OPENING TIP

The Army West Point men's basketball makes its first postseason appearance since 1978 when it takes on NJIT in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament on Wednesday night. The game will tip off at 7:30 p.m. at the Fleisher Athletic Center and will be broadcast online on WatchCollegeInsider.com.

Seniors Tanner Plomb, Kevin Ferguson and Kyle Wilson earned First, Second and Third Team All-Patriot League honors, respectively. In addition to his second-team nod, Ferguson landed on the conference's inaugural all-defensive team.

Army's NCAA Tournament aspirations ended when the Black Knights lost to eventual Patriot League Tournament champion Holy Cross in the semifinal round. The Crusaders raced out to a 10-0 lead and never trailed in the 60-38 result on March 6. The Black Knights were forced into 18 turnovers in the loss. Kyle Wilson and Tanner Plomb each finished in double figures, with Wilson netting a team-high 12 points and Plomb coming away with 11 points and nine boards. Larry Toomey added five points and nine rebounds and Kevin Ferguson totaled four points and a game-high 11 rebounds.

NJIT enters the 26-team CIT field with a 17-14 record and closed the Atlantic Sun regular season with an 8-6 mark to finish second in the conference. Last year, NJIT won three games in the CIT before bowing out in the semifinal round.

Army has played 22 games with its regular starting lineup of Dylan Cox, Kyle Wilson, Plomb, Larry Toomey and Kevin Ferguson. In those games, Army is 15-7, averages 80 points per game, and outscores its opponents by 3.3 points per game thanks to an average of 9.2 threes per game. Cox has a 104-52 assist-to-turnover ratio, Wilson is scoring 16.7 points per game and Ferguson averages 13.8 points and 10.5 rebounds. When Ferguson and Plomb both start, Army has an 18-7 record.

In the 10 contests without its traditional starting five, Army's scoring drops to 71.4 points per game and the Black Knights are making 8.4 threes per game. The Black Knights are 4-6 in those games.

Kevin Ferguson is the conference's all-time leader in field goal percentage. He led the league with a 61.2 percent shooting percentage during the regular season and was first in rebounding with 9.7 per game. His 3.93 offensive rebounds per game ranks 10th in the nation. In addition, Ferguson averages 13.3 points per game and has totaled 12 double doubles, which is the highest total in the league.

Tanner Plomb is 35th in the country and leads the Patriot League in scoring with 19.8 points per game. He is currently 13th in Academy history in scoring with 1,339 career points. Plomb ranks third in the league in three-point field-goal percentage at 35.2 percent and is third in three-pointers made with 76 on the year. The last time an Army player averaged better than 20 ppg was Mark Lueking in 1994-95 (24.4 ppg).

Kyle Wilson averaged 16.2 points per game, which was fourth in the Patriot League. He led the conference in three-pointers per game (3.13) and was 20th in the nation in that category. Wilson's 99 threes rank 16th in the NCAA and are second on Army's single-season list. Wilson is six points shy of 2,000 for his career.

For the second straight year, Wilson and Plomb were the top scoring duo in the Patriot League. Last year they combined for 33.3 points per game and this season, they are averaging 35.8 points per game. They have combined for 1,048 points this year, which is fourth-best in Army history for a scoring tandem.

A WIN OVER NJIT WOULD ...

Be Army's first postseason victory since 1970, when it beat LSU in the NIT third-place game Send the Black Knights to the CIT Second Round

Give Army 20 wins for the first time since 1976-77 when it won 20 games

Be the fifth 20-win season in the history of the program

Be Zach Spiker's 103nd career win and move him into second in Army history Snap a three-game losing streak to NJIT (3-3 all-time)

REACHING 1,000

Tanner Plomb and classmate Kyle Wilson were the third teammates from the same graduating class to reach the 1,000-point mark, joining 1981 graduates Bob Brown (1,282) and Marty Coyne (1,126) and 1990 graduates Todd Mattson (1,122) and Steve Rothert (1,054). When Kevin Ferguson joined the 1,000-point club at Boston University, the trio became the first three classmates to score 1,000 career points in Army history. Dylan Cox reached the 1,000-point mark against Lehigh and the group became the first four classmates in Patriot League history to accomplish the feat.

ROAD, SWEET ROAD

Army owns an 11-5 road record this season. The 11 road wins are the most in program history. Army's 11 road wins are the most in a season since the 1976-77 campaign when Mike Krzyzewski guided the Black Knights to a then program-record 10 road wins.

THREE IS BETTER THAN TWO

Army has made at least nine threes in 17 games and is averaging 8.9 three-point field goals per contest this season, which is 34th in the country. The Black Knights lead the conference and are 17th in the nation in three-point attempts (844). Kyle Wilson (3.09) is 21st in the nation in threes per game and Tanner Plomb is 41st (2.81). Army is shooting 33.6 percent from three-point land and 34.7 percent of its points have come via the three-pointer (KenPom.com), which is 50th in the NCAA.

STARTERS REUNITE

Tanner Plomb and Kevin Ferguson returned to the starting lineup at Lafayette on February 3 and combined for 39 points and 20 rebounds in the overtime victory. Army trailed by as many as 18 points, including 15 at halftime, but erased its largest deficit since 1996 in a victory en route to the 84-81 triumph. The win snapped a four-game losing skid for the Black Knights.

COX SETS ASSIST RECORD AT LAFAYETTE

Dylan Cox had a milestone night against Lafayette as he became to Academy's all-time leader in assists (475). Cox passed Randy Cozzens '85 (430 career assists) and was also one of four Army players to score in double figures with 13 points. Army is 7-1 this season when four players score at least 10 points.

ELITE COMPANY

Dylan Cox joins Randy Cozzens '85 as the only players in Army history to eclipse the 1,000-point, 500-rebound, 400-assist and 50-steal marks in their careers. He became the 14th Army player to reach the 500-rebound mark and the 32nd player to score 1,000 points.

CLEANING THE GLASS

Army is outrebounding its opponents by an average of 3.5 boards per game, which is second in the Patriot League. Ferguson leads the Patriot League and is 28th in the country in rebounding with 9.8 boards per game. Ferguson is 10th in the nation in offensive rebounds with 3.93 per contest.

First Appearance

2016 COLLEGEINSIDER.COM POSTSEASON TOURNAMENT

March 2016 will bring with it the 8th Annual CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) and for the fourth straight season the CIT will be broadcast on CBS Sports Network.

The CIT was created to give deserving teams an opportunity to participate in the postseason. The CIT has had more schools make their postseason debut (25) and more programs win their first-ever postseason game (24) than all other tournaments combined during the seven seasons since the CIT was established in 2009.

The 26-team field is made up of non-BCS programs, not selected to participate in the NCAA or NIT (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC teams are not considered). All 31 games are played on campus sites. In an effort to minimize travel and limit class time missed, the CIT uses the old NIT model, with future round opponents determined by results of previous round. This ensures geographic stability. The 2009 and 2010 Tournaments were contested by 16 teams. The 2011 CIT consisted of 24 teams. The field expanded to 32 in 2012.

Knight coached six seasons at West Point and led the Black Knights to a 102-50 record before eventually compiling a 902-371 career record over 42 seasons at Indiana (29 years) and Texas Tech (seven years). SWEEPING THE EAGLES

Army built a nine-point halftime lead it never relinquished in a 65-59 victory at American. Senior center Kevin Ferguson recorded a double-double of 20 points and 14 rebounds to pave the way as Army swept the season series against American.

The win gave Army 15 wins for the fourth straight year, marking the second time in Army history it has won at least 15 games in four consecutive seasons. The other group to accomplish the feat were the Army teams from 1920-24.

PLOMB TAKES SECOND LEAGUE AWARD

After helping lead the Army men's basketball team to its fifth straight victory, Plomb was named the Patriot League Player of the Week on Dec. 14. It marked the second time this season Plomb was recognized by the Patriot League and the third weekly honor of his career.

Plomb and the Black Knights knocked off Service Academy rival Air Force, 90-80, in Colorado Springs, Colo., to improve to 8-2 for the second straight season. It was Army's first-ever victory in a true road game against the Falcons and Plomb also became the 30th player in Army history to reach the 1,000-point mark for his career.

The senior forward from Mukwonago, Wis., averaged 22 points over Army's two road victories against Air Force and Bryant. Plomb scored 15 of his 18 points against Air Force after halftime and converted 10-of-11 free-throw attempts, which equaled his career high. In the win over Bryant, Plomb did his damage from beyond the arc with six three-pointers en route to a game-high 26 points.

EDWARDS GRABS PATRIOT LEAGUE HONOR

For the second consecutive week, an Army men's basketball player was selected as the Patriot League's Player of the Week, as Kennedy Edwards was voted as the conference's standout performer on Dec. 7.

The junior forward delivered a career-best effort in Army's lone game of the week, an 84-71 road triumph against Maine, to help the Black Knights win their third straight game. Edwards registered a 21 points on 8-of-11 shooting, including a 4-for-5 show from beyond the arc. He also hauled in five rebounds and three steals in a career-high 28 minutes off the bench for the Black Knights. Fifteen of Edwards' points came in the first half as Army raced out to its largest halftime lead of the season at 50-21.

Army's win improved it to 6-2 for the second year in a row and the award is the first of Edwards' career. It followed Tanner Plomb's honor from the week prior.

STREAK SNAPPED

Tanner Plomb had scored in double figures in 30 consecutive games before being held to eight in Army's 72-68 win over Holy Cross. He had 16 performances of at least 20 points during the streak.

FERGUSON EARNS MULTIPLE HONORS (2/22)

Ferguson was named Co-Player of the Week by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association, Patriot League Men's Basketball Player of the Week, ECAC Division I Men's Basketball Player of the Week, as well as the American Sports Network Men's Basketball Player of the Week.

Ferguson started the week with a career-high 25 points on a 12-of-16 shooting performance and pulled down 13 rebounds in a 72-68 victory against Holy Cross on Wednesday, before totaling 22 points and a career-best 19 rebounds in an 80-78 double-overtime victory at Navy. One of Ferguson's seven offensive boards came before he scored on a putback with 0.7 seconds left to lift the Black Knights to the win.

For the week, Ferguson made 20-of-30 shots (66.7%) and averaged 23.5 points and 16.0 rebounds per contest. Ferguson has 14 double-doubles and 18 double-digit rebounding games in his career, and also had four straight and eight-career outings of 20 points or more. He had six double-doubles in a row as Army was 5-1 since his return to the starting lineup at Lafayette.

NAVY NAIL BITER

Kyle Wilson's three-pointer at the end of regulation sent the game to overtime and Kevin Ferguson's putback with 0.7 seconds left in the second OT gave Army an 80-78 victory over Navy. Ferguson registered his sixth consecutive double-double with 22 points and a career-high 19 rebounds to lead the Black Knights. Tanner Plomb scored a game-high 24 and Kyle Wilson had 11 in the win. Dylan Cox handed out a game-high eight assists. Army trailed by 13 with 8:36 to play and by five with less than 30 seconds remaining.

The win improved Army to 17-11 on the season, including an 8-8 mark in Patriot League play, and gave the Black Knights their most wins since the 1977-78 season.

2015 BARCLAYS CENTER CLASSIC

Army defeated Arkansas - Pine Bluff (81-60) and Gardner-Webb (103-98) to claim the Barclays Center Classic title. Tanner Plomb recorded his first-career 30-point game with a 31-point outburst, including seven three-pointers in the win against the Runnin' Bulldogs in overtime of the championship game. Kevin Ferguson posted his sixth-career double-double against Gardner-Webb and became the 13th player in Academy history to reach 500 career rebounds. Army reached the 100-point mark for the first time during the Spiker era and the 17th time in Academy history. The 201 combined points tied the Christl Arena record (Army 113, Bethany 88 - Jan. 8, 2001) and Army's 27 assists tied the program record.

NEW LOOK

Army West Point Athletics introduced a new brand and identity system in April 2015 that sets the visual direction for years to come. With the goal of developing an innovative and consistent athletic identity that pays tribute to the Academy's legacy and tradition, U.S. Army and Academy leadership, Army West Point Athletics, Nike, current and former cadet-athletes, coaches, historians and West Point graduates, collaborated on a nearly 18-month brand evolution program. As part of the new identity, every athletic programs will showcase consistent logos, colors, lettering and numerals.

The primary mark, referred to as Athena's Shield, showcases four unique components.

- The shield is among West Point's most potent symbols and represents the mission of the U.S. Army to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic.
- The helmet was worn by Pallas Athena, the Greek goddess of wisdom, just war, skill and justice. The helmet faces dexter, Latin for "right" from the viewpoint of the bearer of the field as opposed to sinister. The dexter side is considered the side of greater honor. The 13 segments that connect the helmet and the plume reference the 13 British colonies that declared independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain and became the first states in the Union.
- The sword, also known as Xiphos, is a doubleedged, single-hand sword used by the ancient Greeks. It symbolizes the scholar-warrior and signifies protection, righteousness and justice. While the original 1898 USMA crest had the sword sheathed, the sword here is unsheathed to allow the viewer to see the martial elements of Army West Point, the warrior spirit, more clearly.
- The star has multiple meanings, including the connection to the U.S. Army and its storied past. During World War II, every tank, truck and airplane in the U.S. Army sported a star as they fought to victory in Europe and the Pacific. The star also represents the connection to the American people and 50 stars from the flag.

BRANCH NIGHT

On Nov. 19, all members of the First Class (senior) assembled inside Eisenhower Hall for Branch Night. The Commandant, Brig. Gen. John C. Thomson III, spoke about the importance of the evening in relation to the future officers' chosen profession in the Army.

For the first three years at the Academy each cadet receives information about each of the 16 Branches. By the time Branch Night occurs they will understand what the normal duties, responsibilities, assignment patterns and locations are for each of the Branches. Late in the Cow Year (junior) each cadet must indicate, by order of preference all specialties for which they are qualified and eligible. Branches are then assigned according to performance, preference and current Branch goals [which means what the Army needs at that time].

Envelopes were then handed out to the Firsties that contained the insignia of the Branch to which they were assigned. On order the cadets opened their envelopes at one time. Exultation, cheers, groans, high-fives and more could be heard coming from Ike Hall once the envelopes were opened. Relaxation and refreshment with the Branch representative and the other members of their Branch "family" followed the news.

SPIKER VISITS TROOPS IN KOREA

Head men's basketball coach Zach Spiker, head women's basketball coach Dave Magarity and Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan visited Korea in late May to witness the U.S. Army's operations in the country.

The weeklong trip offered Corrigan, Magarity and Spiker the opportunity to speak with graduates and faculty and to tour a number of Army bases with some of the soldiers who are deployed. The group was also accompanied by a contingent of West Point representatives, including Superintendent Lt. Gen. Robert Caslen.

"It was a very educational, humbling and motivating experience," Spiker said. "We saw former players, cadet-athletes and West Point grads in high-ranking leadership positions everywhere we went. Army West Point Athletics was well represented and it was an honor to see how our Army soldiers work and what they do on a daily basis."

"The trip to Korea and the National Training Center was one of the most memorable experiences I've ever had," Magarity said. "To visit the Demilitarized Zone and see what our soldiers are up against in terms of defending and supporting the South Koreans and to watch the training at Camp Irwin, was absolutely remarkable."

On the first full day in Korea, the group toured the United States Forces Korea base before speaking with Academy graduates at a West Point graduates luncheon.

The trip also included a visit to the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) along the border of North Korea and South Korea and a tour of the Joint Security Area. The travel party flew by helicopter to Camp Casey to witness static display tours of a number of military vehicles.

Included on the trip back to West Point was a stop at the National Training Center in Fort Irwin, Calif., to observe a realistic training session before returning to New York.

Army used an early 10-2 run to jump out to a 12-6 lead and forced Binghamton into four turnovers prior to the first media stoppage. A runner by Scott Mammel tacked on two more points, before Toomey's drive and kick to an open Plomb three punctuated the 15-3 stretch and had Army up 17-7.

Back-to-back corner threes by Adam Roe, the second with 6:30 to play in the first half, sent Army's lead back to 11 points as they led 30-19. Following Plomb's third three and Edwards' second, Army had a 12-point cushion with 3:30 left in the period.

A runner in the paint by Wilson briefly interrupted the run for Tennessee, which officially ended at 15-3 following a three by Hubbs and a pair at the line from Punter, to increase the advantage to 58-46.

The Black Knights continuously cut the deficit under 10 points, but every time they looked to make a run, the Vols had an answer on the other end. Tennessee took its largest lead of the night on a corner triple by Reese that made it 87-69 and the home side eventually claimed the 15-point victory.

After a furious Gardner-Webb rally sent the game to overtime, but Army made the critical plays in the extra session to claim the 2015 Barclays Center Classic championship crown at Christl Arena. The 103-98 triumph for Army improved it to 5-2 on the season.

Largest lead - GWU by 2 1st-18:47, ABMY by 25 1st-06:57.

Tanner Plomb garnered most-valuable player honors and Kyle Wilson was also selected to the all-tournament team. The 6-7 senior forward poured in a career-high 31 points on an 11-for-17 shooting performance, with seven threes, while Wilson added 20 points. Kevin Ferguson recorded his second straight double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds and Dylan Cox contributed 10 points and nine assists

Army was ahead by as many as 25 points in the first half, but Gardner-Webb erased a 10-point deficit with 1:13 left in regulation to send the game to OT. GWU received a 31-point effort from Harold McBride, Tyrell Nelson scored 20 points and Dylan Poston put in 18. McBride and Poston each hit five three-point field goals, and it was Poston's three at the end of regulation that sent the game to overtime

Leading 9-8 in the game's opening minutes, Army reeled off 13 straight points to take a 22-8 lead. John Emezie ignited the run with a layup, Mac Hoffman had two buckets, Ferguson scored twice inside and Wilson buried a three-pointer off a feed by Cox. The Army point guard had four of Army's 14 first-half assists on 19 made field goals.

Following a three-pointer by McBride, Army scored five more points, including a triple by Plomb, to extend its lead. Two free throws by McBride preceded another Emezie layup, before Plomb erupted for nine straight points for the Black Knights. A layup and two dunks, the second on a highlight-reel alley-oop off a lob by Larry Toomey, and a wide-open three put an exclamation point on Army's 29-5 run.

During the spurt, Army was 12-for-15 from the field and Army was up 38-13 with seven minutes to play as Gardner-Webb called its third timeout of the first half.

The visitors pulled back within 12 points late in the period, but Plomb's late trifecta put Army's halftime advantage at 45-30.

A three-pointer by Isaiah Ivey cut Army's lead to 11 points at the 14:23 mark of the second half, but again Plomb had an answer. Back to-back threes kept him perfect from distance to that point (6-for-6) before Ferguson made a layup to push the lead to 19.

Gardner-Webb was within 14 points with 11 minutes remaining, but Adam Roe continued his hot shooting start to the season with a three-pointer from the top of the key.

GWU hung around and was able to cut Army's deficit to single digits (83-76) with a little more than two minutes to play. Plomb drained a three -pointer a minute later to push the lead back to 10.

With exactly a minute left, McBride went to the line and made two free throws. A turnover by Army led to a second-chance three-ball by McBride that quickly had Gardner-Webb within five (86-81) with 40 seconds on the clock. Plomb made one of two free throws before McBride got back to the line where he made two more to draw the visitors within four at 87-83 with 28 seconds to go. Another Army turnover led to an easy layup (87-85), before Wilson gave the ball away again and fouled LaQuincy Rideau with 11 seconds left.

Rideau had a chance to tie the game, but missed the second free throw and Ferguson was fouled with seven seconds to go. The senior center drained both of his foul shots and Gardner-Webb got the ball down by three. Wilson nearly stole a pass to end the game, but his momentum carried him out of play under the Army basket. After a brief discussion, one second was put on the clock and Gardner-Webb sent the game to overtime when Poston drained a deep three-pointer to tie the game at 89-89.

Poston connected on trey early in the overtime period to give Gardner-Webb its first lead since the 18:47 mark of the first half at 92-91. Army scored five of the next six points, including a three by Wilson (96-93) and never trailed from that point. Kennedy Edwards buried a gigantic corner three-pointer with 52 seconds left on a pass from Plomb after Gardner-Webb made it a two-point game on the previous possession.

A hot-shooting first 20 minutes gave the Army men's basketball team a 21-point halftime lead and it never looked back in an 84-71 victory over Maine at the Cross Insurance Center.

Kennedy Edwards registered a career-high 21 points to pace the Army offense, Kyle Wilson (17) and Tanner Plomb (13) joined him in double digits, while Kevin Ferguson tied a career-high with six blocked shots.

Army drained 12-of-34 three-point field goals, while limiting Maine to 2-for-16 from distance in the game. The Black Knights won the turnover battle (16-12) and outscored Maine in that department 21-8. The Black Bears outrebounded Army 50-42 and were plus-13 in second-chance points.

A furious pace to start the night saw Army secure a 19-11 lead after eight straight points. Edwards started the spurt with a bucket inside, before back-to-back transition threes by Adam Roe and Larry Toomey.

Maine came back with five points in a row, but Edwards got in on the three-point parade with a trifecta from the wing to make it 22-16.

Midway through the first half, Army extended its advantage to 12 (32-20) when Edwards hit a baseline jumper that forced a timeout by the Black Bears. That jumper followed a three by the Army junior and a strong drive and finish by Plomb. After the stoppage, Plomb hit a three-pointer to cap the 10-0 Army run.

Army continued to shoot the ball well from downtown as the lead ballooned to 21 points (45-24) with three-pointers by Wilson and Roe, and then a rainbow pullup two-point jumper from Plomb.

The Black Knights took a 50-29 lead into halftime as six different players made a three-pointer in the period. Army connected on 8-of-17 three-point attempts (47.1 percent) and 20-of-29 attempts overall (51.3 percent), while holding a plus-five margin in turnovers (12-7). Maine shot 41.9 percent in the opening half (13-of-31), but were 1-of-8 from distance.

Maine cut Army's lead to 16 by the first media timeout of the second half, but Army came back with threes by Edwards and Wilson, before a putback by Roe made it 67-43.

The visiting Black Knights led by as many as 25 points, before a 13-4 Maine run trimmed their lead to 15 points with five minutes left. An Army timeout halted the momentum briefly before a pair of Wilson free throws ended Maine's 18-4 run with 2:23 to play. Army led 80-67 at that point and walked away with the 13-point win.

Devine Eke led all scorers with 29 points and had a game-high 16 rebounds for Maine in the losing effort. Eke was 14-of-18 from the floor and scored a majority of his points in the paint.

The Army West Point men's basketball team used a 19-1 first-half run to secure a lead it never relinquished in a 77-55 win over Bryant at Chace Athletic Center.

The Black Knights captured their fourth straight win and moved to 7-2 on the year. Bryant dipped to 2-8 with the loss.

Tanner Plomb led the Black Knights with 26 points on a 10-for-20 shooting performance, including six three pointers, and Kyle Wilson added 14 points. Dylan Cox handed out seven assists and Larry Toomey pulled in a team-best eight rebounds. Army connected on 14-of-38 three-pointers (36.8 percent), while limiting Bryant to 1-of-8 from downtown.

Overall, Bryant shot 34.5 percent from the floor (19-of-55) and Army held the advantage in rebounding (43-37) and turnovers (14-9).

Army looked sharp out of the gate, hitting its first three shots, and after a three-pointer by Plomb the Black Knights held a 7-0 lead. Bryant clawed back in the game with the next eight points when Army's offense went cold. The defense, however, held Bryant to a 2-for-12 start with five turnovers.

Trailing 8-7, Wilson and the Black Knights scored 19 of the next 20 points over a five-minute stretch. Army hit five of seven three-point attempts, two by Wilson, two by Toomey and one by Plomb that forced a Bryant timeout with Army ahead 26-9 at the 8:42 mark

The Army lead was 17 following consecutive jumpers by Cox, but the Bulldogs scored nine straight points to close the gap to 32-24 and trailed 38-29 at intermission. Wilson knocked down his third three of the period after an offensive rebound by Travis Rollo to give him 11 before the break.

Bryant closed the gap to five early in the second half, but every time the Bulldogs threatened, Army had a response. Kevin Ferguson and Plomb each scored inside to push the lead close to double digits.

Leading 52-44 with 11 minutes to play, Army put the game out of reach with a 12-1 run. Plomb scored 10 points in less than four minutes during the spurt, including two more triples, and Army led 64-45 with 7:34 to play.

Army's largest lead was the final margin of 22 points.

Last FG - ARMY 2nd-00:56, AF 2nd-00:05. Largest lead - ARMY by 14 1st-03:25, AF by 5 1st-09:42. ARMY led for 32:34. AF led for 03:49. Game was tied for 03:37.

Plomb was one of four Black Knights to score in double figures with 18 points, including 15 in the second half, and classmate Kyle Wilson netted 19 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field with four three-pointers. Larry Toomey and Adam Roe each had 10 points in the victory.

Army secured its fifth straight win and improved to 8-2 for the second season in a row. The Black Knights also defeated Air Force for the second straight year.

"It was a total team effort tonight," head coach Zach Spiker said. "We had a number of key contributions from several players, including Scott Mammel and Cayne Edwards, and this is a really good win for our program."

With Dylan Cox in foul trouble, Mammel scored seven points off the bench, including a critical three-pointer, and Jordan Fox handed out five assists. Edwards scored five points, and hit one of Army's 12 three-pointers. The Black Knights were 12-for-28 from downtown (42.9 percent).

Hayden Graham posted a double-double, scoring 21 points with 12 rebounds for the Falcons (6-4). Zach Kocur added 15 points, six rebounds and three steals.

Army trailed 20-15 midway through the first half but Wilson hit a 3-pointer and Fox sank a jumper to tie it, 20-20, and the Black Knights never trailed after that. They led 43-32 at the break.

Air Force closed to within five points, 81-76, with 1:19 left but a Wilson 3-pointer with 56 seconds to go helped keep Army on top.

Tanner Plomb scored 27 points, but a 7-for-38 shooting performance from beyond the arc by the Army West Point men's basketball team proved too much to overcome in a 89-83 victory for Marist at Christl Arena.

Last FG - MAR 2nd-00:02, ARMY 2nd-00:01. Largest lead - MAR by 13 1st-09:09, ARMY by 2 2nd-09:27. MAR led for 36:20. ARMY led for 01:32. Game was tied for 02:08. Score tied - 4 times. Lead changed - 6 times

The result snapped Army's five-game winning streak and dropped Army to 8-3 on the year. Marist moved to 3-6 overall.

Alongside Plomb's 27 points, Dylan Cox scored a season-high 16 and Kevin Ferguson recorded his seventh-career double-double with 13 points and a career-best 13 rebounds. Army finished 30-for-77 from the floor (39 percent) and were held to a season-low 13 assists.

Brian Parker scored 23 and grabbed 11 rebounds, Khallid Hart contributed 22 points and Isiah Lamb netted 14 for Marist. The Red Foxes finished 33-of-63 in the game (52.4 percent) and scored 44 points in the paint.

Marist came out of the gate red-hot, hitting seven of their first eight shots and had a 15-8 lead at the first media timeout. The scorching start continued as the game approached the midway point of the period, with the Red Foxes making 11 of their first 13 attempts, including 10 points by Parker. The Marist lead was double digits (24-14) by the 11:42 mark of the opening half.

The visitors led by as many as 13 points at 30-17, before Army used a 19-6 run to tie the game at 36 apiece with less than two minutes remaining. The Black Knights missed their first 15 three-point field goal attempts before Cox's triple tied the score and punctuated the scoring run.

Marist took a 42-38 lead into the locker room after shooting 50 percent (17-of-34) in the first 20 minutes. Army was 16-for-39 (41 percent), including 15-for 22 from two-point territory. Ferguson had 10 points inside for the Black Knights at intermission.

Army continued to struggle from three-point land for the early portion of the second half, but was able to stay in the game and never trailed by more than four through the first eight minutes. A three by Plomb at 11:25 tied the score at 55 and a loose ball foul put Hoffman at the line where he gave the Black Knights their first lead (56-55).

The two sides went on the seesaw as Phil Lawrence-Ricks and Plomb each made jumpers prior to a bucket inside from Parker. Plomb countered with a straightaway trifecta to push Army ahead by two with 9:27 to play.

Six straight points from the Red Foxes, including a threepoint play on a dunk by Kentrall Brooks gave the lead back to Marist moments later.

Back-to-back threes by Wilson tied the score at 69-69, but a corner three from Kristinn Palsson and a transition layup by Hart put Marist back up by five and forced an Army timeout with 5:22 to go.

A foul-line jumper from Isaiah Lame at 2:49 extended the lead to 76-69 as Army was held scoreless for more than four minutes.

Hart went 6-for-6 from the line and Marist was 9-for-10 at the stripe in the closing minutes, which helped it hang on for the six-point win.

Tanner Plomb and Kyle Wilson combined for 48 points as the Army West Point men's basketball team made eight more three-pointers than Monmouth in a 91-84 victory.

Plomb scored a game-high 27 points and Wilson poured in 21, with four three-pointers each, as Army (9-3) shot 11-for-28 from beyond the arc (39.3 percent) and held Monmouth (9-4) to a 3-for-11 effort from distance.

Kennedy Edwards added 12 points, while Larry Toomey and Kevin Ferguson scored nine apiece. Ferguson equaled his career high with 13 rebounds, while Edwards also tied his career-high of nine to help the Black Knights to a 47-41 rebounding edge.

Monmouth was paced by Justin Robinson's 23 points, while Collin Stewart added 12 and Micah Seaborn scored 11. As a team, Monmouth shot 45.5 percent from the floor, with 40 points in the paint.

A back-and-fourth first 20 minutes that saw eight ties and 17 lead changes concluded with a rainbow three-pointer by Plomb, who had 14 points at the break. Plomb and Wilson combined for 30 of Army's 50 points in the period and hit seven of Army's eight three-pointers to push the Black Knights to a six-point halftime cushion.

Army was 8-for-16 from beyond the arc in the period and 12-for-15 at the free throw stripe to help offset Monmouth's 52.8 percent shooting performance (19-for-36), including a 10-point showing by Brady on the inside for the Hawks, who had 32 points in the paint at halftime.

After a two-handed slam by Plomb off a backdoor cut and pass by Dylan Cox, Monmouth scored eight straight to tie the score at 54 early in the second half. Robinson scored all eight of Monmouth's points during the run, including a triple and an old-fashioned three-pointer.

Monmouth's 12-2 spurt ended with a three-point play on the inside by Kennedy Edwards and Army reclaimed the lead at 59-58. A tip in by Ferguson and a wide-open three from Wilson on an inbounds play made it eight in-a-row for the home team. A reverse layup by Cox punctuated the 10-0 run and Army was up 66-58 at 12:57 and never trailed from that point.

Army's lead stretched to 10 (74-64) on a pair of technical free throws by Wilson.

Moments later, a drive and kick by Jordan Fox led to a wing three-pointer from Toomey and Army had its largest lead at 78-66 with 8:14 remaining.

The Hawks remained within striking distance and trimmed the lead to six with six minutes remaining, but an Adam Roe three ball pushed the lead back to nine.

The Army lead was 11 (87-76) after a steal by Toomey and transition slam by Plomb with 3:49 to go, but Monmouth scored the next six points and the lead was 87-82 with two minutes to play. A missed three by Edwards gave the ball back to Monmouth and Josh James made a layup to pull the Hawks within three with 1:11 left.

Army went to Plomb, who nailed a pullup jumper and the Black Knights eventually came away with the sevenpoint win.

Four different Army players scored in double figures, led by Tanner Plomb's 23-point effort. Kyle Wilson scored 17, Kevin Ferguson had 15 and Adam Roe had a new career high with 11. Larry Toomey pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds as Army held a plus-nine advantage on the glass (39-30).

As a team, Army shot 55.0 percent (33-of-60), with 12 three pointers, and was 10-for-12 at the free throw line.

Tim Kempton scored a game-high 28 points, while Austin Price finished with 22 points and Jesse Chuku scored 17 to go along with his team-high eight rebounds. Lehigh forced Army into 17 turnovers and were plus-seven in that department on the night.

The Black Knights came out of the gate on fire, hitting 10 of their first 15 attempts, including 5-of-7 from beyond the arc. Wilson hit a trio of threes to open the contest, with Plomb and Toomey each hitting one, and Lehigh used two timeouts in the first eight minutes after Army secured a 25-11 lead.

A layup by Kennedy Edwards punctuated a 21-4 run by the Black Knights made it 27-11. Kempton, the reigning Patriot League Player of the Year, scored inside to stop the bleeding as he returned from a three-game absence with a foot injury

Army's lead was as many as 20 in the first period when Mac Hoffman drained a three-pointer (36-16) with seven minutes to play, but Lehigh scored the final seven points of the period to cut Army's lead to 45-34.

The Black Knights finished the half 18-for-29 (62.1 percent), including a 7-for-10 effort from beyond the arc, and outrebounded Lehigh 21-13. Nine Army turnovers, including two in the final 1:17, helped the Mountain Hawks claw back into the game.

Lehigh's run continued early in the second half and the Army lead was cut to 47-41 with a three-pointer by Austin Price. The trifecta completed an 18-5 stretch before Cox's layup and a wing three from Adam Roe pushed the lead back to double digits.

The Mountain Hawks pulled within five on a layup by Kempton midway through the second half, but Army countered with a corner three by Roe, his third of the night, to extend the lead back to eight. Tanner Plomb followed with a jumper that made it 66-56 less than a minute later.

A layup by Ferguson after a loose ball had Army in front 72-60 at the 6:22 mark and moments after that, a transition triple by Wilson put Army up by 13 and completed a 14-6 run. Back-to-back threes from Lehigh followed to make it a seven-point game, but Plomb hit an elbow jumper and put the cushion back to nine with under four minutes remaining.

Lehigh made a late charge that was led by Kempton, who scored inside to make it 80-74 at 1:43. Army's ensuing trip resulted in a three from Plomb that helped seal the six-point win

Chris Hass' 40-point effort led Bucknell to an 84-76 victory over the Army West Point men's basketball team at Christl Arena.

Tanner Plomb led the Black Knights (10-4, 1-1 Patriot) with 23 points, Kyle Wilson scored 21 and Kevin Ferguson posted a double-double with 15 points and a career-high 14 rebounds in the loss.

Hass connected on 13-of-19 field goals, including 4-of-6 from distance, and went 10-for-12 at the free throw line. As a team, Bucknell shot 48.3 percent (28-for-58), including a 16-for-30 effort from three-point range, and made 22-of-28 at the line.

The Black Knights were held to less than 10 three-pointers for the third time this season, going 8-for-23 (34.8 percent). Dylan Cox and Plomb each finished with four of Army's 15 assists on 28 made field goals (28-for-69, 40.6 percent).

A slow offensive start for the top two offenses in the Patriot League saw Bucknell take an 8-2 lead on a three by Hass at the 14:47 mark. Army's next possession ended with a dunk by Plomb and the Black Knights scored seven straight as part of a 15-2 run. The Black Knights led 17-10 after forcing four turnovers and holding Bucknell without a field goal (0-for-4).

Army's lead was 25-15 before Hass exploded for 16 straight points to help Bucknell take a 31-27 lead. The 16-2 Bison run lasted 2:50 and Hass made his first 11 field goals, including five threes, en route to a 32-point first half.

Trailing by four with 3:47 left in the half, Army scored 9 of the next 11 points on back-to-back threes by Wilson and a Plomb triple, but Hass scored the last four points of the period and Bucknell took a 37-36 lead into the break.

Bucknell's lead stretched to nine (57-48) with a 12-4 run midway through the period following a bucket inside by Dom Hoffman. A Plomb three-pointer ended the spurt and moments later a reverse layup from Ferguson off a drive from Wilson pulled the Black Knights back within four.

The two sides continued to trade punches and Frazier's layup at 6:50 pushed the Bucknell lead back to six. A few possessions later, Plomb scored on an old-fashioned three-point play, but Hoffman answered with a wing three on the other end.

Following a pair of Wilson free throws, Army was back within three points (65-62) with four minutes remaining. Empty possessions by each side came before a Frazier three-pointer the doubled Bucknell's lead back to six.

Ferguson and Stephen Brown traded twos, then Cox and Nana Foulland alternated buckets, before Larry Toomey's putback made it 72-68 with 1:49 to play.

Hass' jumper late in the shot clock after a Bucknell timeout helped to seal the victory as the Bison forced a miss and made all 10 of their free throw attempts in the final minute of the eight-point win.

Lafayette built a 13-point halftime lead and held off a late push by the Army West Point men's basketball team in a 76-73 decision on Wednesday night at Christl Arena.

Kyle Wilson and Tanner Plomb scored 21 and 20 points, respectively, but Wilson's three-point attempt at the buzzer fell short as Lafayette led from start to finish. The Black Knights were held to 41.3 percent shooting in the game (26-for-63) and were unable to overcome the double-digit halftime deficit.

Paulius Zalys led Lafayette offensively with 17 points, while Zach Rufer and Nick Lindner each scored 13 and Matt Klinewski chipped in 10. Lindner handed out a game-high six assists and Lafayette shot 47.8 percent (32-for-67) in the contest. The Leopards outrebounded Army 41-34.

Lafayette made its first four field goal attempts and jumped out to an 8-0 lead that prompted an Army timeout. Nathaniel Musters and Klinewski each scored twice for the Leopards prior to Jordan Fox's corner three out Army on the board out of the stoppage.

The lead stretched to 19-6 on a layup by Zalys that capped a 9-0 run for the visitors before Cox found Wilson for three to halt the run.

Army struggled to score through the first 12 minutes and opened the game 4-for-19 from the field with seven turnovers. A three-point play by Wilson with a left-handed finish at the rim cut Lafayette's lead to 23-14 at 7:44.

Lafayette pushed its lead back to 15 with a driving layup by Rufer and a Zalys three that forced Army to use another timeout five minutes later.

The Lafayette lead at intermission was 36-23 as Army finished the period with 11 turnovers and shot 28.1 percent from the field. The 23 points for the Black Knights were a season-low in any half this season.

Army began the second half with a 16-7 run that pulled it within four points (43-39) after a pair at the line by Dylan Cox. Cox started the run with a three ball on Army's first possession of the half, Plomb hit two of his own, while Wilson and John Emezie each made layups.

After Lafayette responded with six of the next eight points, Cox found Plomb for a straightaway triple to pull the Black Knights back within five.

Rufer countered with threes on consecutive possessions surrounding the eight-minute mark to push Lafayette's lead back to double digits. The Leopards held a 61-50 lead with 7:14 to play.

A basket inside pushed the lead to 13, before Army hit three straight threes as part of a 9-2 run to cut the deficit to six with 5:11 remaining. Toomey buried the first trifecta before Wilson connected on a pair sandwiched around a layup by Zalys.

The run continued after a Lafayette turnover and a driving scoop layup by Cox (65-61), but Rufer again had an answer as he connected on a pullup foul-line jumper (3:59) to stop Army's surge.

Trailing by eight with two minutes on the clock, a driving layup plus a foul by Plomb kept the Black Knights alive.

A loose ball at midcourt resulted in a tie-up that went to Army with 1:49 to play. Turnovers by each team gave the ball back to Army and Ferguson scored on a putback following a Plomb miss to pull Army within three.

Lindner was fouled and made one-of-two at the line before Wilson's layup trimmed the deficit to two. A timeout by Lafayette with 49 seconds left came before Klinewski scored over Toomey inside to make it a four-point game. Wilson misfired on a three, but Plomb secured the rebound and put in a layup while being fouled. The free throw was good and Army trailed by one.

Lindner was fouled at 16 seconds and made both shots, Cox went to the line at the other end and sank a pair three seconds later and Army was down 74-73.

After Lindner again made two free throws, Army had a chance to tie, but both of Wilson's attempts were off and Lafayette hung on for the three-point victory.

The Army West Point men's basketball team improved to 7-2 on the road with a critical 73-59 victory over Loyola Maryland at Reitz Arena. The Black Knights limited the Greyhounds to a 2-for-16 shooting performance from beyond the arc.

Tanner Plomb paced the Black Knights with 22 points, Kyle Wilson scored 15 and Kevin Ferguson netted 12 in the win. Plomb grabbed a team-high eight rebounds for the Black Knights to help them to a 43-35 edge on the glass.

The Black Knights also struggled from distance (4-for-16), but shot 44.4 percent overall (28-for-63) and were plus-four in the turnover department.

Andre Walker led Loyola with 17 points and Jarred Jones posted a double-double of 14 and 10.

Loyola secured a 15-11 lead early in the contest before Army's defense increased its pressure to help it take its first lead. Army used an 8-2 run that forced a timeout after Wilson knocked down a three from the corner. After the timeout, Army got another stop and Ferguson scored inside to cap the 10-2 stretch as the Black Knights went up 21-17 at the eight-minute mark.

The score was knotted at 25-25 after a layup by Franz Rassman four minutes later, before Army scored the final 11 points of the period to take a 36-25 lead into the locker room. A three-point play by Kennedy Edwards started the spurt, John Emezie put in a tough layup in traffic, prior to buckets by Ferguson and Plomb before Edwards nailed a pullup with a minute remaining. Loyola missed five straight shots and turned the ball over three times to end the half.

Army scored 25 of its 36 points in the paint and shot 47.1 percent (16-for-34), while limiting Loyola to 30-percent shooting (9-for-30) before intermission.

The Army lead remained double figures and stretched to 12 with an acrobatic layup by Emezie six minutes into the second half. The Army freshmen was fouled on the play and missed the free throw, but Army collected the loose ball and Ferguson pushed the advantage to 48-34 with a hook shot.

Loyola cut the lead back to 10 with a pair at the line by Andre Walker. The Greyhounds' press was broken by Army and Plomb buried a three-pointer to make it 51-38. On Loyola's next trip, Edwards stepped in front of Rassman to draw a charge. Moments later, Wilson scored a layup and a foul line jumper by Ferguson made it 55-38 with 9:37 remaining.

The Greyhounds pulled back within 11 on a putback by Eric Laster with 4:20 on the clock. He was fouled on the play, but missed the attempt and Loyola grabbed the board. Jarred Jones scored inside after the miss to make it 59-50.

A missed three by Wilson gave Loyola the ball back and Walker was able to get to the rim for an easy two. Plomb countered with two free throws on the other end and the lead was back to nine at 2:58.

After two Walker free throws, Plomb's two-handed slam was one of the biggest baskets of the game for Army and made it 63-54. Loyola never got any closer than eight points over the final two minutes as Army made its final 12 free throw attempts after starting the game 1-for-10 at the charity stripe.

A 20-2 run midway through the second half catapulted the Army West Point men's basketball team to a 65-45 victory over American at Christl Arena.

Army moved to 3-3 in the Patriot League and 12-5 overall with the win, while American fell to 2-15 on the season with its 10th straight loss. The Eagles dipped to 0-6 in league play.

The Black Knights limited American to a season low in scoring for an opponent and outrebounded American 42-27.

Kyle Wilson, Dylan Cox and Larry Toomey each scored in double figures with Toomey leading the way with 13 points. Wilson and Cox each scored 12 as Army connected on 40 percent of its attempts (22-for-55). The Black Knights were solid at the line as well, going 15-for-19. Cox hauled in a game-high nine rebounds.

The Black Knights jumped out to a 9-0 lead following a driving layup by Luke Morrison that promoted American to call timeout. The Eagles were 0-for-5 with two turnovers prior to the timeout and Wilson scored five of the first nine.

The lead was 11-0 on a layup by Cox before American got on the board with a layup by Jesse Reed.

After a Morrison three put Army up 18-6, American got back in the game with a 14-2 run that was punctuated by back-to-back threes by Jones and Paris Maragkos. The second trifecta tied the score at 20-20 with a little more than five minutes to play in the period.

The two teams went into the break knotted at 22-22 after each side struggled to find a rhythm offensively. Army was held to a season-low 22 first-half points and shot 32 percent from the floor (8-for-25), while American was 10-for-26 (38.5 percent). The Black Knights were plus-six on the glass in the period.

Army continued to crash the boards and put together a 7-2 run to start the second half that included a pair of offensive boards that led to five points. Cox opened the half with a putback and Toomey closed the spurt with a three-point play as he followed a miss with a layup.

Four straight points by Jones trimmed Army's lead to two, but Wilson fed Adam Roe for an open elbow jumper and then scored in transition as Cox handed off to him. Two free throws by Mac Hoffman extended the lead to 38-30 at the 12:30 mark. Cox came up with a steal on the other end and Toomey knocked down a jumper to force an American timeout after eight straight by the home team.

A layup by Jones out of the timeout briefly halted the run, but Cox and company came back with an John Emezie three that pushed the lead to 11 (43-32). Four consecutive free throws by Cox gave the Black Knights a 15-point cushion and then a layup by Jordan Fox made it 49-32 with a little more than seven minutes to go.

An empty possession for the Eagles came before Toomey fed Wilson for a straightaway three that put the exclamation mark on the 20-2 run. The run lasted close to eight minutes as Army forced American into four turnovers and a 1-for-7 effort from the field, while the Black Knights made six of their 11 attempts. Seven different players scored during the stretch for Army.

Army led by as many as 21 points in the contest and moved to 6-0 when holding opponents to 60 points or less.

Holy Cross erased an eight-point halftime deficit and benefitted by a pair of 20-point efforts by Malachi Alexander and Karl Charles to defeat the Army West Point men's basketball team 69-65 at the Hart Center.

Charles posted a double-double with 15 rebounds as Holy Cross outscored Army 37-25 after intermission to improve to 3-4 in conference play. The result improved the Crusaders to 8-10 overall.

Kennedy Edwards scored 11 points and Dylan Cox added 10 for the Black Knights in the losing effort as the Black Knights fell to 3-4 in the Patriot League and 12-7 on the year.

Army broke an early 4-4 tie with a 7-0 spurt that included consecutive threes by Kyle Wilson and Adam Roe as Army went in front 11-4. Moments later, a strong drive and left-handed finish on an old-fashioned three-point play by Larry Toomey had the Black Knights in front 14-6.

Army's lead was 18-10 after Cox found Edwards for an easy deuce, before Holy Cross scored the next seven points to force an Army timeout at 10:12. The Crusaders tied the game at 20-20 on a layup by Anthony Thompson and the run continued with a bucket inside by Jehyve Floyd. A free throw capped the 13-2 run and Holy Cross was up three.

Army went into the break with a 40-32 lead after closing the period on a 9-3 spurt that included Nathan Dodge's second three. The triple came two possessions after Dodge drew a charge on a two-on-one. Army was 14-for-16 at the free throw line and outrebounded the Crusaders 21-14 in the opening 20 minutes.

Four turnovers and a 1-for-5 shooting effort to start the second half by Army helped Holy Cross pull within three (42-39) five minutes into the stanza. An Edwards three was answered by a three-point play by Thompson on the other end and a basket from Matt Husek following another Army giveaway. Alexander rattled home a three-pointer to push Holy Cross in front 47-45 seven minutes into the half and polish off a 15-5 start to the second half.

A transition layup by Cox broke a 51-51 tie with seven minutes to play and a minute later the lead was four after a slashing finger roll by John Emezie. Alexander countered with consecutive paint buckets to tie the game and then put Holy Cross in front with two additional free throws. The home team was up 57-55 with 4:54 left.

Holy Cross' advantage was 60-57 a minute later following a steal and layup. Army used a timeout and out of the stoppage Cox got to the rim to pull Army within one. Cox was fouled on the play, but missed the tying free throw.

After two free throws made it a three-point game again, Wilson drilled a three from the top of the key to level the score at 62-62. Following a three-point play by Charles on a baseline drive, Cox scored with less than a minute left.

Holy Cross used a timeout with 24.8 seconds to go and nine seconds on the shot clock but Charles' shot was blocked by Toomey. Army had the ball with a chance to take the lead, but Wilson's floater off the glass missed and Holy Cross corralled the rebound. Robert Champion made both free throws and Cox was fouled with three seconds left. He made the first and missed the second before two free throws by Charles sealed the win.

Boston University used a 14-5 run midway through the second half to separate itself from the Army West Point men's basketball team in a 76-67 decision at Christl Arena.

Cheddi Mosely scored a team-high 23 points on the strength of five threes and Nathan Dieudonne's doubledouble of 17 points and 18 rebounds. John Papale added 12 points as BU shot 46.8 percent (29-of-62) from the field. The Terriers also outrebounded Army 45-33 on the night.

Kyle Wilson scored 25 points in the setback for Army, while John Emezie added a career-high 11 points. Army struggled from the floor at 33.9 percent for the game (21-for-62), but was 16-for-18 at the free throw line.

Army used an 11-0 run early in the first half to take a 15-6 lead that forced Boston University to use a timeout with 12:30 to play in the half. The Army run lasted 3:54 and its defense forced the Terriers into five turnovers, including a steal and charge drawn by Larry Toomey. Army was 4-for-6 during the stretch, with a pair of threes by Toomey and Wilson

After calling timeout, the visitors countered with an 11-0 run of their own to take a 17-15 lead two minutes later. BU capitalized on two Army turnovers as Mosely connected on two threes and Papale drained one from deep. Luke Morrison knocked down a trifecta for the Black Knights to end the run.

Wilson drained his second three at the 4:33 mark to put Army up two, before BU came back with six straight, four by Dieudonne, to secure a 29-25 cushion. Dieudonne scored 12 points and had nine rebounds before intermission.

The two sides went into halftime knotted at 33 apiece after Wilson drew a foul on Dieudonne on Army's final possession of the period. He made all three attempts and had a team-high 13 points.

A triple by Emezie tied the game early in the second half before six straight points by the Terriers prompted Army to call a timeout less than five minutes into the second stanza. Consecutive jumpers by Papale came before Spiker called for time and Adam Roe halted the spurt with a putback to make it 46-42.

The game of runs continued and after Army tied the score at 46, BU put in the next five and led 51-46 with 11:31 to play. A two-point jumper by Wilson came before Papale drilled an open three, but Toomey countered with a corner triple for the Black Knights to trim the deficit to three.

Boston University scored the next six points to take its largest lead to that point at 60-51. A jumper by Kennedy Edwards from the elbow pulled Army within seven with 7:52 to go, but another Dieudonne dunk pushed the cushion back to nine a little more than two minutes later following a potential goaltending call went without a whistle for the Black Knights.

Emezie hit a three with a little more than four minutes on the clock, but once again the Terriers had an answer as Mosely buried on the ensuing BU possession to push the score to 65-56.

Army never drew any closer than six points in the final moments of the 76-67 loss

Leading 21-21 after Kennedy Edwards and John Azzinaro traded threes, Bucknell opened the game up with an 11-0 run to go ahead by 14. Foulland scored twice inside prior to a triple by Ryan Frazier, before Foulland added two more buckets for eight of his 14 first-half points.

Navy's defense limited the Army West Point men's basketball team to a 27.3 shooting performance in a 64-50 victory for the Mids in the 2016 men's basketball 'Star' Game presented by USAA on Monday night at Christl Arena.

Senior Tanner Plomb returned from a five-game absence to score a team-high 14 points, while Luke Morrison added 11 for the Black Knights in the loss.

The Mids were led by Will Kelly's 15-point and 10rebound performance, while Tilman Dunbar scored 13 points and pulled down nine boards. Shawn Anderson added 12 points for the visitors.

As a team, Navy held a 42-34 rebounding advantage and connected on 42.3 percent of its field goal attempts (22-for-52). In addition to shooting below 30-percent, Army was 6-for-28 from beyond the arc in the contest.

Navy scored nine straight points in the early going to force the Black Knights to use a timeout with 12:06 showing on the first-half clock. A straightway three off the window by Tim Abruzzo started the stretch before Kelly's punctuation mark of a tip slam prompted the stoppage.

An Army giveaway led to an easy two at the other end for Jace Hogan as Navy led 14-3. Army opened the game 1-for-12 from the field before a foul-line jumper midway through the period made it a nine-point game.

Army trimmed the deficit to 16-12 with free throws by Toomey and Cox, before a four-point play by Tilman Dunbar pushed the lead back to eight for the visiting Mids. Kelly followed up an empty Army possession with a three-point play as Navy claimed a 23-12 advantage. The Mids forced Army to use its second timeout of the first half at the 4:25 mark after a transition layup polished off an 11-3 run. Army's bucket during the stretch was a Luke Morrison three from the left wing.

Pullup jumpers for Wilson and Plomb surrounding a Navy turnover started to swing the momentum in Army's favor. Plomb drained another jumper moments later as Army scored the final six points of the period to go into the break down 27-21.

Navy maintained its lead through the early portion of the second period and stretched it to double digits with a long jumper by Hogan that made it 39-28 with 13 minutes remaining. The Black Knights cut it to seven on a Morrison trifecta, but Zach Fong answered on the other end with a deep three of his own a minute later.

A Toomey three at the eight-minute mark made it 44-35 and after buckets by each team, Toomey hit two at the stripe to draw Army within seven. The deficit was five (48-43) with five minutes left after Plomb made 4-of-5 at the line

Shawn Anderson used the glass after a Plomb miss to give the Mids a seven-point edge before calling for time with 3:48 to go. Fong drilled another three after Army misfired and the deficit was 10 a little more than a minute later.

The Midshipmen hit their free throws down the stretch and finished the night 14-for-19 at the line.

The Army West Point men's basketball team erased an 18-point deficit to come away with an 84-81 overtime victory over Lafavette at Kirby Sports Center

The win snapped a four-game losing streak and improved the Black Knights to 4-7 in Patriot League play and 13-10 on the season. Lafayette fell to 3-8 in the conference following its fifth straight loss.

Tanner Plomb and Kevin Ferguson each registered double-doubles for Army in the comeback win. Kyle Wilson added 20 points and Dylan Cox scored 13, while Larry Toomey pulled in 10 rebounds.

The comeback was fueled by a 47.9 percent shooting performance after halftime (23-for-48). Army finished the game plus-three on the glass (44-41) after being outrebounded in the first by seven.

After three-pointer by Wilson had Army in front 10-7, Lafayette scored 20 of the next 24 points to go in front 27-14 at the sevenminute mark of the first period. The run included consecutive jumpers by Zalys, the second a straightaway three, and five points by Klinewski.

The Leopards took a 41-26 lead into the halftime break after limiting Army to 33.3 percent shooting (9-for-27) and outrebounded the Black Knights 20-13. Lafayette connected on 53.6 percent of its shots in the half, including a 5-of-10 effort from beyond the arc.

Army started the second half strong on both ends of the floor and scored eight of the first 10 points to trim the deficit to single digits (43-34). A transition layup for the Leopards ended the 8-2 spurt and the home team was up 45-34 at the under 16 timeout.

A Cox layup and steal and score by Ferguson on Army's full-court press started a 7-2 stretch that had Army down eight at 49-41

Plomb then connected on consecutive treys surrounding a Zalys bucket and Army was back within five points with 12:40 to play. Lindner drained an open three on the other end to halt Army's 21-11 start to the second half and his side was ahead 55-47 with 12:01 to go.

A putback by Cox off a Wilson miss came before a Lafavette turnover that led to a Wilson triple. That forced Lafayette to call timeout with 10:27 showing as Army pulled within three at 55-52

Moments later a corner three by Toomey leveled the score at 59 apiece as Lafayette's 18-point vanished.

The Leopards' lead was 63-61 with four minutes to play before a turnover and layup by Cox tied the game again. A layup by Ferguson followed 1-of-2 FT's for Auston Evans as Army edged in front by one.

Ferguson was fouled after Rufer missed a three for Lafayette and hit the front end of a one-and-one to push Army ahead 66-64. Klinewski countered with a layup to tie the game before an Army turnover gave the ball back to Lafayette with 1:28 to go in regulation.

Lindner drew a foul and hit a pair before Wilson tied the game again with a layup high off the glass. A miss by Lafayette gave Army the ball with 40 seconds remaining and late in the shot clock Plomb muscled his way inside with a right-handed drive and finish. Lindner's three on the other end missed, but Klinewski was there to clean up the miss and tie the game at 70 with 3.4 seconds left. Wilson's 25 footer at the buzzer was off and the game went into overtime.

Both teams were in the double bonus to start the extra session and Army went in front by three with 3-of-4 at the stripe to start the overtime. Klinewski's jumper made it 73-72 before Wilson's pullup pushed the lead back to three with three minutes left.

Lindner hit a jumper following a Lafayette timeout, then gave the Leopards the lead with a three following an Army miss. Plomb came back down the other end and scored in the paint to tie the game at 77.

After a Lindner layup rimmed out, Plomb scored in transition, but Klinewski answered with a reverse layup to tie the score for the 11th time in the contest. Army used a timeout with 57.6 seconds that preceded to the eventual game-deciding play. Cox drove to the rim and scored a left-handed layup through contact and added the bonus free throw to put Army ahead 82-79.

Army West Point 99 • 13-11, 4-8 PL

Dylan Cox's three-pointer at the end of regulation sent the game to overtime, but Lovola Maryland prevailed 100-99 in double overtime.

Tanner Plomb led four Black Knights in double figures in the scoring column with 25 points, while Kyle Wilson added 22. Kevin Ferguson posted a double-double for the second straight game of 17 points and equaled his career high with 14 rebounds. Dylan Cox also registered a double-double with 17 points and 10 boards.

Loyola had three players in double digits as Andre Walker scored 31, including a 15-of-16 effort at the line, Jarred Jones put in 28 points and Franz Rassman contributed 13 and eight rebounds. As a team, Loyola shot 31-of-37 at the line and 47.2 percent from the field.

Army won the rebounding battle 53-47, but was held to 37.8 percent shooting (31-of-82) and was 29-for-40 at the charity stripe. The contest featured 19 ties and 11 lead changes

A putback by Cox closed the half as Army's 12-3 run knotted the score at 34-34 at intermission. Ferguson had a double-double at the break of 11 points and 10 rebounds as Army held a 24-17 edge on the boards. Turnovers hurt the Black Knights in the period, with nine to Loyola's six, and the Greyhounds shot 51.9 percent from the floor (14-of-27). Army was at 40.0 percent (14-of-35).

Loyola edged in front (57-56) with two Walker free throws and a three-point play by Rassman, but the lead was short-lived as Ferguson made two free throws on Army's ensuring possession. A miss by Jones led to a corner three by Larry Toomey and Army seized control at 61-57 with less than eight minutes remaining.

The Black Knights' cushion increased to eight points, their largest of the game, as Wilson hit a three, Ferguson put in a layup and Toomey added a free throw as part of a 10-2 Army push. Walker's layup halted the run at 5:51 before Jones made two at the charity stripe to cut the lead to 67-63. An Army turnover gave the ball back to Loyola and Jones capitalized with a spin and lay-in to make it a two-point game.

Walker was sent to the line with two minutes left and hit both free throws to tie the score at 71. Plomb answered with a pullup from the foul line the next time down before a three-point play by Chancellor Barnard gave Loyola a 74-73 lead.

Neither team scored on their next two possessions and Walker was fouled with 24.8 seconds on the clock. He hit both and Plomb got a floater in the paint to go down with 13.5 seconds left. Walker was fouled again and pushed the lead back to three points before Cox's three off the glass sent the game to overtime tied at 78

Tied at 80 a minute into the first overtime, Wilson put home a pullup three late in the shot clock. Then, Army lead was 83-82 after Jones made two free throws. Cox got to the line and pushed Army back ahead by three before Walker hit two free throws after Ferguson fouled out with 2:32 showing.

Jones fouled out with 1:15 to go and Edwards made 1-of-2 at the line before Rassman's tip in tied the game at 86 with a minute left. Wilson scored a scoop layup and Walker answered to tie the game at 88 with less than 30 seconds to play in the first overtime. Army had a number of chances inside to win the game on its final possession, but it couldn't convert and the game headed to a second overtime.

Cox made two free throws after being fouled on a Loyola turnover and Army's lead was 91-88 at 3:50. Plomb then drove and scored with the right hand to extend the lead to 93-88 after another Greyhounds giveaway. Walker put in two FTs and the Army lead was three at 3:15.

Barnard's follow trimmed the advantage to 93-92 with two minutes left. Wilson was fouled on a drive and made one-of-two at 1:34. Rassman scored on Loyola's ensuing trip and Army called for time with the game tied at 94 and 59.3 seconds on the clock.

Out of the timeout, Army went to Plomb and he converted a three-point play with a leaner off the glass to make it 97-94. A quick layup from Hubbard and a timeout by the Greyhounds allowed them to set up a full-court press with 24 seconds remaining. A steal and quick score by Rassman made it 98-97 Loyola before Cox and Walker each converted two free throws on opposite ends. Army was down a point with less than four seconds to play and Plomb's 27-footer at the buzzer was off.

Senior center Kevin Ferguson's double-double of a career-high 24 points and 12 rebounds propelled the Army West Point men's basketball team to an 82-72 victory over Colgate at Christl Arena.

In addition to Ferguson's performance, Army shot the ball well from distance, hitting 10-of-25 three-point attempts (40 percent). Tanner Plomb and Kyle Wilson joined him in double figures with 18 and 13 points, respectively. As a unit, the Black Knights handed out 16 assists, including five by Larry Toomey and four each by Dylan Cox and Jordan Fox.

Army evened the season series with Colgate and moved to 5-8 in Patriot League play and 14-11 on the season. Colgate fell to 11-13 and 7-6.

Austin Tillotson scored 16 points, Jordan Robertson added 13 and Tom Rivard contributed 10 for the Raiders.

Both teams shot better than 47 percent from the floor, but Army managed a plus-13 rebounding margin and made six more free throws (18-for-25) than the visitors.

Army opened the game by hitting five of its first six three point attempts, including three by Plomb, as it had a 19-17 lead at the midway point of the opening half. A Luke Morrison triple continued Army's hot start from distance to help the Black Knights to a five-point cushion and two possessions later Morrison buried another three as Army started 7-for-9 from downtown. The home team led 27-20.

Fox found Wilson open in the wing and he hit Army's ninth three of the period to give it a 37-28 advantage four minutes later.

The halftime lead was 40-32 after a 9-for-16 three-point effort (56.3 percent). Colgate also found success from beyond the arc in the first 20 minutes, hitting 7-of-14 from distance.

Army's lead stretched to 12 points (52-40) at 15:26 of the second half on an offensive rebound and putback by Morrison. Colgate scored the next five points, including a three by Rivard, as part of an 11-2 run that trimmed the deficit to 54-51 with under 12 minutes left. Ferguson converted inside to halt the momentum and put Army ahead by five.

Leading 56-53, Plomb put home a baseline jumper and Ferguson finished a three-point play to quickly push Army's lead back to eight points. Another Ferguson basket moments later, this time a baby hook in the paint, had Army ahead 65-55 with a little more than seven minutes to play. The bucket was part of an 11-1 Army run that also saw Wilson knock in a triple to put help put the game out of reach. Ferguson's stickback with 4:24 completed the stretch as Army went ahead

The 16-point advantage was Army's largest of the night in the eventual 82-72 triumph.

The Army men's basketball team built a nine-point halftime lead it never relinquished in a 65-59 victory over American Bender Arena.

Kevin Ferguson's double-double of 20 points and 14 rebounds paved the way for Army as it won its second straight game and swept the season series against American.

The win gave Army 15 wins for the fourth straight year, marking the second time in Army history it has won at least 15 games in four consecutive seasons. The other group to accomplish the feat were the Army teams from 1920-24.

Army outrebounded American 41-27 and connected on 46 percent of its shots (23-of-50), while holding the Eagles to 36.8 percent from the floor (21-of-57). The Black Knights were 15-for-21 at the free throw line, as well.

Delante Jones scored 18 points, all in the second half, and was the lone American player to score in double figures.

In addition to Ferguson, Kyle Wilson scored 14 points and Tanner Plomb added 11 points and seven rebounds. Dylan Cox scored eight points, hauled in eight rebounds and handed out a game-high five assists. Larry Toomey chipped in six points, five rebounds and three assists.

American secured a 7-0 lead in the game's opening minutes before a layup by Ferguson put the Black Knights on the board. His bucket began a 12-2 run for Army that gave it its first lead before a corner three by Jalen Rhea tied the score at 12-12 midway through the half.

Army led 16-15 following a straightaway three-pointer by American's Paris Maragkos at the 7:47 mark before it scored the next eight points to take a 24-15 lead. The Black Knights held American without a point for the remainder of the half and took a nine-point lead into the break after scoring 24 of the final 32 points of the period.

he Eagles made 6-of-26 field goal attempts in the frame, including 3-of-13 from beyond the arc and Army grabbed 21 rebounds to American's 13. The Black Knights were 11-of-25 from the field, despite a 0-for-8 effort from beyond the arc. Ferguson led all scorers with 10 points at the break.

Jones ended the scoring draught (8:46) with a three-pointer a minute into the second half, but a Wilson three pushed the Army's advantage back to nine (29-20) at 16:42. The triple was Army's first of the day after a 0-for-10 start from beyond the arc.

Following a layup by John Emezie, American trimmed Army's lead to six points with baskets on consecutive trips surrounding an Army turnover. The Black Knights used a timeout with 14:10 to play before another turnover allowed James Washington to hit his second straight three and pull the Eagles within 31-28.

The Army lead was 38-34 before the pace increased and a run of eight straight Army points gave it a 12-point cushion. Transition threes by Plomb and Wilson on consecutive possessions highlighted the run. Minutes later, Army had a 50-35 lead on a Cox layup with 6:45 to play.

American trimmed the deficit to seven with a corner three by Rhea to cap a 13-5 run and started to get back in the game by sending Army to the free throw line. With less than 1:30 remaining, a steal led to a Jones layup that made it a five-point game (57-52). Needing an answer, Army countered with a wing three by Wilson that extended the lead to eight with 53 seconds.

A deep three by Jones pulled the home side within four (61-57) with 31 seconds on the clock before Plomb missed two free throws on the other end. American quickly scored and fouled Cox, who made both of his shots with 19 seconds showing before a steal and Plomb's two-handed slam sealed the victory.

A career-high 25 points and 13 rebounds by Kevin Ferguson lifted the Army West Point men's basketball team to its third straight win and a 72-68 triumph over Holy Cross.

Last FG - HC 2nd-00:20, ARMY 2nd-01:22. Largest lead - HC by 3 1st-19:14, ARMY by 11 2nd-17:09. HC led for 02:14. ARMY led for 34:19. Game was tied for 03:27

The win improved Army to 16-11 on the season, including a 7-8 mark in Patriot League play, and clinched a winning regular season for the program. Kyle Wilson scored 19 points on the strength of five three-pointers and Dylan Cox put in 10 points to go along with five assists. Jordan Fox also added five assists for the Black Knights in a 49.1 percent shooting performance.

Army outrebounded Holy Cross 39-28 in the contest as Ferguson recorded his fifth consecutive double-double. Malachi Alexander and Cullen Hamilton each scored 17 points for the Crusaders, while Anthony Thompson added nine.

Ferguson's perfect start (5-for-5) sparked a run of 10 consecutive points for the Black Knights as they jumped out to a 12-3 lead to start the game. Holy Cross scored the next six points, including Thompson's second three-pointer, to make it 12-9 nine minutes in.

Army pushed its lead to seven (20-13) as Ferguson continued to have his way underneath with an offensive rebound and putback to give him 14 points with just under seven minutes left in the first half. A little more than a minute later, Wilson got on the board with a three off a drive and kick by John Emezie.

The visiting Crusaders used a pair of baskets by Hamilton and a runout dunk by Alexander to force an Army timeout with 2:52 to play in the half. The 6-0 spurt trimmed the Army lead to 27-23, but Army scored off a broken play as Wilson connected from deep to halt the run.

The Black Knights took a 34-29 lead into the break after Ferguson's 16-point effort. He pulled down six rebounds to help Army to a 20-12 rebounding advantage in the first 20 minutes.

Wilson caught fire to start the second half with three consecutive threes as part of an 11-2 thrust that prompted Holy Cross to call timeout. The Black Knights led 45-34 following a transition layup by Tanner Plomb, who finished with eight points.

Alexander and Fox traded layups before a 9-2 Holy Cross run closed Army's lead to four. Thompson hit a three to start the run, which ended with four straight Hamilton points. Plomb's stickback at 12:43 had Army in front 51-45.

Army's edge was 56-49 before a run of seven straight points tied the game as the Black Knights called a timeout with 8:05 to play. Pat Benzan had back-to-back buckets before Alexander rattled in an open three to level the score.

The two teams went on the seesaw with Cox scoring five straight Army points, two free throws and a three-point play that gave Army a 61-59 lead with four minutes to go. A couple possessions later, after a block by Ferguson, Cox scored again on a drive to put Army up four.

Free throws on the other end and an easy Ferguson layup off a pass from Cox had Army up 65-61 with 2:30 remaining. A jumper by Plomb a minute later added to Army's lead (67-61), but Holy Cross refused to go away.

The Army lead was cut to two when Alexander hit a three with 36 seconds left, but Wilson was fouled and made both his free throw attempts as Army went ahead 70-66 six seconds later. Alexander then quickly scored on a putback with 20 seconds on the clock and Wilson was fouled again.

He made one of his two free throws to put Army up by three and Thompson's potential tying three was off with 10 seconds to go. Army secured the rebound and Wilson added a free throw to complete the four-point win.

Kyle Wilson's three-pointer at the end of regulation sent the game to overtime and Kevin Ferguson's putback with 0.7 seconds left in the second overtime gave the Army West Point Men's Basketball team an 80-78 victory over Navy on Saturday afternoon at Alumni Hall.

Kevin Ferguson registered his sixth consecutive double-double with 22 points and a career-high 19 rebounds to lead the Black Knights. Tanner Plomb scored a game-high 24 and Kyle Wilson scored 11 in the win. Dylan Cox handed out a game-high eight assists.

Trailing by 13 with 8:36 to play, Army used an 11-2 run to cut the Navy lead to 49-45.

Plomb buried a deep three to pull the Black Knights within 10 points and sparked the run that made it a four-point game with five minutes to go. Jordan Fox scored five points and Plomb capped the run with his fourth three.

With under four minutes left, Army pulled back within three on a wing triple by Larry Toomey. The Mids scored on their next two possessions, a free throw by Will Kelly and a reverse layup by Shawn Anderson to push the lead back to six.

With 1:09 on the clock, Toomey hit a pair at the line to make it 54-51. Army then forced a turnover and had ball with a minute to go. Toomey's wing three was off and Army fouled Anderson with 40.6 seconds left to send him to the line for a 1-and-1. He made both free throws to increase Navy's lead to five.

Ferguson quickly scored inside (56-53) and Tilman Dunbar was trapped in the corner before Navy used its last timeout with 29.7 seconds on the clock. Dunbar was then sent to the line, where he made both shots in the 1-and-1 situation to push the lead back to five.

Plomb drained a quick three, before Dunbar was fouled again with 18 seconds left. He made the first and missed the second to keep Army within one possession. Wilson, who was 0-for-10 from the field at that point, drained a pullup three from the left wing to tie the game at 59. Dunbar's shot off the glass as time expired was off and the game went to overtime.

Navy's lead was 63-60 after two Anderson free throws with three minutes to play in the first five minutes. Plomb got to the line and made both to make it a one-point game again. After a miss by Dunbar on the other end, Ferguson completed a three-point play to put Army up by two. Kelly hit a pair at the stripe and the game was tied at 65 with less than two minutes left in overtime.

Hogan's jumper with a minute left and a Dunbar free throw had Navy in front 70-67 with 42 seconds left. Wilson then made a fadeaway jumper and Army got a quick steal with its press on the ensuing Navy inbounds play. Cox was fouled and he tied the game by making one of two with 26 seconds on the first-overtime clock.

A layup by Dunbar was off as time expired and the game needed five more minutes to decide a winner.

Ferguson started the second extra period with a layup off a feed by Cox to put Army ahead. Hogan scored a second-chance bucket on the other end and the game was tied at 72. A rebound by Ferguson led to an open Wilson three that made it 75-72, before Ferguson blocked Kelly on Navy's next trip.

Wilson missed and a jumper by Tim Abruzzo pulled Navy within a point (75-74) with under two minutes on the clock. Empty possessions by each team had Army in control of the basketball when, once again, an offensive rebound led to a Wilson three-pointer at 1:07.

Navy tied the game for the 10th and final time after Anderson's bucket and two Tom Lacey free throws with 15 seconds to play.

With it deadlocked at 78, Wilson's floater was off, but Ferguson corralled the miss and put home the game-winning basket to complete the comeback.

Anderson scored 20 points to lead Navy offensively, Hogan put in 16 points, Dunbar had 16 and handed out seven assists and Kelly recorded a double-double of 11 points and 11 rebounds. Navy finished the game with a 50-41 rebounding advantage.

Army closed the first half on a 10-4 run as the two sides went into the locker room deadlocked at 23. Navy opened the second half with six straight points as a result of Army misses to take control of the period.

Kevin Ferguson's seventh consecutive double-double of 18 points and 15 rebounds led the Army West Point men's basketball team to an 80-71 victory over Boston University.

Army won its fifth game in a row and secured its program-record 11th road victory of the 2015-16 season. The Black Knights improved to 18-11 overall, including a 9-8 mark in Patriot League play, and will finish the regular season in the top six of the Patriot League standings.

Senior Tanner Plomb also recorded a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while classmate Kyle Wilson scored 15 and sophomore Luke Morrison added 11 points in the win. Senior point guard Dylan Cox had eight points, eight rebounds and five assists in the triumph.

Boston University (17-13, 10-7 Patriot League) was led by Eric Fanning's game-high 20 points. Cheddi Mosley netted 18 and Eric Johnson finished with 12, while Nick Havener pulled down 15 rebounds.

The Black Knights jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a pair of baskets inside by Plomb. The Terriers scored eight of the next 10 and were within a point (9-8) on a three-point play by Kyle Foreman.

Army answered with a 10-2 run of its own, including five points by John Emezie, to force BU to call timeout at 13:26 after Emezie buried a three in transition. Cox assisted the triple as Army went ahead 19-10.

BU answered again, this time with a 9-0 burst to tie the game at 22 before Adam Roe came into the game and knocked down a corner three.

The Terriers' 19-6 run ended with a pair of free throws by Ferguson, which gave him 1,000 career points, and cut the deficit to 32-30. Moments later, Johnson hit a three on the other end (35-30), but Army closed the half on a 12-4 run and held a 42-39 lead at halftime.

Army maintained its lead by the first media timeout of the second half (48-43) as Foreman limped off with an injury and Blaise Mbargorba picked up his fourth foul. After the halt in play, Morrison hit his second three to stretch the lead to eight.

The Terriers closed the gap to two on a pair of Fanning free throws with just under 12 minutes remaining and took the 57-56 lead when Johnson hit a three a minute later.

Ferguson answered with a bucket in the paint on Army's next possession and it remained a one-possession game with Army in front 64-61 as BU called timeout at 5:26. A John Papale miss led to Cox stretching the lead to five on the ensuing trip, before Mosely's jumper made it 66-63 a minute later.

A steal by Cox and Larry Toomey's follow of a Wilson missed three pushed Army's lead back to five, but Papale made a layup with under three to go. An offensive rebound by Toomey gave Army another possession and Cox took advantage with a driving layup on the left side.

A BU miss gave the ball back to Army with less than 1:30 left, but a miss by Ferguson allowed BU to grab the carom. Haines was fouled and was off on the front end of a 1-and-1, before Wilson's layup made it 72-65 with a minute left.

Army went 8-for-8 from the free throw line to seal the eventual nine-point win.

A hot-shooting effort by Lehigh gave the visiting Mountain Hawks their ninth consecutive victory and snapped Army's five-game winning streak in an 82-72 decision on Saturday afternoon at Christl Arena.

Last FG - LEHIGH 2nd-01:27, ARMY 2nd-00:09. Largest lead - LEHIGH by 17 2nd-12:43, ARMY by 2 1st-18:01. LEHIGH led for 35:46. ARMY led for 01:45. Game was tied for 02:29.

The Black Knights finish the regular season with an 18-12 overall record, including a 9-9 Patriot League mark, while Lehigh improved to 15-14 overall and 13-5 in the conference

Army will host No. 5 Colgate as the fourth seed in the Patriot League Tournament Quarterfinals on Thursday, March 3.

Led by a 23-point and 18-rebound performance by Tim Kempton, Lehigh connected on 50.8 percent from the field (33-of-65) and had four players score in double figures. Kahron Ross scored 19 points and handed out seven assists, while Austin Price scored 16 points and Kyle Leufroy added 11.

Senior point guard Dylan Cox scored a team-high 16 points and eclipsed 1,000 points for his career and Kevin Ferguson and Tanner Plomb each put in 14 points for the Black Knights. Army shot the ball at a 47.6 percent clip (30-for-63), but was outrebounded 38-36 and had five more turnovers than Lehigh.

Lehigh secured an early 18-10 lead with 10 straight points, on threes by Ross and Chuku sandwiched around consecutive Kempton buckets. A three-point play by Luke Morrison briefly interrupted Lehigh's 18-5 run over 4:30 that saw the Mountain Hawks go 8-for-10 from the field. Army had four turnovers during the stretch and Lehigh was ahead 26-15.

Army closed the gap to five after consecutive baskets by Plomb and Cox. Plomb muscled his way inside on a right-handed drive, before Ferguson fed Cox for a reverse layup to make it 34-29 with five minutes left in the period.

Lehigh took a 39-35 lead into the locker room as Plomb's two-handed flush ended the half.

The Mountain Hawks pushed their lead to 52-42 on consecutive jumpers by Price, before his steal and slam made it a 12-point game with 14:10 remaining. Army called timeout following the breakaway dunk. Out of the timeout, a missed three by Wilson led to a Kempton layup that increased Lehigh's lead to 14.

Moments later Ross drained a straightaway three with the shot clock expiring to cap a 13-2 run and put the visitors up by 17.

Trailing 63-46, Army scored the next seven points and Ferguson's layup forced Lehigh to call a timeout. The Black Knights got another stop before Cox's floater in the paint went down to pull the Black Knights within eight (63-55) with 9:44 remaining.

Lehigh's answer came in the form of a right-handed drive and layup by Kempton through contact. He missed the bonus free throw, but the visitors regained a 10-point lead. The next Lehigh possession ended with a corner three by Price (68-55), before Ferguson countered with a bucket at the eight-minute mark.

Lehigh extended the lead back to 15 points on a Kempton baseline jumper and a scoop layup by Ross a minute later and the Black Knights never got any closer than eight points the rest of the way.

Kyle Wilson scored 14 of his 16 points in the second half as the Army West Point men's basketball team advanced to the Patriot League Tournament Semifinal with a 79-72 victory over No. 5 Colgate at Christl Arena.

Tanner Plomb scored 23 points and Kevin Ferguson netted 19 and pulled down 10 rebounds for his 12th double-double of the season in the win.

Colgate had four players score in double figures, including 16 apiece by Jordan Swopshire and Alex Ramon. Austin Tillotson added 14 and Sean O'Brien had 11

The Black Knights made the game's first run and led 20-15 after a Larry Toomey three and a three-point play by Ferguson midway through the first half.

The Raiders closed the gap to a point (22-21) on a baseline fadeaway jumper by Swopshire, before Plomb countered with a deep three on the other end.

Army took a 36-29 lead into the locker room after an evenly played first 20 minutes. Army shot 46.7 percent (14-for-30) and Colgate was at 44.4 percent (12-for-27). Rebounding favored Colgate 18-17, but the difference was at the free throw line, where Colgate was 0-for-6 and Army made 4-of-5.

The Raiders opened the second half on a 7-2 run and pulled within one as Army called timeout at 16:25 with a 37-36 lead. Tillotson, who played 12 minutes in the first half due to foul trouble, opened the scoring with a three, Dylan Cox hit a runner, and O'Brien and Swopshire each scored for the visitors.

Wilson countered with a pair at the stripe and a wing three, before a stop led to a fastbreak layup for Cox. The 7-0 spurt prompted a timeout by Colgate with Army in front 44-36 at 13:54. Ramon put in a reverse layup after the stoppage, but Wilson came back with a foul-line jumper moments later.

The Army lead increased to 49-40 after a missed layup by Tillotson led to a three-point play by Ferguson. Colgate came back with a straightaway three-pointer by Swopshire, but Plomb hit one on the next trip down. Tillotson responded with a finger roll, but John Emezie buried a corner triple to put Army up 10.

The Black Knights were up by as many as 11 before an 8-2 stretch by Colgate pulled the Raiders within five points. Army's lead was 58-53 after a Malcom Regisford slam at 6:46 and the Raiders drew within four with four minutes to play when Rivard scored over Ferguson.

A lay-in by Army's center on the other end gave Army a 66-60 edge, before Wilson nailed a straightaway three-pointer with three minutes left that sealed the eventual 79-72 win.

A 10-0 run to start the game for No. 9 Holy Cross gave the visiting Crusaders a lead they never relinquished in a 60-38 victory over the No. 4 Army West Point men's basketball team on Sunday afternoon at Christl Arena.

The Crusaders earned a spot in the Patriot League Championship with their third straight road victory and ended Army's NCAA Tournament hopes. The Black Knights have the potential to play postseason basketball with their 19-13 record, and the 19 victories are the most since the 1977-78 season.

Kyle Wilson and Tanner Plomb each finished in double figures, with Wilson netting a team-high 12 points and Plomb coming away with 11 points and nine boards. Larry Toomey added five points and nine rebounds and Kevin Ferguson totaled four points and a game-high 11 rebounds.

Robert Champion led the way for the Crusaders (13-19) with 15 points to go along with six boards. Malachi Alexander tallied 13 points and seven rebounds and Anthony Thompson ended the afternoon with 12 points, seven rebounds and five assists.

Holy Cross raced out to a 10-0 lead on consecutive threes by Alexander and Thompson and took advantage of four Army turnovers in the first three minutes. A Wilson three after an offensive rebound put the Black Knights on the board at 16:45. Turnovers haunted the Black Knights throughout the game as they finished with 18 compared to Holy Cross' nine.

Alexander and Plomb traded threes and by the 11-minute mark, Holy Cross had an 18-6 lead following consecutive threes by Matt Husek and Karl Charles.

Holy Cross opened the game 6-for-11 from beyond the arc after consecutive triples by Champion pushed the lead back to 12 (24-12) four minutes later. A Wilson corner jumper pulled Army back within single digits and sparked a 9-2 run for the Black Knights that cut the deficit to 26-21 with 3:20 left. Wilson's third three of the period punctuated the run.

Holy Cross went into halftime with a 34-26 lead after shooting 45.2 percent (14-for-31) from the floor. The Crusaders limited Army to 26.9 percent shooting on the other end (7-for-26). Army had nine first-half turnovers, compared to two for the Crusaders, with Wilson (12) and Plomb (8) combining for 20 points.

Army opened the second half with a three from Larry Toomey, but Holy Cross came back with six straight points to take a 40-29 lead and never looked back.

The run continued when Charles hit threes in opposite corners, surrounding a layup by Toomey. A free throw by Alexander and two Husek free throws extended the spurt and put the Crusaders up by 18 (49-31) with 13 minutes remaining. Three minutes later, a reverse layup by Thompson capped the 17-2 run and extended the lead to 20.

Army never got any closer than 18 the rest of the way in the 22-point loss.
