181 yards and a touchdown. His TD run in the third quarter was a career-long rush of 59 yards — and he added a 33-yard run in the fourth despite losing his right shoe near the line of scrimmage.
- Georgia and MSU traded fumbles in the first quarter, but it was Georgia that made the most of its takeaway. State forced and recovered its fumble at its 2 line to kill a UGA threat, and Georgia got the ball back soon after when linebacker Quintavius Johnson knocked the ball loose and safety KJ Bolden recovered at the State 27. A few plays later, Georgia took the lead on a 4-yard Chauncey Bowens TD run.
- Georgia came into the game with eight sacks through its first eight games. At MSU, the Bulldogs got three. Linebacker Raylen Wilson had 1.5 sacks, and the rest were half-sacks split among Johnson, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive linemen Christen Miller.
- The captains for Georgia were wide receiver Zachariah Branch, offensive lineman Monroe Freeling, cornerback Daylen Everette and linebacker CJ Allen. Mississippi State won the toss and received the opening kickoff.

No. 5 Georgia 35, No. 10 Texas 10

Nov. 15, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team played to win again and again against No. 10 Texas on Saturday night at Sanford Stadium. The Bulldogs were aggressive on fourth down, even in their territory, and they even tried and converted a surprise onside kick after scoring early in the fourth quarter. The sellout crowd of 93.033, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw that aggression pay off in a 35-10 win.

Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton tied a career high with four touchdown passes, wide receiver Noah Thomas caught two of them, and the Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first two drives to go ahead 14-3, and then finished strong with three more in the fourth quarter.

Stockton, who also ran for a touchdown, finished 24 of 29 passing for 229 yards, and Georgia out-gained Texas 357-274. Texas quarterback Arch Manning was held to 251 yards, with a touchdown and an interception, on 27-for-43 passing; he was also sacked three times. Georgia's defense held Texas to 23 yards rushing on 17 attempts. Linebacker Chris Cole led the defense with seven tackles, including one of UGA's seven tackles for loss.

Texas got the ball to start the game, and took a 3-0 lead on a 33-yard Mason Shipley field goal. Georgia answered with its own good drive, and it ended with Stockton throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Noah Thomas for a 7-3 Bulldog lead. The ending of Georgia's second drive was the same as the first, with Stockton hitting Thomas in the end zone, this time from the 4, to make it 14-3 Bulldogs.

In the third quarter, Texas' defense picked off a Stockton pass at the Bulldog 36-yard line, and the Longhorns later turned the turnover into a touchdown. Manning hit Ryan Wingo for a 7-yard score with 5:27 to go in the third quarter, cutting Georgia's lead to 14-10. It was the first score for either team since the Bulldogs' touchdown with 12:49 to go in the first half, a span of 11 drives.

Georgia made it two scoring drives in a row by getting aggressive. After converting a fourth-and-1 on its own 36 with a pass from Stockton to running back Chauncey Bowens for 10 yards, Georgia drove down to the UT 30. On first down, Stockton threw over the top to London Humpreys for a 30-yard score and a 21-10 lead with 14:20 to play in the game.

Georgia's aggressiveness continued on the kickoff, with the Bulldogs converting an onside kick that running back Cash Jones recovered at the UGA 47. It was Georgia's first successful onside kick since 2013, and it led to a touchdown. The Bulldogs went 53 yards in nine plays, taking a 28-10 lead with 8:53 to go on Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the night. This one, a 6-yarder, went to tight end Lawson Luckie on the right side of the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 35-10 with 4:43 to play on Stockton's four-yard rush for a touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Our offense, it's like a big, strong anaconda just squeezing you. You get squeezed, and you finally catch a little air, and then they're back trying to suffocate you (after the onside kick). So it was a big momentum play, and it would have been, every one of y'all would have thought I was an idiot if it didn't work. So that's okay, too, that's part of football."

Noah Thomas caught two touchdown passes against Texas.

- The Bulldogs, who beat the Longhorns twice in 2024, once in Austin and again in the SEC Championship Game, had never hosted Texas in Athens before Saturday. Their only in-state meeting before last season was in Atlanta in 1957. Saturday's win evened the all-time series at 4-4.
- Georgia's defense sacked Arch Manning three times and had seven tackles for loss. Defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. had a sack and 1.5 TFLs; linebackers Quintavius Johnson and Zayden Walker each had a sack. Safety KJ Bolden had Georgia's only takeaway with an interception in the second quarter.
- The Bulldogs improved to 9-0 against top-10 teams under Kirby Smart, and are now 55-5 at home overall. Georgia finished its SEC schedule 7-1 despite falling behind in seven of the eight games.
- In his last two games against top-10 teams, against then-No. 5 Ole Miss on Oct. 18 and Saturday against Texas, quarterback Gunner Stockton has thrown four touchdown passes and run for a score in each. In the two games he's a combined 50 of 60 passing for 518 yards.
- Wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a busy game, catching six passes for 41 yards, returning three punts for 30 yards, and returning two kickoffs for 63 yards.
- Three Bulldogs caught TD passes: Noah Thomas (2), London Humphreys and Lawson Luckie.
- The captains for the Bulldogs were wide receiver Dillon Bell, center Drew Bobo, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 4 Georgia 35, Charlotte 3

Nov. 22, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fourth-ranked Georgia football team cruised to a 35-3 win over Charlotte on Saturday in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on SEC Network. On Senior Day, it was a freshman running back, Bo Walker, who had a breakout game, scoring the first three touchdowns of his career.

In the first meeting between the Bulldogs and 49ers, Georgia took control early, scoring on a pair of Nate Frazier rushing touchdowns in the first quarter. By halftime, after a pair of Walker touchdown runs in the second, the lead was 28-3. Georgia out-gained the 49ers 449-169, with 30 first downs to Charlotte's seven.

Bulldog quarterback Gunner Stockton played a little more than a half, finishing 17 of 21 for 196 yards. Backup Ryan Puglisi took over midway through the third quarter and was 7 of 11 passing for 49 yards.

Georgia took a 7-0 lead on its second possession of the game, driving 60 yards in nine plays and scoring on a 2-yard Frazier run. The touchdown was set up by a 29-yard completion from Stockton to tight end Lawson Luckie down to the 2-yard line.

On Georgia's next possession, a 17-yard completion to wideout Zachariah Branch got things going. On fourth-and-1 at the 49er 34, Stockton dove for the first down, and it was Frazier that again found the end zone, rushing the ball in from the 7 to make it 14-0.

The Bulldogs were already going to their bench early in the second quarter, and Walker, a reserve with 13 carries all season heading into the game, put Georgia up 21-0 with 11:29 left in the half. Walker ran the ball in from the 15 for his first career touchdown. His second came soon after.

Charlotte got a first down on the ensuing drive, its first of the game, but the drive didn't last long. That's because three plays later, Georgia cornerback Ellis Robinson IV picked off a Grayson Loftis pass at the Bulldog 38. It was the redshirt freshman's team-high third interception of the season.

Georgia once again moved the ball through and past the 49er defense, and once again it was Walker doing the scoring. Two plays after Stockton hit Branch for a 19-yard gain to the Charlotte 21, Walker ran the ball in from the 12 to push the Bulldog lead to 28-0 with 3:27 left in the half.

The 49ers made their first big play on defense late in the half, intercepting a Stockton pass with 38 seconds to go. Liam Boyd kicked a 42-yard field goal as time expired to make it 28-3 at the half.

In the third quarter, Stockton hit wide receiver Noah Thomas for a 38-yard gain down to the 49er 11, and Walker later made it 35-3 with a 3-yard touchdown run. Walker finished the game with nine carries for 47 yards, as well as the first two receptions of his career.

In the fourth, the 49ers were threatening inside the Bulldog 20, whenfreshman safety Daniel Okonkwo pulled in the first interception of his career in the end zone to give the ball back to the offense with 5:59 remaining. Georgia then ran out the clock to close out the win.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"(Bo Walker) is a young kid who's a good back. We got to watch him play up at Rabun Gap his senior year and we thought he was a really good player, and he's gotten better and better. ... He has great vision, he's low to the ground, he's really hard to tackle. I love his spirit because he smiles every day at practice and he cuts up."

Bo Walker scored three touchdowns against the 49ers.

- It was the Bulldogs' 10th win of the season, marking the eighth time in head coach Kirby Smart's 10 seasons at the helm that Georgia has reached double-digit victories. Georgia's senior class improved to 49-5 overall and 25-1 on Dooley Field.
- Through Georgia's first 10 games, freshman running back Bo Walker had 13 carries for 52 yards. Against the 49ers, he ran nine times for 48 yards and scored the first three touchdowns of his career. He found the end zone on runs of 15, 12 and 3 yards. Georgia's other two scores were also on the ground, with running back Nate Frazier scoring from the 2 and 7 to put the Bulldogs up 14-0 in the first quarter.
- Receivers Noah Thomas and Zachariah Branch led the way in the passing game with four catches each. Branch is up to 63 receptions for the season, tying him with former star tight end Brock Bowers (2022) for second most in a season in program history. Brice Hunter had 76 catches in 1993.
- Georgia's defense had eight sacks in the first eight games, and it now has eight over the last three. The Bulldogs got three sacks against Mississippi State and Texas and two more against Charlotte.
- Redshirt senior running back Cash Jones made his first career start. And on Georgia's first offensive play, he had a 15-yard reception. Also making their first starts were redshirt freshman center Malachi Toliver and sophomore linebacker Chris Cole.
- The captains for the game were Jones, offensive lineman Micah Morris, safety KJ Bolden and defensive lineman Christen Miller. Charlotte won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 4 Georgia 16, No. 23 Georgia Tech 9

Nov. 28, 2025 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The fourth-ranked Georgia football team never got much going offensively Friday against No. 23 Georgia Tech, but the Bulldogs in all phases of the game did enough to earn the team its record eighth straight win over the Yellow Jackets, 16-9, in front of a crowd of 73,728 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national television audience on ABC.

Georgia had seven-game win streaks against its rivals a couple of times over the years, but Friday's grind-it-out win made it eight in a row for the first time in a series that began back in 1893. The game came down to the final play, when the Bulldog defense stopped a Hail Mary pass into the end zone.

The Bulldogs trailed 3-0 after the opening quarter before scoring 13 unanswered in the second to take the lead for good. Wide receiver Zachariah Branch scored the game's only touchdown on a 7-yard reception in the second. Bulldog kicker Peyton Woodring connected on all three of his field-goal attempts.

Georgia's ground game did much of the work for the offense, rushing for 190 of the Bulldogs' 260 yards. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was held to 11 of 21 passing for 70 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Nate Frazier led the running backs with 108 yards on 16 carries. Georgia's defense held Tech to 250 yards, including 69 yards rushing on 23 attempts.

Yellow Jackets linebacker Tah'j Butler made the game's first big play, intercepting a Stockton pass near midfield and returning it to the Bulldog 37-yard line. Tech later got a 30-yard Aidan Birr field goal for a 3-0 lead. Georgia answered with a 22-yard Woodring field goal, tying the game 3-3 with 9:42 left in the first half.

A defensive stop and a shanked punt by Tech gave the Bulldogs the ball back at their 45 with 8:25 on the clock. And Georgia made the most of the good field position, driving the 55 yards in nine plays and taking a 10-3 lead with 4:35 to go in the half on Stockton's 7-yard touchdown pass to Branch. The pair connected a few plays earlier for a 24-yard gain to the 12.

Georgia's defense forced another three-and-out on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldogs got the ball back at their 33 with 3:15 on the clock. They couldn't get back into the end zone, but Woodring pushed the lead to 13-3 with a 30-yard field goal with a second left in the half. Birr's 44-yarder cutting Georgia's lead to 13-6 with 4:33 left in the third.

The Bulldogs later pushed their lead to 16-6 with 14:10 remaining on Woodring's 50-yard field goal. Birr's 41-yard field goal made it 16-9 with 3:30 remaining. Tech got the ball back with 13 seconds left, needing a touchdown to force overtime. The Yellow Jackets got the ball to the Bulldog 44 with one second remaining, enough time for a Hail Mary pass. Georgia knocked it down in the end zone to end the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"That was a physical, physical, tough game. Our guys were very resilient during it and found ways. Thought the defense really stepped up today. (Glenn) Schumann and the staff did an incredible job putting plans together. We did what we had to do offensively. Got to continue to get better. But really proud of this team."

Georgia made it eight wins in a row against Georgia Tech.

- Georgia and Tech played for the first time in 1893. Since then, the Bulldogs had won seven in a row in the series multiple times, but Friday's win made it eight straight for UGA for the first time, matching Tech's longest run (1949-56). Georgia now leads the all-time series 73-39-5.
- Kicker Peyton Woodring has been critical for the Bulldogs all season, and Friday was no exception. He connected on field goals of 22, 30 and 50 yards. The junior has made 15 of 16 attempts this season, including all three attempts from 50 or longer.
- Georgia's defense held Tech to a season-low 9 points. Safety KJ Bolden led the way with nine tackles and linebacker Quintavius Johnson had six. Cornerback Ellis Robinson IV intercepted a pass inside the UGA 5-yard line in the third quarter, giving him a team-high four this season.
- While the UGA passing game was held to 70 yards, Georgia got 190 on the ground. Nate Frazier had 108 yards on 16 carries for his third career 100-yard game, Josh McCray ran 13 times for 43 yards, and quarterback Gunner Stockton added 42 on 15 attempts.
- With Texas A&M's loss to Texas, the Bulldogs officially earned a fifth straight trip to the SEC Championship Game, tying Florida (1992-96) for the most consecutive appearances all-time. This will be Georgia's 13th appearance in the title game.
- The captains for the quarterback Gunner Stockton, linebacker Quintavius Johnson, tight end Oscar Delp and linebacker Raylen Wilson. The Bulldogs won the toss and deferred to the second half.

2025 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

No. 3 Georgia 28, No. 9 Alabama 7

Dec. 6, 2025 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The third-ranked Georgia football team captured its second straight SEC championship and got a bit of revenge against No. 9 Alabama on Saturday night in front of a crowd of 77,247 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national television audience on ABC. After losing 24-21 to the Crimson Tide in Athens back in September, the Bulldogs dominated for long stretches of their 28-7 win to clinch the program's 16th SEC crown.

Georgia out-gained Alabama 297-209, and Bulldog quarterback Gunner Stockton, the game's Most Valuable Player, finished 20 of 26 for 156 yards and three touchdowns. Tide QB Ty Simpson was held to 212 yards on 19 of 39 passing, was sacked three times for minus-23 yards, and threw an interception. On the ground, Georgia ran 41 times for 141 yards; the Bulldog defense held the Tide to minus-3 yards on 16 attempts.

It was Georgia's special teams that made the game's first huge play. Midway through the opening quarter, with Alabama's Blake Doud punting on fourth down from the Tide 21-yard line, the Bulldogs' Cole Speer got free into the backfield and blocked the punt. Georgia's Justin Williams recovered the ball at the Alabama 25 and returned it four yards to the 21.

Georgia's offense soon got into the end zone. On first down, Nate Frazier ran 14 yards to the 7. Three plays later, Stockton rolled to his right and hit running back Roderick Robinson II for an easy touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 4:36 to go in the first quarter. It was Robinson's first touchdown of the season and first since 2023.

It was Georgia's defense that made the next big play, with cornerback Daylen Everette intercepting a Simpson pass around the UGA 27. Safety KJ Bolden tipped the pass just ahead of Everette, and the Bulldog offense was soon back on the field late in the first quarter.

Georgia pushed its lead to 14-0 with 8:43 to play in the half when the Bulldogs capped a 14-play drive with a 5-yard touchdown from Stockton to wideout Dillon Bell. A few plays earlier, Bell had a 19-yard reception to move the ball to the 4.

A sack by JaCorey Thomas on third-and-9 at the Tide 26 on the opening drive of the second half forced a punt, and Zachariah Branch's 24-yard punt return gave the Bulldogs great field position at the Tide 40. Georgia made the most of the return and the field position, taking a 21-0 lead with 10:47 to go in the third quarter on Frazier's 9-yard.

Georgia led 21-0 heading into the fourth quarter, with Alabama just passing 100 yards of offense on the final play of the third. Alabama finally got into the end zone with 12:33 to play in the game, scoring on a 23-yard pass from Simpson to receiver Germie Bernard.

The Bulldogs' final points came when Stockton hit Branch for a 13-yard touchdown and a 28-7 lead with 6:51 to go. Georgia again stopped the Tide on fourth down, with 3:22 remaining at the Bulldog 18. The Bulldogs then took over, and a Chauncey Bowens 19-yard rush gave room to run the clock out.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"All the credit goes to the players who have had a very long, tough, hard season. The kids in our program buy into hard. I appreciate their toughness in the way they do things; that pays off in the long run. To win back-to-back SEC championships, it's every kid in this footprint's dream, and an honor to be at Georgia and to be the head coach here and win games like this."

Zachariah Branch led the Georgia offense with five receptions for 53 yards and a touchdown.

Worth Noting…

- Safety JaCorey Thomas led the defense with six stops, including a sack, while linebackers CJ Allen, Raylen Wilson and Chris Cole had five each. Georgia held Alabama to minus-3 rushing yards, had three sacks, and shut out the Crimson Tide for the first three quarters. It was the first time in the history of the SEC Championship Game that a team had been shut out through the first three quarters.
- The Bulldogs were playing in their fifth straight SEC title game, tying Florida (1992-96) for the most ever, and earned back-to-back SEC titles for the first time since winning three in a row from 1980-82. It was also Georgia's third SEC title in the past four seasons.
- Georgia rushed for 141 yards on 41 attempts, led by Nate Frazier's 13 carries for 52 yards and a 9-yard touchdown. Alabama had minus-3 yards on 16 attempts. This was the 21st consecutive SEC Championship Game in which the team with the most rushing yardage won.
- Cole Speer's blocked punt in the first quarter gave Georgia the ball at the Tide 21 and set up the Bulldogs' first score. It was the first blocked punt in the championship game since 2016.
- Cornerback Daylen Everette's interception in the first quarter was his first INT of the season and fourth of his career. It was Georgia's ninth interception of the season.
- Roderick Robinson's touchdown catch was the first of his career and his first TD of any kind since 2023.
- The captains for the game were linebacker CJ Allen, wide receiver Zachariah Branch, offensive lineman Earnest Greene III and defensive lineman Christen Miller. Alabama won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

2026 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL - CFP QUARTERFINAL

No. 6 Ole Miss 39, No. 3 Georgia 34

Jan. 1, 2026 • Caesars Superdome • New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS — The No. 3-ranked Georgia football team's season came to an end late Thursday night in a 39-34 loss to No. 6 Ole Miss in the quarterfinals of the College Football Playoff. In front of a crowd of 68,371 in the Caesars Superdome and a national television audience on ESPN, Rebel Lucas Carneiro kicked a 47-yard field goal with six seconds left to break a 34-34 tie in a dramatic Allstate Sugar Bowl.

After Ole Miss went ahead, Georgia tried a backward pass across the field on the ensuing kickoff and the ball went out of bounds off an end zone pylon, resulting in a safety. Down 34-24 in the fourth quarter, Georgia came back with 10 straight points to tie the game, but came up short at the end.

Ole Miss went ahead 6-0 in the first quarter on two long Carneiro field goals, one from 55 yards and next from 56. Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton then put the Bulldogs ahead on a 12-yard touchdown run with 13:37 left in the half.

The Rebels answered with their first touchdown on the next drive, taking a 12-7 lead on quarterback Trinidad Chambliss' 3-yard pass to Luke Hasz. Georgia regained the lead on the next drive when Stockton ran the ball in from the 1 for a 14-12 lead with 4:05 to go in the half.

The Bulldog defense forced the game's first turnover on Ole Miss' next drive and turned it into points. Defensive lineman Elijah Griffin stripped running back Kewan Lacy of the ball, and cornerback Daylen Everette scooped it up and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown, pushing Georgia's lead to 21-12 with 2:34 left in the second.

Ole Miss cut the Georgia lead to 21-19 on Lacy's 7-yard touchdown run with 4:51 to go in the third. Facing a fourth-and-5 at its 30 on its next drive, Georgia executed a fake punt for a first down. Backup wide receiver Landon Roldan threw a pass to tight end Lawson Luckie for a 16-yard gain. Two plays later, Stockton hit Colbie Young for 36 yards to the Ole Miss 23. The Bulldogs had to settle for a Woodring 37-yard field goal, pushing the lead to 24-19 with 30 seconds left in the third.

With 11:29 to go in the game, Ole Miss took a 27-24 lead on Lacy's 5-yard touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. Ole Miss later scored on a 13-yard pass from Chambliss to Harrison Wallace III, pushing its lead to 34-24 with 9:02 remaining.

Georgia cut the lead to 34-31 when Stockton found Zachariah Branch in the left corner of the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown with 7:03 left. The Bulldog defense then forced a quick three-and-out, and the offense took over at the Georgia 36 with 5:36 to play. The Bulldogs moved the ball to their 48, where they faced a fourth-and-9 with 3:13 to play. Stockton hit Branch for a 16-yard gain to keep the drive going, and later had a first down at the 8. Unable to get into the end zone, Georgia's Woodring tied the game 34-34 with a 24-yard field goal with 55 seconds remaining.

Ole Miss was able to move the ball down into field-goal range and pulled ahead for good on Carneiro's 47-yarder.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was a back-and-forth game. It was an incredible college football game. It's what the CFP was built for, to have battles like that. And that was basically every conference game we had this year. I felt like every game was like that one: back, forth, back, forth. Plays being made all over."

Cornerback Daylen Everette scored on a 47-yard fumble return.

Worth Noting…

- Junior wide receiver Zachariah Branch set a new single-season record for receptions with 81 after catching eight passes for 67 yards and a touchdown against Ole Miss. Branch broke the record of 76 set by Brice Hunter in 1993.
- Senior cornerback Daylen Everette had a big final game for the Bulldogs, making nine tackles and scoring a 47-yard touchdown after recovering a fumble in the second quarter. Everette's score put Georgia up 21-12 shortly before halftime. Sophomore safety KJ Bolden led the Bulldogs with 10 tackles.
- Junior kicker Peyton Woodring connected on kicks of 37 and 24 yards but missed a 55-yard try. He finished his season 17 of 19 and is 59 of 67 for his career.
- Senior wide receiver Colbie Young and freshman tight end Ethan Barbour returned after missing multiple games with injuries. Young finished with three catches for 22 yards, giving him 26 receptions for 358 yards (second on the team) despite missing six games.
- The captains for the game were center Drew Bobo, quarterback Gunner Stockton, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. Georgia won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.
