THE EVENT

North Carolina Central University travels to Atlanta to challenge the Panthers of Georgia State University, playing their inaugural season of football. The contest will be played inside the Georgia Dome, home of the NFL’s Atlanta Falcons. The visiting Eagles have fared well in their recent trips to NFL venues, boasting a 3-0 record since 2000 (see note on page 2).

THE SERIES

This will be the first football meeting between North Carolina Central University and Georgia State University.

LAST WEEK

Hampton University rallied from a 13-point deficit to score 27 unanswered points for a 27-13 road victory over North Carolina Central University inside O’Kelly-Riddick Stadium in Durham, N.C. Clinging to a one-point lead in the middle of the fourth quarter, Hampton sealed the win by returning two interceptions for touchdowns. The first was a 55-yard scamper by lineman Matt Davis, who leaped in the air to snare a lofted screen pass. The second pick-six was scooped off the turf by senior safety Ricardo Silva, who raced 68 yards to the end zone and sent the home fans scattering towards the exits with 2:10 left to play. Isiah Thomas did a little of everything for the visiting Pirates. The junior wide receiver topped the team in rushing with 63 yards and a touchdown on just seven carries, an average of 9.0 yards per run. Thomas also completed both of his pass attempts for 37 yards and a touchdown, accounting for both of Hampton’s offensive scores, while also catching three passes for 33 yards. Hampton’s regular signal caller, David Legree, completed 11-of-23 pass attempts for 141 yards and ran for 23 yards. Javaris Brown collected four receptions for 60 yards, including the 19-yard go-ahead touchdown on an end-around pass from Thomas at 9:14 of the fourth quarter. Hampton’s balanced offensive output resulted in 341 total yards, an average of 6.3 yards per play, with 163 yards on the ground and 178 yards through the air. NCCU posted 339 yards of total offense, including 144 yards passing and 195 yards rushing, the second-best ground game of the season for the Eagles. Senior running back Tim Shankle led the way with 107 rushing yards on 26 carries, including a 3-yard opening score, marking the first time an Eagle has reached the 100-yard rushing milestone since Shankle ran for 127 yards at Western Kentucky on Oct. 27, 2007. NCCU starting quarterback Michael Johnson threw for 134 yards and a touchdown on 13-of-24 passing with an interception. Redshirt freshman Jordan Reid replaced Johnson late in the contest due to an injury and completed 2-of-7 passes for 10 yards with an interception. Senior running back Tony McCord grabbed a team-high four receptions for 10 yards, while Stanley Wright hauled in a 31-yard pass for a touchdown at 10:56 of the second quarter to give the Eagles a 13-0 advantage. NCCU return specialist Arthur Goforth amassed 141 all-purpose yards with 68 yards on two punt returns and 73 yards on four kickoff returns. Sophomore place-kicker Frankie Cardelle missed a pair of field goals and had a field goal and an extra-point kick blocked. Defensively, the Eagles were paced by senior linebacker Kenneth Campbell with nine tackles, including 1.5 hits for a loss, a pass break-up and a quarterback hurry. Silva and senior defensive lineman Kenrick Ellis recorded 15 takedowns apiece, while Ellis added 4.0 stops behind the line of scrimmage.

Georgia State got four takeaways on defense and four touchdown passes from Drew Little to pick up its second consecutive blowout win, 55-21 over Savannah State on Saturday (Oct. 9) at the Georgia Dome.

NCCU EAGLES UNDEFEATED IN NFL VENUES

In NCCU's last three trips to NFL venues, the Eagles are unbeaten. (see below)

Recent Trips to NFL Stadiums:

Georgia Dome – Atlanta Falcons (Oct. 16, 2010 vs. Georgia State)
Giants Stadium – New York Giants (Sept. 15, 2007 vs. Elizabeth City State – W, 18-10)
Ericsson Stadium – Carolina Panthers (Nov. 4, 2001 vs. Johnson C. Smith – W, 34-3)
Veterans Stadium – Philadelphia Eagles (Sept. 30, 2000 vs. Morris Brown – W, 19-16)

JOHNSON REACHES CAREER MILESTONE OF 3,000 PASSING YARDS

NCCU red-shirt junior quarterback Michael Johnson threw for 134 yards versus Hampton (Oct. 9) to become the 10th Eagle in school history to throw for 3,000 career yards. The Durham, N.C., native has amassed 3,063 yards during his three-year NCCU career, including 615 yards through the air in four games this season.

SHANKLE SEVENTH EAGLE TO RUSH FOR 2,000 CAREER YARDS

NCCU senior running back Tim Shankle ran for 86 yards and a touchdown against rival North Carolina A&T (Sept. 25) to become the seventh Eagle in school history to rush for 2,000 career yards. The Gainesville, Fla., native has amassed 2,177 yards during his NCCU career, including 398 yards in the first five games of 2010.

GOFORTH MAKES SCHOOL HISTORY AS KICKOFF RETURNER

NCCU sophomore return specialist Arthur Goforth made school history on Sept. 18 at Appalachian State by becoming the first Eagle to post two kickoff returns of 92 yards or more during a career. Amazingly, Goforth accomplished the feat in back-to-back weeks. On Sept. 11 versus Winston-Salem State, the Columbia, S.C., native returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to equal the third-longest return in the NCCU record books. On Sept. 18 at Appalachian State, he raced 92 yards for a score to make Eagle history.

EAGLES MAKE BIG PLAYS IN ALL THREE PHASES

In the first three games of the 2010 season, the Eagles posted four of the biggest plays in NCCU gridiron history. Against Johnson C. Smith on Sept. 2, junior linebacker Roger Stewart intercepted a pass and raced 83 yards for a touchdown, matching the ninth-longest interception return in school history. On Sept. 11 versus Winston-Salem State, sophomore Arthur Goforth returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to equal the third-longest kickoff return in the NCCU record books, followed by senior running back Tony McCord's 93-yard touchdown scamper to set a new school record for the longest run from scrimmage. Goforth struck again in week three at Appalachian State with a 92-yard kickoff return for a touchdown.

THE COACHES

Mose Rison is in his fourth season as head coach at NCCU with an overall record of 16-21. Rison was announced as the school's 19th head football coach on Feb. 6, 2007, assuming the role of head coach for the first time in his 25-year coaching career. Rison served as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the Eagles historic 11-1 campaign in 2006. With Rison directing NCCU's offense, the 2006 Eagles scored 371 points (30.9 per game), the most in school history. Under Rison's tutelage, freshman quarterback Stadford Brown was named as the "SBN Sports Doug Williams Offensive Player of the Year," the 2006 CIAA Offensive Player of the Year and CIAA Rookie of the Year. A 1978 graduate of Central Michigan University, Rison spent the 2005 season as the Quarterbacks Coach/Passing Coordinator at Davidson College, where the Wildcats averaged more than 200 yards passing per game running a West Coast offensive system. He has also held positions at Livingstone College (Offensive Coordinator, 2004), the University of Arizona (Wide Receivers/Passing Coordinator, 2003), Stanford University (Wide Receivers, 1995-2000), Rutgers University (Wide Receivers/Tight Ends, 1991-94), the U.S. Naval Academy (Wide Receivers, 1988-90), and Central Michigan University (Wide Receivers, 1981-87). During his tenure at Stanford, Rison coached in three bowl games, including the 2000 Rose Bowl. Rison, the cousin of five-time NFL All-Pro receiver Andre Rison, spent two seasons (2001-02) in the National Football League coaching ranks as the wide receivers coach with the New York Jets, helping to develop Laveranues Coles and Santana Moss. He has also held NFL summer internships with the Baltimore Ravens (2000), Chicago Bears (1999), New York Jets (1993) and Detroit Lions (1988). A standout running back for Central Michigan from 1974-77, Rison helped the Chippewas to a 13-1 record and a Division II national title as a freshman. He rushed for 1,283 yards and scored 12 touchdowns as a senior to earn all-conference and team MVP honors. Rison and his wife, Marilyn, have two daughters, Dominique and Tara.

An Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17. Curry spent the last two years developing and directing the football program in every area, and now he leads the Panthers on the field as they play their inaugural season of 2010. Curry brings 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference-including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues-as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN. In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals. After concluding his 10-year playing career as a center for the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974), Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980. Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of

LISTEN TO NCCU FOOTBALL ON WRJD 1410 AM OR VIA THE INTERNET

Every game of the 2010 North Carolina Central University Eagles football season will be broadcasted by the NCCU Sports Network, including the flagship station WRJD 1410 AM in Durham, N.C. Play-by-play announcer Chris Hooks will call all of the live action, starting with "Eagle Gameday" a half-hour prior to kickoff. Fans may also listen to the broadcast via the internet by visiting the NCCU Athletics web site at www.NCCUEaglePride.com.

LAST SEASON (NCCU)

In 2009, NCCU's high level of competition and determination did not translate into victories during the first half of the season. The Eagles were ahead at Hampton with less than two minutes remaining, held a second-half lead at nationally-ranked Liberty, dropped two contests in overtime, and took an advantage into the second quarter against three-time national champion Appalachian State. Battered but not defeated, NCCU responded by winning four of the final five games of the season to finish the campaign with a 4-7 record. Even in the lone setback during the season-ending run, the Eagles amazingly rallied from a 28-0 second-half deficit to tie the game in the fourth quarter.

PHIL STEELE'S PREVIEW MAGAZINE HONORS SIX EAGLES

Phil Steele's College Football Preview magazine selected six North Carolina Central University student-athletes to its 2010 Preseason NCAA Division I-FCS All-Independent First Team. NCCU's honorees were senior linebackers Calvin Hillie and Donald Laster, senior defensive lineman Teryl White, junior defensive back David Ingram, junior wide receiver Geovonie Irvine and junior tight end Earthan Ward.

- Hillie (6-1, 235, Concord, N.C.) topped the Eagles with 70 tackles in 2009, including 6.0 hits for a loss with a sack, three interceptions, six pass break-ups, three quarterback hurries, a recovered fumble and a forced fumble.

- Laster (6-0, 238, Shaker Heights, Ohio) placed second on the squad with 63 takedowns last season, including 10.0 tackles for a loss with a team-high 5.5 sacks and an astounding 13 quarterback hurries, while adding an interception, two pass deflections, a recovered fumble and a forced fumble.

- White (6-5, 290, Macon, Ga.) enters his final season after collecting 114 tackles, including 22.0 tackles for a loss, in the past two years.

- Ingram (5-8, 173, Waldorf, Md.) amassed three interceptions and 15 pass break-ups for a total of 18 passes defended a year ago, while also contributing 39 tackles (31 solo) with 2.0 hits for a loss and a forced fumble.

- Irvine (5-7, 150, Durham, N.C.) is the Eagles' top returning receiver after collecting 38 receptions for 582 yards and three touchdowns in his college debut.

- Ward (6-4, 218, Edenton, N.C.) was responsible for 19 receptions for 248 yards (13.1 yards per catch) and two touchdowns last season.

LASTER NAMED INDEPENDENT DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Lindy's Sports has announced NCCU senior linebacker Donald Laster as the NCAA Division I-FCS Independent Preseason Defensive Player of the Year in its 2010 college football preview magazine. Laster, a 6-0, 238-pound native of Shaker Heights, Ohio, earned the preseason honor after posting solid all-round statistics during his junior campaign in 2009. Laster was the team's second-leading defender with 63 total tackles, including 10.0 hits for a loss with a team-high 5.5 sacks. The linebacker also topped the squad with a remarkable total of 13 quarterback hurries, nine more than the next best Eagle. He added an interception, two pass break-ups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery as a starter in all 11 games. In his best outing last season, Laster amassed a game-high 12 tackles with a takedown behind the line of scrimmage and a pass deflection against nationally-ranked Liberty University on Sept. 12. The linebacker ended the season by spending nearly the entire afternoon in the offensive backfield of Savannah State University, recording 11 stops, including 2.5 tackles for a loss with 1.5 sacks, along with five quarterback hurries. As a sophomore linebacker in 2008, Laster also led the Eagles with 6.0 sacks and six quarterback hurries, while adding 40 total tackles with 9.5 hits for a loss. Laster played on the defensive line in his first year at NCCU, collecting 48 tackles in 2007.

TWO COMMUNITY TICKET OUTLETS EASES ACCESS TO BUY TICKETS

The NCCU Department of Athletics and the NCCU Ticket Office have established two community ticket outlets - Eagleland and MS Designs Embroidery, both in Durham, N.C. "We are striving to make it as easy as possible for our fans to access tickets to our athletic events," said Dr. Ingrid Wicker-McCree, NCCU Director of Athletics. "By extending our ticket offerings into the community where our fans frequently do business, we are able to provide them with improved customer service." Eagleland, which sells a wide range of NCCU paraphernalia, is located at 2501 Fayetteville Street. MS Designs Embroidery is located at 803-A Ramseur Street. The NCCU Ticket Office is located in the lower level of the W.G. Pearson Cafeteria on Lawson Street. Tickets are also available for purchase via the internet at www.NCCUEaglePride.com. For more ticket information, contact the NCCU Ticket Office at (919) 530-5170, Eagleland at (919) 956-5393 or MS Designs Embroidery at (919) 680-3917, or visit www.NCCUEaglePride.com for a complete list of ticket options and pricing.

HALL OF FAME RUNNING BACK JOINS NCCU SPORTS NETWORK

The NCCU Sports Network announces the addition of NCCU Hall of Fame running back Joe Simmons to the broadcast team. Simmons joins play-by-play voice of the network, Chris Hooks, and versatile color analyst, Sedrick Dickens, in the booth for his first season of work with the network. Many Eagle fans remember Joe Simmons both as a player and a coach at NCCU. Simmons is one of the greatest running backs in school history and held the school's rushing mark until 2006, the year he was inducted into the Alex M. Rivera Hall of Fame. The Mount Airy, N.C., native racked up an impressive 2,840 yards and scored 29 touchdowns during his career. His final season was one of his best as he became the first Eagle to rush for more than 1,200 yards in a season with a school record 1,699 yards. Simmons also coached at NCCU from 1996 to 2003 under Larry Little, Rudy Abrams, and Rod Broadway. He was in charge of running backs, quarterbacks, and linebackers respectively during his tenure as assistant coach. "It's good to be coming back and working with the people I am so familiar with," stated Simmons. "I am grateful for the opportunity to serve my alma mater in an area that I am passionate about. It will be great to have a connection with the institution again and I hope to add to the continued success of an already well-established group that is the NCCU Sports Network."

NCCU SPORTS NETWORK EXPANDS TO EIGHT RADIO STATIONS

Coming into the 2010 season, the NCCU Sports Network added six more radio affiliates to its current flagship station Rejoice 1410 AM, giving Eagle fans one of the largest HBCU football radio networks in the country. The seven affiliates give the NCCU Sports Network a presence in the Durham area all the way east to Kinston, N.C., where WELS 1010 AM carries NCCU football for the second straight season. There are two stations in the Granville/Vance County area, WCBQ 1340 AM (Oxford, N.C.) and WHNC 890 AM (Henderson, N.C.). WYRN 1480 AM is located in Louisburg, N.C., while WXKL 1290 AM is in Sanford, N.C. The newest affiliates to the network are WEED 1390 AM in Rocky Mount, N.C., and WARR 1520 AM in Warrenton, N.C., as they join the network for the first time this season. The new stations allow the NCCU Sports Network to reach around 35,000 listeners throughout the central and eastern part of the state of North Carolina. All this is due to the partnership between the network and Chief Engineer Jay Bell, owner and operator of BMG, whose mission is to distribute, promote, and market college football and basketball games featuring Historically Black Colleges and Universities, while also using this opportunity to teach, train, and educate students at HBCU's by using the latest technologies in broadcast communications.
