2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Georgia State men's soccer team coming off its most successful season in the CAA conference, finished the 2008 season with a 6-8-4 overall record and will look to improve even more with the help of five starters returning from last year's squad. The future looks bright for the Panthers as Coach Kerem Daser has brought in ten newcomers to the mix to provide depth and opportunities. "We have a young team, but half of the players will be veterans and the other half will be one of the top recruiting classes we have ever had," commented Daser. "During the spring we showed great promise with our two captains Joe Castaldo and Donald Kirkland. Both are quiet leaders but make up for it with their play on the field," Daser added. With the loss of eight seniors, including starting goalkeeper Filipe Carvalho, it gives plenty of opportunities for incoming freshman to compete for starting positions for Georgia State.

Returners

The Panthers return eight players for the 2009 season after losing eight players to graduation including three starting defenders and All-CAA defender Joe DeVito. All three seniors played significant time last season and will look to provide leadership to the young Panther squad. Senior Brett Cummins returns to the starting left midfielder position along with Donald Kirkland and starting forward Stephan Minyono, who was tied for the team lead in goals last season. Georgia State also has two juniors returning who contributed significantly last season in Joe Castaldo and Joey Syfert who will be sitting out in the fall due to injury.

Newcomers

Georgia State has added ten freshmen to the mix for the 2009 season that will look to compete for starting positions on the roster. This diverse group includes three international players and seven players from the state of Georgia who will look to provide immediate impact on the playing field. Vincent Foermer, a goalkeeper from Germany, is one of the international players that have a chance to start right away. "Vincent is a great shot blocker that is one of the best young goalkeepers from Germany and is a great asset to our team," Coach Daser said. The other two international players Victor Nkhoma (Zimbabwe) and Yasser Majluf (Chile), will also have a shot to make their way into the starting lineup. Coach Daser found some terrific players close to home in Georgia with midfielder Eric Lawrence from Columbus, Ga leading the way. Lawrence has the skill to come in and start from the beginning after putting up terrific high school numbers. Caleb Kernan, a forward from Covington, Ga has good size at six-feet and amassed 78 career goals during his high school career. The Panthers added defenders to help provide depth at those positions in signing six-foot-three Peter Vania from Kennesaw, Ga. Freshmen Juan Giraldo played terrific defense in high school joining fellow freshmen high school teammate Alex Reyes in Atlanta this fall. Rounding out the freshmen class are Two midfielders, Moosah Dowlatabadi from Alpharetta and Alex Vivanco from Cumming who will both come in and compete for playing time.

Goalkeepers

Sophomore goalkeeper Zachary Walldorff had a break-out spring season and will be competing for the starting goalie position. Walldorff did not see any action last year playing behind senior Filipe Carvalho, who holds the all-time record for saves in a career and tied for the record saves in a season. International player Vincent Foermer will also be competing for the starting position as the spot is up for grabs for who ever plays better in the preseason. Foermer brings leadership having played in a very competitive high school league and traveling leagues.

Defenders

With only two players returning from last year's starting defense there will be plenty of chances for newcomers to providing valuable minutes for the Panthers this season. Sophomore Christopher Peacos will come in as the most experienced defender with junior Joey Syfert helping right there beside him. Peacos finished the 2008 season with 15 games played with Syfert playing 17 games. Both will come in as starters on the back side of the field. The other two starting spots will be played out during the preseason. Sophomore Jacob Hamilton, who played 15 games last year, is another returning player looking for major minutes this season. Freshmen Juan Giraldo, Moosah D., and Peter Vania both have great opportunities to step up and start at defender heading into the 2009 season.

Midfielders

The midfield position has the most experience of all the positions with three upperclassmen leading the way at the starting positions. Seniors Brett Cummins and Donald Kirkland each come off of productive seasons in 2008 and will be starters at the start for 2009. Junior Joe Castaldo, who played 16 games last season, will also gain valuable playing time at midfield. Freshman Eric Lawrence and Victor Nkhoma have the best chance to come right in and compete for a starting position immediately. The other midfielders include freshman Alex Reyes, and Alex Vivanco. "Brett Cummins, Donald Kirkland, and Joe Castaldo had terrific spring seasons and we look for them to be leaders at the midfield position," added Daser.

Forwards

With two experienced forwards leading the way, the Panthers look to take advantage of their attacking abilities to lead to plenty of goal opportunities in 2009. Senior Stephan Minyono leads the way coming off a six goal season to tie for the team lead. "Stephan has the potential to be an all conference player, we need him to take it to the next level as one of the top strikers in the conference this year," commented Daser. Sophomore forward Ayokunle Lumpkin will also be trying to earn the other starting forward position coming off a solid season last year after playing every game for the Panthers. Two freshmen come in with a chance to compete for that final starting spot with Caleb Kernan and Yasser Majluf both having great skills as young players.

The Schedule

The 18-game season schedule opens with two home exhibition match ups against Georgia Southern and UAB in Panthersville before 16 regular season matches. Georgia State heads out on the road to open the season at USC-Upstate and Prebyterian before coming home to play rival Mercer in Panthersville on Friday, September 11. The final two non-conference games end with two familiar foes in A-Sun opponent North Florida on the road and Gardner Webb in Panthersville on September 20th.

The 2009 CAA schedule opens with a home match against Hofstra on Sept. 26, then a road game against Northeastern the following weekend in Boston, Mass. Two important home matches follow with UNC Wilmington and Drexel coming to Panthersville in early October. Georgia State then travels to Norfolk, Va. to take on Old Dominion in a tough road game on Oct. 14. Three days later the Panthers take on James Madison at home and then prepare for a two-game road swing near the end of October. Georgia State travels to VCU then to defending CAA tournament champions George Mason.

The Panthers head home for their final home game of the season against William & Mary to close out the home conference schedule. The final two conference games will be played on the road against Towson on Nov. 1 and Delaware on Nov. 3 to finish the 2009 season. The CAA championship will begin on Friday November 13 through November 15 with the top four seeds making the tournament.

KEREM DASER

Record: 63-89-9
USSF "A" Licence
NSCAA National & NSCAA
Advance National Diplomas
Served on the NCAA South
Regional Ranking Committee in 2004, 2005

Kerem Daser enters his tenth season as the Georgia State Panthers head coach and 13th year on the Georgia State soccer staff. In his eight-year tenure as head coach at Georgia State, Daser has coached coached four teams ranked in the top 10 in the South Region and one in the North Atlantic Region, and has won a conference regular season championship and also has won a conference tournament championship. During his total 12 years as a Panther, Daser has been with teams that have claimed three wins over Top 25 ranked squads. He has built a strong alumni support group to help the future growth of soccer at Georgia State.

In 2005, the squad fell one victory short of qualifying for post season play in their first year in the Colonial Athletic Association. Only six schools qualify for the CAA Soccer Championships. The team placed eighth in the league with a 4-7 conference record and 6-12 overall. State needed to win its last three games, all at home, but dropped the middle game 1-0 to Delaware.

In the 2008 season, the team had its most successful season in the colonial conference. The team finished 6-8-4 and had 4-2-2 home record.

The Atlantic Sun Conference 6-3 record in 2004 was the best since the 2000 mark of 6-2 and marked a fifth consecutive winning record in conference play. The team has been ranked in the top 10 in the South region four out of the last six years. Daser also guided the Panthers to a conference title in 2000 by winning the Trans America Athletic Conference Tournament, their first title since 1997. Daser produced consecutive winning seasons along with the 2003 year for the first time since 1987-88.

In 2000, Daser led the Panthers to a 12-9 overall record and a 6-2 record in the TAAC (now the Atlantic Sun). The team posted two shutouts during the TAAC Tournament and lost in a heartbreaking NCAA Play-In Tournament Match against Rhode Island, falling 4-3 in overtime. Coach Daser was named 2000 TAAC Coach of the Year. In 2001, he led the team to a 9-7 overall record and a 4-3 mark in the A-Sun after the Panthers upset No. 6 Clemson in a match at the beginning of the season that earned Georgia State its first national ranking ever. This ranking rose to as high as No. 15 in the Soccer America poll. In 2002, Daser led the team to its third straight winning conference record. Daser was also instrumental in the Panthers' last championship, working as an assistant coach on the 1997 TAAC championship team.

Prior to coming to Georgia State, Daser worked as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina (1996-97) and for a year at Methodist College in Fayetteville, N.C. (1995-96). At UNC, he worked with current Major League Soccer players Carey Talley (Kansas City Wizards), Eddie Robinson (San Jose Earthquakes), who is now on the U.S. National Team, and former MLS players Tim Schaydak and Temoc Suarez, as well as seven players who participated on United States national youth teams. At Methodist, he helped the Monarchs to a 17-0 regular season mark and a 21-1 record following the NCAA tournament. Three players at Methodist were named All-America and six signed professional contracts.

Daser has also been very active in the development of youth soccer in the South. He served as Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Eagles YMCA Soccer Club in Alpharetta, Ga. (1999-2002) and was the technical director for the Forsyth Fusion Soccer Club (2002-2009). Currently the boys academy director for the GFC Soccer Club. In the summer of 2006, the Forsyth Fusion U18 team qualified for regional play and the Forsyth Fusion U14 team was a Georgia Cup finalist. The Forsyth Fusion Youth Under17 team won the Georgia State Youth Championship and qualified for regionals during the 2005 summer. In the spring of 2004, the Fusion club had two teams advance to the state semifinals and one team went on to the final. The U-16 Fusion team won the prestigious Long Island Showcase in summer of 2003. With the Eagles, the club won five state championships, two regional titles, a Tampa Sun Bowl Crown, and qualified twice for the USYSA national finals. Jack Mcinnery, Domenic Bonilla, and Kyle Helton went on to make the USA National Youth teams. Mcinnery is currently the leader scorer for the U.S. National youth team and will be competing in the World Cup. Kyle Helton is currently playing professional in the A-League for the Austin Aztec. In the spring of 2002, the Brazilian Futbol Federation invited Daser to conduct a technical report for the U-17 International Mini World Cup. Daser has gone on to coach symposiums in Italy in 2000 (AC Milan, Inter Milan, Torino) and Brazil in 2001 (Vasco Da Gama, Flamengo, Fluminense).

In 1999, Daser was named to the Region III coaching staff and has worked as an assistant coach with the '83, '84, and '85 teams. In April 2000, he was the assistant coach of the '84 regional team that competed in an international youth tournament in Guadalajara, Mexico. After the Mexico trip, goalkeeper Ford Williams became a member of the U.S. National youth '84 team. In April 2001, Daser coached the Georgia '85/'86 ODP team in an international festival in Paris, France. He led the Georgia '85 team to the regional semifinals in May 2002, as three players were named to the regional team. Daser worked with many regional players who went on to the MLS including Ricardo Clark who plays for the Houston Dynamo. Clark is a starter for the U.S. National team.

In the summer of 2002, he worked on the regional coaching staff with the '87 age group. In June 2002, he coached the Georgia amateur team in Dallas at the South Regional final where the squad was undefeated and had two players selected for the U.S. Amateur National team. In the summer of 2003, he coached the Georgia State Amateur Select team at regionals that had a record six players named to the regional team and four were named to the national pool. Summer 2004, he coached the Georgia Amateur team at the Regional competition in Alabama. The team beat Florida and North Texas but lost in the Regional Final to South Texas, 3-2. In the spring of 2008 he was named South Regional Amateur Coach.

Five players from the Georgia team were invited to the U.S. National Amateur Camp and four players made the U.S. National Team, including former Georgia State Panther, Terrance Johnson. From 1992-97, he served as North Carolina ODP coach, traveling with the team to Paris, with the '79 (N.C.) ODP squad. Several of Daser's ODP players have gone on to play professionally, including Caleb Norkus who plays for the United Soccer Leagues (USL) First Division Carolina Railhawks. Norkus was a member of the N.C. ODP U-15 team that Daser coached in 1996. He went on to start for the U.S. U-17 World Cup squad. Josh Villalobos, another Daser protégé, played for the U-17 U.S. National team and was on the N.C. ODP '83 squad. Daser coached Philip Long and Ryan Solle on the N.C. ODP '83 team. Both players were drafted by Major League Soccer (MLS) and Solle currently plays for the Carolina Railhawks (A League). Coach Kerem coached three players on the NC ODP '81 team that went on to play in the MLS. Logan Pause played for the Chicago Fire and currently on the U.S. national team, Matt Crawford (Colorado Rapids 2003-2007), David Testo played for the Columbus Crew and presently plays for the Montreal Impact.

Daser coached Warren Ukah, Zack Kirby, Jonathan Leathers, Benji Page, Grant Guthrie and Tomac Charowski from the Georgia ODP '85 team. Ukah played professionally for the USL First Division Atlanta Silverbacks, Kirby, who was drafted into the MLS, plays for the Miami FC, and Charowski went on to play for the U-20 Canadian National team. Benji Page and Andrew Alexander play professionally for the Charlotte Eagles. Grant Guthrie played professionally in Trinidad & Tobago. Jonathan Leathers played on the US National U-23 team and plays for the Kansas City Wizards in the MLS. Daser also worked with Blake Camp (Atlanta Silverbacks) and Keith Wiggins (Charleston Battery) as youth players at the RYSA Sporting FC soccer club. Filipe Chillemi from the Georgia ODP '82 team went on to be the captain of the U.S. youth 17 national team.

Coach Daser has also coached Georgia State University players who have gone on to play professionally- Walter Valesky (Wilmington Hammerheads), Scott Mora (Greenville Lions), Chris Mahaffey (Atlanta Silverbacks), and Armin Marquez (Aragua FC- Venezuelan First Division).

In his 16 year ODP experience with North Carolina and Georgia ODP (1992-2009), he won two regional championships with the 1997 '83 NC ODP and the 2000 '85 ODP team. November 2004 he worked as an assistant with the Georgia '89 ODP team that beat the U-16 Mexican National Team. In December of 2007, he was a guest assistant coach with the Turkish National Youth Team that competed against Brazil, USA, and Russia.

In 2006, Daser worked with the Georgia ODP '90 team that was undefeated in Mississippi. Six players were selected to the regional team. Eddy Gonzalez and Taylor White were invited to the US Soccer Residency Program. Gonzalez and Doudou Toure are now playing professionally in Mexico. Taylor White played for the U.S. youth national team. Warren Creavalle plays for the U.S. national U-20 team. He holds his USSF "A" license and has his NSCAA National and NSCAA Advance National Diplomas.

During the summer of 2008, Daser worked with the Georgia ODP 95 team where seven players from the Georgia team were invited to the U-14 U.S. National Camp. Jacob Smith and Jonathan Scherzer both made the U.S. national under 14 team.

Prior to coaching, Daser played at Greensboro College and then went on to graduate from Wake Forest University with a B.S. in psychology (1995). ASSISTANT COACHES

BRETT SURRENCY

5TH YEAR

Brett Surrency begins his fifth year in the Georgia State men's soccer program. He was promoted to assistant coach after serving as a graduate assistant in 2005 and continues to assist Daser in all facets of the program. He played his collegiate career at Jacksonville University in Jacksonville, Fla.

At JU, Surrency was a four-year starter at defender. As a true freshman, he started every game at sweeper. In his sophomore season, he became team captain and scored three goals including a game winner. As a junior, he scored two goals and helped the Dolphins defense lead the conference with a 1.08 GAA, the lowest in school history. He was also second-team All-Atlantic Sun Conference. During his senior year, he earned first team A-Sun All-Conference honors. He earned Atlantic Sun Academic All-Conference honors every year of eligibility.

"Brett was an outstanding player and student at Jacksonville University," commented Daser. He has done an outstanding job in all areas of the Georgia State program, is a very loyal and he means so much to our program." In addition to his coaching responsibilities at Georgia State, Brett also will be working with the GA ODP 95 age group.

Surrency was born August 11, 1982 in Gainesville, Fla. and completed his master's degree in sport administration at Georgia State University in August 2007.

VINCENT MARCOTRIGIANO

1ST YEAR

Vincent Marcotrigiano enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Panthers bringing his knowledge of the CAA with him thanks to his playing days with George Mason in 1993-97.

Marcotrigiano was a team captain at Georgia Mason during their run to the Sweet Sixteen in 1997. He played professionally from 1998-2002 with three different teams. First he played in the A-League with the Staten Island Vipers before playing with the L.I. Rough Riders.

Finished his playing career with the Harrisburg Heat of the NPSL Started his coaching career in 2002 at Gettysburg College as an assistant coach for the women's soccer team. Vincent helped lead Gettysburg to the conference finals. Came to the Atlanta area in 2004 taking the director of coaching job at the Roswell Santos soccer club. Also is the assistant coach of the Georgia ODP U14 girls team and has been since 2005.

Just recently Marcotrigiano became the director of coaching at the Tophat soccer club since 2008. "Vinny has a great soccer background. An all-conference performer under legendary coach Gordon Bradley. He has become a top youth soccer director here in Atlanta. We are excited to have him on our coaching staff this year," commented coach Kerem Daser.

FILIFE CARVALHO

1ST YEAR

Filipe Carvalho enters his first season as an assistant goalie coach with Georgia State bringing his knowledge of the goalkeeper position with him after spending the last four seasons (2005-08) with the Panthers starting in goal. Earned All-CAA first team honors during his senior season in 2008.

Carvalho started 64 games as a goalkeeper during his four year career at Georgia State. During all four years he made the Dean's list and earning ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District honors in his final two years.

Filipe also finished with a couple of Georgia State records with his play on the field. After a break out 2006 season in which he led the nation in saves per game (6.4), Carvalho followed up that season ranking sixth in the country in total saves with 108 in the 2007 season. Carvalho finished his Panther's career with 396 saves putting him first in the record books for most saves in a career. Also Filipe finished with nine shutouts placing him third all-time and tied for first in saves for a season with 113 back in 2005.

In his final season in 2008 Filipe served as the Panther's co-captain and Vice President of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee. Carvalho also became the first Georgia State player to be named to the NSCAA/ adidas Scholar All-American second team.

During the 2009 Georgia State Athletics Banquet Filipe won the award for Panther Character. Filipe was honored by the Boy Scouts as a nominee for the Peach of an Athlete Role Model award. "We are so excited to have Filipe as our goalkeeper/ speed coach. He was an awesome captain and two-time all-conference player that became Georgia State's first academic All-American last season," commented Daser.

SUPPORT STAFF

CHERYL L. LEVICK
Director of Athletics, Georgia State University (First Year)

Cheryl L. Levick brings a resume of experience and success from prestigious athletics programs across the nation to her position as Director of Athletics at Georgia State University.

She is charged with leading Panther athletics in an era of unprecedented exposure and opportunity with the launch of Georgia State football and the continued growth of the overall program.

Levick came to Georgia State in 2009 from the University of Maryland, where she served as chief of staff/executive senior athletic director, overseeing daily management of 27 sports programs, a 180-member staff and an annual budget of $51 million.

Her impressive career is highlighted by a total of seven years as the director of athletics at Santa Clara University and Saint Louis University and also features nearly two decades in senior administrative positions at Maryland and at Stanford University as well as stints with the Pacific 10 Conference and the NCAA headquarters.

Before going to Maryland in August 2007, Levick served three years as athletics director at Saint Louis (2004-07), where she led the transition from Conference USA into the Atlantic 10 Conference. Not only did she lead fund-raising efforts for the school's new $80 million on-campus arena, but she was also responsible for the design and layout of the facility.

Before joining Saint Louis in June 2004, Levick spent four years as the director of athletics and recreation at Santa Clara University, a 17-sport program in the West Coast Conference.

She moved to Santa Clara after 12 years at Stanford as the senior associate athletic director and senior woman administrator. As the department's chief operating officer, she supervised internal operations and served as the primary administrator for 33 varsity sports programs. During Levick's tenure, the Cardinal won 44 national championships and six straight Sears Cup titles.

A recipient of numerous awards for her work in athletics, Levick was named the 2001 Division I Athletic Administrator of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA). In 2005-06, she received the General Sports TURF Systems Athletic Director of the Year Award for the NCAA Division I Central Region, and the 2006 Carl O. Bauer Award, presented by the Missouri Athletic Club, as the top amateur sports figure in the St. Louis area.

A past president of the NCAA Division I-AAA Athletic Directors Association, Levick was recognized in both 1998 and 1999 as one of the nation's Top 25 Female Sports Executives by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal.

Before her stint at Stanford, Levick was an assistant commissioner of the Pac-10 Conference, an assistant director of communications and women's programs at the NCAA, the women's gymnastics coach and associate athletic director at Slippery Rock University, and the assistant gymnastics coach and synchronized swim coach at Indiana University. She began her career at Pattonville Senior High School in St. Louis, Mo., where she coached gymnastics and assisted in coaching the women's track team.

Levick is a 1974 graduate of the University of Missouri, and she holds a masters degree in athletic administration from Indiana University. She has two daughters: Heather, who is married to Michael Klass, and Melissa.

2008 SEASON REVIEW

The 2008 Georgia State men's soccer season was a year of improvement and ended by winning two conference games to end the season on a high note. Georgia State improved from the previous year, finishing the season 6-8-4, with a number of exciting matches. Also Georgia State finished its non-conference schedule with a solid 4-2-1 record thanks to some solid play by some newcomers and seniors on the team.

Eight seniors led the Panthers in 2008- Linus Warendh, Filipe Carvalho, Joe DeVito, Dathan Knott, Tobias Nagy, Spenser Sumpter, Francesco Barbera, and Eduardo Liza.

The Panthers opened the season with a Monday evening affair against the Clemson Tigers in Clemson, S.C. Georgia State ended the first half with a solid 2-0 lead against Clemson. Seniors Dathan Knott and Linus Warendh each added a goal in the first half to give the Panthers the advantage. Clemson began its rally in the second half scoring three goals in the final 11:48, including the game winner with 4:13 left on the clock to claim the victory and drop Georgia State to 0-1 on the season.

Georgia State had its home opener in Panthersville with a 3-0 victory over Presbyterian, thanks to goals from newcomer Stephan Minyono, Ayokunle Lumpkin and senior Dathan Knott. Senior goal keeper Filipe Carvalho earned his first shutout of the season with four saves to preserve the victory for the Panthers. Two days later the Panthers won their second straight game at home upending USC Upstate for a 2-1 victory at Panthersville. Senior Linus Warendh added a goal and Stephan Minyono added his second goal of the season to give the Panthers their second win of the season.

Georgia State was riding high after two straight wins at home heading to the Mercer University Tournament but came up short against Alabama A&M losing 4-1 in the first game of the tournament. In game two, the Panthers bounced back with a solid 2-1 victory over the host Mercer Bears, earning a second-place finish in the tournament. Defender Francesco Barbera, midfielder Joe Casstaldo, and Filipe Carvalho were named to the All-Tournament team for the weekend.

Georgia State traveled to its second tournament of the season, participating in the Wofford Soccer Classic facing the Furman Paladins in game one. The Panthers battled to a 2-2 tie thanks to goals from Stephan Minyono and Donald Kirkland in improving their record to 3-2-1 in the non-conference. Georgia State finished its non-conference with a solid 2-0 victory over host Wofford to improve to 4-2-1 on the year. Three Panthers were named to the All-Tournament squad, including seniors Joey DeVito, Spenser Sumpter, and junior Stephan Minyono.

The Panthers opened up their conference schedule with back-to-back ties against Hofstra on the road and Northeastern at home. Both games ended in 2-2 ties, earning Georgia State a record of 4-2-3 heading into a tough conference stretch.

Georgia State went on the road for its next two conference games with the first one being at Wilmington to take on the Seahawks. The Panthers battled but fell in the end, losing 3-2 in a hard fought game, dropping their first conference game of the season. Three days later, the Panthers suffered another heart breaking loss after battling the Drexel Dragons in overtime, coming up just short as Drexel scored with two seconds left to win 2-1 and give Georgia State its second straight defeat.

The Panthers followed those games with a tough 1-0 loss against Old Dominion and suffered their first loss at home in the 2008 season. Georgia State then traveled to Harrisonburg, Va to take on James Madison, who defeated the Panthers 2-0 after Georgia State just couldn't convert on multiple scoring opportunities.

Georgia State began a two-game home stand with a 1-1 tie against VCU after playing two overtimes to settle the game, earning the Panthers their fourth tie of the season. Three days later Georgia State dropped a tough game to the eventual CAA champions, the George Mason Patriots, 2-0, in Panthersville.

After their worst loss of the season, a 4-0 defeat on the road against William & Mary, the Panthers found inner toughness by ending the season with two straight home games.

Georgia State honored its seniors ending their careers with two shut out victories to end the season with a two game winning streak enjoying their most competitive CAA conference season since joining the league in 2005. The Panthers defeated Towson 2-0 as it was fitting both goals were scored by seniors Eduardo Liza and Joe DeVito. In the season finale the Panthers dominated from the start ending the season on a high note defeating Delaware 5-0 in a rout to finish the season 6-8-4 overall and 2-6-3 in the conference. Georgia State continues to show promise in the CAA conference earning a 2-2-2 home record during the 2008 season.

2009 ALUMNI GAME

Georgia State men's soccer team hosted its 3rd Annual Alumni Day on Saturday, April 05, 2009 at Panthersville Athletic Complex. The annual alumni event offers an opportunity for former players to reconnect and also meet current student-athletes. Stories were shared, memories rekindled, and lots of catching up with old teammates, friends and family took place.

The alumni events began at 3 p.m. and included two mini soccer games with about 50 alumni participating. The alumni were treated to lunch after the scrimmages and many stayed for the Mercer game. Following the Alumni game the 2009 spring scrimmages took place as Georgia State battled Mercer to a 1-1 tie.

"We had an amazing day of soccer at our alumni soccer event. We had about 50 soccer alumni come out to our annual April event," commented head coach Kerem Daser. "It was great seeing all of the alumni at our soccer stadium. We had four equal teams play against each other. It was so much fun hearing stories from the past and seeing old friends."

Georgia State
University

Located in the Southeast's governmental, financial, retail, health and legal center in downtown Atlanta, GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY IS A PLACE where teaching, research and service are woven together to create a meaningful learning experience.

Georgia State University offers educational opportunities at both the graduate and undergraduate levels by blending the best of theoretical and applied inquiry, scholarly and professional pursuits and scientific and artistic expression.

An urban research university nestled in the heart of downtown Atlanta, Georgia State's location allows students to learn not only in the classroom, but also in the surrounding city, where high-profile companies can provide hands-on experience.

Founded in 1913, Georgia State has earned the highest Carnegie classification for research institutions.

Georgia State offers 52 bachelor's, master's, specialist's and doctoral degree programs in 250 fields of study, offered through six college-level units: the J. Mack Robinson College of Business, the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies, the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Law, the College of Education, and the College of Health and Human Services.

University Science Park
to open in 2010

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

is one of the nation's leading urban research universities, educating Georgia's most diverse student population.

With an enrollment over 28,000 students, it is the second largest institution in the University System of Georgia. Students arrive from every county in Georgia, every state in the nation and nearly 150 countries.

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

The undergraduate program at Georgia State University's J. Mack Robinson College of Business is ranked among the nation's Top 50 business schools, according to the U.S. News & World Report guide to "America's Best Colleges."

THE CITY OF ATLANTA

is home to nearly 5 million people and more than 137,000 businesses. Atlanta is the nation's fastest growing city, attracting hundreds of companies annually.

The headquarters of 27 Fortune 1000 companies are located in Atlanta, including the Coca Cola Company, Delta Air Lines, United Parcel Service, The Home Depot, Georgia Pacific, SunTrust Banks and Newell Rubbermaid, to name a few.

GEORGIA STATE

FACILITIES

WHERE THE PANTHERS PLAY...

Georgia State University has several fine athletic facilities that its student-athletes call home. While men's and women's basketball, as well as volleyball compete at the Georgia State Sports Arena in downtown Atlanta, most of the Panthers' athletic teams host their competitions at the Georgia State University Panthersville Recreation and Athletics Complex, located about 10 miles from campus in DeKalb County. The complex includes the home facilities for the sports of men's and women's soccer, baseball, softball, and men's and women's cross country.

Located just south of Atlanta, Georgia State's golf teams call Eagle's Landing Country Club home. Recently renovated, Eagle's Landing features 27 holes, new Bent Grass greens and a two-sided driving range that allows the Panthers to practice from grass year round. Eagle's Landing serves as host to Georgia State's John Kirk/Panther Intercollegiate and formerly

Most recently, an ambitious long-term development project began on Wednesday, June 28, 2006 with an official ground breaking ceremony for the new Panthersville Athletics Complex. The focus of the project is to bring most of Georgia State's outdoor athletic programs into one full-use facility.

The multi-year project will include two soccer fields with new field lighting, bleacher stands, press box and scoreboard added to enhance the newly developed athletic complex.

The men's and women's tennis programs compete at nearby Piedmont Tennis Center in Piedmont Park. Piedmont Park is a 189 acre stretch of land located in Midtown, north of the city center and just five minutes from Georgia State's campus. The Piedmont Tennis Center boasts 12 lighted hard courts nestled in the backdrop of Atlanta's skyline.

The Georgia State Sports Arena serves as the “Home of the Panthers” for both men’s and women’s basketball, volleyball and the Athletic Department offices. The Arena is just one block from the State Capitol and Underground Atlanta, as well just two blocks from Peachtree Street. In 2005, the athletic offices received an upgrade to its offices and locker rooms.

Baseball’s Reeves Fieldhouse houses the baseball team locker room, coaches offices and storages areas.

Softball’s Robert E. Heck Teamhouse serves as an indoor practice facility complete with batting cages and a weight room

Georgia State Softball and Baseball compete at Panthersville Athletics Complex which has undergone major improvements to make it a premiere sports facility.

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

Men’s and Women’s soccer played its first seasons at its new field at Panthersville in 2007, receiving a new scoreboard and stadium seating as a part of its renovations and upgrades.

ACADEMICS

PANTHER PROMISE

Georgia State University is committed to providing educational, personal, and community development that will enhance the quality of the student-athlete experience.

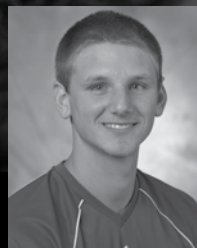

The blueprint for academic and personal success for Georgia State student-athletes is PANTHER PROMISE.

Panther Promise was developed in 2005 to assist student-athletes with concerns that are unique to the Division I student-athlete and tailored to fit the unique environment of Georgia State University.

Panther Promise is an extension of the services provided by PASS-Program for Academic Support Services. Through PASS and the Athletic Learning Lab, Georgia State's student-athlete development staff arranges tutoring in a wide range of courses, offers academic advisement and provides access to computers and a convenient place to study.

Other components of Panther Promise are the NCAA's CHAMPS/Life Skills program and the Panther Den, which offers a variety of services in conjunction with the University's Counseling Center to address the challenges that face the Georgia State student-athlete.

During the spring semester, the men's soccer team combined for a team 3.03 GPA to help the overall athletics department and its 225 student-athletes post its highest-ever GPA in school history.

Conveniently located in the Sports Arena, the Learning Lab provides student-athletes access to computers, tutors and advisement, as well as a place for individual and group study.

CAMPUS HOUSING

On-campus housing at Georgia State University continues to grow with the addition this fall of the new freshman residence hall, which includes a dining facility.

The University Commons, opened in 2007, is a 4.2-acre complex of four buildings surrounding a landscaped courtyard. All units come with fully-equipped kitchens, furnished bedrooms and spacious living areas.

The University Lofts, opened in 2002, contain fully-furnished, loft-style apartments that blend urban style with modern features.

Residence halls include study and community lounge space and laundry facilities. Rooms are wired for Internet and cable television.

PANTHERS IN THE PROS

Former Georgia State players are having success in the professional ranks.

Armin Marquez continues his third year of professional soccer in Venezuela with the Aragua Futbol Club, a first division premier team in Marquez's native country. Marquez starts as a defender, just as he did at Georgia State during his all-conference career that concluded in 2005-06. Marquez still wears number 13 as he did with the Panthers.

Chris Mahaffey (2007-09) Atlanta Silverbacks
The midfielder from Conyers was the State AAAA Player of the Year with Heritage High School, the top-ranked team in the nation and two-time state champions.

Scott Mora- (2001-03) Greenville Lions & Atlanta Silverbacks
Scott was an assistant coach at Georgia State in 2003 and played professionally from 2001-03.

Walter Valesky- (2002) Wilmington Hammerheads
Valesky played goalkeeper for the Panthers and played professionally in Wilmington, N.C.

Terrance Johnson- (2000-01) U.S. Amateur National Team

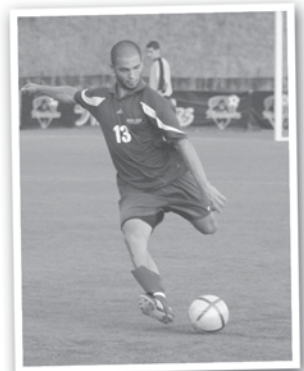

Eduardo Liza- (2009) FC Atlanta
Liza currently plays for the FC Atlanta team in the NPSL. He made second team All-NPSL this summer.

Many more new buildings are on the horizon, including a science park, classroom buildings and additional on-campus housing.

GEORGIA STATE CAMPUS

In the last decade, the Rialto Theater restoration, Student Center, Student Recreation Center, University Lofts, University Commons and Helen M. Aderhold classroom building have transformed the downtown cityscape at Atlanta's core.

Colonial Athletic Association

The Colonial Athletic Association celebrates its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10 with memories of a proud and storied past and visions of an exciting future.

Regarded as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences, the CAA encompasses five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Atlanta. The conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national players of the year, 12 national coaches of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. Just as impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 20 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2008-09, the CAA had more than 1,700 of the league's 4,000 student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport. The conference ranked in the top 10 in the nation in 12 of its 23 sports in the latest APR report released by the NCAA.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes six of the nation's top 25 media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (7), Atlanta (8), Washington, D.C. (9) and Baltimore (25). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 20 million.

The CAA currently sponsors 23 sports with the addition of a 12-team football league in 2007 and women's rowing in 2009. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In 2008-09, 28 teams earned NCAA Tournament berths and 45 student-athletes received All-America honors.

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have combined to win 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981. Delaware and Towson have each reached the Final Four of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship. Three women's soccer teams have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the past two seasons and at least one men's soccer team has advanced to the final 16 of the NCAA Championship in five of the last seven years. In men's cross country, William & Mary placed 16th nationally as a team in 2008 and Georgia State's Mark Steeds earned All-America status after a 12th-place individual effort. On the mat, ODU's Ryan Williams was one of three wrestling All-Americans after finishing as the national runner-up at 141 pounds. The CAA has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Baseball Championship in nine of the last 12 years and has had 12 or more players selected in the last seven Major League Baseball drafts. The conference also boasts numerous All-Americans in tennis, golf, track and field and swimming and diving.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs already established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs and granting visiting academic status to student-athletes traveling to an away contest so that they have access to libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs.

In 2002, two faculty members from CAA institutions were awarded academia's most coveted distinction – the Nobel Prize. John B. Fenn, a research professor in the Department of Chemistry at Virginia Commonwealth University, received the Nobel Prize for chemistry, and Vernon Smith, a professor of economics and law at George Mason University, shared the Nobel Prize in economic sciences.

Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager has guided the CAA since its inception. The conference traces its roots back to 1983 when three of its current members-

George Mason University, James Madison University, and the College of William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new association. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985.

Charter members George Mason, James Madison, UNC Wilmington and William and Mary were joined by Old Dominion University in 1991 and by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1995. The conference added the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference on July 1, 2005.

Celebrating its 25th Anniversary, the CAA takes great pride in producing student-athletes who stand out on the playing field and in the classroom.

CAA Men's Soccer

Conference History in the NCAA- This was the 12th time in the past 14 years that the CAA placed at least two teams in the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship field. Both George Mason and William & Mary in 2009 won first-round matches, but the CAA failed to put a team into the third round for just the second time in the past seven seasons.
