2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Georgia State men's soccer team will look to rebound off its 4-11 2007 season with the help of 11 returners and the addition of seven new players to add depth to its roster. According to head coach Kerem Daser, the key to improvement and success this season rests in the hands of the team, rather than one key player. With the loss of State's leading scorer, Floreal Pedraza, the Panthers have worked on defending, transitioning, attacking, finishing, and making a presence on the field during the offseason. "We are looking to have a successful season with great leadership on the field," said Daser. "In order to be winners, you have to have three things: the head, the heart, and the feet. The head is the soccer mind, the heart is the willingness to play and be competitive, and the feet include all the technical skills in soccer. If we can have all three of those things, we will have a good season."

Returners

The Panthers return 11 players for the 2008 season, losing only five players, including leading scorer, Floreal Pedraza and starter, Justin Davis. Of the 11 returners, eight are seniors and all saw significant action last season for the Panthers. "Our most successful seasons at Georgia State were in 1997, 2000, and 2004, and in all three of those years, our team was dominated by seniors. So, I think our large group of seniors will have a positive impact. They are all special and bring something different to the field and we will look for them to be leaders and set examples for our newcomers on and off the field," said Daser.

Newcomers

State has added a recruiting class of seven enthusiastic and talented players. The combination of raw and diverse talent allows for competition at every position. Many of the newcomers will bring an impact off the bench while some will battle for starting positions. Stephan Minyono is a six-foot-five transfer forward from the University of Evansville and also has experience at the ODP level as a member of the south regional team. Christopher Peacos, a freshman defender from Roswell, Ga., was one of the top defenders in the country out of last year's class and played for the Concorde Soccer Club, which is a part of the US Developmental Academy and has won many state and regional cups. He has matched up against some of the top players in the country and brings a great deal of experience to the team. Jacob Hamilton, a freshman from Cumming, Ga. and former member of the RPL Norcross Fury team, will see action at the forward position. Zachary Walldorf is a freshman from Chamblee High School in Chamblee, Ga., and will back Filipe Carvalho at the goalkeeper position. Ayokunle Lumpkin, a freshman from Marietta, Ga., will assist the forward, helping to set up and score goals. Donald Kirkland (McDonough, Ga.) and Joey Syfert (Kennesaw, Ga.) will add depth to the team, splitting time between the defender and midfield positions.

Goal Keepers

Goalkeeper Filipe Carvalho returns as a starter at the goalkeeper position with 317 career saves. Carvalho, who finished the 2007 season ranked No. 6 in the NCAA in saves, is expected to have a stellar season in his final year as a Panther. As co-captain, he will be a leader on the field and serve as a mentor for newcomer Zachary Walldorf.

Defenders

State will return five experienced defenders, including seniors Spenser Sumpter, Francesco Barbera, and Tobias Nagy. Sumpter, a three-year starter, will continue to lead the backfield as a defender with his great soccer mind and first touch on the ball. Sophomore Michael Clarke also returns and is expected to add great athleticism at the central position. Peacos, Hamilton, Nagy, and Barbera will also complement the position, adding talent, size, and presence.

Midfielders

Four players return at the midfield position, including seniors Linus Warendh, Joe DeVito, and Eduardo Liza. DeVito had an outstanding 2007 season, but struggled with injuries during the second half of the season. He played for the Atlanta Silverbacks PDL team during the summer and improved his ball handling techniques to complement his breakaway speed. Liza moves from center midfield to side midfield where he is more comfortable and more efficient. He is crafty with the ball and unpredictable and will be needed to set up and score goals this season. Linus and Kirkland will add an impact on the attacking side while newcomer Lumpkin will add a spark off the bench.

Forwards

Leading the helm at the defending position is senior Dathan Knott with help from Nagy and Minyono. Daser will look to Knott to fill in as a scorer. He has dealt with injuries over his career, but has had a great spring season and returns fully healthy. Nagy scored two goals last season and will be another option as a scorer off the bench. Freshman Kunle Lumpkin has the ability to score big goals and will be a great complement to play beside Dathan Knott.

The Schedule

The 18-game regular-season schedule opens on the road with a rematch of last year's exhibition game against Clemson where the Panthers held off the Tigers for a 1-0 victory. The Panthers then return home for a two-match home stand against Presbyterian on Sept. 6 and USC Upstate on Sept. 8.

The Panthers will hit the road for a five-game road trip, participating in two tournaments at Mercer and Wofford, facing Alabama A&M on Sept. 13 and rounding out competition at the Mercer Tournament with a match against Mercer on Sept. 14. State then travels to Spartanburg, S.C. to take on Furman and Wofford Sept. 19 and 21 in the Wofford Tournament. The five-game road trip ends with a CAA opener against Hofstra in Hempstead, N.Y. on Sept. 27.

State will take on its CAA foe, Northeastern at home on Oct. 4 before getting back on the road for two straight CAA matches against UNCW and Drexel. The Panthers will host the 2007 CAA Champions, ODU, on Oct. 15 before traveling to face James Madison on Oct. 18. State returns home for a pair of conference matches against VCU and George Mason on Oct. 22 and 25 and travels for its final road match against William & Mary.

The Panthers return home to play their final two games of the regular season against Towson and Delaware on Nov. 1 and 7, before preparing for the CAA Tournament, which will be held Nov. 11-6 in Virginia Beach, Va.

NSCAA National & NSCAA
Advance National Diplomas
Served on the NCAA South
Regional Ranking Committee
in 2004, 2005

Kerem Daser enters his ninth season as the Georgia State Panthers head coach and 12th year on the Georgia State soccer staff.

In his eight-year tenure as head coach at Georgia State, Daser has coached four teams ranked in the top 10 in the South Region and one in the North Atlantic Region, and has won a conference champion. During his total 12 years as a Panther, Daser has been with teams that have claimed three wins over Top 25 ranked squads. He has built a strong alumni support group to help the future growth of soccer at Georgia State.

In 2005, the squad fell one victory short of qualifying for post season play in their first year in the Colonial Athletic Association. Only six schools qualify for the CAA Soccer Championships. The team placed eighth in the league with a 4-7 conference record and 6-12 overall. State needed to win its last three games, all at home, but dropped the middle game 1-0 to Delaware.

The Atlantic Sun Conference 6-3 record in 2004 was the best since the 2000 mark of 6-2 and marked a fifth consecutive winning record in conference play. The team has been ranked in the top 10 in the South region four out of the last six years. Daser also guided the Panthers to a conference title in 2000 by winning the Trans America Athletic Conference Tournament, their first title since 1997. Daser produced consecutive winning seasons along with the 2003 year for the first time since 1987-88.

In 2000, Daser led the Panthers to a 12-9 overall record and a 6-2 record in the TAAC (now the Atlantic Sun). The team posted two shutouts during the TAAC Tournament and lost in a heartbreaking NCAA Play-In Tournament Match against Rhode Island, falling 4-3 in overtime. Coach Daser was named 2000 TAAC Coach of the Year. In 2001, he led the team to a 9-7 overall record and a 4-3 mark in the A-Sun after the Panthers upset No. 6 Clemson in a match at the beginning of the season that earned Georgia State its first national ranking ever. This ranking rose to as high as No. 15 in the Soccer America poll. In 2002, Daser led the team to its third straight winning conference record. Daser was also instrumental in the Panthers' last championship, working as an assistant coach on the 1997 TAAC championship team.

Prior to coming to Georgia State, Daser worked as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina (1996-97) and for a year at Methodist College in Fayetteville, N.C. (1995-96). At UNC, he worked with current Major League Soccer players Carey Talley (Kansas City Wizards), Eddie Robinson (San Jose Earthquakes), who is now on the U.S. National Team, and former MLS players Tim Schaydak and Temoc Suarez, as well as seven players who participated on United States national youth teams. At Methodist, he helped the Monarchs to a 17-0 regular season mark and a 21-1 record following the NCAA tournament. Three players at Methodist were named All-America and six signed professional contracts.

Daser has also been very active in the development of youth soccer in the South. He served as Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Eagles YMCA Soccer Club in Alpharetta, Ga. (1999-2002) and is currently the Executive Director for the Forsyth Fusion Soccer Club. In the summer of 2006, the Forsyth Fusion U18 team qualified for regional play and the Forsyth Fusion U14 team was a Georgia Cup finalist. The Forsyth Fusion Youth Under17 team won the Georgia State Youth Championship and qualified for regionals during the 2005 summer. In the spring of 2004, the Fusion club had two teams advance to the state semifinals and one team went on to the final. The U-16 Fusion team won the prestigious Long Island Showcase in summer of 2003. With the Eagles, the club won five state championships, two regional titles, a Tampa Sun Bowl Crown, and qualified twice for the USYSA national finals. In the spring of 2002, the Brazilian Futbol Federation invited Daser to conduct a technical report for the U-17 International Mini World Cup. Daser has gone on to coach symposiums in Italy in 2000 (AC Milan, Inter Milan, Torino) and Brazil in 2001 (Vasco Da Gama, Flamengo, Fluminense).

In 1999, Daser was named to the Region III coaching staff and has worked as an assistant coach with the '83, '84, and '85 teams. In April 2000, he was the assistant coach of the '84 regional team that competed in an international youth tournament in Guadalajara, Mexico. After the Mexico trip, goalkeeper Ford Williams became a member of the U.S. National youth '84 team. In April 2001, Daser coached the Georgia '85/'86 ODP team in an international festival in Paris, France. He led the Georgia '85 team to the regional semifinals in May 2002, as three players were named to the regional team.

In the summer of 2002, he worked on the regional coaching staff with the '87 age group. In June 2002, he coached the Georgia amateur team in Dallas at the South Regional final where the squad was undefeated and had two players selected for the U.S. Amateur National team. In the summer of 2003, he coached the Georgia State Amateur Select team at regionals that had a record six players named to the regional team and four were named to the national pool. Summer 2004, he coached the Georgia Amateur team at the Regional competition in Alabama. The team beat Florida and North Texas but lost in the Regional Final to South Texas, 3-2. In the spring of 2008 he was named South Regional Amateur Coach.

Five players from the Georgia team were invited to the U.S. National Amateur Camp and four players made the U.S. National Team, including former Georgia State Panther, Terrance Johnson. From 1992-97, he served as North Carolina ODP coach, traveling with the team to Paris, with the '79 (N.C.) ODP squad. Several of Daser's ODP players have gone on to play professionally, including Caleb Norkus who plays for the United Soccer Leagues (USL) First Division Carolina Railhawks. Norkus was a member of the N.C. ODP U-15 team that Daser coached in 1996. He went on to start for the U.S. U-17 World Cup squad. Josh Villalobos, another Daser protégé, played for the U-17 U.S. National team and was on the N.C. ODP '83 squad. Daser coached Philip Long and Ryan Solle on the N.C. ODP '83 team. Both players were drafted by Major League Soccer (MLS) and Solle currently plays for the Carolina Railhawks (A League). Daser also worked with Blake Camp who plays for the Atlanta Silverbacks (A League).

Daser coached Warren Ukah, Zack Kirby, Jonathan Leathers, and Tomac Charowski from the Georgia ODP '85 team. Ukah plays professionally for the USL First Division Atlanta Silverbacks, Kirby, who was drafted into the MLS, plays for the Atlanta Silverbacks, and Charowski went on to play for the U-20 Canadian National team. Jonathan Leathers played on the US National U-23 team and plays for the Kansas City Wizards in the MLS.

Coach Daser has also coached Georgia State University players who have gone on to play professionally- Walter Valesky (Wilmington Hammerheads), Scott Mora (Greenville Lions), Chris Mahaffey (Atlanta Silverbacks), and Armin Marquez (Aragua FC- Venezuelan First Division).

In his 15 year ODP experience with North Carolina and Georgia ODP (1992-2008), he won two regional championships with the 1997 '83 NC ODP and the 2000 '85 ODP team. November 2004 he worked as an assistant with the Georgia '89 ODP team that beat the U-16 Mexican National Team. In December of 2007, he was a guest assistant coach with the Turkish National Youth Team that competed against Brazil, USA, and Russia.

In 2006, Daser worked with the Georgia ODP '90 team that was undefeated in Mississippi. Six players were selected to the regional team. Eddy Gonzalez and Taylor White were invited to the US Soccer Residency Program. Gonzalez and Doudou Toure are now playing professionally in Mexico. He holds his USSF "A" license and has his NSCAA National and NSCAA Advance National Diplomas.

During the summer of 2008, Daser worked with the Georgia ODP 95 team where seven players from the Georgia team were invited to the U-14 U.S. National Camp.

Prior to coaching, Daser played at Greensboro College and then went on to graduate from Wake Forest University with a B.S. in psychology (1995). He was also a member of the North Carolina state championship Raleigh United club in 1997 and played for the IFC Greensboro Dynamos that won the national indoor (ISISL) championship in 1992 and were a USASA national finalist. He was captain of the Greensboro Dynamo U23 team that was coached by former Los Angeles Galaxy General Manager Doug Hamilton and played alongside U.S. national team member Eddie Pope.

Daser continues to play on amateur teams in the Atlanta area. In 2000, he played for the Melchester amateur team that won the Georgia state championship. In 2001 he played for the Atlanta Silverbacks amateur team that won the 2001 Georgia state championship. He also played on the Over-30 Atlanta Silverbacks soccer team in 2003. From 2004 to 2006, he played with the Atlanta Silverbacks amateur team and in 2007 was with the Majestic Fusion ADASL Division I Team. Daser also volunteers his time with the Special Olympics and Soccer in the Streets youth program.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRETT SURRENCY

4TH YEAR

Brett Surrency begins his fourth year in the Georgia State men's soccer program. He was promoted to assistant coach after serving as a graduate assistant in 2005 and will assist Daser in all facets of the program. He played his collegiate career at Jacksonville University in Jacksonville, Fla.

At JU, Surrency was a four-year starter at defender. As a true freshman, he started every game at sweeper. In his sophomore season, he became team captain and scored three goals including a game winner. As a junior, he scored two goals and helped the Dolphins defense lead the conference with a 1.08 GAA, the lowest in school history. He was also second-team All-Atlantic Sun Conference. During his senior year, he earned First Team A-Sun All-Conference honors. He earned Atlantic Sun Academic All-Conference honors every year of eligibility.

"Brett was an outstanding player at Jacksonville University," commented Daser. He has done an outstanding job in all areas of the Georgia State program and is a very loyal and hard working assistant coach." In addition to his coaching responsibilities at Georgia State, Brett also worked as an assistant to Coach Kerem with the GA ODP 95 age group.

Surrency was born August 11, 1982 in Gainesville, Fla. and completed his master's degree in sport administration at Georgia State University in August 2007.

GAUCHO PINHO

5TH YEAR

Gaicho Pinho enters his fifth season as the goalkeeper coach for the Georgia State men's soccer program...Pinho, a native of Brazil, represented Brazil's national youth teams before playing professionally. He holds his Brazilian professional and youth coaching licenses and was the director of the Zico Soccer Club.

Pinho began playing professionally in Brazil with Flamengo from 1986-93. He went on to play for Botofago from 1994-95, Nova Iguaci F.C. in 1996-97 and Zico from 1997-98. Pinho was a goalkeeper coach for professional teams in Brazil following his playing career. He played for Brazil's national team as a youth player, earning 15 caps. He has played at Wembley Stadium, and in Scotland, Northern Ireland, Wales, Holland, Italy, Japan, and Venezuela.

Pinho was also one of the coordinators for Zico's Inner City program that taught soccer and life skills to inner city children. He received his USSF Youth Diploma. He is the technical director for the Forsyth Fusion Soccer Club. He took the U-14 Diadora United to the Super Y National Championships. He also led the Forsyth Fusion U14 team to the State Championship game. He is a Georgia ODP 95 goalkeeper coach and also has worked for the Georgia Amateur ODP teams.

"Pinho has done an unbelievable job as team speed and agility coach and a great job with the goalkeepers," remarked Daser. "He developed Filipe into a top goalkeeper, he always has a smile and is always excited. He is definitely one of the top goalkeeper coaches in the country."

ARTURO NORAMBUENA

2ND YEAR

Arturo Norambuena enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Panthers and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the post.

Norambuena played professional soccer in South America for 11 years, most notably for teams in Chile, Argentina and Puerto Rico, before entering the collegiate coaching ranks in 2007.

From 2000-2005, Norambuena played professionally for several teams in the Copa Libertadores league, including the Universidad Catolica and Cobreloa from Chile. He also played for Quilmes in Argentina and the Islanders of Puerto Rico from the United Soccer Leagues (USL) First Division.

In 2002, Norambuena was the top scorer in the Chilean League and the top scorer for Universidad Catolica, leading his team to the Chilean League championship.

He spent two seasons as a member of the Chilean National Team that played in World Cup qualifying matches in 2002 and 2006.

Norambuena holds a Chilean license, which he received from the soccer institute in Chile, to coach youths in the sport. This summer, he received his USSF Youth coaching diploma. He is a graduate of the Universidad Austral of Chile and is currently a forestry engineer in the Atlanta metro area.

Norambuena assists Georgia State head coach Kerem Daser at the Forsyth Fusion Soccer Club, helping run the recreation program and coaching top teams.

"I am definitely excited that Arturo will join us for his second year," expressed Daser. "He has great international experience playing for the Chilean National team and was the leading scorer in the Chilean League. He has been a great asset for our team with our midfielders and forwards in our attacking third."

2007 SEASON REVIEW

The 2007 Georgia State men's soccer season, despite its ups and downs, was a year of several bright spots. The team played a highly competitive conference schedule with four teams ranked in the top 10 in the final regular-season NSCAA South Atlantic regional rankings. Georgia State improved upon last year's 1-16 mark, finishing the season 4-11-1, with a number of exciting matches. However, mid-season injuries to top scorers and a number of close defeats cost the team dearly.

Five seniors led the Panthers in 2007- Justin Davis, Iain MacGowan, Javon Carrington, Tim Lonergan, and Floreal Pedraza.

The Panthers' 1-0-1 exhibition performance created excitement for the season. After battling a disciplined College of Charleston team to a 1-1 tie, Georgia State proved that its players could compete with top teams. State put its talent to the test against then-ranked No. 12 Clemson in its second exhibition match in front of more than 500 fans at Panthersville Athletic Complex. The Panthers battled the Tigers to a 1-0 shutout upset victory, proving its discipline, athleticism, and potential that head coach Kerem Daser believed in.

Georgia State opened the regular season battling North Florida at home and nearly upset the Ospreys after outplaying them throughout the match. State took a 1-0 lead in the 13th minute, but North Florida responded with two straight goals before the end of the first half. The Panthers' defense prevented the Ospreys from extending the lead, but State couldn't find a way to score as North Florida escaped with a 2-1 win.

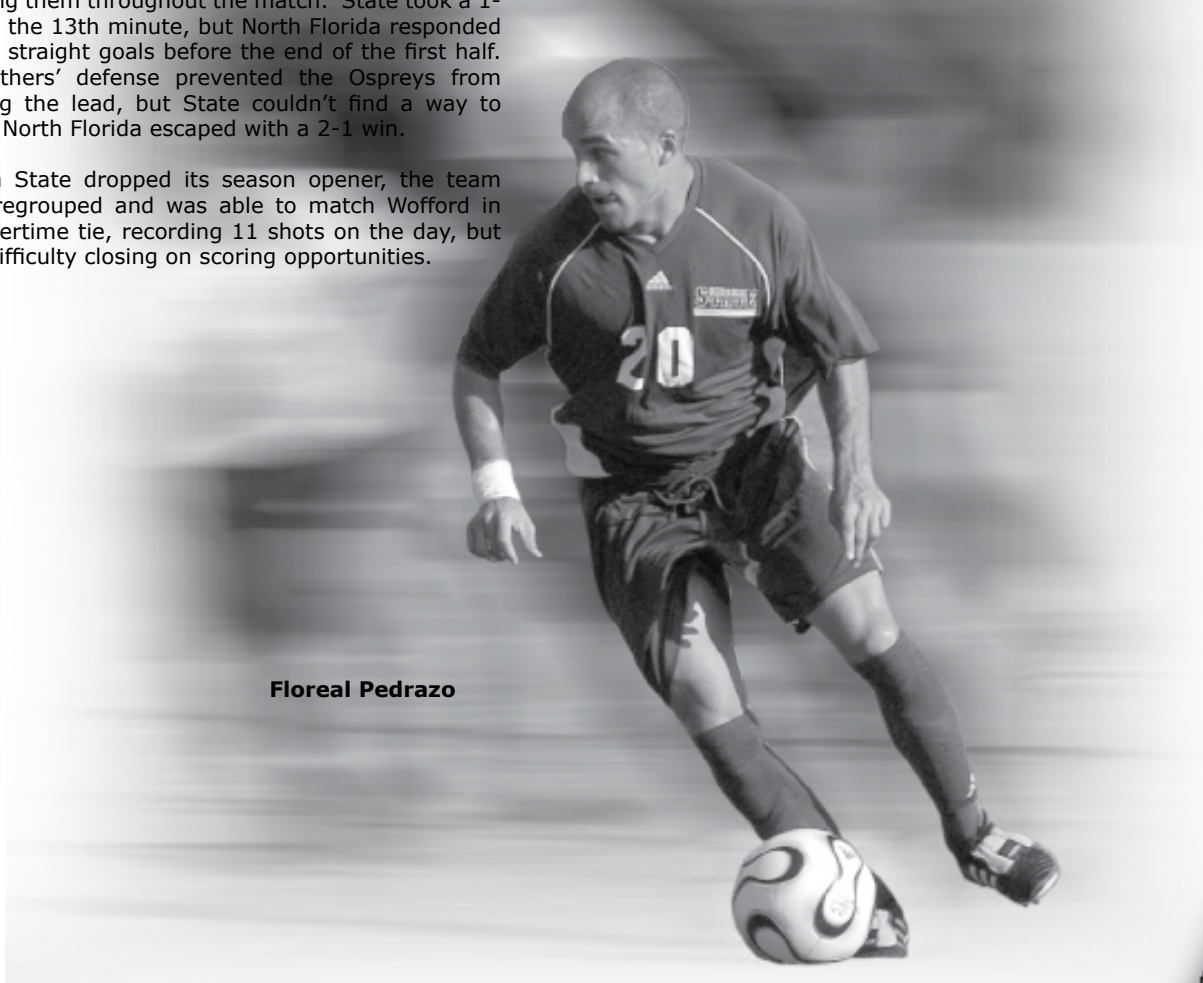

Although State dropped its season opener, the team quickly regrouped and was able to match Wofford in a 0-0 overtime tie, recording 11 shots on the day, but having difficulty closing on scoring opportunities.

Georgia State grabbed its first win in a 4-3 victory over Lipscomb on the road. Floreal Pedraza led the attack with three different Panthers, including Brian Forero and Tobias Nagy, scoring to help the Panthers to a 4-1 first period lead and the eventual win.

The Panthers put their 1-1-0 record to the test as they travelled to Boca Raton, Fla. to compete in the Florida Atlantic Tournament. In the first match of the tournament, Floreal Pedraza scored two goals to give the Panthers a late 2-1 lead against Florida Gulf Coast, but the team couldn't hold on as they allowed three unanswered points to push them into a 3-2 overtime loss. Georgia State would drop its second straight match against a tough Florida Atlantic squad, struggling offensively and only managing two shots on goal, in the 2-0 loss.

Despite the outcome, two Panthers, Floreal Pedraza and junior midfielder Joe Devito, were named to the FAU Classic All-Tournament team for their individual contributions and performance over the weekend.

After disappointing results at the FAU Tournament, the Panthers embarked on a successful midseason stretch. Demonstrating their will to beat stiff competition, the Panthers' found their offensive rhythm, shutting out Jacksonville in a 3-0 victory. Pedrazo scored two goals in the contest and Joe Devito tallied his first goal of the year to help seal the victory.

Two days later, a three-man contingent of Panthers, including junior defender Tobias Nagy, junior midfielder Eduardo Liza and midfielder Floreal Pedrazo, pushed Georgia State past USC-Upstate, 3-1, spoiling the Spartans' home opener and improving the Panthers' record to 3-3-1 entering CAA competition.

Floreal Pedrazo earned CAA Player of the Week honors for leading the CAA in points and goals with 17 and seven, respectively. Pedrazo also ranked second in the nation in goals and points per game at the mark. Filipe Carvalho led the CAA in saves with 36 and saves per game with six and was also sixth in the nation in total saves.

The team's overall performance led to a No. 10 ranking in the NSCAA/Adidas South Atlantic Regional poll in October, which helped to boost the momentum leading into an 11-match CAA slate.

However, the Panthers were unable to extend the winning streak to three as it opened conference play against Towson, the 2007 CAA tournament runner-up, on October 5 at the Towson Soccer Complex where the Tigers had not lost a match since 2005. The Tigers found holes in the Panthers' defense and shut out the Panthers 6-0, scoring four goals in the second period alone.

Two days later, State turned it around and bested George Mason 3-0 in a match where Floreal Pedrazo and Joe Devito connected for all of the Panthers points, to move to an even 4-4-1 record.

However, the George Mason victory would be bittersweet as injuries begin to cost the team as they closed out the season.

2008 ALUMNI GAME

Georgia State men's soccer team hosted its 2nd Annual Alumni Day on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at Panthersville Athletic Complex. The annual alumni event offers an opportunity for former players to reconnect and also meet current student-athletes. Stories were shared, memories rekindled, and lots of catching up with old teammates, friends and family took place. However, the highlights of the event place on the field where athletes from 1994-2006 competed against each other before the Legends (1968-1993) kicked off a scrimmage that has proven to be one to be remembered.

The morning rain gave way to a beautiful sunny day for alumni games as festivities kicked off at 4:30 p.m. Roughly 50 soccer alumni registered for the event and participated in two separate games. The athletes from 1994-2006, separated into two teams (A-L and M-Z) took the field first, playing to a 2-2 tie.

The Legends, composed of former athletes from 1968-1993 took the field at 5:30 p.m. and played a competitive half of soccer. Though no official score was taken, as head coach Kerem Daser described, "the Legends definitely kicked it up many levels. They are a great group of guys that love the Georgia State blue and white."

The afternoon featured live music, barbeque, and fellowship among fellow Georgia State soccer alumni, family, and friends.

"Alumni Day was very successful and it was an exciting day for all who were involved," said Daser. "It was great to see many of the alumni athletes come out and have a good time, playing some good soccer."

Alumni ended the day with a trip to Park Bench in Buckhead with thanks to former Panther Francisco Vidal. A special thanks goes to Scott Mora for supplying Powerade at the event.

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

SPORTS ARENA

GEORGIA STATE ATHLETICS

Founded in 1913, Georgia State University offers educational opportunities at both the graduate and undergraduate levels by blending the best of theoretical and applied inquiry, scholarly and professional pursuits, and scientific and artistic expression. As an urban research university with strong disciplinary-based departments and a wide array of problem-oriented interdisciplinary programs, the goal of the university is to develop, transmit, and utilize knowledge in order to provide access to quality education for diverse groups of students, to educate leaders for the state of Georgia and the nation, and to prepare citizens for lifelong learning in a global society.

Georgia State is one of the nation's leading urban research universities, educating Georgia's most diverse population of students. More than 40,000 students are seeking degrees, with 27,000 on campus each semester. Students arrive from every county in Georgia, every state in the nation and more than 150 countries.

Georgia State has earned the highest Carnegie classification for research institutions with extensive research projects seeking breakthroughs in viral immunology, drug design, microbiology, neuroscience and many other exciting fields.

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

This is Georgia State...

Nestled in the heart of downtown, Atlanta, Georgia State's location allows students to learn not only in the classroom, but also in the surrounding city, where high-profile companies can provide hands-on experience.

Georgia State's student body chooses from more than 52 bachelor's, master's, specialist's and doctoral degree programs in 250 fields of study offered through six college-level units:

The J. Mack Robinson College of Business:

Prepares students to lead by pursuing ethical, innovative and value-enhancing strategies in a culturally diverse and technologically advanced world. The undergraduate program has been ranked among the nation's top 50 business school programs for six straight years, according to U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges" guide. Three of the college's departments—Risk Management and Insurance, Computer Information Systems, and Real Estate—also rank among the top 10 in their respective categories, while the college's MBA program has been ranked in the top ten in the nation for the past 12 years.

The Andrew Young School of Policy Studies:

Educates students to analyze, evaluate and design policies addressing economic and social development issues at the local, regional, national and global levels. U.S. News & World Report rankings consistently place the school's public finance and urban management programs among the top ten in the nation.

The College of Arts and Sciences:

The largest college at the university, offering undergraduate and graduate majors in the fine arts, humanities, natural computational sciences and social and behavioral sciences.

The College of Law:

Promotes legal scholarship and service that enriches the legal profession and the community. The college is consistently ranked among the top ten best law schools for the money.

The College of Education:

Offers comprehensive programs in all areas of teacher education, counseling and education fields related to sports. Six education alumni have been named Georgia Teacher of the Year.

The College of Health and Human Services:

Offers programs in nursing, physical therapy, nutrition, cardiopulmonary care, social work and criminal justice that are designed to improve health and well-being and address social justice issues within a multicultural society.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mary McElroy

Now in her fourth year as Director of Athletics, Mary McElroy has brought tremendous optimism, organization and leadership as well as a tireless work ethic to Georgia State University athletics.

Hired in July 2005 by President Carl Patton, McElroy is leading the Panther program to unprecedented heights and raising the profile of Georgia State athletics.

Her most widely recognized achievement to date has been successfully launching a football program at Georgia State, to begin play in 2010, and then hiring the highly-respected Bill Curry to be the Panthers' first head coach. In Curry, she lured a coach with 17 years of experience in the Atlantic Coast Conference and Southeastern Conference, including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues.

McElroy scored another coup when she hired Rod Barnes in March 2007 to rebuild Georgia State basketball. The former head coach at Mississippi immediately brought renewed interest and energy to the program, and now Barnes has the Panthers poised for success in year two.

With Curry and Barnes, Georgia State now has former National Coach of the Year honorees guiding its two most high-profile sports. Curry received the Bobby Dodd Award in 1989 while at Alabama, and Barnes won the Naamith Award in 2001 after leading Ole Miss to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Other significant accomplishments in McElroy's first three years include dramatic increases in athletics fundraising, numerous facilities upgrades, strong academic performance by Panther student-athletes, and a smooth transition to the Colonial Athletic Association, where Georgia State moved in 2005-06.

The former Marine Corps Captain, 1987 graduate of the Naval Academy and 2000 graduate of Georgia Tech's MBA program has been recognized by her peers. In 2006, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA) named McElroy as the NCAA Division I-AAA Administrator of the Year. In 2008, she was recognized at the Black Coaches and Administrators (BCA) annual convention for advancing sports and athletes in the Atlanta area. She serves on the newly-created NCAA Leadership Council, the organization's highest committee for athletic administrators.

McElroy's vision for Georgia State to be "the student-athlete's first choice" is being realized as the program grows in stature within the CAA, around Atlanta and the state of Georgia, and on the national level. The addition of football and women's lacrosse in 2010 will give Georgia State 18 sports, but as the athletics department has grown, so has the level of support for existing sports programs under McElroy's leadership.

In all sports, Georgia State student-athletes have responded to the higher level of competition in the CAA. Athletics highlights in McElroy's first three years include CAA team titles and NCAA berths in men's and women's golf and men's tennis as well as numerous individual titles in golf, track and field and cross country. In 2007-08 alone, Panther teams featured the CAA Athlete of the Year in six different sports. Georgia State student-athletes are also challenged to excel in the classroom and are provided with a support system to effectively balance academics and athletics. More than 100 student-athletes earned the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award in 2007-08, including the CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year in seven of 15 possible sports.

McElroy's athletic management career began in 1992 at the Naval Academy, where she worked her way up to Assistant Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator while overseeing compliance for 29 sports. She also served a stint as Director of Alumni Services at Navy.

From 1999 until her appointment at Georgia State, McElroy was part of the athletic management team at Georgia Tech, serving as Director of Compliance before being elevated to Senior Associate Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator.

As a student at the Naval Academy, McElroy played varsity basketball in the CAA. A native of Great Mills, Md., she is married to a fellow Naval Academy graduate, Terry ('88), and they have two sons, Darrin (18) and Austin (15).

Georgia State University is committed to providing educational, personal, and community development that will enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience.

ACADEMICS PANTHER PROMISE

The blueprint for academic and personal success for Georgia State student-athletes is PANTHER PROMISE.

Panther Promise was developed in 2005 to assist student-athletes with concerns that are unique to the Division I student-athlete and tailored to fit the unique environment of Georgia State University.

Panther Promise is an extension of the services provided by PASS-Program for Academic Support Services. Through PASS and the Athletic Learning Lab, Georgia State's student-athlete development staff arranges tutoring in a wide range of courses, offers academic advisement and provides access to computers and a convenient place to study.

Other components of Panther Promise are the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills program and the Panther Den, which offers a variety of services in conjunction with the University's Counseling Center to address the challenges that face the Georgia State student-athlete.

Georgia State student-athletes posted a 2.94 grade point average for the fall, 2007 semester, and a 2.93 for the spring, boosting the cumulative GPA for student-athletes to a school-record 2.94.

**11 men's soccer student-athletes received CAA All-Academic honors for 2007, including current players:*

*Francesco Barbera
Filipe Carvalho
Tobias Nagy
Michael Clarke
Dathan Knott
Eduardo Liza
Linus Warendh*

Tobias Nagy

Seniors Tobias Nagy and Filipe Carvalho were named to the 2007 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District men's soccer teams for the 2007 season. Carvalho earned first team honors while Nagy earned second team honors and both will advance to the national All-America ballot.

Nagy earned a 3.94 GPA in finance in the fall while Carvalho earned a 3.92 in business administration. Both Nagy and Carvalho were also named to the Dean's List in the fall and spring semesters and earned CAA All-Academic Honors. Nagy was also awarded the Panther Character Award for outstanding community service while maintaining good academic standing.

COLONIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

THOMAS E. YEAGER
CAA COMMISSIONER

With more than two decades of success athletically and academically, the Colonial Athletic Association has established a reputation as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences. The CAA encompasses five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Atlanta. The conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national players of the year, 11 national coaches of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. Even more impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 20 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2007-08, the CAA had five ESPN the Magazine Academic All-Americans and more than 1,700 of our 4,000 student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes six of the nation's top 25 media markets - New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (7), Washington, D.C. (8), Atlanta (9) and Baltimore (24). The CAA currently sponsors 22 sports with the addition of a 12-team football league in 2007. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling.

Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In 2007-08, 26 teams earned NCAA Tournament berths and 46 student-athletes received All-America honors.

The conference has made its presence known nationally in men's basketball with at least three teams advancing to post-season play for the past five years. The CAA has also had at least three women's basketball teams participate in post-season play for the past three years.

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have combined to win 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981. In baseball, the CAA had 23 players chosen in the 2008 Major League draft, which was the second-highest total in league history. Hofstra won its NCAA-record 11th-straight conference title in softball and reached the NCAA regional finals. Individually, the W&M women's tennis duo of Megan Moulton-Levy and Katarina Zoricic reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship in 2008 to earn All-America status for the second straight season, and Georgia State golfer Joel Sjöholm placed 13th overall at the NCAA Men's Golf Championship.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics.

From all-star athletes to Nobel Prize winning faculty, the CAA takes great pride in producing performers who stand out both on the playing field and in the classroom.

PANTHERSVILLE ATHLETIC COMPLEX

Georgia State University has several fine athletic facilities that its student-athletes call home. While men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball compete at the Georgia State Sports Arena in downtown Atlanta, most of the Panthers' athletic teams host their competitions at the Georgia State University Panthersville Recreation and Athletics Complex, located about 10 miles from campus in DeKalb County. The complex includes the home facilities for the sports of men's and women's soccer, baseball, softball, and men's and women's cross country.

An ambitious long-term development project began in June 2006 with an official ground breaking ceremony for the new Panthersville Athletic Complex. The focus of the project is to bring most of Georgia State's outdoor athletic programs into one full-use facility.

Men's and Women's soccer played its first seasons at its new field at Panthersville in 2007, receiving a new scoreboard and stadium seating as a part of its renovations and upgrades.

The multi-year project also includes a second field for practice and other uses, a new locker room facility, parking lots, and walking areas. Field lights were also added in August 2008 to enhance the newly developed athletic complex and allow teams to host evening matches.

Georgia State Sports Arena

The Georgia State Sports Arena serves as the "Home of the Panthers" for both men's and women's basketball, volleyball and the Athletic Department offices. The Arena is just one block from the State Capitol and Underground Atlanta, as well just two blocks from Peachtree Street. In 2005, the athletic offices received an uplift to its offices and locker rooms.

Baseball's Reeves Fieldhouse

Robert E. Heck Teamhouse

Softball's Robert E. Heck Teamhouse serves as an indoor practice facility complete with batting cages and a weight room.

Sharon Lester Tennis Center

Men's and Women's tennis programs compete at nearby Sharon Lester Tennis Center in Piedmont Park. Piedmont Park is a 189 acre stretch of land located in Midtown, north of the city center and just five minutes from Georgia State's campus. The Piedmont Tennis Center boasts 12 lighted hard courts nestled in the backdrop of Atlanta's skyline.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

PANTHERS IN THE PROS

Current and former Panthers are having success in the professional ranks.

Armin Marquez continues his second year of professional soccer with the Zamora Futbol Club of Venezuela, a first division premier team in Marquez's native country. Marquez starts as a defender, just as he did at Georgia State during his all-conference career that concluded in 2005-06. His team plays in a 30,000-seat stadium in Barinas, Venezuela and Marquez still wears number 13 as he did with the Panthers.

Chris Mahaffey is playing for the local Atlanta Silverbacks of the United Soccer League. Mahaffey wears No. 24 for the Silverbacks and has played in nine of the team's first 12 games. The midfielder from Conyers was the State AAAA Player of the Year with Heritage High School, the top-ranked team in the nation and two-time state champions.

Furthermore, two current Panthers played with the Atlanta Silverbacks at varying levels. Two men's soccer standouts, Joe Devito and Filipe Carvalho, competed on the U-23 PDL Silverbacks team.

Chris Mahaffey

Armin Marquez

University Commons, one of the largest residence halls in the country, opened its doors in August 2007.

The Commons, a 4.2-acre complex of four apartment buildings ranging from 8 to 15 stories, houses approximately 2,000 Georgia State Students, including student-athletes. Students have the option of choosing a private single room in either a two or four bedroom apartment style unit.

UNIVERSITY COMMONS

Student-Athlete Housing

All apartments come with fully-equipped kitchens and furnished bedrooms and living area spaces. Each individual bedroom is wired for high speed Ethernet internet connections, voice and cable TV services. In addition, each floor design includes a study/community lounge space and each building has a fully equipped laundry facility.

*The facility brings the residential experience closer to the main campus while providing an environment that is hospitable for students to study, socialize, and relax.

Other amenities include:

- *A U.S. mail distribution center
- *Retail food services, and 786 covered parking spaces.

*Large state-of-the-art multi-purpose conference rooms capable of hosting seminars, meetings, and

*Other academic initiatives are centrally located and accessible to all residents.
