Thirty years after its first game on Sept. 29, 1984, Allen E. Paulson Stadium underwent a major expansion for the Eagles' first season in the FBS and the Sun Belt Conference. With a capacity of 25,000, the stadium offers incredible views of the playing field and modern amenities on its concourses. In 2024, the field was named Evans Family Field in recognition of a $3 million gift.

The inaugural game at Paulson Stadium in 1984 saw the Eagles soar to a 48-11 victory over Liberty.

What former Eagle head coach Erk Russell described as "The Prettiest Little Stadium in America" has been transformed into one of the finest facilities of its kind. The mid-deck creates an architectural presence on the north side with the new 50,000-square-foot Ted Smith Family Football Center enclosing the east end zone.

The $10 million stadium expansion project was student fee funded with private donations making possible the Eagle Football team's new building.

Winning is the one constant at Paulson Stadium where the Eagles have a stunning 214-49 home record (.814) and won 91.7 percent of their postseason games (33-3). That .817 winning percentage stands as the fourth-best amongst current FBS stadiums entering the 2024 season.

More than three million fans have witnessed that success in Statesboro, creating a game day atmosphere that attracts Eagle fans from across campus, throughout the Coastal Empire and southeast region.

Previous upgrades to the complex included renovation of the concourses and hospitality areas and the addition of a brick façade along the walls of Paulson Stadium prior to 2005.

Initially constructed at a cost of $4.7 million with just over 14,000 permanent seats and grass seating for thousands more, the addition of Paulson Stadium elevated the fledgeling program. The site for numerous nationally televised games, including the 1989 Hugo Bowl on ESPN, permanent light fixtures were installed for the 1994 season. Every home game over the past three seasons has been aired by the ESPN family of networks.

The stadium is named for the late Allen E. Paulson, former founder and chairman of Gulfstream Aerospace, who donated more than $1 million toward construction of the facility.

In 2007, Georgia Southern University renamed the area surrounding the Stadium "Erk Russell Athletic Park" to honor the former Eagle coach.

The addition of the Ted Smith Family Football Center brought the nucleus of Eagle Football to the south end of campus. This building features the team locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, team room, meeting rooms and a lobby with all six FCS national championship trophies.

Following the 2015 season, the grass playing surface of what is now Evans Family Field was removed to make way for a brand-new turf surface. New LED lights were installed in 2020. The turf was replaced in 2023.

Construction on the Anthony P. Tippins Family Training Facility, a $12.5 million project, was completed next to the stadium in the summer of 2023.

A new, large Formetco video board was installed above the Smith Family Center for 2024. Additionally, a new ribbon board and a new sound system were installed that summer.

EDWIN JACKSON

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL

1991-2018

Georgia Southern announced in February of 2018 that the walk-on tryouts for the program moving forward will be named in honor of Edwin Jackson, who died Feb. 4, 2018 in an automobile accident in Indianapolis.

Jackson went through the tryout process at Georgia Southern to earn a spot on the team and worked his way up to eventual starter before moving on to start in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts.

As a junior in 2013, Jackson totaled a team-best 92 tackles, including a team-leading 13 stops in a 26-20 upset win against the University of Florida in The Swamp. He was voted team captain by his teammates and recorded a career-high 100 tackles as a senior in helping the Eagles win the Sun Belt Conference Championship in the school's inaugural year competing at the FBS level in 2014. He was awarded first-team All-Sun Belt honors for his performance on the field.

He was an undrafted free agent who went to the Arizona Cardinals' camp, but was one of the final cuts. He joined the Indianapolis Colts' practice squad in late 2015 and went on to start eight games at linebacker in 2016 for the Colts. He did not play in 2017 season due to an injury.

Jackson created the Edwin Jackson 53 Foundation, which holds football clinics, fitness camps and after-school programs for disadvantaged youth, and supports student athletes who do not have scholarships.

Information on the Edwin Jackson Memorial Walk-On Tryouts can be found on GSEagles.com.

2024 COACHES AND STAFF

CLAY HELTON

HEAD COACH // THIRD SEASON AT GS // 58-38 OVERALL RECORD; 12-14 at GS

Clay Helton, who led USC to a Rose Bowl title in 2016, was named the 11th full-time head coach in the Georgia Southern modern football era on Nov. 2, 2021. He is in his third season as the Eagles' head coach.

In his first year in Statesboro, the Eagles knocked off Nebraska on the road for the school's second Power 5 win, beat a ranked James Madison team at home, and beat rival App State in double overtime to secure a bid to the Camellia Bowl. The Georgia Southern passing offense finished in the top five nationally in yards per game and transfer quarterback Kyle Vantrease broke numerous school and Sun Belt passing records - both single-season and career - in his lone year with the program.

In 2023, Helton once again led the Eagles to a bowl game, as well as wins over rivals Coastal Carolina and Georgia State. Fourteen players were named all-conference by various outlets, including linebacker Marques Watson-Trent who earned All-America honors from Phil Steele. Additionally, three players were named Freshman All-Americans and Khaleb Hood left Statesboro with nearly every receiving record.

Helton went 46-24 (.657) as the head coach of the USC Trojans with 12 victories over AP Top 25 teams, including three in the Top 5 and four in the Top 10. He went 5-1 in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season and was 8-5 in 2019 with wins over No. 23 Stanford and No. 10 Utah. Helton went 11-3 in 2017 with wins over No. 14

Stanford twice (including in the Pac-12 Championship Game) and No. 23 Arizona, and went 10-3 in 2016 with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado.

Helton was the first USC head coach to have 10-win seasons in each of his first two full seasons, and he had more wins (21) in his first two full seasons than any USC coach. He led USC to a 13-game winning streak from 2016 to 2017 and a 13-game winning streak over Power 5 opponents from 2016 to 2017. He also had five Trojan players he coached taken in the first round of the NFL Draft, including No. 3 overall pick Sam Darnold and No. 8 overall pick Drake London.

His 2020 Trojans won their first five games in the COVID-19-shortened season and played in the Pac-12 Championship Game as the South Division representative, finishing 5-1 (USC opted out of a bowl game). In 2020, USC's passing offense ranked 11th nationally (first in Pac-12) at 319.3 as quarterback Kedon Slovis made All-Pac-12 first team while ranking in the national Top 20 in completions (first at 29.5), passing yards (sixth at 320.2), total offense (13th at 310.7) and completion percentage (18th at .670), all tops in the Pac-12. Wide receiver Amon-Ra St. Brown also was an All-Pac-12 first-teamer. Offensive tackle Alijah-Vera Tucker made All-Pac-12 and was the Pac-12 offensive Morris Trophy winner (top lineman). USC's defense improved dramatically from the previous year, allowing 369.7 total yards (to 408.7 in 2019), including just 216.3 passing (to 246.2 in 2019). Safety Talanoa Hufanga was a consensus All-American first-teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, and defensive lineman Marlon Tuipulotu made All-Pac-12 first team. Helton was released as the head coach of the Trojans after a 1-1 start to the 2021 season.

His 2019 Trojans won five of their final six regular-season games to go 8-5 overall and 7-2 in the Pac-12 South, qualifying for the Holiday Bowl. The Trojans gave Utah its only regular-season loss (for which he was named the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Week). Wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. was a finalist for the Biletnikoff and Witten Awards, was in the national Top 20 in receptions, receiving yards, and receiving touchdowns. He caught 101 passes with 11 touchdowns, while fellow wideouts Amon-Ra St. Brown (77 catches) and Tyler Vaughns (74 catches) both had six touchdowns. True freshman quarterback Kedon Slovis, the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year, completed a school-record and NCAA freshman record 71.9% of his passes for a USC frosh record 3,502 yards with 30 touchdowns. Included in that total was a school-record 515 passing yards against UCLA (one of a USC record four games with 400-plus passing yards), to rank in the national Top 20 in completion percentage, passing yards, completions, passing efficiency, passing TD, and total offense. Jackson was an NFL Draft first-rounder, and Pittman went in the second round. USC's offense averaged 455 total yards, including a school-record 335 passing and 32 points a game.

His 2018 Trojans, which featured young players in key positions, went 5-7 overall, with the last four losses all by seven points or less. JT Daniels, who threw for 2,672 yards for USC just a season after graduating high school a year early, was just the second Trojan true freshman to start a season opener at quarterback. Wide receiver Amon-Ra St. Brown was just the fourth USC true freshman to lead the Trojans in season receptions (60), and defensive lineman Jay Tufele was a Freshman All-American first-teamer.

In 2017 while guiding USC's 125th team, Helton's Trojans were 11-3 (ranked 12th in the final AP poll) despite playing all 12 regular-season games without a bye. It was USC's most wins since 2008 and its first back-to-back 10-win seasons since 2007-08. He led USC to an 8-1 Pac-12 record and its first Pac-12 title since 2008 by winning the Pac-12 Championship Game and then playing in the Cotton Bowl Classic. Helton was the 2017 AP Pac-12 Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2017 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award. Tailback Ronald Jones II and outside linebacker Uchenna Nwosu were All-America first-teamers, quarterback Sam Darnold was a finalist for the Manning Award after setting USC's season passing yardage and total yardage records and was the third pick of the NFL Draft. USC's 484.1 yards of total offense in 2017 was its highest average since 2005, and the Trojans had at least 600 yards of total offense three times in 2017.

After his Trojans started 1-3 in 2016 in his first full season as head coach (all three losses were to AP Top 25 teams away from home), USC went on a nine-game winning streak to rise to a final No. 3 national AP ranking. They earned a berth in the Rose Bowl while playing a schedule ranked among the 10 most difficult in the nation. USC capped the season with an instant classic 52-49 at-the-gun victory over No. 5 Penn State in the Rose Bowl.

Under Helton's guidance in 2016, Adoreé Jackson was named the Thorpe Award winner, a consensus All-American first-teamer, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy (he also was an NFL first-round draft pick). Sam Darnold was a Manning Award finalist and a Freshman All-American, and both Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler were All-America first-team selections. USC's offense had at least 400 total yards in its final 10 games, while its defense held seven opponents to season lows in points. Helton was named a finalist for the 2016 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and won the Football Writers First Year Co-Coach of the Year Award.

After starting the 2015 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, Helton was named USC's permanent head coach for two post-season games on Nov. 30 of that year. He had the interim head coaching title that he had held since Oct. 12 (for USC's final seven regular-season games) removed. Helton guided the 2015 Trojans to five wins in the final six regular-season games (including victories over No. 3 Utah and No. 22 UCLA), the co-championship of the challenging Pac-12 South Division, a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game, and a trip to the Holiday Bowl.

As the coordinator of USC's offense in 2015, quarterback Cody Kessler was named a finalist for the Unitas Award and was an NFL Draft third-round pick, ranked in the national Top 20 in completion percentage, passing touchdowns, and passing efficiency. Kessler ended his career in USC's career top four in touchdown passes, completions, passing yards, and total offense. All-Pac-12 first-team wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster was in the Top 20 nationally in receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, and receptions. Tailbacks Justin Davis and Ronald Jones II each had 900-plus yard rushing seasons.

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013.

In 2014, quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7%, 39 TDs, five interceptions) while setting USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1), and interception rate (1.11). He also threw a school-record seven touchdown passes against Colorado and six against Notre Dame. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third-down conversions, and scoring offense in 2014. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring. In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerffel Trophy, and he was also a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award, and ARA Sportsmanship Award. Barkley became the Pac-12 career record holder for passing yards, completions, touchdowns, and total offense en route to becoming a fourth-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerffel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes with 39 and finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for three seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next four seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the final three years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommy West had off-season heart surgery.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running record holder DeAngelo Williams, who finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and was an NFL first-round selection. As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006) and the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top six in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single-season records for completions, passing yards, and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver, and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

During Helton's time, Memphis played in five bowls: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl, and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl. Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season but was there just two months before leaving for USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for three seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

Helton played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

Helton earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994 and prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land, Texas.

Helton was born on June 24, 1972, in Gainesville, Florida. He and his wife, Angela, have three children: sons Reid and Turner and daughter Aubrey. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami, and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins), and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, was the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator at USC (2016-17) until becoming Tennessee's offensive coordinator in 2018 and is now the head coach at Western Kentucky.

RYAN APLIN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS // THIRD SEASON

Two-time Sun Belt Conference Student-Athlete of the Year Ryan Aplin is in his third year as at Georgia Southern. Aplin, who most recently spent the 2021 season as the running backs coach at Arkansas State, is in his first year as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after serving the past two seasons as the tight ends and inside receivers coach as well as the pass game coordinator for Clay Helton's offensive staff.

The 2022 season was a record-breaking one for Aplin as he helped transform the Eagle offense into an aerial threat. Georgia Southern broke just about every passing record under all-conference quarterback Kyle Vantreese, who finished the year with 4,253 passing yards and 27 touchdowns. Three receivers had over 700 yards apiece, including Khaleb Hood who broke the school's single-season receptions (87) and yardage (925) marks.

In 2023, the Eagle passing offense was once again stout as it finished in the top 20 nationally in passing yards per game. Hood set just about every receiving record in the books, breaking his own marks from 2022 and Jjay McAfee posted a new school record for catches in a season by a tight end. Both players earned all-conference honors from various outlets.

At Arkansas State, where he led the Red Wolves to conference titles in 2011 and 2012 as a player, he coached the running backs in 2021. Prior to returning to his alma mater, he was the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Western Kentucky.

Following his playing career at A-State, Aplin made coaching stops at Auburn (2014-15), North Alabama (2016, 2018-19), UT Chattanooga (2018-19), WKU (2020) and Arkansas State (2021).

Aplin's lone season with the Hilltoppers saw him help lead the program to an appearance in the LendingTree Bowl while serving as co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach.

Prior to WKU, Aplin was North Alabama's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018 and 2019. In his final season, UNA averaged 285 passing yards per game as the team eclipsed the 3,000-yard mark over the 11-game season. Quarterback Christian Lopez targeted many different options with four different wide receivers posting at least 25 receptions, 550 yards and two touchdowns.

North Alabama assembled a 7-3 record in the program's first season competing at the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2018, the first year of Aplin's second stint with program. The Lions mastered four fourth-quarter come-from-behind wins, while the team set a school record with the fewest turnovers in a season in school history with just nine. Lopez also set a school individual record by throwing 253 consecutive passes without an interception.

Aplin was previously North Alabama's wide receivers coach in 2016, then took a position as the wide receivers coach at Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2017. The Lions' 2016 campaign saw them compile an 11-2 record, claim the Gulf South Conference and Super Region 2 championships and advance to the NCAA Division II National Championship game.

Prior to his first stop at UNA, Aplin served as a graduate assistant coach at Auburn for two years from 2014-15 while earning a master's degree in adult education. He spent the 2013 season as a football offensive intern at Ole Miss.

A Tampa, Florida, native, Aplin was twice named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year in 2011 and 2012 when the Red Wolves won back-to-back league titles. The three-time first-team all-conference player was also MVP of the 2013 GoDaddy Bowl. The former quarterback still holds the school records for career total offense (12,514 yards), completions (906) and passing yards (10,758), while his 67 touchdown passes stand as the second most.

Aplin earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Arkansas State University in 2012. He is married to the former Victoria Price of Fleming Island, Florida, and they have two sons, Maverick and Hawkins, and two daughters, Naomi and Ivy.

BRANDON BAILEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES // SECOND SEASON

@COACH_BBAILY

Georgia Southern alum Brandon Bailey serves as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Eagle football program. He came to Statesboro after a successful debut season as a defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the University of Buffalo.

In his first season in Statesboro, he led a defense that saw a marked improvement across the board both nationally and in the Sun Belt. The defense finished in the top 30 nationally in passes intercepted, defensive touchdowns and tackles for loss. Leading the linebackers, Marques Watson-Trent was named an All-American by Phil Steele after posting 122 tackles on the season.

Bailey, the youngest defensive coordinator in the FBS in 2022, led a UB defense that ranked fourth in the MAC in scoring. Buffalo forced 28 turnovers on the season, over twice as many as the previous year, and the Bulls finished second in the FBS with 15 fumbles recovered and tied for the league lead in interceptions with 13. The 28 takeaways were the seventh-most in the country. Safety Marcus Fuqua tied for the national lead in interceptions with seven en route to being named to the Associated Press All-America Third Team, becoming just the third UB player to be named an AP All-American in the Bulls' FBS era.

Three members of Buffalo's defense were named All-MAC, including linebacker Shaun Dolac who was a first-team selection after totaling 147 tackles, third in program history for a single season. He led the nation with a school-record 97 solo stops. Bailey helped lead the Bulls to a victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl for UB's third bowl win in program history.

Prior to arriving at UB, Bailey spent three seasons as a defensive assistant at Texas A&M, working with defensive coordinator Mike Elko who was later hired as Duke's head coach.

Bailey was part of a staff whose defense was not only one of the best in the SEC but also nationally. Each of his last two seasons at Texas A&M, the Aggies ranked third in the SEC in total defense. In 2021, Texas A&M ranked 14th in the nation in total defense.

In 2020, the Aggies went 9-1 and defeated North Carolina in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Texas A&M finished ranked fourth in the nation that season. In 2021, Texas A&M went 8-4 and was selected to play in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. However due to COVID protocol they were unable to participate in the game. The Aggies went 8-5 in 2019 and defeated Oklahoma State in the Texas Bowl.

Prior to Texas A&M, Bailey served as defensive backs coach at Arkansas-Monticello in 2018. He was the defensive play caller for the final seven games of the season. The Boll Weevils went 5-2 over that seven-game stretch.

In 2017, he served as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Richmond Hill High School in Georgia. Bailey spent one season as a defensive graduate assistant at Tulane in 2016.

Bailey graduated Cum Laude from Georgia Southern University in May 2016, where he received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He worked with the Eagle football program as a student assistant while attending school.

He is married to the former C.C. Rohrer of Statesboro, Georgia. They have a daughter, Brighton Carolyn.

DARIUS EUBANKS

LINEBACKERS/RUN GAME COORDINATOR // SECOND SEASON

X @DARIUS_EUBANKS

Darius Eubanks, a Georgia Southern alum and a former outside linebacker in the NFL, serves as the linebackers coach and the defensive run game coordinator for the Eagle football program. He returned to Statesboro after stops at Liberty and Georgia State during his early coaching career.

In 2023, Eubanks served as the defensive secondary coach and led a group that finished in the top 30 nationally in passes intercepted. The group was led by all-conference safety TJ Smith who had three picks and cornerback Shemar Bartholomew tied for the league lead in pass breakups.

In 2022, Eubanks was part of the Liberty staff that led the Flames to an 8-5 record, including an appearance in the Boca Raton Bowl. As the defensive backs coach, Eubanks helped mentor Robert Rahimi, who was 11th in the country with five interceptions.

The Flames finished 14th in the FBS in turnovers gained, 22nd in interceptions, 23rd in passing efficiency defense and 35th in total defense.

Eubanks coached at Georgia State in 2021, helping the Panthers to an 8-5 record, including a win over 51-20 win over Ball State in the Camellia Bowl. The Panthers ranked No. 15 in the country in tackles for a loss (7.1 per game) and No. 23 in sacks (2.92). Georgia State had 10 interceptions in 2021 and ranked No. 30 nationally in turnovers gained (21).

While at Georgia State, safety Antavious Lane was a first-team All-Sun Belt honoree after finishing the year fourth in the country in interceptions with five.

Prior to his stint in Atlanta, Eubanks spent three seasons (2018-20) on the defensive staff at Samford under former Eagle head coach

Chris Hatcher but landed at Georgia State from Western Carolina, where he was hired in the spring of 2021 as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

At Samford, Eubanks coached the safeties for two seasons (2018-19) and then served as the defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator in the 2020 season that was played in spring of 2021 due to COVID.

Under Eubanks' coaching, Samford's Chris Edmonds earned All-America honors and was a first-team All-Southern Conference selection after ranking second nationally in the FCS in interceptions with four.

Eubanks began his coaching career as the defensive line graduate assistant at Arkansas in 2017.

Following a stellar career at Georgia Southern, Eubanks signed with the Minnesota Vikings as a free agent in 2013. He spent his NFL career (2013-16) with the Cleveland Browns, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive back at Georgia Southern (2009-12), Eubanks started 50 of 52 games played for the Eagles. He totaled 260 tackles, including 12.5 for loss, recorded four interceptions and broke up 18 passes during his career. The Eagles made it to the FCS semifinals in his final three seasons.

Eubanks ranked in the top five on the team in total tackles every season with a career-best 77 as a senior in 2013 en route to First-Team All-Southern Conference honors from the league's head coaches.

A native of Thomson, Georgia, Eubanks earned his bachelor's in sport management from Georgia Southern in 2013.

BJ JOHNSON

WIDE RECEIVERS // SECOND SEASON

X @BJJOHNSON

BJ Johnson, who was one of the best wide receivers ever to play at Georgia Southern, serves as the wide receivers coach for the Eagle football program, a position he assumed for the 2023 season. He comes to Statesboro after one season as an assistant coach at Gardner-Webb, taking over responsibility for the team's receivers in February 2022.

In 2023, Johnson helped mentor several receivers who had big years, including record-setting Khaleb Hood (101 receptions, 948 yards, five TDs) and Derwin Burgess Jr. (74 receptions, 813 yards, six TDs). The Eagle passing offense finished in the top 20 nationally in passing yards per game.

In his year at G-W, Johnson helped lead the Runnin' Bulldogs to the program's first title in 19 seasons as they advanced to the second round of the FCS Playoffs. A pair of Johnson's receivers - TJ Luther and Cutrell Haywood - were both named first-team All-Big South honors while Luther was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele.

Luther flourished under Johnson, hauling in 63 passes for 1,166 yards and eight touchdowns in 13 games - averaging 18.5 yards per reception. He had seven games with at least 100 yards receiving in 2022, paced by a five-catch, 188-yard outing at Coastal Carolina.

Luther, who is only the third receiver in the program's Division I era to post a 1,000-yard season, accepted an invitation to play in the prestigious NFLPA Collegiate Bowl in advance of the NFL Draft.

Haywood had a career-best year as well, catching 78 passes for 775 yards and seven touchdowns. He led the Big South in receptions and posted six of his seven touchdowns against Big South opposition.

Prior to his stint at Gardner-Webb staff, Johnson spent a season on the sidelines at Texas Tech, where he spent one year as an offensive graduate assistant with the Red Raiders' inside receivers and tight ends.

The Woodruff, South Carolina, native was part of an offensive staff that helped the program to seven wins and a 34-7 win over Mississippi State in the Liberty Bowl last season. Texas Tech averaged 416.4 yards of total offense per game and scored 30.3 points per game.

Johnson spent the 2020 season in the PAC-12 at Colorado, serving as a defensive graduate assistant. He helped the Buffaloes to a 4-2 record and a berth in the Valero Alamo Bowl during his time in Boulder.

Prior to his move to the FBS ranks, Johnson spent the 2019 season at Division II Savannah State as the receivers coach. Johnson helped the Tigers to a 7-3 mark, which was the program's first winning campaign in 22 years.

Savannah State finished the 2019 season with a perfect 5-0 mark in the SIAC.

Johnson was a volunteer coach at Woodruff (S.C.) High, his alma mater, after a strong college career at Georgia Southern.

As a receiver for the Eagles, caught 93 balls for 1,338 yards and six touchdowns from 2013-2016, averaging 14.4 yards per catch for the Eagles. He helped Georgia Southern to a 2015 GoDaddy Bowl win over Bowling Green and was voted to the program's 40th Anniversary Team as one of the four receivers to make the squad. He graduated with a degree in sport management from Georgia Southern in May of 2016.

After his college career, Johnson signed a free agent deal with the San Francisco 49ers and made the team before a hamstring injury on the first week of the 2017 regular season cut his career short.

Johnson played prep football at Woodruff High, earning all-state honors twice after catching 165 passes for 2,780 yards and 30 touchdowns during a stellar career.

ZACH LANKFORD

OFFENSIVE LINE/RUN GAME COORDINATOR // FIRST SEASON

X @COACHLANKFORD

Zach Lankford serves as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator for the Georgia Southern offense. Lankford comes to Statesboro after five seasons at Western Kentucky, the final two as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line for a high-powered Hilltopper offense.

Lankford returned to WKU in February 2019 for his second stint with the Hilltoppers, this time as the tight ends coach. He moved to an offensive quality control coach in 2021 before being elevated in 2022 to the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

In his first year as offensive line coach, Lankford mentored a unit that finished the year 14th in the country in sacks allowed with just 14. That number was also second-best in Conference USA. Tackle Gunner Britton finished the year as an All-Conference USA Second-Team performer, and three more offensive linemen were named honorable mention by the league.

Tight end Joshua Simon followed up an impressive freshman campaign with another productive season, ranking third on the Hilltoppers with 33 receptions for 370 yards, while his three scores stood second. Under Lankford's tutelage, Simon pushed his career marks to 63 catches for 800 yards and seven touchdowns in his first two years on The Hill.

In 2023, receiver Malachi Corley was named to CUSA's All-Conference First Team after his outstanding year. Corley racked up 984 yards receiving on 79 receptions and a conference-leading 11 touchdown grabs. Those 79 catches helped him break the WKU program record for career receptions, with his total standing at 259. He also ranks second in WKU history with 29 touchdown receptions and third in receiving yards with 3,033. Senior quarterback Austin Reed (3,340 yards, 31 TDs) and junior offensive lineman Vincent Murphy were given C-USA All-Conference honorable mention honors after helping lead an offense that averaged over 400 yards per game.

In his first season on The Hill as a full-time coach, Lankford helped develop a tight end group that, in the past, has been the focal point of the WKU offense. In his true freshman campaign, Simon recorded 30 receptions for 430 yards and four touchdowns, which helped him be named to the Midseason FWAA Freshman All-America Watch List and Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

During the 2019 bowl season, Simon was the only tight end in the nation with a 100-yard receiving game, as the true freshman had 106 yards vs. Western Michigan in the First Responder Bowl. In addition, Kyle Fourtenbary was named to the 2019 John Mackey Award Preseason Watch List and then Honorable Mention John Mackey Tight End of the Week after grabbing five catches for 74 yards at FIU.

Lankford spent three seasons at WKU from 2014-16. His time coincided with three consecutive bowl victories and two consecutive Conference USA championships.

In his first stint, Lankford assisted with the offensive line and helped to develop one of the program's all-time greatest offensive line groups in 2015 and 2016. Those two units were also roundly considered some of the nation's best, with starters Forrest Lamp, Brandon Ray, Max Halpin, and Darrell Williams leading the charge.

Lankford then spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as the program's offensive line coach at Faulkner University.

Before coming to WKU, Lankford served as the Associate Director of Recruiting and Player Development at UAB, managing the program's on-campus recruiting efforts and high school relations. Lankford was also a stand-out tight end for the Blazers, completing his playing career in 2009.

Lankford entered the coaching profession at Reinhardt University (NAIA), where he was an offensive intern and tight ends coach. Following a season there, he moved on to Georgia Military College (NJCAA) as the offensive line and tight ends coach.

Lankford earned his bachelor's degree in history at UAB in 2010 after a four-year playing career for the Blazers.

As a player, Lankford appeared in 39 games overall after a high school career that included a Georgia Class 7-AAAAA championship in 2004.

He is married to the former Anna Crabb, and the couple has one son, Jack, and one daughter, Vada.

TAYLOR REED

RUNNING BACKS // SECOND SEASON

@COACHTAYLORREED

Taylor Reed, who has coaching experience at three Power 5 programs, serves as the running backs coach for Georgia Southern. He joined the staff in January of 2023 after spending two seasons with the Illinois football program.

In his first year in Statesboro, Reed mentored a talented running back room that combined to rush for 1,447 yards and 15 touchdowns. Jalen White led the way with nearly 900 yards on the ground, earning all-conference honors for his play.

Reed was elevated to an offensive analyst for the Illini in 2022 after serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2021 when he helped Illinois to a pair of road, ranked wins. The Illini won at No. 7 Penn State in nine overtimes, the longest game in college football history, and won at No. 20 Minnesota, the program's first win over a College Football Playoff-ranked opponent.

In 2022, running back Chase Brown led the nation with 1,643 rushing yards and scored 10 touchdowns, and quarterback Tommy DeVito threw for 2,650 yards and 15 touchdowns against just four interceptions. Brown became the first Doak Walker Award finalist in program history and was named an All-American by almost every outlet. DeVito set a program record with a 69.6 percent completion rate, which was the fourth best in the FBS. Illinois was the only team in the country with a 1,500-yard rusher and a receiver with 80 catches.

Before arriving at Illinois, Reed spent the previous two seasons at Auburn as an offensive graduate assistant, working primarily with wide receivers and helping Auburn to the Citrus Bowl and Outback Bowl berths.

Reed initially coached under Bret Bielema at Arkansas from 2016-17, working primarily with the quarterbacks. At Arkansas, Reed helped coach Austin Allen, the SEC's top passer in 2016, who threw for 3,430 yards, including a league-best 2,291 yards in SEC play, and totaled 25 touchdown passes.

Reed joined the Razorbacks after lettering at Central Arkansas at quarterback from 2013-15, where he threw for 1,809 yards and 14 touchdowns in 23 games over three seasons.

He began his college career in 2011 at Memphis, starting nine of 11 games and throwing for 1,690 yards and 10 touchdowns. Following that season, he transferred to Arkansas, sat out the 2012 season due to NCAA transfer rules, and then joined Central Arkansas in August 2013.

Reed rejoined Central Arkansas as running backs coach in 2018 before moving to Auburn from 2019-20.

A native of El Dorado, Arkansas, Reed graduated from Central Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He and his wife, Shayne, married in July 2019. They are the parents of twin boys, William Bo and Tommy Fisher, who were born in 2022.

RIP ROWAN

DEFENSIVE LINE // THIRD SEASON

X @RIP_ROWAN48

Elwyn "Rip" Rowan, who has deep roots in the state of Georgia and also has Power 5 coaching experience, serves as the defensive line coach for the Georgia Southern Eagles.

His 2023 group was one that put pressure on the opposing offense all season, finishing in the top 20 nationally in tackles for loss. Elhadj Fall was named a Freshman All-American and Isaac Walker was named all-conference after leading the FBS in forced fumbles (5) and fumbles recovered (4). Additionally, Justin Rhodes earned all-conference honors after tying for the team lead with 13.0 tackles for loss.

In his first year, Rowan inherited an experienced group on the edge, but had to rely on young players inside. The 2022 group was led by senior end Justin Ellis, who earned all-conference honors after posting 10.0 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

Rowan spent the 2021 season as the defensive line coach at the University of Washington, working with one of the stingiest defenses in the country. The Huskies allowed just 22.7 points per game and averaged over five tackles per loss per game. The pressure his line generated helped lead to the success of the secondary, which led the FBS in the fewest passing yards allowed per game and was third in pass efficiency defense.

He went to the UW as a defensive analyst in March of 2019 and was named the Huskies' defensive line coach in February of 2021 after two seasons as an analyst.

Rowan was listed on 247Sports' "30 Under 30" listing of "rising stars" in college football in 2019.

A native of Marietta, Georgia, Rowan went to Washington after serving as a graduate assistant coach at Florida Atlantic in 2017 and 2018.

After working as a history teacher and assistant football coach at Northwest High School in Clarksville, Tennessee, he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Southern Miss in 2015 and 2016, where his attention was focused on the defensive line.

Rowan was named after his grandfather Elwyn P. "Rip" Rowan, who, according to his biography in the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, earned the nickname due to his ability to rip through defensive lines as a running back at Memphis' Central High School in the early 1940s.

The original "Rip" played college football at both LSU and Army, served eight years as a second lieutenant, then earned acclaim as the color commentator for Ole Miss football. Bob Rowan — the original Rip's son and the second Rip's father — played at the University of Texas as well.

A four-year letterman defensive lineman and linebacker at Austin Peay, Rowan made the Dean's List numerous times and received his bachelor's degree in history and education in 2014. He earned a Master's degree from Southern Miss in 2016.

DARIUS SAFFORD

DEFENSIVE BACKS // FIRST SEASON

X @COACHSAFFORD

Former Georgia Southern defensive back and graduate assistant coach Darius Safford returns to Georgia Southern and serves as the defensive backs coach for the Eagles. Safford comes back to Statesboro after five seasons with Kennesaw State and second as the defensive backs coach in 2023. From 2019-2021, Safford oversaw cornerbacks for the Owls.

Prior to the 2023 season, Safford was selected to join the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship within the National Football League. Safford was added to the Chicago Bears' minicamp and training camp staffs for the summer. Safford's secondary shined in 2022. During the campaign, defensive back Markeith Montgomery set a school record for career interceptions with 10. Safford also mentored cornerback Chance Gamble to the FedEx Ground National Player of the Week after tying the school record with three interceptions in a single game.

The accolades continued to roll in for the KSU secondary when defensive back Deontre Morris was named a Sophomore All-American by HERO Sports and an ASUN All-Conference defensive selection. Morris and Montgomery finished within the top 11 in the nation in interceptions per game for the 2022 season.

In the 2021 fall season, Safford helped guide KSU to the top-ranked defense in the Big South Conference. The cornerbacks coach was also instrumental in developing the defense's back end, which led the FCS in red zone defense at 57.6%. Safford helped guide the Owls to the No. 3 total defense in the country in 2019, led by defensive back Le'Vonte Larry, who earned second-team All-Big South honors after finishing with 49 tackles, one interception, and a team-high six pass breakups.

Kennesaw State held six opponents to 14 points or less and tallied 13 interceptions in 2019, including three picks from freshman Markeith Montgomery, the only rookie in the Big South Conference to record multiple interceptions. Safford also assisted with the punt return unit in 2019, which finished the year ranked third in blocked punts (4) and eighth in yards per return (15.69).

Safford came to KSU after holding the same position at Mercer University during the 2018 season. Before his time at Mercer, the Douglasville, Georgia, native was an assistant coach at West Georgia and a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern, where he worked with the defensive secondary. Safford started coaching in 2014 as the defensive backs coach at Chapel Hill High School in Douglasville, Georgia. While at Chapel Hill, he coached Cameron Gill, who would go on to win Super Bowl LV with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2015, Safford moved up to the college ranks and served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Southern. While in Statesboro, the defense was ranked in multiple statistical categories. This defense ranked 21st in total defense (338.1 yards per game) and 38th in scoring defense (23.5 points per game). That season, Georgia Southern also ranked 34th in fourth down conversion defense.

Safford coached multiple defensive backs who received All-Sun Belt honors, including Antonio Glover and Ironhead Gallon. Glover was a 2015 All-Sun Belt First-Team selection and was an undrafted free agent signed by the Denver Broncos. Gallon was a 2015 All-Sun Belt Honorable Mention, a 2016 All-Sun Belt First-Team selection, and an undrafted free agent who signed with the Arizona Cardinals. Safford also coached Caleb Williams and Darius Jones, who were All-Sun Belt Honorable Mentions in 2015 and 2016, respectively.

Safford was hired as the cornerbacks coach at West Georgia prior to the 2017 season. Under his direction, the West Georgia defense was ranked in multiple statistical categories. The team ranked 14th in total defense (284.4 yards per game), 12th in pass efficiency (99.51), 13th in passing yards allowed (160.1 yards per game), 7th in scoring defense (15.2 points allowed per game), fifth in fourth down conversion percentage defense and 24th in third down conversion percentage defense. Safford's secondary also finished the year with eight interceptions.

As a player, Safford was a standout at two institutions. He was a tri-captain at Lafayette (Pa.), garnering All-Patriot League honors for the Leopards.

After earning a bachelor's degree in economics and African studies, Safford transferred to Georgia Southern for his senior season, where he earned his master's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in coaching education.

On the field, he recorded 21 tackles, including 4.0 for loss and four pass breakups as a cornerback.

CLINT TRICKETT

TIGHT ENDS/INSIDE RECEIVERS/PASS GAME COORDINATOR // FIRST SEASON

X @CTRICKETT9

Former Florida State and West Virginia quarterback Clint Trickett serves as the tight ends and inside receivers coach, as well as the pass game coordinator, for the Eagles. He joined the program after successful coaching stops at Marshall and Florida Atlantic.

Named to On3.com's 2022-23 Rising Stars List, Trickett has overseen offenses that played vital roles in two Power 5 wins (Notre Dame and Virginia Tech), coached a 1,000-yard rusher in back-to-back seasons and mentored a Mackey Award winner, given to the nation's best tight end.

Trickett came to Statesboro after two seasons as Marshall's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In 2023, his offense averaged 358.5 yards per game, with powerful all-conference running back Rasheen Ali leading the way with 1,135 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns as the Herd downed Virginia Tech and earned a postseason berth in the Frisco Bowl.

In 2022, Trickett oversaw a Marshall offense that won its last five games of the season behind freshman quarterback Cam Fancher, who took over as the starter in the middle of the season. Trickett served as a mentor to Fancher, who turned spot duty in game action early in the season into an impressive second half of the year, which ended with a five-game winning streak that was capped by a 28-14 win over UConn in the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Marshall's 2022 offense also featured explosive running backs Khalan Laborn, who finished in the top-15 in four different major NCAA statistical categories in 2022, and Ali, who came back from injury late in the season to earn MVP honors at the Myrtle Beach Bowl, returning to his 2021 form that had him tied for the national lead in touchdowns. The highlight of the season came on September 10 as the Thundering Herd went into South Bend and upset eighth-ranked Notre Dame 26-21 behind LaBorn's 163 yards rushing.

Trickett was named Marshall's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2022 after serving as its pass game coordinator/wide receivers coach in 2021. In 2021, Trickett mentored wideouts Corey Gammage and Willie Johnson, who both earned honorable mention all-conference honors. The Thundering Herd's passing offense ranked 14th nationally with 3,830 yards through the air.

Trickett went to Marshall from Florida Atlantic, where he was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2020 after starting as the tight ends coach in February of 2017. The 2019 season would be a breakout year for the tight ends room and Trickett. Harrison Bryant, a John Mackey Award recipient (first non-FBS winner), tallied 1,004 yards receiving on 65 catches with seven touchdowns. Those first two marks were both tops among all FBS tight ends, with the seven scores fourth-highest. He was only the third C-USA tight end ever over 1,000 yards, as well as the third Owl all-time. John Raine was fifth on the team with both 31 catches and 270 yards and tied for second with a career-best five touchdowns. That year, Trickett was named to the AFCA 35-Under-35 list for his accomplishments.

The 2018 campaign saw Bryant continue to rise under Trickett's tutelage, with 45 catches for 662 yards and four scores. Bryant would be selected first-team All-C-USA and be rewarded as well with Pro Football Focus second-team All-American honors.

Trickett spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at East Mississippi Community College, one of the most successful JUCO programs in the country. Trickett's role at EMCC, a three-time NJCAA National Champion, was primarily tutoring EMCC's quarterbacks, among other coaching responsibilities.

Splitting his collegiate playing career between West Virginia and Florida State, Trickett completed 62 percent (470-of-758) of his passes for 5,837 career yards and 32 total touchdowns. The bulk of those impressive passing numbers came during the two years in Morgantown, where he threw for 4,890 total yards and 25 touchdowns in 19 games for the Mountaineers.

Trickett graduated from FSU in three years with a bachelor's degree in social sciences. Playing behind future NFL quarterback EJ Manuel during his three years at Florida State, Trickett completed 62.3 percent (66-of-106) of his career passes for 947 yards and seven touchdowns. As a redshirt freshman in 2011, he threw for 675 yards and seven touchdowns in nine games, including starting assignments against Clemson and Wake Forest.

He is the youngest of three sons of Rick and Tara Trickett. His father, a long-time, well-respected collegiate coach, has had notable stints at West Virginia, Mississippi State, Auburn, LSU, and Florida State under Jimbo Fisher, helping win the 2013 BCS National Championship. He is currently the offensive line coach at Jacksonville State and has nearly 50 years of coaching experience. His brother, Travis, is the offensive coordinator at Coastal Carolina, and his brother, Chance, is a scout for the Los Angeles Rams and was named to the 2023 BART list for the top seven college scouts in the NFL.

Clint is married to Kaylee Trickett.

TURNER WEST

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR // THIRD SEASON

X @TURNERWEST5

Turner West, who has experience coaching in the NFL, serves as the special teams coordinator for the Georgia Southern football program under head coach Clay Helton. He came to Statesboro after serving as the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator at The Citadel for the previous three seasons.

In 2023, Michael Lantz set a school record with 23 made field goals and led the Sun Belt with 114 points scored. It was the second time in as many years a Turner West-coached player led the league in scoring. Lantz was also perfect on 45 PATs, helping earn his All-Sun Belt first-team honors by Pro Football Focus. True freshman DeAndre Buchannon tied the school record with a 100-yard kickoff return against App State to help bolster his resume. Buchannon earned first-team Freshman All-America honors as a kick returner from College Football Network.

In 2022, Alex Raynor earned all-conference honors after leading the Sun Belt in scoring. The kicker went 18 of 20 on field goals and scored 103 points for the Eagles. Anthony Beck II averaged over 43 yards per punt and finished his Georgia Southern career with the highest punting average and school history (43.25), along with the most 50-yard punts in a career (38). Special teams ace NaJee Thompson was signed by the Minnesota Vikings and was a standout on punt coverage after making the 53-man roster as an undrafted free agent in 2023.

In 2021, All-American punter Matt Campbell was selected first-team All-SoCon for the fourth time, while long snapper Steele Judy was named to the second team. Campbell averaged 44.2 yards on 45 punts as a senior with a long of 84 yards with 13 punts downed inside the 20-yard line and 12 punts going 50 yards or longer. Judy snapped on all punts and field goals without a bad snap. He was also credited with a tackle.

In his first year with the Bulldogs, West mentored one of the most experienced and consistent special teams units in the country. The Bulldogs returned all key components of their unit, including All-American long snapper Patrick Keefe and Freshman All-American Matt Campbell.

The group proved to be one of the best in the FCS as they ranked sixth in net punting at 40.41 yards per punt. They also ranked 13th in punt return average at 4.0 yards per return. Individually, Campbell ranked eighth in punting at 44.1 yards per punt. He now owns two of the top three single-season punt averages in school history.

Kicker Jacob Godek converted all 43 of his extra points in 2019, while also hitting on eight field goals. He ended his career as the school's all-time leader with 113 extra points, including ending his career by making 105 straight.

The Bulldog punt block unit blocked a pair of punts on the season, both coming against Elon. Sean-Thomas Faulkner blocked both punts in the game to earn Southern Conference Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

His most important kick came in overtime when he hit from 37-yards out to give the Bulldogs a 27-24 overtime victory over Georgia Tech.

West joined the Bulldogs after spending the previous season as the linebackers coach at Austin Peay.

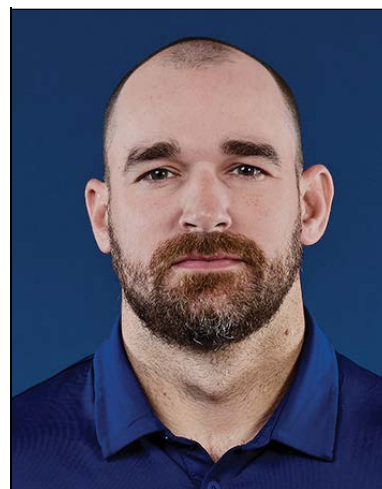

Prior to his time with the Governors, West spent four seasons as a defensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys.

While with the Cowboys, West worked with passing game coordinator/linebackers coach Matt Eberflus, where he assisted with the development of the linebackers.

His star pupil during his time in Dallas was Sean Lee, one of the top linebackers in the NFL. In 2016, Lee recorded career highs with 174 tackles and 12 tackles for loss. He was named All-Pro and earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod.

West went to the NFL after spending two years as a graduate assistant working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Middle Tennessee.

He began his coaching career as an intern at UAB in 2011 before going on to spend a semester as a volunteer assistant at Samford. West played wide receiver at Memphis for his father, head coach Tommy West. West received his degree in interdisciplinary studies from UM in 2011.

JAMES HEISS

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH, FOOTBALL // FIRST SEASON

James Heiss serves as Georgia Southern's director of football strength & conditioning, a position he assumed in 2024. Heiss spent the 2023 season as the associate director with Nebraska football and worked the previous four seasons at Buffalo.

In his time at Nebraska, Heiss oversaw the football strength & conditioning program in the absence of its head strength & conditioning coach. He led all weight room and on-field programming levels, designing, periodizing, and implementing year-round training. He was also responsible for the year-round training of all offensive and defensive linemen and assisted the coordinator of return to play with the return of acute injuries.

Heiss was the assistant director of strength and conditioning for football at Buffalo from 2019 to 2022. With the Bulls, he focused on the training and development of underclassmen and was also responsible for the return-to-play protocol for all injured student-athletes.

Before joining Buffalo, Heiss spent two seasons at Baylor in 2017 and 2018, working with Nebraska Head Football Strength & Conditioning Coach Corey Campbell on Matt Rhule's staff. Heiss also specialized in player development at Baylor and trained more than a dozen future NFL players.

A certified strength & conditioning coach, Heiss began his career as a graduate assistant at Akron. He earned his master's degree in sports science and administration from Akron in 2017. Heiss graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was also a football team member. Heiss was a two-year letterwinner with the Crimson Hawks, serving as a special teams captain. He began his collegiate career at Akron.

Heiss is a National Strength and Conditioning Association member and a Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association member.

He is joined in Statesboro by his wife, Gretchen. The couple had their first child, a daughter named MJ, in June of 2024.

MATT HASSAN

ASSISTANT A.D., FOOTBALL OPERATIONS // THIRD SEASON

Matt Hassan serves as the assistant athletics director for football operations at Georgia Southern, a position he started in January of 2022. He came to Statesboro after serving as the director of football operations at Troy football the previous two seasons.

Hassan is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Eagle football program including team travel, meals, scheduling and controlling the program's budget.

Hassan moved to Troy for two seasons after working at Mercer for a year. There, he served as director of football operations and general manager. Hassan oversaw all the day-to-day organizational and operations aspects of the football program. He was in charge of maintaining all non-coaching activities including budget, team travel, special projects and Mercer's off-field personnel. He was the Bears' liaison to the university's administration and oversaw Mercer's recruiting operations -- official visits, game day recruiting and staff.

Hassan joined the Bears' staff after a three-year stint with Auburn's football staff, where he served as a defensive analyst for the 2018 season and as an operations assistant from 2016-18. Prior to Auburn, Hassan spent two seasons on the coaching staff at Concordia University Chicago, working with the running backs in 2014 and tutoring linebackers in 2015, as well as coordinating academics, video and social media. He was additionally the running backs coach at Alma College in 2013.

Hassan was one of 30 participants selected for the 2014 NCAA/AFC Future Football Coaches Academy and is a Bronze Certified Coach through the National Coaches Education Program. Hassan ranks second among career rushers at North Park University in Chicago, where he was a two-year captain, three-time offensive MVP and an All-CCIW running back in 2011 and 2012. He was vice-president of the North Park Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and received the CCIW Merle Chapman Leadership Award.

A product of Glen Ellyn, Illinois, where he was a football and wrestling letterman at Glenbard West High School, Hassan received his bachelor's degree in history and education from North Park in 2013 and a master's degree in sports management and leadership from Concordia in 2015.

He is married to the former Anna Maria LaMantia, who played soccer at North Park while earning a degree in exercise science and received her PhD from Auburn in kinesiology. The couple has a young daughter, Alexandra.

RYAN SMITH
GENERAL MANAGER

Ryan Smith serves as the general manager of the Georgia Southern football program, giving head coach Clay Helton and the Eagles a key behind-the-scenes staffer for the program who concentrates on recruiting. Smith came to Statesboro after a season in the highly competitive Southeastern Conference as Auburn's director of player personnel. Before his time at Auburn, Smith had stints working under Mack Brown at North Carolina in the Atlantic Coast Conference and Gus Malzahn at Auburn in the SEC.

He was an offensive recruiting analyst with the Tar Heels for two seasons and spent the 2018 season as a personnel and operations assistant at Auburn. UNC's 2020 class ranked 13th nationally in the 247Sports Composite rankings, while the 2021 group finished 14th.

A 2015 graduate of Baylor, Smith began his career in 2017 at Angelo State, a Division II program, as an offensive quality control coach while also assisting with the program's quarterbacks. He then joined Malzahn's staff at Auburn the following season.

ADRIAN PETERSON
DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

College Football Hall of Famer Adrian Peterson and Georgia Southern alum serves as the director of student-athlete development for the Eagle football program. In his role, Peterson works closely with Student-Athlete Services to provide communication to the football staff on the academic progress of all 130-plus student-athletes on the team. He also serves as a mentor for many players as they navigate their way through college with the end goal of every player earning his degree. Peterson also has a heavy hand in on-campus recruiting, APR other areas to assigned by the head coach.

Perhaps the greatest player to ever suit up in Statesboro, Peterson's No. 3 jersey is retired at Georgia Southern and he still stands as the NCAA's Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests. He is already a member of GS's Athletics Hall of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December.

The Alachua, Florida, native was a four-time All-American and was the first sophomore to win the Walter Payton Award, given to the top player in the FCS. He rushed for 100 or more yards in 48 consecutive games and at the time of graduation, held 30 school and playoff records. He was a sixth-round draft choice of the Chicago Bears in 2002 and was a Super Bowl XLI participant.

ANDY HARRIS
ASSISTANT A.D., EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Andy Harris was hired in September of 2020 and serves as the Assistant A.D. of Equipment Operations for Georgia Southern Athletics. He came to Statesboro after two years as the Director of Equipment Operations at Southern Illinois. Prior to his stint at SIU, Harris spent eight years working for the Golden Gophers at the University of Minnesota. Harris oversaw the equipment operations of all 15 sports at SIU. In his eight years at Minnesota, Harris was the Assistant Director of Football Equipment for seven of those years and spent one year working with five Olympic Sports.

Prior to joining the Golden Gophers, Harris spent seven years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a student manager for three years and Head Equipment Manager for four years. Harris, who graduated from UWW, was also Director of Football Operations for three years for the Warhawks. UWW won an NCAA National Championship in 2007 and 2009 and advanced to two other championship games. Harris spent the 2005-06 school year at the University of Arizona where he was an equipment intern. Harris and his wife, Emily, have a daughter, Reagan, and a son, Declan.

NICK SPARACIO
HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Nick Sparacio joined the Georgia Southern Athletics Department prior to the 2015-16 season and serves as the Associate Head Athletic Trainer and Head Football Athletic Trainer for the Eagles. Prior to the 2022 football season, Sparacio provided medical care for the Eagles men's basketball team for seven seasons. Aside from Georgia Southern, Sparacio has donned the Red, White, and Blue, as he was selected as the athletic trainer for the 2021 USA Basketball Junior National Team. Sparacio came to Statesboro from Nashville, Tennessee, where he spent a year at Vanderbilt, providing athletic training services for football and men's tennis.

Prior to his stint at Vandy, Sparacio spent two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Wisconsin working with men's soccer, before graduating with a Master's of Science in Kinesiology in 2014. He received his undergraduate degree from Iowa State University in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training. Sparacio is an active member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, and is licensed in the state of Georgia. KICKER • 5-11 • 180 • FIFTH YEAR
SAVANNAH, GA.
BENEDICTINE MILITARY • GEORGIA TECH

2023-24: Saw action in every game for the Yellow Jackets ... Served as Georgia Tech's kickoff specialist, with 40 touchbacks in 62 tries ... Averaged 62.7 yards per kickoff ... Kicked a perfect 8-8 on extra point attempts this season ... Tallied a total of 3,888 yards on kickoffs this season.

2022-23: Emerged as one of college football's top kickers after taking over Georgia Tech's place-kicking duties in the fifth game of the season ... Set a single-season school record and ranked 10th nationally and second in the ACC in field-goal percentage (.923 – 12-of-13) ... The .923 field goal percentage shattered the previous school record of .882 (15-of-17) that was shared by three GT kickers ... Became the first Tech kicker in the past 40 seasons (since at least 1982) to make his first 10 field goal attempts of a season ... Was named Tech's primary place kicker ahead of Pitt game and responded by making 4-of-4 field goal attempts in a driving rainstorm, including a career-long 40-yarder, to help lead GT to a win over the 24th-ranked Panthers ... Four FGs at Pitt were just one shy of the GT record ... Became only the ninth player in school history to make as many as four FG in a game ... Named ACC Specialist of the Week following his performance at Pitt ... In his next game, made all three field goals, including the 37-yard game-winner in overtime, to lead the Jackets to a 30-27 win over Duke ... After making single kicks against Virginia and Florida State, was good on 3-of-3 in GT's 28-27 victory at Virginia Tech ... Finally had his first miss of the season in his final FG attempt of the year, when an errant snap and hold contributed to a miss at North Carolina ... Also handled 40 of 45 kickoffs and recorded 22 touchbacks ... Named to All-ACC Academic Team.

2021-22: Served as Georgia Tech's kickoff specialist throughout the season ... Of his 55 kickoffs, 33 went for touchbacks (60%), 10 were fair caught (18%) and just 12 were returned (22%) ... Attempted just one field goal, a 51-yarder that was blocked in the waning seconds of season opener versus Northern Illinois.

2020-21: Appeared in eight games and became Georgia Tech's primary place kicker ... Made 22-of-24 extra-point attempts, including 11-straight to close the season ... Missed first field-goal attempt of the season at Syracuse but finished 2-for-3 on the year by going 2-for-2 from 26 and 22 yards at NC State ... Kicked off three times on the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played wide receiver, safety and kicker at Benedictine Military Academy for Coach Danny Britt ... Made 9-of-9 field goals (47-yard long) and 55-of-55 extra points.

PERSONAL: Born Gavin Patrick Stewart on July 18 in Savannah ... Son of Wendy and Brandon Stewart ... Has a sister, Sarah, and a brother, Brad ... Brad, played wide receiver at Georgia Tech from 2015-18 ... Sarah played volleyball at Georgia College ... Grandfather is Jim Walsh Sr., who played at Auburn in the 1950s and coached for 25 seasons at Benedictine, compiling a record of 185-82-1 ... STATESBORO - Behind a multi-dimensional offensive attack, the Georgia Southern football team shut out The Citadel 34-0 to open its 2023 campaign at Allen E. Paulson Stadium. The victory marked the 21st shutout in Paulson Stadium and the second shutout in home opener history.

In his Georgia Southern debut, quarterback Davis Brin threw for 236 yards and two touchdowns on 27 of 36 passing to lead the Eagles. Running back Jalen White returned from injury to rush for 125 yards and a score on 16 carries to average 6.6 yards per carry.

The Eagles marched down the field on the opening drive to get on the board first. OJ Arnold rushed to the right for a 1-yard touchdown to put the Eagles out in front. On the final drive of the half, Brin completed four consecutive passes, highlighted by a 30-yard pass to Derwin Burgess Jr., before he completed a pass up the middle to Burgess Jr. for a 13-yard touchdown. Georgia Southern opened up the second half scoring on a Brin pass deep up the middle completed to Anthony Queeley for a 16-yard touchdown.

The defense held steady throughout the game, holding The Citadel to 212 total yards. Midway through the second quarter, Davon Gilmore stopped a Bulldog drive with a forced fumble that was recovered by Tyrell Davis to ensure a shutout.

STATESBORO - A late interception by TJ Smith and a big offensive night from Davis Brin and OJ Arnold helped propel the Georgia Southern football team to a 49-35 victory over UAB at Allen E. Paulson Stadium in non-conference action.

On the opening play of the game, Khadry Jackson forced a Blazer fumble before Justin Rhodes recovered the ball on the UAB 19-yard line. The Eagle offense capitalized on the turnover to take an early lead on a 5-yard touchdown reception from Jalen White. On the next drive, the Eagles extended the lead on a 5-yard touchdown run from Brin.

The Blazers rallied in the second quarter, scoring on back-to-back drives to take the lead, 22-21. Georgia Southern would retake the lead before the half on an explosive 39-yard touchdown run by Arnold, heading into the half up 28-22.

The GS defense forced its second turnover at the beginning of the fourth quarter, a pick Smith at the Georgia Southern 38-yard line, his first interception as an Eagle. White punched the ball into the end zone on a 6-yard run and a successful two-point conversion put the Eagles up 43-29.

With under five minutes left in the fourth quarter, Khaleb Hood broke the Georgia Southern career receiving yards surpassing Monty Sharp with 1,855 career yards.

MADISON, Wis. - The Georgia Southern football squad hung tough with Big Ten foe Wisconsin, but the Badgers scored four second-half touchdowns to pull away with a 35-14 win at Camp Randall Stadium in non-conference action.

After a scoreless first quarter, Wisconsin opened the second quarter with a short score, but Georgia Southern responded on the next drive. After Davis Brin hit Derwin Burgess Jr. for a career-long 68-yard reception, running back OJ Arnold scored from 4-yards out to tie things up. On its first drive of the second half, Georgia Southern claimed the lead to go up 14-7 when Jjay McAfee recorded his fifth career touchdown reception on a 25-yard completion from Brin. The Badgers responded with three touchdowns in the third quarter—two off of Brin interceptions—to take the lead back and pulled away in the fourth quarter with one last score.

Burgess Jr. led the offense with eight catches for 124 yards. It marked his fourth-career 100-yard receiving game. Arnold ran for a career-high 66 yards.

Defensively, the Eagles were stout for a majority of the game but Wisconsin took control in the second half. The six Eagle turnovers kept the GS defense on the field and Wisconsin eventually started to move the ball. Marques Watson-Trent led the team in tackles with nine stops.

MUNCIE, Ind. - Davis Brin threw four touchdown passes, Michael Lantz hit four field goals and the defense allowed just 197 yards of total offense as the Georgia Southern football squad blew past Ball State, 40-3, at Sheumann Stadium in non-conference action.

On the first drive, Brin connected with Evan Lester Jr. for a 1-yard scoring pass. On the second drive, OJ Arnold's 38-yard run up the middle set up a 9-yard touchdown pass from Brin to Keaton Upshaw. The second quarter consisted of three field goals from Lantz (41, 26, 37 yards).

In the second half, Khaleb Hood went over then 2,000 career receiving yard mark with a 35-yard catch down the sideline. Three plays later, he caught a 21-yard touchdown from Brin as he went over 100 yards receiving for the fifth time to tie the school record (Raja Andrews). In the fourth quarter, Brin connected on his fourth touchdown of the day, this one an 8-yard scoring pass to Anthony Queeley.

Brin finished the day 34-for-46 for 344 yards and four scores. Hood caught seven passes for 107 yards. Arnold led the way on the ground with 90 yards on nine carries. Defensively, Marc Stampely II led the way with eight tackles, including 2.5 for loss and a sack. Overall, the Eagles allowed just 37 yards rushing for the game with four sacks and two turnovers.

STATESBORO - Behind a record-breaking crowd and touchdowns from five different Eagles, the Georgia Southern football team downed Coastal Carolina 38-28 in Sun Belt Conference action.

On the opening drive, Coastal Carolina quickly jumped out to an early lead as quarterback Grayson McCall ran it into the end zone to go up 7-0. The Eagles responded two drives later to open the second quarter when Derwin Burgess Jr. recorded his 11th career touchdown reception on a 2-yard catch from Davis Brin. The Chanticleers regained the lead 14-7 with 7:28 left in the second quarter before the Eagles evened the score with 3:54 left in the half as Brin completed a pass to Anthony Queeley for a 16-yard touchdown reception.

Georgia Southern took their first lead of the game after Cam Williams intercepted the ball on the Coastal 24-yard line and the Eagles drove down the field for the score when Brin hit Khaleb Hood for a 12-yard touchdown pass, making it 21-14 at the break. The Eagle defense stepped up in the third quarter with a pick-six by Khadry Jackson for his second career score and the first defensive touchdown of the season for its largest lead of the game.

The Eagles had five players score touchdowns and Hood tied the school record with 12 catches for 131 yards and a touchdown.

HARRISONBURG, Va. — James Madison remained unbeaten on the season with a 41-13 victory over Georgia Southern at Bridgeforth Stadium in Sun Belt Conference football action.

The Dukes wasted little time in jumping out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first two drives with touchdown passes from Jordan McCloud. Georgia Southern finally got rolling on its fourth drive, using two big passes to tight end Keaton Upshaw to move the ball down the field before Michael Lantz connected from 43 yards out to make it 17-3. Lantz hit a short field goal at the end of the half to make it 20-6.

JMU scored three touchdowns in the third quarter to put the game away. After a JC French interception, the Dukes punched it in with a 20-yard scoring run from Black and then used a long punt return to set up a third touchdown in the quarter to make it 41-6. On the final drive of the game, David Mbadinga punched the ball into the end zone for his first career touchdown making the final score, 41-13.

Khaleb Hood led the receiving corps with 10 receptions for 78 yards. Brin connected on 25-of-42 passes for 204 yards and Jalen White ran for 50 yards. Defensively, Marques Watson-Trent led the way with seven tackles, including a sack.

STATESBORO - Tyrell Davis scored on a Pick Six with less than two minutes to go to seal a 38-28 Georgia Southern win over ULM at Allen E. Paulson Stadium.

Leading 14-7, the Eagles continued to apply pressure on the Warhawk offense, forcing three straight turnovers to set up the offense. Jalen White scored on a short 2-yard run after a strip sack and recovery by Isaac Walker. On the next ULM offensive play, Justin Meyers recovered the second fumble, which led to a 14-yard touchdown pacatch from Keaton Upshaw. GS forced its third turnover of the game as TJ Smith intercepted Jiya Wright's pass to set up a 27-yard field goal from Michael Lantz with 2:05 left in the first half to make it 31-7. The Warhawks rallied to get within three with seven minutes left in the game but Davis intercepted the ball on the 28-yard line for a pick-six to secure the victory, 38-28 with 1:53 left.

White led the Eagle offense with 164 rushing yards for his second 100-yard game of the season. Khaleb Hood led the receiving corps with eight catches for 98 yards. The Eagle defense recorded 11 tackles for loss, including five sacks, nine pass breakups and four turnovers (two fumble recoveries and two interceptions). Marques Watson-Trent led the way with 14 tackles, including three tackles for loss. Isaac Walker had 2.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.

SAN MARCOS, Texas — Texas State quarterback TJ Finley threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more to lead the Bobcats to a 45-24 victory over Georgia Southern at Bobcat Stadium.

Texas State jumped out to an early lead on five plays in the opening drive. DeAndre Buchannon returned the kickoff 80 yards to set up a 29-yard field goal by Michael Lantz for an early 7-3 score. The Bobcats moved right back down the field, but a bad snap was recovered by Isaac Walker to thwart the drive. Jalen White took it to the house from 39-yards out on third and 15 to give the Eagles a 10-7 lead. Texas State scored three touchdowns in the second quarter, two on passes from Finley and a 16-yard run from the signal caller, and converted a field goal after an Eagle turnover to take a 31-10 lead into the locker room.

The Bobcat offense continued into the second half with two more touchdowns to stretch the lead to 35 points. The Eagles continued to fight as Davis Brin hit tight end Jjay McAfee on a 32-yard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to break a 38-0 run by the Bobcats. Midway through the fourth quarter, White punched it in from 3 yards out to cut into the lead.

White led the offense with 159 yards and two touchdowns on the ground, recording his third-straight 100-yard game. Three Eagles posted double-digit tackle numbers.

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — Georgia Southern dropped a hard-fought 38-33 contest to Marshall at Joan C. Edwards Stadium in Sun Belt Conference action. Marshall took the opening kickoff 98 yards for an early 7-0 lead. Georgia Southern evened the score in the second quarter when Davis Brin completed a 9-yard pass to Jaylon Barden for Barden's first scoring catch as an Eagle. Marshall reclaimed the lead to go up 17-10 with five minutes to go in the half, but a 47-yard scoring reception by Dalen Cobb tied things up.

The Eagles got their second turnover of the half when Davion Rhodes forced a fumble on a sack that was recovered by Isaac Walker, his fourth of the year. That led to a 38-yard field goal from Lantz to give the Eagles their first lead of the game with 12 seconds left in the half.

Lantz connected from 40 yards out with 6:51 left in the third quarter to extend the lead. A big pass play from Marshall led to a 2-yard touchdown run by Rasheen Ali to give the Herd the lead back at 24-23. Lantz's fourth field goal of the game, this time from 21 yards, made it 26-24 in favor of the Eagles. After a hold by Marshall, Ali took the snap and took it 55 yards for the score to put the Herd back in front for good. Derwin Burgess Jr. added a late touchdown catch, but the Eagles couldn't recover the onsidles kick.

STATESBORO - Ethan Sanchez kicked a 22-yard field goal as time expired, lifting Old Dominion to a 20-17 victory over the Georgia Southern football squad inside Allen E. Paulson Stadium.

Georgia Southern and ODU traded unfruitful possessions in the first quarter, as both were held scoreless. The Monarchs got on the board first when a blocked punt set up an eventual 47-yard field goal early in the second quarter. ODU extended the lead 10-0 on a 12-yard scoring reception midway through the quarter.

On their sixth drive, the Eagles finally got moving, and Jalen White capped off a 75-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run to cut into the lead. The Eagles evened the score as Michael Lantz drilled a 24-yard field goal late in the third quarter. The field goal was Lantz's 21st make of the season, breaking the school record for most field goals in a season.

ODU took the lead late in the third quarter after a 27-yard reception set up a 30-yard touchdown pass to make it 17-10. Trailing by seven, Davis Brin engineered a big scoring drive, capped off by an 18-yard touchdown pass to Jjay McAfee with 1:27 left.

The Monarchs quickly marched down the field, and Sanchez was the hero with his leg to secure the win.

BOONE, N.C. — App State scored 24 points in the second quarter to spark a rally and down Georgia Southern, 55-27, at Kidd Brewer Stadium to wrap up the regular season.

The Eagles got out to a quick start in the opening drive, going 75 yards on six plays. OJ Arnold punched the ball in from 3 yards out to give the Eagles an early 7-0 lead. App State cut into the lead on a 24-yard field goal to make it 7-3. Georgia Southern extended its lead 14-3 at the end of the first quarter when JC French completed his first career touchdown pass for 25 yards to Khaleb Hood. The Mountaineers took their first lead of the game with two touchdowns in 16 seconds with a 27-yard touchdown reception and a 13-yard touchdown reception one play later after GS fumbled on the kickoff.

DeAndre Buchannon provided a bright spot in the second half, returning a kickoff 100 yards to tie the school record for the longest return and marking the first kickoff return since 2019. Lantz added to his record total for field goals in a season with a 34-yarder midway through the fourth quarter.

With his fourth reception of the game, Hood set the single-season reception record with 88 catches, surpassing his own record of 87 set last season.

CONWAY, S.C. — Despite a valiant second-half rally, the Georgia Southern football team wrapped up its 2023 season with a 41-21 loss to Ohio at Brooks Stadium in the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Ohio struck first in the opening quarter after an Eagle interception, eventually converting a 27-yard field goal after an Eagle goal-line stand to make it 3-0. Georgia Southern ran just seven plays in the first quarter, totaling 9 yards on two drives. The Bobcats then used a 13-play drive, capped off by a 2-yard scoring run, to make it 10-0 early in the second quarter. A 26-yard field goal extended the lead to 20-0 to go into the half.

Georgia Southern got a quick three-and-out to start the second half, but a fourth Eagle turnover was converted for a touchdown to make it 27-0. The Eagles put together their first solid drive of the day mid-way through the third quarter and capped the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run from David Mbadinga, his second of the season. A fifth Eagle turnover led to a 40-yard touchdown run to give the Bobcats a 27-point lead. On the next drive, Davis Brin hit Derwin Burgess Jr. on a 65-yard scoring pass to make it 34-14.

After a successful onside kick from Brendan Franke that was recovered by Holden Trice, Brin led the Eagles on a seven-play drive that was capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass to Jjay McAfee to bring the Eagles to within 13 points. A fourth-down stop by Ohio with 6:32 stymied the rally and sealed the game.

Fifth-year receiver Khaleb Hood set the school record for receiving yards in a season and became just the fifth player in Sun Belt history to record 100 catches, the first since 2012.

Ohio scored 20 points off the five Georgia Southern turnovers to help secure the win.

Burgess Jr. led the Eagle offense with six catches for 117 yards receiving and a touchdown. Brin set a new Myrtle Beach Bowl record with 350 passing yards. Justin Rhodes led the Eagle defense with a career-high eight tackles.

NCAA STATISTICAL POLICY

Before 2002, postseason games were not included in NCAA final football season statistics and records. Georgia Southern's record books maintain consistency with the NCAA and Southern Conference record books by not including postseason stats in season and career totals prior to 2002, except when specifically noted.

NCAA COMMITTEE ON INFRACTIONS RULING

In 2016, the NCAA Committee on Infractions (COI) ruled that Georgia Southern must vacate three wins from the 2013-14 seasons due to academic improprieties. Those wins were the 2013 Savannah State and St. Francis (Pa.) games, and the 2014 ULM game. In addition, all statistics from ineligible players from those games must be wiped from the record books while all eligible players' stats remain. The record book, coaching records of Jeff Monken and Willie Fritz and all-time results reflect the ruling.

Georgia Southern defeats Furman 44-42 for national title
(December 21, 1985)

TACOMA, Wash. - In the greatest comeback in Football Championship Subdivision title game history, Georgia Southern rallied from a 22-point third-quarter deficit to defeat Furman 44-42 and win its first I-AA national championship. Tracy Ham hit Frank Johnson on a 13-yard scoring strike with 10 seconds left in the game to give the Eagles the victory. Ham finished the game with 419 yards passing and another 90 yards rushing. Johnson caught seven passes for 148 yards, all in the second half. Georgia Southern scored 38 points in the final 21:51 of the game to overcome a 28-6 Furman lead.

Georgia Southern 27, Jackson State 0
Nov. 30, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-First Round-

Tracy Ham and Tony Belser connected on two long touchdown passes to lead Georgia Southern to a 27-0 win over Jackson State. Ham hit Belser on a 48-yard pass early in the first quarter and a 45-yarder early in the fourth quarter to seal the victory. The defense recorded its second shutout of 1985.

The Eagles held Jackson State to just 105 yards on the ground and forced five turnovers on the afternoon, including four interceptions of Tiger quarterback Shannon Boyd. Sophomore cornerback Nay Young recorded two of those pickoffs and three pass breakups. His 43-yard return to the JSU 26-yard line on the first theft set up fullback Gerald Harris' one-yard plunge to make the score 17-0.

Georgia Southern 28, Middle Tennessee State 21
Dec. 7, Johnny Floyd Stadium, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

-Quarterfinals-

Georgia Southern scored 21 unanswered points and then held off a Middle Tennessee rally to upset the nation's No. 1-ranked team. Gerald Harris rushed for 148 yards and Tracy Ham passed for 125 yards to lead the Eagles. Defensively, Nay Young had two key interceptions to stop the Blue Raiders. The win avenged a 35-10 loss to MTSU earlier in the season.

Young's second interception of the game and fourth of the playoffs stopped the Blue Raiders deep in Georgia Southern territory late in the contest. Earlier, Young stopped an MTSU drive at the Eagle 14-yard line with 10 seconds remaining in the first half to preserve a 21-0 GSU lead at intermission.

Georgia Southern 40, Northern Iowa 33
Dec. 14, UNI Dome, Cedar Falls, Iowa

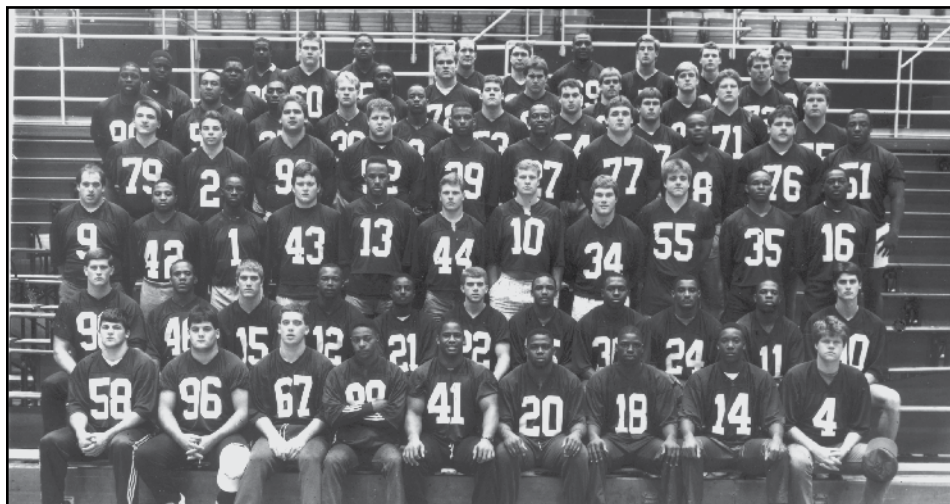

-Semifinals-

Gerald Harris rushed for 178 yards and Tracy Ham added 157 to pace the Eagles. The game had eight touchdowns and five field goals. Over 1,000 yards were amassed by the two teams and 52 first downs were recorded. There were eight lead changes in the game and only four punts in one of Georgia Southern's wildest games ever.

The Eagles rolled up 436 yards on the ground, averaging nearly nine yards per carry. Junior safety Brad Bowen picked off two Panther passes and broke up another, while recording nine tackles. Senior linebacker Charles Carper added 12 tackles.

Ham's 486 yards help Southern win title
(December 20, 1986)

TACOMA, Wash. - Tracy Ham rushed for 180 yards and three touchdowns and completed 12-of-21 passes for 306 yards and another score to lead Georgia Southern to its second consecutive I-AA national championship. Against the nation's top-rated I-AA defense, Georgia Southern gained 603 yards in total offense, 297 rushing and 306 passing (7.5 yards per play). Tim Foley set a championship game record with four field goals, all in the first half. With the win, Georgia Southern became the first school to ever win back-to-back national championships in Division I-AA.

Georgia Southern 52, North Carolina A&T 21

Nov. 29, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-First Round-

Gerald Harris rushed for 181 yards and scored an NCAA I-AA playoff record five touchdowns as Georgia Southern whipped North Carolina A&T, 52-21. Harris scored on runs of 17, 7 and 9 yards in the first half. A 29-yard scamper and a one-yard plunge, both in the third quarter, capped the record-setting afternoon. The Eagles built a 31-0 halftime lead and expanded that to 38-0 before the Aggies scored midway through the third quarter.

The Eagle defense, led by Everette Sharpe's 11 tackles, limited the Aggies to 297 yards in total offense. It also forced three turnovers, including a pair of first half fumbles that resulted in 14 Eagle points.

Georgia Southern 55, Nicholls State 31

Dec. 6, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Quarterfinals-

Georgia Southern scored 28 unanswered points in the first 16 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Nicholls State rally to advance to the semifinals. Tracy Ham rushed for 191 yards on just 18 carries and scored two touchdowns while completing 11-of-19 passes for 167 yards and another score.

Defensively, the Eagles picked off five Nicholls State passes and held the Colonels to just 109 yards rushing. Southern accumulated 484 total yards.

Gerald Harris broke two I-AA playoff records during the contest - most touchdowns (eight) and most points (48). Ironically, he set both in 1985.

Georgia Southern 48, Nevada Reno 38

Dec. 13, Mackay Stadium, Reno, Nev.

-Semifinals-

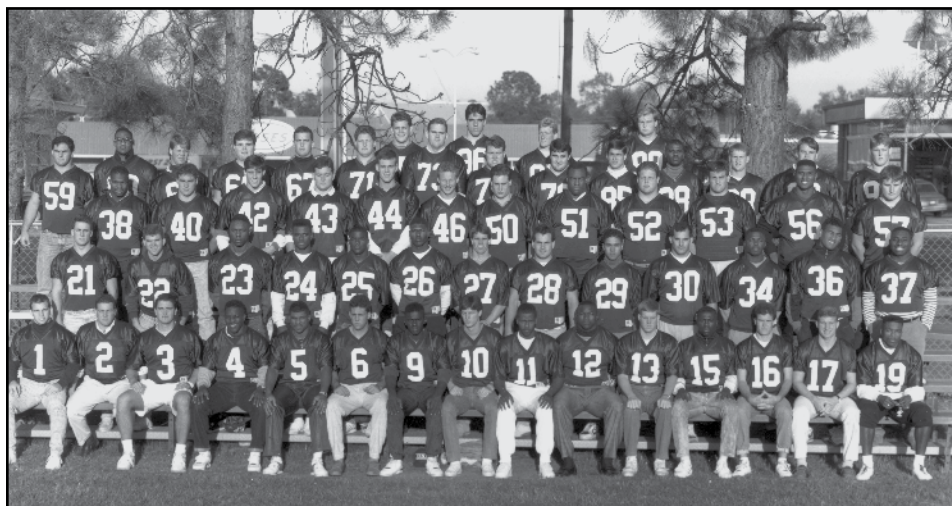

Behind the running of Tracy Ham, Gerald Harris and Ricky Harris, Georgia Southern amassed a school playoff-record 613 yards in total offense in downing previously unbeaten Nevada Reno, 48-38. Ham rushed for 162 yards and two touchdowns and completed 8-of-16 passes for 147 yards and two TDs.

While the 'Hambone' offense rolled up 29 first downs and ate up 476 yards on the ground, it also converted 9-of-17 third down opportunities and totalled 36 minutes of possession time.

Gerald Harris gained 162 yards and scored two touchdowns while Ricky Harris rushed for 106 yards on just seven carries.

Dowis' 20-yard field goal nips SFA
(December 16, 1989)

STATESBORO, Ga. - Junior Mike Dowis booted a 20-yard field goal with 1:41 remaining to cap Georgia Southern's 15-0 season, the first by a college team in modern football history. The Eagles, before a record crowd of 25,725 at Paulson Stadium, rallied to capture their third Division I-AA championship in five years. Junior quarterback Raymond Gross brought Southern back from two seven-point deficits in the final 15 minutes. Junior fullback Joe Ross of Augusta carried 31 times for 152 yards and scored once. Gross rushed for 103 yards and passed for 113. Lumberjack quarterback Todd Hammel threw five interceptions, the fourth to free safety Taz Dixon at the SFA 30. Nine plays later, Dowis provided the margin of victory. Sophomore Kevin Whitley made 10 tackles for the Eagles, while junior Giff Smith and senior Darrell Hendrix contributed eight each.

Georgia Southern 52, Villanova 36

Nov.25, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-First Round-

Junior fullback Joe Ross of Augusta rushed for 190 yards as the Eagles defeated Villanova 52-36 in first round action at Paulson Stadium.

Ross scored on runs of 11 and 39 yards in the second half as Southern pulled away from the Yankee Conference co-champions - after typically trailing at intermission. Wildcat quarterback Kirk Schulz passed for 232 yards and two TDs the first 30 minutes as his team built a 21-13 lead.

Then came quarter No. 3 and the Eagles ripped off 25 unanswered points. Georgia Southern scored on its first four possessions to grab a 38-21 advantage with 5:00 remaining. The barrage was capped by Raymond Gross' nifty swing pass to Darryl Hopkins, who went 64 yards. Southern added 14 points in the fourth quarter. Its final score came on Rodney Oglesby's 32-yard interception return, marking the third time in three weeks that an Eagle defensive back had returned a pass theft to paydirt.

Georgia Southern 45, Middle Tennessee State 3

Dec. 2, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Quarterfinals-

Junior quarterback Raymond Gross passed for two touchdowns and ran for another and senior linebacker Bart Hughes scored on a 20-yard blocked punt return as Georgia Southern socked Middle Tennessee State 45-3 at Paulson Stadium. The victory was Southern's 35th straight at home, a national I-AA record.

Second team fullback Lester Efford gained a career-best 123 yards on 21 carries. He replaced starter Joe Ross late in the first quarter. Ross picked up 34 yards on 10 attempts before a right knee injury forced him to the sidelines.

Chuck McClurg's block of a Chuck Daniel punt and Hughes' subsequent ramble to the end zone put Southern ahead to stay with 7:56 left in the first quarter.

Georgia Southern 45, Montana 15

Dec. 9, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

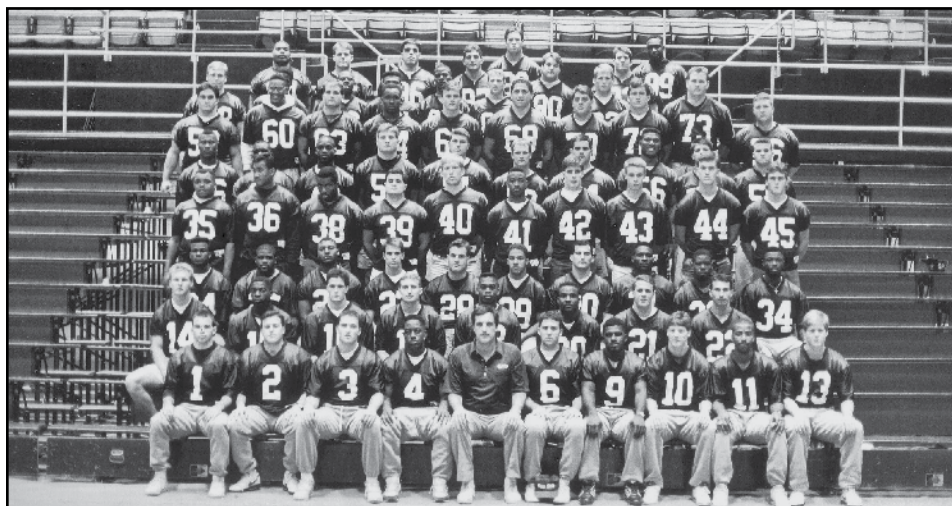

-Semifinals-

Junior quarterback Raymond Gross completed 7 of 10 passes for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns and slotbacks Ernest Thompson, Karl Miller and Darryl Hopkins rushed for one score each as Georgia Southern blitzed Montana 45-15 in I-AA semifinal action at Paulson Stadium.

For the second straight week, Southern struck for a season-high 31 first-half points.

GSU: CHAMPIONS AGAIN

Eagles Claim Fourth I-AA Title
(December 15, 1990)

STATESBORO, Ga. - Quarterback Raymond Gross rushed for a game-high 145 yards and the Georgia Southern defense rose to the occasion with a crucial goal line stand early in the third quarter as the Eagles captured their fourth national championship in six years. Trailing 14-6 to open the second half, Nevada drove 74 yards in 14 plays to the Eagle 1-yard line. The Wolfpack was stuffed on four consecutive plays before Kevin McKelvie missed a 24-yard field goal. GSU answered with a pair of Darryl Hopkins touchdown runs to take a comfortable 27-6 lead midway through the final period. After Hopkins' contributions, the Eagles added a 41-yard Mike Dowis field goal and closed the contest when true freshman defensive end Alex Mash returned a Chris Vargas pass 15 yards for a touchdown.

-First Round-

The Eagles limited The Citadel to 8 second-half yards in a 31-0 first round rout of the Bulldogs. As The Citadel's potent wishbone attack came to a screeching halt, GSU broke open a 10-0 halftime advantage with a 35 yard scoring pass from Raymond Gross to Terence Sorrell and TD runs by Karl Miller and Lester Efford. Gross completed 10-of-13 passes for 173 yards. Joe Ross led all rushers with 84 yards on 23 carries and scored Southern's first TD.

After the Gross to Sorrell pass capped Southern's initial series of the second half, Kevin Whitley intercepted a Jack Douglas pass at the GSU 48. Miller highlighted a 52-yard, 8-play drive with a 20-yard scoring run. Efford's 7-yard effort topped an eight-play, 72-yard scoring drive.

Georgia Southern 28, Idaho 27

Dec. 1, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Quarterfinals-

Middle linebacker Eugene Hayes' recovery of a fumble at the Eagle 23-yard line with 2:27 remaining halted a possible game-winning Idaho drive and Georgia Southern escaped with a 28-27 quarterfinal win over the Vandals.

After the Eagles took a seemingly commanding 21-7 lead with 53 seconds left in the first half on a 3-yard TD run by Raymond Gross, Idaho countered with 17 unanswered points for a 24-21 advantage. Gross connected with Karl Miller from 9-yards out late in the third quarter for what proved to be the deciding points.

GSU surrendered a season-high 528 yards total offense. Vandal quarterback Steve Nolan riddled the Eagle defense with 372 yards on a then-stadium record 32 completions (43 attempts), while Roman Carter led all rushers with 124 yards on 23 carries. Idaho passed the Eagle 30-yard line on three of its first four possessions, but came away empty.

Georgia Southern 44, Central Florida 7

Dec. 8, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Semifinals-

A swarming defense slammed the door on Central Florida in the second half while the offense ripped off 35 unanswered points as GSU coasted in the semifinals.

The Knights took an overdose of Southern's defensive front, whose pressure forced 10 sacks. UCF also saw enough of quarterback Raymond Gross, who threw for two touchdowns in the decisive second half.

Georgia Southern limited Central Florida to 81 yards total offense in the second half. The Knights generated just 6 rushing yards and 75 passing yards in the game's final 30 minutes. Joe Ross led all rushers with 72 yards while Karl Miller covered a career-high 111 yards on five catches.

Eagles Capture Unprecedented Fifth National Title
(December 18, 1999)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. - Georgia Southern waited a year to redeem itself in the Division I-AA championship. Once the game started, the Eagles ended the suspense by halftime.

Adrian Peterson rushed for a championship game-record 247 yards on 25 carries and scored three touchdowns as Georgia Southern scored 28 unanswered points in the second quarter and routed Youngstown State 59-24 becoming the first team to win five I-AA titles. The Walter Payton Award winner scored on runs of 3, 22 and 1 yards. Youngstown State, which came in with a defense that had been giving up just 166 yards rushing per game, couldn't contain I-AA's best rushing offense. The Eagles got 210 of their record-638 yards rushing in the second quarter and finished with 655 yards of offense compared to 338 for Youngstown State.

The Penguins kept pace with Georgia Southern by scoring on their first two drives. Then Peterson got Georgia Southern going - putting the Eagles ahead to stay at 14-10 with 10:25 left in the second quarter on his first TD of the game.

It was a showdown between I-AA's two best teams. Youngstown State had won more games (100) than any other I-AA program this decade and Georgia Southern came in with more playoff victories than any other I-AA program. The two programs also came in with four I-AA championships each.

Georgia Southern 72, Northern Arizona 29

Nov. 27, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-First Round-

Greg Hill ran for four touchdowns and threw for two more as second-seeded Georgia Southern routed 15th-seeded Northern Arizona 72-29 in the opening round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. The senior quarterback had 206 yards rushing and scored on runs of 5, 10, 32 and 73 yards. He was 4-of-6 passing for 100 yards and connected with Dedric Parham on a 13-yard score and Andre Weathers on a 73-yard bomb.

After a 7-7 deadlock at the end of the opening quarter, the Eagles exploded for 23 unanswered points to take a 30-14 halftime lead. Southern outscored the Lumberjacks 42-15 in the final half, including a 21-0 run in the third quarter, for the win.

GSU fullback Adrian Peterson rushed for 134 yards and scored on a 1-yard plunge. Georgia Southern set a then-new I-AA playoff record with 568 rushing yards and a school record with the most points in a post season game ever.

Georgia Southern 38, Massachusetts 21

Dec. 4, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Quarterfinals-

Adrian Peterson rushed for 333 yards on 32 carries and scored five touchdowns as second-seeded Georgia Southern downed Massachusetts 38-21 in the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals.

The sophomore fullback's performance set a new NCAA Division I-AA playoff rushing record, shattering the previous mark of 250 yards by Northeast Louisiana's Greg Robinson in 1992. Peterson, who battled a severe chest cold all afternoon, had three 25-yard touchdown runs as well as a 3-yarder and a 9-yarder.

Georgia Southern (10-2) took a slim 10-7 lead at halftime but outscored the Minutemen (9-4) 21-14 in the second half to secure the victory and successfully avenge a 55-43 loss to UMass in the 1998 National Championship game. The Eagles, who surrendered 303 rushing yards to the Minutemen in '98, allowed just 81 ground yards on 37 attempts - an average of just 2.2 yards per rush.

Georgia Southern 28, Illinois State 17

Dec. 11, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Semifinals-

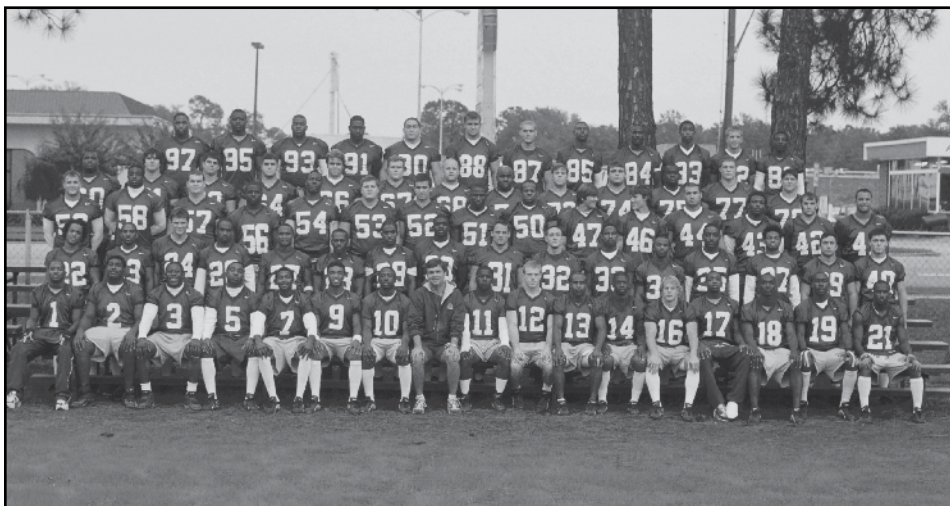

Adrian Peterson rushed for 183 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead Georgia Southern to a 28-17 victory over Illinois State in the Division I-AA semifinals. The win enabled the Eagles to advance to the I-AA National Championship game for the seventh time in 15 years.

Peterson scored on runs of 1 and 2 yards late in the second quarter to break a 7-7 tie and added a 10-yarder in the fourth to clinch the victory. The 1999 Walter Payton Award winner also surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark for the 29th consecutive time.

Georgia Southern held the Redbirds to 69 yards rushing while rolling up 363. Eagle quarterback Greg Hill rushed for 80 yards and one touchdown. He also was 3-of-7 passing for 76 yards and one interception.

Peterson's Run Halts Grizzly Comeback Hopes
(December 16, 2000)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. - Adrian Peterson rushed for 148 yards and Georgia Southern withstood a fourth quarter rally by Montana to win the 2000 NCAA I-AA National Championship 27-25 at Finley Stadium. The national championship is the second straight for Georgia Southern and its sixth in school history. With a 20-3 lead midway through the third quarter, Georgia Southern's national championship hopes appeared solid. But Montana scored on three consecutive possessions to take a 23-20 lead. The Eagles answered on their first play from scrimmage when Peterson broke-off tackle for 57 yards and a touchdown to put GSU back in front, 27-23. Ryan Hadden ended one Montana drive in the fourth quarter with an interception while two other drives ended in loss of downs. In addition to Peterson's rushing efforts, quarterback J.R. Revere completed 5 of 8 passes for 113 yards. Georgia Southern built its 20-3 lead on a fumble recovery in the end zone by James McCoy that gave the Eagles a 7-0 lead just 1:41 into the game. Revere then hit Chris Johnson with a 49-yard scoring pass late in the first quarter for a 13-0 advantage. After a Montana field goal cut the lead to 13-3, Peterson scored the first of his two touchdowns on a 1-yard run just 33 seconds before halftime.

Georgia Southern 42, McNeese State 17
Nov. 25, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-First Round-

Georgia Southern scored 21 unanswered points in the third quarter to break away from McNeese State and roll to a 42-17 win in the opening round of the I-AA playoffs.

Adrian Peterson rushed for a season-high 203 yards and one touchdown after a near-month layoff. Andre Weathers added touchdown runs of 23 and 19 yards while J.R. Revere rushed for 157 yards and two scores and was 6-of-13 through the air for 110 yards with one TD. In all, GSU amassed 589 yards of total offense including 479 on the ground.

After trailing 17-14 at the half, Revere engineered a 12-play, 75-yard drive which gave the Eagles a 21-17 lead at the 9:57 mark. Weathers took an option pitch for a 23-yard score five plays after he had converted a crucial 4th-and-4 situation at the Eagle 43-yard line to keep the drive alive.

Georgia Southern 48, Hofstra 20

Dec. 2, Allen E. Paulson Stadium, Statesboro

-Quarterfinals-

Georgia Southern scored on six of its first nine possessions to build a 38-3 lead midway through the third quarter and turned in one of its top defensive performances of the season to blow past Hofstra 48-20 in the I-AA quarterfinals.

Adrian Peterson rushed for a game-high 146 yards while Mark Myers added 116 yards on just seven carries (16.6 ypr). In addition, J.R. Revere opened the scoring with three straight TD runs and finished with 186 total yards.

The Eagle defense held the vaunted Pride run-n-shoot offense to 65 first-half passing yards and three points.

GSU ran for 430 yards, the most allowed by Hofstra since 1998, and recorded the highest point total (48) against The Pride in eight years.

Georgia Southern 27, Delaware 18

Dec. 9, Delaware Stadium, Newark, Del.

-Semifinals-

Adrian Peterson rushed for 198 yards and a touchdown on a career-high 34 carries while Delaware failed to capitalize on four turnovers as the Eagles posted a 27-18 road victory in the NCAA I-AA semifinals. The win allowed the Eagles to advance to the I-AA National Championship game for the third consecutive year and for the eighth time in 16 years.

Andre Weathers added 122 rushing yards on just four carries yards and set up a late insurance field goal with a 58-yard scamper on a 3rd-and-9 call from the GSU 22-yard line. The Eagles piled up 381 yards on the ground against a normally-stingy Blue Hen defense that was allowing just 109.8 ypg coming into the game.

Delaware was also hurt by three missed field goals by Scott Collins, including a 32-yarder and a 22-yarder that were blocked in the second quarter by Jason Neese and Carlton Oglesby, respectively.

Georgia Southern's All-Americans represent 91 men who have earned national recognition for their talents. These Eagles, with more than 200 All-America honors shared among them, are the first to give credit to their teammates – the others on the field who pushed them to excel, challenged them to rise above their competitors, and who helped Georgia Southern to victory.

With honorees at every position, our All-Americans have added to the tradition of the Georgia Southern. Their efforts and dedication have built a solid foundation on which the next era of Eagle Football may be built.

2015 GODADDY BOWL

Georgia Southern 58, Bowling Green 27

Quarterback Favian Upshaw ran for a career-high 199 yards and four touchdowns, and Georgia Southern scored 35 unanswered points while rushing for 452 yards to power past Bowling Green, 58-27, in the GoDaddy Bowl on Dec. 23, 2015 in Mobile, Alabama.

It was the first bowl game in program history for Georgia Southern, which was in its second season playing FBS football and was selected for a bowl game in its first season of eligibility.

Upshaw averaged 16.5 yards on 11 carries and completed a pass for 17 yards to earn the game's overall MVP honors. Additionally, Wesley Fields (75 yards rushing, 1 TD) was named Offensive MVP, Nardo Govan (4 tackles, 1 TFL, 2 FR) was named Defensive MVP and Matt Dobson (PAT return) earned Special Teams MVP honors.

2018 RAYCOM MEDIA CAMELLIA BOWL

Georgia Southern 23, Eastern Michigan 21

Tyler Bass hit three field goals, including a 40 yarder as time expired to lift Georgia Southern to a dramatic 23-21 victory over Eastern Michigan in the 2018 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl on Dec. 15 at Cramton Bowl in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Eagles took a 17-7 lead into the break after Bass hit a 50-yard field goal as the horn sounded to end the first half, but EMU battled back in the second half.

Eastern Michigan took its first lead of the game when Mike Glass connected with Arthur Jackson on fourth and 4 from the GS 5-yard line with 3:33 left. The Eagles looked to be in trouble as time ran down, but on fourth and 10 from his own 41-yard line, quarterback and game MVP Shai Werts dropped back to pass, didn't see anyone open, made a defender miss and somehow scrambled for 29 yards and a key first down.

Wesley Fields carried the ball twice for 7 yards to get the ball to the 23-yard line and set up Bass' dramatic kick.

2019 FBC MORTGAGE CURE BOWL

Liberty 23, Georgia Southern 16

Liberty University used a strong passing game and a stifling run defense to shut down Georgia Southern en route to a 23-13 victory in the FBC Mortgage Cure Bowl at Exploria Stadium.

Flames signal caller Stephen Calvert threw for 270 yards and two scores and the Liberty offense rolled up 402 yards of total offense while GS was held to just 249 yards of total offense.

Wesley Kennedy III got the Eagles on the board with a 10-yard touchdown run off the left side on the first play of the second quarter. The Flames went right back down field on the next drive, scoring in just 1:31 when Joshua Mack took it in from 3-yards out. Tyler Bass made all three of his field goal attempts and got it to within a touchdown late, but GS couldn't get a late onside kick and the Flames ran the clock out.

2020 R+L CARRIERS NEW ORLEANS BOWL

Georgia Southern 38, Louisiana Tech 3

Shai Werts ran for three touchdowns, and Justin Birdsong posted two of Georgia Southern's four interceptions as the Eagles topped Louisiana Tech 38-3 in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Along with the four interceptions, the GS defense finished the day with three sacks and seven tackles for loss while allowing just 232 total yards.

Werts ran for 71 yards and threw for 126 yards, including a 65-yard touchdown pass to Khaleb Hood to give the Eagles a 14-0 lead. Birdsong's two interceptions give him three for the season, and Derrick Canteen recorded his FBS-leading sixth interception. Anthony Wilson led the Eagles with six tackles, including one for loss, and added an interception.

Gerald Green ran 16 times for 108 yards, including a 55-yard run and a 4-yard touchdown. Werts was voted MVP after accounting for four touchdowns.

2022 CAMELLIA BOWL

Buffalo 23, Georgia Southern 21

Justin Marshall caught 11 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown, and Alex McNulty kicked three second-half field goals to lead Buffalo to a 23-21 victory over Georgia Southern in the Camellia Bowl in Cramton Bowl on Dec. 27.

Kyle Vantrease completed 28 passes for 352 yards and two touchdowns, and Beau Johnson caught five passes for 118 yards. OJ Arnold ran for 68 yards, and Alex Raynor made two field goals. Khadry Jackson led the Eagle defense with 13 tackles, including 1.5 for loss, and a pass breakup.

The Eagles trailed 14-6 at halftime, but Vantrease found Joshua Thompson for a 79-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion to tie it up. Trailing 23-14 with six minutes to play, Vantrease hit JJay McAfee for 13-yard touchdown pass to trim the deficit to two points with 3:38 remaining.

The Eagles outgained UB 444-387, but the Bulls held the ball for 16 minutes more than the Eagles and Georgia Southern failed to score TDs twice inside the 5-yard line, settling for field goals both times.

2023 MYRTLE BEACH BOWL

Ohio 41, Georgia Southern 21

Ohio scored 20 points off the five Georgia Southern turnovers to help secure a 41-21 victory at Brooks Stadium in the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

The Bobcats used a 13-play drive, capped off by a 2-yard scoring run, to make it 10-0 early in the second quarter. A 26-yard field goal extended the lead to 20-0 to go into the half. Trailing 27-0, the Eagles put together their first solid drive of the day mid-way through the third quarter and capped the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run from David Mbadinga. On the next drive, Davis Brin hit Derwin Burgess Jr. on a 65-yard scoring pass to make it 34-14.

After a successful onside kick from Brendan Franke that was recovered by Holden Trice, Brin led the Eagles on a seven-play drive that was capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass to JJay McAfee to bring the Eagles to within 13 points. A fourth-down stop by Ohio with 6:32 stymied the rally and sealed the game.

FATHER OF GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL

Early in 1981, the decision to begin a football program at Georgia Southern had been finalized with an exciting, but unsure future ahead.

A mid-spring day in 1981 changed all that, when Erskine "Erk" Russell called college President Dale Lick from a payphone to let him know that he would come to Statesboro. Conversations had taken place on numerous occasions, but Russell had a lot to think about. He was comfortable in Athens, about to begin his 18th season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia, but he was looking for a new challenge.

On May 23, 1981, with more than 500 fans and members of the media gathered in Hanner Fieldhouse, Georgia Southern Football announced its new head coach and Russell put the Eagles on course to become one of the elite teams in its division.

On Sept. 8, 2006, legendary coach Erk Russell passed away. His death touched not only Georgia Southern University and the Coastal Empire, but reverberated throughout the state and entire college football nation. Arguably one of the best-known people - even long past his retirement from coaching - in the state of Georgia, coach Russell was loved and respected by all.

The day before he passed away, Coach Russell spoke for nearly an hour to the Eagles, passing along stories and advice on not only football but life. That was typical of the "Father of Georgia Southern Football." He touched the lives of many, not only his players but fellow coaches and members of the community who were on hand during the ceremony celebrating his life at, where else, but Paulson Stadium.

Erk Russell's spirit lives on across the Georgia Southern campus. His vision of what could be continues to inspire the university today, as do the morals and ethics he instilled in his players and his positive impact on the community. His motto of "Do Right" are words that will be ever linked to his legacy.

Since leading the Eagle football team to its third NCAA Division I-AA national championship and retiring from coaching in December 1989, Russell gave all he could to Georgia Southern. Whether assuming chairmanship of the university's capital campaign or dousing the baseball team bus with Eagle Creek Water before its departure for the College World Series, Russell was an active and visible booster of GSU and its programs.

As a coach, Russell saved the best for last. He entered the 1989 season as America's winningest coach, orchestrator of two national championships, 68 wins and 14 All-America selections - during a seven-year period.

In the ensuing 105 days, Southern ascended to the top spot in the NCAA I-AA football poll and Russell smoked 15 victory cigars. Erk's Eagles extended Division I's longest home win streak from 26 to 37 games. Strong safety Randell Boone, free safety Taz Dixon and offensive guard Sean Gainey raised Russell's All-America count to 17. Georgia Southern gained distinction as the first 15-0 college team of that century.

Russell's final record at Georgia Southern is a remarkable 83-22-1 (.788). After the Eagles moved to Division I-AA in 1984, he fashioned a 70-14 (.825) mark. Russell averaged 10.4 wins per season.

When Georgia Southern brought football back in 1981 it looked to Russell, long-time defensive coordinator at Georgia. Russell's first Eagle team, comprised entirely of walk-on players, fashioned a 7-3-1 record in 1982. The next year, Southern went 6-5 with four of the losses by five points or less. In 1984, the Eagles entered Division I-AA and went 8-3, narrowly missing a national playoff berth. Then came consecutive 13-2 seasons and back-to-back national championships, a I-AA first. With true freshman Raymond Gross at quarterback, the Eagles advanced to the national quarterfinals in 1987 before finishing 9-4. In 1988, Southern made its third championship game appearance in four seasons, falling to Furman 17-12 in Pocatello, Idaho.

Russell, who developed a reputation as one of college football's great defensive coordinators at Georgia, put together an extraordinary offense for the Eagles. His 1986 squad led the nation in scoring (41.3 points per game), total offense (501.8 yards per game) and rushing offense (327.1). Georgia Southern was unstoppable in the playoffs during the 1986 season, averaging 50.7 points. His last Eagle team won the national rushing championship (329.2 yards per game). Southern was among the top-five teams nationally in both scoring (12.1 points) and total defense (255.9 yards) while allowing only 133 points, a school-record, and holding two opponents scoreless.

During his 17 years at Georgia, Russell molded some of the country's finest defensive teams and his Junkyard Dogs became synonymous with Bulldog football. In 1967 Georgia led the Southeastern Conference in total defense and scoring defense. The next year, Georgia topped the SEC in total defense and led the nation in scoring defense, yielding just 9.8 points per contest. In 1971, Russell's group paced the country in shutouts and finished among the nation's Top 10 in rushing defense, total defense and scoring defense. The '78 Bulldogs finished a point behind national champion Alabama in scoring defense. UGA's '79 defense forced 49 takeaways, the national high.

A native of Birmingham, Alabama, Russell held a bachelor's and master's degrees from Auburn. He played football, basketball, baseball and tennis for the Tigers, earning 10 varsity letters. Russell was the last four-sport letterman in Auburn history.

Married to Erk for 57 years, Jean Russell passed away in September 2008. The couple is survived by their two sons, Rusty and Jay.
