MAKE YOUR MOVE

GAME 2: GEORGIA STATE (0-1) AT TENNESSEE (1-0)

Sept. 8 • 4 p.m. ET • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn. • PPV

GAME COVERAGE

Televised on a pay-per-view basis. Announcers are Randy Smith (play-by-play), Jeff Francis (color analyst) and Rick Russo (sideline). The telecast is expected to be available in Georgia via ESPN Gameplan.

GSU Radio Network, including Atlanta flagship WCFO-AM Newstalk 1160 and WMLB-AM 1690 Announcers are Dave Cohen (play-by-play), Harper LeBel (analyst), and Sam Crenshaw (sideline).

THE KICKOFF

Georgia State faces its third FBS program and its second from the powerful Southeastern Conference in three years as the Panthers travel to Tennessee Saturday for a 4 p.m. contest at Neyland Stadium.

The Panthers (0-1) opened the season with a disappointing loss to South Carolina State, 33-6, last Thursday in the Georgia Dome, despite 120 yards rushing by Donald Russell.

The Volunteers (1-0) are coming off an impressive 35-21 win over NC State in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game, played last Friday in Georgia State's home venue, the Georgia Dome. UT quarterback Tyler Bray passed for 333 yards and two touchdowns, and Cordarrelle Patterson scored two touchdowns on a 41-yard catch and a 67-yard run.

CURRY VS. TENNESSEE

Georgia State is facing Tennessee for the first time, but GSU head coach Bill Curry has earned five victories against the Volunteers in his career, including four straight from 1986-89 while coaching at Georgia Tech and Alabama. His overall record against the Volunteers is 5-11-1 in 17 seasons at Tech, Alabama and Kentucky.

As a player, Curry's Georgia Tech teams played the Vols from 1962-64, including wins in 1962 and 1963.

Curry also has a long history with Tennessee head coach Derek Dooley. Not only did Curry compete against Derek's father, Vince Dooley, but Curry's son, Bill, was a teammate of Derek Dooley's at Virginia.

MORE CONNECTIONS

- Georgia State has just one player from the state of Tennessee. Starting defensive tackle David Huey is a redshirt freshman from Antioch, Tenn., who attended Pearl-Cohn High School.

- GSU has two transfers from Tennessee rival Kentucky in running back Donald Russell and defensive lineman Nermin Delic. Russell played against Tennessee in 2010 but did not carry the ball.

- Tennessee graduate assistant Kyle Manley played quarterback at Georgia Tech and was a senior in 2007 when GSU offensive coordinator John Bond held the same position at Tech.

GSU VS. FBS

Georgia State's program is in its infancy, but the Panthers have not shied away from tough competition, playing an FBS team in each of its first two seasons. In the inaugural season of 2010, Georgia State played at defending national champion and 10th-ranked Alabama (l. 63-7), and last year the Panthers travelled to Houston (l. 56-0).

RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE?

The bright spot in Georgia State's season opener was the play of punter Matt Hubbard, who had a record-setting night ... sort of.

Hubbard, a sophomore from Peachtree City, Ga., averaged an eye-catching 62.2 yards on five punts against South Carolina State, easily the best single-game average in GSU history.

- Hubbard's average is better than both the NCAA FBS and FCS single-game records for punting average in a game with a minimum of five punts. However, because Georgia State is in the process of reclassifying from FCS to FBS, marks achieved by GSU players during the 2012 and 2013 seasons do not count as NCAA records.

The current FCS record for punting average in a game, with a minimum of five punts, is 61.5 yards, set by Eddie Johnson of Idaho State versus Cal Poly in 2002. The FBS record of 60.4 is shared by two players, Lee Johnson, BYU vs. Wyoming, 1983, and Quinn Sharp of Oklahoma State vs. Nebraska, 2010.

Hubbard's third punt of the night travelled a school-record 80 yards, and he also had boots of 58, 59, 55 and 59 yards.

In 2011, the 6-4, 230-pounder averaged 41.9 yards per kick to rank 15th in the final NCAA FCS statistics.

THE DONALD

Running back Donald Russell opened his senior season by rushing for 120 yards on just 12 carries against South Carolina State, his second straight 100-yard effort and third in a GSU uniform. Last season, the transfer from Kentucky became the first 100-yard rusher in school history when he gained 136 yards against South Alabama. He added a career-high 146 yards in the 2011 finale against Campbell.

Against SCSU, Russell raced 52 yards on his first carry of the season. That is his longest run for the Panthers but not the longest of his career; he had a 79-yard scamper as a freshman at Kentucky in 2009.

Russell led the Panthers with 665 yards and nine touchdowns in 2011.

FINAL SEASON FOR CURRY

Georgia State head coach Bill Curry announced during preseason camp that the 2012 season will be his last on the sideline. Curry was named GSU's first head coach on June 12, 2008 and has guided the program through its infancy. The former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky is entering his 20th season as a collegiate head coach. He will remain at Georgia State as a special assistant to Director of Athletics Cheryl L. Levick and President Mark Becker.

YEAR ONE OF FBS TRANSITION

Season three of Georgia State football marks another significant milestone for the program as the Panthers begin their two-year transition to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and the Sun Belt Conference while playing their first and only season of CAA Football.

The Panthers will play a full CAA schedule this fall but are not eligible for the CAA championship or the FCS playoffs. In 2013, Georgia State will play a full Sun Belt schedule but will not be eligible for the conference title or for postseason bowl games until 2014.

WHAT IS THIS STUFF?

Georgia State's game at Tennessee will mark just the third time in three seasons that the Panthers will play a game on natural grass. The first two games were also at FBS opponents with the 2010 game at Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium and the 2011 contest at Houston's Robertson Stadium.

IMPRESSIVE DEBUT FOR PETERSON

Joseph Peterson, a true freshman from Dothan, Ala., earned a starting berth at middle linebacker. In his debut against South Carolina State, he was the Panthers' second-leading tackler with eight hits, including a tackle for loss.

As a senior at Dothan High, Lockley was a first-team all-state in Class 6A by the Alabama Sportswriters Association. He made 112 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and four sacks. On offense, he ran for 669 yards and 12 touchdowns.

McLANE TAKES THE REINS

For the third time in three seasons, the Panthers started a quarterback in the opening game who was under center in a collegiate game for the first time. Redshirt freshman Ben McLane from Snellville, Ga., earned the starting berth in spring practice and made his debut against South Carolina State. Although he struggled, completing just seven of 15 attempts for 54 yards, he was under heavy pressure and was sacked five times.

NEW FACES ON DEFENSE

The Georgia State defense under first-year coordinator Anthony Midget has a decidedly young face. The Panthers return just four starters on defense, and there are just four seniors on the entire two-deep. Three true freshmen are playing prominent roles, with linebacker Joseph Peterson earning a starting berth and defensive linemen Joe Lockley and Melvin King seeing plenty of action.

Midget, a former All-America defensive back at Virginia Tech, was elevated to coordinator in March. He is an original member of Bill Curry's GSU staff, hired in 2008.

23 AND COUNTING

Junior right tackle Grant King, the only returning starter on Georgia State's offensive line, is also the only current player who has started all 23 games in the Panthers' brief history. The Columbia, S.C., native was a member of GSU's first recruiting class in 2009.

Three other Panthers have played in all 23 games: wide receiver Danny Williams and linebackers Akeen Felder and Robert Ferguson.

MR. CONSISTENCY

Georgia State has played 23 games in its history, and sophomore Danny Williams has caught at least one pass in every one of them. After two seasons, he has 87 career receptions for 1,177 yards and eight touchdowns, all GSU career records.

Williams led GSU in receptions (54), receiving yards (649) and touchdown catches (5) during the inaugural season of 2010. Last season, he had 30 catches for 485 yards and two scores.

He also owns the Panthers' single-game record for receptions (11 vs. Old Dominion in 2010). He has four of the seven 100-yard games in GSU history.

WILSON EARNS PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Georgia State wide receiver Albert Wilson was tabbed to the preseason All-Colonial Athletic Association second team by Phil Steele's FCS College Football Preview.

The junior from Port St. Lucie, Fla., was also named to the College Football Performance Awards watch lists for top FCS wide receiver, punt returner and kickoff returner.

Wilson was GSU's leading receiver in 2011 with 37 catches for 772 yards (20.9 yds per catch) and six touchdowns in nine games. He ranked eighth in the nation in punt returns (11.9), 20th in receiving yards per game (85.8) and 29th in all-purpose yards (134.4).

The 5-9, 195-pound speedster has career totals of 56 receptions and 1,066 receiving yards, both second in GSU annals, with a career average of 19.0 yards per catch. His eight touchdown catches are tied for the GSU career record, and all eight are 28 yards or longer, including three over 50 yards. Wilson is the Panthers' career leader in all-purpose yards 2,142 yards (112.7 pg).

BILUKIDI CHASES NFL DREAMS

Defensive lineman Christo Bilukidi made history as the first Panther to be drafted by the NFL when he was selected in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

After surviving final cuts, he now looks to become just the second former Georgia State athlete to play in a regular-season game in one of the four major sports leagues. The only other Panther to do so was basketball player Lanard Copeland, who spent time with the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers and Los Angeles Clippers, last playing in a regular-season game for the Clippers on Nov. 30, 1991 with a four-minute stint against the Charlotte Hornets.

Bilukidi's teammate last year, linebacker Jake Muasau, signed a free agent contract with the New York Giants but was waived during Friday's final cuts.

A third senior from last year's squad, safety Brandon Jones, was actually the first GSU football alumnus to play in a professional game when he appeared in the Arena Football League, playing for the Tampa Bay Storm.

Georgia State actually had an alumnus in professional football long before the school had a football team. Former GSU soccer player Keith Gispert, a standout for the Panthers from 1996-98, was a kicker in the Arena League for the Chicago Rush and Georgia Force from 2003-07.

HOGAN PULLS DOUBLE DUTY

Junior inside linebacker Mark Hogan was the first scholarship football player in Georgia State history when he enrolled in January 2009. In 2001, he achieved another first as the football program's first two-sport athlete. Hogan played for the GSU baseball team last spring as a left-handed hitting outfielder. He saw action in 42 games and had the team's top batting average (.319) and on-base percentage (.448) with two home runs and 13 RBI.

SCHEDULE STEPS UP

Georgia State's schedule has toughened considerably in the Panthers' third season. The CAA features six teams ranked 16th or higher in the preseason FCS Coaches' Poll, and GSU will face four of the six.

Georgia State is scheduled to face No. 6 Old Dominion, No. 8 James Madison, No. 12 New Hampshire and No. 16 Maine. No. 9 Towson and No. 14 are not on GSU's schedule.

In addition, South Carolina State, and CAA foe William and Mary are among the others receiving votes.

FIVE GRADUATES

This year's Georgia State team features five student-athletes who have already earned a degree from GSU.

Two of the graduates are actually juniors in terms of eligibility. Offensive lineman Michael Davis graduated last spring in real estate and has begun work on his MBA. Linebacker Mark Hogan graduated in finance and is now completing a second major in managerial sciences.

Senior linebacker Akeen Felder is working on a minor in hospitality management after graduating in sociology. Running back Rosevelt Watson also graduated in sociology and is now completing a second major in math education, and running back Malcolm Smith graduated in film and video and is completing a second major in computer information systems.

WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN

Georgia State looks to reverse its trend of close losses that resulted in 2011's 3-8 record, which could have been much different with just a few plays. The Panthers stood at 2-5 after an overtime victory over South Alabama and looked to put together a strong finish. But GSU dropped its next three games by a total of 13 points, including overtime losses to UTSA (17-14) and St. Francis (30-27) and a 30-23 defeat at West Alabama.

NFL FACILITIES

Georgia State is one of just nine Division I programs to play its home games in the same facility as an NFL team. The others are Miami, Pittsburgh, San Diego State, Temple, Tulane, USF, Tennessee State and UMass.

FREE FOOTBALL

In Georgia State's first two seasons of football, five of the Panthers 22 games were decided in overtime. In the inaugural season of 2010, the Panthers split a pair of overtime games. Last season, Georgia State played three straight overtime games, including a double-overtime victory of South Alabama. All but one were played at the Georgia Dome.

FATHERS & SONS

Two members of the Georgia State team are the sons of head coach Bill Curry's former players at Georgia Tech.

Mark Hogan, Jr. was GSU's first scholarship football player when he enrolled in January 2009. His father, Mark, Sr., played for Curry at Tech from 1982-85. Mark, Jr., spent the spring 2009 semester as a team of one, working out by himself.

BILL CURRY RADIO SHOW

The weekly radio show featuring the Georgia State head coach airs Mondays during football season from 4-5 p.m. ET on Newstalk 1160 (WCFO-AM). It is also streamed live at Newstalk1160.com.

INSIDE GEORGIA STATE FOOTBALL WITH HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

The weekly television show featuring Georgia State football airs in Atlanta and around the Southeast on Thursdays at 4 p.m. ET on CSS-TV.

The father of redshirt freshman safety Nick Henderson, Steve Henderson, played for Curry at Georgia Tech in the early 1980s.

In addition, redshirt freshman defensive lineman McClain Head is the nephew of Tony Head, a running back at Tech when Curry was an assistant coach in 1976.

ANOTHER FAMOUS FATHER

Sophomore cornerback Brent McClendon is the son of former Chicago Bears running back Willie McClendon. The elder McClendon starred at Georgia, where he was the 1978 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. Brent's older brother, Bryan, also played at Georgia and is now the running backs coach for the Bulldogs.

SC STATE 33, GEORGIA STATE 6

Game 1: Aug. 30, 2012 • 7:30 p.m. (CSS)
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Richard Cue was just too much for Georgia State in Thursday's 2012 season opener. The South Carolina State quarterback threw for 300 yards and three touchdowns as the Bulldogs defeated the Panthers, 33-6 in front of 18,921 at the Georgia Dome.

Georgia State scored on its first possession of the second half, getting a 25-yard field goal from Matt Ehasz to get to within 14-6. But the hosts never got closer.

On the ensuing drive, Cue, who a year ago threw for just 900 yards in nine games, completed all three of his pass attempts, including a 13-yard touchdown toss to Tyler McDonald that put the Bulldogs up 21-6.

In between two Georgia State drives-one that ended on a punt and the other when Ehasz's 36-yard field goal attempt was wide right-Nick Belcher kicked a pair of field goals from 20 and 27 yards, the last of which capped a 17-play drive and made it 27-6 with just under six minutes to play.

"Obviously a huge disappointment," said Georgia State coach Bill Curry. "We have a good football team and we'll continue to work very hard. We will not concede anything. (South Carolina State) played well, did a lot of things well, better than we did. We'll learn from it, go back to work and we'll be a good football team this year. We'll go back to work tomorrow morning and keep working until we perform the way we can."

A late touchdown pass helped South Carolina State build a 14-3 halftime lead. With 40 seconds left in the second quarter, Cue led the visiting Bulldogs on a two-play drive, culminating in a 22-yard touchdown toss to McDonald. The junior wide receiver made a great catch, then tight-roped the sideline and reached the end zone.

Georgia State, kicking off its third season and final one under coach Bill Curry, had cut the deficit to 7-3 on a 36-yard field goal by Matt Ehasz. But the Panthers couldn't capitalize after Cue was intercepted for the second time in the half, this time by Brent McClendon with 5:40 to play in the second. Ehasz's 24-yard attempt hit the right upright to keep it a four-point game.

"We had plenty of chances. We had a good chance coming out during the second half," said Curry. "When we get in the red zone, we have to score. And we just didn't do that."

South Carolina State struck first. On a third-and-seven deep in their own territory, the Bulldogs got a 73-yard touchdown connection from Cue to Lennel Elmore to make it 7-0 just 54 seconds into the game.

Georgia State had a pair of record-breaking plays in the opening half. Senior running back Donald Russell (120 yards on 12 carries) tied teammate Kelton Hill for the fourth-longest run from scrimmage in the Panthers' three-year history with a 52-yard scamper midway through the first quarter. That gave the Panthers the ball at the South Carolina State 32-yard line, but the drive stalled after three short runs and an incompletion on fourth-and-two.

Punter Matt Hubbard bested his own school record with an 80-yard punt that pinned South Carolina State to its two-yard line. Hubbard's previous best was a 64-yarder against Texas-San Antonio in October, 2011.

That set up the Panthers' defense, which came up with a big stop on third-and-two to force a punt.

Redshirt-freshman Ben McLane, making his first collegiate start at quarterback, came through with his first big play, hooking up with Danny Williams for a 20-yard completion. It allowed Ehasz to boot his field goal with 6:33 left until halftime.

McLane struggled in his debut but was under heavy pressure the entire night. He completed just 7 of 15 passes for 54 yards and was sacked five times.

"We'd told him that this would be faster than anything he'd seen. But he will adjust in time," Curry said of McLane. "I'm not sure he really got a fair chance to show what he can do"

Hill relieved McLane on a number of possessions, and the redshirt-junior was 7 of 13 for 76 yards.

Late in the game, Georgia State was driving when Parris Lee fumbled, Dominique Mitchell recovered and returned it 68 yards for a touchdown and a 33-6 cushion.

HEAD COACH BILL CURRY

BILL CURRY is the architect and builder of GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL as the program's first head coach.

An Atlanta native and former head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama and Kentucky, Bill Curry was introduced on June 12, 2008, eight weeks after the football program was officially launched on April 17.

Curry spent more than two years developing, directing and promoting the football program in preparation for Georgia State's inaugural season. When his Panthers took the field for the first time in 2010, the city of Atlanta and the football world took notice. Not only did his fledgling squad post a winning record at 6-5, but the program exceeded all expectations in terms of attendance, excitement and media exposure.

Curry announced in August that the 2012 season would be his last on the sideline. He will remain at GSU as a special assistant to the President and Director of Athletics.

Curry brought to Georgia State his 17 years of experience as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Coast Conference—including Coach of the Year awards in both leagues—as well as an All-Pro playing career in the National Football League, and, most recently, national notoriety as a college football analyst for ESPN.

In the NFL, he participated in three Super Bowls and two Pro Bowls and was part of three championship teams (1965, 1966 and 1970). As a center, Curry snapped the ball to legendary quarterbacks Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas, and he played for two of the most highly-regarded coaches in professional sports history in Vince Lombardi and Don Shula. His college coach, Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd, is an icon in Southern football annals.

Curry's 10-year playing career as a center included stops with the Green Bay Packers (1965-66), Baltimore Colts (1967-72), Houston Oilers (1973) and Los Angeles Rams (1974). He served as President of the NFL Players Association.

Curry entered the coaching ranks as offensive line coach at Georgia Tech in 1976. He then spent three years as an NFL assistant with the Packers (1977-79) before returning to his alma mater as head coach in 1980.

Curry took over a Georgia Tech program in transition, moving from independent status to the Atlantic Coast Conference while in need of facilities upgrades. His first two seasons were highlighted by a stunning 3-3 tie against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in 1980, in which the Yellow Jackets' quarterback was a freshman walk-on named Ken Whisenhunt, who is now the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals, and a 24-21 victory at fourth-ranked Alabama the following year.

Curry's teams also scored a pair of victories over nationally-ranked Georgia teams as well as a win over 13th-ranked Clemson that snapped a 20-game ACC winning streak.

Curry's rebuilding efforts culminated in 1985, when he led Tech to a 9-2-1 season for the school's highest win total in two decades and its first bowl victory in 13 years, defeating heavily-favored Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. For his efforts, he was named ACC Coach of the Year.

Curry compiled a record of 20-11-3 over his final three seasons at Georgia Tech before moving to Alabama in 1987. He posted a three-year record of 26-10 with the Crimson Tide, capped by the 1989 SEC title and Sugar Bowl berth.

In addition to being selected SEC Coach of the Year in 1989, Curry received the national coaching accolade named for his beloved mentor, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award.

Curry then spent seven seasons at Kentucky (1990-96), highlighted by a berth in the 1993 Peach Bowl. At the time, that marked the Wildcats' fourth bowl berth in 40 years.

Through every stop, Curry has carried an indelible reputation for integrity and class, and he has been guided by the ideal that the education and well-being of the student-athlete is paramount.

In 2007, he was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association with the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, which honors someone "whose services have been outstanding in the advancement of the best interests of football."

In 2008, he received the President Gerald R. Ford Legends Center Award, which is presented annually to someone who has played the center position at the collegiate or professional level, has made extraordinary contributions to his team during his football career and has proven to be an exemplary citizen, philanthropist or leader in the business or football community.

Curry is a member of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame.

Curry also serves at Georgia State as a Distinguished Executive Fellow in the Robinson College of Business.

He is the author of the book, "Ten Men You Meet in the Huddle: Lessons from a Football Life," published in 2008.

Curry attended College Park High School in the Atlanta area before going on to Georgia Tech, where he earned his B.S. degree in Industrial Management in 1965.

He is married to the former Carolyn Newton of Atlanta, a graduate of Agnes Scott College who earned her master's degree and Ph.D. from Georgia State. Bill and Carolyn have two children and five grandchildren.

#49 MATT HUBBARD
P • 6-4, 230 • So.
Peachtree City, Ga. (Starr's Mill HS)

- Opened the season by averaging 62.2 yards on five punts against South Carolina State. That surpasses the NCAA FCS and FBS records but will not count as an NCAA record due to GSU's reclassification.
- His third punt against SCSU was a school-record 80-yarder. Also had boots of 58, 59, 55 and 59 yards.
- Averaged 41.9 yards per punt (15th in NCAA) as a true freshman in 2011
- Also has the second-longest punt in GUS history with a 64-yarder against UTSA in 2011. Averaged 47.0 yards on five punts and was an honorable mention selection for CFP National Punter Performer of the Week.

#20 DONALD RUSSELL

RB • 5-11, 212 • Sr.
West Palm Beach, Fla. (Dwyer HS/Kentucky)

- Opened the 2012 season with 120 yards rushing on just 12 carries for his second straight 100-yard game and his third for the Panthers. Ran 52 yards on his first carry of the season, his longest run in a GSU uniform.
- GSU's leading rusher in 2011 with 665 yards on 128 carries, despite missing almost two full games to injury
- Led the team with nine touchdowns (the GSU career record), and scored at least once in the first seven games he played for GSU
- Became the first 100-yard rusher in school history when he gained a then school-record 136 yards on 20 carries in win over South Alabama (10-22-11). Scored the game-winning TD on an eight-yard run in the second overtime.
- Carried the ball on every GSU play on two OT possessions against South Alabama, gaining 43 yards on five carries
- Finished the season with 146 yards on 19 carries in win over Campbell (11-19-11).
- Missed Houston game with a knee sprain. Sprained an ankle vs. St. Francis and was limited to just one carry following week at West Ala.
- Opened his GSU career by rushing for 56 yards on nine carries against Clark Atlanta. Scored touchdowns the first two times he touched the ball (20 yards and three yards)
- Joined the program in 2011 after transferring from Kentucky, where he spent two seasons as a backup
- Kentucky's third-leading rusher in 2010 with 293 yards, two touchdowns and 4.6 yards per carry in 12 games. Also caught 14 passes for 134 yards
