// Opening Kickoff //

Tonight's season opening non-conference game marks the 40th meeting between Gettysburg (0-0) and Juniata (0-0) in a series that dates back to 1923. The Bullets lead the all-time series 28-11. The Eagles snapped a seven-game losing streak in the series with a 31-30 victory in last season's opener. The Bullets won their last trip to Huntingdon 61-41 two seasons ago.

WHEN LAST WE MET: In a back-and-forth affair, Juniata took a 31-30 lead midway through the fourth quarter and stopped Gettysburg two yards short on the final play of the game to hold on for a victory by the same score in the season opener for both teams last season. Roc-co Abdinoor completed 23 of 40 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Bullets. He also ran the ball eight times for 66 yards. Justin Rhyne led the defense with 17 tackles, including 2.5 for loss. Ivan Foreman ran the ball 30 times for the Eagles, amassing 133 yards and two touchdowns.

LAST TIME OUT: Trailing 16-13 early in the second half, Gettysburg scored 23 of the game's final 30 points to record its first win of the season and defeat McDaniel 36-23 in the 2025 finale. Nick Wonsala led the Bullets with three total touchdowns on the day. Both of his catches went for scores and he also returned a kickoff for a touchdown. Isaac Parks-Gill (Lewistown, Pa./Mifflin County) hit two field goals, including a career-long 49-yarder in the first half. Jayden Booker led the Green Terror with 94 yards passing and two touchdowns. He was 11-for-16 through the air. He was also the team's leading rusher with 61 yards on 17 carries with a touchdown.

GAME NOTES

WITH HONORS: The Bullets had two all-conference performers in 2025. Michel Zrelak earned first-team honors while Patrick McAuliffe earned second-team accolades. Zrelak was just the third Bullet running back to be named first-team All-CC twice in his career and the first two-time first-teamer for Gettysburg at any position since Jamel Mutunga in 2009 and 2010.

LEADING THE WAY: Sean Clark (Randolph, N.J./Randolph) and Ryan Weems (Plant City, Fla./Strawberry Crest) will captain the squad in 2025. Both are first-time captains. It is just the second time since 2019 that the Bullets have had just two captains for a season.

OPENING STATEMENTS: The Bullets begins their 133rd season of football this evening, entering play with a 60-70-2 record on opening day. Gettysburg snapped a six-game losing streak in lidlifters – all to Bridgewater – with a 40-20 win over Juniata at home two seasons ago. It was the first opening day victory since topping Bridgewater 2015 by a 49-10 score in Virginia. This is the 12th straight season that Gettysburg begins the year against a team with Eagles nickname, switching year-opening foes from Bridgewater to Juniata in 2023, which was played as a non-conference game last year for the first time since 1980.

THURSDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL: For the first time since 1951, Gettysburg will play a football game on Thursday. This is the first time the Bullets have opened the season with a Thursday night game. Overall, the Orange and Blue is 26-21-4 when playing a game on Thursday. Of those 51 games, 36 were a Thanksgiving Day matchup with Franklin & Marshall. Gettysburg is 6-18 in Friday night games since 1988 but this will be the first Thursday night game in program history and first non-November Thursday game.

A WHOLE NEW LOOK: The Bullets open the 2026 with an entirely new coaching staff. Michael Green was hired as Gettysburg's 27th head football coach on January 12 and has since brought nine new assistants on board for his inaugural staff. Green comes to Gettysburg after spending the last 12 years on the coaching staff at Hobart, his alma mater, including the last five as defensive coordinator. Under Green's leadership, Hobart has fielded one of the most dynamic and dominant defenses in all of Division III. In his five seasons leading the Statesmen defense, he mentored 28 All-Liberty League selections, four all-region players, three All-Americans, and two Liberty League Defensive Players of the Year. In each of the last two seasons, his unit has led the Liberty League in total defense.

CHIEF OF STAFFS: In addition to Michael Green in charge of the program, he has three coordinators to lead each of the Bullets' units. Trey Kavanaugh comes on staff as offensive coordinator with experience coaching at Division II Wingate and Division I Appalachian State. Zach Mallard will work closely with Green as his defensive coordinator. He spent the last two seasons in the same role at St. Lawrence but has coached at every level, including Division I Auburn. Shawn Magginson will coordinate the special teams in addition to overseeing the defensive line. He most recently spent the last four seasons at Division I Southern Utah as defensive line coach.

CAPTAIN OF THE SHIP: Senior Sean Clark opens the season as the starting quarterback after taking over signal calling duties in Week Three last season. In seven games running the offense last season, he completed 48.4 percent of his passes, going 108-for-223 through the air for 1,354 yards. He threw 14 touchdowns against 10 interceptions. As a junior, he posted a 311-yard passing game against Muhlenberg on Nov. 8, completing 24 of 37 passes with three touchdowns.

SAFE KEEPING: Ty Can (Broomall, Pa./Marple Newton) returns to anchor the secondary this fall after recording 52 tackles last season, including 3.0 for loss and a sack. He also had two pass breakups and an interception. Danny Breheney (North Brunswick Twp., N.J./North Brunswick Twp.) also returns to the secondary after starting the final seven games last season with 45 tackles, three pass breakups and two interceptions.

AIRING IT OUT: The Bullets will need to replace their top two targets in the receiving game. Nick Wonsala and Jason Roskam combined for nearly 40 percent (61 of 156) of the receptions last season. Gabriel Diaz (Orlando, Fla./Winter Park) is the top returning threat in the passing game and enters the year as WR1, catching 13 balls for 210 yards and two touchdowns. Edison Case (Reading, Pa./Wilson), Jackson Field (Marblehead, Mass./Boys' Latin School of Maryland) and Jayden Lee (Montclair, N.J./Montclair) are the only other receivers with multiple catches last season. Case made five grabs in three games before missing the rest of the season with injury while Field had four and Lee made three.

BULLET POINTS: The Bullets have 92 players on the opening-day roster that includes 29 freshmen but also has four sophomore transfers... The class breakdown is relatively balanced for Gettysburg in 2026 with 21 members of each the sophomore, junior and senior classes... The roster represents 13 different states and four countries. New Jersey remains the most represented state on the roster (29). There are also 19 players from Pennsylvania and 11 from Maryland... Ryan Weems transitions down a level to outside linebacker this season after starting nine games at free safety in 2025. Weems is one of 16 defenders who had 15 or more tackles – 10 of which return to the lineup this season.

COACHES' CORNER: Michael Green enters his first year as Gettysburg head coach. A Hobart alumnus, he coached at his alma mater since graduating in 2014. An offensive lineman during his playing days, he mentored that group until 2021 before taking control of the defense. In his five seasons in charge of the Statesmen defense, he mentored 28 All-Liberty League selections, four all-region players, three All-Americans and two Liberty League Defensive Players of the Year. In each of the last two seasons, his unit has paced the Liberty League in total defense. His 2025 group allowed just 271.9 yards per game, which ranked 30th in Division III, and surrendered 17 or fewer points in seven of the team's 11 games. In Green's 15 seasons with Hobart, the Statesmen had a winning season each year. His Hobart teams went 34-8 in his four years as a player with three Liberty League championships and three straight NCAA appearances that included a trip to the national quarterfinals in 2012... Blake Treadwell enters his fourth season at the helm after he was elevated to head coach prior to the 2023 season. He has gone 5-25 in his first three seasons. After going 1-9 in his debut campaign, Treadwell doubled his win total in 2024 with a 2-8 mark and matched that total in 2025. He joined the Eagles staff as offensive line coach, run-game coordinator and academic coordinator. Treadwell was a standout student-athlete at Michigan State, starting on both the offensive and defensive lines at various points in his career, winning two Big Ten Championships, and playing in four bowl games. He served as a team captain in the 2013 Rose Bowl. He began his college coaching career at University of South Florida, serving as an offensive line graduate assistant for two seasons. The Bulls finished 11-2 and No. 19 in the final AP poll in 2016 while ranking in the top-five nationally in rushing offense. After his stint at USF, Treadwell returned to Michigan State as an offensive line graduate assistant for three seasons. He then spent time at Bucknell as a running backs coach and Buffalo State for a season as offensive line coach.

Today is the fifth time the Bullets have played a football game on Sept. 3. The team has not had much success on the day, going just 1-3 with three straight losses. Only one of those games has been on the road – a 57-42 loss at Lebanon Valley in 2011. However, there are other notable happenings on this day in history:

- In 1783, the American Revolution officially came to an end when representatives of the United States, Great Britain, Spain and France signed the Treaty of Paris. The signing signified America’s status as a free nation, as Britain formally recognized the independence of its 13 former American colonies, and the boundaries of the new republic were agreed upon: Florida north to the Great Lakes and the Atlantic coast west to the Mississippi River.
- 1777: The American flag was flown in battle for the first time.
- 1939: Great Britian and France declared war on Germany during World War II.
- 1974: Frank Robinson was named the first African-American manager in major league baseball.
- Al Jardine (1942), Charlie Sheen (1965), Shaun White (1986) were born.

// The Word on Juniata //

The Eagles enter the 2026 season off a 2-8 season in 2025. Juniata opened the season with a pair of wins before dropping the final eight of the season... After scoring 71 points in that 2-0 start, the Eagles managed just 82 total points in the final eight games and scored seven or fewer points in four contests... Ethan Eisenberg returns and is set to reprise his role as the starting quarterback for Juniata. He completed 54.3 percent of his passes last season, going 114-for-210 for 1,091 yards in nine games. The Eagles had four quarterbacks throw a pass in a game last year and all four return to the lineup... The offense managed just over 300 yards per game a year ago and was relatively balanced, averaging 164.8 on the ground and 135.8 through the air... Juniata did have success last year when it got into the red zone. However, the Eagles had just 30 red-zone opportunities all season, scoring on 22 of those (73 percent) that included 19 touchdowns... Ivan Foreman rushed for nearly 1,000 yards during his junior season in 2025. He had four 100-yard rushing games and 88 or more yards seven of the 10 games en route to second-team All-Landmark Conference accolades. He led the league with 10 rushing touchdowns and was second in the conference in rushing yards... Dillon Wakefield returns to lead the defense after a first-team all-conference performance last season – one of seven Eagles to make the all-conference team for the team's highest total in more than a decade. Wakefield was second in the Landmark with 107 tackles to go with 3.0 tackles for loss, a forced fumble and pass breakup... In total, Juniata returns five of its top seven defenders from last year's squad.
