Georgia Southern's Eagle Field saw significant upgrades in the Fall of 2022.

Following the $500,000 upgrades to Eagle Field in 2018 that included a brand new press box, video board and a new playing surface, the department completed another project going into Spring 2023 that completely renovated the softball locker room, team space, training room, video room, coaches locker room and both dugouts, upgraded the exterior surface and re-engineered the infield material.

Georgia Southern will put its new improvements on display by hosting a pair of tournaments in the Spring of 2023 - the Bash in the Boro on February 17-19, and the GATA Challenge on February 24-26.

DR. KYLE MARRERO

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

FOURTH YEAR

ALMA MATERS: BOWLING GREEN, MICHIGAN

Dr. Kyle Marrero began his tenure as Georgia Southern University's 14th president on April 1, 2019. As president, he leads the Eagle Nation, a Carnegie R2 institution, with more than 27,000 students and 3,000 faculty and staff on three campuses – Statesboro, Savannah and Hinesville, Georgia.

Under his direction, Georgia Southern has established a new culture of high performance and evidence-based leadership, data-informed decision-making, communication transparency, and an unwavering focus on a new Strategic Plan and assessment methodology aligned with five main pillars: student success; teaching and research; inclusive excellence; operational efficiency, effectiveness and sustainability; and community engagement.

This alignment has led to staggering successes in recent years with the university seeing record-breaking numbers in private fundraising, faculty research, freshmen enrollment, graduation rates and freshman-to-sophomore-year retention rates.

Dr. Marrero serves on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, the

Statesboro-Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce, the Savannah Area Chamber of Commerce, World Trade Center Savannah and East Georgia Regional Medical Center, and was named in 2022 as one of Georgia Trend's "100 Most Influential Georgians."

He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Michigan and a bachelor's and master's in vocal performance from Bowling Green State University. He has been married to nationally acclaimed opera singer Dr. Jane Redding for 25 years and they are blessed with a 12-year-old daughter, Lily.

JARED BENKO

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

THIRD YEAR

ALMA MATER: GEORGIA

@JaredBenko

Jared Benko was hired in March of 2020 as the leader of the Georgia Southern Athletics Department and began his new role on April 1. Benko, who has more than a decade of progressive leadership experience in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), came to Statesboro from Mississippi State where he served as Deputy Director of Athletics/Chief Financial Officer for nearly four years (2016-2020).

Benko reports directly to the University president, serves as a member of the President's Cabinet and oversees 17 NCAA Division I varsity athletics programs, 15 of which compete in the Sun Belt Conference.

His first year was unprecedented in more ways than one as Benko had to navigate a college landscape altered by COVID-19. The Eagle football team was on of two FBS teams (Alabama) to play 13 games and just one of two (Texas State) to play all 12 regular season contests. The football season was capped by a win over Louisiana Tech in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. Three Georgia Southern teams captured conference championships (rifle, women's tennis, men's golf) and the Athletic Foundation recorded record fundraising numbers and prospect visits in the 2020-21 campaign. Two major projects were also approved by the USG, changing the future facility landscape of Georgia Southern athletics.

The momentum gained in his first year was carried on to 2021-22 as the department soared to new heights. The rifle and women's golf teams captured conference titles, while the women's soccer, men's golf and baseball teams reached the championship games. He led a team that put together a bid that secured an NCAA Baseball Regional, the first in program history. Three spring sports (baseball, men's golf and women's golf) all made post-season NCAA play, marking the first time in department history that has happened. Benko also made a national splash with the hiring of former Southern Cal head coach Clay Helton as the Eagles' new head man, a hire that was rated as one of the best in the country by some media. In the classroom, the department tied the mark for the highest GPA and the Athletic Foundation topped its record-breaking effort of the prior year.

The Athletic Foundation raised a record $10.6 million in new pledges and outright gifts – more than 68% over the previous record set in FY22 of $6.3 million – which included a record $7.4 million in major gifts. Ground was broken on the Anthony P. Tippins Indoor Practice Facility and the Hill Convocation Center, giving the department more than $70 million in new projects.

From a hiring standpoint, Benko has successfully hired eight head coaches to take over the helms of those programs.

Before even officially starting in Statesboro, Benko quickly moved to fill the open men's basketball position in March of 2020 and hired Brian Burg from national powerhouse Texas Tech to lead the Eagle program. From start to announcement, the entire process lasted just eight days and the hire garnered national praise from media and fellow coaches in the basketball community.

At MSU, Benko assisted the director of athletics with strategic planning, personnel decisions, and public relations initiatives while also serving as the CFO and supervised the day-to-day operations of the football program. With the Bulldog football program, he was responsible for scheduling, game day execution, supervision of coaches, strategic planning and social media engagement. Benko served on a three-person search committee for the hiring of Mike Leach and helped him assemble 35+ member football staff. He also administered day-to-day operations for 16 varsity Bulldog sports, over 365 student-athletes, 20 facilities, and nearly 250 employees.

A noted fundraiser with a strong background in revenue generation, Benko secured gifts of $1 million and $500,000 for indoor tennis facility and finalized a five-year, $28.8 million contract extension with adidas. He also created a financing plan and worked closely with the school's development staff to strategize fundraising $20 million for a $68 million baseball stadium project and had oversight of a combined $105 million operating budget for the Athletic Department and the Bulldog Club.

Benko arrived in Starkville after serving as the assistant athletic director for finance at Auburn, where he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the business office for two years (2015-16). He administered financial reporting and budgeting for 21 men's and women's sports, oversaw all procurement and travel units and supervised a staff of eight. While at Auburn, Benko helped secure a $121 million multi-media rights deal with FOX Sports. He was tabbed the 2015 College Athletic Business Management Association's Rookie of the Year for his efforts within the organization.

Benko spent four years in business operations at Arkansas, including serving as the director of business operations from 2012 to 2015. He was promoted to that role after 16 months as the department's business manager, which he was hired as in 2011. Benko managed accounting and budgeting processes in Fayetteville while forecasting and conducting financial analysis.

Before his time at Arkansas, Benko served as the assistant director of business operations at his alma mater of Georgia from 2008 to 2011. He assisted in all financial management functions and was responsible for reviewing and processing all invoices for the University of Georgia Athletic Association.

Benko, from Watkinsonville, Georgia, earned a bachelor of science in sports studies from Georgia in 2005 and then a master of public administration in Athens in 2007. He got his start in the athletic business field as an intern at Georgia from 2007 to 2008.

He also spent seven years in sports communications at Georgia, including five years as a student and two years as a graduate assistant, while assisting with the Atlanta Falcons and Atlanta Braves.

Benko and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Hudson and Cooper.

EAGLES LOOKING FOR BIG STEP IN YEAR TWO OF PERKINS ERA

Georgia Southern wants to make strides, compete in the 2023 new-look Sun Belt Conference

Coming off of an up-and-down first season in Statesboro, Georgia Southern Head Softball Coach Sharon Perkins and the Eagles have taken steps to ensure the Eagles will be ready to compete in the new-look Sun Belt Conference in 2023.

A completely revamped pitching staff, upgraded offense and a more challenging schedule means that the second year under Coach Perkins will be filled with plenty of opportunities to take a step forward and surprise some people, given that in a vote of Sun Belt Conference coaches, the Eagles were picked to finish tied for last in the upcoming campaign.

You can understand why that happened as the Eagles are coming off of a 13-34 overall campaign and a 6-18 mark in the Sun Belt in 2022, but Georgia Southern did pick up its first home win over a nationally-ranked team since 2016 and individually, Coach Perkins did record her 300th career collegiate coaching victory.

First and foremost, an almost entirely new pitching staff will head out to the circle in 2023, with Kastin Belogorska (5-7, Sr., Eden, Ga.) as the only healthy returning pitcher from last year's squad. Belogorska won six games last season, including getting the victory against No. 23 Louisiana at Eagle Field on March 19. This year, she'll be joined by transfer Morgan Kendrick (5-6, R-Fr., Fleming Island, Fla.), who redshirted last season at Florida State. A pair of area freshman also join the staff in Bailey Holland (5-9, Fr., Vidalia, Ga.) and Alana Barnard (5-10, Fr., Statesboro, Ga.).

"We were looking to bring in pitchers who had different pitches, with different speeds," Coach Perkins said. "When we first got here, we had four arms that looked exactly the same with the same speeds, so we were just trying to change that. It's nice to have Kastin back, she's solid and we know what we have with her out there. But to bring in people who have more speed - Morgan, Alana, Bailey - they're all different, with different styles of pitches, locations and all are able to change speeds."

The look at the position players begins behind the plate, with Janai Conklin (5-3, Sr., Miami, Fla.) representing the Eagles' leading returning hitter. Conklin hit .304 with nine home runs and 24 RBI, with a team-best .626 slugging percentage, with seven of her nine home runs coming against Sun Belt opponents. She'll be joined by Sam Vinson (5-6, Sr., Jefferson, Ga.) in the catching corps.

The infield will be half new with Olivia Creamer (5-5, Sr., St. Johns, Fla.) and Courtney Ball (5-6, Jr., Macon, Ga.) returning as starters, but joined by Georgia transfer Faith Barth (5-5, Soph., Dacula, Ga.) and North Carolina graduate transfer Katie Perkins (5-6, Grad., Buford, Ga.). Gulf Coast State transfer Emily Greek (6-2, Jr., Thomasville, Ga.) can play both middle infield positions and Janiyah Strong (5-6, Fr., Lagrange, Ga.) will help at the corner spots, as will Vinson.

The outfield sees Chandler Caldwell (5-4, Grad., Suwanee, Ga.) as the only healthy returnee, and she could see time at all three outfield spots. Georgia Tech transfer Kinley Stewart (5-8, R-Jr., Loganville, Ga.) will be a nice addition in center field, with lefties Emma Davis (5-3, Fr., Grayson, Ga.) and Brooke Kell (5-6, Fr., Marietta, Ga.) looking to secure spots in the outfield as well. The Eagles will try to get Vinson's bat in the lineup at the designated player spot, but Pitts and returner Dejah Mills (5-5, R-Soph., Powder Springs, Ga.) could see at-bats there also.

Offensively, the Eagles should be able to improve on their output from last season. "We've added some speed, more baserunners that can get on and make things happen, which helps," Coach Perkins said. "We have hitters that can hit different pitches well, and they don't all have the same exact swing. All of them are buying into our system, and I think we've got a wide range in our lineup with power hitters and speedsters."

Defensively, the team improved incrementally from the previous season, putting up a .958 fielding percentage compared to a .954 percentage in 2021. Coach Perkins saw early on in the Fall that this team should be even better in the field, for a couple of reasons.

"The pitching is obviously going to help," Coach Perkins said. "The better pitching you have, the better fielding you'll have. There'll be less chances, the ball won't get hit as hard. And you can't defend a home run, which we were running into last year. But it's also nice to have some depth out there too. And even early this Fall, you could tell the difference."

The Eagles will participate in five tournaments in the pre-Sun Belt Conference portion of the schedule. Georgia Southern will be hosting the Bash in the Boro and the GATA Challenge on the second and third weekends of the season, then traveling to three other sites for tournament action - at No. 9 Alabama to start the season at the Easton Leadoff Classic, at No. 5 Florida State and at Michigan. All three were NCAA Championships participants a year ago. The clear upgrade in schedule, along with the Sun Belt adding James Madison, Marshall and Southern Miss means that the Eagles will have their work cut out for them in 2023.

"Our players need to learn how to play in those kinds of environments to get to where we need to get," Coach Perkins said. "We also need to start working on our RPI. It's my hope that playing these tougher teams will make us more prepared for an immensely tough Sun Belt Conference."

It's clear that the expectations surrounding the Georgia Southern softball program are heightened internally, even if they're not reciprocated externally. But Coach Perkins is excited to get the season started to show the improvement she feels the team has made even before that first pitch is thrown in Alabama on Friday.

"If we focus on the small goals, then we'll get the results that we want," Coach Perkins said. "We've talked about how we should be winning these conference series with the schedule we have. And that's my expectation, to make big strides from last year. That's what we're working towards."

2022 IN REVIEW: EAGLES EXHIBIT GROWING PAINS IN COACH PERKINS' FIRST SEASON*EAGLES ENDURE UP AND DOWN YEAR; NATIONALLY-RANKED WIN AND COACH PERKINS' 300 VICTORY SPOTLIGHTED*

Georgia Southern head coach Sharon Perkins' first year at the helm of Eagle softball featured a few highlights, but mostly growing pains as the team finished the season with a 13-34 overall record and a 6-18 mark in the Sun Belt Conference.

The season opened up with the 2022 Bash in the Boro tournament at Eagle Field and Georgia Southern went 3-2 in the opening weekend, getting a pair of shutout wins as the team blanked Radford, 6-0, and East Tennessee State, 4-0.

In the next weekend's tournament, the 2022 GATA Challenge, the Eagles picked up an opening 9-4 win over Maine, but dropped its last four games in the tournament.

The Eagles then traveled to Florida and lost a tough one-run decision at Jacksonville before participating in the Spring Games at Madeira Beach. A fantastic 1-0 shutout win by fifth-year senior Rylee Waldrep over Rhode Island highlighted the weekend, which also featured a pair of close one-run losses.

Georgia Southern opened up Sun Belt Conference play on March 11-13, visiting ULM. The Eagles picked up the win in the opening game of the series, 6-4, in eight innings thanks to three runs in the seventh inning and a pair in the top of the eighth. The Warhawks took the next two games in the series.

The Eagles then hosted No. 23-ranked Louisiana at Eagle Field for its first home league series of the year. The Ragin' Cajuns picked up the first win of the series, but Georgia Southern notched a 12-10 win over Louisiana in the second game of the series, thanks to a pair of three-run home runs from junior catcher Janai Conklin. It was the first two-home run game of her career. It also represented the first home win over a nationally-ranked team for Georgia Southern softball since a 2-0 win over then-No. 8 Louisiana on May 1, 2016.

Georgia Southern hosted Troy the next weekend and Rylee Waldrep spun a six-hitter in the 2-1 win by the Eagles in the middle game of the series. A midweek test at No. 15 Georgia on March 30 had the Eagles leading the Bulldogs in Athens, 7-4, in the sixth inning. But Georgia plated eight runs in the bottom of the sixth to collect the 12-7 victory, spoiling Georgia Southern's upset bid.

An 11-8 win in the final game of the Sun Belt series at App State would be the Eagles' lone win over the next 11 games. Georgia Southern would rebound in a big way on April 26, however, as the Eagles would sweep a midweek doubleheader from in-state rival Mercer. Georgia Southern rapped out 18 hits in a 17-5 win in game one, a victory that would represent the 300th head collegiate coaching win for Coach Perkins. Senior Jess Mazur's two-run home run in the top of the seventh would give the Eagles a 6-5 win in game two of the doubleheader and ensure the sweep.

In the final series of the regular season, the Eagles hosted in-state rival Georgia State to try and build momentum heading into the 2022 Sun Belt Conference Championships. In Thursday's game one of the series, junior Olivia Creamer's sacrifice fly in the bottom of the seventh inning plated graduate student Chandler Caldwell with the winning run in a 3-2 victory over the Panthers.

The Eagles then claimed the series with an 8-3 win over the Panthers in game two. A seven-run fifth inning proved to be the difference, highlighted by sophomore Courtney Ball's three-run home run.

Georgia Southern matched up with the Panthers just three days later in Troy, Ala., at the 2022 Sun Belt Conference Championships. This time Georgia State would prevail, winning 9-1 in six innings.

Some of the growing pains showed by the Eagles were reflected in the stats as Georgia Southern went 4-8 in one-run contests, and were 1-17 when the opposing team scored first. When the bats were awake, the Eagles were very successful, going 7-2 when outhitting their opponent.

Individually, Conklin enjoyed a career season in her junior year with the Eagles. The Miami, Fla., native led the team in hitting (.304) and slugging (.626) with six doubles, two triples, nine home runs and 24 RBI. She hit home runs in three straight games, from April 26-29 - the first Eagle to do so since 2019 - and seven of her nine home runs came against Sun Belt opponents.

Mazur led the team and tied for seventh in the Sun Belt with 10 home runs in 2022, becoming just the 13th Eagle to reach double figure home runs in a single season. She had her first career grand slam on February 19 against UT Martin, then added another grand slam at ULM on March 12.

Faith Shirley hit .298 with a team-leading 10 doubles, eight home runs and 25 RBI, finishing her Eagle career as the all-time leader in slugging percentage (.562). She also ranks sixth all-time in career home runs with 30 and is tied for fifth in career doubles with 38.

Other Eagle seniors who wrapped up their careers in 2022 include Waldrep, who finishes ranked seventh all-time in Georgia Southern pitching history in career games started (88) and sixth in games pitched (116). Ashlynn Gunter wrapped up her four-year career by collecting exactly 100 hits in 150 career games, hitting .242 in her Eagle career.

Shelby Barfield appeared in 20 games as a pitcher and 38 games as a fielder in her four seasons, compiling a career 2.21 ERA and hitting .239. Allyssah Mullis hit .230 with 19 doubles and 15 home runs in her five-year career, while Mary Grace Howard appeared in 22 games over three seasons.

The Eagles return five starters and seven letterwinners from the 2022 squad for the upcoming 2023 season.

SLOW PITCH HISTORY

Spanning eight seasons, Georgia Southern's slow pitch softball team laid the foundation for the future successes of Georgia Southern fastpitch softball has had in recent years.

The program was created in 1978 under head coach Bill Spieth and played under the banner of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIWA).

1984 Georgia Southern Slow Pitch Softball Team

In the program's second season (1979), the Lady Eagles won the Georgia AIWA Championship following an 18-8 regular season record.

The Eagles entered the 1980s with a 25-9 record while finishing third in the Georgia State Tournament.

1981 opened a streak of two-straight seasons going to the AIWA National Tournament. The team went 30-12 on the year and took the program's second State Championship.

The 1982 Eagles returned to the National Tournament with a 27-12 overall record.

In the program's final season playing slowpitch, the Eagles went 23-8 to close out a huge part of the Eagles' history.

Five players would make the switch to fastpitch play in 1986 as Coach Spieth remained as Head Coach, leading the Eagles into the next stage.

Former players wishing to help expand the archives of Georgia Southern slowpitch softball can do so by contacting GS Athletics Communications.
