CONFERENCE NOTES:

TOURNAMENT SUCCESS: The CAA experienced its most tournament success this past weekend with five squads finishing over .500 in their respective tournaments. Hofstra gained national attention last Friday with a 7-2 victory over No. 5 Texas broadcast on ESPN3. The Pride followed that up with victories over Michigan, Penn State and College of Charleston at the ESPN Disney Citrus Classic in Orlando. Delaware compiled a 4-1 record at the Norfolk State Spartan Classic with wins over Army, Marist, and Norfolk State. Georgia state earned four wins in Tampa, Fla. at the USF Under Armor Classic. The Panthers picked up victories over Central Connecticut State, Kent State, Stephen F. Austin, and Western Michigan. George Mason and Towson experienced success on their home fields over the weekends in tournament action. Mason knocked off Rider, Cornell, and Rutgers at the Patriot Classic. Towson earned victories over Iona and Columbia while tying with Lehigh at the Towson Invitational.

CAA SOFTBALL PRESEASON POLL: Hofstra is the unanimous choice to win the 2013 CAA softball title based on voting by the league's eight head coaches. Hofstra, the nine-time conference champion, received all possible first-place votes as coaches weren't allowed to vote for their own team. The Pride finished atop the poll with 49 points. Georgia State, last year's runner-up to the Pride, received one first-place vote and finished tied for second in the poll with 40 points along with James Madison. Towson was picked fourth with 28 points, followed by Delaware (25). Drexel and George Mason were tied for sixth with 17 points, followed by UNCW.

HOFSTRA'S GALATI NAMED A CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD: Hofstra pitcher/designated player Olivia Galati has been named a candidate for the 2013 Senior CLASS Award in collegiate softball. Galati was one of just 30 players named to the list and the only member of the CAA to make the cut. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Galati is the second female student-athlete from Hofstra to be named a candidate for a CLASS Award this season, joining women's basketball senior forward Shante Evans. Evans was selected in November.

HOFSTRA'S GALATI NAMED TO TOP 50 PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST: Hofstra senior pitcher/designated player Olivia Galati was selected to the watch list for the 2013 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, the Amateur Softball Association of America and USA Softball announced today. Galati was one of just 50 players elected for the watch list, joining a list of exceptional players such as 2012 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Keilani Ricketts from Oklahoma. The inclusion marks the second straight season Galati was named to the preseason watch list. Galati won the Division I ERA crown at 0.95 last season, becoming the program's only first-team All-America selection. As one of just two pitchers who allowed less than one earned run per seven innings, Galati posted a 34-7 ledger with 378 strikeouts against just 26 walks in 280 2/3 innings. Her 32-game winning streak that stretched from March 17-May 25 finished one off the NCAA record.
