• Marshall leads the series with Georgia Southern 6-4. The Eagles won the first two games but then the Thundering Herd won the next six to take the lead in the series. In 2024, a 34-yard touchdown pass to Derwin Burgess Jr. with a minute left and a late interception secured the largest second-half comeback in the history of Allen E. Paulson Stadium as Georgia Southern rallied to score three touchdowns in the final 6:32 to stun Marshall 24-23. Last year, the Eagles went to Huntington and won at Edwards Stadium for the first time ever and secured a bowl berth with a 24-19 victory to end the regular season.

• Marshall leads the series with the Eagles in Statesboro, 3-2, but MU has actually played six games at Paulson Stadium. The Herd lost to Youngstown State in the 1991 NCAA Division I-AA National Championship Game played in Statesboro.

• In five of the previous nine games, both teams were ranked in the I-AA Top 25 Poll, including three times when Marshall was the No. 1 team in the country.

• Georgia Southern is 33-8 on Homecoming in the modern era after beating Georgia State 41-24 last year.

HEAD COACH CLAY HELTON

Clay Helton, who led USC to a Rose Bowl title in 2016, was named the 11th full-time head coach in the Georgia Southern modern football era on Nov. 2, 2021. He is in his fifth season as the Eagles' head coach.

In his first year in Statesboro, the Eagles knocked off Nebraska on the road for the school's second Power 5 win, beat a ranked James Madison team at home, and beat rival App State in double overtime to secure a bid to the Camellia Bowl. In 2023, Helton once again led the Eagles to a bowl gameand in 2024, the Eagles won eight games and made their third straight bowl game. Last year, Georgia Southern won five of its last seven games, including the Birmingham Bowl over arch-rival App State, its second win over the Mountainers in 2025.

The 53-year-old Helton went 46-24 (.657) as the head coach of the USC Trojans with 12 victories over AP Top 25 teams, including three in the Top 5 and four in the Top 10. He went 5-1 in a pandemic-shortened 2020 season and was 8-5 in 2019 with wins over No. 23 Stanford and No. 10 Utah. Helton went 11-3 in 2017 with wins over No. 14 Stanford twice (including in the Pac-12 Championship Game) and No. 23 Arizona, and went 10-3 in 2016 with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado.

Helton was the first USC head coach to have 10-win seasons in each of his first two full seasons, and he had more wins (21) in his first two full seasons than any USC coach. He led USC to a 13-game winning streak from 2016 to 2017 and a 13-game winning streak over Power 5 opponents from 2016 to 2017.

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013. He began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for three seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next four seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the final three years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommy West had off-season heart surgery.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for three seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton. He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

Helton played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

Helton earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994 and prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land, Texas. He was born on June 24, 1972, in Gainesville, Florida. He and his wife, Angela, have three children: sons Reid and Turner, and daughter Aubrey. Turner is a quarterback with GS.

Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami, and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins), and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida.

His brother, Tyson, was the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator at USC (2016-17) until becoming Tennessee's offensive coordinator in 2018 and is now the head coach at Western Kentucky.

game against Ole Miss. As a sophomore, he started all 12 games, throwing for 2,814 yards and 27 touchdowns.

• He transferred to Texas A&M for the 2022 and 2023 seasons, but faced repeated season-ending injuries. In 2022, he broke his thumb, and in 2023, he stepped in for an injured Conner Weigman, throwing for 1,452 yards and nine touchdowns in eight games before suffering broken ribs.

• The past two seasons, he was at North Carolina (2024-2025). He was named the starter in 2024, but suffered a season-ending broken leg in the season opener against Minnesota. Johnson broke his femur and then developed compartment syndrome in his right leg. The combination of the two led to him being hours away from losing his leg.

• After working hard to get back to the field, he played sparingly under head coach Bill Belichick in 2025, appearing in four games and throwing for 432 yards and two touchdowns.

• The Athens, Georgia, native is now back in his home state for his seventh and final year, leading the Eagles. He gained the 2020 season back due to the COVID waiver, was redshirted in 2022 at Texas A&M and was granted a medical hardship waiver for the 2024 season at UNC.

• Johnson is the first left-handed quarterback to start a game for the Eagles since Cam Ransom started against Florida Atlantic and Texas State in 2021.

Quarterback Stability

• The Eagles have had their starting quarterback from game one of a season start every game of the schedule for the past four-plus seasons, a streak of 60 games. Kyle Vantrease started all 13 games of 2022, Davis Brin all 13 of 2023 and JC French IV all 13 games of both 2024 and 2025 and now Max Johnson has started all eight this year.

• It's the longest streak on record for the Eagles. Greg Hill (all 15 games in 1998 and all 15 in 1999) and JR Revere (all 15 games in 2000 and the first six games of 2001) manned the huddle for a streak of 51 games, the previous record.

More Stallions in the Stable

• Georgia Southern has long had a rich history at the running back position with stars like Adrian Peterson and Matt Breida, among some, roaming the field. The reins have been turned over to a new group in David Mbadinga and Terrance Gibbs.

• Mbadinga has been a stud on the field and in the classroom. He averaged 5.1 yards per carry last year and has scored five touchdowns in his career. The fourth-year player from Atlanta has all been recognized as an academic all-district for carrying a 3.87 cumulative GPA in computer science.

• Gibbs has had a slow return to the field while rehabbing a serious knee injury he suffered in high school. An ESPN300 recruit—the first in Georgia Southern history—the Florida, native ranked as the No. 174 overall player in the country, the No. 14 running back in the nation and the No. 22 player in the state of Florida by ESPN.com.

• He suffered a knee injury just before his junior season and missed the entire year before returning to play sparingly toward the end of his senior season. Before his knee injury, he held an offer from nearly 30 programs including the likes of LSU, Florida, Florida State, Auburn and Georgia.

• With the running back room depleted due to injuries, second-year players Taeo Todd and Bryce Baker combined for 102 yards on the ground and 37 yards through the air as Georgia Southern went to Marshall and picked up a win to gain bowl eligibility last season.

• A pair of newcomers will look to contribute this season in second-year player Tyrese Woodgett and first-year player Ty Cummings. Woodgett rushed for 1,079 yards, had 290 receiving yards and scored 14 touchdowns in his season at Georgia Military College before enrolling at Georgia Southern in January. At Coffee High, he was named first-team all-state as a senior after producing 2,984 all-purpose yards and ran for 3,158 yards and 37 touchdowns in his career at CHS. He set a then-GHSA single-game rushing record with 605 yards on 19 attempts with seven touchdowns in a 2024 playoff game.

• That record was broken by Cummings, who was the State 3A Player of the Year and a first-team all-state selection his final season by the AJC. He rushed for 2,615 yards and 31 touchdowns as a senior in 14 games at West Laurens High and broke Woodgett's single-game rushing record by rushing for 615 yards on just 19 carries and scored eight touchdowns.

• This group has to fill the void for OJ Arnold, who ran for 1,032 yards and last year and led the FBS with a 7.16 average on 144 carries.

Transfers Find New Homes

• Several new faces to the Georgia Southern squad took advantage of the NCAA's transfer rule to come play in Statesboro. Since the end of last season, Georgia Southern added 22 transfers from NCAA schools (in addition to two JUCO players) to its roster, bringing talent and experience to the team.

• Of those 24 transfers, 12 are FBS transfers, eight are FCS transfers, two are Division II transfers and two are junior college players. Eleven have previous experience at Power 4 programs.

• The Eagles' 22 first-year transfers with NCAA experience came into the season with a combined 460 games played and 184 starts in their careers.

New Groom; New Dad

• Fifth-year receiver Josh Dallas had quite the offseason in 2025 as he married his high school sweetheart, Ashlyn. It capped a remarkable year for the Sharpsburg, Georgia, native, who had a breakout season after moving to the inside receiver position.

• Dallas caught 46 passes for 614 yards and a team-high six touchdowns in 2024, earning honorable mention all-conference by College Football Network.

• It was also an emotional year as his twin brother David had to step aside from playing football at Georgia Southern due to a nagging shoulder injury. David moved back to the Atlanta area and then to Michigan, getting married in July of 2025, marking the longest the twins have ever been apart. Despite the miles between them, they stayed tight—as expected—as David served as Josh's best man at his wedding, and Josh reciprocated the honor at his wedding a week before training camp.

• This past June, Josh and Ashlyn welcomed their first child, a son named Titus, into the world.

• Josh suffered a sports hernia in the USC game last year, sidelining him for the season. He was given a medical hardship waiver and has two years of eligibility left.

Eagles Returning to the Nest

• Numerous coaches and staff members have deep roots to Statesboro as graduates of Georgia Southern. From the coaching staff, assistant head coach/defensive backs coach Darius Safford, assistant special teams coach Anthony Beck II, offensive assistant Khalil Crowder and defensive assistant Tyrell Davis all played for the Eagles. Defensive assistant coaches Caleb Heintz and Tate Yancey also graduated from Southern.

• Additionally, staff members Adrian Peterson, Andrew Bevill, Jackson Stacy, Elease Ryals, Emmanuel Gonzalez and Matt Wise also graduated from Georgia Southern with Peterson and Wise playing for the Eagles.

New Leader of the Defense

• A veteran of the college coaching industry with nearly 30 years of experience, Mike Mutz returns to Statesboro as the defensive coordinator after a record-setting, three-year run leading the Stephen F. Austin defense.

• While at SFA, Mutz led one of the best defenses in the FCS, one that culminated in the 'Jacks earning a No. 7 national seed in their return to the NCAA Division I Championship for the first time since 2021.

• In 2025, no team in the country spent more time in opponent's backfields than the 'Jacks as SFA led the FCS in tackles for loss per game (8.7) and carried a top-10 mark nationally in sacks per game (3.0). SFA recorded 122.0 total tackles for loss for 450 loss yards as SFA went on an 11-game winning streak during the season. Nine players earned all-conference honors which helped Mutz earn Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year Finalist honors.

• Prior to SFA, Mutz spent seven seasons (2016-2022) with the Tulane Green Wave and established one of the top linebacker units in the nation.

• The 2022 season is considered the greatest season in Tulane history, and Mutz's linebackers were a big part of it. It's the largest turnaround in FBS history – going from 2-10 to 12-2. The Green Wave finished the year ranked No. 9 in the country and captured the AAC Championship and also won the Cotton Bowl in dramatic fashion, coming back from a 15-point deficit in the final four minutes against Southern Cal.

• Prior to Tulane, Mutz spent two seasons (2015-16) in Statesboro, where he helped the Eagles to a two-year overall record of 18-7, a combined Sun Belt Conference mark of 14-2, a GoDaddy.com Bowl Championship and a Sun Belt Championship. In 2015, Mutz helped guide Georgia Southern to a 9-4 overall record and the school's first win in its inaugural bowl game with a 58-27 win over Bowling Green in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl.

Replacing a Whole Lot of O-Line Experience

• A year after having one of its most experience offensive lines, Georgia Southern has to replace all five starters in 2026.

• Seventh-year Caelan Williams started the first two games last season at left tackle, but sustained a torn ACL early in the USC contest that sideline him for the rest of the year.

• Ty Furnish also played significantly last season, but didn't start any games. The sixth-year player who transferred from Virginia moves to center after playing guard last year.

• Other players along the line expected to see action this year include Matthew Williams, Brandon Stoner, Colin Alexander, Jaylen Slaughter and Ethan

Williams, five players who have been in the Eagle system for multiple seasons and now get their chance for serious playing time.

From the Outback to the Boro

• To understand Alex Smith is to appreciate his unique story truly. He's more than the first Australian football player in Eagle football history. He's a former professional tennis player. He's the self-proclaimed top table tennis player on the team. He's 27 years old, making him the oldest player on Georgia Southern's football roster and the only one born before 2000. And he's figuring out college football and American life one day at a time.

• A native of Melbourne, Australia, Smith graduated from Caulfield Grammar School in 2017 and tried his hand at professional tennis, a sport he thrived at in part to his 6-foot-6 frame.

• In June 2020, he gave up tennis and the dream of playing at a Power 5 tennis school when COVID hit, so he called John A. Smith with ProKick Australia and asked about a workout. ProKick Australia is a club that has sent multiple punters to the United States, including Pittsburgh Steelers punter Cameron Johnston and Ray Guy Award winners Mitch Wishnowsky and Michael Dickson.

• Smith had never played Australian football but had kicked the ball around pretty well in the yard. By his own admission, his first workout was terrible, but still, the group saw enough potential in him after working with him for a few years to place him as a commitment to Vanderbilt.

• Amid COVID-19 and a coaching change, Nashville didn't work out, and Smith was left in limbo. But then, he got a call that Georgia Southern was interested and signed with the Eagles in December of 2022. Soon, he was on a flight from Australia to Florida, landing in January before driving up to Statesboro. It would be his first time in the United States.

• Georgia Southern head coach Clay Helton coached Ben Griffiths, also a native of Melbourne, so he was familiar with what kind of player he was getting in Smith.

• Smith said he didn't watch much college football in Australia but watched many NFL games, especially when the other Alex Smith was quarterbacking the San Francisco 49ers.

• Adjusting to new surroundings took some getting used to for Smith. He said he didn't sleep or eat much the first week here due to the time difference (Melbourne is 14 hours ahead of Statesboro). He also said it took some time to feel comfortable being his "true Australian self with my big, thick accent," but as he got more acclimated, he's fit in more.

• Smith, who played lower-level professional tennis upon graduation from high school on the ATP Futures Tour, grew up playing tennis as a resident of Dubai and says he's always been adept at racket sports, including ping pong (or table tennis as the top-level players call it).

• Smith is the first left-footed punter in program history, although quarterback Kevin Ellison punted in a 2015 game against Troy and is left-footed even though he threw right-handed.

• Smith is a two-time All-Sun Belt honoree who earned preseason all-conference accolades this season.

Big Red Planting Roots

• Offensive lineman Caelan Williams has spent almost a third of his life on Georgia Southern's campus as he is now in his seventh year with the Eagles. What's more impressive is that in the age of the Transfer Portal, he's spent all seven years in the Georgia Southern program.

• Williams joined the program in the spring of 2020 as a blueshirt, taking classes at Georgia Southern part-time in the fall while going through spring practice with the Eagles and earning a perfect 4.00 GPA.

• He did not see any game action during the COVID season of 2020 and gained that year back due to the pandemic. He redshirted in 2021 and played in one game in 2022. He played in all 13 games in 2023, mostly on special teams before playing in all 13 games with two starts in 2024.

• Last year, he started the first two games at left tackle before tearing his ACL early on in the USC game. He was granted a medical hardship waiver and returns to the field this fall for his seventh season.

• Safety Tavian Combs of New Mexicon and Utah offensive lineman Alex Harrison are believed to be the only other seventh-year players who have been at the same school their entire career according to a responses from a survey of all 138 FBS communications directors.

Bryan Brought it on the Mat

• Second-year quarterback Weston Bryan signed with Georgia Southern for his football prowess, but was perhaps an even bigger star on the wrestling mat. The 6-3, 255-pound signal caller went 31-5 as a junior on the mat, taking runner-up honors at the Georgia 7-A state wrestling tournament at 215 pounds.

• He topped his junior campaign the next year, winning the Class 5A heavyweight division as a senior, finishing 24-0 despite having a broken wrist and thumb for the state meet.

• The four-star recruit who was ranked as the No. 18 athlete in the country by 247Sports and was rated as the No. 24 dual-threat quarterback in the country by ESPN. He got late offers from SEC schools as a tight end, but kept his pledge to the Eagles. Bryan threw for 2,407 yards and 29 touchdowns and also ran for 1,531 yards and 34 scores as a senior and was a first-team all-state selection for the 5A level by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution.

• Last season, the newcomer made a quick impact. At USC, he threw a 32-yard touchdown pass on his first career attempt to give the Eagles an early lead over the Trojans, threw another TD pass against Coastal Carolina and one at Marshall.

• As a freshman, he threw three touchdown passes and scored three times on the ground. He also made a 4.0 in the classroom both semesters last year.

• He had a 67-yard touchdown run at Coastal Carolina earlier this year, the longest run by an Eagle quarterback since Justin Tomlin ran 76 yards for a touchdown at Arkansas in 2021.

This ... Is American Idol

• Third-year tight end Aubrey Heath had a chance to represent Southern on a different national stage when he earned a live audition with American Idol in the fall of 2024, all while playing football for the Eagles.

• A self-taught guitar player, Heath started out playing for his friends at school and then at church on Sundays before beginning to write songs from his life experiences. Initially, Heath saw an ad for American Idol on social media before applying in May of 2024. From there a producer reached out and he went through a couple of rounds of virtual auditions.

• The local product from Effingham County then headed to live auditions in New York City last October with 15 people from his tight-knit family.

• While waiting for his turn, the judges all walked right in front of him to get on an elevator and he got a "Georgia Southern?" from judge and Eagle alum Luke Bryan, as he recognized the school logo from the hat on Heath's head. He was also able to meet Carrie Underwood, Lionel Richie and host Ryan Seacrest before his audition.

The Big Ticket

• Georgia Southern second-year defensive lineman Jeremiah Ticket has his own unique story in how he arrived to Statesboro.

• Born in Fairbanks, Alaska, Ticket was raised was

The Honored 0 Jersey

• Georgia Southern head coach Clay Helton announced in 2022 that a special player will wear the 0 jersey each game.

SCUSE ME, COMING THROUGH

Georgia Southern second-year quarterback Weston Bryan stands at 6-3, 250 pounds and has been a load to bring down when in the game. In his career, he has 72 carries, 30 of which have resulted in a first down or a touchdown (22 first downs, 8 TDs). That's a 41.7% success rate when called on.

raised in a village called Anaktuvuk Pass with his blood family until his early teenage years. Ticket's mother and grandfather both passed away in 2020 and his grandmother passed away in the summer of 2025.

• Ticket lived in the small village for all of my childhood years and Anaktuvuk is home to his family, including cousins and other relatives. Nestled on a divide between the Anaktuvuk and John Rivers, Anaktuvuk Pass is located approximately 250 miles northwest of Fairbanks and stands as the gateway to the stunning wilderness of the Gates of the Arctic National Park and Preserve.

• Ticket came to Georgia in 2021 for a summer vacation with his cousin and his family, including his aunt who is now his legal guardian, and ended up staying in the Peach State. His little cousin (or little brother as he likes to call him) played football over the summers and asked if he wanted to give it a try. Ticket had excelled at basketball, volleyball and cross country in Alaska, but decided to give football a try in the summer of 2021 playing rec ball.

• At 6-3 and nearly 300 pounds, the defensive lineman picked the sport up quickly and eventually started playing for Jonesboro High, which led to his scholarship offer to Georgia Southern, where he signed in December of 2024.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

• Georgia Southern has a rich tradition in the college football world, winning six Division I-AA national titles, but also has traditions that make the program unique.

BEAUTIFUL EAGLE CREEK

• When Georgia Southern resurrected the football program in 1981, traditions and spirit needed resurrection as well. So legendary head football coach Erk Russell created his own. Inspired by the gnat-infested drainage ditch that cut across the field between what was then the team's locker room and practice fields, Russell convinced his players that its stagnant water was actually "Beautiful Eagle Creek," a source of "magical" waters.

YELLOW SCHOOL BUSES

• When the football program was resurrected in 1981, the team needed a way to travel to practices and games. Operating on a shoestring budget didn't allow for transportation back then, let alone any luxurious travel.

• The Bulloch County Board of Education stepped in with a deal the University couldn't refuse: GS would only pay $1 each for two yellow school buses. The football team still uses buses to this day, taking a lap around campus on game days.

WHY ARE THEY CALLED THE EAGLES?

• Eagles is the third nickname used by Georgia Southern and has been the official nickname since 1959.

• From 1924 to 1941, the school went through three name changes. From 1924 to 1928, it was called the Georgia Normal School. From 1929 to 1938, it was the South Georgia Teachers College and was then changed to the Georgia Teachers College in 1939 remaining that way until 1958.

• The nickname from 1924 to 1941 was the Blue Tide. The origin of the nickname is unknown. After World War II, when all sports except football were revived, the nickname was changed to Professors to coordinate with the name of the school, Georgia Teachers College.

THE POWER OF PAULSON

• Georgia Southern holds one of the best home-field advantages in the FBS, posting a 224-55 record at Paulson Stadium. That winning percentage is the fourth best out of all currently used FBS stadiums, trailing only Alabama, Boise State and Oklahoma.

• The Eagles are 30-8 all-time at Paulson Stadium when playing in front of 21,000 or more fans.

• However, when the school was renamed Georgia Southern College in 1959, Professors no longer fit the school's image. The department of athletics decided to let the students vote for a nickname and Eagles was selected in a narrow vote over Colonels. Georgia Southern, which moved to Georgia Southern University in 1990, has been the Eagles ever since that campus vote in 1959.

Retired Numbers

• GS has retired two numbers in its football history, No. 3 for Adrian Peterson and No. 8 for Tracy Ham. Both are College Football Hall of Famers and both went to the same high school: Santa Fe in Alachua, Florida.

• Peterson, a 2017 CFB Hall of Fame Inductee, is the NCAA Division I all-time leading rusher with 6,559 yards in regular-season contests and was a four-time All-American. He led the Eagles to two national titles.

• Ham, a 2007 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee and first-team All-American in 1986, led the Eagles to back-to-back I-AA National Championships.

• Both still work in the Georgia Southern Athletics Department: Ham as a Senior Associate AD for Administration and Peterson as the Director of Student-Athlete Development for the football team.

Remembering Freedom

• Georgia Southern University's beloved live bald eagle mascot, "Freedom," passed away on March 29, 2025. • Under the supervision of Steve Hein, Executive Director of the Center for Wildlife Education, Freedom (21 years old) was on the sidelines of all GS home games, and select road games. Freedom's Flight was one of the highlights of any game day in Statesboro.

• On Nov. 15, Freedom II made her debut at Paulson Stadium to the delight of Eagle Nation. She will soon become a fixture on the sidelines of Georgia Southern games as she has begun her training in hopes of her flying in pregames by 2027.

SCORIGAMI

WHAT IS SCORIGAMI?

Scorigami is the art of building final scores that have never happened before. The concept was thought of by Jon Bois who sought to find unique scores in NFL history. In this case, we use it to see how often a score or range of points scored occurs, essentially creating a heat map of results across Georgia Southern's modern football history (since 1982). Each data point is the final score of a Georgia Southern football game.

HOW DO I READ THIS CHART?

The winning team's score is along the top (horizontal axis) and the losing team's score is along the left (vertical axis). Scores marked in green have happened, scores in white have not yet happened, scores in black are impossible. The bottom half is all black because the losing team can not score more points than the winning team and there are no ties. The numbers inside the green squares are the amount of times that score has happened. The higher the number in the green square, the more common the score.
