Of Note

• Georgia Southern and Georgia State have met just nine times before with the Panthers leading series 6-3.

• This will be just the third Thursday night football game Clay Helton has coached as a head coach. His only Thursday game while at USC came in 2016, a 45-24 win over California at home. The Eagles lost at Louisiana last year.

• Georgia Southern is 10-7 all-time in games played on Thursdays, 5-2 at home and 5-5 on the road. GS is 7-6 all-time on short rest (less than seven days). As a head coach Clay Helton's teams are 4-4 on short rest.

• Former Eagle head coach Paul Johnson will be honored at the end of the first quarter for his upcoming College Football Hall of Fame indiction. He will be the third Eagle to enter The Hall, joining Tracy Ham (c/o 2007) and Adrian Peterson (c/o 2017). In five years, Johnson led the Eagles to a 62-10 record and Division I-AA national titles in 1999 and 2000.

HEAD COACH CLAY HELTON

Clay Helton, who led USC to a Rose Bowl title in 2016, was named the 11th full-time head coach in the Georgia Southern modern football era on Nov. 2, 2021. He is in his second season as the Eagles' head coach.

The 51-year-old Helton went 46-24 (.657) as the head coach of the USC Trojans with 12 victories over AP Top 25 teams, including three in the Top 5 and four in the Top 10. He went 5-1 in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season and was 8-5 in 2019 with wins over No. 23 Stanford and No. 10 Utah. Helton went 11-3 in 2017 with wins over No. 14 Stanford twice (including in the Pac-12 Championship Game) and No. 23 Arizona, and went 10-3 in 2016 with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado.

Helton was the first USC head coach to have 10-win seasons in each of his first two full seasons, and he had more wins (21) in his first two full seasons than any USC coach. He led USC to a 13-game winning streak from 2016 to 2017 and a 13-game winning streak over Power 5 opponents from 2016 to 2017.

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013.

Helton began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for three seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next four seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the final three years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommy West had off-season heart surgery.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for three seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton. He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

Helton played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

Helton earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994 and prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land, Texas.

Helton was born on June 24, 1972, in Gainesville, Florida. He and his wife, Angela, have three children: sons Reid and Turner, and daughter Aubrey. Turner is a redshirt freshman quarterback at Western Kentucky.

Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami, and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins), and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida.

His brother, Tyson, was the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator at USC (2016-17) until becoming Tennessee's offensive coordinator in 2018 and is now the head coach at Western Kentucky.

Super Seniors

• Seven Eagles took advantage of the NCAA's COVID-19 eligibility waiver and returned for an extra year of action: Khalil Crowder, Jon Ferguson, Khaleb Hood, Khadry Jackson, Jjay Mcafee, Brian Miller and Mari Wingard.

• Transferring in and taking advantage of the extra year were: Shemar Bartholomew (Northwestern State), Davis Brin (Tulsa), Damel Hickman (East Carolina), Saan Lewis (Kentucky), Anthony Queeley (Syracuse) and Collin Springer (Wofford).

Family Ties

• Defensive lineman Trevon Locke is a third-generation Benedictine Military graduate in Savannah and his father, Robert, played football for Georgia Southern from 2000-03.

• Two Eagle players grew up in households with fathers who played professional sports and won a world title. Tight end Beau Johnson's father, Charles, was a two-time All-Star catcher and World Series champion with the Florida Marlins. Transfer Saan Lewis is the son of Ray Lewis, who played 17 seasons in the NFL and is in the Hall of Fame. He was a 13-time Pro Bowler, 10-time All-Pro, two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year, a member of the NFL 2000s All-Decade Team, a two-time Super Bowl champion and Super Bowl XXXV MVP, as well as a two-time All-American at the University of Miami. Additionally, Johnson's brother, Brandon, plays for the Denver Broncos and caught quarterback Russell Wilson's 300th career touchdown pass last season.

• The Eagles have not one, but two sets of identical twins on the team this year. Defensive backs Chandler and Chase Dial-Watson are in their fourth year with the program and quarterback David Dallas and receiver Josh Dallas are redshirt freshmen.

• Defensive back Andrew Douglas' sister, Aundria, attended Georgia Southern and was on the track & field team.

• Long snapper Jackson Wheeler's father, Tom, played tight end at Florida State, as well as professionally. Jackson wears the same No. 89 jersey that his father did at FSU.

• Redshirt-freshman Elijah Hynes' uncle is Mark Richt, long-time head football coach at Georgia and Miami, and another uncle is Brad Johnson, who was a quarterback for the Super Bowl XXXVII Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Hynes graduated from high school in 2019 and entered the U.S. Marine Corps, where he served for nearly three years.

• Both of Caelan Williams' parents, along with a sister, his grandparents and aunt, all attended Georgia Southern.

• Receiver Brooks Pangle's father, grandmother and uncle all attended Georgia Southern while his father, Shane, played baseball for the Eagles.

• Transfer TJ Smith's brother, Christopher Smith II, was a defensive back at Georgia who earned unanimous All-America honors in 2022 and was drafted in the fifth round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Las Vegas.

B-Miller

• If you want to get a feel for how long Brian Miller has been at Georgia Southern, take this in:

• He played three seasons with Kindle Vildor and Tyler Bass, who both are in their fourth seasons in the NFL.

• The Eagles entered the 2023 season as a veteran squad with almost 25 players aged 22 or older. But Miller is the eldest statesman. Born Feb. 21, 1999, he turned 24 a few months ago.

• He has been coached by four head or interim head coaches, four offensive coordinators and five offensive line coaches. Through it all, he has been a pillar of the line as he has started 50 games and played in 56.

• Miller graduated with a degree in interdisciplinary studies with a minor in psychology and is close to graduating with a second degree in business management.

• While Miller is excited to be in his seventh year, he isn't necessarily fond of the route he had to take to playing as a 24 year old. Heading into the 2019 season, Miller had earned preseason all-conference accolades from several

• The captains are: #1 Marques Watson-Trent, #5 Davis Brin, #7 Khaleb Hood and #25 Jalen White.

• GS added 52 players - 27 transfers and 24 true freshmen - since the end of the 2022 season. Of the 27 transfers, 16 are FBS transfers, six are FCS/D2/D3/NAIA transfers, four are junior college players and one played club football at another school.

• The Eagles added a total of 12 first-year transfers with previous Power Five experience at: Georgia, Kansas State, Kentucky, Illinois, Miami, Nebraska, Pitt, Syracuse, Texas A&M and Washington.

• Georgia Southern's 129-player roster features players from 15 states and one additional country:

magazines and was expected to be the anchor at right tackle for the Eagles. That all changed on Aug. 18 in the preseason when he suffered a dislocated right hip in a freak, non-contact injury at practice at Beautiful Eagle Creek. He had surgery soon after to repair the hip and began a long road to recovery. There was doubt he would ever play again. But after a rigorous rehabilitation, which included work on a zero-gravity treadmill, Miller returned in 2020 and started six games for the Eagles.

• His story was so incredible that he was a nominee for the 2020 Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year, an award won by his teammate Drew Wilson in 2019.

• In 2020, he played in 12 games, seeing action on 456 offensive snaps. He earned second-team All-Sun Belt Conference honors from Pro Football Focus and was named the Georgia Southern Comeback Athlete of the Year.

• In 2018, he started all 13 games in his first year on the line at right tackle and was on the field for 732 total plays (659 offensive, 73 special teams). He moved over to left tackle in 2020 and started 12 games in 2021. He elected to use his COVID year to return in 2022 and started 12 games last year, missing only the opener with a broken finger.

• Now, he is back in 2023 for a seventh year, utilizing his medical hardship waiver. The Savannah native came to Georgia Southern in 2017 as a defensive lineman, but moved to the offensive side of the ball his redshirt season.

Four Snaps

• After having Shai Werts start 46 of 51 games at quarterback from 2017-2020, the Eagles had five different quarterbacks start over the 25 games played in 2021 and 2022. With last year's starter in Kyle Vantrease—who started all 13 games—having exhausted his eligibility, the Eagles are relying on a batch of quarterbacks who entered the season with very little experience in the Blue & White.

• Of the six quarterbacks on this year's roster, only Colton FitzGerald had seen action for Georgia Southern heading into this year, and that was for four snaps late in last year's season-opening win over Morgan State. The other five on the roster—Beau Allen, Davis Brin, David Dallas, JC French and Coby Walton—all entered the year having never taken a snap as an Eagle.

• Like last year, it appears the Eagles will rely on a transfer as Brin and French enter this week as the top two guys on the depth chart. Brin is in his last year of eligibility after having played five years at Tulsa, throwing for 5,675 yards and 37 touchdowns while French redshirted while at Memphis last season.

• Only the University of Virginia and Colorado University had less experience than Georgia Southern entering the season as none of the Cavaliers' or Buffaloes' quarterbacks had ever played at the FBS level.

More Stallions in the Stable

• Georgia Southern has long had a rich history at the running back position with stars like Adrian Peterson and Matt Breida, among some, roaming the field. The reins have been turned over to a new group in Jalen White, OJ Arnold and Terrance Gibbs.

• Patiently waiting his turn, White finally broke loose against Arkansas State in 2021, rushing 13 times for a career-high 167 yards and two scores. He finished the year with 383 yards and four touchdowns, averaging 5.3 yards per rush.

• A native of Daleville, Alabama, White was a first-team All-USA selection by USA Today after leading the nation in rushing yards as a senior. In just 11 games, he posted 3,517 rushing yards, which also set an Alabama state record and he also set a state single-game scoring record with eight touchdowns (all in the first half) against Barbour County.

• White was named to the state's Super-All State team, which compiles the top 12 football players from the state regardless of classification. As a senior, he carried the ball 217 times for a 16.2-yard average and 48 touchdowns.

• White went over the 1,000-yard career rushing mark against JMU last and had a team-high 914 yards rushing with 10 touchdowns along with 22 catches for 217 yards and a score. He carried the ball 13 times for 143 yards and had a 22-yard catch against Marshall but suffered a knee injury in the game and missed the finale against App State as well as the bowl game.

• White has come back strong in the weight room to be ready for the 2023 season with these impressive numbers, which earned him a spot on Bruce Feldman's annual "Freaks" List:

• Squat - 620
• Bench - 360
• Power Clean - 350
• Vertical Jump - 40"
• Broad Jump - 10'4

• Arnold threw his name into the hat in the opener when he ran for 45 yards and a touchdown and also caught a touchdown pass. Arnold threw, caught and ran for a touchdown last season, marking the first Eagle player to do that since Jerick McKinnon in 2010. He finished the year with 257 yards rushing and a touchdown, along with 10 catches for 58 yards and a touchdown.

• The Quitman native was a first-team all-state selection by the AJC for the 1A Public level as a senior, earning the state's offensive player of the year for the level. He rushed for over 2,500 yards and 42 touchdowns as a senior in leading Brooks County to a state title.

• Gibbs returns to action after redshirting last year while rehabbing a serious knee injury he suffered in high school. An ESPN300 recruit—the first in Georgia Southern history—the Florida, native ranked as the No. 174 overall player in the country, the No. 14 running back in the nation and the No. 22 player in the state of Florida by ESPN.com.

• He suffered a knee injury just before his junior season and missed the entire year before returning to play sparingly toward the end of his senior season. Before his knee injury, he held an offer from nearly 30 programs including the likes of LSU, Florida, Florida State, Auburn and Georgia.

Eagles Returning to the Nest

• Numerous coaches and staff members have deep roots to Statesboro as graduates of Georgia Southern. From the coaching staff, defensive coordinator Brandon Bailey, defensive backs coach Darius Eubanks, wide receivers coach BJ Johnson and cornerbacks coach/assistant head coach Kevin Whitley all went to Southern with the latter three playing for the Blue and White.

Additionally, staff members Adrian Peterson, Andrew Bevill, Jarae Thurmond, Kennedy Joerger, and Matt Wise also graduated from Georgia Southern.

Back to the Boro

• New defensive coordinator Brandon Bailey began his career at Georgia Southern as a student assistant under Coach Jeff Monken and went to Tulane in 2016 as a grad assistant under Coach Willie Fritz. From there, he made stops at Richmond Hill (GA) High, Arkansas-Monticello, Texas A&M and finally Buffalo. He coached against his alma mater in last year's Camellia Bowl before getting the call in February from Coach Clay Helton that he was offering him the defensive coordinator job.

• Bailey grew up in Dooly County and was a regular in the stands at Allen E. Paulson Stadium on game days. He says than other than when he left to coach at other schools, he's been at pretty much every Georgia Southern game since the mid 2000s.

• Bailey and offensive coordinator Bryan Ellis have known each other since high school when Ellis played against Bailey's older brother, Ben, in football, basketball and baseball. Ellis attended Peach County High and Bailey played at Westfield. Their parents are all from Middle Georgia in the Perry, Georgia, area and have known each other Ellis and Bailey's whole lives.

• Ellis summed their journey up as "a small-town story that has branched out and as we've both been all across the United States over the last 10 or 12 years. To be back in South Georgia together at George Southern is pretty cool."

Stepping Out of Big Shadows

• Special teams coach Turner West is carving his own path to coaching greatness after standing in the shadows of some big figures growing up.

• West was a 6-1, 180 pound wide receiver and tight end at Briarcrest Christian in Memphis, helping lead his team to a state title his freshman season.

• The next season, Briarcrest got a new player, a 6-5, 300-pound offensive lineman named Michael Oher and West lined up next to him many times on offense. Oher's

The Power of Paulson

• Georgia Southern holds one of the best home-field advantages in the FBS, posting a 213-48 record at Allen E. Paulson Stadium. That winning percentage is the fourth best out of all currently used FBS stadiums, trailing only Alabama, Boise State and Oklahoma.

• The Eagles are 31-9 all-time at Paulson Stadium when playing in front of 20,000 or more fans.

• West played college football from 2006-09 at Memphis, where his father Tommy West was the head coach as part of a 40-year coaching career that also includes leading the program at Clemson.

Power Under The Hood

• Fifth-year receiver Khaleb Hood has quietly put together one of the great receiving careers at Georgia Southern. The Atlanta native plays his final season with a school-record 208 career receptions for 2,334 yards and eight touchdowns.

• His yardage total ranks first in school history as he broke the school record late in the win over UAB earlier this season. He also set the school's single-season receptions record last year with 87 catches. Hood also set a new school record for single-season receiving yards record with 925 yards.

• He has caught a pass in 25 straight games dating back to the 2022 season and has at least four catches in 20 straight games.

• After graduating from Eagle's Landing Christian, Hood prepped at Air Force Prep in 2018-19 where he was a military training officer while enrolled there.

• Hood elected to return for a fifth year based on the NCAA's COVID-19 ruling giving an extra year of eligibility. He is scheduled to graduate in December.

Burgess Also Breaking Records

• Junior receiver Derwin Burgess Jr. turned into a legitimate offensive weapon for the Eagles and put up record-setting numbers to support that case. In 10 games last season, he had 58 catches for 717 yards and seven touchdowns.

• In the opener against Morgan State, he had four catches for 33 yards and a 17-yard, one-handed touchdown catch that landed him as the No. 4 play on SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays. Against Nebraska, he had 22 targets and caught a school-record 12 passes for 119 yards. He became just the third Eagle player in program history to catch 10 or more passes in a game.

• Burgess Jr., from Riverdale, Georgia, originally committed to South Carolina, but flipped to the Eagles and graduated from high school early to enroll at Georgia Southern in January of 2021.

• He suffered a broken leg in the loss at Louisiana and missed the remainder of the season but returned for spring ball and is back at full speed.

Youthful - And Successful - Staff

• Head coach Clay Helton put together a young, but experienced, staff upon his arrival to Statesboro. Heading into the season, the average age of the five full-time offensive coaches was 32.0 years while the average age of the four full-time defensive coaches was 36.5.

• With special teams coordinator Turner West 35 years old, the average age of the 10 full-time assistant coaches is just 30.9 years old.

• Offensive coordinator Bryan Ellis turned 35 on Sept. 18 and defensive coordinator Brandon Bailey is the youngest defensive coordinator in the FBS at just 29.

O-Line Experience

• Georgia Southern returns three of five starters on the offensive line from a year ago in Khalil Crowder, Pichon Wimbley and Brian Miller.

Firsts in 2023

Made first GS start (14): Brin, Denton, Dorsey, Hickman, Meyers, Queeley, J. Rhodes, A. Smith, TJ Smith, Springer, Strong, Upshaw, Walker, Cam Williams

Saw first GS action (42):
True freshmen (15): Buchannon, Dorsey, A. Jackson, Mathis, Mbadinga, Palmer, Pikes, Secka, A. Smith, Trice, E. Walton, Whitehead, E. Williams, M. Williams, Wright Jr.

Redshirt freshmen (4): French, Gibbs, Hill Jr., Speed

Others (22): Barden, Bartholomew, Brin, Broadway, Crouch, Daniel, J. Ferguson, Franke, Gilmore, Green, Hickman, Lee Jr., Leverette, N. Lewis, Manns, Queeley, J. Rhodes, TJ Smith, Springer, Upshaw, Wallace, Cam Williams

• Miller is in his seventh year and has played in 56 games, starting 50. Crowder, who allowed no sacks and just 12 quarterback pressures on 1,016 snaps played in 2022, has played in 47 games with 41 starts. Between Miller (3,253) and Crowder (2,934), the duo have seen action in 6,187 combined offensive snaps at Georgia Southern.

• On the flip side of things, with Miller missing the 2022 opener with an injury, Wimbley got the start at left guard for the Eagles. That made him the first true freshman since Kelly in 2017 to start on the offensive line and the first true freshman to start on the line in the season opener since Dorian Byrd in 2010. He started all 13 games last year, playing 798 offensive snaps. He can also play at center, if needed.

• Last season, the offensive line allowed just seven sacks in 13 games on 612 passing attempts. Only nationally-ranked Oregon allowed fewer sacks, giving up just five in 13 games on 432 attempts, 180 fewer attempts than the Eagles. Washington allowed seven sacks in 373 attempts (239 fewer than GS), tying the Eagles for the second-lowest total allowed in 2022.

Transfer QBs

• Georgia Southern hasn't had a lot of transfers start at quarterback over the past four decades, but those who have done it have had good success.

• A year after Kyle Vantrease came in and broke nearly every Georgia Southern passing record, Davis Brin (Tulsa) and JC French (Memphis) will look to join that club.

• Here's a list of transfer quarterbacks in their first year of action for Georgia Southern:

Player (First Yr.)	From	Pass Yds/TD
Joe Dupree (1993)	Georgia	542/6
Travis Clark (2006)	Southern Miss	1,808/8
Antonio Henton (2008)	Ohio State	1,852/15
Jaybo Shaw (2010)	Ga. Tech	1,233/5
Kyle Vantrease (2022)	Buffalo	4,253/27
Davis Brin (2023)	Tulsa	2,122/14

Stepping Right In

• Fifth-year quarterback Davis Brin is already moving up the charts in the record books as the Eagles continue to be one of the most pass-heavy offenses in the country.

• Dating back to his time at Tulsa, Brin has thrown at least one touchdown pass in 24 of his past 27 games. He enters this week's game having thrown for 2,122 yards on 217-of-325 passing with 14 touchdowns.

• Here's a list of where Brin stands nationally heading into this week's game:

Category	FBS Rank	Number
Completions Per Game	2	31.0
Passing Yards Per Game	11	303.1
Total Offense	17	3296.7
Passing Yards	14	2,122
Completion Percentage	25	66.8
Passing TDs	28	14

• Brin took over for Kyle Vantrease, who started all 13 games last year in his only year in Statesboro. Vantrease re-wrote the Eagle single-season passing record book, but Brin is on pace to top Vantrease's records

• Here's how the two compare through seven games:

	Vantrease (2022)	Brin (2023)
Completions	210	217 (+7)
Attempts	347	325 (-22)
Touchdowns	17	14 (-3)
Yards	2,512	2,122 (-390)

From the Outback to the Boro

• To understand Alex Smith is to appreciate his unique story truly. He's more than the first Australian football player in Eagle football history. He's a former professional tennis player. He's the self-proclaimed top table tennis player on the team. He's 24 years old, making him the fifth-oldest player on Georgia Southern's football roster. And he's figuring out college football and American life one day at a time.

• A native of Melbourne, Australia, Smith graduated from Caulfield Grammar School in 2017 and tried his hand at professional tennis, a sport he thrived at in part to his 6-foot-6 frame.

• In June 2020, he gave up tennis and the dream of playing at a Power 5 tennis school when COVID hit, so he called John A. Smith with ProKick Australia and asked about a workout. ProKick Australia is a club that has sent multiple punters to the United States, including Houston Texans punter Cameron Johnston (Ohio State) and Ray Guy Award winners Mitch Wishnowsky (Utah) and Michael Dickson (Texas).

• Smith had never played Australian football but had kicked the ball around pretty well in the yard. By his own admission, his first workout was terrible, but still, the group saw enough potential in him after working with him for a few years to place him as a commitment to Vanderbilt. Amid COVID-19 and a coaching change, Nashville didn't work out, and Smith was left in limbo. But then, he got a call that Georgia Southern was interested and signed with the Eagles in December of 2022. Soon, he was on a flight from Australia to Florida, landing in January before driving up to Statesboro. It would be his first time in the United States.

• Georgia Southern head coach Clay Helton coached Ben Griffiths, also a native of Melbourne, so he was familiar with what kind of player he was getting in Smith.

• Smith said he didn't watch much college football in Australia but watched many NFL games, especially when the other Alex Smith was quarterbacking the San Francisco 49ers.

• Adjusting to new surroundings has taken some getting used to for Smith. He said he didn't sleep or eat much the first week here due to the time difference (Melbourne is 14 hours ahead of Statesboro). He also said it's taken some time to feel comfortable being his "true Australian self with my big, thick accent," but as he gets more acclimated, he's fitting in more.

• Smith, who played lower-level professional tennis upon graduation from high school on the ATP Futures Tour, grew up playing tennis as a resident of Dubai and says he's always been adept at racket sports, including ping pong (or table tennis as the top-level players call it).

• Smith is the first left-footed punter in program history, although quarterback Kevin Ellison punted in a 2015 game against Troy and is left-footed even though he threw right-handed.

Looking for 1K

• Georgia Southern is one of four current FBS teams (there are 133 this year) that has never had a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

• Khaleb Hood set the Georgia Southern school record last year, but came up just short of the milestone and finished with 925 yards.

• Here's a list of the four schools, in alphabetical order, that have never had someone reached the 1,000-yard milestone, along with their closest effort.

Army	937	Mike Fahnestock (1980)
Ga. Southern	925	Khaleb Hood (2022)
Navy	818	Rob Taylor (1967)
USF	879	Marquez Valdes-Scantling (2017)

• He had an 18-yard run on a fake punt to convert a fourth down against Coastal Carolina that kept an eventual touchdown drive alive. It's the longest run by an Eagle punter since 1999.

Chef's Kiss

• Senior tight end Beau Johnson is quickly making a name around the area as an up-and-coming chef thanks to a large social media following and some hungry teammates and staff who are eager to help taste his creations.

• Raised in the Miami area, Johnson's mother was raised in the Caribbean and his father was raised in Florida, so Johnson has what he calls a "Caribbean Country" flavor to his cooking. Johnson says his mother is who got him into cooking with her great skills, but that his father, Charles, who was a two-time All-Star catcher and World Series champion with the Florida Marlins, spent plenty of times around the grill during the offseason.

• Johnson has cooked for the equipment room staff and many of his teammates when he has the time during the offseason and tries to use his off day on Monday to cook one good meal.

• He says his specialties are his red velvet French Toast and his lobster mac & cheese with a seared steak on the side and he continues to expand his menu. Johnson wants to get into the restaurant business one day, maybe opening a steakhouse, a breakfast restaurant and a dessert bar.

• Johnson was featured on WJCL's "Southern Routes" with Frank Sulkowski, who called his meal "the best French Toast of my life." He also was the featured chef at Soyumi Asian Kitchen's Chef Pop Up "It's Beau Time" on Oct. 19 at the Statesboro restaurant. Johnson teamed up with Adam Tsang, owner of Soyumi, to create a delicious dish that made its debut at the event.

• Johnson has already graduated from Georgia Southern with a degree in interdisciplinary studies. You can see many of his concoctions on his Instagram page instagram.com/beau_johnson23/.

Welcome Back, Sam

• After tearing all three major ligaments in his right knee on Sept. 10, 2022 at Nebraska, Sam Kenerson is finally back and on the field. One of the most popular players on the team, the Baton Rouge, Louisiana, native suffered a devastating knee injury at the end of a 31-yard catch and run in the second quarter last year and had to have two surgeries to repair the damage. After an arduous 406 days, Kenerson returned to the field on Oct. 21, 2023 to play on offense against ULM.

• Kenerson came to Georgia Southern as a quarterback, but made the move to receiver early on. He is listed as a redshirt junior, but could opt to take his COVID year and a medical hardship year (2022). If he plays in four regular season games or less this year and redshirts, he would still have three years of eligibility remaining after this season.

Georgia Southern Football Traditions

• Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

Beautiful Eagle Creek

• When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

• Head coach Clay Helton, along with the new coaches/staff, the seniors and the freshmen, had a "baptism" in the creek on the final day of camp before the game week started.

Freedom's Flight

• In what has become one of the most popular traditions at GS, "Freedom," a male American Bald Eagle, takes flight before each home football game. Freedom is a Southern Bald Eagle that was found knocked out of the nest in Maitland, Florida.

• Only weeks old and appearing like a "brown ball of fuzz", it was discovered that the young eagle had an injury to its beak and suffered from an infection. Rushed to the Florida Audubon Center for Birds of Prey, Freedom made a complete recovery from the infection but the injury to the beak was permanent, preventing his release back into the wild.

• With the permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, GS acquired Freedom in 2004. Through the Georgia Southern University Center for Wildlife Education and Lamar Q. Ball Jr. Raptor Center, thousands of visitors young and old are embraced by the Power of Freedom.

• Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom is on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games.

• Georgia Southern's athletics teams have adopted several names throughout history, but claimed "Eagles" by a campus vote in 1959.

Yellow School Buses

• When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel.

• The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses buses to this day, taking a lap around campus on game days.

One University. Three Campuses.

• Georgia Southern has grown to three distinct campuses, serving the needs of one dynamic institution.

• The Statesboro Campus is 900 acres of Georgian-style, red-brick historic buildings and modern contemporary buildings set amid pines and oaks and home to around 20,000 students; the Armstrong Campus in Savannah (45 minutes to the east of Statesboro) is a 268-acre arboretum campus just minutes away from historic downtown Savannah and home to some 6,500 students; and a modern, state-of-the-art facility in Hinesville is geared for local and military-affiliated students.

Retired Numbers

• GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham. Both are College Football Hall of Famers and both went to the same high school: Santa Fe in Alachua, Florida.

• Peterson, a 2017 CFB Hall of Fame Inductee, is the NCAA Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests and was a four-time All-American. He led the Eagles to two national titles.

• Ham, a 2007 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee was also inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2010. A first-team All-American in 1986, he led the Eagles to back-to-back I-AA National Championships.

• Both still work in the Georgia Southern Athletics Department: Ham as a Senior Associate AD for Administration and Peterson as the Director of Student-Athlete Development for the football team.

The Honored 0 Jersey

• Georgia Southern head coach Clay Helton announced in the preseason that a special player will wear the 0 jersey each game.

• The number 0 represents the ultimate teammate who is completely selfless and gives rzelentless effort. They must put team success over indiviudual success and hold themseleves to a high accountability standard, with zero issues during the week.

The Football Oversight Committee recommended staff extend, for FBS, the December 2022 blanket waiver that permitted student-athletes to participate in up to four contests during the regular season and in postseason competition (conference championship, bowl game, postseason competition, CFP) without using a season of competition (i.e., maintain their redshirt) to the 2023-24 academic year.

MADISON, Wis. - The Georgia Southern football squad hung tough with Big Ten foe Wisconsin, but the Badgers scored four second-half touchdowns to pull away with a 35-14 win at Camp Randall Stadium in non-conference action.

After a scoreless first quarter, Wisconsin opened the second quarter with a short score, but Georgia Southern responded on the next drive. After Davis Brin hit Derwin Burgess Jr. for a career-long 68-yard reception, running back OJ Arnold scored from 4-yards out to tie things up. On its first drive of the second half, Georgia Southern claimed the lead to go up 14-7 when Jjay Mcafee recorded his fifth career touchdown reception on a 25-yard completion from Brin. The Badgers responded with three touchdowns in the third quarter—two off of Brin interceptions—to take the lead back and pulled away in the fourth quarter with one last score.

Burgess Jr. led the offense with eight catches for 124 yards. It marked his fourth-career 100-yard receiving game. Arnold ran for a career-high 66 yards.

Defensively, the Eagles were stout for a majority of the game but Wisconsin took control in the second half. The six Eagle turnovers kept the GS defense on the field and Wisconsin eventually started to move the ball. Marques Watson-Trent led the team in tackles with nine stops.
