DOMINANT DEFENSE

- The Black Knights' defense has allowed an average of only 17 points per game over the first seven contests, which ranks 10th in the nation. They gave up a season high 35 against the Mean Green.
- Five of the seven opponents Army has faced have been held to two touchdowns or less on the scoreboard.
- In total defense, Army ranks third in the country, allowing an average of 255.9 yards per game.
- The Black Knights have stopped the run on a consistent basis in the first seven games as they are eighth in the nation, allowing just 101 yards per game on the ground.
- North Texas had the most success this year against the rushing defense with 202 yards on the ground.
- The Army passing defense is just as good as the Black Knights are third in FBS, allowing only 154.9 yards through the air.

SACK LUNCH

- The Army defense sacked the North Texas quarterback twice last Saturday, including Alex Aukerman's team-leading fifth of the season.
- Andrew King and Kenneth Brinson share the second spot on the team with four sacks apiece.
- Aukerman is having a breakout season overall with 9.5 tackles for loss through the first seven games and his 1.4 per game average is 28th in the country.
- He is a hybrid-type of player that can play as a defensive end or outside linebacker at times in the game.

KING OF THE MIDDLE

- Andrew King has continued his momentum from an impressive junior season into his senior campaign.
- The senior middle linebacker leads the team with 56 tackles, including 31 solo stops.
- He has four sacks on the year and 7.5 tackles for loss.
- King has been in the right place at the right time with two fumble recoveries in 2016, including one at Duke.
- King is currently fourth all-time in career tackles for loss with 32 and is one behind Jim Brock '87 and Cameron Craig '07 for third all-time.

TWO-HEADED MONSTER

- The offensive unit is led by quarterbacks Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter.
- The duo has seen action in six of seven games this season.
- Bradshaw is the second leading rusher on the Black Knights with 494 yards in seven games.
- He recorded his second 100-yard rushing game of the season with 109 on the ground against Lafayette and scored on a 60-yard run on the fourth play of the game.
- Carter missed his first game of the season Saturday with no snaps against North Texas.
- Both quarterbacks had a good day against the Lafayette through the air with Carter throwing for 103 yards and a touchdown, while Bradshaw also threw a touchdown in the win.
- Third-string quarterback Malik McGue got his second opportunity of the season at the position in that game and ran for 94 yards on eight carries, including a 41-yard touchdown run.

NEXT MAN UP

- Macek was counted on early in the game against Lafayette after Andy Davidson went down with an injury in the first quarter.
- With Davidson and Darnell Woolfolk out with injuries, Army turned to Macek and he contributed with a team high 111 yards.
- Macek, like Davidson, was moved to the offensive side of the ball in the spring after spending his first season as a special teamer and linebacker.
- He ran with a purpose and had an average of 6.5 yards per carry, with his longest of the day being 28 yards.

FOURTH QUARTER WARRIORS

- Coach Jeff Monken preaches to his players to close out games and be fourth quarter warriors.

JEFF MONKEN

HEAD COACH

THIRD SEASON

MILLIKIN, 1989

FOLLOW ON TWITTER: @COACHJEFFMONKEN

Jeff Monken, named Army's 37th individual head coach on Dec. 24, 2013, is set to begin his third season as head football coach.

Monken shows a 46-37 career record as a head coach and a 10-21 mark at Army.

In 2015, he led Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. Under coach Monken, the Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game in 2015 and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for a 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan.

Army finished the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King was the top player in the national rankings. He was 21st in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In Monken's first season at Army, he guided the Black Knights to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium.

Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams and two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's first season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest.

Monken tutored a host of players who listed in the national rankings. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon listed nationally in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With a 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to Monken, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as a head at Georgia Southern.

He spent four seasons as head coach at Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

During his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under Monken, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs this season due to its transitional status.

"I am thrilled to accept the head coaching position at West Point," said Monken at the time of his hiring. "Not only is the United States Military Academy one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the world, it boasts one of the nation's richest, most historic traditions in all of college football. "There are so many people I would like to thank for this tremendous opportunity, starting with Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan and our Superintendent, Gen. Bob Caslen. I am honored and humbled by their trust in me to lead the West Point football program. I have had the privilege of serving as a coach for several outstanding institutions and am thankful to all of the student-athletes, coaches, and administrators with whom I have worked. Because of their commitment, dedication, and loyalty, this opportunity to serve at West Point has been afforded to me. More than anyone else, I want to thank the men and women who have served and continue to serve our nation in the United States Army. I am proud to be your head football coach."

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons.

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader," said Johnson.

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided Georgia Southern to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

cluding the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

In 2011, Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year as Georgia Southern's head coach, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State as part of a 10-5 season. Georgia Southern ended the season with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern reemerge academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only was Georgia Southern successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional levels.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia

Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. Four out of five seasons, the Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at the University Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State University. Monken moved to University of Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach and also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach as well.

A native of Joliet, Ill, Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.
