MAGARITY VISITS TROOPS IN SOUTH KOREA

Head coach Dave Magarity, Army head men’s basketball coach Zach Spiker and Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan visited Korea in late May to witness the U.S. Army’s operations in the country. The weeklong trip offered the Corrigan, Magarity and Spiker the opportunity to speak with graduates and faculty and to tour a number of Army bases with some of hte soldiers deployed. The group was also accompanied by a contingent of West Point representatives, including Superintendent Lt. Gen. Robert Caslen.

“The trip to Korea and the National Training Center was one of hte most memorable experiences I’ve ever had,” Magarity said. “To visit the Demilitarized Zone and see what our soliders are up against in terms of defending and supporting the South Koreans and to watch the training at Camp Irwin, was absolutely remarkable.”

NEW LOOK

As part of an athletics rebranding effort, the Army West Point Athletic Association unveiled a new primary logo during the spring of 2015. The primary mark, referred to as Athena’s Shield, showcases four unique components.

- The Shield is among West Point’s most potent symbols and represents the mission of the U.S. Army to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.
- The Helmet was worn by Pallas Athena, the Greek goddess of wisdom, just war, skill and justice. The helmet faces dexter, Latin for “right” from the viewpoint of the bearer of the field as opposed to sinister. The dexter side is considered the side of greater honor. The 13 segments that connect the helmet and the plume reference the 13 British colonies that declared independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain and became the first states in the Union.
- The Sword, also known as Xiphos, is a double-edged, single-hand sword used by the ancient Greeks. It symbolizes the scholar-warrior and signifies protection, righteousness and justice. While the original 1898 USMA crest had the sword sheathed, the sword here is unsheathed to allow the viewer to see the martial elements of Army West Point, the warrior spirit, more clearly.
- TheStar has multiple meanings, including the connection to the U.S. Army and its storied past. During World War II, every tank, truck and airplane in the U.S. Army sported a star as they fought to victory in Europe and the Pacific. The star also represents the connection to the American people and 50 stars from the flag.

ARMY WEST POINT

On first reference, broadcasters and print media members are encouraged to use Army West Point. From there, simply Army or Black Knights are acceptable when referring to the team. Cadets is also an acceptable secondary reference, in addition to Black Knights. For scoreboards and score graphics, ARMY is permissible.

Army was selected as the Patriot League’s preseason favorite for the second year in a row after advancing to its third straight national postseason tournament a year ago, while three-time All-Patriot League first-team selection, Kelsey Minato was named the league’s Preseason Player of the Year.
