FOR OPENERS

- « With a win over Louisiana Tech, quarterback Case Keenum became the winningest quarterback in school history passing former UH and current Arizona Cardinals quarterback Kevin Kolb with 27 wins.
- « Senior linebacker Sammy Brown has picked up where he left off in 2010 adding 3.5 tackles for loss in the season opener and another four in a game vs. Louisiana Tech. Dating back the last 10 games (to Rice in 2010), Brown has recorded 25 tackles for loss, an average of 2.5 TFL per game. He currently leads the NCAA and Conference USA (also led the league in 2010).
- « Punter Richie Leone is averaging 49.7 yards on 12 punts, including seven over 50 yards and ranks second nationally in the category. He has landed two punts inside the 20 yard line and only four have been returned. As a team Houston ranks third the NCAA in net punting with 45.17 yards per game.
- « Leone is the only member of the squad from the state of Georgia. He was a national recruit for Kevin Sumlin in the Class of 2010.
- « After the third week of play, Houston is receiving 25 votes in the Associated Press poll and 60 votes in the USA Today Coaches' Poll, good enough for No. 28 in both polls.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

CASE KEENUM, QB, SR.

Case Keenum is now the winningest quarterback in school history after recording his 27th win this weekend. He surpassed Kevin Kolb with most wins as a UH starting quarterback. Keenum helped lead UH back from a 27-point deficit to beat Louisiana Tech, 35-34 and remain undefeated through three games. He recorded his 28th 300-yard game of his career with his 351 yards passing. He has returned to the elite in college football leading the NCAA in total offense and second in passing.

SAMMY BROWN, LB, SR.

Senior linebacker Sammy Brown recorded four tackles for loss in Houston's 35-34 win over Louisiana Tech, once again making him the nation's leader in tackles for loss per game. He has 2.5 per contest through three games this season and dating back to UH's game vs. Rice has averaged 2.5 per game in the past 10 games.

- « In Houston's 48-23 win over North Texas, the Cougars outscored the Mean Green 28-6 in the second half.
- « Keenum needs four yards to pass Graham Harrell (Texas Tech) on the NCAA career total offense list and 327 passing yards to jump Ty Detmer (BYU) on the NCAA all-time passing yardage list. He would be third on both lists.
- « Through three games, Houston is back as the NCAA's top passing team with 408.0 yards per game. The team also ranks eighth in total offense with 536.0 per contest. Both those numbers are the best in Conference USA.
- « The Cougars have been to six bowl games in the last eight seasons.
- « In the season opener, the Cougars started nine new players, including the entire defensive secondary with junior college transfers Chevy Bennett at FS, D.J. Hayden at CB, Texas A&M transfer Colton Valencia at SS and sophomore Zach McMillian at CB. The defense also had first-time starters at middle linebacker in true-freshman Derrick Mathews and junior college transfer noseguard Dominic Smith. On the offensive side, there were three new faces on the offensive line in right tackle Rowdy Harper, and guards Ty Cloud and Kevin Forsch.

CARDIAC COOGS

In Saturday's 35-34 win over Louisiana Tech, the Cougars had to overcome a 27-point deficit, the largest in school history. It topped the previous record of 19 points (down 28-9, 3:46 left in 3rd quarter) vs. Conference USA-rival UTEP in a 42-37 win on Nov. 22, 2008. It was the biggest come-from-behind road win since a 31-30 win against Rice (down 30-14, 6:20 left in 3rd quarter) on Sept. 2, 2006.

The comeback began with 4:27 in the third quarter when Case Keenum connected with Patrick Edwards for a 50-yard touchdown in a drive which only took 44 seconds off the clock. UH continued with three touchdowns in the fourth quarter, including a back-of-the-endzone grab by Edwards with 1:36 left to go in the game. The defense held Louisiana Tech to 69 yards in the fourth quarter and forced two turnovers as well as a fourth-down stand.

With Saturday's win, Keenum has engineered three of the top four biggest comebacks in Houston history:

- 27 points down at Louisiana Tech in a 35-34 win (Sept. 17, 2011)
- 19 points down vs. UTEP in a 42-37 win (Nov. 22, 2008)
- 17 points down vs. UAB in a 45-20 win (Oct. 9, 2008)

SIXTH TIMES THE CHARM

Senior quarterback Case Keenum learned in January 2011 he had been granted a sixth season of eligibility after suffering a torn ACL vs. UCLA in the third game of the 2010 season. Keenum returns to captain a UH team which has won 27 games with him at the helm in four years as a starter.

KEENUM CHASES NCAA RECORDS

After throwing for 5,020 yards as a sophomore in 2008 and 5,671 in 2009, senior quarterback Case Keenum has the chance to become the first quarterback in FBS history to have three seasons with at least 5,000 yards passing. Through three games in 2011, he has passed for 1,137 yards.

« Keenum threw for 351 yards against Louisiana Tech and ranks fourth on the NCAA Career Passing Yardage 327 yards shy of passing BYU's Ty Detmer's 15,031 yards.

« Keenum totaled 341 yards of total offense against Louisiana Tech and ranks fourth on the NCAA's career total offense chart just four yards shy of passing Texas Tech's Graham Harrell.

KEENUM'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS

After leading the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, quarterback Case Keenum is back at the top with the No. 1 ranking through three games with 382.7 yards per game. He currently ranks second in passing offense with 373.0 yards per contest.

In 2008, he ranked No. 1 with 403.2 yards per game and repeated in the category with 416.4 yards in 2009. He also led the nation in passing in 2009. Keenum is only the seventh quarterback in FBS history to lead the nation in total offense in consecutive seasons, and the last since Hawaii's Colt Brennan accomplished the feat in 2005-06. If Keenum matches that success in 2011, he could join Louisiana Tech's Tim Rattay (1997-99) as the only quarterback to lead the nation in total offense three years in his career.

Keenum is the school record holder in passing yards, total offense, passing touchdowns, attempts and completions. He also holds Houston's single-season records for completions, attempts, passing yards and total offense.

Keenum finished eighth in the 2009 Heisman trophy voting, and led Houston to a No. 1 ranking in the NCAA in passing offense, total offense and scoring offense in 2009. He passed for 5,671 yards in 2009, the third-highest passing total in NCAA Division I-FBS single-season history and joined Texas Tech's Graham Harrell as one of only two players to pass for 5,000 yards in two seasons.

Keenum has had 28 300-yard passing performances in his career, 13 over 400 yards, and has led Houston to 15 career come-from-

START ME UP FOR KEENUM

Quarterback Case Keenum has 27 wins as the starting quarterback for the Cougars, breaking Kevin Kolb record for most wins by a UH quarterback. Keenum is 27-13 as a starter, winning 67 percent of his games. He also has the second-most wins of all active NCAA quarterbacks, behind only Kellen Moore's 40 wins at Boise State.

GOING FOR THE TRI-FECTA

Senior receivers Tyron Carrier and Patrick Edwards have both posted two 1,000-yard receiving seasons. If either, or both, receivers record a third 1,000-yard season they will accomplish something no previous Cougar has.

Edwards, the former walk-on, missed four games of the 2008 season after a devastating leg injury. One year later (2009), he posted 1,021 receiving yards on 85 catches. In 2010 he followed up his performance with 1,100 (71 catches). He has 13 catches for 289 yards in three games, including a career-best performance of 178 yards vs. North Texas. He ranks second Conference USA in receiving yards and ranks 28th nationally.

Carrier recorded his two 1,000-yard seasons in 2008 and 2009 with 1,026 and 1,029, respectively. He got off to a great start in 2011 with a 10-catch performance for 138 yards. He has 22 receptions for 236 yards through three games and ranks fourth in C-USA in receiving yards.

The duo both rank in the UH top-10 all-time receiving yards — Edwards fourth with 3,044 yards and Carrier seventh with 2,771.

RUSH HOUR

UH has been known for its passing offense, however have a stable of running backs to strengthen the ground game. The Cougars return three running backs — seniors Bryce Beall and Michael Hayes and sophomore Charles Sims — with starting experience and a combined career yardage of 4,454. Among the three, Beall (2008) and Sims (2009) were honored as Conference USA Freshmen of the Year in their respective seasons.

In each of the first three games, the three have rushed for over 100 yards with a best of 131 yards in the season opener against UCLA. Both Beall and Hayes have rushed for three touchdowns apiece.

BEALL'S A RINGING

Senior running back Bryce Beall has 2,919 rushing yards in three-plus years at UH, which currently ranks tied for fourth on the school's career rushing yards list. He needs 690 yards in his senior season to become Houston's all-time rusher and surpass record-holder Ketric Sanford's (1996-99) 3,636 yards. Beall ran for 1,247 yards as a freshman, 670 as a sophomore in 2009 and 870 last year. He has rushed for 160 yards this season.

Beall earned first-team All-Conference USA honors in 2010 and broke the UH career record for total and rushing touchdowns after scoring 12 last season. In three-plus seasons, he has rushed for 35 touchdowns and has 42 total for his career. He also has averaged 5.6 yards per rush.

THE OFFENSE UNDER SUMLIN

In three-plus seasons at Houston, Kevin Sumlin has created an offense with gaudy numbers ranked among the nation's best each season. Its tough to match the numbers posted in 2009 when three phases ranked No. 1 nationally. However, through three games, UH has returned to the top of the rankings in passing offense and ranks eighth in total offense.

Year	Passing (Rk)	Total (Rk)	Scoring (Rk)
2011	408.0 (1st)	536.0 (8th)	40.3 (20th)
2010	327.2 (5th)	480.5 (11th)	37.7 (13th)
2009	433.7 (1st)	563.4 (1st)	42.2 (1st)
2008	401.6 (2nd)	562.8 (2nd)	40.6 (10th)

Houston became only the third team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer and three 1,000-yard receivers when it accomplished the feat in 2009. The other two teams are Texas Tech (2002) and Tulsa (2007).

Case Keenum is only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 5,000 yards in two different seasons (2008, 2009). The other was Texas Tech's Graham Harrell in 2007 and 2008.

In 2008, Keenum passed for over 5,000 yards, running back Bryce Beall rushed for over 1,000 and receiver Tyron Carrier caught for over 1,000 yards, marking only the second time in NCAA history.

UH became the fourth team in NCAA history to have three 1,000-yard receivers when Tyron Carrier, James Cleveland and Patrick Edwards each eclipsed the mark —the other teams were Texas Tech 2002, Hawaii in 2007 and Tulsa in 2007.

GOIN' STREAKING

Senior receivers Tyron Carrier and Patrick Edwards have caught a pass in every game of their college careers. Carrier is on a streak of 42 consecutive games with a catch, which is tied for most in the country. Edwards ranks fourth nationally with 37 straight games played with a reception.

42 — Tyron Carrier (Houston, Sr.)

41 — Ryan Broyles (Oklahoma, Sr.)

39 — Kendall Wright (Baylor, Sr.)

37 — Patrick Edwards (Houston, Sr.); Joe Adams (Arkansas, Sr.); B.J. Cunningham (Michigan State, Sr.)

35 — Jeff Fuller (Texas A&M, Sr.)

EDWARDS DEFYING THE ODDS

Houston receiver Patrick Edwards knows the word adversity. He came to UH as a walk-on and earned a scholarship from head coach Kevin Sumlin in 2008. That same year, he suffered a devastating broken leg in a game against Marshall. However in 2010, Edwards led the team with 70 receptions for 1,100 yards.

Edwards topped the 2,000-career receiving yard mark, becoming one of only nine Cougar receivers to hit that milestone. If he puts together another 1,000-yard season, he could become the school's all-time receiving yards record holder.

Last season, he also ranked ninth nationally and second in the conference in punt returns with a 15.4 per return average. Against Memphis, he took one 74 yards for a touchdown, the first of his career.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

« With a win over Louisiana Tech, quarterback Case Keenum became the University of Houston's all-time winningest quarterback passing former UH and current Arizona Cardinals quarterback Kevin Kolb. Keenum has won 27 games in 40 starts.

« Keenum's 458 yards vs. UNT was his 13th 400-yard passing performance of his career. It was his highest total since his 527 yards vs. East Carolina in the 2009 Conference USA Championship game.

« Senior receiver Tyron Carrier posted his first 100-yard performance since the 2009 season with his 10-catches for 138 yards in the season opener against UCLA.

« Houston has gone seven consecutive games with a 100-yard receiver, which ranks as the longest streak in the nation.

« The University of Houston offense has led the nation in total offense seven times, which is the most in the NCAA tied with Arizona State and Tulsa. UH has been the national total offense leader in 2009, 1992, 1990, 1989, 1968, 1967 and 1966.

« The Cougars' offense is led by coordinators Jason Phillips and Kliff Kingsbury. Both coordinators enjoyed illustrious collegiate careers which led to time in the NFL. Phillips was an All-American receiver at the University of Houston, leading the nation in receiving yards in both 1987 and '88. He was drafted by Detroit in 1989 and went on to an eight-year career in the NFL. Kingsbury recorded more than 12,000 yards passing in his All-American career at Texas Tech. He was a sixth-round draft pick by the New England Patriots.

« Senior receiver Patrick Edwards earned Conference USA Offensive Player of the Week honors for his 187-yard performance in Houston's 48-23 win over North Texas. He averaged 23.4 yards per catch and scored on a 46-yard pass from Keenum.

« Keenum was named the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Week for his 310-yard, two touchdown performance vs. UCLA in the season opener when he completed 75 percent of his passes. Keenum connected with nine different receivers for 30 receptions.

MISCELLANEOUS OFFENSIVE NOTES

« Keenum is tied for 4th nationally in passes of 25+ yards (13)

« Keenum is tied for 1st nationally in touchdown passes thrown in the second half (7)

« Keenum leads the nation in passing yards in the 3rd quarter (450)

QUICK DRAW MCGRAW

Linebacker Marcus McGraw has started 42 straight games, every contest of his collegiate career, dating back to his true freshman season in 2008. With 392 total career tackles, McGraw ranks third in the UH record books needing 100 to break the all-time mark held by Ryan McCoy (1990-93). He has gotten his senior season off to a great start with 39 total tackles in the first three games, which ranks third in the NCAA and second in Conference USA.

He has topped the century mark in tackles in three consecutive seasons with 103 as a freshman, 156 as a sophomore and 110 in 2010. McGraw has also led the team in tackles three straight years, joining a group of only three other UH players who have accomplished that feat. He could be the second defender in school history to be the team leader in tackles all four years of college.

As a sophomore he led the conference and ranked fifth in the NCAA in tackles with 11.1 per game. McGraw was named Second Team All-Conference USA in both 2009 and 2010 as one of the league's top defensive players.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

- « The Houston defense has been a strong second half team. They held UNT to six second-half points and allowed only 107 yards of total offense in the final two quarters (46 rushing and 61 passing) in UH's 48-23 win over the Mean Green. Against Louisiana Tech, the defense kept the Bulldogs from scoring in 6-of-8 drives in the final two quarters.
- « Senior linebacker Sammy Brown has picked up where he left off in 2010 adding 3.5 tackles for loss in the season opener and another four in a game vs. Louisiana Tech. Dating back the last 10 games (to Rice in 2010), Brown has recorded 25 tackles for loss, an average of 2.5 TFL per game. He currently leads the NCAA and Conference USA (also led the league in 2010).
- « The UH defense has recorded three interceptions in the first three games. Junior D.J. Hayden recorded his first collegiate interception in the Cougars' win over North Texas, which also marked the first by the UH defense in 2011. Against Louisiana Tech, back-up cornerback Thomas Bates aided the defense with two picks, the first two of his career.

BLOCK PARTY

In three-plus seasons under head coach Kevin Sumlin, the UH football team has blocked 18 kicks, second-most in the country during that time span. The 18 blocks have come from eight different players and include eight field goals, seven extra point attempts and three punts.

In the 2011 season opener vs. UCLA, the Cougars had a crucial blocked kick on a Bruin extra point attempt in the fourth quarter. UCLA had a chance to get the score within three points after a late touchdown, but the UH block kept the margin at four points, which was the final score difference for the win, 38-34. UH followed up that performance with another blocked extra point at North Texas.

MOST BLOCKED KICKS SINCE 2008

CARRIER TAKING IT TO THE HOUSE

Senior kick returner Tyron Carrier has six returns for touchdowns over his four years at Houston, including four during the 2009 season. In 2010, he added another touchdown to his total with a 91-yard return at SMU. He is the only player in school history with multiple kickoff return scores in a single season.

Carrier is now just one touchdown from tying former Clemson running back C.J. Spiller's NCAA record of seven kickoff return touchdowns set from 2006 to 2009. Carrier had the school's most kickoff return yardage in a single season in 2010 with 1,174 yards on 50 returns. He has 6,180 all-purpose yards in four years, and with his 180 yards in the season opener he broke the school career record. Here is a list of Carrier's six returns:

1st — 93 yards vs. Tulsa, 11/15/08

2nd — 92 yards vs. SMU, 10/24/09

3rd — 98 yards at Tulsa, 11/7/09

4th — 99 yards vs. Rice, 11/28/09

5th — 79 yards vs. Air Force, 12/31/09 (Bell Helicopter Armed Forced Bowl)

6th — 91 yds at SMU, 10/23/10

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

- « Placekicker Matt Hogan is perfect this season hitting all three of his field goal attempts, while also going 16-for-16 in extra points.
- « Hogan hit his 29th career field goal in the season opener and is now 29-of-32 in his three years at Houston, connecting on 90.6 percent of his attempts. He has connected on 108 career extra points in 117 attempts. He is just the fourth UH placekicker to surpass 100 made PATs. Hogan leads Conference USA in kick scoring, field goal percentage and PAT percentage.

« Punter Richie Leone has averaged 49.7 yards on 12 punts, including seven over 50 yards. He ranks second in the NCAA rankings. He has lanned two punts inside the 20 yard line and five have been fair caught. Of the 12 punts only four have been returned for an average of just 3.5 yards per return.

POSITION CHANGES

After starting 36 games at offensive guard for Houston the past three years, senior Chris Thompson has moved to center. He has started 40 career games at UH. In the season opener vs. UCLA he scored a touchdown on a fumble recovery. Thompson has been a part of offensive lines that has led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009 and ranked in the top-15 in 2010. With three games played, UH is back as the NCAA's No. 1 passing team and ranks No. 8 in total offense.

Junior Kelvin King played two seasons at linebacker before being moved full-time to defensive end. In two years at linebacker, he totaled 6.5 tackles for a loss of 34 yards and three sacks. This season, he has six tackles, two for loss.

JUCO NATIONAL TITLES

The Cougars have five players on the roster who are no strangers to winning national titles. Junior college transfers DL Dominic Miller, RB Michael Hayes and OL Josh McNeil from Blinn (Brenham, Texas) won a title in 2009. Defensive backs Chevy Bennett and D.J. Hayden transferred from Navarro (Corsicana, Texas) after winning the title in 2010.

TOUGH TO BEAT AT THE ROB

The Cougars have taken advantage of playing at home at Robertson Stadium. Dating back to the 2006 season, UH is 27-5 record (.844) at home. Even more impressive, the Cougars' margin of victory in those 27 wins is a remarkable 23.3 points per game (628 in 27 wins).

AGAINST OTHER CONFERENCES

Kevin Sumlin has a 9-6 (10-7 including bowl games) in his first three-plus years at UH. Outside of Houston's eight conference games on the schedule in 2011, the Cougars battle schools from the Pac-10 (UCLA, W, 38-34), Sun Belt (North Texas, W, 48-23), WAC (Louisiana Tech, W, 35-34) and one independent school (Georgia State).

RECORD CROWDS AT ROBERTSON

In 2010, Houston sold out five of its six home games, and posted its two largest attendances in Robertson Stadium in the first two games of the season vs. Texas State and UTEP. In the 2011 opener vs. UCLA, UH posted the 10th-largest crowd in stadium history and has seven of the school's top-10 crowds posted in the past three seasons. Nine of the top-15 attendance numbers have come during Sumlin's four years as head coach.

Fourth Year • Purdue '88

In just three-plus years, Houston head football coach Kevin Sumlin has led the Cougars to a pair of bowl appearances, a 2009 Conference USA West Division title, a top-15 national ranking and one of the most potent offenses in the NCAA. Sumlin, in his fourth season, is poised to lead the Cougars to the national spotlight in 2011.

A finalist for the 2009 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award, Sumlin has guided Houston to a 26-16 record in his three-plus seasons.

The 2011 season got off to a great start with a 38-34 win over UCLA, marking Sumlin's fourth win over BCS opponents.

The 2010 season was marred with key injuries, including two at the quarterback position. Both fifth-year senior Case Keenum, a preseason Heisman favorite, and back-up Cotton Turner went down in the third game of the season. Despite throwing a true-freshman signal caller into the mix, David Piland helped lead UH to its third-straight top-10 national ranking in passing offense. The total offense (480.5 ypg) and scoring offense (37.6 ppg) also ranked in the national top 15 at No. 11 and 14, respectively. Eight Cougars earned All-Conference USA accolades, with running back Bryce Beall, receiver Patrick Edwards and offensive guard Chris Thompson making first team. Edwards also earned honorable mention All-America honors from SI.com.

In three years under Sumlin, the high-powered Cougar offense has topped 40 points in 22 of 39 games (56.4 percent), reached 50 points on nine occasions and registered at least 70 points in a game two times.

In 2009, Houston finished with a 10-4 overall record while winning the West Division with a 6-2 league mark, and along the way, earned a berth in a fifth-straight bowl game. En route to the 10-4 record, UH knocked off Texas Tech, No. 5/6 Oklahoma State and Mississippi State and were 4-0 in non-conference action. Statistically, the University of Houston led the nation in passing offense (433.71 ypg), total offense (563.36 ypg) and scoring offense (42.21 ppg).

Sumlin guided Keenum to 2009 Conference USA MVP honors, and Keenum not only led the nation in total offense for the second straight season, but he also finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting. In addition, wide receiver James Cleveland was named the C-USA Newcomer of the Year, while running back Charles Sims was named the Freshman of the Year. Sumlin earned his first C-USA Coach of the Year award. Among the individual award winners, 15 Cougars were also named to either the C-USA First or Second Teams.

Houston also became just the third team to post a 5,000-yard passer (Keenum) and three 1,000-yard receivers (Cleveland, Tyron Carrier and Patrick Edwards) in one season, and the 1,000-yard receiving trio marked just the fourth time the feat had been accomplished in NCAA history.

Taking over the reins of the program in December 2007, Sumlin guided the Cougars to their fourth-straight bowl appearance in 2008 and became the first UH coach in 28 years to lead his team to a bowl victory, as Houston topped Air Force 34-28 in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

However, a bowl victory was not the only highlight of Sumlin's first season as head coach. In week five of the season, the Cougars knocked off No. 23 East Carolina, 41-24, posting Houston's first road win over a ranked opponent in 24 years. Coupled with the team's 70-30 victory over No. 24 Tulsa in November, it marked the first time since 1984 that Houston defeated two ranked teams in the same season.

Additionally, Sumlin guided the Cougars to a perfect 5-0 mark at home and a 6-2 finish in C-USA action. He was one of only 10 first-year Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to guide his team to a bowl game and one of only six to win the bowl contest. And with their eight victories, Sumlin recorded the most wins by a first-year head coach in UH history.

Statistically, it was an outstanding inaugural season for Sumlin as well, as the Cougars established 22 season and career records in 2008. The Houston offense ranked No. 2 nationally in both total offense (562.8 ypg) and passing yards (401.6 ypg), No. 4 in first downs (355), and No. 10 in both scoring (40.6 ppg) and 3rd down percentage (51.0).

Keenum finished the year as the nation's leader in total offense (403.2 ypg) and No. 2 in passing yards per game (386.2 ypg), while senior defensive end Phillip Hunt finished No. 2 nationally in sacks per game (1.08 spg).

Under Sumlin's guidance, Keenum was named the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year, Hunt was named the Defensive Player of the Year and freshman running back Bryce Beall was named the C-USA Freshman of the Year. Overall, the Cougars garnered more than 60 individual honors following the 2008 season.

Sumlin came to Houston after seven seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator in the Big 12. When introduced to lead the Cougars in December of 2007, Sumlin became the 12th head coach in UH history and the first African-American to lead the prestigious Cougar program.

With a reputation for engineering high-powered offenses and considered one of the country's top recruiters, Sumlin brought with him a wealth of collegiate coaching experience and a penchant for innovative ideas and styles.

Sumlin spent the previous five seasons at the University of Oklahoma, where he served as both the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2006-07) and special teams coordinator/tight ends coach (2003-05).

In 2007, the OU receivers recorded 19 touchdowns while Malcolm Kelly and Juakin Iglesias provided one of the best 1-2 receiving punches in the nation, ranking fifth and sixth in the OU record book for receiving yards in a season.

Offensively, the Sooners finished fifth in the nation in scoring offense at 42.3 points per game, while ranking 19th nationally in total offense averaging 448.9 yards per game.

The 2006 season saw OU's receivers catch 17 touchdown passes while Kelly reached 1,000 career-receiving yards faster than any player in school history. The Sooner offense ranked 19th nationally in scoring offense at 30.3 points per game. Prior to becoming co-offensive coordinator, Sumlin served as the Sooners' special teams coordinator.

In 2005, the Sooners ranked fourth nationally in kickoff return defense, a year after finishing sixth in that category. Sophomore punter Cody Freeby ranked 27th nationally with a 42.3 yard average, while OU ranked 10th in the country in net punting, averaging 37.8 yards per kick.

Before his arrival in Norman, Sumlin spent two seasons at Texas A&M, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Three games into the 2002 campaign, Sumlin was thrust into the offensive coordinator role, and the Aggies averaged 33.0 points per game after posting just 16.0 ppg before he took control. Working in his new position, the Aggies knocked off No. 1 Oklahoma, while the offense averaged 419 yards per game after netting an average of 286 yards in the season's first three contests.

Sumlin also has made stops at his alma mater, Purdue (1998-2001), Minnesota (1993-97) and Wyoming (1991-92).

Purdue's 1998 receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 touchdowns. The Boilermakers' Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

Sumlin began his career as a graduate assistant at Washington State for Mike Price (1989-90). He also has been an assistant coach under Bob Stoops (Oklahoma), R.C. Slocum (Texas A&M), Joe Tiller (Purdue and Wyoming), Jim Wacker (Minnesota) and Glen Mason (Minnesota).

Sumlin has coached in 11 bowl games, including all four BCS games. Five came during his time at Oklahoma (2008 Fiesta, 2007 Fiesta, 2005 Holiday, 2005 Orange, 2004 Sugar), one at Texas A&M (2002 GalleryFurniture.com) and three with Purdue (2002 Rose, 2000 Outback, 1998 Alamo). He also is the only coach in Houston history to lead his team to back-to-back bowl appearances during his first two seasons.

A four-year letterman as a linebacker at Purdue (1983-86), Sumlin still ranks among the top 10 in career tackles for the Boilermakers. He was named to Sports Illustrated's All-America walk-on list as a freshman after leading Purdue with 91 tackles.

He was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten in 1984 and helped the team reach the Peach Bowl. Sumlin also earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior, ranking No. 5 in the league with 114 tackles.

The Indianapolis native graduated from Purdue in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in both criminology and criminal justice. Sumlin and his wife Charlene have four children: daughters Courtney and Shelby, and sons Jackson and Joey.
