THE KICKOFF

Georgia State (1-9) closes the 2012 season with a trip to Maine for a 2 p.m. game Saturday at Alford Stadium in Orono, Maine.

The Panthers are coming off a 53-27 loss to fifth-ranked Old Dominion, while Maine (3-6, 2-4 CAA) fell 31-7 to No. 10 James Madison.

Saturday's game is the final game in the career of Georgia State head coach Bill Curry, who announced during preseason camp that the 2012 season will be his last on the sideline.

Curry was named GSU's first head coach on June 12, 2008 and has guided the program through its infancy. The former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky is in his 20th season as a collegiate head coach. He will remain at Georgia State as a special assistant to Director of Athletics Cheryl L. Levick and President Mark Becker.

ALBERT'S AMAZING DAY

Wide receiver Albert Wilson enjoyed an amazing day against Old Dominion with two of the longest plays in Georgia State history on back-to-back touches.

First he fielded a kickoff about four yards deep in the end zone and returned it for a 100-yard touchdown, the longest in school history and the second kickoff return for a touchdown in his career. Wilson had a 97-yard touchdown return at Alabama in 2010.

On the first play of Georgia State's next possession after the Panthers took over on their own seven-yard line, Wilson hauled in a 93-yard touchdown pass from Ben McLane.

Wilson had with six catches for 149 yards and three kickoff returns for 156 yards. He totalled a school-record 296 all-purpose yards.

Wilson was named CAA Special Teams Player of the Week and CFP National Kickoff Returner of the Week.

is enjoying the most productive stretch of his career with 21 catches for 259 yards and three touchdowns over the last five games. He is the Panthers' second-leading receiver on the season with 25 catches for 282 yards and three touchdowns.

Ogbuehi recorded his first 100-yard game against Old Dominion with three catches for 108 yards, highlighted by a 55-yard reception that equals his career long. He was named CFP National Tight End Performer of the Week.

Against James Madison, Ogbuehi had a career-best six receptions and fueled a GSU comeback with a remarkable fourth quarter. He started a scoring drive with a 17-yard run and then capped it with a five-yard touchdown reception. Then, with GSU trailing 28-14, he raced 54 yards on a fake punt down to the 10-yard line, setting up a touchdown that pulled the Panthers within 28-21.

Ogbuehi began this stretch against New Hampshire when he caught four passes for 76 yards, highlighted by a 26-yard touchdown pass from Ben McLane.

The 6-3, 235-pounder added four catches for 40 yards in the win over Rhode Island, and then four more receptions for 18 yards with a three-yard touchdown against Villanova.

Ogbuehi is the third-leading receiver in GSU history with 47 career catches for 581 yards and four touchdowns, including the first touchdown reception in the Panthers' inaugural game in 2010.

EVANS, WATSON STEP INTO BACKFIELD

With top rusher Donald Russell out for the season, veteran running backs Travis Evans and Rosevelt Watson have stepped up for the Panthers.

In two starts since Russell went down, Evans has rushed for 185 yards. He gained a career-high 98 yards on 18 carries against JMU, along with three receptions for 23 yards, and then added 87 yards on 14 carries against Old Dominion. The third-leading rusher in GSU history, he reached the 1,000-yard mark for career rushing against ODU and now has 1,018 yards.

Watson, a senior, scored the first touchdown of his career on a two-yard run against JMU. He also threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Emmanuel Ogbuehi after taking a direct snap in a wildcat formation. That is the second career touchdown pass for Watson, who also threw a 39-yard TD pass in 2010. Watson added another rushing touchdown against Old Dominion.

SKELTON, GUNN INTERCEPT RECORDS

Demazio Skelton grabbed two interceptions against Old Dominion. The senior safety now has the GSU records for interceptions in a season with three and career with five.

Fellow safety D'Mario Gunn also made history with his an interception against ODU, returning it a school-record 73 yards. Gunn ranks second in Panther annals with four career interceptions.

ALL-PURPOSE ALBERT

Wide receiver and return specialist Albert Wilson leads the CAA in all-purpose yards, averaging 164.5 yards per game, a figure that would rank among the top 15 in FCS.

Wilson has recorded the top two all-purpose games in GSU history in the last three weeks. He set a Georgia State record with a 290-yard game against Villanova and then topped it with 296 yards against Old Dominion.

The junior from Port St. Lucie, Fla., is the Panthers' leading receiver with 45 catches for 872 yards and seven touchdowns. He also averages 10.0 yards on punt returns and 26.3 yards on kickoff returns.

For his career, Wilson has a GSU-record 3,787 all-purpose yards (130.6 per game) and 17 touchdowns.

INJURIES TAKE THEIR TOLL

Standout running back Donald Russell, who was leading the CAA in rushing, sustained a knee injury (sprained MCL) early in the game against Villanova and will miss the remainder of the season. Russell rushed for 747 yards (81 percent of GSU's rushing total at the time) and three touchdowns while catching 16 passes for 163 yards and one score. He is the leading rusher in GSU history with 1,412 yards.

With the loss of Russell, the GSU offense is without two of its top four skill players. Starting wide receiver Jordan Giles, the Panthers' third-leading receiver the last two years behind Albert Wilson and Danny Williams, has been out since game two with a shoulder injury. Williams has been hampered much of the season by an ankle injury.

The Panthers have also sustained key injuries on defense, particularly on the defensive line, including a season-ending injury to starting defensive tackle David Huey after just two games. Starting defensive end C.J. Stephens and top backups Melvin King (DE) and Joe Lockley (DT) have missed significant time, and starting noseguard and leading tackler Terrance Woodard has played through an ankle injury. Redshirt freshman McClain Head, expected to be a key contributor at defensive end, has not played at all due to a concussion.

The Panthers have been so decimated on the defensive line that sophomore tight end Drew Pearson played both ways against James Madison, lining up at defensive end in addition to his reps on offense.

HUBBARD AMONG THE BEST IN FCS

Georgia State punter Matt Hubbard averages 43.3 yards per kick, with 19 of his 51 punts travelling 50 yards or more, including his amazing 80-yard boot against South Carolina State.

Because of GSU's reclassification to the Football Bowl Subdivision, Hubbard and the Panthers do not qualify for NCAA rankings in FBS or FCS.

In two seasons, Hubbard's career average is 43.2 yards per punt.

WILSON STRETCHES THE FIELD

McLane against Old Dominion for the longest play from scrimmage in Georgia State history.

Earlier this season, Wilson caught an 84-yard touchdown pass from McLane on the Panthers' third snap against UTSA, then GSU's longest play from scrimmage. He added a 55-yard touchdown catch against Villanova and scoring passes of 54 and 47 yards against New Hampshire.

Wilson, from Port St. Lucie, Fla., has a hand in the four longest plays from scrimmage in GSU history with touchdown catches covering 78 and 64 yards last season against South Alabama. Add his 100-yard kickoff return against Old Dominion in 2012 and 97-yard kickoff return against Alabama in 2010, and he has been involved in six of the eight longest plays in Panther annals (Darren McCray had a 96-yard kickoff return vs. Campbell in 2010 and Demazio Skelton had a 93-yard fumble return vs. Old Dominion in 2011).

Wilson's 15 career touchdown receptions have covered an average of 49.2 yards. He averages 19.4 yards for his 101 career receptions.

He also had non-scoring receptions of 51 yards vs. Campbell in 2010, 55 and 54 yards vs. Jacksonville State in 2011 and 50 yards vs. St. Francis in 2011, giving him 11 receptions of 50 yards or longer in his career, seven of them for touchdowns.

RECORD-SETTING DAY FOR RUSSELL

Running back Donald Russell enjoyed a record-setting day in the Panthers' 41-7 victory at Rhode Island and was named Colonial Athletic Association Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 15.

The senior from West Palm Beach, Fla., rushed for a school-record 201 yards on 21 carries. He scored on touchdown runs of 45 yards (his longest scoring run in a GSU uniform) and six yards and added a 35-yard touchdown reception. In addition to his rushing record, he becomes the first Panther to score three touchdowns in a game, and his total of 236 all-purpose yards is also a record.

MORE ON THE DONALD

Senior running back Donald Russell was leading the CAA in rushing when he went down with a season-ending injury after just five carries against Villanova. He finishes the season with 747 yards (93.4 per game), an average of 6.2 yards per carry.

Russell topped 100 yards in four games this season, including his school-record, 201-yard outing against Rhode Island. He had 107 yards rushing and four catches against William and Mary. That followed 119 yards rushing and five receptions for 51 yards vs. Richmond for a career-high 170 all-purpose yards.

Russell opened his senior season by rushing for 120 yards on just 12 carries against South Carolina State. Against SCSU, Russell raced 52 yards on his first carry of the season, and he matched that with a 52-yard run against Richmond. Those are his longest runs for the Panthers but not the longest of his career; he had a 79-yard scamper as a freshman at Kentucky in 2009.

Russell is the Panthers' career rushing leader with 1,412 yards and 12 touchdowns. Last season, the transfer from Kentucky became the first 100-yard rusher in school history when he gained 136 yards against South Alabama. He added 146 yards in the 2011 finale against Campbell.

LUTZ TAKES OVER KICKING DUTIES

Wil Lutz is the latest true freshman to take on a prominent role for the Panthers. The Newnan, Ga., native entered the season as GSU's kickoff specialist, and since game five versus William and Mary, he has also been handling field goals and extra points.

Lutz has hit four of six field goals, including a season-long 40-yarder against Rhode Island, and 17 PAT. His only misses were a 54-yard field goal attempt at James Madison that actually hit the crossbar and a 48-yard attempt vs. Old Dominion.

WHAT IS THIS STUFF?

In their brief history, Georgia State has played just four games on natural grass, most recently at Rhode Island on Oct. 13, 2012.

The Panthers first three games on natural grass were GSU's first three FBS games: at Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium in 2010, at Houston's Robertson Stadium in 2011 and at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium earlier this season. The game at Tennessee was also the first time the Panthers played a game in the rain.

FELDER HONORED IN THE CLASSROOM

Senior outside linebacker Akeen Felder is one of 147 student-athletes who have been named as candidates for the 2012 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards, and semifinalists for the 2012 William V. Campbell Trophy, which recognizes the top football scholar-athlete in the nation.

A native of Perry, Ga., Felder earned his degree in sociology in 2012 and is now working a minor in hospitality management. He has been named to the Dean's List and Athletic Director's Honor Roll and serves on the GSU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. On the field, Felder has played in every game in GSU history and served as the Panthers' special teams captain in 2011.

HONORS & RECORDS FOR PUNTER HUBBARD

Georgia State punter Matt Hubbard had a record-breaking night in the Panthers' season opener against South Carolina State. Hubbard averaged an eye-catching 62.2 yards on five punts, easily the best single-game average in GSU history, highlighted by a school-record punt of 80 yards.

Hubbard's average is better than both the NCAA FBS and FCS single-game records for punting average in a game with a minimum of five punts. However, because Georgia State is in the process of reclassifying from FCS to FBS, marks achieved by GSU players during the 2012 and 2013 seasons do not count as NCAA records.

The current FCS record for punting average in a game, with a minimum of five punts, is 61.5 yards, set by Eddie Johnson of Idaho State versus Cal Poly in 2002. The FBS record of 60.4 is shared by two players, Lee Johnson, BYU vs. Wyoming, 1983, and Quinn Sharp of Oklahoma State vs. Nebraska, 2010.

The sophomore from Peachtree City, Ga., was named CAA Football Special Teams Player of the Week -- the first such honoree in GSU history -- and FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week by the Sports Network. He was also recognized as FCS National Punter of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards.

In addition to the 80-yarder, he also had boots of 58, 59, 55 and 59 yards.

HEY JOE

Georgia State's second-leading tackler is true freshman linebacker Joseph Peterson with 57 hits, plus three tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.

Peterson, from Dothan, Ala., has started six games at middle linebacker. In his debut against South Carolina State, he was the Panthers' second-leading tackler with eight hits, including a tackle for loss. After that performance, he served as a game captain for the Panthers' game at Tennessee and made nine tackles against the Vols. He added 10 tackles against UTSA and nine vs. Old Dominion.

BILL CURRY RADIO SHOW

The weekly radio show featuring the Georgia State head coach airs Mondays during football season from 4-5 p.m. ET on Newstalk 1160 (WCFO-AM). It is also streamed live at Newstalk1160.com.

INSIDE GEORGIA STATE FOOTBALL WITH HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

The weekly television show featuring Georgia State football airs in Atlanta and around the Southeast on Thursdays at 4 p.m. ET on CSS-TV.

As a senior at Dothan High, Peterson was a first-team all-state in Class 6A by the Alabama Sportswriters Association. He made 112 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and four sacks. On offense, he ran for 669 yards and 12 touchdowns.

SIX TRUE FRESHMEN SEE ACTION

Six true freshmen have seen action for the Panthers this season, including four on defense, one receiver/return specialist and one kicker.

Two true freshmen have started on defense in Joseph Peterson, one of the Panthers' leading tacklers, and outside linebacker Bryan Williams, the younger brother of former GSU tight end Arthur "Bully" Williams who saw his first action against Richmond and then made his first start at William and Mary.

Two other freshmen are playing on the defensive line in tackle Joe Lockley of Portal, Ga., and defensive end Melvin King of Hinesville, Ga. Lockley, an honorable mention all-state selection at tiny Portal High, is perhaps the strongest player on the team, and against Tennessee, he came up with an interception on a tipped ball.

Avery Sweeting of Brunswick, Ga., is beginning to earn playing time as a wide receiver and kickoff returner.

Freshman kicker Wil Lutz, a walk-on from Newnan, Ga., began the season as the Panthers' kickoff specialist and now also handling placements.

32 AND COUNTING

Junior right tackle Grant King, who entered the season as the only returning starter on Georgia State's offensive line, is also the only current player who has started all 32 games in the Panthers' brief history. The Columbia, S.C., native was a member of GSU's first recruiting class in 2009.

Just two other Panthers have played in all 32 games: linebackers Akeem Felder and Robert Ferguson.

GSU VS. FBS

Georgia State has played one FBS program in each of its first three seasons, including two from the powerful Southeastern Conference.

Most recently, the Panthers fell to Tennessee, 51-13, at historic Neyland Stadium, on Sept. 8, 2012.

In the inaugural season of 2010, Georgia State played at defending national champion and 10th-ranked Alabama (l. 63-7), and last year the Panthers faced Houston and its record-setting quarterback, Case Keenum (l. 56-0).

YEAR ONE OF FBS TRANSITION

Season three of Georgia State football marks another significant milestone for the program as the Panthers begin their two-year transition to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and the Sun Belt Conference while playing their first and only season of CAA Football.

The Panthers will play a full CAA schedule this fall but are not eligible for the CAA championship or the FCS playoffs. In 2013, Georgia State will play a full Sun Belt schedule but will not be eligible for the conference title or for postseason bowl games until 2014.

DANNY BOY

Junior Danny Williams caught at least one pass in the first 23 games in Georgia State history. He missed the Tennessee game due to injury, and then he had his consecutive games streak broken when he played sparingly against UTSA while still recovering and did not manage a catch. He rebounded with four receptions against Richmond.

After two-plus seasons, Williams has a GSU-record 102 career receptions for 1,339 yards (second in GSU annals) and eight touchdowns.

Williams led GSU in receptions (54), receiving yards (649) and touchdown catches (5) during the inaugural season of 2010. Last season, he had 30 catches for 485 yards and two scores.

He also owns the Panthers' single-game record for receptions (11 vs. Old Dominion in 2010) and has four 100-yard games.

BILUKIDI IS GSU'S FIRST NFL PLAYER

Former Georgia State defensive lineman Christo Bilukidi continues to make GSU history as he launches his career in the National Football League.

Last spring, he became the first Panther to be drafted by the NFL when he was selected in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

After earning a roster spot with the Raiders, he saw action as a backup defensive tackle in the Raiders' season-opening loss to the San Diego Chargers on Monday Night Football.

Bilukidi is the first former Georgia State athlete in more than 20 years and just the second ever to play in a regular-season game in one of the four major sports leagues. The only other Panther to do so was basketball player Lanard Copeland, who spent time with the NBA's Philadelphia 76'ers and Los Angeles Clippers, last playing in a regular-season game for the Clippers on Nov. 30, 1991 with a four-minute stint against the Charlotte Hornets.

Bilukidi's teammate last year, linebacker Jake Muasau, signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants but was waived during final cuts.

A third senior from last year's squad, safety Brandon Jones, was actually the first GSU football alumnus to play in a professional game when he appeared in the Arena Football League, playing for the Tampa Bay Storm.

Georgia State actually had an alumnus in professional football long before the school had a football team. Former GSU soccer player Keith Gispert, a standout for the Panthers from 1996-98, was a kicker in the Arena League for the Chicago Rush and Georgia Force from 2003-07.

HOGAN PULLS DOUBLE DUTY

Junior inside linebacker Mark Hogan was the first scholarship football player in Georgia State history when he enrolled in January 2009. In 2001, he achieved another first as the football program's first two-sport athlete. Hogan played for the GSU baseball team last spring as a left-handed hitting outfielder. He saw action in 42 games and had the team's top batting average (.319) and on-base percentage (.448) with two home runs and 13 RBI.

Hogan also found time in the spring to earn his bachelor's degree in finance and is now pursuing a second degree.

SIX GRADUATES

This year's Georgia State team features six student-athletes who have already earned a degree from GSU.

Two of the graduates are actually juniors in terms of eligibility. Offensive lineman Michael Davis graduated last spring in real estate and has begun work on his MBA. Linebacker Mark Hogan graduated in finance and is now completing a second major in managerial sciences.

Senior linebacker Akeen Felder is working on a minor in hospitality management after graduating in sociology. Running back Roosevelt Watson also graduated in sociology and is now completing a second major in math education, and running back Malcolm Smith graduated in film and video and is completing a second major in computer information systems. Senior offensive lineman Kam Cheatham graduated in business economics and is pursuing a second degree in hospitality management.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just nine Division I programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. The others are Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane, USF, Tennessee State and UMass.

FREE FOOTBALL

In Georgia State's first two seasons of football, five of the Panthers 22 games were decided in overtime. In the inaugural season of 2010, the Panthers split a pair of overtime games. Last season, Georgia State played three straight overtime games, including a double-overtime victory of South Alabama. All but one were played at the Georgia Dome.

FATHERS & SONS

Two members of the Georgia State team are the sons of head coach Bill Curry's former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself.

The father of redshirt freshman safety Nick Henderson, Steve Henderson, played for Curry at Georgia Tech in the early 1980s.

In addition, redshirt freshman defensive lineman McClain Head is the nephew of Tony Head, a running back at Tech when Curry was an assistant coach in 1976.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

SC STATE 33, GEORGIA STATE 6

Game 1: Aug. 30, 2012 • 7:30 p.m. (CSS)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Richard Cue was just too much for Georgia State in Thursday's 2012 season opener. The South Carolina State quarterback threw for 300 yards and three touchdowns as the Bulldogs defeated the Panthers, 33-6 in front of 18,921 at the Georgia Dome.

Georgia State scored on its first possession of the second half, getting a 25-yard field goal from Matt Ehasz to get to within 14-6. But the hosts never got closer.

On the ensuing drive, Cue, who a year ago threw for just 900 yards in nine games, completed all three of his pass attempts, including a 13-yard touchdown toss to Tyler McDonald that put the Bulldogs up 21-6.

In between two Georgia State drives-one that ended on a punt and the other when Ehasz's 36-yard field goal attempt was wide right-Nick Belcher kicked a pair of field goals from 20 and 27 yards, the last of which capped a 17-play drive and made it 27-6 with just under six minutes to play.

"Obviously a huge disappointment," said Georgia State coach Bill Curry. "We have a good football team and we'll continue to work very hard. We will not concede anything. (South Carolina State) played well, did a lot of things well, better than we did. We'll learn from it, go back to work and we'll be a good football team this year. We'll go back to work tomorrow morning and keep working until we perform the way we can."

A late touchdown pass helped South Carolina State build a 14-3 halftime lead. With 40 seconds left in the second quarter, Cue led the visiting Bulldogs on a two-play drive, culminating in a 22-yard touchdown toss to McDonald. The junior wide receiver made a great catch, then tight-roped the sideline and reached the end zone.

Georgia State, kicking off its third season and final one under coach Bill Curry, had cut the deficit to 7-3 on a 36-yard field goal by Matt Ehasz. But the Panthers couldn't capitalize after Cue was intercepted for the second time in the half, this time by Brent McClendon with 5:40 to play in the second. Ehasz's 24-yard attempt hit the right upright to keep it a four-point game.

"We had plenty of chances. We had a good chance coming out during the second half," said Curry. "When we get in the red zone, we have to score. And we just didn't do that."

South Carolina State struck first. On a third-and-seven deep in their own territory, the Bulldogs got a 73-yard touchdown connection from Cue to Lennel Elmore to make it 7-0 just 54 seconds into the game.

Georgia State had a pair of record-breaking plays in the opening half. Senior running back Donald Russell (120 yards on 12 carries) tied teammate Kelton Hill for the fourth-longest run from scrimmage in the Panthers' three-year history with a 52-yard scamper midway through the first quarter. That gave the Panthers the ball at the South Carolina State 32-yard line, but the drive stalled after three short runs and an incompletion on fourth-and-two.

Punter Matt Hubbard bested his own school record with an 80-yard punt that pinned South Carolina State to its two-yard line. Hubbard's previous best was a 64-yarder against Texas-San Antonio in October, 2011.

That set up the Panthers' defense, which came up with a big stop on third-and-two to force a punt.

Redshirt-freshman Ben McLane, making his first collegiate start at quarterback, came through with his first big play, hooking up with Danny Williams for a 20-yard completion. It allowed Ehasz to boot his field goal with 6:33 left until halftime.

McLane struggled in his debut but was under heavy pressure the entire night. He completed just 7 of 15 passes for 54 yards and was sacked five times.

"We'd told him that this would be faster than anything he'd seen. But he will adjust in time," Curry said of McLane. "I'm not sure he really got a fair chance to show what he can do"

Hill relieved McLane on a number of possessions, and the redshirt-junior was 7 of 13 for 76 yards.

Late in the game, Georgia State was driving when Parris Lee fumbled, Dominique Mitchell recovered and returned it 68 yards for a touchdown and a 33-6 cushion.

TENNESSEE 51, GEORGIA STATE 13

Game 2: Sept. 8, 2012 • 4 p.m. (PPV/ESPN3)
Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

Playing just its third game ever against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent, Georgia State (0-2) fell, 51-13, at Tennessee (2-0) at Neyland Stadium.

"We fought and scratched every step of the way," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "Are we playing the error-free football we need to, no. But we're playing with a lot of effort and we'll learn from this experience."

"We showed much more grit and determination this game than last week, and we'll show more next week and the next week," he added.

Tennessee's Tyler Bray completed 18 of 20 passes for 310 yards and four touchdowns, three of them to Justin Hunter, who finished with eight catches for 146 yards.

"Tennessee's execution in the passing game was superb," said Curry. "We were taught some painful lessons by a great receiving corps and a potentially great quarterback. He was really delivering the ball in rhythm."

Despite the final score, the Panthers had bright spots in all phases.

Quarterback Ben McLane, the redshirt freshman playing just his second college game before 87,821 fans, was 18-for-41 for 146 yards. He converted three fourth downs with runs, and he scored the Panthers' only touchdown on a 12-yard scramble.

"He did a lot of great things today, and he also did some truly freshman things," Curry said of McLane, who at times had trouble handling the shotgun snaps.

Albert Wilson caught eight passes for 74 yards, and Donald Russell added 68 yards on the ground on 15 carries.

On defense, the GSU defensive line came up with a pair of turnovers as Terrance Woodard recovered a fumble and Joe Lockley grabbed an interception on a tipped ball.

Punter Matt Hubbard was impressive again, averaging 44.8 yards on eight punts, and placekicker Christian Benvenuto booted field goals of 32 and 30 yards.

Georgia State trailed just 7-3 after one quarter. After Tennessee took the opening kickoff and drove 78 yards on 13 plays, the Panthers answered with a long drive of their own, moving 60 yards on 14 plays for a field goal.

Facing third-and-25 on their own 25-yard line following a clipping penalty, McLane found Wilson for 24 yards to the 49. GSU then converted the fourth-and-one as McLane rambled seven yards up the middle on a quarterback keeper.

After Russell ran 26 yards before he was tripped up a the three, the Panthers had to settle for a 32-yard field goal by Christian Benvenuto.

Tennessee began its next possession in great field position at the GSU 39 after a 61-yard kickoff return by Cordarelle Patterson, but after one first down, the Panther defense held on three straight plays and forced a 38-yard field goal attempt, which Michael Palardy missed.

The GSU defense forced a three-and-out on the Vols' next possession, but a 35-yard punt return but UT in business again at the GSU 40, and this time, Bray needed just two plays, hitting Hunter for 21 yards and then tight end Mychal Rivera for the 19-yard touchdown and a 14-3 lead with 11 minutes left in the half.

But the Panthers cut the deficit to 14-6 late in the second quarter as Benvenuto booted his second field goal from 30 yards with 5:31 left in the half. The drive started after Woodard recovered a fumble at the UT 41.

McLane's fourth-quarter touchdown was a 12-yard run on fourth-and-seven to cap a 12-play, 80-yard drive.

The Panthers played much of the game without two of their top three receivers. Danny Williams did not play due to the lingering effects of an ankle injury he sustained last game. Jordan Giles left the game with a shoulder injury after catching two passes for 34 yards in the first quarter.

UTSA 38, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 3: Sept. 15, 2012 • 6 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to UTSA, 38-14, Saturday night at the Georgia Dome. Albert Wilson had three 100-yard receiving games a year ago. Saturday, the Georgia State wide receiver got his first in 2012. Wilson caught six passes for 150 yards and two touchdowns for the Panthers.

Georgia State remained winless at 0-3, while UTSA improved to 3-0.

Wilson, a junior, helped the Panthers take their only lead of the game early in the opening quarter. Ben McLane hooked up with Wilson for an 84-yard touchdown on State's third play from scrimmage. The play accounted for the longest play from scrimmage in school history, surpassing Wilson's 78-yard touchdown catch from Kelton Hill against South Alabama last October.

UTSA answered with consecutive scoring drives to take a 10-point lead late in the opening quarter. Four plays after an 84-yard kickoff return by Kenny Harrison, UTSA got a five-yard touchdown run from Evans Okotcha to go up 10-7. Roadrunners quarterback Eric Soza then completed four of five pass attempts, including a five-yard touchdown toss to Aaron Grubb in the corner of the end zone to make it a 17-7 game.

Soza was 17-of-24 for 206 yards, and 10 different receivers caught passes.

"Great throws gave the guys some opportunities, but the receivers took advantage of those opportunities," said UTSA coach Larry Coker. "Your quarterbacks make your receivers look good and your receivers make your quarterbacks look good."

After a 13-play Panthers' drive ended with a blocked field goal attempt, UTSA got four plays of at least 14 yards during a 10-play drive and Okotcha dove in from a yard out to push the lead out to 24-7 with 5:31 left until halftime.

"You got to give a lot of credit to Texas San Antonio, they made a lot of plays," said Georgia State coach Bill Curry. "But our players fight hard, we fight hard to the final whistle."

The Panthers, playing their second home game of the season, were shorthanded in several areas as starters sat out with injuries. Defensive tackle David Huey, cornerback Demarius Matthews and wide receiver Jordan Giles all missed the game due to injury, and starting wide receiver Danny Williams was limited by an ankle injury.

The injury problems continued during the game. McLane, making his third collegiate start, left in the second quarter with an injury to his left wrist. McLane returned to guide the Panthers on their final possession of the half, then had an ice pack on his arm and sat out the entire second half.

"Well he...his left hand is numb. He's a tough guy so he didn't tell us that," Curry said. "He got hit on the forearm, that was why we took him out the first time."

After GSU turned the ball over on each of its first two possessions, backup quarterback Ronnie Bell provided a spark for the Panthers late in the third quarter. Bell had an 11-yard scramble on third-and-seven, then connected with Wilson for a nine-yard completion on fourth-and-six. Bell found Wilson again, this time wide open streaking toward the end zone, for a 25-yard touchdown that cut the deficit to 38-14.

"We had to go with Ronnie [due to McLane's injury], and he did some great things," said Curry.

"I was ready to come off the bench and into the game and go out there to the best I can be," Bell said. "I think I showed we have a good backup quarterback, as well as a good starting quarterback, and that I can lead the team if the situation needed me to"

Georgia State's defense came up big on a pair of fourth quarter possessions. UTSA drove from its own 18 to the Panthers' two-yard line, but couldn't get any further. The 19-play drive was stymied when Soza was tackled for a loss on fourth-and-goal. On UTSA's next drive, CheRod Simpson was stopped on a fourth down run from the eight-yard line.

"Both (the offense and defense) fought hard the whole game," Curry said. "As I've said repeatedly, we have a gummy bunch, but we're not doing what we have to do. We fight, scratch, bite and it's not enough. But we will continue. The players are responding, the players are giving effort."

UTSA looked poised to put the ball in the end zone on the game's opening possession. Aided by a 47-yard run by David Glasco II in which the tailback broke an initial tackle, the Roadrunners got to the State five-yard line. But linebacker Jarrell Robinson made a great tackle in the backfield on third-and-two and UTSA settled for Sean Ianno's 26-yard field goal.

RICHMOND 35, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 4: Sept. 22, 2012 • 3:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Colonial Athletic Association foe Richmond, 35-14, at the Georgia Dome. Donald Russell rushed for 119 yards for the Panthers.

The Panthers fell to 0-4 overall playing in their first and last Colonial Athletic Association opener (the program moves to the Sun Belt Conference in 2013). Richmond improved to 3-1, 1-0 CAA.

"This process is very frustrating because we do so many things to hurt ourselves," said State coach Bill Curry. "If we simply play our very best all the time we should be a really good football team."

Russell, a senior, went over the 100-yard mark for the second time this season and fourth time in his GSU career. He added five receptions for 51 yards for a total of 170 all-purpose yards on 29 touches.

Russell matched his longest run at GSU with a 52-yard scamper late in the second quarter. That got the Panthers to the Richmond 28 and set up Georgia State's lone score. Russell later caught a 14-yard pass from Ben McLane and followed that with a five-yard run on third-and-three. After an incompleton, McLane connected with Albert Wilson, who broke through one tackle and found the end zone to make it a 21-7 game.

The GSU defense forced a punt to give the Panthers the ball with 40 seconds left in the half.

But McLane was intercepted by Cooper Taylor on a tipped ball, and that allowed the Spiders to once again make it a three-touchdown game. John Laub found Stephen Barnette for a 32-yard hook up to the GSU eight-yard line. Georgia State appeared to have prevented a touchdown with three consecutive goal-line stops, but after the stop on fourth-and-goal was erased on a defensive offsides penalty, Laub pounded his way into the end zone for a one-yard score on an untimed down to put the Spiders up 28-7.

"We had some work excellent goal line work but hurt ourselves again so there was all of that," Curry said. "We fought the daylights out of them...but after a valiant goal line stand we gave them five downs. But we're going to keep pushing and working until we get everybody the same page. That's what has to happen next. A lot of good things are happening, but we got to have more."

Wilson, who entered the contest leading the CAA with 158.7 all-purpose yards per game, didn't get to add to that total in the first quarter. The junior suffered an apparent hip bruise but returned for Georgia State's first promising drive of the half, catching a 13-yard pass on the opening play from scrimmage. The Panthers got to the Richmond 13-yard line, but four straight incompletions, including one intended for Wilson and tipped out of the back of the end zone on fourth-and-10, turned the ball over on downs.

Richmond jumped on top with a pair of long drives in the opening half.

The Spiders picked up the game's first points, capping a 13-play, 83-yard drive with a touchdown midway through the opening quarter. Junior wide out Ben Edwards, who came into the day second in the CAA averaging 116.3 all-purpose yards per game, caught three passes for 26 yards, while Kendall Gaskins had three carries for 19 yards, including a one-yard score that made it 7-0.

After a Georgia State punt, the visitors marched 71 yards in 14 plays, getting quarterback John Laub's one-yard touchdown sneak to go up 14-0 with 13:35 left in the half.

Laub made it 21-0 when he found Stephen Barnette for a completion across the middle, and Barnette out-ran safety Demazio Skelton for a 49-yard touchdown.

Richmond grabbed a 35-7 cushion midway through the third when Laub capped an eight-play drive with a tumbling, six-yard touchdown run.

Georgia State had a chance to cut into the lead late in the third, but Matt Ehasz was wide left on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Panthers finally scored again with under a minute to play. Led by backup quarterback Ronnie Bell (91 passing yards, 31 rushing yards on the day), the Panthers drove 70 yards on eight plays, and Russell capped his big day with a two-yard touchdown run on a direct snap with 43 seconds left.

"It was a Donald Russell day," Curry said. "You just see how valuable he is, you just have to keep giving it to him when he's full speed. I'm really pleased with Ronnie Bell. I think Ronnie Bell made a statement about his ability."

Wilson wasn't the only one hobbling for the Panthers. Both starting center Michael Davis (ankle injury) and backup Ronald Martin (knees) left with injuries, forcing guard Tim Wynn to play center for much of the second half.

"There was some circumstances that were outside our control. We lost both our centers (and) Tim had to play center without having done it in two years," Curry said.

WILLIAM & MARY 35, GEORGIA STATE 3

Game 5: Sept. 29, 2012 • 7 p.m. (CSS-TV)
Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

Georgia State fell at William and Mary, 35-3, at Zable Stadium as the Panthers were undone by seven turnovers.

Donald Russell had 134 yards rushing and receiving and Ronnie Bell showed play-making ability in his first start at quarterback for Georgia State, but William and Mary scored 28 points off GSU turnovers. The Panthers (0-5) hurt themselves with four interceptions and three lost fumbles.

"We work on ball security over and over and over, but if you turn the ball over that many times, you have no chance," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "We have individuals who are showing good things, but our team has got to come together and do all the things that it takes to win."

Russell recorded his second straight 100-yard rushing effort and third this season with 107 yards on 21 carries, and he added four catches for 27 yards. Bell completed 13 of 26 passes for 157 yards and helped the Panthers convert eight of 14 third down plays, but the redshirt freshman had four interceptions and a lost fumble on a sack.

Keith McBride led the Tribe with 163 yards rushing and two touchdowns, while quarterback Raphael Ortiz also scored twice for the Tribe, who managed 312 yards rushing, including 204 in the second half as the GSU defense wore down.

Georgia State jumped in front first. After forcing William and Mary to punt on its first possession, the Panthers took over and moved 62 yards on 11 plays to set up a 37-yard field goal by freshman Wil Lutz, his first career three-pointer.

The Tribe looked to answer with a field goal attempt of their own, but the 45-yard attempt by Drake Kuhn was wide right. GSU forced the field goal attempt when Robert Ferguson chased W&M quarterback from the pocket and John Kelly tracked him down for the Panthers' first sack of the season.

The GSU defense came up with another big play early in the second quarter with a fourth-down stop of quarterback Raphael Ortiz at the Panther 44-yard line. But the Panthers gave the ball back two plays later on a rare fumble by Donald Russell at the William and Mary 44 yard. The Tribe turned that miscue into a scoring drive, capped by Keith McBride's 11-yard run that put William and Mary ahead, 7-3, with eight minutes remaining in the second quarter.

The Panthers then drove to the W&M 33 on their next possession before Bell was intercepted. GSU forced a punt and looked to take over with about 90 seconds left in the first half and trailing just 7-3. But Albert Wilson could not corral a bouncing punt, giving the Tribe possession at the GSU 11, and William and Mary punched it into the end zone on Ortiz's one-yard run for a 14-3 halftime lead.

Still trailing just 14-3 after a William and Mary punt early in the third quarter, Bell drove the Panthers from their own three-yard line all the way to the Tribe 36. On second down, he was sacked, leading to a fumble that the Tribe recovered at midfield and then converted into a touchdown four plays later.

The Panthers had another excellent scoring chance late the third quarter after driving from their own 19 to a first down at the Tribe 16. On first-and-10, backup center Ronald Martin, subbing for the injured Michael Davis, snapped the ball over Bell's head for a 25-yard loss. On third-and-35 at the 41, Bell's pass was intercepted in the end zone.

NEW HAMPSHIRE 44, GEORGIA STATE 21

Game 6: Oct. 6, 2012 • 3:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite putting up its best offensive performance of the season, the Georgia State football team dropped a 44-21 decision to Colonial Athletic Association foe No. 17/14 New Hampshire Saturday at the Georgia Dome.

GSU fell to 0-6 on the season, while New Hampshire, ranked No. 17 in the FCS Coaches Poll and No. 14 by the Sports Network, improved to 4-2 overall and 2-1 in the CAA with the win. UNH head coach Sean McDonnell earned his 100th career victory in his 14th season with the Wildcats.

Redshirt-freshman quarterback Ben McLane came off the bench and led the Panthers with 169 passing yards and two touchdown passes. Junior receiver Albert Wilson had 105 receiving yards, including touchdown catches of 54 and 47 yards.

UNH put up 624 total yards of offense on 83 plays as Wildcat quarterback Andy Vailas passed for 252 yards and four touchdowns in the win. Nico Steriti led all rushers with 126 yards and scored three touchdowns.

"We had a chance to drive up and down the field, but stopped ourselves repeatedly. When we did start to drive, it was too little too late," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "Once again, the tendency, when the defense made a great play or had a turnover, we almost immediately found a way to turn the ball back over. That's just simply a matter of poise. There is no excuse and no explanation."

New Hampshire got on the board first on a 26-yard touchdown pass to Harold Spears that capped a four-play drive with 13:35 left in the first period. Mike MacArthur's kick attempt was good and gave UNH a 7-0 lead.

GSU tied the game on its first drive when starting quarterback Ronnie Bell connected with Wilson for a 54-yard touchdown pass that capped a six-play, 77-yard drive.

A GSU fumble at its own 28 yard line allowed the Wildcats to put together a 21-yard touchdown drive capped by an eight-yard pass from Vailas to Steriti for the score. A successful field goal attempt gave the Wildcats a 14-7 lead with 12:22 left in the second quarter.

The Wildcats struck again with 8:54 left in the first half when Steriti ran the ball seven yards for his second score of the period, giving UNH a 21-7 lead.

New Hampshire took advantage of a GSU turnover, scoring a touchdown with 14:34 left in the third period that extended the UNH lead to 28-7.

The Wildcats scored another touchdown with 3:14 left in the third quarter and followed with a 43-yard field goal by MacArthur to extend their lead to 38-7 with 40 seconds left in the third quarter.

McLane connected with Emmanuel Ogbuehi with 26-yard touchdown pass with 13:52 left in game that cut the UNH lead to 38-14.

"I was able to get away from the safety. (Ben) McLane just saw me over the middle, and I made the catch," said Ogbuehi after the game.

The Wildcats added a final touchdown at the 13:32 mark in the fourth quarter, but the Panthers answered when McLane found Wilson in the end zone with a 47-yard TD pass that cut the UNH lead to 44-21 with 4:51 left to play in the game. That was the 13th career touchdown catch for Wilson, including seven of 45 yards of longer.

GEORGIA STATE 41, RHODE ISLAND 7

Game 7: Oct. 13, 2012 • 1 p.m.
Meade Stadium • Kingston, R.I.

Donald Russell set Georgia State school records with 201 yards rushing and three touchdowns scored to lead the Panthers to a dominating 41-7 victory at Rhode Island, Georgia State's first win of the season.

Ben McLane passed for a career-best 213 yards and two touchdowns, Travis Evans scored twice and the Panthers did not commit a turnover or allow a sack. Meanwhile, the Georgia State (1-6) defense held Rhode Island (0-6) to 288 yards.

Russell, the senior from West Palm Beach, Fla., carried 21 times for 201 yards with two touchdown runs and also caught a 35-yard touchdown pass for a career-best 236 all-purpose yards. His previous rushing high was 146 yards last season versus South Alabama, and the previous school record was held by Kelton Hill with 152 yards versus West Alabama in 2011.

Walking off the field with the game ball in his hand, GSU head coach Bill Curry said, "Somebody handed this to me, but this ball is for our football team. This is so wonderful and so sweet, there are no words.

"We showed what we can do when we play together and don't turn the ball over"

Russell opened the scoring for GSU with a 35-yard touchdown catch from McLane. Russell caught a short wing pass in the flat and outraced the defense down the sideline for his first touchdown reception of his career.

Then Russell added to GSU's lead on the next possession as he broke through the middle for a 45-yard touchdown, his longest scoring run in a GSU uniform and the third-longest in Panther history.

"I'm just so happy to get this win. I wanted this for my team," said Russell. "Our line did a great job, our wide receivers did a great job blocking. Coach Bond made some great calls that me some looks, and my o-line took me to the promised land."

Travis Evans made the score 21-0 when he took a shovel pass from McLane and ran 36 yards for the score.

Wil Lutz tacked on a 40-yard field goal with 47 seconds left in the first half, the longest field goal of his career and the longest for the Panthers since last year's South Alabama game. That sent the Panthers into the locker room with a 24-0 advantage. Lutz added a 26-yard field goal on GSU's first possession of the third quarter.

Rhode Island had one scoring threat in the first half as the Rams drove deep into GSU territory, but on third-and-six from the seven, linebacker Robert Ferguson intercepted Bentsen to end the drive. The interception was the second of Ferguson's career and was one of two turnovers forced by the Panthers. Mark Hogan, who played high school football nearby in Boston, made a game-high eight tackles and a fumble recovery, and another New England native, Theo Agnew, had five tackles and a sack.

Russell's third touchdown was classic Donald Russell. He carried four times for 45 yards on the 75-yard drive, breaking numerous tackles on each run, including his six-yard scoring jaunt, which put the Panthers ahead 34-0, with six minutes left in the third quarter.

Evans concluded the scoring with a two-yard touchdown run after taking direct snap on the second play of the fourth quarter. The junior running back also forced a fumble with a big hit on punt coverage.

Emmanuel Ogbuehi and Kelton Hill caught four passes each, and Albert Wilson added three catches for 71 yards.

VILLANOVA 49, GEORGIA STATE 24

Game 8: Oct. 20, 2012 • 3:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

No. 24 Villanova ran the ball 53 times for 343 yards in a 49-24 win over host Georgia State on Homecoming at the Georgia Dome.

The Wildcats, ranked No. 24 by the Sports Network, improved to 6-2 overall and 4-1 in Colonial Athletic Association move into a tie for first place in the conference standings. In addition to the rushing statistics, Villanova used a 66-yard punt return touchdown and a 32-yard interception return to open a 35-10 halftime lead.

Georgia State, coming off its first win of the year last week, fell to 1-7. The Panthers ran 70 plays to Villanova's 68 plays on the day and gained 309 total yards, sparked by junior Albert Wilson's six catches for 104 yards and five kick returns for 176 yards. His 61-yard kick return and 55-yard touchdown catch were GSU's two longest plays of the day.

Donald Russell, the reigning Colonial Athletic Association offensive player of the week who was coming off a school-record 201 rushing yards in last week's win over Rhode Island, was held to four yards on five carries before leaving the game in the first quarter with a knee injury. He did not return.

Playing in place of Russell was redshirt junior Travis Evans, who carried five times for 10 yards in the opening half. His last carry was a nine-yard touchdown scamper with 1:38 left in the second quarter to cut Villanova's lead to 35-10 at halftime.

Rosevelt Watson added 45 yards on eight carries.

"Donald had a knee strain and couldn't return today. It will take time to see where he is," said Curry. "The other backs ran extremely well. They all ran well today and they all practice hard. One thing everyone preaches in this sport, if you've not a starter, practice as if you are going to start. All of them have practiced well and they played well."

Despite the lopsided score, the Panthers offense didn't quit and got a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns. GSU capped a 12-play drive when Ben McLane found Emmanuel Ogbuehi for a three-yard score. With just over three minutes left in the game, backup quarterback Ronnie Bell found a wide-open

Wilson who tight-roped the sideline for a 55-yard touchdown that made it a 49-24 game.

Wilson finished with six catches for 104 yards, along with 186 return yards for a school-record total of 290 all-purpose yards, breaking the record of 236 that Russell set last week.

"Albert plays his heart out on every play, he's just a great player. It was too little, too late and that's too much of a repetitive story," said Panthers coach Bill Curry. "We're just better than this and that's the part that is so painful."

Georgia State got on the scoreboard for the first time with 9:32 to play in the second quarter. Following Wilson's 61-yard kickoff return the Panthers' drive stalled at the 16-yard line, but Wil Lutz booted a 33-yard field goal to get GSU to within 21-3.

The Wildcats answered immediately with a pair of touchdowns. First, Villanova took just six plays to go 66 yards as Kevin Monangai's 12-yard touchdown run made it 28-3. On the first play of the ensuing drive, McLane was intercepted by Eric Loper who returned it 32 yards for a score.

Villanova marched down the field on its opening possession, traveling 86 yards in just seven plays to take the first lead of the day. The big play came when Kevin Monangai got deep into Georgia State territory on a 33-yard run. Three plays later, quarterback John Robertson scored from six yards to make it 7-0.

Midway through the first, Villanova punt returner Poppy Livers made a pair of Panthers miss, then found his way down the sideline for a 66-yard touchdown that put the visitors up 14-0. Livers' touchdown was the first Villanova punt return for a score since David Martin ran one back October 25, 1980 against VMI.

Villanova made it 21-0 early in the second when Robertson found Norman White in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard touchdown.

Roberston, a redshirt-freshman who in last week's upset of Old Dominion ran for a school-record 189 yards, picked up 87 yards on the ground and 183 of total offense Saturday. Monangai rushed for 130 yards on 18 carries and Villanova picked up 470 yards of total offense.

"We were out of position on the quarterback runs," Curry said. "We have a response, we see it every week, it's not as if it's some kind of magic show. Probably didn't practice as well as we have, but the guys sucked it up and pulled it together. We thought by Thursday that we were in good shape in terms of concentration, but we didn't play that way."

JAMES MADISON 28, GEORGIA STATE 21

Game 9: Oct. 27, 2012 • 3:30 p.m.
Bridgeforth Stadium • Harrisonburg, Va.

Georgia State's late comeback fell just short as the Panthers fell at ninth-ranked James Madison, 28-21, at Bridgeforth Stadium.

After falling behind 28-7, Georgia State (1-8, 1-5) scored a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns to pull within 28-21 and had one final possession with 56 seconds left but JMU (6-2, 4-1) held on for the victory.

Tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi caught a five-yard touchdown pass with 10:47 left and then set up another touchdown when he ran 54 yards on a fake punt. Travis Evans, playing for injured running back Donald Russell, rushed for a career-high 98 yards for the Panthers.

"That's a really painful loss against an outstanding football team because we had chances in all three phases—offense, defense and special teams—to win the game," said GSU head coach Bill Curry. "We needed to do a better job executing the little things to finish the job."

Georgia State trailed 14-7 after a strong first half in which the Panthers outgained JMU, 171-122. The score remained that way until late in the third quarter when James Madison scored on a 13-yard run by Jordan Anderson to move ahead 21-7. That touchdown capped a five-play 68-yard drive that was aided by a personal foul penalty for contact above the neck on Drew Pearson, a tight end who also took snaps at defensive end for the first time because the Panthers have suffered so many injuries on the defensive line.

The Dukes added to their lead soon after as Brandon Lee blocked a punt and returned it three yards for a touchdown, putting the Dukes ahead, 28-7, with 14 minutes to play.

The Panthers responded by driving 81 yards on eight plays to pull within 28-14 with 6:31 left. Ogbuehi started the drive with a 17-yard run and then finished it when he caught a five-yard pass from running back Roosevelt Watson, who had taken the snap in a Wildcat formation. That is the second career touchdown pass for Watson, who also threw one in 2010.

The GSU defense forced a three-and-out, and the Panthers took over at their own 33. On fourth-and-seven from the 36, Ogbuehi took the snap in punt formation and raced around the left side for 54 yards down to the 10-yard line. On the next play, McLane hit Parris Lee in the left flat, and Lee raced down the sideline for the score, bringing GSU within 28-21 with 6:31 left.

After the kickoff, JMU managed to grind the clock with runs, moving to the GSU 24-yard line when Cameron Starke missed his third field goal attempt of the day to give the Panthers one final chance with 56 seconds left. After an 18-yard reception by Lynquez Blar and a roughing the passer penalty, the Panthers had a final snap from the JMU 45-yard line with three seconds left, but the Dukes managed a sack to end the game.

JMU jumped in front early, taking advantage of a Georgia State turnover. Evans fumbled on the Panthers' first play from scrimmage to give the Dukes the ball at the 23-yard line. JMU needed just four plays to score as Birdsong hit DaeQuan Scott for a six-yard touchdown pass and a 7-0 lead.

The Panthers answered with an eight-play, 81-yard drive, all of it on the ground. After Watson rushed 10 yards for a first down at the JMU 47, Travis Evans raced 45 yards – the longest run of his career – before he was dragged down at the two-yard line. Then Watson punched it in on the next play as GSU evened the score at 7-all with five minutes left in the first quarter.

After Wil Lutz hit the crossbar on a 53-yard field goal attempt, James Madison drove 63 yards on six plays, capped by a four-yard scoring run by Starke. That put the Dukes ahead, 14-7, early in the second quarter.

Ogbuehi, GSU's senior tight end, finished with a career-high six catches, along with his 71 yards rushing on two carries. Watson, another senior, contributed 30 yards rushing, one touchdown on the ground and one touchdown pass.

Quarterback Ben McLane completed 22 of 37 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown with no interceptions.

Georgia State outgained James Madison, ranked No. 9 by the Sports Network and No. 10 in the FCS Coaches Poll, 348 to 340.

D'Mario Gunn led the GSU defense with 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and an interception. Theo Agnew added nine tackles, a tackle for loss and three pass breakups.

DaeQuan Scott led the Dukes with 130 yards rushing. Freshman quarterback Michael Birdsong passed for 119 yards and one touchdown in his first start.

Before the game, James Madison honored GSU head coach Bill Curry by making him an honorary letterman.

"On a personal note, I can't remember anybody doing anything nicer for me," said Curry. "To be made an honorary letterman at a proud institution like this is a tremendous honor, and I am extremely grateful."

OLD DOMINION 53, GEORGIA STATE 27

Game 10: Nov. 3, 2012 • 3:30 p.m.
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Taylor Heinicke passed for 351 yards and three touchdowns as No. 5 Old Dominion defeated Georgia State, 53-27, at the Georgia Dome.

It was the final home game for head coach Bill Curry, the only coach in the program's history who will retire after the season. Before the game, Georgia State announced the locker room at the football team's practice facility will be named in Curry's honor.

"It absolutely stunned me," Curry said of the locker room naming. "It's the only time today [that he got emotional]. I had no intention in choking up. These amazing act of kindness towards me today, I don't even have words."

The biggest highlights for Georgia State came from junior Albert Wilson, who set three school records. Wilson ignited the Georgia Dome crowd, changing direction and out-running the Old Dominion coverage team for a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown midway through the third quarter. It was a school record for Wilson, who also had a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in 2010 against Alabama. On this one, Wilson fielded the ball four yards deep in the end zone.

"He was not supposed to bring that ball out," Curry said. "It's the longest kickoff return I've ever been a part of. Those are really fast people chasing him, and you just can't catch him."

With just over 10 minutes left in the game, Ben McLane made a perfect pass to Wilson, who was streaking down the sideline and turned it into a school-record 93-yard touchdown catch that made it a 46-21 game.

Wilson caught six passes on the day for 149 yards and amassed a school-record 296 all-purpose yards.

Tight end Emmanuel Ogbuehi also topped 100 yards receiving with a career-best 108 yards on three catches, including a 55-yard reception from McLane and a 42-yard grab from wide receiver Danny Williams on a reverse.

Demazio Skelton intercepted two passes for GSU. D'Mario Gunn also had an interception, which he returned 73 yards, meaning this game produced the Panthers' longest kickoff return, interception return and play from scrimmage.

Heinicke, who came into the game leading FCS in total offense at 436 yards per game, was 28-of-42 in helping the Monarchs improve to 8-1. Georgia State fell to 1-9 and finished the home slate 0-6.

All 27 GSU punts came in the second half. The Panthers marched 80 yards in six minutes, and senior Roosevelt Watson broke an initial tackle attempt and plunged into the end zone for a three-yard touchdown that cut the deficit to 32-7.

The Panthers' best chances to score in the opening half came on a pair of second quarter possessions. First, the Panthers got an 18-yard run by Travis Evans to help get to the ODU 31-yard line, but Wil Lutz's 48-yard field goal was short. Later, Ben McLane hooked up with Emmanuel Ogbuehi on a 55-yard completion to set up first-and-goal. Old Dominion's defense only allowed two more yards on the series before McLane was sacked on fourth down.

Georgia State had three first half turnovers, and they cost the Panthers on the scoreboard each time.

McLane fumbled midway through the first quarter and ODU, Blessed with excellent field position, took just four plays to travel 34 yards as Heinicke made it a 15-0 game with an 11-yard scoring strike to Tyree Lee.

Up 22-0, ODU safety Devon Simmons intercepted McLane and Heinicke found Larry Pinkard in the back of the end zone for a four-yard touchdown to push the Monarchs' lead to 29-0.

The Panthers couldn't take advantage of Heinicke's second interception of the first half, but ODU capitalized on McLane's second. After Craig Wilkins picked off a tipped ball, Jarod Brown's 28-yard field goal sent ODU into the locker room up 32-0.

Georgia State scored its fourth touchdown of the second half when Malcolm Smith capped a nine-play drive by taking a direct snap for a two-yard touchdown run after taking a direct snap in the wildcat formation.

"While I'm always glad that the guys fight back, we shouldn't have to fight back like that," said Curry. "It's way past time for us to be a consistent, well-drilled football team. We still didn't manage to play to our potential or anywhere close to it. I've just so hoped we would play our best, not for me, not even for the seniors, for everybody, the Georgia State community. It's what everybody deserves. Georgia State football is going to be a great success, it'll just be later than I had anticipated. We'll get a terrific football coach and the program will prosper."

Old Dominion jumped on top early with a nine-play scoring drive on the game's opening possession. Heinicke had a 34-yard run to get deep into Georgia State territory, and was 3-for-5 passing on the drive, including a pair of third down completions, the last of which came on a nine-yard touchdown toss to Marquel Thomas that put the Monarchs up 8-0.

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

An Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure.

Curry announced in August that the 2012 season would be his last on the sideline. He will remain at GSU as a special assistant to the President and Director of Athletics.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast

Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

#23 MARK HOGAN
ILB • 5-11, 210 • Jr.-R
Matthews, N.C. (Lincoln Sudbury (Mass.) HS)

- Georgia State's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. Spent that semester as a team of one.
- Father, Mark Hogan, Sr., played for Bill Curry at Georgia Tech as a safety on Tech's 1985 All-American Bowl team and Black Watch defense
- Georgia State's career tackles leader with 149
- Moved to inside linebacker this season after two years on the outside
- Had a tackle for loss and a forced fumble at Tennessee (9-8-12)
- Made eight tackles and a fumble recovery at Rhode Island (10-13-12)
- Tied for third on the 2011 team in tackles with 56, including five tackles for loss
- Made perhaps the biggest defensive play of GSU's 2011 season vs. South Alabama (10-22-11) with his game-ending interception in the second overtime. Also had an interception at the end of regulation that appeared to end the game but was nullified by a dead-ball penalty on USA

- Made 54 tackles for Georgia State's inaugural team in 2010
- Career-high 14 tackles at Old Dominion (10-23-10). Eight hits against NCCU (10-16-10)
- Played for the GSU baseball spring as a left-handed hitting outfielder. Played in 42 games and had the team's top batting average (.319) and on-base percentage (.448) with 2 HR and 13 RBI
- Earned his degree in finance last spring and is now completing a second major in managerial sciences

#49 MATT HUBBARD
P • 6-4, 230 • So.
Peachtree City, Ga. (Starr's Mill HS)

- Career average of 42.7 yards per punt
- Second in the CAA at 43.4 yards per punt
- Has 19 punts of 50 yards or longer
- Opened the season by averaging 62.2 yards on five punts against South Carolina State. That surpasses the NCAA FCS and FBS records but will not count as an NCAA record due to GSU's reclassification.
- Named CAA Specialist of the Week and FCS National Special Teams Player of the Week
- His third punt against SCSU was a school-record 80-yarder. Also had boots of 58, 59, 55 and 59 yards.
- Averaged 41.9 yards per punt (15th in NCAA) as a true freshman in 2011

- Also has the second-longest punt in GSU history with a 64-yarder against UTSA in 2011. Averaged 47.0 yards on five punts and was an honorable mention selection for CFP National Punter Performer of the Week.
