MEDIA INFORMATION

The Georgia Southern Athletic Media Relations office appreciates your interest in Georgia Southern baseball and looks forward to assisting you during the 2013 season. Our offices are located on the lower level of Hanner Fieldhouse on Herty Drive.

To better assist in your coverage, please take time to read the information found on the ensuing pages in this media guide. These policies have been established in consideration of the media's needs, as well as those of GSU's student-athletes and coaches to create a positive work environment for all concerned.

If additional information or assistance is required, please contact Barrett Gilham, Director of Athletic Media Relations, or any other member of the Georgia Southern Athletic Media Relations staff. We appreciate your coverage of Georgia Southern baseball and look forward to working with you this season.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media and photo credentials for Georgia Southern's 2013 home games should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. Requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working media only. Send credential requests to Director of Media Relations Barrett Gilham.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits, sent to the visiting school's media relations director for distribution or left at the will call window.

UNAUTHORIZED CREDENTIAL USE

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

PRESS BOX

The press box inside J.I. Clements Stadium is located above the concourse and can be accessed by an elevator located on the concourse or stairs on either side of the press box. Game notes and programs are provided prior to the game inside the pressbox. Complimentary wireless internet is available in the working media area.

RADIO BROADCASTS

The Georgia Southern Radio Network will once again carry every home and road regular season game as well as any postseason contests on the Boomer 103.7 FM.

VISITING RADIO BROADCASTS

A visiting radio line is provided at J.I. Clements Stadium press-box on a reciprocal basis. Otherwise, a fee of $50 is required before broadcast origination. Checks should be made payable to Georgia Southern Athletics.

INTERNET

Once again, every Georgia Southern baseball game can be heard via the www.gseagles.com website. The website will also carry a free video stream of all home games. Information (rosters, statistics, game notes, latest news, bios, etc.) can also be found on the website. Media members are encouraged to contact Barrett Gilham with any questions.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Georgia Southern Head Coach Rodney Hennon and requested players will be available at the third base gate near the home team's bullpen approximately 10 minutes following the game. Georgia Southern's locker room will remain closed following games.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Head Coach Rodney Hennon and members of the baseball team are available after practice on most days. The practice schedule will change week to week depending on the number of game dates that week but the team is normally off on Monday. Please contact a Georgia Southern Athletic Media Relations members 24 hours in advance with any requests.

WEB-BASED MEDIA

Web-based media from sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized news-gathering organizations are eligible for media credentials. Online media with an emphasis on the recruitment of potential student-athletes (that meet the above qualification) can request one (1) credential for the purpose of writing a game/event recap.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling. Nor will credentials be granted to "fan-submitted" or un-edited sites that are not affiliated with an established news-gathering organization.

PRESIDENT/ADDR. BROOKS A. KEEL*UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Augusta State, 1978

Joined GSU: January 2010

Brooks A. Keel, Ph.D. began his tenure as the 12th President of Georgia Southern University on January 4, 2010. The Augusta, Ga. native, a self-described product of the education system of Georgia, returns to his home state to lead Georgia Southern University with significant experience in the top ranks of academia, research, and economic development.

Prior to his arrival at Georgia Southern, Keel served as the Vice Chancellor for Research and Economic Development, and professor of Biological Sciences at Louisiana State University (LSU) in Baton Rouge since 2006. From 2002 to 2006, he was a professor in the Department of Biomedical Sciences and Associate Vice President for Research at Florida State University in Tallahassee, FL.

Keel's professional career began in 1985 at the University of Kansas School of Medicine-Wichita, where he served in a variety of positions including the Daniel K. Roberts Distinguished Professor in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology (1995-2001), President of the Women's Research Institute (1993-2001), and Director of Reproductive Medicine Laboratories (1994-2002).

Since joining Georgia Southern, Keel has been focused on expanding undergraduate and graduate learning opportunities whether through research, creative or community-based educational experiences. In addition, he has been working to increase Georgia Southern's research and economic development opportunities. The University is already beginning to attract interest through its Renewable Energy Lab and Public Health Core Research Lab.

Keel earned his Ph.D. in reproductive endocrinology from the Medical College of Georgia in 1982 and a Bachelor of Science in biology and chemistry from Augusta College (now Augusta State University) in 1978. He has completed postdoctoral work at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Houston and at the University of South Dakota School of Medicine, Vermillion.

He is a member of the Society for the Study of Reproduction, the American Society for Reproductive Medicine and the Society for Gynecologic Investigation, among others. Keel has served on numerous boards related to his discipline, including the American Board of Bioanalysis, the American Association of Bioanalysts Board of Registry, the Oak Ridge Associated Universities, the Southeastern Universities Research Association and the Executive Committee of the Council on Research Policy and Graduate Education of APLU.

Keel is married to Dr. Tammie Schalue, an accomplished scientist and scholar. Dr. Schalue currently serves as the director of laboratories at the Heartland Center for Reproductive Medicine and the associate administrator for the American Association of Bioanalysts (AAB). Both are certified SCUBA diving instructors.

TOM KLEINLEIN*DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Wake Forest, 1998

Joined GSU: November 2012

Tom Kleinlein, who was named Georgia Southern's Director of Athletics on November 12, 2012, has already had an eventful first year under his belt. Since arriving, Kleinlein has been instrumental in the Eagles joining the Sun Belt and has announced new partnerships with adidas Nelligan Sports Marketing and SIDEARM Sports and added a new sport in women's rifle. He also oversees the Eagles' 16 sports, including four Southern Conference Championship teams from a year ago, and is responsible for the operation of the entire athletic department.

The new five-year apparel agreement with adidas will provide Georgia Southern game uniforms, practice gear along with equipment such as footballs. The Nelligan Sports Marketing partnership will allow for growth in revenue streams through corporate sponsorship opportunities and programming. The SIDEARM Sports agreement will provide the department with a new gseagles.com with an all-access section along with a full suite of mobile features for fans.

Kleinlein also has hired three new head coaches during his first semester on campus. Mark Byington was named Head Coach of the men's basketball program on April 1st. He also promoted Brian Dunleavy to Head Coach of the women's soccer team after serving as an assistant coach on the 2012 Southern Conference Tournament Championship team. His latest hire, Dustin Wood, was tabbed to lead the volleyball program on July 2nd.

Georgia Southern student-athletes continued their success in the classroom under Kleinlein's watch. In all 206 student-athletes posted a 3.0 better during the fall 2012 semester and 194 posted a 3.0 in the spring 2013 semester. The multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores for nine Eagles team improved during the latest reporting period and all teams surpassed the 900 multi-year threshold.

Kleinlein came to Georgia Southern from Kent State where he became Deputy Athletic Director in September 2011 after serving as the Golden Flashes' Executive Associate Athletic Director since 2010. Kleinlein served as the primary advisor and liaison to the director of athletics while overseeing the strategic planning and operations for Kent State's Intercollegiate Athletics Department.

He managed Kent State's revenue generation component and coordinated the department's efforts with Institutional Advancement, Enrollment Management and Student Affairs and served as the direct sport supervisor for football along with men's and women's basketball while directing many of the day-to-day operations of the department.

Prior to his arrival in Kent, Kleinlein was the Associate Athletic Director for Football at Arizona State University from 2005-10. Before his stint in Tempe, Kleinlein served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at Rutgers University in Piscataway, N.J. from 2003-05.

Prior to that, he spent nearly four-and-a-half years at his alma mater, joining the Wake Forest University staff in 1998 as an academic counselor, before being named Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2002.

A four-year letter winner on the Demon Deacons' offensive line from 1989-92, Kleinlein earned a bachelor's degree from Wake Forest (1998), and a master's in education from Arizona State (2008).

Originally from Inwood, N.Y., Kleinlein and his wife, Tara, have two sons – Austin and Mason.

COACHES & STAFF

RODNEY HENNON

HEAD COACH

Western Carolina, 1993

Joined GSU: June 1999

2000 SOCON COACH OF THE YEAR

2001 SOCON COACH OF THE YEAR

Rodney Hennon, who has spent his entire 20 year coaching and playing career in the Southern Conference, will lead the Georgia Southern baseball program into its 23rd and final season in the conference. The Eagles announced on March 27, 2013 that they would join the Sun Belt Conference in the 2014-15 season.

Hennon enters his 15th season as Head Coach of Georgia Southern. Under Hennon's guidance, the Eagles have won at least 30 games in all but one season. Hennon joins legendary coach Jack Stallings as the only coaches in Georgia Southern history to record more than 10 straight 30-win seasons.

Since taking over the storied program before the 2000 season, Hennon has accumulated a 500-342 record with a .594 winning percentage. In all during his 16 seasons as a head coach at Western Carolina and Georgia Southern he has amassed a career record of 581-380-1. He ranks 44th among active Division I head coaches with a .604 career winning percentage.

During the past five years, Hennon has led the Eagles to three SoCon Tournament finals appearances and has won two SoCon Tournament titles in 2009 and 2011. He also led the Eagles to a tournament titles in 2000 and 2002 and regular season championships in 2000 and 2001.

Hennon surpassed legendary coach J.I. Clements for second place on the school's all-time wins list during the 2008 season when he picked up his 321st Georgia Southern win in a 17-13 victory over The Citadel on May 2nd. Hennon most recently won his 500th career game at the College of Charleston on March 27, 2011. When he captured his 100th career victory on April 8, 2000, he reached the triple-digit milestone quicker than any other coach in league history.

During his tenure, Hennon has guided the Eagles to at least a fourth-place finish in the Southern Conference regular season 11 times, including six runner-up or championship finishes. The Eagles also advanced to the NCAA Regionals for three consecutive years from 2000-2003.

While the Eagles have continued their winning tradition on the field, Hennon has put an emphasis on success in the classroom. Academics have always been a high priority for Hennon. This fall the baseball team posted their second best academic semester in program history and had three players on the President's List, eight on the Dean's list and 19 players in total posted a 3.0 or better GPA. In 2008, David Richardson (2nd Team), Chris Shehan (3rd Team) and Brian Pierce (3rd Team) all earned CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades.

During the 2005-06 academic year, the baseball team posted the highest GPA of any men's team that year. Following the fall 2007 semester, 14 players recorded a 3.50 GPA and five scored a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Hennon has produced talent on the field as well, coaching five All-American performers and 30 major league draft picks. Victor Roache was the latest Eagle to be called an All-American after hitting a NCAA-best 30 home runs in 2011. In the past three seasons, seven Eagles have heard their name called in the MLB draft. Led by the Eagles' fifth-ever first round selection, Roache was one of four players selected in the 2012 draft. Chris Beck, Jarret Leverett and Eric Phillips were also drafted that same year.

In 2012 the Eagles bounced back after dropping 9 of 11 games early in the season to reach the Southern Conference Tournament title game for the second-straight season. Georgia Southern came up short in extra innings but posted their 13th-straight season of 30 or more wins. Chase Griffin, who finished second on the team with a .320 batting average and led the squad with 10 home runs, was named the league's Freshman of the Year, while Eric Phillips was a First Team All-Conference selection. Tyler Avera was also named to the All-Freshman team.

In 2011 Georgia Southern advanced to their second regional in three seasons after winning the Southern Conference Tournament behind a 1-0 complete game shutout by Chris Beck. The Eagles faced eventual national champion South Carolina in the opening game and scored the game's first run before falling 2-1. The Eagles were awarded with both the SoCon Pitcher of the Year in Matt Murray and the Player of the Year in Victor Roache. Roache set both the school and SoCon record with his 30 home runs.

In 2008 Georgia Southern put up staggering offensive numbers, not only program record-setting numbers but also statistics that ranked among the nation's best. The Eagles finished the year nationally ranked in various offensive categories: second in batting average (.346); second in scoring (10.3 runs per game); fourth in doubles (2.66 p/g); second in home runs (114); second in slugging percentage (.584); 13th in walks (302); 15th in stolen bases (108); 10th in sacrifice flies (37); and 36th in hit by pitches (80). The offensive juggernauts set GSU records with: 114 home runs (3rd in SoCon season 'Top 10'), six grand slams (1st SoCon), 595 runs scored (2nd SoCon), 543 RBI (2nd SoCon), 1,269 total bases (2nd SoCon) and 751 hits (5th SoCon). The 154 doubles were second most (5th SoCon), and the .346 team batting average was the highest total in the modern era (tied 5th SoCon). Georgia Southern's .584 slugging percentage was the second-highest average in the SoCon record books, and the 37 sacrifice flies tied for second-most.

One of the most impressive offensive displays - not only in Georgia Southern history but in the nation - came in mid-March 2008 at home against Columbia. The Eagles slammed a NCAA Division I record 14 home runs during a 26-8 rout of the Lions. In fact 12 different Eagles went deep, including a stretch of three straight pinch-hit home runs in the eighth inning. Two games later against the Lions, Georgia Southern pounded out another 13 extra-base hits in a 22-8 victory.

During the 2005 campaign, the Eagles put together one of the most dominating offenses in the country led by a pair of .400 hitters in Greg Dowling and James Payne. GSU posted a .331 team batting average that season which helped lead to 38 wins and a runner-up SoCon finish. Not only did that impressive batting average rank third-best in GSU history but also the fifth-highest in the nation. Southern also ranked 11th nationally in slugging percentage, 25th in scoring and home runs, 47th in stolen bases and 22nd in doubles per game.

From 2000 to 2003 Hennon guided the Eagles to three NCAA regionals, three SoCon Tournament Championship games and two regular season conference championships. In 2001 Georgia Southern won 42 games, 21 of those coming in SoCon play which led to its second-straight regular season title. The postseason saw the Eagles defeat No. 9 Georgia in the NCAA Regionals for the school's first win in the postseason since 1996.

his initial spring in 2000, Hennon led a spirited and over-achieving 19-man Eagle squad to a 38-23 record, a Southern Conference regular season and tournament championship, and the school's first NCAA Regional appearance in four years. Along with a trimmed down pitching staff of just six arms, Hennon's club set a new school record with a 23-7 league mark and won 23 of its last 33 games after finishing February and March just two games over .500 at 15-13.

Twice named Southern Conference Coach of the Year, Hennon came to Georgia Southern after two seasons (1998-99) as head coach of his alma mater Western Carolina. After accepting an offer to guide the Western Carolina program in July 1997, Hennon quickly added his own distinctive chapters to one of the winningest programs in the Southern Conference. During his inaugural campaign as head coach in 1998, Hennon led the Catamounts to a 45-15 overall record and a 20-6 SoCon mark, tying the WCU mark for most victories in a single year and ranking sixth among all NCAA Division I members in winning percentage. His players claimed both the Southern Conference's Pitcher and Player of the Year awards while seven signed professional contracts at the conclusion of the season.

In addition, the 1998 WCU squad led the nation in stolen bases with 153, which shattered a 33-year-old school record and a 16-year-old conference mark. He directed a pitching staff which also enjoyed an outstanding season, turning in a 4.01 earned run average to rank 11th nationally, while finishing ninth among all Division I institutions with 499 strikeouts.

Hennon followed up his record-setting initial season with a 36-23-1 mark, which included a third-place league standing at 18-10. The Catamounts easily distinguished themselves as the SoCon's top offensive squad with conference bests in batting average (.328), on-base percentage (.413), slugging percentage (.523), runs (502), hits (684), home runs (82) and runs batted in (445) while finishing second in triples (20) and third in stolen bases (123). Hennon guided one of the league's youngest pitching staffs to a 5.70 earned run average - rating third among all conference teams.

Prior to taking over the WCU head coaching duties, Hennon served as a full-time assistant coach for his alma mater for three seasons. As an assistant coach, Hennon helped lead the Cats to a 42-20 record, a Southern Conference title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 1997 as a member of the late Keith LeClair's staff. He joined the WCU baseball staff in 1994 as a part-time assistant after earning numerous on-field and classroom honors during his playing career from 1990 to 1993.

A Second Team All-SoCon choice in 1992, Hennon batted .367 to lead the SoCon in hits and runs scored, while sparking the Catamounts to the league regular season and tournament championship. Despite his all-tournament performance (eight hits and five RBI), WCU fell one game short of reaching the College World Series after falling to Florida State in NCAA South II Regional Championship play. A year later as a senior, Hennon earned First Team All-SoCon honors, again leading the league in hits and runs scored and helping the Catamounts to the NCAA South Regional in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. When he left WCU, he ranked first among the school's season leaders in games started and at-bats, while standing tied for 19th in runs scored and 23rd for hits.

Hennon earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from Western Carolina in 1993. In the classroom, he was a two-time GTE-CoSIDA Academic All-America choice as he posted a 3.55 grade point average during his four years of undergraduate work in WCU's College of Business. Hennon was also named to the Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll in each of his four years while competing as a student-athlete.

Hennon is married to the former Kim Estes of Fairburn, and they are the parents of three children - Walker, Keeli and Carter.

B.J. GREEN*ASSISTANT COACH

Alabama, 2002

Joined GSU: July 2009

Former Alabama pitching coach B.J. Green joined the Georgia Southern baseball staff in July 2009 and begins his fifth season with the Eagles. Green brings with him to Statesboro over 14 years of Southeastern Conference experience as both a player and coach.

Green has also helped develop five different pitchers into MLB draft talent as a member of Hennon's staff and has had over 20 pitchers taken in the MLB draft during his extensive coaching career.

2011 was a banner year for the Eagles' pitching staff. Andy Moyer and Matt Murray, who both tied for the team lead with a 2.39 ERA, were drafted in the top-15 rounds. Green helped Moyer improve from being a 50th draft pick 2010 to a 15th round selection in 2011. Moyer cut his ERA by over half and set career bests in innings pitched, hits, earned runs and batting average against.

Chris Beck tossed a complete game 1-0 shutout of Samford in the Southern Conference Tournament Championship game to cap off GSU's run through the tournament. Green helped Beck improve on a rough freshman campaign in 2011 and the sophomore ace lowered his ERA from 8.31, improved his total innings pitched by over 70, doubled his strikeout to walk ratio and dropped over .100 points off of his batting average against.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Green served as the pitching coach for seven seasons at Alabama. During his 11-year career as a player and coach, Green helped the Crimson Tide to eight NCAA tournament appearances, three SEC Tournament Championships (1999, 2002 and 2003), two Super Regional appearances, the 2006 SEC regular season title, the 2002 SEC West championship and a 1999 College World Series appearance. Individual honors include 20 draftees, five major league debuts, two first-round picks, four Freshman All-Americans and a National and SEC Freshman of the Year.

While at Alabama, Green helped mold his players into some of the best pitchers in the country. In 2006, Alabama pitchers led the SEC with a 3.51 ERA. The 2004 pitching staff finished second in the conference and eighth in the NCAA with a 3.36 ERA.

Five of his former pitchers threw for major league clubs including Lance Cormier (Arizona, Atlanta, Baltimore, Tampa Bay, Los Angeles Dodgers), Wade LeBlanc (San Diego, Miami), Tommy Hunter (Texas, Baltimore), David Robertson (New York Yankees), and Taylor Tankersley (Miami, New York Mets).

Green also has served as the Harwich Mariners pitching coach in 2003.

Before his coaching tenure, Green was a letterman for the Crimson Tide from 1998-2001. He compiled an 18-4 (.818) career record and set the UA freshman record with eight wins on the mound in 1998.

As a member of the Tide, in 1999, Green helped lead the team to a third-place College World Series appearance and a SEC Tournament Championship.

A native of Gardendale, Ala., Green is a 2002 graduate of the University of Alabama in sports fitness management.

Green is married to the former Jessica Aliffi and the two are parents of a son Tripp and a daughter Vivian.

CHRIS MOORE

ASSISTANT COACH

Western Carolina, 1999

Joined GSU: September 2012

Chris Moore joined the Georgia Southern Baseball coaching staff in September of 2012 replacing longtime assistant coach Mike Tidick. Moore is in his second season as the team's hitting coach and shares recruiting duties with Hennon and pitching coach B.J. Green.

In his first season with the Eagles, Moore helped the Eagles finish fourth in stolen bases in the Southern Conference. He also helped develop Ben Morgan, a .267 career hitter, into the team leader in batting average with a .307 mark in 2013.

A former player under Hennon at Western Carolina, Moore spent the two seasons as the hitting coach on Chris Pollard's staff at Appalachian St. before joining the Eagles. Under his direction, the Mountaineers ranked among the nation's best in a number of offensive categories including batting average, doubles, home runs, on-base percentage and slugging percentage.

In Moore's two seasons with the Mountaineers, Appalachian St. recorded 74 victories, the best two-year span in the program's history since 1985-86.

Moore joined the Mountaineers after a one-year stint as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at West Georgia University.

Prior to his stint at West Georgia, he spent four seasons at Lander University in Greenwood, S.C., including one year as recruiting coordinator and the final three as the program's head coach. In 2009, his final season at Lander, he led the squad to a national ranking.

He began his coaching career as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Davidson in 2003 and spent two seasons with the Wildcats.

Moore played collegiality for the Catamounts from 1996-99. The two-time All-American and four-time All-Southern Conference honoree capped his career by being named the 1999 SoCon Player of the Year, while setting school records for hits, doubles, RBI and assists. He was also inducted into WCU's athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

Following his collegiate career, Moore was drafted in the 11th round of the 1999 Major League Baseball Draft by the Colorado Rockies and spent four years in the Rockies' system before joining the coaching ranks. As a pro, he was named the Rockies' Minor League Player of the Month in April 2000 and a South Atlantic League All-Star that same season.

Moore and his wife, Aimee, have two children, Carter and Lillee.

JOSH McDONALD

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Georgia Southwestern, 2006

Joined GSU: August 2011

Josh McDonald enters his third season as an assistant coach with the Georgia Southern baseball program. He works primarily with the catchers and hitters, coaches first base and help coordinate the Eagle Baseball camps.

McDonald comes to Georgia Southern from Louisiana State University Eunice where he served as hitting instructor, worked with the catchers and held third base coaching responsibilities. In three seasons, the LSUE Bengals went 148-40 and captured a National Championship and a third place finish in the NJCAA Division II National Championship. In his three seasons, he coached numerous players who continued there playing careers at four year universities and several players who have been drafted by Major League Baseball clubs.

In 2011, LSUE finished the season with a 45-15 record and fell one win short of returning to the World Series. The Bengal squad finished the season batting .325 as a team.

In the 2010 season, the Bengals finished with a 52-13 record and the NJCAA Division II National Championship. The Bengal team rounded up the season with a .359 batting average along with several individual records.

In 2009, the Bengal team finished the season with a 51-12 record and a 3rd place finish at the NJCAA Division II World Series. The Bengal hitters batted .368 as a team and set numerous team records for the 2009 season.

Prior to coming to LSUE, McDonald served as an assistant coach at Georgia College and State University, a member of the Division II Peach Belt Conference. During his two seasons, McDonald served as first base coach and worked with outfielders and hitters. He was also involved in the recruiting efforts for the Bobcats. The team was 79-40 over his two seasons, including a Peach Belt Conference (PBC) Regular-Season title in 2007.

In the summer of 2008, McDonald served as an assistant coach for the New Market Rebels of the Valley League. He worked with hitters and infielders and also served as third base coach.

McDonald has also been involved with several camps in the Southeast including Vanderbilt, DeMarini Top 96, Clemson and Auburn.

McDonald, originally from Fitzgerald, GA, completed his playing career at Georgia Southwestern State University where he earned a degree in Health and Physical Education. He was a four year letterman for the Hurricanes, playing first base and was a three time All-Academic selection. He also helped lead the Hurricanes to two regional appearances in 2005 and 2006.

McDonald completed his graduate work at Georgia College and State University where he earned a Master's degree in Health and Physical Education.

McDonald is married to the former Christi Jenkins of Marietta, Ga. The two married in August of 2013.

ABOUT CLEMENTS STADIUM

One of the top college baseball stadiums in the southeast, Jack Stallings Field at J.I. Clements Stadium will serve as the Eagles' home for the ninth season since it was renovated in 2005. The 3,000 seat stadium has played host to some of the largest crowds in Georgia Southern baseball history and ranked 46th in the country for total attendance in 2013.

The stadium is named after former baseball coach, athletic business manager and athletic director J.I. Clements. Clements led the Eagles to their first national championship in 1962 and coached the baseball team from 1949-66 and again in 1968.

The groundbreaking for the newly renovated stadium took place in May of 2004 but the first game was not played until the 2005 season. #13 Georgia Tech was the opponent on Feb. 12, 2005 when the Eagles opened the gates for the first time. The Yellow Jackets won the ball game 10-6. Georgia Southern earned their first home victory on Feb. 19, 2005 against George Washington.

The field was named after former longtime head coach Jack Stallings on Feb. 19, 2005. Stallings is the winningest coach in Georgia Southern history and led the Eagles to the 1990 College World Series. Stallings also has his number 1 jersey retired on the outfield wall.

The stadium also features the Mason Clements Wall of Fame. The wall is named after Georgia Southern Athletics Hall of Fame member and former baseball player Mason Clements. The Wall of Fame honors former great baseball players and enshrines their names near the entrance to the stadium.

In addition to the playing field the players have superb facilities in the Wiggins Building and Ft. Knocks. The Wiggins Building is located above the third-base dugout and houses the coaches' offices and the Eagles' locker room. Ft. Knocks, the batting cages, are located behind the third-base bullpen down the third-base line.

The stadium also houses the Champions Room and the VIP Suite which provide fans, business and groups with a unique experience at a baseball game. The Champions Room is located on the main concourse and is available to host meetings, socials, etc. The VIP Suite is 27-seat luxury box with indoor and outdoor seating.
