Winners of two straight and six of seven, Georgia State will look to continue its streak facing UNCW on Wednesday night at 7 p.m. from Trask Coliseum in Wilmington, N.C. The Panthers have been outscoring opponents by more than nine points per game and hitting nearly 10 three-pointers per game during the stretch.

Georgia State (12-12, 7-4 CAA) got a record setting performance from R.J. Hunter, a Freshman All-America candidate on Saturday afternoon in its 20-point win over Old Dominion. Hunter set a career-high with 38 points, the seventh most in GSU history, hitting 10 three-pointers, most in GSU history and tied for the most in CAA history.

Following the performance, he was named the Lou Henson National Player of the Week along with CAA Player and Rookie of the Week, the first time a freshman won both awards since Drexel's Chris Fouch accomplished it on Feb. 8, 2010.

"Our team is playing with a ton of confidence right now and the basket looks twice the size for some of our guys," commented head coach Ron Hunter. "As special as R.J.'s game was on Saturday, Manny Atkins just missed a double-double, Devonta had a career-high eight assists and Rashaad Richardson came away with five steals. It just shows how good our entire team is playing right now."

As Hunter mentioned, during the Panthers winning stretch, it has been a true team effort. R.J. Hunter, who has earned rookie of the week honors in each of the last two weeks, is averaging 20.7 points and 4.6 rebounds during the stretch, shooting 46.9 percent from the floor and has made 23 three-pointers.

RS-junior Manny Atkins is averaging 16.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per game, shooting 45.5 percent from three-point range and 97.0 percent from the free throw line, while dishing out 19 assists in those seven games. Junior Devonta White has chipped in 13.4 points per game during the run, dishing out 5.3 assists per game, including a career-high eight against ODU.

Rashaad Richardson is adding 9.7 points per game, shooting 47.2 percent from the floor. Freshman Markus Crider is adding 4.6 points and 4.6 rebounds per game, including a career-high 10 against UNCW, while shooting 61.9 percent from the floor. Senior James Vincent has also stepped up, collecting 5.4 rebounds in the stretch.

“When you have a lot of talented players come together as a team and play with confidence, they can be hard to beat,” continued Hunter. “I like the way we are playing right now, but we have to stay within ourselves and continue to take it one game at a time if we want to reach out goals.”

R.J. Hunter, the leading candidate for CAA Rookie of the Year and in contention for CAA Player of the Year and All-CAA First Team honors, continues to lead all CAA freshmen in scoring and rebounding and is one of just five freshmen in the country averaging at least 17.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game.

Hunter, who was named CAA Rookie of the Week for a sixth time on Monday while collecting his first CAA Player of the Week, is averaging the most points of any CAA freshmen since the 1999-2000 season. He is also on pace to score the most points of any GSU freshmen ever. With seven games remaining, he has scored 416 points and is just 99 points shy Matt O’Brien’s 1989-90 mark of 515.

R.J. Hunter, the only son of head coach Ron Hunter is averaging a team-high 17.3 points per game, fifth in the CAA and 70th in the nation, to go along with 5.5 rebounds per game, tied for the 15th best mark in the conference. He is also collecting 2.4 three-pointers per game, fourth best in the league and shooting 37.2 percent from beyond the arc, also fourth in the conference.

Hunter is also among the CAA leaders in free throw percentage, steals, blocked shots and defensive rebounds.

Junior point guard Devonta White, who earned Preseason All-CAA Second Team honors before the season and was also named to the Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award Watch List by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, is fourth in the CAA in minutes played (35.9) and tied for fifth in steals per game, averaging 1.7 per game.

White is second on the team in scoring, averaging 14.0 points per game, 11th in the CAA, while dishing out 3.8 assists, fourth in the league. The junior has dished out 50 assists in his last nine games, including three games of at least seven assists.

One of three team captains, White, who missed 10 games during his freshman season due to an injury, is just 123 points away from becoming the 17th Panther with 1,000 career points. He is just off pace to eclipse that mark by the end of the year, needing to average 17.6 points per game in the remaining regular season contests.

Redshirt-junior Manny Atkins fell just short of another double-double against Old Dominion on Saturday, scoring 16 points and grabbing nine rebounds. He has missed four double-doubles this season by just one rebound and another four double-doubles by just two rebounds. Atkins collected his first double-double of the season at Drexel on Jan. 26.

He has been nearly unstoppable from the free throw line in conference play, making 39-of-42, a 92.9 percentage, the best mark in the league. He is shooting 85.0 percent from the line for the season, the second best mark in the CAA.

From nearby Tucker, Ga., the Virginia Tech transfer is averaging 13.9 points and 6.3 rebounds per game this season, both 12th in the CAA. He leads the CAA in three-point field goal percentage, hitting 42.2 percent from beyond the arc and is sixth in the CAA making 1.8 three-pointers per game.

Lone senior James Vincent played in his 110th game on Saturday to stand along in tenth in GSU history. He is third on GSU’s all-time blocked shots list with 119 and his 57 blocked shots this season are the fourth most in a single season in GSU history. He is leading the CAA averaging 2.4 blocked shots per game, which also ranks 32nd in the NCAA this year.

UNCW (8-14, 3-7 CAA) is led by All-CAA honoree Keith Rendelman who is averaging 15.8 points and 10.3 rebounds per game. Chris Dixon is second on the team in scoring, averaging 9.4 points per game and has a team high 49 assists.

The Seahawks have lost three straight following an 81-68 loss to Towson on Monday night. The Panthers defeated UNCW earlier this season in the Sports Arena, 81-63 en route to their fifth straight win in the series.

A PERFECT 300

With his 300th win earlier this season at Liberty, coach Ron Hunter joined an elite group of young coaches. He won his 300 in just his 535th game coaching. Hunter will turn 49 on April 7, 2013.

In his impressive career, Hunter has had five 20-plus win seasons and led three teams to the postseason.

TOP HONORS...NO QUESTION

Freshman R.J. Hunter is having an extremely special type of season. Already a lock for CAA Rookie of the Year earning rookie of the week honors six times, Hunter is now a serious contender for CAA Player of the Year, All-CAA First Team honors and Freshman All-America honors. He earned his first CAA Player of the Week honor on Feb. 2.

Below are several notes related to Hunter this season.

NATIONAL HONORS

Hunter earned the Lou Henson National Player of the Week award on Feb. 4 as announced by CollegeInsider.com.

The Lou Henson Award is presented annually to the top Mid-Major player in Division I college basketball.

Hunter swept CAA Player and Rookie of the Week honors on Monday and was also named the CAA Player of the Week by College Sports Madness.

The award is named in honor of Lou Henson who retired after a spectacular coaching career that lasted 41 years. When he left the game in 2005 he was sixth all-time in career Division I wins with 779. He is the winningest coach at both Illinois and New Mexico State. He is one of only 12 coaches in the history of the game to take two schools to the Final Four.

A DICKIE V DIAPER DANDY

Freshman R.J. Hunter, who is averaging 17.3 points per game this season, fifth in the CAA and currently tied for fourth in the nation among all freshmen in scoring. Hunter has scored 20 or more points ten times already this season, including a career-high 38 against Old Dominion on Feb. 2. He is averaging 19.5 points per game in CAA play, which leads the league.

In Dick Vitale's latest ranking of Diaper Dandy's on Jan. 8th, he mentioned:

One unsung diaper dandy is R.J. Hunter of Georgia State, a guard who is playing for his father, Ron Hunter. He is also the godson of former NBA star Ron Harper. Hunter is averaging 15.5 points and 5.8 rebounds per game for the Panthers, and posted a double-double in his college debut against Duke.

On Jan. 17th, ESPN listed its top 25 freshmen in the country with Hunter being list at No. 21, just behind Duke's Rasheed Sulimon.

UNDER THE RADAR PERFORMANCE

Sports Illustrated writer Seth Davis commented on Hunter's performance after scoring 38 naming him the Under the Radar Performer of the Week. He said of Hunter:

Could it be that Doug McDermott is only the second-best player coach's son in America? If Hunter keeps playing the way he did last week, that idea might not seem so far-fetched. The son of Panthers coach Ron Hunter did his old man a solid by turning down the likes of Virginia Tech, Wake Forest and Iowa to play for Georgia State, where R.J. has averaged 17.3 points on 37.2 percent three-point shooting this season. Last week, he set a pair of career highs as he lit up league-leading Northeastern and Old Dominion for 27 and 38 points, respectively. Those performances were especially impressive considering they were both on the road. Those games marked the ninth and tenth times this season that Hunter has scored 23 points or more.

RECORD SETTING PERFORMANCE

Freshman R.J. Hunter poured in a career-high 38 points, including a school and Colonial Athletic Association record 10 three-pointers on Feb. 2 as GSU dismantled Old Dominion, 83-63.

Hunter, one of the top freshman scorers in the nation, hit 10-of-15 shots from beyond the arc and 12-of-18 overall. His 38-point effort is the high for any CAA player this season and the most by a Georgia State player since Anton Reese scored 38 against Kansas State on Nov. 28, 1998. Only six Panthers have ever scored more points in a game.

At one-point in the second half, Hunter scored 19-straight Panther points with five three-pointers, two free throws and a dunk.

The 10 treys by Hunter equalled the CAA record originally set by Dre Smith of George Mason, who hit 10 against James Madison on Jan. 19, 2008.

As a team, Georgia State nailed 16 three-pointers, the second-most in any game in school history. The GSU record is 21 versus West Florida on Dec. 12, 2003, and the Panthers had not hit as many as 16 since 2005.

SIX-STAR FRESHMAN

Freshman R.J. Hunter is only three months into his collegiate career and he has already earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors six times this season, including each of the last two Mondays. Hunter also earned his first CAA Player of the Week honor on Feb. 2 after averaging 32.5 points in two Panther wins against first place Northeastern and Old Dominion.

Hunter has more than the total number of CAA Rookie of the Week honors earned by GSU in the last seven years since joining the league.

His latest honor on Feb. 4 came after averaging 32.5 points, including a career-high 38 points against Old Dominion. At the time, it was the most points scored by a freshman in the country this season. He made 10 three-pointers, a school-record which also tied for the most in CAA history. This followed a 27-point performance at Northeastern, as the Panthers became the first team to defeat the Huskies in CAA play this season.

His Jan. 28 honor came after he averaged 18.0 points and 4.0 rebounds leading the Panthers to a pair of wins. Hunter shot 84.2 percent from the free throw line while dishing out eight assists, swiping four steals and blocking three shots, hitting the game-winning shot at Towson before blocking the Tigers last second attempt at victory.

Jan. 7: he averaged 21.0 points and 6.5 rebounds in the Panthers first two CAA games on Jan. 7th.

Dec. 24: he earned the honor after averaging 23.5 points and 5.0 rebounds in two games for GSU against Southern Miss and Rhode Island.

He earned his first honor in his first collegiate game collecting a double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds in the Panthers loss to No. 8 Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium on Nov. 12.

He earned the award again on Nov. 26 after leading the Panthers to three-straight wins as part of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic. He scored a season-high 25 points to cap the week against South Alabama.

AMONG THE BEST

Freshman R.J. Hunter is having one of the best freshman seasons in school history. He has scored 416 points this season, just 99 shy of the freshman school record. Here is how he compares to some other GSU greats:

1989-90: Matt O'Brien set the freshman mark with 515 points

in 28 games (18.4 per game). His bests were 38, 33 and 32 and he had 10 games with 20 or more points. O'Brien scored in double figures in 23 of the 28 games.

1985-86: James Andrews scored 329 points, averaging 11.8 for GSU, shooting 42.0 percent from the floor. He finished his three-year career with 1,279 points, the fourth most in Panther history.

1994-95: Rodney Hamilton (all-time leading scorer) scored 279 points in his first season en route to 1,515 for this career. He shot 41.1 percent from the floor and 77.0 percent from the free throw line during the year.

BEST CAA FRESHMAN EVER?

R.J. Hunter is playing at an incredible level for a first-year player, exceeding most people's expectations.

Hunter is arguably the leading candidate for the CAA Rookie of the Year award. How does his season stack up to past winners? If it holds, his 16.4 points per game average would be highest since Brett Blizzard's 15.6 ppg in 1999-2000.

NEW AND IMPROVED SCHEDULE

Building his first schedule for Georgia State, head coach Ron Hunter wanted to test his team early, knowing that the squad will face a very difficult CAA schedule in January and February. The Panthers played three teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2012, including opening at No. 8 (ESPN) Duke followed by BYU. The Panthers also hosted Southern Miss.

Georgia State already topped future Sun Belt foe South Alabama, 75-73 as the Jaguars were receiving votes in the ESPN Coaches poll at the time.

Georgia State's strength of schedule reached as high as 19th earlier this season.

LET'S GO STREAKING

Georgia State has won six of seven due to several Panthers stepping up in big ways. Freshman R.J. Hunter, who earned CAA Player of the Week honors on Monday and CAA Rookie of the Week honors each of the last two weeks, is averaging 20.7 points and 4.6 rebounds, shooting 84.2 percent from the free throw line during the seven-game stretch.

Redshirt-junior Manny Atkins is averaging 16.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per game, shooting 45.5 percent from three-point range and 97.0 percent from the free throw line and has dished out 19 assists in those seven games.

Junior Devonta White has chipped in 13.4 points per game during the run, dishing out 5.6 assists per game.

Rashaad Richardson has added 9.7 points per game, shooting 47.2 percent from the floor. Freshman Markus Crider has added 4.6 points and 4.6 rebounds per game, including a career-high 10 against UNCW, while shooting 61.9 percent from the floor.

Senior James Vincent has also stepped up, averaging 5.4 rebounds and 2.0 blocks per game.

IF THEY ARE FREE...

Against Delaware and William & Mary, Georgia State shot an impressive 43-47 from the free throw line, a 91.4 percent make rate. After struggling from the line earlier in the year, the Panthers are making 78.9 percent in CAA play, upping their season average to 71.9 percent.

Georgia State had a streak of 18 straight makes come to an end at Old Dominion, finishing the game 16-of-22.

Best streaks this year:

Devonta White - 20 straight (dating back to last year, ended at Duke)

Manny Atkins - 19 straight (started at Towson to present)

- 15 straight (came to an end 1/21 at Towson)

R.J. Hunter - 15 straight (came to an end 1/23 vs. UNCW)

The school record is 23 straight made by Nate Williams from Jan. 13-Feb. 12, 2004.

MOVING ON UP...

This will mark Georgia State's final season in the Colonial Athletic Association. As of July 1, 2013, the Panthers will join the highly-competitive Sun Belt Conference, led by new Commissioner Karl Benson.

Due to a 12-year old CAA rule, the Panthers, along with Old Dominion which is moving to Conference USA, will not be eligible for the CAA Tournament in March. However, Georgia State is eligible for all postseason tournaments, including the NCAA and NIT.

WHITE NAMED TO TOP LIST

Junior point guard and captain Devonta White was named to the Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on Dec. 20, the second year in a row a Panther has been named to the list.

Before the season, White picked up a pair of preseason honors, being named to the All-CAA Preseason Second Team and College Sports Madness All-CAA Third Team.

Last season, James Fields was named to the same list as he finished his career playing the second most games in school history.

THE SERIES WITH UNCW

Georgia State leads the all-time series with UNCW 9-5 and have won five straight, including the two school's first match-up this season in Atlanta on Jan. 23.

The Panthers earned an impressive 81-63 victory that night.

In the first match-up this season, Manny Atkins and R.J. Hunter scored 19 points each and Devonta White added 17 as GSU won its fourth straight game.

UNCW's Keith Rendleman tied his season high with 23 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his third straight double-double.

BLOCK PARTY

Senior James Vincent tied the school record with nine blocked shots against Monmouth on Nov. 19 and record eight blocked shots against James Madison on Jan. 5. Nicknamed "Oak", the 6-10 big fella tied the record of Sylvester Morgan that was set against Mercer on Jan. 23, 2005. He currently has 55 blocks this season, a 2.4 per game average, most in the CAA.

MOST IMPROVED

Georgia State finished the 2011-12 season among the most improved in the country. The Panthers finished plus-10 in wins, concluding with the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. The Panthers finished the 2010-11 season 12-19.

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR

Redshirt-junior Manny Atkins has had a very special season already this year, but a rebound here or there could make it even more special.

Atkins recorded his first double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds at Drexel on Jan. 26.

Atkins has missed a double-double four times already this season by just one rebound, to go along with four more games that he missed by two rebounds, including Saturday against JMU.

IF he had secured all of those double-doubles, he would be tied for 17th in the country in the latest NCAA rankings.

CLIMBING THE MOUNTAIN

Senior James Vincent is quickly moving up the school's single-season and all-time blocked shots list. Despite being outside the top ten entering the year, he is already moved up to third on the all-time list with 57 blocked shots this season and has 119 for this career.

With three blocked shots at Towson, Vincent moved into fourth in a single-season in school history and now with 57, just five shy of Zavian Smith for third.

CENTENNIAL GAME

Georgia State University will celebrate its 100th year anniversary during 2013. To help kick-off the festivities in January, the Panthers played the Centennial Game on Jan. 12 against Delaware, falling in a heartbreaker, 86-83.

Trailing by 11 with under two minutes to play, GSU mounted a furious comeback to tie the score at 83-all before Delaware's Devon Saddler hit a three-pointer with 0.8 seconds remaining to secure the win.

ELITE COMPANY

With his start against Drexel on Jan. 2, James Vincent played in his 100th game in a Panther uniform. That put him in elite company and he moved into GSU's top 10 at Northeastern on Jan. 30. With seven games remaining the Panthers regular season, he just moved ahead of all-time leading scorer Rodney Hamilton for tenth, just one back of Herman Favors.

GOING BAREFOOT

Coach Ron Hunter coached his sixth annual barefoot game in support of Samaritan's Feet against William & Mary on Jan. 16 at the GSU Sports Arena. After trailing by 14 in the first half, the Panthers stormed back to earn a 74-58 victory against the Tribe.

Last year, his first with the Panthers, GSU earned a 75-61 victory over UNCW while wearing orange jerseys to help raise awareness for the cause.

Hunter has coached a game in his bare feet in each of the last five seasons in support of Samaritan's Feet, an organization that provides shoes for underprivileged children around the world.

FATHER & SON

For the first time in R.J. Hunter's career, his father will be coaching him on the sidelines. Although R.J. spent plenty of time watching his dad coach while at IUPUI for 17 years, the youngest Hunter was never coached by dad Ron at any level.

The duo is one of just seven pairs of father and son pairs in the NCAA this year. The group includes:

Steve & Kory Alford	New Mexico
Jim & Billy Baron	Canisius
Ron & R.J. Hunter	Georgia State
Greg & Doug McDermott	Creighton
Ray & Ray McCallum	Detroit
Dale & Ethan Layer	Liberty
Todd & Blake Bozeman	Morgan State

HELPING OTHERS

The Georgia State basketball staff and players traveled to South Africa in early August for a different kind of overseas trip. Rather than playing games, the team, working with Samaritan's Feet, distributed shoes to children in South Africa. Coach Hunter, who is heavily involved with Samaritan's Feet, made his sixth trip abroad and first with his Panther squad. He previously brought his IUPUI team to Lima, Peru several years ago.

During the 10-day trip, Georgia State did several shoe distributions. There was also some free time worked into the trip that allowed the team to see the national aquarium, go on a safari and visit Cape Point, where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans connect.

A NEW ERA OF GSU BASKETBALL

After being named the 15th head coach of Georgia State on March 21, 2011, Ron Hunter set out to change the culture of Panther basketball and he did that in his first year.

Compiling a 22-12 record, Hunter won the second most

HEAD COACH RON HUNTER

Ron Hunter restored the Georgia State program to national prominence in just his first year as head coach of the Panthers during the 2011-12 season. Georgia State won 22 games, the second most in school history, advancing to the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Post-season Tournament, the Panthers fourth-ever postseason appearance.

Hunter has won 296 games in 18 seasons, but the accomplishments made by the 2011-12 team might be the most special. After being named head coach on March, 21, 2011, he built a squad that finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring defense, defensive shooting percentage, steals and blocked shots, as six seniors finished their careers triumphantly.

Following the record-setting season, Hunter was named Atlanta Tip-off Club Georgia Coach of the Year, while his players earned a record-number of conference and national awards.

National notoriety is nothing new for Hunter. While at IUPUI, he was lauded for his humanitarian efforts, partnering with Samaritan's Feet, an organization that collects shoes for underprivileged children around the world.

He continued that work in Atlanta, coaching the Panthers while barefoot to victory over UNCW in front of the largest crowd in the Sports Arena since 2007.

While leading IUPUI to 25 or more wins in two of his final four seasons, Hunter began to partner with Samaritan's Feet, an organization that collects shoes for underprivileged children around the world. On Jan. 24, 2008, he coached IUPUI against Oakland in his bare feet to help raise awareness for the cause. By tipoff, Hunter's efforts had raised more than 100,000 pairs of shoes, and to date, that number has climbed well above 250,000.

During his first season at Georgia State, Hunter led the Panthers to the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament, just the fourth time GSU earned a postseason bid. The Panthers opened the tournament at home, another first, hosting a postseason contest and earning an impressive 74-43 victory against Tennessee Tech.

Earlier in the year, Hunter's squad won 11 straight games, a school-record, earning impressive victories over CAA preseason favorite Drexel and at VCU. The streak included wins of 32, 32 and 31 points.

The Panthers winning ways continued in the CAA Tournament with a record-setting 35-point victory against Hofstra in the first round, the largest margin of victory in CAA Championship history.

Hunter's resume includes numerous national honors including an NABC Guardians of the Game Pillar Award for Service, the 2009 Giant Steps Award from the National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS), and a Minority Achievement Award from the Center for Leadership Development (CLD).

He was one of seven head coaches who served on the Division I Basketball Academic Enhancement Group, as appointed by late NCAA President Myles Brand, and he is a member of the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC) Board of Directors.

Hunter, 48, earned his bachelor's degree in education at Miami in 1986 and added a master's in 1987. He was a standout player on strong Miami teams of the mid-1980s, along with high school and college teammate Ron Harper, who went on to a long NBA career. The Redhawks were 81-30 during Hunter's four-year career and earned three consecutive NCAA Tournament berths while winning two MAC championships.

AT GEORGIA STATE:

After an injury derailed his freshman season, started 33 of 34 games during his sophomore year, increasing his production in every statistical category . . . Point guard who was one of the top prep prospects in Georgia in the Class of 2010 . . . Lacks size but possesses excellent quickness and floor leadership.

2012-13 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Named to the All-CAA Preseason Coaches Second Team.
- Currently just 123 points shy of becoming the Panthers 17th 1,000-point scorer. Has scored in double figures in all but one game this season.
- Had at least one steal in 17 straight games dating back to last season, before not swiping a steal against Hofsta (1/7).
- Fourth in the CAA in minutes averaged per game at 35.9.
- Tied for fifth in the CAA in steals per game, averaging 1.7.
- Entered the season making 17 straight free throws, and added three against Duke before streak came to an end. His 20 straight free throws is the fourth longest mark in GSU history, just three behind the record of 23 held by Nate Williams during the 2004 season.
- Scored a team-high 19 points, hitting 3-of-5 from three-point range while grabbing three steals against No. 8 Duke.
- Played just under 40 minutes against Tennessee State, scoring 19 points on 6-of-8 shooting with three three-pointers.
- Tied a team-high with 17 points while dishing out 5 assists at Liberty.
- Scored 16 points, hitting three three-pointers, and tied a career-high with 4 steals against Southern Poly.
- Tied a career-high with six rebounds at Georgia Southern, while scoring 14 points and dishing out 4 assists in 43 minutes.
- Dished 7 assists against James Madison, adding 11 points and 2 steals in 36 minutes.
- Scored 18 points, making 6-of-6 FT's, dishing out 6 assists and grabbing 5 rebounds against Delaware.
- Finished with 15 points and 7 assists against Old Dominion.

Game 1: November 9, 2012, 7 p.m. (ESPNU)

#8 DUKE 74, GEORGIA STATE 55

Cameron Indoor Stadium • Durham, N.C.

Opening the 2012-13 season at one of college basketball's cathedrals, Georgia State fell to No. 8 Duke, 74-55, Friday at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Junior point guard Devonta White, the Panthers' only returning starter, led GSU with 19 points, and freshman R.J. Hunter had 14 points and 10 rebounds in his debut.

Mason Plumlee paced Duke (1-0) with 19 points and 14 rebounds.

GSU (0-1) kept it close early, trailing just 17-15 with 7:48 remaining in the first half before the Blue Devils started to pull away.

Georgia State, playing its first game ever in Cameron Indoor, got off to a quick start after Duke won the tip. R.J. Hunter quickly got a steal that led to a fast break lay-up to give the Panthers a 2-0 lead.

The Blue Devils followed with an 8-0 run to take an 8-2 at the first media timeout. Junior Denny Burguillos, making his GSU debut picked up two quick fouls in the first 2:22 forcing Coach Hunter to use three big men in the first half and continued to sub with James Vincent and T.J. Shipes throughout the second half.

Georgia State responded as Vincent's lay-up in the paint cut Duke's lead to 17-15 with 7:48 remaining in the first half. Unfortunately, Duke pulled away with a 15-7 run to open up a 32-22 lead at halftime.

Duke held Georgia State to 32 percent shooting in the first half, including just 1-of-8 from three-point range.

White made his first three free throws of the second half, extending his streak to 20 straight makes dating back to last season. His streak came to an end just three shy of Nate Williams school-record of 23 midway through the second half with the miss with 11:11 to play.

Trailing by 22 with 13:19 remaining in the game, Georgia State made a run to cut the deficit to 55-40 with 9:02 remaining. Duke responded with a pair of three-pointers pushed the lead back to 21.

A free throw by Devonta White cut the deficit to 14 with 3:41 to play, but that is as close as GSU would get.

Vincent finished the game with eight points and five boards off the bench.

The Panthers were held to 37.3 percent shooting, but knocked down 4-of-6 from three-point range in the second half.

Duke shot 11-of-24 from three-point range and 51.1 percent for the game.

Game 2: November 13, 2012, 9 p.m. (BYUtv)

BYU 80, GEORGIA STATE 62

Marriott Center • Provo, Utah

BYU opened Tuesday night's game with a 31-2 run and Georgia State was never able to fully recover, falling to the Cougars, 80-62, at the Marriott Center in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic.

Redshirt-junior Manny Atkins scored a career-high 21 points on 9-of-18 shooting, pulling down a career-high eight rebounds in the loss.

BYU (2-0) held Georgia State (0-2) to just 35.4 percent shooting and 13.6 percent from three-point range.

Despite trailing by as many as 29 with 10:31 to play in the first half, the Panthers cut the Cougars lead to just 11 points, 56-43, with 9:25 to play, but that is as close as GSU would get. BYU center Brandon Davies finished with 28 points on 10-of-14 shooting, making 8-of-10 from the free throw line and grabbing nine rebounds. Tyler Haws added 22 points, seven rebounds and five assists for the Cougars who finished the game shooting 51.7 percent from the floor.

After opening the season before a sell-out crowd at No. 8 Duke, Georgia State played in front of a hostile 13,181 tonight.

Atkins, the redshirt-junior transfer from Virginia Tech, finished with career-highs in nearly every category and sparked the Panthers second half run. He was 3-of-6 from three-point range and swiped three steals in 36 minutes of action.

Junior Devonta White added 14 points and five rebounds for GSU, while freshman R.J. Hunter scored 12 points, going 8-of-9 from the free throw line. Junior Denny Burguillos added nine points and six rebounds, going 4-of-6 from the floor.

BYU opened the game red-hot, taking a 15-0 lead and expanding it to 25-2 with 12:41 to play before the first media time-out. The Cougars hit 12 of their first 16 shots, including 5-of-5 from three-point range, forcing Hunter to use two timeouts before the first media.

Trailing by 27, 40-13, GSU used a 9-0 run to cut the deficit to 40-22 with 1:27 to play in the first half. Georgia State trailed 44-26 at halftime.

After shooting over 70 percent for most of the first half, BYU finished the first half shooting 58.1 percent, including 6-of-12 from three-point range. BYU held Georgia State to just 26.5 percent shooting and 2-of-12 from three-point range during the first 20 minutes.

Matt Carlino added 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting, dishing out seven assists and swiping four steals for BYU.

GEORGIA STATE 62, MONMOUTH 49

Coaches vs. Cancer Classic • GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Devonta White scored 16 points and James Vincent tied the school record with nine blocked shots as Georgia State defeated Monmouth, 62-49, Monday at the GSU Sports Arena on day one of the Coaches vs. Cancer Atlanta Subregional.

R.J. Hunter added 14 points and five rebounds for the Panthers in their home opener.

Vincent, who also had five points and eight rebounds, tied the GSU record originally set by Sylvester Morgan against Mercer on Jan. 23, 2005. As a team, the Panthers finished with 13 blocks, one off the school record of 14 set last season versus FIU.

Georgia State improved to 1-2 and won its second straight home opener under head coach Ron Hunter.

"Our defense carried us tonight," commented Hunter. "We were able to force 19 turnovers which I am happy about, but I am extremely disappointed with our team having 21 turnovers and too many missed free throws. We have to clean that up if we want to be a great team."

"I am really proud of James. He played extremely well tonight. When he plays with that type of effort, he can be one of the best big men around. James played like a senior tonight and I commend him for it."

The Panthers shot 51 percent from the field while holding Monmouth to 27.8 percent as the Hawks managed just 15 of 54 from the field.

Andrew Nicholas led Monmouth (1-3) with 10 points, while Ed Waite added a team high nine rebounds.

GSU led 30-23 at the half and then scored the first eight points of the second half to build a 15-point advantage. The Panthers built their largest lead of 17 points at 51-34 on a pair of free throws by Manny Atkins at the 11:00 mark.

Leading 51-38 with seven minutes left, Georgia State held the Hawks without a field goal for a six-minute stretch. Monmouth managed only six field goals in the second half.

Sophomore Cameron Solomon came off the bench to score eight points on a perfect 4-of-4 shooting. Junior Rashaad Richardson added nine points on 4-of-5 shooting.

In Monday's early game, Tennessee State defeated South Alabama, 67-58.

Game 4: November 20, 2012, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 59, TENNESSEE STATE 57

Coaches vs. Cancer Classic • GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Rashaad Richardson sank a half-court heave at the buzzer to give Georgia State a 59-57 victory over Tennessee State Tuesday night on day two of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic Atlanta Subregional, played at the GSU Sports Arena.

Tennessee State's DeShawn Dockery appeared to win the game for the Tigers (1-4), coached by former GSU player Travis Williams, with a driving layup with two seconds left that put TSU ahead, 57-56. After a timeout, Manny Atkins inbounded the ball to Richardson, who caught the ball right at half court, turned and heaved the 45-foot shot into the basket.

The lead actually changed hands four times in the final 25 seconds and three times in last seven seconds. With the Panthers holding a 54-52 lead, TSU's Jordan Cyphers drained a three-pointer with 25 seconds left to put Tennessee State up, 55-54. Georgia State (2-2) then regained the lead on a pair of free throws by Cameron Solomon with seven seconds left to set up the final drama.

Devonta White scored a game-high 19 points for Georgia State, hitting 6-of-8 from the floor, including three three-pointers.

The Panthers likely could have won the game in less-dramatic fashion with better free throw shooting, as GSU went just 11-for-19 from the line and missed three crucial foul shots in the final two minutes that could have helped seal the victory.

The lead changed hands 16 times in the second half, with neither team leading by more than seven points.

Georgia State trailed 44-43 with seven minutes to play, when Solomon and James Vincent completed back-to-back three-point plays as GSU moved ahead, 49-44 with 5:56 left. A layup by Atkins pushed the Panthers' advantage to 51-44 at 4:53.

But Tennessee State reeled off eight straight points on a dunk by Robert Covington and then three-pointers by Dockery and Patrick Miller to regain the lead at 52-51 with 2:24 left.

White made one of two free throws to tie the game at 52-all, and then Vincent also made one of two for a 53-52 advantage with 1:29 on the clock. White was back at the free throw line with 37 seconds left and a change to give the Panthers a three-point lead, but he again made just one of two free throws, and GSU led 54-52.

Cameron Solomon added 10 points off the bench, making 4-of-5 free throws for GSU.

Covington led Tennessee State with 13 points, while Miller and Jordan added 12 each.

GEORGIA STATE 75, SOUTH ALABAMA 73

Coaches vs. Cancer Classic • GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Manny Atkins scored 26 points and R.J. Hunter added 25 as Georgia State held off South Alabama, 75-73, in the final game of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic Atlanta Subregional at the GSU Sports Arena.

GSU won three games in the three-day event to improve to 3-2 on the season, while South Alabama dropped three straight to fall to 2-3, despite 31 points and 11 rebounds by Augustine Rubit.

Atkins, the transfer from Virginia Tech, scored 19 of his 26 points in the first half, while the freshman Hunter did most of his damage in the second half with 14 points in the final 13 minutes. Both players achieved career highs less than 24 hours after the duo combined to hit just three of 18 shots in yesterday's GSU win.

Atkins hit six of seven shots from the field with four three-pointers in his first-half barrage. Georgia State shot 52 percent from the field in the half, including 8-for-14 from three-point range, to open a 43-35 lead at the intermission.

The Panthers led 47-37 with 17 minutes to play when the Jaguars reeled off 10 straight points, tying the game at 47-all on Mychal Ammons' three-pointer at 14:34.

Devonta White's layup gave the Panthers a lead they would not relinquish, and then Hunter hit back-to-back three-pointers to push the GSU advantage to 55-49.

South Alabama would stay within striking distance the rest of the way. A layup by Rubit pulled the Jaguars within 64-63 at the 4:48 mark, but Hunter answered with a three-point play and then two free throws. Atkins nailed a three-pointer, his first field goal of the second half, to increase the GSU lead to 72-64 with 2:22 left.

The Jaguars had one more run. Trailing 74-67 after an Atkins bucket at 1:30, Xavier Robinson hit back-to-back three-pointers, and suddenly, GSU's lead was just 74-73 with 35 seconds to go. Hunter was fouled with 16 seconds left and made one of two free throws. South Alabama advanced the ball over half court and called timeout, but the Jaguars failed to get off a good shot in the final seconds.

Cameron Solomon joined Atkins and Hunter in double figures with 10 points off the bench for GSU, while White finished with nine.

Georgia State shot 50 percent for the game, including 11-for-18 from three-point range, but the Panthers were out-rebounded 36-26.

EAST CAROLINA 62, GEORGIA STATE 53

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Maurice Kemp scored 16 points and grabbed 11 rebounds as undefeated East Carolina downed Georgia State, 62-53, Monday at the GSU Sports Arena, snapping the Panthers' three-game winning streak.

The Pirates moved to 5-0 on the season, while Georgia State evened its record at 3-3.

Manny Atkins led Georgia State with 15 points and eight rebounds, and Devonta White added 13 points.

Both teams shot below 40 percent from the field, but ECU outrebounded the Panthers, 47-26. The Pirates grabbed 18 offensive rebounds.

"I tip my cap to Coach Lebo and East Carolina," commented head coach Ron Hunter after the game. "My team is young and tonight we got beat by a well-coached, experienced team. Experience is the one thing you can not recruit or coach and tonight, our inexperience showed.

"East Carolina used their experience to hit the boards hard tonight and they used it to their advantage. They outrebounded us in a big way and never allowed us to get into a rhythm."

East Carolina led from the opening tip, scoring the first eight points en route to a 31-20 halftime advantage. The closest the Panthers could come in the second half was seven points, pulling within 38-31 on a bucket by Atkins with 13 minutes to play.

Georgia State was within eight at 46-38 with eight minutes left, before Robert Sampson nailed a three-pointer to begin an 8-1 run that pushed the Pirates lead to 54-39.

Sampson, an Atlanta native and the son of former NBA player Ralph Sampson, contributed a double-double for ECU with 12 points and 16 rebounds.

True freshman T.J. Shipes saw his first significant action for the Panthers and contributed six points in 16 minutes.

Shamarr Bowden added 10 points off the bench for the Pirates.

LOUISIANA TECH 86, GEORGIA STATE 68

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Raheem Appleby scored 34 points as Louisiana Tech defeated Georgia State, 86-68, Friday at the GSU Sports Arena.

R.J. Hunter scored 23 points and Manny Atkins and Devonta White added 13 each to lead Georgia State, which dropped to 3-4 on the season. Louisiana Tech won its seventh straight game to improve to 7-1.

The Panthers played before a season-high crowd of 2,105 at the Sports Arena but could not find their shooting touch, managing to hit just 35 percent from the field. Meanwhile Louisiana Tech connected on 54 percent, including 14-for-19 by Appleby, who achieved his career high. The Bulldogs also held the rebounding advantage at 45-36.

"We just got beat by a very good Louisiana Tech team tonight," commented head coach Ron Hunter. "Our young team is not ready to play against experienced teams like that."

"The total record of the teams we have lost to this year is 22-2. I wanted to test our guys early this season and we have definitely done that. The good thing is that we are learning from these games and will continue to get better."

Hunter finished the game 9-of-19 from the floor, pulling down seven rebounds and tying a career-high with four steals. Atkins just missed a double-double for the Panthers, pulling down nine rebounds in a team-high 33 minutes of action, while White added four steals.

Georgia State took an early 14-7 lead before the Bulldogs used a 7-1 run to move ahead 21-15 and then never trailed again. Louisiana Tech led 44-30 at the half.

The Bulldogs pushed the lead to as many as 28 points with 14:57 remaining in the game, but Georgia State never gave up, cutting it to the 18-point final.

Redshirt-sophomore Cameron Solomon came off the bench to score seven points in six minutes for Georgia State, while junior Rashaad Richardson chipped in six with a pair of three-pointers.

Also in double figures for the Bulldogs were Kenneth Smith with 15 points and Cordarius Johnson with 14.

Georgia State finished with a season-high 14 steals and forced 19 Bulldog turnovers.

GEORGIA STATE 67, LIBERTY 66

Vines Center • Lynchburg, Va.

It wasn't a half-court shot this time, but junior Rashaad Richardson's three-pointer with less than three seconds left gave Georgia State a 67-66 win at Liberty in the Vines Center on Sunday afternoon. The win gave Panther head coach Ron Hunter the 300th of his career.

Richardson, who hit a half-court buzzer beater just 10 days ago to lift the Panthers over Tennessee State, came off a screen near the top of the arc, hitting his second three of the day.

Hunter, in his second year at the helm of the Panthers, won the 300th game in just his 535 contests.

Georgia State snapped a two-game losing streak and improved to 4-4 with the win, while Liberty fell to 0-8 on the season.

Juniors Manny Atkins and Devonta White each scored 17 points to lead Georgia State, while Davon Marshall led Liberty with 25 points.

After trailing 37-29 at the half, Georgia State opened the second half on a 9-0 run, capped by a Richardson three-pointer to give the Panthers a 38-37 lead with 16:42 remaining in the game. However, it was the final three that had everyone talking after the game.

Liberty opened the game red-hot in the first half from beyond the arc, hitting 8-of-13 to build its eight-point lead at the half. The Flames finished the game 12-of-24 from three-point range, only slightly cooling off in the second half.

The two teams traded leads seven times, including five times as the game was not decided until the final possession.

Davon Marshall's three-pointer with 49 seconds remaining gave the Flames a 63-58 lead before GSU finished the game on a 9-3 run.

Following a tip-in and free throw by senior James Vincent cut the deficit to two, Marshall hit another pair of free throws to give Liberty a four-point lead.

Freshman R.J. Hunter, who finished with 12 points and seven rebounds, followed with a dunk with free throw with 18 seconds to play to cut the deficit to one.

Liberty's Casey Roberts made the first of two free throws before the Panthers drove to half-court as Hunter called a timeout setting up the final play.

Richardson finished the game 3-of-6 from the floor, including a pair of three's for 10 points as four Panthers finished in double-figures.

Redshirt-sophomore Cameron Solomon once again provided a spark off the bench, scoring eight points on 4-of-6 shooting in 21 minutes.

GEORGIA STATE 86, SOUTHERN POLY 58

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

R.J. Hunter scored 21 points and Devonta White and Manny Atkins added 16 each as Georgia State defeated Southern Poly, 86-58, Saturday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena.

The trio of Hunter, White and Atkins also combined for 13 rebounds, 11 assists and seven steals. The GSU bench also made strong contributions as Rashaad Richardson scored 15 points, and James Vincent collected seven points, a career-high 12 rebounds, three blocked shots and three assists.

The Panthers improved to 5-4 on the season. For Southern Poly (5-5), an NAIA program, the game counted as an exhibition.

Southern Poly stayed close in the first half by hitting nine three-pointers, five of them by Chase Robinson, who scored 19 first-half points. Robinson finished with 27 points.

The Hornets took a one point lead on Devon Butler's three-pointer with 18 seconds left in the first half, but R.J. Hunter answered for GSU with trey to send the Panthers into the locker room with a 37-35 lead.

Southern Poly scored first to open the second half, tying the game at 37-37. After the teams traded three-pointers, a jumper by Hunter gave Georgia State the lead for good at 42-40.

Hunter's bucket ignited a 13-0 run for the Panthers. White hit a short jumper in the lane, then stole the ball in the back-court and converted a layup for a 46-40 lead. Hunter drained another trey, and then White passed behind his back to feed Vincent for a dunk. After GSU forced a turnover, Vincent made another layup to put the Panthers ahead, 53-40, with 14:36 to play.

Georgia State shot 51.6 percent from the field, including 56 percent in the second half, in which the Panthers outscored Southern Poly, 49-23. GSU held a 44-29 advantage on the boards.

Southern Poly shot just 34.5 percent but made 12 three-pointers to stay within 10 points until the final 10 minutes of the game.

R.J. Hunter finished 7-of-12 from the floor, including 4-of-8 from three-point range, while Atkins was 6-of-11 from the floor. White also finished 6-of-11, including 3-of-6 from three-point range.

TROY 57, GEORGIA STATE 56

Trojan Arena • Troy, Ala.

Georgia State overcame a 14-point halftime deficit to lead late before falling to Troy, 57-56, on a free throw with 33.9 seconds left Saturday night at the Trojan Arena.

The Panthers (5-5) took a 56-51 lead on Devonta White's layup with 1:47 left. Troy answered with a three-point play by Antoine Myers with 1:16 to play to pull within two. The Trojans then came up with a steal in the backcourt, and Hunter Williams fed Myers for the tying layup with 1:05 left.

With the score tied at 56-56, GSU missed twice from close range before center James Vincent was whistled for a foul on the rebound, and Ray Chambers made one of two free throws to put Troy ahead, 57-56 with 33.9 seconds left.

After a miss by GSU and then a missed free throw by Troy, the Panthers had one final chance when Vincent was fouled with less than a second on the clock, but he could not convert from the free throw line.

"This has kind of been the story all year," commented head coach Ron Hunter after the loss. "We come out slow and then fight back, but tonight it was too little too late.

"We were just 15-of-23 from the free throw line and that is not good enough to win. We have not shot well from the line all season and tonight it proved costly."

After falling behind 30-16 at the half, GSU still trailed by nine at 42-33 with less than 13 minutes to play. The Panthers reeled off nine straight points to tie the game at 42-42 on a three-pointer by R.J. Hunter. The score was still tied at 46-46 with less than seven minutes left when a bucket by White gave the Panthers their first lead since Atkins scored the first bucket of the game.

White led GSU with 13 points, 11 of them in the second half. Atkins added 12 points and nine rebounds, and Vincent contributed 10 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots, moving into sixth place in GSU history with 87 career blocks.

Chambers paced Troy with 18 points on 8-for-11 shooting and seven rebounds. The Trojans snapped a five-game losing streak to improve to 5-7.

Georgia State fell behind with a frigid first half in which the Panthers managed to shoot just 5-for-21 (24 percent) in the first half. GSU had more turnovers (9) than field goals in the opening half and trailed by as many as 16 points before taking a 14-point deficit into the locker room.

SOUTHERN MISS 69, GEORGIA STATE 67

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Southern Miss, 69-67, Tuesday at the GSU Sports Arena. R.J. Hunter scored 24 points for the Panthers, but Jerrold Brooks answered with a career-high 23 for the Golden Eagles, including the go-ahead three-pointer with 2:03 left in the game.

Georgia State dropped its second in a row to fall to 5-6 on the season, while Southern Miss improved to 8-3.

GSU led 63-59 after a three-point play by Manny Atkins with 3:32 to play. Norville Carey made a layup for Southern Miss, and then after a GSU turnover, Carey's jumper tied the game at 63-all with 2:39 left. He missed the ensuing free throw, but Southern Miss grabbed the rebound, and Jonathan Mills added two free throws to give the Eagles a 65-63 lead with 2:21 left.

Devonta White was fouled in the backcourt and made a pair of foul shots to knot the score again at 65-all before Brooks nailed his three to put the Eagles ahead for good, 68-65.

Brooks made one of two free throws, so GSU had one final chance, down 69-67 with five seconds left, but Crider's three-point attempt from the top of the circle was off the mark.

Hunter scored 20 of his points in the first half as he went 6-for-8 from three-point range. He hit three straight to open the game, and then his fifth try of the half put the Panthers ahead, 29-27, with 2:24 to play. He nailed one more with 22 seconds left to help send Georgia State into the locker room with a 34-31 halftime lead.

The Panthers led by as many as 11 points in the second half, moving ahead 52-41 on a layup by James Vincent with 12 minutes to go.

Hunter finished 8-for-16 from the field with six three-pointers, but Brooks was just as good for Southern Miss, hitting 5-of-7 from beyond the arc and 7-for-10 overall.

White and Atkins also reached double figures for GSU, scoring 13 points each.

Dwayne Davis added 12 points and five rebounds for the Golden Eagles.

As a team, Georgia State connected on 10-of-24 from three-point range but just 15-of-22 free throws. GSU shot 44.7 percent from the field while allowing Southern Miss to hit 50 percent of its shots.

RHODE ISLAND 65, GEORGIA STATE 60

Ryan Center • Kingston, R.I.

Georgia State suffered its third straight close loss, falling 65-60 at Rhode Island Saturday afternoon at the Ryan Center in Kingston, R.I., despite 23 points by freshman R.J. Hunter.

The Panthers have dropped three straight games by a total of eight points to fall to 5-7 on the season. Rhode Island improved to 4-7 and has won three of four.

Rhode Island's Xavier Munford scored all 17 of his points in the second half, including 12 straight in a key run that put Rhode Island ahead for good.

With the score tied at 42-all and just under nine minutes to play, Munford scored 12 consecutive points for the Rams, including three straight three-pointers—one of them a four-point play—to put URI ahead 54-44 with six minutes left.

Georgia State fought back, pulling within 59-57 on a layup by Rashaad Richardson with 2:22 left, but the Rams answered with a bucket by Mike Powell to move ahead by four. URI added a free throw with 1:47 left, but after a three-point play by Manny Atkins, GSU trailed 62-60 with 1:27 to play.

After a miss by the Rams, the Panthers had a possession to tie or take the lead, but Devonta White's driving layup was blocked with 28 seconds left. But Munford made only one of two free throws giving GSU one final chance to tie, but Atkins' three-point try was off the mark with 12 seconds left.

"We just have to learn how to finish games," said GSU head coach Ron Hunter. "We played hard, but our margin of error is thin. We didn't lose the game because we played badly; we just have to make a few more plays at the end.

"These are the growing pains of building a program," Hunter continued. "Our fortunes will turn."

The Panthers got off to a slow start, missing their first seven shots from the field to fall behind 10-1. GSU trailed 22-12 with six minutes to play in the half, but a three-pointer by White and a pair of free throws by Hunter in the final minute sent GSU into the locker room with a 27-24 deficit. Hunter scored 12 of the Panthers' 24 points in the first half.

Georgia State stayed close for the first 10 minutes of the second half before final tying the game on Richardson's three-pointer with 10:40 left, but the Panthers never led in the game.

Hunter, who also had six rebounds, topped the 20-point mark for the second straight game and the fifth time this season. Atkins contributed 14 points, nine rebounds and three steals for GSU, and White added 14 points.

Georgia State managed to shoot just 39.6 percent from the field, including 4-for-17 from beyond the arc. Rhode Island was only slightly better at 44.7 percent, but the Rams made eight three-pointers. Nicola Malesevich led URI with 22 points

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 68, GEORGIA STATE 64

Hanner Fieldhouse • Statesboro, Ga.

Georgia Southern rallied from 10 points down in the final two minutes to force overtime and then pulled away in the extra session for a 68-64 victory over Georgia State Saturday afternoon at Hanner Fieldhouse.

Georgia State raced to a big lead in the first half but dropped its fourth straight game in close fashion to fall to 5-8 on the season. The four losses have been by a total of 12 points. Georgia Southern improved to 6-7.

Georgia Southern's Eric Ferguson tied the game with a three-pointer with 20 seconds left in regulation to cap the Eagles' late rally. The Panthers had two final shots, but Manny Atkins' layup under the basket was swatted away with 7.5 seconds left, and Devonta White's three-point try at the buzzer was no good.

C.J. Reed's three-pointer with 2:15 to play in the overtime game gave Georgia Southern its first lead of the game at 60-57. White answered with a pair of free throws for Georgia State, but Ferguson, who finished with a game-high 24 points, nailed another three to put Georgia Southern ahead 63-59, and the Eagles held on for the win.

Four Panthers scored in double figures, led by White and R.J. Hunter with 14 points each, and Manny Atkins and James Vincent with 11 apiece. But Hunter fouled out in the final three minutes of regulation, Rashaad Richardson fouled in the overtime, and Vincent spent much of the second half on the bench after picking up his fourth foul shortly after the intermission.

Georgia State raced to a 17-point lead in the first half and still led 55-45 with under two minutes to play, but the Panthers committed four turnovers and missed two free throws, including the front end of a one-and-one.

A layup by Georgia Southern's Brian Holmes with 1:47 left made the score 55-47, White missed the front end of a one-one, and then Ferguson threw up a wild shot from the lane as he was fouled, and the ball dropped in. He also made the free throw to pull the Eagles within 55-50 with 1:21 still to play.

With Georgia State trying to run down the clock on offense, Atkins was whistled for a five-second violation with 58 seconds to go. Ferguson made a pair of free throws, and Georgia Southern trailed just 55-52 with 47 seconds left.

Clinging to a three-point lead, the Panthers turned the ball over on the inbounds play, giving possession back to the Eagles. Georgia Southern then gave the ball right back to the Panthers on a travelling call. Georgia State managed to inbound the ball, but White got trapped in the backcourt and the Panthers did not have a timeout left, setting up Ferguson's tying try.

DREXEL 77, GEORGIA STATE 60

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Frantz Massanat scored 25 points as Drexel defeated Georgia State, 77-60, Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena in the Colonial Athletic Association opener for both teams.

Freshman R.J. Hunter scored 23 points for Georgia State, which trailed by just four points at halftime, but Drexel (5-8, 1-0 CAA), the preseason favorite in the CAA, dominated the second half to hand GSU (5-9, 0-1 CAA) its fifth straight loss.

The win was Drexel's 17th straight CAA regular-season victory, dating back to last season. Georgia State was the last team to hand Drexel a regular-season loss in CAA play; exactly one year ago, GSU defeated the Dragons, 58-44, at the Sports Arena. Drexel's streak equals Richmond (1988-89) for the second-longest in league history and is one shy of George Mason's record of 18 in a row over the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

Hunter topped the 20-point mark for the third time in the last four games and the sixth time in his rookie season at Georgia State. A leading candidate for CAA Rookie of the Year, Hunter has already earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors three times this season. He finished the game 9-of-16 from the floor and pulled six rebounds.

"Drexel showed tonight why they were picked first in the CAA during the preseason," commented head coach Ron Hunter. "After a good first half, they played really well in the second half and we just did not have any answers.

"We will keep grinding and we will get better. For us to get where we want to though, we need a full team effort. We have to have guys step up and when they do, we will be a special team."

Sophomore transfer Cameron Solomon added a career-high 12 points for the Panthers, but Devonta White was the only other Panther in double figures with 11 points.

A tip-in just ahead of the first-half buzzer by Dartaye Ruffin gave Drexel a 37-33 lead at the intermission. After Georgia State scored the first bucket of the second half, the Dragons went on a 22-4 run to open a 59-39 lead with 11 minutes to play.

Drexel shot 65 percent from the field in the second half, led by Massanat, the preseason CAA Player of the Year, who scored 17 points of his career-high 25 points after the intermission. Damion Lee added 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting from three-point range, and Darryl McCoy pulled down 14 rebounds for the Dragons.

GEORGIA STATE 68, JAMES MADISON 52

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

R.J. Hunter scored 19 points and Manny Atkins added 15 as Georgia State earned its first Colonial Athletic Association win with a 68-52 victory over James Madison Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

James Vincent contributed 10 points and eight blocked shots, one off his career high, to help the Panthers (6-9, 1-1 CAA) snap their five-game losing streak and halt JMU's (7-7, 1-1 CAA) four-game winning streak.

Georgia State also got strong contributions from freshman David Travers, who had seven points and three assists in 21 minutes, his most significant playing time of his rookie season. After hitting a free throw for his first collegiate point, he nailed a pair of dramatic three-point field goals, one at the first half buzzer and another in the second half with the shot clock about to expire.

Junior Devonta White added 11 points and dished out a career-high seven assists in 36 minutes of action.

The Panthers turned in one of their better defensive efforts of the season in holding James Madison to 52 points and 30.9 percent shooting from the field, the lowest figure for a GSU opponent since Monmouth managed just 27.8 percent shooting in the third game of the season.

On the offensive end, Georgia State shot 47 percent from field, including 10-for-21 from three-point range.

With his eight blocked shots, Vincent raised his career total to 104 and moved into fifth place in school history. The senior from Columbus, Ga., leads the CAA in blocked shots.

Georgia State closed the first half with a 13-4 run to open up a 38-25 halftime lead. Hunter made a pair of treys on the run, and Travers ended the half with a three-pointer at the buzzer, falling to the ground as he made his first collegiate field goal.

The Panthers shot 53.8 percent from the field in the first half, including 8-for-13 from beyond the arc, while holding the Dukes to less than 30 percent (8-for-27). That marked GSU's highest output in a first half since scoring 43 against South Alabama on Nov. 21. Hunter (13 points) and Atkins (12) combined for 25 of the Panthers' 38 points.

In the second half, James Madison managed to pull within nine points at 53-44 with nine minutes to play, but Atkins contributed a three-point play to push GSU's lead to 56-44 and then took a charge on the other end. From there, the Panthers' lead never dipped below double-digits.

Rayshawn Goins led James Madison with 19 points and 16 rebounds. A.J. Davis came off the bench to score 10 points and grab eight rebounds for the Dukes.

HOFSTRA 52, GEORGIA STATE 50

Mack Sports Complex • Hempstead, N.Y.

Georgia State overcame a 12-point second half deficit, but Stevie Mejia's lay-up with six seconds remaining gave Hofstra a 52-50 win on Monday night at the Mack Sports Complex.

Senior James Vincent's put-back with less than 20 seconds tied the game, but after Mejia's shot, junior Devonta White's three-pointer as time expired was just off the mark.

Mejia finished with 17 points on 7-of-12 shooting, pulling down five rebounds for Hofstra.

With the loss, Georgia State fell to 6-10, 1-2 in the CAA. Hofstra snapped an eight-game losing streak improved to 4-10, 1-0 in the conference.

Freshman R.J. Hunter, who earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors for the fourth time this season earlier in the day, led the Panthers with 13 points, but managed to shoot just 4-of-15 from the floor and 1-of-8 from three-point range.

"I am obviously disappointed with the loss," commented head coach Ron Hunter after the game. "I thought we came out strong, but then allowed Hofstra to take control of the game.

"I was proud of the way we fought back in the second half, but we cannot allow ourselves to get down by double-digits and expect to win."

White finished with 11 points and redshirt-junior Manny Atkins added 10 points for the Panthers who shot 36.0 percent from the floor and just 2-of-20 from three-point range. GSU did hit 85.7 percent from the free throw line and outrebounded the Pride, 32-27.

Trailing 37-25 with 15:36 to play, Georgia State used an 8-0 run over a three-minute stretch to cut the deficit to four on a three-pointer by Hunter.

The Panthers cut it to one, 39-38 with 9:03 to play, holding the Pride without a field goal for nearly six minutes.

Georgia State continued to keep it close in the final few minutes and with junior Denny Burguillos two free throws with 3:46 to play, tied the game at 46. Hofstra responded with four straight points before White cut the deficit to two again.

Georgia State opened the game on an 8-2 run, but Hofstra quickly responded with an 8-0 run of its own to take an early 10-9 lead.

After the Panthers responded and took a 17-12 lead, the Pride held GSU without a field goal for nine minutes, taking a 27-19 lead with just under two minutes to play in the first half. Taran Buie added 12 points for Hofstra, while Stephen Nwaukoni came off the bench to score seven points and pull down eight rebounds in 25 minutes.

The Pride shot 45.7 percent from the floor and hit 6-of-18 from three-point range.

DELAWARE 86, GEORGIA STATE 83

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State rallied from an 11-point deficit in the final two minutes, but Devon Saddler's three-pointer with less than a second remaining lifted Delaware to an 86-83 victory in Colonial Athletic Association play Saturday at the GSU Sports Arena.

Delaware won its fifth straight game to move to 8-8 overall and 3-0 in the CAA, while Georgia State fell to 6-11, 1-3 CAA.

The Panthers trailed 81-70 with 1:41 left before Ryann Green capped the comeback with a pair of free throws with six seconds left to tie the score at 83-all. But Saddler, the CAA's leading scorer who finished with 29 points on the day, brought the ball across half court and nailed the trey from the right elbow.

Manny Atkins led Georgia State with 20 points, and Devonta White score 18 points, including six in the last 80 seconds to fuel the Panthers' comeback. White also contributed six assists and five rebounds.

R.J. Hunter had 15 points and eight rebounds for the Panthers, but the freshman sat out the final four minutes with a foot injury. Rashaad Richardson was the fourth Panther in double figures with 13 points.

Georgia State fell behind 81-70 after a pair of free throws by Jarvis Threatt with 1:41 left. Cameron Solomon made two free throws for GSU, and then after an offensive foul by Delaware, White's layup pulled the Panthers within 81-74 with 1:20 still to play.

After Saddler made one of two free throws, White was fouled and made both to cut the deficit to 82-76 at the 1:07 mark. Saddler again made one of two from the line, and sophomore Kevin Shaw came off the bench to nail a three-pointer for his first points of the season. That made the score 83-79 with 54 seconds on the clock.

The Panthers quickly fouled Kyle Anderson in the backcourt, and he missed both free throws. White drew another foul, and his foul shots brought the Panthers within two to 83-81 with 41 seconds left.

Delaware ran down the shot clock before Threatt missed a jumper with nine seconds left. Green grabbed the rebound and was fouled with six seconds left. Even though he had been to the line just twice in his career, he calmly sank both free throws to knot the score at 83-all.

Delaware hit 52 percent from the field, and the top free throw shooting team in the conference was able to cash in today, going to the line 37 times and making 26. Threatt was 10-for-12 at the charity stripe to score 18 points. Jamelle Hagins added 11 points, and the nation's second-leading rebounder grabbed seven today to tie the Delaware career record of 916.

GEORGIA STATE 74, WILLIAM & MARY 58

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

In head coach Ron Hunter's annual "Barefoot for Bare Feet" game, Georgia State overcame a 14-point deficit to earn a 74-58 Colonial Athletic Association victory over William & Mary Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena.

For the sixth straight season and second time at Georgia State, Hunter coached a game in his bare feet in support of Samaritan's Feet, an organization that distributes shoes to children in need around the world. A season-high crowd of 2,350 turned out for the game.

Manny Atkins scored 21 points and grabbed five steals for Georgia State, which improved to 7-11 overall, 2-3 in the CAA while handing William & Mary (7-9, 1-4 CAA) its sixth straight loss.

Georgia State fell behind 32-18 with three minutes left in the first half before closing with a 10-1 run as Kevin Shaw's three-pointer just ahead of the halftime buzzer brought the Panthers within 33-28 at the intermission.

The Panthers still trailed 43-40 five minutes into the second half, but Georgia State outscored the Tribe 22-5 over the next 12 minutes to build a 62-49 lead with three minutes to play.

Rashaad Richardson's jumper put the Panthers ahead for good at 44-43 with 14:36. After GSU forced a turnover, Markus Crider made a driving layup, and then Richardson added a layup off for a 48-43 lead.

Leading 50-47, Georgia State scored 10 straight points as David Travers nailed a three-pointer, Crider grabbed a steal in the backcourt and fed Atkins for a layup, and Richardson drained a three. James Vincent punctuated the spurt with a dunk off an assist from Devonta White, and the Panthers led 60-47 with less than five minutes left.

In addition to Atkins' 21 points, Richardson scored 12 for the Panthers and White added 11.

The Panthers also got strong contributions from the bench as Travers scored a career-high eight points, Crider contributed six points and a career-best eight rebounds, and Ryann Green had two points and four rebounds.

After a sluggish first half, Georgia State shot 52 percent from the field and a perfect 14-for-14 from the free throw line in the second half while committing just one turnover after the intermission.

For the game, the Panthers were 23-for-25 at the charity stripe and have made 43-of-48 over the last two games.

Tim Rusthoven led William & Mary with 20 points and 10 rebounds, but the Tribe made just nine field goals on 29 attempts (31 percent) in the second half.

GEORGIA STATE 69, OLD DOMINION 54

Ted Constant Center • Norfolk, Va.

Redshirt-junior Manny Atkins scored 21 points and freshman R.J. Hunter finished with 20 to lead Georgia State to a 69-54 win at the Ted Constant Center on Saturday night.

Atkins has scored 20 or more points in three straight games, while Hunter scored 20 or more for the seventh time this season.

With legendary former head coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell in the building, the Panthers won for the first time at the Ted Constant Center and for just the second time at Old Dominion dating back to the 1977-78 season.

Devonta White added 15 points and tied a career-high with seven assists for Georgia State (8-11, 3-3 CAA). Senior James Vincent tied a career-high with 12 rebounds and blocked four shots, while also collecting three steals.

With his four blocked shots, Vincent tied Torquin Gresham for fourth most in GSU history. In his two career games in Norfolk, Vincent set career-highs in blocks both times, collecting 11 two years ago.

The loss dropped Old Dominion to 2-16, 0-6 in the CAA.

R.J. Hunter's three-pointer at the half gave Georgia State a four-point lead, 29-25, going into the locker room as the Monarchs never led.

Hunter shot 6-of-12 from the floor and made 6-of-7 from the free throw line, grabbing four rebounds and two of the Panthers six steals. The Panthers forced the Monarchs into 17 turnovers.

After building a nine-point lead at 42-33 with 16:44 to play, the Monarchs trailed just 57-51 with 5:11 to play. The Panthers finished the game on a 12-3 run.

Atkins finished the game 6-of-12 from the floor and 4-of-6 from three-point range. The redshirt-junior entered the day leading the CAA in three-point shooting, hitting 40.3 from beyond the arc.

Georgia State held the Monarchs nearly 11 minutes in the first half with just one field goal, however, ODU shot 18 free throws in the opening period, as compared to just eight for the Panthers. The trend reversed in the second half as GSU went to the line 14 times, making 12, and ODU shot just five.

Vincent played in his 105th game on Saturday, moving into a tie for 11th with Terrence Brandon, Travis Williams and Chavelo Holmes.

Atkins made the Panthers first two free throws of the game, extending the Panthers streak to 18 straight made shots dating back to last Wednesday's game against William & Mary before a miss by White in the middle of the first half.

Dimitri Batten led Old Dominion with 14 points off the bench, while Donte Hill scored 13 and pulled down seven rebounds.

GEORGIA STATE 71, TOWSON 69

Towson Center Arena • Towson, Md.

Freshman R.J. Hunter's three-pointer with one-minute to play and blocked shot with less than two seconds left led Georgia State to a 71-69 win over Towson on Monday night at the Towson Center Arena.

Hunter finished with a career-high 27 points on 9-of-19 shooting, hitting four three-pointers and going a perfect 5-of-5 from the line.

In a tightly contested game that saw 14 ties and nine lead changes, neither team ever led by more than six points. Towson (10-10, 5-2 CAA), one of the best rebounding teams in the country, was outrebounded by Georgia State (9-11, 4-3 CAA).

Devonta White added 14 points, six assists and five rebounds for the Panthers. Junior Rashaad Richardson chipping in with 11, including a trio of three-pointers, while pulling down five boards.

Georgia State extended its winning streak to three games and is now 4-4 in games decided by one possession or less.

Up by one with 1:02 remaining and the shot clock winding down, Hunter drained a three-pointer from the top of the key and from NBA-range to give the Panthers a four-point lead.

After a three-point miss by Towson's Jerome Hairston with 53 seconds left, Marcus Damas got an offensive rebound for the Tigers and Hairston followed with a jumper in the lane with 46 seconds remaining to cut the lead to two.

Hunter missed a three-pointer with 18 seconds remaining, but with Towson out of timeouts, the Tigers had to come down the court and Damas' three-pointer with less than two seconds left was blocked by Hunter as Markus Crider pulled down the rebound for GSU, securing the victory.

The Panthers biggest lead of the game was six following a pair of three-pointers by Atkins and Hunter, giving GSU a 24-18 lead with 5:28 to play in the first half. Georgia State went into the locker room leading 33-31 after Hunter hit three free throws with 1.9 seconds remaining in the half.

Towson opened the second half with two quick three's to take a 37-33 lead, their biggest lead with 18:01 to play, before Atkins responded with a three to start a 7-0 run as the Panthers went ahead 40-37 with 15:55 to play.

Atkins finished the game with nine points and six rebounds after being named CAA co-Player of the Week earlier in the day. Jerrelle Benimon led Towson with 18 points and 10 rebounds, while Hairston chipped in with 16 and Mike Burwell added 14.

Senior James Vincent scored six points for GSU and pulled down four rebounds, while added three blocked shots. He is now tied with Nate Williams for third in Georgia State history with 113 blocked shots and moved into four in single season history with 51.

GEORGIA STATE 81, UNCW 63

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Manny Atkins and R.J. Hunter scored 19 points each and Devonta White added 17 as Georgia State won its fourth straight game with an 81-63 victory over UNCW Wednesday at the GSU Sports Arena.

By winning their fourth game in eight days, the Panthers improved to 10-11 overall, 5-3 in the Colonial Athletic Association.

UNCW's Keith Rendleman tied his season high with 23 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his third straight double-double, but the Seahawks fell to 7-11, 2-4 CAA.

Georgia State shot 51 percent from the field, and the Panthers forced 17 turnovers, which they converted into 30 points.

Hunter, one of the nation's top scoring freshmen, also contributed six rebounds, six assists, three steals and two blocks. His streak of 15 straight made free throws came to an end in the second half.

Atkins, the reigning CAA Player of the Week, had four assists, four steals and four rebounds to go along with his 19 points. The top three-point shooter in the conference hit three of five from beyond the arc.

The Panthers again got strong contributions from their bench, including Markus Crider, who had six points, a career-best 10 rebounds and two blocked shots.

After trailing early, Georgia State took a 42-33 lead at the intermission. The Panthers shot 50 percent in the first half, including 7-for-15 from three-point range. GSU led by as many as 19, but a late 7-0 run by the Seahawks cut into the lead.

UNCW pulled within six at 46-40 early in the second half, but back-to-back treys by White and Hunter, sandwiched around a Seahawk bucket, pushed the Panthers lead to 52-42. UNCW never got closer than nine points the rest of the way.

Senior James Vincent added a pair of blocked shots to move into third place on GSU's all-time blocked shots list.

Freshman David Travers came off the bench to score five points, making a pair of baskets and a free throw in 16 minutes of action, while Rashaad Richardson chipped in with eight points on 3-of-4 shooting.

The win gave the Panthers five straight over the visiting Seahawks.

Georgia State outscored UNCW 30-7 off turnovers, forcing the Seahawks to give the ball up 17 times on 13 GSU steals, just one short of a season high.

Chris Dixon added 20 points for UNCW which fell to 0-10 on the road this season.

DREXEL 68, GEORGIA STATE 57

Daskalakis Athletic Center • Philadelphia, Pa.

Drexel held Georgia State without a field goal for nearly 14 minutes en route to a 68-57 win at the Daskalakis Athletic Center on Saturday afternoon. The loss snapped Georgia State's four-game winning streak.

Reigning CAA co-Player of the Week Manny Atkins led the Panthers with his first career double-double, scoring 15 points and grabbing 10 rebounds, going a perfect 8-of-8 from the free throw line.

Despite shooting just 27.7 percent from the floor, Georgia State (10-12, 5-4 CAA) hit an impressive 25-of-29 from the free throw line to stay in the game after making just four field goals in the opening half.

Drexel (8-11, 4-3 CAA) was led by All-CAA honoree Damion Lee who scored 20 points, hitting four three-pointers, including a pair that pushed the Dragons lead to double-digits in the second half after the Panthers had cut it to three with 10 minutes to play.

Junior Devonta White added 14 points for the Panthers, while junior Rashaad Richardson added 12, scoring in double digits for the fourth time in the last six games.

The Panthers built an early five-point lead five minutes into the game as Atkins and Richardson each hit three-pointers in the first four minutes.

Drexel then held the Panthers without a field goal for the final 8:35 of the first half and nearly six minutes to start the second half.

GSU hit just four field goals in the opening period, including three three-pointers, finishing 4-of-23 from the floor and 3-of-10 from beyond the arc. The Panthers were saved by going 11-of-12 from the free throw line to start the game.

Drexel closed out the first half leading by five, 27-22, shooting 47.4 percent from the floor.

Trailing by nine with 12:35 to play, Georgia State used a 6-0 run to cut the Dragons lead to three with 10:28 to play.

The Dragons responded a few minutes later with an 8-0 run, including the pair of three-pointers by Lee to take a 54-42 lead with 6:14 to play.

Frantz Massenat added 15 points and, eight assists and five rebounds for Drexel, with Derrick Thomas coming off the bench to score 14.

Drexel limited GSU freshman R.J. Hunter to eight points on 1-of-9 shooting, going a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line. The Dragons finished the game 21-of-22 from the line, shooting 45.5 percent from the floor and outbounding the Panthers 33-26.

GEORGIA STATE 78, NORTHEASTERN 73

Matthews Arena • Boston, Mass.

Georgia State overcame an 11-point first half deficit and freshman R.J. Hunter tied a career-high with 27 points as the Panthers earned a 78-73 victory over first place Northeastern at Matthews Arena on Wednesday night.

Georgia State (11-12, 6-4 CAA) won for the fifth time in six games, while Northeastern (13-8, 8-1 CAA) had its eight-game winning streak snapped as the Huskies dropped their first game in conference play.

Hunter, who helped cut the deficit in the first half with 12-straight Panther points, tied his career-high set just over a week ago, hitting 10-of-18 from the floor, including 5-of-11 from three-point range. His biggest play might have been on defense, blocking Jonathan Lee's jumper with under 20 seconds to play that would have tied game.

The two top three-point shooting teams in the CAA combined to make 22 three-pointers. The Panthers hit 42.3 percent compared to 47.8 percent for Northeastern. However, after the Huskies made 8-of-11 in the first half, went just 3-of-12 in the second half.

Rashaad Richardson and Devonta White each added 13 for the Panthers, while redshirt-junior Manny Atkins chipped in 12 points, six rebounds and five assists.

The Panthers trailed 52-42 early in the second half before responding with a 12-0 run, holding Northeastern without a point for more than six minutes to take a two-point lead with 13:55 to play.

The Huskies drought continued without making a field goal for more than 11 minutes as Georgia State built its lead to 66-54 with 7:47 to play.

Northeastern responded and had a chance to tie it down three with 1:31 to play, but Joel Smith made just one of three free throws to cut the deficit to two, 72-70.

After White made a pair of free throws for the Panthers, Lee hit a three with 10.9 seconds to play as GSU led 74-73.

White made two more free throws with 10.4 seconds to play to put GSU back up three. Lee came down the court and missed a three with five seconds to play and GSU came up with the rebound before Richardson made two free throws with 0.2 seconds to play.

Hunter kept the Panthers in the game late in the first half, scoring 12 straight Panther points. The reigning CAA co-Rookie of the Week scored 20 or more points for the ninth time this season.

Georgia State trailed the entire first half as Northeastern shot 64.3 percent from the floor and made 8-of-11 from three-point range to take a seven-point half-time lead.

Atkins extended his made free throw streak to 17 making a pair in the first half.

James Vincent, who scored four points and grabbed seven rebounds, played in his 109th career game to move into the top 10 in school history and is now tied with Rodney Hamilton.

GEORGIA STATE 83, OLD DOMINION 63

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Freshman R.J. Hunter poured in a career-high 38 points, including a school and CAA record 10 three-pointers, as Georgia State dismantled Old Dominion, 83-63, Saturday at the Sports Arena.

The Panthers won for the sixth time in their last seven games and handed Old Dominion (2-19, 0-9 CAA) their ninth straight loss to improve to 12-12, 7-4 in the CAA.

Hunter, one of the top freshman scorers in the nation, hit 10-of-15 shots from beyond the arc and 12-of-18 overall. His 38-point effort is the high for any CAA player this season and the most by a Georgia State player since Anton Reese scored 38 against Kansas State on Nov. 28, 1998. Only six Panthers have ever scored more points in a game.

At one-point in the second half, Hunter scored 19-straight Panther points with five three-pointers, two free throws and a dunk. The 10 treys by Hunter equalled the CAA record originally set by Dre Smith of George Mason, who hit 10 against James Madison on Jan. 19, 2008.

As a team, Georgia State nailed 16 three-pointers, the second-most in any game in school history. The GSU record is 21 versus West Florida on Dec. 12, 2003, and the Panthers had not hit as many as 16 since 2005.

Manny Atkins added 16 points and nine rebounds for the Panthers, including four treys, while Devonta White had 10 points and eight assists. Rashaad Richardson chipped in with eight points and five steals. Hunter also contributed five rebounds, two blocked shots and two steals.

Atkins missed a double-double by just one rebound for the fourth time this season. He has made 19 straight free throws, just four shy of the school record.

GSU shot a season-high 53.8 percent from the field. Georgia State jumped out quickly, opening the game with four straight three-pointers to take an early 12-1 lead. ODU fought back and led briefly at 24-22 with six minutes left before the Panthers ended the half with a 33-28 advantage.

Behind treys by Hunter (two), Atkins and Richardson, the Panthers opened the second half with a 16-7 run to build a 49-35 lead at the first media timeout. From there, the Panthers led never dipped below 12 points and climbed to as many as 23.

Richardson finished with five of the Panthers 10 steals, a career-high for the junior.

DeShawn Painter led Old Dominion with 15 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. The Monarchs outbounded Georgia State, 43-31, including 21-5 on the offensive glass, but shot just 32.3 percent from the field.

James Vincent played in his 110th career game to move into tenth on GSU's all-time games played list by himself.
