QUICK NOTES

- Georgia State makes its first road trip of the season this weekend to the Sunshine State. The Panthers will play at FAU Saturday and at FIU on Monday.
- The Gene Hill era got off to a strong start on Wednesday as GSU defeated UNCG 70-63 in the season opener. Walnatia Wright led GSU in both scoring and rebounding, finishing with a double-double at 15 points and 11 rebounds.
- New head coach Gene Hill is the 10th head coach in GSU program history. He sits at 1-0 now after Wednesday's victory.
- While the coaching staff is new, the Panthers return 10 players from last season including four starters.
- Veterans K.K. Williams and Kierra Henry have played a combined 163 games in a GSU uniform. Of GSU's eight seniors this year, Henry and Williams are the two that started their careers at GSU.
- Kierra Henry led the team in scoring last season (14.2 ppg) and led the Sun Belt in free throw shooting (81%).
- After sitting out last season due to transfer rules, forwards Allison Johnson and Walnatia Wright look to bolster the GSU roster and bring depth to the post positions. Wright totaled a double-double in her debut on Wednesday and Johnson came up just shy with nine rebounds and eight points.
- Redshirt sophomore Jada Lewis returns after missing nearly all of last season due to injury. Lewis was honored as the Sun Belt Freshman of the Year for the 2016-17 season.
- GSU will play a challenging non-conference schedule, including hosting Georgia Tech at home and visiting Tallahassee, Fla., to face #11 Florida State.
- All GSU home games will be broadcast live on ESPN+ this season.

HEAD COACH GENE HILL

With a long track record of winning and ties to Atlanta, NC State assistant coach and recruiting coordinator Gene Hill was named the head women's basketball coach at Georgia State University by Director of Athletics Charlie Cobb on April 19, 2018.

Following five successful seasons helping lead the Wolfpack to a 112-52 record, including three NCAA Tournament appearances, Hill becomes the 11th head coach of the Panthers in program history. Hill is coming off his most successful season in Raleigh, as the Wolfpack went 26-9 and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

"Gene Hill is a proven coach and recruiter who knows Atlanta and what it takes to build a winning program," Cobb said. "He brings a tremendous amount of energy and passion to our program. Gene has succeeded at the highest level and guided student-athletes to success on and off the court. We are delighted to welcome Gene Hill and his family to Georgia State as our women's basketball coach."

In his first season at NC State (2013-14), Hill helped lead the Wolfpack to a 25-8 record, a fourth-place finish in the ACC standings, and an NCAA Tournament appearance. After an 18-15 campaign in 2014-15 and a 20-11 season in 2015-16, Hill helped lead the Wolfpack to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32 in 2016-17 with an impressive 23-9 record (12-4 ACC).

He played a large role in mentoring 2017 All-ACC guards Miah Spencer and Dominique Wilson, both of whom were seniors during the successful 2016-17 season, eclipsed the 1,000-point mark at NC State, and went on to play professionally overseas following graduation.

Prior to his five years at NC State, Hill worked at Georgia Tech from 2009-12 as the Yellow Jackets made four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, including the program's first Sweet 16 appearance in 2012.

Hill was heavily involved in the player development of three WNBA draft picks between 2010-12, including first-rounders Alex Montgomery and Sasha Goodlett at Georgia Tech.

"I couldn't be more excited to have the opportunity to lead Georgia State Women's Basketball into the future, and to join the Georgia State family," Hill said. "Throughout this process, it was clear to me that Charlie, Kelcey and the team are committed to excellence both on and off the court, which has been staples of programs I've been a part of throughout my career. I'm excited to hit the ground running and to lead a program that the University and local communities will be proud of."

Hill was one of just 14 assistant coaches from around the country chosen to participate in Advocates for Athletic Equity's (AAE) annual "Achieving Coaching Excellence" (ACE) Professional Development Program for basketball coaches in June 2016. The program is recognized as helping to boost the careers of some of the top minority coaches in the college game.

Prior to joining the Yellow Jackets, Hill served six seasons on the Butler women's basketball staff, including two years as associate head coach. He worked as the Bulldogs' recruiting coordinator and assisted with on-court coaching.

Hill joined coach Beth Couture's first Butler staff in 2002 after serving as the interim head women's basketball coach at East Carolina University during the 2001-02 season.

The Bulldogs' resurgence to the upper tier of the Horizon League was due in large part to the talent that Hill accumulated at Butler. His first recruiting class included Jackie Closser and Ellen Hamilton, two players who scored 1,000 points in their Butler careers. Additionally, the Bulldogs landed at least one player on the Horizon League's All-Newcomer Team in each of Hill's four years as recruiting coordinator.

Hill was the head women's basketball coach at USC Spartanburg from 1999-01. While in Spartanburg, he recruited three USA Today Honorable Mention All-Americans and the 2000-01 Peach Belt Conference Freshman of the Year.

From 1997-99, Hill served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Lander (S.C.) University. He helped lead the Bearcats to their first Peach Belt Conference Tournament championship and earned an NCAA Division II Tournament bid.

Hill graduated from Coker (S.C.) College with a degree in physical education in 1997. He grew up just outside of Atlanta in LaGrange, Ga.

While at Coker, Hill played for the Cobras' basketball team for one season and also served as the assistant women's basketball coach for three seasons.

Hill has been invited to attend The Villa 7 Consortium multiple times in Beaverton, Ore., a group of women's basketball assistant coaches who are considered to be the next generation of rising head coaches in the country.

Hill and his wife, Heidi, have two children: daughter, Genevieve Ashlynn and son Guy Alexander.

Prior to GSU

Allison Johnson will make her Georgia State debut this season after sitting out the 2017-18 year due to transfer rules.

Johnson, a Kennesaw State transfer, will provide GSU depth and athleticism at the post position. At KSU, Johnson averaged 7.5 points and 5.9 rebounds per game during the 2016-17 season. In 2015-16, she was named to the A-Sun All-Freshman team after averaging 4.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game.

Johnson, originally from Gijón, Spain, moved to Norcross, Ga., in 2012 and has basketball in her blood as her father Ed was a talented basketball player in Spain and played collegiately at Tennessee State. The team captain for her Norcross High School team as a senior, Johnson led the Blue Devils to a 28-5 record as well as the Georgia High School Association (GHSA) class AAAAAA Region 7 championship and a state runner-up finish.
