Georgia State will host Arkansas State on Saturday looking to extend its winning streak to four as the Red Wolves come to the Sports Arena for a 2 p.m. tip. Senior Ryan Harrow will be looking to become the 19th Panther in program history to score 1,000 points in a GSU uniform and do it in the second-fewest games.

Georgia State (14-7, 7-3 Sun Belt) earned an impressive 88-74 win over UT Arlington on Thursday night to remain just a half-game out of first-place in the Sun Belt. Junior R.J. Hunter finished with 32 points, including seven 3-pointers, while Harrow added 25 and the Panthers went 25-of-27 from the free throw line.

Harrow enters play on Saturday just five points from reaching 1,000 points in a GSU uniform and could accomplish the feat in just 54 games which would be the second-quickest in program history. He would also become just the fifth Panther to reach the feat in just two seasons.

The Panthers are 36-10 in the last 46 games dating back to last season and have also won 24 of their first 28 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the third-best start in school history.

Georgia State is led by the scoring duo of Hunter and Harrow. The two are averaging 41.0 points per game, the third-most of any duo in the country. Harrow is currently averaging 20.6 points per game, while Hunter is at 20.4. The last time any team had a pair finish the season averaging 20 or more was the 2006-07 season when Hofstra accomplished the feat.

Hunter has now scored 1,560 career points in just 85 games, averaging 18.2 points per game for his career. He is the NCAA career active leader in points scored, 3-pointers (224) and 3-point attempts (617) among all juniors. Hunter is also 10th among all active players in career scoring average.

Along with being Georgia State's career scoring leader, he is also No. 1 on the list in career free throws made and on pace to set the records for the 3-pointers made and 3-point attempts before the end of this season.

Georgia State has used a balanced attack on both the offensive and defensive side of the ball to win games this season. The Panthers are shooting 48.9 percent from the floor, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA. Georgia State is also averaging 74.0 points and allowing just 66.0 points per game.

The Panthers are also fifth in the nation with a +5.1 turnover margin, ninth in steals per game averaging 9.2 and 27th in turnovers, allowing just 10.9 per contest. (cont. page 3)

2014-15 QUICK GAME NOTES

- The 2013-14 Sun Belt regular season-champions enter the 2014-15 season with three returning starters along with eight newcomers, five of which will be eligible to play during the season.
- Junior R.J. Hunter overtook Rodney Hamilton on Jan. 24 for the school's all-time scoring mark of 1,515 points and now has 1,560 in his career.
- Ryann Green was named one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award given annual to a student-athlete who best exemplify excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition.
- Ryan Harrow was named to the Lou Henson Award Mid-Season Watch List as one of the top 40 mid-major players in the country.
- Head coach Ron Hunter picked up his 350th career win on Thursday at UT Arlington.
- The Panthers were unanimously selected by the Sun Belt Conference head coaches to win the league once again this year. The Panthers are 7-3 in the league (just a half game out of first place) and have won 24 of 28 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt.
- Georgia State is 36-10 in its last 46 games dating back to last season, including 35 of 43 regular season games.
- Georgia State's 14-7 start is tied for the third-best 21-game start in program history.
- Georgia State's 18-game home-court winning streak, the second-longest in program history, came to an end against Texas State on Jan. 5. At the time, it was tied for the ninth-longest in the country. The Panthers went 13-0 at home during the 2013-14 season and are 8-1 in 2014-15.
- Under head coach Ron Hunter, the Panthers are 43-11 in the GSU Sports Arena, a winning percentage of 79.6.
- The Panthers have won 14 of their last 22 true road games dating back to last season.
- Georgia State has been as high as No. 39 in the NCAA RPI this season. The Panthers played five non-conference games against teams ranked in the top 55.
- Georgia State's four non-conference losses came to teams with a combined 66-15 record. Iowa State (15-4) has been ranked in the AP Top 25 all season, while Colorado State (18-3) and Old Dominion (16-4) are receiving votes. Green Bay (17-4) is ranked No. 5 in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25. The Panthers scored a win over the Phoenix when they were ranked No. 1.
- R.J. Hunter and Ryan Harrow are combining to average 41.0 points per game, the third-most of any duo in the country. Both are ranked in the top 11 nationally in scoring.
- With 1,560 points, R.J. Hunter is the No. 1 active scorer in the NCAA of all third-year players and the only junior ranked in the top 50.
- Georgia State is 14th in the NCAA with a 48.9 field goal percentage which ranks first in the Sun Belt. The Panthers have already had two of the top-10 field goal and 3-point field goal single-game shooting percentages in school history this year.
- Georgia State is among the top 30 in the NCAA in three key stats. The Panthers are ninth in the nation averaging 9.2 steals per game, fifth in turnover margin, currently at +5.1 per game and 27th in turnovers, averaging just 10.9 per game.
- Only six times in program history has a Panther averaged 20 or more points a game in a season. Currently two Panthers are accomplishing the feat. Senior Ryan Harrow leads the Sun Belt and is 10th in the nation averaging 20.6 points per game, while junior R.J. Hunter is second in the Sun Belt and 11th in the nation with a 20.4 points per game average. The last time it happened was when Thomas Terrell averaged 20.5 point per game during the 2001-02 season. The record is held by Ron Ricketts who averaged 21.1 points per game during the 1970-71 season. According to Iona, the last time a school had two 20+ ppg scorers to finish a season was Hofstra in 2006-07 (Loren Stokes and Antoine Agudio).
- R.J. Hunter has been named to the prestigious John R. Wooden Watch List and Naismith Trophy list as one of the top 50 players in the country to watch.
- Junior R.J. Hunter was named the 2014-15 Sun Belt Preseason Player of the Year and earned preseason all-conference first-team honors along with Ryan Harrow, while senior Curtis Washington was named to the third team.
- Junior R.J. Hunter is quickly moving up the ranks of several all-time records. Inside the #'s:
 - Points: 1st with 1,560 points
 - 3-point Field Goals: currently 2nd with 224; 16 shy of Shellord Pinkett's 240
 - 3-point Field Goal attempts: currently 2nd with 616; 21 shy of Shellord Pinkett's 637
 - Field Goals Made: currently 4th with 482; 106 shy of Chavelo Holmes' school-record 588
 - Free throws made: 1st with 372
 - Free throw percentage: currently 2nd at 83.6 percent; .002 behind Rodney Hamilton's school-record of 83.8 percent.
 - Steals: currently 5th with 153; 59 shy of Rodney Hamilton's 212
- Head coach Ron Hunter continued a trend of bringing high-major transfers back to Atlanta. Late last spring, Hunter announced that Kevin Ware would be returning home (Conyers, Ga.) after three seasons at Louisville. Ware is unfortunately most known for a gruesome leg injury that he suffered during the Cardinals' run to a national championship in 2013. The list of high-major transfers to the Panthers includes Ryan Harrow (Kentucky), Manny Atkins (Virginia Tech) and Jeremy Hollowell (Indiana), who will be eligible for the Panthers in 2015-16.
- R.J. Hunter became the 18th Panther to score 1,000-points in his career, needing just 55 games, the second fewest in program history (Phillip Luckydo - 49 games), accomplishing the feat against Troy (Feb. 15, 2014). Ryan Harrow could become the 19th Panther to reach the mark as early as Saturday after scoring 604 points last year. He needs just five points against Arkansas State.
- Head coach Ron Hunter owns the records for the most wins in his first season, first two seasons and first three seasons of any coach in program history. In his first three seasons, he won 62 games, surpassing the total of Hall of Fame coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell who won 50 games during his first three seasons. Driesell won 79 games in his first four seasons, including the school-record 29 wins during the 2000-01 season. Hunter currently has 76 wins in his fourth season.

"We are starting to play with a lot of confidence, as well as fundamentally sound basketball," head coach Ron Hunter said. "Our team has found a rhythm in the schedule which is making it easier to practice and rest, which is equally important this time of year. We look forward to getting home and having another great crowd in the Sports Arena."

Harrow joined Hunter as an All-Sun Belt Preseason first-team member and was named to the Lou Henson Award Mid-Season Watch List on Jan. 21.

The junior leads the Sun Belt in scoring and had score 20 or more points in six of the last seven games. He is second in the league averaging 4.4 assists per contest.

Notes:

- Markus Crider has recorded two double-doubles in Sun Belt play and just missed another by one point. He is averaging 7.9 points and 6.1 rebounds per game for the season, shooting a Sun Belt-best 63.0 percent from the floor.
- Senior Ryann Green is quickly moving up an elite list. Entering Saturday he has been a part of 76 wins, the third-most of any player in program history. The school-record is 83 wins held by Lamont McIntosh and Donnie Davis.
- After a career-game of 21 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals on his birthday, Kevin Ware has not let up. The redshirt-junior has scored in double figures in six of the last nine games. Ware is third in the Sun Belt averaging 2.0 steals per game. He is also third on the team averaging 8.4 points per game.
- Junior T.J. Shipes made his first start of the season against Green Bay on Dec. 4, and recorded his first career double-double, scoring a career-high 11 points and grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds. He has started 12 of the last 14 games and is averaging 5.8 points and 4.6 rebounds per game this season.

Arkansas State (9-11, 4-7 Sun Belt) is led by the duo of Cameron Golden and Anthony Livingston. Golden is averaging 15.0 points and 3.2 rebounds per game, while Livingston added 14.9 points and 9.4 rebounds per contest.

Following the game on Saturday, Georgia State will begin a stretch of three-straight games on the road, starting in Statesboro, Ga., next Thursday night, squaring off against first-place Georgia Southern.

DEFENDING CHAMPS

In its first year back in the Sun Belt Conference, Georgia State easily won the regular-season title with an impressive 17-1 conference mark, winning the league by five games. The title was the Panthers' first since the 2001-02 season.

The Panthers were selected unanimously by the league's head coaches to repeat as champions this year.

Georgia State finished the season 25-9 and advanced to the Postseason NIT. During the year, Georgia State won a school-record 14-straight games and had a stretch of 22 wins in 23 games.

SCORING RECORD FALLS

It took junior R.J. Hunter just 83 games and the first 10 minutes of game 84 to break Georgia State's all-time scoring record of 1,515 points which was held by Rodney Hamilton since 1998.

During his sophomore season he reached the 1,000-point plateau in just 55 games, the second quickest in program history.

With his final free throw against Arkansas State on Jan. 19, he tied Rodney Hamilton's mark. Against UL Lafayette on Jan. 24, with 9:44 to play in the first half, the mark fell.

Last season he scored 604 points, tied for the fourth most in a single-season in program history. This season he has scored 429 and could reach the single-season mark of 635 held by Thomas Terrell during the 2001-02 season.

NO. 4 SCORING DUO

R.J. Hunter and Ryan Harrow are currently the No. 3 scoring duo in the country. Both are in the top 11 in scoring and combined are averaging 41.0 points per game. Here are the top tandems:

1. Eastern Wash. (Tyler Harvey and Venky Jois): 24.0 + 18.0 = 42.0
2. Iona (A.J. English and David Laury): 20.7 + 21.1 = 41.8
3. Georgia State (Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter): 20.6 + 20.4 = 41.0
4. Northwestern St. (Zeek Woodley and Jalan West): 21.9 + 17.6 = 39.5

BEST START EVER?

Georgia State's 14-7 start through 21 games isn't the best 21-game start in program history, but it is right near the top. Here are the best 21-game starts in program history.

Season	Record	Postseason
2000-01	18-3	NCAA (2nd round)
2013-14	15-6	Postseason NIT
2014-15	14-7	TBD
2011-12	14-7	CIT (2nd round)
2003-04	13-8	None

BEST IN THE NCAA

Not only is R.J. Hunter one of the best players in Georgia State history, but his is also among the best active players in the NCAA. Here are several stats where he ranks in the top 50 of the national active leaders:

Category	Stat	Overall Rank	Note
Points	1,560	33rd	No. 1 non-senior
Scoring Avg.	18.4	10th
3-pt FG per game	2.64	8th
3-pt made	224	25th	No. 1 non-senior
3-pt attempts	617	19th	No. 1 non-senior

GREEN NAMED TO SENIOR CLASS AWARD LIST

Senior Ryann Green was named one of 30 candidates on Jan. 23 for the 2014-15 Senior CLASS Award for his excellence both on and off the court.

To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Each of the 30 candidate classes (men and women) will be narrowed to 10 finalists later in the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot.

RPI WATCH

Georgia State put together one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the country. As of the Friday NCAA RPI, Georgia State already owns a win over then No. 1 Green Bay (72-48) on Dec. 4.

The Panthers suffered tough losses now No. 16 Iowa State (four losses), No. 32 Colorado State (three losses), No. 43 Old Dominion (four losses) and No. 53 Green Bay (four losses) meaning five of the Panthers 11 non-conference games (one non D-1) came against top 60 opponents. Georgia State was ranked No. 89 on Friday and have been as high as No. 39.

HUNTER NAMED TO WOODEN AND NAISMITH LISTS

Junior R.J. Hunter was named to the John R. Wooden Pre-season Top 50 Watch List as announced by the Los Angeles Athletic Club on Nov. 17. He followed that up by being named to the Naismith Trophy Top 50.

Both lists are comprised of 50 student-athletes who are the early front-runners for the sport's most prestigious honors.

Hunter was an AP All-America honorable mention recipient last season, a finalist for the Lou Henson Award giving to the top mid-major player and recently named to the award's preseason watch list.

THE SERIES WITH ARKANSAS STATE

Georgia State and Arkansas State meet for the seventh time overall and second time this season with the Panthers looking to sweep the season series for the second straight year.

Earlier this month, Georgia State earned a 60-54 win in Jonesboro, Ark. R.J. Hunter scored 14 of the Panthers' final 15 points and finished with 23 points, going a perfect 12-of-12 from the free throw line, including six in the final 47 seconds to secure the win.

ELITE COMPANY

Only six times in program history has a Panther averaged 20 or more points a game for the season. The last time it happened was when Thomas Terrell averaged 20.5 point per game during the 2001-02 season.

R.J. Hunter is currently second in the Sun Belt and 11th in the NCAA with a 20.4 points per game scoring average, while Ryan Harrow is averaging 20.6 points per game which is 10th in the NCAA and first in the Sun Belt.

The school-record is held by Ron Ricketts who averaged 21.1 points per game during the 1970-71 season.

According to Iona, the last time a school had two 20+ ppg scorers to finish a season was Hofstra in 2006-07 (Loren Stokes and Antoine Agudio).

WHAT'S IN A COLOR

Georgia State has three different color jerseys this year, bringing back an alternate black jersey color that had not been worn in several years. He is the Panthers record in each color jersey and the last game it was worn.

Color.....Record..... Last worn

White..... 7-1 W, UT Arlington

HUNTER HONORED BY SUN BELT

Junior R.J. Hunter led the Panthers to a perfect 3-0 record away from home to earn Sun Belt Player-of-the-Week honors as announced by the conference office on Dec. 2.

In the three games, Hunter played all but four minutes, averaging 27.7 points per game, shooting 27-of-55 from the floor, 49.1 percent. Hunter also knocked down eight 3-pointers and made 21-of-24 free throws (87.5 percent).

The Panthers opened the week with wins over Western Carolina and Oakland at the CBE Hall of Fame Classic before heading to Indianapolis where Hunter returned home for the first time since attending Pike High School as GSU earned a 66-63 win over IUPUI.

SHOOTING THE LIGHTS OUT

In two of the Panthers first six games, Georgia State had two of the best single-game shooting percentages and 3-point field goal percentages in the history of the program.

It should be no surprise that the Panthers are shooting 49.4 percent, the 12th-best mark in the NCAA.

View the charts below to see where Georgia State's games with Tennessee Temple and Oakland stack up.

RECORD SETTING OPENER

Georgia State opened the season with a record-setting 115-55 victory over Tennessee Temple. Here is a look at several of the records that were set:

- The 60 point margin of victory set a school record, eclipsing the previous mark of 45 set against Piedmont on Dec. 30, 1986.
- GSU dished out 27 assists (on 40 FGs), setting a school record and eclipsing the previous high of 26 which last occurred in 1992.
- The 115 points scored represented the fourth most in school history and the most since scoring 109 against UC Irvine in 1998. It is only the fourth time the school scored more than 110 points.
- Shot 62.5 percent from the floor, 10th-best mark in school history.
- Shot 61.9 percent from 3-point range, ranked 8th in school history.
- The 61 second half points tied for the seventh-most in school history and the first time eclipsing the 60-point mark since 1998.

AS GOOD PRESEASON AS MIDSEASON

Senior Ryan Harrow and junior R.J. Hunter were named to the Lou Henson Award Watch List prior to the start of the season as announced by CollegeInsider.com. The Panthers are one of just two teams in the country to have two players named to the preseason list.

Harrow was also named to the Mid-Season Watch List for his impressive play in the first half of the season.

The Lou Henson Award is presented annually to the Division I "Mid-Major" Player of the Year. The award is named in honor of Henson who retired after a coaching career that lasted 41 years.

Each list was comprised of 40 players from around the country.

HOME SWEET HOME

When coach Ron Hunter took over the Panthers, one of the first things he proclaimed was that the GSU Sports Arena would become one of the toughest places in the country. So far, he has been correct. The Panthers are 43-11 in the comfy confines of the Sports Arena.

Georgia State went 13-0 at home last season and is 8-1 at home this season. The Panthers 18-game home-court winning streak, which was snapped on Jan. 5, was tied for the ninth-longest in the nation at the time and was the second-longest in school history.

In his first season, Hunter's Panthers won 10-straight home games and finished the 2011-12 season 13-3 in the GSU Sports

Arena. The Panthers followed with a 9-7 mark in 2012-13.

Here are the longest home court winning streaks in school history:

- 25 2-24-00 to 12-12-02 *3rd-longest streak in nation at time
- 18 11-9-13 to 1-5-14 (13-0 during 2013-14 season)
- 10 11-18-11 to 1-23-12 (first 10 games of the regular season)
- 8 1-5-98 to 2-24-98 (last eight games of regular season)

AMONG THE BEST

Before the season got underway, R.J. Hunter and Ryan Harrow were listed among the top 100 players in college basketball by several publications. It should be no surprise as both were named to the All-Sun Belt Preseason First-Team and Hunter was named the preseason player of the year. Here is a list and there ranking:

	Hunter	Harrow
ESPN	42	57
CBS	28	NR
SB Nation	24	80
NBC Sports	30	81

FREE THROW KINGS

When it comes to making free throws, Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter are two of the three best in school history.

In two-plus seasons, Hunter has made 372 (school-record) of 445 from the line, an 83.6 free throw percentage which ranks second in school history. Hunter shot a school-record 88.2 percent from the line last year which ranked No. 17 in the NCAA.

Harrow has made 178 of 227 free throws and with an 78.4 free throw percentage, ranks ninth all-time in Georgia State history. His mark of 83.9 percent ranked 81st in the NCAA last season.

These numbers are of no surprise as head coach Ron Hunter has preached free throw shooting since his arrival. Recent grads Manny Atkins (6th) and Devonta White (10th) are also among the top 10 in school history and played under Hunter. Last season, Atkins made 82.4 percent from the line which ranked No. 119 in the nation while White made 80.6 percent which ranked No. 173.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON...NOT SO FAST

Coach Ron Hunter had a very good collegiate career, teaming up with five-time NBA champion and close friend Ron Harper to lead Miami (Ohio) to three NCAA tournament appearances. In his career, Hunter scored 600 points, a mark that son R.J. surpassed in just his sophomore season alone (604 points).

With 1,560 career points, R.J. has trumped his dad, but Ron still owns the title of three NCAA tournament appearances.

QUICKEST TO 1,000

R.J. Hunter reached the 1,000-point plateau in just 55 games, the 2nd-quickest player to reach the accomplishment in Georgia State history. Here is a list of the quickest to get to 1,000-career points:

1. Phillip Luckydo..... 49 games
2. R.J. Hunter.....55 games
3. Chris Collier..... 57 games
4. Thomas Terrell 58 games

Ryan Harrow averaged 17.8 points in 34 games last season. He has scored 391 points this year. At his current pace, he would reach 1,000 points in a Georgia State uniform in his 54th game, which would surpass Hunter as the second-quickest in school history.

GOOD WORKS FOR HUNTER

Georgia State junior R.J. Hunter was among the list of nominees for the 2015 Allstate NABC and WBCA Good Works Teams as announced by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and Allstate Insurance Company.

Hunter has been a part of two international trips in the last three years with Samaritan's Feet and also spent time doing community service in the Atlanta community.

FATHER & SON

Ron and R.J. Hunter are actually the second father-son combo to grace the GSU Sports Arena. Bob Reinhart coached his son Bobby Reinhart from 1987-1989. Bobby led the team in assists during his senior season.

Ron and R.J. are just one of nine pairs of father and son pairs in the NCAA this year. The group includes:

Steve & Kory Alford	UCLA
Steve & Bryce Alford	UCLA
Todd & Blake Bozeman	Morgan State
Billy & Billy Donovan	Florida
Ron & R.J. Hunter	Georgia State
Dale & Ethan Layer	Liberty
Craig & Cullen Neal	New Mexico
Keith & Lance Richard	UL Monroe
Bill & Tyler Self	Kansas

PRESEASON NCAA PREDICTIONS

Georgia State has been a popular prediction to make the NCAA tournament this season. Here are where some major publications have the Panthers entering the season.

Publication	Seed	Opponent
USA Today	12	Iowa State
Sports Illustrated	12	VCU
CBS Sports	12	Nebraska
ESPN	12	Texas
Bleacher Report	9	UCLA

GOING BAREFOOT

Coach Ron Hunter once again coached a game barefoot in support of Samaritan's Feet during the upcoming season. He went barefoot on Jan. 15 against UT Arlington as the Panthers secured an 83-62 win. Hunter always tries to schedule the game as close to the Martin Luther King Jr. observance day.

The Panthers are 4-0 when Hunter has gone without socks and shoes to raise awareness for the 300 million children around the world without shoes. This year marked the eighth-straight year Hunter has gone barefoot for a game.

As part of his work with Samaritan's Feet, Georgia State travelled to Costa Rica in August, doing a pair of shoe distributions during its eight-day road trip.

SUMMER BASKETBALL IN COSTA RICA

Georgia State traveled to Costa Rica in August to deliver shoes and hope to children in need, while also getting in some basketball practice and game action.

The Panthers traveled to the Central American country for eight days this past August and played four games against club teams in the country of 4.7 million people.

While there, the group also participated in several shoe distributions through Samaritan's Feet. It marked the second trip as a team under head coach Ron Hunter to work with the organization. Two years ago the Panthers went to South Africa.

CONGRATS TO THE GRADS

Georgia State saw two former players graduate this December. Rashaad Richardson and Denny Burguillos, who both finished their playing careers last spring, graduated from Georgia State after needing just one extra semester to finish up their coursework.

601 AND COUNTING

Georgia State has made at least one 3-point field goal in 601 straight games, dating back to the 1994-95 season. The last team to hold the Panthers without a trey was Stetson on Feb. 18, 1995.

NEXT UP

Georgia State will begin a stretch of three-straight games on the road next Thursday at Georgia Southern. Tip is set for 7:30 p.m. in Statesboro, Ga.

HEAD COACH RON HUNTER

In just his first three seasons at the helm of the Georgia State program, Ron Hunter has restored it to national prominence, averaging more than 20 wins per year and making a pair of postseason appearances. In three years, Hunter has led the program to 62 wins, including two of the three best seasons in program history.

The 2013-14 season was the most special, leading Georgia State to 25 wins, the second most in school history, a Sun Belt regular season championship and an appearance in the Postseason NIT, the Panthers' fifth postseason appearance. During the season, the Panthers won a school-record 14-straight games, including a stretch of 22 of 23, as Hunter was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year and NABC Region 24 Coach of the Year.

During his first season (2011-12), Georgia State won 22 games, the third most in school history, advancing to the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Hunter has won 336 games in 20 seasons, but the accomplishments made by the 2011-12 team will always be special for him. After being named head coach on March 21, 2011, he built a squad that finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring defense, defensive shooting percentage, steals and blocked shots, as six seniors finished their careers triumphantly.

Following the record-setting season, Hunter was named Atlanta Tip-off Club Georgia Coach of the Year, while his players earned a record-number of conference and national awards.

National notoriety is nothing new for Hunter. While at IUPUI, he was lauded for his humanitarian efforts, partnering with Samaritan's Feet, an organization that collects shoes for underprivileged children around the world.

While leading IUPUI to 25 or more wins in two of his final four seasons, Hunter began to partner with Samaritan's Feet, an organization that collects shoes for underprivileged children around the world. On Jan. 24, 2008, he coached IUPUI against Oakland in his bare feet to help raise awareness for the cause.

Hunter's resume includes numerous national honors including an NABC Guardians of the Game Pillar Award for Service, the 2009 Giant Steps Award from the National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS), and a Minority Achievement Award from the Center for Leadership Development (CLD).

Hunter, 50, earned his bachelor's degree in education at Miami in 1986 and added a master's in 1987. He was a standout player on strong Miami teams of the mid-1980s, along with high school and college teammate Ron Harper, who went on to a long NBA career. The Redhawks were 81-30 during Hunter's four-year career and earned three consecutive NCAA Tournament berths while winning two MAC championships.

Hunter and his wife, Amy, have two children, Jasmine (25) and R.J. (21), a junior on this year's team.

Game 1: Nov. 14, 2014, 7 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 115, TENNESSEE TEMPLE 55

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Ryan Harrow scored 25 points and R.J. Hunter finished with 24 to lead Georgia State to a 115-55 win over Tennessee Temple in the regular season opener at the GSU Sports Arena. The 60-point margin of victory set a school-record as 11 Panthers scored.

The 115 points scored represent the fourth most scored in school history and the most since scoring 109 against UC Irvine in 1988. The previous largest margin of victory was 45 set against Piedmont on Dec. 30, 1986. The 61 points scored in the second half tied for the seventh-most in school history and the first time eclipsing the 60-point mark since 1998.

Georgia State made 40 field goals on a school-record 27 assists and won its 14th-straight home game dating back to last season. The Panthers are now 36-10 at home since Ron Hunter's arrival in 2011.

The Panthers shot 40-of-64 from the field, 62.5 percent, the ninth-best mark in school history, while knocking down 13-of-21 (61.9 percent) from 3-point range which also ranks in the top 10 in school history.

Hunter finished the first half with 19 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including four 3-pointers, the final of which was at the buzzer. He finished the game with a career-high eight assists in just 28 minutes of action.

Harrow scored 16 of his points in the first half and finished the game going 9-of-15 from the floor. He added six assists, playing just 25 minutes.

Junior T.J. Shipes added a career-high 10 points and tied a career-high with eight rebounds off the bench, going 5-of-7 from the floor. Shipes only took 16 shots as a junior, making 11.

Senior Curtis Washington added 13 points and seven rebounds in just 18 minutes of action.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware played his first significant regular season minutes since sustaining a leg injury in the 2013 NCAA regional final while at Louisville. He finished the game 12 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals in 28 minutes. Last season, he played in just nine games and 53 minutes off the bench for the Cardinals before taking a medical redshirt.

NO. 14 IOWA STATE 81, GEORGIA STATE 58

Hilton Coliseum • Ames, Iowa

Despite 21 points from junior R.J. Hunter, Georgia State fell to No. 14 Iowa State on Monday night 81-58 at Hilton Coliseum in the Panthers first game of the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

The Cyclones held the Panthers to just 39.1 percent shooting and 5-of-19 from 3-point range, forcing the Panthers into an uncharacteristic 15 turnovers.

After earlier in the day being named to the John R. Wooden Watch List as one of the top 50 players in the country, Hunter managed to hit just 8-of-20 from the floor and 4-of-11 from 3-point range with most of his shots being contested by one if not two Cyclone defenders.

Georgia State dropped to 1-1 on the young season, while Iowa State, whom many have predicted could reach the Final Four, improved to 2-0.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 12 points and five assists for the Panthers, while junior Markus Crider scored 10 points and pulled down eight rebounds.

All five Iowa State starters scored in double figures, led by Monte Morris who finished with 19 points, nine assists and five rebounds, knocking down 7-of-9 field goals.

Georges Niang, who was also named to the Wooden Watch List earlier in the day, added 10 points and 11 rebounds.

After trailing by as many as six early, Hunter knocked down this second 3-pointer of the game followed by a Crider dunk to give Georgia State a 21-20 lead with 7:42 to play in the opening half. Unfortunately, that was the Panthers only lead of the game.

Iowa State recaptured the lead and went into the half with a 35-29 lead. The six point difference was seen at the free throw line where the Cyclones were 7-of-11, while Georgia State was just 1-of-3. The Panthers finished the game just 3-of-5 from the line.

The Cyclones opened the second half with a 7-0 run to build a 42-29 lead with 18:00 to play.

A Hunter 3-pointer with 14:35 to play cut the lead to 49-40, but Iowa State responded with a 19-4 run to take a 68-44 lead with 8:17 to play and basically put the game out of reach.

Georgia State dropped to 3-7 against ranked opponents in the last 15 years and lost just its third road game over the last 15 contests dating back to last season.

Junior T.J. Shipes came off the bench to score six points and pull down seven rebounds before being poked in the eye before the half and being limited in the second half.

Naz Long added 17 points for Iowa State, knocking down five of the Cyclones' eight 3-pointers.

COLORADO STATE 80, GEORGIA STATE 70

Moby Arena • Fort Collins, Colo.

Despite a combined 45 points from Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter, a late Colorado State run led the Rams to an 80-70 victory over Georgia State on Friday night at Moby Arena.

Leading 62-60 with 5:25 to play, the Rams used a 14-0 run following a technical foul on Harrow to take a 76-60 lead with 1:42 to play, holding the Panthers scoreless for more than three minutes.

Harrow led all scorers with 26 points, shooting 11-of-22 from the floor while dishing out five assists.

Hunter added 19 points, knocking down three of the Panthers eight 3-pointers, swiping five steals. The junior moved into 11th on Georgia State's all-time scoring list with 1,195 points and is now just 320 points from the school record of 1,515.

Georgia State fell to 1-2 with the loss while Colorado State improved to 2-0.

"I didn't necessarily agree with the technical foul, but it is what it is," head coach Ron Hunter said. "You have to play better when you are on the road and you have to stay composed. We were not able to do that tonight."

The last five minutes of the game was the reverse of the first half where the Panthers had controlled the game.

After Colorado State hit a 3-pointer to open the game, Georgia State responded with a 7-0 run to take an early 7-3 lead.

Leading 10-9, the Panthers went on a 10-0 run that included a pair of Hunter 3-pointers to take a 20-9 lead with 10:46 to play and lead by as many as 12 with 7:58 to play in the opening period.

Georgia State led 34-29 at halftime as Hunter and Harrow combined for 27 points. The Panthers held the Rams to just 31 percent shooting the first half.

Trailing 40-33, Colorado State responded with an 8-0 run to take a 41-40 lead with 15:54 to play.

It was one of seven second half lead changes. The game was also tied seven times during the second half.

Colorado State finished with five players in double figures, including Stanton Kidd's double-double of 16 points and 12 rebounds. Daniel Berjarano added 16 points, while J.J. Avila scored 13 points, dished out eight assists and pulled down six rebounds.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware added nine points for the Panthers while junior T.J. Shipes came off the bench to score six points and pull down six rebounds.

The Rams finished the game 21-of-27 from the free throw line, while the Panthers managed to go just 8-of-17. With five steals, Hunter moved into seventh on the all-time list with 124.

GEORGIA STATE 69, CHICAGO STATE 46

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.
CBE Hall of Fame Classic

Led by 23 points from Ryan Harrow, Georgia State cruised to a 69-46 win over Chicago State on Monday afternoon at the Athletics Center O'rena to open the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Georgia State (2-2) forced 23 turnovers and held Chicago State (2-3) to just 29.2 percent shooting to snap a two-game losing streak.

Harrow finished 8-of-11 from the floor and 6-of-7 from the free throw line with three assists and a pair of rebounds.

After struggling from the free throw line in the first three games, the Panthers finished 24-of-32, shooting 75 percent. Georgia State swiped 13 steals and dished out 13 assists on 20 made field goals.

Senior Curtis Washington finished with 11 points, going 7-of-7 from the free throw line in 14 minutes. He added a pair of blocked shots to move into a tie for seventh with Sylvester Morgan with 84 for his career.

Junior R.J. Hunter added 13 points in 29 minutes as head coach Ron Hunter played all 12 players on the trip, with 10 playing double-figure minutes.

Georgia State allowed just 13 points in the first half which was the fewest the Panthers had allowed since giving up 13 to William & Mary on Dec. 4, 2011.

Harrow outscored Chicago State in the first half 16-13. The senior was 6-of-8 from the floor with a 3-pointer in the opening half.

Georgia State forced 17 first half turnovers which led to 16 points as the Panthers went into the break with a 36-13 lead.

The Panthers built the lead to as many as 29-12:05 to play and led for all but 18 seconds of the game, never trailing in the win. Georgia State built that lead by holding Chicago State without a field goal for the first 8:12 of the second half.

Freshman Jordan Session came off the bench to score a career-high seven points including thunderous dunk in the final minutes of the game. He added three rebounds and two blocked shots in just 11 minutes of action.

Anthony Glover came off the bench to lead Chicago State with 16 points on 6-of-11 shooting. Clarke Rosenberg added 14 points as he and Glover knocked down all five of the Cougars 3-pointers.

Junior Jalen Brown added four points and four rebounds in 15 minutes for the Panthers.

GEORGIA STATE 85, WESTERN CAROLINA 70

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.
CBE Hall of Fame Classic

Led by 27 points from R.J. Hunter, Georgia State earned an 85-70 win over Western Carolina on Tuesday at the Athletics Center O'rena in CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Tied 64-64 with 6:19 to play, Georgia State finished the game on a 21-6 run to secure the victory, leading by as many as 16 with 1:43 to play.

Hunter moved ahead of Kevin Morris, Zavian Smith and Nate Williams into eighth-place on Georgia State's all-time scoring list and now has 1,235 points in two-plus seasons, just three points behind Leonard Mendez for seventh.

Junior Markus Crider just missed a double-double with a career-high 15 points and nine rebounds, while senior Ryan Harrow added 21 points and seven assists. Junior T.J. Shippe came off the bench to add eight points and tie a career-high with eight rebounds as the Panthers' big men combined for 27 points and 19 boards.

Georgia State (3-2) won for the second straight night by outrebounding the Catamounts, 36-27, pulling down 18 rebounds on the offensive glass.

Western Carolina dropped to 2-3 despite going 18-of-25 from the free throw line, making the first 10 attempted.

After Ware made the opening basket for Georgia State, Panther big men score the next 14 points as GSU took a 16-12 win seven minutes into the game.

Trailing 23-16 with 9:05 to play in the first half, Western Carolina responded with a 9-0 run to take a 25-23 lead before a Shippe's putback tied the game at 25-25.

Georgia State held the Catamounts without a field goal for the final five minutes of the first half to go into the break with a 39-35 lead.

The second half was much of the same as the teams traded leads four times with another three ties.

Following a dunk by Crider put the Panthers ahead 58-52, the Catamounts responded with a 12-4 run to tie the game at 64 before the Panthers final run.

Rhett Harrison led Western Carolina with 21 points, while Torrior Brummitt added 15 points and eight rebounds.

Georgia State finished the game with nine steals and forced 13 turnovers which the Panthers turned into 22 points.

Freshman Carter Cagle ended the game knocking down his first career 3-pointer.

GEORGIA STATE 83, OAKLAND 78

Athletics Center O'rena • Rochester, Mich.
CBE Hall of Fame Classic

R.J. Hunter scored 29 points and Georgia State shot 63 percent to earn an 83-78 victory over Oakland on Wednesday night in the final game of the CBE Hall of Fame Classic.

Georgia State's shooting performance was tied for the eighth-best mark in school history. The Panthers also shot 11-of-17 from 3-point range (64.7 percent), tied for the fourth-best mark in school history.

Hunter finished 9-of-14 from the floor and 6-of-9 from 3-point range, going a perfect 5-of-5 from the free throw line. He added five rebounds, three assists and three steals in the win.

Georgia State (4-2) won for the third straight time as junior Markus Crider added a career-high 17 points and pulled down six rebounds. It was the second straight night Crider scored a career high.

Senior Ryan Harrow recorded a double-double with 14 points and 11 assists, but it was Kevin Ware who came off the bench for the first time this season who might have had the most impressive performance.

Ware finished with 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting, knocking down 3-of-4 3-pointers and grabbing six rebounds. He added two steals, both of which came in the final four minutes to help the Panthers secure the victory.

Hunter opened the game by knocking down a quick pair of 3-pointers to give Georgia State an early 6-0 lead as the junior moved ahead of Leonard Mendez into seventh on the Panthers' all-time scoring list. His 3-pointer with 2:37 to play in the first half tied him with Phillip Luckydo for sixth before moving ahead of him early in the second half.

He is now just 15 points shy of moving into the Panthers top-5 in scoring. He finished the first half 7-of-9 from the floor and 5-of-6 from 3-point range.

Tied at 15-15 with 11:53 to play in the first half, Georgia State went on a 9-0 run to build a 24-15 lead with just under 10 minutes to play as Harrow scored five points during the run.

The Panthers, who never trailed in the game, led by as many as 11 with 2:05 to play in the opening half.

Georgia State built its lead to as many as 13 with 14:19 to play in the game as the Panthers shot 57.1 percent from the floor after the break.

The Panthers opened the game shooting an impressive 68 percent from the floor in the first half and were 6-of-8 from 3-point range.

Oakland (1-5) was led by Max Hooper's 21 points. Hooper hit seven 3-pointers as Oakland knocked down 13 from beyond the arc.

GEORGIA STATE 66, IUPUI 63

Fairgrounds Coliseum • Indianapolis, Ind.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored 27 points, including 21 in the second half as Georgia State overcame a six-point deficit late to secure a 66-63 win over IUPUI at Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The game marked the return of head coach Ron Hunter to IUPUI where he coached for 17 years before taking over at Georgia State in March 2011. It was also R.J.'s first game in Indianapolis where he starred for Pike High School.

Georgia State (5-2) trailed by as many as seven with less than 10 minutes to play and by one, 60-59, following a P.J. Boutte 3-pointer with 1:06 to play.

However, Hunter's lone 3-pointer gave the Panthers a two-point lead with 44 seconds to play and after a Markus Crider steal and pair of free throws by Ryann Green, Georgia State led by four with 17 seconds remaining.

IUPUI (2-4) returned to the other end of the court as Boutte made another 3-pointer to cut the deficit to one with 14 seconds remaining. Boutte finished with 12 points and eight assists.

Hunter was immediately fouled and made both free throws and a Leo Svete 3-point attempt fell short for the Panthers to secure the win.

Hunter finished 8-18 from the floor and 10-of-11 from the free throw line as the Panthers finished 18-of-24 from the charity line. He added three assists and three steals in the win. The junior moved ahead of James Andrews and into fifth on Georgia State's all-time scoring list and now has 1,291 points in two-plus seasons.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 21 points on 9-of-16 shooting. Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware came off the bench to score six points, grab six rebounds and swipe four of the Panthers 13 steals.

IUPUI took an early 10-3 lead five minutes into the game as Georgia State picked up six fouls before the first media timeout. However, the Panthers responded with a 10-1 run to take a 13-11 lead with 11:49 to play in the first half and went into the break leading 27-26.

Georgia State held IUPUI to just 21.7 percent shooting in the first half, but the Jaguars made up the difference by making 15-of-17 free throws as the Panthers picked up 12 fouls in the opening 20 minutes.

The Panthers committed just six fouls in the second half and IUPUI never made it to the free throw line again.

Marcellus Barksdale led IUPUI with 22 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 4-of-4 from 3-point range. DavRon Williams came off the bench to add 10 points and eight rebounds for the Jaguars.

GEORGIA STATE 72, GREEN BAY 48

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by hot first half shooting and 26 points from R.J. Hunter, Georgia State cruised to a 72-48 win over Green Bay in a match-up of two of the top mid-major teams at the GSU Sports Arena.

Hunter finished the game with four 3-pointers and is now just one shy of becoming just the second Panther to make 200 in a career. Hunter added five rebounds and made 10-of-12 from the free throw line. He also became just the fifth Panther in program history to score at least 1,300 points and now has 1,317 for his career.

Junior T.J. Shipes made his second career start and finished with a double-double of 11 points and 11 rebounds, to go along with a pair of blocked shots. He made 5-of-6 from the floor.

Georgia State shot 62 percent in the first half and finished the game shooting 53.1 percent from the floor. The Panthers came into the night shooting 50.6 percent for the season, ranked No. 19 in the NCAA.

Georgia State (6-2) won for the fifth-straight time and for the 15th-straight time at home dating back to the start of last season. The streak is tied for the 11th longest in the country.

Green Bay (5-2) entered the night ranked No. 1 in the country in the first NCAA RPI which had come out on Wednesday.

The game featured a match-up of a pair of Naismith Trophy Top 50 watch list members in Hunter and Green Bay's Keifer Sykes. The Panthers held Sykes to 16 points, the only member of the Phoenix to score in double figures.

Georgia State used hot shooting early to take a 16-6 lead just six and half minutes into the game, causing Green Bay to call its first time out.

The Panthers led 31-18 before going on an 11-0 run to take a 42-18 into the half, their biggest lead of the first 20 minutes.

Georgia State held the Phoenix to just 27.6 percent shooting in the first half and 1-of-7 from 3-point range.

In the second half, Green Bay cut the lead to 50-34 with 14:37 to play, before the Panthers went on a 10-0 run to take a 60-34 lead with under 12 minutes to play.

Green Bay did not make a field goal from the 14:37 mark to 4:40 left in the game, as Georgia State built its lead to 69-40.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 17 points, eight assists and three of the Panthers nine steals.

OLD DOMINION 58, GEORGIA STATE 54 OT

Ted Constant Center • Norfolk, Va.

Old Dominion overcame an eight-point deficit with under six minutes to play, holding Georgia State scoreless to send the game into overtime before earning a 58-54 win over the Panthers.

Old Dominion had a chance to win it in regulation, but Denzell Taylor missed a pair of free throws with 0.4 seconds to play and despite Georgia State taking a 54-52 lead with 2:14 to play in extra time, the Monarchs finished the game on a 6-0 run to earn the win.

Georgia State (6-3) saw its five-game winning streak snapped, while Old Dominion, which is receiving votes in both the AP and ESPN/Coaches Top 25 polls improved to 8-1.

Junior R.J. Hunter finished with a double-double of 13 points and 10 rebounds, but managed to go just 1-of-8 from 3-point range as the Panthers were held to 13.3 percent shooting from beyond the arc.

Hunter had a 3-point attempt with four seconds remaining bounce off the rim before ODU added one final lay-up at the end of the game.

After trailing 42-39 with 11:45 to play, Georgia State responded with an 11-0 run holding Old Dominion scoreless for more than eight minutes to build a 50-42 lead with 5:55 to play on a free throw by Ryan Harrow.

Harrow finished the game with 16 points and six assists, but the Panthers were held scoreless until 2:57 to play in overtime, a stretch of nearly nine minutes.

Old Dominion was led by Trey Freeman who scored 21 points, including 19 in the second half and overtime. Aaron Bacote added 14 points and seven rebounds for ODU.

The Monarchs outrebounded the Panthers 53-35, including 20-10 on the offensive glass.

Senior Curtis Washington came off the bench to score five points and grab six rebounds for the Panthers. Junior Markus Crider added 11 points and six rebounds.

Georgia State took an early 20-9 lead with 8:30 to play in the first half as the Panthers made nine of their first 12 shots. Over the same span, the Panther defense held the Monarchs to just 4-of-17 shooting from the floor.

Old Dominion responded with a 7-0 run to cut Georgia State's lead to 22-19 before a dunk and free throw by Washington with 3:27 to play in the first half built the Panthers lead back to six.

The Panthers led 27-23 at the half despite not making a field goal the final 3:27 of the opening period.

Old Dominion took its first lead of the game, 37-35, on a Jonathan Arledge jumper with 15:10 to play in the game. Arledge finished with eight points and nine rebounds.

Hunter made his 72nd career start which moved him into the top 10 in Georgia State history.

Game 10: Dec. 21, 2014, 2 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 68, SOUTHERN MISS 55

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Ryan Harrow scored a season-high 27 points to lead Georgia State to a 68-55 win over Southern Miss at the GSU Sports Arena.

Harrow knocked down a career-high five 3-pointers, including four in the first nine minutes of the game. He finished 11-of-21 from the floor and 5-of-8 from 3-point range, dishing out three assists and swiping three of the Panthers 12 steals.

Georgia State (7-3) won its 16th-straight home game which is now tied for the ninth-longest streak in the country with North Dakota State. Southern Miss lost its second straight game to fall to 5-5.

The Panthers have now won 29 of their last 35 games dating back to last season.

Junior R.J. Hunter battled flu-like symptoms before the game and missed the start of the second half getting extra fluids. He finished with 13 points, seven assists and five rebounds in 31 minutes of action.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware chipped in with eight points and three steals, while senior Ryan Green added four points and set a career-high with six rebounds in the win.

Southern Miss took an early 15-14 lead before Georgia State scored eight-straight points to take a 22-15 lead with under 10 minutes to play in the first half.

Harrow keyed the Panthers' offense scoring 14 of Georgia State's first 22 points of the game during that stretch and finished the first half with 19.

The Panthers pushed the run to 20-3 to take 34-18 lead with just under four minutes remaining in the half. It was GSU's biggest lead in the first 20 minutes. Georgia State went into the locker room with 38-29 lead as Southern Miss closed strong with an 11-4 run.

Southern Miss got as close as five, 38-33, early in the second half before a Harrow lay-up with 15:40 to play pushed the lead back to seven.

The Panthers ran off six-straight points to push the lead to 44-33 with under 14 minutes to play. After a Southern Miss basket, Georgia State went on another 10-0 run to push the lead to 54-35 with 9:26 to play.

Georgia State led by as many as 21, 61-40 with 2:16 to play.

Southern Miss was led by Chip Armelin who scored 16 points, while Rasham Suarez added 12.

Senior Curtis Washington came off the bench to tie for the team lead with six boards.

GREEN BAY 78, GEORGIA STATE 61

Resch Center • Green Bay, Wis.

Leading 62-60 with 4:32 to play, Green Bay finished the game on a 16-1 run to earn a 78-61 win over Georgia State on Saturday afternoon at the Resch Center.

Junior R.J. Hunter led the Panthers with 19 points on 7-of-18 shooting, but went just 1-of-8 from 3-point range. He added three assists in 38 minutes.

Senior Ryan Harrow added 14 points, all in the first half, finishing the game with six rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Harrow and Hunter, the No. 2 scoring duo in the country, averaging 41.4 points, were held to 33 points on 14-of-37 shooting.

Georgia State finished non-conference play 7-4 and will open defense of its Sun Belt Conference championship on Tuesday hosting UL Monroe in the Sports Arena at approx. 7 p.m. It was just Georgia State's seventh loss in the last 36 games dating back to last season.

Green Bay (10-3) earned revenge over the Panthers for a Dec. 4, 72-48 loss to Georgia State in Atlanta. Carrington Love led all scorers with 28 points. Both teams entered the game ranked in the top 12 in CollegeInsider.com's Mid-Major Top 25 and top 40 in the NCAA RPI.

Green Bay took an early 18-14 lead with 11:33 to play in the first half before Georgia State responded with a 15-0 run over six and half minutes to lead 29-18 with 4:51 to play in the opening half.

The Phoenix responded with a 17-6 run to tie the game at 35-35 before a Hunter jumper before the half sent the Panthers into the locker room with a 37-35 lead.

Georgia State shot 57.1 percent from the floor in the first 20 minutes, but were held to just 32.1 percent in the second half and 15.4 percent from 3-point range for the game.

With the score tied 42-42 early in the second half, Green Bay went on a 7-0 run to take a 49-42 lead with 12:59 to play.

Georgia State responded and tied the game 51-51 before taking a 58-57 lead with 5:59 to play. It was the Panthers last lead of the game. The two teams combined for nine lead changes and seven ties.

Junior T.J. Shipes added seven points and six rebounds for the Panthers, while junior Markus Crider scored six and pulled down six boards.

Naismith Top 50 Award Watch List member Keifer Sykes was held to 13 points on 3-of-10 shooting for Green Bay. Jordan Fouse added 14 points and seven assists for the home team.

GEORGIA STATE 65, UL MONROE 45

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Junior Markus Crider recorded his first career double-double and Georgia State used a late second half run to score a 65-45 victory over UL Monroe in the Sun Belt opener for both schools.

Crider, who barely missed a pair of double-doubles earlier in the year, finished with 13 points and tied a career-high with 10 rebounds. After missing his first three shots of the game, he made his last five and went 3-of-4 from the free throw line.

With the score tied at 36-36 with 13:27 to play, Georgia State (8-4, 1-0 Sun Belt) responded with a 16-0 run to take a 52-36 lead with 6:35 to play and never looked back.

R.J. Hunter and Ryan Harrow, the No. 3 scoring duo in the country, were held to just 25 points, but 57.7 percent shooting by the Panthers in the second half allowed GSU to overcome a six-point second half deficit and earn the win.

Hunter finished with 18 points and moved ahead of Chavelo Holmes and into fourth on Georgia State's all-time scoring list.

Harrow who scored seven points and was held in single digits for the first time this year dished out eight of the Panthers' 18 assists.

Georgia State has now won 18 of its first 19 games in the Sun Belt since returning to the league and 30 of 37 games overall dating back to last season. The Panthers have also won 17-straight home games, just eight shy of the school record of 25 set between 2000 and 2002.

UL Monroe took an early 15-7 with a little more than eight minutes to go in the first half as Georgia State missed 14 of its first 17 shots. Georgia State's defensive kept them in the game, as the Warhawks shot just 25 percent over that same stretch.

Georgia State responded with three 3-pointers, including two from Hunter and a reverse lay-up from Harrow to go on a 11-0 run and take a 20-17 lead with 4:53 to play in the first half.

Despite shooting 32 percent in the first half and 3-of-11 from 3-point range, the Panthers went into the locker room trailing just 26-23.

Following a 3-pointer by ULM's Nick Coppola gave the Warhawks a 29-23 lead early in the second half, the Panthers responded took a 36-35 lead with 14:25 to play as Crider scored eight-straight Panther points.

Georgia State then used its run before building the biggest lead of the game, 20 points, which also was the final margin.

UL Monroe (6-6, 0-1 Sun Belt) was had no players score in double figures as Jamaal Samuel led the Warhawks with nine points and five rebounds.

Game 13: Jan. 3, 2015, 2 p.m.

GEORGIA STATE 82, UALR 69

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Senior Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 22 points and redshirt-junior Kevin Ware scored a career-high 21 points on his 22nd birthday to lead Georgia State to an 82-69 win over UALR at the GSU Sports Arena.

For the second straight game, Georgia State used a late run to secure the win. Leading 61-55 with six minutes to play, Georgia State went on a 15-0 run to take a 76-55 lead with under two minutes to play and never looked back.

Harrow finished 8-of-13 from the floor and knocked down three 3-pointers, dishing out a pair of assists.

Ware shot 8-of-14 from the floor, knocking down 4-of-4 from the free throw line and adding six rebounds and five assists. The Panthers finished the game 22-of-30 from the charity stripe. Ware came off the bench just a minute into the game when senior Ryann Green took an accidental elbow to the mouth.

Georgia State (9-4, 2-0 Sun Belt) extended its home court winning streak to 18 games and have now won 31 of its last 38 games dating back to last season.

The Panthers have also won 19 of their first 20 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt last season.

UALR (5-7, 0-2 Sun Belt) lost its second-straight Sun Belt game, having opened league play facing the two teams predicted to finish 1-2 in conference play.

Junior R.J. Hunter, who was held to just a 3-pointer in the first half, finished with 14 and moved ahead of Devonta White into third-place on Georgia State's all-time scoring list with 1,394 points. He finished 9-of-10 from the free throw line and grabbed three boards.

UALR took an early 17-12 lead, its biggest of the game, with 12:45 to play as the two teams shared six ties and four lead changes in the first 20 minutes.

Tied at 27-27, Georgia State used a 7-0 run capped by a 3-pointer by Harrow to build its biggest lead of the first half, seven points, with 3:13 to play. The Panthers went into the half leading 37-32 after shooting 58.3 percent from the floor and 57.1 percent from 3-point range.

Harrow finished with 15 points in the opening 20 minutes, while Ware added 10.

Leading 54-51 with 9:14 to play, UALR's Josh Hagins picked up a technical foul on a Harrow lay-up. R.J. Hunter made the two technical free throws, followed by two makes by Harrow to extend the lead to seven. On the next possession, Hunter made one more free throw to push the lead to 59-51 with 8:02 remaining.

TEXAS STATE 77, GEORGIA STATE 74 2OT

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite 29 points from senior Ryan Harrow, Georgia State fell to Texas State 77-74 in double overtime at the GSU Sports Arena. The loss snapped the Panthers 18-game home-court winning streak which was tied for the ninth-best mark in the nation.

The game featured 18 ties, 20 lead changes and a buzzer-beater 3-pointer by Texas State's Emani Gant at the end of the first overtime to send it to the second. It was Gant's first career 3-pointer.

Georgia State (9-5, 2-1 Sun Belt) dropped just its eighth game over the course of the last 39 games dating back to last season. It was only the Panthers second loss in conference play since rejoining the Sun Belt and dropped the Panthers to 5-5 all-time in double-overtime games.

Texas State (8-4, 2-1 Sun Belt) came into the night allowing just 53.6 points per game, tops in the Sun Belt and fifth in the nation and held the Panthers to just 19 first half points and 57 in regulation.

Harrow finished 11-of-22 from the floor and with the Panthers trailing by two with 16.2 seconds to play in regulation, took the ball the length of the court for a lay-up to tie the game 57-57 with six seconds remaining.

Gant, who was held scoreless in the first half, finished with 17 points, one of five Bobcats in double figures.

Despite shooting 45.5 percent from the floor, the Panthers finished the game just 2-of-16 from 3-point range, including 1-of-6 in overtime.

Junior R.J. Hunter was held scoreless in the first half and finished with 10 points and five rebounds, but was held to 0-of-10 from 3-point range.

Junior Markus Cridler just missed his second double-double of the season with nine points and 10 rebounds. Kevin Ware came off the bench with his second-straight double-figure scoring effort, finishing with 14 points and a career-high five steals.

Trailing 34-30 with just under 10 minutes to play in the game, Georgia State responded with a 7-2 run to take a 38-36 lead on a layup by Ware with 7:57 to play.

In the first overtime, Georgia State took an early 61-57 lead and led 64-60 with 3:30 to play following a Harrow 3-pointer.

Georgia State led 69-66 with 10.0 seconds to play after senior Ryann Green knocked down a pair of free throws, but after a scramble for the ball on the other end, Gant hit his 3-pointer from the top of the key to send it into double overtime.

Texas State took the lead for good, 73-71, on a jumper by Gant with 2:21 to play. Following a free throw by Harrow, the Panthers did not score again until a Green lay-up as time expired.

The 17 turnovers by the Panthers were the most this season, but only led to 13 Texas State points.

UL LAFAYETTE 84, GEORGIA STATE 80

Cajun Dome • Lafayette, La.

Ryan Harrow and R.J. Hunter combined for 52 points, but UL Lafayette overcame an early 17-point first-half deficit to defeat Georgia State 84-80 on Thursday night at the Cajun Dome.

Hunter finished with a team-high 27 points on 8-of-17 shooting, knocking down five 3-pointers, while Harrow added 25, including 16 in the second half.

Georgia State (9-6, 2-2 Sun Belt) opened a commanding 31-14 lead with 6:10 to play in the first half and still led 37-21 with 4:06 to play before ULL responded with a 10-0 run to cut the lead to 37-31 with 2:22 to play and finish the first half on a 19-4 run to trail by just one at the break.

ULL (10-6, 4-0 Sun Belt) saw all five starters score in double figures, but it was at the free throw line that the game was decided.

The Ragin' Cajuns finished the game 31-of-38 from the free throw line, while Georgia State managed to go just 10-of-17. The Panthers made seven more field goals than ULL in the opening half, but the Ragin' Cajuns made up the difference by making 13 more free throws.

Brian Williams led ULL with 20 points, while preseason all-conference first-team member Shawn Long finished with a double-double of 16 points and 13 rebounds.

Georgia State opened the game on a 9-0 run before UL Lafayette scored its first basket after nearly four minutes.

Hunter knocked down his first three 3-point attempts and five of his first seven shots as Georgia State built its lead to 29-12 with 7:41 to play in the opening half.

ULL continued its run to open the second half, building a 50-44 lead with 16:46 to play before Georgia State responded with a 9-0 run to take a 53-50 lead with 14:41 remaining.

Georgia State pushed the lead to 59-54 with 11:42 to play as Harrow scored 12 points in a little more than eight minutes to start the half.

ULL held Georgia State scoreless for nearly three minutes to build a 73-68 lead with 5:30 remaining, before Hunter knocked down another 3-pointer to cut the deficit to two. Harrow followed with a fast break lay-up to tie the game 73-73 with just over four minutes remaining.

The Panthers took their final lead of the game, 77-76, with 1:21 to play following a jumper by Hunter. ULL made its final eight free throws during the final 52 seconds of the game to secure the victory.

Junior T.J. Shipps finished with 10 points for the Panthers, while Kevin Ware recorded six points, four rebounds and three assists.

Devonta Walker added 15 points and six rebounds for UL Lafayette, while Jay Wright added 13 and Kasey Shepherd chipped in with 10.

GEORGIA STATE 77, TROY 72

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored a season-high 37 points, including 23 in the second half to lead Georgia State to a 77-72 win over Troy on Saturday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena. Hunter made six free throws in the final 26 seconds to secure the victory.

The junior from Indianapolis finished the game 9-of-20 from the floor, including four 3-pointers and an impressive 15-of-17 from the free throw line, both career-highs, while dishing out five assists.

Hunter was nearly matched by Troy's Musa Abdul-Aleem who finished with 33 points and made seven of Troy's 13 3-pointers. Abdul-Aleem finishing 9-of-16 from the floor and a perfect 8-of-8 from the free throw line.

Georgia State (10-6, 3-2 Sun Belt) won for the 19th time in his last 20 home games and played without the services of senior Ryan Harrow who was nursing a toe injury. It was the first game Harrow has missed in a Georgia State uniform. The Panthers are off to their third-best start in program history and have now won 32 of their last 41 games dating back to last season.

Troy (6-7, 1-3 Sun Belt) lost despite shooting 48.1 percent from 3-point range and missing just one of 14 free throw attempts.

Sophomore Isaiah Dennis stepped up in Harrow's absence scoring a career-high nine points in 18 minutes. Entering play, Dennis has scored just 12 points in his career, including nine this season.

Trailing 12-11 early in the game, junior Kevin Ware knocked down 3-pointers on back-to-back possessions to give the Panthers a 17-12 lead with 13:09 to play in the first half. After a Troy 3-pointer by Wesley Person, Hunter knocked down his second 3-pointer of the game to push the Panthers lead back to five.

Ware finished with 13 points and four assists for the Panthers.

Georgia State made eight-straight field goals and hit nine of its first 10 shots, finishing the first half shooting 60 percent from the floor and 5-of-10 from 3-point range.

Troy used a 9-0 run to take 24-22 with 6:29 to play in the first half, before Georgia State responded with a dunk by Curtis Washington and another 3-pointer by Hunter to retake the lead, 27-24.

The Trojans finished the half knocking down six 3-pointers to lead Georgia State 34-32 at the break.

Trailing 44-39 early in the second half, Hunter knocked down a jumper and subsequent free throw, followed by a 3-pointer from Jalen Brown to take a 45-44 lead with just over 12 minutes to play.

The two teams combined for 20 lead changes and 10 ties, with 13 of those lead changes coming in the season half.

A Dennis lay-up with 1:32 to play gave GSU a 71-68 lead, the Panthers biggest lead of the second half to that point and one the team would not relinquish.

Georgia State finished the game shooting 54.5 percent from the floor and 43.8 percent from 3-point range, knocking down 22-of-26 from the free throw line.

GEORGIA STATE 83, UT ARLINGTON 62

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Led by 27 points from senior Ryan Harrow, Georgia State scored an impressive 83-62 over UT Arlington on Thursday night at the GSU Sports Arena as head coach Ron Hunter coached barefoot to raise awareness for Samaritan's Feet in the annual 'Barefoot for Bare Feet' Game.

Harrow finished 10-of-17 from the floor with four 3-pointers in his return to the court after missing a game due to an injury. The Panthers forced a season-high 26 turnovers which led to 35 points. In contrast, Georgia State turned it over only eight times, which led to just two UT Arlington points.

Georgia State (11-6, 4-2 Sun Belt) won for the second-straight game and have now won 33 of their last 42 games dating back to last season.

Redshirt-junior Kevin Ware added 11 points, scoring in double figures for the fourth time in the last five games, while junior Markus Crider added 10 points and six rebounds.

UT Arlington (9-7, 3-3 Sun Belt) was held to 40.4 percent shooting, including just 7-of-22 from 3-point range.

Trailing 6-2 early, Georgia State held the Mavericks scoreless for five minutes and went on a 13-0 run to take an 15-6 lead with 13:19 to play and never trail again the rest of the game.

UT Arlington used a late 7-0 run to cut Georgia State's lead to 31-30 with under a minute to play before a 3-pointer and fast break lay-up by Harrow put the Panthers back up 36-30 with under 30 seconds remaining.

Georgia State led by as many as nine in the first half, shooting 45 percent from the floor, while holding UT Arlington to just 39 percent shooting. The Panthers scored 15 points off 10 Maverick turnovers in the first 20 minutes.

The Panthers built their first double-digit lead, 51-40, with just under 14 minutes to go in the second half, making five-straight field goals. Georgia State continued to push and led by as many as 21 with 7:08 to play.

Greg Gainey came off the bench to lead the Mavericks with 11 points and four rebounds. Lonnie McClanahan just missed a double-double with nine points and 10 rebounds, while Kevin Hervey added nine points and seven boards.

Junior R.J. Hunter's continued his pursuit of Georgia State's all-time scoring record, finishing with eight points. He is now just three shy of tying Terrence Brandon for second and 39 points shy of the school-record of 1,515 held by Rodney Hamilton.

APPALACHIAN STATE 74, GEORGIA STATE 69

Holmes Convocation Center • Boone, N.C.

Appalachian State overcame a double-digit second-half deficit to earn a 74-69 win over Georgia State on Saturday afternoon at the Holmes Convocation Center. Senior Ryan Harrow led the Panthers with 21 points, but Georgia State hit just 14-of-23 from the free throw line which proved too much to overcome.

Appalachian State (5-10, 2-4 Sun Belt) snapped a four-game losing streak as Frank Eaves scored 27 points, knocking down 8-of-14 from 3-point range.

Georgia State (11-7, 4-3 Sun Belt) saw its two-game winning streak come to an end. Junior Markus Crider recorded his second double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Georgia State led by one, 69-68, with 49 seconds to play, but never scored again as the Mountaineers went 4-of-4 from the free throw line in the final four seconds.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored the first seven points of the game for Georgia State and with his second field goal moved head of Terrence Brandon into second-place in GSU's all-time scoring list.

Tied 17-17 halfway through the first half, the Panthers responded with a 12-2 run to take a 29-19 lead with 5:31 to play. Harrow scored six points during the stretch and finished the first half with 15.

Georgia State shot 78.3 percent in the first half to take a 40-30 lead into the locker room. The Panthers finished with 26 points in the paint, but Appalachian State staying in the game with nine second chance points off seven offensive rebounds.

The Mountaineers opened the second half on an 8-0 run to cut the deficit to just two before GSU responded and pushed the lead back up to as many as 11 with just under 11 minutes to play.

Eaves 3-pointer with 6:15 to play tied the game 62-62, the first time Appalachian State did not trail since under 10 minutes to go in the first half. After a lay-up by Ryann Green gave the Panthers a one point lead, Eaves responded with another 3-pointer to give Appalachian State its first lead of the second half.

Following a free throw by Green with 4:48 to play, the Panthers went three and half minutes without scoring before a pair of free throws by Harrow gave Georgia State its last lead, 69-68, with 49 seconds remaining.

Green finished the game with seven points, tying a career-high for the second game in a row.

GSU shot 57.8 percent for the game and held Appalachian State to just 36.7 percent shooting, but the Panthers gave up 17 offensive rebounds that led to 15 second chance points.

Tommy Spagnolo added 22 points and six rebounds for the Mountaineers, while Chris Burgess chipped in with 14 points and five assists.

GEORGIA STATE 60, ARKANSAS STATE 54

Convocation Center • Jonesboro, Ark.

Junior R.J. Hunter scored 14 of the Panthers' final 15 points to lead Georgia State to a 60-54 win over Arkansas State on Monday night at the Convocation Center. With his final free throw make, Hunter tied Rodney Hamilton's all-time Georgia State scoring mark of 1,515 points.

Hunter finished with 23 points, going a perfect 12-of-12 from the free throw line, including six in the final 47 seconds to secure the win. He added eight rebounds in his 82nd career start which is tied for the sixth-most in program history.

Georgia State (12-7, 5-3 Sun Belt) shot just 35.8 percent from the floor as the Panthers were playing their third game in five days. However, the road team made up for it by turning the ball over just nine times and outrebounding the Red Wolves 41-32, including 13-10 on the offensive glass.

Arkansas State (8-9, 3-5 Sun Belt) got a double-double from Anthony Livingston who scored 20 points and pulled down 13 rebounds, but shot just 28.6 percent from the floor.

Playing without the services of senior Ryan Harrow who was suspended for the game due to an accumulation of technical fouls, redshirt-junior Kevin Ware stepped up with 10 first half points and junior Markus Crider just missed a double-double with seven points and 10 rebounds.

Georgia State opened the game scoring the first seven points as Ware made a 3-pointer and jumper. After Arkansas State tied the game at 7-7, Georgia State continued to push the first half tempo, building a 22-14 lead with 7:32 to play.

Following a free throw by Ware with 3:45 to play gave Georgia State a 29-19 lead, its biggest of the half, the Red Wolves held the Panthers scoreless the remainder of the half and went on an 8-0 run to trail by just two, 29-27 going into the locker room.

Arkansas State took its first lead of the game, 34-33, with 14:30 to play, before Georgia State responded with an 8-0 run to build a 41-34 lead with 11:07 to play.

The Panthers held Arkansas State without a field goal for more than nine minutes to build a 47-41 lead with 5:28 to play following a jumper by Hunter. Arkansas State was held to just free throws during that time.

As time started to run down, Hunter scored eight straight Panther points, including a floater in the lane which gave Georgia State a 53-50 lead with 2:21 to play. He added two more free throws with 47 seconds to play to put the Panthers ahead 55-52. Senior Ryann Green scored a career-high seven points for the third game in a row, playing a career-high 32 minutes on Monday night.

Isaiah Dennis added seven points in just 14 minutes as the Panthers finished 19-of-25 from the free throw line.

GEORGIA STATE 75, UL LAFAYETTE 64

GSU Sports Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State's R.J. Hunter set the school's all-time scoring record and the Panthers defeated UL Lafayette 75-64 on Saturday afternoon at the GSU Sports Arena. Senior Ryan Harrow finished with 19 to lead the Panthers who moved within a half-game of first-place.

Hunter entered the game tied with Rodney Hamilton (1994-98) with 1,515 career points, but his jumper with 9:44 to play in the opening half gave him the record. Hunter broke the record in just 84 games and finished with the afternoon with 13 points, seven rebounds and seven assists.

Georgia State (13-7, 6-3 Sun Belt) won for the 35th time in the last 45 games dating back to last year and are 23-4 in conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The Panthers have won 21 of their last 22 games at home.

UL Lafayette (11-9, 5-4 Sun Belt) got a double-double of 21 points and 16 rebounds from senior Shawn Long, but shot just 33.9 percent from the game.

Harrow finished 8-of-17 from the floor and added five rebounds for the Panthers, while Kevin Ware and Markus Crider each scored in double figures, adding 11 and 10 points respectively.

Leading 13-10 with 11:03 to play in the first half, Georgia State went on a 9-0 run capped by a fast break lay-up by Harrow to build a 22-10 lead with 6:34 to play. Hunter's record-breaking jumper came as part of the run.

Georgia State pushed the lead to as many as 14 and went into the break leading 32-18 as UL Lafayette never got closer than nine. The Panthers held the Ragin' Cajuns to just 25 percent shooting in the half and forced 13 turnovers which led to 10 points.

Harrow's 3-pointer with 18:35 to play in the first half gave the Panthers a 3-pointer in 600-straight games dating back to Feb. 18, 1995.

The Panthers pushed the lead to as many as 22 in the second half with 15:45 to play, before the Ragin' Cajuns made one last run, cutting Georgia State's lead to nine with 2:13 to play.

Jay Wright added 14 points to ULL, while Brian Williams finished with nine points and five rebounds.

Georgia State finished the game shooting 51.9 percent and made 17-of-23 free throws. Hunter finished 7-of-8 from the line and with his fourth make, became the all-time leading free throw shooter in GSU history. He entered the day second in school history in free throw percentage, only behind Hamilton.

Curtis Washington added a blocked shot in the second half to give him 100 for his career, just the seventh Panther in program history to accomplish the feat.

GEORGIA STATE 88, UT ARLINGTON 74

College Park Center • Arlington, Texas

Georgia State overcame an 11-point second-half deficit as R.J. Hunter scored 32 points and Ryan Harrow added 25 to lead the Panthers an 88-74 win over UT Arlington at the College Park Center.

Trailing 62-51 with a little more than 11 minutes to play, Georgia State responded with a 29-4 run to take an 80-69 lead with 3:02 to play and never look back.

Hunter got hot in the second half, knocking down six of his seven 3-pointers and finished 9-of-16 from the floor, 7-of-11 from 3-point range and 7-of-7 from the free throw line. He added five rebounds, five assists, three blocked shots and a pair of steals.

Harrow was equally impressive going 9-of-19 from the floor and 6-of-6 from the free throw line, dishing out four assists and swiping four of the Panthers eight steals. He is now just five points shy of becoming just the fifth Panther to score 1,000 points in a GSU uniform. If he accomplishes it Saturday, it will occur in just 54 games, the second-quickest in program history.

Georgia State (14-7, 7-3 Sun Belt) won its third-straight game to remaining a half-game out of first-place in the league. The Panthers are 36-10 in the last 46 games dating back to last season and have also won 24 of their first 28 conference games since returning to the Sun Belt. The squad is off to the fourth-best start in school history.

Head coach Ron Hunter picked up the 350th win of his career and 76th at the helm of Georgia State.

The Panthers finished 25-of-27 from the free throw line, the 11th-best mark in program history, and shot 50.9 percent for the game, including 16-of-29 in the second half.

UT Arlington (12-8, 6-4 Sun Belt) saw its three-game win streak come to an end and was swept in the season series by the Panthers for the second year in a row. Kevin Hervey led the Mavericks with 21 points and eight rebounds.

As the two teams were tied five times in the first half with neither squad leading by more than six, UT Arlington led 30-24 with 5:43 to play benefiting from 51.7 percent first half shooting.

The Panthers responded with a 10-4 run, capped by a jumper in the lane and free throw by Hunter to tie the score 34-34. The Mavericks went into the half leading 38-34.

The Mavericks took their biggest lead of the game, 62-51, with 11:10 to play before Georgia State's run and took its first lead of the second half on a pair of free throws by Ryann Green to go ahead 69-67 with 5:57 to play.

Junior Markus Crider added eight points for the Panthers, while Green recorded five points and five rebounds. Kevin Ware, who missed the first half for a violation of team rules, added five second-half points.
