GAME NOTES

Falcons at a Glance:

Air Force scoring is currently led by senior tandem Milahnie Perry (18.0 ppg) and Emily Adams (9.1). The Falcons rank first in the Mountain West in turnover margin (4.03, 44th nationally), second in turnovers forced per game (17.09) and fall at third in both steals per game (8.7) and offensive rebounding (11.9 rpg). Perry's 18.0 scoring average tops the Mountain West.

Last Time Out:

Nine-seed Air Force Women's Basketball bested No. 5 Boise State in a wire-to-wire semifinal round of the 2026 Credit Union 1 Mountain West Championship, securing the Falcons' first-ever postseason championship bid on Monday evening in Las Vegas.

With the win, the No. 9 Falcons are now the lowest-ever seeded program to earn a spot in the Mountain West championship game. Air Force is the first nine-seed to make a semifinal game since 2008 and is now the first to go 3-0 in the MW Tournament to earn a spot in the title match.

Senior All-Mountain West honoree Milahnie Perry finished with a game high 27 points (10-22 FG, 2-6 3FG, 5-8 FT), while tying a game-best six assists. Now sporting 78 points in three postseason games, Perry currently sports the most points of any player in the nation currently playing postseason basketball. Junior Keelie O'Hollaren added 15 points on a 4-8 outing from three-point range. Senior Emily Adams and junior Alexis Cortez each contributed nine points apiece.

The Iconic Cinderella Story:

The Falcons are 20-56 in the all-time series against Colorado State. No matter - Prior to defeating Wyoming, SDSU and Boise State in the tournament, Air Force was a combined 26-132 (.165) all-time against the field of opponents standing before them.

Well I Guess There's Only One Thing Left to Do....

Now sporting a trio of victories in Vegas this weekend, Air Force:

Gets its first-ever bid in the Mountain West Tournament and thus a shot at its first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.

Accomplishes its first-ever three-win postseason. Air Force has a chance at becoming the third program in Mountain West history to go 4-0 in MW conference tournament history.

Is the lowest-ever seed to advance into the MW championship round. The seven-seed has made it five times prior to 2025-26 and has won once (2021 - Wyoming).

An All-Time Tournament Resume:

Sporting 78 points in this tournament so far, All-Mountain West selection Milahnie Perry has tied the all-time Mountain West record for postseason points scored by a single player. Perry is also currently leading all players in the nation in postseason points.

Call Her Kemba:

In the 2011 Big East Tournament, four-time NBA all star Kemba Walker led UConn on what became an iconic postseason run for the Huskies. Walker and the Huskies won five games in as many days before setting off on an 11-0 run to a national title. In that five-game stretch, Walker averaged an even 26.0 points per game.

Perry, competing tomorrow in her fourth game in consecutive days, has averaged 26.0 points Air Force's first three postseason games.

GAME NOTES

Adams' Upswing:

In her last 16 games, senior Emily Adams averaged 13.1 points, marking the most productive stretch of her Air Force career. Adams' 13 double-digit games in 2025-26 marks the most in a single season for the soon-to-be Falcon graduate.

On Feb. 4 in Air Force's win against Utah State, Adams finished with a 23-point, 12 rebound double-double. The senior's marquis finish against the Aggies represented her first career double-double, first 20-point finish and also career highs both in rebounds (12) and field goals made in a single game (eight).

Adams proved key in Air Force's upset over No. 1 San Diego State, scoring 20 points behind a 10-11 outing from the free throw line.

The Key Difference:

In eight of its last 12 wins this season, Air Force has led its respective opponents in rebounding.

The Mortar Between the Bricks:

Jayda McNabb has been a steadying force for the Falcons throughout her years at the Academy. As a sophomore, McNabb averaged 7.9 points per game in 2024-25 and earned six double doubles, leading the Falcons in rebounding while finishing ranked second in the Mountain West on the offensive glass.

This season, McNabb, the newly-annointed MW Defensive Player of the Year, led the conference and currently ranks 14th nationally in offensive rebounding (4.0 rpg). As a result, Air Force has led or tied opponents in second-chance points in 22 games this season. McNabb is currently third in the league in total boards (7.5 rpg) and second among Mountain West players in steals per game (2.09) while averaging 8.2 points per contest.

Sporting 668 career rebounds, McNabb now sits at 9th all time and fourth in Air Force's Division I history in the category.

2025-26 All-MW Honors:

Three Falcons were recognized on the 2025-26 All-Mountain West postseason awards list. Air Force's haul of postseason honors was highlighted by junior Jayda McNabb's selection as Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year – Air Force's first nod to the award since Cierra Winters earned the distinction at the close of the 2021-22 season and just the program's second-ever.

Jayda McNabb – MW Defensive Player of the Year | MW All-Defensive Selection

McNabb finished the Mountain West regular season ranked second in steals per game (2.20) and led Air Force in takeaways throughout the 2025-26 campaign. McNabb, who had multiple steals in 11 MW games and three or more in eight games this season, paced an Air Force regiment which closed its regular season leading the league in turnover margin (+3.97) and third in the conference in steals per game (8.93).

McNabb consistently proved elite on the offensive glass this season, leading the MW and ranking as high as second in the nation in offensive rebounding. McNabb currently falls in at 10th nationally in offensive rebounds per game and is the first player in Mountain West history (men's or women's) to have at least 120 offensive boards and 60 steals in the same season. McNabb also closed out Mountain West play fifth in the league in blocked shots per game (0.87).

Milahnne Perry – All-Mountain West Selection

Senior Falcon Milahnne Perry was named an All-Mountain West honoree, marking Air Force's third selection in the last four seasons and ninth All-MW award in program history. Perry becomes the second Falcon ever to secure multiple career All-MW honors after being previously named to the award in her sophomore season.

Ending conference play scoring a league-best 17.14 ppg, Perry posted double-digit scoring in 13 conference games this season, scoring 20 or more in 10 games total and in six of Air Force's last 10.

At home versus Colorado State, Perry posted 31 points against the Rams – the most scored by a Mountain West player this season. The senior went 8-8 from the free throw line in a 76-57 win at San Jose State (Jan. 10), earning the second-highest perfect finish from the line in Mountain West play this season. In the game, Perry additionally led Air Force to posting team-high marks in both categories across the Mountain West in 2025-26. In a 77-61 home win over the Spartans on Feb. 14, Perry went 14-16 from the free throw line, marking a single-game best in the conference in both made free throws and attempts this year.

Currently sitting at 1,818 career points, Perry stands as the highest career scorer in Air Force's history – A record obtained in her final regular season home game in Clune Arena against San Diego State on March 3.

Bhret Clay – MW All-Freshman Selection

Freshman Bhret Clay was named to the MW All-Freshman team, representing the third Falcon all-freshman picked in the last four seasons and seventh total since the inception of the award in 2013-14.

Playing in all 30 regular season games for the Falcons this year and earning a start in 14, Clay totaled .352 from three-point range. Clay shot .400 or better from three-point range in six Mountain West Conference games, in which Air Force won three. Additionally, the Falcon newcomer totaled 93 regular-season rebounds (3.1 rpg), earning five or more in three games.

*Represents Air Force Division I record.

In consecutive seasons, Perry scored the third and fourth most points ever by a Falcon in a single year – figures which rank first and second for a player in Air Force’s Division I history (1996-current). Sitting at 558 points this season, Perry is now 14 points away from resetting the all-time record (Melissa Standley, 1989-90) and now sports the three highest scoring seasons in Air Force’s Division I history.

Mile-High Trends:

Air Force is currently:
 9-1 when sporting a halftime lead;
 10-2 when holding opponents to 60 points or less (4-0 at home).

Through the last four seasons, Air Force is:
 37-21 at home;
 40-5 when scoring 70 or more points (26-1 at home);
 9-1 when scoring 80 or more points (7-0 at home);
 8-1 when shooting 50 percent or better from the field (4-0 at home);
 30-8 when holding opponents to 60 points or less (17-2 at home);
 26-10 when out-rebounding opponents (15-4 at home);
 24-7 when outscoring opponents in the paint (16-2 at home).

Home Successes:

The Falcons opened 2025-26 with a 4-0 record inside of Clune Arena, marking the program’s third-straight season with a 3-0-or-better home start.

Air Force is 325-330 (.496) all time in home games at Clune Arena, five wins shy of tying the .500 mark. In Air Force’s Division II history (1976-96), the Falcons totaled a 188-83 (.694) record and earned consecutive winning home finishes in each of their first 20 seasons. As a result of early successes, the program boasted an all-time winning home record from its 1976 inception until 2014. Having now secured a winning record at home in five-straight seasons (the program’s longest such streak since joining Division I), Air Force aims for 2026-27 to reclaim an above .500 figure inside Clune Arena for the first time in 12 years.

Squadron Jobs:

In order to prepare for life as an officer, the Cadet Wing at the United States Air Force Academy simulates the organization of an operational Air Force wing. Cadets are responsible for running and operating the wing – an unparalleled leadership opportunity to understand the importance of respect amongst peers and how to be an honorable, well-balanced officer. All cadets learn how to use a chain of command, how to function as part of various military formations and how military units organize to accomplish collective tasks. The Cadet Wing’s 4,000 members are organized into four groups of 10 squadrons each. Cadets live, eat and take part in military training with their squadrons.

STACY MCINTYRE

Second season as head coach 11th Season at Air Force (2015–2026)

A 20-plus year professional of growing leaders through basketball, Stacy McIntyre enters her second season as head coach of Air Force Women's Basketball in 2025-26. McIntyre was announced as the ninth head coach of Air Force Women's Basketball on Apr. 25, 2024, assuming the role after spending the previous nine seasons as an assistant under Chris Gobrecht and most recent five as associate head coach.

Since arriving at USAFA, McIntyre has proven instrumental in laying the foundation that has facilitated Air Force's upward trajectory of the past 10 seasons – The most successful stretch of Falcon women's basketball in the program's Division I history.

In her first year at the head of the Falcon bench, Air Force closed on 2024–25 with an 18–15 record, marking the most wins by a Falcon head coach in their first season in the program's history. Air Force opened the season at 10–2, earning the program's first-ever 10-win non-conference and best start to a season since 1991–92. The Falcons, earning a seven seed in the 2025 Mountain West Championships, defeated No. 10 Utah State in the opening round before falling in the MW quarterfinals. McIntyre and Air Force bookended the 2025 season earning the program's second-ever bid into the WNIT and hosting a postseason game in Clune Arena for the first time ever.

In 2023–24, McIntyre and the Air Force staff led the Falcons to a 15–17 finish, going 8–10 against the Mountain West. The Falcons went 10–6 in Clune Arena, marking the second season in three years of 10 or more home victories. Air Force has 30 wins the past three seasons which accounts for more home victories than the prior 10 seasons combined.

Air Force's season successes were underscored by the sudden prominence of All-Mountain West selection Milahnie Perry, who, with 535 points scored in 2023–24, became the single-season points record holder in Air Force Division I history. A sure sign of what the future holds, freshmen pair Keelie O'Hollaren and Mountain West All-Freshman honoree Jayda McNabb both left their marks in the freshman records, as O'Hollaren earned the most three-pointers for a freshman in Air Force history (60), and McNabb the most rebounds for a newcomer in the program's Division I history (201). The Falcons closed the year leading the Mountain West in steals per game (10.8, 19 nationally), turnover margin (4.41, 25th nationally), turnovers forced per game (19.19) and three-point production through conference play (.350).

In 2022–23, the Falcons closed their season at 13–18 with an 8–10 mark against the Mountain West and a 9–5 home record. A 5–1 start to the season in Clune marked a start to the Falcons' home schedule which had not been achieved since the program's final year as a member of Division II in 1995–96, in which Air Force started 7–1 at home.

McIntyre and the Air Force staff helped guide the Falcons to a record-breaking season in 2021–22. Air Force crafted its most successful campaign in the program's Division I history, as the Falcons' 19 overall wins and 11 Mountain West victories were both program bests. Cierra Winters was named Mountain West Defensive Player while Riley Snyder was named All-Mountain West enroute to becoming Air Force's all-time leading Division I scorer. Air Force clinched its first-ever bye in the Mountain West Tournament where the Falcons defeated Nevada to advance to the semifinal round for the first time in program history. Air Force eventually was awarded an at-large berth in the Women's National Invitational Tournament, as the Falcons picked up their first-ever postseason tournament win in the opening round, defeating San Francisco 64–60.

Under the guidance of McIntyre, the 2020–21 season was highlighted by Snyder's All-MW Honorable Mention nod and Kas-sady Huffman's MW All-Defensive team selection. The Falcons finished the shortened 2020–21 campaign with an 8–18 overall record and a 4–14 mark in the Mountain West, finishing ninth in the league. The Falcons made it to the MWC quarterfinals for the second-straight season, defeating SDSU in the first round and falling to top-seeded New Mexico thereafter.

In the 2019–2020 season McIntyre helped the women's basketball team to new heights as the Falcons finished 10–21 (7–11 MWC), marking the most single-season wins since joining Air Force and the program's most single-season conference wins since joining the Mountain West in 1999–00. Air Force's seventh-place finish in the league tied its best-ever conference finish in the Mountain West and is the best-ever finish since the MWC became an 11-team league.

HEAD COACH

Under McIntyre's guidance, the Falcons averaged a program-best 60.7 points per game in league play, marking the team's best conference scoring average during its Mountain West tenure. Air Force also ranked as high as 11th in the nation in offensive rebounds per game and as high as 25th in the nation in steals. Air Force's historic season was also highlighted by knocking off regular-season champions, Fresno State, at the Academy. The Bulldogs, who were undefeated in conference (15-0) at the time of the loss, had never lost to Air Force before. McIntyre also helped guide Air Force to its first-ever win in New Mexico's "The Pit", snapping a 22-game losing streak at New Mexico, as well as the squad's first-ever win against Nevada in Reno, snapping an eight-game losing streak at Nevada.

Prior to breaking the ceiling in 2021-22, McIntyre's most recent successes were preceded by a record-breaking 2017-18 campaign, where she helped guide Air Force to five wins in conference, becoming the most by the program in the Mountain West era, surpassing the previous mark of four wins, set in 2005-06 and 2007-08. Air Force's signature win came in the regular season home finale, posting a 57-47 win over then-first place Wyoming. In addition to winning four of the last six games of the season, Air Force smashed five team records, highlighted by a staunch defense that only allowed 62.3 ppg in the regular season and 59.7 pp in league action, setting new team records in each respective category. The Falcons held opponents below 60 points 11 times on the season, testament to the progression of the defense under the coaching staff. Air Force's 2017-18 season also yielded six new individual school records including the program's first-ever Mountain West Freshman of the Year in Kaelin Immel, who set four program-records highlighted by the most-ever points scored by an Air Force freshman in the Div. I era.

McIntyre continued to push the envelope in 2018-19, leading a team that averaged 60.1 points per game in regular season and Mountain West play, an average mark 4.4 points more than last season's averages and 12.7 more points per game than in their inaugural campaign. McIntyre helped a young Falcon squad check the boxes on numerous milestones to include the team's first win against Army in over a decade and ending a 13-game losing streak to in-state rivals Colorado State. Snyder, who averaged 10 points per game, was a Mountain West All-Freshman team honoree. She is the third freshman since the 2017-18 season to earn the honor.

McIntyre worked with former Gobrecht at two stops prior to arriving at the Academy. In addition to one season with her at Yale, McIntyre was part of Gobrecht's staff at the University of Southern California for seven seasons. McIntyre has previous ties to the Mountain West, spending three years as an assistant coach at the University of Nevada.

In her time at USC, McIntyre assisted in all facets of game preparation, oversaw NCAA compliance matters and was involved in all aspects of recruiting student-athletes. Her efforts helped assemble a pair of Top-10 recruiting classes that included Ebony Hoffman and Eshaya Murphy, who were taken in the first and second round of the WNBA draft, respectively. McIntyre also helped the program to a pair of postseason appearances in 2000 and 2002.

McIntyre began her coaching career at Nevada where she oversaw all aspects of the recruiting process and oversaw the team travel and recruiting budgets for the Wolfpack. McIntyre also has experience working with the Nike Women's Basketball Skills Academy where she oversaw all event and facility planning.

McIntyre enjoyed a standout career at the University of Kentucky and finished her career ninth all-time in scoring (1,215) and sixth in steals (189). A two-time captain, she led the team in scoring twice and was named to the All-SEC Second Team and was an All-Academic SEC selection in 1992. McIntyre also led the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in 1991.

In 2018, she was inducted into the 11th Annual Scott County Athletics Hall of Fame class. McIntyre is a celebrated two-sport athlete from Georgetown, Kentucky's Scott County High School, where she played from 1984-1988.

McIntyre graduated from Kentucky in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts in Education and obtained a teacher's certificate.
