THE KICKOFF

Georgia State returns home to the Georgia Dome to host South Alabama for the University's second Homecoming game.

The Panthers defeated Morehead State, 37-10, on Oct. 2, 2010, in the program's inaugural Homecoming game.

Having played three of its last four games on the road, Georgia State is coming off a 23-13 loss at South Carolina State, a game in which the Panthers led 13-10 in the third quarter and were tied at 13-all entering the fourth quarter, despite playing without starting quarterback Drew Little.

The Panthers (1-5) look to snap a five-game losing streak, including losses to a nationally-ranked FCS team (Jacksonville State), another FCS team that has since entered the rankings (Old Dominion) and an FBS team that is now ranked No. 20 (Houston). The five opponents who have beaten Georgia State during the streak have a combined record of 24-9.

South Alabama, a program in its third season, improved to 4-2 with a 33-30 victory over UT-Martin.

The two teams are meeting for the second straight year after South Alabama claimed a 39-34 victory last Oct. 30 in Mobile, Ala. Drew Little passed for two touchdowns and rushed for two more for the Panthers, but Kendall Houston led South Alabama with 175 yards rushing. (See page 8 for complete recap).

Coached by Joey Jones, South Alabama has taken a different approach than Georgia State in scheduling in its transitional years. The Jaguars have suffered just two losses in their history, both coming this season to FBS programs NC State (35-13) and Kent State (33-25).

RUNNING GAME GETS GOING

One of the positives in Georgia State's loss at South Carolina State was the performance of the GSU ground game. The Panthers rushed for 244 yards on 45 attempts, both highs in Georgia State's history. The previous rushing record was 232 yards last season vs. Savannah State.

Most of the damage was done by the trio of quarterback Kelton Hill (94 yards) and running backs Donald Russell (85) and Travis Evans (62), who combined for 241 of the 244 yards. Hill's 94 yards are one off the individual school record that he set last season with 95 yards against Savannah State. Russell also achieved a season-high.

RUSSELL FINDS THE END ZONE

Running back Donald Russell has shown a penchant for finding the end zone. The junior transfer from Kentucky has played in five games this season and has scored at least one touchdown in each of them. He leads the team with seven touchdowns.

In the season opener against Clark Atlanta, Russell scored touchdowns of 20 yards and then two yards the first two times he touched the ball in a GSU uniform.

He also scored twice against Murray State (10-8-11) on runs of four and nine yards, the latter play coming after he took a direct snap in a wildcat formation. Russell finished with 64 yards on 17 carries, the GSU record. He added a season-high 85 yards on 15 carries at South Carolina State with one touchdown.

INJURIES TAKE THEIR TOLL

Head coach Bill Curry refuses to use injuries as an excuse, but several key injuries have taken a toll on the Panthers' season. Most recently, starting quarterback Drew Little was unable to play against South Carolina State. The Panthers did welcome the return of speedy receiver Albert Wilson, who had missed the previous two games.

Starting center Ben Jacoby also missed two games (Jacksonville State and Houston), and then his replacement, Michael Davis, sustained a season-ending injury. As a result, the Panthers faced Houston without their top two centers, as well as without Wilson, running back Donald Russell and starting free safety Brandon Jones, who missed games two through four.

ANOTHER GSU RECORD FOR WILLIAMS

Georgia State has played 17 games in its history, and sophomore Danny Williams has caught at least one pass in each one of them. The sophomore from Orlando, Fla., is the leading receiver in GSU annals with 74 receptions for 958 yards and six touchdowns in his career.

Against Murray State (Oct. 8), Williams caught nine passes for 151 yards to surpass the Georgia State record for receiving yards in a game. He hauled in a 43-yard touchdown pass and also had a 49-yard reception, and he earned honorable mention recognition for Wide Receiver Performer of the Week from the College Football Performance Awards.

Williams led GSU in receptions (54), receiving yards (649) and touchdown catches (5) during the inaugural season of 2010. This season, he has 20 catches for 309 yards and one score.

He also owns the Panthers' single-game records for receptions (11 vs. Old Dominion in 2010). He has four of the five 100-yard games in GSU history.

ANOTHER POSITION, NO PROBLEM FOR JOHN

Through five games of the 2011 season, sophomore Ulrick John has already started at three different positions on the offensive line.

John, from Hinesville, Ga., entered the season as the Panthers' backup left tackle. He started the season opener at left tackle in place of injured Clyde Yandell.

Two games later, after Georgia State's top two centers were injured, John started at center against Houston. Then against Murray State, the 6-8, 290-pounder started at left guard while Joseph Gilbert served a one-game suspension.

UNDER THE GUNN

Cornerback D'Mario Gunn achieved a first in Georgia State history as he became the first Panther to grab two interceptions in a game against Murray State. Both picks came deep in Georgia State territory. The junior from Hampton, Ga., intercepted Casey Brockman's first pass of the game at the GSU 12, and then in the second quarter Gunn grabbed another interception at the Panthers' 11-yard line.

Gunn earned honorable mention recognition for Defensive Back Performer of the Week from the College Football Performance Awards.

GSU VS. FBS

Georgia State's program is in its infancy, but the Panthers have not shied away from tough competition, playing an FBS team in each of its first two seasons. In last year's inaugural season, Georgia State played at defending national champion and 10th-ranked Alabama, and this year the Panthers travelled to Houston.

Georgia State recently announced an FBS game for next season as the Panthers will visit Tennessee on Sept. 8, 2012.

ALL-PURPOSE ALBERT

Georgia State's fastest and most versatile weapon is receiver and return specialist Albert Wilson. He is GSU's second-leading receiver with 15 catches for 326 yards (21.7 yards per catch), and he averages 149.2 all-purpose yards per game. The speedy sophomore missed the Houston and Murray State games due to a hamstring injury but returned against South Carolina State.

Wilson set the then-school record (since topped by Danny Williams) with 146 receiving yards on six catches Sept. 17 at No. 16/17 Jacksonville State. He had a 54-yard catch and then a 53-yard reception late in the game on which he appeared headed for the end zone but pulled up with a hamstring injury.

In the season-opening win over Clark Atlanta, he was the game's leading receiver with three catches for 85 yards, including TD catches of 30 and 48 yards, the latter the longest scoring pass in GSU history. He also returned three punts for 34 yards and had a 10-yard run. Against Old Dominion, he totalled a school-record 229 all-purpose yards, including four catches for 53 yards and seven punt returns for 85 yards.

During the inaugural season, Wilson led the Panthers in all-purpose yards, averaging 93.2 yards per game. He was Georgia State's third-leading receiver with 19 catches for 294 yards and two touchdowns, and he averaged 28.1 yards on 22 kickoff returns, including a 97-yard touchdown return at Alabama.

Wilson was named to the 2011 CFP Kick Returner Preseason Watch List and the preseason All-Independent team by Phil Steele's College Football Preview.

JENKINS IS CANDIDATE FOR NATIONAL SCHOLAR ATHLETE AWARDS

Georgia State defensive lineman Kalan Jenkins is one of 127 candidates for the 2011 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Awards, presented by Fidelity Investments®.

The 127 nominees also comprise the list of semifinalists for the 2011 William V. Campbell Trophy, endowed by HealthSouth, which recognizes an individual as the absolute best scholar-athlete in the nation.

A senior from Midlothian, Texas, Jenkins is the Panthers' starting noseguard this season after playing defensive end during GSU's inaugural season of 2010. The 6-5, 275-pounder is actually playing his fourth different position since arriving at GSU 18 months ago from Navarro College in Corsicana, Texas.

In the classroom, Jenkins maintains a grade point average of 3.94, and the exercise science major plans to pursue physical therapy in graduate school.

Nominated by their schools, which are limited to one nominee each, candidates for the awards must be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale, have outstanding football ability as a first team player or significant contributor, and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship.

The NFF Awards Committee will select up to 16 recipients who will each receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and will vie as finalists for the 2011 William V. Campbell Trophy. The past recipients of the Campbell Trophy include: Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2009); Tennessee's Peyton Manning (1997); Georgia's Matt Stinchcomb (1998); and Marshall's Chad Pennington (1999).

SKELTON MAKES BIG PLAYS

Safety Demazio Skelton turned in a big play in each of Georgia State's first two games.

In the opener against Clark Atlanta, the junior from Myrtle Beach, S.C., grabbed an interception off a tipped pass and returned it 26 yards to the CAU 20, setting up Georgia State's first touchdown.

Against Old Dominion, Skelton scooped up a fumble in the end zone and raced 93 yards before he was brought down at the seven-yard line. That is the third-longest play of any kind in GSU history, behind kickoff returns of 97 and 96 yards.

BILUKIDI NOTICED BY CFL

Georgia State defensive lineman Christo Bilukidi is rated one of the top 15 prospects for the 2012 CFL Canadian Draft, according to a list published by the CFL Scouting Bureau.

Bilukidi is a 6-5, 290-pound senior from Ottawa, Ontario. He is playing his second season at Georgia State after transferring from Eastern Arizona J.C.

Football Preview, he led Georgia State's inaugural team in sacks with five, along with seven tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and 51 tackles in 2010.

Born in Angola, Bilukidi lived in France and Brazil before settling in Canada. He played just one year of high school football at St. Patrick's in Ottawa.

The 2012 CFL Draft will be held next May and will include six rounds.

ANOTHER IMPRESSIVE OPENER

The kickoff of the encore season of Georgia State football produced exactly the same result as the kickoff of GSU's inaugural season: a 41-7 Georgia State victory before a tremendous crowd of 26,273 at the Georgia Dome.

And for the second straight year, a quarterback playing his first collegiate game under center turned in an impressive performance. Bo Schlechter passed for 196 yards and three touchdowns against Clark Atlanta while directing a GSU offense that rolled up 41 points and did not commit a turnover. Also making a strong debut was running back Donald Russell, a transfer from Kentucky who rushed for a team-high 56 yards and two touchdowns in his first game in a GSU uniform. Sophomore Albert Wilson caught touchdown passes of 30 and 48 yards. Safety Demazio Skelton and outside linebacker Robert Ferguson grabbed interceptions to set up touchdowns, and the GSU defense limited Clark Atlanta to a school-record 247 yards of total offense.

BENVENUTO EARNS NATIONAL AWARD

True freshman Christian Benvenuto had large shoes to fill, replacing third-team All-American Iain Vance as the Georgia State placekicker, and the rookie did not disappoint. Benvenuto was named National Placekicker Performer of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA), sharing the honor with Cody Sandlin of UT-Martin.

On his first collegiate field goal try, Benvenuto booted a 44-yard field goal on GSU's first possession. He added a 45-yard field goal and was a perfect 4-for-4 on extra points. The Palm Coast, Fla., native also handled kickoff duties.

Benvenuto was one of three Panthers honored by the CFPA. Quarterback Bo Schlechter was an honorable mention selection as Quarterback Performer of the Week, and tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi, who caught three passes for 28 yards, was an honorable mention choice as Tight End Performer of the Week.

SECOND LARGEST FCS CROWD

Georgia State had another tremendous crowd for opening night with 26,273 fans watching GSU defeat Clark Atlanta at the Georgia Dome.

The Georgia Dome was the second largest of the opening weekend in any FCS team's home stadium. The only FCS game to attract a larger crowd was UTSA's inaugural game, which drew 56,743 at the Alamodome. At a neutral site, the Chicago Football Classic drew 35,653 for Hampton and Alabama A&M at Soldier Field.

BO KNOWS QUARTERBACK, TOO

Sophomore Bo Schlechter started at quarterback for Georgia State in its season opener. The 6-3, 210-pounder is one of the best all-around athletes on the squad, but he was playing his first collegiate game at quarterback. His one pass attempt in 2010 came on a fake punt attempt.

Schlechter passed for 196 yards and three touchdowns against Clark Atlanta while directing a GSU offense that rolled up 41 points and did not commit a turnover. He completed 13-of-18 passes and also rushed nine times for 27 yards. He was named FCS Independent Player of the Week by College Sports Madness, and he was an honorable mention selection as Quarterback Performer of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA).

A native of Wellington, Fla., Schlechter signed as part of the Panthers' first recruiting class in 2009. He played quarterback throughout a redshirt year in 2009 and competed for the starting berth in the 2010 preseason. When he didn't win the quarterback job, he elected to move to wide receiver and caught eight passes for 118 yards.

Schlechter also punts for GSU. He averaged 44.5 yards per punt in 2010 and helped the Panthers to a net punting average of 37.3, which would have ranked among the Top 10 nationally had Georgia State been eligible for NCAA statistical rankings. He was a preseason, fourth-team All-American as well as an All-Independent by selection Phil Steele's 2011 College Football Preview.

TRANSFERS BOLSTER ROSTER

At the start of preseason camp, Georgia State added three transfers from FBS programs in running back Donald Russell and tight end Alex Smith, both from Kentucky, and defensive end A.J. Portee, who formerly played at Connecticut.

Russell and Portee both saw game action at their previous stops. That gives the Panthers a total of seven players with prior game experience at the FBS level. They join Ben Jacoby (Ball State), Clyde Yandell (Georgia Tech), Joseph Gilbert (Georgia Tech), Bailey Woods (Auburn) and Sidney Haynes (UCF).

FOUR POSITIONS FOR JENKINS

Senior noseguard Kalan Jenkins is now playing his fourth different position since arriving at Georgia State 18 months ago.

The Midlothian, Texas, native joined the program in January of 2010 after two seasons as a tight end at Navarro College. He remained at tight end for spring practice of 2010 before moving to defensive end, where he started every game during the inaugural season. This spring, he switched to defensive tackle, and then at the start of preseason camp, he moved even further inside to noseguard.

EXPERIENCED COACHES

Georgia State is blessed with a pair of coordinators with a wealth of major college experience in assistant head coach/defensive coordinator John Thompson and offensive coordinator John Bond.

Thompson previously served as defensive coordinator or co-coordinator at SEC schools Mississippi (2007), Florida (2002), Arkansas (2000-01), South Carolina (2005), as well as Memphis (1999), Southern Miss (1992-98), Louisiana Tech (1990-91) and Northwestern State (1988-89), for a total of 23 years as a Division I coordinator before coming to Georgia State.

Bond, a 26-year coaching veteran, directed prolific offenses at Georgia Tech (2007), Northern Illinois (2004-06), Army (2000-03) and Illinois State (1997-99) for a total of 13 years as a Division I coordinator.

Thompson and associate head coach/recruiting coordinator George Pugh also have head coaching experience. Thompson spent two seasons (2004-05) as the head coach at East Carolina, where he coached current NFL standout running back Chris Johnson. Pugh compiled a 19-10 record in three seasons at Alabama A&M (1989-91), winning three SIAC titles.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just eight collegiate programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. Six are FBS programs: Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane and USF. The only other FCS program to play in an NFL facility is Tennessee State.

FATHERS & SONS

Three members of the Georgia State team are the sons of head coach Bill Curry's former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself.

The Panthers added another second-generation player in the summer of 2010 in Auburn transfer Bailey Woods, whose father, John, was an offensive lineman at Tech in 1976 when Curry was the offensive line coach.

This season, Nick Henderson is a freshman safety. His father, Steve, played for Curry at Georgia Tech in the early 1980s.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

LAST MEETING VS. SOUTH ALABAMA

SOUTH ALABAMA 39, GEORGIA STATE 34

Game 9: Oct. 30, 2010 • 5 p.m.
Ladd-Peebles Stadium • Mobile, Ala.

Georgia State rallied with 13 fourth-quarter points before falling at undefeated South Alabama, 39-34, Saturday at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Ala.

Drew Little threw two touchdown passes and rushed for two more for the Panthers (5-4), but South Alabama's Kendall Houston rushed for 175 yards, including the first down that enabled the Jaguars to run out the clock and improve to 8-0 on the season and 15-0 in their two-year history.

Jaguar quarterback C.J. Bennett threw three touchdown passes as South Alabama scored 24 straight points in the second quarter to turn a 14-6 deficit into a 30-14 halftime lead.

Trailing 33-14, the Panthers began their rally as Little hit Danny Williams for a 47-yard touchdown pass to move GSU within 33-21 with two minutes left in the third quarter.

After South Alabama's T.J. Glover returned the ensuing kickoff to the GSU 38-yard line, the Panthers held the Jaguars to a field goal and trailed 36-21 with 13:25 to play.

Little found Sidney Haynes for a 39-yard completion to USA 25, and Travis Evans picked up 20 yards down to the one on a swing pass from Kelton Hill. Little kept it for the one-yard touchdown, and after Iain Vance's PAT was blocked, the Panthers trailed 36-27 with 11:24 left.

South Alabama managed another field goal to extend their lead to 29-27. After Albert Wilson returned the kickoff out to the 44 to give the Panthers good field position, Little drove GSU to a first down at the USA 20. On fourth-and-six at the 16, he hit Emmanuel Ogbuehi for 11 yards to the five, and then Hill scored a on a five-yard keeper, pulling the Panthers within 39-34 with 3:57 on the clock.

South Alabama took over at its own 26-yard line and managed to run out the clock. On third-and-four, Bennett found Courtney Smith for a six-yard gain and a crucial first down. Out of timeouts, Georgia State still had a chance after forcing a third-and-two with 1:28 to play, but Houston gained nine yards to seal the win.

"This team always fights back, and I'm proud of that," said head coach Bill Curry. "We have wonderful, tough, smart young men, but we're not mature and we're not consistent, and that is the head coach's responsibility. We will become a consistent football team. My job is to get that done this week."

The Jaguars rushed for 293 yards on the day, often breaking tackles after backs appeared to be stopped.

"You've got to tackle," said Curry. "We've work on that every single day in practice, but we didn't get it done today. [Houston] is a heck of a back and he kept fighting, but a lot of that was poor tackling."

For the second straight game, the Panthers took the lead in the first quarter. Georgia State opened the game with an impressive scoring drive, moving 60 yards in 10 plays, with Little hitting Sidney Haynes for a two-yard scoring strike and an early 7-0 advantage.

Georgia State took a 14-6 lead on Little's one-yard scoring run, which was set up when Kail

Singleton recovered a fumbled punt at the South Alabama 14-yard line. That put the Panthers ahead by eight points with 11 minutes to play in the second quarter.

That marked the largest deficit that the Jaguars have faced in their two-year history, but it did not last long.

Bennett threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Bryant Lavender to put South Alabama within 14-13 with nine minutes to play in the second quarter.

On the Panthers' next offensive play, Little's pass was tipped and intercepted by Tim Harvey at the GSU 39-yard line. Not only did that snap Little's streak of consecutive passes without an interception at 202, but it set up Bennett's nine-yard scoring pass to Kevin Helms. That gave the Jaguars a 20-14 lead with seven minutes still left in the second quarter.

After forcing a GSU punt, South Alabama put together an 80-yard scoring drive, capped by Bennett's three-yard scoring pass to Jereme Jones, extending the Jaguars advantage to 27-14 with 41 seconds left in the half.

Starting with good field position at the GSU 45, Little hit Danny Williams for a 13-yard gain to the South Alabama 42, but his next pass was intercepted, again by Harvey, who broke several tackles to return the ball all the way to the Panther 18, setting up Lawson McGlon's 35-yard field goal with just three seconds left.

Little completed 20 of 34 passes on the day for 234 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions, along with his two rushing touchdowns. Danny Williams caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, and Sidney Haynes added four catches for 50 yards and a score.

Georgia State played without standout Bo Schlechter and starting linebacker Olufemi Opanubi, who each sustained knee injuries in practice this week

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

The Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure. Curry has called his current post the highlight of his storied career.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

#84 ARTHUR WILLIAMS

TE • 6-3, 270 • Sr.
Miami, Fla. (Carol City HS/Palomar JC)

- Tight end with 16 catches for 164 yards and three touchdowns in 2010
- Made perhaps the play of Georgia State's inaugural season in the 23-17 victory over Lamar, which ensured a winning record for the Panthers in their inaugural campaign. With GSU trailing 20-17 in the fourth quarter, Williams caught a two-yard touchdown pass, hauling in the ball after it was tipped by a defender for the winning score.
- Nearly made a similar catch in the back of the end zone on the Panthers' final play in the overtime loss to Jacksonville State, but he was ruled out of bounds, ending the game.
- Career highs of five receptions for 66 yards against Lamar
- Three catches for 43 yards in win at Campbell, including a 24-yard reception down to the CU 30-yard line to help set up the game-winning field goal
- Caught two touchdowns in win over Morehead State
- Nicknamed Bully for his blocking ability

#17 DANNY WILLIAMS

WR • 6-4, 190 • So-R
Orlando, Fla. (Boone HS)

- Has caught at least one pass in every GSU game
- Leads the 2011 team with 20 receptions for 309 yards
- Set GSU record with 151 yards receiving on nine catches vs. Murray State (10-8-11), including a 43-yard touchdown catch and a 49-yard reception
- Has four of the five 100-yard games in GSU history
- GSU's leading receiver in 2010 with 54 receptions for 649 yards and five TD. Averaged 4.9 catches and 59.0 yards per game
- Became the Panthers' first-ever 100-yard receiver with eight catches for 101 yards in win over Morehead State (10-2-10)
- Bettered that with five catches for 103 yards against N.C. Central, including a 24-yard touchdown catch that put GSU ahead with 5:36 to play.
- Career-high 11 catches for 102 yards against Old Dominion (10-23-10)
- Had five receptions for 82 yards against South Alabama, including a 47-yard scoring play that was his longest reception of the year
- Had seven catches for 78 yards in overtime loss to fourth-ranked Jacksonville State. Set up the tying touchdown late in regulation with a 16-yard reception down to the one-yard line
- Caught a 39-yard TD pass from Rosevelt Watson vs. Lambuth
- Because of his height and leaping ability, he also plays on defense in late-game situations when the opponent is attempting a Hail Mary pass, and he contributed a key pass breakup in the end zone on Lamar's final play.

GEORGIA STATE 41, CLARK ATLANTA 7

Game 1: Sept. 2, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State opened its encore season with a 41-7 victory over Division II Clark Atlanta before 26,273 fans at the Georgia Dome. Sophomore Bo Schlechter, in his first collegiate start at quarterback, completed 13-of-18 passes for 196 yards and three touchdowns, two of them to Albert Wilson. Running back Donald Russell, playing his first game for GSU after transferring from Kentucky in the offseason, scored twice on the ground with 56 yards rushing to lead the Panthers.

"This was my first college start, but I tried to come out confident," Schlechter said. "It was just getting some plays run and I was able to build up some confidence going into the second quarter."

Schlechter, the starting punter and a reserve wide receiver last year during his freshman season, played in place of both Drew Little and Kelton Hill because of team-enforced suspensions to the Panthers' top two quarterbacks. He tossed the first TD pass of his college career to Jordan Giles on a 12-yard slant in the second quarter to make it a 24-0 GSU lead before halftime, then hit Wilson in the third and fourth quarters on scoring passes of 30 and 48 yards. The 48-yard TD connection is currently the longest touchdown pass in Panthers history.

"We had a quarterback who had never played a college game at quarterback and we had zero turnovers," said Georgia State head coach Bill Curry. "In my fondest dreams, I would have struggled to believe that."

Wilson finished with 85 yards receiving on three receptions, and tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi added 48 yards receiving on three catches. Travis Evans was the Panthers' second-leading rusher with 52 yards on eight attempts.

"We've been waiting for this moment for a long time," Wilson said. "We had a great camp this summer. We were all anxious to see how Bo would play. He showed up and played well."

Schlechter also retained punting duties, averaging 39 yards on four punts and leaving two inside the CAU 20-yard line, including a punt downed at the 1 late in the fourth quarter.

The defense had two key takeaways in the second quarter, with linebackers Robert Ferguson and Demazio Skelton snagging interceptions on back-to-back Clark Atlanta possessions to set up short touchdown drives.

The first interception, by Skelton on a pass from CAU quarterback Bryan Mann, gave GSU possession at the Clark Atlanta 34-yard line. The ensuing two-play scoring drive consisted of a 14-yard first-down pass to wide receiver Danny Williams, then a 20-yard touchdown run by Russell. On CAU's next possession, Ferguson intercepted quarterback T.J. Smith and returned it 31 yards to the 3-yard line, with Russell again rushing for the score on the next play to make it 17-0 Georgia State.

"We had terrific backs before, but Donald makes a difference when he handles the ball, and you saw that tonight," Curry said. "He has the capacity and the physicality to punish tacklers and spin away and run away from some others. That's a gift, and a lot of great backs have that."

GSU freshman kicker Christian Benvenuto converted his first collegiate field goal try from 44 yards out to make the score 3-0 with 3:34 left in the first quarter, then hit a 46-yarder in the third quarter for a perfect debut.

Clark Atlanta (0-1) got on the scoreboard with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Bryan Mann to Terrence Milton on the first play of the fourth quarter. Georgia State (1-0) held CAU to 12 first downs and 140 yards rushing, and the quarterback duo of Mann and Smith combined for just 104 yards passing on 10 completions. Defensive end A.J. Portee tied for the lead in tackles with five total stops, and led the team with two tackles for loss.

"The run defense against their run offense was pretty good," Curry said. "We do have more athletic people defensively (than last year), our linebackers and our secondary run a lot faster than they did a year ago."

The 41-7 final is the same score by which Georgia State defeated Shorter University in its inaugural game in 2010, also in the Georgia Dome.

OLD DOMINION 40, GEORGIA STATE 17

Game 2: Sept. 10, 2011 • 12 p.m. (CSS)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State suffered its first loss of the season with a 40-17 home defeat to Old Dominion on Saturday at the Georgia Dome. It was the Panthers' (1-1) first match-up against a full-fledged member of the Colonial Athletic Association, as the third-year Old Dominion (2-0) program is in its first season of conference play.

The Panthers were shut out in the second half as Old Dominion extended its 27-17 halftime lead with two touchdown runs by quarterback Thomas DeMarco.

The game was also the Panthers' first ever against a repeat opponent; GSU dropped a 34-20 contest to Old Dominion last season in Norfolk, Va. With that game, ODU began a winning streak that it extended today to seven games.

"I would love to play a good game against ODU someday but we seem to save our worst for ODU," said Georgia State head coach Bill Curry. "So hats off to a good job by [Old Dominion]. We didn't find out today just how good they are because we really didn't test them. We gave them opportunities at every turn and they took advantage."

Quarterback Bo Schlechter, starting his second game for the Panthers, was 10-of-27 passing with an interception. Drew Little got his first snaps of the season late in the third quarter and finished 6-of-17 passing with two picks.

"We went out and played hard, but we had a couple of penalties and turnovers that shouldn't have happened," Schlechter said. "That caused us to get off key and we never could get back into it. We didn't execute our game plan like we should have."

A wild first half featured numerous miscues on both sides that led to points.

Old Dominion started the game with 51 and 45-yard field goals from Jarod Brown to jump out to a 6-0 lead. The Panthers' first score was made possible by an Antonio Vaughan fair catch fumble on a punt by Matt Hubbard. Nate Anthony subsequently recovered on the ODU 14 for the Panthers, and Christian Benvenuto ended the short drive with a 26-yard field goal to make it a 6-3 Old Dominion lead nine minutes into the game.

Later in the first quarter with Old Dominion leading 13-3, ODU safety Devon Simmons intercepted Schlechter and returned the pick 33 yards to the GSU 13. But several plays later, GSU linebacker Michael Hall forced Colby Goodwyn to fumble into the end zone, and linebacker Demazio Skelton returned it 93 yards to the Monarchs 7-yard line. Two plays later Donald Russell scored on a 2-yard run with 29 seconds left in the period to cut the ODU lead to three.

The Panthers, however, committed two special teams errors of their own in the second quarter. A Hubbard punt attempt was blocked by Alex Arain and returned 36 yards by Blair Roberts for an ODU touchdown with 12:16 left in the half.

A GSU scoring drive of 55 yards, capped by a 5-yard Travis Evans touchdown run, cut Old Dominion's lead to 20-17, but the Monarchs partially blocked another punt on the next Panthers possession, getting the ball at the GSU 19. ODU struck quickly with a DeMarco touchdown pass to Reid Evans to end the first-half scoring.

Georgia State was looking to cut into a 33-17 ODU lead when its most promising drive of the second half was cut short. Early in the fourth quarter, Little's pass attempt was tipped at the line and intercepted by Monarchs cornerback Eriq Lewis at the ODU 12-yard line.

Albert Wilson accounted for 77 punt return yards on six attempts and tied with Jordan Giles for the team lead with 53 yards receiving. Evans paced the Panthers with 74 yards on the ground.

JACKSONVILLE STATE 37, GEORGIA STATE 21

Game 3: Sept. 17, 2011 • 3:30 p.m. (CSS) Burgess-Snow Field • Jacksonville, Ala.

Georgia State played nearly even with 16th-ranked Jacksonville State for three quarters before succumbing in the fourth quarter and falling, 37-21, at Burgess-Snow Field.

GSU (1-2) wide receiver Albert Wilson set a school-record with 146 yards receiving on six catches, including receptions of 53 and his 54 yards. On his final catch covering 53 yards, the sophomore appeared headed for the end zone but pulled up with an injured hamstring.

Jacksonville State (2-1) quarterback Coty Blanchard completed nine of 11 passes for 155 yards and one touchdown while rushing 12 times for 77 yards and two scores. His 17-yard scoring run with four minutes remaining in the third quarter proved to be the key blow, putting the Gamecocks ahead, 24-14. The score came on fourth-and-one as Blanchard faked a handoff up the middle, snuck around the right side and then dove into the end zone.

The Panthers answered with Travis Evans' three-yard touchdown run to pull within 24-21 late in the third quarter. The 80-yard drive was highlighted by a 54-yard completion from quarterback Bo Schechter to Wilson. Georgia State's longest pass play of the season moved the Panthers to the JSU 27, and from there, GSU kept it on the ground. On first down at the 15, Evans ran 12 yards to the three and then bulled his way into the end zone on the next play.

Holding a three-point lead, Jacksonville State ground out a 13-play, 74-yard drive that lasted 7:24 and was capped by Washaun Ealey's four-yard run. Ealey, the Georgia transfer, finished with 82 yards on the ground, and while backfield mate Calvin Middleton rushed for 89 yards and one score. For the game, JSU rushed for 246 yards.

Now leading 30-21, JSU forced the Panthers to go three-and-out and then managed another touchdown drive that was kept alive by a roughing the punter penalty. Blanchard scored from 11 yards out with 1:39 left for the final 37-21 margin.

"If we take the penalties and simply play intelligently, then we are right in the game," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "But we kept their drives alive with silly mistakes, and we didn't sustain enough offensively. We didn't show poise in the clutch."

The teams were tied at 14-all at the half. Jacksonville State opened the scoring on Blanchard's 28-yard touchdown pass to Kevyn Cooper with 10 minutes left in the first half, but Georgia State struck back as Schlechter found tight end Arthur Williams for an 11-yard touchdown with three minutes to play in the first quarter.

After the Gamecocks regained the lead early in the second quarter by blocking Drew Little's attempt at a quick kick and returning it 34 yards for a score, Georgia State again knotted the score on Donald's Russell's one-yard plunge. That score was set up by Demarius Matthews' 67-yard kickoff return to the JSU 24-yard line.

Schlechter passed for 145 yards and one touchdown while completing 15 of 26 passes. He added 29 yards rushing. Donald Russell managed 47 yards and a touchdown, while Evans finished with 41 yards rushing, one touchdown, and five catches for 27 yards.

HOUSTON 56, GEORGIA STATE 0

Game 4: Sept. 24, 2011 • 8 p.m. (CSS) Robertson Stadium • Houston, Texas

Playing just its second-ever game against an FBS opponent, Georgia State fell at Houston, 56-0, in night game at Robertson Stadium.

The loss was the third in a row for the Panthers, who dropped to 1-3 and were shut out for the first time in their brief history.

The Cougars improved to 4-0 behind record-setting quarterback Case Keenum, who was every bit as good as advertised. The sixth-year senior completed 29 of 34 passes for 415 yards and two touchdowns.

He went 20-for-24 for 279 yards in the first half to stake the Cougars to a 35-0 lead at the intermission.

The Cougars rolled up 732 yards of offense, including 561 yards in the air and 171 on the ground. Fourteen different Houston receivers caught passes, led by Justin Johnson with six catches for 83 yards, including touchdown catches of 18 and nine yards. Bryce Beall added 64 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

"Their speed really unnerved us, and we didn't play the fundamentals," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "We repeated the mistakes and stupid penalties we made the last two weeks. It's frustrating and it's embarrassing, and I don't know anything else to do except keep working."

The Panthers made a change at quarterback, starting Drew Little and also utilizing Kelton Hill. Little passed for 117 yards on 11 completions, while Hill contributed 33 yards rushing.

"Both quarterbacks were rusty, but we felt like we had to give them a chance," said Curry. "But we didn't protect them, and we didn't get [Houston] stopped on defense."

Travis Evans rushed for a career-best 70 yards on 14 carries for Georgia State, and wide receiver Danny Williams had his best game of the season with four catches for 70 yards, including a 42-yard catch.

Georgia State's best chance to score came late in the third quarter, when the Panthers drove for a first down at the Houston nine. But on second down, Little's pass was tipped in the air, and Marcus McGraw came down with the interception.

The Panthers played without their top receiver and offensive player Albert Wilson, who injured his hamstring last game, and one of its primary ball carriers in Donald Russell, who sustained a sprained knee in practice this week. Also missing from the GSU lineup due to injury were the team's top two centers in Ben Jacoby (knee) and Michael Davis (ankle) and starting free safety Brandon Jones (ankle).

MURRAY STATE 48, GEORGIA STATE 24

Game 5: Oct. 8, 2011 • 2 p.m. (ESPN3)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell at home to Murray State, 48-24, at the Georgia Dome on Saturday. A third-quarter rally in which the Panthers scored 14 unanswered points fell short after Murray State regained control of the game in the fourth quarter.

The Panthers made the score 35-24 in the third after getting a 43-yard Kelton Hill touchdown pass to Danny Williams and a 9-yard rushing TD from Donald Russell, his second of the game.

"The team was defiant (going into halftime)," said head coach Bill Curry. "The team was ready to come back, which we did, but we didn't sustain."

The defense got a stop on the next series to set up a Panther drive that would take 6:33 off the clock and give freshman kicker Christian Benvenuto a chance to make it a one-score game on a 31-yard field goal try. But Benvenuto, who connected on a 46-yard field goal in the first quarter, missed wide left with 8:10 to play and the Panthers would not threaten again.

Georgia State (1-4) is in the midst of the program's first four-game losing streak after an opening win against Clark Atlanta University.

"We practice long and hard, and the staff works long and hard, but that isn't good enough," said head coach Bill Curry. "The results have to be displayed on the field."

Murray State (3-3) capitalized by adding two touchdowns after the Benvenuto miss. The Racers, of the FCS Ohio Valley Conference, are the fourth team in a row to put up over 40 points on the Panther defense. Quarterback Casey Brockman finished 35-of-46 passing for 321 yards and four touchdowns.

Cornerback D'Mario Gunn was a bright spot on the Panther defense, intercepting Brockman twice. Gunn becomes the first Panther defender to register two interceptions in a game.

Russell put the Panthers on the board in the first quarter with a 4-yard touchdown. The junior running back has scored six touchdowns in four games this season, reaching the end zone in every game he has played at Georgia State after transferring from Kentucky in the offseason.

The Panthers used three quarterbacks in the game, starting Drew Little, who finished 17-of-38 passing with two interceptions. Bo Schlechter, who also punted six times in the game, entered the game late in the second half at quarterback.

"I don't feel like we've played four quarters of football all year," Little said. "We go out there and play strong one quarter, but not the next. We just haven't put it all together for four quarters yet. We've got to get back to the little things."

Hill, who saw his first game action of the year last week against Houston, found Williams for the wide-open touchdown pass on his first snap of the game. Williams set a school record for receiving yardage in the game with 151 on nine catches, breaking the record set last year by tight end Arthur Williams. Williams has a reception in each of Georgia State's 16 games as a program.

The first-quarter drive that culminated in Benvenuto's 46-yard field goal went for a school-record 90 yards, breaking the previous long of 85 yards against North Carolina Central last season.

The Panthers were again without starting wide receiver and return man Albert Wilson, who missed his second straight game with a hamstring injury suffered late in the contest against Jacksonville State.

SC STATE 23, GEORGIA STATE 13

Game 6: Oct. 15, 2011 • 1:30 p.m.
Oliver C. Dawson Stadium • Orangeburg, S.C.

Georgia State fell on the road at South Carolina State, 23-13, despite a school-record 244 yards rushing at Oliver C. Dawson Stadium.

The Panthers dropped their fifth straight to fall to 1-5 on the season, while South Carolina State improved to 4-3.

Georgia State played without starting quarterback Drew Little due to injury, so the Panthers relied on their ground attack while playing Bo Schlechter and Kelton Hill under center.

Hill rushed for 94 yards on 16 carries, missing his own school mark by just one yard. Running back Donald Russell added a season-high 85 yards and a touchdown.

"We've got to learn to finish the job," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "But we took another step forward, and we've got to look at it that way. We were in position to give ourselves a chance to win."

"It seems like every time we get something going, we lose the person who was the spark plug," Curry continued. "Today we had to play without Drew Little, so we relied on our other quarterbacks and tried to go with what they do well. But we're not going to use injuries as an excuse."

Georgia State took a 13-10 lead on Russell's nine-yard touchdown run with six minutes left in the third quarter. That was Russell's team-leading seventh score of the season, and the junior transfer from Kentucky has reached the end zone in every game he has played for GSU.

South Carolina State answered with a 34-yard field goal by Blake Erickson, tying the score at 13-13 with an eight-play, 52-yard drive.

The Panthers were looking to regain the lead on their next possession with a first down at the SCSU 33. But a false start penalty on third-and-one stalled the drive, and freshman Christian Benvenuto, who booted two first half field goals, was forced to try a 46-yarder into a stiff wind. From there, the Bulldogs drove for another field goal to take a 16-13 lead they would not relinquish.

Georgia State continued to move the ball on the ground, gaining a first down at the SCSU 42. But Hill was sacked on third-and-eight and the Panthers were forced to punt.

South Carolina State took over at its own 20 with 6:43 to play and began its game-clinching drive that covered 80 yards and 16 plays and ate up more than five minutes, culminating with quarterback Richard Cue's one-yard touchdown run.

Cue finished 16-for-30 for 213 yards passing, plus 45 yards rushing and two scores for SCSU. Asheton Jordan gained 74 yards on the ground.

GSU's 244 yards rushing included a combined total of 241 yards from the trio of Hill (94 yards), Russell (85) and Travis Evans (62) as the Panthers bettered their previous high of 232 yards on the ground, set last season against Savannah State.

However, with top passer Little sidelined, GSU managed just 76 yards in the air, going 6-for-20 with three interceptions.

The Panthers took a 6-3 lead into the locker room on a pair of field goals by Benvenuto, who connected from 23 and 40 yards.
